Football still is very much in the news, although basketball is beginning to attract more attention. Another playoff game is on tap here tonight when Bronte and Wilson tangle for the Class B regional championship. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium. An earlier playoff clash featured Seagraves and Aspermont in a Claaa A bi - district match.

We think congratulations are due the Chamber of Commerce and everyone who helped plan and carry out arrangements for both playoff games. Snyder has received much favorable publicity throughout the state due to these games. Of more substantial value is the fact that a playoff game usually brings hundreds of visitors into town. Many of these guests patronize local restaurants, motels and service stations. And, as Mae West or someone once said, anything that's good for business is good for the country.

Ned Underwood, the basketball coach, reports that District 3-AAA, of which Snyder is a member, has voted to raise prices for basketball games to $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. However, the increase will not affect the "B" team tournament here this weekend. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. A reduced rate for the annual Canyon Reef Tournament here the following weekend will allow adults to purchase tickets at 75 cents each with student ducats remaining at 25 cents. The Canyon Reef Tournament will be held in the new Scurry County Coliseum this year and should attract a large crowd. Hats off to the Snyder Quarterback Club for coming across with $300 for the rental fee for the two - day tournament. It could be one of the best tournaments ever held here. An added attraction will feature a match between McMurry and Texas Tech freshmen.

The 3-AAA basketball district will be divided into zones next year. This decision was reached at a recent meeting of district coaches and school officials. The south zone will include Snyder, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Lake View, Lamesa and Brownfield. The north zone will be comprised of Levelland, Littlefield, Slaton, Lubbock Dunbar and Lubbock Estacada. According to present plans, the top two teams in each zone will hold a 4-team tournament to determine the district champion. As Hideyoshi, emperor of Japan in the 15th century, once said: How about that, Joe?

SPARKLE

SURPRISE VISITOR — Mrs. Clyde L. Goodman, 3108 Avenue V, "heard a loud crash" late Thursday afternoon when this 1967 Model Ford pickup went out of control and crashed into a car in her driveway and into the front of her house. Luckily, she was in the kitchen and escaped injury.

HURDLES FENCE — This 1966 Model Plymouth cleared a 3-foot rock fence in the 3100 block of Avenue S about 3:30 p.m. Thursday afternoon after hitting a high curb in front of the house. Damage to the vehicle was placed at $275, and damage to the fence was set at $60. The woman driver apparently "blacked out" according to investigating officers.

Reds Forced Back In DMZ Fighting

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The Con Thien war front erupted again Thursday, with U.S. Marines driving North Vietnamese troops from their bunkers after a close-quarter battle just below the demilitarized zone. Meanwhile, a Red force continued to menace a U.S. infantry battalion at the Bu Dop Special Forces camp near the Cambodian border.

A company of Marines searching for Red troops 2.4 miles northeast of Con Thien ran into heavy machine-gun and mortar fire from an entrenched North Vietnamese company, estimated at about 135 men.

Three more Leatherneck companies joined the battle, giving the Marines about 700 men. Maneuvering around the enemy's flank, the Americans drove the Communists out of their heavily fortified positions in a four-hour battle.

Field reports said 26 North Vietnamese and 15 Americans were killed and 54 Americans wounded in the fighting, which was at such close quarters that the Marines could not use their artillery.

The fighting broke a lull on the DMZ front during which the Communists had concentrated on new targets, chiefly allied outposts along South Vietnam's 400-mile-long land border with Cambodia. The enemy's aim on both fronts apparently is the same—to operate close to his supply trails and to draw Americans away from protection of more populous areas where the government's pacification program has been making progress.

At Bu Dop, three miles from the Cambodian border and 80 miles north of Saigon, an under-strength battalion from the U.S. 1st Infantry Division which drove off a hard Red assault early Thursday reported today that a large Communist force was still facing it.

An American patrol bumped into the enemy lines just 75 yards from the end of the American air strip and pulled back from a Communist volley of sniper fire and claymore mines. The Americans called in Air Force jets to hit the enemy positions with bombs and napalm.

Associated Press correspondent John T. Wheeler reported from the camp that the air strip was the battalion's only link to the outside.

Fighting around the Bu Dop Special Forces camp and the nearby Bo Duc district headquarters has been going on since Tuesday. The 1st Division battalion was sent in Wednesday to reinforce South Vietnamese troops. Its commander, Lt. Col. James F. Cochran III of Tallahassee, Fla., claimed at least 100 Communist troops were killed when they tried to overrun the battalion early Thursday. Eight Americans were reported killed and 12 wounded, most of them by Communist rockets.

Thant Readies Cyprus Pact

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant prepared a peace appeal today to Greece and Turkey, setting the stage for a face-saving agreement to close out the threats of war over Cyprus.

Thant's move was designed to lessen the prospect of adverse Greek public reaction. It was believed the Greek people would be less aroused by a positive response to an appeal to Thant than by outright capitulation to Turkey's demands.

Thant in his appeal was to call for the terms worked out by the three international peacemakers who shuttled back and forth between Athens and Ankara this week, informants said.

Major points include the withdrawal of Greek and Turkish regular army troops stationed illegally on Cyprus, Greek compensation for Turkish Cypriots killed in fighting on the island Nov. 15, and an end to Turkey's threat to invade the island 40 miles off its southern coast.

While disposing of the immediate issues, such an agreement would not settle the basic differences which brought the Greek Cypriot majority and the Turkish Cypriot minority to civil war in 1963 and has kept the island in a state of armed truce since a U.N. peace force intervened the next year.

Th 1963 civil war was set off by the abrogation of the special political rights given the Turkish Cypriots in the 1960 agreements which freed Cyprus from British rule. Once the British were gone, President Makarios insisted on majority rule for his Greek Cypriots. Now the Turkish Cypriots have revived their demand for partition of the island between the two ethnic communities.

Before completing his appeal message, Thant planned to hear from U.N. Undersecretary Jose Rolz-Bennett, who returned to New York Thursday night from his mission as Thant's personal representative to help settle the crisis.

Manlio Brosio, secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, returned to his headquarters in Brussels Thursday after doing his part to keep the two NATO allies from fighting.

Cyrus Vance, President Johnson's special envoy, was still in Athens.

Ruben Jones Rites Set

Funeral services are set for 2 p.m. Saturday for Ruben Jones, 83, who died at 4:50 p.m. Thursday. Services will be held in Green Hill Baptist Church with Rev. Jerry Speer officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens under direction of Bell - Seale Funeral Home.

Mr. Jones, who lived at 112 Chestnut Street, had been a Snyder resident since 1923. A native of Arkansas, he was married to Vera Crawford on Oct. 6, 1928, at Lewisville, Ark., and she survives.

Also surviving are a son, J. R. Jones of Snyder, three brothers and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Jones was a member of the Green Hill Baptist Church.

AFS Chapter Sets Meeting Saturday

The Snyder Chapter of the American Field Service will hold its December meeting at 7 a.m. Saturday at Sallie's Cafeteria.

Anyone interested in the AFS program, which involves sponsorship of foreign exchange students, is invited to attend the "Dutch treat" breakfast session.

2 Unusual Mishaps Are Logged Here

No one was hurt much, but considerable damage resulted from two unusual motor vehicle mishaps yesterday.

Mickey Noel Birdsall, 3009 Avenue V, was traveling south on Avenue V when his 1967 Model Ford pickup went out of control and crashed into a car and house at 3108 Avenue V about 5:09 p.m. police said.

The collision occurred when Birdsall reached down to pick up a "coke" bottle, according to officers, who said the driver hit the gas pedal rather than the brakes when he looked up and saw he was off the road.

The impact sent a 1964 Model Dodge, which was parked in the driveway on the north side of the duplex, into a tool shed. Damage to the shed and house was estimated at $400. Damage to the car, owned by Clyde L. Goodman, was estimated at $350. Damage to the pickup was placed at $150.

Investigating Patrolman Jim McKenzie said the pickup crashed "about three feet" into the front wall of the house after glancing off the car parked in the driveway.

Mrs. Goodman, who was in the kitchen at the time of the crash, said she "heard a loud noise but didn't know what was happening." She said "a flower pot came sailing at me." The collision caused considerable damage to the interior of the house, damaging a stereo, a

Seaboard Residents Start Digging Out

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Residents of the heavily populated belt from Washington to New York manned shovels, brooms and plows today as they began to dig out from the first heavy snowfall of the season.

The storm swirled across the Eastern Seaboard Thursday and dumped up to 12 inches of snow on the string of cities stretching from Virginia, through Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey into New York.

The nation's capital was buried under a half-foot of snow, and as much as 12 inches fell in suburban areas in Virginia and Maryland.

Government agencies remained open but some of them allowed workers to leave early. Many schools closed and sent their charges home for the day. Downtown stores that planned to stay open until 9 p.m. closed at 6.

The snow forced cancelation of flights to and from Washington National Airport and Friendship International Airport, between Washington and Baltimore. But Dulles International Airport at Chantilly, Va., continued to operate as crews alternately cleared one runway and then another.

Today's racing program at Laurel Race Course at Laurel, Md., was canceled because of snow on the track. Officials canceled Thursday's nine-race program early in the day.

Snowfall of 8.2 inches at College Park, Md., home of the University of Maryland, set a record for November. The previous high mark for the month was 6 inches, set Nov. 26, 1938.

Snow-laden tree limbs snapped power lines throughout Washington's suburbs in Virginia and Maryland. Phone service was cut off in Alexandria and Arlington, Va. power was expected to be restored in most areas today.

STEADY STREAM OF CUBANS

Daily Airlift Begins 3rd Year

By THEODORE A. EDIGER
Associated Press Writer

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A daily airlift bringing a seemingly endless stream of refugees from Communist Cuba began its third year today. The "freedom flights" have brought 90,000 Cubans to the United States.

The anniversary of the massive migration operation is observed here as Cuban-American Day. A movement began to make this observance nationwide every Dec. 1.

Two airlift flights arrive each week-day at Miami International Airport from Varadero, Cuba, a beach resort frequented by American tourists in pre-Castro days.

Routinely, buses whisk the emigres to Freedom Gate, where U.S. officials process them. Then the refugees go to Fredom House to await assignment to a new home somewhere in the United States. Nearly three-fourths of the arrivals fan out throughout the 50 states, the rest remain to swell Miami's Cuban colony of some 150,000.

U.S. officials said more than 50,000 applicants—enough to keep the sky shuttle going for another year—already have been cleared for the migration and are awaiting their turn. Exiles say more than one million —one-seventh of all the people in Cuba—would like to hop aboard. That would mean another quarter century of airlifting.

During the first two years, the airlift covered enough miles to encircle the earth 16 times. There were 1,002 flights at 400 miles per round trip.

Each flight cost U.S. taxpayers $850. That adds up to $850,000.

Exiles invited President Johnson, who permitted the airlift to start Dec. 1, 1965, to ceremonies here, but he couldn't make it.

John F. Thomas of Washington, director of the Cuban refugee program under the Health, Education and Welfare Department, and Henry Taylor, State Department Cuban affairs coordinator here, will address exiles at a meeting tonight.

Miami Mayor Stephen Clark proclaimed Cuban-American Day. He said, "We hopefully pray that these inalienable rights essential to human dignity soon may be extended to all Cubans in their homeland." In schools, Cuba was the theme in music, art and compositions.

Two More Demos Eyeing Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Democratic senators who oppose U.S. war policies in Vietnam are considering favorite son presidential primary races, campaigns which could bolster the White House bid of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Sens. Vance Hartke of Indiana and George S. McGovern of South Dakota said favorite son campaigns are a possibility—and both added they generally agree with McCarthy's opposition to current U.S. policy in Vietnam.

A favorite son candidacy is a tactic to hold national convention delegations together most often used by state politicians who frequently aren't serious candidates themselves.

McCarthy, a Minnesota Democrat, announced Thursday he will challenge President Johnson's expected renomination bid in 1968 on a platform of disagreement over Vietnam policy.

Vietnam-oriented campaigns by Hartke and McGovern would broaden the political confrontation outlined by McCarthy.

But neither senator would say whether he would attempt to deliver his state's presidential support to the Minnesotan should he become a favorite son.

McCarthy listed four primaries as certain targets. They are Wisconsin, Nebraska, Oregon and California.

He said he also will enter the contests in either New Hampshire or Massachusetts—or possibly both.

19 DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Every Thanksgiving my husband's boss who lives out of state sends us a huge bouquet of roses. The box they come in bears the name of a local florist, and their truck delivers them, so it's not as tho these flowers have been shipped any great distance. Well, I have never seen sorrier flowers in all my life! It is getting to be an annual joke around here. They aren't even worth putting into a vase. I just open the box, and carry it right out to the trash.

Then I sit down and write a "thank you" note for the "beautiful" flowers. I told my husband this year I think we should tell his boss what kind of flowers he has been paying for. My husband says we should be quiet. What do you say?

MRS. M. J. L.

DEAR MRS. L: I say a rose by any other name would smell. And so would the deal you've been getting from your florist. By all means let the sender know the kind of flowers you have been receiving. He would appreciate it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Mine is a problem I can't discuss with anyone. Teddy, our 12-year-old son wants to take ballet! He is slim, graceful, a very beautiful boy and not very masculine.

He's been taking ballroom and tap since he was nine, but I never dreamed he'd become interested in ballet. His father will die. He's a rugged sportsman and has a five handicap in golf. Teddy has always been a rather delicate child and never cared much for sports so I thought dancing would be good exercise for him.

I am worried because you don't see many real he-men in ballet, and I do so want our Teddy to be a real he-man, marry some nice girl and have children. I would so love to have a little granddaughter. Teddy is our only child and I was so disappointed when he was not a girl, I wept for a week.

Should I discourage his taking ballet, or do you think it's too late?

TEDDY'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: First you ought to find a psychiatrist with two couches. One for you and one for Teddy. The doctor can tell you if it's "too late," and if so why. Environment plays a very important role in shaping a child's destiny. Many a mother's "dream" of having a "little girl" has created a nightmare for the unlucky boy she bore instead.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Why is it that when young married couples want to go some place, they just shove their kids off on their parents? They never seem to care if we have plans of our own. We wouldn't mind in case of emergency, but usually it's just to get rid of their kids for a while.

Abby, we love our grandchildren, but we are getting up in years now and can't run after them all the time. And the noise of their fighting gets on our nerves.

Our parents told us, "We raised ours, now you raise yours." Why do the children of today take advantage of their parents?

"NEVER SAY NO GRANNY"

DEAR GRANNY: If you never say no maybe they don't know they're imposing. Some parents still say, "We raised ours, now you raise your." So why don't you? It's just that simple. No one can take advantage of you without your cooperation.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO MARK: Money isn't everything. Sometimes it's not even enough.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply, inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa: I want a Dennis the Menace telephone, a dump truck set, a work bench and a Superman punch toy. I will leave you some cake.

Dear Santa: I live in Snyder, Tex., and I am 3 years old and I have a big brother named Jeff who is 5.

I am trying to be a good boy so would you please come see me at Christmas? Would you please bring me some shoulder pads in a football suit and a basketball goal and kicking tee? Thank you.

David

* * *

Dear Santa: I have been a good boy this year. For Christmas I want a Viewmaster and some reels, play-doh modeling set, Major Matt Mason and a flashlight.

Please remember all the other boys and girls on Christmas.

Jim Sumruld

Dear Santa: I have been a pretty good boy this year. Will you please bring me some toys? Also a Go Kart? You are a good Santa Claus.

Bring Gwen and Myron and other boys and girls some toys.

Darryl Calley, Age 5, Ira, Tex.

Dear Santa: My name is Jeffrey Spradlin. I have been a good boy and will be good. I want a farm set that is long. I would like some Incredible Edible Creepy Crawlers and may I have a razor like my Daddy uses?

We live in a new house with a fireplace and we will leave you bologna and cheese and bread and apple pie and milk and salad. We will be here the night before Christmas Eve for our stockings and on Christmas Eve we will be at our Papa's farm close to Norton. Please don't forget.

City Worker Is Cited For Proficiency

AUSTIN — An official State Health Department citation for work proficiency has been awarded to Martin Pena Jr., plant operations specialist for the Snyder water supply system. The citation reflects the regard in which Pena is held by state water officials.

Signed by the State Health Commissioner and authorities of the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association, the certificate of competency is awarded only to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management.

To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience. He must also have attended both regional and statewide short schools at which the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal are taught, and must have passed an examination given by State Health Department sanitary engineers.

State law requires that at least one operator per shift be certified for competency by health department engineers, but many operators seek certification on their own time and at their own expense to increase their efficiency as key public servants to their community and state.

The engineers said the attainment is evidence of Pena's efforts to better prepare himself for the duties of his profession.

Three Youths Face Charges

Three young Snyder residents were warned about their legal rights yesterday in County Court after being charged with malicious destruction of personal property.

Charged were Jerry Evans, 18, 2509 Twenty - eighth Street; Lonnie Hammit, 20, Route 3; and, Calvin Lee Davis, 17, 2606 Avenue Z. Bond was set at $500 on each of the suspects, and Evans and Hammit were released after posting bond.

Chief of Police Stephen Clark said the three are suspected of shooting out street lights in several different parts of town last Nov. 21.

He said Evans was arrested on several traffic complaints last night after he was released from jail. He paid $100 fines on charges of driving 70 miles per hour in a 30 - mile per hour zone, refusing to stop, and running a red light.

Passport To Be Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says it plans to lift the passport of Stokely Carmichael but knows of no other punishment in store for the Black Power firebrand.

Press officer Carl Bartch said the only penalty Carmichael faces is surrender of his passport for traveling to Cuba last summer without State Department validation.

Carmichael told newsmen Thursday in Oslo, Norway, that he'll be arrested on returning to the United States and jailed for up to five years.

Carmichael, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, said he intends to return home after today's final session in Oslo of Bertrand Russell's so-called war crimes trial, at which he is serving on the jury.

Barry Cites Danger Of Isolationism

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Barry Goldwater warned America today it will "sicken and die" if ever it "becomes infected with the virus of isolationism."

"We are linked by over 40 treaties to the defense of that many nations" and by commerce to most of the nations of the earth," he said.

"What most people who are calling for an immediate withdraway from Vietnam without regard to victory or honor seem to overlook is that we do have an obligation to these 40-odd treaties," he told the Commonwealth Club.

The Republican nominee for president in 1964 said the United States came out of World War II as the world's leader in business and military power. Despite this and our close linkage to the rest of the world, he said, "We continue to hear the most persistent and highly placed calls for American isolationism."

It is the Republicans, he asserted, "who are leading the fight for a fully involved, fully committed and fully international American viewpoint—while it is the Democrats who lead the chorus of isolationism."

DRIVERS' LICENSES APLENTY

Few Draft Cards Returned

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft chief Lewis B. Hershey says he isn't getting as many draft cards as he expected from Vietnam war protestors—but he is receiving plenty of drivers' licenses.

About three of four cards he receives from protestors turn out to be drivers' licenses or other nondraft cards, Hershey said Thursday.

"I suppose I'm a trusting soul," the 74-year-old Selective Service System director said. "When I read in the newspaper that somebody said he turned in his draft card, I suppose he did.

"But it was surprising to me, the low number of real draft cards that were turned in," added the lieutenant general in a telephone interview. "I'm a littl disillusioned, but I must say I'm happy to be disillusioned about this."

He cited as an example the "basketful, about a thousand" draft cards that leaders of the Oct. 21 protest march on the Pentagon claimed they were turning in.

Only 297 persons actually turned in valid cards, the Justice Department said, after it sorted them out.

"There have been times when 90 per cent were not real cards," Hershey said. "They turn in all kinds of things."

Hershey said he could provide no nationwide figures on the number of legitimate cards turned in because those sent to state draft officials or other government agencies are passed along to the appropriate local boards without going through his office.

Hershey said many of the phony cards apparently come from "kids in a group" who put something in the bag so they won't look bad to their friends.

"A lot of them participate in these protests until it starts to pinch," was Hershey's opinion, referring to penalties for mutilating or throwing away draft cards.

Burning one—a violation of federal law—could result in up to 5 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

Returning one—failure to carry it as required by draft regulations—can result in a delinquency ruling, a 1-A classification and immediate "greetings" from Uncle Sam.

But card-burning is hard to prove since the evidence goes up in smoke.

Since Aug. 30, 1965, when the law took effect, the Justice Department has investigated uncounted card-burning cases and ended up filing charges in only 21. There were 14 convictions and 2 dismissals upon other convictions.

Two other cases were dismissed because the defendants were found to have mental disorders. Three cases are awaiting trial.

Card-dropping is easier to prove, but since final action is up to each protestor's local draft board the national draft headquarters has no detailed figures.

West Texas Said Shorted

FORT WORTH (AP) — The education committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce says West Texas has been shortchanged by the state in the field of higher education.

"The facts are that West Texas junior colleges and four year schools are receiving only 7.25 per cent of the total (state) education funds," said a report presented by J. Fike Godfrey of Spur. Godfrey is chairman of the committee.

"West Texas has been the victim of the brain drain long enough," Godfrey said. He cited figures he said showed West Texas as being short of two universities and senior colleges, five junior college and three dental and medical schools.

"It's imperative to the West Texas economic being that it receive its fair share of educational development in the future," Godfrey said.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and State Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, heir apparent as speaker of the Texas House, appeared before the final meeting of the chamber's fall session here.

The other mishap occurred at 3:30 p.m. on Avenue S just south of Thirtieth Drive. Police said a 1966 Model Plymouth driven by Mrs. Dixie Vandiver Massey, 2101 Forty-third Street, went out of control and hit the curb on the east side of Avenue S. Apparently the impact boosted the vehicle over a rock wall into the yard of the G. W. Hicks residence, 1812 Thirtieth Drive. Damage to the rock fence was placed at $60. Damage to the car was set at $275.

Police Patrolman Jim McKenzie, who investigated the mishap with Patrol Sergeant H. E. Woolsey, said the woman "apparently blacked out."

Kids Look Forward To Marking Day

By MARGARET SCHERF
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — For dozens of Negro children in a deteriorating South Side neighborhood, report card day means a visit to Mr. T's record shop.

Mr. T is Max Tannenbaum, 48, a white shopkeeper who has worked what he calls "a small miracle" among the children of the area. He has induced previously uninterested, unmotivated boys and girls to compete for good grades.

A jolly, talkative man with thinning hair and a ready smile, Mr. T began about a year ago rewarding good report cards with free records.

It all started when he saw the report card of a 15-year-old boy —"a sharp kid"—who was listening to records in his shop.

It contained mostly U's and F's (unsatisfactory or failing).

"Tell you what," Mr. T told the boy. "Next time get all E's and I'll give you $5 worth of records. You pick 'em out. Is that a deal?"

It was. Ten weeks later the boy brought in a new report card. It showed straight E's (excellent).

So Mr. T put signs in each of the 18 apartment buildings on his block announcing that he would give free records for the eight best report cards brought in next marking day.

"Ever since," he said, "kids have been coming in and saying, Gee, I'm studying hard so I can win some records next time.'"

"The parents come in, too," he added. "They're surpsied to see the kids doing their homework and bringing home good test papers."

FOOD PLAYS an important part in the holiday entertaining plans of each hostess as she looks for new homebaked-gift and party ideas.

Holiday Cookies

As exciting as the traditional trinket tucked in the toe of a stocking, holiday cookies are a special way of wishing friends and families alike a warm and wonderful holiday.

These cookies may be rich Chocolate Almond Cakes topped with snowy drifts of confectioners' sugar or marvelously-flavored Coffee Crunch Bars brimming with almonds and chocolate bits — a nibbler's delight.

Here are the recipes.

Chocolate Almond Cakes

¾ cup soft butter or margarine
1 cup all-purpose flour (regular or instantized)
1-3 cup confectioners' sugar
½ cup instant cocoa
1 can (5 ounces) roasted diced almonds

Combine all ingredients in large mixer bowl. Mix on lowest speed of mixer or by hand until dough forms. Chill until firm enough to handle. Heat oven to 325 degrees. Roll dough into 1-inch balls. Place 2 inches apart on ungreased baking sheet. Bake 20 minutes ot until firm. Cool 2 minutes; remove carefully from baking sheet. While warm, dip tops in additional confectioners' sugar. Cool on racks. Dip tops in sugar again. Makes about 4 dozen.

Self-rising flour can be used.

Coffee Crunch Bars

2 cups all-purpose flour (regular or instantized)
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons instant coffee
1 cup butter or margarine, softened
1 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 teaspoon almond extract
½ cup chopped almonds
1 package (6 ounces) semisweet chocolate pieces (1 cup)

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Blend all ingredients except almonds and chocolate pieces thoroughly. Mix in almonds and chocolate pieces. Pat or spread batter evenly in ungreased jelly roll pan, 15½ x 10½ x 1 inch. Bake about 25 minutes or until lightly browned and crisp. While warm, cut into bars, each 2x1 inch. Makes about 6 dozen.

When using self-rising flour, omit baking powder and salt.

Oven Pancakes

¾ cup sifted regular flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
3 large eggs
¾ cup milk
3 tablespoons butter

On wax paper, stir together the flour, salt and sugar. In a 1-quart mixing bowl, beat the eggs until thick and ivory color. Add flour mixture; beat gently to blend. Add milk, beat until smooth, scraping down sides. Meanwhile in a 10-inch iron skillet with heatproof handle, in a 450-degree oven, melt the butter and heat the skillet; tilt skillet to spread butter over bottom. Pour batter into hot buttered skillet and bake in 450-degree oven until pancake has risen in irregular puffs, climbed up sides of pan and browned — about 15 minutes. Sprinkle with confectioner's sugar; with 2 forks, tear into wedge - shape pieces. Lemon wedges may be served so juice dust portions of pancake. Makes 5 servings.

DALLAS (AP) — Doctors planned more examinations today to find out if Southern Methodist's star flanker-end Jerry Levias will be able to play Saturday when SMU closes out the football season against Texas Christian.

SMU Trainer Eddie Lane ordered another look at Levias' right eye Thursday. He sustained an injury in the Mustangs' 16-10 victory over Baylor Saturday.

Cowboys Get Cage Rope Off Neck

ABILENE — Hardin - Simmons University has become an associate member of the Missouri Valley Conference for assignment of game officials.

Conference commissioner Norval Nave of Kansas City will assign all officials for H-SU home basketball games and one official for other games where H-SU has an exchange agreement. All officials will be from the MVC's approved list.

Coach Paul Lambert said this is a common procedure for independent teams, and that it makes for standardization of officiating. It also relieves the home team of responsibilities and undue criticism, he said.

Eagle Leader Wins Award

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rod Rust of North Texas, winner of the conference championship and close to an undefeated season in his first year as head coach, was a unanimous choice as Coach of the Year in Missouri Valley Football.

The Eagles missed the first undefeated season in school history with a 29-20 defeat in the final game at Memphis State.

Rust, 38, inherited a big, veteran group of defensive players but his offensive unit was green at all scoring positions except

Under his handling, rookie quarterback Steve Ramsey and flanker Ronnie Shanklin became the league's best. Ramsey led the nation in touchdown passes with 21 and Shanklin was No. 1 in TD receptions—13.

Lost: Affectionate Boa Constrictor

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — If people in the vicinity of the Forbes-Craig Apartments are cautious where they step these days, it's understandable.

A tenant, Richard W. Shiffler Jr., says his 3-foot-long, baby boa constrictor escaped from his apartment sometime Wednesday.

But Shiffler says people don't have to worry. He says the snake is "very affectionate."

PASSING ATTACK — Wilson's Mustangs, pictured here, will try to offset Bronte Longhorn's advantage in size, experience and depth with a passing attack. The two teams tangle at 7:30 p.m. today in Tiger Stadium for the regional football crown.

Longhorns Vs. Mustangs For Regional Championship

Can a good passing team beat a good running team?

Normally, that question would be answered here tonight when Wilson's Mustangs take on Bronte's Longhorns in clash for the regional Class B football championship. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium.

Wilson, with quarterback Johnny Scott guiding the attack, is a good passing team. The 160-pound senior connected on two touchdown passes in the 41-0 pounding of Vega in bi-district last week. His favorite target is Gary Moore, speedy 143-pound senior right end.

Coach Bobby Davis' Mustangs pass as often as they run. Scott likes to drop back to throw to his receivers. Wilson employs a pro - style attack with two split ends and a split-T formation.

Bronte, however, is more than just a good running team. The Longhorns, with 10 consecutive wins to their credit this season, are a great running team. Leading the charge from Coach Cecil Toliver's Winged - T and I alignments is Doug McCutchen. The 193 - pound senior tailback made All-State last year. He's scored over 200 points during the current campaign.

Moreover, the Longhorns know something about passing themselves. Quarterback David Glenn, a 144-pound senior, tossed 14 touchdown passes in the first nine games, including nine TD's to end Davis Corley, a 183 - pound senior. Glenn also has a sparkling 60 per cent completion average.

While Wilson relies more on the forward pass than Bronte, both teams have balanced attacks and can move overland or in the air. Everything points to a wide open game. Chief leather lugger for the Mustangs is Delton Moore, 140 - pound junior fullback.

Only one common foe affords a basis for comparison Bronte shellacked Jayton 52-0, whereas Wilson toppled the same team in less impressive fashion — 37-0.

Bronte, because of its strong-er running attack, has been installed as a three touchdown favorite. The 'Horns definitely have an edge in size, experience and depth. Perhaps their biggest advantage will be in the center of the line where big seniors will be opposed by smaller underclassmen.

The 'Horns have tallied 440 points in 10 games while limiting their foes to 84. Wilson dropped two of 11 contests — losing 14-33 to Ralls and 21-26 to Anton. The Mustangs have posted 329 points while giving up 105.

We looked into our cyrstal ball and it said: Bronte 32, Wilson 12.

Please Help To Save Santa Claus

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Help save Santa Claus!

For some years there has been an adult conspiracy afoot to dump the Jolly Old Saint in the nearest garbage can.

They are the people who complain Christmas has become terribly overcommercialized, has lost its real meaning, and blame it all on the big fat fellow with the white whiskers.

"We'd be better off without Christmas," they mutter, as the seasonal sound of "Jingle Bells" begins to jangle their nerves. "The whole thing has just become a big business promotion of hypocritical sentimentality."

There is, of course, some truth in what they say. Undoubtedly there is a high percentage of molasses in the sticky good will that inundates the western world at Christmastide. Undoubtedly a lot of business institutions—perhaps even the U.S. Post Office—make a profit out of Christmas, and a lot of employes earn big sums in overtime pay. And undoubtedly a lot of people get presents they don't need and, in return, give presents that others don't want.

A fellow has to admit also that the incessant din of "Jingle Bells" can weary even the most loyal ear.

But none of this is any reason to dismiss poor old Santa Claus as a pious fraud or a tool of capitalism.

Naturally he has his faults. In a time of overpowering conformity he remains a stubborn old-fashioned nonconformist.

No business luncheon club would admit to membership an oddball who wears a red stocking cap, red suit, and black boots.

Production-wise, his manufacturing facilities are overcentralized, since he has worldwide distribution but only one factory—and that one in a climate fit only for polar bears.

He refuses to pay tariff or customs duties and smuggles his goods across international boundaries.

Although he flies through the skies, he never radios his flight plan to federal aviation authorities.

He goes down chimneys asked or unasked, thereby committing the arrestable offense of breaking and entering.

On the other hand, there is much to be said in favor of Santa Claus.

For example:

He is the only grownup over 30 years of age that all children still believe and have faith in.

He is faithful to his wife. He has never had a divorce or been caught in a love nest.

He has a perfect safety record. He has never been in a traffic accident or dented a pedestrain. You don't find many drivers like that, old or young.

As a boss, he maintains exemplary relations with his workmen. His elves have fine morale, and none has ever been known to quit or go on strike.

And he did it all without government help. Santa Claus has never so much as asked Lyndon Johnson or Congress for even a landing and take-off strip for his reindeer. What other industry can make this claim?

JOHNSON VERY IMPASSIVE

Presidential Fever Spreads

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is just beginning to get a taste of the fever of the 1968 presidential election year. To nobody's surprise, he is being very impassive about it. It would be bad politics to be otherwise.

The confusion over Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's departure from the Pentagon to be president of the World Bank had just begun to quiet down when Johnson's fellow Democrat, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, became his rival for the White House.

Also to nobody's surprise, since he had been murmuring about it for weeks, McCarthy announced he will enter at least four presidential primaries in 1968 with the war in Vietnam his main theme.

He said there is so much dissatisfaction over the war "there is a good possibility" Johnson will be denied renomination.

At this point it is not likely many people, including McCarthy, think he has a chance to get the nomination away from Johnson although, if he can generate enough heat, somebody else might.

As he said: "If not me, then someone else."

But Johnson's reaction when he expresses it to those not close to him is a political cliche: that discussion is good for the country. To put it another way, he's not saying anything for publication at this time.

Just starting out there is a big difference between McCarthy and Johnson on the war.

McCarthy says he is not for peace at any price but for an honorable, rational and political solution to the war, which is about as vague as anybody can be, while suggesting a phased, scheduled withdrawal of U.S. forces.

Johnson, on the other hand, brims with confidence that the war has never been going better than now, that the North Vietnamese losses are putting terrible pressure on them, and that the pressure will continue.

McCarthy says he hopes his candidacy will lead Johnson to alter his Vietnam policy. He may think so, but Johnson himself shows not the slightest indication of it. And at this moment it is almost impossible to think he will.

If anything, he may make the war tougher but still not go as far as the all-out view expressed this week by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in a television interview.

There is a good reason for keeping some kind of leash on the fighting. For one thing, this country does not know whether North Vietnam has secret agreements with the Soviet Union and Red China requiring them to enter the war if the United States went as far as Eisenhower advocated.

In his statement explaining McNamara's leaving the Defense Department, Johnson, speaking of the war in Vietnam, said "our major defense policies are clearly defined."

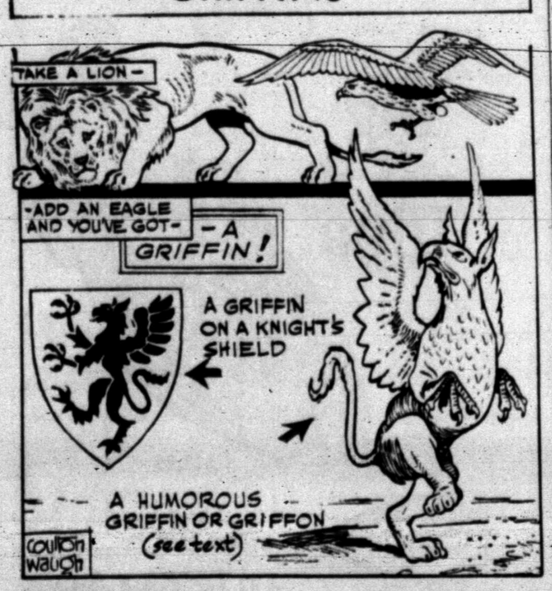

A White House source said it would be fair to assume that the President's aim in saying that was to counter speculation that McNamara's departure might lead to a harder war line in Vietnam.

Maybe. If in the next few months the line got a lot harder the same White House source could say what Johnson said about "our major defense policies" being clearly defined were right when he said it in November but that new decisions were made later.

Johnson's praise of McNamara's service as secretary of defense has been of the highest order in public and even more lavish in private conversation. But if the relationship between the two men was excellent, one question still has not been answered:

McNamara told Johnson a couple of times, the last time in October, he'd like the job of president of the World Bank if the President didn't object to his going. Johnson, so far as is known, never discussed it with him again but recommended him for the job without directly telling McNamara who found out later from other sources that this had been done.

Junior Editors Quiz on GRIFFINS

QUESTION: What is the story of the griffin?

ANSWER: Ancient peoples lacked the knowledge we have today and so invented mythological creatures and stories to explain the wonders of nature. They seemed to enjoy using their imagination to combine several actual animals into one mythical one. And they gave to such an animal a part to play, sometimes in sculptured form, sometimes in a legendary story. Think of a lion which could also fly like an eagle—what a fearful creature that would be! Such a combination was the griffin, or griffon, which was being pictured in western Asia by 1500 B.C. and which seems to have originated as a symbol of fierceness and power. Sculptured griffins were shown guarding tombs and palaces, apparently to scare robbers away. In one of the Greek myths, griffins are spoken of as guarding a great horde of gold. Later, in the days of knights in armor, the picturesque griffin came to be used as a heraldic symbol. Perhaps the funniest pictures of griffins ever made were those drawn by John Tenniel for "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland." Our picture is based on one of these, showing a griffin dancing the Lobster-Quadrille. Check chapter X of Louis Carroll's immortal book.

CONG EMISSARY ARRESTED

Viet Peace Talks Thwarted

SAIGON (AP) — Well-informed sources said today a meeting between U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and a high-ranking representative of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front was thwarted recently when South Vietnamese police arrested the Viet Cong emissary.

The U.S. Embassy issued a statement later saying "Allegations about planned or actual meetings between high officials of the U.S. Embassy and representatives of the VC-NLF as reported by The Associated Press are false. The U.S. Embassy would, of course, not undertake any such contacts without the knowledge of the GVN (Government of South Vietnam)."

The "actual meetings" referred to in the statement apparently regarded reports from other sources that a meeting between U.S. officials and Viet Cong representatives did take place in a "neutral embassy" in Saigon within the last 10 days.

A Saigon newspaper said the proposed Bunker meeting was arranged by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency without letting the Vietnamese government know about it. A member of the South Vietnamese House of Representatives also implied that the CIA tried to set up a contact with the Viet Cong without advising the Saigon government.

The sources who reported the meeting that didn't come off said it was arranged for early in November but national police arrested the Communist envoy in Saigon before he reached the embassy.

The sources said it was believed the police did not know the purpose of the Viet Cong agent's visit to Saigon, but the agent "spilled the beans" after he was questioned.

The embassy also denied a report from other sources that Viet Cong representatives did meet in a "neutral embassy" in Saigon within the past 10 days with Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the deputy U.S. military commander in Vietnam; Deputy U.S. Ambassador Eugene M. Locke and Capt. Robert J. O'Brien, in charge of the embassy security guard.

The Liberation Front representaties were Le Van Huan and Huong Van Le, these sources said.

The meeting took place while Ambassador Bunker and the U.S. military commander in Vietnam, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, were in Washington.

The presence of Abrams indicated the meeting had something to do with military matters, possibly with the coming Christmas and New Year's cease-fires, or perhaps in connection with a prisoner exchange.

The reports of the contacts between the embassy and the Viet Cong come on the heels of indications from captured documents that the Viet Cong may be trying to set up talks with the United States to seek a coalition government for South Vietnam.

The leaders of the South Vietnamese government are adamantly opposed to a coalition government and would be highly annoyed if the United States tried to meet separately with the Viet Cong.

One source said the meeting with Bunker that didn't come off had been arranged by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, perhaps without Bunker's knowledge.

Passenger Planes Also Carry Ammo

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon is using passenger-carrying commercial airliners on occasion to speed ammunition to Vietnam.

Defense officials said airliners have carried ordnance on an irregular basis since January to meet emergency needs in the war zone.

"There are times when all our equipment is occupied, and then we use the bellies of commercial airliners," a spokesman for the Military Airlift Command said Thursday.

"Equipment" refers to the command's more than 400 military planes plus regularly chartered commercial jet transports.

The spokesman emphasized only "priorities of a high nature" were routed to Southeast Asia via commercial lines. The Air Force said this included rockets, hand grenades and ammunition for cannons.

Great care is taken to make sure the shipments pose no hazard to passengers, the Air Force said.

Since the first of the year, the Air Force said, about 600 tons of ordnance has been shipped by commercial airliner, an amount described as "minimal." Most of it is transported by ship.

So far the Pentagon has used Pan American, Trans World, American, United, Braniff and Seaboard World Airlines.

The ammunition shipments require special packing, marking and labeling "over and above that normally required for movement by ship and equal to or more stringent than that required for movement by rail," the Air Force said.

The pilot of the airliner, or his representative, is briefed before takeoff on exactly what ordnance is aboard.

This information presumably would be taken into consideration any time an ammunition-loaded airliner was confronted with a possible crash landing.

The Defense Department gave the Military Airlift Command authority to charter commercial planes for ammunition flights this year "only when it is not feasible or practical" to use MAC craft.

Connally, LBJ Hold Private Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas Gov. John Connally, who insists he has no desire to be secretary of defense, talked things over in private Thursday with President Johnson.

Connally and his wife also spent a second night at the White House before taking off for Paris today.

Topics discussed by Johnson and his longtime friend and confidant were not disclosed.

Nothing was said or done in public, however, to reinforce rumors that Connally might be the President's choice to succeed Robert McNamara, who will resign as secretary of defense to become president of the World Bank.

In addition to visiting in the presidential offices, Connally was a guest in the evening at what was described as an off-the-record dinner. A number of Texans living in Washington also were invited.

Connally likewise went to the State Department Thursday for a briefing on his trip to France in behalf of next year's HemisFair in San Antonio.

In Paris the governor will discuss with French officials an exhibit of eorrespondence between George Washington and the Marquis Lafayette at their nation's HemisFair pavilion.

Wounds Are Fatal

FORT WORTH (AP) — Roger Bradley, 17, died Thursday of a bullet wound suffered Wednesday when he was shot by a bus driver aboard a city bus. The 48-year-old driver told police he shot Bradley in self defense after the young man pulled a knife.

Hill To Compete In Governor's Race

AUSTIN (AP) — Secretary of State John Hill says he will run for governor but his formal announcement will not come until after his Jan. 18 election conference.

"I really have been "getting encouragement for a race, he said, including pledges of financial support.

Hill, 44, said he would resign his post when he formally announces for the Democratic nomination for governor.

It would be Hill's first campaign. A Houston attorney, he was appointed by Gov. John Connally to succeed Crawford Martin in January 1966. Martin was elected attorney general.

Services Set For Capt. Marshall Rudder

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Funeral services were scheduled today for Capt. Marshall Rudder, 54, brother of Texas A&M University President Earl Rudder.

Services were to be at 1:45 p.m. at Homer McClaugherty Mortuary's chapel, with burial to follow in Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.

Survivors include the widow.

Police Seek Cause Of Oil Tank Fire

BEAUMONT (AP) — Police checked out possibilities today in trying to determine the cause of an explosion and fire that swept through two oil field tanks Thursday in an isolated section of Beaumont.

There were no injuries but 23 firemen were called out to fight the smokey blaze. The two tanks of crude oil on a Pan American Oil Co. lease sent pillars of smoke visible for five miles.

There was no immediate damage estimate.

Police officials declined to speculate on the cause of the fire.

Sees No Changes In Cotton Program

LUBBOCK (AP) — Tremendous pressure on the Argculture Department to change its 1968 cotton program will have no effect, federal officials meeting here indicated Thursday.

F. W. Blease, south central area director for the Stabilization and Conservation Service, spoke of the pressure as coming from California and the industry in general.

Desired changes, he said, would be intended to encourage greater production than is possible under the program announced in October.

Blease said he doubted there would be a change in the program but "we absolutely must produce an adequate supply of cotton in 1968."

Acreage under stocks were slashed from 14.5 million bales on Aug. 1 to a current 1.5 million.

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Children did not always celebrate Christmas as they do today. This is the story of how Santa Claus came to be. Long ago a mysterious purse was found in the home of a toymaker named Claus. When the purse was opened a strange vapor escaped.

CHAPTER TWO THE CURSE

THE MYSTERIOUS warm breeze swept through Claus' house, out the door, up the chimney and through the window cracks.

Now it was gone.

The villagers grinned self-consciously. They were ashamed to have been so afraid. They stared at the purse. Where before it had been heavy and bulging it was now flat and empty.

"You shouldn't have opened it!" Claus groaned. "I promised I'd never open it. How who knows what will happen!"

"Nothing will happen," said an elder nervously. "It was all a joke!"

"There never was anything in it!" scoffed an old man.

"No gold. No nothing," said another.

They laughed and shook their fingers at Claus for having fooled them. "What a prankster!" they cried. "Always having fun!

A little boy standing at Claus' side opened his month wide, wider, wider and gave a huge yawn. A little girl next to him did the same. She said, "I'm sleepy!" A second boy said, "I've NEVER been so sleepy!"

"I can't keep my eyes open." complained another child. "I want to go to bed," sighed another.

A moment later, all the children were yawning and rubbing their fists in their eyes. Before anyone quite knew what was happening, the children were sound asleep on their feet.

Mothers spoke sharply. They shook the children. They said, "For goodness sake! It's only midday. No time for napping.

You'll never sleep tonight."

But it did no good. Fathers lifted the sleeping children and carried them home to their beds.

All day the children slept. And all night and all the next day. Men blew horns and pounded drums and paraded in the village square making enough noise to shake the houses. Mothers banged pots and pans in the kitchens and called, "Come to dinner — we're having all your favorite things!" Fathers leaned over the sleeping children and promised to play ball or go sledding or climb trees with them if only they would wake.

But the children slept on.

Meanwhile Claus worked in his woodcarving shop. He made a special toy for each child. A clown. A doll with moving arms and legs. A tiny horse-drawn cart. A music box. A sled. A doll house. A checker game. A set of ten pins. Something for everyone.

While he worked Mrs. Claus was in the kitchen mixing and baking and loading the pantry shelves with gingerbread men and raisin cakes and chocolate tortes and coconut patties and pecan pies.

"When the children wake," they told each other, "we'll feast and give gifts and make merry. What a time we will have!"

But the children would not wake and, finally, everyone knew a charm had been laid on them and they were going to sleep perhaps forever.

"It all began when the purse was opened," moaned Claus. "It is my fault. I promised never to open it."

"You must not blame yourself," said Mrs. Claus gently. "It was not you who opened it."

"It comes to the same thing," said Claus. "The purse was in my keeping." He picked up the old black bag and shook it angrily.

"I must find a way to break the curse!" he swore. "I will not rest until I do!"

He flung the bag against the wall. The clasp broke open and a small brass key fell out and skittered across the floor.

Tomorrow: Claus Begins a Trip

Christmas in Vietnam.

Only 10 more shipping days. By air.

Your gift for that very special serviceman can make Christmas Day a lot brighter, even in Vietnam. But it has to travel almost halfway around the world.

To be sure it reaches him in good condition and in good time for Christmas... just follow these important steps.

1. The deadline for mailing by surface transportation, November 11th, is already past. To be sure your package arrives on time, send it air mail—and mail it by December 11th at the latest.

(The Post Office Department and the Department of Defense have been assured that all air mail packages received by then will be delivered to Vietnam by Christmas.)

2. Make sure the name and address is complete and clearly legible, placed lengthwise on the lower right hand side of your package, leaving room for the necessary postmark, notations, etc. Be sure to include the important 5-digit A.P.O. or F.P.O. number in the address to avoid serious delays.

3. It may be necessary to mark the package, "Gift—export license not required." Ask your post office.

4. Make sure the postage is fully prepaid. Your post office can help you determine the amount.

5. If you are using Christmas seals or other labels in aid of charitable projects, put them on the back, not on the address side of your package. The Post Office issues a special Christmas stamp which is legal postage and should therefore be above the address.

6. Mail the package at the proper window in your post office, not at a letter box.

7. The post office can also tell you what weight limit applies. (It varies by A.P.O. and F.P.O. number.)

8. Be very sure the package itself is secure and substantial. Take into account the contents, the climatic conditions, and the handling within Vietnam. Paper alone or ordinary pasteboard boxes are inadequate. Canvas or similar materials, double-faced corrugated cardboard boxes, solid fiber boxes or wooden containers are recommended. Contents should not shake or rattle.

If you have any further questions, your post office can answer them for you. But by following these key suggestions, your serviceman should have your gift package intact and in time for Christmas. And that's the best way to tell him your heart is with him.

Secret of a successful marriage is to have one partner who makes the living and one who makes the living worth while.

Gift Suggestion: Stock In Stocking

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — How can you give your children a Christmas gift that will "combine sentiment with good sense, show thought, and add excitement and involvement to life?"

A doll or football, you say. Perhaps. But the correct answer, says the New York Stock Exchange, which poses the question, is to "put stock in their stockings."

Once again the exchange is urging its member firms to promote Christmas sales, especially as gifts to minors, but also as donations to employes and relatives.

The exchange promotion, which statistics indicate is successful, illustrates a tendency among some affluent Americans to buy investment gifts as well as objects, to give U.S. Savings Bonds, insurance policies, stocks and small bank accounts to youngsters.

Added to the investment list this year, of all things, are one-square-foot plots of land in Old England at $10 each. The deeds guarantee access to the plots at Castle Goring, Sussex, but forbid hunting or building.

The beauty of such investment gifts is that they usually grow rather than diminish in value.

One of the problems in giving such gifts, however, has been the dreary appearance of a securities certificate, a piece of paper that looks as merry on Christmas morning as a bill from the dentist.

This slight drawback now has been overcome through the use of bright, informative cards congratulating the recipient on having been given a share in America or, in the case of the British land, an elaborate scroll —bigger than the plot—in gold and heraldic colors.

Through promotional efforts such as these the exchange now estimates that around 1.5 million minors now own stocks, almost wholly through gifts or inheritances.

But there are far more basic reasons as well for the spurt in stocks as gifts: liberalizing legislation, big tax benefits, a steady rise in the disposable income of families.

Legislation approved by all 50 states now permit a parent to buy, sell, collect dividends and reinvest stock issued in a child's name, with the only restrictions being those of normal prudence.

The tax advantages are worth noting. First, any gift up to $3,000 is exempt from the donor's gift tax. For parents, this means they can transfer $6,000 to their children without paying gift taxes.

Second, the income from the gift, that is the dividends and capital appreciation, is payable not by the parent but by the child. This means that the first $600 of profit is excluded automatically. And the parent retains the child as an exemption.

First Presbyterian

The Rev. John Gordon, pastor of First Presbyterian Church will have as his Sunday morning sermon subject, "A Christmas Vision." Luke 1: 26-38.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed.

The Session will have its monthly meeting at 7 p.m. Sunday at the church.

United Presbyterian Women will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Elmo Weyel, 3739 Highland.

School Growth Noted

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&I University enrollment of 5,376 is more students than the combined enrollments of the school's first 10 student bodies. The school was established in 1925 as South Texas Teachers College.

Smith Sees Plan To Up Sales Tax

FORT WORTH (AP) — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith predicted Thursday that Gov. John Connally will submit a program to increase the state sales tax from two to three per cent.

Connally will call a special session of the legislature in the coming months to consider spending matters for the state. Smith spoke to a legislative workshop sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Smith, the only formally announced candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, told the group he doubts that Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., will run for governor next year.

"With his seniority in the Senate," Smith said of Yarborough, "he would be reluctant to give up that position, and I don't believe he would relish a hard campaign for governor."

While ruling out Yarborough, Smith, in an interview, named three persons he said he expected to be his principal opponents in the Democratic primary: Houston attorney Don Yarborough, Secretary of State John Hill and former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

Turning to the Republicans, Smith said Sen. John Tower would be the most formidable opponent, but he predicted Tower would not relinquish his Senate seat to make the race.

BROKEN VOWS

A Vow Is A Serious Thing

Our promise and your performance reveal the quality of your soul.

A promise will make a friend but performance will keep him. Are you keeping your marriage vows, your vows to your church or synagog? When you make vows to God, do you keep them or do you go AWOL on Him? "When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it, for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee." Faithful performance of good vows strengthens character, honors God and makes a better citizen.
