Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

James C. Watson
Oil Editor

Ellenburger Wildcat Staked In NW Nolan

Cities Service Oil Company and Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Cooper is to be a 7,600-foot wildcat to explore the Ellenburger in Northwest Nolan County.

The venture will be two miles northwest of the town of Roscoe, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 41, block 23, TP survey.

Operations are to start in the near future.

Clear Fork Tester Staked In Howard

George P. Livermore, Inc., of Lubbock and Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company has staked a 5,500-foot wildcat in Central Howard County, approximately 10 miles northeast of Big Spring.

The venture is to be the No. 1 W. B. Currie, located 1,980 feet from east and south lines of section 29, block 31, T&P survey.

Intention of the operator is to test the upper Clear Fork zone.

The proposed venture is one and one-quarter miles northwest of the same operators' No. 1 Dr. W. B. Hardy, Pennsylvanian dry hole recently abandoned on a total depth of 8,388 feet.

Permian Discovery Possible In Yoakum

Cabot Carbon Company No. 1 Clay, Northeast Yoakum County wildcat, four miles northwest of Tokio, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block D, John H. Gibson survey, had found some interesting signs of possible production in the Clear Fork lime of the Permian and is running casing to make production tests.

The shows of oil came in a drillstem test at 6,634-6,726 feet. The tool was open three hours and 30 minutes.

There was a blow of air at the surface for a part of the period.

No Water

Recovery was 720 feet of free gas in the drill pipe and 450 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no indications of formation water.

The project then drilled from 6,726 feet to total depth of 6,767 feet. That zone was not drillstem tested—but samples indicated that it would make some oil and gas.

A string of 5 1/2-inch casing is to be cemented at 6,635 feet and when the plug cures the open hole at 6,767 feet will be tested.

This is an old dry hole to 5,336 feet in the San Andres which has been drilled deeper to test the lower formations.

Warren Completes Cogdell Extension

Warren Oil Corporation No. 2 Cunningham, one location south of the nearest completed producer on the west side of the Cogdell-Canyon field in Central-North Scurry County, 18 miles north of Snyder, is flowing at the rate of 33 barrels of oil per hour from pay in the lime reef between 6,880 feet and the total depth at 6,939 feet.

That section had been treated with 5,000 gallons of acid. Top of the reef is at 6,867 feet, which is a datum of minus 4,420 feet.

The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 6,880 feet. Operator will complete the well and put it on production in a few days.

No. 3 Staked

Location is 467 feet from east and 1,667 feet from south lines of section 653, block 97, H&TC survey.

Drilling is to be started at once on Warren No. 3 Cunningham, which is to be 1,200 feet due north of No. 2 Cunningham.

That will make it 467 feet from east and 2,867 feet from south lines of section 653, block 97, H&TC survey. It is projected to 7,000 feet, or production in the Canyon reef at a lesser depth.

Shell Oil To Drill Stepout To Benedum

Shell Oil Company has staked a one-location south stepout to the Benedum multipay field, in extreme Central-East Upton County.

Shell No. 1-J University will be 660 feet from north and east lines of section 11, block 58, University survey.

Slated depth is 11,700 feet, which should test the Fusselman pay of the Silurian in that immediate area.

C-S Runnels Slated For Deep Wildcat

W. L. Lichlyter of Dallas has staked a 4,700-foot wildcat in Central-South Runnels County, four miles south of Ballinger.

Lichlyter No. 1 City of Ballinger will be 1,000 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of the southwest quarter of J. Luger survey.

Drillsite is 2,000 feet west of the Ballinger airport and one and one-half miles west of an Ellenburger dry hole.

Slated depth should test all formations down to and including the Ellenburger.

Stonewall Discovery Takes Re-Potential

Another potential has been taken on the C. L. Norsworthy, Jr. No. 1 C. D. Wiley, Pennsylvanian Bend

Economic and banking developments in a 17-county area surrounding Midland will be discussed at a Bankers' Forum to be held here Wednesday under the sponsorship of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Federal Reserve Bank officials who will be here to conduct the forum include R. R. Gilbert, president; Dr. W. H. Irons, vice president; L. G. Pondrom, vice president and cashier; Morgan H. FBI Almost Certain To Get More Agents To Hunt Down Spies

WASHINGTON —(AP)— J. Edgar Hoover's campaign for 300 additional FBI agents to hunt down Communist spies appeared Tuesday to be tabbed for victory.

The House Appropriations Committee and a Senate Appropriations subcommittee were reported to have agreed to approve the FBI director's request.

The Senate subcommittee's recommendation is expected to be accepted in turn by the full appropriations group and the Senate.

Hoover told senators two months ago in a secret session that there are 54,000 known Communists and some 500,000 Red sympathizers in the United States who form a potential fifth column of traitors.

He said at that time that the Communist were more active today than Fascist and Nazi agents ever were during World War II.

Largest Force In History

Hoover's testimony, released on June 8, left a deep impression on lawmakers. One senator, who asked that his name be withheld, said both the House and Senate groups felt Hoover should get the full number of agents he requested plus about 400 additional other employes to help carry the Federal Bureau of Investigation's heavy work load.

This would give Hoover the largest force of undercover agents the Federal Bureau of Investigation ever had and allow for greatly increased activity in seeking out subversives and foreign spys.

In asking Congress for added funds for increasing his force, Hoover said Communist agents were after U. S. information dealing with atomic research, jet propulsion, radar, coastal maps, military airports, biological warfare and industrial resources. Some of these spies, he said, are hiding behind diplomatic passports.

He argued the FBI must increase its efforts to preserve internal security. And he added: "If we are to preserve our internal security in times of emergency, it is incumbent that the identities of those who work against the peace and security of America be established."

Senate Probers Ask Hurley To Elaborate On 'Shielding' Charge

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Patrick J. Hurley, former U. S. ambassador to China, got a bid Tuesday from Senate investigators to elaborate on his charge that the State Department had shielded officials who "sold or gave" top secret documents to "pro-Communists."

Hurley made the charge Monday in a statement issued at Santa Fe, N. M. It was linked to the 1945 Amerasia documents theft case now under investigation by a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md) told reporters the committee would call Hurley to testify as soon as possible. Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a committee member, also urged Hurley's appearance.

Hurley charged the State Department has for five years "kept the people from knowing the truth about the theft of top secret documents by officials of the State Department who sold or gave them to pro-Communists."

He also accused State Department officials, both in China and in Washington, of sabotaging American policy in China while he was ambassador there in 1944 and 1945.

Service Is Named

Hurley named John S. Service, State Department foreign service officer, as one of the persons who he said supplied Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-Tung with secret information in 1944.

Service was one of the six persons arrested in 1945 after federal raiders had seized hundreds of government documents in the New York offices of Amerasia magazine. He was not indicted.

Service is scheduled to appear before the committee Thursday to testify about the Amerasia case. He was not available for comment on Hurley's statement.

Wednesday the committee plans to take testimony from John E. Peurifoy, deputy undersecretary of state. Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) charged in a speech last Thursday that Peurifoy made a "pay-off" deal with a witness to protect Service in testimony before the committee.

McCarthy named the witness as Emmanuel Larsen, a former State Department employe and a co-defendant in the Amerasia case.

Will You Help—A Family In Distress

Will you help?

Will you help a Midland family which lost its clothing and household goods in a fire that razed its place to live?

If you will, here is how:

Bring or send clothing to 506 South Terrell Street. It will be for a woman whose husband is in the hospital; two boys, who are eight and 12 years of age and a girl, who is 10 years old.

It is the Cecil Hill family.

Friends and neighbors brought the appeal to the newspaper. Firemen verify the family's need.

Ballot Order Drawn

The names of Paul Moss, Rep. Ken Regan and Fred Hervey will appear in that order as candidates for the 16th District congressional position on the Midland County ballot in the July 22 Democratic primary, Louis A. Bartha, Midland County Democratic Committee chairman, said Tuesday.

District, county and precinct candidates' names on the county ballot were selected by drawing at a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee Monday night in Bartha's home.

Ballot place assessments for county and precinct candidates, calculated to pay for holding the first and runoff primary elections, also were fixed by the committee. Letters Tuesday morning were mailed to the candidates advising them the assessments must be paid by Saturday in order for their names to appear on the ballot, as required by law. The committee will meet Monday morning to draft the official ballot on the basis of assessment payments.

Other Races

R. W. (Bob) Hamilton drew first place in the bracket for judge of the 70th Judicial District, followed by Lester C. Boone, Roy A. Downey and Raymon Stoker, in that order.

Calvin V. Milburn received first place and W. O. Shafer second place in the drawing in the district attorney race listing.

Drawings in the county and precinct races were as follows:

County judge—Carl Wevat, 1, and Clifford C. Keith, 2; county attorney—Noel D. Cason, 1, and Reagan H. Legg, 2; sheriff—Floyd Maxwell, 1, and Ed Darnell, 2; constable, Precinct 1—John Hemingway, Jr., 1, and Jack Merritt, 2; commissioner, Precinct 2—B. W. (Boots) Brown, 1, and Alvey Bryant, 2; commissioner, Precinct 4—W. M. Stewart, 1, and J. L. Dillard, 2.

The candidates for other county and precinct offices are unopposed.

Costs Are Up

The filing assessments this year are up from the 1947 elections, Bartha said, due largely to the fact there are only 21 candidates this year as compared to 31 three years ago. There now are seven voting precincts as compared to five in 1947.

The assessments range from $50 for constable, justice of the peace and surveyor candidates, to $60 for commissioner posts, to $140 for other county candidates.

Bartha said the cost of the elections is estimated at $2,000.

72 Crewmen Killed When Ship Explodes

SUEZ, EGYPT —(AP)— The British freighter Indian Enterprise exploded and sank in the Red Sea Monday, and 72 crewmen are missing, agents for the vessel announced Tuesday.

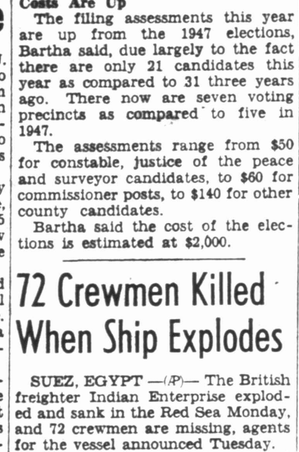

Only one member of the crew of 73, an injured man, was rescued after a blast tore the ship apart about 300 miles south of Suez.

Spokesmen for the agents said the 7,100-ton ship, enroute from London to Indian ports, was carrying 580 tons of explosives consigned to the Indian government.

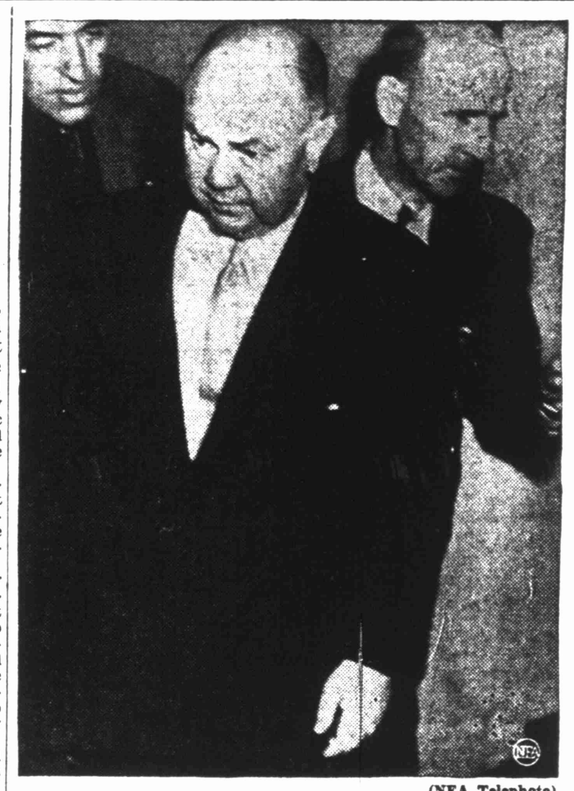

The vessel, which carried no passengers, was officered by Britons. The crewmen mostly were Indians.

The sole survivor is said to have been an Indian seaman, picked up by the Norwegian tanker, H. Westfal-Larsen, which is enroute to Suez.

The Indian Exporter, a sister ship of the sunken vessel, searched the blast area throughout the night and found no survivors, a spokesman said.

B&PW HEAD — Thelma Gardner will be installed president of the Midland Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday night. Frances Carter will be in charge of the ceremony at a dinner meeting in Hotel Scharbauer. Other 1950-51 officers also will be installed.

High Court Hears McDonald Demand

AUSTIN—(AP)—J. E. McDonald's demand that his name be printed on the July 22 Democratic primary ballot was argued in the Supreme Court Tuesday before a shirt-sleeved, overflow crowd.

The court relaxed its rules and let everybody but itself and contending lawyers shuck their coats to hear a case which may set up a new rule for testing party loyalty in Texas.

Attorneys for McDonald argued that the court's decision should hinge upon his pledge and his announced intention to support the candidates of the primary in which he seeks to run for an eleventh term as commissioner of agriculture.

Attorneys for the State Democratic Executive Committee, which banned him from the ballot last week on grounds of party infidelity, contended McDonald should be barred under a Civil Appeals Court ruling and acts showing he does not now in good faith intend to support Democratic candidates.

Committee Asks Dismissal

The executive committee's leading counsel, former Mayor George Sergeant of Dallas, said the committee gave McDonald a full and fair opportunity to present his case last week, and that it barred him after hearing his testimony.

Sergeant told the court the committee did not act entirely upon McDonald's admitted past support of Republican presidential nomi-

Nitro Blast Fails To Snuff Out Well

BIG SPRING —(AP)— A charge of nitroglycerin Tuesday failed to snuff out a blazing, wild oil well near here.

M. M. Kinley, Houston, professional oil well fire fighter, touched off 150 quarts of nitroglycerin at 10 a.m., blowing out all but a small ribbon of flame at the No. 1 Pan-American Holley. But roaring flames almost instantly blossomed back to their former height.

Kinley and his assistants will try again Wednesday morning.

DAV Unit Opens Safety Seal Drive

A safety seal campaign, conducted by the Midland chapter of Disabled American Veterans, opened here Tuesday.

Campaign information is available from Bob Dozier, DAV, commander, or from Ben Stanley and Bert Starnes, committeemen.

Proceeds of this year's safety seals will go toward the building of DAV meeting place, members said.

Last year the DAV unit relinquished its drive to the American Legion post, which used the proceeds to help pay for a community bus. This year the DAV unit is in need of funds and will conduct its own drive.

A spokesman for the disabled veterans said: "Midland has never failed us. We do not ask the public for assistance except when there is an acute need."

Brown And Root, Inc., Is Low Bidder On New Paving Projects

Brown and Root, Inc., of Houston Monday afternoon entered the low bid for the City of Midland's C and D paving groups, City Manager W. H. Oswalt announced.

The project, which includes 220 blocks, was programmed in 1947. The A group was completed several months ago and B group paving fast is nearing completion. The C and D groups are the last in the city's current 500-block paving program.

The Brown and Root bid was $706,879.70, as compared to a bid of $783,502.36 submitted by Strain and Brown, Inc., of San Angelo. Only two bids were received.

Contract for the paving work will be awarded at the next regular meeting of the City Council.

Brown and Root also has had the contract on the A and B paving groups.

Corporation Hike Offsets Excise Cuts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the tax-framing House Ways and Means Committee said Tuesday he believes a $433,000,000 tax boost the committee has voted for corporations "goes too far."

The top Democratic tax manager disclosed in an interview that the committee put the boost into its general tax bill over his personal opposition. He said 14 committee Democrats voted for it. He and 10 Republicans were opposed.

Doughton did not indicate what position he would take when the bill goes to the House floor next week for a vote.

The House Ways and Means Committee voted $433,000,000 in new taxes late Monday. It was designed to meet President Truman's requirement that the excise cuts must be offset by larger taxes elsewhere, before he will sign the bill.

This would cut the tax load of small corporations earning from $5,000 to $167,000; but jump the present 38 per cent income tax rate for the biggest corporations to almost 41 per cent.

Prompt Passage Possible

Administration leaders immediately predicted the tax bill, in a form suitable to the President, will be handed to the White House in time for Congress to adjourn July 31.

However, this schedule assumes prompt approval by the House, where the bill is expected to come up next week, and the less likely prospect of quick Senate passage.

If it goes through, excises now imposed will be slashed—probably on September 1—on fur coats, mov-

Actress Slashes Throat

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Judy Garland cut her throat in a fit of anguish, her studio disclosed Tuesday. The wound is not serious.

After Miss Garland's husband, Vincent Minelli, earlier denied such a report, Ralph Wheelwright, studio publicity aide, made the following statement to reporters who gathered at the distraught actress' palatial pink mansion on Sunset Boulevard:

"Miss Garland was in conference last night x x x with her husband, Vincent Minelli, her business manager, Carlton Alsop, and her secretary, Myrtle Tully. They were discussing Miss Garland's future.

Uses Broken Glass

"At one point in the discussion, Miss Garland, who has been under strain and ill, became very despondent and hysterical and rushed from the living room through the bedroom and into the bathroom, locking the door behind her. She broke a drinking glass and with the broken glass made a superficial laceration on her throat.

"Minelli got her to open the door and she was immediately very repentant and weeping. They sent for Dr. Francis Ballard, who treated the wound. He said it was very minor and attributed it to an impulsive, hysterical act.

"Miss Garland is now resting under her doctor's care. She is asleep. I saw her and she has a slight bandage on her neck. No stitches were taken.

"She is not to be disturbed and no pictures will be taken."

Wheelwright explained that Miss Garland was suspended by MGM for not reporting to a rehearsal with Fred Astaire for a forthcoming picture. She is still on suspension, he added.

Livestock Industry Asks Rate Cut On Animal Shipments

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The livestock industry Tuesday asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a general reduction in railroad freight rates on live animal shipments.

Seven livestock raisers associations joined in the petition to the ICC. They contended the several post-war freight rate increases authorized by the commission have been accompanied by a steady diversion of animal shipments from rails to other modes of transportation. They said the railroads should move at once "to protect their traffic and revenues by rate revisions."

The petition was sponsored by these associations: American National Livestock, National Wool Growers, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers, Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers, Highland-Hereford Breeders, Livestock Traffic, and National Livestock Producers.

A wiener roast and informal dance will be held from 7 to 11 p.m. Tuesday for members of the center. The junior council, student governing body, also will meet Tuesday evening.

Schuman Tells Six Nations Steel-Coal Pool Will End Wars

PARIS—(AP)—Six Western European nations Tuesday opened a historic conference aimed at pooling their coal and steel production. French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, father of the plan, told the delegates the ultimate aim was to abolish war from Europe.

Britain remained on the sidelines, although she will be kept informed of what goes on. There was some talk that the British were coming around to the view that the advantages of joining the plan might outweigh the disadvantages. Schuman said he hoped Britain eventually would join.

Schuman told delegates of France, Western Germany, Belgium, Italy, The Netherlands and Luxembourg that there would be great political benefits in a plan which stems from a French - German understanding.

"It is our desire to associate in a common and permanent work of peace two nations which for centuries have fought one another in bloody conflicts," the French foreign minister said.

Supra-National Authority

By welding Germany and France together in this common effort, Schuman said, the nations would provide the "certainty thus to banish from our European community a latent cause of trouble, suspicion and anguish." On this basis, then, the nations could erect "a solid European edifice accessible to all nations of good will."

The French minister reminded the delegates that their governments would have agreed on an unprecedented objective—to decide on the best manner of applying the principle of a supra-national authority over the coal-steel plan. This authority would mean the surrender of some sovereignty by the nations.

"We feel we are not permitted to fail, nor to quit without finishing the job," he added. "But no one has ever tried such a system as we have outlined. Never has a nation conferred nor even thought of delegating to a group a fraction of its sovereignty to an independent supra-national organization."

Schuman expressed a hope the British later would join the pool. "We cannot conceive of Europe without her," he declared, adding, "we know—and this reassures us—that the British government hopes for the success of our work."

Following Tuesday's opening meeting, the delegates will hold secret sessions to plan details of the working of the pool and its controlling authority.

Cool Front Stalls; Temperatures Soar

By The Associated Press

A cool front which has been hanging around in the Texas Panhandle for two days apparently was stopped dead Tuesday on an east-west line through Amarillo.

The front dropped the temperature to a cool 56 at Dalhart early Tuesday morning. Amarillo's low was 63.

By contrast, Presidio on the border recorded 108 Monday and El Paso had 103.

Susan Peters Amazed Herself In 'Miss Endurance' Role

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Susan Peters amazed herself as much as Hollywood when she proved that a girl in a wheel chair can be Miss Endurance. Back in town for a rest after a year's tour of one-night stands in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," Susan told me:

"My doctor advised me that I couldn't take it more than a month. But I was the only member of the cast who didn't conk out at one time or another. I've proved that all the people who worried about me were wrong."

Susan is down to 83 pounds but she'll hit the road again unless a good movie script comes along. The star has been confined to the wheel chair since that hunting accident five years ago.

Isolating Polio Victims May Ward Off General Epidemic

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Although there still is much to learn concerning polio, the cause now is known to be a virus, which is a tiny living organism too small to see under the ordinary microscope. This virus is difficult to grow outside the human body, but it has been possible to study it in monkeys and in a few other experimental animals.

Consequently, it now is known there are at least two kinds of polio viruses and possibly this is the reason why second attacks of the disease have been reported once in a while.

How is this virus spread? Probably it is from fairly close contact between someone harboring the virus and a susceptible person. The virus has been found in waters contaminated by human waste and on flies, but it is likely that human infections usually are contracted by fairly close contact.

It is believed, too, that the incubation period—that is the time between the exposure to the virus and the development of symptoms—is between one and two weeks.

It also is believed that most people who have not had polio are susceptible to the virus and that children from one to 16 years of age are as a group more susceptible than older people, although polio also attacks older people occasionally.

What we know now is the result of painstaking research and there is every reason to expect that investigations of the future will continue to hack away at the problem until it becomes solved.

This research now is being conducted in many parts of the world and is being supported in the United States very largely by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which so many citizens support in the annual March of Dimes Campaign.

Since there is no known way of preventing polio, what precautions can be used? Early diagnosis is, of course, particularly helpful.

At present it is recommended that polio patients be isolated, that is, kept away from others—for one week from the beginning of their illness or from the end of fever. The secretions from the nose and throat and intestinal discharges contain the virus and therefore should be disposed of as quickly and as safely as possible.

General Control

Other than these measures the general opinion is that about all which can be done is to take certain steps in general control such as to be aware of unusual outbreaks of polio, to isolate children who have fever until the diagnosis of its cause has been found, to keep children away from unnecessary contacts such as crowds or movies, to avoid excessive physical exercise and to postpone any but urgent operations around the nose, throat or mouth.

These preventive measures do not need to be taken, however, except in those areas in which there is an unusual amount of polio; parents should not feel that they must restrict the activities of their children all Summer unless there is a more than average amount of infantile paralysis in the community.

The Mature Parent: 2

Dwelling On Past Failures Can Wreck Child Relations

By HAROLD F. STRONG
Written For NEA Service

Parents who allow yesterday's unhappy past to rob them of today's joy in their children are children themselves who refuse to accept the discipline of living.

Failure is a universal human experience.

But if we accept past failures as proof of our inability to win and hold new affection, those failures can wreck our relationships with children.

Emotional disturbances among youngsters of divorced parents often spring from parents' shaken confidence in their value to others.

In the process of helping a boy under treatment for chronic truancy, we learned his mother's background. Daughter of a domineering mother, she had eloped at 18 and been divorced. A second marriage also had failed.

When we worked with her, she gradually was able to recognize that her inability to control her son stemmed from a deep conviction of her own incompetence to make good decisions, a distrust of her own right to authority. Her dominated childhood and failures as a wife had paralyzed her confidence.

Divorce is generally only the climax of repeated failures of two people to reconcile conflicting points of view.

In the emotional tension, man and wife are unable to separate fact from fiction, and can emerge from the collapse of their marriage overwhelmed by a burden of self-doubt and defeat.

A parent who has been divorced must take time for a sincere appraisal of his experience. If he has made mistakes, they should be admitted, and squeezed dry of whatever lessons they have; then they should be forgotten.

Otherwise, any distrust of himself that is left over will carry over to his relationship with his child. The youngster's readjustment to the new state of affairs will not be hastened by a defensive, uncertain parent whose whole attitude suggests he is not qualified to take authority.

Parents who expect defiance have only themselves to blame if defiance is what they get.

Tomorrow: The desire to see your children excel.

C. Of C. Head Will Address Rotarians

A proposed municipal improvement and expansion program which would require city and county bond issues totaling approximately $4,000,0000, will be explained by Robert L. Wood, president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer. James Mims is the program chairman.

Chamber of Commerce directors at a recent meeting endorsed the program and recommended that the bond proposals be submitted to the voters as promptly as possible.

The proposed projects include water and sewer system improvements, sewage disposal plant, new fire station and equipment, street improvements and drainage, Front Street highway cutoff, Big Spring Street grade separation and highway widening and right-of-way.

11-Year-Old Bride Awarded Divorce

NATHANYA, ISRAEL —(AP)— A rabbinical court awarded a divorce to an 11-year-old Yemenite girl from her 40-year-old husband. The girl told the tribunal she had been sold in the Yemen for 56 cents to become the bride of a Yemenite named Salem Tzuref. Then she was only 10 years old.

She said her love couldn't be bought. She tried to kill herself. She ran away from her husband. He traced her to an immigrant camp near here. The girl appealed to camp authorities, saying she was a child and wanted to go to school.

Many of the Yemenite immigrants coming to Israel have girl brides.

SEA-SQUIRTS HAVE VANADIUM

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Sea-squirts take some of the small amounts of vanadium in sea water and concentrate it in their own bodies. This is the conclusion of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography. Vanadium could be recovered from sea-squirts but it would have to be very valuable to make the process profitable, the institution believes.

Nightgown Ain't What It Used To Be

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Nowadays your bedtime attire may be as gay as your beach and play clothes, and practically as brief.

Gals who don't care for the trailing effects of the traditional nightgown may choose gay knee-length models in lacy or tailored styles, or may set off for dreamland in bare-midriff arrangements of shorts and bra in bright red or navy blue seersucker trimmed with white eyelet embroidery — a startling but light-hearted effect.

Responsible for much of the current trend toward brighter and briefer sleepwear is a small blonde dynamo by the name of Dora Gottlieb, whose knee-length nightgowns and boudoir shorts have become practically required equipment for college girls and their career-minded sisters.

Glamorous Bedtime

Miss Gottlieb admits that she has been designing since the age of three, when her dolls were the best-dressed in the neighborhood. Most of her adult years have been spent thinking up new ways for women to look glamorous at bedtime, but her biggest coup has been in her shorty gowns and pajamas. Some of these are like dainty abbreviated nightshirts, and others could pass for beach wear. She uses fine cotton batiste, embroidery and lace in the brief gowns, which she calls "My-Knees," is likely to come up with any material from cotton plisse to nylon in the shorty pajamas, current edition of which she christens "Jelly Bean."

Dora also believes that there is no sound reason for nightwear to be limited to the conventional pastel tones and white. So her sleep fashions are likely to be bright green, scarlet or tangerine, though there are always some pastels included for the timid. The new high colors have been selling like hotcakes, and Dora is not surprised. Says she:

Create A Happy Mood

"Color can create a happy mood. Applied to sleepwear it can create the right mood for healthy, relaxed sleeping."

For her tradition-minded customers, Dora also makes full-length nightgowns, of course. In fact she once attended a swank formal dance attired in a floor-length nightgown from her stock, which doubled so successfully as an evening gown that she was besieged for the name of her dressmaker, admitting only afterward that she had worn a nightgown which retailed at $5.95.

SHOCK-PROOF

A new magnetic metal tape, for installation in the nose of a guided missile to record data as the craft penetrates the atmosphere, will withstand the shock of dashing into the ground in the exhausted rocket. Conventional paper tapes do not stand the shock.

The fact that HADACOL is scientifically formulated, compounded so that it contains therapeutic quantities of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron to supply deficiencies of these vital elements and is enriched with helpful amounts of Manganese, Calcium and Phosphorous (in liquid form), help to account for its increasing acceptance by doctors.

Red Fever Medicine

At various times in his long career as a soldier, Gen. Douglas MacArthur has been the object of criticism. The general more than once has been charged with being autocratic, with treading on basic human rights.

This isn't the place to weigh the justice of these accusations. They may or may not be well-founded. But certain it is that MacArthur is a man who knows how to handle Communists. His methods seem remarkably suited to that annoying but necessary task.

As allied commander in occupied Japan he currently is engaged in giving the Communists there some pointed instruction in how not to behave.

On Memorial Day Jap Reds sparked the first violence against American occupation troops since the war ended. Men were beaten, kicked and stoned. MacArthur promptly ordered a military trial for eight Communists accused of these acts, and they were convicted.

Reds in Japan called for a general strike in protest against the trial but it flopped. Nevertheless it was apparent the Communists were bent on pursuing a more militant program of trouble-making than heretofore.

The general did not view this as a time to walk softly. He ordered that all 24 members of the Communist Central Committee in Japan be expelled from public office. Later he purged 17 key men on the party's newspaper, Red Flag.

One of the 17 was a member of an eight-man group the Reds had picked up to supplant the 24-member Central Committee. Thus MacArthur kept the Communists from regaining their balance.

To the Japanese government acting under control of allied authority, he handed down an edict directing that it cooperate in executing his ban.

His letter to Prime Minister Yoshida was blunt. He called the paper a mouthpiece for the most violent elements in the Communist Party, adding that it was guilty of false and inflammatory appeals in its effort to provoke defiance of the constituted government.

Measures so severe as MacArthur's could not be excused were the Communists a legitimate political party in a nation we are trying to teach the ways of democracy. But the Reds are essentially a branch of the Russian government—a weapon of Soviet foreign policy.

As such, they are a destructive element on the hopeful Japanese scene. Following the global Soviet pattern, they are promoters of unrest and enemies of healthy economic revival.

Risky as it may be in the explosive Far East, MacArthur's way is a language that Red gangsters everywhere can understand. The methods of democracy they simply corrupt and distort to undermine democracy. They don't deserve its rights and privileges. They do deserve what MacArthur is giving them.

We Have No Choice

President Truman's signature on the $3,121,450,000 Marshall Plan authorization for 1950-51 reminds us that this bold recovery program is moving rapidly toward completion. When the 1951-52 measure has been voted, that will be the last.

The government already has made it abundantly clear that aid to Europe and other areas cannot end in 1952. Our help still will be needed in some degree in many countries. That probably will be true so long as Russia's cold war against the free world continues.

The free world's dependence upon us is beyond question. Unless we wish to face Russia without friends, we must back up our allies with economic and military substance.

We'll be much better off if this fact is acknowledged by all Americans rather than debated by wishful thinkers who would like to escape this troubled world. We have enough to do figuring out a sensible sequel to the Marshall Plan, without frittering our energies in pointless debate over plain facts.

Long Time Coming

Americans can be thankful that at last a liberalized displaced persons measure is assured. Under legislation finally approved by Congress and considered certain of President Truman's signature, another 135,000 European DP's may be admitted to the United States.

Present law allows entry of 205,000 and we already have given haven to more than 150,000 of these. Furthermore, language in the existing law that seemed to reflect religious and racial bias has been modified.

If the President signs, new entrants to the U. S. may be selected from a broader range of national and religious groups.

The final passage of the new DP bill was a victory for the many elements in American society which wanted it. And it was a defeat for Senator McCarran of Nevada, whose blind obstructionism stalled for almost a year and a half a worthy measure which should have been enacted by the Spring of 1949.

Anybody Want A Job?

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Hollywood probe languished under Chairman Wood; MGM mogul used obscure Georgia lawyer as go-between; Louis B. Mayer paid fat fee to congressman's friend.

WASHINGTON — The more you look into the operations of Congressman John S. Wood of Georgia, the more it appears that he merits as much investigation as the witnesses appearing before his un-American Activities Committee.

Not only did the congressman take a $1,000 fee from a crippled boy injured by an Army truck, in return for passing legislation; not only did he put his servant on the government payroll at $50 a week while that servant actually worked most of the time in Wood's home; but in addition it appears that Wood connived to postpone the investigation of Communist activities in Hollywood.

When Wood became chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee in July, 1945, one of the first jobs on the calendar was to probe reports that various key writers for the film industry were Communists. Congressman Dies of the old Dies Committee had collected various information on this, and Wood even sent an investigator to Hollywood.

But, for some mysterious reason, the probe never came off while Wood was chairman of the committee. Why is the big question.

The answer can be traced to Louis B. Mayer of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and to an obscure Georgia lawyer, Edgar Dunlap, in Congressman Wood's home district, to whom Mayer paid a whopping big fee.

That any of this fee was passed on to the congressman vigorously is denied, just as Wood proclaims to high heaven that he knew nothing about the $1,000 fee which his office secretary, Carl Tallant, collected from the boy who was hit by an Army truck.

MGM Goes To Georgia

It is interesting to note, however, that Dunlap wrote to Mayer during the course of the Hollywood probe, reporting that everything had been taken care of with his congressman. It is also significant that Louis B. Mayer had slews of high-priced lawyers in Washington whom he could call on, and did not need to reach down into Georgia to hire a hitherto unknown friend of Chairman Wood. Among Washington counsel for the motion picture industry are James Byrnes, former secretary of State; Paul McNutt, former governor of Indiana and high commissioner to the Philippines; while Eric Johnston, chief representative of the industry, knows his way around in Washington better than almost anyone else.

In addition, Mayer's personal Washington attorneys included astute Alfons Landa, partner of Ambassador Joe Davies; and Ellsworth Alvord, a great friend of Senator George of Georgia. Ignoring these, however, Louis B. Mayer selected an unknown attorney in the home district of the chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee to handle the Hollywood probe.

Mayer's judgment was good. For Dunlap's friend, Congressman Wood, puttered around with his much-ballyhooed probe, but he never did hold it. Louis J. Russell went to Hollywood for the committee in 1945, and collected important inofrmation about Communist film writers. This was supplemented by two ex-FBI agents, H. A. Smith and A. B. Leckie.

But Congressman Wood, then chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee, did nothing with this material. He waited a year and a half, until December, 1946, by which time the Democrats had been defeated and the Republicans were within 30 days of taking over. Then he went to Hollywood, was wined and dined, and given the usual treatment. But that was all. He made no investigation.

And it was not until Wood stepped down as chairman during the 80th Congress, and the Republicans took over, that the Hollywood probe began. It was under the Republicans that various screen writers and producers were summoned to Washington, as a result of which 10 writers now have been convicted.

Virtually all the information which the Republicans used previously had been collected by the old Dies Committee or by Wood's investigators. Yet he did not use it.

Dunlap's Admissions

Edgar Dunlap, the Gainesville, Ga., attorney whom Louis B. Mayer selected to represent him, is a big, bluff, prosperous-looking gentleman who, when interviewed, at first denied that he knew Mayer, except to say that he had met him casually on the MGM movie lot in Hollywood in 1946.

Questioned further, Dunlap admitted that he had known Mayer earlier, having met him through Carter Barron, the Georgia gentleman who represents Wood in Washington and who is an intimate friend of Congressman Wood.

At first, Dunlap denied he ever had written to Mayer "except maybe a Christmas card." Later, he admitted that he had written to Mayer and reported that he had arranged with Congressman Wood to let Mayer testify before the Un-American Activities Committee on a certain date so he would not be kept waiting in Washington.

After Dunlap's memory was revived, he finally admitted that he had received a fee from Mayer. The fee is reported to have been $25,000, though Dunlap refused to say how much it was.

He also claimed the fee was paid him for expediting a shipment of Mayer's horses in Chicago during the war when there was a tangle over an ICC regulation.

"Well, how is it," Dunlap was asked, "that Louis B. Mayer, with a battery of high-priced lawyers, some of them in Chicago and some in Washington, goes to Georgia to get you to arrange for the shipment of his horses?"

This seemed to stump Dunlap He had no explanation except to say that he had met Mayer through Carter Barron in Washington and they had become great friends. This, of course was in contradiction to Dunlap's earlier statement that he knew Mayer only casually.

Wood 'Our Only Friend'

Finally, after Wood stepped down from the chairmanship of the Un-American Activities Committee, the Republicans, on Oct. 21, 1947, proceeded with the long-delayed probe of Hollywood just two years and six months after Wood first sent investigators to California.

And on the night of October 20, Paul McNutt, attorney for the motion picture producers, and Eric Johnston, czar of the motion picture industry, met privately with two attorneys for the motion picture writers — Bartley Crum and Robert Kenny, former attorney general of California. At that time, the screen writers and the producers were putting up a common front; and very significantly McNutt and Johnston told Crum and Kenny:

"The only man who is friendly to us on the committee is Congressman Wood of Georgia. We have had trouble getting him up here, but we're going to meet his train tomorrow and hustle him up to the hearing. He is the nearest approach we have to Senator McFarland of Arizona who helped us out in the Nye investigation of Hollywood."

In an early column I will quote from the committee hearing to show how Hollywood's trusted friend, Congressman Wood, protected Louis B. Mayer, the man who sent a fat fee down to a small-town Georgia lawyer in Congressman Wood's district.

Postanesthesia Unit Set Up By University

ANN ARBOR, MICH.—(AP)—Last Summer the University of Michigan Hospital set up a special postanesthesia recovery unit, to aid better care of patients recovering from anesthetics. In its first four months, it cared for 1,640 patients, the University Hospital Bulletin reports. There were only two deaths, both patients who had operations for incurable brain ailments.

The unit has a special staff, and complete equipment to give various types of emergency treatments if needed. The unit receives patients who haven't recovered from anesthesia, or those who need constant early care because of shock, hemorrhage or other conditions.

"You ought to have your head examined," said East angrily.

Larceny Lou kept his eyes on the table. For a change his opponents were not growling at him but were bickering with each other. But they were quarreling as a result of a play that Lou had made, and he was sure that they would eventually get around to complaining about his larcenous methods of playing the game.

West had opened the queen of diamonds, and Lou had won with dummy's king. He had noted on first inspection of the dummy that

North	East	South	West
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	6 ♠	Pass
Pass	Pass

he was missing the ace of clubs and would probably be set if the trump finesse lost. Left to his own devices, West would surely return a club after winning his trump trick.

However, Lou saw a way to give himself a chance for the contract even if the trump finesse lost. The idea was to induce West—if he were able to win a trump trick—to return some suit other than clubs.

At the second trick, therefore, Lou cashed the ace of diamonds, discarding from his hand the eight of hearts. He then led the queen of spades from dummy and let it ride for a finesse.

West won with the king of spades and reasoned that Lou had discarded his only heart loser. West reasoned that South must have eleven black cards, of which only six could be spades. If Lou had five clubs, he might need to ruff them in the dummy. West therefore returned a trump to reduce dummy's ruffing power.

The rest was easy for Lou. He won the trump, cashed the ace and queen of hearts, and entered dummy with a trump to lead dummy's three remaining hearts. Of these, of course, Lou discarded his club.

"Yes; I figgered some durn fool might ask me and so I measured it."

Workers Beat Capital's 'Upper Crust' To Choice Seats At Birthday Pageant

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— High Washington brass and the town's socialites are a little miffed over the seating arrangements which have been made for the main attraction of the city's 150th birthday this Summer.

The event in question is a big pageant called "Faith of Our Fathers" which will be presented in a giant new amphitheater being built in Rock Creek Park. It's generally considered a mark of social rank here to have the best seats for any important event such as this.

However, Edward Boykin, the noted historian from Charlottsville, Va., who is in charge of the production, has ruled that the best seats at the gala premier will go to the carpenters and laborers who worked on construction of the amphitheater, and for free. It's a deserved reward, he says, for their hard work on the project.

In Frying Pan With Pork?

Popular Rep. Mike Monroney (D-Okla) who was named the outstanding congressman on the Hill is reported to be making good headway in his fight to win the Democratic senatorial nomination next month. His opponent, the elder Senator Elmer Thomas who has sat in the Senate for 24 years, is out campaigning harder than ever before. But he's using the same tack that lost Senator Pepper the nomination in Florida. It's the claim that he loaded the state with federal projects and benefits. The only difference is that Pepper claimed he had been responsible for delivering $1,500,000,000 worth of pork. Thomas is claiming only the delivery of $1,000,000,000 worth.

But Thomas also is trying to make clear to the Oklahoma voters that his seniority on Senate committees is the best vantage point for getting additional federal dollars and benefits. Actually, in spite of his youth, Monroney's great popularity among all the congressmen and government officials probably gives him more influence in the Capitol than Thomas wields. But he's not making an issue of this.

Inter-Service Feud

Some Pentagon experts predict at least a backstage feud between the Army and Air Force over the recent announcement that ground forces would have atomic weapons for tactical use against the enemy. They point out that the recent Navy-Air Force fight was basically over which agency would handle delivery services for the A-bomb.

When the use of tactical atomic weapons first began to be taught in the Army's schools, the Air Force experts registered their objections to such instructions. There's still plenty of doubt among the top military planners as to whether or not the A-bomb is a satisfactory tactical weapon.

Difficult Adjustment Period

Post Office officials are upset by the fact that some letter carriers are using their jobs to try to arouse the public to demand a restoration of the cuts in service. It is reported that some carriers are distributing petitions asking for two deliveries a day. Many are complaining about the lack of a place and time to eat lunch. Some reports of deliberate slowups are also being looked into by postal inspectors.

Answer of the postal officials to the complaints is that the carriers actually will have plenty of time to go any place they want to for lunch, that some delays which have been experienced will disappear as soon as the change is put into effect and that as soon as the public gets used to one delivery a day, nobody'll miss the other one.

FM May Share TV Success

Wayne Coy, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, is worried over the slow progress FM radio is making. He is urging that makers of television sets give the FM industry a hand:

"FM can be added to the TV set at comparatively small cost. This would mean that FM could ride TV piggy-back up the ladder of success. At this stage of television's development when daytime service is limited, such an arrangement would make it convenient for the set owner to snap on the FM when television is not on the air. Whenever a manufacturer sells a TV-only set as the principal receiver in the home he is slamming a door on aural radio."

Farm Income Slackens Off

In spite of recent increases in the price of food, the Department of Agriculture predicts that the average U. S. farmer will end up the year making less than he did last year. Total farm income was 13.8 billion in 1949. While farm prices dropped during the early part of this year, farm costs stayed about the same. And the current increases in retail food prices won't make up the difference, the experts say.

Last Laugh On Gordon Gray

After Gen. Joe Collins had been informed he was to be chief of staff of the Army he immediately wired his friend Gen. Floyd L. Parks who was stationed at Pearl Harbor that he wanted him to come back to the Pentagon in the same job he had just left, as chief of Information. Parks informed the Pentagon that he was returning reluctantly, but that they'd have to wait a few days because he planned to stop off in San Antonio and win the Army's senior golf championship.

Gordon Gary, then secretary of the Army and golf crony of Parks', got a big laugh out of this boasting, but the laugh was on Gray because Parks actually won the championship. That's why, when Gray left the Army, he donated a huge silver loving cup as the perpetual award for the senior golf champ and presented it to Parks first.

Dems Eye Ticker Tape

Predictions of a business boom for the rest of 1950 are regarded by Democratic political leaders as a good omen for their success in the November elections. Stock market continues generally upward. Unemployment still is high, but dropping. Most of the major labor disputes now are settled and out of the way. National income is up. Consumer spending is up.

If you believe in business "cycles"—which most economists don't—U. S. may dodge serious depression for another 10 years or so. The frequently-predicted post-World War II depression never developed. The 1949 recession was more like the post-World War I dip of 1920. The real depression came from nine to 12 years later.

Puerto Rico Pushes Dairy Cattle Breeding

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO—(AP)—Puerto Rico has set out to double the island's milk supply though a dairy cattle breeding program. High-grade mainland dairy cattle are being bred with both the native and Asiatic Brahman cow, producing a cow resistant to tropical pests which gives large quantities of milk.

The average milk yield per cow on the island now is less than half the mainland average, said Commissioner of Agriculture Ramon Colon-Torres. But he expects the average yield to be doubled in the next 10 years, with an increase also in the number of producing cows.

SMEAR CAMPAIGN

By Edwin Rutt

Copyright 1950 by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Bill Jarvis has been angered over a malicious gossip campaign directed against Hilda Sands, a pretty girl at a swank vacation resort, where Bill is the guest of his fiancee's parents. Bill goes on a group picnic with Bev Coulter, his fiancee, and others and on the trip home he finds Bev very preoccupied. As he takes Bev home he hears a movement in the room of Caroline Marr, one of Bev's friends. The door is partly open and Bill catches a glimpse of Hilda in that room.

BILL JARVIS went down to the lake. The moon was momentarily hidden behind a gigantic and ragged cloudpatch and the water looked dark and smooth, like black ivory. He paused to light a cigaret. Beyond the match-flare, a shadow moved.

"Bill?" Hildy Sands said, in a whisper.

Gaping slightly, Bill held the match until his fingers felt inconsequential pain. Hildy moved toward him.

"I rather hoped, Bill, that you might come along."

"Hoped?" He was aware of a strange eagerness in his own voice. "You wanted to see me?"

"It should be perfectly obvious that I had to see you sooner or later. I tried to make a point of doing it the very next day. I was pretty ashamed, and there wasn't any opportunity, and—oh, I just put it off."

Bill nodded. It didn't take particular intuition to see that this was definitely hard for her. And he didn't wonder. He waved his hand, trying for carelessness with the gesture.

"Look here, Hildy! You can go on putting it off, if you want to. For keeps."

Her foot tapped sharply. "No, I can't. Or, at least, I won't. Bill, I can't even imagine what you must have thought."

Aware of eagerness again, he repressed it. He said, mundanely, that Bev was down with a cold.

"I'm sorry," Hildy said. "But I won't keep you very long."

Bill steered her along the lake, past the line of darkened deserted bath-houses. A hundred yards or so from the main dock there was a small wooden wharf. That portion of the water off it was shallow. To this minor wharf a rowboat was tied.

He helped Hildy into a stern seat. "Well?" he said, sitting beside her.

"Just," said Hilda Sands, finally, "that I had, or thought I had anyway, a perfectly good reason for being in Caroline Marr's room. When"—even in the wretched light Bill fancied that he saw color dyeing her cheeks—"Caroline wasn't there."

SHE spoke sincerely and, somehow, reassuringly. Bill nodded. "I never really doubted that. I'll admit, though, that it gave me a start."

"It would," Hildy said. "Can you bear to hear the reason? Or would it be better if we just dropped the whole thing?"

Then he admitted it—to himself. He was not prepared to drop anything, that concerned Hilda Sands.

"I think I'd rather you told me," he said slowly.

She smoothed her skirt. "Well, I overheard a conversation the other night. Between two women. No use mentioning names, but it wasn't a nice conversation. And it was about me. I didn't overhear too well, because they were talking on the verandah and there was a crowd around. Anyhow, from what little I gathered, they'd seen—or been shown—a paper of some kind."

"Paper?" Bill said, puzzled.

"Yes. Something about my father's trouble. When I heard that, Bill, I did try to eavesdrop—definitely."

"Don't blame you," he muttered.

She gave a short laugh. "Like most eavesdroppers, I heard nothing good. But I got this much. Someone here has been passing this paper around, in a sort of confidential way. Knowing darn well, I suppose, that whatever it says would go all over the grapevine. Well, I made up my mind to get that paper and find out just who was interested in—in putting the bite on me."

Bill had an intuitional flash. "So! That's why, when I asked you on the picnic, you said you had something important to do?"

"Yes. It seemed the perfect chance, with all of you gone for hours. But"—she bit her lip—"I'm not used to—to burglary. I spent most of the evening trying to work up the nerve. I started too late. And you caught me, flatfooted and redhanded."

"If it's any help," Bill said quickly, "I've kept it under my hat."

"I was sure you would." She looked at him strangely. "Hasn't anyone ever told you that you're a very nice, and decent, guy?"

He shifted in his seat. "Did you—er, search many rooms?"

Her eyes went down. "It sounds awful, doesn't it? But I went into three. Lloyd Williston's and Caroline's and—you'll hate me! Bev's."

He started. "Bev's?"

"I had to be sure, don't you see? Sort of like a detective. You know, everybody suspect."

* * *

HER voice shook with distress. And suddenly Bill Jarvis put an arm around her. Gently, almost absently, but as if it were the most natural thing in the world.

"Take it easy," he said. "I know how you felt. You were wrong about Bev, of course. But you had to cover the—the waterfront. Well, did you find anything?"

"I tried to get into Dick Trevan's room too." She seemed determined on complete confession. "But it was locked. No, I didn't find a thing. Whoever has that rotten paper must still have it."

It was as if something took hold of Bill Jarvis' brain then and gave it a twist. For a second Hildy struggled. Then her lips, soft, warm, met his. The moon, painting the lake in pale fire, went unnoticed.

Hungarian Reds Demand Religious Relic As Ransom Price For American Robert Vogeler

VIENNA, AUSTRIA —(AP)— Communist-ruled Hungary has offered to swap imprisoned American businessman Robert A. Vogeler for one of her most venerated religious relics, the Allied-held crown of St. Stefan, it was learned here Tuesday.

Reliable sources said progress of negotiations between the U. S. and Hungary indicated Vogeler, sentenced to 15 years imprisonment last February 21 for spying and sabotage, might be released within a few weeks.

The crown, which dates back to Hungary's 11th Century King Stefan I, was taken from Hungary by the Nazis and found by American troops in Germany. It last was reported held by the Western Allies in 1947 at Wiesbaden, in Western Germany.

The United States, reportedly at Vatican urging, has refused repeated demands by Hungary's Red government for the crown.

Return of the crown, the sources here said, was the only ransom price set for Vogeler by the Hungarians.

Gift Of Pope Silvester

Many Hungarians attribute miraculous powers to the crown and believe no government holds power legitimately unless it has possession of the relic.

The famous crown was given by Pope Silvester in 1001 to Stefan, Hungary's first king—his title was "Apostolic King"—for converting the Hungarians to Christianity.

Sources here added that no demands were made either for reopening of Hungarian consulates in New York and Cleveland or for repeal of the U. S. ban on American travel in Hungary. The U. S. ordered the consulate closures and the travel ban after Vogeler's conviction by a Hungarian people's court.

The 39-year-old Vogeler was an executive and roving European representative for the International Telephone & Telegraph Company. His British associate, Edgar Sanders, was convicted with him and sentenced to 13 years in prison.

Vogeler's Belgian-born wife, who has waged a continuous campaign for her husband's freedom, said about two weeks ago she had been told "things are moving along nicely, and we may have some good news for you soon, but don't get your hopes up."

Object Of Veneration

The United States almost five years ago returned to the Hungarians another highly-prized relic of the king-saint, his embalmed hand. Its return in August, 1945, before the Communists seized power and just in time for the annual St. Stefan's Day observance, touched off one of the greatest celebrations in the country's postwar history.

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungary's Roman Catholic primate now serving a life sentence for treason, was charged by the Communist government with urging the Americans to release St. Stefan's crown only to the Vatican.

The archbishop of New York, Francis Cardinal Spellman, said at the time Mindszenty had asked him to help keep the crown out of Communist hands. Cardinal Spellman asked the War Department to "take every possible care" of the relic, which he said was "an object of great veneration among the Hungarian people."

Jamboree Scouts Need 'Swapping Material'

Twenty Midland Boy Scouts need "swappin' material" for the National Scout Jamboree.

With 47,000 Scouts to be assembled in the big show at Valley Forge, Pa., from June 30 to July 6, trade between Scouts from various parts of the country promises to be brisk.

Ray Upham, chairman of leadership training, who is to attend the Jamboree with the Scouts, asked for ideas for swap items. Arrowheads, small cactus, or other small items typical of West Texas are being sought. Upham asks persons with ideas for the Scouts to call him at No. 2062-J.

Next Time He'll Be More Careful In Trying On Pants

DETROIT—(AP)—Hereafter Milton Pierce will be careful when he tries on a pair of pants.

And of course he'll remember Harold Hoffman with gratitude.

Hoffman, in town from suburban Royal Oak, bought a pair of slacks Monday at a department store.

As he pulled them on at home, he thrust his hands into the pockets in the satisfying way a man does with a new pair of pants.

Hoffman was more than satisfied. He was astonished. He pulled out a $61 roll of bills and an endorsed pay check for $90.05.

Hoffman went to the Royal Oak police. The police called Detroit police. Hoffman called the check endorsee.

It was a very happy ending.

The endorsee was Pierce. The police record showed he had reported that exact loss last June 3.

Now he has it back.

Abashed but pleased, too, Pierce said he must have switched his money to the slacks and then forgotten all about it when he left without making the purchase.

Negro's Name Won't Be Listed On Ballot

ORANGE — (AP) — The Orange County Democratic Executive Committee decided Monday night it could not legally place the name of Wesley Warnell, Orange negro, on the first primary ballot.

Warnell had announced as a candidate for state flotorial representative for Orange and Jefferson Counties.

Neither his application for a place on the ballot nor his loyalty affidavit, both filed a few minutes before the deadline at midnight, May 15, was signed, although both bore the signature and seal of a notary public. The oversight was not discovered until after the deadline.

Warnell's name will go on the ballot in Jefferson County where his papers were found to be in order.

Third Big Fire Strikes At Lamesa

LAMESA—Lamesa's third large fire in recent weeks destroyed Harper's Feed Mill southeast of the city early Monday, causing damages estimated at $12,000 by Fire Marshal Luther Standifer.

So much water was used to fight the blaze that water service was cut off in Lamesa for three hours.

Other recent fires were the $75,000 blaze at the depot and a $100,000 fire at the Honeycutt Construction Company.

Carries Sudden Death Around In Hip Pocket

CHICAGO —(AP)— Harold Carlin, 47, carried around a hip pocket full of sudden death for three hours Monday—and didn't know it.

While working with a subway construction crew, he picked up a dozen small, unfamiliar objects and put them in his pocket. For three hours he worked in cramped spaces, brushing against walls. Then he spotted his foreman and turned over his find.

The objects were blasting caps. Sergeant Drew Brown of the police bomb squad said "just one of these would blow off a man's arm x x x it would have been death for Carlin if all 12 had gone off."

Rookie Policeman Gets Self Locked Up

DETROIT —(AP)— Rookie Policeman James Woolridge got himself locked up Monday night.

Woman Must Get Blood Every Week For Rare Ailment

LINDEN, N. J. —(AP)— Mrs. Minnie Ciriani, 38, needs a pint of blood a week for the rest of her life.

She is the victim of a rare kidney disease. When she was released from the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, early this year, doctors told her she would need a pint of blood a week to stay alive.

Her husband, Anthony, has given all the blood he can for now and doctors say he must wait three months before giving more.

She has been getting the blood from the blood bank of the Elizabeth General Hospital, but it must be paid back. A list of donors is being collected.

Most Germans Want To Side With West

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—An offical American occupation public opinion poll disclosed Tuesday that 54 per cent of the Germans questioned want to side with the West in the cold war and 42 per cent want to be neutral.

Less than one half of one percent wanted to side with Russia. The rest had no opinion.

The poll was conducted by the high commission's public survey teams in the American Zone, Bremen and Berlin.

Israel Cracks Down On Reckless Driving

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The ministry of communications is cracking down on Israel's reckless drivers to halt the rising death rate on highways. The Knesset (parliament) has just given the green light to the ministry to vigorously prosecute all traffic offenders.

Sentences are going to be stiff. Reckless drivers, for their first offense, may get a maximum of two years imprisonment and a $1,680 fine.

If a motorist is convicted the second time on any one of 12 different traffic violations, he faces a five-year prison sentence and revocation of his driving license for all time. From 20 to 30 persons are killed in automobile accidents monthly in Israel. The seriously injured run between 40 and 50 persons.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Vacation Time

Old Mr. Sun was big and bright and hot in the sky. Summertime had come to the Great Forest, and summertime was vacation time. How excited were all the monkeys there in Daddy Ringtail's monkey house. Vacation time had come again!

"For our vacation," said Daddy Ringtail, "we shall go down the river to the sea, because the sea is a happy vacation place indeed."

And so all that day all the folks at the monkey house were busy with putting vacation things into boxes all ready to go. Then at last the work was finished. Now the things were ready to go when morning light had come again, and so everyone went to bed to sleep.

Everyone was asleep, almost, and then: "Oh me," said Daddy Ringtail, sitting up in bed. "Mother Ringtail, I keep on thinking and thinking that maybe we have forgotten a something that we ought to take with us on our vacation."

Mother Ringtail was tired and sleepy from getting clothes and things ready to go. "Go to sleep, Daddy Ringtail," she said. "Maybe you didn't forget anything."

But Daddy Ringtail couldn't go to sleep for trying to remember the something he had forgotten. "If I could only remember what it is," he said, and he turned this way and that way on his pillow, for it seemed that he couldn't go to sleep until he remembered.

Mother Ringtail yawned. Said she: "Did we ever go on a vacation without forgetting something?"

Daddy Ringtail had to say no, for there was always something they forgot to take with them at vacation time.

"And don't we always have a wonderful vacation?" Mother Ringtail asked, "even though we do forget to take something with us?"

Daddy Ringtail said yes, and he was ready to go to sleep as soon as he said it, for a wonderful vacation is what they always had, every time they had a vacation at all, and it made no difference that they always did forget to take this or that with them.

Ah me, and a wonderful vacation they will have indeed. They shall be gone for two whole weeks, and I shall be telling you the things that happen. Happy day!

Daily Crude Output Climbs For Seventh Consecutive Record

TULSA, OKLA.—(AP)—The country's daily average production of crude oil set its seventh consecutive record for the year in the week ended June 17.

So reported The Oil and Gas Journal Tuesday in listing the total average at 5,279,150 barrels, 32,900 above the previous week's production.

Although Kansas had the greatest gain—up 28,150 barrels to 28,550—four areas set new 1950 highs. They were California, up 1,900 barrels to 872,100 barrels; the Eastern fields, up 1,150 to 61,950; Mississippi 5,850 to 104,750, and Nebraska, 100 to 2,100.

Illinois increased 2,400 barrels to 172,300, and Oklahoma jumped 1,050 to 421,000. Colorado added 600 barrels to 59,500, and Arkansas was up 550 to 79,450.

Texas production was unchanged at 2,244,450 barrels daily.

Louisiana Senate Rejects Proposal To Gag Newspapers

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(AP)—A bill which would have required Louisiana newspapers to print replies by persons criticized in news stories or editorials is dead.

The State Senate killed the measure Monday. The vote was favorable 13-9, but failed of the required 20-vote majority.

The bill was formulated after the New Orleans Item called some Louisiana legislators "trained seals" and "lackeys" of Gov. Earl Long. The publisher of the Item, David Stern, and editor Clayton Fritchey were summoned before a special Senate committee to face possible contempt charges and 10-day jail sentences. The newspapermen refused to retract or apologize and the committee declined to recommend punishment.

"We've had enough trouble this session with newspapers," said Senator C. E. Barham of Ruston. "Why antagonize them with something we can't enforce?"

The measure would have required newspapers to print "in the same prominence" replies by persons criticized by the press. Fines and jail sentences were provided for newspapermen who refused to print the replies.

Model Is Awarded Month's Alimony

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— For 26 days of marriage, photographer's model Thelma Glass, 28, was awarded one month's alimony.

Superior Judge Joseph Maltby Monday allowed her a flat $250 as alimony instead of the $2,000 monthly she had demanded. Her husband is Richard A. Glass, 26, whose family operates a large produce company. Glass showed his weekly salary from the business was only $76.

They were married March 2 and divorced March 28. Glass sued her for divorce, charging "cruel and inhuman treatment." She countered with a demand for $2,000 monthly pending trial of the suit, date for which has not been fixed.

Aid To Formosa Is Unanswered Query In Japanese Parleys

TOKYO —(AP)— The question of whether U. S. Defense Secretary Louis Johnson may recommend prompt American aid to Formosa still was unanswered here late Tuesday.

After a second day of briefing by top American officers on Far Eastern defense, one officer depicted Secretary Johnson as "leaning our way." The officer, who can not be identified, favors immediate aid for Formosa, threatened by the Chinese Communists.

Another high ranking official said the secretary had so carefully hidden his reactions to headquarters that none could be sure how he stood on the Formosan question.

Maj. Gen. Earle E. Partridge, acting commander of the Far East Air Forces, and his staff officers stressed the danger of allowing Formosa to fall into enemy hands, reliable sources said. The Nationalist Chinese-held island is 350 miles from Okinawa, big U. S. air base.

Air Bases Stressed

Air officers also strongly supported the views of General MacArthur, occupation chief, and his strategists in urging vigorous efforts to save Southeast Asia. They emphasized their desire to retain all their present Far Eastern air bases at top efficiency equipped with the latest types of aircraft.

In general, American military strategy in Asia is built around the use of long range air power as the initial striking force. Briefing officers Tuesday, it was understood, stressed the strategic importance of bases in Japan and Okinawa which are within bombing range of many key Soviet targets on the mainland.

After the session, Secretary Johnson and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, played golf, despite a hard rain.

Authorities Deny Rumors On Chiang

TOKYO —(AP)— Top American military authorities Tuesday denied emphatically that Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-Shek was in Japan or Okinawa.

The rumors popped up in Hong Kong and Fomosa, Chiang's retreat from the Communist mainland of China.

The dispatches from both places said Chiang had gone to confer with U. S. Defense Secretary Johnson on defense of Formosa, listed by the Chinese Communists to be invaded this year.

Four Iron Workers Charged After Riot At Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY —(AP)— Four Iron Union workers are charged with assault and battery and a Santa Fe Railway official is in serious condition after a riot Monday between union pickets and Santa Fe employes.

The four, also charged with malicious destruction of property, were to be arraigned in justice court Tuesday. Police say they attacked John A. Knupple, a commercial photographer who said he was hired by the company to take pictures of the strike.

The fight broke out when a Santa Fe locomotive started to cross a picket line. Police said about 75 pickets joined the melee which injured six, including W. J. Peterson, Oklahoma City, general yardmaster for Santa Fe who received a possible brain concussion.

Attacked By Pickets

Santa Fe officials said their employes were attacked by the pickets. Pete Ledinski, a striker, told officers he was struck with a blackjack wielded by a special agent.

State and county officers quelled the riot, the second outbreak of violence at the Capitol Steel and Iron Company within a week. On June 12 a Santa Fe locomotive chugged through a picket line, injuring three.

The Iron Workers Union, Local 546 (AFL), has been on strike since Jne 9 after contract negotiations broke down.

After the first trouble the railway asserted it would continue to serve the Capitol firm "pickets or no pickets." Regular crewmen have balked at taking the train into the struck grounds.

The union agreed Monday to call off all but five pickets to prevent future riots.

'Sleep Education' Is Discussed By Thane In Midland Lecture

"The course of an individual's life can be changed through the medium of sleep education, and thus the course of the world might well be altered," was the statement of Thane, internationally-known writer and lecturer, in the first of three scheduled talks in the Junior High School Auditorium Monday night.

The speaker, sponsored by the New Frontiersmen, Inc., of Utah, was introduced by Dr. Velma Scott, who with her husband Dr. Dow Scott, are two of the patrons for the series. Dr. Scott stated that Thane, while on duty with the Western Sea Frontier, USN, had inaugurated the teaching of foreign languages to service men during their sleep.

Tuesday night, Thane will speak on "Marvels of the Mind" and furnish further demonstrations of ESP. The meetings are free and open to the general public at 8 p.m. Demonstrations, started at the Monday night lecture, will be continued Tuesday night.

City Uses Effective Spraying Insecticide

The best insecticide ever devised now is being used by the City of Midland in its Summer spraying program, according to City-County Health Unit officials.

The spray, which contains chlordane, lethane and DDT, is a wet spray and is a much more lasting and more effective insecticide than the dry fog which previously was used exclusively. The fog still is used in several general areas although the wet spray is used around garbage cans and alleys.

The city dump gets a spraying twice each day and officials say no flies or other insects are present at the dumping grounds.

A new wet spray, capable of spraying at up to 250 pounds of pressure, has been ordered by the city and will be placed in use soon, according to City Manager W. H. Oswalt. The present wet spray in use works under a 150-pound pressure.

Oswalt urged all property owners to cooperate by keeping their premises as clean as possible and their grass and weeds trimmed.

'Hot' Wind Tunnel Under Construction

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— A new "hot" wind tunnel designed for studying the broiling temperatures supersonic planes must withstand is under construction at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Speed of air traveling through the tunnel will range from 1,100 to 1,400 miles an hour, far above that of sound, which travels at a rate of about 750 miles an hour. Atmospheric friction at these speeds is expected to produce temperatures in the plane up to 670 degrees fahrenheit.

Newly designed cooling systems to protect pilots from this heat will be studied under the direction of Earl Jansen of the UCLA research department.

Auto Driving Course Needs Something New

OLEAN, N. Y. —(AP)— A $151.44 repair bill convinced the board of education that something more was needed in the high school automobile driving course.

"Instructions on checking of oil, water and battery are now a part of the course," said George L. Purdy, a board member.

The bill was for replacing bearings and a crankshaft because the oil ran low in an automobile used in the course.

El Paso District Counties Show Gain

By The Associated Press

The six counties in the El Paso Census District show a gain since 1940 in population, but Lavaca County—in Southeast Texas—took a population decline since the 1940 count.

The unofficial figures show a population of 225,105 for El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Reeves and Presidio Counties. El Paso County, with a total population of 197,909, accounted for 66,842 of the district's 67,930 gain. The figures were released Monday by District Supervisor Staten Hatchel.

Lavaca County dropped from 25,483 in 1940 to 22,122 in 1950, although the county seat, Hallettsville, increased its population from 1,581 to 2,001. Shiner, with 1,775, is the county's second largest city, Census Supervisor R. J. McDonough reported.

The El Paso District totals:

El Paso County increased from 131,067 to 197,909; Hudspeth from 3,149 to 4,276; Culberson from 1,653 to 1,814, and Reeves from 8,006 to 11,694.

Jeff Davis County decreased from 2,375 in 1940 to 2,084 at the present, and Presidio decreased from 10,925 to 7,328.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

Matt. 12:25-26, 33-34; 7:15-20.

DIVIDED LOYALTIES

We come now to the ninth major enemy of the 15, Divided Loyalties. This major enemy is akin to the one we have just been discussing—insincerities—and yet it is different. One may be truly sincere and at the same time find within himself divided loyalties. He may not be covering anything — even from himself—and yet he may face the fact that he is trying to divide his loyalties between mutually exclusive things. Whether the enemy be covered insincerity or frank divided loyalties, in either case the result is the same: the abilities, the effectiveness, and the happiness of the individual are canceled out. There can be no abundant living with inward division.

And yet how prevalent are divided souls. We believe in God with the top of our minds, but down deep at the bottom we obey something else as the way of life. We live by what Dr. Thomas Kelly called "straddle arrangements and compromises between our allegiance to the surface level and the Divine Creator." Again, he says: "We are trying to live several selves at once, without all our selves being organized by a single mastering life within us."

A Supreme Court justice said to me as I was about to leave him: "We should discuss this subject for six hours. I am in a dilemma. For three days of the week I am a conscientious objector, and four days of the week I'm not." And since he believed in majority rule he was an ardent militarist, smothering the conscientious objector, but not quite happy over the murder! There are many of us living on a bare majority—four to three—and with little or no power left over to put into operation the decisions of the majority. How much stronger we would be if we were living unanimously—all our life energies devoted to one great end.

O God, my Father, I am tired of being worn out by inward conflicts before I get to my problems. I expend so much energy on myself that there is no plus to use in my real problems. I have become the problem. I must be unanimous for Thee. If Thou didst ever help me, help me here. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Five Found Dead In Apparent Quadruple Murder And Suicide

LEIGH, NEB. —(AP)— A coroners jury was summoned Tuesday to probe the sledge-hammer slaying of four members of a farm family and the drowning of a fifth already labeled by authorities as "quadruple murder and suicide."

Mrs. Henry F. Bahns, 48, and her three children, Eldon, 20, Ardith, 14, Helen, eight, were found Monday dead in their beds in a blood-splattered farmhouse six miles southeast of here.

The body of the father, Henry F. Bahns, 49, was hauled from an abandoned well in a pasture.

County Attorney Lloyd Pospishil, doubling as coroner, called the inquest at the white, five-room farmhouse.

"Every indication points to a quadruple murder and suicide by Mr. Bahns," said Pospishil. "Apparently he killed them with a sledge, then drowned himself."

Used Eight-Pound Sledge

The county attorney said all the evidence points to this train of events early Monday:

Bahns, a lanky, balding man, rose about five o'clock, dressed and went out to the machine shed. There he picked up an eight-pound sledge hammer.

He went back to the bedroom where his wife slept, swung at least two blows of the maul against her head.

After that, Bahns walked to another first-floor bedroom where Ardith and Helen were asleep, bludgeoned them and then went upstairs where he killed Eldon the same way.

He walked to the machine shed, left the sledge and walked about 200 yards into a field across the road, stepped into the 10-foot deep well and drowned himself.

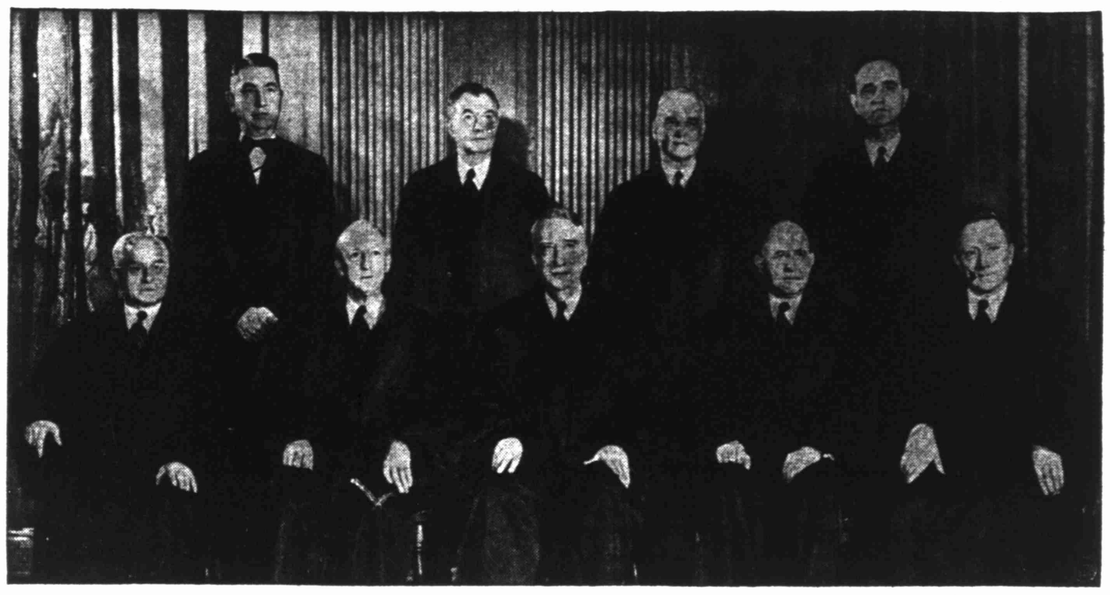

"He didn't have to drown if he didn't want too," Pospishil said. "We didn't find any marks of violence on his body."

The bodies were found by Dennis Bahns, 25, the only other member of the prosperous family. He came from a neighboring farm owned by his father.

"I thought it was awful funny Mom wasn't in the yard feeding the chickens or something when I came in," he said.

He called neighbors, then Sheriff Ed Patach at Schuyler, the county seat.

Pospishil said there was no evidence of robbery and no suicide note. "There apparently is no motive," he added.

Determined Robins Win Building Battle

BUFFALO, N. Y. —(AP)— Two determined robins have set up housekeeping in a partly built house.

The contractor, Otto R. Nagel, twice tore down their nests but each time the robins built a new one. When Nagel saw five eggs in the third nest, he moved it to a joist.

As work progressed, the nest was moved to another room. The birds stuck to their home and all five eggs have hatched.

"The robins raise a fuss when we get too near," said Nagel, "so we try t work in another part of the building."

Had Engine, Four Wheels, At Least

KANSAS CITY, KAN. —(AP)— Two young brothers, passengers in a "hot rod" motor car, fell out and were injured when it turned a corner Monday.

Police decided the driver, Wayne Ward, Jr., 15, had stripped the car down too much. They declared it unsafe for these reasons:

No body.
No lights.
No floorboards.
No rear fenders.

The only seat cushion was not fastened to the frame.

The word "auspices" comes from the Latin "avis," meaning a bird, and "spicere," meaning to look at.

READY FOR GABRIEL—Spry and spirited at 76, Martin J. Dziubakowski is busy these days waxing and polishing his casket on the front porch of his Cleveland, O., home. If he doesn't whistle as he works, it's more on account of his beard than any lack of cheerfulness. Dziubakowski came to Cleveland from Austria in 1901. About 36 years ago he found a fine piece of oak. "Ah, that will be for my casket," he declared. And so the collection of oak pieces began. He completed the casket long ago and now gives it fatherly care with frequent polishing.

Villagers Choose Sides, Fire Chief In Case Of Fay & Faye

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Highland Heights' 58-year-old police chief, who described himself as "an errand boy for a bunch of women," won't have to run those errands any more. He was fired Tuesday by the village council for "consorting" with the mayor's wife.

Solons of the suburban village of nearly 500 voted the dismissal 6-2 after listening five and one-half hours to the case of Fay & Faye.

Fay Dalrymple, the chief, was accused by Mayor Clem (Bud) Ley, 40, of consorting with Ley's wife, Faye, 39.

Ley testified he suspended the chief May 9 when he found him with Faye in the kitchen of the mayor's home. In the six weeks since then, the villagers have been choosing up sides. About 200 of them attended the hearing Monday night.

But the chief said his visits to the Ley home, "maybe four or five a week," were either on official business or errands for the village women.

In ousting the chief, the council decided he was guilty of "malfeasance and misfeasance of duty," in that he parked the police car at the mayor's house while he "consorted" with the mayor's wife and by using the car thus on village time deprived the village residents of proper law protection.

'Looked—Funny'

Ley said he was unable to produce any evidence of actual "illicit relations" between his wife and the chief.

But, he declared, it "looked—funny" that the police car was reported in his driveway every morning after he went to work at a downtown auto body shop he operates.

Chief Dalrymple said his trips to the mayor's home often concerned building inspection, one of his other village duties. He said Mrs. Ley kept his records of building permits and other official matters.

Other times, he claimed, he conferred with her on such community functions as a fireman's dance, Red Cross drive, and various women's club activities.

"We had a lot in common," Dalrymple admitted of his relations with Mrs. Ley. "But what the mayor said about us is a big surprise to me."

The seedless apple had its origin from a freak tree in Virginia.

Soviet Parliament Votes Unanimously For Stalin Regime

MOSCOW —(AP)— A cheering applauding Supreme Soviet (Parliament) voted unanimously Monday night to continue Premier Joseph Stalin's government in office.

Eleven Communist Party Politburo members were present as the joint houses of Parliament also voted support of resolutions demanding prohibition of atomic weapons and branding as war criminals officials of the first government to use atom weapons.

The resolutions they endorsed were those adopted at a "World Peace Partisans Congress" at Stockholm.

The Parliament also went on record to express a "conviction that the Soviet government will continue to pursue its constant policy of peace and friendship among the nations within the United Nations and elsewhere defend international peace and security."

Speakers during the discussion on the Stockholm peace resolutions attacked United States and British government policies as "imperialist and aggressive" and said Russia has mastered atomic energy for creative uses.

The meeting also reelected Nikolai M. Shvernik chairman of the Supreme Soviet Presidium, a position equivalent to president of the Soviet Union. Shvernik, 62, first was elected to the post March 19, 1946. He is one of 13 members of the Politburo.

The semi-annual session of the Parliament ran for a week. During that time, it approved the Soviet budget for 1950.

Oplie's 19-year-old companion, Ebert Gene Riddell, also of Waco, who also is charged with the murder, was given until Thursday morning to enter his plea.

The date for the trial of the two youths will be set after Riddell's plea is entered. They are charged with the hitchhike shooting of Beauseau near Mesa, Ariz.

Tribe Routs San Angelo

The Midland Indians moved out Tuesday to Ballinger for a two-game stand opening Tuesday night. Manager Ralph Blair nominated Glen Patton for the opener.

The Tribe returns home against the Odessa Oilers Thursday night. They also meet Friday night in Indian Park.

The Midland Indians came alive Monday night and put out the hustle necessary to win a baseball game. The Tribe routed the San Angelo Colts 16 to 5, rapping two hurlers for 19 hits and running wild in general.

Hal Wearne, the hard-luck hurler, got the support he was due and notched the victory. He went the route and scattered 10 hits along the way.

The Midland base running, fielding and hitting was spiced with pep and hustle. Scooter Hughes stole two bases and Tex Stephenson, Jim Prince and Mike Bellone one each.

Hughes made some fine fielding plays and participated in two double plays.

Stephenson Homers

Stephenson clouted his second home run in as many games to aid the victory.

Wearne got off to a shaky start and was touched for two runs in the third inning after being in trouble in the first two frames. Tony Guerrero walked, Bob Tayoan doubled and Steve Follett singled to score them and give the Colts a 2-0 lead.

That set the fuse to burning and the explosion which followed sent six Midland runs across the plate.

Scooter Hughes reached base on a fielder's choice and stole second. Jim Prince walked and two men went out.

George Firnback then worked up a 3-2 count and slapped a triple into right field, scoring Hughes and Prince.

Lou Dawson walked and Mike Bellone singled Firnback home. Bellone then stole second. Bob Phillion walked to load the bases.

Wearne Comes Through

Hal Wearne then gave himself some real stick support. He blasted a long single over second into center field to score Dawson and Bellone.

Quentin Basco kept the rally alive with a single that scored Phillion. From there on the Indians were in the driver's seat.

They added three in the fourth on a walk to Stephenson, a single by Prince, a single by Firnback, scoring Stephenson and a two-run double by Dawson.

Hughes opened the fifth with a single and stole second. Tex Stephenson clubbed one a mile over the right-center field fence to chase in two more runs. That blow got rid of Indio Beltran, the San Angelo starter, and Rich came on to hurl.

San Angelo picked up two more in the seventh on a walk to Bob Crues, a double by Wayne Wallace and a single by Steve Follett.

Double Steal

The Indians got them back and then some in last half of the inning. Prince walked, Dawson walked and both advanced on a balk. Mike Bellone plated them with a long double to left. He scored on Phillion's single.

A walk to Wallace and a triple by Kowalik gave the Colts their final run in the ninth.

But the Indians had added two more in the eighth on a single by Stephenson and a single by Prince and double steal, Stephenson going home, plus Lou Dawson's single.

Houston U. Joins MVC

HOUSTON — (AP) — The University of Houston is the newest member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

Arthur E. Eilers, conference commissioner, announced Monday in St. Louis that the school had joined the loop.

Eilers said that a conference vote in the next three or four days will determine exactly when the university will be admitted to championship competition as a full fledged member.

The university definitely will play conference baseball and compete in Spring sports in 1951 and will play conference football in 1951, he said. There is a possibility Houston will play conference basketball in 1950-51.

Wichita, Tulsa, Oklahoma A&M, with Houston, form the Western half of the loop. The Eastern half consists of Bradley, Detroit, Drake and St. Louis.

WICHITA FALLS —(AP)— D. L. Ligon, president of the Gulf Coast Conference, Monday declined an opinion as to what will happen to the conference with the University of Houston out of it.

He said he could not foresee the future of the conference which was cut to three members when Houston Monday was admitted to the Missouri Valley Conference.

Ligon said he would call no special meeting of the conference but that the matter would be handled at the regular meeting in December.

He said University of Houston probably would continue in the Gulf Coast Conference through the next football season anyway.

North Texas State, Midwestern University and Trinity University are other members of the Gulf Coast loop.

John Jachym May Be Ready To Sell Part In Washington Club

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. —(AP)— A report that John Jachym is about to sell a 40 per cent interest in the Washington Senators awaited confirmation or denial Tuesday.

The Jamestown Post-Journal says the 31-year-old former Marine Corps captain is pulling out of the Senators because of differences with Clark Griffith, head of the American League club for 30 years.

According to the newspaper, H. Gabriel Murphy, a Washington insurance man, either is handling the deal or is buying the interest himself.

Jachym could not be located at his home here or in Washington.

The Mohammedans considered coffee as intoxicating when it was introduced to them and it still is prohibited by the Koran.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Brooklyn Moves Into First-Spot Tie With Cards

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tip to the National League clubs—don't bring a winning streak into Ebbets Field. Those unsympathetic Dodgers are sure to crack it.

Really, it's uncanny the way the devil-may-care Dodgers cool off the "red hot" clubs.

First it was Philadelphia. The young, eager Phillies stormed into Ebbets Field on Memorial Day in first place as a result of winning five of their previous six starts. The Brooks immediately polished them off twice to knock them off the top perch.

GUARDS' GAL—Anya Nord, 21, of Boston, should be about the safest girl on the sands at Hampton Beach, N. H. She was chosen queen of the beach lifeguards, and it's a safe bet they'll look after her.

Then it was St. Louis. The Cards came into Brooklyn last Friday leading the league by three and a half games. The Dodgers thrashed them three straight times to send them limping away with only a half-game lead.

Monday night it was New York. The Giants moved in with four wins in their last five starts. Another triumph would boost them into a fifth-place tie with Chicago.

Robinson, Furillo Hot

But it was not to be. Led by Jackie Robinson and Carl Furillo, the Dodgers dusted them off 8-5 for their fourth victory in as many meetings with their interborough rivals.

The victory, Brooklyn's fourth in a row, moved the Dodgers into an exact first place tie with the idle Redbirds. Each team has won, 32 and lost 20.

The Braves fell three games off the pace Monday night when Cliff Chambers of the Pittsburgh Pirates bested Lefty Warren Spahn in an old-fashioned 1-0 duel.

A two-cut single by Danny Murtaugh in the second inning, a poor throw by Sibby Sisti and Earl Turner's one-bagger brought in Murtaugh with the only run of the game.

The game was enlivened by a skirmish between Chambers and Boston's Earl Torgeson. The latter rushed Chambers in the third inning after he was grounded by a close pitch. Not a blow was struck, as usual.

Chambers had hit Torgy on the back with a pitched ball in the first inning of Sunday's second game.

Chambers Allows Four Hits

Just before he was "low-bridged," Torgeson had lashed a long foul into the right field stands. The bespectacled Boston first baseman and Chambers are natives of the same state—Washington.

Chambers allowed only four hits to Spahn's five. He stopped Sam Jethroe's hitting streak at 15, horse-collaring the negro centerfielder four times.

In the only American League game, the Chicago White Sox nipped the Washington Senators 4-3 in 11 innings. Outfielder Mary Rickerts' home run in the eleventh enabled Randy Gumpert to gain his first victory of the season. He pitched two scoreless innings of relief. The Sox tied the score at 3-3 in the ninth when Nelson Fox, who scored the first Chicago run, flied out to send in Rickert from third.

Branca Goes Route

Ralph Branca pitched his first complete game for the Dodgers since Aug. 1, 1949, although he was tagged for 12 hits by the Giants. Four errors helped Brooklyn pick up as many unearned runs to win. Branca started with a rush, striking out 10 Giants in the first five innings. But he was lucky to finish.

The Dodgers got 10 hits off five Giant pitchers with Robinson and Furillo making three apiece. New York's Whitey Lockman, hotter than a quarter pistol lately, collected four safeties to give him 15 hits in his last 26 times at bat. Clint Hartung was the loser.

The only other scheduled game, that between the Cincinnati Reds and Phillies, was rained out.

Texas League— Fort Worth Cats Defeat Sports To Sweep Series

By The Associated Press

Fort Worth can start preparing to entertain the Texas League All-Star Game for the third straight year.

There are 15 days to go before the July 4 deadline when the club topping the league becomes host to the All-Star contest. Fort Worth is leading the league by nine and one-half games Tuesday and would have to run into a major catastrophe to sluff off such a margin in two weeks.

In the All-Star game the leading club plays a club recruited from the other seven league members on July 21.

Fort Worth beat Shreveport 11-8 Monday night to sweep the three-game series with the Sports. It was a slugging game with each club getting 15 hits.

Tulsa beat San Antonio 6-2 to sweep a series and move the Oilers four games ahead of third-place San Antonio. Bob Curley let the Missions down with four hits.

Beaumont whammed Dallas 8-0 to also make it three straight with Ernie Nevel limiting Dallas to four hits.

Bob Lemon hit his twenty-fourth home run of the season in pacing Oklahoma City to a 6-4 win over Houston.

USGA Ready To Burn Up Amateurs

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — The sports editor of the San Antonio Express hints that there may be trouble brewing for a number of Texas amateur golfers.

Dick Peebles says in his column that he learned from a usually reliable source that the United States Golf Association doesn't like the way the amateurs make the Summer links tour in the state with no visible means of support—and that the USGA is preparing to throw the book at the golfers.

Peebles said he learned about the friction during the 1950 Texas Amateur Tournament at San Antonio. He said that during the tourney Joey Dey, executive secretary of the USGA, twice called from New York to talk to a prominent veteran Texas golfer and inquire about who was paying the expenses of the player.

Dey was not available for comment Monday night in New York.

Great Racer Armed Will Be Retired

NEW YORK —(AP)— Armed Monday was heading back to the lush blue grass of Calumet Farm in Lexington, Ky., where he started out as an ugly duckling. But the retired old man of the turf always will be remembered as the golden gelding.

The gallant galloper ended his story-book career as the third greatest money winner of all time with $817,475. Citation tops the money winners, with Stymie second. Armed won more than half his 81 races—41. He was second 20 times and had 10 thirds. Only 10 times was he worse than third. He's nine years old now and has raced seven years. The veteran built up a popularity seldom, if ever, equalled.

He's the champion money earner of all geldings in turf history. He has been since he won the Suburban Handicap at Belmont Park on Memorial Day of 1946. That was the day he overtook the great old-timer, Exterminator, who finished first in half of his 100 starts and earned $252,996.

Standard, Rendezvous Take Major League Games

Standard of Texas downed Rotary Engineers 9-5 and Rendezvous eased past The Reporter-Telegram 10-8 Monday night in softball games played in the JayCee-sponsored Major League.

Charles Wise of Rotary and Standard's Milt Montgomery hooked up in a tight pitcher's duel until the top of the sixth inning when Standard broke loose for seven runs on seven hits. The score was 2-2 until the sixth.

Rotary rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh but was cut short by a double play. Rotary collected five hits to the winner's 11.

Crites Homers

Catcher-Manager Ben Crites hit a three-run homer in the second inning for The Reporter-Telegram but Rendezvous counted three quick runs in the fourth to take the 10-8 victory. Each infield committed one error.

The Harvesters outscored the Buccaneers 14-9 in an Optimist League tilt. Paden blasted a bases-loaded home run for the Harvesters in the third inning. Rutledge homered with none on for the losers.

Pros Say Williams Headed For Great Future With Clubs

AUSTIN —(AP)— Want to know who's going to carry the golf banner of Texas when fellows like Ben Hogan, Jimmie Demaret and Lloyd Mangrum have finished up?

Morris Williams, Jr., built like a buggy whip and twice as tough, could be just the fellow. He already has accomplished more in one year than any other Texas golfer—he has won both the Texas PGA at Midland and the Texas Amateur.

Beat Nelson

The old master Byron Nelson was in the PGA but young Williams beat him by a stroke, shooting the 72 holes in 273—15 under par.

In the Texas Amateur last week Williams, the University of Texas senior, licked Fred Moseley, world-wide service champion, 5 and 4, for the championship.

Whether Williams plans to become a pro is not decided but the pros say he has a future there if he does. Bob Hamilton, former National PGA champion, played with the youngster in the Texas Open at San Antonio. "He has the best swing of any amateur I have seen," Hamilton declared.

Texas Wins On Ehrler's No-Hit Job

OMAHA—(AP)—It was a pitchers' picnic Monday night in the NCAA Baseball tournament as Texas' Jim Ehrler fired a no-hit, no-run, 7-0 win over Tufts and Rod Keogh of Washington held Rutgers to one safety.

Tuesday, Alabama and Wisconsin —after resting a day—will meet at 6:30 p.m. in a game that will eliminate one. Washington State and Texas will clash at 9 p.m.

The Washington State-Texas tilt may determine the eventual winner of the double elimination tournament. Washington is still unbeaten in play here. Texas, once-beaten, is the defending champion. The two teams have proved themselves the toughest nines in the tourney.

Ehrler Brilliant

The only other team remaining of the original eight-team field is Rutgers. The Easterners, previously unbeaten in the tournament, lost 3-1 to Washington State in 10 innings Monday night.

Ehrler, a six-foot, one-inch junior from San Antonio, got stronger as the Longhorns' game with Tufts progressed. By the fifth the crowd sensed the drama of a possible no-hitter. In the sixth, Ehrler struck out two, in the seventh two, in the eighth three and in the ninth one.

The Texans rapped out a dozen hits.

Texas Vet Ready To Try Channel Swim

DENISON, TEXAS —(AP)— Roy Sutter, 36-year-old wounded war veteran, has his boat ticket to England where he plans to swim the English Channel.

Passage for Sutter, who aspires to be the first native Texan to swim the channel, was booked on the Cunard Line's Media for July 7 out of New York City by Chairman Verne Murray of the Roy Sutter Foundation.

The foundation, a non-profit organization sponsored by the Denison Herald, was set up to handle donations to help Sutter finance the channel attempt.

More than $2,000 has been collected.

Abilene Wins To Get Out Of Cellar

By The Associated Press

Abilene was out of the West Texas-New Mexico League cellar again Tuesday.

That was the only change in the circuit Monday night as the three leaders won their games.

Abilene beat Clovis 9-3 to push the latter into last place. Ralph Rahmes hit his fourth homer in four games in helping the Blue Sox to the win.

League-leading Lubbock edged Borger 5-4 with Rookie Buddy Morrow squeezing in the winning run in the ninth with a well-placed bunt.

Second-place Pampa licked Amarillo 20-0 as George Payte proved invincible on the mound, giving the Gold Sox only seven scattered hits. Pampa pounded 19.

Third-place Lamesa nosed Albuquerque 9-8 in a game that saw the lead change hands or the score tied seven times. Six Duke errors handed the game to Lamesa.

Jobe Hurls Four-Hit Win For Comanches

Dale Jobe, a former first baseman for the Roughnecks, joined the Comanches in the Shorthorn League Monday and hurled them to a 10-2 victory over the Rebels.

Jobe struck out 14 batters and allowed only four hits. He walked four.

M. Harris was the losing pitcher.

Fifth Grader Aces Hole First Round

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELBURNE

Rumors have been flying thick and fast the last couple of days that Harold Webb has sold out his remaining interest in the Midland Indians.

We haven't been able to trace the source of the rumors but according to Webb, there is nothing to them.

We called the Skipper early Tuesday to get his say on the thing and that was his answer.

—SS—

"I have not been approached by anyone from Midland about buying my part of the ball club," Webb said.

"I definitely have not sold any part of it except that which W. H. Donohoo purchased several weeks ago."

That should be sufficient to put a stop to the unfounded rumors floating around.

—SS—

While talking to Webb, we asked about player help.

"I have a dozen contacts out for pitching help and one or two good hurlers should be showing up right away," he assured us.

"We have got to win a lot more ball games than we have up to now and it looks like we need some help."

He mentioned a former Longhorn League hurler who definitely can win but requested that his name not be released.

We can assure you, however, that if this particular hurler comes to the Indians, he will be of tremendous help.

—SS—

The Indians looked good out there Monday night in whipping the San Angelo Colts 16 to 5. All of them were hustling and that's what it takes to win ball games.

This halfway stuff won't get it. If half of the club is hustling and the other half loafing, it just isn't possible to win.

There was no loafing Monday night.

If there is no more this season, the Indians will be in the playoffs.

—SS—

We want to pay special and due respect to George Firnback for his fight and hustle. He has been out there to play and win in every ball game.

George has been shifted here and there and presently is doing a great job in right field. He isn't an outfielder but he's doing the work of one and doing it well.

Firnback has been one of the "money hitters" in the linup all along but is more so now.

—SS—

The voting for the West All-Star team of the Longhorn League has started and most of the fans are following just about the same pattern in their balloting.

Here are the popular choices so far:

Manager — Al Monchak, Odessa.

Pitcher — Al Sokolowski, Odessa; Ray Knoblauch, Odessa; Bert Garcia, Big Spring; Ray Drake, Roswell; Ernie Nelson, Midland.

Catcher — Kenny Jones, Midland; Tom Jordan, Roswell.

First Base — Jim Prince, Midland.

Second Base — George Lopes, Big Spring.

Third Base — Carlos Pascual, Big Spring.

Shortstop — Scooter Hughes, Midland.

Right Field — Pat Stasey, Big Spring.

Center Field — Bill Cearley, Odessa.

Vernon Goose-Eggs Odessa In Pair As Roswell Takes Two

By The Associated Press

Odessa's lead narrowed Tuesday in the Longhorn League.

The Oilers dropped a doubleheader Monday night and Roswell, the second-place club, won two games. So Odessa now is just five and one-half games in front.

Vernon beat Odessa 3-0 and 2-0, winning the first on the two hit pitching of Al Richardson and capturing the nightcap with only two hits. One was a home run by Jimmy King.

Roswell clubbed Sweetwater 12-4 in the first game and eased in with an 8-6 decision in the second. Seven home runs were hit with Julian Pressley getting two for Roswell.

Big Spring slugged five homers in clouting Ballinger 15-13. Potato Pascual, who hit two homers, did some great relief pitching in the ninth to snuff out a Ballinger rally.

Midland bashed San Angelo 16-5, pounding 19 hits. Tex Stephenson's two-run homer featured the attack.

West Texas Oil And Gas Log—

conglomerate discovery in Central-Northeast Stonewall County.

Most recent potential was filed as 304 barrels of 39.6-gravity oil plus 10 per cent water daily. This gauge was rated from an actual 12-hour flow of 152 barrels of oil.

Production was from open hole at 6,001-10 feet through a 20/64th-in choke. Tubing pressure was 80 pounds.

This new discovery is 12 miles northeast of Aspermont and 660 feet from east and 3,889 feet from south lines of section 44, block G, Alice Stephenson survey.

Stonewall Wildcat Gets Shows, To DST

Sun Oil Company No. 1 Branch, Southwest Stonewall County wildcat, 17 miles southwest of Aspermont, and 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from south lines of section 339, block 2, H&TC survey, is bottomed at 6,700 feet in a dolomite which has shown some gas and is preparing to run a drillstem test.

Top of the dolomite is at 6,690 feet, which is a datum of minus 4,821 feet. Operator representatives have not officially identified the formation. It is possibly the Ellenburger.

This exploration had very little lime and the Pennsylvanian series and none of it had any porosity. Most of that formation was sand and shale.

Sharon Ridge Edge Well High On Reef

Warren No. 3 Reynolds, on the extreme southwest side of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field in Southwest Scurry County, and 517 feet from east and 581 feet from north lines of the northeast quarter of section 101, block 25, H&TC survey is showing as a producer.

It topped the reef at 6,581 feet, on a minus datum of 4,305 feet. Operator drilled to total depth of 6,701 feet and is preparing to run casing and make production tests and complete.

Drilling samples showed that the section would produce.

Spraberry Top Void In NE Howard Test

Herman Brown No. 1 Branon, Northeast Howard County wildcat, 16 miles northeast of Big Spring, and 667.3 feet from south and 652.7 feet from west lines of section 18, block 27, H&TC survey, found no shows of petroleum in the top of the Spraberry section of the Permian in a drillstem test at 5,180-5,224 feet.

The tool was open one hour. There was a slight blow of air at the surface during the investigation. Recovery was 180 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or formation water.

The prospector is making hole below 5,363 feet in lime. Top of the Spraberry section was called at 5,184 feet.

This development is two miles south of the discovery well of the East Vealmoor field.

Water Developed By Tom Green Wildcat

After developing some shows of oil and gas in drillstem tests in the Des Moines lime of the Pennsylvanian between 4,660 feet and 4,740 feet, Shell Oil Company No. 1 Johnson, Northeast Tom Green County wildcat developed water.

The water came in a two-hour drillstem test at 4,742-80 feet. Recovery was 270 feet of drilling mud, 90 feet of salty mud and 2,400 feet of salt water. There were no shows of oil or gas.

The prospector was to run an electric log and was to then drill deeper. It is contracted to 6,000 feet to test the Ellenburger.

Location is 1,205 feet from north and 1,422 feet from east lines of section 21, WCRR survey. It is five miles northeast of San Angelo.

Amerada Schedules Von Roeder Flanker

Amerada Petroleum Corporation is to start operations at once at its No. 4 Cora E. Weathers, which is to be a 7,500-foot exploration to test the Canyon lime reef on the southwest side of the Von Roeder field in Southeast Borden County.

It is five miles west of Knapp.

DALHART —(AP)— A tornado Monday night slashed within one mile southwest of this Panhandle city, uprooting trees, scrambling communications wires and doing considerable property damage.

The twister tossed a wheat combine onto the Rock Island Railroad's main line. It began at King Switch, 16 miles southwest of Dalhart. It leveled a concrete block fence, blew a chimney from the Lora Finch ranch and bent a windmill double. An inch and three-quarters of rain, accompanied by hail, fell in the Dalhart area.

Recruiter Speaks To Optimist Club

Sgt. First Class Shelby Wheelus of the U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station in Midland addressed the Optimist Club at its Tuesday noon luncheon in Hotel Scharbauer.

Wheelus told of the accomplishments of the two services since the war and of the advantages now being offered enlisted men.

The Army and Air Force have undergone complete reorganization, he said, and now offer every man a career. All recruits are sent to school, Wheelus said, and after they start on a certain assignment or job they are allowed to continue with it.

He said the Army now requires a general classification score of 90 and the Air Force score is 100.

Among advantages offered by the Army and Air Force are above-average pay, a retirement program, education and recreation, Wheelus pointed out.

Walter Bodenman was in charge of the program. V. H. (Pete) Van Horn presided at the meeting.

Three More Screen Writers Face Trial On Contempt Charge

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The government Tuesday sought conviction of three more Hollywood figures who were cited for contempt because they would not tell Congrses whether they are Communists.

The three are among the so-called "Hollywood Ten"—a group of movie writers, directors and producers who defied the House Committee on Un-American Activities. This was during the committee's communism-in-Hollywood investigation of October, 1947.

The trio, Albert Maltz, Alvah Bessie and Samuel Ornitz, were scheduled to appear before U. S. District Judge David A. Pine. If adjudged guilty, they will get sentences of a year's imprisonment each, plus $1,000 fines.

Those were the sentences given film writers John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo, the first of the ten to be tried. They began their terms June 9.

Tax Bill—

ies, jewelry, travel tickets, luggage, telephones, tires, tubes, baby bottle warmers and scores of other items.

The big corporation tax boost, if approved by House and Senate, would just about cover completely the estimated $1,010,000,000 excise cut. The committee, by a 10 per cent withholding on corporation dividends, loophole plugging and various other tax changes, already had found ways to pick up an estimated $465,000,000 in addition to the $433,000,000 from corporations.

Speed-up Proposed

In addition, the committee was expected to vote Tuesday on a proposal by Representative Mills (D-Ark) to speed up corporation tax payments.

Corporations now can pay in four quarterly installments the taxes they owe for the previous year. Mills wants, by a gradual process, to bring them around to paying by March 15 of each year all their taxes for the previous year.

The step-up would not increase the long-run revenue but would mean more money piling faster into the Treasury in the next three to five years.

Here's what the committee voted Monday:

1. A flat 21 per cent normal tax rate on all corporation earnings.

2. A flat 2 per cent surtax rate on all corporation taxable earnings over $25,000.

This means a tax rate of 21 per cent on the first $25,000 and 41 per cent on all over $25,000. The new rates, if finally approved, would become effective on the taxable year beginning after Dec. 31, 1949.

The corporation income tax now is 21 per cent on the first $5,000 of earnings; 23 per cent on the next $15,000; 25 per cent on the next $5,000; 53 per cent from $25,000 to $50,000, and 38 per cent on all over $50,000.

Detroit Loses Fourth Ranking In Population

DETROIT —(AP)— Detroit's 1950 population is 1,837,617—a gain of 214,165 over 1940, but not large enough to keep the rating of "nation's fourth largest city."

Los Angeles has a 1950 population of 1,954,036. It added 449,759 to its 1940 population of 1,504,277.

New York ranks first in population, Chicago, second, and Philadelphia, third. In 1940, Los Angeles was the fifth largest city.

Senate Votes On Expansion Of Social Security Program

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Senate begins voting Tuesday afternoon on a politically popular plan to expand the Social Security program.

There was no doubt expressed in advance that the Senate would follow the lead of the House and vote increased old age and survivors benefits, and enlarge the number of workers covered by the law. The bill would add about 10,000,000 workers to the 35,000,000 now under the law.

The bill would increase monthly benefits to current beneficiaries an average of 85 to 90 per cent and would approximately double the amounts payable to persons retiring in the future. The House-passed bill differs in details.

HONK KONG—(AP)—Two blockade runners were reported to have struck mines and sunk at the mouth of the Yangtze River off Shanghai Monday. Fifteen persons were said to have been killed.

The British Royal Navy said it had heard the report, but was unable to confirm it.

Hong Kong shipping companies thought enough of the report, however, to cancel all future ship sailings to Shanghai.

The two ships were the Greek coaster Santos, and the 800-ton Valve of Panamanian registry.

Acheson Appeals To Governors For 'Point Four' Support

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA. —(AP)— Secretary of State Acheson appealed to the nation's governors Tuesday to support President Truman's program of aid for the world's backward areas.

"By aiding the people of underdeveloped areas to deal with their basic problems of food, health and education," he said, "we shall be strengthening their resistance against extremism of whatever kind."

Acheson spoke before the state governors who have gathered for a four-day study of domestic and world problems.

In his prepared speech, the secretary dealt entirely with United States efforts to help strengthen the free world and maintain world peace.

The Administration has advanced the aid to backward areas program—called "Point Four" after its position in President Truman's inaugural address—as an important factor in building peace.

Gov. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania told a reporter in advance of Acheson's talk that he hoped to find out what the Truman Administration proposes to do about halting the advance of communism in Asia. Duff is a Republican candidate for the Senate this Fall.

Acheson's "Point Four" discussion did not go into this broad question.

125,000 Shriners Jam Los Angeles For Annual Session

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Mecca moved West Tuesday as an estimated 125,000 Shriners swarmed over Los Angeles and its farflung environs for the seventy-sixth annual session of the Imperial Council.

Tuesday was a day of parades for 12,000 delegates from 67 temples, most of them marching in their colorful uniforms behind blaring bands. Mounted units included 280 horsemen, six camels from Madison, Wis., and scores abroad all manner of weird conveyances, ranging from a 1901 one-cylinder automobile from Louisville, Ky., to a cable street-car from San Francisco.

Despite a traction strike, nobles found their way around in chartered taxis and cars of accommodating citizens. Several deputations from far Northern locals declared they brought their own sourdough just in case the also-current bakers' strike proves inconvenient.

Officially the conclave opened Sunday and will continue through Thursday.

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Marilyn Lindberg, blonde, curvaceous and engaged to be married, was chosen Monday night as "Miss Cleopatra" of the national Shrine convention.

The 19-year-old television model, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Lindberg, Van Nuys, Calif., represented the Beverly Hills Shrine Club in a queen contest among nine Southern California girls. Originally there were 250 entries. She will be married saturday to Roy Perry, 26, a public relations employe.

Traffic congestion reached a peak almost unprecedented in Los Angeles. Many delegates, aware of the trolley strike, brought their cars and space in parking lots virtually was non-existent.

The housing problem was equally severe. Some 1,800 delegates from Pittsburgh's Syria Lodge, for instance, were expected and accommodated. But another 650 arrived Monday, by auto. Their reservations had been cancelled by overloading railroads but they came anyway. A lucky few among them found shelter in a high school gymnasium at Santa Monica, 20 miles away.

On the serious side, Al Malaikah Temple, Los Angeles, laid the corner stone Monday for the seventeenth Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in ceremonies conducted by Imperial Potentate Harold Lloyd and Ellsworth Meyer, grand master of Masons in California.

McDonald—

nees, but on "aid and comfort" he gave Ben Guill, a Republican in his recent congressional campaign. This, Sergeant said, was given while McDonald was applying for a place on the Democratic ballot.

Sergeant asked the court to dismiss the mandamus and injunction pleas on grounds they seek to halt acts which already have taken place. He also said the court had no jurisdiction because fact questions were raised that already had been determined by the committee.

Moody, Small Cite Record

Clint Small of Austin, attorney for McDonald, based his argument on the Love versus Wilcox case in which the State Supreme Court held that the power to pass on the sincerity of a candidate's pledge and to endorse or condemn his past party record is to be exercised by the voters.

"If the decision in the Love case means anything and if the statute means anything, McDonald should be granted this write," Small said.

Former Gov. Dan Moody, counsel for McDonald, told the court that the only legal pledge that can be exacted of a candidate is the one "to support the nominees of this primary." McDonald took that pledge, Moody said.

Answering Sergeant's plea that the case is moot because some county committees already have gone ahead with ballot-printing plans, Moody said the Supreme Court in earlier cases had given the committee latitude in extending deadlines to make certain the voters could speak.

The court gave no indication when it would act. Absentee voting in the July 22 primary starts July 2. County subcommittees next Monday are scheduled to prepare the ballots for printing in their final form.

Shivers Declares Tidelands Decision Is 'Entering Wedge'

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA. —(AP)— Gov. Allan Shivers Monday urged a committee of state governors to decide whether the Supreme Court Tidelands decision is the entering wedge of nationalization of resources.

Chairman of the Tidelands Committee of the Southern Governors' Conference meeting here, Shivers asked the committee to decide "before it is too late."

He said:

"What the majority (of Supreme Court members) has now held in the Texas Tidelands suit is no more incongruous that would be some future holding nationalizing potash of New Mexico and Texas; the mercury of California, Oregon and Texas; the copper of Utah, Arizona, Montana and Michigan; the iron of Minnesota; the aluminum of Arkansas; the phosphate of Idaho, Tennessee and Florida; the coal of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Virginia and Ohio; the lead and zinc of Oklahoma and Missouri; the tungsten of Colorado; the titanium of Virginia; the gold of South Dakota, Colorado and California, and the silver of Montana, Colorado and Idaho."

Shivers added: "Mark these words of Mr. Justice Douglas in the majority opinion: 'Property rights must be so subordinated to political rights as in substance to coalesce and unite in the national sovereign.'

"While these words refer specifically to the Tidelands, I am afraid they spell out the trend."

Operation Sandex Invaders Repelled

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. —(AP)— Mexico-based "invaders" with Sandia Secret Weapons Base at Albuquerque for their target were held back Monday as "Operation Sandex" got into full swing.

The mock battles were "going according to plan," said the public information office at Kirtland Field, with gunners manning the ring of anti-aircraft artillery which has surrounded the city since Friday.

They spent the day training their guns on B-45 jet bombers and F-86 Sabrejet fighters—the fastest planes the Air Force has today.

More than 2,000 troops from Fort Bliss, Texas, are taking part in the maneuvers which continue through Thursday.

DAV Service Officer To Be Here This Week

Robert O. Pugh of Lubbock, national service officer for the Disabled American Veterans, will be in Midland Thursday night and Friday to assist veterans, their widows and dependents in their claims with the Veterans Administration.

Pugh will conduct a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Red Cross office. He will be available Friday at Hotel Scharbauer.

The service is free and is sponsored by the Midland Chapter No. 50, DAV.

Pair Taken For Wild Ride In Car Trunk; Kidnaper Is Killed

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO. —(AP)— The kidnaping of two Pennsylvania boys and their imprisonment in an auto trunk during a 1,500 mile, two-day ride was a closed case Tuesday—their captor dead with a policeman's bullet in his heart.

But the reason for the strange and violent crime spree of Joe Pacific, 32-year-old Canonsburg, Pa., electrician, probably were known to him alone when he died emptying his pistol at police pursuers in nearby Mingo Junction Monday afternoon.

The two boys Pacific kidnaped—Nick Cursi, 18, and Joseph Zolmerchik, 19, both of Cokesburg, Pa.—came out of the harrowing experience weak from thirst and hunger, bleeding from head wounds, and terror-stricken. But they were not harmed seriously.

Their long ride started near Canonsburg Saturday night when they picked up the hitchhiking Pacific on their way to a dance in Cursi's car. Pacific robbed them of $16, Zolmerchik said, returned it saying he was joking, then took it back again, slugged them with his pistol butt, and locked them in the car trunk.

Beats Her With Gun

Monday morning Pacific drove the car to the home of his estranged wife's parents, beat her with his gun and forced her to go away with him in the car.

It was the wife, Matilda, 30, who called Mingo Junction police when Pacific left the car there to go into a store to buy her a dress to replace the blood-stained one she wore.

The kidnaper fled afoot and eluded a police posse for more than an hour. Sergeant Sam Baker said Pacific shot at him three times and missed before Baker fired a bullet into his chest. The fugitive ran a few yards, slumped down, fired another shot at his pursuers and collapsed dying.

Coroner John P. Smarrella of Jefferson County closed official investigation of the case Monday night by ruling the slaying "justifiable homicide."

A pencil-sized detector for carbon monoxide, poisonous gas exhausted by automobile engines, was developed during the war.

Woman Newcomer Paces Democrats In Maine Voting

PORTLAND, MAINE —(AP)— To her own pleasant surprise, Lucia M. Cormier was a Democratic congressional nominee Tuesday.

The plump, attractive Rumford book store owner won the standout victory in Monday's Maine primaries. Her margin was better than two to one.

A newcomer to politics, she said happily:

"Five years ago if anyone had told me I would ever run for Congress I'd have quickly told them they were crazy x x x."

Rep. Robert Hale (R) will be Miss Cormier's September election foe. He was renominated for a fifth term.

Earl S. Grant, president of a Portland business college, will contest Republican Gov. Frederick G. Payne's election.

Payne was unopposed as were Republican Representatives Charles P. Nelson and Frank Fellows, and John V. Keenan, Mars Hill Democrat, who will compete with Fellows in the Third District.

Nelson's election opponent will be John J. Maloney, Jr., 38, of Lewiston, who won a three-way Democratic fight in the Second Congressional District.

Two Die In Crash; Another In Hospital

PORTALES, N. M. —(AP)— Truck driver H. L. Coon of Morton, Texas, was in a hospital here Tuesday—but only after he was overruled in his plea that the other victims of a highway crash be taken first.

State Policeman Bill Lucas ordered ambulance drivers to take Coon to the hospital when he saw the others involved already were dead.

Coon had pleaded that "those other poor people" be cared for.

Mrs. Sarah Dupuy, 88, and her son, Norvin, 68, both of Floyd, N. M., were the victims.

Officers said the Dupuy pickup truck crashed head-on into Coon's vehicle Monday near here.

Coon was kept in the hospital for observation.

GOP COMMITTEEMAN DIES

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. —(AP)—Republican National Committeeman Harold E. Mitchell was found dead in his home here Monday. Coroner Louis W. Schaefer said the 48-year-old Mitchell died of acute congestive heart failure.

Budget Bureau Okays Canadian River Dam

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The $85,000,000 Canadian River Dam project in Texas has received the conditional approval of the Budget Bureau.

Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas Monday night said there were three conditions in the endorsement of the West Texas conservation development, and listed them as:

1. Congress should appropriate no fund for the work until a contract has been signed by all three states on the Canadian watershed. These are Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

2. The reimbursable feature of the project—95 per cent of the cost—should be repaid with two per cent interest.

3. Ownership of the development should be placed in the hands of municipalities which are to use the water at the earliest practicable date.

Johnson said the recommendation was given Interior Secretary Chapman, who will send it to Congress.

The budget approval gives pending legislation to authorize the project a much better chance to pass this session of Congress, Johnson said.

Don Devore To Polio Treatment Center

Don (Speck) Devore, popular Reporter-Telegram newspaperboy, has returned to Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation polio treatment center.

He will take further treatment there and will take swimming and baths.

Doctors recommended his return there for the Summer.

Officers Baffled By Nude Slaying, Missing Waitress

EUREKA, CALIF. —(AP)— The disappearance of a pretty, 17-year-old waitress, apparently without her clothes, baffled officers Tuesday in attempts to solve the "Lovers' Beach" slaying of a nude bakery driver.

The driver and the waitress had a Saturday night date.

Sunday morning, the body of the driver, Henry (Red) Baird, 28, was found on the beach below Table Bluff, a cliff 75 yards from the surf. There was a bullet hole in the back of his head. He wore only socks and shoes.

His clothing was piled neatly nearby—on top of the clothing of the waitress, Barbara Kelly. Only her shoes and stockings were missing. Baird and Miss Kelly had been dating two months.

Close by was Baird's car. Missing from it was a .22 caliber pistol he always carried. Sheriff Charles W. Rabb said Baird apparently had been shot by a .22. But the skull appeared crushed considerably for such a small bullet.

A lighthouse keeper saw one car casting its light on the remote beach spot at 12:30 a.m. Sunday—then the lights went out. The lighthouse keeper never saw the car leave; nor did he see any other car enter.

Investigators found $32 in Baird's wallet and $3 in a pocket.

The brown-haired, hazel-eyed Miss Kelley had informed her parents in Fortuna she was going to a show Saturday night in Eureka and would spend the night with friends.
