Must Report 1951 Cotton Acreage to PMA

All cotton farmers are being requested to file a report on the 1951 cotton acreage, and production with the local county PMA office.

It is very important that a record of the acreage planted to cotton in 1951 on each individual farm be filed with the PMA office so that such acreage will be available for use in the event of any future cotton acreage allotment and marketing quota program.

Farmers who desire having their cotton acreage measured officially by a PMA representative may do so by filing an application at the PMA office and making the necessary deposit to defray the expense of measuring the acreage. This charge will be $3.00 per farm plus $1.00 for each plot of cotton over 1.

A survey card is being mailed to each cotton farmer in the county requesting the above information. These cards should be filled out and returned to the county PMA office as soon as possible, since this survey is to be completed by January 10, 1952.

Seven Hurt in Accident Near Norwood Sunday

Seven members of the Floyd Baker family, pulling cotton in the Samnorwood-Dozier area, were injured Sunday night November 25, when the pickup in which they were riding overturned on the FM highway west of Samnorwood.

A few minutes later, after the pickup had been righted and was standing on the pavement, with all members out of it, it was involved in a second accident when it was struck by a car driven by S. D. Payne, colored. Sheriff Hubert Mauldin reported.

Payne and his wife stopped and offered assistance, and within a short time the Ernest Schaub family arrived on the scene, called neighbors to help and notified an ambulance.

The injured were taken to Shamrock hospital by ambulance, and by Schaub, Jim Clark and Worth Shields, according to Mrs. E. L. Rankin of that community.

They were listed at Shamrock as Floyd Baker, 45, who suffered back injuries; Mrs. Baker, 35, scalp lacerations and multiple contusions; Jewel, 9, broken arm and scalp cuts; Alpha, 11, broken nose, multiple contusions; Freddie, 12, lacerations; Wesley, 17, lacerations and cuts on the head; and a 14-year-old boy, who suffered lacerations and scalp injuries. An 18-months-old baby escaped injury. Richard Patrick, a friend of the Baker family, was dismissed from the Shamrock hospital.

Mrs. McAllister Resigns

Two Teachers Resign; Band Director Rufus Johnson Goes to San Benito

Resignation of two popular members of the Wellington high school faculty was announced Tuesday, November 27, by Supt. C. T. Roberts.

Mrs. Bob McAllister has resigned due to illness and Rufus Johnson, band director, is resigning to accept a similar position in the San Benito school in the Rio Grande Valley.

Mrs. McAllister, who was told by her doctor that she must rest in bed for some time, told the board in submitting her resignation that she did not feel it would be fair to the students for her to be away from her classes as much as she will have to. This is Mrs. McAllister's third year in the Wellington system, where she is English and Spanish instructor.

Mrs. Harry Leonhardt is teaching in her place.

Mr. Johnson will leave Friday for San Benito. His work will include directing the high school band and directing instrumental work in all the schools.

This is his fourth year at Wellington, and in the time he has built a 74 piece band that rates as one of the best in the Panhandle for this size school. The Rocket musicians, under his direction have won first place trophies for the past two years at the Altus Music Festival and first and second division ratings in the regional In-

Rockets Prominent in Selection Of All-District Football Team

Four Wellington Skyrockets won undisputed spots on the official all-district 3-AA football team, announced today.

The district champion Childress Bobcats landed three men to undisputed posts on the team, while two others tied for honors in the backfield.

Coaches of the district voted on the selections for an offensive and defensive team. The team is sponsored jointly by the Wellington Leader, the Paducah Post, the Memphis Democrat and The Childress Index.

Two Rockets were also named to the defensive team, with Kent named at left tackle, and Gibson in the backfield.

Four unanimous selections were made. These were for Fred Vinson of Memphis at right tackle, R. D. Bradshaw of Childress at right end, Jerry Jefferies of Childress at quarterback, and Pat Green of Paducah at fullback.

Tickets for Martin Dies Talk on Sale; C-C Officers Nominated

Tickets are now on sale for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet and installation of officers which will be held in the Community Building Wednesday, December 12, at 7:30 p.m.

Due to the big demand for tickets, persons wishing to attend the banquet are urged to purchase their tickets early. President Jack Gibson stated today. The banquet is open to the public and a charge of $2.00 per plate will be made.

By popular request, Martin Dies has been chosen as the guest speaker. Mr. Gibson said. Howard Oliphint will be toastmaster for the banquet.

Leader to Print Santa Claus Letters This Year

Santa Claus this week sent word down from the North Pole that it's time for boys and girls of Collingsworth County and the Wellington trade area to write him telling what they want for Christmas.

"Write me and send your letters to The Wellington Leader right away," Santa urged. "It's almost time to pack my sled — and you should see the world of beautiful toys waiting in my workshop. So write just as early as you can."

All letters to Santa Claus, sent to The Wellington Leader, will be printed in an issue of the paper in mid-December. All kids of the county and the trade area are urged to write. A few children, some living away from home, have already written, just to be sure their wishes got to Santa ahead of the rush.

M-Sgt. C. C. Taylor Home from Guam

M-Sgt. C. C. Taylor, Jr., of the Air Force, who has been stationed on Guam for the past 23 months, reached San Francisco October 27, and recently visited here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Taylor. He was met here by his wife, who has been making her home in St. Louis while Sgt. Taylor was overseas.

Mrs. Taylor, the former Effie Nell Farmer, also visited with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farmer of Marella.

Sgt. Taylor has been assigned to Mitchell Field, N. Y., with the unit with which he has served during his entire 11 years in the Air Force. He was at Camp Kilmer, N. J. before going overseas.

A mess sergeant, he was in charge of the civilian mess hall at Guam, feeding 800 persons each meal. He told friends here that he liked the assignment except for the monotony of the weather, for rain fell every day.

During his almost two years on the island, Sgt. Taylor saw only one person from Collingsworth county, and that was Lurline Bird Wells, the daughter of Mrs. Annie Bird, now of Knox City. Mrs. Wells is a civilian employee on Guam.

Sgt. Taylor, upon arriving in the States, visited a short time in San Francisco with his aunt, Mrs. Beryl Fitzgerald, formerly of Wellington.

merce officers is now being held. These new officers will assume their duties on December 12. Appearing on the ballot are nominees Clark Anderson, J. W. Cochran, and Kelly Pigg, president; Dudley McMillin and James Sullivan, vice-president; and Virginia Evans, Darlene Hunter and Mack Saied Jr., treasurer.

Rev. J. W. Russell, Early Baptist Preacher, Dies

The Rev. John W. Russell, 79, a county resident for 44 years, and preacher in many of the early county churches, died at his home Friday, November 23, at 10:30 a.m. He had been seriously ill for several days, but his death came unexpectedly to his many friends in this area.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Howard Jones, pastor officiating. Rev. Bill Melton assisted. Gathering to pay tribute was a large crowd, some of whom had known Mr. Russell during the entire time he had lived in this area.

Pall bearers were grandsons, Odie Killingsworth; W. P. Gilbreth Rogers Melton, I. D. Russell of Dallas; Gaston Williams of Amarillo; Denzil Peoples; Dr. George Shadid of Clarendon and Tommy Wood. Flower bearers were Mrs. James E. Tice, Mrs. George Shadid, Mrs. Denzil Peoples, Mrs. Gaston Williams, June Russell, Mrs. Odie Killingsworth and Mrs. I. D. Russell, all granddaughters, and Mrs. Travis Somerville and Miss Alice Faye Lowrie.

Burial was in the Wellington cemetery by the side of his wife with the Kelso Funeral Home officiating.

Rev. Russell was born August 8, 1872, in Springfield, Mo. Later he lived in Arkansas, and he was married at Goshen, Ark., to Mary Elizabeth Weaver on June 15, 1893.

They lived in the Indian Territory for a time before coming to Collingsworth County 44 years ago, settling at Quail.

Rev. Russell had been a member of the Baptist Church since boyhood.

Diesel Engine Put on Katy

The familiar steam whistle on the Katy engine tooted its last warnings at road and street crossings Tuesday, for when the train came in Wednesday at noon, it was pulled by a diesel. S. G. Henry, station agent, said this will be regular equipment in the future.

The schedule will be the same and there will be no changes in the crew, which includes C. P. Parks, conductor and Mr. Murphy, engineer, and two brakemen.

This particular run originates at Altus and serves Duke, Gould, Hollis and Wellington.

"This diesel whistle sounds like a steamship coming up the track," Mr. Henry commented after the train got in.

The Katy road was built into Wellington in 1910.

New FM Highway Designated West Toward Buck Creek

The State Highway Commission has designated Collingsworth County's next Farm-to-Market road as extending from FM 338 to the road intersection west of Buck Creek School, a distance of approximately 4.6 miles. Clyde Drake, resident highway engineer, has been notified by D. C. Greer, state highway engineer.

This was designated subject to the availability of funds in the Farm-to-Market Road Fund of the State Highway Department for the improvement of FM roads during the biennium from September 1, 1951 to August 31, 1953.

It is further subject to the condition that Collingsworth County will furnish all required right-of-way free of cost to the state.

This new road begins at a point three miles west of Wellington, where the Rolla FM highway 338 turns south toward Buck Creek.

Upon acceptance of the provisions of this Order by the proper officials of Collingsworth County the State Highway Engineer is directed to proceed with the preparation of plans for construction and when right-of-way and funds are available to proceed with construction and to assume the road for maintenance upon completion of construction.

The work contemplated will be a part of the continuing State financed and State constructed Farm road program. This program was approved first by the Texas Legislature in 1949 and re-enacted this year. It is a cooperative program in that the right-of-way necessary for the development of the road is furnished by the property owners and the County. The selections were made after careful cooperative study by the County Officials and this Department, the objective being to include the most important county roads in the State Highway System. After the road is constructed, it will be maintained by the Texas Highway Department in the future years.

The Texas Farm to Market road system had its beginning at the close of World War II when the Texas Highway Department embarked on a program of construction of important Farm to Market roads to extend all-weather traffic service into the rural areas of this State. Each year, as additional funds have been made available to the Department for this specific purpose, we have been able to extend more and more of these important feeder roads into the rural areas of Texas. At the present time the State has added 19,000 miles of these roads which were formerly county roads, and this new program will add an additional 2,500 miles of such roads, making a total of 21,500 miles of rural roads that have either been constructed or financed for construction by the State of Texas since the close of World War II.

Mrs. Nowlin to Mother's Bedside

Mrs. A. L. Nowlin is in Dallas at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. M. L. Portwood, who is critically ill in the Medical Arts Clinic in that city.

Mrs. Portwood's home is at Denton, where the family long has resided.

She has been a frequent visitor in Wellington with Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin through the years.

Rockets Open Basketball Season With Victory

Coach Maxey McKnight's boys took the change from gridiron to cage court in their stride and Tuesday night, November 27, took a one-point victory over the Samnorwood Eagles, on the Rocket's court.

This 37 to 36 victory was the Rockets' first game. The Eagles, who had played seven games before their school dismissed for cotton picking, came down to Rocketland without a single loss.

McKnight is counting on a better team than he had last year, since the boys are considerably more experienced, and since basketball was pushed as a major sport in Wellington last year for the first time in recent years.

Around two dozen boys are out, including eight lettermen. Heading this list are Tommy Wood and Seldon Wood, both beginning their fourth year of basketball. One year lettermen are Hoot Gibson, Harold Wayne Moore, Vesta Lee Orr, Ed-

Arts and Crafts Show to Feature County Hobbies

The things that Collingsworth County people like to make with their hands during their leisure hours, and for relaxation, will be on exhibit Saturday, December 1, in the county-wide Arts and Crafts

Hobby Show at the community building.

Sponsored by the Elementary Parent-Teacher Association, the Arts and Crafts show is the most extensive of its type ever held here, and it will feature articles made by tiny tots in the first grade, up to great-grandmothers and -grandfathers, Mrs. John Lee, chairman of the show, said. Some of the items are of craftsmanship easily professional in quality.

"There's lots of interest all over the county, and we have indications from groups and individuals at Quail, Dodson, and Samnorwood, that they will take part," Mrs. Lee said.

The show will be held from 1:00 to 9:00 p.m. Admission will be by ticket, for this is the only fundraising project of the year for the PTA. Mrs. Chub White is assisting Mrs. Lee with the plans.

Four divisions are planned: open division for all non-students and those students wishing to compete in it; high school for grades 9, 10, 11 and 12; junior high for grades 5, 6, 7, and 8; and elementary division, for grades 1, 2, 3 and 4.

The building will be open at 9:00 a.m. for exhibitors to arrange their exhibits. Table space will be provided.

A grand award will be made in each division — and these are unusual, in that the plaques themselves will be artifacts, for they are being made especially for the event by ceramists of the city. Ribbons will go to first, second and third place winners in each grade of divisions two, three and four.

Students of Booker T. Washington school have been invited to participate.

One special exhibit will be the student museum of Dodson school, moved here in its entirety for the show. This includes pioneer relics, Indian artifacts, a large collection of rocks, both mineral bearing and common, a few fossils, and a collection of insects. While this will not compete as an art or craft exhibit, those in charge of the show felt that because of its interest and uniqueness in this section it should be given a special place in the show.

Assisting from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., when the exhibits will be brought in and placed by their owners, will be Mmes. Bud Trimble, J. D. Glenn, Steve Owens, Kelly Pigg, C. B. Clay, Barney Glenn, J. M. Moore, Henry Sullivan, Claude Nelson and Lee Hostesses during the afternoon and evening will be Mmes. Donald Curry, C. T. Roberts, Lynn Carter, Melvin Seale, Cliff Campbell, Myrtle Henry, Ansel McDowell and John Rainey.

"Every type of art or handicraft will be shown," Mrs. Lee said. "There'll be chenille work, woodwork, handmade furniture, old-fashioned dolls, unique and historic quilts, cutwork, needlecraft, crocheting and knitting, amateur photography, paintings, cork craft, leathercraft, copper work, ceramics, hand-painted china, lamps — in fact all the things that we Wellington people like to make with our hands. Little boys are entering model airplanes — and some of the Dads that get a kick out of this sort of thing will have their models down too. Some of the business men will have entries.

"We're delighted with the response, and with the quality of some of the work that will be shown," Mrs. Lee continued, as she urged everyone interested to bring in his craft hobby. There is no charge for exhibiting.

The only requirement is that the exhibitor must have made the entry on an amateur and not a professional basis, and the exhibitor must be prepared to bring his entries Saturday morning and display them.

Tickets are now on sale by members of the PTA and the Students. Family tickets are $1.00; individual tickets $.50 and student tickets $.25.

Pie Supper, Merchant Sale

CROWN DODSON HIGH SCHOOL QUEEN AT CEREMONIES FRIDAY

The Dodson high school Queen, to be chosen from a field of five candidates, will be crowned at an entertainment Friday evening, November 30. A pie supper, box supper and merchant sale will be conducted in connection with the coronation.

The entertainment is sponsored by the senior class to raise money for class expenses and for the school library.

It will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the high school auditorium.

Contestants for the honor of school queen are Nellie Underwood, representing the senior class; Ferna Rae Royal, juniors; Johnnie Aaron, sophomores; Johnnie Lou Baird, freshman, and Jan Ford, eighth grade.

Merchants of the town are contributing articles which will be auctioned off during the evening.

Jack Stewart will be master of ceremonies.

The public is invited to attend.

FORM "ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN"

Here Frederick March irons out the household chores as his screen wife, Martha Scott, looks on. The scene is from "One Foot in Heaven," which shows in a benefit performance at the Ritz Theatre Sunday night, December 2. All proceeds from the show will go to St. Joseph's Hospital Building Fund.

Hospital Benefit Show Set for Sunday Night

A motion picture, the proceeds to go for the benefit of St. Joseph's Hospital fund raising program, will be shown at the Ritz Theatre Sunday night, December 2, following services of the local churches.

The feature picture will be "One Foot in Heaven," one of the most popular motion pictures now in circulation, based on the best selling book of the same name by Hartsell Spence.

A special short subject will be "The Guest."

Sponsoring this special showing are the Rev. Archie Gray, pastor of the First Christian Church, and the Video Theatres, managed by Emmett Passmore.

"Admission will be 9c for kiddies and 50c and up for adults. In other words, you can give whatever you wish to this worthy movement as the price of your admission," Mr. Passmore explained.

The show will begin at 9:00 p.m., after local churches have dismissed their evening services, and this is the only night that "One Foot in Heaven" will show here.

Of humanity's many unsung figures, none has been less celebrated than the small town minister.

Tanya Smith Greenbelt District FFA Sweetheart

Tanya Smith, sweetheart of the Wellington Future Farmer chapter, was elected district sweetheart of the Greenbelt District at the annual FFA district banquet at Memphis Monday night, November 19.

Miss Smith will represent the Greenbelt district at the area contest, to be announced in the near future.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith of Wellington, and is a sophomore student in Wellington high school. She is one of the five majorettes of the Skyrocket band.

Sixteen members of the Wellington chapter attended the banquet, Doolen Starkey, Warner Moore, Bobby Hayes, Boone Martin, C. W. Caison, Kenneth Leathers, Georgia Nell Galyean, John Thomas, Jimmy Hartman, Harold Moore, Walter Keisling, Bill Gardner, Jimmy Leggett, Calvin Lacy, Miss Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Goodloe.

The traditional turkey dinner was served, and following this, a short talk was made by the superintendent of the Memphis schools.

The FFA Sweetheart was elected by the two delegates from each of the chapters represented.

McKnight's starters will be T. Wood and L. Wood, forwards, S. Wood, center; Gibson and Moore, guards. Two inexperienced men will be picked at guard positions to go with Bawcom and Stout, forwards, and Orr, at center in making up the traveling squad.

The Rockets schedule has not been worked up, but should be complete within the next few days, Coach McKnight said.

The team has a tentative date with Hedley here November 30, and their next game will be with Lelia Lake there.

District play will not begin until February, and the Rockets will play in the same interscholastic league district, 3AA, with Childress, Paducah and Memphis.

The Rockettes, meeting the Samnorwood Eaglettes at the same time the boys played, lost their opener 21 to 33.

What Is Scouting?INSTITUTIONS SPONSOR EACH SCOUT UNIT, WITH COUNCIL AID

The Boy Scouts of America as an organization does not operate any Scouting Units. It provides a program which is available to institutions and groups of citizens to use with their boys. Such an institution sponsors a Scout Unit and is known as a sponsoring, parent, or chartered institution. The institution provides a committee known as the Unit Committee, made up of three or more men connected with the institution. This Committee is the connecting link between the institution and the Unit which it sponsors. It is responsible for selection and guiding the leader of the Unit and for the conduct of the Unit according to the policies of Scouting and of the institution. The institution also selects an Institutional Representative, a man to represent it on the Local Scout District and Council.

A Local Council, such as our own Adobe Walls Council, is organized to develop Scouting locally so that it can serve more boys and to operate a program. Each Local Council has an annual charter from the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. It is made up of representatives from the Chartered Institutions plus a minority number of members-at-large representing business, civic, education, social, and religious interests of the area. The Local Council makes the Scouting program effective; recommends the issuing of charters to institutions; recommends all men who are to be commissioned leaders; provides adequate training for them and opportunities for Scout Troops to have camping and other out-of-door activities. It establishes and maintains standards of advancement. It makes it possible for increasing numbers of boys in the Council area to have the benefits of the Scouting Program by helping to organize Scout Units in institutions where adequate facilities and proper leadership are available.

In order to make the service effective, the Council is divided into Districts. The Council maintains a Headquarters which is operated by a professional staff of carefully trained men.

For convenience in giving service to the approximately 545 Local Councils throughout the United States, the country is divided into twelve Regions. Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico compose Region 11. These regions give service to the Local Councils through a professional Regional Staff located at a Regional office, and through Regional volunteer committees.

There is a National office giving service to all Regions and all Councils throughout the country.

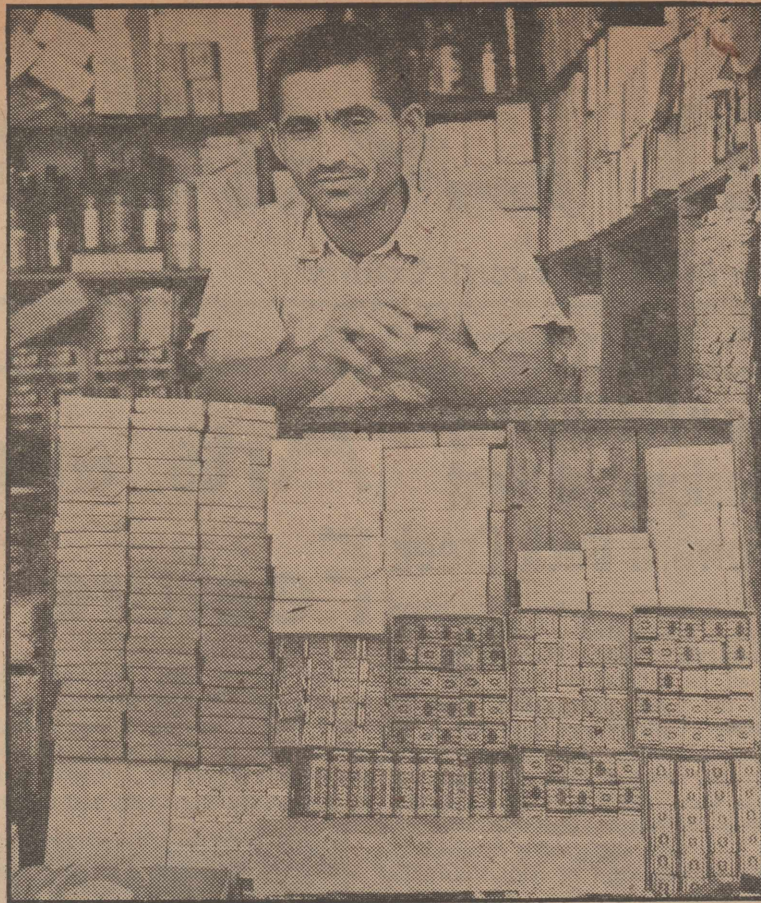

The National Council is the governing body of the Boy Scouts of America. It is composed of representatives of Local Councils and a minority of members-at-large. The Regional Committees and the Regional professional staff are a part of the National organization. The sole purpose of all Scouting organizations is to serve the boy. Two factors are fundamental to the success of Scouting:

(1) To create and maintain conditions so that boys intensely desire to be Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers.

(2) To create and maintain conditions so that men are willing to give volunteer service, and the general public willing to give support to the Movement.

The Boy Scouts of America and the National Scout Organizations of other countries are each self-governing, but cooperate with each other through an International Bureau — for inspiration, for service, and for the fostering of world brotherhood in the growing generations.

2,000,000 Youths Receive Training In Safe Driving

NEW YORK — More than two million youths have received special courses in their schools during the last four years to make them safer drivers when they take the wheel of the family car or drive their own automobiles, the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies said today.

The significance of this large and rapidly growing group of safety-trained young drivers, who usually have only one-third as many accidents as untrained students, was noted by Julien H. Harvey, manager of the Association's accident prevention department, as he announced its fourth annual awards to 27 states and the District of Columbia for noteworthy progress in developing driver education courses in their secondary schools.

School-trained drivers in 48 states now comprise more than 8 percent of the nation's 60,000,000 drivers, he said, and are increasing at the rate of 660,000 a year. This is twice the rate of four years ago, when the Association instituted its annual National Driver Education Award Program granting recognition to states which made or maintained marked progress in driver education courses, and to individual schools in those states.

Ten states have won the Association's Superior Awards for offering courses in driver education during the 1950-51 academic year in at least 50 percent of their secondary schools, with not less than half of the eligible students enrolled. These states are: Arizona, California, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oklahoma and Wisconsin.

Seventeen states and the District of Columbia will receive Meritorious Awards for giving driver education courses in at least 25 percent of their secondary schools, with not less than 25 percent of eligible students enrolled. The 17 states are: Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

Four of these states, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oklahoma and Vermont, also won a special award given for the first time in which parochial and private schools have shown unusual progress in driver education, with more than 25 percent of schools and students participating in the program.

The Association, which pioneered in high school driver education and for more than 15 years has sponsored these courses as an effective means of helping to reduce the toll of street and highway accidents, said nearly 5,000 schools have added driver training to their curricula since the award program was started in September 1947.

"Driver education has been found to be one of the best answers to the problem of reducing the growing toll of death, injury and damage on the highways," declared Mr. Harvey. "The growing acceptance of these courses and the steadily increasing numbers of boys and girls trained in them in the ways of traffic safety for themselves and others offer real hope that in the not too distant future every youth will receive driver education in school before taking the wheel of the family automobile or driving his or her own car. Were it not for the progress

Who Can Pull More Cotton?

Two Samnorwood students, Joy Martindale and James Coy Martindale, each pulled more than 1,000 pounds of cotton on one day in the field recently.

Miss Martindale, 17, and a senior in Samnorwood high school, pulled 1,022 pounds. She began pulling about 7:30 a.m. and quit about 6:00 p.m. Her highest weighing was 124 pounds and her lowest 32 pounds.

James Coy, 15, and a Samnorwood freshman, pulled 1,003 pounds. He started pulling along with his sister, but did not quit at the same time. His highest weighing was 107 pounds and his lowest 58.

The two were pulling on the J. C. Breeding farm at Dozier. They are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Martindale of Abira.

Don't Be Misled

Sick people are more frequently than otherwise unaware of spine failure in causes of sickness, pain and disease. Spine failure does not always produce pain or discomfort in the back unless there is acute backache or lumbago, but don't be misled. In the great majority of cases the effects of spine failure are observed at some distant point remote from the spine, such for example as neuritis in the arm or leg; headache or malfunction in one or more vital organs. Because of this fact, you can be excused for not immediately recognizing the location of your pain or illness, being in the spine.

If you have been doctoring for some time, and find yourself, relieved, but not entirely well, might it not be wise to try something different, some new approach and means to locate and remove the cause, rather than treating the effects?

In the spirit of a sincere helpfulness it may be suggested that you consult a modern Chiropractor. It may make the day when you start on the road to be-brant health.

John W. Graves, Former Resident, Dies Nov. 17

John Wilburn Graves, 67, of Perico, a resident of this county for a number of years, died of a heart attack November 17. His death came as a shock to his friends in this area.

Mr. Graves was the father of Mrs. Bill Hill of the Needwood community.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at Dalhart with the Rev. William R. Lawrence, pastor, in charge. Pall bearers were Charley Hill, Dave Walker, Fred Yarbrough and Earl Yarbrough of Wellington, Joe Reagan and Luther Ray Irwin of Dalhart. All friends were regarded as honorary pall bearers.

Mr. Graves was born at Stephenville April 23, 1884. His mother died when he was three and he was reared and sent to school by relatives. A great believer in schools, he had helped to build them in each community in which he lived.

The family moved to China Grove community in 1907 and remained until 1921, when they moved to Perico. They returned to this county in 1935 and remained in 1940, when they again moved to Perico.

Mr. Graves was a member of the Baptist Church, and had served as clerk of the old China Grove church. He was also a member of the IOOF. Mr. Graves was remembered here for his honesty and for the good name he had with all with whom he had dealings.

Surviving are his wife: three children, Mrs. Hill; Mrs. Brooks Thomas and W. D. Graves of Dalhart; two sisters and two brothers, Joe Graves, W. T. Graves, Mrs. Maggie Halbert, and Mrs. Effie Burkett; and five grandchildren: Billie and J. C. Graves and Patsy Thomas of Dalhart, Nancy and Robert Ray Hill of Wellington.

Out of town relatives and friends at the funeral, many of whom are known here, were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Graves, Mrs. Maggie Halbert, Mrs. Effie Burkett, Mrs. Lela Chapman, Mrs. Mealie Baker of Stephenville; Doyle, Cecil and Coy Halbert, Emory Yarbrough and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crenshaw, Fort Worth; Mrs. Avis Langford, Crystal Springs; J. D. Graves, T. D. Graves, George Graves, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ammons of Mangum; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yarbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Yarbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hill of Wellington; Mrs. Allie Young, Morgan Mill; Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Hardesty, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Shrauner, Lamesa; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rowdy, Silverton; Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Quinn, Amarillo; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, Dumas.

News of Men in Service

James E. Pierce, the grandson of Mrs. H. L. Pierce of Wellington, was among 14 members of his company recently promoted to the rank of sergeant by his battalion commander at Camp Carson, Colo. He held the rank of corporal for four months.

Stationed with Company C, 973rd Engineer Construction Battalion since induction into the army in December 1950, Sgt. Pierce serves his unit as a mason. In July the Engineers were temporarily transferred to Fort Riley, Kansas, to assist in rehabilitation of that flood damaged post. They returned to Camp Carson October 26.

Sgt. Pierce is the son of Mrs. Ernest L. Best of Irving. His father was the late Edward Pierce. He has spent a number of his summer vacations with his grandmother, Mrs. Pierce, and his aunt, Miss Loeva Pierce, here.

Master Sgt. James E. Tice, stationed at Weisbaden, Germany, has been ill with pneumonia, but his condition is now improved, his wife said Tuesday. Mrs. Tice and their children are making their home here while he is overseas.

Wellington

By JOAN HENRY, reporter
On November 10 we went to Buck Creek on a hearing and seeking hike. We found a deer skull and acorn shells, and when we put our ears to the ground, we could various sounds which could not be heard when we were standing.

Our guests were Judy Cook of Melrose, N. M., Jeanette Bell of Wellington and Mary John Starr of Amarillo.

On November 17, Mrs. Chester Fires told us about Girlstown at Whiteface. Our mothers met with us to hear this talk.

Plans were made to send a box of Christmas gifts to Girlstown instead of exchanging gifts among ourselves.

On November 24, we met at Mrs. Sandy Parsons Jr. home for a business meeting. We decided to make Indian dolls for the exhibit in New York in May. We will also make Christmas Cards to send to English girls of similar age, and we will do bead work for an exhibit in the arts and crafts show.

Mrs. C. L. Brown, Oliver Brown of Hedley and Mrs. Vernon Brown, Bunny Mae and Travis Eugene of Fresno, Calif., visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lockhart and Travis.

Earthman of Alanreed will regret to learn that Mr. Earthman lost his right arm in an accident at the gin in McLean on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Campbell and children attended a family reunion in Amarillo Sunday.

Wright Children Hold Reunion

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL

Mrs. G. C. Wright was made happy last Thursday when all of her children and their families came home for a family reunion.

Each family brought a well filled basket of food for the noon meal. After dinner the men went rabbit hunting. The women and children visited. Pictures were made of the group before they left to go home.

Those visiting during the day and night were Mr. and Mrs. Bob J. Spears of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillespie and Linda Kay of Roaring Springs, Mrs. A. S. Bolton, Elena Nell and Richard Clyde of Dumas, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton of the Independence Community, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Isbell and Billy Leon of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright, Charles and Edna Ellen, Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell and Mrs. Wright.

Mrs. Lee Sanders of Whitesboro was the only grandchild that was not present.

Mrs. Wright has been sick for several months but is improving now. She said that having the children all at home was the best medicine that she had ever had.

Dodson Civic Club Holds Dinner

The Dodson Civic Club held its annual Thanksgiving dinner November 21, at the school cafeteria with Mrs. Murray Dodson and Mrs. T. E. Lennon hostesses. The tables were decorated in autumn colors with two lovely pheasants flanking a bowl of mums. Oak leaves and persimmons centered the tables. Every one enjoyed a bountiful dinner of chicken, dressing and all the trimmings.

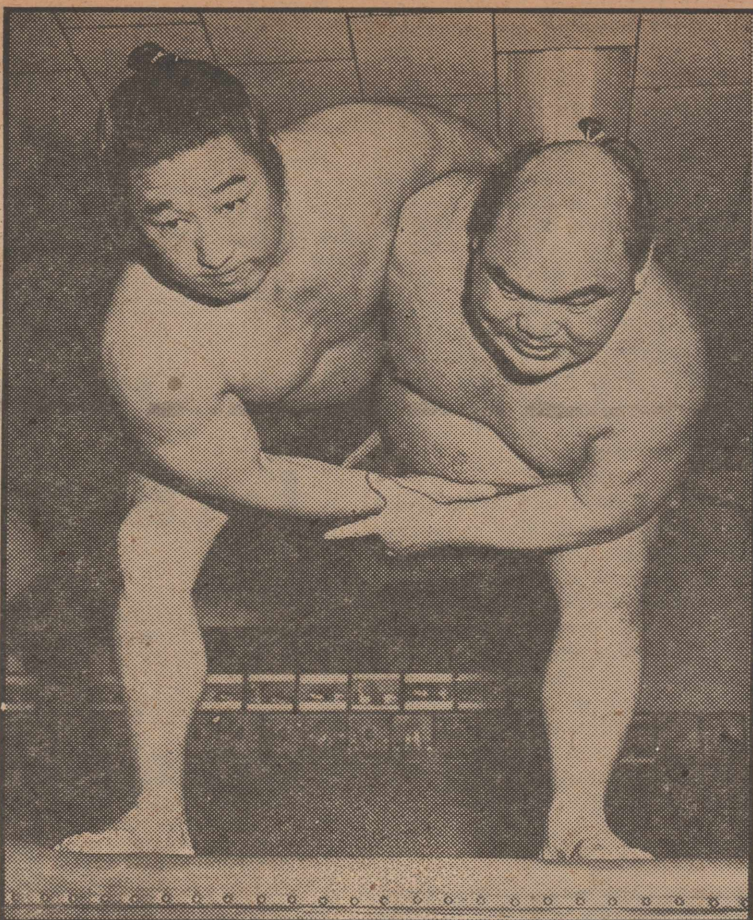

T. E. Lennon led the group in singing "America," Mrs. H. G. Esquella gave the invocation, Mrs. Esquella Roberts gave a humorous reading "Powdering Her Nose," Mrs. Dodson presented several in a pantomime "The Gathering of the Nuts."

After the dinner the president called a short business meeting. Two new members, Mrs. Gwendolene Duffy and Mrs. Esquella Roberts were introduced.

Members and guests enjoying the dinner were Messrs. and Mesdames H. G. Estes, H. A. Painter, J. T. Martin, B. B. Martin, W. Frank Smith and Joy Carolyn, Z. O. McKinney, Ross Swift and Zenith, E. C. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibson were in Oklahoma City a few days this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay McKinney and daughter and Mrs. Gene Hedger visited in Amarillo Saturday.

SUMO TIME—Working out in a New York city gymnasium, two Japanese Sumo wrestlers, Onoumi, left, and Fujitayama strain to throw each other off balance while locked in a position called "ken ken." The matmen, each of whom weighs over 300 pounds, are on a tour of the U. S.

ADAM WAS FIRST, NATURALLY—Taking part in the annual "Shrimp Fleet Blessing," at Biloxi, Miss., the "Bidwell Adam," above, plows through the waters of the Gulf of Mexico with pennants fluttering in the breeze. Captained by Seagus LeLaux, the "Adam," one of more than 250 shrimp boats in the parade, won first place as the best-decorated vessel.

DOZIER

By MRS. E. L. RANKIN

The Rev. Beam of Shamrock delivered two interesting sermons Sunday morning and evening at the Glenn Davis Memorial Church. With Rev. Beam was his wife and two daughters, Harriett and Hazel, and son, Sgt. Frank Beam, who is serving with the armed forces at Fort Sill.

Donald Bradley, who has been serving with the armed forces at Yuma, Arizona for some time, was here recently to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bradley, and brothers, Paul and Harvey Pat. Donald left last Friday to report to a training center in New Jersey where he will receive special training.

John and Leon Phillips, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Phillips who live on the South Plains, were here Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bradley, and brothers, Paul and Harvey Pat. Donald left last Friday to report to a training center in New Jersey where he will receive special training.

Dorothy Phillips, a student of West Texas State in Canyon, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Phillips. Her brother, Wendell Phillips who is a student at Texas Tech, also spent the vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark and son, Troy, attended a reunion of the Clark family at the community building in Shamrock Thanksgiving.

Effie Rankin spent Thanksgiving day in Quanah. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dewey Womack, and family.

W. M. Davis, who was in the Shamrock General Hospital about a week, is at home and is improving slowly.

We received 55/100 inch of rain Saturday.

Visitors in the Albert Gollighugh home last week were the Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Squires and children of Oklahoma City, the Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Squires and children of Quail, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gladney and children, Wanda Nell Gollighugh and Mrs. John R. Gollighugh all of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cook had as guests recently their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Harrell and daughter of Borger; their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cook and three children of Melrose, N. M.; and Mrs. Cook's sister, Mrs. Blanche Galloway and two daughters of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Judd, Janet and Regie of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Brown and Rosetta of Oklahoma City visited over the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lockhart and Travis.

Quail Bobwhites Down Lelia Lake; To Play Claude

The Quail Bobwhites defeated the Lelia Lake girls team in basketball Friday night by a score of 38 to 20. The Bobwhites went into the lead in the early part of the game and was never threatened by the team from Lelia Lake. Betty Duckworth, senior forward for the Quail team, led her team in scoring 14 points to help defeat the opponent and Jo Helen White scored 10 points and Fern Neeley scored 6 points. Sophomore Erma Lee Farris scored 7 points as a substitute forward.

The guards for the Quail team played an outstanding game allowing only four field goals in the first half and four in the last half. The guards for the Bobwhites were Jo Blevins, Ginger Miller, Anna Mae Souder, Fayette Peoples and Juanita Boen. Wanda Rose Phipps was a substitute forward for the Quail team. Every player on the team saw action during the game.

This is the second game of the season for the Bobwhites and also the second victory. The team had previously defeated the Hedley girls team by a score of 42 to 25. The Bobwhite team will go to Hedley Tuesday night for a return engagement that has been played in Quail earlier this season.

The Quail team will play at home Thursday night, November 29 against Claude girls team. The Claude team won the State Championship last year and have a strong team again this year and this should be one of the best games of the season played at Quail.

The girls team from Quail will enter their first Tournament Dec. 6 and 7th in McLean School. Jo Blevins is Co-Captain of the Bobwhites and Jo White is Captain. They were elected by popular vote by members of the team.

Everyone is invited to come to the Quail home games who are interested in good basketball.

LILLIE

By MRS. G. D. THOMAS

Sunday school and church were well attended Sunday at Lillie. The Rev. A. G. Roberts was the dinner guest in the Delbert Morris home.

Mr. and Mrs. Zook Thomas, John and Nancy Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford, Dan, Jan and Jenelle and Miss Jeanette Bruce visited in the Ben Ratliff home in Wildorado last Sunday. We are glad to report that Mrs. Ratliff is much improved. She underwent surgery last week in the Amarillo hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnett visited in the home of Homer Davis last Sunday.

The rainy weather has checked the boll pulling in the Lillie community. A lot of the farmers are using the sled to gather the cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Needham of Amarillo spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Calcutt and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Needham.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Joseph G. Thomas and children, Joe Kirk, Elmond D. and Cina Syble, are visiting in the Conn Hall and G. D. Thomas homes. Sgt. Thomas has been transferred from Roswell, New Mexico to Fort Worth. They will soon leave for Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis and Mrs. C. H. Davis visited in the Dora Roberts home in Mobeetie on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. G. D. Thomas visited Mrs. Beatrice Jinkins Sunday evening. Mrs. Jinkins was operated on last Friday at the St. Joseph Hospital in Wellington. We are glad to report that she is recovering.

Jones to Have Important Role In SMU-TCU Game

DALLAS — Phil Jones of Wellington is due to play an important role in the SMU Colts' attempt to win their fifth consecutive game of the year when they play the TCU Polliwogs in Dallas Friday, Nov. 30, according to Coach Herman Morgan.

The game is a benefit affair being sponsored by the Variety Club with the proceeds going to their Boys Ranch located between Dallas and Fort Worth and housing 80 underprivileged youths.

In their first four games the Colts have defeated the Rice Owls 26 to 6, the Texas Shorthorns 28 to 13, the Oklahoma University Boomers 42 to 27, and the Baylor Cubs 39 to 20.

Frank Eidom, all-state halfback from Port Arthur, is the leading ground gainer of the team as he has gained 390 yards in three games, having missed the first game of the year because of an injury. In total offense Eidom, who has completed three passes for 60 yards, is 51 yards ahead of Duane Nutt, all-state quarterback from Corsicana, who has gained 177 yards rushing and 222 on 13 completed passes. Malcolm Bowers, star signal caller and passer from Highland Park, is third in total offense with 240 yards passing and 30 yards rushing, and Tommie Fields, ace fullback from Wichita Falls, is fourth.

Tuesday night, Troop 32 elected senior patrol leader and scribe. The senior patrol leader is Tommy Tollett and the scribe is Kern Pigg.

We also selected patrol leaders, assistant patrol leader and quartermaster for each patrol. For the Flying Eagle Patrol, leader is John Horton, assistant Phillip Cobb, quartermaster Raymond Brummett. The Wolf Patrol leader is Bobby Crawford, assistant Roy Moxley, quartermaster, Dicky Dodd. The Bobwhite patrol is Bobby Nipper, assistant Don Hood, and quartermaster Mike Glenn. The Raccoon patrol leader is Jimmy Cummings, assistant Joe Sasser and quartermaster Eulan Branch.

SALT FORK

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL

(Intended for Last Week)

These cold crisp mornings reminds us that it is hog butchering time. Everyone is very busy but this way. There is still lots of cotton to be gathered.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Joyner are having a new bath room fixtures installed at their farm home. Mrs. Joyner is one of our teachers at the Quail school. Mr. Joyner is taking care of their little girls while she is gone to school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh, Clyde and Jeanetta visited in the Duard Harris home at Quail last Friday night.

Wayne, Don and Earnest Lee Maxwell were visitors at Sunday school Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Lancaster, Elmer Gene and Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell visited in the C. A. Wright home while Sunday night. Little Paula Sue has come to live with Mr. and Mrs. Harris and Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh and family attended the singing in Wellington Sunday. They also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Harris, after the singing. Nelda Lancaster and Edna Ellen Wright visited Mrs. G. C. Wright while Sunday night. Mrs. Wright is feeling better now.

Let us be thankful for our many blessings this Thanksgiving. If we can not feel that we have any blessings, just think about us living in the grand old America and be glad.

Four County Car Dealers Meet At Memphis

A meeting of both new and used car dealers of Childress, Hall, Collingsworth and Donley counties met Tuesday night, November 20, in the American Legion Hall in Memphis to hear an explanation of the new ceiling price regulation (CPR 83) covering the sales of new cars.

F. O. Eggel, automobile price specialist with the Lubbock District Office of Price Stabilization, presided at the meeting and discussed not only the regulation covering the wholesale and retail sales of automobiles, but other regulations as they apply to the sellers of new automobiles. Specifically included will be Ceiling Price Regulations 67 and 84 which cover sales of automobile parts and services handled by automobile dealers, according to Hoyle Bowles, chief of the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Section of the district OPS office.

The new regulation covering the sales of passenger cars became effective October 15 and requires every dealer to post in "a conspicuous place on his premises a notice not less than 18 inches by 24 inches in size, stating the make, body style, line or series and model of each new automobile offered for sale, and an itemized ceiling price." This requirement must be met by December 10.

The ceiling price must be itemized to show the basic price for each particular body style in each line or series; the charge for transportation; the charge for federal excise tax; the charge for state or local taxes; the charge

How to make old roads seem NEW

PICK a road that you know by heart. Not too good a road. One that has some bumps—some unbanked turns—a tough hill or two.

Then get in touch with us, and let us put you behind the wheel of a Buick, with Dynaflo Drive.*

Now you're all set for a new experience. You'll find out this:

Those bumps seem to lose their bobble. You just take them with a smooth and level stride.

Those unbanked turns don't seem so sharp, and those hills seem almost to flatten out.

How come? Well, a lot of things are different when you travel in a Buick.

You're riding on big, soft coil springs that let every wheel dance beneath you, without passing on the jolts to you in the car.

You're driving a car that's plenty inches broader than it is high—a sure-footed road-hugger if there ever was one.

And you're riding behind a Fireball Engine — Buick's time-tested version of a high-compression valve-in-head—an engine that packs more power than most people ever need to use.

With this power — and Dynaflo Drive* — you don't have to "rush" a hill at the bottom to soar serenely over the top. You just feed the power as you need it — climb with a sure, steady swoop without buck or bobble all the way up.

There's a lot more that we could tell you about a Buick. But such things as room, and comfort, the confident way it steers, and the way it shortens the miles are things you can best discover from personal experience.

So why not follow the routine already suggested? You supply the road—we'll supply the car — and let it speak for itself.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ASKED TO EXHIBIT INDIAN DOLLS AT NATIONAL MEET

Girls of the Tejas Campfire Tribe have been invited to send work to be used as a basis for one exhibit at the 1952 Campfire Girl Conference in New York City May 4 to 10, Mrs. Clyde Drake was notified this week by Georgia E. Mills, Arts and crafts specialist of the program department of Camp Fire Girls.

The Tribe is asked to duplicate its exhibit of dolls in Indian costume which they sent to little girls in Europe through the "Dolls to Foster Friendship" Program.

This exhibit, including the dolls dressed in Indian costume and Indian symbols to tell a camp trip story, with the teepee and other Indian items, was on display in the window of Parsons Drug Co. earlier this fall.

"There will be in the neighborhood of 800 attending the conference, leaders, professionals and council members. We are going to have about a dozen exhibits from local councils over the country," Miss Mills wrote Mrs. Drake.

She requested that the new exhibit show the dolls in the costume of one of the ceremonial or festival dances of a plains tribe.

"This seems a lot to ask of eight little girls, but we think they are capable if they can manage the time to do it," Miss Mills continued.

Members of the Tejas Tribe are Janet Jones, Mary Parsons, Frances Drake, Vada Bell, Joan Henry, Faye Pope, Carolyn Wright and Carolyn Couch.

Fred Saied Named Pledge President

Fred Saied, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Saied, was named president of his pledge group of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at the University of Texas recently.

A freshman student, he will serve in that capacity through the semester.

Saied also has been named a member of the Five Psi's, a group of musicians from the fraternity which appears in various public functions, including television broadcasts in Dallas, before armed forces group in San Antonio, as well as at campus gatherings. In this, he stepped into the place of his brother, V. C. Saied, also a member of that fraternity, who is enrolled in the University of Texas School of Medicine at Galveston this year.

The University of Texas freshman graduated from Wellington high school in June as valedictorian of his class.

McDowell, Saied In Phi Chi

Ansel McDowell and V. C. Saied, first year students in the University of Texas School of Medicine at Galveston, were named to membership in Phi Chi, a professional medical fraternity with a student chapter at Galveston.

Phi Chi is considered one of the outstanding fraternities of the medical profession.

McDowell received his degree from the University of Texas in June, and at the same time Saied completed his pre-medical course in that institution.

FM Road North of Dozier Finished

The Farm to Market Road program north of Dozier, to Highway 66 in Wheeler County, has been completed and the road is open to traffic, Clyde Drake, resident highway engineer, said Saturday.

The new road began at the end of the paved section, three miles north of Dozier, and extends due north seven miles to Lela, four miles in Collingsworth County and three in Wheeler.

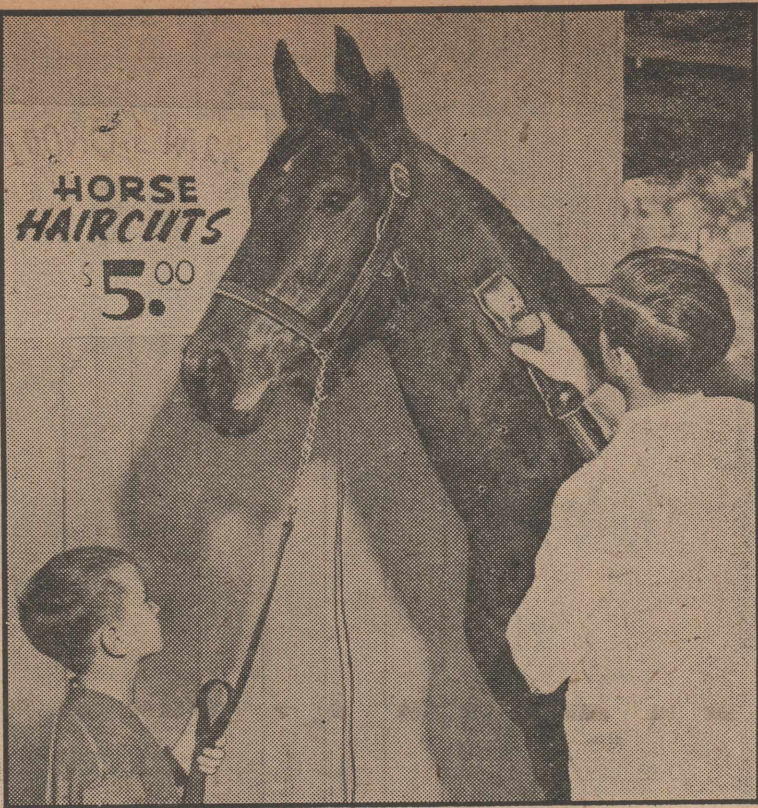

Cooper and Woodruff of Amarillo were the contractors and the road was done at a cost of $76,000.

This included grading and drainage, a base of crushed rock and one-course surface treatment.

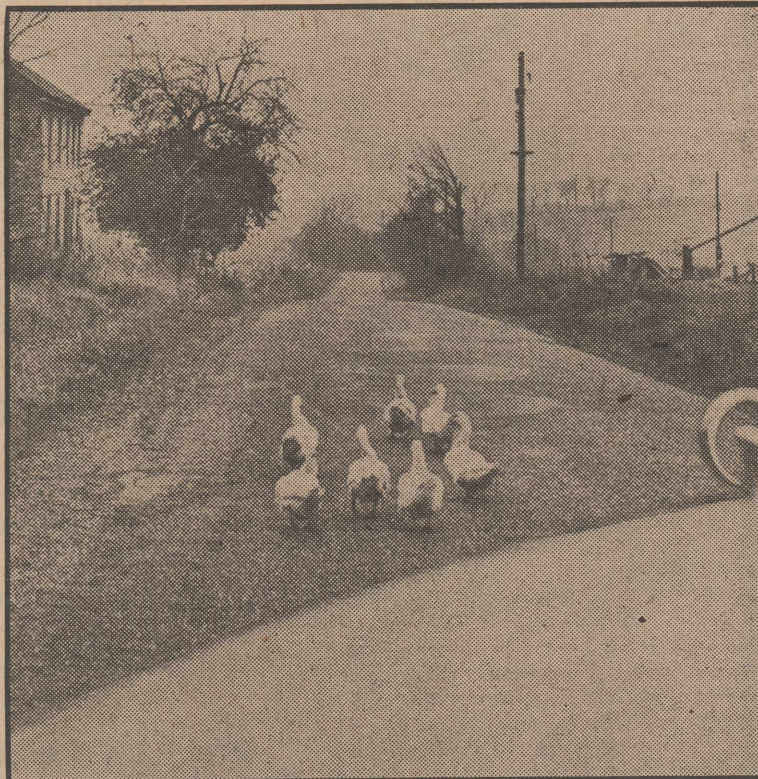

Miss Phillips Chosen Secretary of Business Girls Conference

Miss Ann Phillips of the Joliet, business girls club of the Amarillo YWCA, was elected secretary of the Oklahoma-Amarillo Business Girls Week End Conference, which convened last week end in Enid, Okla.

A graduate of Wellington High School, Miss Phillips has been active in the Girl Scouts and Future Homemakers of America organization. She is a member of the First Christian Church and works for the National Biscuit Company in Amarillo.

"MANE" THING IS TO BE NEAT—Tropical Park Race Track's barber shop for horses, in Miami, Florida, is getting plenty of customers these days. Here, owner and trainer John Leyland's son, Jackie, holds "River Scotch," as Francis Flynn gives the animal the shop's five buck haircut.

HONK, HONK, TO YOU, TOO!—Viewed over the hood of the photographer's car, a flock of slow-moving geese waddle nonchalantly along a road near Allentown, Pa. Only consolation for the fuming motorist following is the thought that one of the birds, roasted and stuffed, might make a delightful forthcoming Thanksgiving Day feast.

CAP Sees Red China Film

About thirty senior members and cadets of the Wellington Civil Air Patrol squadron met at Marian Airpark Monday night for their regular meeting.

Training officer John Pound showed two educational films entitled, "Chinese Reds Enter Korean War," and "Self Preservation in Atomic Attack." The second film is one just released from the restricted list.

The group also enjoyed the movie pictures taken at the recent Tacky party.

Next Monday night the officers are to meet at 7:40 at Marian Airpark and the members at 8 p.m. Each member of the Wellington CAP squadron is urged to be present to fill out new membership blanks and have their pictures made.

Anyone who is interested in becoming a member is invited to attend the Monday night meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Dollar and boys of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Amerson, over the week end.

Eastern Star Has Annual Thanksgiving Dinner

The traditional Thanksgiving dinner of the Wellington chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star was held Tuesday evening, November 20, in the community building, for members and their families.

Preceding the dinner, accordion music was given by Janice Davis and a Thanksgiving reading by Mrs. John Lee. Short talks of welcome were made by Mrs. Lee Ella Seale, Worthy Matron, and Arthur Hennard, Worthy Patron. Paul Starr spoke the invocation.

Rich autumn colors were carried out in the table decorations. The centerpiece was formed of chrysanthemums in shades of yellow, white, brown and bronze, arranged with red and brown leaves, tiny cattails and grasses. Pottery mallard ducks looked out from beneath the bouquet, and the entire arrangement was set in a shallow woven tray.

Other arrangements included bouquets of chrysanthemums arranged with oak leaves, and all-foral bouquets.

As is the custom, this was a turkey dinner, with members bringing the "trimmings."

Registering for the supper were Meses. and Meses. Eddie Smith, R. Martin Williams, W. E. Brewster, A. A. Hennard, J. B. King.

Junior Department Attends Party

Small Gifts Are Most Expected, Well Appreciated

BY EDNA MILES

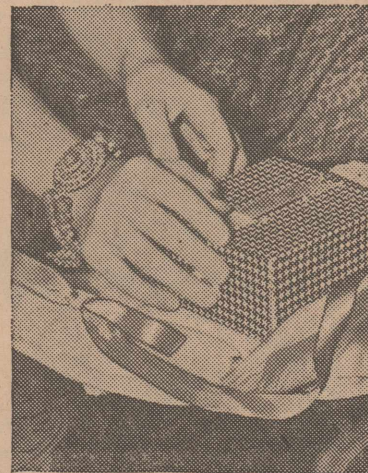

THE sugar plums that dance through the heads of most women hopefully awaiting Christmas are not, in a majority of cases, mink coats and Cadillacs. Usually dreams are more scaled to everyday reality.

Nonetheless, there are few women who aren't wishing that life will be just a trifle more luxurious once Santa's visit is over, who aren't longing secretly for the small niceties that they never quite get around to buying for themselves.

Such gifts are abundant this year. Fine gestures needn't wreck your budget. If you can't afford to present a dress or suit bearing the label of a famous French designer, a gift of fine dusting powder from his salon is just as likely to bring a thrilled start of recognition. One firm, well-known in the fashion and beauty world, offers this season a large box of elegantly-scented powder, hand-somely packaged in eye-catching hound's tooth tweed.

Jewelry gifts are a good idea, for putting stars in her eyes on Christmas morning, and for adding sparkle to her appearance the remainder of the year. Choose delicately-wrought pieces set with brilliant rhinestones.

Experiment

"Stone walls do not a prison make . . ." The simple fact of being in a prison is not punishment in itself; it's the brutal fact that one can't get out.

It's not the physical presence but the mental torture.

A Tulsa judge tried a new experiment which undoubtedly would be effectual with a number of younger offenders but of dubious value in other cases.

A 19-year-old youth was given a five-year prison sentence for an armed robbery, his first offense. The kindly judge decided he would grant a suspension of sentence but not until the errant lad had spent a realistic 24-hour day in the McAlester prison.

Accompanied by a deputy sheriff, the youth entered the gaunt, granite walls and mingled with hundreds of blue-denned convicts, ate with them in the large mess hall and heard their sordid conversation. Then he visited the brickyard and other grim spots surrounded by turreted walls bearing armed guards.

The lad was taken for a view of death row, where he saw photographs of those who had paid the supreme penalty for their folly. He grimaced as the guard illustrated to him how one is strapped into the electric chair.

The warden said: "Son, you'll have plenty of time to meditate tonight . . . Let me suggest something. Get on your knees and pray."

Undoubtedly there was plenty of meditation and prayer in a lonely cell that night.

Next morning the boy told the prison chaplain: "I feel like I've been here for days. I don't want to come back here. I want to do right."

The lad's one-day sojourn in a really tough prison ended on Thanksgiving morn, which, connected with his unsavory memories, probably will have a lasting effect on this one offender.

But, back to the first thought:

"Stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage."

The fact still remains that it is not the stone walls and the iron bars that make prison what it is. It is the fact that a man must live with his own thoughts, that even in a tremendous through he is lonesome and lonely. The work he must do, though it is hard, is not as much punishment as the knowledge that he is separated out only from society in general but also from those close to him, and that they are suffering for his misdeeds. It's the seeming futility of the whole thing that makes the punishment.

It would be interesting to watch the next few years of the life of the young man who cringed as he viewed the drab routine of prison for a single day as psychological and sociological experiment.

Maybe the Tulsa judge has found something worth while—especially in the case of youthful lawbreakers—Amarillo, News.

Problem Child

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek has joined the fantastic weapons school of thought, his letter this week reveals. He ought to be good at it. Dear editor:

I have noticed from time to time lately some Congressmen or other expert in Washington has been given a secret look at some of the secret weapons this country has and invariably they pull themselves together and announce the things are unbelievable, fantastic, they're capable of sledge-hammer blows, knock-out blows, but I notice the war in Korea is still being fought, unless they've finally signed a truce by the time this reaches you, with the old-fashioned weapons like hand rifles, artillery, and American boys.

Now I know this country is capable of producing some fantastic weapons, but up to now they're mostly experimental models, and I have been thinkin'. If the talk about fantastic weapons is designed to scare the enemy, why don't they really unlimber? Why be pikers in this fantastic business?

For example, I have a weapon, that is, I have it in my mind, not exactly in the production stage, no use havin' a boat ready to ship any spot and will sweep around and around the world without stoppin', slicin' down buildings like a sharp knife peelin' an apple from stem to bottom. All you have to do is fire it and yell duck and the war is over and mankind is back to the handicraft age.

Another one I'm workin' on will drain any ocean we got. All you have to do is open a plug and wait till the water runs out and cross over to enemy territory in trucks and tanks, bein' careful of course of the dead fish. Where the ocean will drain is too fantastic to mention.

Another weapon I'm workin' on is known as the J. A. Extra Hardy Johnson Grass Root. This variety you plant in your own field, aim at where you want it to come out on the other side of the earth, and retire to your fireside. In three weeks Russian wheat fields will be rank with the stuff. I figure this one will wreck the food production schedules of any country you want to knock out.

I'm workin' on a lot of others, but this will give you an idea of what a first-class fantastic weapon ought to sound like on paper.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Bible Comment FOR DEC. 2

One of Paul's Greatest Virtues: Tolerance

Prejudices are today weakening an America that needs more than at any time in the past to be strong. They are threatening to create a house divided against itself. Anti-Semitism, anti-Catholicism and anti-Protestantism (which, too, may even be found in Protestant America) are hurting the country more at the present time than outside forces.

In the days of Paul, this great follower of Christ said, "I do not frustrate the grace of God." Should all America sincerely practice the philosophy herein, our growing problem of anti-semitism would be solved.

In Paul's day, the great disciple knew how the finest of faiths could become warped by bigotry and a false, one-sided perspective. And so it was only natural that he took an uncompromising stand against early Christians who, though well-intentioned, attempted to impose their beliefs on others.

Paul told such Christians that God's law can never be perfectly fulfilled. He said that faith is "the end of the law for everyone that believeth." He would not, either, try to insist that Jewish Christians give up Jewish rites.

Many of Jesus' other disciples, though, spoke out harshly to Jewish mothers who brought to the temple their children, versed in Jewish rituals, for the blessing of Christ. And the Bible says that Christ was much displeased at those who condemned others whose rituals were foreign to their own beliefs. God's compassionate grace is not compatible with prejudice. These things Paul knew.

This attitude of tolerance that Paul developed never left him. He regarded the rights of his fellow Jewish Christians in the same light as he upheld the liberties of the gentile converts.

It is not well, as Paul's tolerance tried to prove, to frustrate the grace of God with narrow views and prejudices.

Looking Ahead With George S. Benson

A HEALTHY INDIGNATION

The results of the municipal elections in New York and Philadelphia strengthen the feeling I've had all along that the rank and file of American citizens, whatever their creed or race or political party, have not lost respect for the high moral principles of honesty and honor exemplified by the Founding Fathers. In both cities the people ignored party labels and voted for what they believed to be decency in public office. Enriched corruption was defeated. It should be a stunning warning to those politicians at all levels who have been participating in or conducting graft and corruption.

Our nation has been deeply injured by the very fact that the dishonest and dishonorable acts of public officials have been permitted to go unchallenged by important leaders. The injury done to our younger generation will never be healed. But if, in elections from now on, a majority of Americans will assert their indignation over politico-government corruption as did the citizens of Philadelphia and New York on November 4, the character of our nation will be strengthened and the morality of our forefathers carried forward.

POWERFUL SPEECH

Three months ago Herbert Hoover made a speech at Des Moines on "Honor in Public Life." It was a significant and powerful speech because ex-President Hoover is widely acknowledged as an elder statesman and his integrity is so obviously non-partisan that a Democrat President of the United States appointed him to the chairmanship of a national committee to study bureaucratic waste and recommend economics in government.

In discussing the citizen's responsibility on the issue of public morality, Mr. Hoover said: "The practical thing we can do if we really want to make the world over again is to try out the word 'old' for a while. There are some old things that made this country. There is the old virtue of religious faith. There are the old virtues of integrity and the whole truth. There is the old virtue of incorruptible service and honor in public office. There are the old virtues of economy in government, of self-reliance, thrift and individual liberty. There are the old virtues of patriotism, real love of country and willingness to sacrifice for it."

VIRTUES NEVER CHANGE

"These 'old' ideas are very inexpensive. They even would help win hot and cold wars. I realize that such suggestions will raise (that cuss word 'reactionary'!) But some of these old things are slipping badly in American life. And if they slip too far, the lights will go out of America, even if we win these cold and hot wars. Think about it."

Congress, as a result of its own inquiries, is confronted with the fact that sacred honor cannot always be tested by legality or enforced by law. "In its frustration," said Mr. Hoover, "the Congress is groping for some sort of code of ethics, which with a prefix 'new' might protect the citizen from his own officials. Might I suggest that there are already some old tested codes of ethics? There are the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, and the rules of the game which we learn at our mother's knee. Can a nation live if these are not the guides of public life? Think it over."

OUR GREATEST DANGER

Something stronger than a new code of ethics is needed by America. Herbert Hoover contended. "The issue," he said, "is decency in public life against indecency. Our greatest danger is not from invasion by foreign armies. Our dangers are that we may commit suicide from within by complacency with evil . . . or by public tolerance of scandalous behavior . . . or by cynical acceptance of dishonor. These evils have defeated nations many times in human history. The redemption of mankind by America will depend upon our ability to cope with these evils right here at home."

"Here in this state (Iowa) where I was nurtured," he said, "I cannot but feel a strength that comes up from the deep roots in the very soil on which we stand. That strength is in character and truth and decent living. And it will triumph. It will triumph. Because I know America is turning its face away from the maudlin leftisms and the spread of untruth of the past decades. We sense the frauds on men's minds and morals. Moral indignation is on the march again."

Political corruption is widespread. The uprising of voters in New York and Philadelphia must be considered only a beginning.

Afternoon Game at Shamrock

Irish, Bobcats Play For Title Friday

The luck of the Irish held and Shamrock won the toss for the site of Friday's Class AA regional playoff game between the Shamrock Irish and the Childress Bobcats. The afternoon game will be played at 2:30 p.m. at Shamrock's Denver Field.

Winner of this week's game will meet the victor of the Kermit-Anson conflict, also scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Friday afternoon at Odessa.

McCall reports his liberal-sized squad in good shape for the game both mentally and physically. "We had a couple of boys bruised up in the Tulia game," he said, "but they ought to be okay next week." Shamrock defeated Tulia 27-7 in a bi-district contest at Shamrock on Thanksgiving Day.

The Irish came out in a tie with the Phillips Blackhawks for the championship of 1-AA. Shamrock then won both the drawing determining the district representative and the coin toss for the site of the bi-district game.

The Childress physical status is in marked contrast to that of Shamrock. Churchill's proteges have five men on the injured list, at least two of whom are out for the season. Jerry Jefferies, the triple-threat backfield star who led the Bobcats to the title of District 3-AA during the regular season, will miss the Shamrock game due to a broken collarbone. The fleet-footed tailback suffered the injury in the opening minutes of Childress' 19-7 win over Quanah last week for the bi-district championship of 3-AA and 4-AA.

A hunting accident cost the Bobcats the services of Troy Boykin, first string right end who last week accidentally shot himself through the shoulder. Also out but possible returnees for the Friday game are Tackle Joe Norman, Back LaNoel Castleberry and Tackle Ben Purcell.

A large delegation of Wellington football fans is expected to see the game.

Game and Fish Commission Asks For Quail Wings

AUSTIN — Quail hunters are reminded by W. C. Glazener of the Texas Game and Fish Commission that quail wings are again wanted this season to complete the study started last year on age and sex ratio and other important information concerning bobwhite quail. Mr. Glazener said, "If you or any of your friends are in a position to participate, just let us know. We will be glad to mail you a supply of return envelopes on which you need not pay any postage."

Continuing, he explained, "It is our opinion that 300 to 500 wings will be required to serve as a dependable sample from a given county. Therefore, we will greatly appreciate any efforts you might make to fill such a need."

To the hunters who sent in quail wings last year will be sent an analysis report if they request it.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Ingram spent Thanksgiving Day visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ingram.

SC-RAM—Caution seems to be the introductory keynote as three-year-old Necia Prather of Yorkville, Cal., and this Australian Merino ram each look as if the other's company was—to put it bluntly—unwelcome. The ram is part of a recent shipment to the University of California's College of Agriculture after an embargo against the export of the breed from Australia had been lifted.

Best Sellers—But Some Mysteries Too

OUTSTANDING NEW BOOKS ADDED TO CO. LIBRARY IN RECENT WEEKS

A number of outstanding and popular books have been received by the county library during recent weeks, Miss Katherine Boverie, librarian, said Monday.

Among these are "The President's Lady" by Irving Stone, the story of Rachael and Andrew Jackson. This book deals sympathetically with Mrs. Jackson, and with the distress which arose when the validity of their marriage was questioned. This is considered one of the outstanding books of recent months. Other new books are "Room for One More," Rose, the account of a Methodist minister and his wife in California who, having no children of their own, have adopted eight, seven of them regarded as non-adoptable because of racial mixture. Pictures of this family were featured in Life Magazine a few weeks ago.

"Jubilee Trail," Bristow, is a story of the California Gold Rush. "The Stranger Beside Me" by Maible Seelye, author of "Woman of Property," is the story of a woman with a physical handicap who married a man who had an emotional handicap. "The High Calling," Street, takes up the story of a Baptist preacher and his work described in "The Gauntlet," after a period of 20 years. "A Woman Called Fancy," by Frank Yerby, continues in the style for which this popular writer is known. "Hard Rock" by Ross Santee, is an outstanding western, telling of Arizona before World War I. The book is also illustrated with Mr. Santee's drawings. "West of the Hill" and "While the Angels Sing," both by Gladys Hasty Carroll, are delightful family books. "Mr. Smith," Louis Bromfield's latest novel, tells the story of a successful business man, who at

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell and Mother Maxwell are home again, after Ernest underwent a very serious operation in Oklahoma City.

He stood the operation fine, although the trip home was tiring. They stopped in Dill City, Okla., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bolton for a few hours to rest and to get their youngest boy, Johnnie, who had been visiting in the Bolton home while his parents were in Oklahoma City.

The other three boys, Wayne, Don and Ernest Lee had been visiting in the country with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright and family. The boys drove back and forth to school in town.

40 feels life is passing him by. His solution to this program has been a controversial topic in book circles in recent months.

"The Adventurer," Mika Waltari, brings another volume by one of Finland's leading novelists. It tells the story of a Finnish youth, who adventured throughout Europe during the turbulent days of the Reformation.

"Umberto's Circus," Eduard Bass, is the colorful novel of life in a European circus during the last half of the 19th century.

"April Snow," Budd, is the story of a Norwegian woman's struggles to care for her children and bring them up.

"Rooster Crows for Day," Ben Lucien Burman, is a story laid in the Mississippi valley and will appeal to all who like this writer's books.

"The Iron Mistress," Paul I. Wellman, is about Texas James Bowie. It is considered one of the outstanding novels of recent months. Texans may or may not like it.

"The Big Pan Out," Winslow, brings back vividly incidents in the lives of such Alaskan gold rush people as Tex Rickard, Curwood, Service, and others who made money out of gold, or writing about it.

"The Greatest Book Ever Written," by Oursler, tells again the story of the Old Testament and is one of best selling religious books currently.

Volume 7 of the Scribner Radio and Music Library has been added. This contains opera, songs, and sacred music for piano and voice. In addition to these, a number of westerns and mysteries, as well as children's books have been put in the Library.

Miss Rama Camp, fourth grade teacher in the Childress schools, spent the Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daro Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wischkaemper, Sr. and June spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. H. M. Glass of Georgetown.

PERSONAL

Mrs. E. M. Hix has returned from Roswell where she has been visiting her daughter and family.

Burton Love underwent major surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital recently for the removal of part of his stomach. Mr. Love had been ill since July 10, when he was stricken with a ruptured stomach ulcer while in Hot Springs, N. M. He later suffered a heart attack and underwent treatment in El Paso. As soon as he was able, he was brought here, and has been hospitalized a number of times since. His condition during much of his illness has been critical, but hospital attendants and members of the family said Tuesday he was doing as well as possible. He and Mrs. Love made their home on the Bishop Ranch near Erick, Okla. His mother, Mrs. C. C. Bishop, was also a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital from November 21 through 23.

Mrs. G. H. Holleman of Dodson was dismissed from St. Joseph's Hospital Thanksgiving day after two days treatment.

Merritt James was dismissed from St. Joseph's Hospital Saturday. He had been admitted for treatment Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Dennis Preston of Wellington was a recent patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

of the action of your membership on the proposal to increase dues." The other letter, from Sam B. Culpepper, director of field service, read:

Mr. Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary, TSTA, has shared with me your letter of November 13. I wish to extend my congratulations upon a successful meeting of the Collingsworth County Local Unit on November 10, 1951. I have reviewed your program with much interest, and I think you did an excellent job by planning an outstanding program for the members of your local unit. In working with the local units of TSTA I have found that the members are really interested in discussion-group type meetings where each member has a chance to participate.

"It is very encouraging to note that 100 per cent of your members voted in favor of the $7.00 membership fee. This action shows that your members are interested in the program of their professional organization and wish to back that program through unified action."

TSTA Officers Praise Meeting Of County Unit

Two letters of commendation have been received by Herman Moseley, superintendent of the Quail school and president of the county unit of the Texas State Teachers Association from officers of the state unit concerning the recent workshop held at Wellington.

The first, from Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Association, Austin, said in part: "I appreciate your letter of November 13 and a copy of the program of your meeting November 10 in Wellington. It appears that your local unit is really doing an excellent job. We know that the success of the program of TSTA rests with the local units, and we are extremely anxious to see each of them be active."

"I am glad to have the report

Mrs. Beulah Gentry was dismissed from St. Joseph's Hospital Monday, after being under treatment there Saturday and Sunday.

G. H. Wallace was a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday night. Mr. Wallace is in charge of the hospital grounds.

Mrs. Billy Joe Seal of Hollis was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital November 26 for medical treatment.

Mrs. Perry Everett of McLean entered St. Joseph's Hospital Monday for dental surgery.

Miss Charlotte Molesworth of Clarendon is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital after undergoing minor surgery.

Porter Loving underwent major surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday morning.

A guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson, is Mrs. Robert Henard of Plains and her two daughters, Margaret Sue and Frances. She returned with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, who had been visiting there, on Monday and will remain for about a week. Pfc. J. C. Nelson arrived Tuesday from Port Sill on a two-weeks furlough.

Mrs. Lloyd Harper was a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital from November 16 to 18.

Bill Hughes was a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital from November 17 to 19.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clement went to Canyon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Smith's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parsons.

Luther Thompson of Samnorwood was a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday and Monday, November 18 and 19.

Mrs. R. H. Lacy was dismissed from St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday, November 21. She had been a patient since Monday.

Jerry Strickland of Perryton visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Strickland, over the holidays.

Billy Jack Phipps was home over the holidays from John Tarleton College where he is a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wyrick of Cee Vee, Texas visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scarberry and family Thanksgiving.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

Do you recall the story in the Bible of the woman caught in the act of adultery who was brought before Jesus by the scribes and Pharisees to trick Him into passing judgment upon her?

And Jesus said, "Let the innocent among you throw the first stone at her."

And after a little while looking up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

And she said, "No one sir,"

And Jesus said, "Neither do I; be off, and never sin again."

Do you remember this? How often and how many practice it, I wonder? I am sure not a single day passes that there is not an opportunity for every individual.

At this moment I am thinking in general about the gravity of world turmoil and our own National scandals. In particular, I am thinking about the Korean business and the Presidential election of 1952.

Take Korea first. The men and women there on either side are not there because they freely chose to go. Whatever you choose to name this thing, be it war, or limited police action, for the individual by very reason of being present there he or she faces making at any moment the ultimate sacrifice, a sacrifice about which there is nothing limited by any stretch of the imagination. Furthermore there is nothing limited about the efforts these individuals are called upon to make day and night.

For another thing these American men and women there represent a cross section of America. They represent the rich and the poor, the capitalist, the laborer, the farmer, democrats, republicans, "special interests," the good and the bad. They represent America.

If the whole is equal to the sum of its parts, if the parts represent America, if there is nothing limited about the efforts and the sacrifices demanded from the parts, what is limited about the whole of the Korean war except the morality thinking, and actions of a leadership that ordered them there to give their all, while that same leadership won't demand it of itself and is afraid to demand that we at home make the same efforts and the same sacrifices?

There was no compromise in the life of Christ. There is no compromise between Christianity and Communism. There is no compromise between war and peace. There is no compromise between life and death.

There are only two roads for Christians against the forces of Atheism — passive resistance or all out war.

There is death in both for man.

SAMNORWOOD

By MRS. C. W. FRITTS

This entire area was shocked recently at the death of John Morgan. His death was not unexpected, as he had been critically ill for 8 or 10 days and he had been quite ill most of the time for two years. Mr. Morgan had lived in this area for 48 years.

He had served as school trustee on the Norwood school board the entire 12 years since the creation of this school, beside years he served at the Prairie View School. He was always interested in better schools for the children of this area.

Mr. Morgan was a good man. He was a very quiet, unassuming person, and he was a good father, husband, neighbor, and friend.

He was loved and respected by those who knew him best, and who had dealings in any way with him.

He came with his family to this county in 1904 and settled first on the farm of the late A. J. Bradley. Three years later they moved to the Judge Small ranch at Aberdeen, where Mr. Morgan's father managed the cattle for Judge Small many years.

In 1914, Mr. Morgan was married to Miss Mary Bradley and a son and daughter were born to this marriage, Harry and Johnnie Mae. Mrs. Morgan preceded him in death in 1925. He was married to Miss Audie Kidwell in December 1928. Three sons and three daughters were born to this marriage. An infant son preceded him in death in 1941.

He is survived by three sons and four daughters: Harry Morgan of Carlsbad, N. M., J. M. Jr. and Wendell, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Oliver, Tacoma, Washington, Wanda, Barbara and Audrey, at home, his wife, Mrs. Audie Morgan, three grandsons, Dale, Phillip and Brad Morgan of Carlsbad, N. M.; his aged mother, Mrs. Sam Walls of Greenville, N. M., and five brothers who are Edd Morgan of Perryton, Bill Morgan of Clayton, N. M. Rae and J. R. Morgan of Amarillo, and Norman Morgan of Hobbs, N. M.; 8 nephews and three nieces; 3 great nieces and seven great nephews and a host of other relatives.

A large crowd of neighbors and friends filled the school gymnasium at Norwood Monday, November 12, for the funeral service.

ny. Passive resistance is the true way, because it avoids the act of killing and in the end will triumph over the murderers just as surely as did Jesus Christ. But this way you cannot choose for mankind has not yet developed the faith, the courage, nor the understanding that it requires.

All out determination will crush the material power of Atheism and the world will take up again where Christ left it, but with a hope of faith still left for the future.

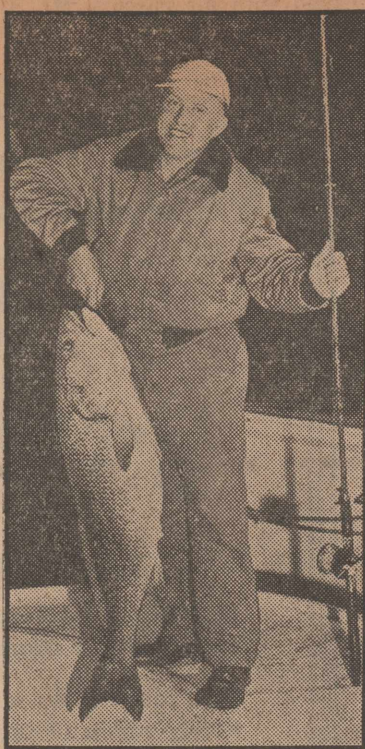

But by compromise, man will suffer long dark ages of hell that even you in America will not escape. In such compromise there is not only defeat and death, but worse there is no belief, no faith left, only abject slavery, poverty and misery which is forced by the tyranny of a man over men.

The choice lies with all out effort against what you know is wrong or surrender to tyranny by compromising faith in God for a devil's promise of Utopia. Nor will the latter course be without wars, many little limited "police actions" like Korea which nevertheless demand the utmost effort and maximum sacrifice of every individual involved and finally economic and spiritual exhaustion for all.

So we come to the elections of "52" which is your chance to alter this shameful, fearful weak-kneed compromising.

It is not a question of passing judgment upon and ousting this compromise leadership of Mr. Truman. It is a question of whether or not you can see that this leadership is no more nor less than the net total image of you American peoples' own weak temporizing, immoral compromising, awful wishful thinking, and dangerously unbalanced emphasis on materialism. If you cannot or will not see this, you may change the name of that leadership from Truman to Jones but it will not change the quality of that leadership. It will not change the direction of the road your feet are slipping toward now.

Earl Lynn Bartlett, freshman at John Tarleton College, was a holiday guest in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bartlett.

WEIGHTY EVIDENCE—Size of this 40-pound channel bass may be hard to top before the copper-colored fighters quit running in North Carolina's Oregon Inlet this winter. So far, it's the largest of the species to be taken in 1951 with rod and reel. The huge bass was landed by Elwood Groselose of Ivanhoe, Va., on tackle more suitable for a three-pound bluefish.

Mail Boxes Pulled Up Near Norwood

Vandals in the Samnorwood and Dozier area recently have torn up a number of mail boxes, believed to be as many as a dozen, and scattered them, Mrs. C. W. Fritts, Samnorwood correspondent for the Wellington Leader, has reported.

"The box from Mr. Broome's place was pulled up, plank and all, and dropped down by the Claude Whitfield place. The Whitfield box was pulled up and dropped at the farm where the Gonzales family lives, and we have had reports of others," Mrs. Fritts said.

She also reported that for some time, box owners had been troubled by individuals with a gun in their possession making targets of the mail boxes.

County Bond Sales $4,207

Collingsworth County's sales totaled $4,207.50 during the first U. S. Defense Bond drive, Nathan Adams of Dallas, state chairman, informed J. T. Forbis, local county chairman. The drive was held from Sept. 3 through Nov. 13.

Sales of $27,778,458.25 in Texas during the drive were almost 50 per cent more than normal, Mr. Adams said.

"Normally sales for this period would have been about $18,000,000 or $19,000,000," he said, "and the fact that sales were so much higher is definite proof that the people of Texas are responding, as they always do, to the country's need in national emergencies."

The sales total for the state included $22,459,665.25 in Series E bonds and $5,318,788 in Series F and G. There were no state or county quotas, the goal being the "largest possible" volume of sales.

Mr. Adams expressed appreciation to the thousands of citizens who served as volunteers in the drive, but urged that they continue their efforts.

"The need for buying Defense Bonds still exists," he said. "With our country engaged in a gigantic preparedness program, these bonds form an important economic link in our defense."

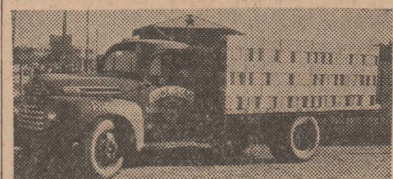

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Red Frazier went to Lubbock Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ward's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hoyer.

Cold More Dangerous Than Enemy

MARINE VET, VISITING AT QUAIL, TELLS OF ICY KOREAN FIGHTING

A youthful Marine who was born here and lived here as a child, recently returned after bitter fighting in Korea, and during Thanksgiving visited in Quail.

He is Marine Cpl. Donald R. Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ford, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fielding of Quail, whom he visited. The family moved to Lubbock about 1936.

The article below, by Bob Fenley, appeared recently in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

By BOB FENLEY
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer
Marine Cpl. Donald R. Ford who was pulled frozen and paralyzed from a foxhole during the Marines historic retreat from the Chosen reservoir to Hungnam has this to say about Korea: "I was never in my life so glad to see the United States as I was this week."

The 20-year-old Marine arrived home by plane and was met by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ford, 2214 Second Place, at the Lubbock airport.

Party Ambushed By Reds
About the time his party was ambushed while on a convoy to Kotor-1. The patrol had been burning thatched huts along the road-way to smoke out snipers. The bright glare of the fired huts reached out across the snow-blanketed land.

Then, silhouetted against the light, the Marines were caught in the middle with murderous fire from a Chinese Red ambush party.

"I think," he said, "that was the closest."

The patrol was raked for hours by everything the Reds could throw. Then slowly, with the help of supporting artillery and planes they were able to fight their way out of the trap.

But it wasn't bullets that brought the men down, he said, it was the bitter cold. At one time during December it was 30 degrees below zero and feet and hands turned white and dropped off.

Seventy-five percent of casualties were due to frostbite.

"We were fairly well clothed," he said, "but you had to keep moving or freeze."

Cpl. Ford, after a call to active duty July 28, 1950, landed at Inchon on Sept. 15. He was at that time with the 11th Marines and associated with a 155 millimeter howitzer firing team.

When the fighting around the reservoir grew heavy, Ford, whose job on the artillery team was a breach-block operator, was transferred to the Seventh Marine Infantry.

During the withdrawal to Hungnam, Ford said, the wounded and frostbitten were all evacuated — mostly carried by their comrades although some of the more badly wounded were taken out by air.

"We left no living behind," he said.

Ford brought back positive proof of Russian intervention in the Korean war — a .31 caliber rifle stamped plainly with the hammer and sickle.

A Chinese Red had come down from a machinegun emplacement to surrender. Ford took the .31 from him and then the Marine patrol went to rout out the rest of the emplacement.

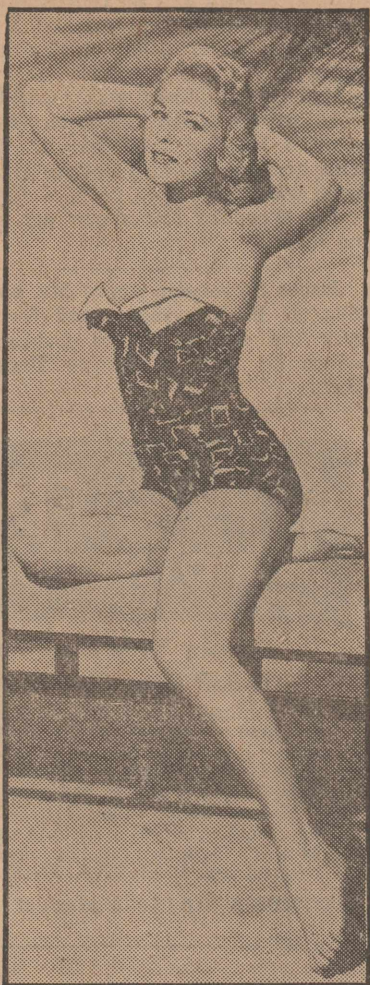

"We had to chase them over quite a few hills but we finally caught them — two Chinese and five North Koreans."

Ford said the Chinese soldier as a rule was "a shrewd character."

Their discipline is cruel, however. Among the souvenirs he brought back is a "swagger stick," a quirt-like leather whip about four feet long with a flat tab of leather on the end.

Ford said it was used by Communist officers to keep their men in line by flicking them on the face.

"The North Koreans were the worst about this," he said, "they are very cocky."

CIN SUNS SWEET—Snow and ice in the rest of the country leave lovely actress Cindy Garner unperturbed in warm Hollywood, California. Cindy is shown sunbathing in-between scenes. Between, it says.

Ford is dubious of current peace efforts and thinks the best policy would be to drive the Communists out of all Korea.

"The opinion of most of the fighting men over there is that we should by all means bomb Manchuria and cripple Red supply routes and possibly use the atom bomb."

Asked what general sentiment among his group was regarding the firing of Gen. MacArthur, Ford said, "Although no one had much to say against MacArthur, everybody was glad that Gen. Ridgeway assumed his command."

"The first news we had of it was from one of our lieutenants."

After Ford's group was evacuated by ship at Hungnam it was sent to a rest camp in Korea. But soon they were back in the fight.

Ford was sent back to the United States under the rotation plan with a Korean service record of 11 months and two weeks.

After a month's stay in Lubbock with his parents, he will go to Corpus Christi for the rest of his four months stay in the Marines.

And about Corpus Christi, "That's pretty good duty," he smiled.

13 Wins, One Loss to Date

NORWOOD TEAMS LOOK LIKE TOPS ON LOWER PANHANDLE COURTS

The Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes have picked up their strenuous cage schedule and fans predict that they'll be the "team that burns up the court" this year. Of seven games played before cotton picking, the boys won seven and the girls six.

Friday night will find the Eagles on their home court for a game with Lefors.

The Eaglettes show need for experience, but to date they have made up for that lack with speed and the will to play.

The Eagles, led by three seniors, Lawrence Overcast, Billy Alexander and Charles Dougherty, made a good pre-season showing and seem to have lost little of their skill during the cotton picking vacation.

The teams opened their season against Hedley, and the results of those games played before school dismissed were: Girls teams: Eaglettes 18, Hedley 26; Eaglettes 30, Carey 8; Eaglettes 27, Briscoe 22; Eaglettes 27, Briscoe 24; Eaglettes 35, Hedley 31; Eaglettes 39, Kelton 28; Eaglettes 40, Carey 8. Boys team: Eagles 26, Hedley 18; Eagles 46, Carey 6; Eagles 26, Briscoe 20; Eagles 32, Briscoe 20; Eagles 45, Hedley 19; Eagles 65, Kelton 32; Eagles 48, Carey 8.

The schedule for the remainder of the year include:

Nov. 30, Lefors at Samnorwood.

Dec. 4, Lelia Lake at Samnorwood.

Dec. 6, 7 and 8 — Perryton Tournament, (Boys) at Perryton.

Dec. 6, 7, and 8 — McLean Tournament, (Girls) at McLean.

Dec. 11, McLean at Samnorwood.

Dec. 18 — Lefors at Lefors.

Dec. 21 — McLean at McLean.

Dec. 28 and 29 — Whiteface.

Jan. 1 — Quail at Samnorwood.

January 8 — Wellington at Samnorwood.

Jan. 14 — Hollis at Hollis.

Jan. 17, 18 and 19 — Canadian Tournament at Canadian.

January 25 — Claude at Claude.

Jan. 29 — Kelton at Kelton.

Feb. 5 — Hollis at Samnorwood.
