Great Flood Surges Down Rio Grande

Governmental Relief Is Of Emergency Type, Says FDR In Sounding Appeal

Nation Is Asked To Loosen Its Purse Strings For Aid

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Asserting that he looked upon governmental relief work as of an emergency type, President Roosevelt today told a human needs conference that the duty in the end would be restored to "individual citizens, to individual responsibility, to private organizations."

"We are going to have unemployed throughout the United States and we know it," he said. "I hope though the time is going to come soon when everybody who normally wants a permanent job is going to get it. And so I like to think of government relief of all kinds as emergency relief."

Appeals To Nation

The president appealed to the nation to loosen its purse-strings to help care for the destitute this winter.

To delegates attending the third annual mobilization for human needs conference, Mr. Roosevelt criticized areas "coming hat in hand" to the government without doing their own relief share.

"There have been states which have not done their share," the chief executive said, "states where the problems of relief have gotten mixed up with politics; legislatures that are thinking in political and not in human terms.

Those Cases Diminish

"There are municipalities which are going ahead with the spending of taxes for political purposes and then find they haven't any money left for relief purposes.

"I am glad to say that those individual cases are diminishing in number because the people of this country understand it and are telling the government bodies, local or state, that they have got to 'play ball' and not shirk."

As the conference set about its task of furthering community charity chests, and reminding the people that governments alone can not carry the burden, Frank B. Kellogg, a former Republican secretary of state, said the main obstacle to its work was the belief the government would supply relief funds.

Aid Is Limited

"Nothing is further from the fact," Kellogg said. "The aid rendered by the federal government and the state and local governments is limited in its scope and does not and can not cover the ground which the private organizations must carry on."

In the same vein, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The government can not get along without you. The federal, state, and local governments can't. The whole period we are going

Beer Election Set For Today In Littlefield

Wets And Drys Are Confident Of Outcome Of Balloting On Question; Pro Leaders Plan Contest In Court

(Special To The Avalanche)

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 8.—Littlefield voters tonight awaited balloting tomorrow in a city election to determine if 3.2 per cent beer can be sold legally after its sale is authorized over the state in west areas on September 15.

The election was called by a petition of more than 10 per cent of the legal voters, following defeat of the county proposition August 26 for sale of beer within the county. In that election Littlefield itself voted wet by a majority of 46 votes although Lamb county voted dry.

Contest Is Planned

Drys claim the election is illegal, in that under a ruling of the attorney general six months must elapse before a vote can be held again. They plan, it is reported, to contest the election on this ground in the event the wets carry the city.

Both sides are confident. Last minute claims of J. C. Whicker, hotel man and wet leader and J. T. "Jess" Elms, banker and dry leader, indicate they believe their re-

Relief Funds To Be Matched

overnment To Match Dollar For Dollar The Proceeds Of Texas' $20,000,000 Relief Bond Issue

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 8. — News from Washington that Harry Hopkins, federal relief administrator, would match proceeds of Texas' $20,000,000 bond issue dollar for dollar, was received here with jubilation.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson expressed gratitude for Hopkins' fairness in rewarding Texans for the eagerness with which they authored issuance of relief bonds.

The legislature has been called to extraordinary session, beginning next Thursday, to enact legislation to make state relief funds available.

Delay Is Possible

It probably will be several weeks before the legislature can put bond it preliminaries incident to issuing the bonds. It may require some time after that to effect their sale, thus making cash available.

Under the constitutional amendment authorizing the bond issue the legislature can issue any amount of securities not to exceed $20,000,000. It will be a matter for the legislators to determine how much should be authorized immediately.

Crosby Project Draws Approval

AUSTIN, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Texas highway commission today announced another list of construction projects approved by the district engineer of the bureau of public roads to be built with national recovery funds. It was said work would cost approximately $600,000, and the commission said bids likely would be received the latter part of this month.

The commission has advertised for bids on approximately $1,000,000 worth of work, the proposals to be received on Sept. 18.

The latest approvals included Crosby county, seven miles caliche base course and triple asphalt surface treatment from the Lubbock county line, through Lorenzo and from Ralls east on highway 24.

Militant Reformer Of The Nineties Dies In Fall As He Walks In Sleep

(By The Associated Press)

VENTNOR, N. J., Sept. 8.—The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, militant reformer of the nineties, who twice drove the Tammany tiger from New York's city hall, was killed in a fall early today as he walked in his sleep.

The 91-year-old Presbyterian preacher, who had retained in his twilight years the vigor of speech that characterized his utterances in middle age, fell about fifteen feet from a second floor window in the home of his nephew, Winthrop Parkhurst. He died in Atlantic City hospital.

The gaudy Dick Crocker was at the head of Tammany hall in 1892 when Dr. Parkhurst, fifty, scholarly and distinguished, first raised the torch for decency in municipal government in New York. He had come, a dozen years before, from the old congregational church of Lenox, Mass., to fill the pastorate of the Madison Square Presbyterian church, then a fashionable house of worship.

New York was wicked and Dr. Parkhurst quickly found it out. "Damnable pack of administrative bloodhounds, polluted harpies" was the descriptive tag he attached to the men in office in that memorable sermon that launched his fight against Croker and his cohorts.

Warships Are At Anchor In Trouble Zone

Coast Guard Cutters Scamper To Four Points Of Island; Ambassador Welles States No Forces Landed

Action Is Delayed

Soldiers Will Not Be Landed On Island So Long As U. S. Citizens Are Not Endangered By Rioting

BY F. G. VOSBURGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. — While American warships dashed to new trouble spots in Cuba today, President Roosevelt postponed plans for a week-end fishing trip to keep in closest touch with the tense situation.

Coast guard cutters went scampering to four points on the troubled island where there were reports of disorders that might endanger foreigners, but Ambassador Welles in a telephone report to Secretary Hull tonight, said no forces had been landed.

Reports Of Landing

There had been recurrent reports during the day of American forces being landed on Cuban soil, but the American ambassador at Havana told the secretary of state the only men who had gone ashore were two radio experts to repair the embassy's radio.

During the day of swift moving developments, the coast guard cutters were sent to Puerto Padre, 100 miles from the eastern tip of the island; Matanzas and Cardenas, both within 100 miles of Havana to the east; and Antilla, important sugar shipping port on the northeast tip of Cuba.

Proceeding Favorably

Attention of the president and the state department focused on the momentous unfolding of efforts at Havana to settle the island's governmental problem and restore stability.

To the state department late in the day, Marquez Sterling, who was named ambassador from Cuba by

Reports Of Kidnaping Plot Against Rancher Are Denied

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 8. (AP) — Reports of a plot to kidnap Tom L. Burnett were described by the pioneer ranchman and philanthropist today as a "lot of hooey."

Sheriff Perry Browning maintained a guard around the Burnett home throughout last night to frustrate any such attempt.

Burnett said he was convinced that threats to kidnap him were "largely hearsay." A Wichita county citizen whose name Burnett declined to reveal reported yesterday afternoon that he had overheard part of a conversation in a beer parlor near the Red river in Oklahoma and that it concerned plans to kidnap the ranchman.

Special Term Of Federal Court Is Closed In City

Special term of the United States district court closed at 6 o'clock Friday evening after hearings which began Tuesday morning with Judge James C. Wilson, presiding.

Judge Wilson took the case of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Co. vs. Hotel Lubbock company, under advisement, following arguments yesterday morning. He will announce decision later.

Finding for the complainant in the case of Jack Mabry vs. Mrs. Sinda Mabry, et al, was given shortly before adjournment following arguments by counsel. C. C. Crenshaw represented the complainant and Alfred M. Scott the defendant.

Motor Magnate Does Not Plan A Fight To Finish

Compliance With NRA Is Believed To Be Possible Without Name On Dotted Line

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Sept. 8. — There will be no "fight to the finish" between the Ford Motor Co. and the national recovery administration, it was learned from an authoritative source today, because the Ford company feels it is complying with the code and there is nothing to fight about.

"The code doesn't have to be signed in order to comply with its terms," was the statement. "Nobody has to sign anything as long as they observe the provisions of the NRA."

Perhaps Henry Ford will sign the code—perhaps he won't. Ford alone knows that. But whether or not he does, at th ecompany's plant today it was said entire compliance with the recovery act is possible without Ford's signature "on the dotted line."

This was not Ford's own statement, but, coming from a high source. It was represented as being the opinion of the Ford company since the inception of the national recovery act.

"If we signed the code we'd have to live down to it"—an often repeated statement of the motor manufacturer—was said to be the key to the entire situation. The company believes it is observing the code to the limit, and, in fact, is "going it one better" in its dealings with employes.

Ford, it was also stated, is "dealing with the matter," but the manner of his dealing was not explained. The company believes no further statement of the motor magnate's position is necessary, in view of their opinion that the matter already has been "blown up out of all proportion." They believe that the final settlement of the situation will be in the nature of an anti-climax.

Ray Of Sunshine Penetrates Oil Industry; Crude Prices Advance Nearer To 1933 Top

Every Large Purchaser In The Midcontinent Area Now Pays 15 Cents More; Additional Hike Is Expected

(By The Associated Press)

TULSA, Sept. 8. — Swinging into line with unprecedented swiftness, every large purchaser of oil in the mid-continent area today increased an average of 15 cents a barrel to a new 1933 top of 97 cents for Oklahoma and Kansas "crude."

At the same time the Tulsa World predicted that an additional increase of 15 cents a barrel to $1.12 top will be announced tomorrow or, at the latest, early next week.

Leaders To Confer

Oil executives declined to commit themselves on this point, but noted that Secretary Ickes, the oil administrator, and President Roosevelt will confer regarding oil prices Monday.

Not in the memory of oil leaders have all companies joined an advance as swiftly as they did today. Standolind Crude Oil Purchasing company, buying unit of Standard Oil company of Indiana, made the first announcement shortly before noon, and by the time oil of-

Twelve Loan Applications In Texas Approved Friday

FORT WORTH, Sept. 8. (AP) — Twelve applications for loans from the federal government were approved this afternoon by the state public works advisory committee, it was announced by Colonel Ike Ashburn, chairman. The papers will be on the way to Washington by the first of the week for final consideration.

Regulations do not permit the committee to make known the specific projects to which approval has been given, pending the final decision in Washington.

American Planes Make Long Flight

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP) — Word was flashed to the navy department tonight of the safe landing at Coco Solo, Canal Zone, of six naval seaplanes after a 2,059 mile non-stop flight from Norfolk, Va.—completing the longest non-stop mass formation flight in history.

Battling successfully through a gale, five of the ships landed safely at the canal at 6:25 p. m. The sixth plane was nearly an hour behind.

The main body of the flotilla completed the flight in exactly 24 hours and 55 minutes. The takeoff from Norfolk was at 5:30 p. m. last night.

The sixth ship, P-12, under Lieut. W. H. Buracker of Winchester, Mass., fell behind the others during the afternoon. Engine trouble was reported to have slowed it down, but did not force a landing until Coco Solo was reached.

Code For Grain Exchanges Given Approval At Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Peter B. Carey, president of the Chicago board of trade, tonight announced approval had been reached on a code for grain exchanges setting up a scale of wages and hours for employes and defining minimum margins for all open futures contracts.

The code was drawn up, Carey said, by a committee representing the grain exchanges sitting in sessions with members of the staff of the agricultural adjustment administration.

Counterfeiting Charges Are Filed Against Three Friday

TYLER, Sept. 8. — Charges of counterfeiting and possessing bogus $20 federal reserve notes were filed today against eHnry T. Ballard, Charley M. Weatherby and Olin R. Alston after they were brought here from Longview by J. M. Penny, secret service agent.

The suspects waived examining trial and United States Commissioner Paul Kern set bond for each at $10,000.

Coal Code Is Thought Near

Near-Crisis Is Bridged With Both Sides Making Concessions; Early Agreement Is Now Anticipated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A near-crisis in the administration's efforts to fasten an NRA code upon the bituminous coal industry was bridged tonight with indications that both Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, and spokesmen for the mine owners had made concessions in a new step toward agreement.

Angrily, Johnson faced four of the operators in a three hour conference after receiving a biting letter of condemnation of the code which he handed down yesterday with the ultimatum that it would be promulgated early next week with few changes.

Hopes For Charter

At the end, the quartet emerged, smiling, and the administrator said he hoped still for a charter next week with a general agreement from the industry. He added, however, that the public hearing he had set for Monday afternoon might be postponed 24 hours to give the mine owners more time to study the most comprehensive code yet written at the recovery administration.

Johnson said that as a result of the conference, negotiations on union contracts for Appalachian commercial unions, suspended today, would be resumed.

Estimate For Cotton Yield Going Higher

Government Prediction Gives 100,000 More Bales Than In Former Forecast; Decline In Price Is Seen

Large Carry-Over

About 30,000,000 Acres Will Be Harvested With Yield Of 197.8 Lint Pounds Per Acre For Cotton Belt

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A government prediction that the 1933 cotton crop would be 12,414,000 bales today disclosed that southern weather was continuing to checkmate the farm administration's effort to make a sizeable dent in the cotton surplus.

The forecast today was 100,000 bales higher than the estimate of August 8, and cotton declined further from the parity price which the farm administration has set as its goal for the staple.

Carry-Over Is Large

The carry-over of cotton in the United States on August 1, was 8,170,000 bales as compared to the ten-year average carry-over of only 3,686,000 bales.

There was some consolation, however, to Secretary Wallace and his assistants in speculation on what the price of cotton might have been if the reduction campaign had not been carried out this year.

Today's forecast said approximately 10,396,000 acres had been or would be plowed under. This figure was an increase of 92,000 acres over the estimate on August 8, when the crop reporting board said the indicated yield would be approximately 16,500,000 bales if the reduction campaign had not been carried out.

Harvest Is Lower

Around 30,000,000 acres will be harvested this year, government experts said, as compared to an average of more than 40,000,000. Ordinarily a crop of only some 11,500,000 bales would be harvested from the 30,000,000 acres, but on September 1—the date on which today's forecase was based—the indicated yield of lint cotton was 197.8 lint pounds

Fishermen Tell Of Sighting Balloon In Quebec Monday

QUEBEC, Que., Sept. 8. (AP)—Two fishermen tonight brought word of sighting a balloon on Monday about 13 miles from Riviere a Pierre, a small village in Portneuf county. It was believed it may have been one of the missing balloons in the James Gordon Bennett race.

The fishermen said they saw the bag flying very low about seven o'clock in the morning. Two men were in the basket and they appeared to be throwing out ballast.

Shortly after it was sighted a thunderstorm blew up and they lost sight of it. Later, they said, they believed it came down in the forest a few miles away. They searched but were unable to find it.

Criminologist Is Brought To Stand In Lamson Trial

SAN JOSE, Calif., Sept. 8. (AP)—The supreme effort of David A. Lamson's defense forces to cast doubt upon the state's charge that he killed his wife, Allene, with an iron pipe began here late today with the calling of Dr. E. O. Heinrich, criminologist, to the witness stand.

Heinrich, noted in other cases for going into the realm of the microscope to find evidence that had escaped ordinary human observation, abruptly began laying a scientific background for what the defense expected to be a contradiction of some of the findings of the prosecution experts.

Crazed Killer Murders Four

Madman Goes Berserk On Main Street Of City With Large Assortment Of Firearms And Later Takes Own Life

(By The Associated Press)

BELAST, Me., Sept. 8.—A madman, armed with an assortment of firearms, went berserk on the main street of this small city today, killing two men outright and mortally wounding two others, before he barricaded himself in a blacksmith shop and committed suicide by blowing off the top of his head.

The killer was Adrian Jones, former employe of a Massachusetts insane asylum, who had been known to be demented but generally considered harmless.

The dead were; Herbert E. Ellis, 65, an insurance salesman, and Raymond Blazo, 40, a truck man, who died instantly under the madman's fire, and R. B. Stanhope, 47, a veterinarian, and W. W. Blazo, 75, father of Raymond, who died of their wounds in a hospital several hours afterward.

Levee Breaks Being Feared Through Area

Gauges At Hidalgo And Mission Rise Ominously As Crest Of Rise Passes Rio Grande City And Pushes On

Grave Fears Felt

Government Aid Now Imminent; Federal Funds Will Be Used To Save Life And Property In Stricken Valley

(By The Associated Press)

HARLINGEN, Sept. 8. — A great flood from its Mexican tributaries surged down the Rio Grande tonight, carrying the threat of levee breaks along the emergency floodway and inundated lowlands to the area swept by a hurricane Monday and Tuesday.

As the crest passed Rio Grande City, 75 miles upstream, gauges at Hidalgo and Mission rose ominously and the water began to enter the floodway at Mission where it leaves the river and goes to Laguna Madre on the gulf many miles north of the river's mouth.

Concern Expressed

In Hidalgo county, where the floodway begins, grave concern was expressed. Without funds, the county was unable to send men to the danger spot and the citizens feared that, as last year, the levee might break, letting the flood waters spread out over a wide area.

Government aid, however, appeared imminent. Milton West of Brownsville, congressman from Texas, wired from Washington that Major Edwin A. Marks of Galveston had been ordered to the valley to take charge of the flood situation and "spend such a sum as was needed to save life and property."

Volume Is Greater

An aerial survey of the river district above Edinburg revealed a volume of water much greater than was expected last night when the San Juan river, swollen by a 13-inch rain at Monterrey, Mexico, caused a rise at Rio Grande City where it empties into the Rio Grande. The Hidalgo river stage was 21.7 feet and rising slowly. Flood stage there is 22 feet. At Mission the reading was 23.6 and water continued to sweep down toward the gulf.

The Rio Grande was four miles wide at Penitas, 12 miles west of Mission, and flooded several Mexican communities as well as the old military road.

Death List Rises

While the storm-stricken area watched the progress of the flood with some apprehension, it went

Enrollment Here Stands At 1,276

Registration at Senior High school stood at 1,276 when the doors were closed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Principal R. W. Matthews estimated that the total was between 50 and 60 greater than for grades eight through eleven on the first day of school last year.

Classes will begin Monday morning, and no new students will be enrolled until after 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. The end of the first month of the school term should see about 1,400 students in high school, the principal said.

Preparatory to the opening of all schools Monday, teachers will meet with Supt. M. H. Duncan at the high school at 9 o'clock this morning. At 10 o'clock principals of each school will meet with staffs at the various buildings.

High school enrollment by grades was as follows:

Low eighth, 246; high eighth, 131; low ninth, 221; high ninth, 153; low tenth, 191; high tenth, 97; low eleventh, 204; high eleventh, 33.

PLAN ABANDONED

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Facing a crowded chamber of protesting bankers, brokers, taxicab operators and civic organizations, the board of estimate today suddenly abandoned its plan to push through a program to raise $40,000,000 in new taxes.

The board convened, surveyed the crowd, deferred action on the program until Monday, and recessed.

Local Red Cross Fund For Hurricane Victims In Valley Boosted To $183

ADDITIONAL voluntary subscriptions for the distress call for relief in the Rio Grande valley hurricane disaster, had swelled the local Red Cross fund to $183 last night, Chairman George P. Kuykendall said. The local chapter had received the call Thursday.

"I hope that we can get our quota of $350 without having to go out on the streets and ask for it," Chairman Kuykendall said. "It is my hope that by Sunday we can have the entire amount raised.

"We ought, all the more because they are Texans, give all we can for our fellow citizens in distress."

Friday afternoon contributions included: Sam C. Arnett, $5; Carter-King, $10; Rev. Jack Lewis, $1; M. J. Stratton, $1; George Roach, $1, and Lubbock Printing Co., $5.

Other contributions Friday morning included: First National bank, $10; American Business club, $10; Dr. M. F. Swart, $5; W. T. Gaston, $5; Hilton hotel, $5; Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber company, $5; Mrs. J. K. Wester, $2.50; Jarett's Cinderella shop, $2.00; W. B. Atkins, $1; R. S. Underwood, $1; F. C. Wester, $1; J. K. TEN YEARS AGO

BACK in 1923 the Lubbock Avalanche and Semi-Weekly Morning Avalanche were distributing almanacs, giving jokes, information and all the rest of the material peculiar to almanacs. One of these books is still in the possession of Mrs. C. H. Largent, 1823 Eighteenth street, having been preserved through the ten-year period.

Those were the days before the publication of the Journal. They were the days, too, before any of the present force worked on the daily papers.

The Avalanche was then looking back on 23 years of continuous publication and was the only daily paper in this section, having then, as now, wire news 12 to 24 hours ahead of other dailies coming into the section.

Those were the days, too, when it cost only two cents to post a letter, for postal information is included in the almanac, now yellow with age. The list of presidents ended then with the name of Warren Gamaliel Harding and there was still reference to the late World War.

Much of the material in the almanac was not very different from what might appear today, if papers could afford to give away almanacs to their customers. There are interesting paragraphs on weather wisdom, cooking, big trees, the Bible, anniversaries, holidays, Indians and health. There are jokes, stories, jingles, limericks, calendars, proverbs and information on reading the palm.

PAY TAXES

YOU may have a remote feeling that something should be done about teachers' salaries. One thing that could be done to relieve the situation would be for people to pay their taxes instead of buying new cars, going to the fair or otherwise spending the same amount of money on something besides taxes.

There are many people, to be sure, who do not have enough money to pay their taxes and haven't had for some time. There are many others who do not pay taxes because there is no one to force them to do so.

People are inclined to be considerably agitated because factories and other places pay sweat shop wages. Yet they can't be worried when the school system is forced to employ similar methods.

HINTS

WHEN baking fish use moderate heat, advises the home economics bureau. The fattest kinds, according to the government experts, are better broiled or baked. These include herring, mackerel, salmon and shad. For baking use about 350 degrees. If the fish is large put it in a rack in the pan and do not add water. If lean, lay a few strips of salt pork or bacon over the top.

Former Under Sheriff Now Held In Bank Theft Quiz

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—State operatives have arrested Claude Roper, former Roger Mills county under-sheriff and veteran peace officer, for questioning in connection with the $1,800 robbery of the Cheyenne State bank, July 31. Roper was taken into custody late Thursday at Sayre, the bureau of criminal identification announced today, and charged with bank robbery.

Roper served as under-sheriff under the former sheriff of Roger Mills county, John Parker, two years ago. After his resignation, he served as a peace officer at Pampa, Texas, and later as a field deputy in Beckham county.

Body Of San Antonio Man En Route Back From Mexico

LAREDO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The body of Hal Tice of San Antonio, injured fatally in an automobile accident in Mexico after he had won the gold cup in the Nuevo Laredo-Monterrey automobile race Sunday, was en route to Laredo today by airplane.

Tice was injured while returning to Laredo Monday when his car hit a truck and turned over in a ditch. He died in Monterrey yesterday. His parents arrived from San Antonio yesterday and proceeded to Monterrey on the plane. Both highway and railroad traffic between here and Monterrey was suspended because of torrential rains which followed Monday's hurricane.

Building Program Of Schools Talked

FORT WORTH, Sept. 8. (AP)—Building programs of the University of Texas and of Texas A. and M. college were reviewed by the Texas public works advisory committee today in connection with its study of applications for public works funds from those two institutions.

Beauford H. Jester, Corsicana, chairman of the board of regents of the University of Texas; Charles I. Francis, Wichita Falls, a member of the board, and R. L. White, Austin, supervising architect for the $3,000,000 request for the construction of five new dormitories and completion of the main library.

The committee also gave a hearing to L. J. Wardlaw, Fort Worth, a director of Texas A. and M. college and Dr. F. E. Giesecke, director of the Texas engineering experiment station and architect for the college. They answered questions of the committee concerning an application for $300,000, improvement of buildings and grounds of the college.

Body Of Bandit May Be Removed

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 8. (AP)—The body of Hunt B. Watson, alias "Jim Yarrell", desperate and notorious bandit shot and killed by a guard when he assertedly tried to escape a third time from the Louisiana penitentiary, may be removed from a prison cemetery grave to Austin, Texas, at request of relatives.

Penitentiary Manager R. L. Himes said today that in response to query he had informed Mrs. R. Cannon of Austin who he said was Watson's sister that she might take possession of the body by complying with interstate health requirements.

Mrs. C. M. Watson of Austin, Watson's mother, was quoted last night as saying she had not been notified of her son's death.

Warden Wade H. Long explained that unsuccessful attempt was made to communicate with Watson's wife in Beaumont, Texas, since the convict on admission to the penitentiary, gave his wife's name as the relative he wished notified in case of his death.

Latest Estimates Of Results On Reduction Campaign For Cotton Are Announced Friday By Officials

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—The latest estimate of the results of the cotton production campaign are that 10,396,000 acres were taken out of production this year.

This is a little more than one-fourth of the cotton in cultivation on July 1, the crop reporting board said today.

Most of the cotton already has been plowed under, and the government has said its agents will see that the plow is put to the remainder. The reporting board said, however, final figures on the number of acres destroyed might vary somewhat from the estimates today because proof that all the contracts to reduce has been carried out has not yet been received.

The estimated number of acres taken out of cultivation in each state, with the percentage of acreage of the total amount in cultivation on July 1, which it represents, follow:

Virginia 10,000, 12.8 per cent; North Carolina 230,000, 17.4; South Carolina 426,000, 33.9; Georgia 695,000, 24.2; Florida 23,000, 18.9; Missouri 110,000; 24.4; Tennessee 200,000, 22.3; Alabama 810,000, 25.0; Mississippi 925,000, 23.5; Louisiana 450,000, 24.9; Texas 4,305,000, 27.3; Oklahoma 1,160,000, 28.1; Arkansas 925,000, 25.4; New Mexico 30,000, 25.9; Arizona 21,000, 15.3; California 13,000, 5.9; other states 3,000, 15.8.

Certificates For Nurses Are Filed In City Friday

Several state certificates for nurses were registered yesterday with the county clerk by Louie Moore, deputy clerk. The certificates were for girls who graduated from local training schools this summer. Since January 1, a total of 15 such certificates have been registered.

First registration of these papers was June 14, 1923, Mr. Moore said. Since that time 115 have been recorded. Most of the papers were for girls who graduated from local schools, with some from training schools in West Texas and a few in other states.

One certificate was from the Philippines and was for Daisy Holmes Lemmon. It was a certificate from the "Government of the Philippine Islands, Department of the Interior." It was dated May 29, 1924.

Establishment Of Prices For Livestock Industry Sought At Hearing; Quick Approval Being Asked

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. — Establishment of minimum livestock prices was advocated today by Earl C. Smith, chairman of the national corn-hog committee, at an agriculture department hearing on the proposed marketing agreement submitted by the packing industry.

Earlier, Thomas E. Wilson, president of Wilson and company of Chicago and representing the processors committee of four of the Institute of American Meat Packers, urged quick approval of the agreement on the ground it would benefit the industry, the producer and the consumer.

Smith proposed a number of changes he contended were necessary to take care of the interests of the producer.

The minimum price proposal read:

"The institute and the processors committee with the producers committee may from time to time and as often as necessary, adopt such minimum prices to be paid for livestock including among other things weight and grade classifications, price differentials, territorial price differentials and such marketing plans as will effectuate the declared purpose and policy of the act.

"Failing to do so the secretary shall determine and announce such minimum prices and his decision shall be final."

Without referring to the NRA program by name, Smith said expenses of the producers recently had been increased and that they should be given some means of increasing their income.

Another proposal he advocated was that all financial benefit to the packers be passed on to the producers. The proposed agreement provides that the producers receive "a fair proportion."

Cuban Situation

the now fallen De Cespedes government, brought word that the fateful session of leaders was "proceeding favorably" and under the apparent determination to stick to its task until a plan for forming a government had taken shape.

Considerable importance, too, was attached to information that Foreign Minister Puig of Mexico had sent a message to Argentina, Chile and Brazil asking for their cooperation in bringing influence to bear on the present Cuban authorities to maintain order and protect lives.

Confer On Situation

This action followed President Roosevelt's move Wednesday night in calling the envoys of Mexico and other Latin American countries to the White House to go over the threatening Cuban situation.

It was said the president planned to withhold landing any forces in Cuba so long as there was no serious rioting which would endanger American lives.

Antilla was the fifth Cuban port to which American ships have been dispatched, others being Havana, Santiago and Cienfuegos on the south coast, and the Isle of Pines, with its prison full of felons, to the south of the main island.

Much Depends On Speed

Americans here well acquainted with conditions felt that much depends on the speed with which the efforts underway at Havana to form a coalition government could be consummated.

Officials made it no secret they regarded the situation as most dangerous and unstable. While Ambassador Sumner Welles is working night and day at Havana, the administration is carefully avoiding identifying itself with any one Cuban faction.

Lest its interest be misconstrued, the administration decided that Secretary Swanson of the navy, reaching Havana today, should not land but simply be greeted on board ship by Ambassador Welles before continuing on to the Pacific coast on an inspection trip.

LEADERS TO MEET

FORT WORTH, Sept. 8. (AP)—With the assurance that the federal government will aid in the rehabilitation of private enterprises in the stricken Rio Grande valley regions, John H. Shary of Mission announced this afternoon that a conference of leaders of that section will be held tomorrow night or Sunday morning.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Stocks went through the motions of a market today, accomplishing little so far as net changes were concerned and offering no clue as to when they would emerge from their present trading area.

Transactions looked highly professional. There was the familiar sag during much of the morning, followed by rallying tendencies which had the earmarks of short covering. Final variations from Thursday's close were mostly in fractions, the Standard Statistics-Associated Press composite showing a small net loss.

With volume only 1,312,140, the session was just as inconclusive as its predecessor this week. News that might have roused traders from their somnolence was lacking; such items as did come to light had obviously been discounted and the market was left to its own devices. Oils were still willing to rise moderately and steels looked a little better than of late, but rails eased, influenced, perhaps, by a six point drop in Union Pacific. Mining issues tilted up a bit.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8. (AP)—Cotton was not nearly so active today as is usual on crop estimate days and prices moved about erratically, a slight upward trend following the bureau figure being interrupted by reactions on deferred hedge sales. The close was at the lowest, showing net losses of 16 to 19 points. The September estimate of 12,414,000 bales was 100,000 bales larger than last month and about met trade expectations.

The opening was easier as Liverpool cables came in worse than due. Manchester reported cloth and yarn markets quiet.

Just prior to receipts of the bureau figure October traded at 8.95 and December at 9.18 or 2 points down to 1 up compared with yesterday's close. Immediately after the figures were posted October remained unchanged and December dropped 6 points to 9.12. Prices soon rallied however, October advancing to 9.08 and December to 9.31, up 11 to 14 points net.

The market weakened in late trading on deferred hedge selling and some selling by ring traders and prices reacted quickly. October dropped to 8.78 and December at 8.99 down 30 to 32 points from the highs. October closed 19 points net lower and December 18 points off.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 14 penny points down.

Port receipts 77,413, for week 200,268, for season 781,038, last season 588,643. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 94,755, last year 84,740. Spot sales at southern markets 45,324, last year 29,475.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The feature in cotton today was the government crop report. Uncertainty as to its showing was reflected by more or less irregularity during the early trading and while there were rallies after publication of the figures, prices later made new lows for the movement with December contracts selling off from 9.34@9.03 and closing at that figure. The final tone of the market was easy at net declines of 15 to 20 points.

There was a moderate early demand for near months which included some price fixing partly for far eastern account and a little buying on the relatively steady showing of Liverpool. While the crop figures were considered slightly above average expectations, a further decline of 4 or 5 points on the resumption of business was followed by rallies on covering. Some trade buying was also reported, but the market met increased offerings at net advances of 12 to 13 points and prices broke sharply during the last hour under a renewal of liquidation and increased southern hedging. Closing quotations were the lowest of the day.

The government report placing the indicated crop at 12,414,000 bales showed an increase of 100,000 bales over the August 1 indication, attributed to a moderate increase in the estimated acreage for harvest. Today's indication compared with a 12,106,000 bale average of recent private reports and was only 62,000 bales above the average expectation of New York cotton exchange members. Exports today 24,857 making 709,126 so far this season. Port stocks 3,027,871. U. S. port stocks 66,604.

HOGS strong to 5 higher, top $4.60.

Livestock

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—Generally steady prices were paid on the limited supplies of cattle offered today, fed steers and yearlings selling chiefly at 5.00@6.50, western grass steers at 3.00@3.85. Although receipts of 168,200 cattle at eight midwestern markets this week totaled practically the same as arrivals of last week, a continued lower trend prevailed on both steers and yearlings. As compared with late last week, fed steers and yearlings were quotable steady to 25 or more lower, while western grass steers lost around 25 to 50.

The general bulk of fed consignments were eligible to sell around 5.00@6.00, choice grade at 6.10@7.00; western grass steers chiefly of common to medium grade, 2.75@4.60. The majority of replacement steers, 3.25@4.85, a few loads of yearlings stockers up to 5.30.

Chicago secured a hog top of 4.60.

Better grade native and range lamb offerings were selling at 6.75@7.50. Chicago listed a few choice natives up to 7.65.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Sept. 8. (AP)—Receipts: hogs 4,200 including 180 directs and 3,500 government pigs. Mostly steady top 4.25, for a few truck lots good to choice butchers; packer top 4.15; for truck hogs. Packing sows 2.50.

Cattle receipts 900, and 500 calves. Medium weight steers 4.00; lightweight steers 4.35; car lot steers of value 3.00@4.25; slaughter yearlings scarce, medium grades 4.00@4.50; few fat cows up to 3.00; fairly good fat cows 2.25; cutters and low cutters 1.25@1.50; weighty bulls 2.00; heavy slaughter calves 4.00; plainer grades 3.00; cull sorts 2.00.

Sheep 1,000; receipts mostly fresh shorn aged wethers unsold late; truck lots medium grade lambs 5.00 down or steady. Advance estimates September 9 cattle 200, hogs 500, sheep 100.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Sept. 8. (AP)—Fair demand was reported today for the light offerings on the Fort Worth cash grain market.

Prices ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to destination: delivered Texas Gulf ports export rate, or Texas common points, wheat No. 1 hard 94@95; barley, No. 2 nominally 60@65; No. 3 nominally 59@60.

Sorghums, No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 1.20@1.35; No. 3 milo 1.18@1.33. No. 2 kafir per hundred pounds 1.13@1.15. No. 3 kafir 1.11@1.13.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: corn, No. 2 mixed 63 1-2@64; No. 2 white 67@67 1-2; No. 2 yellow 64@64 1-2.

Delivered Texas common points: oats, No. 2 red 44 1-2@45 1-2; No. 3 red 43 1-2@44 1-2.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—An abrupt rise of grain values late today more than eclipsed an earlier downturn of 2 cents a bushel for wheat.

Restored confidence on the part of speculative buyers was attributed largely to greater interest shown in wheat available for immediate use. Improved demand for this wheat was illustrated by the fact that red winter grades which were recently selling in St. Louis 8 cents under Chicago December delivery were today bringing the December price or better.

Wheat closed unsettled but near the day's top figures 1-8 to 3-8 above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1-8 higher, oats 7-8 to 1 1-4 up, and provisions varying from 7 cents decline to a gain of 2 cents.

Prince Answers Suit Filed By Grand Opera Star Wife

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8. (AP)—Answering the separate maintenance suit of Mary McCormic, grand opera singer, Prince Serge Mdivani, one of the Mdivanis from the Russian principality of Georgia, denies her charges of cruelty and contends he is not obligated in any way to support her because, he says, she deserted him without cause.

The answer, filed in superior court, where Miss McCormic is suing for $600 a month separate maintenance, also denies the singer's allegation that she advanced the prince $40,000 of her own money on her marriage in April, 1931.

Mdivani is under a court order not to dispose of any of his Southern California oil properties, recently put in receivership and later released to him, pending trial of Miss McCormic's suit.

Queen Victoria was the first English queen to assume the title of Empress of India; Parliament provided for the title in a bill in 1876.

Moffett Grandchildren Inherit Sea Tradition

Their grandfather was the late Admiral William A Moffett, who died a seaman's death in the Akron disaster. Their father, Lieut Comm. E. M. Moore, served aboard the U. S. S. Arkansas, whose bulk may be seen in the background. Admiral Moffett once commanded the Arkansas, too. So Mac, Juanita and Bill Moore had reason to be proud of the navy outfits they wore as they waited for their father to take them aboard the Arkansas at Catalina Island.

Prices Are Uniform

A remarkable unanimity of thought was exhibited by the companies, complicated schedules identical as to field and district coming simultaneously from half a dozen firms during the afternoon.

Prices for Oklahoma and Kansas, for East Texas, for North and North Central Texas and Louisiana, and for the Texas Panhandle were virtually uniform, but in West Texas and South and Southwestern Texas a different price was posted for nearly every field. No less than 20 different prices for as many fields were listed.

North Texas and North Louisiana top price under the new schedule is 92 cents; in East Texas a flat price of 90 cents prevails, and in the Texas Panhandle a dominant buyer fixed the top price at 81 cents for Gray county grade. The top over-all price for midcontinent crude is $1.00, which is paid by Conroe buyers.

Whicker, declared, "Everybody thought it was a cinch Lamb county would go wet and many of us didn't vote. With everybody voting in Littlefield I think beer will be favored. If beer isn't legal it will be just a straw vote."

The county commissioner's court, in calling the election "thought it was legal," Judge Simon D. Hay explained. "We probably never will definitely know what the law is until the courts decide it."

The court, Judge Hay said, acted on the advice of H. C. Martin, county attorney, in calling an election for Sudan. Martin was not in the county when the Littlefield election was ordered, but Hay said the advice the court had was that the election was legal.

Polls open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. and the election will be in the city hall. W. O. Stockton is presiding judge with L. W. "Happy" Jordan, E. M. Erwin, Clyde Willis, Mrs. W. O. Stockton and Mrs. Wade Potter assisting.

Explanation Of High Bread Prices In Cities Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumer's counsel for the farm adjustment administration, said in a statement today he was seeking an explanation of high bread prices in Atlanta, Charleston, S. C., Mobile, Ala., San Francisco, Savannah, Ga., Scranton, Pa., and Seattle.

"In these seven cities," Dr. Howe said, "the average price of bread is one cent or more above the national average price for a pound loaf."

Deep Regrets Expressed By Germans Following Attacks

BERLIN, Sept. 8. (AP)—The German government expressed its "deep regrets" today over the attacks by nazis on two American citizens, Samuel Bossard, of Chester, Pa., a student, and H. V. Kaltenborn, son of a former editor of the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Eagle.

"The foreign office," said an American embassy announcement, presented orally to Ambassador Dodd the deep regrets of the German government at the attacks, and informed the ambassador that these cases had been turned over to the police and to officials of the Prussian ministry of interior, with instructions to take the most energetic action possible in the premises."

The toll by cities was: Harlingen three, San Benito 2, Rio Hondo 8, Post Isabel 1, and Matamoros 10. The injured totaled 500 but few were seriously hurt. One hundred of those casualties were treated at Brownsville and several hundred more here.

Problems Grow Acute

Problems of sanitation and housing still were paramount. Major-General Edwin B. His message was dated yesterday.

From a stage of 3.8 feet at Laredo this morning the Rio Grande rose to 4.2 late today and remained stationary the little rise being due to rains upstream.

Rainfall in the Monterrey, Mexico, region was reported to have ceased yesterday noon after precipitation over a two-day period had amounted to about 15 inches.

It was announced at Laredo that the National Railway lines of Mexico expected to resume train service Sunday morning, as flood waters around Guadalupe and Bustamente were receding fast due to cessation of rainfall.

The Opening Of School

"SCHOOL DAYS, school days, dear old golden rule days" start in Lubbock Monday and thousands of young hopefuls will trek back to the classroom or enter it for the first time.

Many a mother's heartstrings will twang when she watches little Johnnie or Mary timidly set out for his or her first day in school, but she'll get over it in time.

And many another mother (although she probably won't admit it) will breathe a sigh of relief as older Johnnies and Marys go back under teacher's rule after runing wild, like little Indians, throughout the long, hot months of vacation time.

The opening of school is one of the mirrors of America; one of the foundation stones or principles of this nation.

Something like Christmas and Thanksgiving, first day of school is set apart as standing for something.

We can't get around that.

STOCK EXCHANGE RULES

The governing board of the New York stock exchange wisely has imposed new and drastic rules to act as a curb upon unbridled stock speculation against which there has been much protest.

Margins, heretofore left for determination by individual brokerage houses, hereafter must be at least 50 per cent for accounts up to $5,000, and 30 per cent for larger accounts. Complete information on pools and syndicates must be furnished weekly. Customers men may not solicit business at customers homes without written permission.

The margin requirements of course will not save investors or speculators from losses. They will, however, discourage outright gambling with capital which represents only a small portion of the value of stocks "bought"; they will check the tendency to overtrade; and they will tend to prevent the pyramiding of paper profits. Regulation of pools and syndicates will make juggling more difficult, since operations will be disapproved if they tend to create "unsound values." And pool operators will not find it so easy to unload on a gullible public which has been lured into the market.

Taken together, the rules should make less probable such spectacular collapses as the one recently witnessed. There seems to be little doubt that this incipient panic was brought on by pure gambling.

Time will tell whether the new method of operation will eliminate the practices against which so many complaints have been made. If voluntary action does not succeed in eliminating them, it seems a safe prediction that the government will step in.

PREDICTING 800 M. P. H. SPEED

Watching from the security of the housetops, the thoroughly alarmed populace was surprised to see crew and passengers on the first railroad train emerge alive after their adventurous journey. And when it was predicted that some day steam would carry a human cargo at the breakneck speed of 15 miles an hour there were timid souls who said the human body could not survive such speed.

How times have changed! The other day Wiley Post casually remarked that airplanes will eventually attain a speed of 800 miles an hour and nobody doubted him enough to contradict him. Such things are taken for granted today.

Man has ascended 10 miles into the stratosphere and is preparing to climb still higher. If he fails at first, the public knows that it is merely a question of time before he succeeds.

The heavier-than-air flying machine was made possible by the internal combustion or gasoline engine. The gasoline engine may prove unequal to a speed of 800 miles an hour, but that will not stop the aeronautical engineers any more than Langley's early experiments were stopped because his first engine was too heavy. The gasoline motor will not be the last development in the science of locomotion.

Further oddity of the American police technique: As soon as the investigation extends eight miles into the suburbs it becomes a nation-wide search.

MODERN CONVERSION

"Stand in awe, and sin not."—Psalms, 4:4.

Men are converted in these days not simply because they are conscious of their sins, but because they are conscious of an ideal out beyond them. As they stand in awe of God they realize their failures. Thus, conversion is positive and not negative. It is not for "sinners" only, but for all human beings who have ideals. It takes place not just once in the life time of an individual, but it is a continual process that should take place each day in everyone's life.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By George Durno

WITHOUT any fanfare of trumpets the Federal Emergency Relief Administration is moving at top speed to solve the problem of caring for the army of transient jobless this winter.

Because the floating unemployed start moving toward warmer climates about this time of year plans are being rushed to have an organization set up to care for them by Oct. 1.

Outright grants of federal money over and above those made for state purposes will be used to foot the bill.

The annual trek of workless hopefuls toward balmy temperatures has taxed resources of the Southeast and Southwest sadly in recent years. Florida and California and their neighboring States particularly have suffered trying to care for these transients.

This year the Tennessee Valley with its Muscle Shoals threatens to add another bad spot.

In spite of many warnings that jobs aren't available there yet for outsiders many are flocking into this region on a forlorn hope.

Under direction of Morris Lewis, who has been attacking this problem for 19 years, F.E.R.A. is creating a system of relief designed to give "individualistic" treatment to the seasonal floaters.

This winter an effort is to be made either to find them jobs, send them home or shelter and feed them indefinitely.

States potentially to be affected have been asked to work out programs on a regional basis. When these are presented the Relief Administration will put up the necessary money.

Negotiations are under way with the railroads to get transportation agreements that will send those who merit it back to their homes.

By registering and interviewing these transients at central stations located on arterial highways and at railway centers the Government hopes to determine just how big a job it's up against.

TREASURY: Treasury officials are doing a little phenagling under cover to get a piece of that Public Works money. They want to build themselves a 12-story annex.

They have just discovered that back in the Coolidge administration the plot of ground on which the Department of Commerce building now stands originally was set aside for a Treasury addition. Herbert Hoover, then Secretary of Commerce, grabbed it for his own $17,000,000 masterpiece.

Those now handling our finances think the "injustice" should be remedied.

The Treasury has 12,000 employes working in Washington—more than any other single department. They are scattered all over the lot.

Now along comes the new Procurement Division which will handle all Government purchases and those bureaus in the present main annex are being tossed out to make room.

"If Hoover got away with it, why can't we?" they ask. They already have the site picked out if Public Works Administrator Ickes will only say yes.

HELIUM: Texas and our military establishment have a new cause for worry.

The Lone Star State has boasted of the world monopoly of helium.

Confidential word has just reached the State Department however that deposits of this non-inflammable gas used to buoy up lighter-than-air craft have been discovered in six different districts of Russia.

Furthermore the potential Russian supply is said to be far greater than that of the Texas fields near Amarillo.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

YOU probably remember the story of the Swede who ran for a ferry boat and found it just leaving the dock. His companion, already on board, encouraged him by shouting: "Come on, Ole, you can make it in two yumps."

The best posted local authorities say we are applying the two jump system to our recovery program.

The first jump has taken us to the 35 or 40 hour week. This is important progress, and probably as much as industry can or will stand at present. But the best estimates indicate a maximum re-employment of six million people under this arrangement. That makes it look as if a second jump to the thirty-hour week will be necessary if we are to avoid a permanent large scale unemployment problem. New Yorkers who have worked close to NRA are confident that this the ultimate answer.

UNIONS: Many business men and manufacturers are playing the NRA straight, place and show as an eliminator of union issues. They are proceding on the theory that the unions will dry up and blow away for lack of nourishment in issues to fight for. They believe workers will be so pleased with code conditions that they will see no point in union membership. All of which would be quite O. K. with the majority of industry.

That theory might very well hold good if the working week had been shortened to 30 hours. As it is, when the present stage of re-adjustment is completed, the unions will still have an issue that is right up their alley.

The more far-sighted labor leaders are perfectly willing to let industry kid itself for the present about the weakening of the unions. In fact there has been some pointed shushing of lesser lights who wanted to get noisy now.

The first part of the show has been largely directed and stage-managed by industry, regardless of heartfelt complaints from various quarters about compulsory unionization. Labor's big shots are confident that their turn will come when the second act begins and are willing to bide their time.

This is not to say that the 30-hour week is likely to become a live issue in the near future. Competent authorities expect it to become important in about two years.

Relief Camps To Be Set Up

Between $6,000 And $7,000 In Groceries Are Being Sent Sufferers; Valley Divided Into Districts

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 8. (AP) — Temporary relief camps will be built from salvaged lumber in towns along the Rio Grande in event the stream, flooded by Mexican tributaries, breaks through the flood control system flanking its American side and prevents the homeless people in the area from starting the rebuilding and repairing of their homes devastated the first of the week by a tropical hurricane.

Between $6,000 and $7,000 worth of groceries will be sent to Rio Grande valley today by Tex Alsbury, administrator for the board of welfare and employment for Bexar county.

The valley is divided into districts with details of doctors, nurses and sanitation squads on duty in each district. Relief is under the general supervision of Albert Evans, Red Cross disaster relief director.

Supplies of anti-tetanus serums and typhoid serum on hand were sufficient for immediate needs in the storm district, Evans reported.

The Bexar county chapter, American Red Cross, was busy today in its campaign to raise $20,000 in relief funds for the valley. A canvass of all business houses for funds will be made over the week-end.

The Story Of Jonathan

Text—1 Sam. 18:1-4; 20:14-17, 32-34, 41, 42; 2 Sam. 1:25-27

International Uniform Sunday School Lesson For Sept. 10
By Wm. E. Gilroy, D. D., Editor Of The Congregationalist

THE golden text of this lesson in Proverbs 17:17, "A friend loveth at all times," is very appropriate, and expresses the very heart of the lesson.

Jonathan stands in history as one of the greatest types of loyal friends. A friendship, of course, is mutual, and we cannot think of Jonathon without including David; but David had many reasons for distinction, whereas the outstanding place that Jonathan has in Scripture and history is because of his distinctive quality of loyalty and friendship.

Jonathan's case is remarkable as Jonathon was the son of the man, King Saul, who had become David's chief enemy and his greatest source of menace. Perhaps Jonathan felt as intensely as he did in protest against his father's wrong attitude. He realized how little occasion for jealousy David had given Saul, and he found in David a spirit akin to his own. It is not every man who can dissociate himself from his environment, choosing his friends without prejudice and proving loyal to them without regard to outward incidents.

WE have suggested in a former lesson that Saul's attitude toward David was possibly that of a man whose mind was deranged. Allowing temptations of jealousy to gain hold upon him may have helped to occasion that derangement, but it would seem that Saul was the victim of dark and terrible moods, which were so foreign to his normal and better nature that we see the real man in the intervals when he displayed a kindlier and more generous spirit.

In our lesson, David is compelled to hide from the menacing jealousy of Saul while Jonathan is the messenger to signal to David whether he may expect safety or danger from Saul. He does this by shooting arrows which he sends a young lad to gather.

The incidens can be understood only as one reads the whole story. There was no safety for David at the court of Saul, and Jonathan, for the protection of his friend, frankly told him so. When Jonathan dismissed the lad with the arrows the way was clear for a meeting between him and David, but it was a meeting at which they were to part.

IT is instructive to note that Jonathan's friendship and loyalty were proved alike in adversity and in ascendency. Jonathan probably did not realize at the time what was to be the future greatness of David as king of Israel, but the advancement of his friend had no effect upon his loyalty and devotion.

One should note, also, that the friendship between these men was upon a high plane. We are told than Jonathan and David made a covenant "because he loved him as his own soul." There are friendships that are upon a low level of self-interest, or community in debasing pursuits and pleasures. Such friendships do not stand the test either of time or circumstance. The only true friendship is a friendship in which souls are joined in regard for truth and honesty and the things that ennoble life's every relationship.

Why does the Bible make so much of friendship? Is it not because friendship ultimately typifies the highest relationship of man to God and of man to his fellow men? It was this that Jesus had in mind when he said to his disciples, "I have not called you servants, but I have called you friends."

Capitol Chatter

By Charles E. Simons
Associated Press Staff Writer

Charles E. Simons

AUSTIN, Sept. 8. (AP)—George C. Purl, state senator from the Dallas district, may have feminine opposition in the Democratic primaries next July.

Mrs. Sarah Hughes, also of Dallas, is reported in political circles to be considering seeking to replace Purl in the upper branch. Mrs. Hughes made an enviable record in the lower house where she was regarded as an able legislator, a fiery debater and a clever parliamentarian.

She was active in the extended controversy over the West Texas land bills and in the fight to replace the present highway commission with an elective commission. Her part in the land bill contest gained her favorable and unfavorable notice, according to the point of view.

The outcome of the prohibition election was expected to have an influence on Mrs. Hughes' decision to seek the senate seat. Her friends had said that if Dallas county voted dry she probably would seek re-election to the house. The county, with the exception of a few subdivisions, voted for both repeal and beer.

Mrs. Hughes played a prominent part in drafting the beer legislation and the prohibition amendment. Had the county gone dry her activity in this respect observers believe, might not have been to her advantage.

Purl is completing his first term in the senate after serving several terms in the house.

Should Mrs. Hughes run for the senate, Mrs. Louise Snow Phinney, her close friend, has indicated a desire to seek the house seat. Mrs. Phinney has been chief clerk of the house since the 40th legislature and has an aptitude for politics. Her regular re-election to the house clerkship demonstrates that she is a campaigners to be reckoned with.

Giants Defeat Bucs To Boost Lead One Game

Carl Hubbell Again Stars As Giants Take 2-1 Decision; Reds Blank Dodgers; Cards Win Over Phillies

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8 — Carl Hubbell pulled the New York Giants' faltering fortunes back into safer regions today and the National League leaders increased their lead to 6 1-2 games by beating the Pirates 2 to 1 in the final game of their crucial series.

The Giants lost the series, 3-2, but the final triumph quenched a good many of the Pirate hopes of beating out the New Yorkers in the pennant race. The Corsairs have only 1 more game to play and the Giants 3, a scant allowance on which to overcome a 6 1-2 game lead even though the league leaders still face the remainder of a hard western tour.

Young Hal Smith, who has the best record among the Pirate Pitchers, opposed the Giants' star southpaw. He pitched well enough for most occasions but couldn't come up to Hubbell.

PHILLIES 5; CARDS 6

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8. (AP) — The Cardinals, back in a batting stride against the hapless Phillies, today downed the visitors 6-5.

Cardinal bats swung into action in the first inning when St. Louis scounted for three runs.

Philadelphia came back in the second to tie the score and went into the lead with another counter in the sixth.

Durocher's homer in the home half of the sixth started a rally which netted three more Cardinal runs. A home run by Klein, his 27th of the season, ended the Phillies scoring in the ninth.

BRAVES 3; CUBS 8

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs, continuing their desperate though belated bid to retain their National League laurels, ran their winning streak to five straight today by sweeping the three game series from the Boston Braves, 8-3. It was the seventh straight defeat for the once rampant Braves.

Guy Bush went the route against his former Boston pitchers to turn in his fourth victory of the season.

It was the Cubs' 47th victory in their home games this season.

GOLF

By ART KRENZ

HEELS-IN ADDRESS PUTS MORE PUSH IN PIVOT

Much emphasis is placed on the address by leading pros because it sets the golfer at ease for his shot.

The important thing in the address is the feet. No matter what stance a player uses, square, open or closed, and whether or not the feet are close together, the heels always should be closer together than the toes.

The reason is that this position helps one to pivot properly. A more forceful pivot can be had with this address because the heel, turning on the toe, has a greater distance to turn, throwing more leverage and push behind the pivot.

Kozak Leads In Glen Falls Open

GLEN FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 8. (AP)—Duplicating his brilliant two under par 69 of the first round, Walter Kozak of Flushing, L. I., today led 112 golfers through a second round of the fifth annual Glens Falls open which saw an orgy of the lowest scoring in the tournament's history.

Kozak nosed out Jimmy Hines of Great Neck, L. I., pace setter yesterday with a 68, by a single stroke.

Hines went one over to take a 71 and 139 for the 36 holes.

Ralph Guldahl, long driving St. Louis professional who was runner-up to Johnny Goodman in the National Open and one of the favorites in this three day classic, shot a 69 to stand alone in third place with 142.

Four were tied at 143, Johnny Farrell, former National open titleholder, who added a 68 to his 75 of yesterday, Al Houghton of Bethesda, Md., who had rounds of 70 and 73; Bill Mehlhorn of Brooklyn with 72 and 71 and Joe Brennan of Amoler, Pa., with rounds of 69 and 74.

Pima cotton, a long-staple Egyptian variety, now is being produced on a commercial basis by planters of the Salt river valley, Arizona, the only district in America to grow this variety on a commercial scale.

Cronin Pilots Sens To 11-2 Win Over Hose

Washington Manager Sets Hot Pace With Four Hits; Yanks Beat Browns; Tigers Take Twin Bill From Red Sox

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. With Manager Joe Cronin's four hits setting the pace, Washington slugged out an 11 to 2 victory over the Chicago White Sox today, to maintain it's eight and a half game lead over the New York Yankees.

Alvin Crowder, the Senator's star hurler, held the Sox to nine scattered hits and helped to win his twenty second game of the season with two doubles.

BROWNS 3; YANKEES 5

NEW YORK, Sept 8 (AP)—Russell Van Atta, making his first start since his recent illness, held the St. Louis Browns to four hits while the Yankees pounded out their third straight victory, 5-3, today.

Van Atta allowed only one safety up to the eight. Then singles by Gullic and Hemsley and a pass to West loaded the sacks and Carl Reynolds cleared them with a triple for all the St. Louis runs.

TIGERS 4-4; RED SOX 3-3

BOSTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers took a double-header from the Red Sox today, winning both games, 4-3, before a Shriners' and ladies day crowd of 10,000.

A four run attack on Ivy Paul Andrews in the sixth inning of the opened sewed up that game for the visitors.

Each side used three pitchers in the nightcap. Marberry started in the box for Detroit but left the game after the fifth when he suffered an attack of indigestion.

The Tigers scored the winning run in the ninth on Fox' single and Charlies Gehringer's double.

McKee Team Wins Softball Battle

Scoring four runs in the last two innings, the A. W. McKee Wholesalers defeated the Lubbock Compress team, 7 to 3, in an American league softball game yesterday.

The Wholesalers took a lead with two runs in the third inning, but saw it tied up when the Compress pushed two tallies across in the sixth. McKee scored once in that inning and three times in the seventh.

Knight swatted two home runs for the winners, and Watkins slammed out one four-bagger.

There are no games scheduled in either league today.

Yesterday's lineups:

Compress—L. Taylor, lf; R. Taylor, c; McClure, 3b; Littrell, p; H. Freeland, 1b; Brooks, lss; Flake, rss; Manley, cf; B. Jaxon, rf; W. Jaxon, 2b.

Slaughter And Allen Tie For Medal Honors

Field Of 24 To Tee Off Today In First Round Of Match Play; Slaughter And Allen Qualify With Par 72's

Shooting the course with par 72's Jo Dick Slaughter and Manson Allen tied for medalist honors in the qualifying round of the Lubbock Country club championship golf tournament.

Match play begins today with a disappointing field of 24 members ready to tee off for the first round. Two flights, one of 16 players and another of eight, comprise the tournament list.

Finals On Monday

Following first round matches today, quarter-finals will be played Sunday morning and semi-finals Sunday afternoon, with finals scheduled for Monday. If players can so arrange with opponents to play two rounds today and one tomorrow, or one tomorrow and two Monday, they will be allowed to do so, tournament officials said.

Second in the qualifying was W. L. "Cotton" McAfee, runner up in the Lubbock Country club invitation tournament and finalist in the recent City Open here. McAfee fired a 74, two over par, in his qualifying round.

Five Players Tied

Five players were tied for third place with 78's. Due to the small field, a score of 88 qualified for the championship flight.

Allen, winner of the Lubbock Country club invitational, and McAfee were given the favorites' spotlight by contenders and fans last night. They are in the same bracket, which means that the survivor of the two, should they happen to meet in a semi-final match, would meet the winner of the lower bracket in the finals. Bays Bryant, medalist in the City Open; John Edmisson, former City Open champion, and T. H. Buckingham were favorites in the lower bracket.

Pairings for first round matches, with qualifying scores, follow:

Championship Flight

Manson Allen, 72, vs. Bob Harvey, 79; R. L. McAllister, 84, vs. Hooper Stiles, 78; Ted Tipps 78 vs. F. L. McRee, 86; Otis Felty, 82, vs. Cotton McAfee, 74.

T. H. Buckingham, 78, vs. T. E. Patterson, 83; W. D. Girand, Sr., vs. Bays Bryant, 78; John Edmisson, 78, vs. Ross McWhorter, 78; Lee Jones, 80, vs. JoDick Slaughter, 72.

Second Flight

Windy Watkins, 92, vs. Amos Howard, 98; Ray Mowery, 99, vs. Dick Mims, 94; A. C. Jackson, 98, vs. W. F. Helwig, 100; Jay Harston, 99, vs. Jess Lockhart, 94.

BASEBALL'S BIG 6

(By The Associated Press)

Heavy hitting marked the Big Six program yesterday with every member except Lou Gehrig getting two hits, and Wes Schulmerich received some extra benefit when a semi-official recheck of the figures added another hit to his total. This sent his average a point above Chick Hafey's and gave him an undusputed hold on the last place in the sextet. Chuck Klein, Spud Davis and Heinie Manush gained a point apiece while Gehrig and Jimmie Foxx, who walloped his 42nd homer, held their average even.

The standing:

Juniors To Meet Hubbers Sunday At College Park

That postponed "baseball battle of the month" between a team of juniors and the Lubbock Hubbers will be played tomorrow afternoon, weather and winds permitting.

Dr. C. C. Craig, manager of the Juniors, and Ed Hambright, who is to skipper the adult team, report their forces ready and rarin' for the struggle at College Avenue park. The game is to start at 3:30 o'clock, and will be a regulation, 9-inning affair.

On one side will be a hand-picked all-star team from the Lubbock Junior baseball league, which finished its season recently. There are four clubs from which Manager Craig has picked his men. On the other side are the Hubbers, or a team representing the local semi-pro baseball organization.

To make things more even for either side, batteries will be switched. The Hubber pitcher and catcher will work on the Junior team, while the Junior moundsmen and back stoppers will lineup with the Hubbers. Thus Juniors will pitch to Juniors and Hubbers to Hubbers.

Frank Shields, Stoefen Reach Semi-Final Go

Fred Perry Of Britain And Jack Crawford Of Australia Meet Americans; Stoefen Defeats Conqueror Of Vines

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 8. (AP)—Two young American tennis giants fought their way to the semi-finals of the National men's singles championship today and carried the last hopes of the home guard against the challenge of two of the world's finest shot-makers, Frederick J. Perry, Britain's Davis Cup and Jack Crawford, Australia's all-conquering ace.

Lester Stoefen, blond Californian who towers 6 feet 3 1-2 inches and enters the semi-finals for the first time in his short career, plays the brilliant Perry tomorrow while Frank X. Shields, the equally towering New Yorker, meets the great Crawford in two international battles that will put both American youths to the severest tests.

Stoefen gave an excited gallery of 10,000 spectators their biggest moments of an over-heated day by outlasting Bryan (Bitsy) Grant, jr., the scrappy Atlanta bantam who ended the reign of Champion Ellsworth Vines yesterday. But Perry and Crawford flashed by far the most impressive tennis of the quarter-final round.

Stoefen took Grant's measure by scores of 8-6, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5.

Perry trounced Adrian Quist, the handsome young Australian who conquered Wilmer Allison, with a magnificent brand of tennis, 6-4, 6-4, 6-0.

Crawford administered a tennis lesson to Clifford B. Sutter of New Orleans, third ranking American, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

The powerful Shields, despite some trouble with his booming service, bombarded his way to victory in the other quarter-final over the resolute Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., National indoor titleholder, by scores of 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Benjamin Franklin's portrait in the White House was originally carried away from Franklin's home by Major Andre, who gave it to General Grey. Grey took it to England and Earl Grey, a descendant, sent it to President Theodore Roosevelt at the Executive Mansion.

The world's largest stadium is at Soldier Field in Chicago.

Details Of Suit Filed Against Mary Pickford By Former Vaudeville Actor Disclosed With Serving Of Complaint

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Details a $250,000 suit against Mary Pickford brought by Edward Hammer, former vaudeville actor, were disclosed today in a complaint served on the screen actress' attorney.

Hammer filed a summons in superior court a few weeks ago in which he asserted merely he sought to recover the stated amount from Lilas Pickford.

In the complaint served on Dennis F. O'Brien, the screen star's lawyer, Hammer sets forth that for several years he acted as Miss Pickford's guardian, foster father and business adviser and alleges that he was to have been rewarded for his services with a bequest.

Miss Pickford, Hammer states, received all of the estate of her mother upon her death, amounting to $1,500,000. No bequest to Hammer was made in the will.

The Herald Tribune says Hammer contends that he and Miss Pickford's mother were "vigorously opposed to the associating of the defendant with Douglas Fairbanks prior to her divorce from Owen Moore."

THE RETURN OF TARZAN, No. 24

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

A moon's march to the southeast, the natives told Tarzan, lived a strange people. They wore many ornaments of shining yellow. Their spears and arrows were tipped with it. Even their cooking vessels were made of this same solid metal. Very fierce, their city was of stone, surrounded by a great wall.

"They are wicked people," said Busuli, "neither white like you nor black like me, but covered with hair as is Bolgani, the gorilla. None but our chief has ever seen them. As a young man he accompanied his father and a war party to the'r wonderful city. They are very bad, for they ate our warriors!"

That night Tarzan asked the chief about it. The old fellow remembered it well. He related his story of that long trip up great rivers and over wild mountains. "Wait until the ra'ny season is over," he said, "then I will take some of my warriors and go with you." So Tarzan, for the present, had to be content with that promise.

The next day a small party of hunters returned to report a large herd of elephants some miles away. There were several full-grown bulls whose ivory would be worth having. Preparations were made for a great hunt. The witch-doctor made charms to assure them good fortune, and at dawn fifty sleek, black warriors started out.

Noted Women To Stump For NRA Campaign

Madame Schumann - Heink, Fannie Hurst, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Nellie Ross And Others To Aid Drive

BY SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—The draft for the "peace-time war" has enlisted, among others, nine famous American women who are gladly deserting their footlights, studios and offices to speak from platforms wherever they are needed.

They are: Madame Schumann-Heink, singer, one of the famed campaigners of the world war period; Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the mint; Judge Florence E. Allen, of the Ohio supreme court; Fannie Hurst and Kathleen Norris, novelist; Emily Newell Blair, former vice-chairman of the Democratic executive committee; Anita Maris Boggs, director of the bureau of commercial economics; Cornelia Otis Skinner, actress, and Kathleen Howard, magazine editor.

These women are among the speakers scheduled to appear before community meetings called to learn more about the workings of the NRA and to plan for unified action against the depression.

"More Jobs"—"Buy Now"

"They will be asked to stress two points," says Louis J. Alber, director of the speakers' bureau for the recovery administration. "First, the necessity for reemployment. We want six million men back at work by Labor Day. Second, people must be urged to buy now. Consumers must play their part because business cannot carry these increased costs indefinitely. We must get over our mob fear and return to a normal life of buying what we need. People must feel that this plan is going to work."

Certainly there should be reassurance when the indomitable fighter, Schumann-Heink, takes the platform again to battle for her adopted country. Certainly the great singer's humor, her sparkling eyes, her spirit of maternal understanding should send audiences home with new confidence.

Noted For Wit

Cornelia Otis Skiner can be expected to slash mercilessly at the specter of fear. She is noted for her bright, sardonic wit and analyses of character.

Fannie Hurst's interests have been so intensely with the shop girl and waitress that she often has worked behind the counter to understand their problems better.

Hasn't Forgotten Wage

Kathleen Norris's successful life sprang from a youth of hardship. She has never forgotten the tragedies of the mere existence wage.

Anita Maris Boggs has been recognized by several governments for the educational work she does in the realm of commercial economics.

Emily Newell Blair and Nellie Tayoe Ross are two of the outstanding women speakers in political circles, both of them the type that battles for democratic principles Both are known for their ability to hit from the shoulder.

Kathleen Howar has had a career that gives her double preparation for her part in the campaign. For years she was a famous singer. Then she turned to editing a magazine, in which position she learned the inter-relationship of industries and the problems of the employer.

They're To Be Heard In NRA Drive

Under the aegis of the blue eagle, gifted women in many lines will plead in communities throughout the country for the creation of more jobs and for greater spending. Among them are Madame Schumann-Heink (upper left, singer; Fannie Hurst (lower left), novelist; Cornelia Otis Skinner (center), actress, and Nellie Tayloe Ross (right), director of the mint.

NEWS BRIEFS

Appeals for aid by the Red Cross for Texas storm sufferers and reports of the district ABC convention at Oklahoma City this week featured yesterday's luncheon at the Hilton hotel of the local ABC group. George Kuykendall made the aid plea and Bert Pinson told about the convention. Gordon Gaines sang, with Miss Myrtle Dunn presiding at the piano.

Farmers Plan For Meetings

Temporary Committee To Sign Up Farmers In Wheat Policy To Be Chosen; Three Meetings Scheduled

Three meetings of wheat farmers in Lubbock county to select a temporary committee to sign up farmers who want to go into the wheat allotment program of the government, will be held next week, County Agent O. G. Tumlinson said last night. He had completed a series of 11 community meetings this week at which the government plans were submitted.

Wheat farmers in Center, Becton, and Estacado voted to go into one group and they will meet at the Becton school house at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, Mr. Tumlinson said.

Monday night at 8 p. m. farmers from Caldwell, Monroe and Liberty meet at the Monroe school house.

Tuesday night at 8 p. m. County Line, Hardy, Shallowater, Carlisle and Hurlwood farmers meet at the county community house at Shallowater.

"A temporary committee will be named at each place and they will go ahead and sign up farmers," Mr. Tumlinson said. "Later the permanent organization will be formed to handle the county program.

"Wheat farmers in other parts of the county, if they want to sign, can meet with one of these groups."

Eleven communities have been contracted this week, Mr. Tumlinson said. The county has about 125 to 150 wheat farmers and an average of around 15 men have attended the meetings.

through will come back in the end to individual citizens, to individual responsibility, to private organization, through the years to come.

Two-Fold Purpose

"Your work has a two-fold purpose. You are meeting the emergency and at the same time you are building for the future. Community chests are going to keep on just as long as any of us are alive—and a mighty good thing they are, too.

"I tell you very simply that you have a great responsibility on your shoulders and I know that you are going to fulfill it. You are going back to your states and your communities and give them this message from me—this work is an essential part of the government's program, the program of the people of the United States to bring us back to where this country has a right to be.

"So—go to it—and make a record not only of money but a record of service of which we shall all be very proud."

All Local Residents In Rio Grande Valley Reported Safe After Storms

To Greet Beauties

Chosen from among 41 competitors as "Miss Atlantic City", 17-year-old Ruthy Leroy will have the distinction of welcoming entrants from 35 states when they gather at the shore resort for the annual beauty pageant. A brunette, five feet two inches tall, Miss Leroy is shown here with the winner's trophy.

Every Lubbock resident who was in Harlingen and other towns of the lower Rio Grande valley during the recent hurricane is safe, as far as B. Sherrod, local business man, could find, he said yesterday on his return. He, with Mrs. Sherrod, drove to Harlingen to see Mrs. Nettie Robinson, her mother and Miss Oveta Robinson, returning at 8 o'clock yesterday.

"I met at least a dozen people from here and all of them were feeling all right," he said. "A number knew me, but I did not recall just who they were. They all said that no one of their party was injured."

Mr. Sherrod went to Harlingen and San Benito. "The fruit crop is a total loss," he explained. "All they will get out of it is what they have already shipped.

"Cotton was picked and ginned. It was not hurt much.

"Every dry goods store and furniture store in Harlingen is a complete loss, except what they can salvage from their stocks. Every business house but one in Harlingen was damaged.

"Water fell in sheets. There were 25 inches of rain in 24 hours. The wind was from 90 miles to 125 miles an hour, at the height of the hurricane."

Mr. Sherrod said people told him that the wind first struck Harlingen from the west, instead of from the east. The hurricane blew in from the Gulf and then veered north and turned around and blew into the town from the west. It kept turning and changing and when the wind stopped blowing it was coming into the town from the north.

Several people said they had observed the wind advancing at about 14 miles per hour and they kept driving in their cars just ahead of the storm.

Among the persons Mr. Sherrod saw were W. E. Bush, Alton and Wayne Hutson and Ad Clark. Dr. Brooks of San Benito, a relative of Mrs. Minnie Reeves and Miss Helen Reeves, said they were safe and sound, although Mr. Sherrod did not get to talk to them.

Former Asylum Employe In Maine Goes Berserk Friday

BELFAST, Me., Sept. 8. (AP)—Two men were shot to death and two others probably fatally wounded today by Adrian Jones, a former insane asylum employe who went berserk in the business section of the city and then ended his own life.

The dead were: Herbert E. Ellis, 65, insurance man and Raymond Blazo, 40, a truckman.

W. W. Blazo, father of Raymond, and Dr. R. B. Stanhope, a veterinarian, were in the hospital, with no hope for recovery held by physicians.

HIS MODEL SPEEDS

COFFEYVILLE, Kas. (AP)—It took him seven years to complete it, but Ed Wilson, machinist, has built a 54-inch model of the last locomotive his father, A. R. Wilson, operated. It develops 3.9 horsepower at 120 pounds steam pressure and can travel 40 miles an hour.

Grand Jury Starts Voting On Indictments After Probe

The 99th district court grand jury was reported yesterday afternoon to have begun voting on indictments to be returned.

This morning the indictments are to be given to Judge Clark M. Mullican, it was stated.

More than 70 cases were before the jury for investigation. The body has been in session this week except for a short time Thursday afternoon. A large number of witnesses were before the body for questioning.

PLANTS RECOVER

Funeral Rites For Girl Held

Funeral services for Laverne Baber, 9-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Baber, living near here, were held yesterday afternoon at the Asbury M. E. church with Rev. O. W. Carter, pastor, officiating. The girl died Friday morning about 1 o'clock after having been shot accidentally late Wednesday at her home.

Sanders Funeral home was in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were, Hubert Burgess, E. L. Butler, P. H. Crow and Hugh Slagle.

The accident occurred at the Baber home, about two and a half miles south of Lubbock. The bullet, from a .22-caliber rifle, struck the child after it had penetrated a wall of a playhouse.

Besides the parents, survivors are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Parrack, and Mrs. Emory Butler; two sisters, Mary Jo and Betty Jean, and two brothers, Tom, jr., and Bobbie.

Release Of Cash Ordered By Judge

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—Release of $3,450, seized by the federal government from Mrs. Edwin P. Knotts of Fort Worth, Tex., was ordered today by Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaught.

Knotts, Texas oil operator, is fighting federal charges of mail fraud in connection with oil land promotions, District Attorney Herbert K. Hyde said, and sent letters to his stockholders accusing the government of persecuting him and seeking contributions from $10 to $100 for a defense fund.

The money thus raised was deposited in the First National bank here and Hyde several weeks ago ordered the fund held intact for federal investigation. A. P. Murray, attorney for Mrs. Knotts, obtained the order releasing the money to her.

City Of Lubbock's First Bale Of Cotton Received

Lubbock's first bale of cotton for 1933 brought its owner a total of $110 or 19 cents per pound for the 600 pounds of lint. The bale was ginned yesterday and then sold after being displayed down town.

J. L. Anderson, a farmer living in the Union community in the south part of the county, sold the bale to Carlock and Johnson, local cotton men, for a reported price of 10 cents per pound or $60 for the bale. The chamber of commerce offered a $50 bale premium for the first bale.

Anderson said he picked the bale from 15 acres of open cotton.

First bale in the county came in at Slaton earlier in the week.

OFFERS PARENT PRIZES

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Premier Mussolini recently turned over 200,000 lire, or about $14,000, to a natality prize fund for silk workers here and in Rome. The appropriation was part of his general campaign for race stimulation involving several millions in cash prizes yearly.
