Along The Waterfront

The water is really coming in on the 'water front' now. It is raining and the wind is blowing. Of course, fishing is not good under these conditions, but the rain and high tide will certainly bring the fish in when the weather clears up.

Last Saturday afternoon Floyd Huffman took Leonard LeBlanc and Roy Rogero out on the tug 'Bar-H'. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Huffman the party landed 12 gaff-tops. The catch was turned over to Ex Givens for a Sunday dinner.

Lee Golibart and party, of Houston, fished with Harry Mills Saturday and Sunday. They caught 815 trout and 20 big drum. The party is stopping at Oak Shore Apartments.

Tuesday Jack Lawler took Dr. Nash, of Dallas, out and caught 69 trout, 6 gaff tops and many skipjacks.

Earle Thomas had Ray Elkins and party, of Shreveport, La., out Sunday and they brought in 35 fish.

At Perry Jones' Wharf the specks and sand trout are biting. W. C. Stevenson caught a nice string of fish out there this week.

Rattlesnake Point reports the tide coming in and everything looking good for fishing when the weather clears. The report from Jolly Roger Camp is that specks and sand trout and small redfish are coming in.

Floyd's Boat and Sales Co. says there is water for you to fish in right in front of his place now.

Mr. Kelly and party, of Boerne, fished with Ralph Matern Saturday and Sunday, catching 26 mackerel, 8 bonita, 15 trout, 14 redfish and 1 flounder.

Two men from San Antonio went out from Johnson's Bait Stand and caught a nice string of speckled trout and 1 large redfish. Bill Bardwell brought in a nice catch of trout and redfish. One of the reds weighed 7 pounds and another weighed 9 pounds.

HEADLINES, HEADGEAR—AND NO HEADWAY—This photograph is a graphic reminder that in Korea when talks stop, guns still speak. Front page of the Korean edition of the Army newspaper Stars and Stripes tells the story of one more break down in the on-and-off truce conferences. The punctured helmet, however, shows that although lead used for news type tells one story, bullet lead tells another, more strongly punctuated. tale. Armistice talks or not, the war still goes on.

Pirates vs. Eagles In Non-conference Game Friday

The Rockport Pirates and the Woodsboro Eagles meet Friday night on the local field in the season opener for both football teams.

The Eagles, top contenders in the district, are expected to be among the toughest opponents in the Pirate schedule. They sport a fine running attack, and their passing game is almost equally as strong. The Pirates, though outmanned, will concede nothing, and will scrap and battle all the way. Game time is 8:00, Friday night. Everyone is requested to come out and get behind the Pirates and help them win.

The Pirates scrimmaged Refugio, a class AA team, Tuesday night. The Pirates did very well against the heavier line of Refugio. At times the defense was strong and aggressive, as was the offense. A great deal of improvement was noted over the last scrimmage. The morale of the Pirates is high and, of course, more improvements will be made before game time.

Lack of first line substitutes is the big factor now. It is hoped that more will develop as the season progresses.

PICTORIAL PROOF — And piscatorial, too, that a fish is no match for a man even when the fellow isn't lying. The fisherman is Bob Rood, a Salinas, Calif., photographer who is 48 inches tall and weighs 80 pounds. The fish, which Rood actually caught, is a salmon 38 inches long and weighs 29 pounds. As the photo shows, fishing is probably the only sport in the world where battlers weigh in after the fight.

Brundrett Rockport Lease Gets Wildcat Venture; Two Deep Tests Set Casing

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corp. was clearing location yesterday for an 8,000-foot Aransas County wildcat 4 miles southwest of Rockport, at the No. 1 J. F. Brundrett.

This test is on a 40-acre farmout from Emory M. Spencer of Rockport and George W. Graham of Wichita Falls, and will be the seventh try for production in this area since Spencer and Graham assembled a 7,000-acre block in 1949. Graham's TG&M Drilling Co. is contractor on the venture.

Anderson - Prichard's wildcat will test all the Frio Sands now producing in the Fulton Beach Mud Flats and Aransas Pass (McCampbell) Fields, but will be aimed primarily at an oil sand around 7,118 feet, found in 1949 by Spencer and Graham at the No. 1 Wheeler, about a mile northeast of the new wildcat. That test made considerable oil and salt water, but efforts to shut off the water failed and the hole was plugged.

Location for the new wildcat is 660 feet from the northeast and southeast (road) lines of the 40-acre tract, scales 3,650 feet from the south line and about 3,150 feet from the middle east line of William S. Tuton Survey, A-202, and is about 5,850 feet due east of Puerto Bay. It also scales about 2,950 feet southeast of Spencer and Graham No. 1 Brundrett dry hole dug last year to just below 8,000 feet. Elevation is appriximately 15 feet.

Deep Tests

Sun Oil Co. No. 8 Copano State 76, in Copano Bay, Aransas County, yesterday was at 9,356 feet, waiting on cement after setting 7-inch protective pipe.

Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 13 Copano Bay State, in the new West Fulton Beach area, was coring at 6,638 feet Friday after logging several gas-distillate sands, as well as a good oil sand. Phillips No. 16 also has found several good gas-distillate sands and a good oil show and was coring at 7,610 feet.

Location for Phillips' No. 18 has been amended, making it 660 feet from the south and east lines of the north half of Copano Bay State Tract 43.

Gas Shows

Humble Oil and Refining Co. No. 1 Aransas Bay State Tract 118, wildcat near Mills' Wharf, kicked at 9,285 feet, conditioned mud and cored on to 9,311 feet with no show, ran electrical log and cut sidewall cores, and yesterday had set 7-inch casing.

Sidewall cores showed sand and shaley sand with gas odor from 9,268-71 feet. Conventional cores at 9,220-25 and 9,235-50 feet recovered sandy shale and sand with gas odor. The well also has had numerous gas shows up the hole.

Western Natural Gas Co. No. 14 St.. Charles Ranch Co., Blackjack area test, was running open flow potential test on perforations at 11,470-90 feet, and preparing to make distillate gauge. The No. 16 was drilling at 8,780 feet.

Sun Oil Co. No. 1 State 67, Aransas Bay wildcat 1½ miles southeast of Lamar, set 16-inch conductor pipe at 170 feet and yesterday was waiting on cement. A Cotton Dickson rig is on this test, which is permitted to 9,000 feet.

Sun No. 7 Copano State 69, Fulton Beach Field, cored shaley sand with oil odor at 7,103-08 feet and sandy shale at 7,108-11 feet and yesterday was running drillstem test.

Election For Re-allocation Of Taxes Saturday

At a regular meeting of the County Commissioners of Aransas County on August 13, an election was called to be held September 15 for the reallocation of tax levies in Aransas County.

The Commissioners Court proposes to cut the levy for the general fund from 50 to 40 cents and add nine cents to the road and bridge fund, bringing it up to 25 cents and add 1 cent to the permanent improvement fund, making it 13 cents. The jury levy of two cents on each $100.00 valuation would remain the same.

Judge Wendell said the one cent increase to the permanent improvement fund will provide approximately $12,000 next year. It is proposed to use this money to construct an additional room to the court house to serve as a vault for the county and district clerks office.

Rotary Club Has Dinner Meeting Wednesday

The Rockport Rotary Club held their regular dinner meeting at the Methodist Church Annex Wednesday noon. There was one visitor, Jim Dow, of Galveston, present.

The president, Fred A. Bracht, presided at the meeting, and Fred Brundrett was program chairman. He introduced Emory M. Spencer as speaker. Mr. Spencer spoke about the Aransas County airfield, how it was acquired and what will be done with it.

A great deal of the land in the airfield was owned by Kent-Crane and when it was deeded to the Navy, they released mineral rights with the understanding that they would not be developed while the airfaild was in operation and that if the land ceased to be used for an airfiald the mineral rights would revert back to them. Since the county owns the field they retain ½ of the royalty. The County of Aransas has been trying to get the government to make an auxiliary base here, but so far it has not succeeded. The field has not been a financial loss to the county, but they would like to get it under new management.

Jim Dow told of his trip and visit to the Rotary Club in London, England. He says that the Rotarians there are most gracious and give a visitor a very sincere welcome.

Health Dept. Warns Against Rabid Shunks

Austin — Texas farmers and ranchers in the Red River Valley region and in Southwest and Central Texas have been warned to begin killing skunks—lots of them—before cold weather brings an increase in rabies cases.

The grim warning is contained in an animal morbidity report compiled by the State Department of Health. The idea is to pin point rabies infested areas as warning to people in adjacent areas.

State Health Officer George W. Cox said Texas had areas "bigger than most states" which are completely free of rabies.

"From now on we're going to call our shots by county of occurrence. It isn't going to be "Texas rabies" any more," the health officer declared.

"Livestock owners . . . should have active skunk killing problems, especially in the Red River Valley area, when winter approaches and skunks hole up with livestock in dilapidated barns," the report cautioned.

Current focal points of skunk rabies are, the report indicated, in Harris, Matagorda, Fort Bend, and Lavaca counties. Another focus exists in the region of Comal and Hays counties, and in Central Texas in Travis, Bell, Cory, Lampassas, and McLennon counties.

"The trend is eastward in Central Texas," the report said.

Titus and Hopkins, an area hit hard last year, continues to have a serious problem, causing health officials to caution livestockmen in the eastern part of the Red River Valley to be especially vigilant against skunk invasions of barns and outhouses.

The rabies morbidity report is something new in disease control. Modeled after the method used to keep tab on cases of human communicable diseases, it is part of the general protection the state health agency is providing.

For July the report shows: 77 dogs, 6 foxes, 6 cats, 4 skunks, 4 calves, 3 pigs, 2 civit cats, and 1 cow were diagnosed as rabid at the state Bureau of Laboratories.

Bexar and Harris counties were hardest hit during July. Each reported one case of dog rabies each day of the month.

State Department Needs Field Workers

The State Department of Public Welfare is looking for Field Workers and Child Welfare Workers, according to Chas. S. Gardiner, Director of the Merit System Council.

The salary range for both jobs normally is $230 to $260. But Gardiner points out that the beginning salary has been raised to $240 during the present emergency.

Applicants for the Field Worker job must have completed a minimum of 60 semester hours of college work, or 30 semester hours of college work plus one-year of full-time paid social work employment in a recognized public or private welfare agency. High school graduates who have had two years of full-time paid employment in social work in a recognized public or private welfare agency may also qualify for the Field Worker examination. The Child Welfare position, however, requires applicants to be graduates of an accredited four-year college or university.

In order to get the required number of workers, Gardiner said a system has been worked out to give examinations on the first and second Saturday of each month. On the first Saturday examinations will be given in the following Texas Employment Commission offices: Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Longview, San Angelo, San Antonio and Waco. In Austin, the examinations will be held at the office of the Merit System Council and in Texarkana at the Texarkana Junior College.

Examinations on the second Saturday of each month will be held in Texas Employment Commission offices located at Abilene, Beaumont, El Paso, Galveston, Harlingen, Lubbock, Odessa and Wichita Falls. On the same dates examinations will be given in Laredo at the Laredo Junior College and in Tyler at the Tyler Junior College.

Uncertainty Shrouds Hunting Prospects

Austin — Uncertainty shrouded hunting prospects as Texans prepared to open the northern zone mourning dove season at noon Sept. 1.

The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said the record-breaking drought was the principal factor in casting so much doubt about the general mourning dove situation.

"We are never certain about mourning doves especially early in the season," said the Executive Director. "The shooting generally is spotted during the first phase of the shooting.

"For one thing, doves may be abundant in one area for the first day or two and then more or less disappear in the flush areas only to re-appear elsewhere where the opening hunt had been poor."

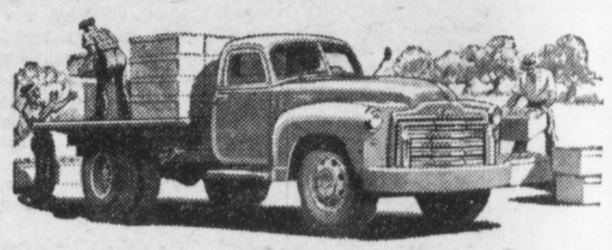

He said there was more than usual interest in the early hunting reports because of the known fact that the drought has cut dove production somewhat in Texas.

"When it is as dry and as hot as it has been in some areas, doves simply do not nest," said the Executive Secretary. "And many times after doves have nested during the extreme dry spells, the eggs are not hatchable because of the lack of humidity in the air, which is needed to complete the hatching process."

He said knowledge of the nesting and feeding habits, as well as migratory traits of mourning doves, is being increased each year through the banding program. Hunters bagging doves with bands around their legs were asked to forward the bands to the Game Department in Austin along with the date and place the birds were harvested.

Dove hunting will be limited to afternoon hours this season by Federal ruling. The bag limits are ten per day and ten in possession.

FRED BRACHT HOST TO HOLY NAME SOCIETY MONDAY NIGHT

The Holy Name Society met at the Fred A. Bracht home Monday night, September 10 with twelve members and two visitors, Claude C. Marte and Claude C. Marte, Jr., of San Antonio, present.

Leonard LeBlanc, president of the organization, presided at the meeting. Mr. Marte, representative of the Catholic State League and the Catholic Life Insurance Union in Texas addressed the meeting.

Mr. Marte hopes to get the local organization to join the Catholic State League, which is the oldest state-wide Catholic Action in Texas. The object is to get parish groups to work on State levels. He says that the Catholic League was the first state-wide organization to condemn Communism, or legislation that would deny a man his God given and civil rights.

Claude Marte, Jr. entertained the group with a number of selections on the accordion.

Mrs. Bracht and Miss Mary Jo Bracht served sandwiches and soft drinks to the guests.

Director of Public Safety Asks to Put Damper On False Rumors

Austin—Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced his intentions of calling upon the State's newspapers and radio stations to assist his Department in putting the "damper" on the false rumors and misinformation that is currently being spread in some circles concerning Texas' new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility law.

Garrison emphasized that the State will conduct a thorough educational program in November and December to acquaint the public accurately and adequately with the purposes and requirements of the law which will become effective next January 1st.

At the same time, Director Garrison warned the public not to believe statements that the statute is now in effect or that it is a compulsory law. He emphatically pointed out that the law will have no effect upon motor vehicle owners and operators until January 1st and declared that under no condition or circumstance will it compel motorists to carry automobile liability insurance.

According to Garrison, the new regulations bear no resemblance to a compulsory insurance law. He pointed further to the fact that only one state has such a law but that Texas became the 35th state to enact a security-type Safety Responsibility Law. It is true, according to Garrison that, beginning January 1st a motor vehicle owner or operator who is involved in an accident resulting in death or injury, or property damage exceeding $100, must furnish proof of his ability to meet claims up to $15,000 or have his motoring privileges suspended until he does.

Proper insurance may be accepted as sufficient proof of such financial responsibility but the law also offers several other choices of furnishing such proof. Among these are the posting of a bond with the Texas Department of Public Safety or the depositing of satisfactory security with the Department. Also, under certain conditions, individuals or firms may qualify as self-insurers under the terms of the law.

The alternatives will be clearly set forth by the Safety Department as a part of the education program beginning in November. All such information released by the State will be clearly identified as such, and it will be official, according to Garrison.

In calling upon the press and radio for assistance, Garrison stated: "I am asking the public-spirited newspapers and radio stations of Texas to cooperate with the Department of Public Safety, on behalf of the State, in a plan to give our people all the true facts. I am confident that they will do so. This educational program will begin November 1st, two months before the law becomes effective. In the meantime, I hope the people of Texas will not permit themselves to be misled again about this new law, which was enacted for their greater safety and financial protection."

WOMEN MEDICS IN DEMAND

The Army needs women medical specialists. This week another call was issued for dietitians, physical therapists, and occupational therapists. And to get them, the minimum tour of active duty has been reduced from 21 to 12 months. Women interested may apply to any Army Headquarters or write to the Surgeon General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C.

BRIDLE INTENTIONS? — A Hollywood "gallop" poll has discovered that actress Joyce Holden is a cinch to go places in the "horsey" set on the basis of her almost completely equine outfit—or maybe someone's just trying to stirrup an argument. Miss Holden wears "ears" on her hat, saddle-trappings on her belt buckle, her hair in a "mane" fashion and her purse resembles a nag's feed bag. Right from the horse's mouth, though, we have it that the big idea behind this and all fashions is to suggest to men that it wouldn't be a bad idea to get into double harness.

LARGER AIR FORCE SEEN

Bipartisan Congressional sentiment for an Air Force well in excess of the planned 95 wings was bolstered anew this week by the President's message hinting strongly at an upward revision of the 3.5 million man defense goal. The most talked figure on Capitol Hill now is 150 Air Force wings.

Readin', writin' and 'rithmetic take lots of sight-saving light. And a good lesson for both children and grownups to remember is better light means better sight!

Make studying easier for your children. Provide a good study lamp, one that's properly shaded to banish glare. Use at least a 150-watt bulb and place the lamp for comfortable seeing with no shadows. If your children do their homework reluctantly, maybe it's because their eyes rebel at the hard work of trying to see under poor lighting. For studying, reading the newspaper or sewing, good light makes seeing easier.

One of the wisest investments you can make for your whole family's enjoyment and health is the improvement of your home lighting. Give young eyes and old lots of sight-saving light. Bulbs and electricity are cheap, but eyesight is priceless.

ARMY BRASS — Insignia like stars, bars, eagles or maple leaves aren't the only things in the Army which qualify the wearers as "big brass." Wearing relaly big brass—a sousaphone—is Sgt. Isabel Hay of Bellingham, Wash., who belongs to the 33-woman 14th Army WAC Band from Fort Lee, Va. —only all-girl military band in the Armed Forces.

"Gee Mom, we're chasin' rustlers..."

Isn't it a perfect example of how even those "little" telephone calls so often reassure and bring peace of mind?

And when you remember that the average cost of each local call, including tax, is only about 2½¢...

Can you think of a better bargain?

Hunters Can Help Game Commission Obtain Data on Doves

Austin, Tex. — Game management folks are counting on Texas sportsmen to help give their dove banding program a needed boost this fall.

The director of Wildlife Restoration for the Texas Game and Fish Commission said hunters can help mightily by sending in bands taken from the legs of bagged mourning doves.

These bands, which are placed on the young doves before they leave their nests, provide game departments with vital data about the habits of this popular game bird.

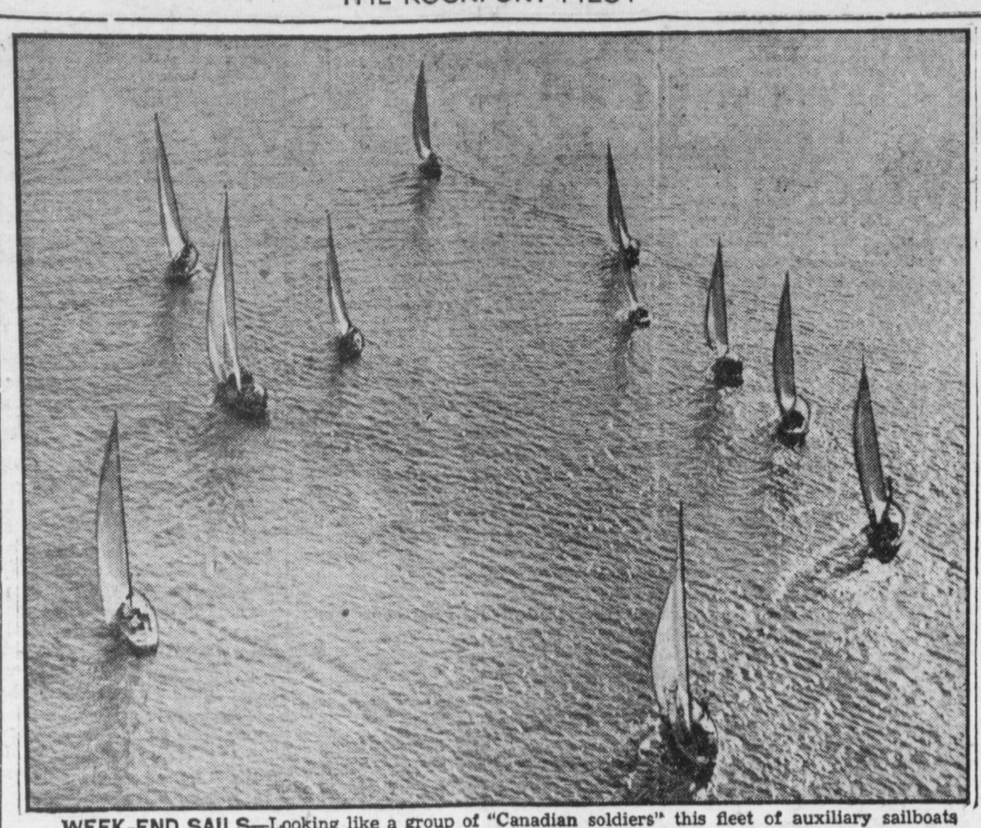

When a hunter shoots a banded dove and sends in the band along with the date and place the bird was taken, the biologists refer to the original record showing where and when the bird was banded. In this way they determine valuable information about travel and other habits of the birds which is needed in setting hunting seasons and for other routine purposes.

The director of Wildlife Restoration said he believed more hunters would cooperate if they understood the importance of the banding program. That comparatively few do realize this need was reflected in the records for the 1950 mourning dove season when only 125 bands were reported.

In that year, approximately 3,000 doves were banded and it was estimated that hundreds of these were harvested, along with birds banded in other seasons.

The bands used this year in marking an estimated 5,000 mourning doves bear the mark: "F&W Svc., Washington, D. C."

The director of Wildlife Restoration said hunters finding the bands may send them either to Washington or to the Game Department in Austin. He reminded sportsmen that the place and time the birds were shot is important.

WEEK-END SAILS—Looking like a group of "Canadian soldiers" this fleet of auxiliary sailboats dots the calm waters off Rocky River, O., their sails catching the glint of a bright Sunday morning sun. The boats were competing in the 14th annual Falcon Cup race on a course laid out from Rocky River to the Mentor (O.) Harbor Yacht Club.

Claims Under Amended Social Security Act Show Increase

The first year of operations under the revised Social Security Act has brought many changes in the work of the Corpus Christi office of the Social Security Administration. It has also meant a great deal to the people of South Texas in terms of dollars and cents, according to H. M. Cleveland, manager of the office.

Far-reaching amendments to the law, passed by Congress late in August last year, made a number of important changes in the old-age and survivors insurance program. Among the more significant of these changes were broadening of the program to include several million more people, lowering of eligibility requirements for payment, and drastic increase in the size of payments.

The most noticeable effect of the changes, Cleveland said, is in the heavy increase in the number of claims for payment. Applications from the seventeen-county area served by the Corpus Christi office now average about fifty a week, in contrast to a weekly average of about twenty before the amendments were passed last year. During the twelve months since the first changes became effective, the Corpus Christi office has processed a total of more than 2,500 claims for payment. Approximately half of these applications came from retired workers past the age of 65, with the rest from their families or from survivors of workers who have died.

For the entire Corpus Christi area, Cleveland said that about 4,800 persons are now receiving regular payments totaling about $135,000 each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mullinax Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seaton, Mrs. Annie Mae Evans and Mrs. Corine Zawadzki visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Triplett and family in Bayside last week.

Original Prison Rodeo Opens Sunday, Oct. 7

Huntsville, Tex. — Texas' own original prison rodeo, where the toughest riders mount the toughest stock, will open in Prison Stadium in Huntsville on Oct. 7 this year. The 20th of the series, the 1951 show promises to be the biggest and best yet, and ticket sales and reservations by mail or wire will begin Sept. 1.

The world famous rodeo pits convict cowboys against livestock owned by the Texas Prison System and has earned the name of "the world's wildest rodeo." More than 100,000 persons have paid to see this shown on October Sundays in past years. That is all the recommendation anyone needs who has not yet seen it.

When the rodeo starts with the Mad Scramble, the show's most dangerous event, the two hours that follow are jam-packed with saddle and bareback bronc riding; bull riding; wild horse racing; mule racing and the riotous chariot race. Each event a spine-tingling, nerve chilling fight to the finish between outlaw riders and outlaw beasts.

Prices for reserved seats are $2.40, tax included, and may be obtained by ordering by mail or wire if remittance is enclosed. Patrons are asked to specify the number of reservations they desire and the date they plan to attend the show. Tickets will not be held in reservation at the Prison ticket office unless accompanied by check or money order.

Address all orders for reservations to: L. J. Craig, Prison Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas. Be sure your check or money order is enclosed with your order.

Easy Makes His "Cat" Tread Lightly

Driving home on Three Ponds Road yesterday, I was flagged down by Easy Roberts' boy Skeeter. "Take it slow," he advised. "Dad's crossing this road with our tractor, just beyond the bend."

Around the curve I saw why Skeeter stopped me. Easy had laid two rows of old truck tires across the road, and was driving his new "Cat" tractor over them!

"More trouble this way," Easy explains, "but it does keep those tank tracks from tearing up the asphalt when I have to cross over to our other fields. After all, the roads belong to all of us—and I guess I'd get mad if someone else chewed them up."

From where I sit, Easy is my kind of citizen. He doesn't just give democracy lip service. He honestly believes it's his duty to consider the other fellow's interests. Whether it's the right to use the public highways or the right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer, Easy's out to protect his neighbor's "right of way."

Only Toughest Riders, Roughest Stock In Prison Rodeo

Huntsville—Only the toughest riders in the Texas penitentary will be allowed to ride in the 29th Annual Prison Rodeo opening at Huntsville next month on October 7th. Likewise, only the roughest bucking stock the prison system's vast herds can produce will be driven and prodded into the chutes in the Prison Stadium when the show begins.

Right now its round-up time in the prison system's river bottom pastures and the farthest corners are being combed for rodeo stock that hasn't seen a human being since last year's show. Driving them out of their favorite grazing haunts and loading them for transportation to Huntsville is a big job, what will happen when a wild convict cowboy gets on one's back is anybody's guess.

The original Texas Prison Rodeo, which has been called the "World's Wildest and Fastest Rodeo", has gotten a little wilder and a little faster with each succeeding year and this year's show of the series bids fair to perpetuate the tradition. Albert Moore, Director of the unique carnival for the 18th consecutive year, is putting only the best performers—inmate and animal—into the arena.

"We've got lots of new riders volunteering for this year's show," says Mr. Moore, "but only the best of them will be in the arena next month. We'll have some "try-outs" one day before opening Sunday and they'll all have a chance to show their stuff. At the same time we'll have a chance to cull any stock that doesn't meet our standards—only sure-fire buckers will get into the chutes when the show starts." There are no practice sessions for the riders, no second chances for lethargic broncs or brahmas. Only the toughest and the roughest meet in the world's original Prison Rodeo at Huntsville next month.

Tickets for the most famous show in the Southwest are on sale now, reserved seats are $2.40, tax included. Send your check or money order to L. J. Craig, Prison Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas for your reservations.
