SCHOLASTIC PUSH-OFF

Because student attendance in October was crucial to school financing, Wellington High School, Junior High and Elementary schools staged a competition, with the winner to receive a weiner roast at Salt Fork. Junior High won with98.92% month-long attendance. Elementary School had 98.55 and High School 96.03%. Junior High Principal Bob Allen, winner, rides the hay-filled trailer that took the Junior High students to the river. Giving the push-off were Elementary Principal, Melvin Cardwell, second from right, and Eddie Hankins, High School Principal, right.

Recount Asked In Sheriff's Race

An application for a recount of ballots cast in the November 6 General Election is due to be filed with the office of the Texas Secretary of State, according to information released Wednesday morning, Nov. 14.

Sheriff Kenneth Maxwell, who lost his write-in race for that office to former Sheriff John Rainey, issued this statement Wednesday :

"We are going to file for a recount, but I do want to emphasize that it was not me that pushed for a recount. It was the people. No one is being accused of any dishonesty. It is because of the confusion from the write-in and straight ticket. But I do want to emphasize that nobody is being accused of dishonesty," Maxwell said.

"I do think there should be a recount to clear up any cloud in the voters minds. I do think that the voice of half the voters in the county should be heard," Maxwell said.

He indicated he would file the application for recount Wednesday.

Rainey could not be reached for a statement, but he has said earlier that he was not worried at the prospect of a recount.

This follows the canvass of the general election ballots by the Commissioners Court Monday and Tuesday Nov. 12 and 13, It brought changes of only a few votes in a number of the races in three election boxes, No. 1, No. 5-6, and No. 8, according to Helen Gollihugn, county-district clerk.

In the contested sheriff's race the total vote following the canvass was 1179 for Rainey and 997 for Maxwell.

The final count released Wednesday Nov. 7, was 1177 for Rainey and 1002 for Maxwell.

The commissioners, in making the canvass, do not open the ballot boxes, but work from returns made by the election judges.

No one on the local level has the legal authority to open any ballot box.

Jim Fling of Shamrock, Maxwell's attorney, reviewed the legal process for requesting a recount:

The application for a recount is filed with the county judge or his agent, along with required affidavits from the candidate requesting the recount. This must be done within 2 days or 48 hours after the commissioners court certifies the election.

Copies of the application are sent to Secretary of State believes there is reason for a recount, he will approve the application and the recounting will be done by four citizens who are qualified votes living in the county. Only then will the ballot boxes be opened.

Basketball Season Opens Nov. 19

Wellington's high school basketball season opens Monday, Nov. 19, when Skyrocket varsity and JV girls travel to Wheeler Coach Don Lacy has announced.

Wheeler boys are still in football, having won their district and advanced to the playoffs.

Starting time Monday will be 5:30 p.m.

Coach Lacy considers this will be a hard game for the Wellington girls. Wheeler Tigerettes won their district last year and went into the playoffs. They have everyone back this year and should be one of the most mature teams of any classification in this part of the Panhandle.

The first home game, and first season game for the boys, will be Tuesday night, Nov. 20, with Childress coming here. Games start at 4 p.m. and there will be four games, Varsity boys and girls and JV boys and girls, Lacy reminded. The Rockets will be playing with only one week of practice after football season.

Both Childress teams were in the playoffs last year "We expect a tough game from them," said Lacy.

"Then we will take a break for Thanksgiving, and our next action will be the Wellington tournament Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 29 - Dec. 1."

Wellington girls have prepared themselves well for the opening of the season.

Their first scrimmage was with Lefors Monday, Nov. 12, when Wellington lead during two quarters and Lefors two.

Their first scrimmage was with Samnorwood Tuesday, Nov. 6, when each team played three quarters.

"We came out on top in all 6," said Lacy. "We had a little more depth than Samnorwood did. It gave both teams some practice and that's what the scrimmages are for.

The JV scrimmaged Lefors Monday night, Nov. 12, with each team winning two quarters.

On Saturday, Nov. 17, Wellington girls will scrimmage Stratford at River Road in a game starting at 10 a.m. Coaches Lacy and Johnson will take approximately 40 girls, both varsity and JV.

The Stratford game will be close, the Wellington coaches believe. They will be facing a team coached by former Rockette coach Dale Morris.

Stratford is picked 1st in District 1-AA and Wellington is picked 1st in 2-AA.

School Accredited Again

The Wellington Independent School district was accredited again this fall in a monitoring visit by the Texas Education Agency, Wellington school board members were told at regular board meeting Monday, Nov. 12 in a written report by the agency.

Four points where corrective action was needed were noted by the monitoring committee, but the school as a whole was in compliance with state regulations.

The four points were:

1) show how each member voted on each action item in school board minutes.

2) update and codify all board policies.

3) reassign teachers in physical education classes so that the person who gives a grade in that class is a qualified instructor.

4) resolve the problem of no science laboratory in junior high.

The monitoring team also noted other "concerns" but did not require corrective action on these points. Among them was:

1) high school science classes too large to allow individual work station use in the lab.

2) upgrading the school's libraries.

3) lack of clerical staff for junior high and elementary principals.

4) lack of cleanliness and poor hot water supply in the field house.

On other agenda items, principals reported their percentage attendance for the October reporting period on which school funding will be based: high school 96.03%, junior high 98.92%, and elementary 98.55%. Supt. Kenneth McKay noted that since 1979 total enrollment has declined 171 students in the district.

High school principal Eddie Hankins reported that 3 students have failed all subjects this fall due to more than 5 unexcused absences, one of the new rules mandated by the legislature this sumer. One student has failed some courses and has been put on a home-study program for disciplinary reasons, Hankins said.

The board voted to tax automobiles along with other personal property on next year's tax rolls. The board must vote each year to keep automobiles on the roll or they are automatically exempt-

AAM Meeting Called Here Friday Night

A national official of American Agriculture Movement and a Texas state AAM official will be in Wellington for an open meeting with Collingsworth farmers Friday, Nov. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in Cherokee Inn Restaurant.

Plans were announced by Danny Davis, a leader in the movement here.

This is one of three meetings to be held by AAM Friday. Officials will be at Childress at 7:30 a.m. at Silversmith Restaurant and at Clarendon at 12 noon at Mary's Country Kitchen.

Other meetings are planned in the Panhandle.

Speakers here and at the other meetings will be V.B. Morris of Gruver, national American Agriculture Movement treasurer, and Marion Garland of Dumas, one of the Texas AAM delegates, according to Davis. There may be others.

Both Morris and Garland are up to date on farm conditions and on what is happening in Washington. This will be a good informational meeting, and everyone interested is invited, according to Davis.

There will be two major points of discussion at the Wellington meeting: the 1985 Farm Program and the problems some farmers are having with Farmers Home Administration. There will be a period for questions on both topics.

"Two hours spent here Friday night might be the difference of your survival. The farm you save might be yours," said Davis.

Charles Darter Elected New Chamber President

Charles Darter was elected 1985 president of Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce during a meeting of the directors Monday evening, Nov. 12.

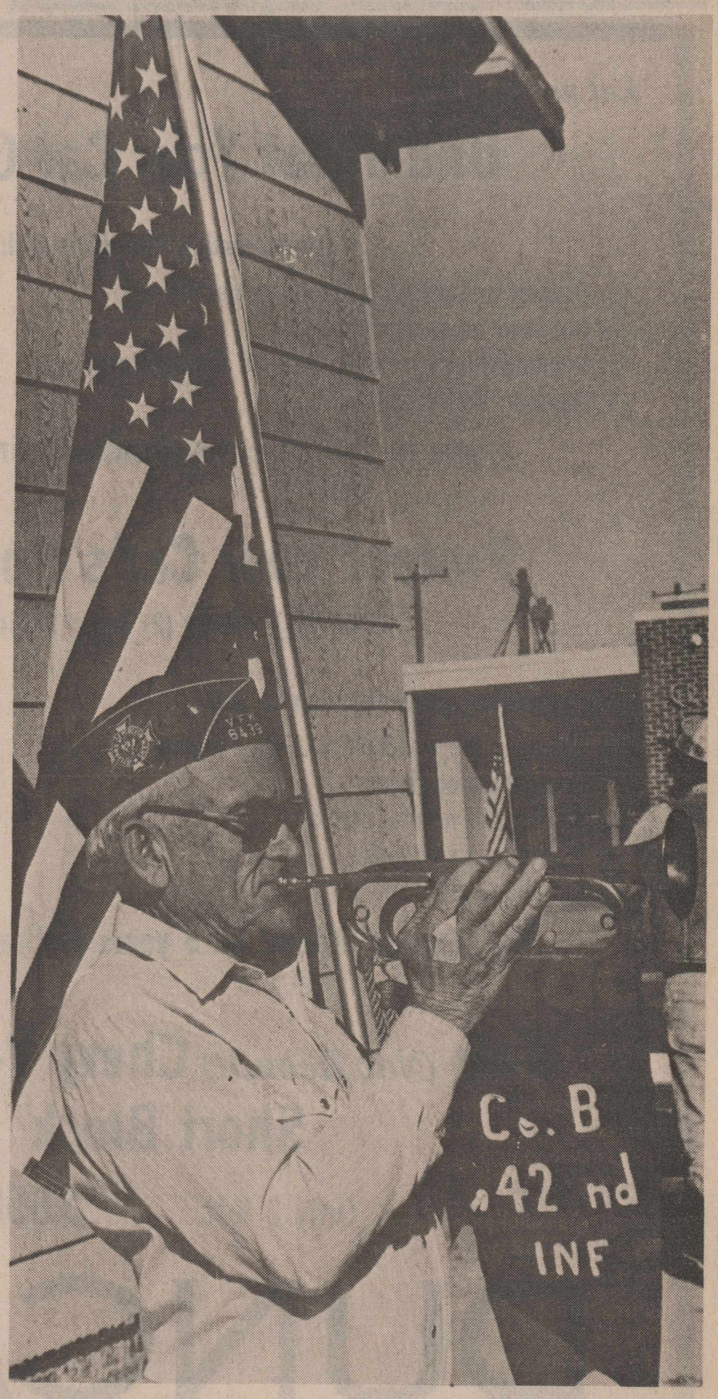

He will begin his term of office January 1, and will succeed Tommy Hudson, who has served two terms. Darter is a Collingsworth County attorney and has served as 1st vice president of the chamber two years.

Yates Parker, a partner in Warrick's Inc., is first vice-president; and Nick Gilley, plant manager of Wellington Industries, is 2nd vice-president; Dorothy McGill, Cablecom manager, returns as treasurer. Margaret Vines is chamber secretary.

Three directors were named for two-year terms: Hudson, Perry Foster, administrator of Collingsworth General Hospital; and Charles Britten, postmaster.

In other business the group discussed the Collingsworth

BLOWING "TAPS"

Raymond Horton bugles a salute at the American Legion's Veteran's Day observance ceremony Monday, Nov. 12. The bugle saw service in World War I in Company B, 142nd Infantry. The Texas National Guard at Coleman, Texas was in possession of the bugle when Horton joined there in 1938. The group made Horton the bugle's custodian, and it saw service with Horton in World War II, although during combat Horton used a plastic, olive drab bugle that did not reflect light for enemy spotters.

1984: Rockets in Review

Now they're ready to give the 1985 teams something of what they've been receiving.

Head Coach James Williams reviewed the 1984 Skyrocket season.

"We had the toughest schedule in our non-district games the Rockets have had since I've been their coach here," he declares.

Out of those 5 (non-district) games, including Hollis, Mangum, Childress, Panhandle and Hale Center, all those teams reached the playoffs this year," Williams pointed out.

"So we were up against those teams with a lot of young kids. Some of these young kids gained a lot of valuable experience, especially those who will be back for us next season."

Only four of this year's Rockets will graduate: Jamie McKay, Michael Souder, James Benton, Geronimo Molina. It is the smallest loss by graduation in recent years.

"We feel like, when we entered district play, we had a chance to go to the playoffs if we did it right. So after losing those first 5 games, we came back and won the first district game against Quanah, and I feel if you win the first one, it's real important.

"We traveled the next week to play White Deer and lost a close game to them, and I feel this game was the key to our success in the district race, for we were so close but did not win.

"The following week we dropped a close one to Memphis and after these two losses, it took a lot out of the kids. With what they had been through in non-district, it drained them a little bit. But I will say this, for a bunch of kinds who had been down, they gave it a tremendous effort. But through last week, getting out at the workouts and hanging in there, I'm as proud of them as I am of some other teams in the past, they gave it everything they had.

Williams looked to 1985:

"With 17 returning lettermen, plus some outstanding football players on our JV team, we feel a lot of teams we played this year were senior-dominated teams, and we know we were in a rebuilding year. It looks a lot brighter for next year.

With the returning lettermen and the young kids off JV, the Rockets should be out and ready to get after it next season.

The coach reviewed some losses:

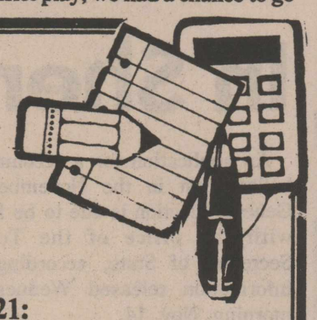

"Early in the year the Rockets lost some kids to grades. When playing is tough from week to week, it's hard to prepare for a game," he commented.

Then there were injuries:

"Kendall Harris was lost by a broken arm during the Quanah game and was out for the rest of the season," recalls Williams. "Then Kelly Goforth went out with a broken hand; Kenny Peeks received a concussion and missed a few games; and Geronimo Molina's knee injury kept him out a couple of weeks. Pre-season surgery kept James Benton on the bench several weeks.

"Of course, it was a year of ups and downs." And Coach Williams returned to his first thought, "Everything that could happen, did happen to us. But in spite of this, everybody played hard."

Extended Coverage

Modern space heaters provide convenient on-the-spot warmth where you need it. Used improperly, though, they may pose a fire hazard. The Consumer Products Safety Commission offers some safety tips:

* * *

Make sure the heater you buy is approved by a recognized testing agency (U.L., for instance). Many of the safer models feature an automatic shut-off device in case the unit is tipped over.

* * *

Follow manufacturer's directions for the use of the heater and its maintenance. Most should be inspected and cleaned periodically.

* * *

Use the fuel recommended for your particular heater. Kerosene should not be used in a wood-burning stove, nor wood in a kerosene heater. Keep the heater away from flammable materials and be sure ventilation is adequate.

* * *

Safety tip: If you use a space heater--and even if you don't--install a smoke alarm on each floor of your home.

* * *

Another safety tip: make sure your fire insurance is adequate to cover all your belongings. Check it out at 1st Wellington Agency.

WHS Students Vote in "General Election"

BY WES REEVES

The elections on November 6 sparked interest not only in Wellington voters, but also in the students of Wellington High School.

To see just how much interest, the high school GATE (Gifted and Talented) class held a mock election at the high school on November 5.

The GATE class got the idea for the election at a seminar held for them by the Region XVI Service Center and WTSU on WT Campus Oct. 31.

The seminar was entitled "The History and Structure of Our Political System."

It focused mainly on the structure and platforms of Democratic and Republican Parties, Jeff Blackburn, an Amarillo lawyer presented ideas and platforms of the Democratic party, and Mrs. Diane Denman the vice chairman of the Republican Party of Texas, presented the platform of the Republican Party.

In the seminar the students got ideas for their election, and before they returned to Wellington everything had been planned.

The polls opened before classes began Monday morning and were open all day. The high school students voted on a sample ballot which contained all the candidates that were to be voted on Tuesday's election.

The presidential election, President Reagan easily won over Democratic Candidate Walter Mondale, taking 77% of the vote while Mondale had only 23%.

Incumbent Jack Hightower, took 54% of the vote, in the U.S. House of Representatives Race, beating Beau Boulter, who had 46% of the vote.

The students also voted on local elections.

In the sheriff's race, John Rainey received 72% percent of the vote and write-in candidate Kenneth Maxwell received 28%.

Ann Wauer won the tax assessor-collectors contest with 67% of the vote beating two write-in candidates Patsy Barnett with 30% and Mary Lou Souder with 3%

The election counts as a seminar project for the GATE students and has helped them to understand the election process.

The students participating were Holly Wilson, Heath Ingram, Traci Hunnicutt, Mike Myrick, Brian Van Pelt, Wes Reeves, Jay Anders, and Leslie Hammons.

Mrs. Deanna Van Pelt, GATE coordinator, helped plan the election.

Craig Needham, DeeDee Heisler Wed in Church Ceremony Oct. 27

In a candlelight setting in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church, Wellington, DeeDee Rose Heisler and Steven Craig Needham exchanged wedding vows Saturday, October 27, at four in the afternoon. Haun Kite, minister of the Church of Christ, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Bowen of 1120 Perry Street, Pampa, formerly of Wellington. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Needham, 1010 Childress Street.

Two nine-branched candelabras and two seven branched candelabras held lighted white tapers, and at the center, an arch was entwined with foliage and accented with peach carnations and statice.

Peach colored satin bows marked the aisles.

Wedding music was presented by Kathleen Reeves of Amarillo, pianist. She also accompanied Mrs. Joe Wood and Mrs. Jackie Needham of Levelland as they sang "The Wedding Song," "Let There be Love," "Always" and "Forever."

Mr. Bowen gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride selected a formal gown of organza and bridal taffeta designed with a portrait neckline of Alencon lace, a fitted basque bodice enhanced by lace appliques, a dropped waistline and Juliet sleeves tapered to lace over her wrists. Her skirt fell to a ruffled hemline and swept into a full cathedral train, enhanced by a ruffled paneled back with a back waistline bow. Seed pearls were scattered over her bodice front.

She wore a wide brimmed hat covered in lace which swept up on one side and was accented with clusters of flowers and ropes of pearls. Lace motifs covered the brim and veiling fell from the back pouffs to complete her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of peach colored roses tied with white satin streamers, atop a Bible covered with lace and satin which belonged to the bride's grandmother.

Rhonda Heisler of Pampa, the bride's sister, was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Becky Saied and Belinda Crelia, both of Lubbock. The attendants wore formal length dresses of plum honey satin, designed with ruffled off-the-shoulder necklines and natural waists accented with a single self-fabric rose. The slender skirts featured a tuxedo look with slit in back. The headpieces were a ring of peach and plum flowers with ribbon streamers. Each attendant carried a globe with lighted candle inside with a flower arrangement of peach and plum colored flowers.

Kevin Needham was his brother's best man and groomsmen were Jon Sessions of Canyon and Jackie Needham, brother of the bridegroom of Levelland.

Ushering the guests were Doug Gibson of Dallas, cousin of the bridegroom, Dannie Morris, Ronnie Heisler of Pampa, brother of the bride, and Daryon Brown, nephew of the bridegroom.

Candles were lighted by Derek Brown, of Wichita Falls and Jason Needham of Levelland, both nephews of the bridegroom. The flower girls were Amber Needham of Levelland, niece of the bridegroom and Sharece Ingram of Pampa, the bride's cousin. They were dressed like the bride's attendants. Clint Ingram of Pampa, the bride's cousin, was the ring bearer. Wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Melvin Brandon of Wichita Falls, sister of the bridegroom.

Reception guests were served by Liz Brewer, Jennifer Pendleton of Canyon, Mrs. Kevin Hall of San Angelo, Mrs. Jacen Jeffrey and Cathy Crelia.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Wellington High School and attended Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State University in Canyon.

The bridegroom is a 1978 graduate of Wellington High School. He also attended West Texas State University and is now associated with his father at Jack's Body Shop in Wellington.

Yogurt Makes Good Lol-Cal Substitute

Yogurt makes an excellent low-fat substitution for a number of high-fat ingredients, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Mary K. Sweeten. Low-fat plain yogurt works well as a substitute for sour cream in cold dips. It can also be used to stretch mayonnaise in coleslaw, tuna and potato salads and dressings. Yogurt can be used in place of sour cream in cooked foods. To keep it from separating and becoming watery, just wisk some flour into it before cooking, she says. Or you can add the yogurt after removing the cooked food from the stove. If you need extra incentive, Sweeten says to remember that per cup, low fat plain yogurt has only 150 calories, whereas sour cream has more than 450 and mayonnaise more than 1500, mostly fat.

If a 170 pound man expended energy at the rate of the tiny hummingbird he would have to eat 285 pounds of hamburger or twice his weight in potatoes each day in order to maintain his weight.

GOLD STAR WINNERS

4-H Gold Stars Among Those Honored

CANYON --Forty-two outstanding members of 4-H Clubs in 20 Panhandle counties were honored here Saturday night with the coveted Gold Star Award. And the youths were challenged by Dallam County Attorney Ron Enns, himself a former Gold Star winner, to view their honor as a responsibility to continue using their leadership abilities to help others.

Joining the youths at the awards banquet in the cafeteria at West Texas State University were parents, government officials, Extension leaders, fellow 4-Her's, educators and other community leaders.

Honored from Collingsworth County were Julie Caldwell of Wellington; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caldwell of Wellington, and Sandy Henard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Henard of Samnorwood.

Enns told the 4-Hers, parents and friends that his own experience had played a major part in his life. "If it wasn't for 4-H, I wouldn't be here tonight," he said.

"Four-H taught me that short, ugly people with freckles can stand up in front of people and do something," he said, explaining that as a short, freckled boy, he had learned confidence and skills from his 4-H activity.

"A lot of you think your 4-H career is almost over, but it's not," he told the youths. He said their actions and examples are always being watched by younger 4-her's and others in their communities.

"You're not just getting an honor, you're getting a responsibility. That responsibility is to take this leadership home and do something with it," he challenged.

Enns told the audience there are many types of leaders. He urged the youths to be the type of leaders who do things because they want to help others, not the "glory seekers" who do things for what they can get from their actions.

And he urged the boys and girls to disdain mediocrity." There is a lot of pressure right now to be 'average', not to do any more than you have to. If everybody was average, there wouldn't be any Gold Star banquets, because no one would be outstanding There would be no fine universities, because no one would go. There would be no advances, no new ideas." And he cautioned the young leaders that even though they might do something better than it was ever done before, their effort would still be mediocre unless it was their own effort.

Master of ceremonies was Bobby Martin, president, district council, Carson County. Guests were welcomed by Tommy Weemes of the Deaf Smith Electric Cooperatives, one of the six electric cooperatives which sponsor the banquet annually. The others are Rita Blanca, North Plains, Swisher, Greenbelt and Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Donald White, Administrative Assistant for Greenbelt Electric attended as a gesture of their support to the 4-H program.

The awards were presented by Mrs. Sue Farris and Paul Gross, district Extension directors.

Dinner music was presented by "Hard Country", a country rock band of Gray County youths. Members of the band are Roy Lott, Misty Greer, Mike Phillis and Rebecca Venable. Also on the program were 4-H members Jean Leven of Carson County, Jan Spencer of Moore County, Jeff Walters of Hutchinson County, Cyndi Starkey of Moore County and Camille Farris of Dallam County, Kris deKeratry of Potter County, Roxan Tillery of Sherman County.

4-H is the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, an educational arm of the Texas A&M University System.

County 4-H Food Show Set

4-H'ers will match foods-and-nutrition expertise against each other in the Collingsworth County 4-H Food Show, Saturday, November 17.

About 20 youth will compete in the senior and junior divisions, according to Mrs. Nancy Janes, County Extension agent, Home Economics.

Entries will be on public display at 4:00 p.m. in the Bura Handley Community Building in Wellington. At this time awards will be presented to the top winners in each age division and category. These winners will advance to District competition to be held December 1, 1984 at the Dumas High School in Dumas, Texas. Everyone attending the Awards program will be able to taste each entry and get a copy of the recipe.

Senior-division entrants are ages 14-19, while junior-division youth are ages 9-13.

For the contest, each 4-H entrant will compete in one of four classes, including main dish, fruits and vegetables, breads, and nutritious snacks and desserts.

"Because the foods and nutrition program focuses on nutrition, each contestant will have to demonstrate what she knows about nutrition, meal planning, food buying, as well as preparation techniques," Mrs. Janes explains.

4-Hers who have completed a food and nutrition project and are eligible for competition are: Junior, Hattie Blacksher, Shari Floyd, Kristi Huff, Jana Pruitt, Amy Ward, Kimi Henard, Holly Hudson, Shannon White, Dana Langford, Diana Lindsey, Marla Keller, Charity Gray, Chasity Gray, Candace Sexton, Shelia Costilla, Jennifer Floyd, Shelly Thomas, Carrie Langford, Misty Burge, D'Nae Keller, Dione Moore, and Rachelle Ford. Senior, Nicole Keller, Lesa White and Julie Caldwell.

Collingsworth County 4-H Food Show is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Collingsworth County Extension Homemaker Clubs, I.G.A. and City Grocery.

Microwave Cooking Extends Milk Life

Consumers can use their microwave ovens to restore fresh taste to week-old milk without affecting its nutritional value, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service food and nutrition specialist. Researchers at Cornell University have tested microwave heating as a way to kill the souring bacteria that develop in milk, reports Dr. Dymple Cooksey. Their tests show that a two-minute treatment at 2450 MHz reduces the bacteria in a cup of 10-day old milk to the level present in fresh milk. Milk may develop an off-flavor long before it is actually unsafe to drink, she says. But microwave heating of pasteurized milk when it is eight to eleven days old reduces the bacteria which cause the off-taste.

Sondra Mimms, Lynn Tate Plan December Wedding

The couple will be married January 19, 1985, at Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock.

The bride-elect is a 1980 graduate of Levelland High School and a 1984 graduate of Texas Tech and is presently employed at Buchanan and Associates in Lubbock.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1981 graduate of Samnorwood High School and will graduate in December from Texas Tech.

Low Fat Cooking Key to a Healthier Way of Living

COLLEGE STATION - A change in your cooking methods may help protect you and your family against heart disease, hypertension and other health problems, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Mary K. Sweeten.

"Lowering the percentage of fat in the diet appears to be one of the major keys to a more healthful lifestyle," she explains.

The specialist recommends reducing butter, margarine, oil, mayonnaise, lard and salad dressing. To adapt your favorite recipe, start by cutting fat by a third or a half.

For example, in a casserole calling for 6 tablespoons of margarine, try 3 or 4. Or if a muffin recipe suggests a cup of oil, try 3/4 of a cup. If that works, use only 2/3 the next time around.

"You should experiment," says Sweeten. "Cutting the fat in cakes can be difficult, but you should have success with most casseroles and quick bread recipes."

When recipes call for onions, green pepers, mushrooms or other vegetables to be sauteed in oil or butter, you can often cut the amount of fat in half or leave it out entirely. Just add several tablespoons of water or broth. Then steam in a coverd pot.

Sweeten says you don't even need fat to make an acceptable roux or gravy. Brown flour in a slow oven or in a heavy pan on top of the stove, stirring constantly. Cool, and then slowly add cold water or broth.

After it is smoothly blended, stir the mixture constantly over medium heat until it comes to a boil and thickens. You can make a white sauce or pudding the same way by adding cold milk or fruit juice directly to flour or corn starch.

Another way to reduce the fat in your diet is to trim the fat from meat edges and remove the skin from poultry. Also, broil or bake meat on a rack so that the fat drips off.

Brown ground beef and then drain well in a colander before you add other ingredients. Chill soups overnight and remove hardened fat.

Scoopin'

The holiday season is almost here and it's time to dig out those special recipes. When I was growing up one of my favorites was "tea cakes," soft sugar cookies whose only source known to me was my cousin Rose Wells' kitchen. There were plenty of homemade cinnamon rolls, regular "hard" sugar cookies, and delicious chocolate chips in my mother's and my aunt's cookie jars, but Rose's house, where the Jerol Morrises live now at 12th and Amarillo Streets, was the only place to find a tea cake. (A little digression here: the ultimate treat was not a cookie on those elementary afternoons, but a slice of my grandmother's homemade bread with some homemade plum butter spread over it, and a couple of pieces of cold, lean, hard-rind bacon left over from Grandmother and Aunt Hattie D.'s breakfast. Mmmm, still sounds good to me.)

I saw Rose at a family reunion this summer and not only did she make me some tea cakes but she wrote down the recipe. Here it is, guaranteed to place an elementary student in the palm of your hands.

ROSE WELLS' TEA CAKES

1 cup shortening (1/2 butter, 1/2 Crisco)
1 1/2 cups sugar
Mix shortening and sugar and add:
1/2 cup buttermilk with 1/2 teaspoon soda
2 eggs
Stir all together, and add:
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 1/2 cups all purpose flour
Drop by teaspoon on greased and floured cookie sheet.
Bake in 350 degree oven just until they start to brown. Good luck.

I will consent to sample any attempts and let you know if they are up to standards.

I saw a 1950's picture of the courthouse square this week and the pecan trees that now grace the courthouse lawn and keep Johnny Roberts busy picking up their fruit were saplings then. It's a reminder that almost every tree we enjoy today in Wellington had to be planted by someone---a natural Redwood forest Collingsworth County is not. So, with cold weather on the way, it's time for each of us to be thinking about tree planting this winter. If each one of us would plant just 1 tree this winter, the Collingsworth County spring would blossom with 4,000 new trees to delight the eye, give shelter from the storm, and shade us from the summer sun. Let's each think of a spot to plant our tree this winter, and the type we want to set out. And here's a suggestion for the City Council: let's pass an ordinance that requires anyone who cuts down a tree to plant two the following year.

A lead story from the New York Times News Service in this morning's Amarillo Daily News reported that one of the "problem" areas that needed to be considered for budget cuts was spending on farm price supports. The writing of the 1985 farm bill by the Congress and the administration this spring probably will have more effect on the economy of Collingsworth County than any other single factor in the next four years. We should pay close attention to how our elected representatives speak out and vote on the '85 farm bill.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

Today Texas is one of the fastest growing states in America. With a steadily rising population in the Texas Panhandle, we have come to depend more and more on the highway system linking our area with the economic markets of Texas as well as the rest of the country. We must strive to maintain the quality of Texas' highways in order to assure that we can promptly move the agricultural products of our area into the mainstream of commerce. Meeting the needs of this continued growth requires an upgrading of current roadways and construction of new highways to ensure quality and safety when travelling across the Panhandle.

Many new and important highway projects have been recently announced for the Texas Panhandle in the upcoming year. Many of these new and needed projects have been made possible by the recent increase in highway user fees to support added highway construction. The current total amount of highway funds directed for highway projects in the Texas Panhandle for the coming year is an estimated $136 million.

In our next few columns, we will begin to inform the public of the specific highway projects and the general area that will be benefited by the new construction. We will start today with an overview of just a few of the larger construction and repair projects scheduled for the Panhandle.

Currently approved for work in the Amarillo area is the repair of U.S. Highway 287 east and west of Claude. At a cost of nearly $9 million, the repair will correct many of the worn and dangerous parts of the highway. Also scheduled for major repair are U.S. Highways 87 and 54 near Dalhart in Dallam and Hartley Counties. Budgeted at around $4.2 million, these repairs will greatly enhance the highway network in the Texas Panhandle.

Additionally, over $30 million has been allocated for base and surfacing work on IH 27 in Randall and Swisher Counties. These two projects call for major repair work on IH 27 between Kress and Canyon, Texas.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The Lone Star State is once again a two-party state, and this time it's probably for keeps.

Last week's Reagan-Gramm sweep brought with it some 14 turnovers in the Texas House of Representatives for the Republicans, two more state senators, and numerous sheriffs, county judges and other local officials across the state.

The new GOP members of the Texas Legislature bring the Republican bloc totals to 52 in the House and nine in the Senate.

Liberal Democrats were seemingly wiped out in many areas, including Austin, and a good many conservative Democrats fell victim to the coattail tidal wave which originated in the White House and spread from sea to shining sea.

Although Reagan's popularity overwhelmed the nation, the Republican gains in other states were not near as heavy as in Texas. Good Democratic public officials thrown out with the wash in congressional races included Jack Hightower of Vernon, Bill Patman of Ganado and Dan Kubiak of Bryan-College Station.

While some political observers attributed the sweep to an overreaction on the part of independents tired of liberal dogma, no one contested the probability that the GOP will two years from now field an organized slate at the county and city levels.

Key Leadership

That very prospect has a divided Texas Democratic Party worried. Like the proverbial donkey that had to be hit with a two-by-four, the Democrats—conservatives, moderates and liberals alike—are very concerned about their party's future.

The liberals, who only a few days ago were calling the shots for the party, have fallen from grace, including Lloyd Doggett and his top backer, Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower. Doggett won his hometown—Austin—by an insignificant margin, but lost two of his local lieutenants in state house races there. Already Doggett's negative campaign style and liberal philosophy are blamed for the resounding defeat by those eager to replace him with Democratic leadership.

Compared to Reagan's leadership, which promised opportunity for the next four years, Doggett's attack on Gramm paled. And many Democrats angrily remember it was only last spring that Doggett leveled a barrage of personal attacks against Bob Krueger and Kent Hance in the primary.

Moderation Next?

If this were a season for polarization in which moderates of both parties found no comfortable ground, will the pendulum swing as they both struggle to commandeer the middle ground?

That middle ground, so commonly labeled as conservative Democrats, is actually made up of a large number of middle-class independents: ticket splitters. They provide the weight behind the pendulum swing, and last week they swung heavily behind the GOP in Texas. It may be that two years from now, as the parties vie for the slate of statewide offices, that this group will be wooed as never before, bringing both parties more to the middle.

Party Leaders

The Texas Republican Party Chairman, George Strake, predicted the victory has begun to realign the electorate to allow Republicans to carry the conservative banner in this state.

Strake left no doubts as to his intent to target statewide Democratic officials for defeat, and a full slate of Republicans, well-financed and with '84 momentum, will probably appear in '86 elections.

Texas Democrats aren't exactly rolling over to play dead. Even before the election results cooled off, Gov. Mark White told reporters it was time for a "new foundation" in the Texas Democratic party, a statement of no great genius.

But White, himself, is considered by many of his own party to be one of the most vulnerable of Democrats, especially since he endorsed a tax hike last summer to pay for education reforms.

Also considered highly vulnerable is Hightower, whose base is almost identical to Doggett's and whose speeches are grating the nerves of real farmers and ranchers, and Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox, a feisty, unapologetic liberal who faces trial in February on commercial bribery charges. Considered somewhat safe are Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Land Commissioner Garry Mauro and Treasurer Ann Richards because of their records of production. Much depends on how Mauro and Richards interact with the conservative wing.

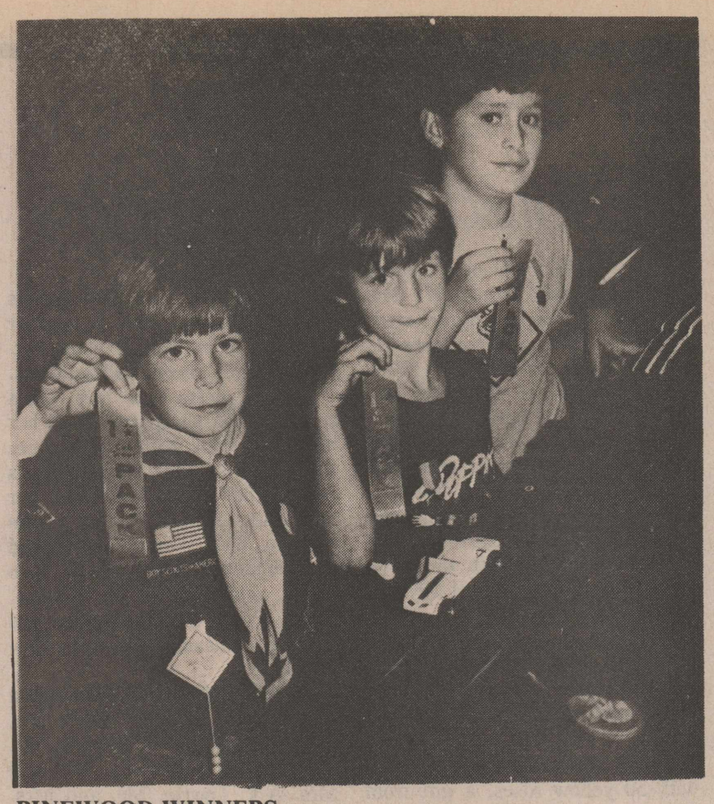

Future Prospects

One thing the Republicans lack is a large stable of proven public servants, those who have worked their way up the ladder, but they certainly have a good new crop now and who knows how far the tidal wave will carry.

For '86 campaigning, the Democrats are already talking of bringing up Congressman Kent Hance of Lubbock to soothe conservatives, gratify West Texas and replace the lost liberal elite.

Then, too, Democrats still have two of the nations top fundraisers in Hobby and U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, both conservatives.

The Texas Legislature goes into session in a little more than two months, and then next June the behind scenes campaigning begins anew. The '86 season should be fascinating for voters.

Join Great American Smoke-Out Thursday, Cancer Society Urges

Collingsworth County Cancer Society urges every smoker in the county to join in the Great American Smokeout for just one day--Thursday, Nov. 15.

This message was relayed by Edith Brown, president of the local unit.

The Wellington unit will not have a special program on Thursday, as all members work, but the Senior Citizens Club is distributing material urging area people to join the smokeout.

Mrs. Brown cited the smoking cost to Texans of $1 billion per year.

She also cited information released in Texas Medicine:

The figure includes the cost of health care, accidental fires, and lost work days attributed to smoking, note three health promotion experts.

"Chronic, heavy cigarette smoking is widely recognized as a major contributor to the burden of disease in the United States," they write in the November issue of the Texas Medical Association's journal.

The article is by Alfred McAlister, PhD, and Sam A. Nixon, MD, of The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston, and Curtis Dickson, administrator for the Beaumont City Health Department.

They note that recent efforts to designate a portion of the state cigarette tax for cancer research, anti-smoking programs, and health promotion have failed in the Texas Legislature. Only about $40,000 in state funding is available for programs to discourage smoking, they say, while about $5 million is designated for educating the public about alcohol and drug abuse.

The most effective programs to prevent smoking are aimed at teen-agers by reinforcing their intentions not to smoke, the writers say. "Research has shown that these programs can reduce by half the number who start smoking and may deter the use of alcohol and marijuana as well."

They say using a portion of the cigarette tax to fund anti-smoking programs is justified in at least two ways: Smokers should be responsible for supporting efforts to help them give up the habit. And the state should not gain tax revenue from a health-endangering habit unless some of the revenues are used to avoid that danger.

Although the Legislature voted this year to increase the state cigarette tax by two cents per pack, none of the new funding will go toward health education.

In late 1983, a survey by the Public Policy Resources Laboratory at Texas A&M University found that 71 percent of Texans favored new taxes on tobacco and alcohol, including 58 percent of smokers. "Lower-income smokers were not more likely than higher-income smokers to oppose the idea," the Texas Medicine article says.

In a related editorial, Democratic state Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena notes that Congress recently allowed the federal cigarette tax to decrease by 8 cents per pack despite research indicating that higher cigarette prices discourage smoking.

Brooks is a member of the Legislative Task Force on Cancer in Texas, which is making recommendations to the next two sessions of the Legislature.

JV Downs Shamrock, Ends With 3-Way Tie

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity defeated Shamrock 14-8 and ended the season in a three-way tie for second place.

Tied with Wellington were Memphis and Shamrock.

White Deer was district 2-AA JV champion while Clarendon placed 5th and Quanah 6th, Coach Tommy Johnson announced.

In the Shamrock game, Wellington scored in the second quarter when Alex Johnson made a touchdown on a 40 yard run around end. The extra point was missed (6-0).

That was all the scoring in the first half. Wellington's defense played well and held Shamrock on the one foot line just before the half to keep the Irish JV from getting the ball in.

There was no scoring in the 3rd period and most of the play in midfield.

At one time the Wellington defense held Shamrock on the one-yard line. Then the Rockets got the ball and carried it to the Shamrock 20 and fumbled. That set up the Shamrock score that did not come until early in the 4th period. This was on a Shamrock pass of about 10 yards. They made the extra points (8-6, Shamrock).

With three minutes left in the game, Wellington got the ball and had one run of 40 yards by Johnson, and that got the Rockets to Shamrock's 30. James McIntosh scored a touchdown on a 25 yard run around end.

Alex made the extra point. Shamrock got the ball back and began a series of passes to add yardage. Shawn Cobb intercepted a pass with 15 seconds left and Wellington held onto the ball until the game was over.

Shawn had a real good game, both offensively and defensively, Johnson said. James and Alex also ran well, and the whole defense looked pretty good, holding the Shamrock boys a number of times when the Irish were in scoring position, Coach Johnson remarked.

Skyrockets Crush Shamrock, 34-6

The Wellington Skyrockets rolled to a 34-6 vistory over the Shamrock Irish in the final game of the season at Powell Field Friday, Nov. 9.

The Rockets got off to a fast start on Shamrock's second possession when Skyrocket Ruben Cantu dropped the Shamrock halfback for a 1 yard loss, followed on second down by Arthur Pennon throwing the Irish quarterback for a 7-yard loss. On third down the Skyrocket defensive secondary read a screen pass perfectly and it dropped incomplete. On fourth down, Shamrock centered the ball over the punter's head and the Rockets took possession on the Shamrock 23.

Five plays later Johnny Nash carried 5 yards to put the Rockets on the scoreboard with 3:05 to play in the first quarter. The Rockets were penalized on an extra point run, and then an extra point kick attempt fell wide, leaving Wellington with a 6-0 lead in the first quarter.

James Benton recovered a Shamrock fumble to kill the next Irish drive. Then in the second quarter the Rockets put together a 55-yard, 12-play drive on the ground that ended with Johnny Nash's second touchdown of the evening. An extra points pass from Michael Souder to James Benton made the score 14-0.

The Irish came back with a 64-yard drive, keyed by a 26-yard gallop by Mike O'Gorman and 15 and 18-yard passes from Randall Hugg to Derek Smith and Phillip Thompson, with 22 seconds to play in the half. From the 11, Hugg tossed the ball to Tracy Torisk, who caught the pass in the midst of several Skyrockets and twisted his way into the end zone, dragging a Skyrocket defender with him. An extra-point pass failed, and the halftime score stood at 14-6.

Shamrock recovered a Skyrocket fumble on Wellington's initial possession after the half. But Shamrock fumbled back 3 plays later and Johnny Nash recovered for the Rockets on the Shamrock 43.

The Rockets moved to the 1-yard line in 6 plays, and quarterback Michael Souder carried the ball for the touchdown to make it 20-6 with 7:57 to play in the third period. An extra point pass was out of bounds.

The Rockets took their next possession on the 20-yard line. Johnny Nash made a 2-yard gain on 1st down, but the second time out he broke the Irish defense at left end and dashed 78 yards for a touchdown. The extra point run failed and the Rockets held a 26-6 lead in the third quarter.

Shamrock came back with a 60-yard drive that came as close as the 1 yard line before a Wellington goal line stand held off an Irish score.

Kacy Davis recovered an Irish fumble on Shamrock's next possession, and the Rockets moved to the Shamrock 2 where the Irish mounted a goal line stand that forced Wellington to turn over the ball after four tries inside the 10. But two plays later Wellington defenders caught the Irish behind the goal line for a safety to make the score 28-6.

Wellington took the kickoff from the 20 at the Shamrock 42. And 7 plays later James Benton dashed 13 yards for the final Skyrocket touchdown of the season. An extra-point run was shy of the mark and the final score was Wellington 34, Shamrock 6.

8th Grade 2nd in District

Eighth grade Firecrackers defeated Shamrock Junior High 42-16 and ended the junior high season ranked second in the district, with a 5-4 record.

As Shamrock has only one junior high team, Wellington 8th and 7th grades played as one team.

Shamrock scored in the first quarter with a run around the Firecrackers right side and their extra point was good.

Wellington scored in the first period, when Carter Nash went around right side for a 30 yard run but the try for extra point failed and Shamrock led 6-8.

Again in the first quarter, Wellington's Shane Black caught a pass from Thomas Crytser and the play was good for 50 yards and a touchdown. Again the extra point failed and at the end of the first period Wellington led 12-8.

Again in the second Wellington scored on another wedge play with Nash carrying the ball over the left side. As the extra point try was no good, Wellington's lead was 26-8.

In the second half, an all-7th grade team went in and scored a touchdown around left end with Kendle Ford carrying for the 7-yard run. Jeff Thomas made the extra points on a run around left side. (34-8)

Shamrock made its second touchdown in the third quarter to narrow the margin a bit. (34-16)

The 8th grade returned to the field and just before the final buzzer sounded, a half back pass from Carter Nash to Rex Henard covered about 35 yards and put the ball on Shamrock's four yard line with four seconds left to play.

Nash went over on a dive play for the touchdown and the extra points were made on a pass from Crytser to Davy Mithclo, giving a final score 42-16.

Also in this game Bobby Wilkerson recovered a fumble and Marvin Lynch intercepted a pass. Memo Torrez was in on 5 tackles on kickoffs and punts, and Allen Ray was in on the sack of the punter.

Thank You

I would like to say Thank You to everyone that voted and supported me in the election for Tax Assessor-Collector.

Running as a write-in candidate is very hard and I really appreciate all the help that so many of my friends gave me.

I would especially like to thank Rita Conner for the letters that she sent out for me at Samnorwood, my family, Donnie, Susan, Keith, Randy and Brandi for all their encouragement, and especially my Mother who rode many miles with me over Collingsworth County.

May God Bless All of You

The annual county wide Thanksgiving religious service will be sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance Sunday, Nov. 18, at 6:30 p.m.

New Life Assembly of God will be the host church.

One part of this service will be a free-will offering by the congregation, with the proceeds to go to the Ministerial Alliance work among needy transients.

This is one of two times each year that such an offering is made, explained the Rev. Larry Boyd, pastor of New Life Assembly of God.

Jamie Johnson of 1st United Methodist Church will lead the singing and there will be special music by Ron Long, minister of youth and music at First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Leroy Walker, pastor of Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church will preach the Thanksgiving sermon.

The public is invited to attend.

National Honor Society Begins Selection Process

The National Honor Society of Wellington High School will distribute information forms to all newly eligible WHS students this week.

Eddie Hankins, high school principal, has averaged each student's grades in the sophomore, junior and senior classes and all students with an 88 cumulative scholastic average have been considered for membership by the WHS faculty council.

Chapter advisor, Deanna Van Pelt, and the principal, Hankins, are ex-officio members of the Council. In addition to scholarship qualities of leadership, service and character are factors.

Activity information forms will be given to the eligible WHS students at a brown bag luncheon meeting this week. WHS membership with its responsibilities and privileges will be explained to prospective members by the chapter advisor and the 1984-85 officers: Vanda Wood, president; Kim Castleberry, treasurer; Trudy Baker, historian and parliamentarian, Rudy Torrez, secretary, and Tommy Cochran, reporter.

Forms will be turned in after Thanksgiving to be reviewed by the faculty council for final selection.

Formal invitations will be mailed to the selected students inviting them to a NHA induction ceremony in the near future. The new chapter will have a social event before starting on their annual service project of the Academic Fair for grades K-12, during Public School Week in March 1985.

"I love being a woman. It hurts me that so many women seem to doubt their value and their worth."

Bestselling author

JOYCE LANDORF

We tend to see the women of the Bible as either super-spiritual . . . or super-sinners. They weren't. They were very human — very real. Scripture has painted life-like portraits of women who had hurts and pains — women who slipped and fell — women God forgave and blessed.

Bestselling author Joyce Landorf has put herself into the sandals of Eve, Jochebed, Rahab, Abigail, and Bathsheba, creating character sketches to show how she thinks each would have confronted the trauma, emotions and excitements of life today.

He Began With Eve is a book that will bring beauty, worth and dignity to women.

Take a Second Look

On your first look, you may think that this little girl is riding a rocking horse, but look again. It is not a rocking horse but a little donkey.

About animals now, and children. Donkeys were one of the first animals to be tamed by man, and are gentle animals when they are not practicing the quality of being stubborn.

The quality of gentleness somehow reminds us of our Saviour, the Wonderful One.

Parents, teach your children about Jesus, who admonished us to let the little children come unto Him. Our Lord would remind us that the little ones are precious to the Father. We invite you to take the children to church this week.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH ... THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT

by Don Reeves

Farm-City Week is Nov. 16-22

"Farm and City: Partners in Progress" is the theme of this year's Farm-City Week Nov. 16-22.

Purpose of the observance is to focus on the teamwork of farm and city people as partners in the growing, processing, marketing and consumption of food and fiber.

In other words, Farm-City is aimed at promoting better understanding between farm and city people and increasing the knowledge and appreciation of each for the American way of life.

Farm-City Week is under the direction of the National Farm-City Council, Inc., which is coordinated by Kiwanis International.

Agricultural production, marketing and processing provides jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force in Texas.

One out of every 35 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and 30 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products.

Total cash receipts from Texas agricultural sales were about $9 billion in 1983, down about $1 billion from last year due to the PIK-reduced crop acreage. Economic activity generated from these marketings exceeded $33 billion.

Total farm assets in Texas are estimated at $92 billion. With 185,000 farms in Texas, assets average almost a half million dollars per farm. Many commercial size, full-time operators, have in excess of a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch business.

Texas ranks in third place in total cash receipts among the leading agricultural states, behind California and Iowa. Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach.

One farm worker today provides food and fiber for 78 people. He also creates jobs for more than 5 nonfarm people who produce the things farmers need and who process, transport and merchandise the crops farmers harvest.

American agriculture is the world's largest commercial industry with assets exceeding $1 trillion. This industry employes nearly 23 million people, a full 22 percent of America's total labor force. The agricultural industry encompasses manufacturing, farming, transportation, processing and merchandising.

Farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world and give this country the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes.
