12 Tired Business Men Decide Texas Guinan's No Nuisance

JURY ACQUITS FAMOUS NIGHT CLUB HOSTESS

Verdict of Not Guilty Returned in One Hour, Three Minutes

LITTLE GIRL 'LOSES'

If Found Guilty She Was To Have Made $50,000 Writing Story

By SAM LOVE

NEW YORK, April 11. (UP)—A federal court jury of tired business men refused to give the little girl the handcuffs and returned a verdict of "not guilty" for Texas Guinan in exactly one hour and three minutes late today.

She was charged with aiding and abetting in maintaining a nuisance at the Salon Royale night club in West Fifty-eighth street, a resort at which dry agents testified champagne and liquor flowed like water from the rock smitten by Moses.

Ten Plead Guilty

Ten defendants, including the three nominal managers of the Salon Royale, had already pleaded guilty but Miss Guinan decided to fight after she learned that she had entertained envoys of Mabel Walker Willebrandt unawares.

The government was never able to shake her contention that if liquor was served she wouldn't know about it because it's just so much colored fluid to the queen of New York's night life. It has long been Miss Guinan's boast that she couldn't tell champagne from Sloan's liniment and that you could not get either one of them down her throat without first administering ether.

Largest Crowd

The largest crowd that ever tried to gain entrance into a local federal court trial was on hand for the verdict, but the presence of Judge Edwin L. Thomas preserved order and there was no demonstration.

The dazzling defendant, fortified with an extra half pint of diamonds for the ordeal of the third and last day of her trial, was prepared to go down fighting. When that became unnecessary she bobbed to victory wise-cracking on all 12 cylinders.

Charge Miffs Her

"That judge's charge to the jury was worse that my cover charge," said Miss Guinan, meaning no offense but intending to convey that the court's vigorous words had shaken her back teeth loose from their moorings.

Later, as she was posing for a picture, she said that a New York newspaper had offered her a contract for $25,000 for a daily letter from jail.

"Another one heard about it," she said, "and doubled the offer. So I'm losing money by being acquitted."

Judge Thomas' charge to the jury, following a scathing summation of the government's case by Prosecutor Norman J. Morrison, brought no smiles to the defendant's face. The federal judge sternly told the jurors that Miss Guinan should be acquitted only if the jury "believed her so innocent that she did not know liquor was sold" in the Salon Royale.

The 12 elderly business men, who confessed at the outset of the trial that they had never been in any of her night clubs, retired at 3:44 p. m. At 4:47 they were back.

Miss Guinan, in a black costume relieved from sombreness by the glint of myraid diamonds and the soft effulgence of several ropes of pearls, had by this time recovered her roguishness.

Beams at Verdict

She opened up with her red lips and white teeth and blue eyes and turned all the radiance she could muster on the straight-faced jurors as the clerk of the court read

Man Wounded, Another Captured As Police Recover Stolen Car

One man was believed to have been wounded and his companion was captured shortly before 1 a. m. Friday by police officers who chased the automobile in which the two men were riding for several blocks.

The car in which the pair was riding belongs to C. B. Montgomery, 1106 Polk, and had been reported stolen earlier in the night. Officers Roberson and Bordon spotted the machine while cruising in the residential section and gave chase. When the pursuit went into the 1300 block on Broad street the officers opened fire. The pursued men stopped. One ran away in the darkness while the officers were bringing their car to a halt. The one arrested said his companion had been shot in the shoulder or chest. The Montgomery car was returned to the police station.

Junior C-C To Sponsor City 'Appreciation Week'

Civic Program to Tell Wichitans of Advantages of Home Town; Banquet Reset for April 30

Members of the board of directors of the junior division of the chamber of commerce Thursday night unanimously voted to sponsor a special week of civic programs the purpose of which will be to arouse the local citizenship to a "deeper appreciation of the advantages offered by Wichita Falls as a place in which to live."

The week of April 28 to May 4 was selected for "Appreciation Week." The junior division plans to prepare programs for every day during that week emphasizing the city's assets in industry, agriculture, churches, schools, cultural opportunities, etc. A number of special musical programs, including band and orchestra concerts, to which the public will be invited, are to be included in the activities of the week, it was stated. All phases of the special observance will be devoted to a revival of community spirit with the entire citizenship of the community, leaders in the movement stated.

Walter Nelson Jr., president of the junior division, said: "It is the purpose of the junior division of the chamber of commerce to make itself useful to the community from the very outset of its career. We believe that Wichita Falls people

Interstate Compacts to Fight Oil Production Peril Urged by Wilbur

Man to Interview Governors of Principal Producing States Named as First Step in New Plan

WASHINGTON, April 11. (UB)—As a means of curbing the appalling waste which threatens the oil industry with destruction, the federal oil conservation board has taken steps to regulate drilling through the formation of interstate compacts, to which the federal government would be a party.

This was revealed by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur today when, speaking for the board, he notified the American Petroleum institute that its plan to restrict production would violate the Sherman anti-trust act.

Interview Governors

The board has assigned Dr. George Otis Smith to interview governors of the dominating oil-producing states to learn their views upon such a proposal, Wilbur disclosed.

Pointing out that to close off production temporarily would merely relieve present congestion and not solve the more serious problem of long view wastes, Wilbur, in a letter to R. C. Holmes, general committee chairman of the institute, said:

"The problem appears to the board, due to the legal inhibitions, to be one in the real solution of which action must be secured from the different states. Individual state action without co-ordination would not cover the question.

Compact Suggested

"The board believes it would be worth while to renew discussion with state authorities of the three or four principal oil-producing states, particularly to learn if it is not possible for them to enter upon an interstate compact to which the federal government, through congressional action, would be a party.

"The character of such a compact would well comprise creating a joint board for the purpose of constructive conservation and thus secure the nation from the very real peril that will lie in the reckless exhaustion of our oil resources."

The initial control of development through the control of drilling is the only method by which long view wastes can be eliminated, Secretary Wilbur declared.

AID RUSHED TO STORM VICTIMS

57 Known Dead in Arkansas District

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 11. (UB)—A tornado that followed a highway destroyed homes on either side and left 57 known dead and more than 100 injured, according to figures compiled tonight. Scores of homeless were given temporary shelter in nearby villages.

Red Cross aid was being extended tonight. Governor Parnell issued a proclamation calling upon the people of the state to co-operate with the Red Cross in extending relief. Army tents, cots and blankets for the homeless will be provided by the Arkansas national guard, Col. Charles S. Garrett, assistant adjutant-gengral, announced tonight. The first shipment consisting of several hundred went to Batesville late today from Camp Pike.

The storm broke over northeastern Arkansas last night after many hours of unusually hot, sultry weather. A thickly settled rural community near the town of Swifton was literally wiped out.

A great funnel-shaped mass of inky blackness squirmed its way across the country, zigzagging from side to side, until it reached a highway known as the Poosom Trot-Sneed road. It took to the highway, following the road in a straight line.

On either side of the highway were farm houses, 35 or 40 of them, over a distance of three miles.

'Torso Mystery' Deepens After 'Dead' Woman Reports Theft of Her Radio

LOS ANGELES, April 11. (AP)—Laura Belle Davis, believed by police to have been slain and her torso thrown into the Los Angeles river, was found by deputy sheriffs this afternoon at her home here. The woman was located after she had reported the theft of her radio. She immediately was taken to the sheriff's office.

The report of the radio theft sent two officers to the address where the woman admitted she was Miss Davis.

She named Robert Bernard, suspected this morning of being implicated in the disappearance, as the radio thief. She said she had been living with Bernard since leaving her former landlady, Mrs. Mae Holsman.

Mrs. Holsman previously had told officers that the woman disappeared with Bernard, carrying a radio with her.

Explosion of the theory adopted by Captain William Bright, chief of the homicide detail, who announced earlier in the day that the identification was complete, threw the baffling case back into the mystery which has enveloped it for seven days.

Bernard still was sought as an escaped prisoner.

Southern Cross Found In Australian Bush And Famous Crew Reported 'Well'

SYDNEY, Australia, April 12. (Friday) (AP)—The airplane Southern Cross was reported found today with its crew of four men all well.

The airplane Canberra sent a message saying:

"Have found Southern Cross. All alive and well. Have dropped food."

The Canberra was one of several airplanes that had searched the wild Northwestern Australian bush for days.

The Southern Cross was said to have been located about 30 miles from the port George Mission. Another mission in the Kimberly district of Western Australia had reported that an airplane passed over it toward the southwest on March 31 and with this as the only clue the search was centered in that district for the past 12 days.

The fliers were Capt. Charles E. Kingsford-Smith and Capt. Charles I. P. Ulm, both members of the Southern Cross crew on its famous flight across the Pacific, T. H. McWilliams, radio operator, and H. A. Litchfield, navigator.

GUERILLA WAR NOW PROMISED

Caraveo and His Troops Believed in Hills

JUAREZ, Mexico, April 11. (AP)—Fear that guerilla warfare may break out in western Chihuahua was expressed in Juarez today when reports spread that Gen. Marcelo Caraveo, rebel general who evacuated the border city Tuesday night, could not be located.

General Caraveo left here with three trains, several hundred cavalrymen and supplies for an unknown destination over the Mexican Northwestern railway. It was understood that he had planned to go to Casas Grandes and then continue into Sonora to join Gen. Jose Gonsalo Escobar, chief of the revolutionary forces, in a campaign in that state. Mexican federal officials in Juarez admitted today they did not know where General Caraveo is at the present time.

The main body of the federal army under Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow or Saturday from Chihuahua. Military operations against rebels in Sonora are expected to be started from Juarez after General Almazan's arrival.

ESCOBAR KEEPS HIS PLANS COVERED UP

NACO, Ariz., April 11. (AP)—While United States troops moved toward the Sonora border from Wyoming, the revolutionary situation in northwestern Mexico remained quiet today. Whatever plans Gen. J. Gonsalo Escobar may have made regarding Naco, Sonora, he kept to himself. The supreme chief of the revolt has looked over the Naco battlefield, but today no movement of rebel troops was visible.

Bribe Attempt Count Is Voted By Legislators

BATON ROUGE, La., April 11. (AP)—The Louisiana house of representatives today adopted an impeachment count against Gov. Huey P. Long for alleged attempts to bribe legislators and then launched into testimony on others of the 19 counts against the youthful executive.

The vote was 58 to 40. Specifically the charge is that the governor offered Rep. Adolphe Gueymard and Felix Delaune remunerative employment in return for their support of administrative legislative measures.

Rules Adopted

The senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, reconvened and heard its committee report on rules of procedure. Under the rules, no charges will be tried until the house has filed all charges, with the provision that if the lower body has not completed its work by April 22 the senate would fix a date for hearing any articles adopted.

The rules further would provide that the court would not set the date of trial at a time to give the governer less than 15 days to prepare an answer.

Mr. Long would be permitted to appear in court personally and through counsel.

Vote Delayed

After the vote today the house impeachment managers announced that the vote on the count charging misuse of state funds would go over until tomorrow.

The Rev. J. V. Tinnin, pastor of the First Baptist church, called to the stand to testify as to his knowledge of the charge that Long had injected politics into the educational system, said the governor once remarked to him that he had

STORE BLAST ROCKS DETROIT

Furious Fire Follows Explosion in Building

DETROIT, April 11. (UP)—A terrific explosion wrecked the Burke furniture store in the heart of the downtown district here about 6 o'clock tonight. All available fire equipment was rushed to the scene of the fire which followed, and those who might be trapped in the debris.

Police reported three bodies removed from the ruins.

Although the store was closed at the time, several employes were reported still in the building. The store occupied four stories on a 100-foot frontage.

Neighboring buildings were rocked by the blast and windows were shattered for blocks.

Rescue workers reported two bodies taken to the city morgue. One of the dead, they said, was Roy Bemus, believed to be an employe of a dry goods store which occupied part of the building.

At least six persons were believed in the building at the time of the blast, according to police.

Among the injured were Leo Burke, 32, seriously burned about the face and hands, and Bruno Kuck, 29, cut about the face by flying debris.

Cause of the explosion was undetermined. Persons on the street at the time said the building raised up into the air and came down with a terrific crash. Confusion prevailed in the neighborhood for several minutes.

Fire apparatus and police were rushed to the scene, but the furious blaze checked attempts to enter the ruins.

A heavy rain began falling as firemen arrived.

BOBBED-HAIRED GIRL BANDIT GETS $5,000

Denver Bank Teller 'Shells Out' When Lass Seems All Business

HOLDS FUSE READY

Move to Light Explosive Package Too Much For Nervous Clerk

DENVER, Colo., April 11. (UP)—An expensively dressed, bobbed-haired girl robbed the Colorado State bank of $5,000 today and escaped.

She walked up to Teller C. E. Kenney and handed him a note which said that in one hand she had a package containing nitroglycerine and in the other a match.

The note demanded all the money in the cage.

Kenney nervously looked about him, and when the girl thought he was going to summon assistance, she started to strike the match that she held in her right hand.

Kenney motioned to her not to do it, and handed her a package of $5 bills.

"I don't care for fives," she said, calmly. "Give me all the tens and twenties you've got."

The teller handed out $5,000 in tens and twentys.

"Now don't say anything until I get out of the bank, because I'd hate to mess things up," the girl said calmly and walked out.

When Kenney and fellow workers reached the street in pursuit, the bobbed-haired girl turned out to be gray-haired. Kenney admitted his mistake, and by that time the young girl robber had disappeared.

Hard Labor May Be Sinclair's Lot

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—If Attorney-General Mitchell holds it legal, Harry Sinclair, oil magnate, probable will serve his 90-day sentence for contempt of the senate at the District of Columbia workhouse in stead of the city jail.

M. M. Barnard, superintendent of District penal institutions, said tonight that he would request a ruling as to whether prisoners sentenced for contempt can be put at hard labor. If the attorney-general holds it legal, Sinclair will be taken to the prison farm at Occoquan, Va.

"There he will be given hard work to do just like any other laborer," Barnard added.

Rockefeller's 'Pal' Loses Suit Here

'In Oil Business Before It Was Business'

The final order for the spring term of the United States district court here was entered Thursday morning when Henry Altman, 86, veteran oil man of the United States and former bunk mate of John D. Rockefeller, was ordered to pay $6,000 to the City National bank of Wichita Falls in payment of a debt held valid by the jury.

The aged oil man, still rudy and hale beneath his snow white hair, had told the court of his experiences with Rockefeller and other pioneer oil developers back in the sixties when a young lawyer in the court dared to ask him if he had ever had any experience in the oil business.

"Vy, I vas in the oil business before it vas a business," he began, recounting to Judge Atwell and the jury his adventures back in the days when he and John D., scouting in the Pennsylvania oil fields in 1861, bunked together and began the dreams which Rockefeller later realized in the Standard Oil company.

"I knew the hilly country. I vas successful back there. But when I came to Texas, all flat and dry, I could not tell about the land."

After the order was entered Mr. Altman, who was named in the suit with Sam Wasserman, his stepson, left Wichita Falls for Wyoming where he continues to live the life of a pioneer.

HOSPITAL MAY BE ENLARGED

John Sealy to Get New Buildings

GALVESTON, April 11. (AP)—Expansion of John Sealy hospital here into what will ultimately be one of the outstanding hospital plant of the country is seen from action of Mart R. Royston, representing the Sealy-Smith foundation and the University of Texas regents, who recently asked the city commission for the creation of a hospital zone by closing of streets adjacent to the present main hospital.

In presenting the petition, Mr. Royston revealed a contemplated building program of several million dollars to include clinical and laboratory facilities as well as hospital structures, and embracing further expansion of the state medical college located here.

Present plans of the foundation call for the construction this summer of a $400,000 four-story outpatient clinic, the top floor of which is to be equipped by the state at a cost of $50,000 as a memorial to the late John Sealy; erection of a nurses' home outside the seawall at a most of $200,000, to accommodate 75 to 100 additional nurses, and the general renovation of the main hospital, especially the negro addition.

Possibilities of the establishment by the state of the Texas Dental college opposite the out-patient clinic were forecast by Mr. Royston.

The state and the Sealy-Smith foundation own about six blocks adjacent to the hospital and request the formation of a zone by the closing of streets within this area. Members of the city commission declared the streets will be closed if can be legally done.

Famous Jersey Herd to Be Sold

PARIS, Texas, April 11. (AP)—The famous J. Riley Green herd of Jersey cattle will be brought to Paris and placed on sale April 20 for benefit of Lamar county farmers under an underwriting agreement signed between the Lamar County Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. J. Riley Green of Wolfe City.

The herd numbers about 70, and includes the famous Master Stroke bull, valued at $1,000, and Fairy Boy's Oxford Majesty, the original sire of the Green herd.

The cattle will be sold to Lamar county farmers as a part of a dairy development campaign. The purchasers may buy the cattle under a 12-month payment plan recently announced by Paris banks, whereby it is proposed to bring 2,500 additional dairy cows into the county.

A full-time dairy expert will be employed in Lamar county soon, B. F. Johnson, manager of the chamber of commerce, announced.

The sale of the Green herd marks the end of one of the best known herds in the United States. Mrs. Green, whose husband died two years ago, has decided to retire from the business.

AVIATOR LOST SEEKING 'FOE'

Parallel to Amundsen Case In Australia

LONDON, April 11. (INS)—A parallel of the tragic disappearance of Capt. Roald Amundsen while searching for the missing Nobile explorers in the arctic, existed today in the similar disappearance of Keith Anderson, while participating in the hunt for the missing plane Southern Cross and its four occupants in the Drysdale river district of Australia, according to information contained in an exchange telegraph dispatch from Melbourne.

Anderson and Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith were "on the outs" just as hostility existed between Amundsen and Gen. Umberto Nobile. And just as the Norwegian explorer forgot his anger to help seek his "foe" so Anderson set out to help hunt Kingsford-Smith and his three companions in the Southern Cross. Anderson himself is now missing.

Anderson recently brought legal action against Kingsford-Smith in connection with the transpacific flight of the Southern Cross.

It was Anderson who had gone ahead and inspected landing field arrangements for the flight of the Southern Cross from Oakland, Calif., to Brisbane, Australia. When the flight took place, however, Capt. Kingsford-Smith left Anderson behind and took Ulm along instead.

THE HUB

Here's energy..on tap

Eat it for breakfast, eat it for lunch—crisp, delicious Post Toasties. It digests easily into rich new energy that goes right to the spot. That's why it's called the Wake-Up Food.

And how everybody in the family likes the flavory, toasted flakes! Sweet with the wholesome natural goodness of the sun-ripened corn. Children eat Post Toasties down to the bottom of the bowl and drink up all the milk, too, while they're doing it.

Serve Post Toasties every morning with cool milk or cream and fresh fruit—it makes a perfect warm weather breakfast. Be sure it's the Wake-Up Food. It comes only in the red and yellow Post Toasties package.

BUILDING ERA HITS STAMFORD

Improvements Costing $300,000 Under Way

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, April 11.—With a building program aggregating an outlay of $300,000 either under contract of construction and additional new development projected by both the municipality and citizenship being definitely formulated, Stamford is today in the midst of the most phenomenal advancement era known to the city in a score of years. Building in Stamford during 1929 promises to set a new high peak in history of the city.

Street Program

Contractors have a large crew on the new quarter million dollar street improvement program recently authorized by the city. Forty city blocks, the greater part of which is in the newly developed residence sections, are to be paved with brick. Ten blocks of alley ways in the business district is being paved with concrete. This work was contracted for at a cost of $240,000, and is to be completed within 200 working days.

Rapid progress is being made on the new sewer mains in the business district. To meet growing demand, occasioned by continuous growth of the city, it was found necessary to lay larger sewer mains in the downtown section. This contract is costing the city $6,000.

City Hall Addition

The one-story addition to the city hall, costing $7,000, is nearing completion. The addition became necessary to care for additional motorized equipment required for use of the fire department. The building will be completed within the month.

Fifteen modern cottage homes, aggregating an investment of $60,000, are under construction in the city. The new brick building erected by L. E. Larche in South Ferguson at a cost of $15,000, has been completed, while contractors are putting the finishing touches on the beautiful funeral home of the Penick-Hughes company, on East Hamilton. The latter structure is to be classified as among the most imposing buildings in the city.

Capt. W. J. Powell of Dallas, engineer in charge of paving and sewer projects, announced today that specifications for repaving four blocks surrounding the federal building square had been completed and that contracts for this work would in all probability be considered by the city at an early date. In addition to the proposed new paving surface, supplanting the first paving laid in Stamford in 1908, the city also contemplates the laying of storm sewers to carry flood waters from the square.

New Water Plant

The city engineering department is working on specifications for construction of water filtration plant in which the city water supply, taken from Lake Penick on the Brazos river, will be treated. Stamford has in Lake Penick one of the most adequate water supplies to be found in this section of the country. The large dam across the river near Lueders impounds a lake extending up the river channel for a distance of nine miles.

The Western Produce company announce that plans for their new plant to be built on West Moran, as submitted by architects, have been accepted. Contracts for erection of the main building and installation of plant equipment are to be awarded at an early date. The plant, to be one of the largest poultry dressing and produce packing industries in West Texas, will have a capacity of 20,000 head of fowls, in addition to refrigeration facilities to handle large quantities of eggs and other perishable produce.

Mother of Five Gets Bootlegging Sentence

LOS ANGELES, April 11. (INS)—Found guilty of selling liquor, Mrs. Lubia Elsie, mother of five children, today was under sentence of one year in jail. Her husband, she said, earned but $21 a week and that she sold an occasional bottle of liquor in order to buy food and clothing for her children.

Fairview Pupils At Rotary Meet

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, April 11.—The president, Dr. Bain Leake, presided over the regular meeting of the Burkburnett Rotary club which met Tuesday at noon in the annex of the Central Christian church. The program presented was in charge of Ervin Blum and P. A. Wiggins, who secured material from the Fairview school. C. R. Roberts, superintendent of the Fairview schools, made an interesting talk regarding educational affairs. Mr. Roberts included the principal activities of the Fairview school in his talk. The following number on the program was a selection of songs presented by the members of the high school Choral club at Fairview.

President Bain Leake announced election of officers for the club would be held April 30 during the regular luncheon hour.

Consolidated Wins Debate Over Manitou

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., April 11.—Consolidated No. 1 debating team defeated the Manitou High school debaters in a contest held at Manitou Tuesday night, thus winning the county championship in class A. Consolidated No. 1 had the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That Cooperative Marketing Is the Most Potential Factor in the Economic Life of the Farmer." Judges were P. V. Ruch, A. C. Chaney and C. E. Huff.

Government Approval Given Brady Airport

BRADY, Texas, April 11. (AP)—Approval by the United States department of commerce has been given Brady's proposed airport site, located two miles south of the city limits on highway No. 9.

The field has been surveyed and will be of ample size to get an A-1-A rating, provided the necessary equipment is installed.

Quickly Stops Dangerous High Blood Pressure

Act immediately when these high blood pressure symptoms begin to show: dizziness, heart palpitation, shortness of breath on exertion, ringing in the ears and frequent headaches. Physicians and life insurance companies now regard high blood pressure as a sure indication of the presence of dangerous diseases.

The quickest and safest method to reduce high blood pressure to normal and free you from the dangerous symptoms is through the use of Bi-a-lin, a noted doctor's prescription. Bi-a-lin drives out the poisons that clog the blood vessels and overtax the heart. You feel better at once. Bi-a-lin is harmless, easy to take and guaranteed to satisfy you or money refunded. Sold by all druggists.

ROTARY CLUB HONORS SPUDS

Gardner's Hired Hands Offer Southpaw Melody

Approximately 30 Spudder vets and rookies dined with members of the Rotary club at the Kemp hotel Thursday noon when a quintet of Gardner's hired hands were sent to the firing line to present the entertainment for the occasion.

"Red" Anderson led off with a barrage of piano harmony, featuring a left-handed technique on several torrid studies in "blues." Dallas Clements, the blond ballad singer, scored a pair with "I'll Get By As Long As I Have You" and "Poor Little Glad-Rag Doll," successfully coached around the circuit by a second pianist, "Lefty" Ed Ellis. "Rabbit" Benton and Deb Garms staged a prolonged rally in the third episode, bringing the fans to their feet with a cluster of guitar and harmonica hits, including "Turkey in the Bermuda Grass." Guy Airey next introduced "Stanley" Benton, tenor, who responded with a group of singles, with Ed Ellis again furnishing the southpaw harmony at the piano. The entertainment concluded with another round of piano by Mr. Ellis. Pete Lapan and George Payne were kept warmed up in the bullpen, but time was called before their prepared oratory could be used.

Members of the Spudder squad were introduced by Mr. Airey, while numerous visiting Rotarians, including a large delegation from the Electra club, were presented by Horrace Robbins.

KGKO PROGRAM

The program to be given from station KGKO Friday night will be featured by a 30-minute entertainment by Jerry Hurt, studio manager, who will leave Saturday for San Antonio to assume direction of programs at station KTSA. A new team of entertainers, styled "Sadie and Jodie," will also appear on Friday night's program, which was announced as follows:

6:45 to 7:00—Air news.
7:00 to 7:15—Honey Boy and Sassafras.
7:15 to 7:30—Claude Stewart's orchestra.
7:30 to 7:45—Sadie and Jodie.
7:45 to 9:00—Claude Stewart's orchestra.
9:00 to 9:30—Jerry Hurt.
9:30 to 10:00—Tesco male quartet.
10:00 to 10:10—Amos and Andy.

ALTUS SCOUT AREA GROWS

Two New Troops Added to District

Special to The Record News

ALTUS, Okla., April 11.—The addition of two new troops, swelling the number of enlisted scouts to 768, is shown in the report of the Navajo Mountain council area for March.

With the new troops at Lawton and troop 14 of Altus there are now 41 in the area.

Work in the district is being supervised by 41 scoutmasters with the assistance of 43 aids. For the past month there were 163 second-class scouts, 128 first-class scouts and 477 tenderfeet.

Three overnight hikes were conducted during the month, with one executive board meeting also included. Three courts of honor, one at Hobart, one at Lawton and one at Guthrie, were held during the month. One week was devoted to the observance of health and safety with every troop in the area participating in this movement.

Special activities for the month centered around the planting of 7,000 trees at the Lugert dam across Lake Altus, when a motion picture was made of the scouts at work.

Four towns, Altus, Lawton, Hobart and Granite, are giving instruction in leather work.

Two sessions of a scoutmasters' school with 30 men enrolled were conducted at Lawton.

TEXAS CO-ED BECOMES BRIDE WHILE GRANDDAD BURNS UP WIRES

SOCIETY GIRL GETS HER MAN

But He May Not Be One She Started After

NEW ORLEANS, April 11. (AP)—Miss Bonnie Boone, young society woman of Houston, Texas, who yesterday was taken from a train as she hurried to New York admittedly to marry a childhood sweetheart, is a bride today.

The 20-year-old Rice institute co-ed was married this afternoon to Odin M. Russell in Gretna, just across the river from New Orleans.

Whether the groom is the man Miss Boone was hurrying to wed in New York was not disclosed.

Officers yesterday detained the girl at her grandfather's request, telegraphed from Houston. Her grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Stevens, came here last night to meet her, and Miss Boone's mother is to arrive tomorrow from New York.

The marriage license gave Russell's age as 25 and residence as Houston.

Jury Acquits Texas Guinan

the folded slip of paper handed to him by the foreman.

A double array of court bailiffs armed with instructions from the bench to arrest at the first sign of a demonstration effectually prevented any cheering.

A holiday aspect was apparent nevertheless, except at the table occupied by Prosecutor Morrison, chief aide to Mrs. Willebrandt, sent here for the occasion. He refused to comment, and his demeanor was one of restrained exasperation.

A few crisp words from Judge Thomas dismissed the jury and its members filed from the room. If their backs were not warmed by the flow of Miss Guinan's smile it was not her fault.

"Congratulations!" said Texas, addressing the crestfallen Morrison. "you're a perfect gentleman!"

"You're the toughest customer I ever met," the prosecutor replied, and turned his back.

Texas threw her arms around Al Kerwin, a real estate dealer, who is one of her friends. She gave him a resounding kiss. Everybody within reach received kisses.

Most of the jurors were gone before the defendant could reach them but she pumped the hands of those she could find and issued a blanket invitation to them and the newspapermen covering the trial to attend a supper tonight at the club in time as her guests.

All of a sudden Miss Guinan seemed to realize that she had just missed going to jail.

"You can't tell me there isn't a higher law," she announced solemnly. "And I know it. I knew that 12 sensible men would never convict me—who have never done a wrong thing in all of my life."

28 Years Ago Coolidge Was Poor Risk For Insurors

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 11. (INS)—Calvin Coolidge, who was the country's "healthiest president" and who is now a director of the New York Life Insurance company, was regarded as a "doubtful risk" when he applied for a policy with the company 28 years ago.

Dr. Sidney A. Clark said today that the youthful lawyer was 19 pounds underweight.

Impeachers Adopt Rules Of Procedure

"rather talk about chorus girls" than discuss the removal of a college president.

Tinnin was asked whether he talked with the governor about the "dismissal of President V. L. Roy, of the State Normal college."

"I came down on Feb. 26," he replied. "The governor said he knew I had come down to talk to him about Mr. Roy. He said he would rather talk about chorus girls. I told him Mr. Roy was a good friend of mine. The governor said there was a popular move there to remove him. I told him this was not true. I told him to send his own representative there and that if 90 per cent of students did not vote to retain Mr. Roy I would drop the matter.

"The governor said he was going to remove Mr. Roy and put a Long man in."

The witness also was questioned on the charge that the governor habitually carried concealed weapons on his person. He testified he once had seen Long with a weapon.

"It was in his hotel room here," he continued. "There was a small revolver, what in the West we called a blood poisoner. He said he carried it because he had been told once Chicago gangsters were being brought down to get him. He put it in an inside pocket of his coat and left the hotel."

AID RUSHED TO STORM VICTIMS

Monster Tornado Kills 43 In Arkansas

These houses were literally carried away and demolished. Twenty-four persons were killed outright and two score were injured in this section.

One of the houses, with five in the family, was carried high into the air and dropped in a creek bed. Two children were killed and the others injured.

Telephone and telegraph communication was broken the instant the storm struck. Throughout the night townspeople and farmers worked to clear highways and reach villages and communities in the path of the tornado.

After striking near Swifton, the storm moved northeastward through Independence county, Craighead, Greene, Cross and other counties to the Mississippi river. It swept across the Mississippi river, north of Memphis, Tenn., but its destructive force had been spent.

At another point in its path the storm followed a railroad. A passenger train engineer told of outrunning the storm when it approached from the rear of his train on the St. Louis & Iron Mountain railroad. It followed the train for several miles, the engineer said, but by sometimes attaining a speed of 75 miles an hour he was able to keep out of the monster's way.

The explanation for the tornado following the highway and the railroad is probably found in the fact that the air was superheated on the roadbeds, according to meteorologists, for tornados are formed by light, heated air shooting upwards while cold, heavy air s weepe downward to the earth.

Eight persons were killed at and near the village of Parkin, six persons were killed at Lorado, three at Guion and two at Wynee, the latter far south of the center of the storm near Swifton.

Injured were brought to hospitals here and to hospitals at Batesville and Newport. Some of the injured are not expected to recover.

Scores of persons received minor injuries that were not taken into account in tabulating the casualties.

A deluge of rain followed in the wake of the tornado and floods prevented rescuers penetrating thickly populated communities for several hourse after the storm.

MILL STRIKES CHANGE LITTLE

Some Workers Return To Forest City Plant

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 11. (UP)—The southern textile strike situation, with nearly 7,000 operatives out, remained unchanged today except for interesting but not significant developments.

These developments included:

1. Return to work of from 500 to 800 workers of the Florence mill, Forest City, N. C., after all their demands but a 20 per cent wage increase had been met by the management.

2. Presentation of demands by operatives of the Wennonah mills at Lexington, N. C., who struck yesterday. They asked recognition of the National Textile Workers union, 50 per cent wage increases for spinners and doffers and abolition of the "stretch-out" system.

3. Decision of the Chadwick-Hoskins company to close its mill at Pineville, N. C., after threatened trouble between police and strikers. B. D. Gossett, president of the company, said workers who had remained loyal would be paid during the lockout.

Indigestion Ended at Small Cost

Stomach Antiseptic Acts Promptly; Guaranteed

Indigestion is nearly always due to fermentation in the stomach and bowels. To stop it an antiseptic is required. Gordon's stops fermentation promptly, dissolves the acids and poisons—soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated stomach lining—makes the stomach like new.

One dose will relieve indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, sour stomach, bloating, heartburn. Costs less than three cents a dose. Get a bottle today. If not benefited druggist will refund your money.—Adv.

WTCC MEETS AT LATEST DATE

Conclave Delayed to Await President Hoover

Special to The Record News

STAMFORD, Texas, April 11.—The 1929 annual session of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held the latest in the year of any of the 10 previous conventions as a result of the recent postponing of the dates until fall, in order that President Hoover may attend.

The president has expressed a desire to attend but has informed West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials that it would be impossible for him to be out of Washington May 13, 14 and 15, the original dates set for the convention in El Paso.

Another Meet Delayed

Another celebration in which it is planned that the president participate was postponed to be held at the same time as the annual convention of the regional organization. This is the proposed unveiling of a monument to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the buying of the Gadsden Purchase, a strip of land amounting to 45,535 square miles of land now forming parts of Arizona and New Mexico, from Mexico.

A brief history of the Gadsden Purchase brings to mind that James Gadsden, American soldier and diplomat who was a Yale graduate and who served in the war of 1812 as a lieutenant of engineers and in 1818 against the Seminoles, with the rank of captain as aide on the staff of Gen. Andrew Jackson, was appointed minister to Mexico by President Franklin Pierce in 1853 and on the 31st of December of that year negotiated the so-called Gadsden treaty which gave to the United States freedom of transit for mails, merchandise and troops across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and provided for a readjustment of the boundary established by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo.

Cost $10,000,000

In addition, one article of the treaty of Cuadalupe Hidalgo which bound the United States to prevent incursions of Indians from the United States into Mexico, and to restore Mexican prisoners captured by such Indians, was abrogated, and for these considerations the United States paid to Mexico the sum of $10,000,000.

It is hoped that the celebration of the Gadsden purchase will be made an event of national importance with the presence of the president at the unveiling of the monument at Mesillo, several miles east of Las Cruces, N. M., where the American flag was first raised in this territory 75 years ago.

W. T. C. C. 11 Years Old

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce was organized 11 years ago as the result of the issuance of a call by the Fort Worth, Brownwood, Wichita Falls and Ranger chambers of commerce for a meeting of the business interests of West Texas. Representatives from 25 West Texas counties met at the chamber of commerce auditorium in Fort Worth on Dec. 21, 1918, for the purpose of formulating organized plans for the development of the mineral, manufacturing, agricultural, livestock, mercantile and other material resources of West Texas. It was proposed to secure these results by "acquainting the world with the marvelous possibilities and wonderful opportunities of West Texas and to bring about a better mutual understanding of all interests by forming an organization for the promotion of the general welfare of West Texas," according to the minutes kept at that time.

Kemp on Committee

At this preliminary meeting in Fort Worth, which gave that city the privilege of calling itself the "father of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce," Porter A. Whaley, then of Brownwood, moved that a committee of seven be appointed to proceed with the completion of the organization. Dr. C. C. Gumm, chairman, appointed J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls, Marion Sansom of Fort Worth, H. P. Brelsford of Eastland, Brooke Smith of Brownwood, P. H. Landegrin of Amarillo, W. W. Turney of El Paso, R. L. Penick of Stamford and C. C. Walsh of San Angelo to draw up a by-laws and constitution.

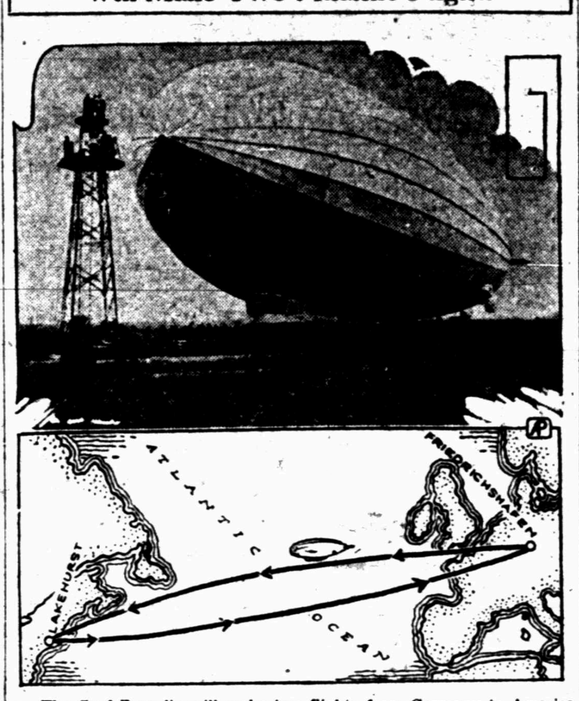

At an executive board meeting held later in Mineral Wells, these men and others were elected heads of various committees, such as irrigation, good roads, oil and gas, livestock, dairying, agriculture, publicity, traffic and education. Selection of headquarters came up for discussion and after several strong contenders withdrew in favor of Stamford, that city was voted unanimously the home of the regional commercial organization. At this meeting Charles Brewington of Stamford was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer, Chester Crowell of Dallas chosen publicity manager, S. E. Miller of Mineral Wells and George W. Briggs of Lubbock elected field managers and D. P. Byers of Fort Worth elected traffic manager.

District Conventions

During 1919 district conventions were held in Waco, Cisco, Stamford, Sweetwater, San Angelo, El Paso, Amarillo, Lubbock and Brownwood. At an executive board meeting on April 16, in Mineral Wells, Porter A. Whaley was elected first general manager and held that position until June 22, 1926, when the present general manager, Homer D. Wade, was elected in Amarillo.

Each year a president has been elected an honorary head of the organization, beginning in 1918 with C. F. Herring of Amarillo, and following through consecutively with H. C. Brelsford of Eastland, C. B. Jones with the S. M. S. ranch interests at Spur, the late A. B. Spencer, elected from Crosbyton, who died recently in Fort Worth, who was the only man yet to hold the office two years; C. C. Walsh, elected from San Angelo, who is now in Dallas; R. Q. Lee of Cisco, now in Washington; A. P. Duggan, who has interests in Wichita, Kan., at this time; R. W. Haynie, attorney at Abilene, to the 1928 president, A. M. Bouriand, "dirt farmer" of Vernon. Each man who has held the office has been intensely interested in the welfare of the West Texas organization, giving much time to the causes it has sponsored.

POETESS LEADS SIMPLE LIFE

Texas Singer Content At Rising Star

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, April 11.—Mrs. Lexie Dean Robertson, a feature entertainment speaker of the Oil Belt District convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in Ranger April 18, who is a poet of no mean fame is the sort of person who inspires poems.

When written by a member of the publicity department of the regional organization for some of the personal details always of such interest to the public concerning well known people she answered there wasn't much to tell, but—"I live in a little brown house with a lovely garden and a goldfish pool and a tennis court that keep me from doing a lot of things I ought to be doing often. And I am married to the nicest red-headed husband in the world who spoils me outrageously but I adore him for it. And we have an English setter dog whom we both spoil. That is our household."

The whole letter was strangely reminiscent of the poems in her latest book of poems, "Red Heels", in which the five groups of her works include poems of the Texas oil fields, sonnete poems of love and home, and poems which won for their author prizes offered by the Poetry Society of Texas.

Mrs. Robertson lives at Two Oakes Cottage, her home in Rising Star, and spends a great deal of her time writing poems for Century, Good Housekeeping, Ladies' Home Journal, Country Gentleman, American Poetry Journal, Holland's Magazine, Dallas News book page, Poetry and Play (London) Palo Verde, JAPM, The Poetry Weekly and others.

Her talk at the district convention will reflect some of the thoughts stressed in her poetry.

Stop Rheumatic Pain With Prescription A-2851

Local druggists who are dispensing Prescription A-2851 are all loud in their praise of what it will do. It doesn't seem to matter whether the condition is of long standing and the pain constaut, or whether only occasional twinges are felt—Prescription A-2851 seems to go right to the seat of the trouble and knock out the pain.

While this particular prescription was compounded especially for rheumatic conditions—it has also proven successful in many forms of gout, neuritis and sciatic nerve pain.

Tear out this announcement and hand it to your druggist, or be sure to to remember the name—Prescription A-2851. In liquid or pill form. There is nothing else so good to drive out rheumatism.

Claremore Man To Get Health Post

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 11. (UP)—Dr. Clyde W. Beson of Claremore today was offered the appointment as state health commissioner by Gov. W. J. Holloway.

Holloway asked Beson if he accepted the position to assume the duties April 15.

Dr. Beson is in no way an applicant for the place, but I have discussed it with him, having come here at my request, and he has indicated he will accept if I make the appointment," Holloway said.

Rogers county physicians have filed a unanimous indorsement of Beson for the place since it became known that Holloway was considering him.

If Beson, who was in Claremore today, accepts the appointment he will succeed Dr. O. O. Hammonds of Okmulgee.

Brewer Presents Wichita Painting Of "Blooming Orchard" to Forum

By MRS. L. N. CASON
Record News Society Editor

Spring brought the beauty of flowering trees to this part of Texas, and lovers of nature and of art will be deeply interested to learn that N. A. Brewer, the elder of the two Brewers who recently had an exhibition of paintings in the Woman's Forum has perpetuated a scene two miles from Wichita, and presented it to the forum, in a painting which he calls "Blooming Orchard."

The value of the gift is large in dollars and cents, as Mr. Brewer is an artist who is nationally known and is offered high prices for his work. His portraits are marvels of character interpreted; he has won 12 national prizes. The forum has, in this picture, a bit of beauty that will constantly increase in value and never lose in beauty.

Then Adrian Brewer, the son, who last year, with his bluebonnet picture, won the $2,500 prize offered for the best wild flower painting in Texas, has presented the forum with a bluebonnet painting to be used as the grand prize in the annual bridge tournament which will take place at the forum April 30, afternoon and evening.

Critics who are able to pass wisely on his work, say that Adrian Brewer's pictures—lovely now—will double in value as years go by. Both Brewers are masters in painting colors that live. One portrait that was on exhibit here was painted 25 years ago, but was as vivid as if it were freshly done.

A prize as beautiful has never been offered here. It will be a bluebonnet prize for a bluebonnet bridge.

The president of the chapter urged that every member be present.

Trial of $15,000 Damage Suit Opens

Trial of the $15,000 damage suit brought by C. M. Mann against M. M. Cook in connection with an automobile accident at the intersection of Grace street and Brook avenue here in September, 1927, got under way before Judge P. A. Martin in the 89th district court late Thursday afternoon. The jury was waived and evidence is being offered before Judge Martin alone.

The plaintiff alleges that a minor son of Mr. Cook, driving a car belonging to the defendant, was liable for permanent injuries alleged to have been received by Mrs. Mann in an automobile collision. The plaintiff also asks recovery for alleged damage to his car. The machine, a Cadillac, is claimed to have been worth only $20 after the accident.

The case was tried before a jury in the 78th district court several months ago, the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. The court of civil appeals, ruling that members of the jury had been guilty of misconduct in considering matters not brought in the evidence, reversed the case and sent it back for retrial here.

SLIGHT GAINS IN POSTAL RECEIPTS IN MARCH TOTAL

WASHINGTON, April 11. (INS)—Because there were only 26 business days in March last as against 27 in March a year ago, postal receipts at 50 selected cities showed only a slight increase, while those at 50 industrial cities showed a decrease of 3.64 per cent, Postmaster-General Brown announced today.

Receipts at the selected cities were $34,374,784.71 and $34,280,383.13, respectively, while those at industrial cities were $3,536,560.30 and $3,670,135.71, respectively.

Reports Filed By Members of Y W C A Directors' Board

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Young Woman's Christian association Thursday morning, Mrs. J. D. Bright was elected to fill a vacancy brought by the resignation of Mrs. Knox Finley, who was chairman of the employment department. Mrs. Bright was appointed chairman of the Girl Reserve department by the president, Mrs. Glenn Laskey.

Reports of the departmental chairmen on the work of the organization for the month of March were given. Mrs. Guy Raley reported on membership; Mrs. E. W. Nicholson, social service; Mrs. T. A. Hicks, cafeteria. The employment department report showed that in March 66 girls had applied for work through the organization; 27 employers had made calls for help; 39 girls had been referred to employers and 15 of them were placed. The house committee, Mrs. H. S. Davis chairman, reported new draperies placed at the living room windows and that money for buying new curtains had been promised. The living room furniture is to be upholstered. Seven hundred guests have used the living room for meetings during March, not including meetings scheduled by the cafeteria. A first aid kit and emergency box has been added to the house equipment; 20 books used and a new screen loaned the association by Mr. Hoag.

Thirty-one Girl Reserve club meetings were held in March, with an aggregate attendance of 1,820.

Reports were given by the delegates who attended the regional conference in Dallas in February. Mrs. Glenn Laskey gave the report on the general conference, Miss Erma Schnelle, the Girl Reserve adult guidance council and Miss Catherine Walker the business girls' section.

The business girls' clubs are beginning to raise money to send delegates to the summer conference at Estes park. Shares in the property of the Business and Professional Women are now on sale and many of the girls have signed their pledges. This club is now editing a monthly newspaper.

The resignation of Mrs. Harry S. Davis was received and accepted. The vacancy caused by her resignation will be filled at a later date.

Solon Loses But Little Cash on Whisky Stock

WASHINGTON, April 11. (US)—Representative L. C. Dyer, Republican of Missouri, and a "dry" lost but a small amount of money when he quickly sold his Hiram Walker, Inc., curb stock, he revealed today.

His protest to the New York curb exchange for return of his money was not so much to recoup his loss but to complain against the listing of "whisky stocks" on the American market, he declared.

700 Red Cross Delegates To Meet in Washington

WASHINGTON, April 11. (US)—Seven hundred delegates representing chapters in every state and insular possession will gather here on April 22 for the four-day annual convention of the American Red Cross.

Railroad Defends Second Damage Suit as First Claim Goes to Jury

Thirty minutes after the G. L. Parton damage suit against the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, asking $25,000 damages for the death of their 14-year-old son, Raymond, in a crossing accident last November, went into the hands of the jury Thursday afternoon, the railroad began the defense of another damage suit in which Mrs. Hattie L. Garrett asks $35,000 damages in connection with the death of her husband.

The second case is being tried before Judge W. W. Cook in the 78th district court. Mrs. Garrett claims that the road is liable for the death of her husband, W. W. Garrett, who died from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at the intersection of Lee and Seventh streets in September, 1927. Mr. Garrett was acting as the employe of the railroad in directing the patrons of the Sells-Floto circus off of Seventh street and on to Lee street, the plaintiff claims, the diversion being necessary because of railroad cars across the Seventh street crossing, her petition alleges.

The jury trying the Parton suit, charged to reply to 64 separate issues, was excused at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, to report for further deliberations Friday. Soon after the case was put into their hands, the foreman asked for the map showing the location of the Iowa Park railroad crossing and for the speedometer tape used in the engine of the passenger train which struck a truck in which the Parton boy was a passenger.

Lindbergh Lands In Rain at Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 11. (UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived here today at 5:30 p. m. en route to Washington. It was raining and the visibility was poor, with conditions reported the same further north.

Colonel Lindbergh will remain at the O'Henry hotel tonight, taking off for Washington at 6 a. m. if the weather permits.

Police Head Ousted For Aiding Rum Runners

DETROIT, April 11. (US)—Accused of "convoying" rum runners across the Detroit river from Canada to the United States, Capt. Joseph Burkheiser, for [illegible] years police department harbormaster, was suspended today.

Depositions of eight patrolmen of his division charge Burkheiser with ordering them to guard liquor running boats.

Stockyards National Employe Is Indicted

FORT WORTH, April 11. (AP)—David Umbenhour, assistant cashier of the Stockyards National bank, was charged Thursday with embezzlement of $29,109.90 from that bank.

The complaint, filed before United States Commissioner Flynn, also alleges Umbenhour made false entries on the books of the bank to cover up his alleged speculations.

Mrs. H. W. Conn Elected President Of Fannin P.-T. A.

Officers were elected for next year at the meeting of the Fannin school P.-T. A. held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The devotional was given by E. F. Bohmfalk and an interesting program followed. Lavonna Roberts read "Sir Lochinvar," and Miss Hindman's room gave several songs. "Columbus" was the next reading, by Norman Pautsky, and Mrs. J. Z. Steinkoenig gave a general talk on the purpose of the pre-school clinic.

Mrs. H. W. Conn gave a detailed report of the district P.-T. A. convention at Vernon and Mrs. W. T. Goodson also reported on some of the special features of that convention.

Officers elected for the next year were: President, Mrs. H. W. Conn; first vice president, Mrs. Fred Swain; second vice president, Mrs. R. A. York; third vice president, Mrs. Marvin Cummins; publicity chairman, Mrs. W. E. McCorkle; recording secretary, Mrs. J. C. McCormick; health chairman, Mrs. T. A. Pratt; delegates to city council, Mesdames C. P. Fore and E. E. Ray, and treasurer, Mrs. I. F. Callahan.

After a short business session, the meeting was adjourned until May 11. The following members and visitors were present: Mesdames Anna Hoetzel, Arch McKinley, L. R. Medford, Marvin Cummins, Hugh Burgess, T. A. Pratt, W. L. Goodson, J. F. Swain, John A. Hays, W. F. McCorkle, Clifford P. Ford, W. T. Gibbs, W. F. Chambers, H. I. Callahan, J. M. Laudermilk, A. W. ### Committees Named For Musical Comedy

Mrs. J. Truman Stevens has been made chairman of the casting committee for "Sunshine," a musical comedy to be sponsored by the Optimist club of this city at the Memorial auditorium, May 9 and 10.

Mrs. Virginia Street Orr, author and director of the play, will arrive here Monday, April 15, and will be at the Kemp hotel and meet the cast in the ballroom at 8 o'clock Monday evening.

The play is written in three acts and is set on the lawn of the Sunshine sanitarium near New York City. Patrons are given an insight into the institution, populated with patients with ailment complexes. Those desiring to take part in "Sunshine" are requested to get in touch with Mrs. Stevens or any of the following committee: Mesdames J. T. Harrell, J. S. Pitman, A. D. Duck, J. L. Jackson Jr., and Miss Merle Mathis, Archie Smith, Baldwin Montgomery, J. W. Lomax and Joel MacGregor.

There will be a chorus of 50 or 60 girls in beautiful costumes. Mrs. Orr will furnish all costumes for the chorus. Young girls who can do graceful ballroom dancing and can wear a size 16 or 18 costume are required. Those wishing to take part in this chorus will phone Misses Joline Woods, Jean Fisk, Betty Love Rugelsy, Rose Marion Art or Louise Carpenter.

"Sunshine" is now being produced in Fort Worth, sponsored by the Lions club, and has attracted much attention.

Oh, These Women

By LEOLA ALLARD

NEW YORK, April 11. (US)—You can't please everybody. Being afraid that Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin might think I meant her when I said "Some monkeys are such nice people and some people such monkeys," I explained that I was referring in my column to a lady who left $10,000 to a monkey. She had protested that I was picking on her in my column about odopting babies when she already had some of her own. I said that taking care of homeless babies came before caring for homeless dogs.

Now comes a protest that I apologized to Mrs. McLaughlin and shouldn't. That babies are more important than dogs, and anyway, the lady says, "I'd like to spank you for writing that."

The lady calls Irene's home for dogs the "Homeless Hector Kennel." She cites everything the lovely Mrs. McLaughlin has done that the lady doesn't like, since she was Irene Castle. Which proves that Irene is a decidedly interesting personality.

The lady says she is a working woman with three tiny tots and knows plenty of working mothers who are ill and worried because their children haven't sufficient care. She thinks a home for that kind of children an excellent way to spend money. More important than dog money.

So do I. But it isn't quite so doggy.

I thought of just that yesterday when out for a drive along the Hudson, I saw a rumble seat in a car filled by two dogs. They were very large but exactly like poodles. Long curly white hair through which they peeked like sheep looking through a brush pile. I don't know the breed. More of my dog ignorance.

Then I saw kids, playing on the sidewalk in front of their tenement homes, never getting one single little glimpse of the Hudson.

It may be right, but I cling to my original opinion. A sight like that makes me feel like Skippy, when he looked over the beautiful flowering landscape and remarked: "Everything is so beautiful. Gee, I'd like to sock somebody in the jaw." The sock is for people who refuse to let dogs live like dogs and won't let children live like children.

If you want to divert your dog money, there is a milk fund in most big cities, which buys good milk for poor babies. Babies so little you can't throw them a bone.

Far be it from me to tell people how to spend their money, but if you have enough dogs, there are always the wounded soldiers who appreciate cigarets and radios, candy and automobile rides. Gee, how they appreciate them!

Somehow, being gassed or shot full of holes does whet one's appreciation. The least little favor seems so big.

I wonder if the 1,200 advertising agencies who are giving a $1,000 prize for the best answer to "Why Go to Church" have seen the spring millinery along the country's avenues? Oo la la! That's like those who have led many a heathen to church.

Literature Department Draws Out-of-Town Guests Thursday

Visitors from several adjoining cities were in Wichita Falls Thursday afternoon to attend the closing meeting of the literature department of the Woman's Forum.

With Mrs. Wayne Somerville as chairman, the department has been outstanding in the interest of its meetings and the closing one was as much enjoyed as had been anticipated.

Mrs. Grover C. Johnson was first on the program with her review of Edith Wharton's "The Children," and she touched on all the highlights of the story.

Mrs. J. W. Cantwell gave a brief talk on spring book news and was followed by Mrs. John B. Rhea, who read beautifully Charles Rann Kennedy's "The Terrible Meek."

Guests who registered were Mesdames T. L. McGee, J. W. Cantwell, B. N. Nicholson, E. W. Nicholson, V. E. Wratten, C. F. Lorenz, O. W. Harvey, E. Ratcliff, S. D. Jones, T. J. Brock, Sam Acton, B. T. Cantwell, E. H. Eddleman, J. D. Bright, J. C. McDonald, Arch Dawson, Henry C. Fulcher, Clarence Beavers, Frank B. Parson, Grover C. Johnson, John Davenport, O. T. Alles, J. R. McKinney, L. I. Lucey, I. R. Sheldon, D. O. Johnson, A. D. Bell, John B. Rhea, Sam Kruger, M. Shain, Wayne Somerville, Miss D. Loope and Mesdames H. A. Decker and J. C. Russell from Electra, R. D. L. Killough and Emory Rhodes from Vernon, G. M. Utt, R. R. Alexander, L. C. Cone and C. A. Hood from Nocona.

Abilene Women Admire Wichita Forum Clubhouse

Mrs. T. C. Campbell of Abilene, Texas, was in Wichita Falls Wednesday to inspect the Woman's Forum clubhouse. Some weeks ago, the Abilene clubwomen wrote to the forum for a copy of their charter. They plan to unite at once under such a charter and will build a clubhouse costing about $50,000 this fall.

Mesdames T. C. Campbell, Morgan Jones and Redford compose the building committee. They have inspected the clubhouses of Dallas and Fort Worth, but were high in their praise of the Woman's Forum building, as have been many visitors and artists appearing there.

Mrs. Campbell, it is said, will propose to duplicate the Wichita building, with the exception of a somewhat smaller auditorium. She has seen nothing more complete and perfect in detail, she declared while here.

PLEASANTNESS WINS FRIENDS

'Be Yourself' and Social Contacts Won't Irk

"Don't Ever Be Afraid of Being Human, or of Showing People That You Like and Admire Them," Admonishes Dorothy Dix —"All the World Wants Praise and Sympathy, Even as You and I."

A young girl, who says she is dumb and self-conscious, complains that she never knows what to do when she meets people or what to talk to them about.

Well, about the best guide to conduct a conversation that I know is to try it out first on yourself. We are all human alike and we react pretty much in the same way to the same stimuli. We's all like and dislike pretty much the same things. We are interested or bored alike. We like those who rub our fur the right way and we avoid those who irritate us, so if you will just treat others as you would like them to treat you and say to them the things you would like to have said to you, you will never go wrong.

You like people who are gracious to you, whose faces brighten up when they meet you and who have always a pleasant word for you and who somehow make you feel that they like you and enjoy your company.

So try graciousness as an approach to the next person you meet and you will see that it works like a charm. Don't wait for him or her to dig you out of your shell and thaw you out into friendliness. Perhaps he or she is just as shy as you are and is praying just as ardently for somebody to make the first advances.

Beat them to it. Extend the glad hand. Be cordial. It is the friendly who have friends.

You like people to show you a little attention. You like people to call up and inquire after you when you are sick. You appreciate it when they send you an amusing book or flowers. It adds to your joy to get a word of commendation for a piece of particularly good work you have done or to have a telegram of congratulation over a triumph or a note of sympathy when some sorrow befalls you.

Therefore, take the time to show these courtesies to your friends. Don't take it for granted that Sally knows you are sorry she has the flu and that you are perfectly aware that she could fill her room with orchids if she wanted to and buy out the book store, so there is no use in your sending her a new novel or a bunch of roses.

Or that Sam and Tom won't think anything of your not congratulating them on having a story accepted by a highbrow magazine or getting elected to the city council, or that poor Sally will know that you sympathize with her in the loss of her baby and won't be hurt at your not writing because she knows how you hate pen and ink.

You know how you feel about your friends who neglect you and who never show any active interest in your affairs. Your liking gradually cools off until you finally drop them. The friends that you bind to your heart with hoops of steel are those who make you feel at every crisis of your life that your joys and sorrows are theirs.

It is the little attentions that you pay strangers that turns them into friends. You remember how it was with Mrs. Blank. You met her with a lot of other people that you didn't know at a bridge party and you would never have thought of her again except the next day she sent you a magazine with an article in it that had been under discussion and that you hadn't read. That little attention opened up the acquaintance that has ripened into a beautiful friendship. The same way with Mrs. Smith. She was just the woman across the street with whom you had a nodding acquaintance until that black day when your mother died suddenly and she came to you with a sympathy and helpfulness that turned her almost into a sister.

Don't ever be afraid of being human or of showing people that you like them and admire them and that you are glad of their triumphs and sorry for their misfortunes. All of us, even those who seem the most reserved and self-contained, have something in us that cries out for companionship in our hour of triumph and our bitter moment of defeat. All the world wants praise and sympathy even as you and I.

Nor can there be any guide to the art of conversation more infallible than just trying it out on yourself. Consider those who bore you to extinction. Are they not those who talk interminably about themselves, the egotists who think they are giving you a rapturous hour listening to them blow their own horns?

Think of the dreary evenings you have put in listening to some man tell how great and wonderful he was and what a marvelous financial coup he pulled off in Wild Cat preferred or to all of the details of the green grocery trade or to how superior his car is to every other car and how many miles he makes on a gallon of gasoline.

Recall how you have writhed under the affliction of hearing some mother repeat all the smart things her 2-year-old has said and telling every detail of Johnny's career at school and relate how many millionaires wanted to marry Sally. Also recall those delightful individuals who led you to talk about yourself and who lent an attentive ear while you recounted all about your new frock and what you said to the salesgirl and the salesgirl said to you and told all about what a grand time you and your boy friend had at the last week-end party.

Surely one's own experience is a tip that should lead every one into being a fascinating conversationalist. It consists in merely leading the party of the other part into talking about himself or herself.

Also, you know how you feel about the wise-crackers who say witty and cutting things to you and just how much you love them after they have made you look like a figure of fun by searching out your pet weakness and guying you for it.

Likewise, you remember the passionate gratitude you feel toward those who always say some pleasant thing to you that turns the spotlight on your good points and that makes you feel at peace with yourself and the world.

If, before we spoke, we stopped to consider how we would like to have that thing said to us or that thing told about us, it would not only make us popular in society but it would save us many a bitter regret for a cruel speech that stabbed like a dagger or for a scandal that we started on its way.

All of which, boiled down, simply comes to this: That the Golden Rule is a mighty good rule to live by and it works just as well socially as it does morally.

—DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a young man of 22 with a sweet sister of 18 to whom I am devoted. Just recently she has started out for her wild life and has kept up a terrific pace, and though my mother was fully aware of her actions, yet she made no effort to control "her baby." Recently I brought my sister home intoxicated from a party and when she was sober enough to understand anything I gave her a talk that put the fear of God into her. It took hours to put over the facts to her, and I spared her nothing because I am a fast stepper myself and know all about it, and I simply forced purity and respect back into her mind.

I believe in this modern age all big brothers should help their young sisters with good advice. Don't you?

—ALFRED.

Answer: I certainly do, Alfred, and I think your sister is very fortunate in having a brother who recognizes his duty to her and who doesn't try to pass the buck by saying: "Am I my sister's keeper?"

There are many reasons why a brother can be a better chaperon for a girl than her mother can. In the first place, he belongs to her generation and he knows just what the flaming youth of today is doing as her mother cannot possibly know, for young people never tell old people everything. They tell the old just what is safe and convenient for them to know.

Also, the brother has been along the road the girl is setting out to travel and he knows where all the hairpin turns are and the places where a girl is likely to skid over the brink unless she goes slowly and carefully, so brother has the information as to where to erect the danger signals.

Girls won't listen to what their mothers say because they think that mother is old-fashioned and puritanical and prudish and that she thinks everything is wrong that they didn't do in her day, but they will listen to their brothers because brothers are the last word in being modern and they know their petting and their bootleg stuff.

So, when they tell sister what they think of a girl who parks in automobiles and gets soused and who comes home at 4 o'clock in the morning, why sister sits up and takes notice, because she knows that what brother thinks is what all the other young men are thinking.

It is pitiful and tragic how little sense of responsibility most brothers have toward their sisters. They will calmly stand by and let sister stumble along the road to destruction without ever trying to stop her. They will even let sister marry men whom they know to be rotters who will break their hearts as if it were no concern of theirs.

—DOROTHY DIX.

Skirts of Knee Length Will Hold Favor This Year

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—Skirts of knee length will continue fashionable this summer, it was indicated last night at the style promenade of the garment retailers of America here.

The popular silhouette for daytime wear, it was indicated, will be slim and straight, while the bouffant and princess style will predominate for formal wear. The ensemble was the outstanding style for both street and evening wear. The popular colors were peach, nile green and sky blue.

Bathing suits were featured in flared and fancy styles with open backs to permit ample sunburn. There were many exhibits of beach pajamas.

Ille Brothers of Lexington filed an application for a permit to distribute ice at Lexington. Hearing was set for April 30.

We Women

By BETTY BRAINERD

The New Marriages

THERE has, in recent years, been a developing tendency toward simplicity and brevity in marriage ceremonies. Perhaps the drift may be traced back to the intellectual revolt the younger generation has been waging. Certainly this is an age of restlessness, inquiry, protest and self-determinism.

People no longer hold a thing to be right simply because that thing always has been done. And so there has been an urge toward greater freedom and more sanity in the matter of marriages.

FREEDOM, when it is wedded to sanity, makes for ultimate truth and right; and simplicity is the essence of good sense. Thus, I am moved to applaud the spreading idea that marriage is a serious business and should not be profaned and outraged by stupid and barbaric customs, which have come down from the past and have endured only because they were never challenged.

But the revolution is by no means as yet complete. Marriage is still regarded much in the same light as a festival of savage or semi-savage African tribesmen by some of their alleged superiors.

FOR instance, I have before me a picture under which appears this caption:

"Jungle heavyweights battle to the death for the entertainment of guests at a royal wedding. Two full grown male elephants, brought to the appropriate pitch of fury by days of starvation, stage a bloody battle as the chief amusement in connection with the recent wedding of the Prince of Baroda State, India."

OF course, in this civilized country we do not countenance such things. We throw rice and old shoes at the young couple; and we organize our families and friends into battalions of bridesmaids and ushers and what-not, much after the elaborate manner in which we organize and train our armies for war. It really is a wonder that the bridal couple manages to live through the ordeal of the ceremony and all the weeks and months that enter into preparing for it.

But, I note a trend towards simplicity in marriage ceremonies. Young people today regard marriage as a serious and very personal business.

They refuse to be parties to ridiculously elaborate festivals, patterned in the slightly more civilized image of the frankly barbaric ceremonies that prevail in Asia and Africa. It being their marriage, they simply up and get married—and that's all there is and should be to it.

Betty Brainerd will be glad to help her readers with their problems. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope to her in care of this paper.

WITH THIS CREAMY SHORTENING YOU REALLY DO "WHISK UP A CAKE" .. No need to cream your shortening into your sugar or cut it into your flour. Just a few stirs of a spoon and the two are blended perfectly . . . you really do "whisk up a cake" when you use Snowdrift. Try this recipe for Cup Cakes, and see if it isn't true:

CUP CAKES

½ Cupful Snowdrift · 1½ Cupfuls Sugar · 1 Teaspoonful Vanilla · ½ Teaspoonful Salt · 3 Eggs · 1 Cupful Milk · 3 Cupfuls Sifted Flour · 4 Teaspoonfuls Baking Powder

Mix Snowdrift and sugar and add well-beaten egg yolks and vanilla. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add alternately with milk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and bake in muffin tins in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

The reason Snowdrift is so easy and pleasant to use, you know, is because it's so creamy . . . we cream it for you before it is packed in the air-tight cans.

SCHOOLS FIT MODERN NEEDS

Hosic Tells of Changes In Teaching Methods

"The glory of the modern school, which is now developing, is that it combines with the home, the church, and experience to give children a chance to learn how to live," said Dr. James E. Hosic, professor of education in Columbia university, New York, in a lecture at the Junior college auditorium Thursday night.

Dr. Hosic's address was devoted largely to a comparison of the schools commonly maintained in the United States a generation ago with those which have developed rapidly during the last 25 years. Many illustrations were given to exemplify the changes in methods which Dr. Hosic described as substituting practical experience for "drilling in abstract principles."

Rapid Change

"The educational methods used in our schools have changed as much during the last 25 years as our system of transportation, our methods of communication, our styles of dress and our manner of conducting business," the speaker said.

"The scope of our educational system has been constantly broadening. We are getting away from the "trained bear" type of learning, which developed no capacity whatever for idea-production. The school is a supplementary institution. It supplements the home, which is the first and most important unit in the educational process; the educative influence of reading papers, magazines and books; the church, and the daily experiences which are the most potent teachers. The test of a person's education is what he does; how he acts at home; the manner in which he works; his capacity for self-entertainment, and his contribution to the improvement of mankind.

"One of the most important developments in our modern schools is the introduction of courses designed to teach the art of homemaking to both girls and boys. In the past we were so busy teaching many things that nobody would ever use that we had no time to teach the child how to select a good chair, a beautiful picture, a durable rug or good music. By practice in miniature units of society, organized within the classroom, pupils now are learning much of the art of good citizenship. It helps our children to realize that problems of life are like the problems of school children, and they are learning the lesson of civic responsibility. The modern school tries to give just the amount of liberty which the child can properly use.

200 Attend Lecture

"Much of what we read in textbooks 25 years ago slipped away because it was not real. The modern method endeavors to convert every informative bit of truth into a real experience. Then it will be remembered."

Dr. Hosic was introduced by Miss Effie Savage, instructor in English at the Reagan Junior high school. The lecture was given under the Wichita Falls Teachers association auspices, and was attended by approximately 200 persons.

300 Attend Second Van Houtte Lecture

More than 300 persons crowded the ballroom of the Kemp hotel Thursday night for the second of a series of lectures being given this week by Dr. Albert L. van Houtte of California on "Health and Success."

Dr. Van Houtte spoke on "Human Thoroughbreds" Thursday night, emphasizing the mental and psychological distinctions between persons of that classification and "Human Scrubs." "Human success is measured in the terms of obstacles which have been overcome," he said. "Destiny results from adversity, and greatness will be in the same degree as the difficulties which were surmounted."

The subject announced for the lecture Friday night is "Beauty, Brains and Brawn," the ingredients of a winning personality. "Deep Breathing" will be the phase of good health to be discussed.

Orphans Chorus to Give Program Here Tonight

A chorus of children from the Methodist Orphans home at Waco will entertain at the Grant Street Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, Rev. Patrick D. Moreland, pastor, announced Thursday.

Songs, readings, violin and piano selections will be included in the program, in which 28 orphaned children will take part. No admission will be charged.

The longest flight reported for a banded bird was made by a fledgling Arctic tern, which flew from Turnevik Bay, Labrador to Margate, 15 miles southwest of Port Shepstone, Natal, South Africa.

LEADS CENSUS

Increase in Number Of Scholastics Heaviest At Burkburnett

School census reports from Burkburnett show decidedly the largest increase in the number of children of school age among all the school districts of the county which have yet filed returns, according to figures placed Thursday in the hands of Burl Bryant, county superintendent.

A total of 1,565 scholastics were registered this year, an increase of 117 over the 1,448 reported in 1928, Mr. Bryant said.

No other independent district, except Wichita Falls, has reported, according to the superintendent. In Wichita Falls the figures were 10,282 this year against 10,283 in 1928.

FALLING BLOCK INJURES YOUTH

Holliday Boy in Critical Condition Here

Ty Chambers, 19, of Holliday, who was seriously injured in an oil field accident Thursday morning, was reported to be resting well by attendants at the Wichita Falls Clinic hospital late Thursday night.

The youth suffered a concussion of the brain when a tubing block fell on his head at a United Oil Producers company well near the old K. M. A. field. He was given first aid treatment in Iowa Park before being brought to the hospital here.

NEGRO BOYS OPEN MEETING

State Y. M. C. A. Sponsors Conference Here

The eighth annual state conference of older boys, sponsored by the Hi-Y clubs, colored, will be held at the Booker Washington school here Friday, Saturday and Sunday, under the auspices of the state executive committee of the Young Men's Christian association.

The conference will be under the leadership of Grover C. Good, Dallas, state boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Good will be assisted by leaders from schools for colored children all over the state, including President Dean Mohr of Paul Quinn college, Waco; Dr. M. W. Dogan, president of Wiley college, and Prof. J. C. McMorries of the P. V. S. N. and I. C., at Prairie View, Texas.

Devotional periods, lectures and discussions on religious subjects, and Bible study will comprise the program to be followed throughout the conference. Friday night's session, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, will be given to a banquet, followed by an extensive program of short talks and numerous musical selections. Mayor J. W. Akin and Moulton B. Harrison will extend a welcome from the city and the State Older Boys' conference, respectively.

The purpose of the conference is announced as follows: "To help young men and boys to find themselves and take their rightful places in the fruitful fields of helpful service; recognizing not only life's problems, but accepting the challenge and solving the problems in Jesus' way as they affect the home, the church, the school and the community."

Mission Leader To Give Address At Church Here

Rev. A. F. Hensey, who was knighted by King Albert of Belgium in recognition of distinguished service rendered as a missionary on the Belgian Congo in the heart of Africa, will speak at a meeting to be held at the First Christian church this Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Hensey has recently returned from Africa following a period of many years spent in the missionary service there. The meeting here Friday night is one of thousands being held by Christian churches throughout America for the study of foreign mission work.

The evening's program will begin at 6:30 p. m., when a dinner will be served. Short talks will be given by Mrs. O. L. Shepherd of Dallas and Dr. Floyd Allan Bash, pastor of the church. Numerous visitors from nearby towns are expected for the dinner and program Friday night.

Concrete Poured For First Unit of Bridge

Work of pouring the concrete for the south bank abutment of the new Scott avenue bridge across the Wichita river started Thursday, according to the announcement of J. M. Isbell, county engineer.

Completion of the concrete work on the one section is expected within the next week. The builders plan then to move to the north bank abutment, where the work will be finished before the preparation of the two central piers.

New Scotland Yard is carrying out experiments in the transmission, by wireless, of photographs and fingerprints of criminals.

SERVICES HELD FOR WILSON

Masons Officiate at Rites For Oil Man

Funeral services for Lee Wilson, 51, president of the Eureka Drilling company, who died Wednesday at his home, 2410 Bridwell street, were conducted from the residence Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by Rev. W. J. Johnson, presiding elder of the Southern Methodist church.

Local Masonic organizations officiated at the burial in Riverside cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Roy Reeder, C. E. McCutchen, J. G. Rowe, H. A. Schaeffer, Walter Alexander, Horrace Robbins, E. P. Bass and C. W. Hanley.

Mr. Wilson was a pioneer of the oil industry, beginning the business as a tool dresser in 1895 in Virginia, and working in fields at Beaumont, and in Louisiana, Arkansas and Mexico before coming to Wichita Falls during the boom days here.

City to Dredge Canal to Lake

A complete cleaning out and dredging of the city water ditch from Lake Wichita into the city has been started by the water department, A. H. Douglass, general manager, said Thursday.

A great deal of trash and sand has collected in the ditch from the high winds and from drainage from the lake.

Although the ditch will be made no larger by the dredging than at its original construction, vegetation which has hindered the flow water will be removed, Mr. Douglass said.

The rapid growth of moss in the ditch during the last three years has forced the water department to remove it from the canal about twice each month in order to keep the water flowing.

TEMPLE ISRAEL SERVICES

Rabbi S. J. Schwab will discuss "Individual Worth" at the regular services to be held at Temple Israel at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Sabbath school services open at 9:45 o'clock Saturday morning. The Temple Junior meeting and practice is called for 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

10 COUNTIES IN DISTRICT MEET

Scholastic Literary Events Open Here Today

Ten counties of district No. 4 will be represented in the literary events at the Wichita Falls Junior college Friday when the district public speaking contests of the Interscholastic league will be held.

Twenty-three rooms of the local college will be used for the various events throughout the day with tournaments held in debates, extempore speaking, and declamation, with the finals scheduled to be held at 8 o'clock Friday night with only first place winners eligible.

Kathleen Cason and Louis Bond will represent the city of Wichita Falls in the senior division of the declaiming contests, while Marguerite Covington and Clinton Bailey of the two local junior high schools will represent the city in the junior division of declamation. Clay Underwood will represent the high school in extemporaneous speaking, while Dell Hatchitt and Marjorie Vincent are the debating team entered in the event.

The schedule for Friday follows:

General assembly, 9 a. m.—Junior College auditorium.

Debate-all team, 9:30 a. m.—Junior college.

Declamation—All sessions at Junior college.

High school senior boys and girls, 9:30 a. m.

High school junior boys and girls, 2 p. m.

Rural senior boys and girls, 9:30 a. m.

Rural junior boys and girls, 2 p. m.

Extempore speaking, 2 p. m.

Finals, 8 p. m. Only first place winners are eligible.

Contests in the tennis division of the meet will be resumed Friday morning. The track and field meet is scheduled to be held on Saturday with Supt. B. M. Dinsmore as director.

Man Returns $5,000 To Owner; Gets $1 Reward

LOS ANGELES, April 11. (US)—Virtue has its own reward, if that's any consolation to H. A. Johnson.

Today he found a woman's pocketbook containing $5,000 in money and negotiable securities.

After considerable searching Johnson found the owner, Mrs. A. Taylor, and returned her property.

The grateful woman rewarded Johnson with a nice, crisp dollar bill.

Wife's Only Trouble Is Catching Husband

DALLAS, April 11. (AP)—A wife told Judge N. G. Williams here today she didn't need his help or that of anyone else in any difficulties with her husband.

An aggravated assault charge was filed against the husband, and the wife had been called to court to prosecute. But she issued her dictum. "I can take care of myself," she said. "All I need to do is to catch him".

Spectacular Fire Threatens Ruin Of S. S. Roosevelt; One Man Killed

NEW YORK, April 11. (UP)—The United States liner President Roosevelt was swept by a spectacular fire today as it lay at its pier in Hoboken, and for two hours was in danger of destruction.

One member of the crew was killed and six other men were burned severely as they fought to escape the flames deep in the hold of the big vessel. Four of them were in a critical condition tonight.

The fire began in the bilges of the ship and spread quickly to the oil room, where it exploded the liner's large containers of fuel. There it trapped six of the crew, who were working in an adjoining storeroom.

Nicholas Burke, fireman, descended into the blazing hold and carried out three of the men. On his last trip, burned badly about the face and body, he collapsed and fell against a stanchion, suffering a skull fracture. He may die, hospital attendants said.

Burns were fatal to Robert Portland, Jersey City, a boilermaker's helper.

The President Roosevelt, lately operated by the United States shipping board, was undergoing repairs and being improved for its new owners. The blaze was confined to the fire room and the damage was comparatively small.

$10,000 Placed in City Budget For Repairing Incinerating Plant

A sum of $10,000 was allowed in the city budget approved by George D. Fairtrace, city manager, for improvements and overhauling the municipal incinerating plant, it was announced Thursday.

The plant is so badly in need of repairs that the city is able to make use of only about half of it at present, Mr. Fairtrace said.

The greater part of the repair work will be done on the furnaces in the plant if the project meets the approval of the city commissioners.

The arches of the furnace are in very bad condition and the high cost of asbestos, fire clay, fire brick and other heat retaining materials necessary in repairing the furnaces make the overhauling an expensive process, Mr. Fairtrace declared.

One side of the plant which caved in some months ago will be rebuilt in the overhauling program.

Leviathan Still on 'Water Wagon' But She'll Soon Change Her Tack

NEW YORK, April 11. (INS)—The liner Leviathan, American-owned, is still on the water wagon—but not for long.

Contrary to general belief, no liquor was sold on the giant ship today. This information came by wireless this afternoon from Commander Harold Cunningham.

But on the return trip from Europe to the United States, the story will be different. Highballs and cocktails will be served to the passengers and the Leviathan, for the first time since 1923, will be a "wet" ship.

Shortly after Cunningham's message was received a statement was issued here by Joseph E. Sheedy, executive vice president of the United States Lines, Inc., saying he had ordered the stewards to serve liquor on the westward trip but not on the eastward voyage.

Two dry agents were reported to be aboard the Leviathan observing the situation.

Ten other big American ships, "dry" for the last six years, are planning to follow the lead of the Leviathan and sell liquor.

Electra Society

Special to The Record News

ELECTRA, Texas, April 11.—The Ladies' Altar society of the St. Francis Catholic church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Chisolm. Mrs. Rollo Davidson, president, presided over the business session, in which the minutes of the last meeting were read, and a resolution of respect was read of Mrs. Oscar Goodman, who, before her death, was a faithful member of the society. The business session was followed by a white elephant party. Refreshments of angel food cake and coffee were served to the following members. Mesdames B. Marchant, George McGann, R. H. McGann, Jud Irby, C. C. Dorsey, M. Drake, Jake Wolf, James Osborne, Odonnell, McLaughlin, Ferd Keller, Elmer Addington, Rollo Davidson, the hostess, and daughter, Miss Florence Chisolm.

Circle Five Meets

Circle five, Baptist W. M. U., met Monday afternoon with Mrs. M. J. Holcomb as hostess, at her home on West Roosevelt avenue. The meeting was opened with the usual song and prayer service, after which Mrs. Guy Tipton read the Scripture lesson from Hebrews, and taught the mission lesson from "The Royal Ambassadors," mission book. In the business session, Mrs. Sam Hill and Mrs. W. R. Skinner were instructed to write letters to the foreign missionaries, and three new members were enrolled in the cradle roll for the past month. Sentence prayers were given as dismissal. Those present were Mesdames Wofford, Dick Taylor, Ted South, C. E. Braeseke, Norwood, Sam Hill, Walter Skinner, Holcomb, Dunn, Guy Tipton and J. L. Clayton.

Circle Six Meets

Mrs. C. D. Bailey, at her home on the Vernon pavement, was hostess Monday to circle six of the Baptist W. M. U. The meeting was opened with the reading of the Scripture lesson from Hebrews, followed by a prayer by Mrs. C. W. Mers. During the business hour, Mrs. A. M. Rose, educational chairman, gave an interesting talk on the Baptist publications; Mrs. E. B. Holcomb was elected as new mission chairman, and the reports from officers and group captains were read. Mrs. W. R. Rouse taught the mission study lesson from the book "Royal Service." Those present were Mesdames B. Holcomb, Bailey, Moore, Roar, John Brownlee, J. E. Walker, W. R. Rouse, A. S. Kirby and A. M. Rose.

Circle Seven Meets

Circle seven of the Baptist W. M. U. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Houser on West Highland avenue. The opening service was the reading of the devotional from Hebrews by Mrs. Buell Mouser. The business session was in charge of Mrs. Creek Brown, leader, in which several important topics were discussed, after which Mrs. J. R. Doyle conducted the mission study lesson from the book, "The King's Own." Eight members were present.

Circle Eight Meets

Mrs. C. R. Myrick of East Summit avenue was hostess to circle eight of the Baptist W. M. U. last Monday afternoon. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. W. L. Cason, after which Mrs. Lee Scoggins read the devotional from the second chapter of Hebrews. During the business hour, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved; Mrs. Creek Brown and Mrs. J. L. Graham were elected as leaders of circles seven and eleven, and Mrs. J. W. Hastings was elected as Bible study chairman to succeed Mrs. Ray Fortune. Mrs. W. L. Cason conducted the mission study lesson from the book "The Tale of Two Peoples," after which Mrs. J. L. Garner dismissed with prayer. The following ladies were present: Mesdames George Nix, C. C. McCracken, Lee Scoggins, W. L. Cason, J. D. Smith, O. R. Myrick, I. S. Stamford, J. W. Hastings, J. T. Garner, A. M. Rose, E. L. Bostick and W. F. Slaton.

Circle Nine Meets

Circle nine met last Monday afternoon at the Southfield mission. The opening song, "The Kingdom is Coming," was followed by the reading of the devotional from Hebrews, by Mrs. R. W. Tucker. During the short business session the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and new officers were elected for the next three months. Twenty-three members were present.

SCHOOLS VOTE ON MERGER

Mass Meetings Tonight In Four Districts

At mass meetings to be held Friday evening in four Wichita county rural schools, the question of the consolidation of the Barwise, County Line, Enterprise and Fowlkes districts will be finally decided by a straw vote of the residents.

Committees have been at work during the past ten days compiling statistics and working out tentative financial plans which are to be presented to the assembled patrons of the schools.

Electra has invited the four districts to combine with her school system and that aspect of the situation will also be acted upon, according to Burl Bryant, county superintendent.

THIEVES RENEW ACTIVITY HERE

Poultry Houses Raided On Monroe Street

Chicken thieves raided three residences in the 1200 block on Monroe street Wednesday night and escaped with a total of 17 hens from the three chicken roosts.

Five Rhode Island hens were stolen from the home of Mrs. Grace E. Whitlow, 1211 Monroe, while three hens were stolen from Mrs. J. A. Mays, who resides at 1209 Monroe.

The chicken thieves took nine hens from the home of J. B. L. Hansard, who lives at 1208 Monroe street.

Several dollars in cash and a watch were stolen from T. H. Cardin at 709 Filmore street.

A package of clothing which contained work shirts, pants and other articles was reported to have been stolen from an Altus, Okla., firm at the railway station.

Blunderbuss 'Editors' Face Misdemeanor Court

AUSTIN, April 11. (AP)—Six misdemeanor charges were filed here today against persons alleged to have been connected with publication and circulation of the Blunderbuss, outlawed Texas university campus periodical, which appeared on All Fools' day with the Missouri university sex questionnaire and other matter called objectionable by the authorities.

Dr. Floyd Allan Bash, pastor of the First Christian church, declared himself heartily in favor of the project, and expressed his confidence in the other pastors of the city co-operating with the junior division in promoting the week of "civic revival."

Banquet Delayed

Due to many public affairs being scheduled for the week of April 21, the quarterly membership meeting of the chamber of commerce, announced last week as having been set for April 23, will be held on April 30. It was said Thursday night that the affair probably will be in the form of an outdoor meeting, with a barbecued dinner as the principal feature.

Committees will be appointed soon to assume the preparation of various phases of the program for "Appreciation Week." It is expected that the support of nearby cities will be enlisted in the movement.

Those present at the meeting Thursday night were J. A. Kemp Jr., Dr. Bailey R. Collins, Ralph Pittman, Robert K. French, Frank Haley, Shadie Hale, Jim Ryan, Charles Nolen, John Barnard, Jerry Vinson, T. J. Waggoner Jr., Walter Nelson Jr., and Hubert M. Harrison.

16 Face Prison Terms For 'Candy Racketeering'

CHICAGO, April 11. (US)—Sixteen officials and members of the Chicago Association of Candy Jobbers faced a year's imprisonment and fines of $5,000 each as a result of a verdict today in the "candy racketeering" case. Eighteen others went free.

Albert A. Hoffman, president of the association, was one of those convicted. The defendants were accused of forming an unlawful combine to control the candy sales business in Chicago.

There is an average of one typewriter to every 100 persons in this country today.

When a Child is FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour blecching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—Adv.

HOW THE CHAINS DO IT
Daily Editorial

FAILURE has already claimed the new pharmacist at X street and B avenue. He can't last.

His premiums are too high. He asks 70 cents—adding a 40 per cent differential—for ice cream that the store around the block furnishes at 50 cents per quart, and a half-dollar for brands of tooth paste sold all over town at 35 cents.

His dime package of boracic acid is two-thirds under size, and every proprietary in his case is ticketed at top price.

The chain-goblin will get him if he doesn't watch his charges. Economics won't tolerate super-profits. The value of his merchandise is the lowest sum at which it can be regularly sold.

The retailer can't determine his own margins. Competition fixes 'em.

Trade follows the line of least resistance and greatest savings. Consequently, mail order catalogs are getting thicker, and rural sales continue to thin.

And that's why vast concerns, with massed purchasing capacity and all the penny-saving tricks of efficient management, are shooting branches into every neighborhood, and capturing grocery and drug markets from Pensacola to Portland.

IT'S NO PART of public duty to support mal-administration and incompetence.

Any system that inflicts needless burdens on the family purse is intrinsically unsound and headed for the boneyard.

The laborer is worth exactly his hire, and has no just grievance against the community when it procures equivalent service for less than he is willing to supply it.

Profiteering, under whatever plea, is, in the last analysis, a privately levied tax-equivalent to a paternalistic grant and in no wise different from a subsiding demand.

Merchandising methods that permit the most goods for the same money will finally dominate the field.

The unfit neither survive in nature nor commerce.

Progress adopts the best instrument available and callously discards its predecessors.

Combinations and consolidations, which simplify distribution, eliminate middlemen, reduce overhead, and pass resultant salvage to the consumer, are of national benefit and prosper accordingly.

Small retailing faces a hopeless future, unless it learns to coordinate efforts, organize cooperatives, control inventories and reform sloppy credit practice.

It must get down to brass tacks or close shop.

To obtain rock-bottom terms, it must combine resources, group individual orders and place them en bloc, increase present turnovers, keep capital on the jump and train it to grab every possible discount.

The only remedy for the independent is a hair from the dog that's biting him.

What the Flame Means

WHENEVER people feel some great truth that they cannot quite put into words, they clothe it in a symbol. The deeper their feeling is, the more striking and effective the symbol becomes.

A few days ago American newspapers got photographs of the funeral of Marshal Foch. They were unusual pictures; and they showed how a deep belief of the French—a belief that is shared by men and women of all nations—has sought expression in a mystic, poetic symbol.

The flower-covered casket of Foch lay beneath the great Arc de Triomphe. The blackness of night was the background. By the casket flickered torches; and, in the foreground was the bright, glowing "eternal flame" that burns without ceasing at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

This eternal flame is more than a bit of fire that burns on a shrine of patriotism. It stands for something that is not often put into words. Even the body of a marshal of France, for the moment, took a secondary place beside it. It was greater than Foch, greater than any individual man.

Back of it there are all the armies that marched to war between 1914 and 1918; all the armies, and all the prayers and tears and aches and hopes that went with them. The flame burns for them—a symbol of the race's profound belief that in spite of all its senseless fury, its destruction, its insane violence and its frightful cost, the great war really meant something and really accomplished something, and was not simply an appalling blunder in which all the sacrifices were in vain.

Sometimes it is hard to understand why people everywhere did not rise up after the war and fling all their military machines on the junk pile. Surely, if anything could ever convince the race that war is an insane folly, the world war should have done it. It would have been only natural if the people of all nations had declared:

"No matter what may happen, we will never, never let ourselves in for anything like that again. Nothing on earth is worth it. We will find some better way of settling things."

But they did not. Marshal Foch, greatest commander of the greatest war in history, goes to his grave mourned by millions. His body lies by the eternal flame; and all of France, saluting reverently, renews the kind of emotion that makes war possible.

What does it mean, then? Simply this: that although the race may be blind and stupid, it is also indomitable. It has a determination and an endurance that can, in time, conquer everything.

If you want a thing hard enough, you get it. And if the people of the earth are determined enough to prove that the world war was not utterly useless—as the eternal flame would indicate—their determination, some day, will be justified.

Turn the Other Pocket?

CITY COUNCIL MEMBERS, concerned about the number of thefts and burglaries here, are confident that City Manager George D. Fairtrace has plans in mind that will serve to end the condition which has existed here for more than six months. The Record News trusts the council's feeling is well founded, although the city manager's only public statement in connection with the local crime wave is that "conditions here are no worse than in any other Texas city."

It seems probable that the city manager may wish to pursue his own methods of meeting the situation, and that he will make known his plans in due course. It would be unreasonable to assume a man so efficient in other phases of city management should be indifferent to a state of affairs so disturbing to the public mind as the present lack of law enforcement.

As a matter of fact, Wichita Falls residents are not concerned in whether conditions here are better or worse than in other Texas cities. The point that interests us is that conditions here are much worse than they have ever been before, and little has been done to remedy the situation. If we had a wave of hijackings, murders, bank robberies and gang wars going hand in hand with our thefts and burglaries, it might be truthfully said that "conditions here are no worse than in any other city." But as a matter of fact we haven't any such condition. We merely have innumerable thefts and burglaries, destructive of property, disturbing to the peace of mind of the citizenship, and likely to lead to the more serious offenses. Ours is a purely local and specialized crime wave, the cause for which, no one can doubt, is the almost total inability of the police departments to bring thieves and burglars to court. The thief and burglar are busy in Wichita Falls because their experience of the last six months shows that only one out of 25 times are they even arrested for their depredations, and only once out of approximately 50 times must they expect conviction for the crime.

If Mr. Fairtrace, Mayor J. W. Akin or any other public official thinks Wichita Falls is to tolerate such conditions on the theory that "conditions are no worse than in any other Texas city," The Record News believes they are seriously in error. The Wichita Falls citizen is patient. Often he is long suffering. But indications are that he has about reached the limit of endurance so far as concerns thievery and burglary, where 49 out of every 50 times, the rascals go scot free. Wichita Falls is tired of turning out the other pocket and opening the other door to the depredations of petty thieves, all of whom could be shooed out of town by one good, energetic Texas ranger, or the equivalent thereof.

FOREIGN CAPITAL AND TAXATION

What we want in Oklahoma is the happy medium, as far as this may be possible of attainment. We want capital and foreign concerns doing business in the state to pay their proportion of the expense of government, but we do not want to bait them and lead them to look upon Oklahoma as a freak state. Nor do we want to be in the position of creating distrust toward our own successful business people and institutions. —Frederick (Okla.) Leader.

REWARD FOR THE SOUTHERN DRYS

The southern drys who carried five states of their section for Mr. Hoover failed to get one of their representatives into the cabinet, but Chairman Work of the Republican national committee promises the South "increased representation in Republican national conventions." Hitherto this representation has been almost wholly "dark complected," but Mr. Work now seems to expect a large white addition composed of dry Democrats from five southern states.

The Day Book of a New Yorker
Broadway Chatter by Grant Dixon

NEW YORK, April 11.—Let us be frank now. Why is this written? It is to tell of the latest in New York. But behind all that New York is Broadway. Not that I personally subscribe to the generally accepted idea that Broadway is the life and soul of the city. Most assuredly it is not. It is but a Main street—the main street of the nation, a main street in the hearts and minds of those who dream of it.

But it is talked about so much, and so many questions and exclamations have arisen regarding it and against it that it cannot be ignored. From out of town comes a question: Where does Broadway begin and where does it end? It begins at the Battery and there are times, when the ferry boats are in the exact position in the bay, when you can look from the boat and see Manhattan cut in two by a narrow strip. That strip is Broadway.

It pushes its way straight through Manhattan, but deviating in the sense that while it begins in the middle of the Battery, it courses its way slowly, but inevitably, northwestward. Its life is varied. Downtown you find the financial district. Further up is the cloak and suit district. Midtown, in what we call Times square (the very essence of all that people refer to when they speak of Broadway), is the theatrical district. But up beyond Columbus circle are private dwellings and quiet apartment houses, belying the noise and activity in Times square.

Where does Broadway end? It does not end.

It courses northward, into the hundreds and the two hundreds, as streets are numbered, and then it loses itself into a highway, no longer called Broadway. And it goes on through the north and on to the west and to the very ends of the nation. And it does not end.

It does not end because the country has implanted in its mind a picture of Broadway. I need no contradiction here. Personal experiences and living in many cities have convinced me that this street, which is but a symbol, is the aim of all the ambitions and sophistications of our smaller cities and towns. In Chicago, for instance, they try their best to copy New York. In such a city as St. Louis I have heard a certain street of theaters referred to as "the Rialto."

And this I regret. There is no reason why Broadway should be the ultimate of a nation's ideal. But it is. The country usurps and wraps all the individual traits of smaller places. But worthy or not, the fact remains that my original contention is right. The street has impressed itself so vividly upon the national consciousness and imagination and hope and ambition sways us.

But I wish that those who have ambitions toward the street could have a dream about it: a dream that would concern its selfishness and conceit, its false gayety and inflated charm. Also its many absurdities, and the truth that its sophistications are merely the sophistications of a small city bloated up.

Reading about the recent instability of the stock exchange, I am reminded of a member who is, to my mind, the greatest of sports.

He placed his money, not wisely but too well, upon a certain stock. The chances were fifty-fifty. And, as is the case, usually, with such stocks that depend upon a "fifty-fifty" chance, instead of a conservative, safe chance, it rose tremendously and then fell suddenly. The stock exchange member was cleaned out, at least so far as that particular gamble was concerned.

"Do you know," he said afterward, "there was even less than a fifty-fifty chance in my mind that I would have good luck with it. In fact, I figured there would be no good luck. I gambled. We are all gamblers down here, only we don't like to admit it. It doesn't look good in print. But if that stock had succeeded I would now be interviewed about how I rose from something to what I am—and what am I?"

There was a certain important event in theatrical circles last week that cannot fail to intrigue the interest of those interested in the New York drama—which is to say, as somebody once said before, the drama. It is important, I think, because two men, one a dramatist and the other a critic, exhibited a most ingracious candor toward their respective professions.

Consider, first of all, Warren F. Lawrence, author of "Conflict." He sins against indelicacy by saying that since critics have their ideas of plays and players, it might not be a bad idea to adopt the suggestions of the critics and see whether the playwright or the critic is correct in his judgment, so far as the public is concerned. Therefore, he has digested all that the critics have had to say regarding "Conflict" and has revised his play along the lines suggested.

And what is the boomerang? Mr. Whitney Bolton, the critic whose phrases have startled Broadway even more than his opinions, comes out and suggests that the judgments of critics are not relied upon by playwrights, such as Mr. Lawrence, or by the public at large. It must be remembered, however, that Mr. Bolton is an arch-cynic, particularly when he replies to Mr. Lawrence: "Leave us to our insignificance, permit us our isolation."

◆ ◆ ◆

All this, I maintain, is a false attitude, not on the part of Mr. Bolton or Mr. Lawrence, but on the part of the general public that really is to blame for encouraging it. In very few instances this season have Broadway plays, condemned by the critics, survived, and in like manner those denounced have fallen by the wayside. But the public likes to think of the critics in one term: "Pshaw!"

The critic in New York today is more powerful than he has been, I think, since dramatic criticism was inaugurated in American journalism. We can recall James Huneker in music, and, while marveling at the beauty and exhaustiveness of his criticism, admit sadly that his influence was negligible. In the drama we can recall no great American dramatic critics, so that there is no way to compare with Huneker. But today all of our critics are, to say the least, competent, and they are respected—Mr. Bolton, in spite of his statements, no less than any of them.

Owner's Responsible

NEW ORLEANS.—The court of appeals here recently made a ruling that accidents suffered by an automobile, rented to a drunken man by drive-it-yourself companies, were directly responsible to the owner of the car. It is the company's fault, the court ruled, because "one who entrusts to incompetent hands a dangerous agency is responsible for the mischief due to the incompetent operation of the machine."

ELECTRA, Texas, April 11.—The rank of esquire was conferred upon W. T. Benbow at the regular weekly meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge Monday night. Fred Music was in charge of the degree team in the absence of Francis Awtrey, master of work. B. M. Eggenberg presided over the meeting.

Rehearsals are being held twice a week for the D. O. K. K. minstrel which will be held in Wichita Falls April 26, under the direction of H. G. Cottar of Fort Worth. W. H. Kay of Fort Worth was introduced as a visitor and gave a short talk.

COUNTY ODD FELLOWS MEET

14 Lodges at Electra For Session Wednesday

Special to The Record News

ELECTRA, Texas, April 11.—The quarterly meeting of the Wichita county I. O. O. F. and Rebekah association was held Wednesday night in the I. O. O. F. hall here, with 14 lodges represented from the district, which embraces Iowa Park, Wichita Falls, Burkburnett and Electra. R. T. Eudaley, chairman of the program committee, acted as master of ceremonies, and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. D. Butcher of Iowa Park, president of the association.

Guy Ragland of Wichita Falls, secretary of the association, read the minutes of the last meeting, delegates of the different lodges gave their reports, several business matters were discussed and the following program was presented, after a 30-minute concert by the Moonlight Serenaders of this city. Rebekah ode, by the assembly; prayer by chaplain, Mrs. C. P. Peterson; music; welcome address by Mayor George Ragland; reading by Mrs. Letha Kownslar; response by Mrs. Ada Ramsey of Wichita Falls; harmonica special by Jett Hughes; violin solo by Miss Beulah Ross; business session; one-act play, "Why Lie About It?" by Lee Fuher of Edgewood; refreshments.

The next quarterly meeting of the association will be held in Iowa Park during the month of July.

Health And Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy who can be addressed in care of this paper

(Copyright 1929 by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning, Sunday, April 14th:

Sunday — Breakfast; Cottage cheese, melba toast, baked apple. Lunch: Mushrooms en casserole, string beans, salad of sliced tomatoes. Dinner: Roast chicken with shredded wheat dressing, asparagus, steamed carrots with chopped parsley, salad of head lettuce, *chilled avocado cream.

Monday — Breakfast: Coddled eggs, re-toasted cereal biscuits, pear sauce. Lunch: Glass of grape juice. Dinner: Tomato and celery vegetable broth. Broiled steak, green peas,* cooked celery, salad of raw spinach, cup mustard.

Tuesday—Breakfast: Wholewheat mush with milk, no sugar, stewed raisins. Lunch: Baked squash, string bean salad. Dinner: Clear tomato soup, broiled filet of sole, cooked cauliflower, sliced tomatoes on lettuce, Jello or Jell-well, no cream.

Wednesday — Breakfast: French omelet, melba toast, stewed prunes. Lunch: Glass of buttermilk, 10 or 12 dates. Dinner: Roast mutton, cooked lettuce, baked parsnips, salad of chopped raw cabbage, pineapple snow.

Thursday—Breakfast: Grapefruit as desired. Lunch: Spinach and cheese en casserole, raw celery, ripe olives. Dinner: Vegetable soup, boiled lean beef, cooked carrots and peas, shredded lettuce with peanut butter dressing, prunes in gelatine.

Friday—Breakfast: Poached eggs on melba toast, stewed apricots. Lunch: Celery soup, string beans, salad of minced tomatoes and parsley. Dinner: Baked halibut, cooked lettuce, mashed turnips, salad of sliced cucumbers on lettuce, dish of berries, canned.

Saturday — Breakfast: Waffle, with butter and a little maple syrup, crisp bacon. Lunch: Glass of orange-milk. Dinner: Broiled lamb chops, baked egg plant, beets, molded vegetable salad of celery, raw cabbage and minced olives, apple whip.

*Chilled avocado cream: Select a medium sized avocado (alligator pear), one that feels soft when pressed with the finger tips, but does not feel mushy. Peel it by stripping the skin off in small pieces which leaves more of the green part. Mince the avocado fine and put on ice until you have whipped (not too stiff) a half pint of cream which may be sweetened slightly with about two tablespoonfuls of maple syrup. Fold in the minced avocado, and about one-third of a cupful of chopped, toasted almonds. Pack the bowl in ice and salt for about an hour before serving in sherbet cups. Sufficient for six or eight persons, according to size of avocado.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Ruptures in Children

Question: Mrs. C. F. writes: "My little girl will be four years old in June. Five months ago I discovered a lump on her right groin. I had a surgeon examine her last week and he said it was a definite rupture. Will you please advise me what to do, as I do not want her to have an operation if it can be avoided. She feels no pain whatever and it seems to cause her no trouble at all."

Answer: It would be unwise for me to attempt to advise you without having examined your child. Get the opinion of one or more physicians where you live and rely upon their judgment. I have known many cases to be cured by putting on a proper support and reducing the gas pressure inside the abdomen by using a suitable diet. Ruptures sometime heal up perfectly, but in case this method will not work, surgery is the only other step, and it is not such a dangerous one if performed by an experienced surgeon, and if the case is properly treated afterwards.

Uric Acid

Question: Mrs. P. B. writes: "I am not supposed to eat beef because of the uric acid. Could I eat the soup made from the beef?"

Answer: Almost any protein food forms uric acid, and you would probably get more of it from the soup made of the beef than from the beef, itself. The trouble is not because the uric acid is formed by the food, but from the inability to eliminate it from the body because of a general condition of acidosis, or some organic disease. This can sometimes be cured by the correct fasting and dieting regime. If you will send me more information about your trouble, with a large self addressed stamped envelope, I will be glad to give you more detailed advice.

Movie of Altus Scouts To Be Seen Soon

Special to The Record News

ALTUS, Okla., April 11.—A motion picture taken of the Boy Scouts of the Navajo Mountain council area two weeks ago while planting trees on the Altus property adjacent to Lake Altus is ready for release.

Titles were made for the film at a conference recently by the scout executive at the Harris studio in Hobart.

The film will be shown within a few days in Altus and will be distributed throughout the area following its showing here.

Merchants to Be Guests At Ozark Valley Dinner

Special to The Record News

ALTUS, Okla., April 11.—Sixty-two business firms which assisted Ozark Valley in the advertising program connected with the recent construction of their community building will be guests of the community at a dinner Friday night.

The Rev. R. W. Leazer, pastor of the Baptist church here, will be the principal speaker for the banquet.

The number of buffaloes in primitave times is estimated to have been between 50 and 75 million head.

MORAN: Shall I finish that letter from yo' folks?

MACK: Ain't this war bad enough?

MORAN: Yo' wife misses yo' a lot.

MACK: Th' lot is in a cemetery.

MORAN: She sez th' poleece is askin' about yo'.

MORAN: Th' night yo' left home, the grocery store wuz robbed.

MACK: Who did it?

MORAN: Th' grocer sez it wuz a tall dark man.

MACK: It must be one of us two.

MORAN: I'm a short man.

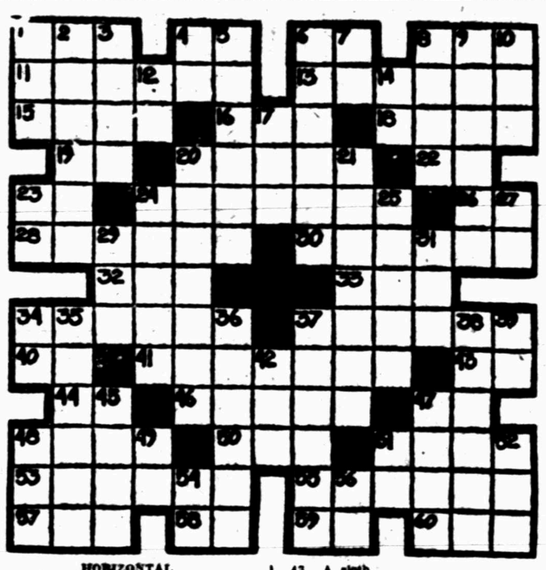

MACK: They kin stretch yo'.

MORAN: I ain't guilty.

MACK: No, but yo' wuz there.

SPUDDER BATTING ORDER REVISED FOR GAMES THIS WEEK-END

PETE TURGEON TO HIT FIFTH

Eldred or Fitz Second And Third; Waly Seventh

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

Our Spudders will line up tomorrow and Sunday in games with the Fort Worth Cats out at the lot, as they will start Wednesday at Shreveport in the Texas league championship opener, with one exception. Jake Fitzgerald, recovering from a twisted ankle, will not play in the pastimes with Atz' Cats, though he expects to be out there center-fielding when the bell rings Wednesday.

Skipper Galloway has done much cogitating about his batting order, and has decided on a revision, to be tried out tomorrow. Rabbit Benton will lead off, as usual, but Pete Trugeon will be dropped from second to fifth. Pete is a cut and slash hitter and as such is extremely valuable in driving runners home. But he isn't much of a bunter and the second-place man in the order must be primarily a sacrifice expert.

Brick Eldred will be advanced to the second or third spot. He should be adequate at either place, as he is an expert bunter for the second spot and good at hitting behind runners, with his ability to hammer the ball to either field, in the third position.

Fitz Can Hit Anywhere

Fitzgerald will remain third in the order if Eldred bats second or will hit next to the leadoff if Brick is third. Fitz can hit and bunt and run—in fact, Jake can do anything, and do it as well or better than any of them on the ball field.

Powerhouse Bennett, of course, will hit in the cleanup spot—fourth. Nature endowed the big fellow with all requisites of a typical cleanup hitter—tremendous driving force and the ability to hit with runners on bases. He may look bad on any ball, as all free swingers, even the great man Ruth, do. But on the same sort of pitch is apt to smash it out of the lot.

Following Turgeon will be Stapleton and then Swenson, the catcher and the pitcher.

Benton, Fitzgerald and Stapleton are left-hand hitters, and hence there won't be more than two Spudders at the most who hit from the near side to follow in succession in the batting order. And left-hand hurlers won't greatly bother the Spudders, as Benton and Fitz hit the southpaws about as well as they hammer the right-handers.

Pete Lapan, the holdover catcher of the staff, doubtless will be back of the log in the inaugural at Shreveport. The matter of the starting hurler probably will be determined in the tilts with Fort Worth.

George or Milt Pitch

George Payne and Milt Steengrafe will start the combats with the Cats and will be permitted to toil as long as they care to stay in there. The one who indicates he is in the best form will get the opening day assignment. Both George and Milt showed against the White Sox that they are ready and it doesn't make much difference who works the opener.

The athletes went through only one drill yesterday and will have one workout this afternoon, in which extensive batting practice will predominate.

Tickets for the home opening game, Tuesday, April 23, will be placed on sale today at Renfro's No. 1 drug store and Miller's drug store. Box, reserved and general admission ducats all may be obtained at those two stores.

No reservations for tickets will be accepted at Spudder headquarters, according to Secretary Guy Airey, except those in blocks from neighboring towns.

Box seats may be had for 50 cents and reserved seats for 25 cents. The admission to the grandstand is 75 cents.

Judgment Is Reserved

S. and S. Commercial Studio Photo.

Ed Taber, bespectacled southpaw from the Eastern league, made anything but an impressive Spudder debut last Sunday against the Chicago White Sox. But that is not a definite indication that he will not be an asset for the Wichita Falls club.

For one thing, it was Edward's first start this spring and he was handicapped by illness when he first reported here, which set him back in his conditioning. He was a winner for the New Haven Profs, Eastern league champions of 1928, and he will have ample opportunity with the Spudders before thumbs are turned down on him.

Training Camp Chatter

WASHINGTON, April 11. (UP)—The Washington Senators won their third game from the New York Giants here today, 2 to 1, in the best played game of the series. Liska started for the Senators and allowed one hit in six innings. Brown relieved him in the seventh and held the Giants to one hit in the last three innings.

The Giants scored their only run in the first inning when Reese made the only hit off Liska, a long triple. The Senators scored in the fourth and put the winning run over the plate in the last of the ninth.

YANKS WIN SLUGFEST

ATLANTA, Ga., April 11. (UP)—The New York Yankees won a free-hitting battle from the Atlanta Crackers today, 15 to 12. The Crackers totaled 20 hits off three Yankee pitchers while two Atlanta hurlers gave the New York sluggers 18. Lou Gehrig contributed a home run in the first inning that scored two men ahead of him.

PHILS DEFEAT A's

PHILADELPHIA, April 11. (UP)—The Phillies took the lead in their spring city series with the Athletics here today, winning, 3 to 1, in a hard fought game. Willoughby went the whole route for the winners, holding the A's to 8 hits and allowing but one run, in the eighth.

The Phils totaled 10 safe blows off Yerkes and Earnshaw and scored one run in each of the second, fifth and ninth innings.

AA NINE BEATS REDS

INDIANAPOLIS, April 11. (UP)—The Indianapolis Indians checked the Cincinnati Reds here this afternoon, 10 to 4, in an exhibition game. Six runs in the fourth inning put the Reds out of the running.

Rixey and Johnson were the Cincinnati mound choices and yielded 10 hits. Three Cincinnati errors aided the Indians.

CATS DEFEAT WACO, 10 TO 1

Whitworth Hurls Four-Hit Game to Even Series

WACO, April 11. (AP)—The Fort Worth Panthers got great pitching from Dick Whitworth here today and evened the series with the Cubs, 10 to 1.

Whitworth allowed only four scattered hits, the only run being a homer by Paul Johnson. Score:

Dance Hall Brawl Ends With Shooting

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, April 11. (INS)—Lawrence (Red) Wylie, 37, is dead here today as the result of a shooting affray which occurred at a dance hall near here last night. O. B. Lyon, 18, surrendered to officers following the shooting. Lyon charged that Wylie had made improper remarks about several girls on the dance hall floor, one of them his sister. When Wylie mentioned his sister's name, Lyon said, he grappled with Wyle, firing one shot into his body in the ensuing scuffle.

DAILY DOPE

MAJOR league ball clubs are in or nearing their home quarters, with spring training nearly over, after revealing unexpected strength or weakness. Closely-fought and uncertain campaigns in both fast time circuits is forecast, with the possibility of an upset seen in the American league and a three or four-cornered fight again predicted in the National loop.

This is a year of opportunity for Connie Mack's Athletics. Ever since 1914 the wizard of Shibe park has been trying to bring home a pennant winner. With the Yankees creaking along, their defense, including the pitching a matter of grave doubt, this is THE year for the Mackmen. But critics doubt if the Athletics will arise to the occasion.

Al Simmons is suffering from injured ankles, the same ailment that laid him low last spring, and will be out of the game several weeks. The A's infield is not functioning as it should and the pitchers have been slow in rounding into form.

◆ ◆ ◆

ST. LOUIS and Washington are regarded as dark horses. Dan Howley's fine and fighting young team that surprised baildom by finishing third last year might sweep all before them this campaign, as did the little-considered Boston Braves of 1914, who came from nowhere to win the pennant and world series.

Under the inspiration of beloved Walter Johnson, the Senators, with a really formidable ball club, provided the mighty-hitting Goose Goslin is at his best, should be a dominating figure in the flag fight. The Senators have played inspiring ball this spring, showing an eager desire to work their best and win for old Barney, and if the former matchless pitcher can maintain that spirit throughout the summer, the Nationals are going to have something to say about the ultimate destination of the gonfalon in Mr. Barnard's circuit.

NEW YORK and Chicago are viewed as the foremost contenders for the National league championship. The well-balanced Giants without an apparent weakness except possibly at second base are set for a determined drive.

The Cubs, with the great Hornsby in their lineup, also have balance—and punch—but like the Giants, a possible weak line, this at third base. Hornsby also is something of a question, some experts holding to the opinion that the Rajah is a trouble-maker and will cause dissension within the ranks and will not get along amicably with Manager Joe McCarthy. However, Hornsby is a great hitter and playing on a winning ball club is a spirit spark and will add great punch to the Bear attack.

St. Louis, with a rebuilt club, still retains some elements of power and the Pittsburgh Pirates, with the Waners, back in the fold, will be dangerous. Both the Cards and Pirates, however, seem to lack the drive and balance essential to pennant winners.

CHICKS HALT PIRATES

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 11. (AP)—A Pittsburgh rally in the ninth inning fell short of tying the score by one run and the Memphis Chickasaws of the Southern association won, 6 to 5, here today.

BYERS LASSIES WIN NET TITLE

Wichitans Lose in Boys' Doubles in District

HALL TO BOX TRAMEL HERE

Ross Cards Favorites For Feature Wednesday

In this corner, Duke Tramel of Fort Worth, 145 pounds; in that corner, Cyclone Hall of Childress, 152 pounds. Thus the announcer will send them on their way Wednesday night in the 10-round windup of Alex Ross' boxing show at the Palace theater, in a bout that will attract fans from all West Texas.

Tramel is one of the best known scrappers in the Southwest and a headliner on Fort Worth cards. Hall has a succession of many victories gained in Wichita Falls rings the past winter, and in Tramel he faces the most formidable foe of his short but spectacular career.

Red Williams of Childress and Hugh Gray of Lawton, Okla., will meet in the eight-round semi-windup. Professor Ross says this will be a slugging melee full of action. They are middleweights.

Brady Finley of Duncan, Okla., and Joe Hooks of Stamford, featherweights, will step six rounds.

Medalist Is Eliminated In North-South Amateur

PINEHURST, N. C., April 11. (AP)—John W. Dawson of Chicago, medalist, was eliminated, 3 and 2 today by William C. Fownes Jr., Pittsburgh, in the quarter-final match of the twenty-ninth annual men's North and South amateur golf tournament here.

Philips Finlay, Belmont, Mass., defeated John D. Chapman, Greenwich, Conn., 5 and 3.

Richard Wilson, Southern Pines, N. C., Georgetown university star, won a 5 and 4 victory over B. P. Merriman of Waterbury, Conn.

George Voight, defending champion, overwhelmed C. H. Eaton, Boston, a Harvard freshman, when he tallied a 7 to 6 victory.

Wilson will meet Fownes in the semi-finals tomorrow and Finlay will meet Voight.

BROWS WHALE TULSA

TULSA, Okla., April 11. (AP)—The St. Louis Browns administered a crushing shutout defeat, 14 to 0, to the Tulsa Oilers in the second and last exhibition game of their series here today.

BARONS TRIM INDIANS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 11. (UP)—The Birmingham Barons beat the Cleveland Indians, 8 to 5, in a loosely played exhibition game here today.

GIANTS AND YANKS FAVORED BY EXPERTS TO WIN PENNANTS

CUBS VIEWED AS DANGEROUS

Washington Held as Team Of Possibilities

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK, April 11. (UP)—The New York Yankees and New York Giants are picked to win the major league pennant races in the United Press composite selections based on nominations from the leading baseball experts of the country.

The Yankees are outstanding favorites to win their fourth straight American league pennant, while the Giants are slightly favored over the Chicago Cubs to win the National league flag.

Seven out of eight experts selected the Yankees to repeat. The only dissenting vote against the Yankees came from a Washington scribe who believes that history will repeat itself and the Senators stop the Yankees short of their fourth straight flag as was the case in 1924 after Miller Huggins' club had triumphed the three previous years.

The Giants received five votes for first place and three for second. Two writers—Chicago and Brooklyn—picked the Cubs to win and the third from St. Louis awarded first place to the Cardinals.

Yanks Poll Most Votes

The Yankees polled the most points—63 out of a possible 64—based on eight points for first place, seven for second, six for third, etc. The Giants received 61 points.

The American league situation is sized up pointedly by a St. Louis expert when he says: "The Yankees would be tough to beat if they didn't have anything but their uniforms. They may be tottering. The pitching staff may be shot full of holes. But they look like pennant winners and are guilty until proved innocent."

In the National league the majority of experts predict a close race between the Giants and Cubs with John McGraw's club winning on better pitching, reserve strength and speed.

Although the Cubs' correspondent picks Joe McCarthy's team to win the pennant, he admits that the selection is based on sentiment.

"The Giants and Cubs are great ball clubs and should be rated on par in any selection. The acquisition of Hornsby has added power to the Cubs. The Giants have improved their outfield and catching departments. I pick the Cubs to win because of sentiment alone."

These Don't Like Beg

Not all National league experts are in accord as to Hornsby's value to the Cubs. The New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis writers believe that Hornsby will hurt the team defensively and in other ways.

"Hornsby can't field in a class with Maguire," according to one writer. "Third base is a weak spot and the Cubs' pitching will be no better. McCarthy burns up his good pitchers before September and the Cubs always finish poorly. The team also lacks reserve strength."

The only flaw found in the Giants' machine was discovered by the Brooklyn correspondent, who says the Giants lack pitching strength to combat the Cubs' staff. The consensus, however, indicated that the Giants have the stronger of the two pitching staffs.

The battle for second place in the National league will be keener than the fight for first place, according to a veteran Cincinnati critic.

Giants Sure to Win

"The Giants are a sure bet to win the pennant," he says, "but the Reds, Cardinals, Cubs and Pirates are likely to be so closely matched that any one of them may run second or fifth."

It is the opinion of more than one expert that the Senators will be the most improved club in the major leagues.

"The Senators have a dangerous club built around the winning personality of Walter Johnson," according to one contributor. "Myer at third and Bluege at shortstop round out a great infield. With Goslin's arm well, Washington may be the club the Yankees will have to beat."

Among the second division clubs the Detroit Tigers are rated the strongest in the American league and the Cincinnati Reds in the National league.

Every expert agreed that the Boston Braves had the worst club in the major leagues.

NO-HIT, NO-RUN GAME

M'KINNEY, Texas, April 11. (AP)—The first no-hit, no-run game of the current baseball season in Texas was chalked up here today when Dickenson of McKinney High school pitched his mates to a 11 to 0 victory over Highland Park of Dallas.

Barbuti Would Be Reinstated

Sprinter May Ask Lifting Of A. A. U. Ban

NEW YORK, April 11. (US)—"I want to be reinstated."

Thus spoke Ray Barbuti, suspended Olympic 400-meter track champion, in answer to printed statements that the A. A. U. would probably receive him back into the sacred precincts of the organization.

Warmed by the invigorating touch of embryonic summer, Barbuti declared today that he saw no reason why he might not train outdoors for the National A. A. U. title meet at Denver on July 3, 4 and 5, providing the A. A. U. "takes the rope from around his neck." The former Syracuse university hurdy is doing light road work now upon occasion.

Barbuti revealed that he had been invited to complete in a special 300-yard race in the Texas relays, but was forced to refuse owing to his ineligibility.

The Long Islander, questioned in his office at the Guardian Life Insurance suite about the quoted remarks of Dan Ferris, secretary of the A. A. U., that he did not, in his private opinion, see why Barbuti should not be reinstated due to late developments, was astonished. Barbuti had not yet seen the piece in reference.

According to the official, Barbuti had been punished because he had made charges against the A. A. U. in regards to professionalism. Inasmuch as the runner's denunciations and "Our Amateurs Are Paid" story in Sportsmanship accused no one directly, and since the same complaints had been heard often before, it seemed to Ferris, that Barbuti's amateur standing being unblemished, the latter could be considered for reinstatement if he sent in an application. The metropolitan registration committee of the A. A. U. would have to take up and vote on the question at one of their periodical meetings.

Baer Facts

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

NEW YORK, April 11.—The White House doctors are agitated over Mr. Hoover's ability to shake hands during White House receptions and still retain his school girl complexion.

On Thursday, April 4, Mr. Hoover shook hands with 1,700 assorted constituents. A goodly number.

Is Mr. Hoover a president or a pumphandle?

Everybody who goes to Washington wants to see the monument and shake hands with the president.

What does shaking hands with any prominent man mean?

That you are gladder to see him than he is to see you.

A handshake like that can mean nothing.

You don't expect the president's heart to be in his cuff, do you?

You must admit that shaking hands has little significance with call money at 12 per cent.

We saw Sharkey and Stribling shake hands down at Miami at the start of their fight.

It was the last time that evening that either one led with this right.

Why wouldn't it be just as nutritious if a visitor merely waved at the dean of the White House?

Why is it necessary for a tourist to boast that he has a shaking acquaintance with the president?

Isn't a waving agreement just as exclusive?

How would an automobile run with 1,700 hands shaking at the wheel?

If this keeps up, every future president should be elected for three terms. Two in which to do his work and the third in which to waggle mitts.

Any minute now, Mr. Hoover is liable to suffer from a nervous breakdown of his thumb.

There is a man up in Maine who can crumble walnuts in his hands and bend iron bars with his fingers.

Mr. Hoover should appoint that man as his White House spokesman.

He is the baby who will break their spokes.

California Would Stage Olympic Winter Sports

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11. (AP)—Describing the action of the international olympic games committee as awarding the winter sports of the 1932 olympic games to Lake Placid, N. Y., as an "outrage," William E. Humphrey, president of the California Olympic games committe, announced today that protest will be made immediately.

Humphrey, also president of the San Francisco Olympic club, declared that if a protest brings no result, he is in favor of holding winter games in this state in opposition.

MAX-PAULINO CONTEST OFF

New York Commission Throws Wrench in Plans

NEW YORK, April 11. (US)—The Max Schmeling-Paulino Uscudun match, which was scheduled as the first of the great outdoor boxing attractions of 1929, was virtually annulled by an unexpected ruling of the state athletic commission.

Responding to an inquiry from Chairman Paul Prehn of the Illinois Athletic commission, the New York board sternly reiterated this intention of continuing its recognition of Arthur Bulow as the sole manager of Schmeling.

Schmeling, who is now in Germany, has announced he will remain in Europe until the expiration of the Bulow contract unless some way is found to allow Joe Jacobs, an American manager, to handle his business. Bulow's contract does not run out until a year year from next December.

In replying to Prehn, the local commissioners said that Bulow is the only man who will be allowed to transact business for Schmeling in the state. Schmeling signed a commission contract with Bulow just before he lost his heart to Jacobs, and the commissioners have adopted the attitude that they must protect the rights of managers as well as those of the fighters.

If Prehn accepts this ruling for Illinois, his lead will probably be followed by the commissions of other states where boxing is legalized. Prehn is the president of the National Boxing association, an organization which controls boxing in over 20 states.

Schmeling May Battle Paulino in Charity Show

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—Despit the tangled conditions of Max Schmeling's fistic affairs, the young German heavyweight probably will return to the United States late this month to box Paulino Uscudun, Spaniard, charity fund show staged by Madison Square garden in Yankee stadium June 27.

Although Joe Jacobs, American manager of the latest ring sensation, declared today that Schmeling still was undecided about returning to New York, where the state athletic commission holds that Arthur Buelow is his rightful manager, it was indicated that Max would be permitted to engage the Spaniard under Jacob's direction.

Young Woman Dies From Taking Poison

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 11. (UP)—Mrs. Juanita Brown, 20 years old, of Elk City, died at a hospital here today from poison, attendants said.

Mrs. Brown was found unconscious in a rooming house late yesterday. She had registered under the name of Mrs. Juanita Wolfe, police said.

She was found by a man roomer at the same house.

Funeral arrangements were delayed pending arrival of her father from Elk City.

So It Goes

Baseball's campaign of 1929 opened with Walter Johnson, the Coffeyville Express, derailed.

The campaign of 1929 will open minus Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker. It will be the first year since 1906 that Cobb is among the missing, and that was nine years before the not so late war broke. It will be the first season since 1907 that Tris Speaker has missed from big league play.

So it goes. Mathewson, Wagner and Lajoie finished their careers close together. Johnson, Cobb and Speaker were not so far apart. The Babe still remains, and so does Hornsby. Alexander starts another year, but his time seems to be closing out. Ruth has been the high spot of the game for the last 10 years, the greatest single gate attraction ever known. And the Babe is no infant. He was a big leaguer 15 years ago, and through all that time slender ankles have been carrying a heavy body. His present contract ends this season, but that will make no great difference to Ruth. No one can ever say that he ever gave less than he had to give.

There has been some one coming along to fill every gap. Whether any one can take Ruth's place as a crowd magnet is somewhat doubtful. He has been something more than the star home run hitter, a star left-handed pitcher, a fine outfielder and a good first baseman. He has also been Babe Ruth.

Hagen and the British Open

In the last few years Walter Hagen has won three British open golf championships and has finished second in a fourth start.

This season he has something more than British golfers to beat. He has the strongest flock of homebreds the United States has ever sent to England or Scotland, including Horton Smith, Gene Sarazen, Johnny Farrell and Leo Diegel.

He also has to reckon with Macdonald Smith and Tommy Armour, two transplanted Scots who are always formidable.

Mac Smith sailed some time ago, to be set and ready for this test, possibly his last try across the Atlantic.

Hagen has found Horton's pace entirely too fast in the last five tournaments he has played, but it may be that his greater experience in British golf will tell another story—that and young Smith's forced shift from steel to wooden shafts.

All in all it will be a tough field for any individual to whip. It will need a star golfer on top of his game to lead this pack.

Mac Smith's Tragedy

Mac Smith has been a great golfer for more than 20 years. He was good enough to tie for the U. S. open in 1909, 20 years ago.

Yet in the shadow of 40, he has never won a major British or American crown. He has led any number of fine fields in various championships. A year or so ago he played 18 consecutive tournament rounds at an average of 70. But he has never been quite able to hit his stride when a major title was hanging in the air.

He won the $10,000 Los Angeles open in 1928, and again in 1929, from some of the greatest golfers in the game. He has been good enough to win two or three championships. He has proved himself to be a great shot maker, one of the greatest, and a fine money player from one ocean to another. But as the years slipped by he found his main ambition harder and harder to reach. His more than keen anxiety to win has been setting him back. He never has been able to hit his true pace in one of the classics, either here or abroad.

This may be his year. He is long overdue. But he has picked out one of the hardest of all fields to beat when the clan gathers at Muirfield in early May. In case he broke through there would be no victory more popular among those who follow the game.

Ray Conger Runs In Kansas Race

LAWRENCE, Kan., April 11. (INS)—Ray Conger, America's outstanding distance runner, will compete in a special race at the seventh annual Kansas relays to be staged here April 20, according to an announcement this morning from the K. U. athletic office by Dr. F. C. Allen, director of athletics.

Although athletic officials have not yet secured an opponent for the former Iowa State college star, Conger has definitely promised to appear here for an exhibition race. The event will be either a mile or a half mile special race.

Efforts are being made to bring either Nurmi, famous finnish distance star, or Wide, to the relays to run against Conger, who holds victories over both. But this morning Dr. Allen said that a definite announcement would not be made for a day or two. He was confident that one of the two will be here, however.

John Kuck, holder of the world's championship in the shot put, has accepted an invitation to take part in a special event at the relays. An attempt is being made to bring Claud E. Bracey, sensational Texas dash star, who recently broke the world's 100-yard dash record in 9.4 seconds.

Entries are coming in daily at the athletic office and the field this year promises to be the largest in history of the relays. More than 1,000 athletes from a hundred schools are expected. The latest entry is that of the University of New Mexico, which was received this morning.

SOLONS LOOM AS CONTENDER

Washington Club May Halt Yankee's March

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—It will be nothing unusual if the Washington Senators justify their increasing support among the critics and develop into the principal threat to another victorious march by the world's champion Yankees.

Washington has been a jinx to New York teams to a greater extent than any other in recent seasons.

Walter Johnson, an heroic figure in 1924, is the helm of the Washington craft that hopes to upset another Yankee winning streak.

The cry against over-emphasis may still be heard where inter-collegiate athletics are discussed, but seems to have become feebler, even where football be involved. Apropos of the situation, Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, says:

"As America is at the moment, I cannot share the feeling of opposition to the hippodrome sort of athletic activities. They contribute color and pageantry at a time when we have all too little color and pageantry. And I have been unable to feel any enthusiasm for the innumerable attempts to reform football, for instance, so that more students might participate."

Why we're handling GENERAL MOTORS TRUCKS

It was something more than the famous name that lead us to choose General Motors Trucks.

Their modern ideas of what modern trucks should be and do for owners, for one thing. And the practical way in which they have turned those ideas into equipment that earns profits for thousands and thousands of owners.

Their unusual facilities for giving a buyer unusual value. Their four-square policies. Their intelligent effort to work with truck owners—with the unusual Buyers' Safeguards that have resulted. (Do you know about them?)

The completeness of the General Motors Truck line—and the true up-to-dateness and real value offered in every truck in that line. The fact that a General Motors Truck buyer becomes our business-friend for keeps!

We're thoroughly equipped to render the kind of service you'd naturally expect for equipment bearing this name. Equipped to give you practical, valuable advice on any haulage or delivery problem. All you have to do is to come in, or telephone, and ask us.

No, there are no pictures of trucks in this truck ad. But it is a plain, straightforward picture of what we think a truck dealer should offer in this day and age.

GULF STARTING TESTS ON DIAL

Reports Show Activity In Panhandle Field

Special to The Record News.

BORGER, Texas, April 11.—Two new tests spudding in and two rig building jobs are the new operations of the Gulf Production company in the Panhandle area.

The tests spudding in this week are on the Dial farm in Hutchinson county, north of the South Canadian river while the rigs are being built in the Bowers pool of Gray county.

Dial No. 44 is located in section 36, block M-23, H. T. C. railway, an offset to the W. S. Christian section.

Dial No. 45 is located in northeast corner of the south half of section 25, block 47, H. and T. C. survey. It is about a mile north of the Canadian river.

In Gray county the new Gulf tests are as follows:

J. B. Bowers No. A-7 section 89, block B-2, H. and G. N. survey. The test is in the northwest quarter and is north of Bowers No. 3.

William Jackson No. 1 section 62, block B-2, H. and G. N. survey.

Marland Finley No. 2, an offset to Marland Finley No. 1 in section 32, block B-2, is drilling at 250 feet. It was spudded in Saturday afternoon. No. 1 is pumping about 878 barrels daily. The Marland Finley No. 2 is in the southeast quarter of section 32.

Johnson C-1 of the Marland Oil company on the Johnson farm in section 5, B. and B. survey, Hutchinson county, south of the Marland camp at Borger, is drilling at 2740 feet.

Burnett L-1 of the Marland in section 79, block 4, I. and G. N. survey, is drilling at 1855 feet.

Rigging up is the operation at the Sanford C-1 of the Marland Oil company in section 79 of block 46, H. and T. C. survey, Hutchinson county. It is the second location of Marland in this county this [illegible].

Spudding in is expected to come in a day or two. The test is on the south bank of the South Canadian, near the famous Sanford area in western Hutchinson county.

J. H. Palmer No. 1 of the Phillips Petroleum company in the southeast of the east 60 of section 31, block 2, I. and G. N. survey, Gray county, an offset to the Marland-Finley No. 1 is drilling at 2000 feet. The test is the first offset to the Marland well to be started.

There are three other offsets of other companies to the Marland well, all just started. Champlin Refining has its No. 1 in section 33, the south offset; Operators Oil No. 1 in section 30, the northeast offset and Texas company No. 1 in section 21, an east offset.

Marland No. 2 is south of No. 1.

Two of the three new locations of the Phillips Petroleum company on the Mary Whitley survey, Hutchinson county, north of Borger, have been spudded in.

Pulaski-Whittenburg No. 4 in tract is drilling at 100 feet.

Florence No. 5 in the east half of tract 1 is drilling at 340 feet.

Florence No. 6 has not been started. It is being held up awaiting activities of No. 5.

Bret No. 1 of the Phillips Petroleum, southwest of the townsite of Stinnett, county seat of Hutchinson county, is drilling at 3115 feet.

No. 2 in section 23, block M-23, is shut down. It had some oil showing at below 3122 feet but there was too much gas and the drilling stopped.

Mile Extension In North Pecos

Special to The Record News.

SAN ANGELO, Texas, April 11.—More than a mile eastern extension of the Pecos Valley Oil company in Northern Pecos county today appeared probable from the striking of an estimated three to five million cubic feet of gas in Perrin and others' No. 1 Eaton, 150 feet from the northwest and southwest lines of section 27, block 3, H. & T. C. railway company survey.

Gas was encountered at 1,480 feet and drilling stopped ten feet deeper in sandy shale, probably to run six-inch casing as salt water was reported leaking around eight-inch pipe landed at 1,120 feet.

The Pecos Valley wells, producing from sand below 1,600 feet, had little gas. While still cleaning out on bottom at 2,614 feet in sand, Gulf Production company's No. 4 O'Brien in Northern Ward county flowed an average of 62½ barrels of high gravity sweet oil hourly by heads at intervals of slightly over an hour.

The well is in the center of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 19, block F, Gunter Munson, Maddox Brothers and Anderson survey, one mile north of Wickett on the T. & P. railroad. It has opened a new pool on a Gulf block of 76 sections.

Running of six-inch casing to 5,002 feet was begun in R. R. Penn and others' No. 1 Bowles in Southeastern Reeves county, which since Saturday has been standing in fluid, thought to be all oil, within 260 feet of the top with the total depth 5,177, two feet in pay.

Gober Denies Solon's Case Cost Him His Job

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 11. (AP)—William M. Gober, United States district attorney for southern Florida, has issued a formal statement in which he denied the case of Representative Alfred M. Michaelson of Illinois had anything to do with his resignation, submitted yesterday to Attorney-General Mitchell.

The Illinois congressman was indicted recently in Gober's district on charges of violating the prohibition laws. Nearly six months elapsed before public announcement was made of the case.

Arrest to Celar Up Fort Worth Robberies

FORT WORTH, April 11. (INS) With the arrest of a negro here last night, police today expect to clear up a series of burglaries which have remained unsolved for some time. The negro confessed to the burglarizing of two homes. Merchandise to the value of $150 was found at the place where the negro was arrested. Efforts are being made, by the police to identify a part of it, believed to have come variously from more than 40 places.

TEXAS COMPANY LOCATION

The Texas company has made location for its No. 1 J. M. D. Daugherty to be drilled 150 feet each way from the southeast corner of J. M. Daugherty land in the Isaac Hughson survey in Jack county. The test is northwest of Bryson and west of the new Harper producer on the Mrs. Leffel farm.

HOLLIDAY POOL

Harry Hines is bailing the sand and showing considerable oil in his No. 1 Mrs. Wallace test located in the southwest corner of his lease in block 2, Denton county school lands in the Holliday pool northeast of Holliday in north Archer county. The well, which is a north offset to the Pandem Oil company's No. 1 Wallace topped the sand at 1778 feet.

TEXAS COMPANY DUSTER

The Texas company has abandoned as a dry hole its No. 1 Mrs. M. W. Petty test located in the southeast corner of the Mrs. Petty 100 acre tract out of B. B. B. & C. R. R. survey, northeast Young county. Total depth of hole is 854 feet.

NORTHEAST HOLLIDAY

The Pandem Oil company No. 2 Mrs. M. A. Wallace located 300 feet east of its No. 1 producer in block 11, Denton county school lands, in the Holliday pool of Archer county, is drilling at 1600 feet.

Trail Taken By Lee and Johnston To Be Maintained

AUSTIN, Texas, April 11. (AP)—Historic interest has brought a decision from the Austin city council that a little-traveled road, the route that Generals Robert E. Lee and Albert Sidney Johnston took when they came to Texas before the Civil war to establish forts at Mason and Fredericksburg, shall be kept open.

When a property owner recently blocked the road with a fence, A. J. Zilker, Austin resident, protested that the trail should be perpetuated. The council shared Zilker's opinion.

City Attorney J. Bouldin Rector said that the section of the road within the corporate limits of Austin was city property and that the council was cloaked with an authority to maintain it.

NOTED HOUSTON OIL MAN DIES

W. N. Long, Galena Signal President, Drops Dead

HOUSTON, April 11. (INS)—W. N. Long, 55, of Houston, until two months ago president of the Galena Signal Oil company of Texas, dropped dead on the streets here today. Long was well known in oil circles throughout the country.

Long fell while walking in the business district. Physicians said his death was due to heart disease.

Long had been associated with the oil interests of Texas for the past 20 years. He came to Houston in March, 1917, as secretary of the Galena Signal company of Texas. In July, 1922, he was made vice president. Later he was elevated to the presidency, which position he occupied until a short time ago. Before joining the Galena Signal Long was associated with the Gulf and Texas companies.

Besides Mrs. Long, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. R. W. Lilliott of Galena and Miss Myrtle Long of Houston.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—An early decline in cotton today, influenced by a better weather map and relatively easy Liverpool cables, was followed by recoveries, attributed to trade buying and covering. July contracts sold up from 19.77 to 19.92 and closed at 19.91, compared with 19.98 at the close of the previous day. The general market closed steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 13 points and sold about 10 to 13 points net lower in the early trading under liquidation which appeared to be combined with some local and commission house buying. A private report estimating domestic consumption for March at 626,000 bales seemed to be rather under bullish expectations and might have been a factor in the early decline, which carried prices off to 20.38 for May and 19.77 for December contracts. Offerings tapered off at these lower levels, however, and trading became quiet at mid-day, while prices showed more steadiness.

Later the demand increased, with some trade buying of near months in evidence. There was also covering on the rally, which carried May back to about the 20½-cent level. December sold up to 19.93, with active months generally showing net advances of about 1 to 6 points. Closing quotations were within a point or two of the best.

Private cables said the Liverpool market had been influenced by London and local selling and reported a small offtake in cotton cloths and yarns with stocks accumulating. Port receipts today, 8,948 bales. United States port stocks, 1,600,073. Exports today, 20,327, making 7,046,658 so far this season.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, April 11. (AP)—Strength in stocks was reflected in a late rally in the cotton market today after values had eased off during the greater part of the session on the favorable weather in the belt. July contracts which had declined to 19.72 rallied to 19.85 and closed at 19.82, or two points net down for the day. The general market closed net unchanged to two points down. Continued favorable weather was a contributing factor to the decline, which ultimately carried May to 19.66, July 19.72 and October 19.56, or 12 to 13 points down from yesterday's close.

In final trading, however, firmness of stocks coupled with active covering promoted by the stronger technical position of the market caused a sharp rally. Active positions made new highs for the day, May selling at 19.78, July 19.85 and October 19.69, or 12 to 13 points above the early lows. Final prices were 1 to 3 points under the top and practically unchanged compared with yesterday's close.

Receipts, 8,984; for week, 41,812; for year, 8,896,309; last year, 7,673,350. Exports, 20,327; for week, 78,671; for year, 6,621,474; last year, 5,915,077. Stocks, 1,624,458; last year, 1,654,129. Stock on shipboard, 102,108; last year, 111,912. Spot sales, 9,358; last year, 14,348.

THE TIMKEN ROLLER BEARING COMPANY

Five-Year Record

The Timken Roller Bearing company has been in business about 28 years. It has practically a monopoly of the tapered roller bearing business. It makes anti-friction bearings for machinery of all kinds. It also makes high grade electric steel for its own use and sells its surplus to the general trade as well as alloy, spring and magnet steels in any size, hot or cold drawn. Its main product is the Timken roller bearing. This is most extensively used in automobile construction but is also used for railroad cars and 300 different kinds of machinery.

It has a number of subsidiaries including a British company. The main plant is at Canton, Ohio, and has a daily capacity of 75,000 bearings and 300,000 tons of electric steel a year. It also has plants at Columbus and Walkerville, Ont. When its expansion program is completed plants will be able to turn out 200,000 bearings a day.

A sales subsidiary has branch stores in 33 cities in this country and the concern has about 1,000 distributors. Profits have increased in each of the last three years. Net in 1927 was $10,231,537 compared with $9,854,310 in 1926. For the first six months of 1928 net was $6,396,000.

There is no funded debt. Capital stock outstanding consists of 2,401,776 shares of no par common. The company was recapitalized in December, 1928. Dividends are being paid at the rate of $6 a share per annum on the old stock or $3 a share on the new.

As of June 30, 1928, total current assets were $27,982,548. Current liabilities totaled $4,544,701 and net working capital $23,437,847. Book value applicable to the capital stock as of that date amounted to $30.46 a share.

Bullish Contingent Stages Rally, Lifting Industrials and Rails

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, April 11. (US)—Throwing off the restraint of the past fortnight, the bullish contingent in the stock market today staged a demonstration which advanced the industrial average over three points and the rails a point and a half.

Sentiment generally was more bullish, inspired in great part by the realization that most of the selling the last few days was of poor character, and also in appreciation of the reduction in brokerage loans in line with the desires of the federal reserve. The buying movement was the broadest in some time and included most active issues.

U. S. Steel was in continued demand stimulated by knowledge that W. C. Durant has concentrated most of his activity in this stock. Official terms of the new stock offering, which undoubtedly will carry valuable "rights" for stockholders, will be made known early next week. The steel toonnage report of the previous day emphasized the healthy conditions prevailing in the industry, which encouraged optimistic estimates of probable earnings this year. U. S. Steel is expected to announce acquisition of license to manufacture an important product.

Failure of call money to rise above 9 per cent, with "outside" offerings at 1 per cent less, gave rise to hope that the worst of the money squeeze has passed. Time money is reported in increasing supply.

Shorts in Warner were squeezed by Durant and his associates, who were aided by reports that the company's foreign business this year is likely to show sizeable expansion. One of its executives is now abroad and is understood to have arranged satisfactory alliances in various continental countries.

General Motors showed no appreciable participation in the general bullish feeling, although the stock was well taken on expectation of announcement that sales have reached a new record. One of its leading sponsors has just returned, reviving the hope that the powerful group organized a few weeks ago may again become active in motors.

Corn Products was in demand on report that the "Standard Oil" interests identified with the company were large buyers. The company's earnings are understood to be showing substantial gain.

Decrease of $135,000,000 in brokers' loans, announced after the market closed, was fully in line with expectation, and more pleasing was the reduction of $66,000,000 in rediscounts at the federal reserve banks. Governor Young of the reserve board, who was in New York this week, is understood to have expressed satisfaction with the results obtained and with prevailing conditions in business.

Pittsburgh & West Virginia reached the year's level on buying stimulated by knowledge that the company's earnings are increasing, with April likely to show very substantial gain over the same month last year. Coal shipments undoubtedly will show a big increase, since a strike this time last year seriously interfered with traffic. Opening of lake business will also enlarge Pittsburgh & West Virginia traffic. Other rails were also in fair demand.

Simmons company advanced several points, displaying the first show of strength in weeks. This stock has been under heavy pressure, particularly from Chicago where all stocks have reflected the unsatisfactory credit situation. However, it is stated authoritatively that recent estimates of Simmons' likely earnings for 1928 have been far below official expectations.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW

CHICAGO, April 11. (AP)—Evidence of rapid approach toward definite action on farm aid measures by congress did much to tilt wheat values upward here today. An unexpected rise in wheat quotations at Liverpool, together with North American wheat export business totaling 1,750,000 bushels, acted also as a strengthening influence. Unfavorable weather for field work contributed firmness to the corn market.

Chicago closing quotations on wheat were unsettled ⅛c to ½c net higher. Corn finished at ⅛c decline to ⅜c advance, oats ⅛c to ⅜@½c up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5@7c.

Drought news from Indiana and Canada added to the bullish effects of reports aboout progress of farm relief legislation and concerning sustained liberal demand for North American wheat shipments to Europe amounting to between 7,000,000 and 8,000,000 bushels in the last six days, it was noticed.

Traders friendly to higher prices for wheat put special stress on the fact that wheat future deliveries are about 20c a bushel lower than a year ago.

Corn prices averaged higher with country offerings to arrive small. Shipping demand here was fairly good.

Onion Market Bureau Of Information Planned

CRYSTAL CITY, Texas, April 11. (AP)—A temporary field office for securing and disseminating market information regarding the onion movement from this territory will be established here soon, according to word received from the office of the bureau of agricultural economics, United States department of agriculture, at Fort Worth.

J. D. Hamilton will be in charge, the bureau reported.

Daily bulletins containing information about the onion movement from this district will be mailed free on request to those interested in this crop, the report added.

Bebb's flowers preferred for the sick room. Flowerphone 3300—Adv.

RANKIN DEATH CASE MOVED

Dumas and Woods to Be Tried in Hays County

AUSTIN, April 11. (INS)—J. H. Dumas, and Carl (Fred) Woods, charged with conspiracy to kill two men at Rankin, Upton county, in order to collect the Texas Bankers association reward of $5,000 for dead bank robbers, will be tried in Hays county.

A change of venue to San Marcos, the Hays county seat, was ordered by the district court of Upton county where Dumas and Woods had been taken for arraignment. The men were returned here following the order of the court for a change of venue. They were to be taken to San Marcos today.

Phone Your Classified Ads to 4391

Our courteous ad taker will receive your Classified Ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the next day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for the convenience of our patrons in transacting business over the telephone.

Classified Ad patrons desiring to have ads charged must have a telephone listed in their own name. No book record is made by the publishers on account of the great number of transactions, hence the necessity of collecting promptly.

Correction of errors in Classified Ads must be made before the second insertion. No allowance will be made for more than one incorrect insertion.

Cancellations and adjustments regarding errors should be telephoned to the Classified Ad Department between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Ads accepted for afternoon papers up until 11 a. m. same day.

Morning paper up to 6 p. m. for the following morning.

Sunday paper up to 1 p. m. Saturday night.

Same copy in both papers.

THE CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT IS OPEN ON SUNDAYS from 4 to 6 p. m. And telephone orders for classified ads to be inserted or to be discontinued will be accepted.

Exceptions: Want ads will be accepted over the telephone for all excepting the following classifications: Situations Wanted and Wanted to Rent. Ads for these classifications are cash with the order and will not be accepted over the telephone.

The Times reserves the right to classify all Classified Ads under the appropriate headlines and to revise or to withhold from publication any ads deemed objectionable.

Responsibility for Much Traveled Check Placed

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 11. (UP)—Responsibility for paying a $1,071.49 check was placed on the Oklahoma Finance company in a decision by District Judge Babcock today.

The check, given by the Nash-Creek Motor company, Sapulpa, to the finance company, was deposited in the Security National bank here, which turned it to the federal reserve bank, which in turn sent it to the Sapulpa First National for payment.

After sending a draft back to the federal reserve, the Sapulpa bank became defunct. The finance company sought to make either security or federal reserve responsible.

PETITIONS FOR ONEAL ISSUED

Wichitans Urge Walton Head for State Post

Petitions asking the appointment of Ben G. Oneal, president of the local Izaak Walton league, as a member of the state game, fish and oyster commission were put in circulation all over Wichita county Thursday.

The petitions, addressed to Gov. Dan Moody, ask that Mr. Oneal be made one of the six members of a commission created by a recent act of the legislature. Appointments are to be made within the next 90 days, leaders in the movement for Mr. Oneal said Thursday.

The appointment is urged on the grounds of Mr. Oneal's long experience and his widespread knowledge of the sporting activities of this section of the state, along with his interest in and work for the game and fish conservation and propagation, and the promotion of all sporting interests.

It was pointed out that the movement is spontaneous, growing out of the activities of no one group, and that the petitions are being signed by citizens of the county rather than members of any organization.

The work of sodding the lawns of the Memorial auditorium will be started Friday under the supervision of C. C. Bunnenberg, city park superintendent.

Clerk of Security National Bank Gives Statement

"I Know From Actual Experience What Orgatone Will Do, For My Mother Has Gained Four Pounds in Weight and Feels Fine," Says Wichita Woman

The imposing list of men, women, now endorsing Orgatone, who hold, or have held, responsible public office and positions, grows larger day by day. To the large number of representative men and women whose statements have been published in the press of the country is now added the name of Mrs. M. C. Ware of 1108 Third street, Wichita Falls, who is a well-known bank clerk at the Security National bank, and in a conversation with the Orgatone representative, she said:

"I've just come to get another bottle of Orgatone for my mother," she contained, "she has already taken two bottles and her improvement has been wonderful. My mother has suffered for 25 years from a disordered stomach that gradually got worse. She always noticed a distressing feeling of gas after eating and it caused painful smothering spells to come on. She didn't have any appetite at all and what little she did eat, the food wouldn't digest, and would bloat up something terrible.

"She also suffered from kidney trouble, and had severe, intense pains in her back and sides, and had terrible nervous headaches. She was extremely nervous and never got a good night's rest, but would roll and toss all night long. She had a bad case of constipation, and was just in a general run down condition, and kept getting worse from day to day.

"Her condition got so serious I worried about her, till she started taking Orgatone, then she began to improve at once and I became more hopeful of her recovery. She sleeps fine every night, and has no signs of her old troubles. Her nerves are quiet now, and she eats better and everything seems to agree with her and gives no distress afterwards. She is stronger and has more life and energy, and honestly has gained four pounds on two bottles of the medicine. She isn't bothered with gas or bloating spells, and her kidneys are also relieved. Her head doesn't ache as it did, and she is just improved in every way. I know by actual experience from my mother's case what Orgatone will do, and we are glad to recommend it, for it has done so much for her."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile preparation containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Wichita Falls by Allison's Drug Store, in Burkburnett by the City Drug Store, in Electra by Tarlton Drug Co., and in Vernon by the Vernon Drug Store.—Adv.

JEWISH WOMEN AID HOSPITAL

Bonds Sold for Aid Of Tuberculosis Victims

Members of the Council of Jewish Women of Wichita Falls are now engaged in a campaign for the sale of "N. J. H." bonds, which represent contributions made to the National Jewish hospital for consumptives.

The hospital is maintained for men and women who have tuberculosis, and for chilren who are predisposed to the disease. Its basis of operation is purely charitable, none who can pay being admitted, and none of those admitted being allowed to pay for care and treatment. It is strictly non-sectarian and accommodates patients of all nationalities and creeds.

An appeal will be made to the general public here, regardless of race or creed, for purchase of the bonds. Mrs. Louis Pink is chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign, with Mesdames Sam Kruger, M. S. Kauffman, Harry Jaffe, Louise Loevy, Paul Green, M. E. Wolff, Jake Cohen, David Persky and Milton Kats assisting.

Council Members Get Copies of City Budget

Typewritten copies of the budget approved by George D. Fairtrace, city manager, for the fiscal city year which opened April 1, will be given to the members of the city council to study Friday or Saturday, the manager said Thursday. The aldermen will be asked to consider the appropriations of the city finances as recommended by Mr. Fairtrace and give the budget a thorough study before it is submitted to the commissioners for approval.

The New York Gazette was the first newspaper to be published in New York state. It was published in 1725.

HURT JOINS K T S A GROUP

Wichitan to Manage Radio At San Antonio

Jerry Hurt, program director and studio manager of station KGKO for the last several months, will leave Saturday afternoon for San Antonio, where he will assume a similar position with station KTSA in that city.

Mr. Hurt came to Wichita Falls from Fort Worth, where for an extended period he was a member of the "Tom and Jerry" team of entertainers on the staff of WBAP. Prior to that engagement he had been connected with a number of radio stations in the Southwest, including KFDF of Oklahoma City, and those in Tulsa, Okla., and Wichita, Kan.

Mr. Hurt's position with the local station will be taken by Zack Hurt and Glenn Hewitt, comprising the O. K. record artists' team of Zack and Glenn, who were in charge of the studio here for several months following its opening last year.

Mrs. E. C. Weyrich Dies Here Thursday

Mrs. Florence Weyrich, wife of E. C. Wewrich, died in a local hospital at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon following an illness which extended over the last six years. Besides her husband, survivors of Mrs. Weyrich are two sisters, Mrs. J. A. McMurdy and Mrs. J. Roy Auers, both of this city.

The body was taken in charge by the Merkle Undertaking company, where it will be held until Friday afternoon, when it will be removed to the home of Mrs. McMurdy, 1648 Lucile street.

Funeral services are to be held at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, with interment in the Sacred Heart cemetery.

MITCHELL HOPES CONGRESS TRANSFERS PROHI BUREAU

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—Attorney-General Mitchell is hopeful that congress at its special session beginning Monday will enact the necessary legislation for the transfer of the prohibition enforcement unit from the treasury department to the department of justice.

Such a transfer was proposed by President Hoover in his inaugural address as the first step in a program of better general law enforcement, and it is now determined that legislation is necessary for its accomplishment since enforcement power was vested in the treasury by an act of congress.

You, too, may have a clear skin

Proud?
Justly so!

Every person should have a clear skin.
If you have skin blemishes why not get rid of them PERMANENTLY?

THOUSANDS of people have weak, impure blood—to this may be attributed pimples, boils, eczema, "run-down" systems, rheumatism and even more serious ailments.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there could be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get the number of your red-blood-cells back to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, those pains usually called rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again and sleep soundly; firm flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel strong. Your nerves become steady. You are resistant to disease.

Throughout more than a hundred years S.S.S. has been a blessing to millions of people who have taken advantage of its wonderful medicinal properties. It is Nature's own blood tonic for improving the appetite, clearing the body of so-called skin troubles, and building strength and resistance to disease.

S.S.S. increases the count of red-cells in the blood. Weak, impure blood is injurious to the system, lowering resistance to disease. Rich, red blood builds and sustains the body. S.S.S. helps Nature build rich, red blood. Good blood improves the processes by which the body is nourished, promotes constructive metabolism (healthy body building) and works against infection and disease. Take S.S.S. daily at mealtime. To get full benefit you must take it regularly and over a sufficient period of time. At all Drug Stores. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

Skin troubles—pimples, boils, eczema, and sallow complexion—are usually but symptoms of a deeper, a more dangerous trouble—a lack of the normal count of red-cells in the blood.

When you take S.S.S. to get rid of these outside blemishes, you are building up the system to ward off the graver diseases of which these blemishes are Nature's warning.

S.S.S. is made from fresh vegetable drugs and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.
