Carter Wins In Squeaker

Wednesday update

Texans For Carter

By The Associated Press

Texans said "Yes" to Jimmy Carter Tuesday.

The Georgia peanut farmer came to the Lone Star State courtin hard hats, blue collar minorities and those he said were ready for "a leader-for a change."

He got them all-those in the little backwash communities, and those in the big, urban sprawl. He got the rural Democrats and the disenchanted minorities. He scored with labor along the Gulf Coast, and ransacked some conservative areas.

Voters close to 4 million strong ignored predictions of voter apathy and stood in long lines to say their piece. The weather was ideal.

Here are the latest Texas election returns at 9:00 a.m. from 252 of 254 counties with 198 complete:

President

Carter 1,868,756 Ford 1,730,246 McCarthy 16,443 Camejo 9,689 Anderson 1,662.

Senate

Bentsen 1,948,639 Steelman 1,446,919 Gallion 15,030 Vasquez 15,425.

Newton Wins Handily, Amendments Split

By The Associated Press

Democratic state legislator Jon Newton, surrounded by a busload of his hometown friends, was "loving every minute of it" Tuesday night as he watched returns showing him to be an easy winner of a seat on the powerful Texas Railroad Commission.

Newton, a 34-year-old three-term lawmaker from Beeville, drubbed Republican challenger Walter Wendlandt, an Austin attorney and former Commission engineer, by a two to one margin Tuesday.

Texans also handily voted down one of two consitutional amendments governing water planning and use in Texas. However, early today the second proposal was too close to call.

In state races for the Texas Board of Edcuation, Democrat Jimmy Elrad defeated H. Dell Foster in District 21 in San Antonio and Democrat Raymond Alexander outpolled Republican Jacqueline Barnhart in District 22 in Houston.

Here is how it looked, according to the latest returns from the Texas Election Bureau:

RAILROAD COMMISSION

Newton 2,047,965. Wendlandt 1,045,224. Garza 64,008, O'Reilly 20,226.

AMENDMENTS

No. 1 water develop For 781,607, Against 1,019,784.

No. 2 water improve For 947,104, Against 860,452.

HUGE TURNOUT
Scurry Vote Favors Ford

Turning out in record numbers for a general election, Scurry County voters Tuesday gave President Gerald Ford a slight edge over Jimmy Carter in the race for President of the United States, but otherwise followed state trends.

Actually, the Scurry vote for president deviated very little from the remainder of the state, except that the very slight advantage went to Ford rather than Carter, which was the case in the over-all Texas returns.

The complete, unofficial Scurry County returns showed 2,797 for Ford and 2,649 for Carter. The Republican President managed to carry the county largely on the strength of two big precincts in Snyder. Precinct 18 gave Ford an advantage of 688 to 303 and Precinct 15 favored the president by a count of 702 to 407, according to the complete, unofficial returns.

Ford carried only two rural precincts in Scurry County, No. 6 (Union) by 66-59, and No. 7 (Bison) by 42-36. He also held a slight advantage in the absentee box, 204-182. Carter ran strong in most of the Scurry rural precincts. His biggest margin was at Hermleigh where he got 204 votes and Ford got only 58.

A total of 5,523 voters cast ballots in Scurry County. This is almost 70 per cent of the potential, based on the last estimates on registration which showed a total of approximately 7,900.

Scurry County gave Democratic incumbent Lloyd Bentsen a substantial margin over Republican Alan Steelman in the race for the U.S. Senate. The complete, unofficial count showed 3,106 for Bentsen and 2,118 for Steelman.

Also, Democrat Jon Newton was favored heavily by Scurry voters over Republican Walter Wendlandt for Railroad Commissioner, with a total of 3,573 to 1,429.

Don Yarbrough, the Democratic Party's nominee for Associate Justice, Supreme Court of Texas, Place 2, who has been involved in litigation and faces possible disbarment proceedings, ran well ahead of two write-in candidates. The unofficial Scurry County returns gave Yarbrough 2,164 votes, while District Judge Sam Houston of Denton got 1,628 write-in votes, and Houston Attorney Tom Lorance got 197 write-in votes.

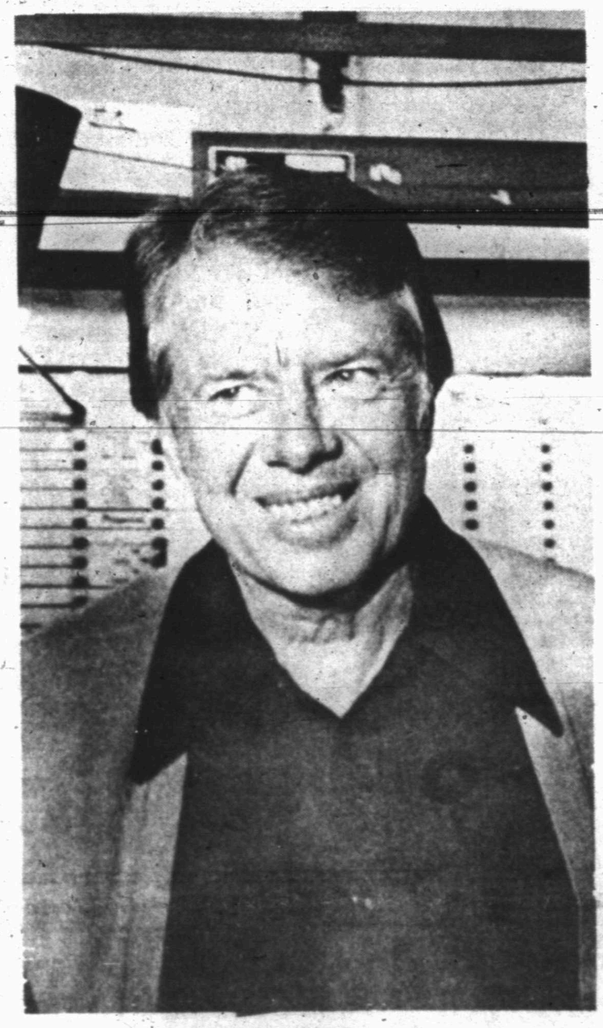

Candidates of minor parties fared poorly in Scurry County.

Vote Count In Uncontested Local Races

Unopposed candidates for local offices were largely overshadowed in Tuesday's general election balloting, but a majority of the voters took the time to mark their squares anyway, or else gave them votes by marking a straight party ticket.

The unofficial totals for local races, all of them in the Democratic Party column and all unopposed, showed the following: Wayland G. Holt, District Judge, 132nd District, 4,167; Lealand W. (Pete) Greene, District Attorney, 132nd District, 4,151; George R. Killam, County Attorney, 4, 164; Keith Collier, Sheriff, 4,255; Clarence Minton, Tax Assessor-Collector, 4, 261; Eldon Perry, County Commissioner, Precinct No. 1, 655; Charlie Yoast, County Comissioner, Precinct No. 3, 2,000; Oleta Lane, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 3, 257; W.D. (Bill) Love, Constable, precinct No. 1, 3,483; Rosa McDonald, Constable, Precinct No. 2, 109; Chessie E. Bailey, Constable, Precinct No. 3, 247; Jim Farr, Constable, Precinct No. 4, 252.

JIMMY CARTER
...all smiles today

Gerald Ford Concedes

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Jimmy Carter's long, once-solitary journey from Plains, Ga., will carry him to the White House in January with a victory forged from the traditional Democratic party coalition of the Old South and industrial North.

President Ford acknowledged Carter's victory shortly after noon with a "Dear Jimmy" telegram pledging a smooth transition of power. At the time Carter had 272 electoral votes, two more than needed to win, Ford, 235, and 31 undecided.

Carter was declared the victor over President Gerald Ford early today when his electoral vote total reached 272, two more than the 270 needed for election. Wisconsin and Mississippi were the states that established the Democratic candidate's majority in The Associated Press tabulation.

Three states — Oregon and Maine, where Ford held a slim lead, and Ohio, where Carter was ahead — remained too close to call. If Ford were to carry all three, Carter's victory margin would remain just two electoral votes.

The lead in California passed back and forth through the night with Ford finally declared the winner near daybreak.

Returning to Plains from his election headquarters in Atlanta, Carter received a tumultuous, emotional welcome from a crowd that included most of the town's 683 residents.

By The Associated Press

Here at a glance are the latest election returns in the race for president with 97 per cent of the nation's precincts reporting.

Carter 39,085,893 votes-51 p.c. Has won 23 states with 272 ev. Leads in 2 states with 31 ev

Ford 37,240,935 votes-48 p.c. Has won 26 states with 235 ev

Needed to win: 270 of the 538 electoral votes ev from the 50 states and the District of Columbia.

Beaming his now-famous smile, Carter told the crowd, "I told you I didn't intend to lose."

"It was a long night," he said when he regained his composure. "But I guarantee you, it's going to be worth it to all of us."

Six Tie For Weekly Prize In Contest

There was a big traffic jam at the top of the list in last week's Snyder Daily News football contest. Six contestants finished in a tie for first place, with four misses each.

They share the first and second place prize money this week, plus the second prize money from last week which was not awarded then because of a multiple tie.

The six winners include Paul Tate, 3202 Avenue W, Snyder; Leslie Bilberry, 106 Browning, Snyder; Erwin Pavlik, 2901 Thirty-eighth Street, Snyder; Shirley Pavlik, 2901 Thirty-eighth Street, Snyder; Marissa Austin, Route 2, Box 165, Snyder, and Monica Hinojos, 1301 Avenue R, Snyder.

Five other contestants were just out of the money with five misses each. They are Virginia Buerger, 1806 Thirty-seventh Street, Snyder; Alma Posey, 2206 Forty-fourth Street, Snyder; Don Witherspoon, 3608 Kerrville, Snyder; Florencio Valadez, 3404 Forty-fourth Street, and Mrs. R. Chamber Organizes For New Year; Banquet Set

The Board of Directors of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce was organized for 1977 last night as six members of the 12-man governing body were succeeded by six new members. Also discussed at last night's meeting of the Board of Directors was the possibility of having Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and former Texas governor Allan Shivers, as well as several other prominent persons, attend a banquet to be hosted in Snyder early next year.

Six members of the Board of Directors will have their terms of office expire next month. The outgoing directors are A.C. Floyd, Bill Dryden, Bill Sikes, Mickey Almond, Henry Clark, and Jimmie Joe Key.

They are being succeeded by Jack Gorman, Ray Englehardt, James Tully, Roy Kidd, Darwin Melton and Dorothy Downing. Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Henry said that Mrs. Downing will be the first woman member of the Board of Directors.

The new members of the board will assume their posts Jan. 1, Henry said.

New officers for 1977 are Henry Clark, president; John Cameron, president-elect; Jack Cypert, vice president; and H.W. Cargile, treasurer. Jimmie Joe Key, the current president, will assume the title of immediate past president.

Henry presented a report to the board last night concerning a banquet to be held in the honor of the late Mr. and Mrs. C.T. McLaughlin. While no date for the banquet has been firmly set, Henry said it would be held the last part of January or the first part of February at the Scurry County Coliseum.

Featured guests for the banquet will be Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, wife of the late President Johnson; Allan Shivers, a former governor of Texas and currently the chairman of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas system; Dr. Lorene Rogers, president of the University of Texas; and Ed Clark, a former American

School Finance Proposal Effect Here Is Unknown

Local school officials are still trying to determine how and to what extent Gov. Dolph Briscoe's public school financing program would affect Snyder Public Schools.

Supt. Bill J. Hood, who sat in on the session Monday at Austin when the Governor laid out his proposal for 90 per cent state financing of public schools, said he has been unable to determine how it would affect budget-balanced schools, such as Snyder.

"Nowhere in the material distributed is there any reference to budget-balanced schools," Hood said.

The Snyder superintendent said he had conferred with administrators of other schools and with state education officials, and so far nobody has any answers to this stiuation.

Hood said the print-out for Snyder Independent School District turned out by the Governor's office in compiling statistics for his proposal indicates that Snyder would receive some $667,000 in state funds, while contributing around $1,800,000 for the minimum program.

"Although it shows on paper that they plan to give us $667,000, deep down I know they are not going to do it," said Hood.

The print-out obviously was based on participation in the foundation program, and budget balanced schools at present do not participate in this program but instead pay their own way.

The statistics cited by the governor, who has proposed to pump $850 million in state money into public schools to reduce taxes at the local level, also contain tax valuation figures as compiled by the governor's staff. Snyder Independent School District's actual value is pegged at about $2½ billion. This is about a quarter of a billion higher than local appraisals.

Hood said he felt that the governor's proposal is a step toward equalizing financial support and standardizing the educational programs in the state's public schools. There would be limits established on the amount local districts could "enrich" their own programs beyond the state minimum.

"In fact, he (Gov. Briscoe) said there had to be a cap on local enrichment, or he couldn't go along with the program," said Hood. "He wants a corresponding reduction in local taxes in return for the state money the local districts will get."

The SDN Column

Texas Tech fans are prone to raise their voices these days, and why not? Their "Kid" Coach has the Red Raiders at the top of the heap in the Southwest Conference and they have made an impression nationally as well, moving up to No. 5 in the wire service polls. And this time, the signs indicate that they are not likely to suffer some of the disappointments that have dogged them in the past when they managed to beat the Texas Longhorns.

For a lot of folks in the SWC, a victory over the Longhorns has been regarded as tantamount to a conference pennant. But it is not so. There are always others in the league to be reckoned with, and in Texas Tech's case, heretofore they have had all of them to face after they met the Longhorns. It is different this time, and the University of Houston is responsible.

The entry of Houston into the conference football race this season resulted in a wholesale shake-up of schedules. For years, Tech met the Longhorns in September, their first conference game of the season. This time, they got the Steers the last of October and after they already had two SWC scalps (A&M and Rice) dangling from their belts.

Of course Houston may giveth and also taketh away, because the Red Raiders must face the new-comer Cougars farther down the line, but for the time being, at least, Tech's schedule is working out wonderfully well for Kid Coach Steve Sloan, who appears to be a person who knows what to do under such circumstances, and that is WIN.

Anyway, it has just about boiled down to the point where Texas Tech may be the Texas hope for winning conference honors in football this year. The big shootout at Little Rock, Ark., on Saturday, Nov. 27, could be decisive.

Meanwhile, people like Ernest Sears, Roy Burgess, Dr. Robert Hargrove and even City Manager George Patterson are living it up around the Monday morning quarterback circles, and many of the rest of us are inclined to join 'em. The Red Raiders not only appear to have the best chance among the Texas entries for conference honors, but they have helped halt some of the static north of the Red River. Colorado University defeated Oklahoma last Saturday. Remember what happened back on Sept. 11? Texas Tech knocked Colorado off, 24-7.

Yes sir, Things are looking up on the South Plains.

Tapes Are Taken In Car Burglary

Criminal activity in Snyder peaked Tuesday, according to police reports.

Sharon Townsend told officers that her car had been burglarized Tuesday morning while it was parked at the Snyder Lanes. Taken in the burglary, she reporteed to the officers, was approximately $75 worth of stereo tapes.

Mrs. Don Hamilton of 3407 Avenue U and Cloyce Scarberry of 321 Thirty-third Street both told officers that bicycles had been taken from their respective residences.

A telephone caller informed police officers last night that one of his neighbors was playing a stereo too loudly. After policemen arrived at a residence in the 1200 block of Twenty-seventh Street in response to the disturbance, they took into custody five persons for questioning concerning alleged possession of marijuana. The five suspects, four men and one juvenile, were taken into police custody shortly after 10 p.m. Tuesday were all released about 1 a.m. today.

A minor traffic accident occurred Tuesday at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday in the 3700 block of College Avenue. Involved in the collision were a 1974 Ford driven by John Grissom and a 1971 GMC driven by Joyce Stephens. Only minor damages were reported to the two vehicles.

The intersection of Sunset and Dalton Avenues was the scene of a minor collision Tuesday at 5 p.m. A 1969 jeep driven by Anne Vance Kitching collided with a 1964 Plymouth driven by Karen Buchanan. No one was injured in the mishap and only minor damages were reported.

Food Dollar Goes Further In San Antonio

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Grocery shoppers in San Antonio are getting the most for their food dollar and Corpus Christi shoppers the least, the Texas Department of Agriculture reported Tuesday.

It was the second consecutive month for San Antonio to rank as the No. 1 food bargain area.

The McAllen-Edinburg area was the most expensive for food in September, but Corpus Christi moved ahead in October, the department said.

Agriculture Commissioner John White said the October survey of 70 supermarkets in 12 cities showed that the price of 20 commonly purchased items in San Antonio averaged $17.20, an increase of 42 cents from September.

The same items cost $18.89 in Corpus Christi.

The statewide average was $18.26.

Other cities surveyed Oct. 19 reflected the following food basket prices: Austin $17.79, down four cents from September; El Paso $17.97, down 10 cents; Tyler $18.21, down three cents.

WTC Shows Drawings By Fran Davis

Mixed media drawings by Fran Davis are currently being featured in the Fine Arts Gallery at Western Texas College.

Ms. Davis, a Houston artist, received her bachelor of fine arts degree from Texas Tech University and her master of fine arts degree from Sam Houston State University.

Ms. Davis says of her works, "These collage drawings are dream works. They're visions or dreams that come from the recesses of the mind and are visualized through the exterior senses and their experience. It is my hope that they are strong enough to reach out to the individual viewer, striking that person in a way that is uniquely personal."

The Fine Arts Gallery is open from 8:30-5 each weekday and the public is invited to see the exhibits there without admission charge. Ms. Davis's drawings will remain in the gallery through November.

Chamber Board

Ambassador to Australia.

The board also heard a special presentation made by J.D. James. James, a veteran of World War II, told the board that the rights of many American war veterans were being neglected.

James proposed to the board that he be allowed to form a united veterans organization in Snyder. James said he wanted to form a coalition of the local chapters of the American Legion, the Disabled American Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A coalition of American war veterans, James said, would serve to promote the protection of veterans' rights. James proposed that the veterans assembly be made independent of the Chamber of Commerce but that it would have the authority to present its views and ideas through the local Chamber organization.

The motion was made by Ed Thrift and seconded by Bill Dryden that James be permitted to form the coalition and that the united veterans group could have its views represented through the Chamber.

In examining the Chamber's financial reports, the board members learned that the Chamber lost approximately $3,500 during the local July 4 celebration.

Income for the month of July was $8,401 while disbursements were $11,932. The board came to the conclusion that the tractor pull was one of the major reasons for the loss.

The board members discussed ways of making the next July 4 celebrations more financially sound, but took no definite action in the matter.

The board also learned that Christmas decorations for the downtown Snyder area were in need of upgrading and, in some cases, replacement. Some $1,900 worth of Christmas decorations have been ordered and the cost is to be split equally among the Chamber, the city and Scurry County.

LaVerta Lovell of the Chamber staff presented a report to the board relating to a national Airstream rally. The rally will be held in Snyder at the Scurry County Coliseum from Sept. 24 to Oct. 2, 1977. Some 300 to 600 trailers are expected to be present in the rally.

New membership plaques for local businesses participating in Chamber-related activities have been ordered. The directors authorized the purchase of 500 of the new plaques at a cost of $2.74 each. The new plaques will be 6¾ inches by 8⅝ inches. They will be made of plastic and will replace the old plaques made of cardboard.

A shoplifting seminar will be held Nov. 9 for the owners and employes of local firms.

Approximately 30 persons have pledged to attend the workshop and seminar.

H.W. Cargile, John Boren and Ed Thrift were appointed to a Chamber auditing committee at Tuesday night's meeting. Members for a budget committee will be Jimmie Joe Key, John Cameron and Henry Clark.

A promotional brochure for Snyder and Scurry County was also presented to the board members last night. Henry said the pages of the brochure are in the process of being proof-read. After the proof-reading, the brochure will be sent to press. The completed brochure is expected to be ready next month, Henry said.

The cost of the brochure will be split equally among the Chamber, the city, the BCD and Western Texas College.

A pre-legislative conference is going to be held in Fort Worth Dec. 2 and 3. In attendance at the conference will be about 10 state legislators.

Henry and Clark said they planned to attend the conference and that any other board members who wished to attend were invited to do so.

Omaha, Neb., was incorporated as a city in 1857.

3 Charged With Possession Of Marijuana

Three of the five men arrested over the weekend for possession of marijuana were formally charged by the District Attorney's office Tuesday afternoon.

Ollie Ray Brandon, 27, Johnny Collins, 32, and David Joseph Johnston, 21, were all charged with felony possession of marijuana.

Brandon and two other men were taken into police custody last Friday night at 3002 Avenue K. The other two men were not charged, it was reported, because the marijuana was not alleged to be in their possession. Brandon has been released from county jail after posting a $1,500 bond.

Collins and Johnston were arrested in a raid at 7 a.m. Saturday at 2707 Twenty-fifth Street. Collins was released from county jail after he posted a $5,000 bond.

Law enforcement officers reported finding caches of approximately 50 pounds of marijuana with an estimated street value of about $8,000. The 50 pounds of marijuana is believed to be the largest amount of marijuana ever confiscated in Scurry County.

STITCHIN' TIME

Making Something? Use Patches

By Joanne Schreiber

Patchwork continues as a top fashion and sewing story for fall. A long skirt of soft velveteen patches, a patchwork tote bag for your needle work, a patchwork pillow in a cozy corner—all indicate the magic of patchwork is as strong as ever.

Patchwork is most effective when you combine as many as a half-dozen patterns, along with color-mated solids. And just in case you don't trust your own eye to select patterns that go together, Crompton makes it easy with packs of beautiful velveteen patches, color-coordinated by talented designers. These four-by-four patches are packed 50-to-a-pack, complete with patchworking instructions. You can make a complete tote bag from four or five packs, depending on your size or a solid skirt with patchwork border from one pack. Or you can stretch your pack by getting solid color velveteens, to mix in with the patterned patches. You could even piece out with corduroy, for texture and color contrast.

Or, you can buy a commercial pattern to aid you in making patchwork garments and accessories. But you can probably create your own designs. A simple gathered skirt, for instance, requires no pattern—just a waistband and zipper.

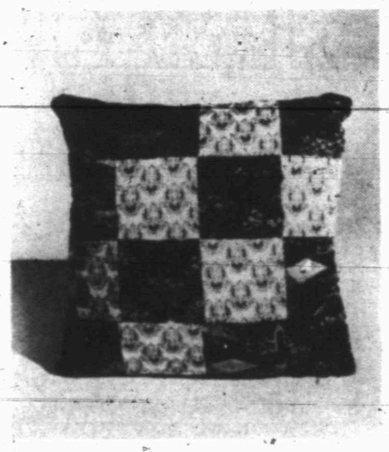

When working with velveteen, be sure the nap runs the same way on all the pieces. Sew with a size 14 needle and a cotton-polyester thread. And since velveteen is tricky to press, don't even try to press the seams open. Instead, spread the seam allowances open with your fingers and topstitch one-fourth inch either side of the seamline. This will give a nicely finished look, while controlling the seam allowances.

While velveteen is lovely for winter patchwork, you can do patchwork from just about any fabric. Satins and taffeta will blend beautifully with the velveteen. For summer, choose from cottons, denims, sailcloth and similar outdoorsy fabrics.

You can even do patchwork with synthetic knits. When working with this slithery stuff, use serrated lingerie shears to cut the patches evenly. You can even stabilize the whole piece of goods before cutting by backing it with one of the new lightweight fusible interfacings.

If this is your Christmas to sew up your gifts, consider a patchwork present—a handsome vest, for a man or a woman, a rich caftan a luxurious throw, backed and bordered in solid velvet. Patchwork is always in style. If you have not been collecting materials to cut your own patches, the Crompton patches kit is available in major department and specialty stores. (Approximate price, $10.)

CREATE PATCHWORK DESIGNS—Patchworks is the name of the game with patches being fashionable in men's and women's wear and for items around the home. For gift giving make a tote bag (right) of 50 4x4 pinked squares of velveteen or a pillow cover.

Opening lead — 7 ♠

By Oswald & James Jacoby

West's club opening is the sort of psychic that is still tried by some bridge players. This time it caused South, instead of North to be declarer at the good heart slam, but also alerted South to the danger of a bad club break.

West opened the seven of spades and South went right up with dummy's ace. Then he looked around for the safest way to make his slam and found one that just about was ironclad.

At trick two he led a diamond to his ace. Then he came back to dummy with a trump and cashed the king of diamonds in order to get rid of one losing spade. Then he led dummy's last diamond and ruffed in his hand. Next he led his last spade to dummy's queen.

East won and led a trump which was won in dummy. The last spade was led and ruffed by his ace of trumps, and South had to lead a club to get back to dummy.

He was a trifle nervous. West might have held six clubs for his psychic opening, but when East had to follow all was sunshine. He drew the remaining trumps and the dummy was good.

Merel Haggard Is Resting Up

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Country music star Merle Haggard is "somewhere between Arizona and Los Angeles, resting up from too much stress and pressure on the road," his manager says.

"He'd been on tour for three weeks, and I guess it just got too much for him," manager Fuzzy Owen said Tuesday when contacted here about the singer's disappearance. "He's been under quite a strain."

Haggard failed to appear for weekend concerts in Denver and Salt Lake City, and a spokesman for Harrah's Club in Reno said Haggard called the hotel late Sunday to cancel an engagement which was to have begun Monday.

Utah law enforcement agencies tried to locate Haggard after receiving an anonymous telephone call saying the singer's body could be found in a Nevada gully. But Owen said he's been in touch with the star and "there is nothing to worry about." He's with his bus driver and they're just taking a little vacation. Merle just needed a few days off."

Teen Busted for Going Braless

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I have always considered myself a very fair-minded person and have tried to look at things from all points of view, but this has me stumped.

I have a 16-year-old daughter I'll call Barbie. Well, Barbie believes that it's everyone's right to do as he pleases as long as it doesn't hurt anybody and there is no law against it. This includes going braless, and that's what Barbie does.

She's a nice-looking girl, but she's "top-heavy." Her teacher has called me three times to tell me that if I keep letting Barbie come to school without a bra, she will be expelled.

Abby, do you know any 16-year-old high school girl who lets her mother dress her? Neither do I, and that's my problem. She's a good student and I've never had any trouble with her until now.

Can you help me?

BARBIE'S TROUBLED MOM

DEAR MOM: Does the school have a dress code? If it does, and a bra is required, Barbie could be out of bounds in more ways than one. If there is no dress code, the complaining teacher is guilty of making threats she can't carry out, and SHE is out of bounds. Call the high school principal and get the facts.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 36-year-old whose husband left me for a younger woman. I cried my heart out, than I met a young man I could really relate to. We fell in love, and now we have a beautiful relationship unlike anything I've ever known. This last year has been the happiest in my entire life!

The problem: He is only 23. Abby, is it possible for two people who love each other to overcome such a big difference in age? He's older in the head and I look younger in the face, so we look fine together. I have two sons, 11 and 13.

ON CLOUD 8 IN CHICAGO

DEAR ON: Ride those clouds a little longer before you make any permanent decisions. If it's the real thing, it will last. If everything else works, the age difference is unimportant.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing this letter hoping that your millions of readers (parents and teenagers) will read it.

We are foster parents who care for infants who are born out of wedlock and need homes until their adoptions go through.

Now we have a beautiful 4-week-old girl whose mother changed her mind, hastily married the baby's father and decided to keep her baby. Both the mother and father are 15 years of age.

The girl's parents are very much against their daughter's decision, so these 15-year-olds are getting an apartment and joining the welfare rolls.

Yesterday I met the young parents and was heartsick. They sat there giggling the whole time they visited their baby.

I wanted so much to say, "If you really love this little girl, you will do what is best for her. Please let some nice, mature couple adopt her and give her the many advantages you can't offer her."

Instead, I sat there feeling sorry for the child who was going to be raised by parents who were only children themselves.

I pray that you will remind teenagers to think twice before having a sexual relationship—at least until they are old enough to accept the consequences.

HEARTBROKEN FOSTER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your letter is a powerful testimony to the aims and purposes of Planned Parenthood. Most accidental pregnancies carry with them the seeds of human tragedy. Sexually active people (especially youngsters) need to realize this. Legalized abortion is a sad substitute for birth control or self-control.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Pepper Overlooked As Spice For Baking

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Use of spices is an ancient holiday tradition. But do you realize that pepper is included with other spices in many cookie and cake recipes?

The Christmas tree and spiced cookies first became a Geman tradition. Other northern countries had their own versions of holiday baked goods using spices. Even today, the spice trade reports that the largest sales of the year are in November and December when women ready themselves for the Christmas baking season.

We discussed this with Lillian Stuckey, an expert in spice use and coauthor of "The Spice Cookbook." Published in 1964 and reissued several times, it is regarded as the authoritative work on the subject.

Historically German cooks valued nutmeg for Christmas baking. It was very expensive then but every good hausfrau always dug up enough at Christmas time. And, as a gift, it was rated superb.

"One of the most famous Christmas cookies, from far back in history is pfeffernuesse, those hard little balls filled with spices and black pepper. Yes, black pepper. Then came lebkuchen, those spiced treats flavored with honey, allspice, anise, nutmeg, cinnamon, molasses and citron. AND pepper." Miss Stuckey observes, adding, "This may surprise you—black pepper actually adds a flowering fragrance combined with spices. No, it does not taste as you might expect.

"Another suggestion—pepper pound cake. Use a regular pound cake recipe but add a touch of black pepper," she continues.

Times change and appetites, too. Here are a few of Miss Stuckey's observations:

Do you have trouble shaking pepper freely from some of your old-fashioned shakers? That is because more pepper is being ground more coarsely than it used to be and the hole sizes in pepper shakers haven't always caught up.

Even "normal grind" isn't as fine as it was before World War II. Larger than normal is "coarse grind" black pepper and coarsest of all is cracked black pepper or "butchers" grind.

We use nine or ten times more black pepper than white in America. Black pepper is more pungent, white pepper more subtle. Comparatively new on the market are greem peppercorns in brine or wine vinegar, which offers still another variant in flavor.

Black, white and green peppercorns are products of the same vine—piper nigrum. Black pepper is a little under-ripe when picked and sold with its outer skin; white pepper is completely ripe at picking time then the outer coat is removed. Green peppercorns are the soft and immature berries which must be kept in a liquid.

WORK PROGRESSING—Construction work is moving forward on the Windridge Apartments just south of Cogdell Center in South Snyder. The 48-unit complex, which is being developed by Murry Bowden, is one of the larger construction projects to emerge here this year. Two of the buildings have been completed, and the entire project is scheduled for completion by the end of the year. Setting forms for sidewalks are, from left, Cliff Autry, John Wester and Bob Van Huss. Phillen Construction Co. of Austin is the contractor.

Bentsen Wins Second Term In US Senate

By The Associated Press

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., a veteran South Texas campaigner has won a second term in the U.S. Senate by beating back a surprisingly strong challenge by North Texas Republican Alan Steelman.

Bentsen, who put on a campaign blitz in the last few weeks while Steelman was being hurt by lack of funds, was in trouble in the large metropolitan areas of the state, but he offset his losses with huge gains in the smaller counties and the rural areas.

The latest returns from the Texas Election Bureau, with 4,902 precincts reported out of 5,422, gave Bentsen 1,926,852 votes, 57 per cent, and Steelman 1,414,526, 41 per cent. Marjorie Gallion, a Crane housewife, trailed far behind with 14,332 votes.

Bentsen acknowledged his victory late in the evening and sighed: "It is especially gratifying not to be included among the Senate incumbents who met defeat.

"It's been a bad day for incumbents in Senate races across the nation," he said. "From New York and Maryland to Tennessee and Indiana and points west, incumbent senators are being voted out of office. I pledge to continue serving our state and nation to the best of my ability during the next six years."

Meanwhile in Dallas, Steelman, who gave up a safe 5th Congressional District seat to take on Bentsen, refused to concede defeat early in the evening despite a comfortable 65-35 percentage lead by Bentsen, but late at night he called Bentsen to congratulate him.

He declined to make any comments.

Steelman, 32, carried Dallas and Denton counties and put up a good fight in Harris County (Houston) early in the evening, at times leading by nearly 50,000 votes, before Bentsen surpassed him.

Steelman also was strong in some West Texas oil counties.

But the rest was Bentsen country as the veteran politician, who had also run statewide last May in the presidential primary and the primary for the Senate nomination, rolled on to secure his second term in the Senate.

It was a battle between a party loyalist, Bentsen, and a Republican maverick who was on record as saying he was not accountable to party bosses and openly courted liberal Democrats.

Both Bentsen and Steelman were Texas-oriented in their philosopical approach although Steelman, because of his record in Congress in favor of environmentalist legislation and his support of minority business enterprises, appeared to have a more liberal image.

Bentsen openly endorsed Carter in the last weeks of the campaign.

Cancellation Of Flights Extended

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Continental Airlines has extended cancellation of its flights through Nov. 12 and says it will furlough about 2,500 additional employes as a strike by pilots entered its 12th day today.

"With no negotiations scheduled, prospects for a quick settlement are discouraging," Continental Chairman Robert Six said Tuesday.

Six said the new employe layoffs will begin Friday, bringing the number of workers idled by the strike to nearly 7,000 excluding Continental's 1,086 pilots. Of the new furloughs, 836 will be from Los Angeles offices, officials said.

"Unless the pilots dramatically revise their demands, there is no point in resuming talks," Six said. He noted he had turned down a request to meet striking Air Line Pilots Association officials over the weekend.

But Gary Thomas, chairman of the union's executive council, said he is still hopeful the two sides may hold preliminary talks before the end of the week in an effort to get negotiations back on track.

Six suggested the union contact the National Labor Relations Board, which could decide if the offer involved "substantial revised demands."

Continental, which says it is losing $1.6 million per day, normally operates 383 arrivals and departures daily in 31 cities in the West, Southwest and Hawaii. The airline carries an average of 21,000 passengers and 1.2 million pounds of freight per day.

The Sierra Nevada encompasses eight national forests, five wilderness areas, three national parks and one national monument.

Dr. Lamb

Is she starving self?

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am 13. A couple of months ago I went on a starvation diet. Now everytime I put food in my stomach I get very bad pains in my sides, back and stomach. I went to the doctor and he said I had an infection of the urinary tract. Do you think the infection is causing the pain or do you think the problem is my stomach?

DEAR READER—My tentative answer is no to both questions. Your letter disturbs me because young girls your age are susceptible to a condition called anorexia nervosa. The problem begins with the girl thinking she is overweight and going on a severe diet—as you have done—or even inducing vomiting after eating to "become thin."

The girl loses proper perspective of her own body image and imagines she is fatter than she really is. With her very real distortion of the facts she perists on a starvation diet and gradually becomes emaciated and has a severe disturbance in normal hormonal development. Such a girl may not have normal menstruation. In fact, menses may be totally absent.

Unfortunately the victim is sufficiently out of touch with the realities of the situation that she seldom accepts facts and frequently cannot manage her own case. She needs professional help.

I wonder if your starvation diet was not the beginning of this problem for you. It centers around the problems of endocrine changes and puberty, involving psychological aspects of development. Having a physical reaction to eating when you think eating is going to make you fat, even if you are not fat, may well be the cause of your pain.

I don't doubt that you have a urinary tract infection. Your resistance to infection may be lowered.

Let me urge you to make a factual appraisal of whether or not you have lost weight. If you have lost quite a few pounds I hope you will make arrangements to get some professional counseling in a mental health clinic. A review of the possibility of your having anorexia nervosa or realted psychological problems in that instance will be essential to your future health.

Meanwhile, I am sending you The Health Letter, number 2-2, Low Carbohydrate Diet Fads to give you more information on the harmful effects of unwise dieting. That includes fasting. Others who want this information on the Atkins' diet and other low carbohydrate fads can send 50 cents with a long stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Just send your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P. O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Some health articles recommend eating liver, kidneys, hearts and tongue. My friend tries to tell me they are too toxic. What do you think?

DEAR READER—The organ meats available in the grocery stores are not poisonous. Almost all of them are fairly high in cholesterol. A three-and-a-half ounce (100 grams) serving of liver, raw weight, contains 300 milligrams of cholesterol, more than you find in an egg yolk. However, it is very low in fat.

Lean heart muscle is low in fat and is much lower in cholesterol. Toungue is both fat and contains a moderate amount of cholesterol. So, I think you can eat these organ meats in moderation. However, I would like to say that the vitamin content of these organ meats can also be obtained by taking almost any of the all purpose daily vitamin pills without increasing your intake of cholesterol.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bo Schembechler and the Michigan Wolverines never have been known as the Happiness Boys, but they are capable of making an occasional joke.

Here is one courtesy of Scheembechler: "We have to keep our momentum going. There are teams left on our schedule that can still beat us."

And from quarterback Rick Leach: "You can't take any Big Ten team for granted."

Well, yes, there still are teams on Michigan's schedule that can beat the Wolverines. There is Ohio State on Nov. 20 and whatever team they play in whatever bowl they go to.

But first there is Purdue this Saturday and Illinois next week. The last time the Wolverines lost to those teams was 1966, when Purdue won a 22-21 squeaker and Illinois prevailed 28-21.

So, in this election year, the immediate choice lies between Michigan and Purdue, and here is one vote for ... Michigan 35-6.

Last week's score was 48 right, 23 wrong for a .676 percentage, making the season's count to 385-157-10—.710.

Florida vs. Georgia at Jacksonville: This game is similar to the Texas-Oklahoma war in Dallas with 72,000 screaming fans split down the middle. Breaking the tie, here's one shaky vote for ... Florida 27-21.

Oklahoma State at Nebraska: "The thing that impresses me about the Cornhuskers is everything," says State's Jim Stanley. We're impressed, too, Jim ... Nebraska 31-21.

Colorado at Missouri: Last weekend, the Big Eight scramble was reduced from a five-way tie to a three-team deadlock. Now, Colorado must win to remain tied with the Oklahoma State-Nebraska winner ... Missouri 24-17.

Houston at Texas: It is elimination time in the Southwest Conference ... Houston 20-16.

Army at Pitt: Army is improved, but the Panthers and Tony Dorsett are too much, too soon ... Pitt 38-13.

Southern California at Stanford: This used to be the Blood Bowl when John McKay was at USC and said he wanted to beat Stanford by 2,000 points. But with ailing Ricky Bell below par, this looks like the Upset Special of the Week ... Stanford 28-24.

Texas Tech at Texas Christian: Tech Coach Steve Sloan says he will shave his head if the Red Raiders make it to the Cotton Bowl. TCU, 0-7 and a strong possibility to go 0-11, will not do much to dull the razor ... Texas Tech 45-14.

Cincinnati at Maryland: The Bearcats enjoyed their one-week stay in the Top Twenty before a 31-17 loss to Georgia knocked them out ... Maryland 28-14.

Illinois at Ohio State: The Illini started out 2-0, including a big victory over nationally ranked Missouri. But now they must win two of their final three games to have a winning season. And, unfortunately, they play Michigan next week. This week ... Ohio State 31-13.

Notre Dame at Georgia Tech: Pepper Rodgers was knocked cold during last week's loss to Duke when one of his players tripped over a telephone cord, yanking the earphones off the head of an assistant coach and whacking Pepper in the face. This one is going to hurt, too ... Notre Dame 24-14.

Arkansas at Baylor: The Razorbacks still are tied with Texas Tech in an attempt to return to the Cotton Bowl. Arkansas recently had two weeks off and beat Houston. Now Baylor has had two weeks off. A lightning-strikes-twice hunch and a Second Upset Special ... Baylor 20-17.

Louisiana State at Alabama: LSU certainly was not looking ahead when the Tigers walloped Ole Miss 45-0, but 'Bama might be with Notre Dame one week away. A third Upset Special was in the works until it came to mind that Bear Bryant always — well, almost always — teaches his former pupils a lesson ... Alabama 21-14.

Minnesota at Northwestern: So let us make this the third Upset Special instead, as the nation's longest losing streak comes to an end at 14 ... Northwestern 24-20.

Kansas State at Oklahoma: Just what the doctor ordered for the Sooners after all those injuries and other problems ... Oklahoma 41-14.

Tulsa at Virginia Tech: One of the day's better games, with Tulsa 5-2 and VPI 6-2. The winner will be looking for a bowl bid ... Virginia Tech 20-14.

Other games:

East — Brown 13, Dartmouth 10; Colgate 20, Bucknell 10; Columbia 10, Cornell 7; Delaware 26, Davidson 7; Holy Cross 23, Massachusetts 14; Harvard 28, Penn 7; Penn State 29, North Carolina State 12; Rutgers 21, Louisville 18; Syracuse 17, Navy 10; Yale 23, Princeton 6.

Southwest—Rice 33, Southern Methodist 22; West Texas State 34, Lamar 17.

Far West — UCLA 42, Oregon 10; Arizona 27, Wyoming 23; Arizona State 32, Air Force 12; Brigham Young 41, Texas-El Paso 17; Colorado State 40, Idaho 10; Long Beach State 31, Fresno State 7; Fullerton State 14, Pacific 8; Hawaii 24, Kent State 14.

SITTIN' ON THE SIDELINES

By BUCK SITTON

You can prove anything by comparative scores. Take Snyder and Dunbar, for instance. The Dunbar Panthers defeated Lubbock Estacado 27-0, and Snyder beat the same team, 20-0. That makes Dunbar seven points better than the Tigers.

On the other hand, Lamesa beat Dunbar 21-0 and beat Snyder 9-6. That makes Snyder 18 points better than Dunbar.

Or, consider the Sweetwater games. Snyder won that one 27-14, and Dunbar won, 21-14.

That makes Snyder better than the Panthers by six points.

Any way you figure it, we believe the Tigers will keep their momentum going this week and beat Dunbar by about 21-14.

We were embarrassed last week, picking Estacado to beat the Tigers. What happened? The Tigers went out and socked the Matadors 20-0 in a game that was supposed to be close. Most of the writers picking winners saw Estacado winning over Snyder before the game. And, most of them, like me, are eating crow this week.

Anyhow, we'll go out on a limb and pick the other games in District 3-AAA. We see Lamesa beating Estacado, 10-7, and Lake View besting Sweetwater 35-14.

In Southwest Conference games this week, this corner favors Arkansas over Baylor by about 28-14, Houston over Texas by 24-21 and SMU over Rice by 28-21.

A&M's Tony Franklin is certainly putting the foot back in football. Against Baylor with 10:03 left in the second quarter, Franklin kicked a 64 yard field goal to set an NCAA record. With 9:07 left in the third quarter, he kicked a 65-yarder to break his own record.

"I really didn't hit the first one good," Franklin said on the sideline as the final seconds were ticking away in a 24-0 Aggie win. "I rushed it a little and got it too high. I thought it was going to be short, but the wind just carried it far enough. There wasn't any doubt about the second one. I hit it a lot better."

Strange as it seems, Franklin, a sophomore from Fort Worth Arlington Heights, is hitting .714 from 50 yards or more and .667 from under 50.

It took a full seven games to do it, but the Houston Cougars can claim to be the most versatile offensive team in the 62-year history of the SWC. They gained the most passing yards ever in the SWC Saturday, 443 in that 49-21 victory over TCU, and their 548 rushing yards four games ago against West Texas State is the fifth best rushing total in SWC history. Unless some other team topples one of those marks, the Cougars will become the first team to lead the SWC in single-game rushing and passing totals in one season. The Cougars also averaged 19 yards gained per pass attempt and almost 25 yards per completion, while Don Bass set a conference record with four touchdown catches and moved to sixth in SWC pass yardage gained in a single game with 188.

Tiger Girls Defeat Sweetwater

SWEETWATER—The Snyder High School girls varsity volleyball team defeated Sweetwater last night, 15-10, 15-7.

On offensive setting, Dana Elrod averaged 90 per cent and Donna West 80 per cent.

At the net, Kathy Harrell averaged 90 per cent, Julia Glass 75 per cent, Della Braziel 67 per cent, Donna West 67 per cent, Pam Kohl 64 per cent, and Shelly Nutt 57 per cent.

On defense, Kathy Harrell averaged 73 per cent, Della Braziel 70 per cent, Pam Kohl 63 per cent, Shelly Nutt 63 per cent and Julia Glass 60 per cent.

The JV also won 15-1, 15-4.

Also last night, Estacado beat Lamesa to eliminate them from the district race. Snyder can wrap up the title with a victory at Lubbock Dunbar next Tuesday night.

Atwood Wins 37-6

Walton Construction forfeited to Grimmett Brothers-Haberdashery in a flag football game last night.

In the second game last night, Atwood Construction defeated Snyder Well Service, 37-6. Willis Harris intercepted a pass for Snyder Well Service, running down to Atwood's three yard line. Atwood Construction's defense held for four downs, but a penalty gave Snyder Well Service an extra play and Durwood Hopper passed to Willis Harris for six points.

Atwood Construction came back with six touchdowns. Dave Ratliff passed to Bill Philen for four touchdowns, and he passed to Dody Brazil for two touchdowns. Brazil also scored a conversion point.

In a makeup game played Monday night, Grimmett Brothers- Haberdashery defeated Snyder Well Srvice 14-0. Jimmy Don Dyess passed to Franky Grimmett for six points. Landry Says Pokes Tough

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Tom Landry still hasn't come up with a measuring stick for his 1976 version of the Dallas Cowboys but says he's never seen a mentally tougher team.

"We are as mentally tough as we have ever been," says Landry. "Being mentally tough is performing at maximum efficiency when under the greatest stress."

Landry said he couldn't measure the team yet against the 1975 Super Bowl club.

"It is one of the toughest teams we've ever taken to Washington," said Landry.

Dallas whipped the Redskins in Washington 20-7 Sunday for the first time in five years.

9th Grade Gold Wins

The 9th Grade Gold team defeated Colorado City 15-7, 15-9 in a girls volleyball match here yesterday.

The 9th Grade Black team meets Lamesa there at 6 p.m. Friday.

Lubbock Dunbar Hosts Snyder Tigers Thursday

"It's just the same as last week. We've got to watch out for their speed."

Thus Mike Jenkins, head football coach of the Snyder Tigers, summed up the challenge facing his team this week when they take on the Lubbock Dunbar Panthers in Lubbock at 7:30 Thursday night.

Jenkins said the Panthers have two outstanding runners in halfbacks Kenneth James, a 178-pound junior; and Dennis Gentry, a 175-pound senior.

"Both run the 100 in less than 10 seconds," Jenkins pointed out.

"We can't afford to let them put over the big play," he added.

The Tigers did a good job of stopping Michael Sims, Estacado's speed merchant, last week. The secret is not letting the fast runners get outside where they can hurt you with their speed. Sims gained only 32 yards on nine carries against the Tigers.

Dunbar runs from a wing set and also from the wishbone. Their fullback is Gary Adams, 185-pound senior. The quarterback is Walter Alsbrooks, a 165-pound junior.

Jenkins said the Panthers have a lot of incentive to win this one since they are still in the district race. On the other hand, Jenkins pointed out, the Tigers would like to knock them out of the race. Dunbar has lost only one game this year and sports a 5-1-2 record compared with a 5-3 mark for the Tigers. The Panthers have rolled up 140 points this year while yielding 86 to the opposition. Snyder has scored 106 and given up 96 points.

There have been three common opponents. Dunbar beat Estacado 27-0 and Snyder beat the same team 20-0. Lamesa bested Snyder 9-6 and beat Dunbar 21-0. Both teams beat Sweetwater, Snyder by 27-14 and Dunbar by 21-14.

Coach Jenkins said Snyder's main ball carrier, fullback Ricky Beard, probably will not start Thursday night. He's still hampered by a fractured bone in the big toe. However, he may see limited duty.

"Our lineup probably will be the same as last week," Jenkins said.

That means Tim Falls, 165-pound senior, will be guiding the Tiger veer attack. His running mates will be tailback Clay Peterson, 150-pound junior; flanker back Johnny Velasquez, 145-pound junior; and, either Doug Morrell or Hurbert Thompson at fullback. Morrell is a 160-pound senior, and Thompson is a 170-pound junior.

Defensively, both teams use a five man front. Sometimes the Panthers have three linebackers while the Tigers use only two.

Jenkins said the Tigers would like to win their last two games—against Dunbar this week and at Brownfield next week.

"That would give us a 7-3 season record," he pointed out.

Defensively, the Tigers could have Thompson at left end, Willis at left tackle; Darrell Lester, 220-pound senior, at left linebacker; Gary Hamilton, 150-pound junior, at nose guard; Greg Pavlik, 204-pound senior, at right linebacker; David Rice, 201-pound senior, at right tackle; Ricky Fritz, 172-pound senior, at right end; Doug Morrell, 160-pound senior, at monster; Randy Shipp, 170-pound junior, and Ramsey Tercero, 155-pound senior, at halfback; and, Brent Terry, 150-pound senior, at safety.

Look for a close, hard fought ball game. This corner feels the Tigers will take a 21-14 victory.

Tech's Allison Wins AP Award

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

It's several hours after the biggest victory of his coaching career and Texas Tech Coach Steve Sloan is describing a sideline scenario in which he thought Rodney Allison had reinjured his knee.

"Rodney limped to the sidelines and I thought he had done something to his hyperextended knee," said Sloan. "Shoot, I was rubbing his leg and would have kissed him if I thought it would get well. He only had cramps in his leg but we were really worried. He went on to play the most unbelieveable game I ever saw."

Allison rushed 25 times for 106 yards, hit 10 of 11 passes for 87 yards, converted 13 of 20 third down situations, and ran for a touchdown in a 31-28 victory over Texas.

Democrats Easily Control Texas House And Senate

By LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

Republicans threw a scare into two state senators and a "dean" of the Texas House in Tuesday's general election but finally had to be content with only minimal legislative gains.

Conservative Democrats will continue to dominate both House and Senate, which convene on Jan. 11 for five months of legislating.

Republicans, who now hold 17 of the 150 seats in the House, lost one and picked up two to give them a total of 18 elected members. There were only 16 during the 1975 legislative session.

GOP gains resulted from legislation passed last year dividing several populous counties into individual House districts.

In Lubbock, television newsman Joe Robbins, a Republican, was elected over Roy L. Ward, and in Arlington, Republican Bob McFarland won one of the new seats by defeating Douglas Duke.

The GOP made no gains in the Senate, where it has three of the 31 members.

As vote totals piled up, it appeared that Sen. Gene Jones, D-Houston, was seriously threatened by Republican Walter Keith, but Jones' lead gradually widened and he won handily.

Sen. Bill Braecklein, D-Dallas, eked out a narrow victory over Tom Pauken, a young lawyer who ran an energetic campaign.

Rep. DeWitt Hale, D-Corpus Christi, a 13-term veteran who has fought many a legislative battle for the Texas State Teachers Association, won reelection by only 1,500 votes out of 32,000 cast. Joe McComb, a 29-year-old businessman, challenged Hale in an affluent new district of Nueces County.

The county formerly was represented at-large by three representatives but was divided into three single-member districts last year.

House incumbents fared well, with more than half going into the general election with token opposition from third party candidates or with no opponents at all.

Rep. J. L. Brisco, R-Houston, who was chosen in a special election earlier this year, lost to Democrat Ralph Wallace in a district that had been Democratic in prior years.

Sixteen of the 31 Senate seats were open this year, but only half were involved in general election contests. Winning reelection over opponents Tuesday were Jones, Braecklein and Sens. Ron Clower, D-Garland; Walter Mengden, R-Houston; Ike Harris, R-Dallas; Jack Ogg, D-Houston; and Glenn Kothmann, D-San Antonio. Rep. Carlos Truan, D-Corpus Christi, who defeated Sen. Mike McKinnon in the Democratic primary, went on to win election easily over Republican James T. Smith of Ingleside.

"The House's complexion is not going to be changed by the general election. I think it will be a little more conservative," said Speaker Bill Clayton, a conservative who is unopposed for a second term as presiding officer of the House.

He indicated that he would leave most committee chairmen in their jobs, including liberals who were rewarded for supporting him in his first race for the speakership last year.

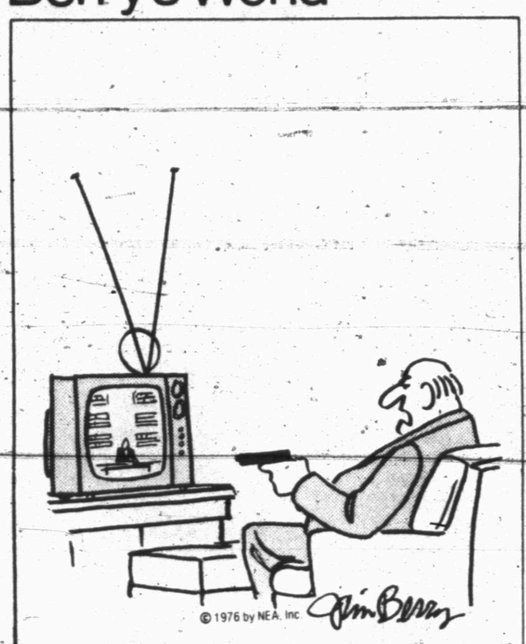

"I don't really see a great lot of change in structure. I believe everybody, regardless of philosophy, ought to have a voice in the legislature," Clayton said.

Borden Goes For Carter

GAIL—Borden County voters supported the Democratic ticket of Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale in Tuesday's general election. The Democratic Party nominees received 239 votes, while Gerald Ford and Robert Dole, Republicans got 150.

Democratic Senator Lloyd Bentsen received 279 votes to 92 for Republican Alan Steelman in the U.S. Senate race, and Jon Newton, Democrat, received 292 votes for Railroad Commissioner and Republican Walter Wendlandt got 60. Borden voters approved both water bond proposals, No. 1 by a vote of 151 to 128, and No. 2 by 167 to 125.

Voters Nix State Nuclear Controls

By The Associated Press

Voters in six states turned back attempts to restrict nuclear power plants; Massachusetts said no to controls on handguns; but New Jersey voted to make Atlantic City the "Las Vegas of the East."

Those were some of the results Tuesday in state ballot propositions with national implications.

In Massachusetts, voters turned down by a 3 to 1 margin a proposal to ban the sale of handguns. It was the first measure of its kind ever to go on a state ballot.

New Jersey, where two years ago voters turned down a measure to allow casino gambling if communities wanted it, voted to allow it in Atlantic City, the decaying coast resort. Civic leaders there had been seeking the go-ahead for years in an effort to make the city into a gambling center.

But Delaware, adjoining New Jersey to the South, rejected a proposition that would have permitted slot machine gambling. The state has had betting this fall on professional football with less financial success than expected.

The rejection of proposals to control nuclear development by imposing strict safety standards on any atomic plants followed the failure of a similar proposal in California last spring. The proposal lost in Ohio, Arizona, Washington, Montana, Colorado and Oregon.

In California, a measure that proponents called a guarantee to farm labor voting rights was losing badly.

There were also proposals on two state ballots to ban throwaway beverage bottles and cans.

In Michigan, the measure won. In Massachusetts, the vote was very close.

The rejection of proposals to control nuclear development by imposing strict safety standards on any atomic plants followed the failure of a similar proposal in California last spring.

The measures were voted down by margins of nearly 2 to 1 in Ohio, Montana, Washington, Arizona and Colorado. Oregon voters turned back the proposal 60 per cent to 40 per cent.

There were also proposals on several state ballots to ban throwaway beverage bottles and cans.

In Michigan, a throwaway ban passed by nearly 2 to 1. In Maine, it won by about 3 to 2. In Colorado, it was defeated about 2 to 1.

Texas Democrats Gain New US House Seat

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer

Texas Democrats gained a new U.S. House seat and flirted with another early Wednesday as at least 22 of the state's 24 incumbent congressmen won re-election.

The lone race still in doubt overnight involved Republican incumbent Ron Paul of Lake Jackson, who held a miniscule lead over Democratic challenger Bob Gammage of Houston.

When the count was halted in the wee hours of Wednesday morning, Paul, 41, led the former state senator by a meager 1,632 votes from a total of 172,388.

The two were battling for the 22nd District seat long held by Rep. Bob Casey, who resigned to accept a federal appointment. Paul won a special election last April to finish the unexpired term.

The only seat "open" for grabs in Texas went to Democrat Jim Mattox of Dallas, who captured the 5th District seat relinquished by Republican Alan Steelman.

Steelman surrendered his seat to oppose, unsuccessfully, incumbent Democrat Lloyd Bentsen's reelection to the U.S. Senate.

Mattox, 33, a state legislator, took a seesaw victory over Nancy Judy, a former Dallas School Board member whose conservative challenge was directed at Reagan and Wallace voters.

The triumph by Mattox gave the Democrats a 21-2 edge in the Texas delegation with the GOP hoping Paul's race could salvage a third seat for the Republicans.

In most cases, the incumbent House members scored impressive if not landslide triumphs, although there were several notable exceptions:

—Powerful Lubbock Democrat George Mahon, 76, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, was less than invulnerable in his contest with Odessa stockbroker Jim Reese. Mahon got about 55 per cent of the vote.

—Rep. Richard White, El Paso Democrat, received only about the same percentage in dumping Republican Vic Shackelford, an Odessa businessman.

—Although securing a sixth term, Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston was unimpressive in his victory over Republican Nick Gearhart, a Houston public relations consultant.

—Rep. Bob Poage, 76, of Waco, who won his 20th term in 1974 with 81.6 per cent, was far off that percentage in defeating John Burgess, a Waco Republican.

As expected, the big winners included Democratic incumbents Barbara Jordan of Houston, Jim Wright of Fort Worth, Charles Wilson of Lufkin, Jake Pickle of Austin and Bob Krueger of New Braunfels.

Rep. Olin Teague of College Station and Rep. Jack Hightower of Vernon scored significant Democratic verdicts, since both were confronted with serious GOP challenges.

LET'S JUST PRAISE THE LORD.

Yarbrough Win Clouded By Possible Disbarment

By TOM DeCOLA
Associated Press Writer

Houston lawyer Don Yarbrough spent $300 in winning the Democratic nomination for the Texas Supreme Court last spring, a victory he called "a miracle, so to speak."

Tuesday, Texas voters elected him over two write-in candidates, but the spectre of possible disbarment loomed over the result.

Some 15 civil suits against the 35-year-old justice-elect caused the State Bar to initiate disbarment proceedings against him, and it was unclear whether the State Constitution would allow a disbarred attorney to sit on the bench.

Yarbrough beat State District Judge Sam Houston of Denton and Tom Lorance, another Houston attorney.

Latest figures at 9 a.m. showed Yarbrough with 1,469,492 votes against Houston's 248,959 and Lorance's 123,710.

Both Houston and Lorance said they ran more to stop the unopposed Yarbrough than for a real desire for the seat. They each acknowledged that education of voters to the write-in process and the fact that a straight Democratic vote was a vote for Yarbrough would be problems.

They were right.

The constitutional question comes from a phrase which says a Supreme Court justice "shall have been a lawyer." Interpretation of that phrase will be up to none other than the Texas Supreme Court, which must decide if a justice must be a lawyer while sitting on the bench.

Yarbrough invited a fight with the State Bar, which he said "would stop at nothing to get me."

He said the bar's pride is a powerful moving force. "Some of the complaints against me are laughable," he said.

"The State Bar is faced with the fact of sailing out into the harbor with their flag flying. They know full well, if I sink their ship, all the king's horses and all the king's men can't put Humpty-Dumpty back together again. I can assure the State Bar if it has the gall to put that ship out into the harbor, they will face a fight."

Bound to crop up again was an old charge that voters throught they were voting for former U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough or for yet another Houston attorney named Don Yarborough, a longtime voice in Texas politics. Yarbrough said that a survey showed identification with the Yarboroughs hurt him in a try for state treasurer in 1974.

Claiming the media have reported his legal difficulties inaccurately, Yarbrough said, "I just may file libel suits to bring their bad reporting to their attention."

He said he will win each of the lawsuits against him.
