Emergency Loan Program Extended

The Farmers Home Admistration has announced that Collingsworth County has been designated for a one-year extension of the present emergency loans available to farmers and ranchers who have sustained substantial losses on account of the drouth.

This new designation by the Secretary of Agriculture extends the program now in effect through June 30, 1972, according to Raymond Hodges, county FHA supervisor. It had been scheduled to end June 30, 1971.

Notification of the extention came from State FHA Director J. Lynn Futch.

Under the program, emergency loans may be made to those persons who suffered substantial losses from any adverse weather condition, such as high winds, hail or flood, that have occurred or might occur during the period to June 30, 1972.

The funds are available, applications are being taken and more money has been requested, Mr. Futch notified Mr. Hodges.

Emergency loans are made to enable farmers and ranchers to continue normal operations which have been disrupted disasters," it was pointed out.

Collingsworth was approved for emergency loans in September, 1970 and was one of 53 Texas counties. Last month, the Secretary of Agriculture increased the number to 235 counties.

Information on the loan program, along with applications are available in the county FHA office from Mr. Hodges.

Summer Supervised Recreation Approved

A supervised recreation program, open to any boy or girl in the county from the fourth through the eighth grades, will be carried out in Wellington this summer. It is made possible by the co-operation of the City of Wellington and a group of mothers.

The city will hire two workers under the college work-study program who will have direct supervision of the recreational activities, said Mrs. Dick Pendleton, one of the mothers working with the program.

The tentative program calls for some indoor activities : baseball, basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, track, swimming, and ping pong, as well as other sports, explained Mrs. Pendleton.

Detailed plans will be announced within the near future, including the house that the recreational workers will hold classes.

There will be a registration fee of $1.00 per child.

The Wellington High School gymnasium will be open at specified times, Mrs. Pendleton said, and there will be adult supervision at all times.

All water activities at the swimming pool will be under direct supervision of the pool manager.

Members of the recreation program committee along with Mrs. Pendleton are Mrs. Mack Saied, Jr. and Mrs. J.B. Oney.

Norwood Seniors Graduate Friday

The Samnorwood graduating class will hold its commencement Saturday evening, May 29, when 12 boys and girls will be awarded diplomas.

The speaker will be John Warner, Gray County attorney whose subject will be "98¢ & Up." This is the first class to have a guest speaker in recent years.

It also is a precedent setting class in that it chose to have no baccalaureate service.

Robert Dwight, superintendent of schools, has announced the commencement program.

The student speakers will be Mary Ruth Schaub, valedictorian, and Richard Milton Barker, salutatorian. The third high ranking student, Robert Elmer Dwight III, will introduce the senior parents.

Mrs. Don Van Pelt will play the processional and Larry Clayton Oldham will give the invocation. Dedicatory music, "The Impossible Dream," is to be by Mrs. Paul Schaub, pianist.

After Mr. Warner's speech, awards will be presented by Mr. Dwight; Kenneth Martindale, administrative assistant, and a representative of the Frank King Post No. 249, American Legion.

The pronouncement of graduation will be made by J.L. Harper, superintendent of Collingsworth County Schools, and diplomas will be awarded by Jim Ray, president of the Samnorwood Board of Education.

Larry Glenn Waters will give the benediction.

The 12 candidates for graduation are Richard Milton Barker, Johnny Glen Boyd, George Ed Bruton, Bill Glen Bruton, Ronald Frank Carter, Robert Elmer Dwight III, Randall Ray Johnson, Linda Jeanette Lenderman, Larry Clayton Oldham, Mary Elizabeth Sanderson, Mary Ruth Schaub and Larry Glenn Waters.

In selecting Mr. Warner as their commencement speaker, the Samnorwood seniors chose an attorney and a judge who is best known for work he has done with youth.

Shortly after being appointed judge of the municiple court for the City of Pampa, he instituted a Teen-Age Court for traffic offenders and required their parents to attend court with their sons and daughters. Later Texas law was changed to make this practice required.

Judge Warner instituted a system of themes for first offenders, saying that a 1,000 word theme on traffic safety was more effective in reducing accidents than a fine. Statistics showed him to be correct. The percentage of teen-agers involved in accidents declined over 20 per cent during his tenure as judge.

He has served in the capacity of Gray County Attorney the past two years.

A Family of Instructors

W. E. Franks Ends 43 Year School Career

W.E. Franks, Wellington High School math instructor, will bring down the curtain on a 43-year continuous teaching career at the end of classes Friday, May 28.

He is the middle of three generations of teachers. His father was principal of a large two-teacher school in Oklahoma. His son is a research professor in one of the newer science disciplines at Harvard.

There are other teachers in his family. Mrs. Franks also taught many years and their daughter, Helen, is on the El Reno, Oklahoma school faculty. He is one of six brothers and sisters of his own family to become teachers.

Mr. Franks did not intend to teach at all. From grade school through college, his fond dream was to be a doctor.

About July 15, 1928, just after graduating from college, his father began the summer term of his large school. Two days later, he became incapacitated for the rest of his life.

"I happened to be around and the superintendent sent for me and put me on his job. I started that Thursday and have been with the teaching profession ever since.

My finishing college at that time was a blessing for our mother as there were 7 brothers and sisters in school from the 12th down to the third grades. All finished high school and all went to college," Mr. Franks explained.

He had grown up in this community until he and an older sister finished eighth grade in 1920 and went to Ardmore, Oklahoma, to high school.

Sheriff Warns of Harassing Telephone Calls

Collingsworth County has obtained equipment with which to trace harassing telephone calls, and Sheriff John Rainey warned this week that anyone caught will be prosecuted.

He said a number of complaints of calls of this nature have come to his office recently.

"Some say that when their phone rings and they pick up the receiver, there is no sound, although the line is open.

"Others say the caller uses foul or abusive language. Other callers simply giggle or breathe hard into the phone," the sheriff explained.

"The county now has a means to check out and catch these people, and we can nail it down to the one doing the calling," he declared.

County Attorney Paul Spillman said that this evidence will stand up in court.

GOOD HEALTH FOR RETIREMENT - Good health is a common goal for all age groups, but it's more difficult during later years.

But additional years don't mean the onset of additional diseases.

Develop regular health habits ; eat proper foods, get plenty of rest and relaxation, exercise to control weight, practice good grooming, and take immunizations on schedule.

Adequate medical care should include twice-a-year check-ups, as well as dental, eye, hearing, and foot care. Avoid self-diagnosis and self-medication.

Don't forget safety practices To prevent accidents and injuries , learn to move the body safely and refrain from harmful excesses.

Pursue satisfactory mental health -- a "sound mind in a sound body." Stay busy maintain good relationships with family and friends, learn to face reality and problems in proper perspective, and indulge in a satisfying spiritual life.

Most important, perhaps, is a wholesome attitude toward retirement. Such an outlook enhances both physical and mental health.

Remember May is Senior Citizen's Month.

INTERIOR DESIGNING -- White no longer means an absence of color in the world of interior design. As used today, it makes a definite statement.

Used with few rules attached, white can be serene or exciting. It will accentuate the soft-edge curve of matter or shiny plastics, or sharpens the linear feel of architectural furniture.

Use white to make a more natural environment. It enhances plants, translucent glass and crafted accessories, and offsets patterned rugs.

White acts as a perfect background for other hues and textures. If individual items are white, add splashy colors on walls and in fabrics, window treatments and accessories. White will help blend the colors, creating unity and harmony.

CONFUSED BY PACKAGE LABELS--

Which is bigger--bargain, giant or family size? How about economy or large economy size?

As any shopper knows, there is usually no rhyme or reason to the size names manufacturers give their products.

To clear up the confusion and deception in packaging the Federal Trade Commission has proposed a new rule that would apply to manufacturers using such terms as "jumbo, economy, giant."

In order to use such a term, a manufacturer must offer the same brand in at least one other size so comparisons can be made. Each term must refer to a specific size within a particular brand. In other words, there can only be one "economy" size of Brand X.

If a size is labeled "economy", it must truly be an economy, at a per unit price substantially reduced from the regular price of all other packages of the same brand.

FOUR MILLION ATHEISTS?

By Gaylord Cook

The well publicized, Austin based atheist, Madelyn Murry O'Hair recently declared there are four million atheists in Texas. Most of us would quickly declare that she did not know what she was talking about, or else had deliberately lied. However, there was a real basis for her making that statement. It was based upon the fact that at least four million Texans NEVER attend church. When one considers Christ's statement in Matt. 12 : 30 that the one who is not with Him is against Him, it is seen that the Lord might well classify these people just as Mrs. O'Hair does. On this basis, how would we classify the many who just OCCASIONALLY attend church? Would they perhaps properly be classified as ALMOST ATHEISTS. This is sobering indeed when we consider that in our fine city of Wellington the procedure would indicate at least half of our citizens fit one of these categories. Now, I realize many of you who do not attend church do not consider yourself an atheist, but LOOK WHICH SIDE YOU ARE ON !

Chris Hubbard Describes Work With Youth for Church Women

Two college students of First Baptist Church presented the program for the Naomi Class meeting Thursday evening, May 20.

Chris Hubbard, who attends Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, told of his work as Associational youth director of Double Mountain Area Baptist Association of the Texas Baptist Convention.

David Groves, music major at West Texas State University, played two cornet solos, "Were You There," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Hubbard explained that his territory covered Haskell, Knox, Fisher, and Jones Counties. The work is carried on through 38 Baptist churches and among 1,500 young people.

Through our Associational Youth Program, several areas of vital work are being carried on," he said.

Each summer a group of young people from the different churches combine their efforts and work along the Rio Grande. This is known as The River Ministry. The work includes Vacation Bible Schools, censuses, and revivals. Each trip affords new opportunities for construction on the mission churches in this area.

Another area of work is the coffe-house ministry. One Coffee-house is located in Stamford, "His Palace." So far 1,200 Young people from cities in our area have attended Soul Sessions and planned recreation in His Palace.

"Through our summer Inter-Church Recreational Director, competition through sports is promoted. The youth rallys held once a month are the services used to inspire and instruct young Christians," he continued.

Through this program and the work that has evolved from it, we definitely recognize that the actions of the young people are not the problems. They, the actions, are merely the symptoms.

"Our churches must realize the influence on and around the youth of Today. The home, school, mass media, community, youth culture, and the church. In order to be effective in today's society, the Church must move to program for the needs of the youth. This can be done by Worship, Witness, Educate, and Application.

"The message of the Church is the same, yesterday, today, and forever, but the methods used by the church to reach the young people of this day must change, NOW!"

Governor Entitled to Full Credit for Cutting New Taxes by a Third

Gov. Smith is entitled to take credit for cutting the new tax bill facing Texans by nearly one-third. He won a quick victory over legislative leaders by threatening to veto the tax bill unless it was sharply amended downward.

The nearly $900 million of new taxes included about $287 million of new gasoline taxes (two cents a gallon), which about double the motor fuels tax take going to the Highway Fund. That was an indefensible increase and, when the governor pointed it out, nobody attempted to defend it.

That performance should soundly embarrass legislative leaders and, particularly, authors of the bill. House Appropriations Chairman Bill Heatley was very quick to declare the two-cent gasoline tax was not needed to cover the proposed spending for the biennium. Further, it was a misplaced tax anyway. It was a trade-out that dealt an unfair blow to the driving public, which means nearly all of us.

The budget as sent to the governor provided for transfer of the Colson-Briscoe farm-to-market program to the Highway Fund. The Colson-Briscoe program required new construction in the amount of $30 million biennially of new farm roads. The $30 million came from the general fund. In the trade, the general fund was to get that $30 million but the Highway Fund was to get about $215 million of the new taxes. That's why there was no outcry about the farm-road change.

With massive federal aid and a road-building program well along in Texas, the new funds simply lacked a supportable case. In the showdown, it even lacked a sponsor.

The governor is entitled to the full credit.—San Antonio Express.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Tex. — Voters were in an antagonistic mood toward three proposed changes in the Texas constitution last week, but they approved one amendment termed "a great step forward for Texas cities and towns."

Down the drain went proposals to set up a state commission on officials' ethics and legislative pay, to increase the welfare ceiling and to permit constitutional amendments to be submitted in special sessions.

Whether welfare defeat will mean early cuts in assistance to the needy is the subject of sharp disagreement. It's a cinch legislators will get no early pay raise, although they can adopt their own code of ethics by statute.

Texas Water Quality Board Chariman Gordon Fulcher, Atlanta newspaper publisher, said adoption of the bond amendment is a "stride we very much hoped to make in order to reach our goal of meeting statewide water quality standards by 1975."

Clean water goals, said Fulcher, cannot be achieved until cities improve the quality of sewage discharges into rivers and streams. Financing has been a major drawback for municipalities.

Amendment provides for a state matching grants program to make available on loan basis 25 per cent of the eligible cost of sewage treatment plant construction.

With the state program, federal grants (now only 33 per cent) can increase to about 50 per cent. That leaves cities with only 25 per cent of a project cost to bear immediately.

Fulcher said he is hopeful that cities will move forward with the "greatest of haste" to take advantage of additional financial aid.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT - Statewide oil allowable for June has been cut to 75.4 per cent of potential, lowest market demand factor since August.

Railroad Commission set the factor after four of 14 major crude purchasers asked for less oil, three asked for more, and seven requested the same level for June as in May.

New allowable will permit maximum production of 3,606,943 barrels of crude daily. This is a decrease of 68,913 barrels below the May level, with 77.2 per cent of the potential factor.

Actual production is expected to be about 3,344,000 barrels daily, nearly what major purchasers requested.

Reduction was the second in a row, after allowable remained at 81.1 per cent for three straight months. Last June's market demand factor was only 59 per cent.

NEW PARKS OPEN - Seven new state parks will be available for use this summer, but some of them are suited only for "roughing it".

Three of the parks are restricted to day use only. They are Pedernales Falls near Johnson City, Hueco Tanks near El Paso and Dinosaur Valley near Glen Rose.

No water supply is available at any of the three, and picnic tables and toilets are the only facilities.

Public access at New Galveston Island State Park is restricted to the beach area. Picnicking is allowed at Copper Breaks State Park in Hardeman County but there is no water and few facilities.

Camping is allowed at Lake Arrowhead State Park in Archer County, but no water is available.

Most completely developed of the new tracts are Nail's Creek and Birch Creek units of Somerville State Park near Brenham. All of the new parks, with the exception of Copper Breaks and Galveston Island, have a one-dollar-per-vehicle entrance fee.

COURTS SPEAK - Supreme Court in 20 minutes reversed a district judge and held that a legislator lawyer is entitled to automatic postponement of a case in which he represents a client during a legislative session.

Supreme Court ordered a new trial in the case of an Eastland turkey farmer who is suing an insurance company for collapse of a steel barn following a snow storm. Insurance company is fighting the $7,450 claim, contending that the building collapse was partially caused by the snow storm and such damage is not covered by its policy.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the 10-year probated sentence of a Dallas man for shooting two Dallas police officers in 1968.

AG OPINIONS - Tuition equalization grants by the state to students at private colleges would not violate the constitution, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held in a new opinion. Martin said the grants, proposed in a bill before the Legislature, would not be counter to the separation of church and state doctrine.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that :

Tax assessor-collector when designated by an independent school district to assess its taxable property at a greater rate of value than for state and county purposes has no choice but to comply. School district is expected to appoint its own board of equalization.

The penal code prevents renewal of a contract with a school teacher who has not taught for two or more years prior to a brother's being elected to the school board.

Bill allowing personal checks of bonded cigarette distributors to be treated as cash payments by the state treasurer when received for payment of cigarette stamps or meter settings is constitutional. Requirement that all cigarettes be stamped by all distributors within a stated period is proper exercise of legislative discretion in collecting state revenue.

DRAFT CALL 640 - State Selective Service headquarters announced a June draft call of 640 Texans.

May call nationally was for 15,000 men. Department of Defense announced a combined May-June call of 20,000 men with a lottery number limitation of 125 for the combined call.

State Selective Service Director Melvin N. Glantz said 1,750 Texans will be ordered to take pre-induction physical examinations next month.

Local draft boards have mailed orders for pre-induction and induction to men under their jurisdiction.

CRIME - FIGHT GRANTS APPROVED — Gov. Preston Smith approved 18 new grants totaling $1,038,650 for crime-control projects.

Three are for police training in El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff David, Presidio, and Brewster counties ; Victoria and at Department of Public Safety headquarters. Twenty education service centers will get $42,550 for drug education programs in Edinburg, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Victoria, Houston, Wichita Falls, Richardson, Austin, San Angelo, Lubbock, El Paso, Huntsville, Kilgore, Mount Pleasant, Fort Worth, Waco, Abilene, Amarillo, Midland, and San Antonio. Seven grants for $147,274 go to juvenile delinquency control in Harris County area, Nueces County, Dallas County, Brooks County, Dallas County, Texarkana, and Webb County.

Big Spring, Lubbock, and Dallas got $472,873 for professional aids for police. Nueces County got $21,692 for probation remotivation. Houston and Corpus Christi's Coastal Bend Regional Planning Council received $182,877 and $9,277 grants, respectively for research and development projects. Bexar County got $30,000 to finance the plan and design a computerized subject-in-process system for arrest and trial records.

COMMODITY MONEY AND DEBT MONEY

In terms of the concept of exchange, there are two broad classifications of money. They are commodity money and debt money.

We know that commodity money was expressed in terms of the wealth which it represented such as pounds, drachmas, etc. Later, money took on more the concept of the discharge of indebtedness and the units of exchange were referred to as notes and bills.

This early debt money was related to its commodity backing since it was considered to be a promise to pay in terms of the commodity, be it gold, silver or whatever. The trend, however, is away from this original concept. Debt money is increasingly considered to stand on its own strength and no pretense is made at commodity backing.

Demand deposits are a common form of this concept.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

WHAT ARE ALTAR-BOYS ?

Shouldn't that question read "who are altar-boys"? They are young boys from about 9 to 17 years old, who assist the priest at the altar during the Mass and other liturgical functions. They are chosen carefully for their neatness, good character, reliability, and punctuality, and they consider it a high honor to served in this capacity.

WHY DO CATHOLICS USE CROSSES AND CRUCIFIXES?

Because the salvation of mankind was accomplished on the cross. We use them to remind ourselves of this stupendous fact, and to show gratitude to Jesus, our Founder, for having undergone such suffering for us.

ARE CATHOLICS FORBIDDEN TO DANCE OR ATTEND PARTIES ?

No. They may enjoy any legitimate form of relaxation or recreation they choose, just like anybody else. Catholics are happy people ; always were, right back to their ancestors, the Chosen People of Israel ; even King David danced before the Ark of the Covenant ; Jesus attended wedding feasts and other social events.

'Texas' Opens Sixth Season at Palo Duro

A Wellington man, David Groves, will be one of our light and sound technicians for "Texas" in its 1971 season.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Groves, he is a senior music major at West Texas State University.

They were chosen from over 500 applicants ranging in distance from New York to California. They met May 23 in the Branding Iron Theatre on WT Campus for orientation. They represent 23 Texas Cities and 7 state.

"Texas" will open its sixth season June 24th and play nightly except Sundays through August 28th. (there will be a special performance July 4th.)

The popular drama has played to over 340,000 people in its five seasons.

"Texas" is produced by the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation in conjunction with West Texas State University and was in the planning stages just ten years ago. Its president, Russell Carver of Amarillo, has noted that its roots extend throughout the forty counties of the Texas Panhandle and several hundreds of miles further from the Palo Duro Canyon.

Plans for the 1971 opening night will celebrate the anniversary of that planning ten years ago when those mayors who came to "break ground" at that ceremony will be special guests of the Foundation, along with their present mayors. However, instead of shoveling - they will have the opportunity of seeing the fruition of their labors in the full operation of the theatre.

For tickets and information write to "Texas", P.O. Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2182.

Executive director of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation is Raymond Raillard, whose wife, Virginia Lee, is a former Wellington resident. Their three sons, Mark, Mike, and Miles, are members of the Texas company this summer.

THE SUPREME COURT of the United States continues to cause trouble and frustration for the states, counties, school boards, and individuals. Monday this august body declared unconstitutional a Georgia law which requires motorists to carry insurance or be able to post bond in case of an accident. It is predicted that the decision will cause insurance rates on cars to soar even higher in Texas, which has a law similar to Georgia's.

THE TEXAS Senate passed a bill this week that would provide for group insurance of automobiles. The sponsors claim it would reduce casualty and liability insurance anywhere from 17 to 30 per cent. Sen. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock has an opposite view. He charges that the proposal if enacted into law will raise individual insurance drastically and that people in smaller groups would face a much larger increase.

WELLINGTON school officials have approved a dress code for the 1971-72 term and are considering having it mimegraphed for distribution before school starts next year. Perhaps they need to read one of the recent decisions of the Supreme Court. In effect this decision says that the parents and the pupils must determine dress-not the school board.

WHILE THE SUPREME court decision may eliminate dress codes, it does not prohibit restrictions when they are essential to the health and safety of the students or when the apparel causes interference with work or is disruptive to orderly school processes.

IN ACTIVITIES such as athletics, band, dramatics, and other activities which are voluntary and not compulsory, the teacher should have full authority to set the dress and hair requirements for people trying out for the play just as the football coach sets the standards for the boys trying out for the team.

IT IS HARD enough to run a competent school without the Supreme Court messing up the details with bussing and other rules just about the time the trustees have a few of their problems settled.

REDISTRICTING IS with us for others besides new congressional districts. It seems that Collingsworth will be taken out of Tom Christian's district if he has one that he can call his own when it is all over. Our county will be joined either with one represented by W. S. (Bill) Heatly on the south or the one represented by Phil Cates on the north. Tom Christian may have to run in a district composed mainly of counties not in his present district and already served by experienced representatives.

NEITHER BOB PRICE nor Graham Purcell look with any favor on a proposed congressional district that would pit them against each other in the next election. This peculiar district would include all of the Panhandle and then connect with Wichita Falls by a lone narrow corridor of counties south of Red River. Some political observers believe that such a district would help Price more than Purcell.

Clay Farm House Burglarized On Successive Nights

Burglars struck twice on successive nights at a vacant house on the Horace Clay farm four miles south of Quail, taking an old-fashioned victrola, which was recovered, and many small items.

Deputy Sheriff Alvin Minatrea said the first burglary was discovered by Mr. Clay Friday morning, May 21, but was not reported.

The house was burglarized again that night and this was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Saturday when they went out to board up the window broken from preceding entry, the deputy continued.

One man is being held in county jail for investigation of the burglary, but no charges have been filed, Deputy Minatrea said.

He was picked up by Highway Patrolmen Friday night and filed on for driving while intoxicated, the deputy continued. When Mr. Clay reported the victrola missing, they recalled having seen one in the man's car.

The Clays have not determined how many small items were taken. These include old crocks, jars, flat-irons, and other things that are now popular items in antique shops, the officer reported.

started teaching were some who were in the lower grades when I left and had not quite completed the eighth grade. Some of them were very large and would call me by my first name, Willie. The assistant teacher, who was a lady, was very nice and helped me in many situations, "he recalls.

That fall, he was transferred to a large consolidated high school about 10 miles away as assistant principal, mathematics teacher and basketball coach. He thought he had a successful year. But next year he was sent to another high school farther out in the country. Tatums, where he was principal and director of athletics which consisted mainly of basketball and baseball.

"In those days, all the separate schools were under the county superintendent, and I thought he was giving me the run-around. So I had a close-up talk with him, and he assured me that because of my qualifications, he was giving me the best advancement possible, and I needed to be more on my own. He sent an older man to help me with discipline problems and management of the school. My job was to reorganize the high school, as it was lagging somewhat, " he went on.

He stayed there 18 years.

"Those were trying times during the first 8 or 9 years, because they carried through the depression. The people fared better than usual, as it was a large farming community and the people took to the soil for their living. A new oil field was opened up which gave some relief."

This community was the home of a young teacher that was to become his wife. Their children were born there. Mr. Franks became principal in 1936 and was sole executive head of the school the next 11 years.

He saw the old school torn down and a complete new structure rise. This brought improvement to the community at large.

In 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Franks went to Purcell, Okla., and he was principal for the next 12 years.

"This was a city school and children were bussed in from all over the county. Many interesting events took place in our school in athletics, choral music and interscholastic events."

He and Mrs. Franks have been at Wellington since 1959, except for 1965-66 at Paducah.

His leadership as principal of Booker T. Washington School is credited with the having much to do with its smooth intergration into the Wellington Schools.

Mr. Franks took his A.B. degree from Paul Quinn College at Waco and through summer study the B. S. degree from Langston University, Langston, Oklahoma, in 1935. He continued until he had majors in three teaching fields.

In 1948, he entered Ohio University at Columbus, Ohio, and later the University of Oklahoma, where he received the M. S. Ed. in 1953.

He has continued study in math and science. Mrs. Franks has a B. S. Degree from Langston and O. U. Their daughter a M.S. in music and their son a Ph. D. in chemistry from OU.

"My experience in the Wellington High School has been rewarding in that I have associated with a greater degree of reactions from teachers and students. This had helped me to see life in a broader perspective, " he says in looking back.

"The school administration, teachers, parents, and the entire city and community have been very helpful to me in this new adventure for which I am grateful." he acknowledges.

Mr. Franks does not consider that his retirement is from work, but a change to something more in keeping with what he will be able to do. But first he is going to rest and fish and probably travel.
