Pardons For Christmas Are Truman Gifts

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP) — President Truman has granted a full pardon to Andrew J. May, former Kentucky congressman who served nine months in prison on his conviction of accepting bribes for influence in awarding of munitions contracts.

The action, returning full citizenship rights to May, was disclosed yesterday by the Justice Department. May headed the House Military Affairs Committee for many years. He is a Democrat.

Truman also signed a Christmas pardon for J. Parnell Thomas, former Republican House member from New Jersey who once chairmanned the Un-American Activities Committee. Thomas served a prison term for padding his government office payroll.

On Christmas eve, Truman granted pardons to an estimated 8,940 persons who were (A) convicted of desertion and dishonorably discharged from the armed services after court martial between the end of World War II and the outbreak of fighting in Korea, and (B) those convicted of federal law violations who served their prison terms and served honorably in the armed forces for a year since Korea.

Parents Aren't Attending Rites

SAN JOSE, Calif (AP) — Neither parent will be present when the three brutally slain Connett children go to their graves today.

Their father, high school teacher Archie Connett, 31, said by officers to have killed them by swinging them by the heals against walls and furniture, has a self-inflicted slit throat.

His estranged wife, Wynona, 28, suffered so severely from knife wounds and shock that only yesterday was she told her children were dead.

"She took it numbly without evident surprise," said Dr. Milton Chatton, hospital superintendent.

"She seemed to have sensed something had happened."

The sheriff's office said Connett went into a blind rage Tuesday during a pre-Christmas reunion at his wife's home when she suggested he spend the night at his own apartment 30 miles away. Officers said he first stabbed his wife, then killed the children.

Both parents are recovering. Connett from a slashed throat and wrists and the effects of gulping rat poison.

Today's rites for the children—Michael 4, Teresa 2½, and Carl Paul, 4 months—were arranged by their mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gottlieb of Denver.

Nuns Freed By Red Chinese

HONG KONG, Dec. 26 (AP)—The last two of five Canadian nuns tried by the Chinese Communists in the widely propagandized "orphanage murder case" in Canton entered Hong Kong tonight after nearly two years in prison.

They are Sister Superior Antoinette Couvrette, 38, Joliette, Que., and Sister Jermaine Gravel, 43, Three Rivers, Que. They said they were expelled unexpectedly after serving only part of five-year sentences for "the murder of 2,116 orphans."

They were met at the border by Sister Jermaine Tanguay, Canadian citizen who was born in Nashua, N. H. She and Sisters Inulda Laperriere, Penrouge, Que., and Elizabeth LeMire, La Baie du Fevre, Que., shared the ordeal with Sisters Couvrette and Gravel, but were expelled in February. Sisters LaPerriere and LeMire left for Canada several weeks ago.

The two arrivals said the Communists gave no reason for expelling them. At 4:30 p.m. yesterday, they said, guards entered their cells and told them they were being pardoned and "banished forever." The two were dressed in padded Chinese dresses until they were given nun's habits.

The case of the five nuns drew world attention Dec. 12, 1951, when they were stoned, spat upon and reviled in a four-hour public trial which was broadcast over Canton Radio.

CAR IN FATAL ACCIDENT

One man was killed and three other persons were injured when the Oldsmobile sedan above wrecked with a pickup about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Christmas Eve, three miles north of here on the Clairemont road. Loy Alton Martin, 36-year-old Lindale farmer, was the man killed. See story on page two. (Lee Watson Photograph.)

Holiday Accidents Pass 300 Mark; May Break New Record

By The Associated Press

The nation's Christmas holiday accident death toll Friday passed the 300 mark.

Auto mishaps killed 251 persons since 6 p.m. Wednesday (local time). Twenty-three died in fires. Thirty - one other victims were killed by all other types of accidents.

With more than two and one half days of the extended 102-hour week end still to come, it appeared that the all-time record of 555 traffic deaths for a four-day Christmas holiday in 1936 may be exceeded before midnight Sunday.

Last year's Christmas week-end toll of all accidents was 789 deaths —535 of them in traffic.

Highways in some parts of the Midwest and Northeast were icy, but clear, dry weather was reported over most of the country yesterday.

Some cities reported a record number of accidents. In Chicago, police said the 24 hours of Christmas Day were among the worst in the city's traffic history. There were some 1,300 accidents. More than a dozen persons were killed, including four by hit and run drivers. Traffic Chief Michael Aearn blamed the heavy toll on drunken drivers and increased traffic because of the relatively mild weather.

The Associated Press survey continues through the extended holiday weekend to midnight Sunday. The National Safety Council has estimated a traffic death toll of 590 for the 102-hour period.

Council President Ned H. Dearborn said if the present trend continues, however, "we are headed for an all-time high for the holiday death toll."

The death toll by states, listing traffic, fire and miscellaneous:

Alabama 1 0 0; Arizona 2 0 0; Arkansas 3 0 1; California 10 2 6, Colorado 2 0 0; Connecticut 1 1 0; Delaware 1 0 0; Florida 2 0 0; Georgia 5 0 2; Illinois 16 1 1; Indiana 12 0 0; Iowa 3 1 2; Kansas 2 1 0; Kentucky 3 0 2.

Louisiana 3 1 0; Maryland 5 2 0; Massachusetts 3 1 1; Michigan 10 0 3; Minnesota 5 0 0; Mississippi 1 0 0; Missouri 12 0 0; Nebraska 1 0 0; New Hampshire 1 0 0; New Jersey 2 1 2; New Mexico 3 0 0; New York 21 2 1.

North Carolina 4 0 5; Ohio 26 0 1; Oklahoma 9 0 0; Pennsylvania 16 1 1; South Carolina 7 0 1; South Dakota 1 0 0; Tennessee 5 1 3; Texas 7 1 1; Utah 1 0 0; Vermont 0 0 1; Virginia 11 4 0; Washington 4 0 0; West Virginia 3 0 0; Wisconsin 1 0 1.

Four Americans Die In Crash

TEHRAN, Iran, Dec. 26 (AP)—An Iranian Airways plane crashed in a dense fog last night a few miles from Tehran Airport, killing 23 persons, including four Americans. Only two passengers survived the Christmas night tragedy.

The plane, inbound from Isfahan, 210 miles south of Tehran, circled for a landing. It bounced several hundred yards in an open field, then broke apart. There was a small fire that burned out quickly. Investigators believe the pilot miscalculated the altitude in attempting a blind landing.

The dead Americans:

Miss Cecile Ann Demoisy, 29, Point 4 public health field nurse stationed at Shiraz, daughter of Charles Demoisy, Ogden, Utah.

M. Sgt. Thomas Rsipoli, Atlanta, Ga.

James E. Blakemore, 38, Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y. a high school teacher making a study of the Middle East on a Ford Foundation grant.

Mrs. Blakemore, 37, wife of the high school teacher.

All the other passengers in the C47 were Iranians. All members of the crew were killed.

The pilot avoided dangerous mountains to the north of the city but crashed after he had turned south.

Rescuers, handicapped by fog and darkness, reached the scene hours later and found four survivors. Two died, however, after they had been brought to Tehran hospital. The other two suffered only minor injuries.

After locating the four, rescuers gave up examination of the crash scene until dawn. They said it was possible there were other survivors outside the area whoch they had been able to cover.

Russians Kill West German

BERLIN, Dec. 26 (AP)—A West Berlin policeman was shot to death in the French Sector of the city Christmas Day. The French said three Russian soldiers were responsible and demanded their punishment. The Russians refused, saying the shooting stemmed from an attempt by West Berlin police to kidnap three Soviet border guards.

Herbert Bauer, 28, was killed. The French commandant in Berlin, Gen. Pierre Carolet, said Bauer was slain by three Russian soldiers who invaded the French Sector and also molested three West Berlin citizens who were returning from a party.

In a note last night to Sergei Dengin, the Soviet commandant, Carolet declared:

"I demand that you take proper action against the Soviet soldiers responsible and I demand that your government make suitable compensation to the widow of the murdered West policeman."

Today Dengin rejected the French protest as invalid.

Youth Injured In Fall From Tractor Today

George Judkins, about 15 years old, was injured when he fell from a tractor driven by another youth on the Lamesa Highway just east of Union about 11:45 o'clock this morning.

Gaither Bell, driver of the Bell ambulance which brought Judkins to Battenfield Hospital, said that he did not know details of the accident.

The youth was conscious and was being examined at the hospital early this afternoon.

22-Degree Low Here

Temperature in Snyder reached a maximum of 41 degrees yesterday and a minimum of 22 during the night, according to Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn official weather observer who said the reading at 7:30 this morning was 26 degrees, however, raised the question whether Stalin may have been convinced by now that the Communists have nothing more to gain in Korea.

Some authorities here believe that Eisenhower's major plans—charted in broad outlines aboard the cruiser Helena—are still fluid and may continue so until, upon taking office, he gets a final look at all the Korean information and gets full authority.

Another Man Claims Girls Attacked Him

LEWISTON, Me., Dec. 26 (AP) — Police today investigated the story of a young amateur detective that he was abducted by four girls who forced him to be intimate with them and that one shot him before they released him yesterday.

A .22 caliber bullet was removed from the thigh of Donald L. Snow, 20, Freeport, yesterday. Snow was released after treatment.

State Police Sgt. Roger L. Whitmore said, "Maybe there isn't much to the kidnaping story but the fact remains that he was shot and that's what I'm trying to find out about."

Snow, who said he took a correspondence course in detective work, told Whitmore this story:

He was awaiting a friend who was making a telephone call when a car drove up to him. In it were four girls ranging in age from about 17 to 22. They invited him in, one displaying a gun. They drove to a secluded woods road where they forced intimacies at gunpoint. When he tried to escape, he was shot. Then they drove him back to town and released him.

Seek Funds To Start Work On Canadian Dam

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Reps. Mahon and Rogers, Texas Democrats, said today they will seek a one-to-two-million-dollar appropriation next year to start work on the proposed 85-million-dollar Canadian River dam project in their home state.

They told this to a reporter after a preliminary report by Rep. Miller (R-Neb) said the project should be built, but without federal aid.

Miller, top ranking Republican on the House Reclamation Subcommittee, recently inspected the area which would benefit from the project.

Congress already has authorized the dam and an aqueduct system to deliver water to a dozen cities and towns in the High Plains and Panhandle areas of Texas.

Mahon, a leading Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee, said he believes the Canadian River project will be included in the budget recommendations the President will send to Congress early in January.

Eisenhower Making Plans To Put New Pressure On Chinese

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans of the Eisenhower administration for dealing with the Korean War appear likely to aim at putting new pressures on the Chinese Communists while easing the battle burden of American forces.

To this end, the belief here is that, as a minimum, president-elect Eisenhower and his secretary of state to be, John Foster Dulles, will promptly call for:

1. A United Nations economic blockade of Red China.

2. Maximum speedup in the training of South Korean forces and their assignment to front line positions.

How far beyond these minimum actions the new President and his advisers may be willing to go remains to be seen, because despite his trip to Korea, his unprecedented mid-Pacific conferences with prospective aides and his meeting with Gen. MacArthur in New York, Eisenhower so far has not tipped his hand.

A new factor of uncertain weight was injected into the knotty situation yesterday with publication by the New York Times of a reply from Premier Stalin to four questions posed by the Times.

Stalin said Russia is interested in ending the Korean War, and that he would co-operate in any new diplomatic approach toward a truce. However, the question remained: How much of a price would he pay for peace?

A mere public endorsement of peace in Korea is not noticeably different from the past Russian position, which—at least for propaganda purposes—has been in favor of a truce. The new statement, however, raised the question

Normal Life Is Christmas Gift

SEATTLE (AP)—A 20-year-old man who had been doomed to die within five years because of a malformed heart cherished today the greatest Christmas gift of all—that of a normal life.

An unnamed Seattle surgeon and the sisters of charity of Providence were the donors.

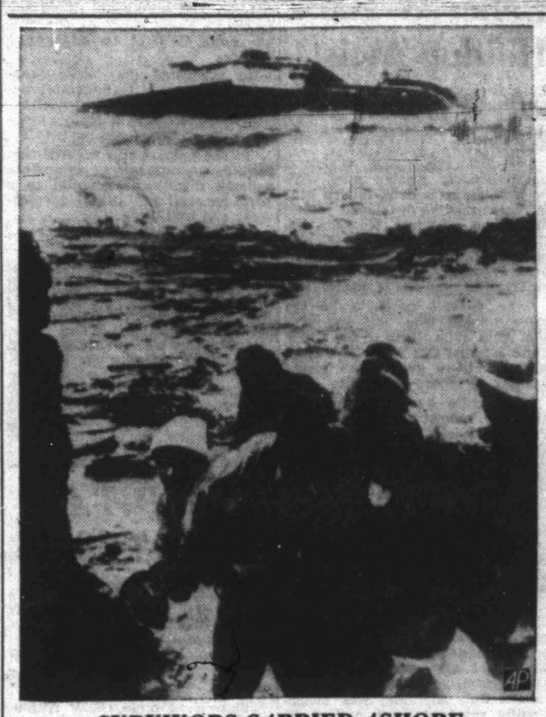

A brother, a year younger, will undergo the same corrective surgery in the near future, through the generosity of the surgeon and the sisters.

It was just six weeks ago when Frank Gunderson of Thompson Falls, Mont., walked into the surgeon's office. He had been sent by his hometown doctors, who said that without an operation young Gunderson had only four or five more years to live.

In the youth's pocket was his life savings of $140. Gently, the surgeon explained that repairing a heart artery which failed to close normally at birth was costly—far more than $140.

But the surgeon told the Providence sisters of the case, and they agreed to donate the needed care at Providence Hospital here. The surgeon said there would be no charge for the operation.

Stalin Challenged By Ikemen To Show That He Really Seeks Peace

SURVIVORS CARRIED ASHORE

Rescue workers carry survivors ashore from the wrecked French liner Champollion, which lies split in half on a jagged reef 500 yards off shore near Beirut, Lebanon. The ship, with a crew of 220 and 108 passengers, including many Christmas pilgrims enroute to the Holy Land, was blown on the reef Monday. There are 27 known dead and more than 100 injured.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—The incoming Eisenhower administration today challenged Russia's Premier Stalin to put forth "concrete proposals" on promoting peace and promised they would be received."

A statement taking that position was issued by John Foster Dulles, who will be the new administration's secretary of state, after Dulles had talked with President-elect Eisenhower by telephone this morning. Eisenhower is in New York.

The statement was the first reaction of the new administration to replies given by Stalin to four questions presented to him by the New York Times and published yesterday.

Stalin expressed willingness to meet with Eisenhower in response to one question and he also said Russia was interested in ending the Korean War.

Dulles made this statement:

"I have read with interest the published account of Mr. Stalin's views. If these mean that Mr. Stalin has concrete proposals to make to the new administration after it takes office, he can rest assured that they will be seriously and sympathetically received.

"Diplomatic or United Nations channels of communication are always available for such purposes and for exchanges of views designed to find ways to promote peace and international good will."

The normal diplomatic channels for contact between Washington and Moscow are the Soviet Embassy here and the American Embassy there. At the United Nations, Russian and American delegations have a constant opportunity of quick and informal contact.

There was a bit of cautious optimism on Capitol Hill, but in administration circles in downtown Washington the feeling seemed to be that Stalin had offered little if anything new in a reply to four questions submitted to him by the New York Times. The Times published his response yesterday.

Stalin declared that "aggressive actions" taken in the West's cold war policy against Russia are the main causes of world tension and said (1) he regards "favorably" the idea of a meeting with Eisenhower; (2) war between the U. S. and the Soviet Union is not inevitable; (3) Russia is "interested in ending the war in Korea" and (4) the sources of world contention lie "everywhere and in everything wherever the aggressive actions" of the cold war find expression.

Stalin has on several occasions in the past responded to written questions posed by U. S. newsmen and almost invariably he has expressed a belief that a U. S.-Russian war is not inevitable and a willingness to meet with the U. S. chief executive.

Nor did there appear to be much fresh hope, from the Western viewpoint, in Stalin's expressed willingness to co-operate in any new diplomatic gestures looking toward peace in Korea.

This reply, it is true, created the most interest in Washington, but some skepticism was expressed privately as to whether the Russian leader was sincerely interested in a new approach to the peace problem, or whether this was more of the same Kremlin propaganda.

State Accident Toll Reaches Forty-Four

By The Associated Press

Holiday violence accented by a heavy overtone of traffic accidents, chalked up a swelling tide of death today as the long Christmas-New Year period entered its second phase.

By Friday morning at least 44 persons had died violently, all but 14 in traffic crashes.

Icy, snow-covered roads in the Panhandle and dry, smooth roads that invited speed in other parts of the state shared the blame for the mounting toll on the highways.

As the death list lengthened, the loss in property mounted, too. It was impossible to estimate. Hundreds of auto collisions occurred that involved no fatalities, but cost car owners thousands of dollars.

In San Antonio alone, from noon Christmas Eve to noon Christmas Day, police recorded 125 non-fatal traffic mishaps.

The State Department of Public Safety predicted 202 violent deaths for Texas during the yule-New Year's period and said 105 would die in traffic crashes.

The department's Highway Patrol kept busy, so busy that patrolmen east of Orange said they didn't have time to report back to their station. Similar conditions existed over the state. U. S. Highway 80 — running across Texas from Shreveport, La., and Marshall to El Paso — was a long ribbon of speeding, darting automobiles. So was U. S. Highway 75 from Denison to Galveston.

Twins Remain Same

CHICAGO, Dec. 26 (AP) — No change was reported today in the condition of the Brodie Siamese twins.

The 15-month-old boys have been in critical condition since they were separated in an operation Dec. 17. The twins were born joined at the heads. Roger Lee has not regained consciousness since the operation and his condition has been described as very precarious. His brother Rodney Dee, has been given the better chance to live. However, his condition is critical.

Bombers Hit Red Positions

SEOUL, Dec. 26 (AP)—Allied fighter bombers spewed death and destruction over North Korea today while American Sabre jets clashed with Communist jet fighters near the Yalu River.

A Fifth Air Force spokesman said the fighter-bombers wrecked 15 Communist supply dumps, six artillery positions, 10 troop punkers and 27 buildings. Secondary blasts indicated ammunition stores were hit.

Allied bombs also cut rail lines in 16 places and damaged a bridge.

Two Charged With Murder Of Latin American Worker Here

Bonds totaling $3,500 were set this morning for two Snyder Latin-American men charged with murder of another Latin-American early yesterday morning.

Crecensiano Gaona, 27, died in the Battenfield Hospital at 7:10 o'clock yesterday morning, approximately four hours after he suffered stab wounds of the abdomen and head. Findings of an autopsy by Dr. John Y. Battenfield have not yet been released, Renal B. Rosson, district attorney, said. The autopsy was done yesterday morning at the request of W. C. Davidson, justice of peace.

Bond was set at $2,500 for Eusebio Gonzales, 21, who waived preliminary hearing when arraigned before Judge Davidson this morning. Bond was set at $1,000 for Vencente Barrientes, 22, who also waived preliminary hearing. Both were charged separately with murder with malice aforethought. Gonzales was already under grand jury indictment on a charge of aiding prisoners to escape in a jailbreak here more than a year ago.

Rosson said Gaona was brought to the hospital in an automobile by Doyle Parmer, county commissioners of precinct No. 4, after Gaona had knocked on Parmer's door shortly after the stabbing. It was believed the stabbing occurred beside U. S. Highway 84, near Parmer's residence about five miles southeast of here.

The two accused of the murder were arrested in Snyder shortly after Gaona was found. Rosson said one of the men had told him the three had been to Big Spring and Sweetwater and had been drinking.

Before Gaona's death, he underwent emergency operation for lacerated intestines, Rosson said.

Funeral services were to be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at Templo Bautista, Snyder's Latin-American Baptist church, under direction of Bolger Funeral Home with the Rev. Ben O'Balle officiating.

Gaona was born May 5, 1925, at Carnes City, Tex. He is survived by his father, Raymon Gaona, and a grandmother, Mrs. Maria Gaona, both of Snyder. Gaona had lived here three years.

Gonzales is under indictment for aiding prisoners to escape the county jail Oct. 21, 1951, when a jailbreak liberated five felony prisoners. Gonzales himself did not escape. At the time of jailbreak, Gonzales was serving time in lieu of a fine of $48.50, including court cost, assessed on a misdemeanor charge of aggravated assault.

Both men remained in the county jail at noon, pending release on the bonds, which guarantee their appearance at the next grand jury session, when evidence will be investigated in view of possible indictments. Rosson said he expected a grand jury to be convened early next month but that no definite date had been set by the incoming district judge, Sterling Williams.

The last known murder with malice in Scurry County was a double slaying and suicide at a hotel here in March, 1950. There have been several cases of murder by motor vehicle, by accident, and negligent homicide filed here, however, some still pending, some dismissed.

Temperature In State Goes Down

By The Associated Press

Temperatures below freezing reached deep into East Texas Friday while days-old snow clung to the ground at Dalhart and Amarillo in temperatures of 7 to 17 degrees.

Warmer weather - or temperatures less cold, at least — were expected by the Weather Bureau by Saturday.

The state continued dry with Brownsville's drizzling shower the only precipitation reported before dawn Friday. Christmas night, Brownsville had a light shower, too.

Meanwhile, skies were clear west of Abilene and—except for the Dallas-Fort Worth-Mineral Wells region—were mostly cloudy east of Abilene. The clouds were expected to close in on that pocket during the day and increasing cloudiness was looked for over West Texas Saturday.

FBI Mum About Respectable Man Fronting In Brinks Job

BOSTON (AP) — Unconfirmed reports said today the $1,219,000 loot from the Brink's robbery of Jan. 17, 1950, may have been placed in safe deposit boxes in various banks by a respectable Boston man acting as a "front" for the robbers.

The FBI refuses to comment on the report of how the loot was hidden after the daring evening robbery but three Boston papers report today a lawyer was chosen by the gang to secret the cash.

The reports said the gang's plan called for the lawyer to hire some 40 safe deposit boxes in banks throughout the country where the money could be placed by him without suspicion.

The newspapers added that the lawyer's identity has been known to investigators for some time and said that he has been under surveilance for many months and is expected to be brought in for questioning in a few days.

A grand jury investigating the Brink's robbery recessed last Monday and is scheduled to resume next Monday.

The reports continued that the FBI has traced $236,500 of the Brink's cash to some of the vaults and that about $30,000 of the loot was used to buy government bonds.

Another unconfirmed report said three men died before they could be questioned by the FBI in connection with the Brink's case. Two of the men were slain and the third died of a heart attack while in hiding.

The report said the men who were to have been questioned were:

Carleton M. O'Brien, Rhode Island diner owner who was slain May 17; George R. Killeen, South Boston gangster, shot to death outside an all-night restaurant a half mile from Brink's headquarters; and Louis (The Pig) Uva, Boston bookie who died while hiding out at the home of relatives to avoid questioning in Killeen's death.

The FBI shrugs off questions relating to the Brink's robbery investigation with a curt "no comment."

Meanwhile, Police Chief Dean Meredith of Towanda, Pa., said early today that a suspect in the Brink's robbery offered him a bribe for his release from a gun-carrying charge six months after the fabulous Boston robbery.

The police chief named Joseph "Spec" O'Keefe, 44-year-old Boston gunman, listed in FBI affidavits as a possible participant in the stickup.

O'Keefe is serving time on the gun-carrying charge in Towanda but currently is in a Boston jail while a grand jury is hearing evidence in the Brink's robbery.

He appeared before the grand jury for about three minutes before he was charged with contempt of court for refusing to tell the jurors any more than his name and address.

Meredith arrested O'Keefe and Stanley Gusciora of Stoughton, Mass., on June 11, 1950, for having five pistols and 150 rounds of ammunition in their car while driving through Towanda.

In a statement from Towanda, in answer to a reporter's query, Meredith said:

"I and three state policemen, Donald Burke, John Mancauso and Lynn Burke, arrested O'Keefe and Stanley Gusciora near Towanda on June 11, 1950, on a charge of violating the Uniform Firearms Act.

British Don't Take Kindly To Newsboys Delivering Papers

LONDON (AP) — In Britain most boys think it is beneath their dignity to earn a few coppers by delivering newspapers.

And it looks like things are going to stay that way, despite a plea by 17 British newsmen that the American system of "little merchant" newsboys might be an idea worth trying.

The suggestion came from a group representing British newspapers of all sizes outside London. After visiting American newspapers under the auspices of the Anglo - American Productivity Council, the group reported:

The "little merchant" system "can be a worthy and healthy effort which need not interfere with education and can instill in the youngsters the germ of business ability."

In Britain, the man who sells most of the newspapers is the news agent. He keeps a little shop that sells papers, tobacco and cigarettes, candy and a variety of odds and ends.

He gets his newspapers in bulk from wholesalers, splits them up and generally employs several boys on what the British call a newspaper "round" to push them under front doors. The boys get paid a flat rate—which varies according to the news agent—based on the number of customers on their round.

This system has worked so well for over 50 years that the 47,000 news agents scattered through Britain's towns and villages aren't losing much sleep over the suggestion that "little merchants" take over their work.

Albert Whinfrey, general secretary of the News Agents Federation, points out: The distribution of newspapers in Britain is complicated because well over 50 per cent of papers read are "national dailies" published in London and printed here or in large centers in the north.

The papers arrive at distribution centers by train, where they are collected by wholesalers. "Boys couldn't do this—railways wouldn't take kindly to a pack of kids running around," Whinfrey said.

"They might be able to collect papers direct from publishers in the case of local newspapers, but they wouldn't get very fat on the profits from that."

A quick denial that the suggestion was intended to cut out the news agent came from William Ridd, secretary of the Newspaper Society — the organization of newspapers outside London.

Ridd, a member of the group that visited the U. S., explained the "little merchant" recommendation was made primarily to get parents and education authorities to change their views on the employment of boys in newspaper rounds.

He suggested the "little merchant" idea could be put into practice by news agents themselves, and wrote in the news agents magazine "National News Agents":

"Public opinion still regards this parttime occupation as something beneath dignity...detrimental to a boy's physical and mental development and well-being.

"American practice has shown such views to be ill-founded."

Despite Ridd's appeal, education authorities probably would step in with a veto if the "little merchant" idea showed signs of being taken seriously.

Newspaper rounds are frowned upon by these authorities as a regrettable necessity to be kept within strict limits. In general, they have banned it for boys under 12 and for hours earlier than seven in the morning. Some of the higher class schools forbid it entirely.

Two Grandmas Believed Bank Holdup Artists

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26 (AP)—There's possibly another grandma bank bandit at large in the Los Angeles area.

The distressing news that two grandmotherly women may have been holding up bank tellers here in recent months developed yesterday when grandma No. 1, Mrs. Ethel Arata, 52, arrested Christmas eve when she tried to rob a bank in nearby Arcadia, could not be identified by one of the tellers.

"She doesn't seem to be the same woman who held me up," said Miss June North of the Union Bank & Trust Co., who was robbed of $2,600 by a gray-haired pistol-packing grandma Nov. 12.

Mrs. Arata has steadfastly denied she robbed the Union Bank. Police say she quickly admitted she stuck up branches of the California Bank Oct. 17 and the Citizens National Bank, Nov. 26, getting a total of $1,469.

Detectives were inclined to believe Mrs. Arata's story of the two holdups and her denial of the other, but Miss North will see her in a police lineup Monday, just to make certain.

Police said that their records disclosed Mrs. Arata, who says she really isn't a grandmother, has been at odds with the law before. They said she was sent to the Norwalk State Hospital as an alcoholic July 21, 1948, was subsequently released as a patient on leave, was arrested again as a drunk, and that the State Department of Mental Hygiene authorized her transfer from the City Jail to the phychopathic ward at Los Angeles General Hospital Sept. 29, 1949.

Mrs. Arata, who was seized by the Arcadia bank manager, William J. Lloyd, after teller Lorene McGehee refused demands to hand over cash, is held in Los Angeles County Jail under $10,000 bail on three counts of violating the federal bank robbery statute.

Flare Breaks Up Red Convoy

U. S. 5TH AIR FORCE, Korea, Dec. 26 (AP)—The Air Force told today how the crew of a night-flying B26 bomber broke up a Communist truck convoy with nothing but a flare.

Cruising over battered highways in the eastern North Korean mountains, Maj. Orel C. Ouderkirk, Canton, Tex., saw supply trucks grinding over an ice-covered road with their lights on. The plane's bomb load already had been expended in knocking out 23 trucks.

"We had some target making flares, so the major brought us in and we let one go right on top of the convoy," said Capt. William L. Musladin, San Francisco.

"A tremendous explosion rocked the whole place," said A 2 C James E. McConnaughy, Amsterdam, O.

Dancer Cashes In On Murder Charges Filed

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The "Flame of New Orleans" has a new night club engagement here, murder charge notwithstanding.

The "Flame" is attractive brunette Billie Shonnae, 23, charged with murder in the fatal shooting of Alfred Rosenfield Jr., 38, last Sunday.

Also charged in the shooting is Roscoe Ails, 54, a balding, sad-faced night club comedian. But Ails doesn't have a new engagement. He's still in jail without bond.

The "Flame's" agent, Dick Leonard, said his client has received several offers to appear in what she describes as an 'exotic" dance since she was released on $5,000 bond.

Rosenfield's bullet-riddled body was found in Ails' apartment. Ails told police he shot the former cafe owner in self defense after Rosenfield made his third trip to the apartment between 3 a.m. and 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

Miss Shonnae, who said she was nicked on the arm by the first shot fired, was arrested the next day in Cedardale, Okla. Her lawyer, Maury Hughes, said the shot was fired by Rosenfield as he and Ails drew at about the same time. Ails and the "Flame" are married, Hughes said.

It all added up to a lot of newspaper space and radio time. So tonight - and for the rest of the week at 1 the "Flame" dances.

Two Accidents In City In Last Two Days

Two minor automobile accidents were investigated by police here during the Christmas holidays, but no one was injured.

First of the accidents occurred shortly after 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A 1952 Chrysler sedan driven by Mrs. Lillie Blackledge, 2800 Avenue U, collided with a 1952 Studebaker driven by Raymond Day of Mineral Wells.

The second holiday accident in Snyder occurred at 10:04 o'clock last night. A 1951 Mercury driven by Betty Marlene Richeson, 500½ Twenty-eighth Street collided with a 1949 Buick driven by Robert Holland Permenter of 1904 Seventeenth Street.

Damage to the cars involved was not extensive, police said.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray and children, 412 Thirtieth Street, spent Christmas with her father, W. L. Porter, in McCamey, Tex.

Overturns Wednesday

William P. Lewallen, who lives on the Roby highway, was slighty injured Wednesday night when his car, a 1952 Ford coach, overturned about four miles north of here on the Clairemont Road.

The accident occurred about a mile north of the scene of a fatal accident which occurred about two hours earlier. Lewallen was taken to the hospital in a Bell ambulance.

CALLED THIS BABYSITTING

Two-year-old Ann Holman (reading book) has everything under control as she sits with her one-year-old brother, Jim. When she returned moments later, she found Ann keeping the wailing little Jim in check by sitting atop him. The scene was re-staged for a photographer.

Flagpole Sitter May Be Challenged For Move

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)— William L. (Happy) Howard's flagpole sitting record of 196 days may be challenged in some quarters.

That is because he did the sitting in two states. He set out to break the record June 1 across the Columbia River in Washougal, Wash. But after several months interest in the project lagged there and Howard, atop a section of the pole, was moved by truck to a Portland amusement park.

He climbed down on Christmas Day announcing that he had set a record. The previous record, he said, was held by Emma Leach of Eugene, Ore., who stayed on top a pole above a San Francisco used car lot for 152 days.

Tiny May Not Be Able To Get Back On Plane

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The way Guy (Texas Tiny) Cherry os eating you'd think he never cared whether he got back to California.

Cherry yesterday jilted the diet that slimmed him down from 642 pounds to a mere 369 in favor of a Christmas dinner with turkey and trimmings.

He went on the diet so the air lines would let him fly here to see a cousin for the holidays. Cherry is a Long Beach, Calif., disc jockey.

His big problem—a dozen or so meals from now—will be whether he'll be able to return to the West Coast by plane. But he didn't seem to care yesterday. He just ate and ate.

Wreck Here Fatal To Lindale Farmer

Loy Alton Martin, 36-year-old Lindale farmer, became the county's sixth traffic fatality of the year when he died Wednesday afternoon of injuries suffered in a wreck on the Clairemont Road a few minutes earlier.

Martin had been here since Sunday visiting his father-in-law, Samuel Allen Geddie, 52, near whose home the accident occurred. Attendants at the Battenfield Hospital said Geddie's condition today was still critical. Another son-in-law of Geddie, W. Carlton Emfinger, 27, Colorado City, was slightly injured. He has been discharged from the hospital, however.

Also injured in the accident was Gordon Gilbert, 49, a foreman for the Texas-New Mexico Pipeline Co., driver of a 1950 Ford pickup truck which was struck by the 1951 Oldsmobile in which the other three men were riding. Gilbert remained in the hospital today, but his condition is not serious. Emfinger said he was driving the Oldsmobile.

Bill Zimmerman highway patrolman who investigated the collision, said no charges would be filed in connection with the accident which occurred about 3:15 o'clock approximately three miles north of here on the farm-to-market highway. Both vehicles were traveling south, and the pickup truck was apparently attempting to turn left off the pavement, Zimmerman said. The car struck the left side of the truck from the rear.

Martin's body was taken last night by a Bolger Funeral Home coach to Lindale. Funeral services are to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Union Chapel Methodist Church at Van, Tex.

Martin was born April 14, 1916, in Smith County, He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maydell Martin; a daughter, Patsy Mae Martin, a son, Roy Alton Martin; two sisters, Mrs. Fred (Mattie Lou) White, Lindale; and Mrs. Lowie (Arvis) Norris, Mercedes; a twin brother, Toy Alvin Martin, Van; and two other brothers, Manuel Martin, Lindale, and C. C. Martin of Tyler.

There were 11 traffic fatalities in the county last year.

Martin And Lewis At Top Of Movie Popularity Poll

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dean and Jerry made it.

After six years together and three years in the movies, the mad team of Martin and Lewis has hit the top of the entertainment ladder. They were chosen the No. 1 box office winners in the annual poll of theater men by the Motion Picture Herald.

The young zanies replaced John Wayne, winner last year but No. 3 in 1952. Another veteran of esterns, Gary Cooper, moved into the second spot.

Following them, in this order: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, James Stewart, Doris Day, Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward, Randolph Scott.

The Martin and Lewis triumph is a spectacular climax to a pair of flashy careers. Three years ago, the two were unknown to the general public, although making big money in night clubs. No film studio seemed eager to sign them, but producer Hal Wallis inked them to a contract. His gamble paid off handsomely.

Wallis broke them in with supporting roles in a couple of "My Friend Irma" pictures. But the first indication of their worth came when they did an independent film, "At War With the Army." Made for a paltry $335,000, it grossed a fantastic four million.

Hollywood gained a healthy new respect for M and L.

When the team was hitting the bigtime, I asked them for their explanation of their success.

"I think it boils down to one thing—people want to laugh," said Jerry, the skinny, crew-cut member of the team. He added that "Dean is more than a straight man; he also has a great sense of comedy."

Martin's answer was similar: "People want to laugh. And I'm working with the funniest man in the world—Jerry Lewis."

Their dizzy ascent to fame hasn't changed their friendship. Neither will brook any criticism of the other by an outside party. Their fellow workers have never seen any real friction between them.

"We'll never break up because we never argue," Jerry explains. "That sounds impossible, but it's true. I'm not saying that one of us has never gotten put out at the other one.

"But we have a system. Every time I start to bawl out Dean, he agrees with everything I say. I do the same when he bawls me out. It works perfectly."

Could you suggest an apple dessert that would offer variety? E. L.

If you like the flavor of coffee, you will probably like Coffee-Glazed Baked Apples. You'll need the following ingredients:

6 large baking apples
1½ cups brown sugar
½ cup broken walnut meats
1 cup strong coffee
Whipped cream

Select 6 large baking apples. Core. Peel about 1-3 of the way down from stem end. Combine a half cup of brown sugar and broken walnut meats. Fill apples with this mixture. Set in baking pan. Combine 1 cup brown sugar and coffee. Stir over low heat until sugar melts, then simmer 10 minutes. Pour over apples. Bake in moderate oven for 30 minutes or until almost tender, basting frequently with syrup in pan. Remove from oven. Sprinkle peeled surface with a little sugar. Place under broiler about 4 inches below source of heat. Sprinkle frequently with sugar and baste with syrup until apples are glazed, about 15 minutes. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream.

We have informal entertainments periodically in our neighborhood, and I'm always looking for ideas of things to serve with coffee. Mrs. G.

Cut in halves crosswise five or six doughnuts or more depending on how many you want to serve. Crumble 4 slices crisp bacon and mix with ½ cup orange marmalade. Spread cut surfaces of doughnuts with the marmalade mixture. Run under the broiler to heat. These are really pick-up snacks.

I know I'm going to have ham left over, since that is what we're having instead of turkey for Christmas dinner. Could you suggest something to do with ham besides slicing it for sandwiches? V.

Ham Patty Croquettes take more preparation than slicing ham for sandwiches, but perhaps you'd like to try this. Here are the ingredients:

4 cups ground cooked ham (about 1½ pounds)
2-3 cup uncooked oats
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons milk

Combine all ingredients. Roll meat mixture out to ½-inch thickness between two sheets of waxed paper on a cookie sheet. Chill. Cut the meat mixture into circles with a floured cutter and carefully lift each up with a spatula. Press the uncut part together again and continue cutting until the meat is used up. Heat about 1 inch fat in frying pan and fry the croquettes until nicely browned. Drain. (Croquettes may be fried in advance, refrigerated, then heated for 15 minutes in a moderate oven.) Serve with Sweet - Sour Sauce. Combine the following ingredients and cook until mixture is slightly thickened:

1-3 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2-3 cup water
2 tablespoons vinegar
6 whole cloves
1-3 cup dark corn syrup

Stalin Had Nothing To Lose By Giving Pleasant Answers

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Stalin had nothing to lose by giving pleasant answers Christmas Day to questions about peace. By being pleasant, he made propaganda hay. If he had snarled, it would have been propaganda against him.

Actually, he committed himself to nothing when he said he was "favorable" to arrangements for a meeting between himself and president-elect Eisenhower and would "co-operate" in trying for peace in Korea. He has loopholes for doing nothing, if he intends doing nothing.

The New York Times on Dec. 18 submitted to the Russian Embassy here several questions to be forwarded to Stalin. The timing of the answers may have been accidental but, from the viewpoint of Russian propagandists, was excellent. The answers were delivered to the Times late Christmas Eve night.

Because the Times is a morning paper, the Stalin story had to appear in the Christmas morning editions. And, with news usually scarce Christmas Day, a Stalin statement was bound to get maximum attention. It did.

And, since Christmas is the one day when the Western world sings most longingly of peace on earth, Stalin may have felt it was the day most appropriate for representing himself as big-hearted Joe, although it is well known he is no believer in Santa Claus.

One of the Times' questions said: "Would you welcome diplomatic conversations with representatives of the new Eisenhower administration looking toward the possibility of a meeting between yourself and Gen. Eisenhower on easing world tensions?"

Stalin answered: "I regard this suggestion favorably."

Stalin was being consistent with the party line. The Communists claim to be the genuine peace-lovers, even when blocking or destroying it, as they did with the invasion of Korea. Further, if Stalin was talking strictly for propaganda and doesn't want to meet Eisenhower, the wording of the question and the answer are general enough to give Stalin a big, wide out.

As the question indicated—and this was what Stalin said yes to—before he and Eisenhower ever got together diplomats on both sides would have to meet to decide what the two men should discuss when they met. But the Russians could easily prevent such a meeting, on Stalin's instructions, by squabbling with the Western diplomats until the whole business fell apart in disagreement.

Another times' question said: "Would you co-operate in any new diplomatic approach designed to bring about an end to the Korean War?"

How could Stalin say no? He wouldn't look good. He said: "I agree to co-operate because the USSR is interested in ending the war in Korea." And maybe at last Russia really wants the war ended. But it hasn't demonstrated any such inclination.

One of the troubles, or gimmicks, in Stalin's answer about co-operation is that what he calls co-operation may look to the West like downright wrecking tactics.

In view of the Russian record it seems unlikely Stalin intends his answers to have real meaning, although he could make them have it, if he wanted to.

Freighters Collide In In Gulf, Head For Port

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A freighter limped up the Mississippi River today after colliding with another freighter in the Gulf of Mexico yesterday.

Two tugs were sent to help the SS Bacchus, a Dutch-owned ship, make its way up the river to New Orleans for repairs.

The Bacchus and the SS Holberg, Norwegian-owned, crashed about three miles from the mouth of the Mississippi River in a heavy fog. A gaping hole was ripped in the Bacchus' hull, steering apparatus was damaged and the ship took 30 feet of water in one hold.

The Bacchus was on its way to New Orleans from Houston when the crash occurred. It apparently was in no danger of sinking. The Holberg proceeded back to New Orleans after the accident.

A member of the Bacchus' crew, Fernand Bonce, 33, of Haiti, was injured slightly. He is in a New Orleans hospital.

Langer Says Senators Move Against Him

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Langer (R-ND) predicted today a new attempt may be made to keep him out of the Senate but, he said, "it will fail."

"I'll be the new chairman of the judiciary committee and probably have a seat on foreign relations," he said in an interview.

Influential Republican senators who asked not to be named agreed that Langer will head the judiciary committee and one of them expressed doubt that any strong Senate move would be made to challenge him.

The North Dakotan said he will demand an immediate showdown if any such effort is made when the new Congress meets Jan. 3. "If my political opponents have any proof of any kind to reflect on my character, I defy them to produce it under oath," he said.

It was not clear here whether a reported move against Langer's seating would materialize.

J. B. Bridston, a North Dakota state senator, announced several weeks ago he intended to file a petition with the Senate aimed at preventing Langer from taking the oath of office for a new term pending an inquiry into various private immigration bills the senator has sponsored.

Bridston said Langer had introduced a large number of bills which had the effect of allowing to stay in this country certain aliens whom the government was trying to deport.

Bridston has said he would file the petition in late December. Leslie Biffle, secretary of the Senate, said such a petition probably would come to him, but that nothing has been filed that he knows about.

Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb.) chairman of the Republican committee which assigns GOP senators to committees, said he knows nothing of any move against Langer.

"I know of no senator who is conversant with any such reported move or is doing anything about it," he said.

And Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) who would be in line for chairmanship of the judiciary committee following Langer, said he knew of no move to bypass the North Dakotan.

List Of Texans Aboard Plane Which Crashed Saturday Given

By The Associated Press

The casualty list of history's worst air disaster shows that a number of Texans were killed while en route home for Christmas.

With less than half of the 86 victims identified, the list showed the names of six Texans.

Five Texans were known to have escaped when the huge C 124 Globemaster transport crashed early Saturday at Moses Lake, Wash. It was headed first for Texas—Kelly Air Force Base, San Antonio—with its load of servicemen on holiday leave.

With the list far from complete the Texans known dead were:

A2c Francisco E. Loya, 200 South 27th St., McAllen.

Alc Allen C. Carson, Schreiner Institute, Kerrville.

A3c David Martinez, 1625 Durango, San Antonio.

A2c James Perre Guidry, 1728 11th St., Port Arthur.

2nd Lt. Artice Lee Laird, 446 Funston Place, San Antonio.

Larson Air Force Base officials at Moses Lake said they would add the names of more victims identified from time to time.

Laird, 23, was a former reporter for the Corpus Chisti Caller Times. He was the son of Mrs. L. L. Laird of Tomball, Harris County.

It was feared Laird was dead or missing before the first casualty list was announced. Huard Eubanks, Houston, a former classmate of Laird at Sam Houston State college, said the lieutenannt sent word to his wife in San Antonio that he would be homeward bound on a C 124 Globemaster leaving Moses Lake early Saturday. No further word was received from him.

The Texans who survived were:

Billy P. Alexander, USS Duncan, Bremerton, 423 N. Cleveland, Sherman. Mother, Mrs. C. E. Alexander.

Alc Howell D. McCarley, route 1, Blue Ridge, Tex., mother, Mrs. Lloma McCarley.

Lt. Fran F. Rittenbach, wife Dorothy 1233 Carroll Dr., Pasadena.

Lt. J. D Taylor, Amarillo

Taylor, an Air Force pilot bound for his Amarillo home after a tour of duty in Korea, considered himself "very lucky" to escape with only cuts and bruises. Taylor also was badly shaken up.

He had hitch-hiked a ride on the big transport to join his wife and three children for Christmas.

Ten badly burned victims of the crash were to be flown to Brooke Army hospital in San Antonio Monday.

The hospital said that the burned servicemen, three of them in critical condition, would be returned in care of a specially trained burn team of three doctors and three nurses. The team of experts flew to Larson Air Force Base Saturday to help with the care of the victims.

In Washington U. S. Rep. Paul J. Kilday of San Antonio asked for an immediate investigation for the series of air tragedies in the northwest.

"I should think we ought to do something to see what are the reasons for so many crashes in the same general area," Kilday, a member of the House armed services committee, said.

This busy scene in Haris Pharmacy taken last week shows the rush of Christmas shoppers there. Perry D. Harris, owner, says he expects more this week as last-minute shoppers hit their stride. (Lee, Watson Photograph.)

Queen's Cousin Competes For Social Lead

LONDON, Dec. 22, (AP) — Elizabeth II gets the crown and throne of England next year. Her sister, Princess Margaret, may get a serious challenger for the title of glamor queen of English society.

There's a youngster—Alexandra Helen Elizabeth Olga Christabel—coming along fast in the royal circle and London's high society. Young Alexandra, inevitably called "Alex," is first cousin to the Queen and Princess Margaret—and she is quite a gal.

Alexandra is the daughter of the Duchess of Kent and the late Duke of Kent who was younger brother to the late King George VI.

She was born 16 years ago Christmas morning to the tune of a 41-gun salute—traditional way of greeting royal arrivals in this nation.

By the calculations of British society, at 16 years it is high time for a young lady to emerge as a bright light. Alexandra already has begun to emerge.

She has been a cover girl—which in Britain as in America is a sure way to become well known fast and collect glamor in a hurry.

The slim, long-legged young lady attends Heathfield School in Ascot, super-exclusive and expensive.

Her home is with her mother, the duchess, and her two brothers at The Coppins, Iver. At this peaceful Southern England country home Alexandra has developed into an English lady. She still rides and hunts afid often indicates that she cares nothing for London, its society or folderol.

But the London newspaper, the Evening News noted, "During the last six months friends have noticed a subtle change. She is emerging from girlhood into womanhood."

One of the first times Alexandra was mentioned as a forthcoming social leader and as a competitor for Princess Margaret was two years ago in another London paper. The paper predicted she would run Margaret a good race.

Lower Prices Are Predicted By Economist sOf Nation

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (AP)—This is the time of year the economists crawl out on a limb—both those hired by corporations and those hired by government and the universities.

This year most of them have chosen an optimistic limb and predict a pleasant year ahead for their bosses and the public. There are some dissenters, however.

A group of them held a roundtable discussion under the sponsorship of the National Industrial Conference Board. Their views, on average, were summed up by the board's chief economist, Martin R. Gainsbrugh, as follows:

"A trend toward lower prices in 1953, including not only wholesale commodity prices, but also a lower consumer price index (the cost of living index), but with a rise in the wage pattern in 1953 of 2 per cent or probably 3 per cent."

If the economists are right, that will be fine for many Americans—more pay and lower prices.

For the businessman, however—the economists added—it would mean "even narrower profit margins in 1953 than the thin margin already prevailing."

And the group, as a whole, looked for the gross national product—the sum of all goods and services produced—to rise some 2 or 3 per cent next year.

Not all of them went along with the majority, however, Dr. Jules Backman of New York University believes: "Some time in 1953 we will see the start of a recession which will be of a magnitude of about 10 per cent and it will go on through 1954."

In specific fields, here are some of their opinions:

Armstrong Cork Co.'s economist, Walter E. Hoadley Jr., looks for about one million new homes to be built, "a tremendous amount of public construction" and little trouble from material shortages."

General Motors' economist, Rufus S. Tucker, foresees between four and five million cars being sold next year, and he thinks the practice of dealers over-allowing on the old car in a trade-in will return—in effect this cuts the price of the new car.

A department of agriculture economist, Nathan N. Koffsky, assumes that with decent weather farmers will turn out large amounts of foodstuffs next year and the prices they get will ease off further, and their net incomes may fall by 5 per cent. He sees little chance of retail food prices changing much.

Perfumes Are Suggested As Ladies' Gifts

"Men are not as shy and bashful when they are buying a gift for their wife or a lady friend as they are reputed to be," Mrs. Ruth Kruse, head of the perfume and toiletries department of Harris Pharmacy, said.

"Occasionally there is a man who blushes when he asks for one of the intimately named French perfumes, but most of them take such purchasing in their stride," she said.

Mrs. Kruse has been head of the popular gift shopping department for more than two years, and says that she has never seen a man who was actually embarrased when making gift purchases for a member of the fairer sex.

"I suppose that if men were forced to purchase some intimate unmentionables, that most of them would turn a deep rose color," she said.

Dana, Tabu, Faberge, Caron, and many more of the finest perfumes available anywhere are included in the selection which Mrs. Kruse's customers may take a sample sniff of before making up their minds just which will be right for their heart throb.

If "Enchanting Menace" "Gay Diversion," "Most Precious," or "White Shoulders Spalsh" is the trade name of the perfume you want to give to some lady, Harris Pharmacy has it, and men are the most regular customers at the counter, Mrs. Kruse said.

Modern sailors often use "boat" to mean a vessel which can be hoisted to the deck of a "ship" and "ship" to mean any vessel which cannot be so hoisted, but in former times the term "ship" was often used to mean a vessel which was "ship-rigged", that is "square-rigged."

Eisenhower Not Making Much Ado Over Senate Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ever since the Republican victory in November it has been taken pretty much for granted here that Sen. Taft could have the job of Republican floor leader in the Senate for the asking.

He had been, in effect, the Republican Senate leader for years anyway. But the floor leadership in the next four years, when the Republicans are in the White House, will be one of the most important jobs in President Eisenhower's administration.

The Senate Republican leader will visit the White House regularly for consultation, which includes advice, on programs Eisenhower wants Congress to approve. When the discussion is over, it's up to the Senate leader to lead the Senate fight for what the President wants.

But two weeks ago, more than a month before the Republicans could take over, Taft exploded over Eisenhower's appointment of Martin P. Durkin, a Democrat and labor union official, as secretary of labor. "Incredible," Taft said, denouncing it.

This looked clearly like a break between the President-elect and the senator. The Ohioan's flareup raised a question. Several, in fact. Could Eisenhower and Taft ever get along or, if this squabble was smoothed over, would they split over something else later

Would it be better for Eisenhower right at the start of the new Congress to have a showdown with Taft to see which of them the Senate Republicans would follow

Eisenhower said nothing about Taft's outburst, at least publicly. Taft seemed to calm down. And now Eisenhower has cleared the way for Taft to get the floor leadership. Not directly. He did it through lieutenants who announced Eisenhower would be happy to see Taft in the leadership.

Almost immediately Taft said he would seek the leadership, which is by choice of the GOP senators, not by presidential appointment. Until then Taft had been rather vague about what he intended to do, as if waiting to see what Eisenhower would do.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Mothers Should Start Their Children Out To Be Veeps

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What mother ever raised her boy to be a vice president?

Probably none. Mothers want their sons to be doctors or lawyers or dentists or engineers. But they are missing a bet.

Why shouldn't a wise mother today aim her lad from birth toward one of the safest and most profitable careers in America—that of being a vice president? There are thousands upon thousands of vice presidents in this country, yet not one started life with that idea in mind. They all got there by accident.

But why shouldn't a smart young fellow set out deliberately to make himself a vice president? Why shouldn't business colleges have a course entitled, "How To Become a Vice President and Stop Right There."

There is a popular belief that every man would like to have a high paying post with a lot of responsibility. That isn't so. What the average man really craves is a high paying post with absolutely no responsibility. And for that you can't beat the job of vice president.

Look at what it offers:

1. A swivel chair in a warm office out of the wind and the rain.

2. A secretary to answer the phone calls from your wife. (and who else would phone a vice president?

3. Prestige. Everybody thinks you're important but nobody knows why.

4. Security. Nobody ever fires a vice president—because he never does anything wrong. Since nobody really knows what his duties are, he wisely decides the best way to keep from doing something wrong is to do nothing.

Billy Graham Visits Wounded

Aboard Danish Hospital Ship Jutlandia, Inchon Harbor, Korea, Dec. 22 (AP)—The American soldier lay inert, barely breathing, on the steel hospital cot. A tube carried whole blood to his arm from a bottle suspended over his head.

A doctor worked on one side of the cot, a nurse on the other The medic straightened up, shook his head doubtfully.

A tall, handsome man, a chaplain's cross on his hat, stepped to the bedside. He bowed his head in a prayer so softly spoken it was only a compassionate murmur six feet away.

The chaplain shook his head. His boyish face was grim, his voice hard, as he stepped through the doorway of the tiny hospital room.

"I wish," said evangelist Billy Graham, "that I could take every person in America into that room for just a moment. I wish they could see that boy's life in suspension, hanging by a thread.

"Every night club in America would be empty Christmas eve, the saloons would be deserted, and the churches would be jammed with millions of Americans praying for peace—and for each of these and all the other wounded."

He was one of three wounded at the front by a burst of Communist shrapnel less than 12 hours earlier.

Knapp Man Is Shot In Head While Hunting

A Knapp man, Donald Huddleston, underwent surgery Saturday night to remove a bullet from his head after he was accidentally shot in a hunting accident that day.

Huddleston, home on leave from the Navy, is in the Brooke Army Hospital in San Antonio. He is the son of R. A. Huddleston of Knapp. He is still listed as critical but has improved some, according to Leon Huddleston, his brother. Huddleston was in surgery four hours, his brother stated.

Huddleston and two cousins, Billy Don Huddleston and Ellis Wright Huddleston, were hunting about two miles east of Knapp. Billy Don shot over the car at a rabbit just as Huddleston raised his head up, Leon Huddleston said.

He was flown from Sweetwater to the San Antonio hospital.

Deer Charge Car And Wins; 2 Persons Injured

EPPING FORREST, England—(AP) A large stag led a charge of 25 deer against an automobile driving on a road through a forest north of London last night and knocked the car rolling over an embankment.

Two occupants of the small vehicle, an Austin 7, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Coe, were injured.

Charges Stack Up On Man Gone On Spree

AMARILLO, Dec. 22 (AP)—A misdemeanor charge of aggravated assault with a pistol was filed yesterday in Potter County against Raymond Laux, 29, St. Louis, who is being held in the Oldham County jail.

Laux already has been charged with armed robbery in Oldham County. He was arrested last Thursday night after two persons were kidnapped and two stolen cars wrecked in a series of incidents on U. S. Highway 66 between here and Vega.

The charges filed yesterday accused Laux of forcing an Amarillo wrecker driver at gun point to drive him west on the highway after the wrecker was called to right an overturned car.

Oldest Veteran Plans To Ride In Airplane

EATON, Dec. 22 (AP)—Christmas is a time to relax and have fun—so Col. Walter L. Williams, 110, the nation's oldest living Confederate veteran, is going to take his first airplane ride. And do a little fox hunting.

He said he and his 78-year-old wife had accepted an invitation to go on a flight with Fred Cannon of Rosenburg something during the holidays.

And he said his sons had promised to take him on his favorite sport, fox hunting.

Williams will spend Christmas as usual on his 20-acre farm near here.

Last Week Of Football Gets Started With North-South Tie

NEW YORK (AP) — College football's holiday week of high hysteria is under way—and seldom has it opened on a more hysterical note.

In a wild conflict that saw the tide reversed twice in the final 58 seconds, all-star teams from the North and South fought to a 21-21 tie in the annual Shrine game at Miami last night.

With two seconds less than a minute to go, the North shot ahead, 21-14, on a five-yard pass from Purdue's Dale Samuels to an old battery mate, Bernard Flowers.

Just 20 seconds were left when Jack Scarbath, Maryland's All America T wizard, fired a pass to halfback Jack Hook of Missouri good for 64 yards and the tieing touchdown. Hook had to run the last 20.

This provided a fitting finish for an exciting battle which opened with a 95-yard touchdown run by Scarbath. Scarbath and All-America line-backer Donn Moomaw shared the game's Most Valuable Player Award. A record crowd of 42,866 watched it.

The game set a rugged standard for the holiday program which gains momentum tomorrow with two of the older all-star attractions —the East-West charity game at San Francisco and the Blue-Gray battle at Montgomery, Ala., plus the Shrimp Bowl game at Galveston, Tex.

These are followed by eight bowl games next Thursday, Jan. 1, and the senior bowl tilt at Mobile, Ala., Jan. 3.

At Galveston tomorrow, undefeated Northeast Oklahoma State defends a nine-game season's streak against Sam Houston State, which has won five games and lost four. The battle will start at 4:15 p.m., EST, before an anticipated turnout of 9,000.

A crowd of 62,000 is expected to pay more than a quarter of a million dollars to witness the Shrine charity battle at San Francisco, which rivals the Rose Bowl in tradition. The game, with kickoff at 5 p.m., EST, will be broadcast by Mutual and televised by Dumont.

The Blue-Gray skirmish, pitting picked squads from above and below the Mason-Dixon line, probably will be played before a crowd of 22,000 with a $60,000 gate. Mutual will broadcast. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

The Northern boys in this fracas were cheered by a weather forecast which predicted a hard freeze at Montgomery tonight and nippy, Yankee weather. This would be calculated to disturb the Dixie players.

The Blues are depending on a passing attack, with Detroit's Ted Marchibroda and Indiana's Lou d'Achille doing the throwing. The Grays are pinning their offensive hopes on William & Mary's Ed Mioduszewski, Auburn's Dudley Spence and Texas A&M's Hal Ledyard.

At San Francisco, the Eastern team will be coached by Biggie Munn of Michigan State, who led his Spartans to the recognized national championship this season. Howie Odell of the University of Washington will direct the Westerners.

Munn said his boys will go into the game equipped with 45 different play patterns from the T, single wing, double wing and spread formations, provoking Odell to comment:

"All we have to do is hope and pray our defense holds up."

There were several developments, meanwhile, as the various bowl teams shook off holiday inactivity and moved into rough work for the Jan. 1 games.

At Knoxville, it was announced that Gen. Bob Neyland, veteran Tennessee coach os ailing and may be a spectator at the Cotton Bowl game with Texas in Dallas. Because of his health, Neyland was forced to turn over the coaching burden to his chief aide, Harvey Robinson.

The single touchdown odds favoring Georgia Tech over Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans wobbled a bit with the revelation that Tech's two ace backs, Billy Teas and Leon Hardeman, may be out of the battle because of injuries.

Cage Tourney Starts Today

DALLAS, Dec. 26 (AP)—Texas and Baylor clash at 7:30 p. m. in the opening game of the second annual Southwest Conference pre-season basketball tournament.

It starts a four-day tournament that will extend through Tuesday.

Texas Christian, defending champion, meets Rice at 9 p. m. to complete the first night's play.

Tomorrow night, the tournament favorite, high-scoring Arkansas, swings into action in the 9 o'clock game playing Arizona, the invited team. In the 7:30 game, Southern Methodist rolls against Texas A&M.

Arkansas comes here with a 3-1 record in which the Razorbacks pounded out an average of over 81 points per game—well ahead of anything else in the tournament offensively.

Rice, another favorite—and the team expected to play Arkansas in the finals—has the best season record—a 4-1 mark—but hasn't been as impressive as Arkansas.

Heading the blistering Arkansas shoot-and-follow offensive is Gene Lambert Jr., son of a former Arkansas star and coach, who has averaged over 20 points per contest, best of any player in the tournament. Next is Gene Schwiner of Rice, who has done an even 20.

The highest scorer, however, is Bill Kemmeries of Arizona, who has rolled up 115 points but had six games in which to do it.

Arizona has won two out of six. Texas A&M has a 3-2 record; Texas, Baylor and Texas Christian each shows 2-3; and Southern Methodist has 1-4.

There will be no games Sunday. The tournament will resume Monday night. It is being played at the Fair Park Recreation Building which seats 4,800.

Wisconsin Is Looking Better

PASADENA, Dec. 26 (AP)—Wisconsin, peer of the Big Ten Conference at the running game, is beginning to gain favor here for its New Year's Day game in the Rose Bowl with Southern California.

The ruling earlier this week that Jim Psaltis, star Trojan defensive back, is ineligible for the game, has dropped USC stock considerably.

One Pacific Coast Conference coach, although clinging to anonymity says the loss of Psaltis makes the difference between the teams. He said he leaned somewhat toward Wisconsin, anyhow, but that with Psaltis unavailable to defend against passes and support the linebackers, Wisconsin's drives through the center, with Alan Ameche spearheading the attack, are going to be mighty hard to stop.

Psaltis was ruled ineligible because he played junior varsity foot ball at Santa Rosa Junior College He ranked second, nationally, in pass interceptions, with nine.

Yankees Selected To Win Today's Grid Tilt

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 26 (AP)—Northern hopes of victory in tomorrow's Blue - Gray gridiron classic today rose with forecasts of fair weather that favor the superior Yankee passing attack.

Detroit's Ted Marchibroda and Indiana's Lou D'Chille are two of the nation's outstanding aerial artists.

The Grays have their own aerial circus to throw at the Blues. Three dangerous chunkers include Ray Graves, Texas A&M, Hal Ledyard, Chattanooga, and Dudley Spence, Auburn.

Predicted clear, cold weather might favor Yankee performers accustomed to ball-handling and playing in nippy temperatures.

Honor Houston Player

GALVESTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—This is "Don Gottlob Day" in Houston.

Don is the spectacular passer from Sam Houston State College who won Little All-America honors with his amazing gridiron feats this year.

And Sam Houston, at top shape, meets Northeastern State College from Talequah, Okla., here tomorrow in the Shrimp Bowl.

Good Fight On Tap Tonight

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—Flashy Vince Martinez was rated an 8-to-5 favorite to rack up his 12th expense of Don Williams in the main 10-rounder of a youth card at Madison Square Garden.

The wavy - haired, 23-year-old bobby sox idol from Paterson, N. J., returns to the ring wars after a six months absence because of bad hands. In Williams, a 24-year-old veteran of 70 pro contests, Martinez will be meeting his most experienced opponent to date.

Winner of 24 of 25 scraps, Martinez outpointed slambang Sammy Giuliani in a thrilling tilt in the Garden June 20. That was Vince's last start.

Williams, a choir singer from Worcester, Mass., has fought the best men in the welterweight division, among them Champion Kid Gavilan, ex-champion Johnny Bratton and contender Gil Turner. He was beaten by all three but gave Gavilan a battle, losing via a split decision.

The tall New Englander has a stinging left jab and a good left but doesn't hit as hard as the promising New Jerseyite. Williams' record is 57-11-2.

Their 9 p. m. (CST) bout will be telecast coast to coast.

Class AA Title Game Today

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 26 (AP)—Terrell's undefeated, untied Tigers go after their first state schoolboy football championship today, meeting the "Cinderella Boys" from Yoakum in the Class AA finals.

With an offense that has rolled up 453 points in 14 games, the Tigers will be solid favorites to whip a Yoakum team that lost an early season test to Gonzales and has had to come from behind repeatedly to stay in the race for the title.

Yoakum, a team of speed and terrific scoring power when the chips are on the line, pins its hopes on the passing of Bobby Manning, 170-pound sophomore quarterback, who has pitched for 1,107 yards this season, 18 of his throws going for touchdowns. Cleo Cooper is the ace ball-carrier—he has romped to 1,261 yards this campaign.

Terrell will boast an advantage in weight but the Bulldogs haven't worried much about this in their 14 games thus far. They average only 161 pounds in the line but know how to use it.

Terrell not only is very strong offensively but the Tiger defense is something to worry about. They have allowed only 81 points in 14 games.

Jim Harris and Lavone Cox are key men in the blistering Tiger offensive.

Wade Driver and Glen Raines are the big guns in the rock-ribbed Terrell defense.

A crowd of over 5,000 is expected to see the 2 p. m. kick off.

Santa Anita To Open Season

ARCADIA, Calif., Dec. 26 (AP)—Santa Anita opens its 16th annual winter season today featuring the $20,000 Las Flores Handicap, first of 29 stakes scheduled during the 50-day meeting which boasts more than two million dollars in prize money.

The great money jockey Eddie Arcaro will be aboard the favorite, Calumet Farm's A Gleam, and a victory in the opener would give him 38 stakes wins for the year—just one short of Earl Sande's all-time American record of 39.

As three more stakes will be run at Santa Anita before New Year's Day, Arcaro stands a good chance of writing a new mark for the horse racing records.

Seven candidates have been named for the Las Flores, a six-furlong sprint for mares and fillies. A Gleam, top weighted at 126 pounds, seeks her seventh victory in 13 starts for 1952 and a chance to add to her winnings of $119,700 this year. Net value to today's winner will be $12,900.

With good weather forecast, a turnout of 36,000 or more fans is anticipated—first of more than a million expected for the meeting.

Against A Gleam today will be a fine array of thoroughbreds. Special Touch, with Wee Willie Shoemaker aboard draws second weight at 119. Other entries are Danae ridden by Johnny Longden, 117; Great Dream, Jackie Westrope, 108; Ruth Lily, Ray York, 115; Season's Best, J. Burton, 103; and Spanish Cream, Eric Guerin, 117.

The Cowboys are one of three teams appearing at the tourney for the first time. The other two are Westminister College, Fulton, Mo., and Missouri Valley College of Marshall, Mo.

Returnees include defending champion Southwestern Oklahoma State of Weatherford, Okla.; Abilene Christian College of Abilene, Tex.; Central Oklahoma State, Edmond, Okla.; Howard Payne College, Brownwood, Tex., and the host Greyhounds.

Cross-eyed Quarterbacks For This Great Age Of Specialists

NEW YORK (AP) — Football's two-platoon system has its friends among the coaches but the present-day horde of specialists that make up a college "eleven" doesn't necessarily find a welcome everywhere.

The coaches will be meeting in Florida early next month to study the code and make recommendations to the official Rules Committee. It is almost certain that the rule on substitutions, which makes the two-platoon business possible, will be gone over. Just what will be done to it is anyone's guess.

That the platoon system—where some coaches employ one set of players for long punts into the wind and another for short kicks with the breeze—isn't everybody's joy was best satirized by Harvard's band the afternoon that Army battered the Crimson in 1950.

Harvard then was in the midst of its worst modern slump. Army, later to be wrecked by the cribbing scandal, was at its majestic best and drubbed Harvard, 49-0.

But the Harvard band was second to none. It took the field proudly at half-time with the score 42-0 against its outclassed gridiron brethren.

It is a big band, this Harvard outfit—perhaps 130 pieces. The director had divided it into two platoons. One toot of his whistle brought all his offensive trombone players scurrying onto the field as the defensive trombonists rushed off. The band missed not a note. The offensive trombonists, you see, were the world's best offensive trombonists.

The same went for the drums, the cornets, the piccolos, etc.

At last, on signal some gents did their best to run onto the field with a huge horn. It must have been 12 feet long. It took four men to carry it.

Once they had the horn in place, the music stopped dramatically. A specialist bowed, then stepped up to the tremendous horn and blew. A solitary sub-bass note was the result.

It was a perfect, pear-shaped tone. And why not? Wasn't the musician the world's greatest defensive manufacturer of this solitary note?

The musician has his counterpart in modern football—the end who is an All American candidate but can catch passes only if they are short ones thrown by a cross-eyed quarterback minus a finger on his right hand and if he is at right angles to the sun with the wind blowing at not more than 10 miles an hour north by northeast. Otherwise, the end won't get into the game. The coach, you know, has other end specialists.
