Q. Why were the American Flags displayed Friday?

A. Due to inclement weather the Friday before, Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, the Colorado City Rotary Club decided not to display the Flags. The Flags were displayed last Friday with yellow ribbons attached in recognition of those missing in action (MIAs).

12 local farmers to get foreclosure notices

Behind six months on FmHA loans

Twelve Mitchell County farmers are among 6,500 in Texas that face foreclosure proceedings as the result of being more than 180 days behind in their Farmers Home Administration loans.

Dennis Cumbie, assistant county supervisor for the Mitchell County office, said Friday that "no notices have been mailed yet, but there will be last least 12
'Notices of Loan Restructuring Right' sent out before the mandatory November 25 deadline".

Cumbie said at least four of the local farmers scheduled to be notified are no longer in business.
"These are not actual foreclosures, but they are the beginning of foreclosure proceedings. The notices state "This is to inform you that you're seriously behind in your loan payments and to inform you of your options."
Affected farmers will have 45

County-wide Thanksgiving service Nov. 22

The Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance will hold its annual County-wide Thanksgiving Service, Tuesday, Nov. 22 at the First Baptist Church, Colorado City, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

The Rev. Jon Farris, new pastor of St. Luke Methodist and Dorn Chapel will bring the message. Michael Young will lead the congregational singing.
Young is minister of music and youth at Calvary Baptist Church.

Special music will be presented by Sonja Girvin of the First Assembly of God and the Ladies Ensemble of Oak Street Baptist Church.

There will be a fellowship following the service. Everyone is invited. A free-will offering will be taken to benefit the needy in Mitchell County.

Jury dismissed

The petit jury panel which reported last Tuesday morning for County Court duty, was dismissed after the defendant decided to enter a plea of guilty to a charge of DWI.

Officials tour generators

TU Electric Company officials Ben Lancaster, Bill Griffin of Midland, Tim Fambrough of Sweetwater, and Jack Smartt of Snyder, hosted a reception Friday morning for State Representative Dick Burnett and his successor Robert Junell, and local county, city, school and hospital officials then took the big group on an inspection tour of the six new gas turbine generators that have been installed at the company's Morgan Creek Power Plant, shown above.

Valuable prizes offered in Holiday Treasure Hunt

Twenty-seven Colorado City merchants are participating in
The Record's "Holiday Treasure Hunt" this week with over $5,500 in prizes in the offering.

In each copy of today's (Sunday) edition is a supplement listing each of the merchant's offerings. In a box at the upper right front page of the supplement is a number printed in black ink.

This may be your lucky number! If your number matches the number displayed in a merchant's store, any time Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, you will receive that merchant's prize...absolutely free.

Some of the prizes that are being offered include: a 31-in Magnavox television set from Tumbleweed Furniture, valued at $2,495; a 5-piece luggage set valued at $199 from C. R. Anthony's; a ladies' Seiko watch from Eddie's Pharmacy, valued at $215; and two $100 bills to be given away to two lucky winners at First Western Savings & Loan.

In all there are over 120 prizes being offered in the Treasure Hunt.

And readers will even get a second chance. In next Thursday's Thanksgiving issue, Nov. 24, another supplement will appear

Commissioners still sitting on kitchen bids

Mitchell County Commissioners Court convened for another called meeting Friday morning, but was still unable to act on bid acceptances for the planned County Jail kitchen.

After some 17 bids were opened last Tuesday, the Court took no action when three of the bids came in excessively high, pushing the total cost to over $18,000 more than the estimated $73,000.

Rather than seeking one main contractor for the project, the Court solicited separate bids for various portions of the construction and equipment.

FROM THE SCRIPTURES— "Therefore you judge, for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things." Romans 2:1

After last week's "Great American Smokeout" and the continuing crackdown on public smoking, there have been other suggested violators of good taste, sense and/or judgment that should be dealt with—no bail, no trial, no mercy:

- Those who carry jam boxes and/or parade the streets with car radios at ear-piercing volume invading our blissful, harmless sounds of silence.

- Those who use hot weather as an excuse to appear in public wearing too few clothes...just take a look in the mirror is all that is asked.

- Non-smokers who smack and pop their chewing gum.

- Non-smokers, but snuff dippers, who spit in their Styrofoam cups.

- Store owners-managers who play music at an intrusively loud level, and shoppers who put up with such nonsense.

- Waiters and waitresses who disappear when it's time to bring the check; and menus that refer to waiters and waitresses as "waitpersons". A singer isn't necessarily male. Why does a waiter have to mean a fellow?

Gene Dow

- High-speed tailgaters anywhere, but especially on the interstates, where they're obviously breeding, multiplying faster than corny bumper stickers, even when you are at or above the speed limit.

- Clothing tags and other merchandise for sale with indecipherable prices and sizes.

- Businesses that use computers instead of people to call you.

- Those confounded telephone answering devices from which users seldom return the calls and callers hate to start with.

- Anyone other than friends and family who calls you in the evening and says, "I'm sorry to call you at home, but I didn't want to bother you at work."

And you probably have a few more pet peeves.

THE LONE WOLF SAYS, "Having fun is a lot costs."

Latest cruel joke going around, even from fax to fax machines, is "Will the lady who left her three kids at Texas Stadium please pick them up ...
they're beating the Cowboys 14-0."

DID YOU KNOW? Checkers is the oldest game played by man. It is known to have been played at least 3,500 years ago in Egypt. The first book on checkers was published in Spain in 1547.

HOME FOR A VISIT - Colorado City heart transplant patient Dale Mathis and his wife, Linda, were home briefly Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday before having to return to Dallas. "I'm glad to be back, and I wish I could stay," said Mathis. Doctors have told him he might be released from the hospital by Jan. 1, and in the meantime, he will continue to undergo rehabilitation each morning and afternoon. The couple said they appreciate very much the prayers, cards, letters, flowers and thoughtfulness of the local citizens.

days after receiving the notices to reply and must pay up or work out some kind of satisfactory arrangements to avoid foreclosing on their loans.

Cumbe said over 40 farmers in Fisher County are subject to notification and over 30 in Nolan County.

The FmHA package will contain nine forms farmers will be required to complete, including such things as cash flow projections and indications that their loan will qualify for restructuring.

Texas Farmers Union President Joe Rankin said farmers are being encouraged to apply for all Primary and Preservation loan options when completing the paperwork. The Primary Loan Servicing Options include: loan consolidation; loan rescheduling; loan reamortization; interest rate reductions; deferrals; or debt write-downs.

If a borrower does not qualify for any of the Primary loan Servicing Options, he may still be eligible for Preservation Loan Servicing Options which include homestead protection and farmland leaseback/payback.

If a farmer is denied restructuring, he has the right to appeal the decision through a new FmHA National Appeals System.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower has spoken out against the foreclosure proceedings. "If anyone hasn't figured out why people are so cynical about government, they need only to look at how the U. S. Department of Agriculture treats American farmers: Before the election, USDA makes drought assistance available; before Thanksgiving, USDA starts taking away their farms," Hightower was quoted.

The Texas Department of Agriculture is notifying thousands of the affected Texas farmers and ranchers, advising them to treat the notices with a sense of urgency and informing them of important new loan options and mediation services which FmHA is required by law to provide to producers before foreclosure can proceed.

"These new options were mandated by the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987. They represent years of struggle by the Texas Department of Agriculture and other organizations across the country which have fought to make FmHA regulations more equitable for producers who have been forced to accept lower crop prices for the past eight years," Highway said. "While these new FmHA procedures are far from perfect, they represent the broadest improvements the current Administration would accept."

"To remain eligible for these new loan options, it will be necessary for each borrower to promptly meet deadlines imposed by FmHA. The first important deadline occurs 45 days after a farmer receives official notice, via certified mail, that the borrower is more than 180 days delinquent on his or her loan. FmHA has structured its regulations in such a way that failure to respond on time will almost certainly result in accelerated foreclosure," Hightower said.

"These 6,500 Texas farmers and ranchers are in debt through no fault of their own—they're not bad farmers or bad managers. The bad ones went 'bust' years ago. Rather, these farmers are the victims of a bad national policy that has driven farm prices to about half the cost of production."

TDA is committed to helping these producers restructure their FmHA loans and remain on their property while we work to develop more sensible federal farm policies.

TDA's Farmers Assistance Program can be reached by writing to P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711, or by calling (512) 463-7679.

You thought the campaign would never end, didn't you?

Granted, this year's choice beat the one we got to make four years ago. Michael Dukakis was a better candidate than Walter Mondale for the Democrats, and George Bush has more on the ball than his predecessor.

Ronald Reagan will, nonetheless, go down as one of the most popular presidents in history, and his influence with the voters no doubt helped Bush overcome Dukakis.

Still, I don't think history is going to be overly kind to the outgoing president. The end result of his fiscal policies will be fresh on the minds of historians - not the charisma of one of the toughest politicians ever to throw his hat into the U.S. political arena.

I've said it all the way through this man's presidency, and I'll say it again. I'd enjoy having Ronald Reagan as a neighbor. He's easy to get along with. He isn't moody, or complicated, or personally dishonest. He knows how to enjoy himself and make other people feel good about themselves.

In contrast, I think I'd be a little uncomfortable visiting with a Michael Dukakis over the backyard fence.

Maybe that's what we needed at the time Reagan came into office. You can only face up to a country's ills for so long before emotional fatigue takes its toll.

You look around at all the problems - the absolute impossibility of solving them anytime in the near future - and you've got two choices. You either dwell on the negatives, or pretend they don't exist.

The latter, as President Reagan has demonstrated for eight years, is better for a nation's disposition.

But historians won't worry that much about a nation's mental frame of mind. More than likely, they'll ask themselves how one man could have had so much influence as to have an electorate merrily endanger its financial future.

Sure, he blamed it on Congress, and with the Pied Piper music playing in the background, he got away with it. America really could have a strong defense, adequate social programs, and pay less taxes.

All it had to do was borrow money. Lots of it.

Historians will shake their heads. How could one man increase the national debt by over a trillion dollars and not be lynched? How could his people accept becoming the first generations of U.S. citizens ever to become a debtor nation?

Oh, he'll get some good marks for bringing down inflation. But his policies sent unemployment soaring before bringing it back under control, and they'll take note of that.

The Reagan era will be known as the time of leveraged buyouts with larger corporations inhaling smaller ones. Historians will talk about this administration the way they now talk about the administration of U.S. Grant - a good guy, easily manipulated by selfish and dishonest men. Men and women who were willing to sell off valuable government lands. Dishonest people who were willing to trade arms for hostages. Dishonest defense contractors who lined their wallets with blank checks from the government.

Even his crowning moments with Gorbachev will come into question. How much was he willing to give up in an effort to sign an agreement? How much top secret research was he willing to share with his most lethal opponent?

Social programs suffered. So did education. The drug program was a disaster. Small farms became larger, incorporated farms, and families who'd lived on the same land for generations, looked on helplessly as the government auctioned off the tools of their trade.

Someday the Reagan drug will wear off, but all Americans, not just certain pockets of them, will have to suffer first. Once the pain hits home, the policies will change. They always do.

All you've got to do is look at the Civil War, the two big wars and the Great Depression, to see that national trauma has always been the catalyst for change in this country. We weren't ready at Pearl Harbor and we weren't ready when the stock market collapsed in '29. In the Civil War we killed 600,000 of our own people before we came to our senses.

We just never have been a people who were very good at observing warning signs.

County Oil and Gas Report

Chevron USA of Midland has filed first production figures on two new oil wells in the Westbrook Field, Mitchell County.

The No. 7111 North Westbrook showed potential to pump 43 barrels of oil and 4,000 CF casinghead gas per day along with 38 barrels of water.

The No. 907 North Westbrook indicated ability to pump 35 barrels of oil and 3,000 CF casinghead gas per day plus 79 barrels of water.

The wells will produce from perforations in the Clear Fork Formation, 2,915 to 3,098 and 3,023 to 3,095 feet into the wellbore, respectively. Total drilling depths were 3,200 feet, with plug-backs to 3,172 feet and 3,159 feet.

The operator has 7,979 acres leased with drilling sites four and seven miles north of Westbrook in the TUP Survey.

The No. 254 Mary Foster has been finaled in Mitchell County's East Howard-Iatan Field, about nine miles southwest of Westbrook. Mobil Producing of Midland is the operator.

On an open choke, the well pumped 21 barrels of 31-gravity crude daily plus a minor volume of gas and 49 barrels of salt water.

Mobil took the hole to total depths of 3,400 feet and perforated the San Angelo-Clear Fork Formation for production at 2,446 to 3,259 feet.

Hexagon Oil and Gas of Fort Worth has given up on its efforts to make a producer out of the No. 2 Halbert, a wildcat try in Mitchell County, eight miles northwest of Westbrook. Drilling commenced on Oct. 24 and progressed to a dry bottom at 8,300 feet.

The well will be plugged and abandoned.

Testing for potential is underway at the No. 2 Nobles in the East Howard-Iatan Field, six miles southwest of Westbrook. The well was taken to total depth of 3,200 feet after being spudded in the spring of 1986. Shows of commercial crude oil have been reported in the Glorieta-Clear Formation.

Drilling operations have been concluded at a developmental location in the Westbrook Field, Mitchell County, 10 mile southwest of Westbrook. Designated as the No. 5 Kohler-Brennand, the well was spudded on Sept. 1 Watching a group of second graders learn how pecans are grown and harvested at a local orchard reminds me of how much fun field trips were during my school days in Silver, the once-bustling oil-field community in Coke County that now somewhat resembles a ghost town.

As a big-city cousin who came to visit us once said, "when you're in Silver, you're a long way from tall."

Truer words were never spoken. However, going to school there was still a learning experience and field trips to San Angelo, Colorado City and Big Spring helped broaden our knowledge of the world.

And, just what are some of the things I still remember from the field trips?

- In Big Spring, during a visit to the Channel 4 TV station, I learned how television worked and that graphics used for commercials were much smaller than what appeared on our TV screen at home and that Bruce Fraser, the man who gave the news and weather, was much larger than he appeared on our TV screen;

- In San Angelo, I learned that the smell of Gandy's Dairy was enough to make me sick at my stomach even though we received free ice cream bars during a tour of the facility;

- I learned in Colorado City after touring the then newly completed City National Bank that it was designed and built so that a second story could be added if ever needed;

- In Big Spring, I learned that if you're commander of the Air Force base, your jet is shined to sparkle while the other planes are rather drab looking;

- In San Angelo, I received my first taste of newspapering as we saw how the Standard-Times is published and learned that when ever it rained, a red rooster would appear on the front page of the paper;

- At the McCabe Ranch near Silver, each year we would learn how sheep are sheared. Luckily, the McCabe daughter was in my class so we always were invited to their place each year. We would take a sack lunch and eat by a pond after Mr. McCabe would make sure there were no rattlesnakes in the area.

Field trips were sometimes an all-day affair. We would leave with our sack lunches right after school started and get back just as school was letting out. Since Silver Peak School had only two buses, both were needed at the end of the day to deliver kids home to the oil patch.

Students receive scholarships

SNYDER - Students from Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook were among those receiving scholarships to Western Texas College this fall, Dennis Carlton, student financial aid officer, said.

Colorado City scholarship recipients are Marty Davila, Belynda Jo Grisham, Wesley Scott Jaco, Melissa Eileen Johns, Lori Vicki Maloney, Michelle McElvaney, Christy Lynn Mitchell, Billie Dawn Muncie, Cary Shawn Redwine and Wendy Snowden.

Loraine students receiving scholarships are Teresa Munoz and Joe Vasquez along with Emma Walls from Westbrook.

Miss Johns and Miss McElvaney received George and Helen Mahon scholarships. This fund was established in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mahon who were Mitchell County residents and is reserved for Mitchell County high school graduates.

"Scholarships made possible through the gifts of individuals and businesses enable many students to attend Western Texas College each year," Carlton said. "Gifts to the WTC Scholarship Foundation are welcome in any amount and these can be made to honor a special occasion or in memory of a loved one."

Students interested in financial aid through scholarships and/or grants are invited to contact Carlton's office in the WTC administration building for information.

Remember when...

ONE YEAR AGO

Tommy Loving, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Ray Loving of Colorado City was named the Gold Star winner at the annual Mitchell County 4-H Achievement Reception.

By a 3-3 split vote, the Colorado City Council has failed to appoint a new councilman to replace Robert Hoback, and a committee was appointed to make further recommendations.

Cody Scott of Colorado City received the American Farmer degree at the 60th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Susan Evermon group studies missions

The Susan Evermon Baptist Women's Missionary Group of the First Baptist Church met recently in the home of Anna Staats.

Group leader Billie Harrison conducted the business session and called on Louree Upton to give the study of Baptist missions in Nigeria.

Mrs. Upton told of present-day work of Mary Ellen Yancey and of Veda Locke and reviewed the work of pioneer missionaries in Nigeria. She also told of her experiences as a summer missionary to Nigeria in 1960. At that time, she became acquainted with Miss Jo Scaags and acted as her helper during the trip. Jo Scaags is now living in San Angelo after having retired from missionary service spanning the years 1940-72. Mrs. Upton showed slides of the country when she was there in the eastern area of Ogbomoso.

Thomas J. Bowen was the first Southern Baptist missionary to Nigeria arriving there Aug. 15, 1850. He began his work in Ogbomoso April 14, 1855 and was received warmly by the king as well as by the people. Ogbomoso is often referred to as a Baptist city. Their heritage and the good will that Baptists enjoy there today has come from the labors of Christians following Christ's example of preaching, teaching, healing and caring.

Aletha B. Fuller writes in her recently published book, "More Than A Memory", that "our philosophy of missions work is to work out of a job. That is our aim to prepare nationals to take our places." This philosophy has proven to be rewarding in the past and is especially needed today as more countries begin to close their doors to the missionary presence.

The special outreach ministry of the Susan Evermon group for this month is to prepare to minister to shut-ins in Colorado City and to prepare Christmas boxes to be distributed by missionary Don Wells who serves as one of the chaplains at the Seamen's Center in the port of Houston.

Members present were Mmes. Betsy Aycock, Mary Lloyd, Jessie Mae Merket, JoAnn Staley, Earline Sellier, Margaret Bodine, Louree Upton, Mae Dunn, Billie Harrison, Ann Myers and Anna Staats and visitor Mrs. Eddie Barclay.

Next meeting will be held in the parlor of the First Baptist Church with Louree Upton and JoAnn Staley as hostesses. It will be a salad supper and will begin at 6 p.m. The group will be involved in the Lottie Moon Foreign Mission Week of Prayer.

Diabetes alert given

"Each year, type I, insulin-dependent diabetes strikes between 10,000-13,000 children in the United States, ranging in age from 5-16 - that's about 1,000 children a month," said community pharmacist Richard Chambers of The Medicine Place. According to diabetes experts, in the next four months, an estimated 4,000 or more children and young adults may develop this chronic disease for which there is treatment but no cure. Unusual thirst, frequent urination, nausea and rapid weight loss are the major symptoms of this form of diabetes, which afflicts some 500,000 American children and young adults.

"Most new cases of diabetes in children occur between November and March and, often, the symptoms can be confused with gastroenteritis or flu," said Chambers.

"We urge anyone who has these symptoms to be checked by a physician at once," said Chambers. "If this serious form of diabetes is not detected and treated, it can result in coma and death."

In addition to increased thirst and urination, symptoms of diabetes include vomiting, abdominal pain and fatigue. These symptoms also should be reported to the doctor immediately.

Chambers said that by alerting the public about the warning signs of diabetes and the need for prompt medical treatment when these symptoms occur, the lives of hundreds of children and young adults can be saved.

Reye's Syndrome alert issued

The flu and most flu-like illnesses are viral infections, and as such, warrant special attention because a swift and deadly disease is associated with them, said Mary Petty, RN, nurse for the Colorado City schools.

The disease, Reye's Syndrome, usually affects people from infancy through late adolescence; however no age group is immune. It can develop 3 to 5 days after the onset of chicken pox, an upper respiratory infection like flu, or other fever causing illnesses. It affects the liver and brain, is non-contagious and is often misdiagnosed as encephalitis, meningitis, diabetes, poisoning, drug overdose or sudden infant death.

Petty said that a viral infection has seemingly run its course and the person is beginning to feel better, the following symptoms should be treated as serious and as possibly the first indication of Reye's Syndrome. Watch for these symptoms usually occurring in this order:

- relentless of continuous vomiting
- listlessness (loss of pep and energy with little interest in their environment)
- drowsiness (excessive sleepiness)
- personality change (such as irritability, slurred speech, sensitivity to touch)
- disorientation or confusion (unable to identify whereabouts, family members, or answer questions)
- combativeness (striking out at those trying to help)
- delirium, convulsions, or loss of consciousness

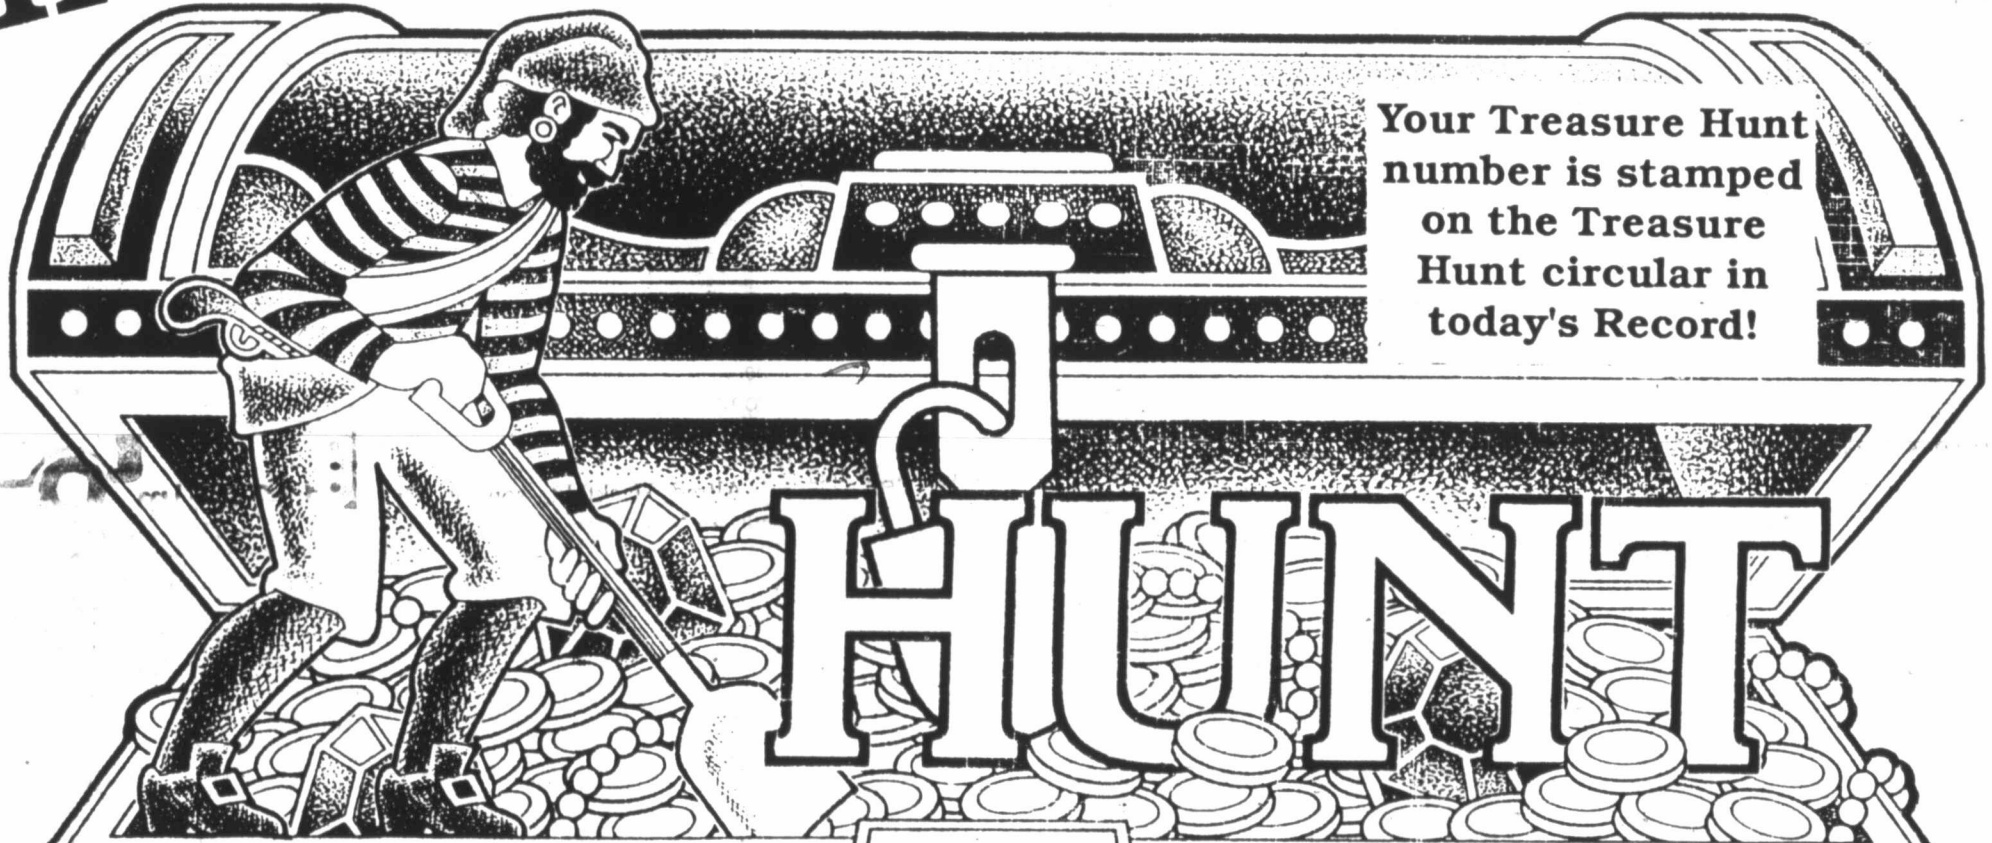

A person's life can depend on early diagnosis, said Petty.

"Reye's Syndrome should be suspected in anyone with flu or chicken pox who vomits repeatedly," she said. "Phone your physician immediately if these symptoms develop."

Two liver function tests (SGOT, SGPT) can be done to determine the possibility of Reye's Syndrome. There is a 90 percent chance of recovery when the syndrome is treated in its earliest stages by physicians and nurses experienced in the treatment of Reye's.

"If you have a flu-like illness or chicken pox, you should your physician before using any drugs, particularly aspirin or anti-nausea medicines," she said. "Recent studies have shown a link between the use of aspirin and the development of Reye's Syndrome."

HOW OFTEN IS THANKSGIVING?

The holiday season is upon us and soon we will observe a traditional holiday set aside to offer thanks. That we schedule a day for Thanksgiving has both fortunate and unfortunate repercussions. On the fortunate side, observing Thanksgiving Day allows us time to pause and reflect upon God's unfailing goodness to us. Certainly it is appropriate and wise to have an annual holiday that we might remember to give thanks.

The unfortunate aspect of having a Thanksgiving Day is that we tend to limit our consciousness and expressions of Thanksgiving to this one day. If someone asked you how often Thanksgiving comes, how would you respond? Very likely many of us would respond that Thanksgiving comes once a year. But the Bible recognizes no limits and places no confinements on observing Thanksgiving, teaching instead that giving thanks should be a perpetual practice. Wouldn't it be nice if everyday was Thanksgiving Day? For those who have placed trust and confidence in Christ every day can be Thanksgiving Day.

Hermleigh beats Loraine

LORAIN- With only one practice under their belts and three days after playing #1 ranked Christoval in bi-district Sixman football, the Loraine Bulldogs did their best to gain a victory over the Hermleigh Cardinals in the first basketball game of the season for both teams. It was not be so Tuesday night as the Bulldogs fell to the Cardinals 61-56 before a full house at Bulldog gym.

Coach Tommy Meredith saw his team, with only one senior, play a hard fought contest where the lead was never more than 11 points. The Bulldogs saw their deficit trimmed to as many as three points. Felix Martinez added a basket at the buzzer to give the Cardinals a five point win.

Hermleigh only brought six players to this contest and found themselves with only four to finish out the contest after losing two players, one to injury and the other fouling out. This scenario should have been familiar to Coach Meredith and was as he recalled the same thing happening last year in the same place.

The Bulldogs looked impressive this early in the season especially on the fast break. Football seemed to still be on the minds of the players as the officials blew their whistles 37 times for personal fouls in this contest.

Shawn Finley led the Bulldogs attack with 18 points and 18 rebounds. Luis Leija added 14 points and Anthony Williams had 8 assists.

The next scheduled game for the Bulldogs will be Tuesday against the Rotan Yellowhammers in Loraine.

Atkins leads Bulldog girls to 33-24 win

LORAIN- First year girls basketball coach Jackie McNew was all smiles as his Lady Bulldogs won their season opener against the Hermleigh Cardinals 33-24 in the midst of a packed Bulldog gym.

Things started out a little slow with Hermleigh leading 7-6 at the end of the first quarter. The Bulldogs got things together in the second quarter and led throughout the contest. The Cardinals were held to only three points in the second quarter and trailed at halftime 16-10.

The Bulldogs took advantage of the inside play of Michi Atkins who repeatedly carved up the Cardinal defense to get to the basket. Atkins is a freshman.

Hermleigh closed the gap to one point at the end of the third period 22-21 but was held to just three points once again in the final period by a stingy Bulldog defense.

Atkins led all scorers with 18 points. Amy Vasquez added 12 points before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a sprained ankle.

The Lady Bulldogs meet the Rotan Yellowhammers Tuesday, November 22 at 6:30 p.m. in Loraine.

Hermleigh: Sandefur 2, Crumly 10, Blair 10, Reynolds 2. Season record 0-1.
Loraine: Atkins 18, Vasquez 12, Michelle Garcia 2, Christi Blair 1. Season record 0-1.

J. D. POE AND BELLE POE, and R. F. BURKS and their unknown heirs and assigns IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF HOWARD COUNTY, TEXAS

118TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT THE STATE OF TEXAS CITATION

To: All Defendants in the above-styled matter, including J. D. Poe and Belle Poe, and R. F. Burks, their unknown heirs, assigns, and devisees.

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to Plaintiff's petition, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference, on file at the District Clerk's office, Howard County, Texas, which petition was filed October 17, 1988, at or before 10:00 a.m. on December 19, 1988, at which date a hearing is scheduled at the 118th Judicial District Court at 10:00 a.m., December 19, 1988, on the merits of Plaintiff's petition.

The suit is brought by Plaintiff, Trend Exploration Company in order to appoint a receiver of mineral interests claimed by the Defendants pursuant to 64.091, Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code so that leases may be executed by a receiver and the following property developed for Oil & Gas: "North one-half (N/2) of Section 34, Block 26, H&TC Railway Survey Lands, A-1542, in Howard County, Texas, being approximately 160 acres."

The residence and identity of the named Defendants is unknown.

You must take notice that you are commanded to appear and be heard or otherwise a receiver may be appointed to protect your interests in the matter.

Issued and given under my hand and seal of this Court on the 8th day of November, 1988 at Howard County, Texas, by District Clerk, Howard County, Texas, Glenda Brasel District Clerk Howard County

NO 33268
TREND EXPLORATION COMPANY VS.

J. D. POE AND BELLE POE, and R. F. BURKS and their unknown heirs and assigns IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF HOWARD COUNTY, TEXAS

118TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT Plaintiff's Original Petition For Appointment Of Receiver Of Mineral Interests Now comes Trend Exploration Company, the Plaintiff, complaining of J. D. Poe and Belle Poe, and R. F. Burks, and their unknown heirs, assigns and devisees, if any (all unknown), the Defendants, and for cause of action would show the Court the following:

I. The residence of each of the Defendants is unknown, but each of them owns or purports to own an undivided interest in the minerals in certain property in Howard County, Texas, hereafter described.

II. The Plaintiff owns an interest in the mineral estate in the North one-half (N/2) of Section 34, Block 26, H&TC Railway Company Survey Lands, A-1542, in Howard County, Texas. The Plaintiff owns said interest by virtue of being the owner and holder of various oil and gas leases, including the oil and gas lease executed by Sterling Cattle Company (by J. M. Sterling, its President), which owns an undivided interest in the mineral estate of said tract. The Plaintiff's lease from said party is dated June 24, 1988, and has been recorded at Volume 619, Page 604, Deed Records of Howard County, Texas.

III. The Plaintiff is informed, and therefore believes, that the Defendants have record title to an undivided 1/32 interest in said tract. Specifically, J. D. Poe and Belle Poe are the record owners of an undivided 1/64 interest and R. F. Burks is the record owner of an undivided 1/64 interest.

IV. Each of the Defendants has been absent from the State of Texas for more than five (5) years successively next preceding the filing of this petition, during which time none of them have paid taxes on said mineral interests, nor have any of them rendered the same for taxation. Alternatively, if such Defendants, or any of them are residents of the State of Texas, the Plaintiff would show that each of such persons has a place of residence which is unknown and has absented herself or himself for at least five (5) years successively next preceding the filing of this action. Each of the Defendants, respectively, has never paid taxes on her or his mineral interest for the past five (5) years, nor have any of them rendered the same for taxes.

V. The Plaintiff has made a diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate each of the Defendants, and the Plaintiff will suffer a substantial damage or injury unless a receiver is appointed to take charge of the property and execute and deliver mineral leases on each of the Defendants' interests so that the minerals can be developed and produced. At the present time, there is oil and gas development in the vicinity, and this acreage could therefore be in danger of being drained if it is not developed and produced. All of the other interests have been leased, but the tract described above cannot be developed unless or until these unleased interests are acquired. Moreover, Sterling Cattle Company and the other mineral owners of this property, as well as the Plaintiff, will suffer substantial damages and injuries unless such receiver is appointed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays the Court that a receiver be appointed under the provisions of Section 64.091 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code (effective September 1, 1985); that the receiver be authorized to lease the mineral interest of each of the Defendants for development and production purposes and thereby insure Plaintiff and the remaining owners of the mineral estate against loss of development and production of these interests, and for such further relief, general or special, at law or in equity as the Court may deem proper or necessary.

Respectfully submitted, Winters, Thompson, Mathews, Dunn & Arnold By: Jay H. Frankel State Bar No. 07371400 1990 Post Oak Blvd., Suite 1500 Houston, Texas 77056 (713) 840-0895 Attorneys for Plaintiff

Grand jury indicts 4, two are sealed

Four indictments were handed down Friday by the grand jury for 32nd District Court of Mitchell County.

Two of the indictments remained sealed until the accused persons could be taken into custody.

The two released were against: Evelyn Benson, who is accused of passing an apparently forged check in the name of Sharon Truelove to Ruben Rivers on September 29.

Gilbert Ferdin is accused of driving while intoxicated on April 11, after a previous conviction.

Counselor role said important

The school guidance counselor is one of the unsung heroes of modern education, an educator who can play an important role in helping students deal effectively with life and find directions for their futures, but who are often overlooked by many students and parents.

Their primary duty is instructional; in fact, the history of the profession is founded in education, not psychology or social work. A counselor's job is to contribute to the school by helping students adjust to school life and succeed at it.

Guidance counselors must have three years of classroom teaching experience and a master's degree in guidance. Because they work with young people, they must have an understanding of human development and growth.

They provide developmental guidance to students, help them with decision-making and planning, and counsel them in times of crisis.

John Lucas, director of guidance and counseling at the Texas Education Agency, says counselors are in schools to meet the needs of the students.
