Sunday, June 18 Is Father's Day

Sunday, June 18, is Father's Day, when the family gathers around the head of the house to pay tribute to Dad. This special day of honoring dad has been observed since 1910, when Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, nee Sonora Louise Smart, proposed a special day honoring her father, William Smart of Spokane, Wash., who following the death of his wife in 1898, reared six children. The pioneer father endured many hardships in order to keep his little brood together.

Celebration of the unpretentious local holiday began to spread, and today, Father's Day is observed from coast to coast and in other countries.

Austin. — A task force of federal officials, here for a conference on federal-state relations, got an earful from disgruntled state agency officials who complained of poor communication between Austin and Washington.

Gov. John Connally opened the conference by telling the men from D. C. that the federal grant system is characterized "by misunderstanding, disharmony and, in some instances, utter confusion."

Other state officials got down to specifics when the conference broke up into small groups to discuss intergovernmental coordination, health and welfare, education, water development, outdoor recreation, economic opportunity and manpower development.

They said they want to be consulted in advance about proposed programs; they want federal agencies to work through state agencies on local programs; they want block grants which would give state agencies greater latitude in tailoring federal programs to fit local needs; and they want specific, unconflicting instructions from Washington as to what is expected of them.

Since the federal officials had been through similar sessions in 39 other states, they took the criticism without flinching.

ENOUGH OIL? — Texas Railroad Commission is keeping an eye peeled on the Middle East Crisis in case it becomes necessary for Texas to help make up for crude oil shortages growing out of the hostilities between the Israelis and the Arab nations.

Commission Chairman Jim C. Langdon said Texas has enough reserves to meet any emergency; but while increasing oil allowances is easy, overcoming logistical problems would require ingenuity.

AGRICULTURE AND THE URBAN LEGISLATURE — Although the lawmakers turned down a proposal for creation of a coordinating board to study problems in agriculture, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White was given the job — and the money — to make the sort of studies envisioned for the proposed super-board.

In the appropriations bill, funds were earmarked for studies on ways to expand marketing outlets for Texas commodities and research on boll weevil eradication, aflatoxin control, peanuts, plums, peaches, dairy products, fire ants, castor beans, vegetables, cotton, mohair, wool and statistics on county farms.

In addition, appropriations were bigger and better than ever for the Texas Animal Health Commission, A&M's Agricultural Experiment State and Extension Service, salaries for teachers of veterinary medicine and the Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory.

Reed - Hanks Rites
Thursday, June 8

Miss Wanda Kay Hanks and Dennis Michael Reed, both of Talco, were united in marriage June 8 at Calvary Baptist Church at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. C. H. Paxton, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Hanks of Talco are parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Reed, also of Talco.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white bridal satin, with fitted bodice covered with Chantilly lace, scalloped neckline and petal point sleeves. Her bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Ann Brown attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Hargrove of Mt. Pleasant and Miss Judy Case of Talco. They wore street length dresses of blue embossed taffeta, full skirts and a dress length train of chiffon fastened with a bow at neck. Veils were attached to matching rings. They carried nosegays of carnations with blue and white streamers. The flower girl, Nita Hanks, wore a dress styled similar to the brides, with a head band of white flowers.

Lyndon Ray Reed was his brother's best man. Ronald Duncan and Handy Stansell were ushers and Russell Jones, ringbearer. Reed and Terry McGonagill were candlelighters.

Vows were spoken before the altar of the church decorated with an archway covered in greenery and decorated with white wedding bells. Brass candleabra with white tapers and fan shaped baskets of white glads complemented the altar scene.

Misses Sandy Giddens and Rita Branch presented traditional musical selections.

A reception honoring the newlyweds was held at the church following the ceremony. Seventy-five guests were served the four-tiered wedding cake with punch and mints.

For going away the bride chose a navy, lace trimmed dress and the orchid from her wedding bouquet and white accessories. The couple will be at home in Commerce, where both are attending ETSU, after a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Reed were hosts for the rehearsal party. Members of the wedding party attended.
