Hymn-Writing Pastor Awaits Jury's Verdict; Is Tried As Love Slayer

With his 19-year-old bride beside him, the Rev. S. Althea Berrie Monday sat in a Muskogee, Okla., courtroom as state and defense attorneys alternately pleaded for his death and exoneration in the slaying of his first wife. He repeatedly has denied that he gave the first Mrs. Berrie poison that he might be free to marry the young Sunday school teacher. The case went to the jury Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

"Wages Of Sin Is Death" State Attorney Declares In Berrie Murder Trial

Free Cooking School Opens In City Today

The annual free cooking school opens this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Uptown Dance palace.

For the ninth consecutive year, the Avalanche-Journal Publishing company is playing host to women of Lubbock and this territory with a free cooking school. Because of popular demand, Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who was here in 1930, has returned to lecture, answer questions and demonstrate cooking on four afternoons this week.

The classes will open promptly at 2 o'clock today, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons. Any woman is welcome to attend. The school is entirely free.

Pastor's Fate Rests With Jury; Three Verdicts Open

(By The Associated Press)

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 24. — A jury weighed tonight its duty to the law and to the Rev. Stephen Althea Berrie, accused of murdering his wife.

With the din of day-long argument pounding in their ears, the 12 men filed out of the Muskogee county district courtroom at 4 p. m. today to decide if the preacher poisoned his aging mate because of intimacies with a girl still in her teens, or whether he is innocent, and, as defense attorneys put it, persecuted by "men as cunning as minks."

JURY RETIRES

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 24. (AP)—The jury holding the fate of the Rev. Stephen Althea Berrie, accused of poisoning his first wife, retired at 11:10 p. m. tonight without having reached a verdict and without reporting to Judge W. J. Crump.

The jurors, who must either send Berrie to the electric chair, give him life imprisonment or acquit him, were told by County Attorney Phil K. Oldham they must remember "the wages of sin is death." The 52-year old preacher, declared the prosecutor, had become intimate

Child Points Out Abductor

Bleeding Victim Of Assault Found Early Monday; Tells Of Experience; Man Denies He Is Implicated

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 24—Anna Leibhandler, 8-year old girl victim of an abductor who lured her away while her mother was watching a movie concerning a kidnaped child, today identified Samuel Morris, 39, as her kidnaper.

Morris, after long questioning at police headquarters, denied he was implicated. He was held on a charge of kidnaping and atrocious assault with intent to kill. He said he had spent the night in a coffee house.

Bleeding From Wounds

The girl, bleeding from knife wounds in her neck and over her heart, appeared at a lonely farmhouse in a woods at Springfield at 5:30 a. m. and later told police of a 10-mile ride last night in a taxicab, with "a man with a scarred face."

Morris had argued with Anna's mother at her store, 26 Avon Place, over her refusal to cash a check.

Dr. Augustus Mitchell, police surgeon, said the wound over the girl's heart would have been fatal had it been a quarter of an inch deeper.

Brother Of Lubbock Man Is Death Victim Late Monday

Chas. Adams and son, Chas., jr., left last night for Cross Plains where this afternoon at 2 o'clock they will attend funeral services for Glenn Adams, about 30, brother of the Lubbock abstractor.

Glenn Adams, publisher of the Cross Plains Review, died at a Santa Anna, Texas, hospital at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. He had been gravely ill since last Thursday. The Lubbock man, who lives at 1319 Fifteenth street, returned from Santa Anna Saturday. Glenn Adams is survived by his widow and a young son. He had lived at Cross Plains since 1905.

Bullington Says That His Would Be A State Victory

FLORESVILLE, Oct. 24 (AP)—Asserting that his election November 8 would not be construed as a victory for the Republican party but "as a victory for Texas," Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, Republican nominee for governor, told an audience here today that he was "a Texan first and a party man second."

He spoke before a crowd of farmers and business men gathered on the public square at 5 p. m. He arrived here from Kenety ahead of his schedule, although he had made six other speeches during the day.

Recalls His Action In Sending Prohibition Views To Houston Convention; Party Platforms Compared

(By The Associated Press)

STATE ARMORY, NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 24.—"Al" Smith, before a police estimated crowd of 20,000 concluded his first national campaign speech tonight by declaring that nothing but the election of the Roosevelt-Garner ticket would solve the economic problems of America. The crowd was in an uproar virtually throughout the speech.

Smith reserved mention of the name of his old political ally, Governor Roosevelt, until he had lashed out at prohibition and had made extended criticism of the Republican administration.

Stands And Grins

All the while Smith, in his favorite "Happy Warrior" pose, stood in the floodlights and grinned from the same platform which just four years ago he mounted to seek votes for his own presidential candidacy.

Speaking of his appearance here four years ago, he said:

"Well, we're four years older and 40 years wiser. We were waging an impossible fight then."

Promises Are Recalled

Speaking of Herbert Hoover's 1928 campaign, he said:

"He even promised to banish poverty from our land although our Divine Lord said, 'the poor you have always with you'."

Smith wound up by asking his audience to "go home and see if you can find one great big public question that they (the Republicans) have made a reasonably good attempt to settle.

"Instead of that," he continued, "we received a program of threat that if the Republican party is de-

Former Concho Judge Is Held

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 24.—Rep. G. Y. Lee, of the 92nd legislative district, was shot and wounded late today during an altercation at his office at Eden.

An attorney and former Concho county judge was held in jail tonight at Ballinger, in connection with the shooting. Lee was brought here to a hospital.

Carroll Fulcher, who was sitting in Lee's office talking with him when the third man entered, reported to officers that he grappled with the caller when he displayed a gun and the weapon was discharged twice, one bullet grazing Fulcher's forehead and the other striking Lee.

Hoover Farm Policies Flayed By Roosevelt In Speech At Atlanta; More Service For Farmers Promised

(By The Associated Press)

AUDITORIUM, Atlanta, Oct. 24.—In a speech assailing President Hoover's farm policies and asserting that the Democratic party intended to restore the purchasing power of the farmer, Franklin D. Roosevelt tonight told thousands of cheering Georgians he could not believe in the "doctrines of despair."

President Hoover, he said, had preached a "doctrine of despair."

Doctrine Criticised

"He said in substance that the farmer must wait the long weary process of industrial reconstruction before aid can come to him," the Democratic presidential candidate said.

"I don't believe in this doctrine of despair."

The speech marked the first time in recent years that a Democratic candidate for the presidency has brought the active phases of his campaign into the heart of the so-called "solid south."

Wants More Service

"The time has come to eliminate political secretaries of agriculture and substitute for them a secretary whom the farmers and the foresters will recognize as one of their own," he said.

"I am going to insist that we get more service for the farmers for less money."

"I am, moreover, enough of an American to believe that such a restoration of prosperity in this country will do more to effect world recovery than all of the promotional schemes of lending money to backward and crippled countries could do in generations," he said in discussing rehabilitation of the farmer.

"I am for America first."

Officers Busy Over Weekend

Thirty Complaints Are Filed In Justice Court On Monday As Result Of Activities In City By Officers

Thirty misdemeanor and felony cases were filed in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court Monday as a result of weekend activities of city and county officers.

Nine of fifteen Mexicans, arrested Saturday night by police, pleaded guilty of gaming and were fined $1 and costs each. Five persons pleaded guilty of drunkenness and four of vagrancy.

Wife Charges Mate

A Lubbock man, who yesterday made $100 bond, was charged by his former wife with seriously threatening her life. The ex-wife was arrested by police Sunday for operating a bawdy house. The case was transferred to county officers and

Youth Gets Life Term In Slaying

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24 (AP)—Pleading guilty to a charge of murder, William Raymond Ryals, 22, confessed slayer of A. G. MacGuerty, circulation auditor received a 99-year sentence at the hands of a jury in criminal district court here today.

The defendant's decision to plead guilty came as a surprise after Garland Flowers and Tom McMurray, defense attorneys appointed by the court, had planned to contest jurisdiction of the court. But the attorney's withdrew from the case and J. H. Letts, Houston Ryals' former employer, represented the young defendant in court.

Mrs. Minnie King and Mrs. Ollie Letts, both of Houston, Ryals' sisters, were in the court room during the trial, which lasted one hour.

Eleven Men Are Arrested In Texas Saddle Thieving Ring

SAN ANGELO Oct. 24 (AP)—Eleven men have been arrested in Texas and 82 stolen saddles recovered in investigations by Earl McWilliams, former sheriff of Runnels county, assigned to the breaking up of a saddle thieving ring by Captain Frank Hamer of the Texas rangers three months ago.

Houston apparently was headquarters of the ring, McWilliams reported here today.

Former Housekeeper Charged In Ax Murder Of Ranchman; Various Stories Were Told After Tragedy

(Special To The Avalanche)

FLOYDADA, Oct. 24.—Testimony in the trial of Mrs. Ruth Kane of Graham, charged with the ax slaying of J. A. Cunningham, well-to-do Motley county rancher, will begin in 110th district court at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. Kane was Cunningham's housekeeper.

The twelfth juror was named at 5:28 o'clock this afternoon. Eighty-seven of the 100 veniremen called were exhausted before the jury was completed.

Jury Is Selected

Jurors are: Robert McGuire, department store manager, Floydada; W. H. Brock, McCoy farmer; W. Edd Brown, retired wheat farmer; F. H. Phillips, ginner; and O. G. Glassmoyer, farmer; Clayton Cox, farmer; William Wood, farmer; C. H. Rose, Lockney farmer; O. E. Wicker, Lockney farmer; E. E. Dyer, Lockney hardware merchant; J. B. Houston, Floydada department store manager; and Morg Hamilton, Lockney grocer.

Defense examination of prospective jurors hinged around whether or not a woman had a right to kill to protect her daughter. Mrs. Kane sat with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens of Graham, in the courtroom, apparently unconcerned despite the fact that state questioning of veniremen indicated the death penalty would be sought.

Four attorneys represent Mrs. Kane, and District Attorney A. J. Folley and County Attorney Toney B. Maxey of Floydada are prosecutors.

Cunningham, 74, was struck about a dozen times in the back of the head with an ax, apparently as he sat at his desk in the living room of his small ranch last April 23.

The aged man had employed Mrs.

Mercury Slides Downward Here

The mercury had skidded to 38 degrees at 9:30 o'clock last night at Municipal airport, as a brisk 30-mile-an-hour wind brought a cold wave from the northeast to the South Plains. Should the wind velocity diminish, conditions were believed good for a frost.

A light frost visited this section October 6, but did not kill vegetation. At that time temperature at the state experiment substation was 33 degrees and at the airport, 31.

The forecast for Tuesday called for partly cloudy and colder weather. Maximum temperature yesterday, the airport reported, was 59. At 9 o'clock the reading was 41, and thirty minutes later, the temperature had dropped three degrees.

Annual Drive Of Salvation Army To Open

Will Get Underway Today And Solicitation Will Continue But One Day; $3,302.95 To Be Sought Here

Solicitation of money to enable the Lubbock corps of the Salvation Army to continue its activities through the fiscal year which began October 1 will get underway here this morning. The annual financial drive is scheduled officially to last only through today. A total of $3,302.95 will be sought by subscription.

A total of $1,265 was set as the amount to be raised in Salvation Army services here and in outpost towns, in a budget drawn by Harry L. Purdum, general secretary of the Texas division, of Dallas. Total operating expenses, including salaries of the Salvation Army here through the year ending September 30, were $3,874.70, a balance of only $1.05 remaining from the total income of $3,875.75, according to Secretary Purdum's report.

An income totaling $5,089 is needed for the current fiscal year, the divisional secretary stated.

Boy Scouts Are To Collect Toys For Lions Xmas Party

Persons having broken or discarded toys they would donate, to be repaired by the fire department and distributed at a poor children's Christmas party by the Lions club, are asked by D. T. Jennings, Boy Scout executive, to telephone scout headquarters at No. 695 or his home at No. 2190-W.

Boy Scouts will collect the toys Saturday. Firemen soon will begin painting and repairing the playthings. William H. Evans is chairman of the Lions club Christmas party committee. Executive Jennings asks also that persons willing to drive their automobiles, to transport scouts gathering the toys, so inform him at one of the telephone numbers.

SUSPECT IS HELD

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 24. (AP)—Arthur Barry's continued denials today that he had anything to do with the Lindbergh baby kidnaping were not fully credited by Newark and state police. They concluded after a lengthy questioning to hold the notorious jewel thief for at least a week while they check his movements on the Monday night Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., was lifted from his crib at Hopewell and later slain.

H. C. (Bud) Blanton Maintains Innocence In Wanton Murder Of October 15; Says He Was In Amarillo At Time

Violence Rumored

Former High School Football Player At Amarillo Charged In Robbery; Was Arrested Early Sunday Morning

MAINTAINING his innocence in the slaying here October 15 of Robert Tharp, 25, and of two Lubbock holdups the same night, H. C. (Bud) Blanton, 21, of Amarillo Monday afternoon told the Morning Avalanche he was in Amarillo at the time Tharp was fatally wounded.

Blanton, a former Sandie football player, has been identified as the gunman in the slaying and in the two grocery holdups, Cap Moore, deputy constable, and J. C. Keller, state highway patrolman, said yesterday.

Charge Of Robbery Is Filed

A charge of robbery with firearms of H. D. Aycock, manager of M System store No. 6 at 1945 Nineteenth street, from which about $200 in cash was taken, was filed Sunday in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court here by Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney.

"I wasn't given a fair chance in Amarillo; they should have tried to corroborate my story before they brought me here," the black-haired, brown-eyed youth declared in county jail late Monday.

Blanton's wife of two months has been in Hobbs, N. M., her former home, since October 14, the youth said.

Officers Scout Rumors

Some street talk of possible mob violence was reported last night, but an officer blamed the talk on "windjammers."

"I don't think we have that kind of people here," Deputy Sheriff Joe Rieger said. "We're not uneasy the people of this county will do anything like that."

The Lubbock county jail, built last year, is the strongest and most modern in this section. Without the jailer's key ring, it is virtually impossible to reach either of the two upper floors of the building.

Arrested Early Sunday

Arrested in Amarillo about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, the young man, who earned a high school football letter sweater at Amarillo in 1929, was identified by six employes and a customer of the two M System stores in the Potter county jail Sunday afternoon, Moore and Keller said. Blanton did not resist arrest and was unarmed when taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff Vanderpool of Potter coun-

Negro Boy Is Shot In Back Monday; Claimed Accident

Walter Means, 19-year-old negro boy, was shot in the back with a small caliber pistol at Dunbar school about 2:45 o'clock Monday afternoon. The wound was inflicted accidentally from the youth's own weapon, the negro physician who attended Means said.

The bullet entered a part of the left lung and lodged against the top part of the shoulder blade. Means was said to be resting well last night at his home at Avenue B and Seventeenth street.

Highway Projects Awarded In Texas

AUSTIN, Oct. 24 (AP)—The Texas highway commission today awarded road and bridge construction projects aggregating $2,279,619, a major portion of the work being let under the emergency highway apportionment advanced by the federal government to relieve unemployment.

Included in the program were construction of 103 miles of concrete paving; 67 miles of grading and drainage structures; 39 miles of other types of hard surface paving and 11 bridge structures.

Under the terms of the federal highway aid advance manual labor must be used where practical in preference to machines and local labor and world war veterans must be given preference on the jobs. The contracts specified a minimum of thirty cents an hour for common labor and 45 cents an hour for skilled labor.

Bullington Meeting Will Be Held In Lubbock Courtroom

The place of the appearance here of Orville Bullington, Republican candidate for governor, of Wichita Falls at 8 o'clock Thursday night has been changed to the district criminal courtroom on the third floor of the courthouse, John L. The Fundamentalist tabernacle previously had been designated as the place of the Bullington rally, in which Democrats as well as Republicans will participate.

Nude Body Of Young Woman Left By A Murderer On Sands Of Mojave Desert

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—Police today investigated what they believed may be a possible clue to identity of the auburn-haired young woman whose nude body was found Saturday on the Mojave desert near Elmirage dry lake, apparently left by a murderer.

Mrs. Emma Copelin telephoned Police Capt. W. C. Allen that the description of the victim fits that of a girl named "Betty" who roomed at the Copelin home and left a week ago with a young man named Gregory, saying they were going to Palmdale, at the desert edge.

After the couple departed, Mrs. Copelin said a man claiming to be "Betty's husband" came to her home, asked for the girl and left after being informed of her plans.

Saturday, Mrs. Copelin said, Gregory returned and asked if Betty had come back, saying "she got lost from me in Palmdale—I thought maybe she got tired of the desert and came back here."

Fred Phillips, special agent of the Santa Fe railway, discussed with investigators the possibility that the killing may be linked with a similar case in November, 1930. At that time the body of a red headed young woman was found not more than 12 or 13 miles from the point where the new tragedy was revealed. Phillips said that crime was accredited to a desert madman who has eluded searchers.

Negro Is Being Sought As Slayer Of Salesman, Young Woman Companion

(By The Associated Press)

GADSDEN, Ala., Oct. 24.—An unidentified negro was sought in Birmingham tonight as the slayer of Tom Russell, 50-year-old furniture salesman, and his companion, Miss Thelma Groover, 29-year-old daughter of a minister, in an abandoned field near here last night.

The search switched from a probable "revenge" theory to one of robbery after officers traced the ownership of a single barreled shotgun found near the bodies to W. D. Jones, who had reported theft of the weapon. A negro was seen to enter the Jones home shortly after 6 o'clock last night and later emerge with the weapon.

An automobile owned by the firm employing Russell, in which the couple was seen at 7 o'clock last night, was found in Birmingham today, leading authorities to believe the slayer drove there and abandoned the machine.

Russell left home about 6 o'clock last night, telling his wife he was going after "some cigarettes." A 15-year-old brother of Miss Groover said he called for her at 6:30.

Officers said he and she had been meeting each other for several years.

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig Begins Free Cooking School This Afternoon

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

THIS is the day of the opening of the cooking school. The time 2 o'clock this afternoon. The ace is the Uptown Dance Palace the instructor is Mrs. Leona usk Ihrig—who needs no introuction since she has been here be-ore.

This is the tenth cooking school t this newspaper has fostered d it is the ninth annual school that time, many women of the have attended, since the yearly ndance has always run into the ndreds.

If you happen to be one who has ver attended a cooking school, e down this afternoon. We beve that you will return on Wedday, Thursday and Friday afyou have been in the first day.

And don't forget your pencil and tebook. Mrs. Ihrig will dictate reps that she uses in her school d you will want copies to keep ou will want to make notes on lectures, also. If you have any estions about cooking or home anagement bring these along. Mrs. hrig will be glad to help you out. er school isn't altogether a cook- school. It is a laboratory and forum for the consideration of itchen problems.

What She Believes

HERE is one think I like about Mrs. Ihrig and her ideas. She beeves that women are not losing eir interest in the home, as is so requently charged.

How could she? With hundreds nd sometimes thousands of womn filing into her cooking school alls day after day throughout the ear, she has a hard time thinking hat all women have lost their home nterests and taken up card playng, business, golfing or whatever lse it is that is supposed to have usurped the domestic instincts.

Some women are not interested n their homes, of course. Some omen have liked outside things etter since the days of Eve, but here are plenty left who love a ouse and like to make it into a ome. There are some, even, who ike to wash dishes, scrub floors and o the other unpleasant tasks.

THOSE CHURCH STEPS

IF YOUR church auditorium is reached by a flight of steps remember to watch out for the elderly people who attend services.

One Sunday recently, I noticed n old man coming down the steps t First Methodist church and havng considerable difficulty because there was no rail there to which he could hold. And the thing that made it worse was that there was a group of people congregated at the foot of the steps so that he could not hold to the cement banister all of the way down.

Since then I have watched other elderly people and, since so many others block their way near the balustrades, they have a hard time coming down the steps.

There are several church auditoriums here that are reached by a flight of steps. Since rails have not been provided to help the old people and the cripples, the rest of us must stay away from the banisters to allow these people the support they need.

Instead of congregating on the steps or at the foot of the steps where you are in the way of elderly people next Sunday, move away from the edges and make this a habit for other occasions. Or, better still, help the older people and cripples to get up and down those steps. Some old people are missing services because of the difficulty they have in getting in and out of church auditoriums.

MORE PUMPKIN PIE

ANOTHER recipe for pumpkin pie, different from the others, has been received from Mrs. Jack Jenkins of Route 1, Levelland. It follows.

Stew or bake the pumpkin to have it as dry as possible. Rub through a fine colander. To four cups of pumpkin add two small cups of sugar, one tablespoon of molasses, one teaspoon each of salt and ginger, two teaspoons cinnamon and one quart of scalding milk. Let cool and stir in three well beaten eggs. Pour in deep pie plate lined with rich crust and bake. Serve with whipped cream.

TO PRONOUNCE THAT NAME

PERHAPS you are wondering how "Ihrig" is pronounced. That is one of the first questions that comes out of the question box some years. Mrs. Ihrig says, so here is the pronounciation. The "I" is long and the "H" is silent. Pronounce it as though it were spelled "Irig."

Economist To Consider Needs Of Lubbock Women In Classes

Tentative Program Of School Will Be Changed To Embrace Local Demands; Box Will Be Placed For Questions

Styles change in cooking just as they do in dress. For that reason, cooking school programs are changed from year to year, Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig said Monday in discussing the Avalanche-Journal free cooking school which opens this afternoon.

"There were years of prosperity when women served cakes at their parties. In those days we stressed cakes more than we do today when refreshments are much lighter. Our schedules have to meet the demands of today which are for simpler foods and more economical meals," she continued.

This year's cooking school, which is to be conducted at the Uptown Dance palace, opens at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It is free to all women of the town and surrounding territory.

School Closes Friday

There will be additional lectures and demonstrations on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons at the same hour and place.

Mrs. Ihrig has a tentative program for her school but it will be modified to meet the demands of Lubbock women, she has announced. "I want to help the women of Lubbock in this school—give them recipes they need, help them meet their kitchen problems and assist them in having happy kitchens and happy homes," she continued, adding.

"People live at home more now. I want to help women to make their homes more pleasant and their kitchens places where the family is welcome."

There is to be a question box at the front of the hall for the school. Questions placed there will be answered by Mrs. Ihrig and she will be glad to have questions from the floor, she said.

"I go from town to town and learn the general questions that women have about food preparation and kitchen problems, but this school is being conducted particularly for the women of Lubbock. I want to help them with their specific troubles," the home economist continued.

Arriving from Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Ihrig is "happy to be back in Texas." "Lubbock is so different from many towns. It is more alive. Things have a more prosperous appearance," she asserted.

Her school this year is to be "The Happy Kitchen" and her program will include kitchen furnishing and management as well as recipes and the preparation of food.

Classes open each afternoon promptly at 2 o'clock. Those who attend are to bring pencils and notebooks as the recipes will be dictated each afternoon. The lectures and demonstrations will be delivered from a raised platform on which a model kitchen is arranged. The school is entirely free.

Chic Tunic Dress

A clever version of the popular tunic dress for autumn is pictured here. A lace jabot and sleeves and an ornate belt buckle are the ornamental features.

One manufacturer of a tunic dress pointed out that the college girl could use it three ways. The blouse being in coat style with side closing can be used with its matching skirt as a two-piece; it can be worn over a matching or contrasting silk or wool dress as a three-quarter coat; and coupled with its own skirt and a silk or jersey blouse it may become the jacket of a suit.

Baptist Women Meet In Units

Receive Several New Members At Circle Meetings Monday Afternoon; Bible Lessons Are Of Interest

Several new members were received in the First Baptist Women's Missionary society Monday afternoon when members gathered in various homes. Bible lessons were studied and short business sessions were conducted.

Six members were received in Circle 7 at a meeting with Mrs. Cecile Horne, 2224 Broadway. They are Mesdames O. W. McLeod, W. E. Patty, J. E. George, Claude Hurlbut, Ford Benham and T. A. Lisemby, jr.

Mrs. Sparks Teacher

Mrs. Fred Sparks taught a Bible lesson. She was assisted by Mesdames Cecil Balkman, A. M. Leftwich, C. W. Moses, E. H. Martin and J. H. Hankins. Mrs. Patty sang.

Mrs. W. F. Fry, chairman, presided. There were 18 in attendance.

With Mrs. Clarence Rateliff, 1412 7th street, serving as hostess, members of Circle 8 heard a Bible lesson. There were nine members present. Mrs. L. E. Berry was received into the unit. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leonard O'Neal.

Mesdames J. B. Doberson, B. N. Duff and L. J. Haynes were received as members in Circle 9 at a meeting with Mrs. G. V. Pardue, 2421 7th street. There were 12 women present.

Mrs. W. A. Stahl, chairman, presides for a business meeting and Mrs. William Lowrimore taught a Bible lesson.

Adding Years of Health and Beauty

When our mothers and grandmothers were forty, they were usually worn and prematurely old. The years lay heavily on face and figure.

More often than not, a large family of children used up every ounce of energy, and seldom did you find a mother who was anything but a "home body." Women in those days were more than middle-aged at thirty-five and forty.

During these last two decades health education, proper diet, scientific care before, during and after child-birth, more sensible and balanced living, have done wonders for the average woman, in adding years of health and beauty to her life.

Women at thirty-five now are at their best — they retain their youth, beauty, interest in life and sports, and are far more companionable mothers, wives and friends.

A regular yearly physical examination and a little co-operation in following the Doctor's advice, will add more happy, healthy years to the life of every modern woman — also true of the modern man.

Former Queen Helen Arrives Monday In Rumania; Secrecy Is Prevailing

BUCHAREST, Oct. 24 (AP)—Former Queen Helen of Rumania, the divorced wife of King Carol, arrived in the capital today and was escorted to her palace in the small hours of the morning with the greatest of secrecy.

Princess Helen had been in London, where her son, Prince Michael, visited her briefly. The visit was terminated after two weeks by King Carol. Reports were that he objected to the publicity resulting from it.

This was probably Princess Helen's quietest arrival in Bucharest. The government took every possible means to prevent the news of her arrival from reaching the people. The official press office when questioned last night by newspapermen, denied that the former queen even was coming.

Meanwhile, Bucharest newspapers provided a new sensation with a story that Prince Nicholas, the exiled brother of the king was planning to return home from abroad about November 3 without Mme. Lucia Deletj, the woman he married in defiance of the king. This was unverified.

An unofficial communique issued after a ministerial council meeting today announced Prince Michael's eleventh birthday will not be observed officially tomorrow but that the official birthday celebration will be linked with the celebration of Michael's saint's day, Nov. 18.

This was interpreted in political circles as intended to give the former queen a chance to be with her son tomorrow and celebrate his birthday privately.

Interesting Bits Of News And Comment From Austin

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Oct. 24 (AP)—Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls, who piled up a big vote in the First Democratic primary as third choice for the gubernatorial nominee, will take up his residence in Austin during the four-months' long regular session of the legislature next January.

He has been given assignments as representative of several groups of citizens interested in legislation, principally a group of rank and file taxpayers.

"When land owners take from their holdings only fifteen per cent of the revenue produced from all sources and are obliged to pay seventy-seven per cent of the taxes in the form of ad valorem levies, that is proof certain interests are not bearing the fair burden of the cost of maintaining our government," he said.

T. H. McGregor of Austin, former senator and now member of the Texas house of representatives from Travis county, is a stickler for the "constitution."

"When my wife prepares to make a cake she reads the cook book; when a lawyer is to plead the statutes he reads the statutes," he said. "An administrator of government needs merely to read the state constitution and the federal constitution to be prepared to obtain the best results."

State Senator W. A. Williamson of San Antonio will not be a member of the incoming legislature, but he plans to spend considerable time watching activities in the capitol. He has made arrangements to transfer one of his motor boats from Medina lake, near San Antonio, to Lake Austin here.

The senator's friends call him "Cap" Williamson. He was a one-time captain of a real ocean-going boat, which accounts for the solar quet. He gets lonesome for the water and motorboating is a hobby.

E. H. Lasseter of Henderson, member of the house in the out-going legislature, also will be on deck much of the time during the regular session. He cannot get far away from the capitol because Mrs. Lasseter, nee Jean Boehringer, has been secretary to C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, so long, Terrell will not let her forsake her desk. Lasseter finds himself busy here too, what with his East Texas oil field clients always wiring, telephoning and wiring him.

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colds. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

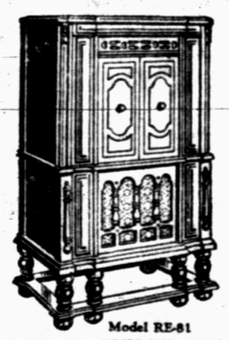

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation if taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.

Varied Political Currents Swirling About New England As Election Nears

BOSTON, Oct. 24. (AP)—Political currents, as varied as the tides that sweep its coast, swirled about New England today as the 1932 campaign entered its final two weeks.

Local issues, backed by local personalities, crowded national issues for first place in the attention of voters in the half-dozen states of the group.

For long a stronghold of eastern Republicanism, New England today is disputed territory with Democratic leaders claiming a share on the basis of recent elections and the strength of recent conquests.

Maine, traditionally Republican, elected a Democratic governor and two congressmen in its September state election and Democratic leaders, seizing upon the old slogan, "as Maine goes, so goes the nation," claimed a turn in the tide. But Republican politicians contended the result established nothing other than to stimulate them to greater effort.

In all the other states complete tickets are in the field for state officers and congress and in these the cross current of local politics are running strongest, each influenced by and playing its own part in the presidential contest.

Massachusetts, which once the Republicans claimed with little arguments, is the center of the battle. Four years ago, with its neighbor, Rhode Island, it cast its vote for the Democratic presidential nominee, Alfred E. Smith, and two years later it elected a Democratic governor, Joseph B. Ely.

New Hampshire and Vermont have seen the most active campaigns of recent years. The White Mountain state went Democratic in 1916 and Democratic leaders profess to see prospects of winning again this year although Republican workers claim they will retain their control.

Vermont Democrats are claiming gains for their candidates this year but Republicans say the state will hold its traditional place in the G. O. P. column.

The economic situation has been the principal issue in Connecticut where Representative Augustive Lonergan is opposing Senator Hiram Bingham, Republican. Lonergan has accused Bingham of "talking only of beer in times of economic distress."

A net profit of $12 a head on 39 calves and $7 a head on a pen of 32 others has been made at a feeding demonstration by P. C. Bishop, farmer of Tarrant county, Texas.

Tech Points Next To Fighting Irish Of Notre Dame

Lubbock Plays Borger Here Friday; Tech Frosh Meet Amarillo College

Two Backfield Stars Recover From Injuries

Light Workout Yesterday Shows Almost Entire Squad Ready For Action; Anderson Sends Strong Team Here Friday

Back home after a successful invasion of the north, the Texas Tech Matadors went through preliminary practice paces yesterday afternoon for one of the highest spots of the year—the game Friday night with the Notre Dame B team at Matador Field.

A light workout yesterday presaged heavy and careful drills for the balance of the week. There will be no dangerous scrimmages which invite injuries, but Tech coaches will lose no time and spare no efforts in whipping the club into top shape for one of the most important conflicts of the season.

Clark On Feet Again

With but few exceptions, the squadsmen reported in fine physical trim yesterday. Adrian Clark, flashy sophomore quarterback, and big Gwynn Dowell, sophomore halfback, appeared to have overcome the ailments of injured knees and were shuttling back and forth with apparent ease and ambition. Juicy Owens, regular tackle, was bungled up somewhat in the game Saturday against the Colorado Miners, but showed nothing serious. There are no serious injuries to mar practice sessions and forecast unpleasant possibilities for Friday night.

Coach Hunk Anderson of Notre Dame, who said "I guess I'll have to change my plans" upon learning of Tech's victory over S.M.U. and Arizona, is reported putting his B squad through heavy drills preparatory to rewarding the best looking 30 or 40 men with the trip south.

May Break Record

The Notre Dame B team, when at its top strength, has never been defeated, according to the head coach of the institution, and it is highly likely that enough bolstering will be done to provide one of the strongest teams of the school a trip to Lubbock.

Remarking that his team "looked terrible" against the Colorado Mines last Saturday, Coach Cawthon nevertheless was pleased with the individual work done by the Matadors, and blamed part of the poor showing to the distinct change of climate which made it "hard for 'im to breathe" in the higher altitude of Colorado.

By defeating the Miners, the Matadors registered their sixth victory of the season as against one defeat, and the 21 to 0 win provided the 199th point as against 14 by the seven opponents. In seven games, the Matadors have been scored against by only two teams, the Texas Aggies and the New Mexico Normal team at Las Vegas. On the home lot, no team has registered a point in opposition.

Schmidt Prepares Frogs For Hard Go Against Golden Bears

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24. (AP)—With the Baylor Bears showing unexpected strength in holding the Texas Aggies to a scoreless tie, Coach Francis Schmidt plunged his Horned Frogs into a program of heavy training this afternoon for their game with them here Saturday afternoon.

Instead of the usual Monday afternoon work between the reserves and frosh the varsity regulars took on the Polliwogs.

The Polliwogs had been drilled in Baylor formations by Freshman Coach Dutch Meyer, who scouted the Bears against the Aggies. "Baylor has a great defensive line," said Coach Meyer in his report. It is a fast charging line and the Frogs have a much harder battle on their hands than they believe.

Eight Texas Aggies On Injury List Following Baylor Game

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 24.(AP) Eight players were on the injured list as the Texas Aggies took the field today for football practice.

Captain Jimmy Aston and Henry Graves, halfbacks injured in the scoreless tie with Baylor at Waco Saturday, were expected to be out of the lineup for a week and Morrison Breedlove, guard hurt in the same game, probably will be out for the rest of the season. Aston had a chipped bone in his left hip. Graves injured a knee and Breedlove hurt his collarbone.

The Cadets go to Shreveport, La., Saturday to play Centenary College, which already has defeated the University of Texas and Southern Methodist University.

Alvin Gardner Calls Meeting Texas League Club Members

DALLAS, Oct. 24. (AP)—J. Alvin Gardner, president, has called a Texas League meeting for Saturday morning starting at 9 o'clock at a local hotel. He has issued a request for at least one representative from each Texas League club to be present. No business of importance is expected to come before the meeting other than hearing the annual report of the auditing committee. Gardner said the status of a definite club salary limit probably would not be discussed until the national convention at Columbus, O., Dec. 7, 8 and 9.

New Safety Code Of Football Fails To Halt Death's March On Gridders

Prep School And Sandlot Teams Suffer Most

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—The new "safety" code of 1932 has had a tremendous effect in reducing death and injury to college football players, but has failed to eliminate the hazards to prep school and sand lot combatants, chief objectives of the new rules, a survey indicated today.

A year ago, Oct. 24 at New Haven Richard Brinsley Sheridan, young Cadet end, was injured fatally trying to make a tackle in the Army-Yale game. That casualty, one of 40 last fall, touched off the storm of inquiry and search for safe-guards that resulted in a complete overhauling of the football rules, eliminating the "flying wedge" on kickoffs, flying blocks and tackles, "rabbit punches" on the necks of linemen.

Ten Deaths Resulted

Today, with almost half the season completed, ten deaths already have been attributed to football hurts in the U. S. and two boys are believed dying. Of the 12 cases, 11 resulted from play on high school and sand lot gridirons, where authorities last fall insisted the supervision, care and training given college men were lacking.

The sole exception, where all the safeguards thrown about college players were in effect, was reported from New Orleans. Hugh Martin Williams, 18-year old freshman, was kicked in the abdomen in a practice session with the Loyola varsity and died later of internal injuries.

Find 250 Injuries

The national bureau of casualty and surety underwriters, gathering national college statistics, have received reports so far on 250 injuries. Most of these were minor character, the bureau said. The only serious case was My Ubl, Minnesota backfield star, who barely survived a chest injury.

Four high school boys, two youngsters in neighborhood games, and one academy player in Honolulu received fatal injuries. In addition to this list, Asa Mohr, 26 years old, suffered a broken neck in a game between town teams in Central City, Neb., while F. C. Smith, 20, a municipal league player, was so badly hurt about the head in a game in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday, that he is not expected to live.

Just as last year's toll came mainly through head injuries, so do the deaths reported so far this season bear out the necessity for protective measures against this type of hurt.

Already three high school players have died of head and neck injuries, Bob Houtz, 17-year old Alhambra, Cal., senior with a broken neck; Thomas Bagwell, 16, St. Louis, fractured vertebra, and Fred Winstedt, 18, Punahou Academy, Honolulu, cerebral hemorrhage.

Two sandlot players also have died of head injuries. Theodore Temple, 26, received a broken neck in a game in Coldwater Mich., and Zygmust Sulewski, 19, a brain concussion so severe he died in Detroit.

Two youthful victims bore out the contention of coaches last fall that some deaths occurred because of lack of treatment of hurts that in themselves were minor.

James Dunn, a 12 year old Chicago boy, developed meningitis after a blow between the eyes received during a neighborhood game and died. A bruise received by Raymond Gwozos, 14-year old Clinton, Mass., youngster developed into a fatal case of blood poisoning.

One other high school boy, George C. Dunham, 17, died in Minneapolis of internal injuries after a game. Heart trouble caused the death of Foster Stewart, 18, in Anniston, Ala., after a strenuous contest.

Where Does College Grid Money Go?

Columbia University Student Newspaper Starts Annual Row In Athletic Department; "Where Is The Cash And Why?"

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—An investigation into the athletic organization of Columbia University to find where the money goes and why is to be undertaken by the board of trustees of the university if an alumni movement receives the favorable action expected.

The Spectator, undergrauate daily of the university, revealed today that alumni members of the board planned to present a resolution Nov. 7 calling for an impartial inquiry either to prove or disprove charges and rumors of semi-professionalism and bad policy in an intercollegiate sport.

The Spectator suggested six matters the inquiry should cover: Whether players are subsidized; the pay of Lou Little, head football coach, and his assistants; alleged classroom leniency to players by professors and instructors; preference in award of scholarships, and the possibility of injury or death to which players are subjected.

The current agitation is an echo last year's attack by Reed Harris, then editor of Spectator, on intercollegiate football as a "racket."

Rice Owls To Meet Creighton Eleven In Intersectional Game On Saturday

Arkansas Porkers To Lay Off This Week; Meet Rice Next

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 24. (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks reported for practice this afternoon, after their return in the morning from Shreveport, La., where they lost Saturday to Louisiana State university.

The Porkers will lay off this week, before their homecoming tilt, November 5 against the Rice Institute Owls of Houston. Coach Thomsen said he expected to revamp his line within the next two weeks and develop plays which would prove more effective.

The first call for basketball practice will be issued tomorrow by Coach Charles Bassett, but only three cage practice sessions will be held this week.

HOUSTON, Oct. 24. (AP) — Coach Jack Meagher's Rice Owls today started working for Saturday's intersectional tilt here against Coach Arthur Stark's Creighton eleven from Omaha, Neb.

Creighton has its strongest team of recent years and the Owls will be pressed to win. Meagher's men already have won intersectional games from the L. S. U. Tigers and the Loyola Wolves of New Orleans.

Coach Meagher has indicated great care will be taken the next two weeks in getting into shape such Rice players as Kelly Scott, Lon Hassell, Fay Lagow and Ox Hinman. The Rice mentor hopes to have his team at full strength when Rice plays Arkansas November 5 at Fayetteville, Ark.

Morrison Not So Sure That SMU Will Cop

"I'll Keep My Mouth Closed," Says Ray After Prediction That Ponies Would Take The Longhorns If Rice Lost

DALLAS, Oct. 24. (AP) — "I've nothing to say. I will keep my mouth closed until after the game. What I said about Southern Methodist taking Texas if the Longhorns defeated Rice still goes." It was Coach Ray Morrison of the Southern Methodist Mustangs talking at today's practice. Morrison started today preparing his Mustangs for their second Southwest conference battle, and he was in no mood to jest because Saturday night his cohorts lost to Centenary and looked bad doing it.

The Mustangs escaped the Centenary game in good condition, and will have their full strength to toss against the Longhorns. Morrison started his men on a week of dummy scrimmage in an effort to bolster his team's offensive tactics that were so completely smothered by Centenary. The Mustangs plan to gamble on a wide open passing game against Texas, but even their celebrated aerial circus has been only a side-show attraction so far, according to a statement recently made by Morrison.

Longhorns Take Day Off After Victory

AUSTIN, Oct. 24. (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns, who defeated the Rice Owls 18-6 at Houston Saturday, declared a holiday here today, but will resume training for the S. M. U. Mustangs, who they are scheduled to meet here next Saturday in a Southwest Conference game.

Coach Clyde Littlefield reported his squad in good condition, and expects all members to report for work Tuesday.

Although the Steers will take the field against S. M. U. overwhelming favorites to win, Coach Ray Morrison's crew is expected to give them a hard game.

Girls' Pep Squad Boon To Ponies

SWEETWATER, Oct. 24. (Special) — Players on Sweetwater's famous Mustang team, undefeated after a game with Abilene, last year's state champions, Lubbock, West Texas champions, and twice winners in their own district, are inclined to give some of the credit for their victories to the 125 girls who make up the Sweetwater Pep squad. These girls, dressed in snappy new uniforms of white coats and red corduroy skirts, make their appearance on the field between halves and execute several intricate figures and musical numbers, ending with an ensemble in which mounted cowboys and cowgirls lend color and add life.

They are accompanied by the Sweetwater Municipal band and the high school band, the musical numbers having been worked out by Conductor Jack Armstrong of the bands. The squad is in charge of Misses Helen Brand, Polly Criner and Evangeline Sheridan, with Miss Hodges and Bo Roy appearing with the horses in the ensemble.

COACH HENDRICKS ILL

RALLS, Oct. 24. (Special)—Coach C. B. Hendricks of the Ralls High school faculty, is confined to his home on account of illness. He suffered pneumonia following an attack of the flu but has improved.

Westerners Open Conference Season With Bulldogs; Tech Picadors Here On Saturday

Borger And Lubbock To Open Athletic Relations At Tech Field Friday Afternoon At 3:30 O'Clock

The Lubbock High school Westerners will open their 1932 Interscholastic League football season here Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when they meet for the first time the Borger Bulldogs, coached by Noble Atkins.

E. J. "Pinky" Lowrey, athletic business manager at Lubbock High, announced the final settlement after conferring with Borger officials yesterday. Because the players here and at Borger and Borger fans wish to see the Tech-Notre Dame game Friday night, it was decided to play the game here rather than transfer it to Borger.

Coach Del Morgan's Texas Tech Picadors will meet the Amarillo College Badgers, one of the strongest junior college outfits of the state, in a football attraction at Matador Field Saturday afternoon of this week.

The Smartest Play

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of interviews with prominent football coaches in which they tell of bright, sometimes impulsive plays that linger in their memory.)

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A stratagem which produced a touchdown on the opening kickoff of a "big game" sticks in Heartly "Hunk" Anderson's memory as the smartest play he has ever seen in his playing and coaching career.

"It was against Nebraska in 1919," recalls the Notre Dame coach, "and you'll recollect that Notre Dame's battle with Nebraska along in that era were the biggest things in the season for either outfit.

"HUNK" ANDERSON

"At that time Art Bergman was the bright particular star in our ball-carrying cast, while the immortal George Gipp was just beginning to rate as a better-than-average back.

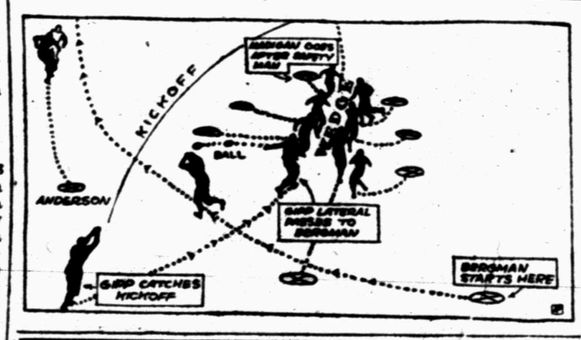

"Bergman, right half, had a great reputation for speed and especially for returning kicks for long gains, so we guessed the Cornhuskers would be sure to keep the kickoff away from him, and planned to defeat that move.

"Nebraska kicked off to Gipp, deep in the left corner of the field, and he started toward the middle to get behind the protective wedge that was forming.

"Bergman, meanwhile, crossed to the left, behind Gipp, and just before the latter was swallowed up in the converging wedge he flipped the ball laterally to Bergman, who scooted down the sideline for a touchdown.

"The lateral pass, of course, would not have done the trick by itself. But, as the diagram shows, our left end, Eddie Anderson, instead of coming in to join the wedge, remained near the sideline to block out Nebraska's right end. And Slip Madigan, center, after starting to back up and join the wedge, turned and raced down field to spill the Nebraska safety man.

"We won the game, eventually, by 14 to 9."

Duce Carries Peace Message

Mussolini Booted And Spurred And Wearing New Helmet Of Army Carries Words Direct To Italy's Workers

TURIN, Italy, Oct. 24. (AP)—Booted and spurred and wearing the new army helmet, Premier Mussolini carried his message of industrial peace direct to the workers today when he visited a large automobile plant here.

He stood beside a huge wooden anvil, placed in the factory to remind the men that Il Duce is a blacksmith's son.

"No other country in Europe or America does for the workers what fascism is doing for you," he told the assembled factory hands, "from morning to night I am absorbed in the task of seeking to create more employment for the people."

In an inspection tour of the plant which preceded his speech the premier walked alone for 150 yards through lanes of cheering workers, despite a warning that the new part-time employment schedule might aroused the old anti-fascist sentiment of the men of Turin.

He urged the men to join the party and see for themselves what it can do for them. "This is only our first decade," he declared, "there will be nine more."

After the speech he reviewed the motorized Alpine force while 200 airplanes paraded overhead. He also inspected the new light armored car which resembles two motor cycles with caterpillar tread coupled together. A review of 20,000 troops of the Turin area occupied an hour.

Mussolini wants the United States to cancel or reduce Europes war debts.

He voiced the suggestion in an address last night. The occasion was his first visit to this industrial center, 40 miles from the French frontier, which heretofore had been long the hot-bed of anti-fascism.

The visit comes in the last week of the first decade of fascism, and the premier chose Turin to give Italy the slogan for the next decade:

"Advance, work, and if and when necessary, fight."

Il Duce wore the black shirt of fascism and appeared coatless and hatless on a balcony above the great Castello square.

He ran the gamut of international and national problems in his 25-minute address, which was preceded by five minutes of shouting by the crowd.

Mussolini proclaimed for "all to hear" that Italy follows a policy of peace—"true peace designed to restore the equilibrium of Europe, peace that is in the heart like hope and faith."

But he warned that "we want no hegemony in Europe."

"We would be against the establishment of any hegemony, especially if it creates a situation of obvious injustice."

The premier envisaged, however, a four-power conference among Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy as a possible solution of Europe's troubles. Such a conference was proposed by Great Britain after Germany demanded arms equality.

"Germany's demand for juridical parity of armaments is fully justified," the premier said. "It must be recognized, and the sooner the better. But at the same time Germany must not ask rearmament in any way as long as the disarmament conference endures.

"Once that conference fails, Germany cannot remain in the League of Nations.

"I declare again we still will remain in the League of Nations. Especially now that it is extraordinarily sick, we must not abandon it. The league is too universal, its advice loses efficacy with distance. It may have benefitted some European regions, but in the far east and South America its words remain words without sense, without significance."

Baylor In Light Workout To Start Practice For Frog Go

WACO, Oct. 24. (AP)—Except for a light workout this afternoon, the Baylor University Bears made no extra preparation for the game next Saturday with Texas Christian University. Coach Morley Jennings did not expect to require much of his men this week, since most of them were in excellent condition. Toward the end of the week, however, secret practice sessions may be held for a little more strenuous work.

Unusually Heavy Criminal Docket Facing Local Court

The weeks beginning November 21, November 28, and December 5 have been set aside for trial of cases on an unusually heavy criminal docket in 99th district court, Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, said yesterday.

All cases are set for trial the first week, and each will be tried as soon as possible. Trial of A. L. Tudor, elderly Slaton coal and grain dealer, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting October 12 of Dr. S. H. Adams at Slaton also is scheduled.

J. E. Aldredge, former Muleshoe banker, will face two charges of false entry as a result of a change of venue from Bailey county, Burks said.

Solman Louis, Albany, Okla., 4-H club boy, grew 41 bushels of Irish potatoes on an eighth of an acre of ground.

Halsell Issues Challenge To Supporters Of Ferguson

A challenge to a Ferguson supporter to a debate was made Monday by H. H. Halsell, 2708 Twentieth street, a leader here in the campaign for Orville Bullington, Republican gubernatorial candidate.

"I assert that a free American citizen has a right to cast his vote in any election as he pleases, without any abridgement. I further assert that Jim Ferguson is not a Democrat," Halsell declared.

"I challenge any Ferguson leader to a debate on the issue. If you are afraid to defend Fergusonism or your style of Democracy, then your cause is indefensible." He said he would permit any person accepting the challenge to name the date of the debate.

Next Step In Aviation

ENGINE builders have been too busy building motors of greater horsepower and less weight for use in flying machines to bother with the question of noise. Unmuffled motors develop more power than do muffled ones, and when more power is the desideratum, the question of noise has been regarded as inconsequential.

The time is now here, due to the rapid development of commercial aviation, when engineers must eliminate the deafening roar of the big passenger plane. The traveling public demands comfort as well as speed and safety. Aviation has produced the latter but has had to all back on such makeshifts as cotton for the ears to provide the comfort.

Military aeronautics may come to the aid of commercial aviation in this fjeld as it has in many others. Its engineers have been working on a noiseless plane for bombing purposes and their experiments are reported to have met with success in England. The aeronautical committee of the British air ministry announces that a silent plane can be built today.

When it is no longer necessary for passengers in airship cabins to scream at one another in order to make themselves heard or to stuff their ears with cotton to prevent temporary deafness, commercial aviation will have taken a long step forward in its campaign to make the public air conscious.

WHAT IS COLLEGE FOR?

From a group of American college students, which, recently set a higher value upon the Phi Beta Kappa key than upon a "letter" in athletics, now comes a still more emphatic pronouncement in favor of the intellectual life.

These students have formulated a series of reforms dedicated to the proposition that college is primarily a place for study and only in the second instance an opportunity for social and athletic recreation.

The program may be summed up as combining freedom with opportunity. The undergraduate must be allowed to shape his own destiny; having once made his choice, it is for college authorities to provide the ways and means. After the first two years the men who are trying for "honors" must be separated from the men who are trying for a pleasant time plus the required number of credits for a diploma. For the honor men the method of instruction should be largely tutorial and for tutors they should have the best men on the faculty. For, in the long run, is it not from the achievements of the intellectual minority among the study body that the college finds its reason for being and its prestige?

This is a notable change from a generation ago when a social stigma attached to class marks higher than C. The undergraduate who wants to study is meeting with ready sympathy from the powers on the campus. Everywhere the way is being prepared for him by the "project" system, by the "seminar" touch, by honor courses, by a general differentiation between the first two years at college and the last two years. Universities and colleges are better able today than ever before to give the student just what he is there for.

LAUGHTER

Prof. Carl G. Gaum, of Rutgers College, has come to the assistance of laughter, in an address before the Mark Twain Association he practically outlined an anatomy of laughter, grading all its forms and giving it the paradoxical dignity of a qualified intelligence test.

Puns he dismissed as "natural as baby talk." The giggle he termed inane but innocent. The snicker he reviled as debased and heartless. The chuckle he called a "gentle, solo" form of real laughter. The smile that comes in appreciation of satire he rated high. But the highest place of all he gave to laughter at jokes on one's self, and the ne plus ultra of that is what is vulgarly known as the "belly laugh," into which the laughter puts complete abandon and good will.

Classifying laughter is a humorless occupation, on the whole, but it is high time some one put a heavy and emphatic heel on snickering and giggling, and also high time wholehearted laughter, practicularly at the pranks of fate on one's self received its just due. The principal point, however, is that there must be laughter, fortified by both smiles and chuckles. Laughter is one human indulgence to which the old admonition, "Wisely, but not too well," does not apply.

We read where the Order of the Garter has been restored to Kaiser Bill, but it had escaped our notice that he had gone either sockless or collegiate.

Vote As Independent Units

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Some Democratic papers have been asking whether G. O. P. strategists would succeed in scaring the country's workingmen, almost at the last minute before election, into throwing the bulk of their strength to the Republican ticket, by giving warning of an immediate cessation of what is left of industrial employment in the event of a Democratic victory.

It will be recalled that this was the method by which many Democratic politicians assert that Mark Hanna won William McKinley's first election, in the midst of the depresion of the 1890's.

Joseph Byrns

And, whether or not Hanna advised them to do so, there is no question that numerous large employers of labor did announce, during the 1896 campaign, that they would shut up their plants in complete discouragement, if W. J. Bryan were elected. Then as now, unemployment was rampant but workers who still held jobs naturally wanted to keep them. Possibly they were influenced, in casting their ballots, by this direful chorus from captains of industry; possibly not. The affirmative was widely believed, anyway.

THE BRITISH press quite generally attributes the last English election result to adoption of the Hanna plan by the industrial magnates of King George's realm. It certainly was common talk in advance that the radicals would win by a landslide—instead of which an ultra-conservative regime was swept into power, after very much such a Tory hullabaloo as marked the 1890 McKinley-Bryan campaign on this side of the water.

In the still more recent primary fight in Wisconsin, between the progressive La Follette-ites and the Kohler Republican regulars, the Progressives alleged that there were threats of a shut-down by scores of factories, still in operation, at least on part time, as potent among the causes responsible for conservatism's decidedly unexpected triumph.

That a similar cry is now about to be raised on a national scale is predicted as the next development in the presidential contest, and what its effect will be is the subject of a deal of speculation in Washington.

CONGRESSMAN JOSEPH W. BYRNS of Nashville, Tenn., seemed an appropriate person to question concerning it.

For one thing, he is in the capital, from which most statesmen are absent, on political business. Secondly, he is chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee; therefore intimately in touch with "situations" everywhere. Thirdly, he is an individual of prime importance—head of the house of representatives' appropriation committee, and one of the pair (Congressman Henry T. Rainey of Illinois is the other) between whom the representatives virtually are certain to choose their next speaker, if John N. Garner becomes vice president.

"I have no doubt," said the Nashvillian, "that the Republican managers will try every single trick in their repertory, including the threat to close plants."

"BUT IT WON'T work this time," continued the congressman. "There are too many men out of jobs already—vastly more, in proportion, than in the 1890's.

"A threat to shut down factories has no terrors for a man who is out of employment when he hears it.

"As for those who still have berths—at part time and reduced wages, most of them—they are too conscious of the insecurity of their tenure not to accept a small additional risk, if there is any, for the sake of better conditions."

Assuming that this proves to be the case and that the Democratic presidential ticket does win, will shutdowns actually follow? Or, supposing that the industrial leaders threaten them, may their threats safely be regarded as empty?

"Industries," rejoined the congressman, "are run for profit. With profits in sight, there will be no shutting down on account of pique over any election result, whatever it may be."

But may there not be industrial leaders who, honestly believing Republican rule essential to prosperity, will be genuinely alarmed by a Democratic victory?

"Why, yes," said the Tennesseean, "I presume there is some such group—a small one. It's the group which got us into the depression. But we can't afford to leave it in power—steering the country on, from bad to worse—lest we frighten its members."

A SMALL GROUP! Insufficient to hamper a return to better times?

"Entirely incapable of doing so," insisted the congressman.

"Indeed, I am of the opinion that the very fact of a Democrat's election as president will be followed by some improvement even before his inauguration.

"To be sure, the effect can be only psychological until he enters the White House, but my judgment is that there will be a renewal of hope immediately, and renewed hope will bring with it a degree of material benefit.

"The tasks of reconstruction will be slow, unavoidably. Agriculture can be rehabilitated, purchasing power created afresh and foreign markets recaptured only gradually. It probably will not be a return to boom conditions. What we want is real, permanent prosperity. Within four years we shall be well on our way toward it."

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

THE FIRST AMERICAN ELECTION:

The first man ever elected to office on the soil of the New World was John Winthrop, first governor of the colony of Massachusetts Bay. This celebrated election took place May 18th, 1631, after the royal charter was obtained which created a corporation under the name of "Governor and Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England."

The first American electee was born in Edwardston, Suffolk, England (1588-1649). The proprietors of the Company first elected him governor on October 30, 1630, the new governor arrived in command of 11 ships at Salem. After his reelection by the General Court in Boston on May 18, 1631, a landmark in the history of elections in the New World, he was reelected to the same office in 1632, 1633, 1634, 1637, 1638, 1639, 1640, 1642, 1643, 1646, 1647, 1648 and 1649, so that altogether he was elected Governor 16 times, in addition to three terms as deputy governor.

Winthrop is the man whose mind is credited with "having arranged the social state of Massachusetts, while Massachusetts in turn has moulded the society of New England."

TOMORROW: "A UNIQUE RECOVERY."

Democrat Would Uphold Party Pledge; Says Bolting Is Detriment To Party

Editor, The Avalanche, Your editorial of October the twentieth, in regard to the National and State ticket, from a democratic standpoint it was an absurdity. When an army starts to battle against their enemy do you think for one minute they would only fight one section of the approaching line, and let the other section of the army destroy you.

The Avalanche-Journal has a great organization of about seventy-five people working at your command, suppose that you should decide to put on a campaign for the betterment of your paper, and after you started this program, for this improvement you should find four or five sore-heads working to disrupt your plans, you would at once take the sore-heads off the payroll, and you would say that you care nothing about having disloyal employees around your institution.

You said that thousands of Regular Democrats will desert on November the eighth. Just who do you call Regular Democrats? Is it those who regularly cast aside their honor and leap their pledge? We had this kind of Democrats in 1924, and more in 1928, and I have heard of a few who say they will leap their pledge this year.

I will ask that every frog leg Democrat in Texas file their name with the County Chairman, so in the future they will not have the audacity to run for office on the Democratic Ticket, let them run on the frog leg ticket.

Respectfully yours,
R. L. Ewing.

Man Is Free Under Bond As Result Of Saturday Affray

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 24 (AP)—Roy Leach was free under $1,000 bond today after waiving a preliminary hearing on a charge of assault to commit murder for an attack on J. L. Leazer, Valley View undertaker and hardware merchant.

Leazer was found unconscious behind a building on the square at Valley View Saturday night. His nose was broken and he suffered an injury to his eye. He formerly employed Leach.

An iron bar, believed to have been used by the assailant, was found by officers.

Success Of Kiwanis Work Stressed At Convention Underway In Valley

HARLINGEN, Oct. 24 (AP)—Reports stressing the success of Kiwanis clubs in the face of adverse economic conditions were presented to the fifteenth annual Oklahoma-Texas district convention of Kiwanians today.

R. G. Storey of Dallas, a past district governor, said that despite the times, Kiwanis clubs "have stood the test and are still growing" but urged members of the organization to unite in a greater effort for a return of prosperity and greater happiness.

Dr. L. D. Hudson of Dewey, Okla., district governor, in an address on the theme "Kiwanis needs you and you need Kiwanis," reported a satisfactory year's work.

Tom W. Archer of Dallas, lieutenant-governor of division four, lead a discussion on "club sponsoring."

Hudson reported the following new committees had been named: "Resolutions—L. A. McDonald of Denton, J. R. Dillard of Big Spring, Luther Hughes of Weslaco and George McCormack; credentials—Dave Fezler of Oklahoma City, W. S. Brock of San Benito, Alvin Moore of Cheyenne, Okla., Kenneth Bebb of Wichita Falls and W. O. Allen of Amarillo; election — B. Sherrod of Lubbock, Harry Ratliff of Weslaco, Harry Miller of Pawhuska, Okla., Roy Coale of Beaumont, and J. W. Hunt of Henrietta, Okla.

The governors' ball was the highlight of tonight's program. The convention will close tomorrow with election of officers and selection of next year's convention city.

North Carolina, the twelfth state to join the Union, now is twelfth in population ranking.

Eastern Stars To Meet On Tuesday

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24 (AP)—Committee meeting Monday morning preceded the formal opening of the golden jubilee session of the grand chapter of Texas, Order of Eastern Star, which is expected to draw 5,000 delegates to Fort Worth for a convention lasting through Thursday.

The four-day meeting marks the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the grand chapter here. Mrs. Belle P. Tomlinson, Wallis, worthy grand matron, arrived in Fort Worth Sunday. She stated that she expected this session to be the greatest in the history of the organization.

The grand chapter proper will not meet until Tuesday morning. A reception will be given at 7:45 o'clock tonight at the new Masonic temple honoring Mrs. Tomlinson. The ten Fort Worth chapters of the Order of the Eastern Star will be host. Moslah temple, A A O N M S, will sponsor an inspection of the new temple and a musical program at 10 p. m.

Three Minute Relief From Your Headache

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B.C.", a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B.C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B.C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

NEWS BRIEFS

Elmer E. Combs, charged here Saturday with possession and passing of a counterfeit $100 bill, was released from county jail later Saturday in bail of $2,500.

S. A. Fitzhugh of Dallas and H. T. Atkinson of near Dallas were here Monday as the owners of a 1928 Chevrolet coach and a 1929 Ford roadster, respectively, stolen September 11 at Dallas, and among four automobiles recovered a week ago by state highway patrolmen. Three of the cars were found 12 miles south of here and one was found on north Avenue H.

Burglary charges were filed against two youths Monday. One was filed in county juvenile court against a 16-year-old boy living two and a half miles south of Lubbock. The other charge, in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court, was against Preston Carver, 17, of the 1600-block of Avenue P. The two boys were arrested together in the home of Mrs. J. T. Magee, 1719 Avenue K, early Sunday afternoon, police said. The youths were transferred to county jail.

About a gallon of whisky was confiscated by police Sunday in arresting four men for drunkenness. Police were at a loss to determine whose liquor it was, and indicated no liquor law violation charge was likely.

A 58-year-old Wilson man arrested Saturday night, when a light sedan he was driving collided head-on with a similar automobile, subsequently paid a $15 fine for drunkenness and was released.

A two-week revival at the First Baptist church was opened Monday morning by Dr. Wallace Bassett, pastor of Cliff Temple Baptist church at Dallas. E. L. Carnett, professor of music in Southwestern Baptist seminary at Fort Worth, will conduct song services.

Parents of children in classes in the science and manual training departments are being invited to attend classes of these departments Wednesday. Special programs will be given during the visits. Chemistry, biology, physics, woodwork and mechanical drawing will be shown. M. E. Witt is science department head and chemistry instructor, and other instructors are: J. C. Brown, physics; W. C. Watts and Mrs. Gregg James, biology; G. E. Dawson, mechanical drawing, and E. E. Key, woodwork.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, Texas Technological college president, addressed the Amarillo Kiwanis club at a special program Monday for Panhandle newspapermen. Chas. A. Guy accompanied Doctor Knapp to Amarillo and introduced the Tech president.

Collision of two automobiles late Sunday about half a mile south of Posey resulted in injury to three or more persons. Injured were Bessie Carpenter, 14, of Slaton, route No. 1, who suffered a severe fracture of the left arm, her father, who had a chest injury, and the driver of the second car, an unidentified man believed to be from Fort Worth.

A McMurry college representative, Dan Dodson of Abilene, was elected president of the Northwest Texas Wesley Students' association here Sunday afternoon. Other officers named were: James Hall, Oklahoma Panhandle A. & M., Goodwell, Okla., vice president; and Miss Eleanor Simmons, Texas Technological college, secretary-treasurer. The group will meet next fall, between October 10 and 20 at West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon. Dr. J. W. Hunt, McMurry president, preached the conference sermon Sunday morning at First Methodist church here.

Mr. and Mrs. Claybern Bishop of Seminole are visiting Mrs. Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McFarland, 1621 Eighteenth street.

eated the return of prosperity will be retarded.

"I deny that, and I deny it emphatically, and I state from this platform to my nation-wide audience that the election of the Democratic ticket is the best way to solve these problems and the best way to bring back prosperity —the election of Roosevelt and Garner."

"In 1928," he said, "both parties ducked the prohibition issue. They were both afraid of it.

"The Democratic party wasn't a bit better than the Republican party. They both laid down, in fear of the consequence had they taken a decided step looking to revision or repeal of the 18th amendment."

The crowd roared when he said:

"I think the record pretty clearly indicates that I did not dodge it. I did not duck it. I went in to it head on."

Of prohibition he said:

"For hypocrisy, for deceit, for double-dodging, double-dealing and double-crossing, it probably has nothing to equal it in all the annals of American history."

Referring to the Republican plank, he read the part "we do not favor a submission limiting the issue to retention or repeal," and declared:

"If you want my private opinion of the fellow that put that in there, I would put him in the bonehead class."

Still speaking of prohibition, he said:

"If you don't settle this question on the eighth of November, there won't be any use holding protest meetings in January. You've got to settle this now. You've got to do it through the Democrats. The Republican party is on the loose."

Murder Suspect

ty, on information from Moore and Keller, they said.

The two officers responsible for Blanton's arrest were reticent last night regarding clues leading to the suspect. Both declared that "a lot more work has to be done." Mr. Keller said that "maybe two and maybe three were connected" with the offense.

Says Witness Saw Man

"I've got one witness who saw Blanton here late on the evening before the hijackings," Moore, constable-elect, said last night. "This witness knew Blanton before Saturday. He told us Blanton was wearing whiskers then."

A light coupe, said to be owned by the suspect, was located at Hobbs, N. M., about 12:30 a. m Monday, Moore said. The car was being returned to Lubbock when engine trouble necessitated repairs at Seagraves, where the machine was last night.

Could Prove Alibi

"If they would give me half an hour I could prove I was in Amarillo at that time," Blanton said yesterday afternoon. He traced what he said were his movements on the night Tharp was wounded at M System store No. 1 at Broadway and Avenue Q. Blanton gave names of persons he said he was with, places they visited, and the time.

Blanton, a member of Battery B, 131st field artillery at Amarillo seven years, said he knew a number of Lubbock people and that "I could make a bond here in Lubbock right quick."

"The last day I was in Lubbock was Wednesday, September 7, about two o'clock in the morning," the young man said.

Married In Lovington

He was married August 28 in Lovington, N. M.

Blanton said he had a 1931 model Ford coupe, and that Mrs. Blanton went to Hobbs in the car Friday, October 14, and that that date was the last time he had seen the machine.

At least a days growth of stubble was on Blanton's face. A blue shirt, open at the neck, showed under his yellow sweater. The sweater had a large "A," for Amarillo high school, on the front, and a black stripe around the left sleeve.

Statement Obtained

He said it was not until "last night at midnight when the assistant district attorney came to see me that I knew what I was being held for." Assistant District Attorney Burke obtained a statement from the youth.

Moore and Keller said they had been working quietly on the case since the crimes were committed. Learning their suspect was in Amarillo, they informed M System employes they would be summoned if the man were arrested.

Serving As Juror

The arrest of the former Amarillo high school football star cost Judge W. E. Gee of the 108th district civil court of Amarillo a juror. Blanton was serving as a juror in an employers' compensation insurance suit. The jury had been unable to reach a verdict when court recessed Saturday night. If the remaining jurors reach an agreement, the verdict must be signed by Blanton.

District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley was in Amarillo, Sunday, and aided in the inquiry. Sheriff W. N. Thompson of Potter county, three of his deputies, and two highway patrolmen stationed at Amarillo, R. H. Routh and L. T. Keller, assisted in the investigation.

Dragnet Thrown Out

A net was thrown over several Amarillo districts Saturday night after the arrival there of Moore and Keller, they said. Jack Reaves and E. C. White, highway patrolmen headquartered here, accompanied one of the witnesses to Amarillo. Grocery employes, in the stores when the holdups occurred, were telephoned about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, and reached Amarillo long before noon.

L. S. Huey, G. E. Lane, and Emory Lutz, of the No. 1 store, in which Tharp was shot; H. D. Aycock, manager of store No. 6; George Fisher, a customer at No. 1, and two other persons identified Blanton as the gunman in both robberies, distinguishing him from several men aligned in the Potter county jail, according to Moore and Keller.

Several Viewed

Blanton had on a light blue shirt, dark trousers, and was bare headed and freshly shaved when aligned with several other prisoners. Witnesses were instructed to look at the group, to go into another room without saying anything, and there to say whether they could identify any of the men, Keller explained.

Blanton's residence at 406 North Polk street, Amarillo, later was searched, and khaki clothing found there was identified by the grocery employes as like that worn by the holdup man, the Lubbock peace officers added.

Intermittent slumping of Blanton's shoulders, hunching as had the bandit's when he shoved forward a pistol; a peculiar and only slightly perceptible hop in the suspect's step, which also revealed a weak leg, and a peculiarity of his teeth figured in the identification, Keller related.

"Very little money" was found on the suspect's person or in his home, Keller said. The highway patrolman declined to disclose how much money was found. Tracing of the suspect's recent activities led them to believe Blanton had been spending freely, Moore said.

Wife Not Taken

Moore, Keller, and Sheriff Thompson returned Blanton here. The suspect's young wife was not arrested, Keller said.

A man arrested last week by police as a suspect in the holdups and slaying still was in city jail last night. Leads utilized by investigators had led to El Paso and eastern New Mexico.

Tharp, a former McMurry college football star at Abilene, died October 17 of a bullet wound inflicted October 15.

Tharp, identified in the gridiron history of the McMurry Indians as the Gallopin' Ghost, said before he died that he had complied with the bandit's instructions. "Why did he shoot me?" Tharp asked. Persons at his funeral included his fiancee.

Checks Are Found

Some of the checks and purchase total tickets taken from the No. 6 store, at 1945 Nineteenth street, were found near Lubbock by a caddy Saturday. A handful of silver was the only loot obtained at the No. 1 store, at 1704 Broadway, in which Tharp was shot down. Tharp had been informed of the other robbery and had taken most of the receipts of the No. 1 store to a rear room.

The mortal wounding of Tharp precipitated an anti-crime drive in which the Lubbock County Bar association took the lead here. A proposed $500 reward for information resulting in the arrest and conviction of Tharp's slayer was oversubscribed.

Marine Workers Threaten To Organize; Relief Demanded

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP) — Eight members of the marine workers' industrial union today told one of President Hoover's secretaries that unless their relief demands were met they would organize their forces "and come back in thousands."

George Mink, chairman of the union, deposited with Theodore Joslin a list of eight demands and asserted that 80,000 seamen were unemployed.

"Seamen are starving by thousands," Mink said. "Dozens are being fished out of the Hudson and Delaware rivers and out of every large seaport in the United States."

Snowstorm

peratures were mild.

Fort Collins, Sterling and other northern Colorado towns reported snow which turned to rain as the storm progressed northward into Wyoming and Nebraska.

A high wind that at times reached 50 miles hurried the storm clouds over southeastern Wyoming Sunday and Monday, and snow fell over most of the area. Cheyenne, Casper, Laramie, all reported snow.

Three Hunters Lost

The snow storm hovered over the Big Horn mountain country, where three Wyoming hunters are lost, and threatened to again close highways which had just been opened after last week's storm. Forest rangers and game officials, while continuing their search for the missing men, warned incoming hunters that roads might be closed for the season at any moment.

Northwestern Montana was clear but the rest of the state was under clouds with light precipitation recorded in the eastern half. Temperatures were generally below freezing.

Officers Busy

last night no complaint had been filed.

A burglary charge was filed against Preston Carver, a theft charge against Willie Jones, a negro, a charge of concealing stolen property against W. L. Johnson. A Lubbock man was named in a complaint alleging malicious destruction of personal property. Frank Hamlin was named in a liquor law violation complaint.

Two Mexicans, one 32 and the other 19, were held in county jail last night in connection with theft from a drygoods store in the 1100-block of Broadway.

Second Football Fatality Is Recorded In Nebraska

SCOTTS BLUFF, Neb., Oct. 24 (AP)—Leland McIrvin, 16-year old Minatare high school football player, died in a hospital here today, the result, physicians said, of a general infection which followed an arm bruise received in practice more than a week ago.

The boy was suffering from boils at the time.

His death was the second of the season in Nebraska to be blamed to football. Asa J. Mohr of Central City, player on a town football team, died in an Omaha hospital after suffering a broken neck in a game.

Kane Trial

Kane as housekeeper three weeks before his death, the woman going to the ranch from Santa Fe. She had answered a newspaper advertisement.

Stories Are Varied

Mrs. Kane surrendered the day of the killing. Mrs. Kane's first story was that the aged man had attacked her, and afterward her 15-year-old girl. The daughter at first claimed she killed Cunningham in self-defense. Eventually the admission was obtained that Mrs. Kane did the killing with the alleged attack as the motive.

Nearly two score witnesses from Motley county have been summoned for the trial.

Judge Kenneth Bain is presiding judge. Attorneys representing Mrs. Kane are C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls; Fred Arnold of Graham, G. E. Hamilton of Matador, and L. G. Matthews of Floydada.

But Grover Watkins, the preacher's counsel, shouted late today: "We've got every circumstance in the world that Mrs. Berrie died of uremic poisoning," and added the prosecution has not proved "where Reverend Berrie even gave her a glass of water."

"Don't wake up and find, after you've turned on the juice, that you've made a mistake," he warned.

"Are you trying him for illicit relationship," he asked.

With M. D. Hartsell, also of Berrie's counsel, Watkins assailed Oldham and his assistant, S. C. Cavender, Watkins declaring "Oh, they're cunning men, they're cunning and they're seasoned — cunning as minks."

Representative Of Devil

Closing for the state, Cavender declared Berrie "is not representative of the gospel of Jesus Christ but of the devil.

"He's using religion as a cloak for his nefarious schemes and his crimes," he said.

Describing Berrie as "always a ladies' man," Cavender shouted the state was trying "the Dr. Berrie who took this little schoolgirl and debauched her."

The preacher's pretty bride of last May sat by his side throughout the day. They were married less than two months after the first Mrs. Berrie collapsed at a church meeting and was brought home to die in convulsions last March 21.

Annual Drive

ceived totaled $1,796.01, Capt. W. T. Wilson, commander of the post here, said. The Community Chest now is an advisory organization only.

Indigent persons, particularly transients, of both sexes and ranging from babyhood to old age, are fed, clothed, sheltered, and given medical attention by the Salvation Army here. Its quarters are a dingy frame building at 1404 Texas avenue.

Bureau Established

As an experiment, to relieve distress here, the agency recently established a bureau for cotton growers and jobless cotton pickers, and through Monday had aided more than 650 persons in obtaining employment in the fields, and more than 85 farmers in obtaining pickers.

The following farmers, the Salvation Army announced, have expressed appreciation to the agency for the service it extended them, aided by the Avalanche-Journal newspapers:

E. J. Jones, E. E. Boyd, E. B. Shipp, H. L. Squyers, Charles Boyd, J. H. Crabtree, A. R. McGuire, C. N. Carey, T. Jones, G. A. Gamble, W. W. Leach, T. A. Barton, F. Peterman, J. M. Cone, T. B. Three Are Found Dead In Home; Youth Given Blame

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 24 (AP)—Samuel W. Patterson, a wealthy coal operator, and his wife and son, Thomas, 27, were found dead in their home today. A coroner's jury decided the youth shot his mother and father and then slashed his wrists.

Police, called by servants to the home in one of Huntington's exclusive residential districts, broke into Thomas' room.

The youth had locked himself in after slaying his parents.

JUDGMENT GRANTED

DALLAS, Oct. 24. (AP) — District Judge W. M. Taylor today granted the state of Texas a judgment against R. A. Vineyard, former Dallas county tax collector, for $2,095.18, representing fees of office which Judge Taylor said were unallowable to the assessor and should revert to the state.

Thales was the earliest of the Greek philosophers, and the founder of the Ionic or Physical school.

Oklahoma Winds Chilled By Snows Reported In Rockies

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 24 (AP)—Snow in the Rockies chilled north winds which swept down on Oklahoma tonight, sending the mercury precipitantly downward.

Temperatures here dropped 25 degrees in two hours, from a maximum of 81 to 55 at nightfall. Similar drops were reported at Enid and other northern Oklahoma points.

United States Will Keep Up To Treaty Strength In Ships

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—To keep the United States up to her treaty strength in cruisers, the navy intends to start work next year on another vessel of that type.

Bids have been invited on a 10,000-ton 8-inch gun cruiser, to cost approximately $17,000,000 and be completed in 1936.

That will give this country 16 cruisers of this type. Under the London treaty the seventeenth can be started in 1934 and the eighteenth in 1935.

Farmer Is Bound Over For Trial For Slaying Of Two

SEMINOLE, Okla., Oct. 24 (AP)—Charged with slaying Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bruner, after a quarrel over rentals, Z. J. Williams, farmer, was bound over without bail for trial in superior court after a preliminary hearing before Peace Justice Woody Hunt here today.

Williams, who sub-leased part of his land to the young couple, parents of three small children, was brought to the courtroom under heavy guard. He did not testify.

WASHINGTON, — The Hessian fly, deadly enemy of wheat farmers, threatens to injure materially the 1933 wheat crop, Dr. Larrimer, of the Department of Agriculture, says that the secret of the Hessian fly control is to time the planting so that the young plants do not come up until the adult flies have left flax-seeds.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24. (AP)—Cotton was a quiet affair today, future prices fluctuating narrowly on a down-trend and closing 4 to 5 points net lower. Today's spot sales at southern markets, posted after the close, were the largest of the season, totaling 83,406 bales.

The market opened steady and although Liverpool cables came in 7 to 8 penny points better than due, Sterling was weak. Private cables said Bombay and Manchester bought on wage settlement and lower Sterling. Manchester cabled the cloth demand from India was maintained. First trades here were 2 points up to 3 down, but prices eased off after the start on hedge selling, December, dropping to 6.12 and March to 6.25 or 2 to 3 points below Saturday's close.

Later in the first half of the morning prices rallied moderately on a moderate rally in stocks and some trade buying. December advancing to 6.18 and March to 6.31 or 6 points above the early lows and 3 to 4 points above the previous close. This bulge attracted fresh hedge selling and in the absence of buying support, the market showed a slowly sagging tendency all afternoon, making lows for the day near the end with December at 6.09 and March at 6.22 down 9 points from the early highs. The close was a shade steadier with December at 6.10 or 4 points net down, and March at 6.22 down 5 points net.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 3 penny points down.

Port receipts 51,336, for week 96,023, for season 2,604,906, last season 3,052,524. Exports 27,420, for week 16,488, for season 1,815,619, last season 1,357,472. Port stock 4,032,579, last year 4,307,584. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 133,984, last year 124,865. Spot sales at southern markets 83,406, last year 55,000.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 24. (AP)—A slight early advance in cotton today was followed by declines under increased southern selling.

December contracts after selling up to 6.18 early, declined to 6.10 and closed at that figure with the general market closing steady at net declines of 3 to 4 points.

The opening was 2 points higher to 2 points lower.

Relatively steady Liverpool cables were followed by buying here through houses on the difference, while in addition to domestic trade buying, there was some demand through brokers with Japanese connections.

The demand tapered off after the close of Liverpool and later in the day prices eased gradually under continued southern selling which was absorbed by scale down buying by the trade and covering. March eased off to 6.24 or 9 points from the high price of the morning, with all positions making new low ground for the movement in the late trading and closing at the lowest.

A private report estimated ginning prior to Oct. 18 at 7,200,000 bales. The census report will be issued tomorrow morning.

The advance in Liverpool was a little more than sufficient to offset the decline in Sterling, and the relative steadiness there was attributed to hope of an increased business in cotton goods at Manchester. It was reported that the wage dispute in the Lancashire spinning mills had been settled and according to the New York cotton exchange service the declines in Sterling has placed Manchester in a slightly better position to compete for business in the eastern markets.

It's Folly To Sell Stock Now

Here's the Feeding Plan Cattle Men Have Dreamed Of

Don't accept present ruinous prices for your grass fat and feeder cattle without investigating the new Bowles Plan of Contract Share Feeding. Prices it 25 per cent to 100 per cent higher for corn fed stock are almost a certainty for 1933. See how easy it is to hold your stock for this rise and see how soundly Bowles National Supervision assures you of getting the maximum profit.

Never before has there been an organization like Bowles National. We have obtained as our exclusive Supervisors most of the nationally known feeders in the entire Corn Belt, such men as: JOHN HUBLY, ED HALL, ENE TOLAN, BILL FRAZIER, WAYLAND HOPLEY, and HENRY HORTENSTINE—all famous International and Royal Live Stock Exposition show feeders.

Other Bowles National Supervisors include the largest and most successful feeders in the Corn Belt states, such men as: O. M. (Bean) Lyons, McKenna Brothers, Ralph McElrath, Leslie Lemon, Julius Peterson, Stanley R. Pierce and many others.

In the Bowles Plan there is only one charge—half of which is deferred until stock is sold—40c per cwt. for cattle. The Bowles Plan with the most expert feeding supervision in the world actually costs less than many other plans offered you, and "the BEST is the CHEAPEST in the end." The entire freight bill also may be deferred.

Get the full details. See why banks are willing to co-operate with stock men under this amazing plan. Write or wire today.

Stock Market Is Placid Enough On Surface But Obviously Is Uneasy

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 24. (AP)—The stock market was placid enough on the surface today, but was obviously a bit uneasy in advance of tomorrow's dividend meeting of the U. S. Steel directors.

What had the earmarks of professional selling here and there, particularly in some of the food shares, failed to bring out any important liquidation, and the list closed a shade higher, as measured by price averages. But traders moved with extreme caution, the turnover of 565,240 shares making the smallest day's business since July.

Such corporate news as appeared was moderately favorable, particularly railroad earnings and freight movement figures, but a slump of about 7 cents in the British pound Sterling, on top of its dip last week, was apparently a little disturbing.

Wall street had no very clear ideas as to what to expect from the directors' meeting of U. S. Steel late tomorrow. Statisticians calculated that the earnings report for the third quarter would show a large deficit, but there was considerable inclination to look for maintenance of the $7 annual preferred dividend.

U. S. Steel preferred was firm in the stock market, getting up to 24 1-2, and closing at 73 1-2, a net gain of 1 3-8. The common finished a fraction higher, as did such issues as American Can, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, and Santa Fe. American Tobacco "B," New York Central and Standard of N. J. Allied Chemical was a firm feature, up nearly 2, while advances of a point or more appeared in corn products, Liggett and Myers "B," McKeesport and a few others.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24. (AP) — Beef steer and yearling trade found an uneven trend at various markets around the circuit with values rated as anywhere from strong to 25 higher to as much as 25 lower as compared with the close of last week. A consignment of outstanding 1,554 lb. steers in Chicago scored up to 9.65 and a few loads at this market made 9.00@9.50 but top prices elsewhere ranged largely at 6.90@8.25. The general bulk of steers and yearlings offered were of quality to sell at 5.00@7.50 with common kinds down to 4.00. Stockers and feeders made up a liberal proportion of the supply at several of the river markets and values held about steady with spots 25 lower. Majority of replacement steers bulked at 3.25@5.50 with several loads of better grade yearling stockers at 5.75@6.00. Choice stock steer calves sold at 5.75@6.50. Receipts for the day's business at eleven markets totaled 95,000, as compared with 118,205, last Monday and 132,573 the same day a year ago.

Hog prices were generally steady to 10 lower as compared with Friday's average trade with a top of 3.70 in Chicago and St. Louis.

Lambs cleared at steady levels in most cases, better grade rangers and natives selling in a spread of 4.75@5.25 with closely sorted natives at 5.50@5.65. Chicago noted a consignment of strictly choice 82-lb. Montana lambs at 5.75. Medium to choice feeding lambs brought 3.50@5.25.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24. (AP) — Hogs 1,400, including 1,040 direct; market steady to 10 higher than Friday; rail and truck top 3.70 paid by small killers; packer top 3.60, load good 188 lb. rail butchers to small killer 3.70; better grades 180 to 250 lb. truck hogs 3.60@3.70; packing sows 2.75@3.00 or steady.

Cattle 1,800, calves 2,000, quality lacking in practically all divisions of trade; slaughter classes cattle and calves about steady; slaughter steers rather slow; of value to sell around 3.00@4.50; few desirable fat yearlings 5.00; butcher grades around 4.25 down; few fat cows 2.50@2.75; low cutters 1.00@1.35; bulls scarce. 3 loads good feeder steers 5.00; steady; some good stock steer calves 4.50; slaughter calves mostly around 3.00 down; few good heavies 3.50 and above.

Sheep 500; fat lambs steady; no good yearling or wethers offered; fat lambs 3.75@4.25, medium grade yearling 2.50@2.75.

Grain

FORT WORTH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24. (AP)—Wheat was in good demand as the week started on the Fort Worth cash grain market. Milo if bright was fairly well taken. Other offerings were slow sale, even of the light offerings.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to destination, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat, No. 1 hard according to protein and billing, 54 3-4@57 1-4c. Barley, No. 2 nominally 32@33; No. 3 nominal 31@32. Sorghums, No. 2 bright milo per 100 pounds 63@65; No. 2 kaffir 58@59.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn, No. 2 mixed 38@39; No. 2 white 41@42; No. 2 yellow 38 1-2@39 1-2.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats, No. 2 red 22 1-2@23 1-2; No. 3 red 21 1-2@22 1-2.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. (AP)—Shaken by British exchange collapse to the lowest point since England went off the gold standard, wheat, corn and rye today reached new bottom records.

Apparent withdrawal of British government support for Sterling rates had a decidedly unsettling effect on grain values. It proved more than a counterbalance for any stimulating effects of United States Department of Agriculture removal of certain restrictions against future delivery dealings. Crop news from Argentina and Australia was bearish, and export demand for North American wheat was another disappointment. Wheat closed nervous, at a slight rally, 1-2 to 7-8 under Saturday's finish, corn unchanged to 3-8 off, oats at 1-8 decline to 1-8 advance, and provisions varying from 2 cents setback to an equal gain.

Two Men Waive Extradition And Trials Are Set Jan. 2

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24 (AP)—L. A. Duvall and Leon Jay Kane, under indictment in Oklahoma City on mail fraud charges, waived extradition at a hearing before United States Commissioner Newam here Monday. Their trials are set for January 2 in Oklahoma City, and bonds were fixed at $2,500.

A third man under indictment in the same case, Joe E. Martin, announced he would fight removal to Oklahoma City and said he would sue out a writ of habeas corpus. His hearing was set for November 7 before Judge Wilson in federal district court.

The men were arrested here on indictments returned last January in Oklahoma City. They are charged on 16 counts, alleging they misrepresented facts to stockholders in the sale of stock in the Duvall oil and gas company and the Petroleum Service corporation.

The one-year class was won by the Cowboy band of Burkburnett, with Greenville high school second.

Coal mine explosions are not always due to an explosive mixture of gas; in fact, they are practically always aggravated or increased in force by coal dust.

$750 Cash Offered for Name Of Radio Singer

Reward Will Be Paid Everyone Who Submits Most Suitable Name

Here is another unusual announcement from Hollywood. A new Radio Singer to be featured in an old song program wants a Radio Name, and $750.00 Cash will be paid for the best suggestion. Readers may send their own name, or any other name they think of, as officials say any name may win the $750.00.

The Company featuring this Radio Girl in old song programs believes the Public will take a greater interest in these musical programs if they have a part in the selection of a Radio name for the Singer, and in order to secure suggestions quickly, $750.00 in cash is offered to anyone who is quick in sending the name selected. Officials say anyone has a chance to win this prize by sending their own name or the name of a friend or relative, or a coined name made up by them. Readers of this announcement are urged to send their suggestion for a name at once because $250.00 Extra will be given the winner if the name is mailed and postmarked before October 30, 1932; otherwise the reward is only $500. Just make the name easy to pronounce, and easy to remember, but send a name right away or you may be too late for the promptness prize.

The Rules of the Contest are very simple. All entries must be sent to Radio Director's Office, Studio Z503, 1023 N. Sycamore Ave., Hollywood, California. Officials of the Company say only one suggestion for a name must be submitted by each contestant; everyone but employes of the firm, or their relatives, are invited to submit a name, and in case of ties duplicate awards will be given. Readers may send their suggestion for a name on a postcard, or any kind of paper. The important thing is to send the name at once, because it means $750.00 in cash to everyone who is quick in sending the name selected.—Adv.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
