60 Days Undersea

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — Four U. S. scientists will spend 60 days on the ocean floor early next year in the longest continuous undersea study a diving team has attempted.

The Navy, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Interior Department, in announcing the program today, said a twin-chambered living quarters built by General Electric will be sunk 50 feet in Greater Lameshur Bay, Virgin Islands National Park, off St. John Island. GE is also handling the planning and training.

The agencies said the study, called Operation Tektite I, has two purposes — to conduct extensive marine science studies on the ocean floor and to study the behavior of men living in relative isolation in a strange invironment under stress. The data may be useful to help plan future space trips, they said.

The four Interior Department scientists who will make the dive will be named at a later date. They'll have voice communication with the surface, and a special mix of oxygen and nitrogen will be pumped to them. Food will be stored in the living quarter tanks before they are sunk. The men will be able to swim outside the living quarters.

High Winds, Hailstorms Hit State

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms continued to boom along the upper Texas coast today in the wake of a turbulent Sunday that brought lashing rainstorms high winds, hailstorms, and flash floods to the southern and eastern portions of the state.

High winds which residents said were spawned by a tornado funnel destroyed a mobile home, a car and a garage and damaged several house trailers at the northern edge of Irving Sunday while a heavy rain and hail storm lashed the Dallas area.

Temperatures ranged from a frosty 32 degrees at Lubbock to an overnight low of 69 at McAllen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and Galveston along the Coast.

The Weather Bureau said Tyler in East Texas had recorded 1.07 inches of rain in the six-hour period ended at midnight. Other totals included Galveston .98, Longview .40, Laredo 2.04, Dallas .72, and numerous lesser amounts.

Road graders were pressed into service to clear highways of hailstones that piled up as deep as 3 feet in spots at Dallas. Torrential downpours blocked underpasses and sent water swirling curb-to-curb across a number of streets in the city.

At Laredo, a damaged retaining wall along Chacon Creek caused flash flooding in the border city. Water swirled 8 inches deep into one residence and a landslide on a railroad overpass blocked a highway.

Baseball size hail fell at Rocksprings in Southwest Texas and numerous other hailstorms were reported as the violent thunderstorms moved all the way from the Rio Grande northeastward aiross Texas to the Red and Sabine rivers.

Rigid Curfew For Bermuda

By STANLEY JOHNSON

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — A rigidly enforced curfew and 560 police and troops kept Bermuda quiet Sunday after three days of violence. Informed sources said the nightly curfew may stay on until after the resort island's general election May 23.

The 7 p.m.-to-dawn curfew also kept thousands of American tourists confined to their hotels, but most of them normally dine there anyway and spend the evening playing bingo or dancing in the hotel ballrooms.

A detachment of 180 members of Britain's Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers arrived by plane Sunday night to help local forces quell any further outbreak of what the governor, Lord Martonmere, called the "hoodlumism" that swept this normally tranquil island.

Also helping keep order on the island where most of the whites and Negroes subsist on the tourist trade is the British frigate Leopard.

After rioting Thursday and Friday nights, there were four explosions and half a dozen minor blasts Saturday night but Sunday was without incident. Barbed wire barricades cut the coral roads, manned by police, firemen and troops of the Bermuda Regiment, both Negro and white.

The main violence occurred Thursday and Friday when 12 persons were injured and $250,000 worth of damage was done.

Officials here insist that the disturbances were neither racially nor politically motivated, although most of them were caused by marauding bands of Negro youths.

Alan Butterfield, a candidate for the legislature of the predominantly Negro Popular Labor party—the PLP—charged that the troubles were caused "by the limey cops' irresponsible actions" in putting down the first riot.

The PLP demands independence from Britain and wants to keep out Britons whom it claims take the better jobs here.

Bermuda has a permanent population of approximately 50,000. The white minority has always dominated the government as well as the economy, but the election next month will be the first under universal suffrage, and this will give the PLP its first chance to get control of the government.

Invitation Planned For Convention

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be invited to hold its 51st annual convention next year in Snyder.

The executive board of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce has formally approved a proposal to extend the invitation on behalf of the local chamber. The invitation will be extended by Snyder's two WTCC directors, H. F. Clark and Herbert Feather, at the WTCC's 50th annual session May 5-6-7 at Odessa.

The chamber executive board also authorized sponsorship of a speed reading course here provided there is enough interest. The course is planned for June 3 to July 21, with nine class sessions in that period.

An appropriation of $400 for a cooperative brochure has been approved by the chamber executive board. Other groups and agencies will be invited to participate in developing a brochure aimed at tourists and industry.

College Shocked By Fiery Crash

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A fiery plane crash that killed the coach and five members of the Lamar Tech track team has plunged the campus of the Southeast Texas college into shock and grief.

A total of seven persons, including the pilot, were killed when the private plane, returning from the Drake Relays in Des Moines, plunged into a rice field a mile short of the airport here early Sunday morning.

The plane, which exploded after impact, burned with heat so intense firemen had difficulty approaching it.

Members of the board of regents were to join school officials on the platform for the 1:15 p.m. memorial services today in McDonald Gymnasium.

Classes were dismissed at the 7,000-student school for the memorial service for Coach Tyrus "Ty" Tecrell and the five team members—Randy Clewis of Palestine, Don DeLaune of LaMarque, Mike Favazza of Beaumont, John Richardson of Beaumont and Waverly Thomas of Galveston.

A baseball game between the Lamar Tech team and Northwestern State College at Natchitoches, La., scheduled for today at Alexandria, La., was cancelled.

The Lamar Tech mile relay team—DeLaune, Favazza, Thomas and Richardson—broke the Drake record with a 3:07.3, one-tenth second under the old mark, but placed second to Texas whose team made it two seconds faster.

The twin-engine Beechcraft Queenair, piloted by E. W. McCall of Beaumont, left Des Moines at 7:02 p.m. CST Saturday and crashed at 12:24 a.m. CST Sunday.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the pilot had made a routine request for landing clearance and "there was no indication it was in any kind of trouble."

Airport Manager Lee Sheffield said the plane was owned by Cecil Anderson of Beaumont, whom he called "a booster for the Lamar Tech team."

Lamar Tech's performer in the decathlon held at Ames, Iowa, in conjunction with the Drake Relays, Johnny Fuller, returned to Beaumont by commercial airline Friday.

NEW ALLIED OFFENSIVE

Supplies Captured As Enemy Flees

SAIGON (AP) — A big U.S. force that plunged by helicopter into what its commander called "real paydirt" has found at least one enemy camp and supplies in the Shau Valley, but the enemy troops scattered before the invaders.

The 10-day-old offensive, not announced until Sunday night, continues under a security blackout. Correspondents with the troops were permitted to report only actions in the first three days of the assault.

The helicopters swarmed in April 19 carrying thousands of U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division troopers and equipment into what has been a North Vietnamese stronghold for two years. Enemy guns brought down or damaged 30 of the choppers.

"Hell, I've never lost that many in weeks and weeks," said Maj. Gen. John J. Tolson, commander of the Flying Horsemen. "By far it's the hottest place we've ever gone into ... The old opponent gave me a big bad day."

The U.S. Command said the operation, called Delaware, was a "reconnaissance in force," indicating that the American force would smash the staging areas and supply lines and then pull out. South Vietnamese paratroopers formed a blocking force at the valley's exit toward Hue.

Despite the heavy antiaircraft fire, casualties on both sides were reported relatively light in the first three days, with fewer than 50 North Vietnamese and 20 Americans killed. Sixteen U.S. helicopter crewmen were wounded.

After the landing, Pfc. Jimmy R. Rose of Smithfield, N.C., and Sgt. Hillary Craig of Winter Park, Fla., followed a communications wire to a 30-building enemy camp evacuated so quickly that laundry still was hanging on lines.

The American troops found dozens of 50-gallon drums of gasoline, four Russian trucks, 300 Chinese automatic rifles still in crates, hundreds of artillery and antiaircraft rounds, a ton of rice and 100 Russian mine detectors.

The 25-mile-long valley near the Laotian border and southwest of Hue, has been a staging point for North Vietnamese troops since they overran a U.S. Special Forces camp in it two years ago.

"This is one of the most important pieces of real estate the enemy has," said Gen. Tolson.

He said he believes some of the enemy antiaircraft guns — 37mms that can hit aircraft at 10,000 feet—are radar-guided. Some of the American helicopters were hit at 6,000 feet.

Despite the losses, "the operation so far has been highly successful," Tolson said. "We hold the key terrain."

SHIELD AGAINST SOVIETS, CHINESE

Dual Purpose For Sentinels

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's chief scientist has provided the first official acknowledgment that the $5 billion U.S. defense planned against any Red Chinese missiles also is a first step toward an anti-Soviet shield.

Dr. John S. Foster, director of Defense Research and Engineering, told the Senate Armed Services Committe the proposed antiballistic missile (ABM) system, called Sentinel, could be the foundation for an expanded defense against the Soviets.

Foster made clear, however, that current U.S. plans and capabilities are only to try to handle the rather rudimentary missiles Red China is expected to have in the early 1970s.

Former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara told the same group the Sentinel system was technically capable of intercepting Soviet missiles but only in small numbers.

As he had repeatedly since last fall's announcement on the ABM decision, McNamara emphasized the anti-Chinese character of the system.

Testimony by both men came in early February but was publicly released only recently.

The issue came up when Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., asked Foster to explain why the administration seemed to be ignoring the Soviet missile threat while tackling a lesser Chinese threat.

Foster replied: "I believe that the action the United States is now taking is all the action the United States can take, whether in an attempt to stop an all-out Soviet attack, or whether to provide damage denial against a Chinese ICBM ... "

Symington: "But if I may say so, the Department of Defense specifically stated it was to protect us from China."

Foster: "That is correct, sir."

Symington: " ... Are you saying that actually it is the first step that we could take in protection against the Soviets?"

Foster: "The statement that was made by Mr. McNamara, and concurred in by Gen. (Earle G.) Wheeler was that this deployment is consistent with the first phase of a deployment against the Soviet Union."

Foster said he didn't recommend "thickening" the antimissile defense because the U.S. does not now possess the means of intercepting huge numbers of ICBMs nor an adequate ability to sort electronically among clouds of chaff and dummy warheads which might surround Soviet missiles.

But he said Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, recommends going from the $5 billion system to an eventual shield that would provide specific protection for 50 major U.S. cities.

Pair Are US' Richest

NEW YORK (AP) — A Fortune magazine survey report says the two richest Americans —the only ones who probably can be listed as billionaires— are oilman J. Paul Getty and financier Howard Hughes.

The May issue of the magazine says Getty, 75, and Hughes, 62, are followed by six other Americans who are half billionaires and 153 who have a net worth of more than $100 million each.

The Fortune article estimates Getty's visible assets at $957,404,289 conservatively and $1,338,417,316 liberally.

It estimates Hughes' wealth at $985,500,000 conservatively and $1,373,000,000 liberally.

Fortune says that a similar survey it made in 1957 estimated Getty's wealth between $700 million and $1 billion, and Hughes' wealth between $200 million and $400 million.

Listed in the $200 million to $300 million class are New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his brothers—David, John and Laurence, all of New York, and Winthrop, governor of Arkansas.

Fellow Students Blockade Sit-In

NEW YORK (AP) — An impatient faction of the Columbia University student body tightened today a blockade to squeeze off a protest by fellow students that has disrupted the Ivy League school for a week.

Columbia called off classe again as efforts continued to end the student sit-in at five buildings.

But some students eager for the school to return to normal formed what they called the Majority Coalition to end the protest and threw up a blockade around Low Memorial Library Sunday night.

They tightened it this morning, saying they were cutting off all food and medical supplies for about 100 protesters inside. About 200 students manned the blockade.

As the sky lightened over Columbia on the seventh morning of the protest, the campus was in a state of disarray. Red flags flew from the roofs of two of the five occupied buildings. Several spots on campus had turned into a bivouac area.

A group of students awakened from spending a night in the open on the campus and began to brew coffee opposite the sundial near the library. Others did calisthenics in groups.

King Olav Tours Texas' HemisFair

SAN ANTONIO (AP)— Norway's King Olav V. Sunday became the first reigning monarch to visit the grounds of San Antonio's HemisFair world's fair.

The visit was marked by a scarcity of royal comments and was threatened by turbulent Texas skies that equalled the intensity of a 21-gun salute with rolling thunder as the royal party left the fairgrounds.

Olav, accompanied by Gov. John B. Connally, made stops at the ceremonial plaza of the fair for the 21-gun salute and playing of the national anthems of Norway and the United States, visited the U.S. Pavilion and the Institute of Texan Cultures.

A marching band preceded the royal entourage, with a musical repertoire ranging from "The Eyes of Texas" to San Antonio."

The king saw the Norwegian section in the Institute of Texan Cultures, including one display of the first disc plow used by settlers in the 1800s to till the Texas soil. The disc was invented by Ole Ringness.

Some 2,000 onlookers were on hand, many with cameras, for the greeting ceremonies. Many had trouble singling out the stocky Olav— dressed in a double-breasted dark suit with soft-soled loafer shoes and blue socks—from his entourage.

The San Antonio stopover was part of a tour of the United States for Olav, 64.

DEAR ABBY: My husband (I'll call him Ted) is a salesman. We've been married for 20 years. Last month, while Ted was on the road, he had a severe heart attack. His brother called me and said that Ted was extending his business trip a "few extra days" and for me not to worry, but I knew something was wrong and I finally got his brother to tell me that Ted as in the hospital with a heart attack. Naturally I immediately went to be with Ted.

I stayed for three weeks and when I asked the hospital cashier for Ted's bill, I saw his admittance form, revealing that he had had the heart attack at 2 a.m. in the apartment of a woman.

She called the ambulance and he was hospitalized, using her ADDRESS. Also, instructions were left that his bill should be sent to HER house.

When I asked Ted to explain it, he said he didn't know the woman, that she was just the AMBULANCE DRIVER!

I have since found a number of cancelled checks in my husband's desk made out to this woman, going back over a year. Now Ted says he owed her money and was just paying her back, and he refuses to talk about it further.

I spoke with this woman on the phone and found out that she is a divorcee. She says she and Ted are "good friends."

Ted will be discharged next week. His doctor gave me instructions on how to care for him during his convalescence. The doctor assumes that my husband will be coming home for a three month bed rest. Under the circumstances, I'm not so sure I want him.

Whereas his heart has been damaged, mine has been broken. What should I do?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If you say your heart has been "broken" — you must still care something for Ted. In which case, let him come home, and talk things over when his heart is stronger—and yours is lighter.

DEAR ABBY: I just finished reading the letter from SECOND FIDDLE. She is filled with resentment because her husband has pictures of his first wife all over the house and asked that he be buried beside her when he died.

I married my husband two years after his first wife died. He also had pictures of "her" all over the house. Before we were married, he told me that he had loved his first wife very much but he said he loved ME, too.

He passed away recently, and altho our years together were few in number, they were happy. And during our marriage I felt no resentment whatsoever toward his first wife. In fact, I would have thought something was terribly wrong had he not cherished loving memories of her, as they were married for many years. Their marriage was right before God and man. And so was ours.

SECOND WIFE BUT NOT SECOND FIDDLE

DEAR ABBY: Your "Confidential to Fort Worth Willy" was good. You said, "No man works as hard for his money as the man who marries or it."

However, I happen to be a living example of a man who married more dough in 15 minutes than I could have earned in a lifetime. Besides, it's just as easy to love a rich woman as a poor one. Sign me,

Pope Paul Touched By Visit To Pilgrms

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI wept for a few moments Sunday as he spoke to a group of pilgrims from his home town about the last years of his mother's life.

The 70-year-old pontiff celebrated a Mass in St. Peter's Basilica for pilgrims from north Italy.

Then he spoke to representatives of a women's Roman Catholic organization from the diocese of Brescia, saying:

"We cannot leave this group without a word or two because Brescia is the spiritual and cultural home of my birth. My mother belonged to this very same group and dedicated the last years of her life in working for it."

It was then that the pontiff wept before giving his blessing.

My home is ALL ELECTRIC!

Chickens need to be warm in winter and cool in summer which calls for "all electric" chicken houses. Electric heating in the brooder house in winter months is clean and safe. Electric fans in the hot summer months keep the air circulating and keep appetites hearty. Later on, electric lights will wake these future fryers early and keep them eating later toward a faster more tender maturity. By furnishing low-cost dependable electric power, the member-owned Midwest Electric Cooperative has made many commercial and industrial pursuits feasible for rural areas that once were impossible.

The Midwest Electric Cooperative is thus strengthening the rural economy . . . helping provide more jobs in the rural areas and Helping Texas Grow.

Snyder Native Is Director Of Navy War College Dept.

CAPT. COLEMAN H. SMITH

SIXTH FLEET, Mediterranean — Captain Coleman H. Smith, USN, Chief of Staff and Aide to the Commander U. S. Sixth Fleet since January, 1967, has received orders assigning him to the Naval War College, Newport, R. I. He is scheduled [illegible] Director of the College's War Gaming Department in mid - June.

Born in Snyder on Oct. 31, 1917, Captain Smith attended high school at Austin, and later John Tarleton College at Stephenville, and the University of Texas at Austin. Prior to entering the Midshipman School at Northwestern University in 1940, he travelled in Europe and Mexico as a free-lance news correspondent and was employed as a reporter on several Texas daily newspapers.

His first duty assignment, after receiving his commission as an Ensign on March 14, 1941, was in the USS Arcturus (AKA-1) which participated in the first large American convoy carrying Marines to Iceland in the summer of that same year. From the Arcturus he was transferred to the USS Hydrographer which was engaged in making oceanographic surveys of the waters around the new lend - lease bases in Newfoundland.

The turbulent years of World War II found him in command of three antisubmarine warfare ships, the USS PC-777, a USS PCE-877 and the USS Clarence L. Evans (DE-113), serving in the Atlantic, European and Pacific theatres.

Following World War II his duties included assignments to Green Cove Springs, Fla., where he was the Officer in Charge of Officer Demobilization; Commanding Officer of USS Jeffers (DMS-27 in 1947; Commander Mine Squadron Four in 1948 and between 1950 and 1952 a tour on the Staff of the Joint American Military Advisory Group in London, England. In 1953, after his promotion to the rank of Commander, he became Liaison Officer with the Research and Development Board in the Office of the Secretary of the Navy at Washington, D. C., and later served as Special Assistant to the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Research and Development.

Returning to sea in 1955 he commanded USS Walker (DDE 517), operating with the Seventh Fleet. After receiving post graduate training at the Naval War College in 1957, he served two years on the Joint Staff of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington, Captain Smith was promoted to his present rank in July 1960 and assumed command of Destroyer Division 322 Then in July, 1961, he became Chief of Staff and Aide to Commander Destroyer Flotilla Four and Chief of Staff for Commander Task Force 140 (Project Mercury Recovery Forces). In this capacity he participated in the planning and direction of the recovery of all the astronauts who flew in the Mercury Program.

In March, 1963, he commanded the Atlantic Fleet Antisubmarine Warfare Tactical School at Norfolk, Va. This was followed by a 1964-65 tour of duty as Commander Destroyer Squadron 36 — his eighth sea command — and a tour of duty as Assistant Chief of Staff for Operations for the Commander in Chief, U. S. Naval Forces, Europe, in London from 1965 through 1966, before his assignment to the Sixth Fleet in January, 1967.

Captain Smith is authorized to wear the following medals: American Service Medal; World War II Campaign Medals (worn in order earned); American Service Campaign Medal; European - African - Middle Eastern Campaign Medal and Asiatic - Pacific Campaign Medal; and Navy Occupation Service Medal (worn in order earned); Victory Medal (World War II); National Defense Service Medal; and Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal.

Captain Smith is married to the former Mary Melnitz of Menton, France. They have no children.

Huge Turtles Invade Beach Near Tampico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Federal authorities rushed marines and other armed forces personnel to the beaches near Tampico to welcome a seaborne invasion.

First word of the invasion, an annual affair involving turtles, reached authorities Friday when officials in Barra de Calabazas reported 10,000 of the huge turtle had arrived to lay their eggs.

Thousands more are expected before the end of the egg laying season.

Since turtle eggs are considered a delicacy in many Mexican cities, authorities have ordered armed personnel to patrol the beaches in order to protect the species.

Held In Death Of 5 Children

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP) — Thomas Charles Fuller, 18, is being held in Coles County jail without bond for a preliminary hearing Tuesday on charges of murdering three brothers and two sisters of a girl he reportedly dated.

The youth was arrested Sunday near Eastern Illinois University some 13 hours after the five children of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox were shot to death outside their home near Mattoon.

The dead children were found Saturday night in and around a barn on the family farm. Deputy Coroner Jess Caudill said each of the victims had been shot in the head with a small caliber pistol and the two girls' heads also had been battered.

Killed in the slaughter were Lewis, 16; Theresa, 9; Mary Catharine, 8; Gary, 7, and Kenneth, 5.

Police said a teen-age daughter, Louise, 16, was home at the time of the slayings but was unharmed. Friends of the family said Louise, whose twin brother, Lewis, was killed, had been dating Fuller.

Authorities declined to discuss possible motives for the slayings and said they had no comment on whether the brown-haired youth made any statements.

Fuller offered no resistance when he was seized by police near the university in Charleston, which is some 10 miles east of Mattoon. Police aid he was carrying a .22-caliber revolver.

Police said Cox, a construction worker, and two elder sons were working on a truck several miles away from the two-story white frame farmhouse when the murders took place. His wife and the oldest daughter, Mrs. Christine Cline, 21, of Chicago, took another of the Cox family's 11 children to Mattoon for treatment of a burn.

Besides Mrs. Cline, one other child does not live at home.

When Mrs. Cline returned to the farm to drop off her mother, Fuller asked for and received a ride back to Mattoon, police said.

Holder's No Hitter Halts Brownfield 4-0

Steve Holder, the talented Tiger junior, threw a no-hitter at Brownfield's Cubs Saturday afternoon on the Towle Park diamond as Snyder remained in contention for the 3-AAA district baseball crown with a 4-0 victory.

"He pitched flawlessly and almost had a perfect game," said Snyder Coach Speedy Moffett.

Only one Cub run reached first base — on an error in the fourth inning.

The little right hander fanned seven and walked none. He beat Ruben Garcia, the pitcher many coaches regarded as the best hurler in the league.

Garcia also turned in a creditable mound performance scattering seven hits over six innings. He fanned nine and walked two in the losing role.

Holder's mates tallied one run in the 1st, another in the 4th, and two in the 6th to wrap up the decision.

Ronnie Lewis singled and scored on another single by Mickey Almond and a subsequent error by the shortstop in the first frame.

The second run resulted from a double by Jim Patrick, an error by the pitcher, and a single by Larry Wadzeck in the 4th inning.

Another bobble hurt the Cubs in the 6th. Patrick singled and Richie Thompson took a walk. Both runners advanced on an error and Steve Moffett drove them in with a single.

Leading the Tiger attack were Ronnie Lewis and Jim Patrick. Ronnie collected two singles in two appearances at bat while Patrick hit safely twice in three trips to the plate. One of his hits was a double.

The Tigers host Dunbar at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Houston Falls Twice To Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs' extra-base punch has given Leo Durocher some needed relief . . and temporarily transformed the Vulture into a vacuum cleaner.

Phil Regan, the former Vulture of the Los Angeles Dodgers' bullpen, tidied up in both ends of Chicago's 8-4, 5-2 doubleheader sweep over Houston Sunday in his first appearances for the Cubs.

Regan, traded from the Dodgers to Chicago last Tuesday, protected sizeable leads in the eighth inning of each game as Durocher's Cubs flattened the Astros with a 22-hit barrage that included four doubles, five triples and a home run.

A week ago Sunday, in his final relief stints for the Dodgers, the 31-year-old right-hander picked up two victories in a twin bill against the New York Mets.

In National League single games, St. Louis' high-flying Cardinals trimmed Pittsburgh 4-2 for their sixth straight victory, San Francisco downed the Dodgers 6-1 behind Gaylord Perry's five-hitter, the Mets nipped Cincinnati 6-5 for unbeaten rookie Jerry Koosman's fourth triumph and Philadelphia shaded Atlanta 4-3.

Glenn Beckert, Don Kessinger, Lou Johnson and Adolfo Phillips led the Cubs past Houston for an 8-8 season mark. Chicago has won five of its last six starts.

Beckert drilled two singles and his first 1968 homer in the opener. Kessinger stroked four hits, including a triple, in the twin bill and seized the National League batting lead with a .393 mark.

Johnson went 5-for-8 in the day, with a triple and two doubles, and Phillips was 4-for-7, with two triples and a double.

Regan pitched two hitless innings in relief of first game winner Joe Niekro and held the Astros to one hit — a bases-empty homer by Doug Rader — in protecting Ken Holtzman's first victory over the final 1 2-3 innings of the nightcap.

Dal Maxvill poked a tie-breaking seventh inning single for his first RBI of the season and subsequently scored on a passed ball, leading the Cards past Pittsburgh. Left-hander Steve Carlton stopped the Pirates on five hits and Mike Shannon drove in two St. Louis runs with a single and homer.

Willie McCovey cracked a two-run homer and run-producing single as the Giants subdued the Dodgers. Perry struck out eight and had a shutout until Willie Davis homered in the seventh. It was the first earned run off San Francisco pitching in 25 innings.

Jerry Grote paced the Mets' attack with three hits und two RBI. The Reds chased Koosman in the eighth, when Lee May unloaded a two-run homer, but Met relievers Danny Frisella, Billy Short and Ron Taylor combined to preserve the rookie southpaw's perfect record.

Pitcher Rick Wise delivered Philadelphia's deciding run with a ninth inning double, but needed relief help from Dick Farrell in the bottom of the ninth after being tagged for a two-run homer by Hank Aaron. Bill White homered for the Phillies, who have won seven of their last nine.

Ellis Gets Heavy Nod

OAKLAND (AP)—The underdog has his day in the heavyweight boxing division and most of the world now has somebody to call champion.

Jimmy Ellis, 28-year-old father of six, laid claim to the World Boxing Association title Saturday night when he won a split decision over Jerry Quarry of Bellflower, Calif. in the WBA tournament final.

Ellis, of Louisville, was the underdog going into every one of his tournament fights, including the 15-round whipping of the 22-year-old Quarry.

Who's next for Ellis, who was nearly unheard of before the tournament?

"I want to be a fighting champ," Ellis said.

"I think all the fighters in the tournament and those in the Top Ten deserve a chance."

"I have two words for Joe Frazier," said Ellis' manager Angelo Dundee, "Al Jones. He is my policeman and the Florida champion. And he has the same record as Frazier, 21.0."

Jones is another fighter managed by Dundee.

Frazier defeated Buster Mathis and is recognized as the champion by New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maine and Massachusetts.

Ellis said he would like to fight undefeated Casius Clay, for whom he was a sparring partner and from whom the WBA title was lifted because of Clay's conviction of draft evasion.

Mothers Meet

All mothers who have boys enrolled in the Little League and Farm League baseball program are urged to attend a meeting at Snyder Savings and Loan Community Room at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Amateurs Respected

BOURNEMOUTH, England (AP) — The giant killing feats of British tennis star Mark Cox could make a lot of difference to the lives of both professional and amateur players in the next few months.

Cox, 24, is the amateur who upset two professionals, Pancho Gonzalez and Roy Emerson, in the world's first open tournament—the British Hardcourts Championship.

More open contests are on the way. And the pros are working on the assumption that there are more Mark Coxes lurking around the tennis courts of Europe.

Net Team Fares Well

SAN ANGELO — Snyder's Junior Tennis Team placed second out of a field of 14 entered in the Tournament here last weekend. The first place trophy went to Lincoln Junior High of Abilene. Lincoln scored 25 points, and Snyder tallied 22.

Coach Bill Boles of Snyder said Max Falls won the 9th grade singles crown, and Mike Boles took the 7th grade singles title. Jim Fred Liner and Mark Hargrove won the 7th grade doubles championship.

About 15 members of the Snyder team participated in the tourney.

Eloy Wins At Lubbock

Eloy Benitez, Snyder's strong distance runner, took first place in the mile run at the State Qualifiers Track Meet in Lubbock Saturday.

The Tiger junior bested Sweetwater's Kenneth Monroe, who beat him in the regional at Odessa. However, Eloy had beaten the Pony runner in the district meet.

Eloy's winning time was 4:33.2. Second place went to Sammy Romero of Lubbock, who was clocked in 4:35.1. Monroe also was timed in 4:35.1. It was a close and exciting race with Benitez beating his opponents in the stretch.

Benitez will compete in the State Track Meet at Austin next weekend along with Morris Smith, the Tigers' 440 yard man.

Texlas Gals Take Lead

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Five women from Louisiana and Texas, who met at a bowling tournament last summer and decided to compete in this year's Woman's International Bowling Congress, shot into the Division I team lead Sunday night.

Calling themselves Texlas, Joyce Castille and Bernadine Pauley, both of Sulphur, La., and Jane Stepp, Nell Knight and Mary Murphy, all of Houston, rolled a 2744.

This was 50 pins more than Columbia 300 of San Antonio bowled when it took first place April 11.

Texlas, paced by Knight's 608, gave the 900-average teams something to shoot at when they make their WIBC appearances next month. Texlas entered with an 850 average.

There were no other first-place changes in the two divisions Sunday.

Shirley Jacobson of Topeka, Kan., tossed a 644 for fourth place in Division I singles. She had games of 234 and 225 before finishing with a 185.

Lakers Sink Boston Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Boston's Celtics and the Los Angeles Lakers head East again all square in their National Basketball Association playoff series with the condition of Jerry West's injured ankle the big question.

"I don't think it's badly hurt," said the Lakers' superstar of the sprained left ankle he suffered in the final minute of his club's 118-105 victory over Boston which put the set at 2-2.

Dr. Robert Kerlan said more would be known today about the injury. It occurred in a collision with John Havlicek after West had scored 38 points in the Lakers' coachless triumph.

Los Angeles mentor Bill van Breda Kolff was thumbed from the premises by referee Mendy Rudolph after collecting two technical fouls with eight minutes left and the score tied 55-55 in the third period.

Missions Move Into 1st Place

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Antonio Missions, winner of four of their last five games, moved into first place in the Texas League Western Division for the first time since the opening night of the season.

Amarillo, on top most of the time since the season opened nearly two weeks ago, dropped to third place, one game behind the Missions, and Albuquerque climbed to second, one-half game back.

The changes came about Sunday when San Antonio's Gary Ross blanked the Memphis Blue on four hits 4-0, Amarillo lost to Arkansas 6-4 and Albuquerque whipped Shreveport 9-2.

In the other game between the last-place clubs in each division, Dallas-Fort Worth of the Eastern defeated El Paso 8-4.

The losses by Shreveport and Memphis did not affect their one-two positions in the Eastern Division.

San Antonio's Ross helped send the Blues to their fifth consecutive defeat by driving in two runs with a double and a single and scoring a run when Memphis pitcher Jerry Hinsley let a return throw from the catcher bounce off his glove and roll away from the mound.

Arkansas came from 3-0 and 4-3 deficits to tie the game twice and finally punch over two runs after two outs in the eighth inning to beat Amarillo.

The Travelers' Quique Rivera smashed a pinch-hit double to score Len Boyer and Sonny Ruberto with the winning runs.

Amarillo scored three times in the fourth inning without knocking the ball out of the infield. The damage was done with two walks, three errors and a fielder's choice.

Mike Christino homered twice for Arkansas.

Dick Armstrong tossed a six-hitter—only three hits after the first inning—to record his third victory without defeat for Albuquerque.

Shreveport had the bases loaded in the first inning but the only run the Braves could score was Walt Hriniak's two-out homer.

Dallas-Fort Worth's Rick Piernini had a somewhat similar pitching experience. Four of El Paso's seven hits came in the first two innings when the Sun Kings acquired a 3-1 lead.

ZARLEY'S CHARGE IS ONE STROKE SHORT

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—It is a little disconcerting when you know you are playing as well as ever but the man playing with you is making eagles and birdies, chipping away at your once wide lead.

That was the experience of Miller Barber, a tour veteran, as he moved toward a $20,000 prize at the end of the line Sunday if he could just outlast Kermit Zarley who was surging grimly down the stretch.

Barber made it although he may never be the same again. The chunky man from Sherman, Tex., won the $100,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic with a closing par 70 for 270—10 under for the tournament.

He got there by one stroke over the youthful Zarley, who banked an eagle with a 175-yard six iron approach shot on the 10th hole, and got four birdies on the remaining holes for a six-under-par 64 competitive record over the 7,086-yard Preston Trail course.

Barber had a five-stroke lead over Harold Henning of South Africa going into the final round and seven over the slightly noticed Zarley, former University of Houston golfer from Seattle, Wash.

Barber ended with a bogey on 18 but it was after Zarley had missed a 25-foot putt by inches that would have given him a tie.

Henning, the putting star of the tournament, using only 110 in the 72 holes, gained two strokes on Barber in the final round by shooting a 68 and took down third money with 273.

Zarley won $12,000 with a 271, while Henning received $7,500.

The classic drew 30,000 fans Sunday, which officials claimed was the largest ever to see a tournament in America, had total attendance for four days of 94,000 and total gate receipts of $205,093.

Byron Nelson, former Texas golf great for whom the tournament was named, expressed his pleasure it turned out so well.

ChiSox Win Again, Yanks, Tigers Split

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox have won two of their last three games and Manager Eddie Stanky still is running in the outfield.

Stanky continued his post-game physical fitness program Sunday after Pete Ward's ninth inning homer gave the Sox a 3-2 decision over the Minnesota Twins.

The routine, which started in the middle of Chicago's season-opening 10 game losing streak, sends Stanky jogging across the outfield swinging a lead bat after each game. Then the little skipper retires to the trainer's room for meditation.

He could have had nothing but good thoughts Sunday after Ward's poke beat Dean Chance.

In other American League games, California nipped Oakland 4-3, Washington traded shutouts with Cleveland, winning 1-0 and then losing 2-0, New York split with Detroit, winning 2-1 and losing 3-2, and Boston blanked Baltimore 3-0 before the Orioles won the second game, 6-1.

Chance was nursing a 2-1 lead on homers by Harmon Killebrew and Ted Uhlaender going into the ninth but Luis Aparicio opened with a single and after Russ Snyder lined out, Ward connected.

The homer was Ward's fourth of the season and boosted his batting average to .340.

"We've been in every game but we've just been falling one hit short," said Ward, who made sure the Sox weren't one hit short this time.

And Stanky simply ran and swung his lead bat. He continued the post-game program even though he was ejected from the game in the sixth inning for protesting a third strike call.

Roger Repoz took over the American League home run lead with his sixth of the year helping the Angels beat the Athletics. Rick Reichardt also homered for California.

Sammy Ellis, with late inning relief help from Minnie Rojas, won the game—his first victory in the American League.

Mickey Mantle doubled home the tying run and then carried in the winner on Roy White's single as the Yankees rallied for two eight hinning runs and a 2-1 victory over the Tigers in the first game.

In the nightcap, New York rallied, taking a 2-1 lead in the eighth but Bill Freehan and Jim Northrup hammered ninth inning homers that won it for the Tigers.

Jim Hardin's six-hitter beat Boston in the second game and earned a split for the Orioles after Jose Santiago pitched a four-hitter for the Red Sox in the opener.

Consecutive doubles by Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell set up a three-run Oriole rally in the fourth inning of the nightcap and Hardin held the Red Sox at bay. Carl Yastrzemski's single drove in Boston's only earned run in the opener.

Phil Ortega and Luis Tiant swapped two-hitters with Ortega scoring the only run in the Senators' first game victory and Tony Horton supplying the runs for the Indians' second game triumph.

Ortega bowled over Cleveland catcher Duke Sims in a home plate collision for the first game's only run. Ken McMullen's single, snapping an 0-for-17 slump, drove it in. Horton doubled and scored on Tommy Harper's seventh inning single, snapping a scoreless duel in the second game. Then Horton homered for an insurance run in the ninth inning.

Nixon Civil Rights Stand: To Develop Black Capitalism

By AUSTIN SCOTT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon's suggestion that whites help develop "black capitalism" puts him well on the way to backing a small but apparently growing faction of Negroes who oppose the idea of "handouts" from whites.

Civil rights leaders have been saying for decades that Negroes want an equal chance with whites to compete in America's capitalistic system. They have applied pressure mainly on white liberals to break down the twin barriers of legal segregation and racist attitudes.

The new faction believes the traditional approach has run its course. It is unrealistic, they argue, to expect profit-minded businessmen to broaden welfare programs or spend money to set up businesses in slums.

Furthermore, they say, such programs don't get at the heart of the Negro's problem—a legacy of psychological damage dating from slave days that leaves many Negroes with so little faith in their own ability that they can't compete in a white world.

Rather than appeal to liberals, they say, Negroes are now in a position to get conservatives to support self-help programs that are better for Negroes in the long run. It can be done, they argue, by appealing to the same instinct that has made the United States a booming concern—the profit motive.

A leading spokesman for this viewpoint is Dr. Thomas Matthew, a Queens, N.Y., neurosurgeon who has founded a string of small "self-help" businesses in New York and Watts that currently employ 900 persons.

His National Economic Growth and Reconstruction Organization—the words chosen to spell NEGRO—sells bonds that pay 6.5 per cent interest.

With $400,000 sold so far, he has financed a hospital, a bakery, a clothing factory, a chemical factory, and a construction company—all very small, and all geared to employing Negroes who were formerly on welfare.

Thus, Matthew argues at one stroke you give whites a profitable investment, borrow their money with no strings attached, cut welfare and crime costs, and supply a kind of self respect that no amount of government-guaranteed annual income can provide.

He gets away with it by cutting a number of corners. For example, his wages are generally very low, a fact he justifies by claiming that the rates are higher than welfare.

He also says his graduates can go into the white world and sell newly-learned skills are prevailing rates.

Matthew is slowly building support for his approach, an approach which he concedes would not have been possible a decade ago.

His representatives have been in touch with representatives from both the Robert F. Kennedy and Nixon camps.

Dr. Matthew's approach in some ways harks back to an old argument of Booker T. Washington, who wrote in the Kansas City Journal around 1909 that Negroes should "try to forget the uglier features of racial antagonism and give more thought to improving their condition in those spheres in which such antagonism does not so strongly assert itself."

Nixon, whose credentials have never been very strong with Negroes, may well have found his strongest civil rights argument.

Boyle's Mail Is Filled With Facts

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Death is the chief price paid by narcotics addicts. The mortality rate among them is 20 times that for nonaddicts the same age. It results from the physiological stress caused by the drugs as well as accidental overdoses and infections stemming from dirty needles.

I never feel at a loss for words. You shouldn't. There are now at least 600,000 words in the English language—and some authorities put the number at a million. And, of course, you are always free to make up new words yourself. Shakespeare did.

College football became so brutal in the early years of the century that President Theodore Roosevelt, a rough and ready man himself, was among a group which considered trying to abolish the sport. The invention of the forward pass opened up the game and helped save it.

Ownership of U.S. industry is widening steadily. At least one in every 10 Americans now is a corporation stockholder. Half of those who own shares are members of families in the $10,000-a-year bracket.

Trees are thirsty. During its growing season a 40-foot tree will drink through its roots 19 gallons or more of water each day.

Having trouble keeping up with your reading matter? Small wonder. Every 60 seconds around the clock the world's printing industry turns out 2,000 pages of books, newspapers and periodicals. And that doesn't even include junk mail or office memos.

Ignorance of the law is said to be no excuse—but it should be. There are at least two million laws in force in the United States, and even attorneys don't know what they are until they look them up.

Hints for living: Beware of imbibing coffee when it is too hot. It is harder on your clothing as well as your insides. Stains from hot coffee are more difficult to remove from fabrics than those caused by lukewarm coffee.

Fun with arithmetic: an usual number is 142,857. If you multiply it by two, or by three, or by four, or by five, or even by six, you'll still get the same digits, although in different order, of course. Get out your pencil and see.

Rehabilitated: Should one ever fly an airplane again after suffering a heart attack? In some cases, yes. Some 250 private U.S. pilots have been reissued licenses after recovering from such ailments and proving they have been symptom-free for two years. In Sweden, captains of commercial airliners who have survived cardiac attacks may resume work, but only as copilots.

Worth remembering: "The less a fellow knows, the more eager he is to prove it to anybody who will listen."

History lesson: Four U.S. presidents have been assassinated while in office. Attempts were also made to kill four others. Can you name those in this group? They were Andrew Jackson, Theodore Roosevelt, President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Harry S. Truman.

Shan tribesmen of Burma often tattoo themselves from neck to knee with intricate designs. The tattooing began as a charm to ward off sickness and injury. Now the designs are a symbol of manhood.

Junior Editors Quiz on SMOKE SIGNALS

QUESTION: How did the Indians send smoke signals?

* * * *

ANSWER: Smoke signals were mostly in use by the Indian tribes of the west and southwest, where such signals could be seen for a long distance. To send a smoke message, the signaler would build a fire on some elevated spot and then cover it with damp grass or leaves to make it burn slowly and send up much smoke. To gain the attention of those meant to receive the message, the smoke would be allowed to go up for some time. Then the signaler would suddenly cover the fire with his blanket. He would snatch it off quickly and a puff of smoke would rise up, to make a detached blob as the signaler threw his blanket over the fire once again. The number of such puffs, their length and arrangement, made a code by which it was possible to send simple messages such as BUFFALO COMING, FRIEND, COME HERE and so on. When smoke couldn't be used, blankets were often tossed into the air or waved in certain ways to send messages. For example, if you waved your blanket from side to side in front of you, it would mean ENEMY GONE ALL CLEAR.

IS THS A REBELLION?

Anguilla Seeks Dependence

By SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

ANGUILLA (AP) — Robespierre would have loathed it. Mack Sennett would have loved it.

But few could argue that the revolution of this West Indian island of 6,000 souls is no less beguiling than its peacock-colored seas, its pillow-soft beaches and countless dusty goats.

What else can one say of a rebellion that seeks DEpendence, not INdependence? Whose first shots were fired not over redcoats at Concord but beauty queens at the Community Center? Whose weaponry includes cannon from the Napoleonic wars as liable to blow up their gunners as the enemy? Whose constitution was written by a Harvard law professor on a borrowed typewriter probably last July 4 although no one seems sure? Whose budget is fleshed out by the aid of American foundations and stamp collectors? Whose army rallies under a flag that has three orange porpoises languidly circling on a field of white and azure?

The world may laugh, but if this be rebellion, Anguilla is making the most of it.

Anguilla is a flat island of 35 square miles known almost exclusively to the National Geographic Society and the Foreign Office in Britain which has run it for 300 years.

Because the nearest British possessions are the island of St. Kitt and Nevis some 54 mile distant as the frigate bird flies, Anguilla always has been lumped administratively with them—to the constant indignation of the Anguillians.

In 1873 Britain federated its Leeward Islands in the Caribbean. Anguilla wasn't even mentioned in the act. One hundred islanders protested against being administered by Kittitians who "are utter strangers to us, ignorant of the community and careless of (our) wants." Anguillians argue that little has changed since on St. Kitts from whence British funds flowed and where the books were kept.

A year ago Britain, busy as a housewrecker dismantling the Empire, granted nominal independence to "The Associated State of St. Kitts, Nevis and Anguilla" and suddenly found itself a lion at bay by a mouse that roared. Anguilla thought the act, of which it didn't even see a copy until six weeks after it was signed, would give it internal administration.

But no such word came from St. Kitts' premier, Robert Bradshaw, a 51-year-old former sugar cane worker and labor leader who smoothes his bristling guardsman's moustache with a golden brush, likes fancy uniforms and enraged Anguilla, which has three miles of paved roads, by importing a yellow Rolls Royce to drive about St. Kitts.

To mollify Anguilla and get it in the merriment of statehood, Bradshaw sent over Miss St. Kitts and Miss Nevis shortly before the statehood act was to be signed a year ago. Instead of admiring the view, the Anguillians from the East End of the island, many of them light-skinned descendants of an Englishman named Webster who was shipwrecked there in the 17th century, descended on the Community Center and broke up the festivities. Anguilla's baker's dozen police force, most of them Kittitians, dug up some tear gas somewhere and in turn broke up the mob.

They were the shots heard 'round the world of Anguilla.

Islanders began firing at night on the police station—aiming to miss but still make their point. Meanwhile, at a predawn ceremony, the warden or administrator of the island, Winston Byron, a Kittitian, stood at attention in his pajamas while the new statehood flag—a palm tree rampant on a field of yellow, green and blue—was raised. Some days later Byron, again in his pajamas, awoke to find his house in flames. He fled the island, reportedly still in his night clothes.

There followed what has been variously described as "the fracas," "the troubles," and "the revolution." A group of Anguillans led by Ronald Webster, 41, a millionaire shopkeeper, went down to police headquarters and demanded the 60 or so men of the beefed-up force leave the island. Jumpy enough already, the fuzz dutifully decamped leaving behind some small arms including a machine gun or so, their paddy wagon and a free, for the moment, Anguilla.

"No one was hurt. We did it all with our mouths," said an islander.

Anguillians quickly rolled oil cans onto the dirt landing strip to prevent Bradshaw from flying in reinforcements—which he scarcely had—and, as Webster puts it, "declared ourselves not independent but undependent on St. Kitts."

From St. Kitts, Bradshaw declared a state of emergency.

But with only 200 or so policemen, no navy—Kittitians are almost entirely sugar cane workers, not sailors as are the Anguillians who own almost 30 sloops—and no air force—Anguilla has three aircraft that serve the island—there was little the premier could do but get on the government radio station, ZIZ, and rail at the Anguillians who listened with glee via transistor radios—Anguilla has no electricity other than a few private generators.

After spurning a peace proposal, the Anguillians decided to bring undependence on St. Kitts to a vote. The ballots had a picture of a hat for undependence and a shoe for a return to the fold. The hats won 1,813 to 5.

A seven-man council was then named and an election scheduled—which was dispensed with because no opponents could be found to run. So the little island stood tight, ready to rally to arms.

FBI Probes Rampage In El Reno

EL RENO, Okla. (AP) — Prison officials and the FBI tried today to find out what touched off an hour-long rampage Saturday night by 250 to 300 prisoners in the El Reno federal prison.

Three guards and five inmates went to hospitals. Damage was estimated at $10,000 to $15,000.

The minimum-security prison for first offenders remained quiet Sunday, with extra guards on duty.

Warden Noah Alldredge said he believes only three or four inmates managed to agitate the other rioters—one-third of the prison's 900 inmates—to the destructive rampage. He did not indicate he would pinpoint the suspected agitators.

Alldredge said he slowed down the routine of the institution Sunday and the slowdown was in effect today. He said the riot was spontaneous. The prisoners listed no grievances.

Police from all surrounding communities, all available deputy sheriffs from Canadian and Oklahoma counties and about 20 Highway Patrol troopers were dispatched at the height of the riot. They ringed the fences of the institution while off-duty prison personnel poured into the prison to quell the rioters with clubs, teargas and warning gunshots.

The three injured guards were reported improving. A doctor said all are eager to return to work "to show the inmates they're not araid." The guards are Bob Ellison, James Zivek and Billy Webb.

OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY — Carlos' Little Meixco Cafe will observe its first anniversary at its new location at 1703 Avenue S Wednesday with cut-rate prices in effect from 5 p.m. until 10 p.m. for the special Mexican dinner, regular Mexican dinner, ladies special, beef tacos, and Carlos' special Spanish steak.

Carlos' Little Mexico Set To Observe Anniversary

Carlos' Little Mexico Cafe will observe its first anniversary at its new location at 1703 Avenue S on Wednesday.

Carlos Mijares, who operates the restaurant with his wife, said he plans to offer a special for his customers in recognition of the event.

"The special is being presented in appreciation for the many fine customers we've had during the past year," he said.

On Wednesday, between 5 p. m. and 10 p.m., substantially lower prices will be in effect for the special Mexican dinner, the regular Mexican dinner, the ladies special, orders of beef tacos, and Carlos' special Spanish steak.

Regular price for the special Mexican dinner is $1.50, but Carlos is offering it for $1. Other prices lowered are as follows: regular Mexican dinner, down from $1.20 to 85 cents; ladies special, down from $1.30 to 90 cents; beef tacos, down from $1.20 to 75 cents; and, Carlos' Special Spanish steak, down from $1.75 to $1.35.

A list of the special follows.

SPECIAL MEXICAN DINNER
Includes enchiladas, tamales, chili con carne, fried beans, Spanish rice, beef tacos, ice cream or sherbet, coffee or tea.

REGULAR MEXICAN DINNER
Includes enchilada, tamale with chili, Spanish rice, fried beans, combination salad, ice cream or sherbet, coffee or tea.

LADIES SPECIAL
Includes krisp taco, guacamole salad, chili con queso, ice cream or sherbet, coffee or tea.

The tacos, of course, are loaded with delicious meat, lettuce and tomatoes. Carlos' special Spanish steak includes salad, french fries and beans.

Carlos' also offers his patrons several other attractive dishes, including chicken, seafoods, and combination plates with enchiladas, tacos or guacamole salad.

The cafe was closed last Monday and Tuesday while new coats of paint were put on the walls in the banquet room, front dining room and kitchen.

Many business and civic groups have discovered that Carlos provides a quiet, relaxed atmosphere in addition to tasty food. The interior is attractively decorated and authentic Spanish pictures enhance the atmosphere in the banquet room. Last Friday, the Jaycee-ettes met there, and Beta Sigma Phi will meet there tomorrow (Tuesday) night. Other groups, such as the Real Estate Board, also have regular meetings at Carlos'.

Ample parking and air-conditioning also add to the comfort experienced while dining at Carlos'.

Author Here For Autograph Party

Some 100 persons attended an "autograph party" at Snyder Book Store, 3904 Avenue S, Saturday night as Viola Payne, former area resident, autographed copies of her new book, "Scurry County Style."

The book was recently published by the University of Texas Press.

The author, Mrs. Payne, was raised in the Cuthbert Community across the Mitchell County line. She left Snyder during World War II, then lived in the area again for a period following the war. In 1960, she moved again and presently resides in El Paso.

Several relatives from Scurry County, Abilene, Colorado City and elsewhere attended the party. Included among them were Linda and Beverly Autry, nieces of the author. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jake Autry of Ira. The late Mr. and Mrs. Barney Autry were parents of the author.

Mrs. Payne was accompanied to Snyder by a daughter, Margaret, who lives in El Paso. Other children are John of Albuquerque, N. M. and Marvin, also of the home.

The author said she was encouraged to write by one of her teachers here. As an adult, she wrote more or less as a hobby at first.

"Writing is like the rainbow's end," she said, "—one never seems to reach the end."

Mrs. Payne said she likes stories of the Southwest. Many of her shorter works have been published in magazines and journals of the Southwest.

James Drury, Bride Postpone Honeymoon

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor James Drury, 34, and his new wife, actress Phyllis Jacqueline Mitchell, say they will postpone their honeymoon for two months.

Drury, star of "The Virginian," married Miss Mitchell, 33, Saturday at the Westwood Hills Christian Church. Drury's television series is currently in productions for next year's television season.

Texas U Asks Lyndon To Teach

AUSTIN (AP) — The state's biggest university wants a teacher, one who taught in a small grade school 40 years ago and who hasn't taught since.

He can teach as often or as little as he wants to, in any way he wants to.

The teacher at Cotulla, 100 miles southwest of San Antonio, was 20 years old in 1928. His Mexican-American pupils were so poor, he said he often brought sardines and crackers for them. The teacher was a Hill Country boy named Lyndon Johnson.

Johnson recently indicated he was anxious to teach again.

He told a group of political aides last week that he once wrote an article that was published in "a magazine of the University of Texas, where I hope to teach before long."

He has had a standing invitation since 1965 to teach at the school. University officials said after Johnson's decision March 31 not to seek re-election, they have "the deep hope" he will teach at their school.

Johnson will have a nice setting for it if he decides to get back to his first profession.

An $11.8 million complex that includes the Lyndon Baines Johnson School of Public Affairs is building at the university's Austin campus.

There is one hitch. The construction is on schedule, but the completion date is nearly a year after Johnson would leave office next Jan. 20.

The school will be ready for the spring semester of 1970. It now has 28,000 students.

Johnson may hold regular classes, conduct a seminar, give a series of lectures or teach in any way he wants to, school officials say.

The complex will contain the public affairs school, the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library (with a special presidential section for the Johnson administration papers) and the East Campus Library and Research Building. The East Campus Library s a 325,000-square-foot structure ave 100,000 square feet.
