First Heat to Be Clocked at 1:30

Pampa's seventh All-American Soap Box Derby will be run this afternoon on the Old Miami Highway about four miles north of the city.

From this afternoon's race, which will begin at 1:30, will be determined a winner to represent this city in the international finals at Akron, Ohio, next month. The boy will get an expense-paid trip to Akron by The Pampa Daily News.

Other sponsors of the event are the Pampa Lions Club, Culberson Chevrolet, in cooperation with Chevrolet Division of General Motors.

There is plenty of parking space on either side of the track, and there will be concession stands in operation by the Lions Club. Officials have asked that motorists in approaching and leaving the scene of the race take care to avoid accidents.

Literally scores of people have helped in making possible this year's race. Not only have parents encouraged their boys to finish their racers in time for the event, but also there has been financial assistance from merchants interested in seeing the boys in the race. Many have helped in other ways.

There will be more than a thousand dollars worth of prizes going to the boys who run today's event. That does not include the expense-paid trip to Akron of the boy who wins. He has a chance at a $5,000 college scholarship to the school of his choice upon high school graduation. There are other prizes at Akron.

The winner will receive the W. F. Armstrong plaque for achievement, and his name will be engraved on it. There will be prizes for best constructed car and for the best upholstered car.

Boys will be awarded prizes for winning heats. They will receive their awards at next Thursday's meeting of the Lions Club at the First Methodist Church. The club meets at 12 noon.

Twenty-one of this year's contestants are from Borger. They have been aided immeasurably by the Borger Junior Chamber of Commerce and Davis Chevrolet, Borger, according to officials.

Thirty-three boys are from Pampa. This is a smaller representation than Pampa had last year. One boy is from Mobeetie, and one is from McLean.

Regardless of where the champion is from, he will go to Akron as the Pampa city champion. His car upon return to Pampa must be purchased by one of the sponsors, according to the laws of the Derby. He is paid the actual cost price. This is the rule if he is not international champion, in which case his racer is bought by All-American Soap Box Derby.

There will be no ceremony following this afternoon's race. As soon as the final heat is run, the winner will be announced; and the day's proceedings are over.

Only Showers Are Forecast for Today

Derby fans and participants will have to keep their fingers crossed today.

The weatherman says there will be scattered thundershowers in the Panhandle.

Although a Derby race has never been rained out at Pampa, there is always the possibility.

If today's race should be rained out — and it would have to keep raining to rain it out — the race would be held on Monday afternoon, beginning at 1:30.

BULLETINS

U.N. and Commies

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A mystery witness has told Congress the United Nations Secretariat under Trygve Lie is terrorized by Communist agents who force employes to become their tools.

A Senate judiciary subcommittee made public yesterday the testimony of "witness No. 8," not otherwise identified. His story was given secretly in broken English.

The witness proposed that the senators seek the ouster of Lie, Norwegian-born secretary-general of U.N., and urge appointment of a "capable" successor.

Tie HST's Hands

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Senator Knowland (R-Calif) threatened a Senate fight to tie President Truman's hands against giving atomic bomb data to Britain or any other nation.

Knowland, member of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, said in a statement yesterday he believes that under the 1946 Atomic Energy Act "the executive branch of this government and the Atomic Energy Commission have no legal or moral right to disclose information regarding our atomic weapons to any other nation without the approval of the Congress of the United States."

'Five Percenters'

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Senator Hoey (D-NC) said yesterday a secret diary in the "five percenter" inquiry mentions some Congress members, but "doesn't necessarily indicate they are connected with any improper transactions."

At the same time, a Senate official who has studied the voluminous notebook said it "absolutely contains nothing that incriminates anyone."

Gray Tops Bond Quota

Gray County exceeded its quota by 33 percent in the Opportunity Drive, Sherman White, county Savings Bonds chairman, said yesterday.

The county's total sales were $160,694.25 in Series E Savings Bonds, as compared to the quota of $120,000.

White received the final report of the drive yesterday in a letter from Nathan Adams, Dallas, chairman of the Treasury Department's Advisory Committee for Texas.

Harry Owens, also of Dallas, state director of the Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department, said the Opportunity Drive was successful throughout the state. Sales for Texas were $46,835,896.75, or 126 percent of the state quota of $36,950,000. The drive was conducted from May 16 through June 30. However, the Series E Savings Bonds purchases through July 18 were counted in the final totals.

Texas' sales during the drive this year were $3,293,930.50 more this year than during the similar period of 1948, Owens said.

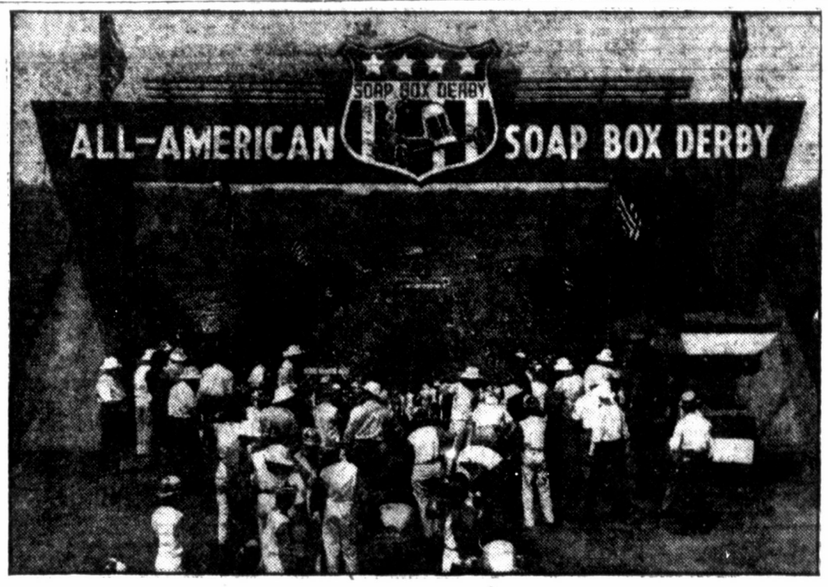

He added the final results of the drive indicated a sharp increase in the number of employes buying bonds through the payroll savings plan where they work and in the number of persons participating in the automatic bond-a-month plan at their banks.

Fifty-four windows in the Fisher Panhandle Grain Elevator were replaced yesterday. The elevator lost these windows during our recent wind and hail storm.

SOME BOY will race to victory this afternoon on the Old Miami Highway race track four miles north of Pampa, provided there is good weather. He will get a trip to the international finals at Akron, Ohio. Conservatives Would Restore 'Greatness'

WOLVERHAMPTON, Eng. —(AP)—Winston Churchill said yesterday the Conservative Party's main aim is to restore the greatness of Britain.

"The first essential step is to regain our economic independence by earning our own livelihood," he said.

Socialism and communism, he charged, differ only in methods.

The wartime Prime Minister, speaking before 40,000 in the Soccer Arena, said the Labor (Socialist) government had steered Britain near a ruin which would "carry many other nations with us into chaos and communism."

"Never before in the history of human government has such great havoc been wrought by such small men," Churchill charged.

The Conservative statesman denounced "Socialist spendthrifts and muddlers" in a speech bidding for public support in the Parliamentary election due before the Labor government's five-year term ends in mid-1950.

"We mean to set the people free, so far as possible and as soon as possible, from wrong-headed planning and from official interference with our daily life and work," he said.

"Our Tory (Conservative) faith is that the gifts and genius of our men and women, if released, will not be found unequal to the first task and duty of every community, namely to earn its daily bread."

The crowd cried "good old Winnie" as he entered the stadium. He waived his high-crowned derby, with his inevitable cigar jutting from his lips, gave the V-for-victory sign.

SHELTERS TO STAY

LONDON—(AP)—Home Secretary Chuter Ede told Paliament Thursday it would be unwise to abandon Britain's air raid shelters "in the present position of the world."

Two Elections Set In City Tomorrow

At 8 a.m. tomorrow two polls will open for two different types of elections — the Ward 2 city commissioner and the Love and Seeds Additions annexation to the city.

Both campaigns, on the outside, were quiet. But, spirited campaigning in both was done on sidewalks and over coffee cups in the mid-city cafes.

Three candidates entered the race only a few hours before the deadline for filing intentions to run for the City Commission seat made vacant by the resignation of Vernon Hobbs, June 1, due to illness.

Three businessmen from as many different businesses are on the ticket — a trucking contractor, an electrical appliance man, and a service station proprietor.

Candidates are: Murray Body, of the Jeffries Trucking Co.; Myron A. Marx, Jr., co-owner of the Texas Electrical Appliance Co.; and Dale Pinson, co-owner of the Hall and Pinson Service Station.

Only residents, holding poll tax receipts, of Ward 2, are qualified to vote in tomorrow's city commissioner election. Ward 2 takes in that part of the city that lies north of E. Foster and east of N. Cuyler and Mary Ellen.

While Ward 2 is electing its next member to the City Commission, residents of the Love and Seeds Additions will be voting on annexation — whether they want to become part of the city or stay as they are.

Balloting in the annexation election will be light due to the small number of eligible voters in the two additions. The additions are located at the southern end of the city beginning at the southeast corner of S. Hobart and W. Wilks and eastward to the southwest corner of W. Wilks and Barrett.

Should the additions elect to come within the city they will benefit by lowered water rates, lower sewer rates, lower fire insurance rates, be given police and fire protection, have a better chance for paving and participate in city elections. They will automatically become a part of Ward 4, having Fred H. Paronto as their city commissioner until the expiration of the current term, July, 1951.

Annexation balloting will be held in the Hogue-Mills Equipment Bldg., W. Brown. The special city commissioner election will be held in the Tom Rose Ford Motor Co., N. Ballard and E. Kingsmill.

Absentee balloting for each election was light. Fifteen were cast for city commissioner and two in the annexation election.

Nine-Year-Old Claims Hard Luck Title

ZION, Ill. — (AP) — Glenn Taylor, 9, believes he is the hard luck champion of Lake County.

Six weeks ago he fell while playing and broke his right arm. Before the cast was removed, he fell and broke his left arm. This week dirt thrown by a neighbor boy injured his right yey. A physician to make sure of its recovery, bandaged both eyes.

Visitor Is Shown Way Out of Town

City Police Saturday afternoon gave Charles Lewis Boyd of Missouri a ride to the city limits with an invitation not to hurry back.

Boyd was nabbed by Patrolmen S. B. Patterson and Homer Doggett at 2:40 a.m. Saturday shortly after prowlers were reported at work near the spot he was picked up.

Minus his shirt — and some bark around the chest, stomach and shoulders — Boyd was flushed out from between two buildings in the 1900 block Alcock with a spot light. He scampered away when he saw the policemen, but was grabbed when spotted the second time peeping around the corner of a house.

Sometime earlier a young boy in the 600 block Roberta spotted a prowler and used him for a target, but missed.

Officers said Bold looked "like everything but a human, . and was scared."

Boyd told officers he was "jumped on" by two drunken women who scratched him and that he was cold. Officers reported Boyd had "no chill bumps."

Saturday afternoon, Boyd left town with the gracious assistance of Pampa's finest.

Vet Groups to Promote Classes

Three local veterans' organizations have proposed to raise a total of $1,500 for equipment to be used in training classes under the Veterans Administration here.

The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Disabled American Veterans have agreed to furnish capital after it was learned such money will not be furnished by VA.

A meeting will be held at 7 p. m. Monday at the Legion-VFW Hall, it was announced, to form classes in air conditioning and refrigeration mechanics.

A spokesman said that those who want to organize in that class, and those who would like to take other courses should be there. If there is sufficient demand, other classes will be organized.

An Orchid for Every Lady in Towns On Booster Tour Is Behrman's Goal

An orchid for every lady will be on the program of the booster trips that will whoop it up this week for the fifth annual Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show.

B. M. Behrman, owner of Behrman's ladies' ready-to-wear store, 123 N. Cuyler, is having 1,100 orchids flown to Pampa from Hilo, Hawaii.

The delicate Princess Aloha orchids will arrive in Pampa the day before each trip and they will be handed out to all the ladies who meet the boosters at each stop this week.

Each flower is in its own plastic vase and with careful watering the blooms will last several days.

The flowers will be brought to Amarillo by air express and to Pampa by fast truck delivery. Two representatives from Behrman's store will be on each trip to distribute the orchids.

The first trip, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, will leave Pampa at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday. It will arrive at White Deer at 7:50; at Panhandle at 8:30; at Amarillo at 9:40; and the group will arrive in Claude for a lunch stop at 11:25 a.m.

The afternoon schedule calls for arrival at Groom at 1:25 p.m.; at McLean at 2:45; at Lefors at 3:50 and the hot and dusty boosters are expected to wind up their 167-mile trip in Pampa at 5 p.m.

SOLON URGES REPEAL OF EXCISE TAXES

WASHINGTON — (AP) — All-out repeal of wartime excise taxes at this session of Congress was urged yesterday by Senator George (D-Ga). He said it would stimulate business and employment.

George, ranking Senate tax expert as chairman of its Finance Committee, told reporters that the special wartime taxes could be wiped out at once if President Truman and Congress cooperate.

He referred to taxes now collected on sales of furs, railroad and airline tickets, most jewelry, and a long list of other items.

He said his repeal proposal would not cover the permanent federal exercise taxes on such products as liquor, cigarettes and tobacco.

George said removal of the wartime levies would mean a loss of about $1,500,000,000 in present government revenues.

But the Senate leader said the step would lead to higher federal income tax payments from corporations, individuals and other taxpayers and partially offset the tax loss.

He said that the taxes now are causing unemployment and shutdowns in a number of industries and specialty lines. If this trend can be halted and reversed, George said the savings in federal relief costs "might be tremendous."

4-Hers Will Attend Camp

Four Gray County 4-H Club members will attend the district 4-H Club camp at Cimarron Canyon, N. M., Aug. 1-3, it was announced yesterday.

They are Amos Harris, Jr., Lynn Harris, Barbara Edwards and Aleta Milhan. Sponsors accompanying the 4-H members will be Amos Harris, Sr., and Mrs. Ernest Edwards.

Ralph Thomas, county agent, and Miss Joyce Williams, assistant county home demonstration agent, also will make the trip.

Eighteen Panhandle counties will be represented at the district encampment. Knox Parr, district agricultural agent, and Miss Doris Leggitt, district home demonstrator, will have charge of the three-day camp.

Hospital Heads Hold Meeting

A general discussion, centered around hospital statistics and their compilation, was held last week at St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, by the newly formed Panhandle Hospital Council.

Chester C. "Chet" Lander, superintendent-elect of Highland General Hospital, presided over the meeting.

The new hospital group comprises 21 hospitals in the Panhandle and meets every other month in Amarillo because it is the central spot, geographically, for the group.

A short address, "Hospital Days for Accurate Records" was given by Sister Mary of Jesus RRL, medical record librarian at St. Anthony's Hospital.

Program of CROP to Be Discussed

G. R. Ross, state representative of the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) will be here Tuesday to address civic club members, ministerial alliance and laymen on the activities of the organization.

Ross, who resides at Taylor, Tex., will be at the County Court Room at 10 a.m. Tuesday to present his talk.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program is a program through which commodities are solicited from farm people on a community-wide basis and turned over to established church relief agencies of individual donor's choice, it was said.

The solicitations are then distributed overseas to orphanages, institutions for the aged and ill, refugees and the hungry. The gifts are presented irrespective of race or creed in Europe and Asia.

More than 2,392 carloads of food were collected in 1948. To date contributions total $6,596,674.

CROP is sponsored on a nation-wide basis by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service and Lutheran World Relief. It is the first united church program of its kind in history, it was said.

The agency was started in August, 1947, and is governed by a cabinet on which each of the parent agencies is represented.

Ross will explain how the gifts are distributed through CROP, what commodities are needed and how CROP operates in Texas.

Former Pampa Contractor Dies

Funeral arrangements at press time yesterday were incomplete.

Woodhouse, building contractor, had constructed buildings all over the Panhandle and in other states. He had been making his headquarters at Canadian for the past few years, and formerly resided in Pampa.

He is survived by his wife, his mother of Canyon City, Colo., a brother, and a daughter, Mrs. John Coleman, Canadian.

SHANGHAI — (AP) — Taxes on privately owned automobiles in Communist Shanghai were boosted Thursday to $150 (U. S.) for three months. Under the Nationalists the tax for the same period was $1.

Three States Will View Compromise

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A new conference to begin tomorrow between state officials and Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) may settle the controversial oil-rich tidelands ownership issue.

Rayburn said Saturday he thinks the meeting will be the final one on the issue and that some decision should be reached within a day or two.

Representatives of the three states with valuable off-shore oil deposits — Texas, Louisiana and California — will give their views on compromise legislation suggested by Rayburn in earlier talks.

Should efforts of the speaker to settle the issue fail, it is considered likely Congress will not pass any tidelands legislation this session.

The dispute then might come before the U.S. Supreme Court in suits the government says it will file against Texas and Louisiana.

The high tribunal already has decided the government has paramount rights over submerged lands off California.

Reports from the three states most directly involved indicate California and Louisiana may come to the meeting prepared to endorse the Rayburn proposal, but that Texas will not yield on several major points.

Louisiana's Lieutenant Governor William D. Dodd, has said he thinks the compromise should be accepted as the best settlement his state is likely to get.

He said he also thinks Texas and California seem closer than ever to agreement.

The Texas School Land Board has decided several features of the Rayburn proposal could not be accepted.

Composed of Gov. Allan Shivers, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles and Attorney General Price Daniel, the board has jurisdiction over the public domain of Texas.

Daniel has been the most insistent in refusal to yield on points he believes rightfully come under jurisdiction of the states.

He is survived by eight daughters, Mrs. Clara Adams, Dalhart, Mrs. Irene Chase, McLean, Mrs. Mary Ruth Morris, Mobeetie, Mrs. Jessie Hadley, Pampa, Mrs. Frances Slutzky, Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Dorothy Painter, Texhoma, Okla., Mrs. Ella Trout, Mobeetie, Mrs. Jeannie Rodgers, Pampa; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Perkins, Sarvin, Okla., Mrs. Pearl Newman, Pocatello, Idaho; one granddaughter, Mrs. Bea Schubert, Oak Ridge, Tenn.; twenty other grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Police said Marcomb related he shot his mother with a .32 caliber revolver during a quarrel over crowded housing conditions. Mrs. Nebgen was wounded in her side. Marcomb, police said, reported that he and his wife have been living with Mrs. Nebgen for two years and were forced to board out their two-year-old daughter. (AP Wirephoto)

Quarter Horse Entries Now Total Thirty

Thirty quarter horses to date have been entered in the American quarter horse show, W. B. Weatherred, Horse Show Committee chairman, said yesterday.

The official American quarter horse show will be held Aug. 4 at Recreation Park in connection with the fifth annual Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show.

"Entries must be in at the Chamber of Commerce office by 1 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 3," Weatherred added.

The horses must be in their stalls by 5 p.m. that day to remain in the barns until 5 p.m., Friday Aug. 5.

Early entries included horses from the R. L. Underwood farm at Wichita Falls, Tex., and from King's Ranch at Fort Worth.

King's Ranch horses will be shown by Lloyd Jenkins, who recently received some well-deserved publicity through an act

Pair Jailed In Default $3,000 Bond

A four-day search for Roy Fulcher and Don Stephens, wanted for questioning in the robbery-beating of Albert J. Brown, ended at 10 a.m. Friday in a bell hole near Garden City, Kans.

Working on a tip, Chief Deputy Rufe Jordan called the Sheriff's and Police Departments at Garden City. A few minutes later two Garden City patrolmen picked the pair up in a bell hole where they were working on a pipe line job.

Deputy Sheriff Louis Holmes brought the handcuffed pair back to Pampa at 11 a.m. yesterday. A few minutes later they waived an examining trial before Justice of the Peace D. R. Henry and were jailed in default of $3,000 bond each.

Fulcher and Stephens, both with long police records, are being held in connection with the beating and robbing of Brown late Monday night, or early Tuesday morning, near the old Danciger Refinery where the victim was left lying unconscious along the road. Brown told officers the two had lured him into their car outside the Empire Cafe saying they wanted to go to the Hiway Cafe for a cup of coffee, but took him out of town, beat him and took $110 from him.

Sheriff's deputies Saturday afternoon quoted Fulcher as denying he took any money, but admitting he beat Brown up, because Brown "cussed him."

First reports of the beating and robbery carried Stephens' name as "Stevens" but was changed Tuesday night when a reporter and police rechecked the spelling of Stephens' name.

Late Friday The News was requested to explain that Don Stephens and Don Stevens, former Pampan, with the Furr Food Co. at Amarillo are two different people.

B-PW to Sponsor Culberson Speech

Olin Culberson, member of the Railroad Commission, has been invited to speak to Pampa's club women at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the City Park, Mrs. W. F. Jordan, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, said.

All interested women in addition to those members of Pampa clubs have been invited to attend.

Culberson will address the Rotary Club at noon Wednesday.

World Split Into Two Camps Four Years After U.N. Formed

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — (AP) — This is a melancholy story.

It's the tale of millions of people who marched up a hill, full of hope shaking hands, and now are marching down again, grim, armed, wary of ambush.

The story can be told in three stages of the march: The United Nations; the spread of communism and the Truman Doctrine; and the Atlantic Pact.

The summer of 1945 was a time of great rejoicing for most of the world. The war was ending. People were talking of a plan — the United Nations — to keep peace maybe forever.

On July 28, 1945 the U.S. Senate approved the U.N. Charter. Russia joined. Britain. France. The others.

It was a mountain peak in human experience. Man's whole history had been a brutal climb up the jagged slopes to reach that high. It was fine, but it didn't work.

In two years men were trudging down the slopes again. Communism was spreading, chewing up Europe. The West grew nervous, protested, got grim, slowly through its teeth began to say "go no further."

And on March 12, 1947 President Truman frankly told Russia to halt. He went before Congress and asked and got money to help Greece and Turkey arm to stop communism.

Within two years he was telling Congress the people of the world had to choose between two ways of life: freedom and terror.

It was in this speech that he laid down the Truman Doctrine which, in brief, said the United States would now take world leadership in stopping communism anywhere it tried to push.

Greece and Turkey held off communism but things got worse elsewhere. Communism held its gains, pushed a little more, and on Feb. 25, 1948, swallowed Czechoslovakia.

The Russians and the West couldn't agree on Germany. The Russians blockaded Berlin. The tension grew. Backed by us, the Western nations decided to stand together, not to be overrun or crushed without a struggle.

To make that agreement all legal and binding, the U.S. Senate last week approved our joining the Atlantic Pact. It pledges us to go to the defense of Western Europe if Russia attacks.

So four years, lacking a week after the Senate had approved our joining the U.N., the world is split into two camps, glaring at each other.

The next step is getting Western Europe armed, just in case. After that? No one can see that far. The woods are dark and full of strange terrors that no man likes to think of.

Road Contracts Held Up Due to Lack of Funds

AUSTIN — (AP) — Curtailment of contracts for new work on the state's primary highway system will be necessary until additional federal funds become available, the Highway Commission chairman announced Friday.

Chairman Fred Wemple told delegations here for the second day of public hearings on proposed road projects that the Highway Department will continue expansion of the rural road building program.

The Highway Department has been pushing the primary highway program to get the state's roads back in shape since the end of World War II, said Wemple.

"The department has now reached the point where practically all of the post-war funds available for construction of the primary or main trunk line systems have been placed under contract up to and including the federal fiscal year 1950," he reported.

Wemple said federal funds for the primary system will not become available for 1951 until an allocation is make by the federal government some time this fall or early next year.

Shivers Favors Latin-American On Commission

AUSTIN — (AP) — Appointment of a Latin American to the Good Neighbor Commission is favored by Gov. Allan Shivers.

He made this comment Thursday on reports that several changes in personnel would be made on the agency which promotes better relations between Anglo and Latin Americans in Texas.

Shivers had no comment on reports that Neville G. Penrose of Fort Worth was slated to succeed R. E. (Bob) Smith of Houston, who is also chairman of the commission.

The terms of Smith and Lloyd Bentsen, Sr., of McAllen expired June 19, but they continue to serve until replaced. Another vacancy was created by the resignation of Pete Coffield of Rockdale.

The late Gov. Beauford H. Jester appointed no Latin Americans to the commission. Gov. Coke Stevenson made several such appointments.

Penrose told the Associated Press in Cuernavaca, Mexico, that he had heard nothing of his proposed appointment to the commission.

Soldier Loses Freedom Fight

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — A Texas soldier serving 21 years for raping a girl in Germany has failed in his fight for freedom before the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Denial of a writ of habeas corpus to the soldier, Marton L. Whelchel, by the U. S. District Court of the Southern District of Texas was affirmed by the court of appeals.

However, it poinnted out Whelchel had not exhausted his legal remedies because the amended Articles of War provide for granting new trials in cases involving offenses committed in World War II.

Whelchel's original death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Gen. Eisenhower. President Truman reduced it to 21 years. He is now serving it in the Federal Correctional Institu-

Dammers went back early Friday morning. In another hour of fishing off the Main Street Bridge he caught 14 trout.

Pampan Winner On Quiz Program

Frank M. Yates, 23, 420 1-2 N. Cuyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yates, was named last night as one of the winners of Take a Number program over the Mutual Broadcasting System via KPDN.

Yates, an electrical engineering student at Texas Tech, entered one of the questions that was not answered.

Mrs. Yates told The News she was working at the time and did not hear the program and wasn't sure what the question was, but believed it concerned whether a person "rides on land, sea or air."

Local station personnel didn't happen to be monitoring the program at the second the question was sent over.

The prize he won will be shared by Cretney Drug, the store Yates named as his tobacconist. The program is sponsored by the United Tobacco Co.

The Washington Monument is 555 feet high and 55 feet square at the base. The top is reached either by stairs or elevator.

Named Best High School FFA Farmer

DALLAS —(AP)— A boy with a yen for cotton, Reuben Waddel of Spur, Tex., is Texas' best farmer of high school age.

He was named last week by the state convention of Future Farmers of America as the best.

Waddel, who graduated from high school last May, has been raising cotton as an FFA project three years. He said his best year was 1947, when he got a yield of half a bale per acre on 140 acres. This year he has 140 acres in cotton and 10 acres in maize.

Waddel was selected from 412 winners of the Lone Star Farmer Degree, the highest honor the state FFA can confer.

More than 200 of the winners were on hand Thursday to receive gold keys from Jimmy Darling of Abilene, state FFA president.

Miss Joyce Surrat of Jefferson, Marion County, was chosen as the first sweetheart of the Texas FFA.

Warren Peek of Katy, Harris County, was chosen as the state FFA's nominee for the National Star American Farmer award.

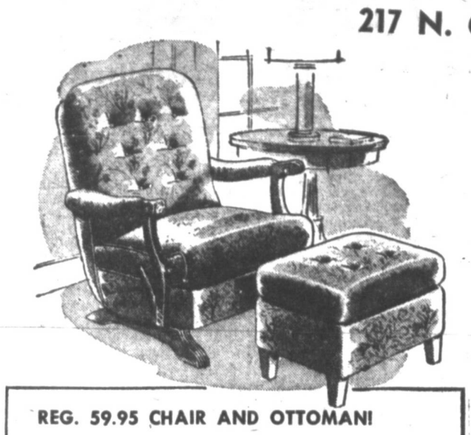

Winners of the state-wide chapter contests were units at Alpine, Clifton, Katy, Victoria and Nacogdoches.

Manufacture of matches is a $25,000,000 business annually, with the average person using 14 matches a day.

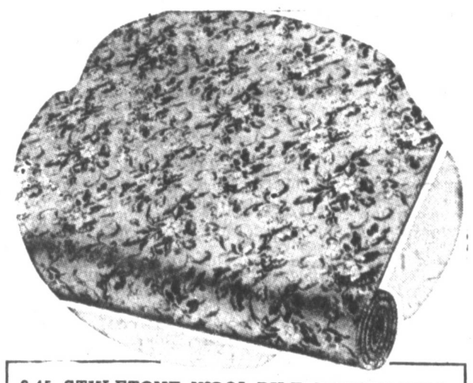

NO EAST REPUBLIC

BERLIN — (AP) — Soviet political leaders disavowed any intention of racing Western Germany in setting up rival republics. No preparations are under way now to establish a central government for Eastern Germany, they said.

Greens Gossip

by Hogan O'Snead

FORE!

Golf players come up with a new phrase every day. Saw Dr. Calvin Jones playing No. 12 hole the other day. His first shot was a beauty, right down the middle. He stepped up to his second, took a squint at the hole and swung with all his might, missing the ball a good four inches. He calmly turned to his opponent, Russell Hollaway, and remarked, "This golf course is getting lower every day." Humor is a wonderful thing, isn't it?

I understand Curtis Douglass is attempting to make the game easier for himself by using the opposite in equipment — rubber clubs and steel golf balls. Please let me know immediately, Curtis, if the idea works. I need all the help I can get playing this game.

August 4 and 5 will be two big days at the Pampa Country Club. The annual Junior Golf Tournament is being played those days. The participants will be divided into two flights with 36 holes of handicap play deciding the winners in each flight. The boys have really been sharpening up these past few days and from this observers viewpoint, it looks as if many of the grown-ups had better look around a bit and see just how well some of these kids can hit that ball. These boys are the nation's future golf players; so, Mom and Pop, let's be sure and take your vacation after August 5.

Clyde Posey and several of his buddies from Clarendon have played the local layout twice this past week. They say that they are getting ready for the Top o' Texas Golf Tournament to be held Sept. 3, 4 and 5. These boys will bear watching. All of them hit the ball right down the line and pretty far, too. This year's tournament should be the largest yet, at least the tournament committee and Johnny Austin hope so. Prizes for this year's tourney will be some of the best ever seen in this section of the country; so, golf players, get ready for a good time on those dates. You have six weeks to sharpen up.

Juanita Tinsley wins the prize for the most number of strokes on number 7 hole, and she really gives out with a big smile whenever she tells about it. I took 23 strokes on one hole several years ago, Juanita, so don't feel badly about those 22 you had on number 7.

I was bird-dogging along behind Ham Luna Friday afternoon and saw him birdie number 6. But he did it the hard way. After a long slicing drive that wound up straight up the middle, he fluffed a pitch shot to about forty yards out. Then he did it. He rolled his next pitch right into the cup, without so much as touching the pin.

And speaking of good shots, Paul Huntington nearly broke the pin on number seven green off at the base as his number four iron drive hit it about one inch above the cup on the fly. The ball bounced back off the green, but he got his par. For proof positive, look at the pin at the aforementioned spot and notice the white paint from his pill.

Be seein' you around.

HOGAN.

Oilers Drop Opener to Lobos, 10-8

Parker Loser in Wild Ten Error Ball Game

LAMESA —(AP)— A long time ago William Shakespeare wrote the "Comedy of Errors." Last night the Lobos and the Oilers acted it out. To the tune of 10 misplays, five of them occurring in the first half of the first inning, the Lobos defeated the Oilers 10 to 8. The loss was charged to Roy Parker, who went to the well once too often. It snapped a personal eleven game winning streak, and brought him his eighth defeat against fourteen wins.

Virgil Richardson was removed from the Oiler lineup in the second inning after injuring a leg sliding into third base, attempting to stretch a double into a three base hit.

Back to bolster the Oiler backstopping department was Newt Secrest, free-throwing catcher who was turned out to pasture a month ago because of feeble stickwork. He was absent 30 days, the minimum time according to league rules.

This afternoon the two teams meet in the middle game of the series with George Payte the probable starter for the Oilers, after being battered from the box in his last start at Abilene.

Both teams confined all of the scoring to the first three innings last night. After that time, Charley Bodine for the Oilers, and Dempsey Sterling for the Lobos took charge and kept the hitters in check all the rest of the way. The Oilers got a six-run lead in the first on five errors, a hit batsman and two hits. The Lobos got one back on a hit and two wild heaves by Parker.

In the second the Lobos tied the count, the big blow a grand-slam home run by Manager Jay Haney, his eighth of the season. Selbo followed with a triple, and came on in to score on an error to knot the count at 6-6.

Pampa picked up two in the top of the third to take an 8-6 lead, but three hits, two walks and a hit batsman brought the final four runs for the Lobos, and with it the ball game.

In other games around the league last night the Dukes downed the Gassers 6-2 in the first game of a twin-bill and were leading 8-2 in the second at press time. Clovis defeated Amarillo 15-7. In the first game at Borger, no umpires were present at game time, so three of the players took over their duties. Clayton Fries and Frank Shone worked the bases, while Vallie Eaves called balls and strikes — from on the mound, not behind the plate. Abilene defeated Lubbock 6 to 4.

Friday night Grover Seitz returned from his search for talent through the tumbleweed of the East Texas League and put on display one of his finds, a new hurler with a wild fast ball, and a blooping slow ball. None other than Grover himself. Seitz went to the hill in the third inning, after George Payte had been nicked for 11 runs. He hurled the remainder of the game against the Blue Sox and was only touched for three runs, while fanning five. He had the Hose swinging where the ball was not. The final score was 14-1 in favor of Abilene.

The loss dropped the Oilers into a tie with Amarillo for the sixth place spot.

The lone Pampa run came in the third inning on singles by Harper, Velasquez and Richardson. Pampa was in a threatening position several other times, but snappy double-killings by the Blue Sox infield cleaned up the situation.

Pampa got only nine hits off of Gil Guerra, who hung up his fourth scalp of the season against four losses.

Gridiron Heroes Gathering for All-Star Battle

EVANSTON, Ill. — (AP) — Head Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma's Sugar Bowl champions began greeting college gridiron heroes of the 1948 season Saturday as training officially opened for the annual All-Star Football Game in Soldier Field Aug. 12.

A hand-picked squad of 68 players will tangle with the Philadelphia Eagles, champions of the National Football League, in the traditional gridiron season curtain-raiser. A majority of them have signed with pro teams and will be seeing action throughout the fall.

Wilkinson, a member of the 1937 All-Star group after playing at Minnesota, and his staff will begin a rigorous 20-day training period at Northwestern University. They have high hopes of revenging last year's 28-0 defeat handed Frank Leahy and his All-Stars by the Chicago Cardinals. The pros hold a winning edge in the series of 8-5. Two of the contests have ended in ties.

Because there is so much high-caliber talent around, Wilkinson, like all his predecessors, will find his toughest job is to select players for first, second, third, etc., teams. He has the material for any kind of formation he wishes, single wing, double wing, the T or the so-called split T which he has made famous at Oklahoma.

The split T, derived from the type of line spacing used, has the quarterback in a ball-carrying role when the defensive alignment presents an opportunity. It is expected to be the fundamental offensive weapon used.

The collegiate roster for the All-Star Football Game includes: halfbacks Clyde Scott, Arkansas; George Sims, Baylor; Fred Wendt, Texas Mines; Rob Goode, Texas A&M; ends — Eugene Canada, Arkansas; tackles — George Petrovich, Texas; guards — Odell Stautzenberger, Texas A&M; centers — Dick Harris, Texas.

The Yale football team will play two visiting games during 1949—with Columbia and Princeton.

Pennant-Conscious Yankees Stopped by Detroit, 2 to 1

DETROIT — (AP) — The Detroit Tigers threw a roadblock in the path of the pennant-conscious New York Yankees by beating them 2 to 1 Saturday behind the brilliant five-hit hurling of young Art Houtteman.

The defeat cut the Yankees' lead over the second-place Cleveland Indians to 4 1-2 games.

Only in the second inning could the Yankees score. Joe DiMaggio walked to open that inning and advanced to third on Charley Keller's double. DiMaggio then raced home on Bobby Brown's long fly.

A double by George Kell gave the Tigers both their runs in the first stanza. His blow scored Pat Mullin who had doubled and Vic Wertz, who drew one of Duane Pillette's two passes.

After Sniffy Stirweiss' single in the fourth Houtteman retired 15 batters in a row before he gave his third and last walk to Keller in the ninth. The Detroit righthander struck out five.

Coaltown Scampers Home at Arlington

CHICAGO — (AP) — Coaltown, the nation's top handicap star, Saturday streaked to his tenth victory in eleven starts this season in winning the 54,700 Arlington Handicap by three lengths.

Dixiana Stable's Star Reward, only horse to defeat Coaltown this year, finished second. Calumet Farm's 8-year-old Armed, Coaltown's stablemate, was third, a length behind Star Reward.

Three of nine overnight entrants were withdrawn before post time.

Calumet took out the Kentucky Derby winner, Ponder, which will run Monday in a mile prep for next Saturday's $60,000 added Arlington Classic. Dixiana then scratched Star Reward's running mate, Shy Guy, and Walmac Farm finally reduced the handicap field to six with the withdrawal of Volcanic.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Hasse---News Sports Editor

QUESTION: How many pennants has Connie Mack won with the Philadelphia Athletics?

THIS AFTERNOON at 1:30 the greatest amateur sporting event for youngsters in the world will take place for free to all who want to see it. And by suppertime some youngster will have won himself a chance for a try at a free college education. We are speaking, of course, of the Soap Box Derby to be run off on the old Miami Highway out past the high school.

The boys have been building their cars for a couple of months and looking forward to this event probably all year. Anyone who has witnessed the enthuiasm with which the boys slave over their cars and methods they use to increase their speed and cut down wind resistance, will certainly want to be on hand for the finals.

Thursday afternoon the cars were checked by the Lion's Club, co-sponsors of the event along with Culberson Chevrolet and The Pampa News. The cars were checked to make certain that they were within all of the rules and had all of the necessary safety features. Anything that was wrong had to be fixed before the car could be entered.

It was a pleasure to watch the kids work on their cars. Spinning their wheels to make them as free-running as possible. Other boys were simonizing, and waxing the car from top to bottom to afford less air resistance. Others worked on their brake and their steering wheel.

One lad built his car without getting into it. When he got ready to have it checked Thursday he found that he couldn't get into it. Sort of like building a yacht in your basement. After several changes in the structure, he can now squeeze inside.

Now they are all set for the big race. To the winner goes a free trip to the National Soap Box Derby at Akron, Ohio, and a chance to win that college education.

GOOD LUCK BOYS!

OILER BATTING averages for the past week haven't produced any miraculous changes. One new member of the ".300 club" was admitted. Roy Parker finished up Friday night's game with an even .300 average. The only other current member is the injured Johnny Warren. Parker is also among the leading pitchers, with a 14-7 record. Payte leads the team with 6-2.

Tooter Harper has given his average a boost to .261, the highest point he has reached since the start of the season. Al Zigelman is another hitter in the .260's, located at .268. He was hitting about .285 when he joined the team after his release from Abilene.

Home run production is in the hand of Richardson, crowded by that same Roy Parker. Rich has 14, Parker 13. Richardson stretched his RBI lead to five runs over Matney, 59 to 54.

Ernie Velasquez became the first Oiler hitter to go over the 100 mark in hits for the season, reaching that mark point July 19. The complete unofficial averages for all games through July 22, Friday follow:

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

If you do any hunting at all, you've probably been in on one of those conversations about which is the tougher sport, skeet or trapshooting. Jimmy Robinson, one of this country's best known skeet and trap authorities, claims there is only one way to compare skeet and trapshooting and that is by high averages on 16-yard trapshooting targets, shot at scratch, against all-bore targets at skeet. At both sports, 12-guage shotguns are used to best advantage.

During the last 10 years just one trapshooter, Bill Harder of Lincoln, Nebraska, has turned in an average of 99 percent to win the national high average. He averaged .9908 to take the crown in 1940. During the last 40 years, just seven trapshooters have averaged 99 percent or better to win the high average at trapshooting. The high-average trapshooter last season was J. Calvin Michael of Aberdeen, Maryland, who turned in .9880 on 2,000 registered targets.

It takes 99 percent or better to win the national all-gauge high-average skeet crown. Freddy Missildine, Sea Island, Georgia, copped the average last year with .9910.

Mrs. Lela Hall, Los Angeles, top woman trapshooter of all times, paved the way for women gunners last season with .9551 on 4,500 targets, but Mrs. Ann Martin, San Antonio, had a much higher average at skeet. She won the skeet honors with .9730 on 1,675 clays.

There are two other forms of trapshooting — handicaps shot from 16 to 25 yards, based on your known ability and 16-yard average, and doubles targets. J. W. Butler, Springfield, Ohio, topped handicap shooters last year with .9336 on 950 targets, while Mercer Tennille, Shreveport, Louisiana, turned in .9646 to pace the trapshooting doubles shooters.

The top professional all-gauge skeet shooter in 1948 was D. Lee Braun, Dallas, Texas, with an average of .9940.

So there you have a comparison on the high averages of the two sports. Form your own opinion.

Witte Hits No. 13 But Eagles Lose 3-1

By The Associated Press

Shreveport and Tulsa are still tied for second place in the Texas League — it rained Friday night. But they dropped another half-game back of Fort Worth when the Cats dumped San Antonio, 5-3.

Jerry Witte hit his 34th home run of the season for Dallas, but the Eagles still lost to Houston, 1-3.

Oklahoma City and Beaumont split a double bill. Beaumont took the opener, 1-0, and the Indians the second game, 5-4.

Oklahoma City and Beaumont had an off night last night. The others played the same foes, with Tulsa and Shreveport scheduled for two games.

Chris Van Cuyk pitched Fort Worth to victory over San Antonio, giving up but five hits. Carroll Berringer helped Fort Worth with an eight inning homer.

Barney Olsen helped Houston with a home run and Jack Creel held Dallas to seven hits.

Carl Derose won his sixth game against two defeats in blanking Oklahoma City in the opener. In the nightcap, though, the Indians came from behind a three-run Exporter lead to win.

Harbert and Hamilton Hold Lead In Inverness Four-Ball Tourney

TOLEDO, O. — (AP) — Melvin (Chick) Harbert and Bob Hamilton had a strangle hold Saturday on the top prize of $4000 with two rounds to go in the $15,000 Inverness Four Ball matches.

Harbert, the game's longest hitter, and former PGA Champion Hamilton won two matches Saturday to zoom into a commanding lead with plus 14, an edge of nine over their nearest foes in the 16-man eight-pair battle of birdies.

The surprise leaders won a four up victory over Sam Snead and Dick Metz Saturday morning, and then came back in the afternoon with a 29-31-60, an 11-under-par tournament record equalling score to snatch a six up decision over E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Jim Turnesa.

Harbert and Hamilton have won four of their five matches, and have ripped strokes off every hole on the course. They've scattered 38 birdies and a pair of eagles over the entire layout and have a long lead in the race for the $300 prize for the most sub-par holes. They're tied with Mangrum-Palmer at 60 for another $300 for low score for a round.

Bushy-browed Clayton Heafner and Skip Alexander meet the leaders in today's first match, and the tournament probably hinges on that clash. Heafner-Alexander are in second place, nine points back of the top team, and need a five-up victory to go out front.

Under the Inverness scoring system a team gets a plus equal to the number of holes it finishes ahead of a foe, and the loser gets a corresponding minus.

Snead and Metz, shorn of their lead, skidded to the third spot with plus 4. Jim Turnesa of Briar Cliff, N. Y., teamed with E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the Arkansas traveler, to upset Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago and Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., three down, moving the winners into fourth place with plus 2, and the losers to fifth with plus 1.

Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., and amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo — the latter playing as substitute for injured Ben Hogan — won their first in four tries, three-up over Freddie Haas of New Orleans and Dave Douglas of Newark, Del.

Consider Barring Bob Locke From U.S. Golf

TOLEDO, O. — (AP) — The Toledo Blade Friday quoted George S. May of Chicago as saying he thought South African Bobby Locke should be barred from American golf tournaments by the PGA.

The Blade said May, in a telephone conversation, said: "I was contacted early this week by PGA officials who asked if the barring of Locke would hurt my $55,000 All-American Tournaments at the Tam O'Shanter Club Aug. 6-14.

"I told the PGA officials it would not hurt me, and added that after what he (Locke) did to the Inverness Club in Toledo, he should be barred."

Locke, involved in a controversy with Inverness officials because he overlooked a commitment to play here in the current $15,000 four-ball matches, was quoted earlier in England as saying: "I feel sure that George S. May will welcome my appearance in Chicago."

Inerness officials protested Locke's default, which came after he won the British Open July 9, and asked PGA officials to bar him from American tournaments.

One PGA executive committee has the request under consideration.

...an of Conflict

For the conduct of his personal life, Justice Frank Murphy of the United States Supreme Court is entitled to respect and admiration. That Justice Murphy was a "liberal," by which is meant a person believing that the rights of the individual are as nothing as compared with the powers of the state, is the natural result of having been in public service so long that he had come to believe in big government long before his appointment to the high court.

Having ignored, as governor of Michigan, the property rights of the owners of the auto factories when union members staged the latest "sit down" strike, Justice Murphy stuck to the "liberal line" throughout his long career in public office.

During his nine years in the court, he was noted for his "humanitarian" decisions in which sentiment and misplaced sympathy guided his thinking, rather than reason and cold logic.

If, in the light of future years historians review his pronouncements favorably, it undoubtedly will be for his championship of the rights of racial minorities. Justice Murphy was an ardent supporter of the rights of minorities where there was a question of racial or religious persecution involved but seemed unable to carry on the same beliefs when it came to the rights of every individual and every minority.

It is to his credit that during the long years that he held some sort of public office there was never a breath of scandal against him and that he conducted his personal life in such a manner as to eliminate all criticism.

If you don't have something better to do, you might drop out to the race track this afternoon at the Old Miami Highway and watch the kids take over.

Come to think of it, just what have you to do at 1:30 that's more important or more entertaining than seeing a bunch of boys run down the hill in some soapy cars they themselves made?

The Pampa News is glad to be a part of this boy project, along with the Lions Club and Cheyrolet. We are proud that boys have responded in such number, although we could like for more boys in this community to take part in this project which is hailed over the nation as the top amateur event of such nature.

We'd surely like to see you out at "Derby Downs" this afternoon. You'd soon be rooting for some freckled face kid—even before you realized it!

Lines Sharpened by Pope's Excommunication of Reds

By JOHN FISHER
McClure Syndicate

The Vatican's action in excommunicating Communists has resulted in a unique battle on home grounds in Italy.

More than 80,000 members of the clergy and religious orders are crusading from the Alps to Sicily to break the loose bonds between the Communist machine itself, and those passive adherents who sympathize with some of the party's economic and political objectives.

These affiliates made it possible for Palmiro Togliatti to claim a party enrollment of two million, the highest outside Russia.

Many cardholders were Catholics, at least in name, the type that attends church once a year and requests the sacraments. An even larger number than the two million party members were political supporters.

The Papal decree will be a new weapon for Catholic Action and the Catholic Workers' Association. Ecclesiastical authorities hope that as a result of the awesome warning many stray sheep will return to undivided allegiance.

MAY TURN APOSTATES

But, according to American observers in Rome, religious leaders also are aware that an immediate consequence might be the creation of a powerful anti-clerical bloc, somewhat similar to French skeptics who have drifted from the church but who do not join other denominations.

Many Nenni Socialists already are in this category. At the recent annual Christian Democratic Congress in Venice, Minister of the Interior Scelba charged that the so-called "third force" of middle ground politics was "lay, anti-clerical and suicidal to Christian democracy."

Apostate Catholics, who refuse to repent as urged by the church, may gravitate to the overall anti-clerical camp without becoming outright Marxists.

The full force of Stalin's retaliation and vengeance will strike the devout in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland and other Iron Curtain countries. They will be martyrs, hounded and crushed by a brutal atheistic tyranny.

In free Italy, France and Benelux nations the Marxists will try to give the impression that they are the ones who are oppressed. They will exploit this alleged grievance to the limit. Moscow's world propaganda machine will take up the cry.

PREFER CAPITALIST AID

Ever since the last election, in which assistance from the United States played such an important role, Togliatti's group has been losing ground. The public has decided that American aid in the hand is worth two Red birds in the bush. Labor is getting fed up with Communist sparked strikes that lose pay and gain no advantage.

But, according to Monsignor Ottaviani, acting director of the Vatican Holy Office, there are still seven million people, one seventh of the population, who up to last week were linked with Red organizations in striving for certain economic objectives of communism.

Many were prompted by a desire to cure obvious inequalities in taxation and wealth, which divide Italy into a nation of excessive riches and terrible poverty.

The Vatican has had a more enlightened social policy than right-wing politicians and neo-Fascists. Social-minded religious leaders, as well as liberal politicians, persuaded President of the Council de Gasperi to initiate the recent agrarian reforms, which Communists have long offered as bait to entice decent outsiders into their ranks, or at least into their company.

CLASSES MAJOR PROBLEM

Approximately 45 percent of Italians are farmers. One third own property. A somewhat larger number are sharecroppers. Around 1,800,000 are landless day laborers. This latter wretchedly poor class presents one of the nation's most serious economic problems.

In nine million farm owners, a small nucleus of 15,000 owns huge farms enjoying 20 percent of the total agricultural revenue. The de Gasperi land bill slices off portions of the latifondi, large estates, and distributes them to landless peasants.

Unless big proprietors sell soon to a "state pool," their fields will be taken by compulsion. Peasants may purchase tracts on the instalment plan or by the ancient Greco-Roman contract system that gives the cultivator absolute title after paying rent for 99 years.

Although the government program cures many long-endured agrarian ills, the Communists are still agitating. They maintain that former owners are trying to oust peasants who were settled on uncultivated land when Communist Gullo was minister of agriculture in a former coalition cabinet.

The Marxists have organized land committees in rural areas among citizens of various parties to support tenant farmers against increased rent and to compel landlords to give a bigger part of the harvest to sharecroppers. They back up farmhands in fist fights with the police over strikes.

FEARS RECRUIT WOMEN

They engage in the same tactics in the industrial north, often seizing factories and hurling bricks at police sent to evict them. This interest and violence convinced many workers that Togliatti was labor's devoted friend.

The crafty Reds also have been attracting many women to communism by exploiting their fear of a new war. Wives and mothers have vivid memories of the last and shudder at the prospect of World War III.

Every family in Milan was asked by the Reds to contribute photos of its soldier dead. These were bound in a large album and sent to Rome as propaganda against rearmament.

On the day Foreign Minister Sforza signed the Atlantic Pact, women everywhere were urged by Communists to place wreaths on soldier graves, bearing the inscription "On your behalf, too, we say No to the Atlantic Pact."

Thus by the ruse of championing worthy causes—agrarian reform, labor rights and peace—Stalin's Italian supporters have lured to their side many Italians who cooperate without necessarily accepting atheistic doctrines of communism.

These bewildered collaborators must now choose between the Vatican and the Kremlin. They can continue to fight for proper reforms as good Catholics. But they no longer can serve two masters.

America has magnificent vigor and strength which are the best qualities it can possess . . . the only thing America and her people need is training in the art of concentration.
—Spanish philosopher Jose Ortega y Gasset.

Neither veterans nor right-thinking non-veterans should be fooled by that phony "Citizens First and Veterans Second" slogan. The man who has served his country honorably in time of war does not need to furnish additional proof of his good citizenship.

Washington . . . . . by Peter Edson

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sentiment is piling up in the U. S. senate to give Nationalist China some more military assistance.

This lends interest to an accounting for the last 125 million dollars worth of military assistance given to Chiang Kai-Shek's government in June, 1948, with which to fight the Commies.

The Chinese Embassy in Washington reports that about 50 million dollars of this sum went to buy arm and ammunition. The Embassy further reports that all but 17 million worth of these goods have been delivered or are now enroute to China. Some of the undelivered goods, like spare truck parts, radio and signal corps equipment which had to be made up special, won't be delivered for another six months.

Of the total amount, $87,500,000 was allocated to buy ground force supplies, 28 million aviation supplies and $9,500,000 naval supplies.

As to how much good these supplies did, there is some difference of opinion. There have been some reports of U. S. supplies — particularly aviation gasoline — finding their way into the black market or being used by troops that in the end went over to the Communist side, taking their equipment with them. The two Communist divisions that captured Nanking have now been identified as former Nationalist divisions turned Commie.

HERE'S THE LOWDOWN

The law authorizing the last 125 million dollars worth of military assistance to Nationalist China was passed in April, 1948. The appropriation was made on June 28, just a little over a year ago. There was no provision in the law for the U. S. armed services to help procure the materials wanted by the Chinese. President Truman ordered them to do it anyway, in July 28 letters to Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries.

Here's what happened, according to trustworthy sources here:

About a third of the naval allocation went for fuel. The other two-thirds went for spare parts for the 131 surplus vessels and 50 landing craft previously given to the Chinese government without charge. Four destroyer escorts were taken from the U. S. reserve fleet and given to the Chinese for no other charge than what it cost to re-activate and re-equip them.

The U. S. Air Force bought $7,750,000 worth of aviation equipment for the Chinese account. Four million dollars worth has been shipped. The rest is on order. It includes ammunition and arms, spare parts, aviation fuels and lubricants, medical and signal corps equipment as ordered by the Chinese.

The Chinese government itself has bought in the open U. S. market another $20,250,000 worth of aviation supplies, plus $23,500,000 worth of equipment for ground forces.

The story of the 64 million dollars worth of supplies bought for the Chinese by the U. S. Army is a tangled tale.

One source claims that at the outset, the Chinese lost a month in comparing Army prices with open market prices. By Aug. 31 the U. S. Army had determined that it could supply all requirements for .30-caliber rifles, carbines and small arms ammunition from current (not surplus) U. S. stocks. But the Chinese delayed placing any orders for another month.

ORDERS JUMBLED

In September the Army reported it could supply signal, engineer and medical equipment wanted by the Chinese. In that same month the U. S. Treasury, at Chinese government request, transferred 25 million dollars to the Army for purchase of metals and powder base materials for Chinese arsenals.

On Sept. 25, however, Chinese Ambassador K. V. Wellington Koo in Washington gave the Army a revised list of requirements, primarily weapons and ammunition. This voided all previous lists. So the U. S. Army mission had to begin figuring all over again.

Anyway, on the new shopping list, the Chinese specified they wanted 60 percent of the goods shipped to Shanghai, 10 percent to Tsingtao and 30 percent to to Tientsin. On Oct. 4 the Chinese asked the Treasury to transfer to the Army another 37 million dollars. Goods began to move at last. U. S. Navy transports were used, so as to give the Chinese the benefits of free transportation. The first ship left the West Coast Nov. 9, the second Nov. 21, the third Dec. 16 and a fourth on Feb. 19.

The first boat was unloaded at Shanghai and Tsingtao late in November, as ordered. On Dec. 6, however, the Chinese notified the U. S. government that all future shipments should be made to the port of Keelung, on the island of Formosa.

This date may be important. Though Tientsin did not fall until mid-January and Shanghai until the end of May, as early as December the Nationalist government had apparently given up any hope of holding the mainland.

Immoral Ideas Tax Supported Schools Can And Must Teach

Some time back I ran an article under the heading "Moral Ideas Tax Supported Schools Cannot Teach." It seemed to me that some of the greatest goods cannot be taught in tax supported schools.

They cannot teach humility; individual responsibility; definite limited government; government with the consent of the governed; inalienable rights of man; freedom or liberty; the Ten Commandments; any impersonal, eternal, Universal rule of conduct; a single standard of rightness; the harm of Socialism, Communism, or Fascism; Americanism; or any moral principal.

But they can teach how to collectively covet, to steal, socialism, police state, collectivism, coercion, compulsion, tyranny, despotism, slavery, spoilism, cowardice, submission to majority rule, serfdom, expropriation, predatoriness, meddling, dualism, hyprocrisy, and deception.

Doctors Degrees in Stealing

Every tax supported school should issue doctor's degrees in coveting and stealing. They should do this because they are training people to do collectively what is stealing and coveting when done by an individual. They should give degrees in dualism because they are contending by their acts that it is ethical to do things collectively that are unethical if done by any individual. If they are not giving degrees in dualism and stealing and coveting, they are at least training those they come in contact with to believe in collective stealing and coveting and dualism and unAmericanism.

It is largely because they have been so successful in getting people to believe that the state or a subdivision of the state has a right to take by force from an individual against his will that we have so much statism and socialism in our midst. It is because they have been so successful in teaching Thou Shalt Steal and Thou Shalt Covet that we have the graduated income tax, minimum wage laws, tariffs, immigration restrictions, labor laws that make it legal for organized labor to do things that are immoral for any individual to do. It is because they have been so successful in teaching collective stealing that we have pensions, and 40-hour work weeks, and subsidies, and tax supported parks and tax supported hospitals and public libraries, and dare not own gold the soundest money in the world. It is because they have been so successful that we have tax supported schools which have grown by leaps and bounds due to the greatest lie ever told in the United States that we have free public education. It is because they have been so successful that we have pro-rates for oranges, subsidies for farm products, restriction in farm production. It is because they have been so successful that our government has the biggest debt the world has ever known.

In fact all our class legislation comes from people believing that it is good to do collectively what is wicked to do as individuals.

It is undoubtedly because tax supported teachers and professors can and must teach collective stealing that not a single one of them will attempt to harmonize tax supported schools with the great moral guides— The Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the Declaration of Independence, for $100 where they have to answer questions without evasion.

Yes, they should issue doctor's degrees in stealing, coveting, socialism, unAmericanism and might-makes-rightism. And teachers in tax supported schools are well qualified to teach the above enumerated vices.

The columns are open, of course, for any individual who will answer questions without evasion to refute the above conclusion.

Upturn Halts Decline in G.I. Loans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A sudden upturn in the number of home loans made to veterans has halted a long decline in the G.I. home-loan program, the Veterans Administration said.

The agency said 27,412 new applications for home loan guarantees were received from lenders in June, an increase of more than 40 percent over the low point reached in the first three months of 1949.

Th peak was 58,000 applications in September, 1946. There had been a decline for a year and a half from a 50,000 monthly rate in the fall of 1947.

'Several factors are contributing to the reversal of the long downward trend," the agency said in a news statement.

These factors were listed as:

1. Secondary loan markets authorized by the government last year have made additional money available.

2. Lending agencies, faced with a growing investment problem, have more money on hand.

3. Declining interest rates in other fields have 'encouraged many leaders to view the 4 percent interest rate on G.I. homes with more favor."

The agency warned, however, that the 4 percent mortgage money "is still tight in some parts of the country," especially on the West Coast.

More than 1,500,000 World War II veterans have purchased homes under the program which guarantees 50 percent of the mortgage up to a maximum guarantee of $4,000.

The people of China must either side with imperialism or socialism. There must be no exception, no third line of action. Straddling the fence is a futile thing.

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — "Is it true," asks M. L. of Brooklyn, N. Y., "that Preseident Truman was inclined to resume relations with Spain, but that Secretary Acheson talked him out of it?"

Answer: That is the understanding at Washington. In fact, it is the general belief that Mr. Truman had gone so far as to select Admiral William D. Leahy as our ambassador to Madrid, or at least as a special representative.

As former White House strategist, and the American who kept General Petain from selling out completely to the Germans during the occupation of France, Admiral Leahy's diplomatic and military background would have made him the ideal man in this diplomatic outpost.

REASONS — Our military experts, as well as certain members of the State Department family, think that we are biting off our own nose, as they put it, by refusing to deal with France. Next to the island of England, Spain is regarded by them as the most strategic spot on the European continent if there should be a clash with Russia.

President Truman's most recent reasons for not making up with the dictator are by no means the real factors in the situation. He explained his policy of non-recognition by saying that there was no religious, political or personal freedom in that country. He also declared that Spain is not a "good risk," in the opinion of the Export-Import Bank.

On the basis of his first explanation, we would have to break off diplomatic relations with Russia and every other satellite country. As to the second, we are now lending — or giving away — money and materials to nations which can hardly be called "good risks."

EXPLANATION — The underlying explanation for our unyielding attitude toward Franco is that the British and French oppose any change in relationship. The politico-diplomatic representatives of those countries have informed us that the rank-and-file membership of the dominant parties there — Laborites in England and Socialists in France — might rebel to the extent of overthrowing the existing governments.

If so, such a happening would be a calamity at the present time, and a source of comfort to the Russians. Moreover, we have enough controversies with London now — over the dollar crisis, sharing the secret of the atom bomb, reduction of Marshall Plan purchases, trade discrimination etc. — without adding to them. TRUE — "I gather," writes F. A. of San Diego, Calif., "that Congress and Secretary Acheson are not getting along too well. I think it unfortunate, if that is true. How about it?"

Answer: I am afraid it is, although the slightly strained relationship is not serious. Acheson does not enjoy the aura of General George C. Marshall's military prestige. Nor does he have the benefit of Cordell Hull's understanding of the body in which he served for so many years.

PINPRICKS — Although I am sure he does not mean to, the suave and polished Acheson gives the impression that he "talks down" to committee members. I have heard them use these expressions after his appearances on Capitol Hill: "He treats us like kindergarteners," or "He didn't tell us a thing we didn't know."

As their recent actions and votes reveal, Republicans are growing restless under the program of "bipartisan cooperation." Preparing for the 1950 and 1952 elections, they are over eager to hunt for an issue.

However, the basic principles of our general foreign policy are so firmly fixed by circumstances beyond our control that these differences and disagreements are mere pinpricks.

IMPRACTICABLE — "Why did President Truman's farm experts change the trial-run Brannan program so that it will affect only the price of eggs, potatoes and shorn wool?" inquires T. S. of Sandusky, O. "It doesn't seem to me that a reduction in the retail prices of these articles will do much good to the consumer."

Answer: Secretary Brannan's original plan to apply a test on his two-price system to pork was obviously impracticable, as meat experts inside and outside the Department of Agriculture quickly informed him.

If pork prices were permitted to fall, while beef, veal, poultry and lamb remainded high, there would be a rush to buy the cheaper commodity. The others would go unsold, or their prices would have to fall, even though producers were not enjoying government subsidies.

DIFFICULT — It is difficult to find a satisfactory substitute for eggs or potatoes, especially the latter. People eat almost the same amount of spuds year in and year out, regardless of price, and, though to a less extent, that is true of eggs.

It is believed, however, that a test on these three things will furnish some information on how low prices will drop, and also on the possible cost to Uncle Sam, as compared to the subsidy payment program. Moreover, inclusion of shorn wool will provide some evidence as to the effect on clothing.

Health Talks

Prepared by the State Medical Association of Texas

No childhood is complete without one siege of ringworm, which always leaves an indelible impression upon the minds of mother and child alike, mother reviewing the nuisance value of the fungus growth and child recalling with ghoul-like glee the importance of his clipped head among the neighborhood gang. And chances are that the whole gang ended up with ringworm before the siege was over.

Ringworm, or tinea capitis as it is medically known, is a disease of the scalp caused by fungus invasion of the skin and is rare after puberty. Therefore it is called a schoolchild skin disease.

It is very common, highly contagious and extremely difficult to eliminate. Epidemics break out frequently during school days and whole neighborhoods sport shaved youngsters' heads during summer vacations.

Tt one time in France ringworm became such a problem that infected children were sent to separate schools from those not infected.

The principal sources of contact with infected hairs which spread the ringworm are combs, towels and brushes, exchanging caps with other children, backs of seats at the movies, and hair-cutting implements in the barber shops. The scalp should be throughly washed at home as soon as possible after a haircut.

This infection appears in gray, scaly spots on the scalp, ranging from pin point size to two inches in diameter and frequently spreads in a cricular form which explains the name of ringworm.

The detailed, long-term, persistent treatment should be undertaken only under the care of a doctor, and no one should attempt to diagnose and treat this fungus infection without professional advice. Recurrences are frequent; sometimes the fungus goes deep into the skin, giving the impression the disease is cured, only to emerge and begin its attack all over again.

We believe that a company, like an individual, prospers only to the extent that it serves and that bigness in business is a reliable sign of service.

Memo to Plymouth Salesmen

Value-wise buying makes a sweet set-up for you—

You sell the car that likes to be compared!

In the new car market today, the accent is on value. This makes a sweet setup for Plymouth salesmen . . . for you have the great new car built to compete—dollar for dollar — with any car at any price!

Ask your prospective customers to look at all three of the leading low-priced cars — or even at cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Ask them to compare — wheelbase, compression ratio, braking action, engine life, riding comfort, interior beauty, ease of handling, cost of upkeep — everything!

But just looking at a car isn't enough. The best way to judge a new car is by its performance on the road. Urge your prospects to drive "all three." Ask them to put Plymouth performance up against any car selling at anything like the same price. When you do this — the new Plymouth does all right!

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman will ask Congress Monday for a highly flexible program of arms aid abroad—including a $45,000,000 fund for emergency use, and $155,000,000 to stimulate armament production in Europe.

The President's proposals, totaling $1,450,000,000 for countries on the cold war front all over the world will cover several kinds of aid, it was learned.

Execution Stayed For Second Time In Bus Killing

AUSTIN — (AP) — A stay of execution from July 30 to Oct. 7 for James Willis Blackmon was approved Friday by Gov. Allan Shivers.

The reprieve was granted on the unanimous recommedation of the Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Blackmon was sentenced to death May 13 in Harris County in connection with the murder of Leslie D. Gibbins, a Houston bus operator. He had received the customary 30-day stay of execution from the late Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

In recommending another stay, the Board of Pardons said it did so "due to the fact that this subject's case was not appealed and subject did not fire the shot."

Burglars Take Safe In Amarillo Robbery

AMARILLO —(AP)— Burglars took a small safe containing approximately $6,000 from an Amarillo supermarket last night.

They used dynamite to blast the safe from its concrete mounting, Glen Battin, district supervisor for Ideal Food Stores, said. The burglary was at Ideal Food Store Number Three, near the downtown area.

Battin said the burglars gained entrance by sawing a hole in a partition separating the market from an upstairs bakery.

Derby Heat Listings Drawn by Lot, Today's Pairings Below

Many people have asked how the heat listings are determined for the Soap Box Derby.

Boys' cars are given numbers, no two alike in either Class A or Class B. The names of boys in Class B are placed in a hat and drawn out two at a time. The same process is used in setting the Class A heats.

Boys are placed in Class A and Class B by age — 11 and 12-year-old boys in Class B, 12 through 15 in Class A. The reason for classing the boys is so that a boy in Class B, the younger bracket, will get into the finals in each city race. This is done to give smaller boys more encouragement to enter races.

Following are the listings as they will be run today:

CLASS B

Heat 1—Kenny Anderson and Melvin Wooten.

Heat 2—Paul Gene Emerson and Jarvis Johnson.

Heat 3— Joe Cooper and John Johansen.

Heat 4 — Alan Belgley and Richard Williams.

Heat 5—Bill Nolan and Harold Malone.

Heat 6—Bobby Yeager and Joe Price.

Heat 7—Charles Rea and Bobby Graham.

Heat 8—Richard Lorenz and Don Fuller.

Heat 9—Alvin Watson and Edward Culberson.

Heat 10—Roger Smith and Donald Lee Cornett.

Class B is run through until a winner is found, accounting nine more heats. Then Class A follows.

CLASS A

Heat 20 — J. W. Harvey and Jerry Blinker.

Heat 21 — Gary Frashier and Jerry Doggett.

Heat 22 — Robert Cornelius and Kermit Harmon.

Heat 23 — Joe Dean Little and Jerry Denning.

Heat 24 — Billy Don Conklin and Alton Cooper.

Heat 25 — Norman Frost and George Depee.

Heat 26 — Marvin Baer and Grady, Sanders.

Heat 27 — Bill Baumgardner and Edwin Oliver.

Heat 28 — Jim Deaton and Lawrence Whelchel.

Heat 29 — John Cantrell and Victor Hart.

Heat 30 — Jerry Musgrove and Russell Long.

Heat 31 — Clifford Thompson and James Davis.

Heat 32 — Pat Mitchell and Earl Winegeart.

Heat 33 — Jean Martindale and Johnnie E. Garrett.

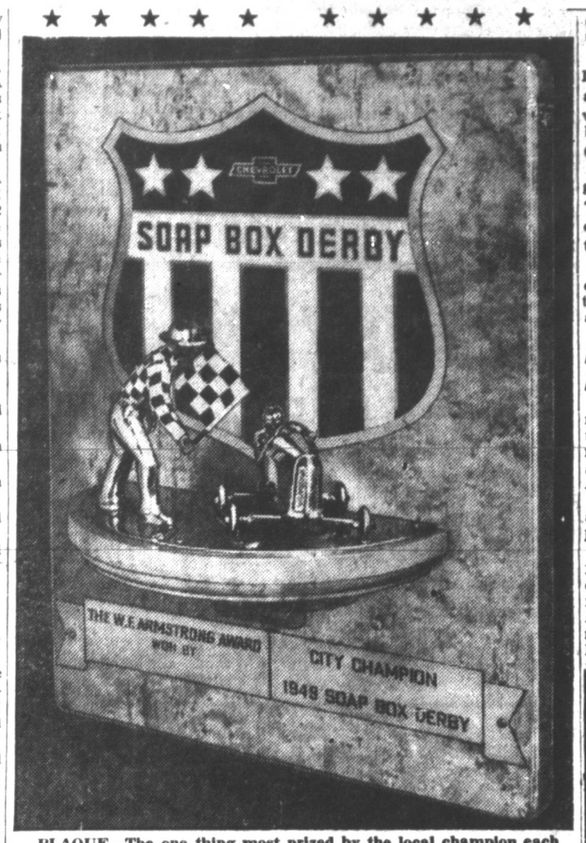

Heat 34 — Dellis Lyons and Pat Williams.

Heat 35 — Buddy Moore and Don Ray Roberts.

Heat 36 — Don Ray Roberts and Kenneth Morgan.

Heat 37 — Billy Leon Dickey and Jerry Strickland.

There will be a total of 55 heats.

PLAQUE—The one thing most prized by the local champion each year is the award of achievement. The plaque this year, pictured above, is called the W. F. Armstrong award, and one will go to Pampa's champion this year. The champion also gets a wrist watch while he is at Akron next month.

posal never have been made public by Rayburn.

He has said he is afraid the states will lose everything eventually in the Supreme Court if they do not agree with federal authorities.

Louisiana Attorney General Bolivar Kemp, who has been in on the discussions, said the main points in the compromise are:

Federal control and management of all oil and gas leases except in inland waters — such as lakes, bays, harbors.

An allocation to the states of 62 1-2 percent of future revenues from tidelands not more than three miles out from shore; 50 percent from tidelands farther out up to the edge of the continental shelf.

A waiver by the government of claims to tidelands revenues already collected by states.

Guarantees for the states of control of inland waters and of jurisdiction in all coastal waters over fish, oysters, shrimp and other marine life.

The Texas Land Board raised these objections:

The compromise bill does not vest ownership or title to any part of the disputed property or minerals in the state.

It treats Texas the same as all other coastal states limiting its boundary to three miles, in spite of the fact its gulfward boundaries were fixed at three leagues (10 1-2 miles) by the Senate when it was a republic.

The bill does not provide for acceptance or approval by the Texas Legislature.

The official judge for the quarter horse show will be Johnny Stevens of Matador Ranch.

Judging will begin at 9 a.m. Aug. 4 on the exhibition grounds at Recreation Park. Four classes of mares and four classes of stallions will be judged. Ribbons will be awarded in all classes through the first six places. Cash awards will be presented to the first four winners in each class.

Rosettes and trophies will be given to the owner of the grand champion mare and the grand champion stallion, while rosettes alone will be presented to the owners of the reserve champions.

Democrats on his committee voted against a partial removal of the wartime excise taxes sponsored by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) and most Republicans.

George said that when Congress imposed the wartime levies "we promised to take all of them off six months after the end of the war."

Although hostilities have ended, George said formal peace treaties have not been signed and so the taxes have continued.

Main Street Shots Miss Borger Man

BORGER —(AP)— Two shots rang out on the main street of this West Texas oil town. Both missed. Sheriff Hugh Anderson said the lucky target was O. H. Austin, an electrical contractor.

Charlie Case was charged with assault with intent to kill. He posted $2,000 bond.

The shooting took place about 12:25 a.m. (CST) Saturday. Anderson said he heard the two men argued over a $25 check Austin gave Case, who owns a recreation club. Both men live at Borger.

Scout Teachings Are Put to Use

Pampa and Wheeler Girl Scout leaders are putting some of their teachings into practice. They are taking Scout cookout equipment with them on their vacations.

Mrs. J. B. Caldwell, assistant leader of Troop 11 and Day Camp staff member, recently took three tin can stoves and four buddy burners with her on her two-week vacation in California.

Mrs. Carroll Pettit and Mrs. M. C. Burgess, both of Wheeler, have just completed the Girl Scout leaders training course and plan to turn their theories into practice on their vacations.

Meanwhile Girl Scout Carolyn Minniear will use another phase of Scout training when she goes with her parents on a fishing trip. All during her time at Camp Sullivan, Carolyn paid particular attention to the fire-building activities. Her father has appointed her "chief fire builder" throughout the fishing trip.

Fisherman Saves Boy by Reeling Him to Shore

COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — Eight-year-old William Miller fell into the swift waters of the Scioto River Friday.

Fred Byas, 32, a railroad brakeman, was fishing off the bank with a cane pole.

He whirled his pole, and wipped the line in the direction of the floundering boy.

The line wrapped about the child's foot; the boy grabbed the string and was reeled ashore.

Fisherman Byas went back to his fishing. Although obviously proud of his feat, he grumbled:

"That's the trouble with fishing here. The kids always come around and ruin my fishing."

Hear 'n' There

By "CHUCK" INMAN

Last week we had some fun talking about the staff, and this week we are going to take one of the individual members and slowly dissect him. The object being to get you better acquainted with the members of the KPDN staff as individuals rather than as a whole. Since the voices on the air are most important to the listener's, we'll start with the announcers. First, but not least, is Denny Sullivan, heard on news at six a.m., eleven thirty, and six p.m. His voice rings out to you in the early hours of the morning on the Dawn Patrol. Denny is about five feet nine inches tall, weighs about one hundred and fifty pounds, has black hair. The deepness and quality of his voice will amaze you, for it is hard to believe that such a powerful and smooth voice could come from such a little fellow. But then dynamite comes in small packages. Denny has a nose for news, and on his news casts he brings you the correct interpretation of the lastest world happenings. Listen for Denny. You'll be surprised. Another recent addition to the staff is amiable Wes Carr. Wes is heard on the ten p.m. news. There is hardly a radio man in the country that has not heard of Wes, and there are very few listeners throughout this area who have not heard his voice. Wes is noted for his ability ta have a lot of fun while on the mike, and also for his ability to make you laugh, so be ture to listen for him. As you all know the baseball games are brought to you through the courtesy of your sports-minded merchants. Along about eight thirty each evening, during the past week, you have had the chance (I won't say opportunity) to hear a play-by-play description of the ball games. The voice (?) that you heard was that of your old friend Chuck Inman. Let it suffice to say that I hope you have been pleased with the broadcasts. So much for the announcing staff. Now a word about what you'll hear on KPDN. As a general over-all picture, our schedule brings you the best Mutual programs, plus local news casts and programs that are designed to please you. You'll hear recorded music and songs by the finest artists in the world. During the day, particulary during the women's listening tihe, we bring oyu the latest stories, and information, that will be of value to the ladies. Starting at the time that most men get home we present programs designed for the whole family, with here and there, a program for the men. Complete coverage of Sports is given, and periodically you will hear special broadcasts of special events. Our aim is to so design our programs that all listeners will be able to find programs that will suit their taste. Well folks, I've got to go. Duty calls, and anyway I'm hungry. So long, be seeing you.

Actor Denies Paternity of Twin Boys

WORCESTER, Mass. —(AP)—Big Joe Kirkwood, Jr., 28, the punching Joe Palooka movie hero, Friday was judged the father of illegitimate twin sons born six years ago to a pretty movie cashier.

District Judge Walter D. Allen made the ruling against th efilm player on a charge brought by Miss Florence G. Heppenstell, 26, of Worcester.

The decision came without testimony after lobby conferences had delayed the start of the hearing.

The film player and the cashier faced each other as they heard the verdict. Both appeared calm.

Kirkwood's counsel, Atty. Nathan Fink, said he planned an appeal.

There was no immediate comment from either Kirkwood or Miss Heppenstell.

As the lobby conferences went on, Kirkwood, tanned and husky, talked with newsmen in the courthouse corridor.

The Hollywood player told newsmen some papers had misquoted him when they said he would "take care" of the boy twins even if he was declared innocent of the charge.

Kirkwood said: "I have never seen the kids and have no desire to see them. I have no interest in her either."

Thn he added:

"I would like to help the kids except for the fact it would read too much like an admission of guilt."

Kirkwood, who is also a professional golfer, appeared more eager to talk about a golf date in Pittsfield Sunday and the Western Open at St. Paul, Minn. later on.

Before the hearing Kirkwood flatly denied being the father of the twins.

Kirkwood said in an interview Miss Heppenstell was "a slight waitresses he met at a New Hampshire club where he worked in 1942.

Commercial Chicks Rise 28 Percent

AUSTIN — (AP) — Commercial hatching of chicks totaled 4,200,000 in Texas during June, 28 percent above last year's June production and 8 percent above the average.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reported that slightly more than half of the June chicks went into commercial broiler production.

Ttotal production for the first 4$00,000 chicks compared with 39,470,000 for the same period of 1948.

Bulk of the chicks hatched the remainder of this year will be for commercial broilers.

Texas farm flocks produced 271 million eggs compared with 267 in June a year ago. The average rate of lay per hen was 14.9 eggs, the highest of record for June. It exceeded the previous June, 1947, high rate of 14.6 eggs.

Egg production totaled 1,681,000,000 in the first six months of 1949 compared with 1,702,000,000 for the comparable period last year.

Two Men Divide $1,000 Reward

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. — (AP)— A $1,000 reward has been paid to Leon Garrison and Autrey Sirmon, who live in the Athens, Ark., area for finding bodies of two Stephenville men killed in a plane crash.

T. C. Elkins and Ben Ferguson of Stephenville were killed May 29 when their private plane crashed in Southwest Arkansas. Families and friends of the two men offered the reward for finding the wreckage and bodies. The find was made June 16. The 1,000 check was signed by Gene C. Elkins, son of T. C. Elkins.

Weed Cutting Precedes Fogging

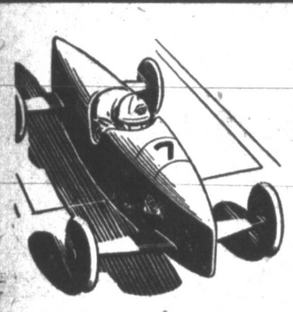

SHAMROCK —(Special)—Monday and Tuesday have been designated as city-wide weed cutting days in Shamrock. The campaign was arranged as a step in eliminating any possibility of an outbreak of polio.

The idea originated among business men on Highway 66. The Chamber of Commerce pledged its cooperation. Individuals are asked to cut the weeds and grass on their property, and a crew with mowing machines and trucks is being assembled to work vacant lots and alleys.

Headquarters will be set up on the parking lot south of the First Baptist Church.

Wheeler County Sanitarian W. R. Ritter stated that the day following the cutting of the weeds, the entire city will be fogged with DDT.

Francis Cardinal Spellman Comes Out With Criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt

NEW YORK —(AP) Francis Cardinal Spellman Friday criticized Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt for her opposition to federal funds for parochial and private schools.

In a letter to the former First Lady, the Catholic prelate said "your record of anti-Catholicism stands for all to see a record which you yourself wrote on the pages of history which cannot be recalled —documents of discrimination unworthy of an American mother."

The Cardinal's attack was based on articles written by Mrs. Roosevelt in her column, "My Day."

Mrs. Roosevelt's secretary said at Hyde Park that the letter had not yet been received and that there would be no comment until after its arrival, if then. Cardinal Spellman made the letter public. He wrote that, after Mrs. Roosevelt's first column on the Barden bill June 23, he had intended ignoring it.

"But, as the days passed and in two subsequent columns you continued your anti-Catholic campaign, I became convinced that it was in the interest of all Americans and the cause of justice itself that your misstatements should be challenged in every quarter of our country where they have already spun and spread their web of prejudice," his letter said.

Federal aid to education is one of the hottest issues now before Congress.

The Senate already has passed a bill providing such support. It would permit those states that so desire to use funds for aid to parochial schools.

In the House, the issue still is in committee. However, the bill introduced by Rep. Graham A. Barden (D-NC) would bar turning over any of the federal money to parochial schools.

In her June 23 column, Mrs. Roosevelt said "the controversy brought about the request made by Francis Cardinal Spellman that Catholic schools should share in federal aid funds forces upon the citizens of the country the kind of decision that is going to be very difficult to make."

She said "many years ago it was decided that the public schools of our country should be entirely separated from any kind of denominational control, and these are the only schools that are free, tax-supported schools. The greatest number of our children attend these schools."

"America's Catholic youth," the Cardinal wrote, "helped fight a long and better fight to save all Americans from oppression and persecution. Their broken bodies on blood-soaked foreign fields were grim and tragic testimony to this fact. . .

"Would you deny equality to these Catholic boys who daily stood at the sad threshold of untimely death and suffered martyrdom that you and I and the world of men might live in liberty and peace? . . ."

"I believe," he wrote, "that if the federal government provides a bottle of milk to each child in a public school it should provide milk for all school children.

"I believe that if federal funds are used to transport children to public schools they should be used to transport parochial school children.

"I believe if through the use of federal funds the children who attend public schools are immunized from contagious diseases that all children should be protected from these diseases."

Regular Care Dental Asset

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The old dental health rule—brush your teeth twice a day, see your dentist twice a year—still holds but there's more to your job than that if you expect oral health.

To the patient in the dental chair the filling of a cavity seems the most vital. Dentists, however, often find that gum diseases can cause as much trouble.

Gum troubles often stem from sheer neglect. If you're too neglectful to go to the dentist regularly to have tartar removed from the gumline, for example, you'll end up with a painful digging job to be done and what may be worse, a receding gumline.

Even with conscientious brushing your teeth crevices will retain tiny food particles, a cause for embarrassing mouth odors that many people never suspect.

It's both a social and health safeguard (decomposed food particles are threats to healthy teeth) for many people to use dental floss. Save this mouth hygiene measure for your private dressing room where you'll work the thin floss up and down between your teeth with a careful easy motion. A sharp jerk downward can bring an "ouchy" protest from gums.

It's also a social safeguard to carry a breath sweetener in your purse. That way you can smoke and eat strong-flavored foods without worrying about your social security.

For a quick supper serve macaroni and cheese with slices of luncheon meat and cole slaw. Dessert might be a bowl of fresh fruit, crisp cookies and a beverage.

Cooling Capers Beat the Heat

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The heat—or is it the humidity—doesn't spare anyone young or old but a steaming summer seems to take a heavier beauty toll of the older woman.

There's no ignoring it! Either take relief measures during the summer or be prepared to look fatigued and wilted.

First—to feel cooler, curb your emotional "highs and lows." Excitement, jittery nerves and anger are all heat-making. You'll feel cooler when you shrug off irritations; when you ignore annoyances. Your lively color and youthful step will be slowed down if you don't take more time out for rest and relaxation. If it's difficult to fall asleep on hot nights, try a warm (not cold) shower.

Fire Destroys Farm Residence

SHAMROCK —(Special)— The farm home of H. B. Gillespie, two and one-half miles northwest of town, was completely destroyed by fire early Thursday morning.

Matt Clay, owner of the farm, Gillespie and his family were away from home at the time of the fire shortly before 8 a. m.

Estimated damage was $1,250, part of which was covered by insurance.

Monday evening the Fire Department was called to the 700 block of N. Arkansas to extinguish a grass fire that had been caused by sparks blowing from a trash burner.

On Tuesday morning a call came from the Bruce Denham home at 907 N. Texas, where a blaze of unknown origin burned the wall and door to a bedroom and a stack of bedding was badly damaged.

Two Wheeler Roads Planned

SHAMROCK—(Special)— Two farm-to-market roads in Wheeler County have been designated for construction by the State Highway Department.

One will run from U. S. Highway 66, two miles east of the Gray County line, north to Heald, a distance of about three miles. The other is on farm-to-market road, 1046, east to Allison, about five miles.

Funds for the roads will become available in September, but the commissioners' court will have to obtain rights-of-way before then.

The roads will cost an estimated $77,700.

THE DRILLER'S LOG

By BUD ANDERSON

omething new — under the nhandle sun, at any rate — been tried by the Texas Co. drilling their Garner "D" No. Operators used crude oil piped n the same lease as drilling d in the place of a water e mud.

eason given by Texaco offis was that mud used in shale mations had the habit of mudg off the oil and also circula- was lost easily.

oo, there is no need of swabg. Operators would like to pense with water since it is ter than oil and it would be gible through the new method ince the pressure in this field so low, there is danger of ing a formation with mud and eliminating this hazard alone, oil method might come into ensive use if it works.

Texaco won't know how they ne out until later on this week. ey are setting up pumping rig and should have completion orts in by next Sunday.

Max Skelton, in this week's ekly Oil, describes the proditional schemes being practiced in connection with the Cadian oil boom. Most, he says fraudulent, and Better Business reaus have backed him up. gus oil stocks are being foisted o U. S. and Canadian citizens h promises of returns up to for $1 and some even as h as $40 for each $1 investnt.

Skelton comments most activis centered in Houston and llas as far as Texas is conned. But Houston and Dallas n't the only cities being sent opositions and get-rich-quick il schemes. Pampa is getting me.

Since the Better Business Bus have investigated any numof these schemes and found m fraudulent, it might be best file such literature in the near circular mile available.

Texas Independent Producers d Royalty Owners Association waging an all-out battle against cessivef imports o foreign ude. The latest weapon they using is a letter to all mems stating the danger of excese imports, pointing out possible medies to the problem and ging members to write letters senators and representatives.

TIPRO is backing the Thomas endment to the Reciprocal ade Agreements Act limiting imports to five percent of the oss demand for oil in the U. S. preceding year. They also vor the "peril point" provisions the same act which would give U. S. Tariff Commission powto investigate and set a "peril nt" beyond which the Presint may not go without disaster American producers.

It would be difficult to determine just what significance there in two geophysical companies oving into Wheeler and Hemphill Counties. One result of this tivity which can be pretty well pended on is that prices of nd in this area will take a cided jump — if they havn't ready.

But human nature can't be amed too much. People still ve hopes that oil in large antities will be hit in the oberts-Ochiltree-Lipscomb area ey know that good production being made from the new field ntering in Beckham County. So ey draw a straight line between e two areas and find it crosses heeler and Hemphill Counties.

Oil structures are indeed curis phenomena. For years, comanies have been trying to find me sure way of locating oilaring structures, but apparently ere is a long row to hoe before e day comes when some geolost can take a drilling crew to e field, mark a spot, and then back to the office and tell the ys to prepare for a hundred or ve hundred barrels in so many ays.

But, unfortunately, it seems l-bearing formations refuse to operate with a driller's fancy. For example, some good pools ave been tapped in Lea County, New Mexico. That's to the est of the Panhandle. A whole w field was opened in West exas, centering in Scurry County. That's south of the Panahndle. Shell has any number of good roducers. Wilcox just finaled heir Cleo Walter No. 1 for 500 arrels and Constantine has rought in good producers all Beckham County, Oklahoma hat's to the east and south of he Roberts, Ochiltree and Lipsomb Counties.

Finally, Kansas is opening up everal good pools. The latest is Ellis County.

That is a complete circle surounding us. Everything on the ircle has struck good pay and pened new fields, and we have ut one well.

The law of averages ought to now better by now.

Two Men Die in Esso Refinery Fire

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Two men ied last Friday of burns received n a spectacular explosion and re at the Esso Standard Oil Co. efinery here.

Thirty-four other persons were njured.

The explosion of two oil disillation units, the fire, and the anger of further blasts threatened a large section of the East altimore industrial area. Firefighters were successful, however, in keeping the flames from eaching 48 gasoline storage anks surrounding the stills.

Trouble Slows Deep Tests in Panhandle

Developments in Panhandle deep tests neared a standstill last week as operators were losing circulation or fishing on four wells.

Operators too, were having trouble making tests on Gulf's stump in Ochiltree County. A test was run late last week between 10,051-58 feet. Operators recovered three feet of cherty limestone and only a show of oil.

Another core was taken between 10,058-63 with the same limestone present but no oil. The well was drilled ahead to 10,070 with another test attempted but the tool failed to open and the try was abandoned. Additional tests were planned.

Gulf's No. 1 Harbaugh in Ochiltree is stopped at 9,072 feet with a drill pipe stuck. The Gulf Wamble is drilling ahead. Latest reported depth is 7,764 feet.

Sinclair reported no trouble last week. Latest depth on the Lips No. 2 is 7,871 feet.

Gulf operators have been fishing for drill collars on the Porter in Lipscomb County for almost a month now. Plans are now to set a whipstock and drill past. Depth is 13,273 feet. Gulf Gamertsfelder in Hansford County is doing no better this week. Operators are still losing circulation at 8,532 feet.

Honolulu's Ponder in Deaf Smith County is the other well reporting trouble last week. Drill pipe is stuck in the hole at 4,000 feet. Latest reported total depth of the well is 9,339 feet. Other wells are reported drilling ahead without incident. Vanderlin Chaudoin No. 1 in Hall County is drilling ahead at 1,150 feet. Hooper Duke in Oldham County ran 8 5-8 to 2,557 feet and set with 125 sacks of cement. Total depth on the well is 5,131 feet.

Gulf's Wamble in Ochiltree County is drilling at 7,764 feet and the Huber Pazoureck No. 1 in the same county is drilling at 3,187 feet.

El Paso Plans California Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — El Paso Natural Gas Co. last week proposed natural gas service to the nation's major rocket testing base at White Sands, N. M., and Holloman Air Force Base in the same state.

The company applied to the Power Commission for authority to build a 93.1-mile natural gas system to serve those two areas, the towns of Alamogordo, N. M., and Willcox, Ariz.

White Sands and Holloman now use oil for fuel and Alamogordo and Willcox use manufactured gas.

El Paso's proposed project — to cost about $690,630 — also would increase natural gas deliveries to Phoenix, Ariz., by about 9,000,000 cubic feet daily.

World Increases Output; U. S. Drops

TULSA (AP) — While the United States was curtailing crude output in May the rest of the world generally increased its petroleum production, the Oil and Gas Journal reported last week.

A drop in world output of 29,000 barrels a day was contributed mainly by this country whose oil-producing states were attempting to bring supply into line with demand.

World oil production for that month averaged 9,169,500 barrels daily, the Journal said, compared to an April output of 9,198,200 barrels per day.

United States oil flow, averaging 4,978,000 barrels daily in May, was 44,000 barrels below the April figure.

Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland manufacture 80 percent of all the steel made in this country.

Culberson to Visit Pampa This Week

OLIN CULBERSON

Olin Culberson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission, will arrive in Pampa Tuesday. Exact time of his arrival is not known yet, but it will be sometime Tuesday evening.

The Commission has three engagements already for his Tuesday-Wednesday visit to Pampa.

At 7 p. m. Tuesday he has been asked to speak to the Business and Professional Women's Club at City Park. At 8 p. m. the same day he will be guest at a dutch luncheon being given by the District 10 Railroad Commission staff.

Wednesday he is scheduled to speak at a noon meeting of the Pampa Rotary Club. Culberson is a Rotary member and established the first Rotary Club at Edna, Texas. Anyone wishing to attend the meeting can make arrangements with DeLea Vicars or Ben Guill.

He will leave Pampa Wednesday afternoon to complete his tour of the Panhandle.

Culberson, who became a member of the commission in 1941, is serving his second term.

As chairman of the commission he secured from the Legislature the requirement that all persons drawing salaries as engineers would actually have to be graduates from a recognized university carrying a four-year petroleum engineering course.

As director of production in the Oil and Gas Division, Culberson set up the system for accounting of oil and the tender system for controlling the production and movement of oil.

Skelton Reports Frauds In Canadian Stock Deals

HOUSTON — (AP) — Canadian oil boom get-rich-quick schemes are moving across the international border by mail, telegraph and telephone.

Better Business Bureaus report receiving numerous complaints and inquiries on Canadian oil stock solicitations. Few are found to be legitimate. Few hold sound claims to oil leases, to say nothing of oil itself.

Predicted immediate investment returns range as high as $40 for each $1 sent across the border.

Mail order promotion of Canadian oil stocks flooded two Texas cities recently — Houston and Dallas — whose residents had their fill of bogus stocks in the old Texas boom days.

A Toronto, Canada, company mailed promotion literature and application blanks in wholesale fashion.

Commented C. Edward Buehner, manager of the Houston Better Business Bureau:

"They seem to have mailed to everyone in the city directory. Practically everyone in our office received the letters."

Buehner has accumulated a bulky file on fake Canadian stock promotions dating back to days when there was wild speculation on Canada's gold mines. The recent rich oil strike in Alberta province apprently has caused many of the mail order speculators to switch to oil.

Canada's boom in fake stocks, Buehner said, can be traced back to the time the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission cracked down on practices of companies in the states.

"Many operators just moved into Canada," he explained.

The Canadian operations center around Toronto, Better Business Bureau records indicate SEC and various state commissions have investigated several hundred Toronto firms in recent years.

But differences in American and Canadian laws make it impossible to establish efficient protection against the fake schemes.

United States brokers must register their stocks and securities with the SEC. Canadian controls are left to each of the 10 provinces.

Canadian law does not permit extradition of Canadians on charges of violation of United States securities laws.

Until recentry the only weapons held by SEC and state commissions were rather meaningless court injunctions, stop orders, cease and desist orders, and indictments. There have been hundreds of such cases but the brokers affected still are in Canada.

There can be no prosecution unless the defendants step across the international border and find themselves under arrest. As long as they stay in Canada, they still can drop letters in the mail, telephone and send telegrams to prospects.

Better Business Bureau officials, Buehner said, are hopeful a recent action taken by the U. S. postmaster general will develop into an efficient weapon.

The action was explained in a bulletin from the Boston bureau.

The postmaster general recently issued a fraud order against a Toronto company alleged to have been flooding the United States with mail promotion on an oil lease block in Alberta.

Investigation, it was said, proved the company's claims to be fraudulent.

Postmasters throughout the country were directed to refuse to accept postal money orders to the company. They also were instructed to stamp the word "fraudulent on all letters addressed to the company and return them to the senders.

The order is to continue as long as the company "evades and avoids" registration with SEC and state commissions.

Evidence of fraud must be presented before the postmaster general can take such action. In this particular case, it was charged the company sought quick rich investments ranging from $25 to $250. A $25 investment was to result on a quick return of $1000. A $250 payment was to return $10,000.

It was further claimed the Alberta government had refused to grant leases to the company. Leases claimed were said to have been found to be several miles from oil production and in wildcat territory previously explored and tested without success.

The postmaster general was said to have acted after the SEC reported large amounts of money were being sent to the Toronto firm and that cease and desist court orders had been ineffectual.

Canada's oil boom has not caused the stock brokers to forget the Dominion's mines entirely.

Texas Given 22.5 Percent Slash in Wheat Acreage

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Texas was alloted a 22.5 percent cut in wheat acreage for 1950 under a program setting the national planting goal at 68,944,099 acres.

The sharpest cut was about 35.5 percent for Colorado — a state where much grass and pasture land was plowed up in recent years to help meet abnormal postwar overseas demands for wheat.

But that demand is declining, says Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, and there are dangers of troublesome surpluses.

The smallest cut for the 17 major producing states was 13.5 percent for Indiana. Oklahoma's allotment was 20.3 percent less than its 1949 acreage; that for Kansas 14.6 percent less.

State allotments will be apportioned among counties and farmers under regulations set up in crop control legislation. The national goal is about 17 percent less than the 83,173,000 acres which produced a 1949 crop now indicated as the third largest of record.

In general, states which expanded acreages the greatest since the war took the sharpest cuts, the department said.

Texas was asked to plant 5,909,134 acres compared to 7,630,000 this year.

The 1950 allotment for other states compared with 1949 acreage, and the percent reduction, respectively, included:

Oklahoma 6,015,842 and 7,552,000, and 20.3; Kansas 13,492,502 and 15,805,000 and 14.6; Colorado 2,272,535 and 3,526,000 and 35.5; Wyoming 296,535 and 390,000 and 24; Montana 4,265,806 and 5,579,000 and 23.5; Washington 2,496,069 and 3,158,000 and 20.9; Idaho 1,203,947 and 1,527,000 and 21, and Oregon 944,891 and 1,136,000 and 16.9.

Arizona was given 29,459 compared with 30,000 in 1949; California 741,563 compared with 866,000; New Mexico 520,302 compared with 554,000, and Utah 318,470 as against 351,000.

The department said the state allotments were made under provisions of law; that they were based primarily on seeded acreage in each state during the past ten years, adjusted for recent production trends.

Jobless Rolls Give Boost to Public Works

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An official report of soaring government payments to jobless workers gave a push to Congressional "anti-depression" campaigns.

The Bureau of Employment Security announced that unemployment insurance payments hit a record monthly level of $154,696,000 in June.

Director Robert C. Goodwin said the largest previous total for any one month in the history of the law was $152,096,345 in March this year.

Nearly 100,000 more jobless workers received unemployment benefits each week in June than in May, he said.

Already moving to check this trend, the Senate Public Works Committee Friday approved unanimously its so-called "anti-depression" bill authorizing the government to advance 100 million dollars to states and communities for planning a public works program.

The Senate Labor Committee approved, also unanimously, a year's extension, with some modifications, of the "52-20" jobless veterans law which is due to expire Monday.

President Truman already has launched his own program of directing government buying and spending in areas hardest hit by unemployment.

Ruling Asked on License Problem

WEATHERFORD, Tex. — (AP) — At the direction of commissioners court here County Judge Joe Dodson formally requested an analysis and ruling by the attorney general on Parker County's impasse with the State Highway Commission over issuance of license tags to out-of-county motor vehicles.

"The ramifications of the problem are so complex that a complete analysis by a qualified authority is necessary," the judge told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram yesterday morning. "For that reason, my request outlined the facts and left the breakdown of legal questions involved up to the attorney general's office.

"The commissioners and myself are confident that, whatever the ruling, Parker County will not be held culpable in the matter of these registrations. We have been advised by legal authorities that any tax collector has the right and authority to assume that any man with intelligence enough to present himself with the papers and money necessary to register a car or truck has intelligence enough to know where he lives."

Judge Dodson said no action whatever would be taken until the requested opinion is received.

Delegation Opposes Red River Survey

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Louisiana delegation will go before a Senate Public Works subcommittee Monday to oppose legislation providing for a flood control survey for the Arkansas, White and Red Rivers.

The group will seek to have the Red River left out of the bill, which calls for a two-year survey of the flood control and navigation problems of the three streams with an overall development plan. The bill is sponsored by Senator Kerr (D-Okla).

Roy Mathias, executive secretary of the Red River Valley Association, said the group is opposed because it would delay flood control work already under way in the Red River Valley.

U. S. Teachers Bow To Queen Elizabeth

LONDON — (AP) — Over a hundred American school teachers curtsied, shook hands and drank some tea with Queen Elizabeth last week.

It was the highlight of a year's term of teaching in British schools under a British-American teachers exchange system.

They were in a long line with about a hundred other teachers from most of the countries in the British commonwealth at a garden party at Lambeth Palace, London home of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Romeo Blames Killing on His Other Girl

NEW YORK — (AP) — Raymond M. Fernandez, balding mail-order romeo, says he broke into hysterical sobs and tried to drown his anguish in alcohol after he saw Mrs. Janet Fay bleeding on the floor.

Fernandez testified last week that he had nothing to do with the slaying of the 66-year-old Albany, N.Y., widow who had given him her $5,918 in savings after he courted her through a "Lonely Hearts" club.

He put the blame on his plump sweetheart, Mrs. Martha Beck, 29, who is on trial with him for murder in the bludgeoning-strangulation slaying of Mrs. Fay last Jan. 4 in the defendant's Valley Stream, N.Y., apartment.

Fernandez, 34, said "there was no reason" for him to kill the widow. "I had her money," he added.

He gave a State Supreme Court jury this account of the crime:

Early in the morning, Mrs. Fay came to him, anxious about her money. He tried to reassure her that it was safe. Later, he asked Mrs. Beck to help him convince Mrs. Fay.

"Then I went into the bathroom," Fernandez testified. "The door was closed."

When he returned to the living room, he said, he found Mrs. Beck standing over Mrs. Fay, who lay over a suitcase, bleeding profusely from head wounds.

Fernandez said he went into hysterics, and "got a bottle of whiskey and drank most of it."

"I sat on the couch crying," he testified. "Mrs. Beck said, 'there's no sense getting that way. There's nothing we can do.' We then decided to get rid of the body."

Fernandez denied the prosecution's claim that he assisted in the crime by strangling Mrs. Fay with her scarf. He said he put the scarf around the victim's neck after she already was dead, "to stop the flow of blood."

Laborers and Farmers Gained Most During '48

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Laborers and farmers scored the biggest income gains of boomtime 1948, a year that saw income distributed more evenly among the American people than ever before.

A Federal Reserve Board survey showed unskilled laborers did best of all with a $350 gain to a level of $2,100 in the median or middle-size income for workers of that class.

Skilled and semi-skilled workers, grouped together in the board's report, fared next best with a $300 increase to give them a median of $3,300.

That, incidentally, was practically the same as the median figure for American families in general — $3,320 before taxes, or $3,000 after federal tax payments. Half did better, the other half worse.

Farm operators, who get a lot out of their work that can't be priced in cash terms, managed to increase their median cash income $300 to a $1,800 figure.

Clerks and salesmen and women moved up $100 to a $3,000 median income level, but business owners-managers and professional people (doctors, lawyers, etc.) stayed put at 1947's $4,500 and $4,000, respectively.

Out of 43,800,000 American families, only 28 percent (11,388,000) had incomes under $2,000 in 1948 compared with 31 percent in 1947 and 35 percent in 1946.

Between 1947 and 1948, the proportion of families with incomes of $2,000 to $3,000 remained unchanged — 20 percent — but there were increases in the $3,000-$4,000 bracket (20 percent of 1948 families), the $4,000-$5,000 bracket (12 percent) and $5,000-$7,500 (14 percent).

Perryton Undergoing Most Rapid Growth in Panhandle

By MARY RUTH TAYLOR
Pampa News Correspondent

PERRYTON — (Special) — Perryton, the Wheathear of the nation, is undergoing one of the most rapid growths of any city in the North Plains area. The federal census of 1940 showed 2,321 population. A recent city directory showed more than 5,200 people within the city limits. Two FHA housing units which will comprise 60 new homes are not expected to relieve the housing shortage in Perryton. The Chamber of Commerce reports that 50 families are turned away from that office daily seeking apartments, houses or sleeping rooms which are not available.

New and modern business buildings are replacing old wooden structures as fast as contractors can construct them. New and modern residences are springing up on practically every block within the area. Farm owners within the county are building permanent homes within the city where their children can secure the accommodations of the only high school in the county. Fourteen new and modern churches are evidences of progress within the community.

The school has transformed its old gymnasium into additional classrooms to accommodate the enlarged enrollment, and a new $395,000 gymnasium and auditorium will be ready for the opening of school in September, according to Gilbert Mize, superintendent.

The City Council has recently secured another fire truck to further protect property in the city. A new street sweeper has been purchased by the city and the renaming of all city streets and new street markers are other steps taken to modernize the city.

Another water well and storage tower are in process of completion. Contractors are now laying additional water and sewer lines to care for the expansion of the city. A new sewer disposal plant is in the making.

The State Highway Department in conjunction with property owners is laying curb and gutter through the city on Highways 117 and U. S. 83, after which paving will be extended to the curbs. Sidewalks and street paving is being added to the new annexes in the south and western parts of the city.

The Postal Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has placed mail boxes and house numbers at every home in the city so city delivery mail service could be extended. The county commissioners, court has recently lighted the rodeo and baseball grounds to provide more adequate recreational facilities. This area is also used as parking space for the Texas Employment Service to handle harvest machinery and migrant workers. A portion of this area has recently been deeded to the Veterans Memorial Organization where a community building costing $100,000 will be erected. The American Legion has consented to sell its old building and also apply $30,000 from a popular subscription toward the new building. The VFW will also sell its present building and apply the proceeds toward the new building.

The 1949 wheat crop of approximately seven million bushels along with the oil development in the county gives Perryton an opportunity to become one of the leading cities of the North Plains. A common remark from traveling people is that Perryton is one of the best towns on their trips. Its wide streets and jammed parking spaces on five blocks along the main streets prove that a thriving business is done at Perryton.

Dr. Paul Popenoe, director of the American Institute of Family Relations, says a man with a family ought to get more pay than a bachelor for the same job. We realize two can live as cheaply as one . . . but only half as long, and when you make it two and one to carry the expenses accumulate like fingerprints on a doorknob. However, it'll be tough to put over the idea. Employers are still more interested in getting a job done than in trying to high-pressure a natural born bachelor into marrying the first girl who proposes to him. We think the Doc's on the right track, but he's apt to hit a detour.

When you bring your car around to us for a summer checkup, don't worry. We're interested in getting the job done, too—and done well.

PERRYTON —(Special)— The Board of Directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the celebration committee heads met Friday night in the Chamber of Commerce office to name permanent committees for carrying out the various phases of the celebration this year, Aug. 19 and 20.

The parade which will be held at 10 a. m. Aug. 19, is sponsored by the Lions and Rotary Clubs. At this time ten floats have been secured for the parade. The Wheatheart entries will ride on the various floats. The Amarillo Range Riders will be another feature of the parade this year.

The Claude Hayes stock has been secured for the rodeo, according to Jake LeMaster, rodeo chairman. There will be two afternoon and two evening performances.

Keith Lane has been named as chairman of the dance committee. Johnny Lee Wills' band has been booked for the Friday night dance on Aug. 19, and Buddy Marino for the Saturday night dance. The free barbecue, which will be held at Saturday noon, is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Fourteen beeves are being primed for butchering.

An added feature to the Perryton Celebration this year is the recognition of the old-timers in the area. A special float will haul the old-timers in the parade, and special seating will be arranged for them at the rodeo. Station KEYE will interview these old-timers Saturday morning and have them relate their trials and experiences of the early days.

The crowning of the Wheatheart at the dance Saturday night will be the climax of the celebration.

Youth Development Body Is Appointed by Shivers

AUSTIN — (AP) — Citizens who will try to work out a better deal for Texas' delinquent children were named to the newly created Youth Development Council Thursday.

Gov. Allan Shivers' appointment of six members included three who had served on the commission that made an 18-month study of youth problems. The commission's work resulted in legislation intended to give Texas a modern plan of dealing with children, including delinquency and its correction.

They were the Rev. Walter Kerr of Kerrville, Methodist pastor, designated as chairman and member of the Executive Committee; Leslie Jackson of Dallas, lawyer and former dean of the Baylor University Law School; S. L. Bellamy of Houston, chief probation officer of Harris County.

Also appointed were the Rt. Rev. Paul J. Ehinger of San Antonio, Lewis Nordyke, Amarillo newsman and author, and Mrs. R. J. Turrentine of Denton, long active in Texas public affairs. She is chairman of the Board of Public Welfare.

Ex-officio members of the youth council are Hall. H. Logan, chairman of the Board of Control; John H. Winters, executive director of the Department of Public Welfare; Dr. George E. Cox, state health officer; Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety; Gordon Shearer, executive secretary of the State Parks Board; Harry B. Crozier, chairman of the Texas Employment Commission.

Two officials yet to be selected also will serve on the council.

They are the commissioner of education and the executive director of state hospitals and special schools.

The youth council will name an executive staff to take over the job of trying to find out what makes delinquent children delinquents, and what disposition to make of them.

The council through its staff will manage and direct the state training schools at Gatesville, Gainesville and Brady. It will make continuing studies of family life and community programs for development of children into useful, law-abiding citizens.

The law creating the council and completely overhauling Texas' plan for handling youth problems was passed by the 51st Legislature. It was sponsored by Senator R. L. Proffer of Justin and Reps. Pearce Johnson of Austin, Davis Clifton of McKinney and Sid Gregory of Gatesville.

It had been strongly backed by the late Gov. Beauford H. Jester. Shivers said that he had followed the intentions and commitments of Gov. Jester in naming council members, adding that they also met his full approval.

The commission officially begins functioning Sept. 1. At that time, direction of the training school passes from the Board of Control to the council.

Driver's License Renewal Offer Is Made to Texans

AUSTIN — (AP) — State police have made it easier to renew your lapsed auto driver's license.

Public Safety Director Homer Garrison announced a new temporary plan under which renewals will not require new examinations. A shortage of personnel in the License Division was given as the reason.

Garrison outlined these steps in the new procedure: First: if you have a license that was issued since Jan. 1, 1944, you may get a renewal by mail from the Department of Public Safety, without examination.

Second: if you have a license that was issued prior to Jan. 1, 1944, you may renew by presenting the old license to a drivers license examiner in your locality and executing an original application. License in the latter case will also be issued without examination.

Formerly, those applicants for renewal who had allowed their license to expire were required to stand a reexamination. Now, under the temporary setup, you may reinstate your permit to drive without taking the test, regardless of how long it has expired, provided it is not now suspended or revoked.

Pork Prices Climb in Week

By The Associated Press

Pork prices climbed two to ten cents a pound during the week in many of the nation's marketing centers.

Frying chickens, eggs and choice tomatoes also were higher, while price declines were restricted largely to a few produce items in good local supply.

Market spokesmen blamed the higher pork prices chiefly on seasonally light receipts.

The price hikes had been expected following a sharp rise at the wholesale level last week.

Sirloin was up a few cents a pound in some markets but most beef and veal cuts held steady. Lamb was irregularly higher.

Advances of three to eight cents a dozen on top grade eggs were concentrated in hot-weather sections where high temperatures reduced production.

Poultry prices continued their moderate climb which began late in June, and this week sold two to six cents a pound higher than last.

Next: A Built-In Adding Machine for a Lead Pencil

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK — (AP) — This is the built-in age.

Nobody any longer wants anything unless it is also guaranteed to have at least a couple of other features built into it.

This goes for practically everything from brassieres to book cases, from three-color ice cream to cigaret boxes that play "Yankee Doodle" when opened.

Think I'm kidding? Well, over in Glasgow they've just developed a blouse with built-in perfume. Makes a girl smell sweet in any flavor she wants for months and months.

But this international craze to build something into something else probably has reached its true flower in the motor car and household gadget industries.

An automobile used to be a vehicle to get you from here to there. But now cars are gradually taking the place of the old-fashioned home. You can shave in them, listen to a concert, smoke, carry on a long distance telephone conversation with Paris, or push a button and slice your mother-in-law in half with an automatic sliding window. About the only thing you can't do in them is play a tuba.

Take what happened to the simple broom. It used to be a straightforward instrument for gathering dust out of odd corners. Then they turned it into a carpet sweeper. Then it developed into the vacuum cleaner. And what won't it do now? It'll paint walls, wax floors, dry the baby, manicure the furniture and shampoo your rug, your dog or your wife.

Furniture has become so complicated by built-in gadgets that you can't even tell its function from an outside look. Soon we'll have to hang an index on each piece to know all it is capable of.

As it is now I always have a moment of fear when a host asks me to pull open the door of a new cabinet in his living room. I never know whether the thing will dump a sack of laundry on the floor, flip out an X-ray picture of my lungs, spray me with martinis, roll out into a sofa bed or just show another television wrestling match from Chicago.

Shamrock Pastor Resigns Post

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Murrey W. Wilson, minister of the Church of Christ of Shamrock for the past five years, this week announced his resignation.

The young preacher stated that he would take up similar work elsewhere. His successor has not been named.

His statement to the people of Shamrock said in part:

"After five years with the Church of Christ here in Shamrock, I have resigned my work to take up work elsewhere. I have enjoyed living in this fine West Texas town and greatly appreciate the kindness that has been manifested by the good citizens here toward my family and myself."

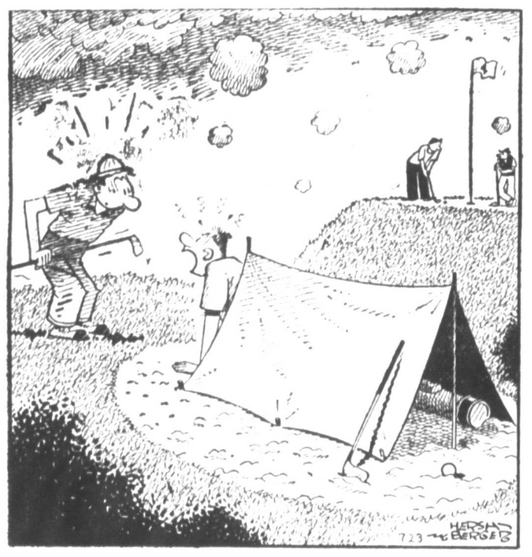

Polite Thieves Got All They Wanted, Thanks

DALLAS — (AP) — "Did you get what you wanted?" the cashier of Tom Thumb No. 7 Grocery asked two young men Friday.

"Yes," they smiled as they left the store.

A few minutes later, store manager J. C. Davis found the good-natured customers had walked out with $417.50 from a cash drawer.

REFUGE

By Mildred Cram and Harwood White

Copyright 1949, by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Mrs. Everson, believing that an impending atomic war will mean the end of the world, is fleeing to "a place of safety" in a caravan of two gigantic trailers, with her servants and a companion, Mrs. Margaret Malone, a cook hired en route, has just learned that Mrs. Everson has decided to be "one of the survivors" of the catastrophe. Convinced that Mrs. Everson is crazy, Mrs. Malone attempts to run away, but is stopped temporarily by the Marchese Bellcasa, an exiled nobleman who is Mrs. Everson's companion. Also in the party are the chauffeur, Rudy, a former movie star, and Victor, a well-educated Filipino who is Mrs. Everson's houseboy. As the trailer caravan halts at a filling station about lunch time, Mrs. Malone suddenly sees another opportunity to run away. She'll hide until the trailers drive off without her.

THE trailer door was open, the steps were down and Mrs. Everson had already descended. A parked car had spilled its load of tourists, and a handful of desert rats, chewing and grinning, stared at her. She strolled back toward the second trailer, a lighted cigaret in her hand, ignoring the "No Smoking" sign.

Mrs. Malone stood at the top of the steps, looking down at the little crowd. She felt a sudden, sharp pity because they were human beings. One of the women held a new-born baby in her arms. The children were licking ice-cream cones. A grandmother in a print dress fanned herself with a folded comic book.

The parked car sagged beneath mattresses, boxes, bed springs, a bicycle and a washing machine. The windshield was thick with stickers. And the battered hood steamed as one of the men squirted water into the tank.

Cheerful and whistling, the filling-station attendants squatted to test and fill the trailer's oversize tires, climbed up on the truck to clean the glass, tested the oil gauges with an elaborate show of honesty: "She could take a coupla quarts . . ."

America, America, the hot dog stand. The weighing machine. The ugly station. And beyond, colorless in the flat sunlight, the desert, the long road, highway 66, east and west.

SUDDENLY Mrs. Malone, against her conscience and against her strict determination, felt apart from these others. They weren't on their way, as she was, to a place of safety. They were traveling, in ignorance of their fate, straight toward annihilation.

She thought: "Suppose I warned them. They'd think I was crazy. They'd give me the big Yankee razzberry."

Mrs. Everson had turned and now strolled back, her head with its mane of shining dyed hair held high, her eyes arrogantly returning the curious stares of the loiterers. A step or two behind, the little Filipino kept pace with her.

"Lunch is ready to serve, Victor," Mrs. Malone called down to him.

She stepped quickly back into the trailer, threw her coat and purse on her bed, and smoothing her hair with both palms went into the kitchen.

• • •

THE silver caravan sped eastward. Inexorably the miles dropped behind. The sky remained cloudless, the air still, the earth passive. Dawn was clove pink. Fanlike rays of light opened behind the horizon, shot to the zenith; then the rim of the sun appeared, fiery, molten; it lifted, seeming at first to be flat at the base, then assuming its whole round.

Over the voyagers in the two trailers hung a haunting, paralyzing idea: they might—just might—be witnessing the last few revolutions of the globe.

Even the five human beings who fled from the catastrophe in two gleaming trailers might not escape.

There would be an explosion, mightier than any other, intense heat, terror, then silence. The world and civilization would be wiped out.

Mrs. Malone knew that this thought was in the minds of the others too. Each asked himself the question: "Is this the end of the world?"

Each in his way responded to the terror of that possibility. It is one thing to watch the sun rise believing that it will continue to rise for millions of years to come. It is quite another thing to contemplate a break in the chain of days, to vision a world shaken by titanic forces, battered, thrown off its course. A broken earth, checked on its axis, shivering in space. A pitiless sun glaring at the ruin, crisping the exposed top.

Mrs. Everson buffed and painted her long nails or studied her secret maps. The Marchese played the wood-wind themes imbedded in operas and symphonies and tone poems: the shepherd's piping from Tristan, the bird calls in Siegfried's forest, the impalpable sweetness of the faun's dream, the song of the nightingale in Beethoven's Sixth.

Mrs. Malone couldn't identify the "tunes," but she knew she'd heard them somewhere . . . probably on the radio.

It wasn't all music. The Marchese talked, too, hours at a time, while Mrs. Everson listened. They made Mrs. Malone think of Scheherazade and Bluebeard; the Marchese exchanging his gifts of anecdote and remembrance for a few more days of life.

No, Mrs. Malone decided, she wouldn't leave Mrs. Everson. Not for awhile, at least.

1—Card of Thanks

At the same time came the desciples unto Jesus, saying, who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?

And Jesus called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them.

And said, Very I say unto you, Except ye be converted and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

AWAY

I cannot say and I wil not say
That he is dead—he is just away!

With a cherry smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and glad return,

Think of him as faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.

Think of him stil las the same, I say;
He is not dead—he is just away!
