Fanfani Quits After Storm Of Criticism

ROME (AP)—Amintore Fanfani, president of the U.N. General Assembly, resigned today as Italy's foreign minister after a storm of criticism over his role in handling a purported North Viet Nam peace feeler which Hanoi disavowed.

The resignation of the fiery little foreign minister came only a week before a special session of the Foreign Affairs Commission of the Chamber of Deputies, called to question his part as middleman in the purported peace maneuver.

Fanfani made it clear he still wants to face the commission and answer its questions.

He asked that his resignation become effective Jan. 6, one day after the extraordinary commission hearing, so that he can appear before his critics while still foreign minister.

Some here expressed the opinion that Premier Aldo Moro would refuse to accept the resignation as a sign of solidarity with Fanfani, who is of his same Christian Democrat Party but but who often has been his political opponent.

In his letter of resignation Fanfani indicated that he still was convinced of the good faith of former Florence Mayor Giorgio La Pira who passed on to him the purported Hanoi peace feeler which Fanfani passed to President Johnson.

Over the past weekend a far-right magazine, Borghese, published what it called an interview with La Pira, quoting him as criticizng Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Moro, and saying communism no longer exists and Red China has only eight million bicycles. That was a reference to the late Italian dictator Benito Mussolini's brag that he had eight million bayonets.

The purported interview raised a storm of criticism. La Pira said he had been quoted out of context on remarks he made half in jest and half in paradox at a private party.

Borghese said that party was held in Fanfani's home.

Fanfani said in his letter of resignation that he did not agree with the criticism of La Pra. He said, however, he felt it necessary to eliminate any doubts as to the sincerity of Italy's actions on an international level.

The wording of his letter confirmed what many who knew him had believed all along: that the veteran political gladiator had no intention whatsoever of backing down on his action in passing the peace feeler along to Johnson.

A spokesman at the United Nations in New York said Fanfani's resignation would have no effect on his position as president of the 20th session of the General Assembly, since Fanfani's official duties as president ended with the close of the session last Wednesday.

TO CLOSE OUT MINTON FUND

Plans have been made to close out the Jesse Minton Memorial Fund here by the first of the year, it was announced this morning.

The fund was started here after Minton, a deputy sheriff, was slain in a gun battle with a fugitive last Sept. 21 near Colorado City. Peace officers from throughout the area were involved in the manhunt. Minton who was shot down, fired a blast from a shotgun to cut down the fugitive.

Persons who still wish to participate in the memorial fund may do so by submitting contributions to either bank here or to Snyder Savings and Loan. When the fund is closed out here it will be presented to Minton's family by Sheriff Keith Collier in behalf of Scurry County residents.

Humphrey's Tour Begins In Tokyo

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived in Tokyo tonight on the first leg of a brief Asian tour and appealed to Japan for help and advice in "our common endeavors."

Humphrey planned an 18-hour stopover, en route to the inauguration of Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos. During his Asian swing he will talk to leaders about Viet Nam but won't go there.

Met by Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina, the vice president delivered an arrival statement which appeared to anticipate Japanese calls for no-holds-barred discussions of U.S. policy in Viet Nam, a touchy subject in Japan.

"The brevity of my stay should not obscure the importance which the United States attach to frequent and frank consultation [illegible]

"Our goals and aspirations are [illegible] peace, liberty and the prosperity of all peoples. We value your friendship, we look for your advice, we need your help in our common endeavors."

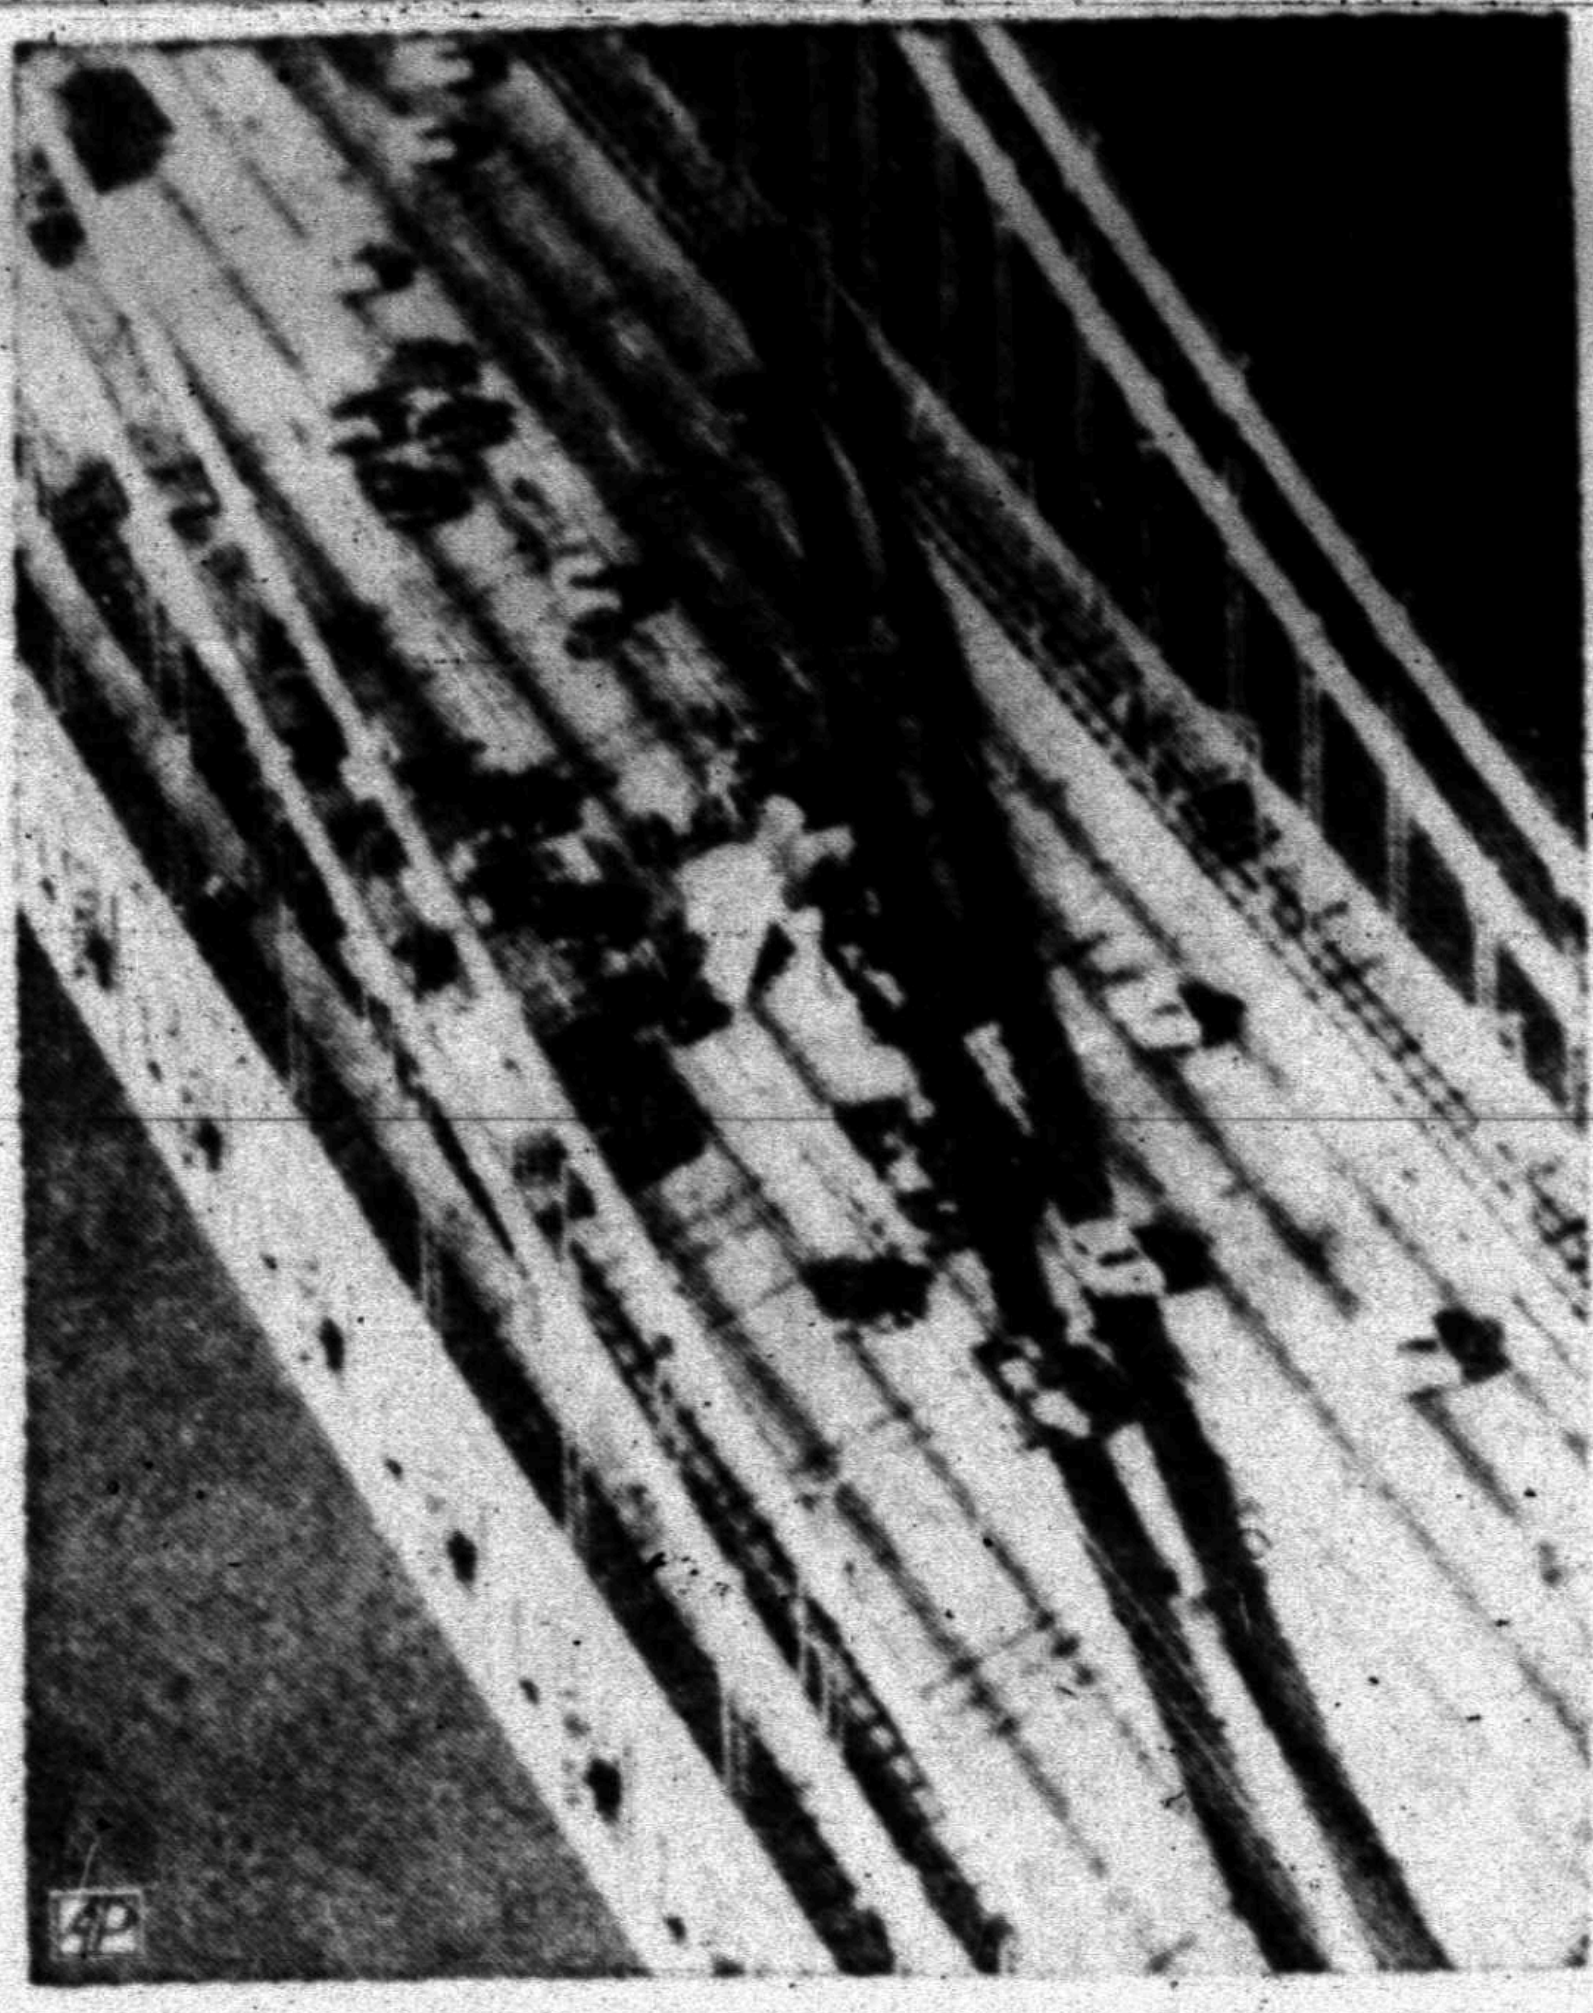
The last sentence could have been a veiled reference to the fact that the Japanese, though still pro-American, are reluctant allies where Viet Nam is concerned.

The Japanese Communists announced plans to mobilize 10,000 persons to march in front of the U. S. Embassy in protest against Humphrey's visit. Police ruled out any demonstrations at the airport.

Humphrey is the first vice president to visit Japan since 1958, when Richard M. Nixon came here.

Humphrey will be received by Emperor Hirohito and will have a two-hour talk with Prime Minister Eisaku Sato.

Humphrey goes to Manila Wednesday to represent the United States at the inauguration Thursday of Philippine President-elect Ferdinand E. Marcos.



LANDING LANE — A single-engine plane occupies the center two lanes of the George Washington Bridge spanning the Hudson River betwen New Jersey and New York City after the pilot made an emergency landing when the craft developed engine trouble. The pilot told police he chose to land on the bridge instead of the river when his passenger told him he couldn't swim. Both men were injured slightly. (AP Wirephoto)

High Winds, Rain Batter Northwest

By The Associated Press

Strong winds, heavy rain and snow pounded broad sections of the Pacific Northwest today.

Gale warnings were posted by the U.S. Weather Bureau from Northern California north to the Pugent Sound.

Heavy rain, with winds of 50 m.p.h. and higher swept coastal sections, with biggest amounts in Northern California and southern Oregon which were hit by the damaging floods last December.

In other parts of the nation, severe cold stung wide areas from Colorado and Montana to the Great Lakes region and in northern Maine.

Nearly six inches of rain splashed Cape Blanco, Ore., and more than three inches fell in a six-hour period in Brookings, Ore., Monday night. The Weather Bureau said heavy rain was expected to continue in northeastern California through Wednesday.

Two large barges, with no one aboard, were torn from a tug and wallowed in stormy seas 3 to 4 miles off the central Oregon coast. An oil company's drilling platform, 200 feet square, rode out 45-foot waves 25 miles off the northern Oregon coast. Some 40 men were on the barge-like platform. Winds at the time were reported to be 105 m.p.h.

A blizzard struck in the Blue Mountains of northeastern Oregon and blizzards closed Interstate 5 in southern Oregon and U.S. 97 in Northern California. Dust storms at Baker and La Grande, in eastern Oregon, changed into snow storms.

Wet, heavy snow fell in western Washington and there was much drifting in some areas. More than foot of snow covered areas in central and northeastern Washington. Power was restored in largely rural Mason County Monday afternoon, ending a 13-hour county-wide blackout.

There were two storm-related deaths. An 8-year-old boy was injured fatally when the car in which he was riding skidded across the center line of a snow-covered highway north of Seattle and crashed into a truck. James F. Sopp, 28, of St. Helens, Ore., was electrocuted when strong winds blew the radio aerial he was repairing into a high voltage line.

Viet Cong Proposes 4-Day Cease Fire

By THOMAS A. REEDY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong tonight announced a four-day cease-fire in its war against South Vietnamese forces during the lunar New Year celebration next month. Meanwhile, the United States extended the moratorium on its air war against North Viet Nam for a fourth day.

A broadcast of the Communist Liberation Front radio said the Viet Cong would "stop attacking the puppet armed forces and government" from 12:01 a.m. Jan. 20 to midnight Jan. 23. The four-day festival, known as Tet, is celebrated as a national holiday in Viet Nam.

The broadcast did not mention U.S. and other foreign forces fighting aloneside the South Vietnamese. But conceivably it could apply to them since their military actions are coordinated with those of the Vietnamese troops even when they are not joint operations.

In Washington there was an evident inclination to treat the maneuver as something to be dealt with by the military command on the spot. U.S. officials had taken that line throughout in connection with the brief and often-broken Christmas cease-fire.

A State Department spokesman declined comment of any nature on the new Viet Cong move.

There was no immediate reaction from American or Vietnamese officials to the Viet Cong broadcast.

There also was no indication how long the American air pause would last or whether the Viet Cong announcement signified a peace reaction to the American moratorium. The guerrillas have suspended hostilities in the past during the Tet celebration.

The Saigon government in the past has dismissed Communist offers of a truce for Tet as propaganda. Nevertheless, a lull has usually developed on both sides during the holiday.

The Viet Cong broadcast said the offer would allow their "compatriots" to enjoy the Tet festival, and allow "military men and personnel of the puppet government to return to their villages, worship their ancestors and visit their family tombs."

The broadcast added an unexplained qualification to the offer. It said that "soldiers, officers and personnel of the puppet government who return to their villages must comply with the practical regulations set forth by the Liberation Front military command."

These "practical regulations" were not detailed.

When they offered a 12-hour Christmas truce, the Viet Cong said "enemy" troops must not carry weapons and must refrain from any spying.

In what appeared to be an escalation of the U.S. peace offensive, a U.S. spokesman said the United States also had suspended B52 raids on suspected Viet Cong strongholds in South Viet Nam and cut off air reconnaissance of the Communist north.

North Viet Nam charged Monday that U.S. reconnaissance planes and warships intruded into its air space and territorial waters on Christmas day despite the allied truce.

The last air attack on the north was at 5:45 p.m. Christmas eve, 15 minutes before the American 30-hour cease-fire for Christmas.

Although American planes stayed out of the northern skies, U.S. and South Vietnamese pilots flew 286 combat sorties against the Viet Cong in the south in the past 24 hours, spokesmen said.

Fighter-bombers played a key role in repulsing two predawn attacks by 500 guerrillas on the mountain militia post of Bu Prang, 30 miles northwest of Gia Nghia and 110 miles northeast of Saigon.

Fifty Viet Cong were reported killed while government casualties were described as light.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has held back on renewing B52 heavy jet raids against the Communists in South Viet Nam as well as pausing in the bombing of the north, it was learned today.

This could be intended as an additional gesture designed to persuade Communist North Viet Nam to agree to peace discussions.

There has been no B52 attack in the south since the morning of Dec. 24, the day a 30-hour cease-fire went into effect on orders of Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the top U.S. commander in Viet Nam.

Positive instructions went out from Washington to refrain from bombing the north at the expiration of the Christmas lull.

These orders are believed to have applied to B52 operations against Red concentrations in the south as well. Such attacks have been an almost daily occurrence.

Allied planes have hit suspected Viet Cong targets since ground fighting resumed, but the strikes were made by smaller planes.

Officials refused to talk about the pause in air operations to the north and the apparent suspension of B52 strikes in the south. The reasoning in the purpose behind this new pause was closely held at very high levels of government.

Pentagon sources indicated the shots were being called by President Johnson, although the White House spokesmen told newsmen he had no information on the pause.

There was evidence that the explanation for the lull in air attacks had been restricted to top civilian officials in the Pentagon, the State Department and the White House, to the Joint Chiefs of Staff and to such key military leaders as Westmoreland and Adm. U.S. Grant Sharpe, U.S. commander in the Pacific theater.

Some military officers stressed their belief that the pause is for diplomatic reasons. "It makes no military sense," said one senior officer.

The last attacks into the north before the Christmas cease-fire wound up in the afternoon, ahead of the deadline.

Air Force fighter bombers raked North Vietnamese highways, barracks, storage areas and other military targets. There were 17 such missions and all planes returned safely.

On that same day, Navy aircraft from the carrier Ticonderoga flew three "armed route reconnaissance missions" over North Viet Nam, hitting a railroad bridge, a road and some piers. The Navy planes, too, escaped heavy antiaircraft fire.

Oil Pinch Is Noted

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) —Rhodesians began to feel the pinch of the oil embargo against their government today. Rationing began of gasoline and diesel oil for passenger cars, trucks and buses.

Prime Minister Ian Smith waited until after Christmas to announce the measure Monday night.

Owners of private cars will get three to five gallsons of fuel per week. There is no restriction on diesel oil for commercial vehicles, but those using gasoline are limited to five to 10 gallons per week depending on size.

Harris Quits Post For Judge's Chair

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., said today he would resign from Congress and become a federal judge in Arkansas on Feb. 3.

Harris is chairman of the House Commerce Committee. He was nominated as judge by President Johnson last August.

TALKS UNAUTHORIZED

Pacifist Stages Viet Conference

NEW YORK (AP) — Staughton Lynd, a Yale professor and a spokesman for the "new left," is reported in Hanoi to talk with leaders of Communist North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong.

Lynd, accompanied by two other Americans, is on an unauthorized mission that could result in stiff federal penalties.

The trip is sponsored by the magazine Viet Report "in an effort to clarify the position of the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong) and the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam," said John McDermott, associate editor of the magazine.

The other two men on the trip are Thomas Hayden, a founder of the Students for a Democratic Society, and Herbert Aptheker, a reputed Communist theoretician.

Lynd's wife, reached at her home in New Haven, Conn., Monday night, said: "He is going because of his concern for peace."

The three left New York Dec. 19 and flew to Brussels, Prague, Moscow, Peking and then to North Viet Nam by way of Cambodia, said McDermott.

He said the magazine had not yet heard from Lynd, "but we expect to hear from him shortly." He did not explain how this would be done.

McDermott said the magazine is sponsoring the mission because "reports that appear in the American press purportedly describing or attributing positions to the National Liberation Front and the DRV conflict with their reports of their position. The purpose of the trip is to clear this up."

Lynd, 36, an assistant professor of history at Yale University, has a long identification with pacifist activities. He is regarded as a leading spokesman for the "new left" — the ad hoc committees, student groups, and the lonely rebels and revolutionaries.

The mission represents the bringing together of a number of criticis of U. S. policy in Viet Nam.

Lynd has demonstrated against the war in Viet Nam, and the magazine Viet Report is a frequent critic of American policy there. The Students for a Democratic Society has been an organizing force in the antiwar demonstrations.

The three men could face a $5,000 fine, five years in prison, or both for visiting North Viet Nam without permission from the State Department.

Hayden, 26, is an organizer for the New Community Union project in Newark, N.J., which seeks to organize the poor on issues such as housing, unemployment and welfare.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our 17-year-old son is goodlooking, well-behaved and popular. He's a good student, good athlete and a good dancer, but he NEVER asks a girl for a date. He's not afraid of girls. He'll go around with a bunch of boys and they'll "meet up" with girls, but when it comes to calling a girl and making a date, he won't do it. Girls ask him to girl-ask-boy dances, and he goes and has a great time. He can use our car, his Dad will give him money, and many mothers of girls have hinted to me that their daughters would like to date our son. When a big affair comes up (like a prom), he waits around until the last minute and then decides it's too late to call anybody. What's wrong with him? I could wring his beautiful neck!

HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Believe it or not, even good-looking, bright and popular boys can feel inadequate when it comes to girls. They don't ask because they are afraid they might be turned down. (I know, I get letters from boys, too.) Keep "reminding" your son to get a date for those special events. If he's insecure, it will provide the extra push he needs. If he's just immature, he won't call until he's good and ready.

DEAR ABBY: My child plays with a child her age who lives in our apartment building with her mother and father. We rarely see the mother as she is a stewardess with an airline. I know that this airline will not allow their stewardesses to continue to fly after they marry. Yet this young woman calls herself "MRS." How can this be? How do I go about finding out if this woman is just living with this man or if they are really married?

NOSEY

DEAR NOSEY: You answered your own question with your own signature: You're too "nosey" for your own good.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Last summer a friend and I took a motor trip and agreed to share expenses. We were stopped for speeding on the outskirts of a small town. (She was driving.) The fine was $10. After the trip our friendship cooled. I later found out that my friend thought I should have paid half the fine since we had agreed to share expenses. Do you think a speeding ticket is a legitimate expense?

NOT CHEAP

DEAR NOT: No. It's an illegitimate expense. But your friend violated the law herself, and should have expected no help from you in paying the fine.

DEAR ABBY: My great-grandson is with the Peace Corps at an oasis in the Sahara Desert. Mail arrives by CAMEL three times a year. If he is to get his Christmas presents in December, they must reach Algiers before the caravan sets out in AUGUST!

So please tell the merchants that if they want to start promoting Christmas around the Fourth of July, it's all right with me.

Deadline For Discount On Taxes Near

About 89.6 per cent of the 1965 ad valorem tax has been collected in Scurry County, according to employes of the tax assessor-collector's office.

Thursday is the last day county taxes can be paid at a discount, according to Dan Callaway, deputy. Payments made before or on Thursday will be allowed a one per cent discount.

The county tax rate is .95 cents plus state tax of .42 cents for each $100 of valuation based on 11¼ per cent of actual value.

Jan. 1 is the final day for obtaining poll tax exemptions and paying for receipts, according to Callaway. Persons who will be 60 years of age before Jan. 1, 1965 do not have to pay a poll tax in order to vote, but they must apply at the tax office for an exemption. There were about 6,500 qualified voters in the county in the last election.

This year, several important county elections are on tap including ones to fill vacancies occuring in the offices of County Judge, County Clerk, District Clerk and two places on the county commission.

Reds Work To Sabotage Food Plan

By SANTOSH BASAK

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Indian Communists are trying to sabotage a government plan to ease critical food shortages in eastern sections of the nation.

The Reds apparently fear government success would destroy two themes they have used for years to stir agitation — food shortages and farmer grievances.

The government plan calls for direct government purchase of rice from farmers and distribution through government-controlled ration shops.

The plan is aimed at distributing India's food shortages more evenly throughout its 480 million population, preventing isolated pockets of famine from developing next to comparatively well-fed areas.

A Red-inspired whisper campaign has been started in eastern India. The theme: the government is trying to snatch food away from the farmers to feed the city dwellers who dominate India.

"Do not starve to feed the townsfolk," is one Red slogan.

Farmers have been asked to refuse to sell their rice to government buyers. Some farmers, unlettered in such political infighting, are withholding stocks.

Rice prices have been rising daily. In the neighborhood of Calcutta, it is being sold at 50 cents per kilogram in the open market. In ration shops a kilo costs about 15 cents. A kilogram is 2.2 pounds.

Even at high prices rice is not always available, and cases of acute hunger are reported from many areas.

Government officials in West Bengal State, of which Calcutta is the capital, are touring the state's 37,000 villages to explain to the farmers the benefits of selling foodgrains to the government.

AN KHE, South Viet Nam (AP) — Bob Hope brought a young GI his first picture of the soldier's twins today.

Performing for 7,000 troops of the U. S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division, the comedian called Spec. 4 Bryan H. O'Connell of Studio City, Calif., to the stage and handed him a picture of the twins, born in November after the division left for Viet Nam.

Hope said Mrs. O'Connell came to his plane as he was leaving California and asked him to take the picture to her husband.

The sun was out for most of the performance at the division headquarters here 250 miles north of Saigon. But once when it clouded over and started to rain lightly, Hope raised a golf club toward the sky and declared: "You wouldn't dare."

The rain stopped.

Smokes Bear New Label

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Cigarette packs bearing health warnings are falling off production lines at some major North Carolina tobacco companies in advance of the Jan. 1 deadline required by federal law.

New packs of L&Ms displaying the warnings appeared in the Raleigh area Monday. L&Ms are manufactured by Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. at a plant in nearby Durham.

The warning on the side panel says:

"Caution: Cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health."

Federal Legislation enacted this year requires the warning on all cigarette packs sold in the United States after Saturday.

Infant Girl Found In Houston Alley

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — An infant girl was found upside down in a paper sack wedged between an alley wall and a smokestack behind the Texas State Hotel Monday.

Raymond Prince, a cook in the hotel's kitchen, heard her cries.

The umbilical cord was still attached to her naked body. She was rushed to a local hospital and found to be in "good health."

Doctors said she appeared to be about five days old.

Queen Joins In Rites At Abbey

By GODFREY ANDERSON

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II placed a bouquet of red roses on a small altar in Westminster Abbey today to inaugurate the year-long celebration of the 900th anniversary of Britain's premier church.

The abbey was consecrated on Dec. 28, 1065, Holy Innocents Day. Edward the Confessor, who had ordered it built, died soon after without seeing the completed structure.

Since its consecration as a Benedictine monastery, the abbey has been the coronation church of all of England's monarchs but two. Elizabeth was married there in 1947 and crowned there in 1953. Thirteen British kings and five queens are buried there.

It was to honor the abbey's builder that the queen took the roses today from a cushion carried by the abbey's senior chorister and laid them on the altar near the marble tomb of King Edward.

As the queen arrived with her husband, Prince Philip, her sister, Princess Margaret, and other members of the royal family, a ceremonial prelude was played on the great abbey organ. It was composed for the occasion by Sir Arthur Bliss, master of the queen's musick.

Resplendently garbed officials took part in the stately ceremonial. The Archbishops of Canterbury, York, Wales and Dublin were on hand with the Primus of Scotland and representatives of other churches in Britain and overseas.

Also attending were the speaker of the House of Commons, the Lord Chancellor, members of the government and of both houses of Parliament, the lord mayor of London, diplomats and Commonwealth high commissioners.

For the anniversary, workmen gave the abbey its first real face lift in its 900 years. Plans for the million-dollar project began at the time of Queen Elizabeth's coronation 12 years ago.

Tons of eroding soot and grime were removed from molded and carved decorations. Gold leaf and paint was renewed. The sandstone walls were restored to their original white.

Stephen Dykes-Bower, the prominent architect who was in charge of the restoration program, said: "The view of the abbey on entering the west door is no longer one of somber gloom but of lighteness and radiance — a symphony of white stone, gray marble, guilding and color."

Wedding Party Watches The Fords Go By From Lobby

By JEAN SPRAIN-WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Watch the Fords go by was the game played in the Delmonico Hotel lobby Monday night as more than 400 well-heeled and well-known persons made their way to 24-year-old Anne Ford's prewedding party.

Early in the evening, the father of the bride-to-be, Henry Ford II, led the parade. Accompanying him was the mother of the bride-to-be, Anne McDonnell Ford, from whom he was divorced last year after 23 years of marriage.

There also was vivacious, blonde Cristina, whom he married in February. Along too was the bridegroom, Giancarlo Uzielli.

The couple will be married in a civil ceremony this afternoon at Mrs. McDonnell Ford's Fifth Avenue apartment.

The family shied away from photographers and raced for the elevators. Twelve security men were assigned to protect the privacy of the party — one of the most heavily guarded parties in the hotel's history.

Another early arrival was hair stylist Marc Sinclair, who combed out daughter Anne's hair into a coiffure pulled back and long around the shoulders. The mother's hairdo was similar.

Daughter Anne had chosen a floor-length, white chalk beaded gown for the occasion while her mother wore a rose-beige costume, also twinkling with crystals and beads.

The engaged couple and parents of Anne formed a receiving line at the bottom of a stairway leading into the grand ballroom. All in all, 14 other members of the Ford family and 12 McDonnells passed through the receiving line.

A black and white striped tent effect, mirrors, huge polka dots and gold painted palms formed a glittering pop-op motif for the party. Although it was estimated to have cost $50,000 it was hardly as elaborate as the $280,000 coming-out party Anne's father gave for her in Detroit a few years ago.

Ford toasted his elder daughter, Charlotte, who only last week married shipping magnate Stavros Spyros Niarchos in a surprise ceremony in Mexico City. Then he toasted his younger daughter and her stockbroker husband-to-be.

The Wild Ones, long-haired rock 'n' rollers, once led by Christopher Jordan, Sybil Burton's new husband, alternated with Meyer Davis' more sedate band.

The late night supper celebration was preceded by a number of small dinner parties given by friends.

Among the guests were the Duke of Marlborough's daughter, Lady Sarah Russell; [illegible] Mrs. Rene Bouchet; Ambassador and Mrs. John Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. John Barry Ryan II; Mrs. Moss Hart; Gen. and Mrs. Lauris Norstad; and the former Princess Lilly Fallah of Iran, now Mrs. Francis Lawrence; and Sharman Douglas.

Among the Fords present besides Henry II, were Mr. and Mrs. Benson Ford; William C. Ford; Walter Buhl Ford II and Walter Buhl Ford III; Miss Eleanor Clay Ford; Miss Josephine Ford; Mrs. Marnie Ford; Alfred Ford; Edsel Ford, Henry's son, and Edsel, Henry's brother. Most of them came here in the company plane.

Anne's grandmother, Mrs. Edsel Ford, traveling by train, missed the party but was expected to be in attendance at the small wedding.

WHAT'S GOING ON

Mrs. Jeta Plant and granddaughter Lonnie of Irving, spent the holidays with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Landrum. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Sue and Ann.

Mrs. Plant and Lonnie of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Plant and Jody of Big Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Jeptha Landrum of Fluvanna, had Christmas dinner with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Landrum. Mrs. Plant, Lonnie and Mrs. Landrum went to Lubbock Saturday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nelson, Jimmie and David. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Scribes May GiveThumper 'Fame' Vote

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams, one of the greatest hitters in baseball history, appears a sure bet for election to the hall of fame in his first year of eligiblity.

Hy Hurwitz, secretary-treasurer of the Baseball Writers Association of America mailed ballots Monday to some 415 members with a minimum of 10 years in the association. Because of the required membership period, many writers are being called upon to vote for a star who considered many of them a necessary, even unnecessary, evil.

Although often at odds with various baseball writers, Williams is figured a shoo-in for enshrinement in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., next year. His fabulous batting marks offset any hostility that may have endured through the years.

The tall slugger compiled a .344 batting average and hit 521 homers in 19 seasons with the Boston Red Sox despite time out for service in both World War II and the Korean War. He also is the most recent of baseball's .400 hitters, batting a majestic .406 in 1941.

He led the American League in batting six times, in homers four times and in runs batted in four years. He hit over .400 in 16 of his 19 seasons before retiring in 1959, and was voted the league's Most Valuable Player in 1946 and '49.

Williams, whose home run production is topped only by Babe Ruth's 714 and Jimmy Foxx's 534, was among 41 former stars eligible for the Hall of Fame for the first time. Eligible players must have been active within a 30-year period but retired the last five years.

Other newcomers with Williams include Enos Slaughter, Don Newcombe, Alvin Dark, Hank Sauer, Bobby Thomson and Mickey Vernon.

The eligibility list also includes 30 top vote getters last year, when a runoff was necessary to elect Luke Appling.

Hurwitz placed a deadline of Jan. 15 for the balloting.

Injury Hits Georgia Tech

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Georgia Tech's ace fullback, Tommy Carlisle, carried an extra load today as the squad prepared for its Gator Bowl game Friday with Texas Tech.

The extra load came in practice Monday when reserve Fullback Doc Harvin pulled a leg muscle and was put on the doubtful list.

Harvin joined two other Tech players sidelined by injury — offensive tackle Jim Penley and wingback Terry Haddock.

Penley had an operation for a knee injury, and Haddock had an emergency appendectomy less than three weeks ago.

Coach Bobby Dodd said he was pleased with the practice session and particularly delighted with the running and passing of the starting backfield.

"They are ready to play right now," Dodd said.

Razorbacks Hold Lengthy Grid Drills

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Arkansas practiced for the second day in San Antonio as the Razorbacks prepared for their meeting with Louisiana State in the Cotton Bowl Saturday.

The Razorbacks went through almost three hours of drills Monday.

A checkup on injuries showed linebacker Joe Black probably won't be able to play in the Cotton Bowl. He has a severely bruised leg.

Bobby Nix, however, appeared fully recovered from a pulled muscle and was doing the kicking in top style. Guard Mike [illegible] was favoring a [illegible] leg muscle and [illegible] going [illegible] same running. He should be all right for the game.

Rodeo Enters Third Round

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas All-Star Rodeo holds its third performance tonight with Allene Gaylor of Colorado Springs, Colo., going after her third go-round triumph in national finals girls barrel racing.

She has led in both go-rounds thus far, posting her best time Sunday when she had 16.75 seconds. Monday night it was 16.83.

Meanwhile, former world's champion in calf roping, Jim Bob Altizer of Del Rio, Tex., moved into the picture in his event. He tied his calf in 12.3 seconds Monday night to tie Roger Forehand of Tiviola, Tex., for first place.

Larry Mahan of Brooks, Ore., led the bareback bronc riders with a 62 score, two points more than Bernis Johnson of Cleburne, Tex.

Dub Sams of Malvern, Ark., led steer wrestling with 5.8 seconds, Hugh Chambliss of Albuquerque topped saddle bronc riding with 65 and Phil Heinen of Summerfield, Fla., scored 59 to lead bull riding.

VICTORY IN 'SUDDEN DEATH' PLAYOFF — Ball kicked by Don Chandler (34) of Green Bay Packers rises toward uprights and three-point field goal against Baltimore Colts in Green Bay, Wis. Field goal in "sudden death" overtime gave Packers 13-10 victory and western division title in National Football League playoff of tie. (AP Wirephoto)

Indian Star Makes NAIA All-Star Team

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics announced its 1965 All-Star Football team today, and so diversified is this season's talent there are only two repeaters.

One is quarterback Ed Buzzell of Ottawa, Kan., University. Buzzell threw 31 touchdown passes this season for a four-year career total of 72 and averaged 241.1 yards a game passing during 1965.

The other is Bruce McLenna of Hillsdale, Mich., a hard-running back who, along with Allen Smith of Findlay, Ohio, and Mel Stanton, Eastern Washington State, make up the remainder of the backfield.

McLenna, a 228-pounder, averaged 112 yards a game, and Smith repeated as NAIA scoring champion with 146 points. He edged Stanton for the rushing title by two yards, 1,240 to 1,233. Stanton was second on scoring with 126 points.

The ends are Spencer Gordon of Southern Oregon, and Darrell Elam of West Virginia Tech; tackles, Fred Cremer, St. John's, Minn., and Frank Cornish, Grambling, La.; guards, Keith Collins, Sam Houston, Tex., State, and Larry McDaniel, Minot, N.D., State; and center, Ed Kruml, Kearney, Neb., State.

On the defensive first team are linebackers Jim Kreitz, Illinois Wesleyan, and Carlos Mainord, McMurry, Tex.; halfbacks Vern Brock, Whittier, Calif., and George Clayton, Fairmont, W.Va. State; safety, Harry Theofilides, Waynesburg, Pa.; ends, Tommy Nelson, Sul Ross, Tex., State, and Bruce Anderson, Willamette, Ore.; tackles, Don Williams, Wofford, S.C., and Bill Scott, Northwestern Oklahoma State, and guards, Dennis Chinn, Occidental, Calif., and Tom Seals, Georgetown, Ky.

West Leads Pro Scorers

NEW YORK (AP) — Jerry West must wonder what a guy has to do to be a unanimous All-Star selection in the National Basketball Association.

Los Angeles' Mr. Everything was one of eight NBA players named to the West squad for the league's annual All-Star Game at Cincinnati, Jan. 11.

West was named on all but one of the 67 ballots cast by sports writers and broadcasters in the nine NBA cities. West is the NBA's leading scorer with 1,228 points, one of three NBA players to pass the 1,000-point plateau this season, and the only one in the West.

The West team did have one unanimous selection. He's Nate Thurmond, the 6-foot-10 San Francisco center who took over in the Warriors' pivot spot after Wilt Chamberlain was traded to Philadelphia.

The only rookie on the team is Rick Barry of the Warriors, who is averaging better than 31 points per game.

Others chosen were San Francisco's Guy Rodgers, Don Ohl and Bailey Howell of Baltimore, Zelmo Beaty of St. Louis and Rudy LaRusso of Los Angeles.

The East's first eight stars will be announced Thursday and then NBA coaches will pick two more players for each 10-man squad.

One of the additional West players will come from Detroit, the only club in the division without a player among the first eight chosen.

Aggies In Semifinals

By JERRY SCARBROUGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Top-seeded Wichita State and third-seeded Texas A&M will be favored to down upset-minded opponents tonight and join Oklahoma City and Rhode Island in the semifinals of the 30th All-College Basketball Tournament.

Wichita meets Xavier in the second game tonight after a match between Texas A&M and Virginia Tech, the tournament darkhorse.

Wichita will be attempting to shake a two-game slump which has seen the Wheatshockers fall to Southern Illinois and Marquette by a combined total of 40 points after opening with four straight victories. Xavier has a 4-3 mark.

Texas A&M and Virginia Tech have 5-1 records.

Texas Teams In Tournament Finals

EDINBURG (AP)—Four Texas teams clash in semifinals of the Pan American holiday basketball tournament tonight.

Lamar Tech meets St. Mary's and Pan American takes on St. Edward's.

They emerged Monday night from an eight-team tournament that had four teams from other states.

St. Edward's beat Eastern Illinois 67-66, St. Mary's upset Arkansas AM&N 73-57, Lamar Tech downed Gustavus Adolphus 104-83 and Pan American took out Parsons of Iowa 86-68 in the opening round.

In consolation play this afternoon Gustavus Adolphus meets Arkansas AM&N and Eastern Illinois clashes with Parsons.

Chandler In Limelight

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Among the wires that poured into Don Chandler's home after his field goal heroics in Sunday's sudden death football game was a message from Wel Mara, his old boss at New York.

"It was real nice of Wel," said the Green Bay place kicker. "I appreciated it."

Nobody paid much attention to Chandler in the year-end polls for comeback of the year, but the veteran deserved a high rank. His tying and winning kicks for a 13-10 victory against Baltimore Sunday made it 19 out of 29 field goal attempts and a total of 95 points.

Last year he made nine out of 20 for the giants. Ironically, the Giants had troubles with field goals and made only 4 of 25 this season.

Chandler tied Sunday's playoff game for the National Football League's Western Conference crown with less than two minutes to go when he made good on a 22-yard boot.

"That's got to be the big one for me," said Chandler. "We have had a lot of tough things to overcome this year. Now we've got to play another tough game against Cleveland. It has been real blood-and-guts football all season."

Chandler and the rest of the Packers were given a two-day holiday by the coach before they resume practice Wednesday.

Bart Starr, the No. 1 quarterback, is a doubtful starter for Sunday's NFL championship game with Cleveland at Green Bay. Starr has a painfully bruised right side and has trouble raising his right arm. However, X-rays proved negative.

Lombardi said he would not know about Starr until Friday. In the meantime, the veteran Zeke Bratkowski, who led the Packers to victory after Starr was hurt on the first play, will run the ball club.

SUN MELTS SPANIARDS

Aussies Win Davis Cup For 13th Time

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The sun blazed down on center court at 114 degrees, and John Newcombe and Tony Roche blazed over it with the same intensity today as Australia retained the Davis Cup with an easy doubles triumph over the flamboyant Spanish team of Manuel Santana and Luis Arilla.

The Aussies' 6-3, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 triumph over the gallant Spaniards gave the boys from Down Under an insurmountable 3-0 lead in the best-of-5 series and kept the big silver cup, emblematic of world amateur tennis supremacy, in Australia for [illegible] years.

Despite an imported group of 400 Spanish spectators gaily bedecked in red and gold scarves and an appreciative Australian crowd of 8,000 in White City Stadium, the Spaniards seemed to wilt after breaking through in the second set.

Santana tired noticeably during the third set, apparently feeling the effects of the 60-game singles match he lost to Fred Stolle Monday, 10-12, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4, 7-5. Spain fell behind 2-0 when Roy Emerson whipped Juan Gisbert 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

So the scene was dramatically set for today's matches with the [illegible] in their first appearance in the Challenge Round [illegible] and the Aussies deciding to send out the second-line combo of Newcombe and Roche for the clincher.

Australian captain Harry Hopman, who made the decision to use the rested Newcombe-Roche team rather than come back with Emerson and Stolle, freely predicted that it would be all over after the doubles match.

"I think our boys will win the doubles," he said frankly. "We want to wrap it up."

And that's the way it was with Spain's captain, Jaime Bartroli, freely admitting after it was all over. "The Australians were too good," he said.

Duke Retains High Basketball Ranking

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Four undefeated teams have taken stronger positions in the Associated Press major-college basketball poll while once-beaten Duke held onto a sizable first-place lead.

The four are Vanderbilt, Bradley, Iowa and Kentucky, ranking behind the Blue Devils in that order.

Duke, 7-1 including last week's 100-93 overtime victory over Michigan, collected 35 first-place votes and 405 points in the latest balloting by a special panel of 43 regional experts.

Vanderbilt advanced two places to second with seven first-place votes and 331 points. The Commodores whipped Northwestern and the University of California at Santa Barbara, pushing their record to 8-0.

Bradley also climbed two places to third after beating Montana and North Dakota for a 10-0 mark. The Peoria, Ill. Braves had 299 points.

Iowa, 7-0, soared from ninth to fourth while Kentucky, which received the only other vote for the top position, moved up from 10th to fifth. Both teams are 7-0. The Wildcats trounced Texas Tech 89-73 last week while Iowa was idle.

Brigham Young, also unbeaten at 6-0, climbed into the No. 6 spot. BYU was unranked last week. Michigan, which also lost to Butler for a 4-3 mark, slipped four notches to seventh.

St. Joseph's, Pa., in the runner-up position a week ago, fell to eighth. The previously-unbeaten Hawks lost to Wyoming 99-92 and Brigham Young 103-83 last week.

Minnesota and Providence each tumbled three places, the Gophers to ninth and Providence to 10th. Both lost their first games of the season in last week's action, Minnesota to Utah State and Providence to Houston.

Wichita, eight last week, dropped out of the top 10 after losing to Southern Illinois, a small-college opponent, and Marquette.

The voting was based on games through last Saturday.

The Top Ten teams, with first-place votes in parentheses, won-lost records through games of Saturday, Dec. 25 and total points on a 10-9-8, etc. basis.

Lobos Get Cage Nod

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — With the home court advantage, the University of New Mexico is expected to capture the first Lobo Invitational Basketball Tournament.

New Mexico, which has lost only two games at home in two years, meets Tulane while Texas Christian tackle Idaho in the first round Tuesday night. The two winners will meet for the title Wednesday night with the losers matched in a consolation.

New Mexico has a 6-1 record. Tulane has a 2-3 mark.

Texas Christian searches for its third victory of the campaign against the Idaho Vandals, 4-3. TCU has lost five games but last week tripped favored Oklahoma City 103-93.

Idaho reeled off four straight victories at the start of the season, beating Oregon, Utah State, Portland and Flagstaff. Then the Vandals sustained three straight losses — two on their home floor.

New Mexico swept four straight before losing to Texas Tech and then beating Hawaii University twice. Among the victories are decisions against Iowa State on the road and Baylor at home.

Hogs, Tigers Can Move The Ball

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — With the acceleration of offense by the return of two-platoon football, it is reasonable to expect an offensive game in the Cotton Bowl next Saturday.

Arkansas and Louisiana State, which averaged 360.3 and 307.3 yards per game, respectively, should indicate it.

But the last time two-platoon football was used in the Cotton Bowl, one team was held to 32 yards total offense, with minus 14 yards rushing.

That was 1953 — the last year of the two-platoon football until the present. Texas beat Tennessee 16-0 and held the Vols to that skimpy 32 yards. Texas had 301 yards.

So perhaps two-platoon football doesn't mean offensive fireworks after all, except it will be hard to make those who know about the offensive antics of Arkansas and Louisiana State believe it.

Anyway, neither team has been particularly strong on defense, so the offense might shine as a natural development.

The two teams practice at San Antonio, Tex., and Baton Rouge, La., today, with Louisiana State due to wind up at the latter and hop a plane Tuesday for Dallas.

The Tigers then will go to the Southern Methodist University practice field for a workout and picture-taking session.

Arkansas won't leave San Antonio until Thursday morning. The Razorbacks will hold a workout that afternoon at the Highland Park high school stadium.

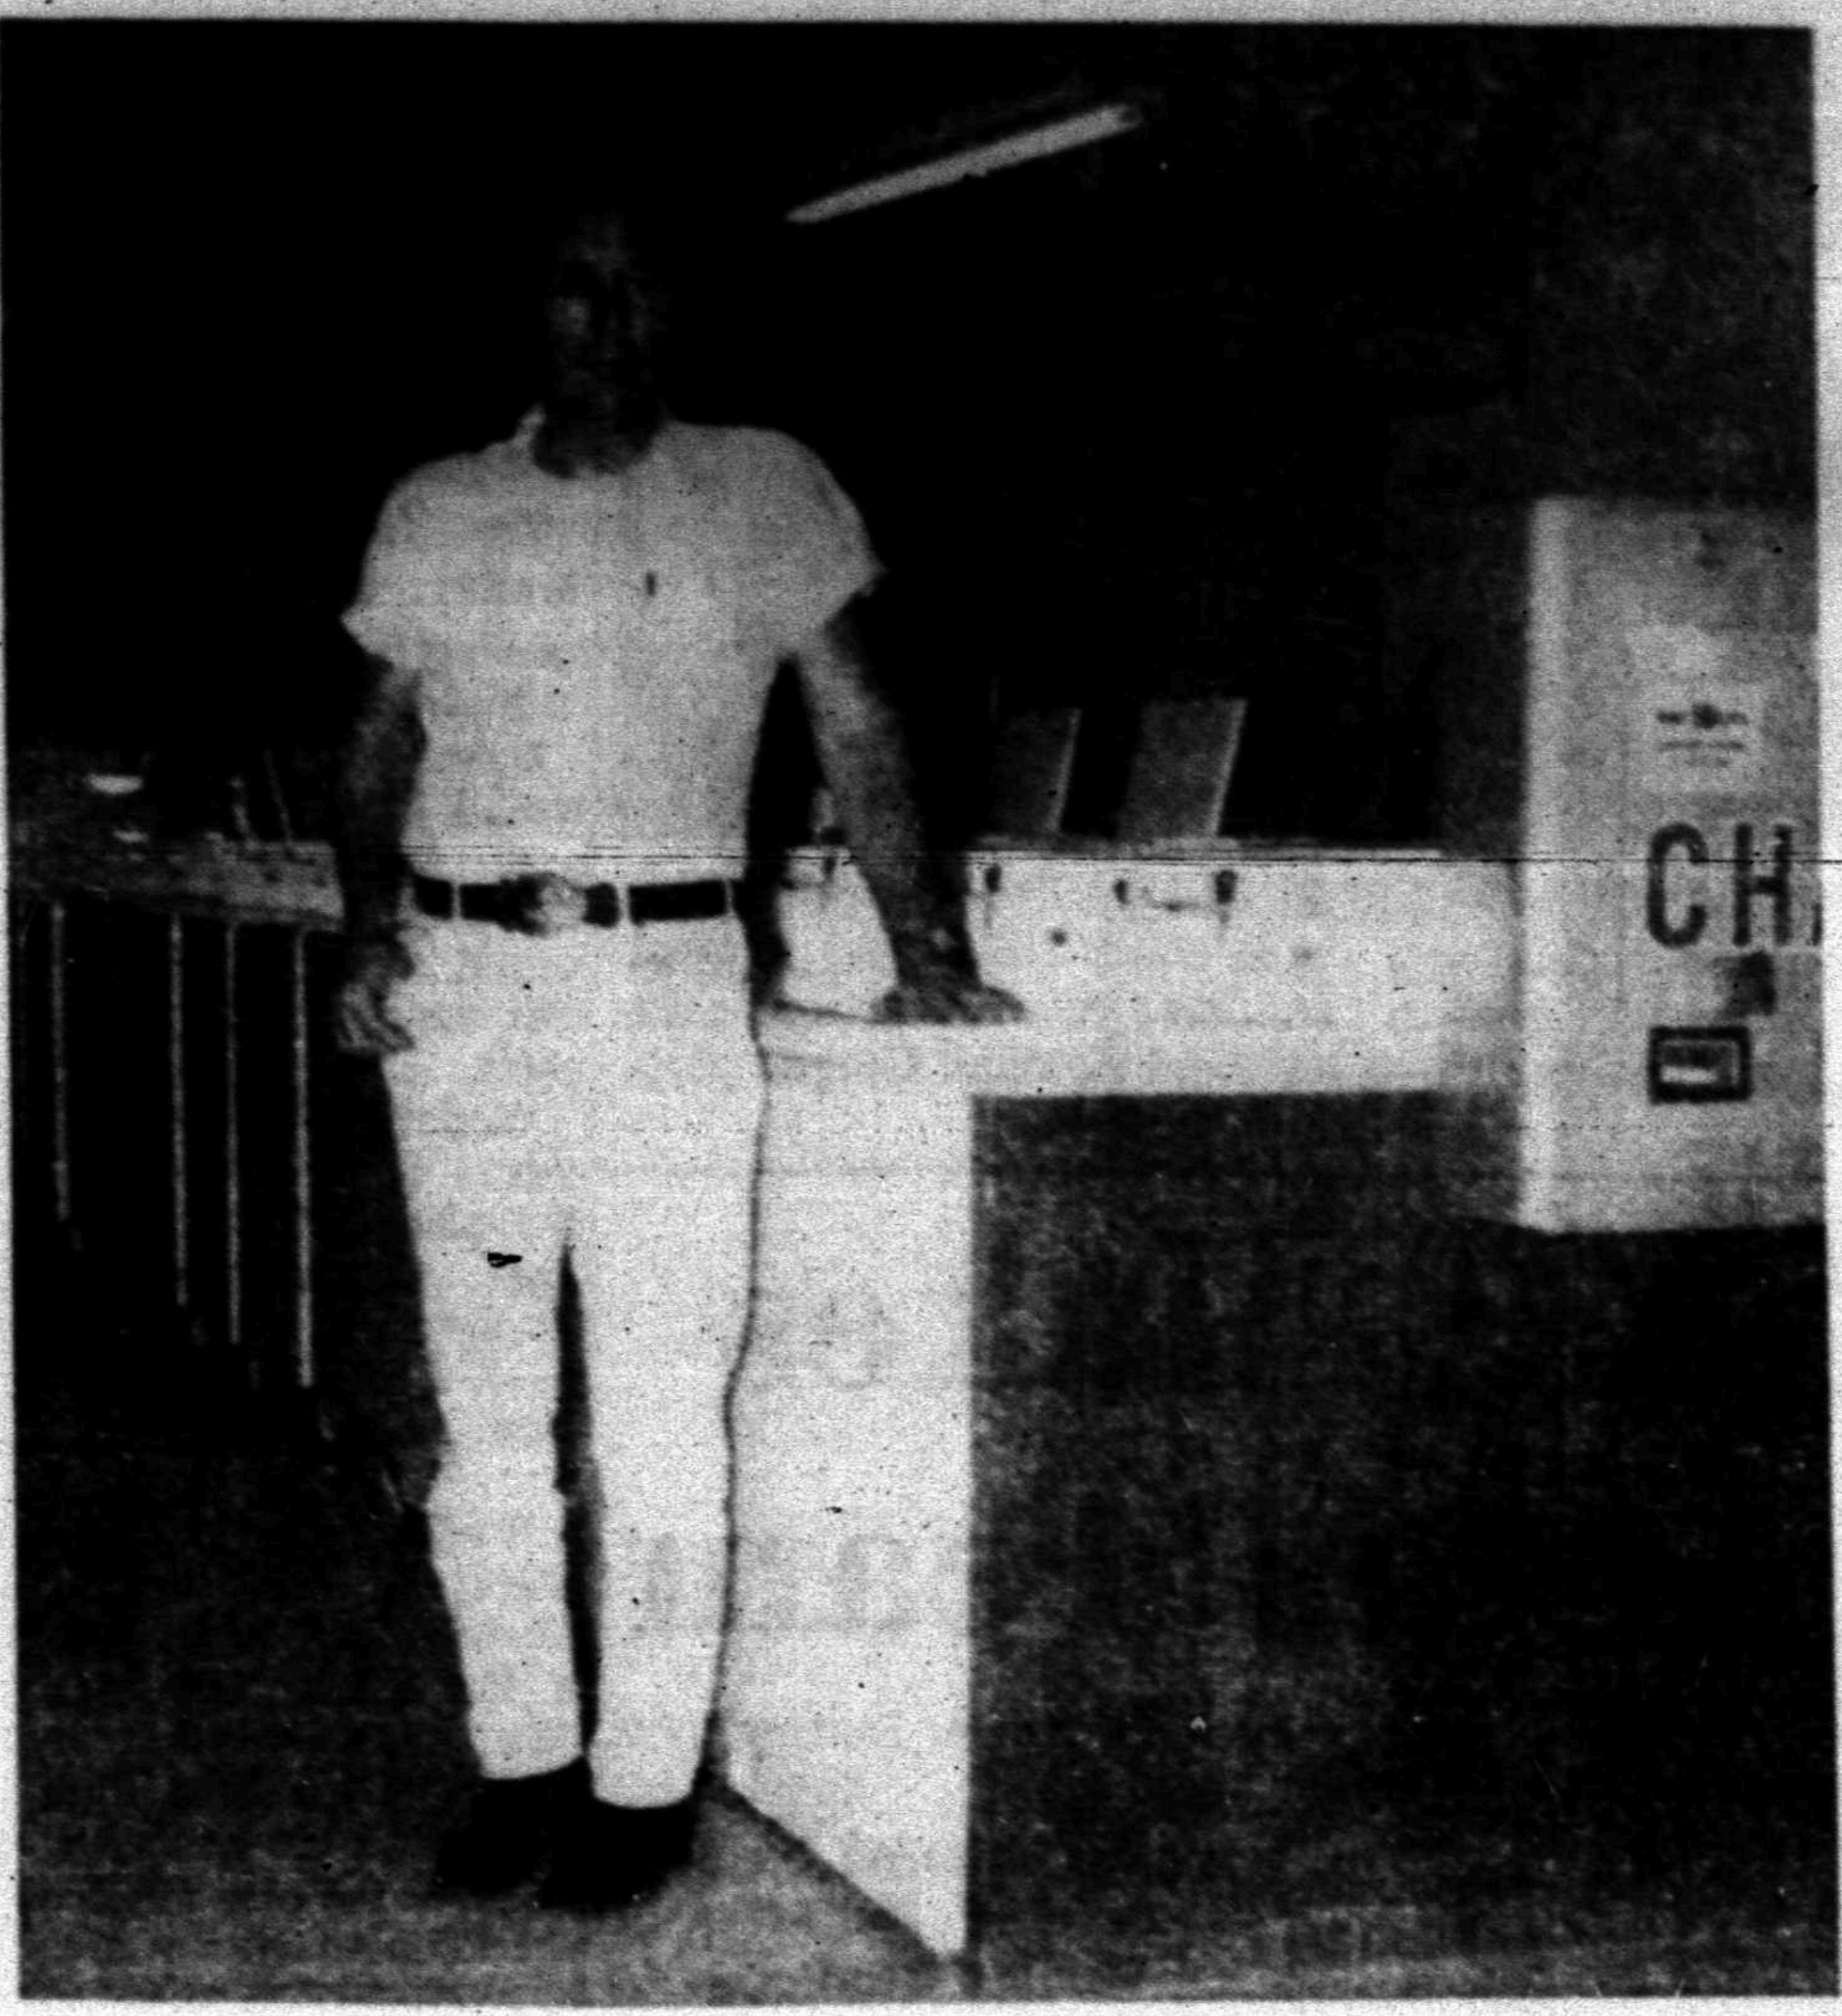
BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS



NEW OWNER — Although Norge Laundry and Drycleaning Village, 4005 Avenue S between Roe's Furniture and Whitfield Variety, has a new owner, the firm still specializes in prompt and efficient service for its customers. Robert V. Clemons, a veteran with the Snyder Police Department, is the new owner. He recently purchased the firm from E. H. Williamson. (Staff Photo).

New Owner Of Norge Village Has 'Get Acquainted' Event

Robert V. Clemons, new owner of the Norge Laundry and Dry - Cleaning Village, 4005 Avenue S between Roe's Furniture and Whitfield Variety in the Highland Shopping Center, is offering customers a special "get acquainted" offer.

The firm is offering special rates for an 8-pound load. Normally, such a load would cost $2, but now the price is $1.50 Special rates also are in effect for suits (70 cents), plain dresses (70 cents), pants (30 cents) and sweaters (30 cents).

Clemons already is well acquainted in Snyder. He has been employed by the Snyder Police Department for the past seven years. He also has experience in his new field, having worked in the tailoring and dry cleaning business for over four years. Clemons purchased the firm recently from E. H. Williamson.

The new owner also is making one important change in the operation of the business. Customers may drop off clothing at the firm, and employes will put the articles in the washing machines.

"Just drop off your bundle with us and come by for it later if you like," suggested Clemons.

The firm still is located in the same spacious, comfortable quarters, and has plenty of top-quality machines. Also, the firm still specializes in prompt and efficient service to its customers.

"We have competent counselors who would be glad to assist you in any way they can," stated the owner. Patrons may leave articles at the Norge plant while they shop elsewhere.

Clemons' wife, the former Vergie Willman of Stamford, and Mrs. Gene (Ruth) McWhirter are employed in the Cleaning Village.

The Clemonses are parents of three children: Diana 17, David 14, and Debbie 8. The family resides at 3000 Thirty-ninth.

That's Some Yule Gift!

PITTSBURGH (AP) — "You think your wife gives nice Christmas presents?" said Joseph F. McLaughlin when he arrived at the office Monday.

"Look what my wife did."

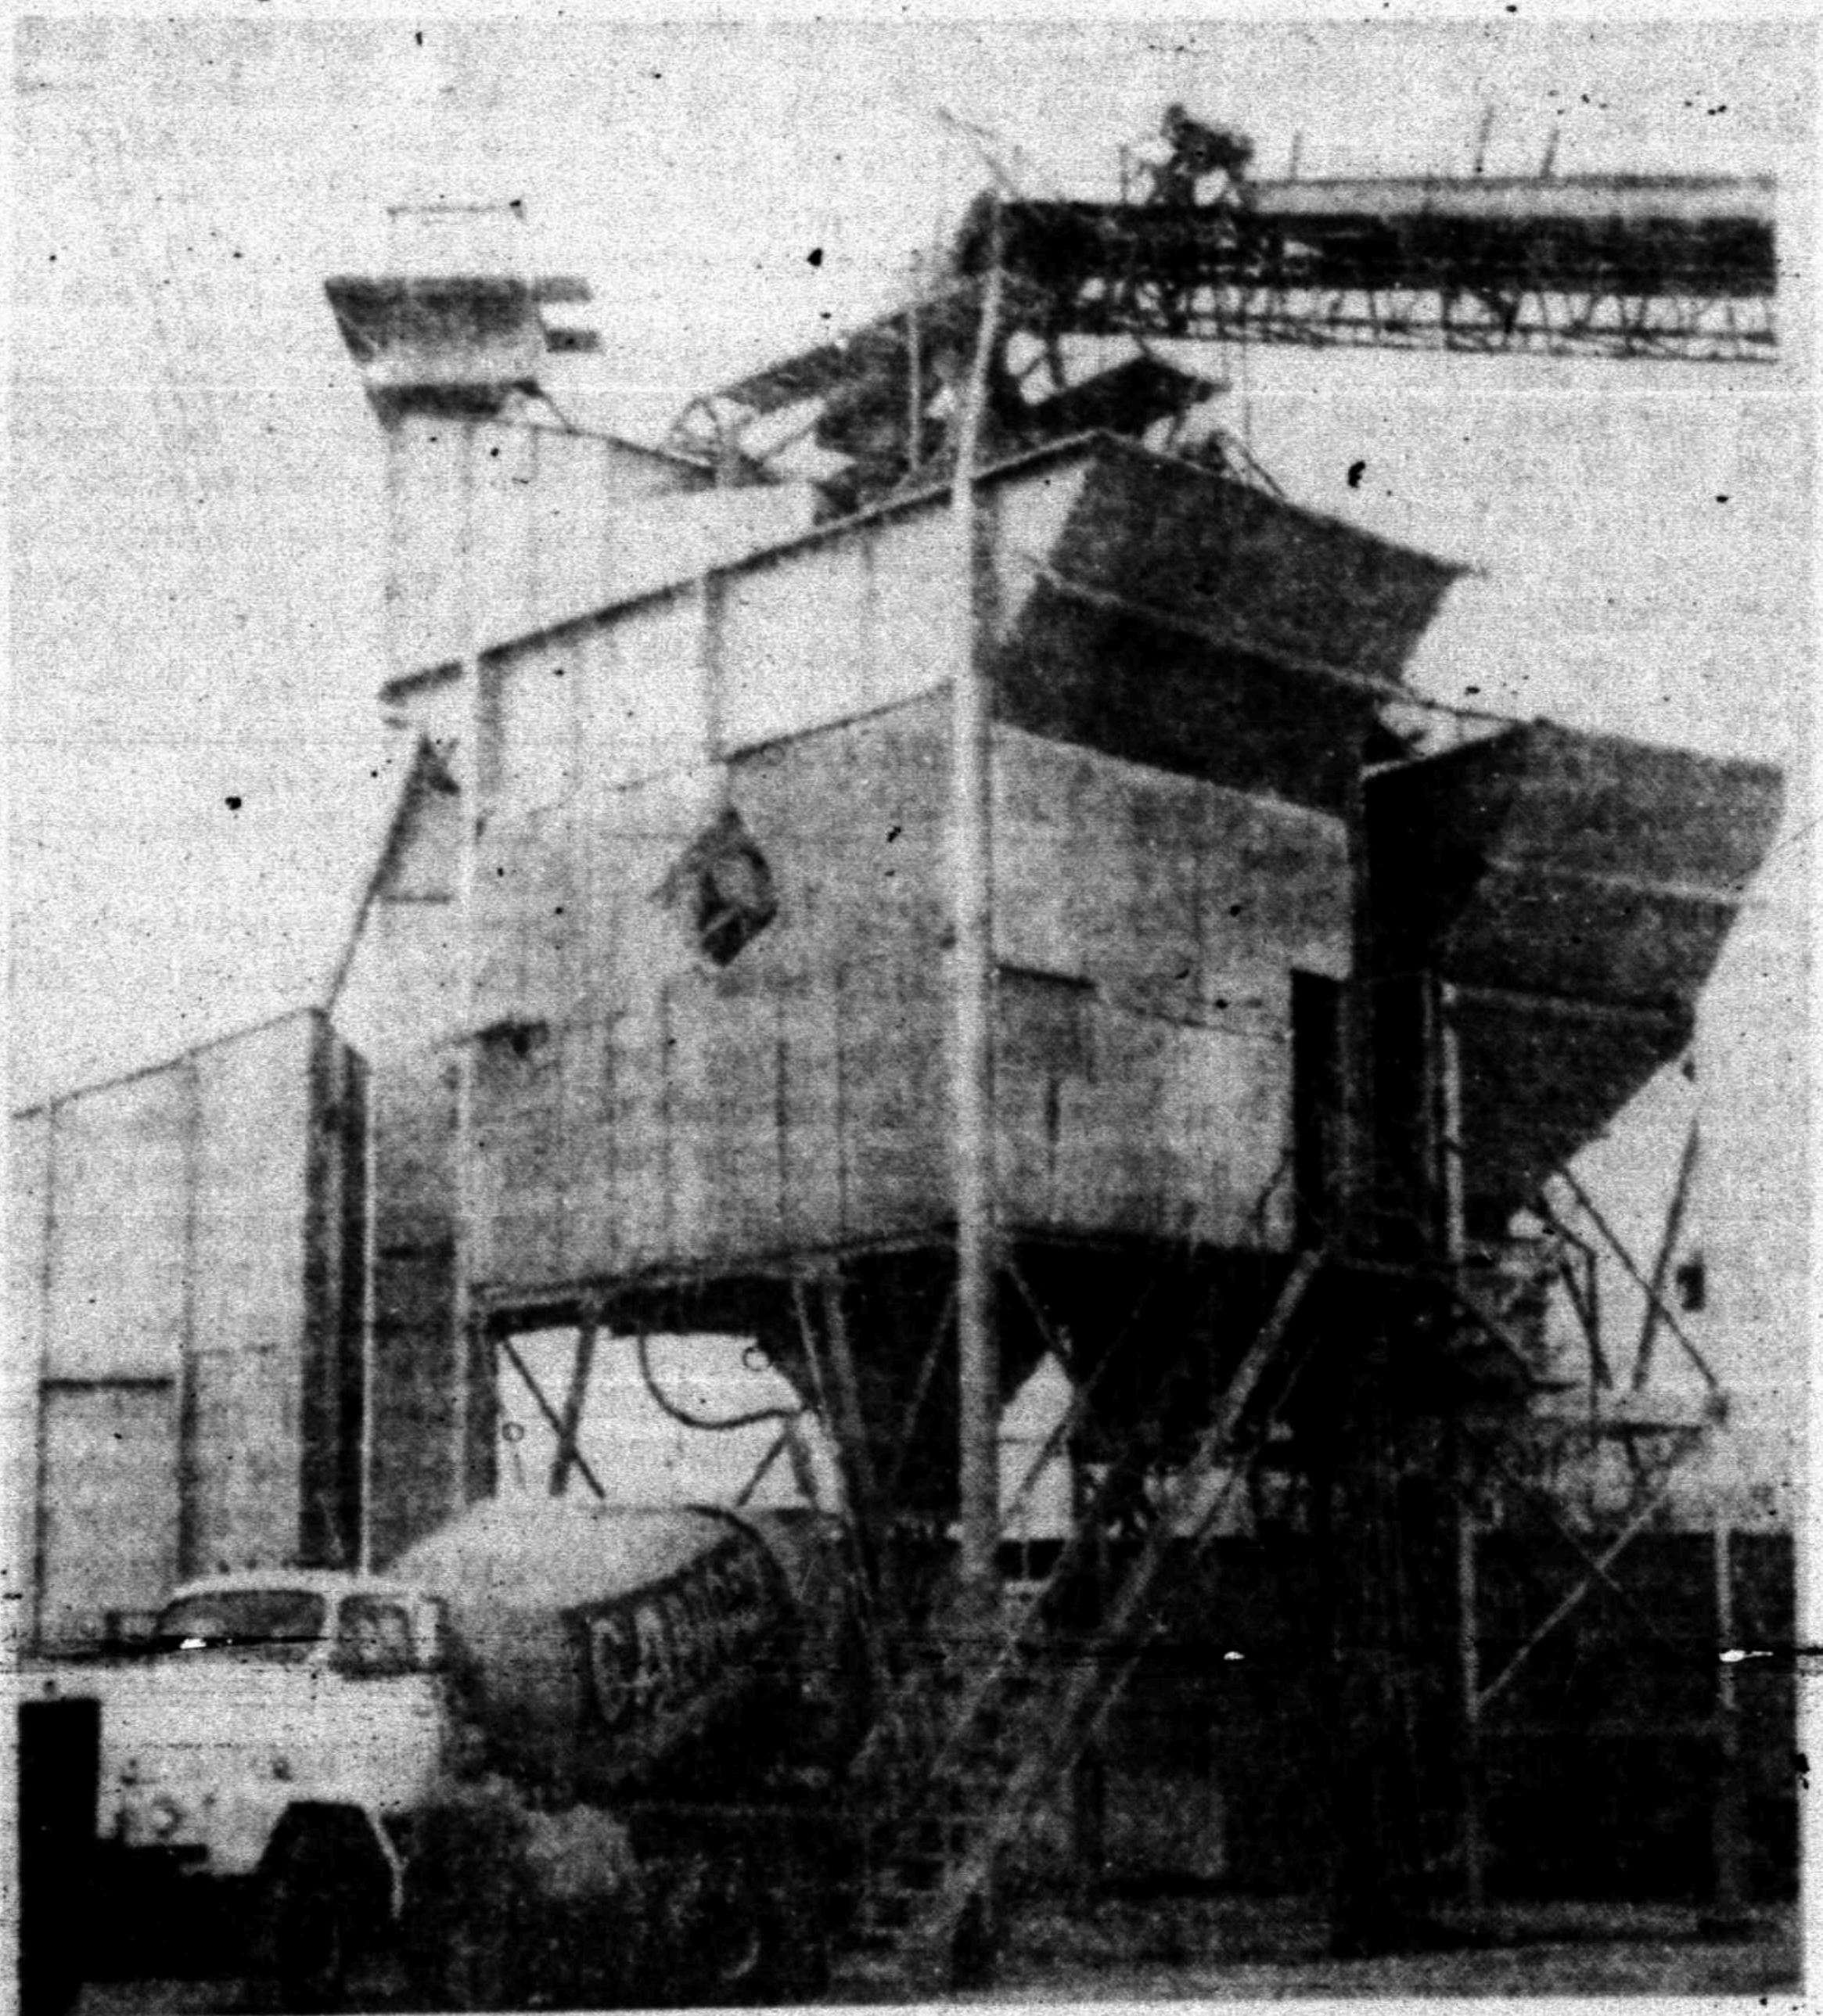
Then McLaughlin displayed for coworkers at U. S. Steel Corp. a gift certificate from Gimbels department store for $400,010.

The certificate was a mistake. Mrs. McLaughlin had bought a $10 certificate and had discovered the error too late to turn it in before the weekend.

McLaughlin notified Gimbels and a grateful management later presented him with a $100 certificate. It also let him keep the $400,010 certificate — but marked it void.

Hunter Is Killed

IRVING (AP) — Robert E. Smith, 17, of Irving died of an accidental gunshot wound Monday while hunting. The Dallas County sheriff's office said the accident occurred while Smith and two other Irving men hunted just south of the Irving city limits.



FILL 'ER UP—Clarence Hall, 15-year employe with Caprock Materials, 2300 Avenue Q, prepares to load up a new company truck with seven yards of ready-mix concrete. Caprock Materials Can Help With Farm Improvements

This is the time of year when farmers, with their cotton about harvested, begin to think of improvements around the farm. And Caprock Materials, 2300 Avenue Q, is one firm that is well qualified to help put in the improvements.

Caprock Materials has been building concrete feed tubs, trench silos, well houses, utility houses and concrete septic tanks for area farmers for the past 15 years.

The firm is one of the biggest in the business in building materials. Caprock employes poured the concrete on the by-pass project and also poured the concrete for the new bridge in Precinct 2 this year. Also during the past year, the firm helped with the curb and gutter work on El Paso for the city.

Plenty of satisfied customers is the key to the success of Caprock Materials. Employes of the firm take pride in doing a good job—whether it is for an individual farmer or for a large corporation. That is one reason why the firm is expanding.

Gene Best, who put in the business here 15 years ago, also has installed portable plants at Sterling City and north of town near Clairemont. He and his wife, Margaret, both are employed full time at the business.

Three employes — Clarence Hall, Buck Byram and Raymond Pylant—have been with the firm since 1950. Two others—James Rinehart and Dale Hatfield—joined Caprock Materials within the past year when business expanded.

Gene and Margaret Best came to Snyder from Albany by way of Odessa and Houston. They have two children: Mrs. Toni Smith, a first grade teacher in the Houston School System, and John Best, a Senior Pre-Med student at Texas Tech.

"Remember," said Gene, "— if you're thinking about making some improvements around the farm, just call us and we'll be glad to work things out with you."

Defective Russian Hose A Problem

MOSCOW (AP) — Pity the Russian working girl who spends a day's wages to buy a pair of stockings, wears them one day and finds a hole in a heel, all the toes out and lots of runs.

"Where is the working conscience of those factory workers who produced this defective stuff?" angrily demanded Miss Krylova.

She was mad about a pair of stockings from the Krtsanisi factory in Soviet Georgia that had cost 2.40 rubles — $2.64 — the average daily earning of a woman clerk here. So she wrote to Pravda, the Communist party organ.

The paper got together with a Moscow department store and summoned a meeting to put people on the spot.

To discuss stockings in the Communist system, it took people from five different government ministries, plus the factories, plus Moscow shops. They seemed to Pravda to have agreed that the stocking business has problems.

Inadequate and poor quality yarn is supplied to factories. Machinery is old.

The Krtsanisi factory in Georgia was the main scapegoat.

Pravda said it sent 16,000 pairs of stockings to Moscow's central department store this year and all of them were defective. They are sitting in a warehouse while the factory refuses to accept responsibility.

Pravda concluded on the usual cheery note of such public admissions that problems have existed in the Soviet Union. In 1966 better yarn will be supplied, some factories will be re-equipped and production will increase 11 per cent.

Flag Captured At The Alamo Retained In Mexico Museum

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Shredded and decaying battle flag captured by Santa Anna at the Alamo during the Texas War of Independence is the only one of its kind retained by Mexico, the head of the National Museum of History says.

Others were captured during this war — probably a dozen or more—but all except the Alamo flag were burned or discarded a half century ago, says Antonio Arriaga Ochoa.

Arriaga Ochoa is director of the museum, located in famed Chapultepec Castle, a post he has held for 12 years.

Several recent attempts have been made to persuade Mexico to return the flag to Texas.

The Alamo flag, captured March 6, 1836, by Mexican troops, is shredded and torn.

On it are the words, "First Company of Texan Volunteers of New-Orleans." Under the figure of an eagle are the words, "God and Liberty."

It is about 45 inches long and almost 34 inches wide. It is pale blue on a crude cotton satin base and has a gold metallic fringe. It is in bad shape.

Two other battle flags — captured 11 years later near Angüstura, in Sinaloa, Mexico, are retained. They apparently were taken from Texas troops fighting in the Mexican War in which the United States took part.

They are the flag of the "Galveston Invincibles" and a Texas flag, one of the first of its kind with the single star and two bars.

A fourth flag was taken from filibusters in another battle in 1857 in the state of Sonora. It is known as the "Caborca Flag" and has nothing to do with the Texas rebellion or the subsequent United States - Mexican War.

Shortly after Texas voted its independence March 1, 1836, Mexico took quick steps to break up what it called the insurrection.

President Santa Anna—who served as President six times—was elected to head the expedition into texas with what was called a "plentiful" army.

He won over a smaller force at the Alamo and then swept through Texas before being routed by Sam Houston's army at San Jacinto April 21, 1836.

In a formal statement, Arriaga Ochoa said Santa Anna's "clumsiness, ignorance and inhuman acts" at the Alamo created the Texas battle cry of "Remember the Alamo" and made impossible any agreements.

Other flags were taken by Santa Anna in Victories at Refugio, Coleto Creek, Goliad, Coporo, Villa Gonzalez, San Patricio, Agua Dulce and other places.

But, says Arriaga Ochoa, most were burned or discarded around 1917 when the old Museum of Artillery was dismantled. Many of its contents were destroyed, among them the battle flags.

Most of the flags were in shreds even then, he says.

Arriaga Ochoa says positively that there are no other Texas flags in Mexico.

GOALS REVISED

Soviet Policy Decisions Vital To Peace Outlook

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The shape of Soviet world policy in 1966 will have important bearing on chances for negotiation in Viet Nam. By spring, the world may have a better idea of those chances.

All signs indicate Soviet policy is being retooled to fit new situations, including fading prospects for any reconciliation with Red China.

Soviet aims seem concerned with security and insurance: security to pursue internal economic goals, and insurance against involvement against its will in direct conflict with the United States.

Soviet policy now is zeroing in on Western Europe, suggesting that Moscow wants to make friends with its Western neighbors, expand economic and cultural contacts and reap long-range benefits. A Soviet-British summit meeting is in prospect for February, and President Charles de Gaulle may drop in for a Soviet-French summit.

In this, Moscow appears to seek insurance in the form of some sort of settlement of West Germany's role in Atlantic nuclear defenses. It is capitalizing on lack of enthusiasm among America's allies for West German participation, and also on De Gaulle's opposition to stepped-up NATO integration and to the West German nuclear role.

While the Kremlin appears to subordinate Viet Nam to European policy, it also can be expected to seek a form of insurance in Asia, too. This is manifest in persistent Soviet efforts to implant strong influence in North Viet Nam, to provide a decisive voice in future developments there. The Soviet leaders likely will discuss Viet Nam with British Prime Minister Harold Wilson in February.

Significantly, the Chinese have been accusing Moscow of pursuing its own "special aims" in Viet Nam. In turn, European Communists, reflecting the Moscow view, accuse Peking of wanting to stand by, amused, while the United States and the U.S.S.R. get involved in military conflict.

Next spring could produce meaningful developments, possibly including a purposeful and practical Soviet policy tailored to the needs for security and insurance. The Soviet Communist party opens its 23rd congress March 29.

The congress theoretically is the ruling body which meets once in four years to approve guidelines for the next four. It likely will reaffirm policies laid down by the 20th congress in 1956 and the 22nd in 1961. Those two were the fountainheads of the Soviet-Chinese dispute. A reaffirmation of the Soviet stand could mean much with regard to Viet Nam. If the Russians establish a strong presence there, a situation could develop in which their weight could contribute to isolating the Chinese and possibly create conditions for negotiations.

Valley Citrus Is Moving

AUSTIN (AP)— Rio Grande Valley citrus growers reported their heaviest shippings of the season last week, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said.

Nonetheless, the agency said Monday, oranges were in light supply "as wet ground restricted picking and growers held back in hopes of improved price."

The department's weekly crop-weather report described the grapefruit market as dull.

Cotton harvest was slowed by the holidays and damp weather.

Most wheat has become dormant, the agency said, and the dryland crop needs additional moisture.

Supplemental stock feeding was accelerated in scattered areas across the northern half of the state, but ample grazing was afforded in South Texas by small grains and winter pastures.

Road Toll Is Termed Disaster

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 720 persons over the three-day Christmas weekend, the highest number ever counted for any holiday period.

The National Safety Council termed the toll a national disaster.

The figure smashed the record of 706 for a 102-hour, four-day holiday weekend that had stood for nine years. The previous record also was for a Christmas observance — in 1956.

The council had estimated a death toll of between 560 and 660.

The record for a three-day holiday was 609 during the 1955 Christmas period.

Christmas 1964, also a three-day observance, brought 578 traffic deaths.

The Associated Press made a survey of traffic fatalities in a non-holiday weekend for comparison purposes. From 6 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 9, through midnight Sunday, Dec. 12, 420 traffic deaths were counted.

Johnson, McNamara Push Federal Budget Wind-Up

By FRANK CORMIER

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara have gotten together once again to push final preparation of a guns-and-butter federal budget for the 1966 Congress.

The Texas White House announced early today that McNamara flew to the Johnson ranch Monday night for a lengthy discussion of the new defense budget that will encompass mounting outlays for the war in Viet Nam.

McNamara made an overnight stop at the LBJ ranch on his way back to Washington from a skiing vacation at Aspen, Colo. He had met at the ranch with the President on the same subject earlier this month.

Johnson will be focusing much of his attention in the next few days on drafting of the new budget.

Federal spending this fiscal year under the Johnson administration is expected to reach an all-time high of between $105 billion and $107 billion. Next year's figure is expected to be higher, with increased spending on the Viet Nam war.

The Texas White House said today no final decisions have been made yet on the spending blueprint for the 1967 fiscal year that begins next July 1 — the period covered by the forthcoming budget.

Sources disclosed, however, that Johnson would be having budget conferences this week with a number of top Washington officials at his ranch home near Johnson City. At least some final decisions were expected to emerge from these sessions.

Even as he began a final round of budget preparations, Johnson reportedly was keeping in touch with efforts to promote a peaceful settlement of the Viet Nam war.

The White House announced Monday night that the apostolic delegate to Washington, Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi, had sent a letter to a White House aide asking that Johnson be advised that Pope Paul VI "had received with great pleasure the news that a Christmas truce was ordered by the armed forces in Viet Nam." The Pope now is urging a New Year's cease-fire.

Joseph Laitin, acting White House press secretary, also announced a planned change in the ranks of Johnson's key advisers on economic and fiscal matters.

He said James Stemble Duesenberry, a monetary expert and economics professor at Harvard, would be appointed to Johnson's three-member Council of Economic Advisers. Duesenberry, 47, will replace Otto Eckstein who will return Feb. 1 to his post on the Harvard faculty.

The President spent much of Monday at his desk, Laitin reported, and talked once by telephone with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and twice with McGeorge Bundy, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs.

Youth Killed In Pursuit Of Bandit

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A gunman shot and killed a 16-year old San Antonio youth Monday while fleeing the scene of a holdup at a grocery store.

Jesse Eng, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Eng, who operate a south San Antonio grocery store, was killed as he and other members of the Eng family pursued a Negro bandit who had taken an undetermined amount of cash from the store.

Motorcyclist Killed

AUSTIN (AP)—Terry Martin Taggert, 20, was killed when his motorcycle and a truck collided here Monday. Jennifer Laier, 18, who was riding on the motorcycle, was critically injured.

Leftover Campaign Funds To Aid GOP Congressmen

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leftover thousands in the coffers of an organization created for Barry Goldwater's presidential campaign are indirectly the product of a political fund raising law Republican leaders want repealed.

It is the $3 million limit on the annual spending of political committees.

The Republican Coordinating Committee, a council of party leaders, has declared the ceiling is unrealistic and should be wiped off the books.

Meeting privately, one day before the coordinating committee took that stand, the steering committee of an organization called Citizens for Goldwater-Miller had decided to use its remaining funds to help conservative Republicans who seek re-election to the House and Senate next year.

That decision was in large measure shaped by Goldwater himself, although he wasn't on hand, associates of the former Arizona senator and 1964 GOP presidential nominee reported. Goldwater was said to have been determined to see the money used for Republican campaigns.

It affects a treasury which reportedly contains more than $200,000, almost all of it raised but not spent in Goldwater's unsuccessful try for the White House.

Citizens committees are a fixture of presidential campaigns. Theoretically, they are set up to attract the dollars and the votes of people who like the presidential candidate, but not the party he represents.

But the coordinating committee gave this account of campaign organization in calling for repeal of the "wholly unrealistic" limit on fund raising and spending:

"In practice, this provision has not limited the amount of money spent in presidential campaigns, but has spawned the creation by both major parties of hosts of satellite committees, each legally able to collect and spend $3 million."

Texas GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell, who now is a leader of the Citizens for Goldwater group, has pointed out there were no strings attached to the funds still in its treasury.

Just how string-free it is was demonstrated when some men in the citizens organization argued it should be transformed into a conservative political action group.

Goldwater and former Rep. William E. Miller, the GOP vice presidential nominee last year, agreed, however, that the money should be used to help Republican candidates after they have secured the party's congressional nominations.

In fact, Goldwater once suggested it be turned over to the Republican congressional and senatorial campaign committees.

The final decision, which O'Donnell said was unanimous, means the money will not go into the nomination bids of conservatives who want to run for Congress.

At the same time, it means the citizens group leadership can spend its treasury on the campaigns of conservative Republicans who already are there and seeking new terms.

Let's Praise Our Man In Viet Nam

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — There isn't much trouble in picking America's "Man of the Year" for 1965.

He is our Man in Viet Nam, the nation's No. 1 pinup lad.

Actually, he isn't just one man. He is a plural figure. He is all of the 175,000 or so U.S. men fighting for political freedom in a land some of them had hardly heard of before they were sent there.

At the start of 1965 our Man in Viet Nam was a rather forlorn figure. He was a far away pioneer in a war which puzzled most of his countrymen and one in which, it is true to say, most took only a casual interest.

They felt it didn't involve them much personally.

That is all changed while some puzzlement as to the nature of the war still exists, few now fail to realize that the conflict is affecting their lives more and more deeply.

Neither they nor any member of their family may be of draft age. But they do hold jobs and pay taxes — and the war has grown to be a major economic as well as military and political factor.

To be named "Man of the Year," a fellow should show some growth during the twelvemonth, growth in purpose and influence.

Our Man in Viet Nam certainly has done that.

It would have been easy for him to succumb to the indulgence of self-pity, to feel that he was a forgotten man while other fellows his age were living the life of Riley back home or lighting their cigarettes with their draft cards.

It would have been easy for him to hate the land he was sent to fight in and the people — so different from his own in some ways — he was sent to protect.

But that hasn't happened.

Our Man in Viet Nam is truly a man, and he has conducted himself like a man. He has learned to adapt himself to a climate and a landscape and a way of fighting that test him to the utmost.

At first he fainted on the torrid humid hills and in the steaming jungles. Now he is hardened to heat and torrential rains.

Like his ancestors who fought Indians in the wilderness, he has learned to fight jungle ambushes — and to reply with ambushes of his own. He has developed skill in old and new arts of warfare. He can fight with a rifle or a helicopter, a bayonet or a 750-pound bomb.

At the start of the year he thought the battle would be easier than it has turned out to be. Now he has more respect — and more hate — for his enemy. No matter what the war requires of him he is determined to come home a winner.

Our Man in Viet Nam, by and large, is convinced he is doing a worthwhile job there, even though a small minority protest both his presence and purpose in Southeast Asia. His morale is high.

Boat License Renewals Due

AUSTIN (AP)— License renewal notices go out Jan. 3 for Texas' more than 200,000 motorboats, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer announced Monday.

The renewal notices will include brochures explaining key features of the new Texas Water Safety Act passed by the 59th Legislature.

The new law gives state game wardens full authority to enforce water safety regulations.

Boat licenses obtained under the new act will be for two years, instead of the former three-year registration period.

New fees are $3 for Class A boats (less than 16 feet), $6 for Class 1 boats (between 16 and 26 feet); $9 for Class 2 boats (between 26 and 40 feet) and $12 for Class 3 boats (40 feet and longer).

Mishap Is Fatal

A Junior Editors Quiz About CATS' WHISKERS

HOLD STILL WHILE I TICKLE YOUR WHISKERS
BETTER NOT TICKLE HIS WHISKERS!
COULTON WAUGH

QUESTION: Why do cats have whiskers?

ANSWER: As an animal moves about, to find food or escape from other animals, it needs to have its senses highly developed. Its life often depends on how keen these senses are. But different animals have developed some senses more than others, because they are especially useful in a particular way of life. An eagle needs extremely keen eyesight because he sails so far up in the air. Dogs and wolves have long muzzles which give them remarkable power of scent so they can track down other animals by smell. One of these useful senses is that of touch. Although all animals have some sense of touch, some use this sense more than others. Insects can often escape from danger because tiny bristles on their body, sensitive to touch, warn them of danger. Many have long feelers on their heads which work in the same way. Whiskers are a kind of feeler found on many higher animals. They are particularly developed in the cat family because these animals hunt at night. The whiskers let them feel their way around in the dark. There are nerve cells which surround each whisker and tell the animal at once if it has touched something.

FOR YOU TO DO: Close your eyes and run the tips of your fingers carefully over the objects surrounding you. Notice how amazingly well your sensitive fingers will report how things feel—the subtle difference between paper and wood, for example. 12-28

City Mourns For Young Negro Athlete

FRANKLIN, N.C. (AP) — A thousand persons packed this mountain town's largest church Monday for the funeral of Thomas Walter Scruggs, a popular Negro athlete credited with helping the peaceful desegregation of schools.

"Indirectly," said the Rev. Dr. W. Thomas Lane, "Walter Scruggs did more to smooth the integration of our community — more than the pastors, the businessmen, or anyone else

"He made his contribution for being what he was," Dr. Lane explained. "Everybody liked him."

Scruggs, 18, was killed Christmas Eve when his car collided head-on with one driven by his brother.

Dr. Lane said his First Baptist Church voted unanimously to request that the funeral be shifted from Scruggs' small Episcopal church because so many residents of this western North Carolina town of 2,600 wanted to attend.

Scruggs was described his high school basketball coach, Tom Raby, as the kind of boy who won games in the last second, was admired by his teachers, and set an example for others.

Scruggs was described by his Piedmont College in Demorest, Ga., the first Negro to attend the school. A year ago, he was among the first Negroes to attend previously all-white Franklin High School.

At the funeral were Dr. James E. Walter, president of the college, basketball coach O'Neal Cave, members of the team and some 30 other Piedmont students.

The pallbearers, four white and two Negro, included Raby and members of the 1964-65 Franklin High School team on which Scruggs starred.

May Be Deferred

WASHINGTON (AP) — Young men who join the Peace Corps or sign on as volunteers in the war on poverty are eligible for occupational deferment from the draft, a Selective Service official said today.

But youths on the receiving end of federal job training programs are eligible for induction, if they meet the physical and mental standards set for draftees.

"As far as we are concerned," said Capt. William S. Pascoe, public information officer for the Selective Service System, "if a person is in the Job Corps, there is no reason for us to defer them."

Peace Corps volunteers are considered to be in an occupation vital to the national interest. The same is true of young men who join the Volunteers in Service to America — VISTA, domestic counterparts of the Peace Corps.

Deferments are granted on a year-to-year basis. The young man involved would be deferred only during the period of his service with the Peace Corps or with VISTA.

Once a man has been deferred, his draft liability is extended until he is 35.

Killed Near Hawkins

HAWKINS (AP) — R. C. Bailey, city marshal of Hawkins, and a man identified as Roy Shields were killed Monday in a [illegible] collision about five miles west of here.

Computers To Prod Slow Students

DENVER (AP) — School children, like taxpayers, are fast approaching the day when they'll be prodded by computers if their performance lags.

During a recent seminar of school officials here an anonymous students's grade average was transmitted to a Honeywell computer center in Boston which, seconds later, sent back a prediction of that student's grades for the coming year. The prediction was based on historical grade samplings and numerous analyses stored in the computer memory.

Fences For Reason

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The white plank fences characteristic of Kentucky's horse country are not erected for beauty alone. They protect temperamental Thoroughbreds who have poor vision and are apt to gallop into wire fences.

Sky Spies Reveal The Earth's Secrets

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Two miles high, the airplane raced over a field of wheat.

Looking down, a special spying eye detected the beginning of a serious crop disease, two weeks sooner than a human expert could have spotted the trouble on the ground. Steps to control the disease were taken that much earlier.

This is one example of a new, expanding kind of spying to pry out valuable earth secrets — how crops and forests are faring, where hidden minerals or oil may lie, to fight fires, to find clues to coming changes in climate and weather, to learn what man by his actions is doing to his own planet.

Earth scientists call this remote sensing of the environment. It is aided now by a whole family of new sensing devices developed largely for military uses and now being taken off the secret list.

The spying eye over the wheat field was an infra-red device which detects heat waves. A darker image from part of the field marked the beginning of black stem rust disease.

Dr. Robert N. Colwell, professor of forestry at the University of California, cited this instance of helpful spying today to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Combined use of infra-red and ultraviolet devices, radar, regular and color photography, and other means, is capable of telling one kind of vegetation from another, how healty the vegetation is, and even why it is becoming sick, Dr. Colwell said.

The devices can pick up information to help "predict weeks, months or years in advance what a yield will be" in crops, or orchards or timber land, he said.

Devices that count gamma rays — a form of X ray — emanating from uranium and other elements in rocks are proving helpful in studying geologic formations and compositions of soils, said Dr. Jack Van Lopik of Texas Instruments Inc., Dallas, Tex.

Dr. John Place of the Office of Naval Research, Washington, D.C., told of studies, assisted by the Navy, by University of Wisconsin scientists using special airborne devices to locate lakes in northern Canada that are the first to thaw or the first to freeze.

He said this can help in determining the "cold pole" of the North American continent, with significance in predicting weather and perhaps climatic changes.

Scientists now are learning how best to use the keen new eyes and to interpret the findings, said Dr. Charles E. Olson Jr., of the University of Michigan.

Infra-red and other kinds of peeking can even spot differences in cultivation practices, he said.

An infra-red eye found the difference between two stands of corn, of exactly the same variety, fertilized the same way, in Minnesota. One had a darker tone.

The reason turned out to be that that field earlier had been planted to Alfalfa for three years while the other had been kept in corn for five years. The darker field contained more nitrogen and more moisture with deeper roots reflecting more heat, Dr. Olson said.

Vast areas of land could be surveyed to pinpoint better land practices to increase food yields for a hungry world, he said.

Earth satellites with special sensors promise further to advance man's knowledge of his own planet, and what is happening to it "in detail and in the turmoil" taking place on its surface, said Dr. James Latham, professor of geography at Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, Fla.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

SAN MIGUEL ALLENDE, Mexico — This colonial spot in the mountains of Guanajuato state is considered by many travelers to be the prettiest town in Mexico.

You can always find someone who considers every town the top place.

Like Taxco, San Miguel has been declared a national monument. This means that the world's greatest architect would have to wade through miles of red tape before he could build even a hot dog stand.

It is colonial, historical, up-and-down and loaded with atmosphere. San Miguel is splashed against the slopes of steep mountains and looks like it was laid out by a mountain goat.

The narrow streets are cobblestone paved and on many of them, names change every few blocks. Start out on Mexones Street and suddenly you are riding along Aparicio Street.

Where did I get lost, you wonder? Just keep driving and you eventually find yourself.

This is an artist's town and not over run with tourists. Consequently, living is cheaper than in the cities and resort areas.

For $30 to $40 U.S. per month, you can rent a three - room apartment on the hillsides overlooking the spires and stepped-up houses of town. But take your car unless you want to walk a mile or two every day.

A colony of American artists and writers has established itself here and a couple can live reasonably well on $200 U.S. a month. The place looks like scenes from colored post-cards. This inspires the artists.

The big drawing card for these residents is the Institute Allende, an accredited arts and crafts school set up in an ancient convent. Most of the enrollment is American.

The Institute's modern hotel will put you up for about $5 a day, everything included, and is open to both students and tourists. Grounds are well barbered and the green lawns are edged by flower beds.

A summer crowd rolls in to swell the enrollment every year. Teachers, painters and writers who have saved up three or four hundred bucks to buy a few weeks in the sun.

San Miguel wakes up early. When the sun comes up the bells of a dozen churches begin clanging. Out - clanged by those of the big cathedral in the center of town.

This is not the life of Mexico City with breakfast at noon, lunch in mid - afternoon and dinner at 10 p.m.

The little town hustles and bustles with the sun. Daylight to dusk hours and people sleep at night. Comes 8 a.m. and the painters have their easels set up around the streets vigorously painting the aspects of San Miguel.

Writers hammer out prose on typewriters and life is merrily on its way.

If you spend some time here, the Hotel Balneario Taboada is worth a day or two. They will put you up for $4 a day including meals. And you can pick up a suntan on the grass or take dips in the thermal waters of the swimming pools. Filled with vitamins and minerals to cure what ails you.

All in peaceful surroundings wrapped up with historical colonialism and some high class scenery like you seldom witness.

Collision Is Fatal

HENDERSON (AP) — A two-car collision eight miles north of here Monday claimed the life of Jimmy Ray Sanders, 21.

CHARGED WITH AIDING ENEMY — Sgt. George E. Smith of Chester, W.Va., left, and Sp-5 Claude E. McClure of Chattanooga, Tenn., released by the Viet Cong last month, have been charged with aiding the enemy during two years of imprisonment in South Viet Nam, the U.S. Army said. The soldiers, released at the Cambodian border during a period of demonstrations in the United States against the Viet Nam war, are being held on Okinawa until a decision is made on disposition of the charges. Industry Expected To Ease Deficit

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson's administration is counting on U. S. industry to chop $1 billion from the nation's balance of payments deficit in 1966.

That would bring the nation's international accounts close to the balance point, said Andrew F. Brimmer, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Affairs, in an address prepared for delivery to the American Finance Association.

Brimmer said that target is the reason the so-called voluntary restrictions on export of dollars for overseas investment have been clearly focused on industry.

The 1966 "guidelines" on overseas investment limit such spending during the two-year 1965-66 period to 90 per cent of the level of investments in the three-year 1962-64 period.

Corporations also have been asked to boost exports and report quarterly on foreign transactions. The number of corporations to report quarterly will be more than 900, compared with about 500 in 1965.

Brimmer contended that the 1965 voluntary program "is likely to be a major source of the substantial improvement in the U. S. balance of payments for 1965."

That came about, he said, through increased expansion of exports and the repatriation of income earned overseas.

"On the other hand the continued high rate of direct investment has dampened the over-all improvement," Brimmer added.

Consequently, in the face of the possibility of more of the same in 1966, the guidelines were redrawn to attack the investment situation.

Brimmer said that at the time the guidelines were redrawn, there was expectation that the 1966 balance of payments would deteriorate mainly because of "the acceleration of military activity in Viet Nam and the continued high rate of direct investment abroad by U. S. corporations."

"While every effort will be made to minimize the military impact, it was evident that the focus of the 1966 balance of payments program had to be on direct investment," said Brimmer.

The voluntary program was inaugurated last February after the U. S. payments deficit soared over $3 billion in 1964. The deficit was the 14th in 15 years.

Charged With Assault With Intent To Kill

KILGORE (AP) — Kenneth Evans was charged Monday with assault with intent to kill after an exchange of shots with police officers.

Evans, 29, who was wounded, was charged with firing at officers with a high-powered rifle after they stopped him on a traffic violation. None of the officers was wounded.
