SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO Stanton, Tuesday, December 7. He is bringing along Mrs. Santa Claus. This is the first time in my memory I will have had the opportunity of meeting Mrs.

Claus in person. I always have been told, from the time I first hung my stocking on the foot of my bed on Christmas Eve, that the main reason Mrs. Santa didn't accompany Mr. Santa on any of his trips was because she had to stay at their North Pole home and run the toy shop.

In my early Christmas Days, Santa Claus made only one trip from his Arctic home. That was on Christmas Eve, appearing at the Christmas trees in the school houses, churches, before the stroke of midnight. Then after work visiting in the homes of the good little children and leaving gifts.

But he depended on reindeer and sleigh for transportation, and one trip a year was all Santa Claus could afford to make. Then came the automobile. He could whisk about the country at a speed that saved much time. This enabled him to make trips before Christmas to spread good cheer and enliven the spirit of the people to the coming of the day of the birth of Jesus Christ our Lord.

So with the advent of the airplane and the automobile, affording rapid transportation from his North Pole home, Mrs. Santa now is able to lay aside her duties in filling orders for Christmas presents and come along with Santa to visit Stanton nineteen days before Christmas Day.

The committee in charge of the reception of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, tells us it will be a gala day for all the children of Martin County.

The committee urges the adults as well as the children to be present to enjoy the entertaining program which is in store for them.

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE history of Martin County the folks hereabouts are going to have the opportunity to see women serving on the jury, come the January term of the 118th District Court in Stanton.

At the November general election the amendment for women to sit on juries did not receive the approval of the majority of the legal voters of Martin County. The vote stood 192 for to 348 against. But statewide, the amendment carried.

Judge Charlie Sullivan of the 118th Judicial District has informed County Judge Jim McCoy, that he expects to call some women to sit on the jury panel at the January term of district court to be held in Stanton.

Judge McCoy and the members of the Commissioners' Court of Martin County, have the edict issued by Judge Sullivan, and they are doing some remodeling work on the second floor of the courthouse, which will provide quarters to take care of the women who will serve on the jury in Martin County.

I WOULDN'T KNOW WHICH OF two propositions would have a more disappointing effect on me—to run for a state office and get defeated, or win the office by the vote of the people at an election and find later that I was not old enough to qualify for the office.

This is what has happened in Tennessee. Ed S. Smith, an assistant attorney-general, was elected to the State Senate. The constitution of the State of Tennessee says the office can be filled only by a person a least 30 years old.

Smith won't be 30 until about four months after the state legislature convenes.

McMorries Trial Postponed; To Be Scheduled In January

James McMorries, already convicted on one charge of theft of public funds, was to have gone back to trial this coming Monday on a second charge, but the trial was continued.

Judge A. S. Mauzey ordered a continuance when it found that certain witnesses could not make it back in time to appear. The trial had been scheduled to start Monday morning in the 32nd District court in Sweetwater.

Judge Mauzey said in Sweetwater Wednesday that the case would come up with the next criminal docket, scheduled to begin the third Monday in January, which is January 17. "The pending cases will be set by that time unless otherwise disposed of in the meantime," the Judge said.

County Attorney Ralph Caton said this week that the prosecution is ready to proceed with the trial on the specific charge that McMorries stole $337.50 from Martin County in the purported purchase of cedar fence posts.

The case is based on a check for $337.50, which McMorries signed as reimbursement to himself for fence post purchases.

McMorries was convicted two weeks ago on a charge of theft of Grady Independent School funds and was sentenced from two to five years in the state penitentiary. He is free under $2,500 appeal bond.

The former judge faces a total of 12 other forgery and theft indictments resulting from a Martin County grand jury investigation.

Dollar Day In Stanton Monday

Monday is Dollar Day in Stanton, and the Reporter presents with this issue a variety of Dollar Day offerings by Stanton merchants.

With the coming of Christmas and the offering of Christmas merchandise by the merchants, many Martin County and Stanton residents will avail themselves of the opportunity to make purchases early.

The Martin County Chamber of Commerce will give away five silver Dollars Dollar Day as the usual Dollar Day feature. A large glass bowl in the office is filled with numbers which corresponds with telephone numbers on the Stanton, West Stanton and Lenorah exchanges. A number will be drawn from the bowl, the number dialed, and if the person who answers says "Dollar Day in Stanton" that person will receive a silver dollar. If the person answering does not say those words, they miss the dollar. The dialing will be repeated until the five silver dollars are awarded.

So, think of Dollar Day, and come and spend the day.

Conrad McKaskle Is On All-State Team

Stanton this year boasts one player on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram IA all-state football team. He is Conrad McKaskle, half back.

McKaskle made the first team, and two other Stanton boys were given honorable mention in the selections. They were Burley Polk, guard, and Mike Baulch, center.

"McKaskle is one of West Texas' better all-round backs. He was the core of Stanton's fine offense and led the Buffaloes to seven victories in 10 games. His size (190) made him dangerous through the inside, and his speed also made him a wide threat."

Lions Continue Light Bulb Sale

If a man—maybe a man with a roar—knocks at your door this week or next, don't close it, because he is a Lion out selling light bulbs. Lions will be canvassing the town this week in a final drive to sell light bulbs.

Plans for the drive were made by members of the club at their Monday night dinner at the high school cafeteria.

The club will make a special offer to "customers" in the sale of light bulbs, as a package ordinarily selling for $2.29 is offered for $2. The proceeds go for the Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville.

The Lions also voted to assist President Phillip White in the March of Dimes campaign in January, and also voted to participate in the football banquet honoring the football boys January 17. W. W. Williams was accepted as a new member.

Christmas Program To Start Friday

You know, its pretty near Christmas!

Or, at least it seems so with the completion of preparations for Christmas lighting, the coming of Santa Claus, and the round of holiday events scheduled by the Martin County Chamber of Commerce.

The first of the Christmas program gets underway this week when the Christmas lights downtown and at the courthouse are turned on Friday. Then, Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus and their Christmas entourage, will make their appearance Tuesday afternoon in a gala program. From then on one thing follows another, culminating with the singing of Christmas Carols the evening of Tuesday, December 21.

Street lighting in the downtown area has been going forward under the direction of a committee headed by Yuel Winslow, and the program of courthouse lighting has been directed by Dan Saunders and his committee. Both committees report everything will be in readiness, and lights turned on Friday evening. And, they will remain on each evening through Christmas and the season.

It is expected that the decoration of business houses will be completed by Monday. Each business firm handles its own decorations, and all are cooperating to make the decorating the best ever. James Biggs is chairman of the committee looking after that.

Santa Claus Circus Then, Tuesday will be the big day!

Santa Claus will arrive officially at 1:30 and spend the afternoon. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Claus and two mid-level clowns. Santa and the missus will hold a reception at 1:30 for all pre-school children. He will be on a Christmas decorated float, and this reception for the younger children will be one of the Christmas highlights.

And, at 2:30 Santa will hold open house for the other children. Schools will turn out early, and the courthouse square will be the center of attraction most of the afternoon. Santa will hand out bags of Christmas candy and fruit. He will be assisted by members of the American Legion, Lions and Rotary Clubs. Children will pass through the courthouse in two lines to receive these gifts.

At 4 o'clock the Santa Claus circus will be presented on the east side of the courthouse. Included in this circus will be acts by aerial artists on the flying trapeze, and bicycle and unicycle acts. Four clowns will add spice to the circus, and Santa and his "family" will be there, too.

All in all, the Santa Claus program should be one the children will long remember. The Santa Claus circus is being handled by a committee headed by J. Jenkins.

Other Features Scheduled

The Treasure Hunt will be an event of Saturday, December 11. Both children and adults who attend the Santa Claus program Tuesday afternoon will receive numbers which are to be used in the treasure hunt on December 11. Approximately 50 merchants in Stanton are cooperating to make this treasure hunt the most successful ever, and much interest is expected to develop. Children will receive numbers at the candy bags they receive, and adults will be given the numbers on the street during the Tuesday program. Each will take the numbers to the various stores and

Estimated $7,650,000 Cotton Crop Forecast

The Departments of Commerce and Labor paint a glowing picture in their forecast of expenditures of money in construction work for 1955. With the figures mounting into the 11-digits, $39,500,000,000, it would appear the spread of the amount to be invested might reach within the portals of Stanton and Martin County.

The forecast is based "on the assumption that the general level of economic activity will remain relatively stable, and disposal (income after taxes) of consumers will continue at a record rate."

The stable and dependable product from which Martin County depends for its revenue is cotton. On the basis the county yields its estimated production of 45,000 bales based on the average price of 34-cents a pound paid for the cotton, the revenue from the crop will amount to $7,650,000. This is just a forecast emanating from the mathematical brains provided by The Stanton Reporter. It is a privilege given every individual or collection of individuals, the same as the DCL is privileged to make its forecast.

The forecast goes on to say that private spending for new buildings will rise to new heights—$27,500,000,000—a rather dizzy figure, don't you think?

The size of this expenditure can have its bright side to Stanton and Martin County folk, in that new and remodelled homes may be seen under construction in town, and new homes and other improvements built on the farms. The private construction program could extend to building new and modern store buildings and remodeling others, giving to our business section a face lifting becoming a modern and progressive municipality.

The blemish appearing on the picture of the government's forecast comes when the report mentions that farm construction will fall off next year seven per cent, to a total of $1,450,000,000 compared with $1,560,000,000 expected for this year.

Now, if we can just make this illuminating forecast picture come true, there will be much rejoicing in the camps of Stanton and Martin County.

Lots' Of Visiting Goin' On In And Around Washington

Dear editor:
In nearly every paper I've run into here lately there's been an article about the leader of some country payin a visit to Washington, and I started keepin count of em.

In the last thirty days the Premier of France, the Chancellor of Germany, the ex-Queen of England, the Premier of Japan, the Prime Minister of Austria, the Prime Minister of Norway, the Prime Minister of Sweden, the Prime Minister of Denmark, the Prime Minister of Ceylon, the King of Greece, the Emperor of Ethiopia, the President of Turkey and Governor General of Canada, all have paid visits to Washington.

This is a pretty impressive list and lends considerable authority to the idea that Washington is now the center of the world, and while it's not my job to be advisin Washington, I would like to suggest that the people up there not let this thing go to their head.

While the purpose of so much visiting no doubt is laid to cementing good relations and seeking advice, I would like to caution Washington to go a little easy. When a man goes to see his banker for advice, it generally ain't advice he's seeking, but a loan. He already knows what he wants to do, he's in there just to see if he can swing the money to do it with.

If all these countries want is advice, they got telephones and could call up Washington and get it, but I have a fellin advice ain't it at all.

Of course it's only natural that they should go to Washington for money, but that's no trouble with spreading our arm of government too far. As I understand it, goin to Washington for money is an American heritage, perfected by years of painstaking effort by every American who ever sought help from that source, which takes in practically everybody, in one way or another, and while I would be the last to argue against such a system, I think you can spread the notion too far out.

It's one thing to preach the American system throughout the world, but there are some aspects of it we ought to reserve for ourselves, and goin to Washington for help tips the list.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

BIBLE COMMENT:

St. Paul Never Sanctioned Slavery

The days are long since past when anyone tried to justify the institution of slavery by reference or proof from the Bible.

Yet there was a time when religion and the Bible had a very active part in the controversies regarding slavery. The spirit of the Bible, with its strong emphasis upon freedom, was invoked by antislavery advocates, while proof texts and references were used by the impassioned defenders of slavery.

And strongest on the part of slavery's defenders was the claim that Paul had impliedly sanctioned the institution or, at least, had not condemned it, though he had urged considerate and humane treatment of slaves.

The issue, of course, is emphasized in the one-chapter New Testament book of Philemon. It was a definite, practical issue that could not be avoided.

Onesimus, a slave whose master was Philemon, a Christian in the church at Colossae, a city in the Roman province of Asia, had run away from his master and had made his way to Rome.

Here, in the great city, a haven for runaways and criminals, he had apparently made good his escape, but he came under the influence of St. Paul and became a Christian.

Should Paul have protected Onesimus? Was he sanctioning slavery in sending him back to Philemon, even though the slave notice there are more to follow with the near future.

The J. H. White farm, three miles west of Stanton on the highway, was a scene of much activity Monday, as that was the day for the terracing school.

The school was under the direction of Frank Wendt, county agent of Midland County.

During the first part of this week the Home National Bank of Stanton, installed quite a large number of new fixtures and apparently was quite willing to go?

(It must be considered that here was a situation in which master, slave and teacher all were Christian.)

On the contrary. In Paul's very attitude he laid the ground for the abolition of slavery insofar as Christianity is concerned.

Paul had deeper and more underlying purposes to fulfill to risk all on this issue before his mission was finished.

A SWITCH OF THE PITCH -AND AWAY YOU GO!

The biggest sensation in years is what "variable pitch propellers" have done for Dynaflo Drive*

It happens like this. You need a pickup—and pronto. So you get it. You get it by pushing the accelerator pedal of a 1955 Buick all the way to the floor board.

Then—without jerk or lag or lurch or pause—you get action! You get action whether you're just starting off—or asking for a safety-surge of power out on the highway.

There's nothing like it in past experience—because there has never been anything like it in an automobile before.

This is action that comes from the principle of variable pitch propellers used on modern planes. Their propeller blades change "pitch" for take-off—and cut hundreds of feet off the time required to lift a plane from a runway.

And the amazing fact is—in a 1955 Buick Dynaflo Drive there are 20 little propeller-like blades that also change their pitch, just like the propeller blades of a plane.

This is a transmission engineer's dream of heaven. A build-up of momentum as smooth as flowing oil—plus better gas mileage in cruising range. It's what the whole automobile industry has been shooting for—and Buick has it. So, that means there's only one thing for you to do. Try out a 1955 Buick, and soon.

Try it out for quick action, as we've mentioned. Try it out for room and comfort and ride. And by all means, cast an admiring eye on its style—for it beats the high-fashion Buicks which set the pattern in the successful year just ended.

Going—Going—
But Not Gone!

Saturday they got set to auction off "Sis" Brown's house for non-payment of taxes. Buck Stone was the auctioneer. Everybody who came to the auction knew that "Sis" is a war widow.

When Buck began the bidding he said, "Anybody can bid. Just remember 'Sis' and three nice kids live here. Now who's going to start the bidding?"

There was silence. "Sis," standing in back, got the point. She reached into her purse for just about all the money she had in the world. "I'll bid $75," she said.

"Sold," bellowed Buck and "Sis" had her home back.

From where I sit, Buck Stone used a helping hand instead of a gavel. It was real neighborliness. You know, even in something as small as respecting another's choice of beverage, a person can be neighborly. You might like buttermilk. I'm "sold" on a temperate glass of beer. And I can't "buy" anyone's telling me I'm wrong.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS:

Dixie Wonder Pea For Winter Legume Being Given First Trial This Year

First trials of Dixie wonder peas as a winter legume in this area are being made this fall by co-operators with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District.

At least three farmers have planted this variety of pea for cover and soil-improvement. They are B. W. Colladay, 140 acres on his farm southeast of Midland; Carl Leonard Jr., 40 acres on the F. F. Elkin farm east of Midland; and B. E. O'Neal, 25 acres south of Midland.

Other farmers are using Austrian winter peas and vetch. Both these legumes have been successful in this area. Agricultural Conservation Program funds are used to share the cost of seed and fertilizer for winter cover crop plantings.

The Dixie wonder pea is said to make a more rapid early growth than the Austrian winter pea which it otherwise resembles.

The trials are being watched closely by farmers and conservationists.

Plantings of the new variety of pea were made on irrigated land and fertilized with 30 pounds of nitrogen and 60 pounds of phosphate per acre.

Grasses on the D. W. McCormick farm have produced a good seed crop this year, examination by the Soil Conservation Service this week showed. The pasture was rested during the growing season this year.

The better grasses, black grama, sidecoats grama, and cane bluestem, have made good improvement in vigor and produced a good seed crop. McCormick says he plans to rest the pasture again next year.

J. T. Flowers, Valley View farmer, was named vice-chairman of the board of supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, in the board's annual election of officers at Stanton last week. Flowers has been a member of the board two years, representing zone 4 of the district, south of Midland.

Doris Blissard, Lomax, was named chairman, and Edgar Phillips, Big Spring, continues as secretary-treasurer. Ollie Robinson, Tarzan, is a new member of the board elected from zone 1, north of Midland.

Bence Brown, Coahoma, outgoing chairman of the board, submitted his resignation because of his health. A special election will be held to name a new supervisor for zone 3, east of Big Spring.

EXPLOSIVE HAIRDO—"Bum-Bum" is making a big boom in Hamburg, Germany, with its A-bomb-like cloud of hair gathered as a topnot. The "chain reaction" in hair styling was set off by Antonio of Paris.

FROM WHERE I SIT

By Hila Weathers
Manager of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce

WE ARE GLAD to present Owen Kelly as the member-of-the-week. His membership was turned in by Ellmore Johnson, chairman of the Membership and Public Relations Committee. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and family live five miles west of town, and Owen with his father, Walter Kelly, operates successfully one of the show-farms in this area. The entire family of Owen Kelly adds much to the success of community projects. Mrs. Kelly is active in Home Demonstration Club work; Bobby and Sandra have won county, district and state honors with their Hereford calves. Roy Wayne isn't quite old enough yet to be active (in community projects, that is!), but give the boy time! Inasmuch as agriculture plays a larger part of our program, we are very happy to have Owen line up as an active member, in order that we may help each other in the farmer-rancher program in Martin County.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Stanton Study Club for sponsoring the first china painting exhibit to be held in Martin County. Mrs. Tom Houston is the capable instructor under whose guidance this exhibit was made possible. Her pupils in china painting include a number of Stanton women. It was a pleasure to provide space for the display of one of the most beautiful collection of hand-painted china we have ever seen. This exhibit would have been a credit to any city in Texas, and we're proud to know that we have Jayne Houston in our community, as we consider her work in this area as an artistic industry!

AT LONG LAST the pictures and the full script have been turned in to the publishers for the new brochures. These should be ready for distribution in about ten days or two weeks. Then, if you would like to see the type literature which is mailed out of the office to all parts of the country, come by and ask for a copy. We feel that they'll be highly acceptable.

TWO COMMITTEE meetings were held in the office during the last week. One committee whose plans are being made for the annual football banquet which is scheduled for January, was unusually fortunate in obtaining a well-known speaker. The name of this speaker will be announced when all plans have been confirmed, but we will say that we're very happy for this committee in its work. The other committee meeting was made up of chairmen of separate divisions of the over-all Christmas program, with O. J. Jenkins as general chairman. The members attending have gone to work enthusiastically in efforts to make this our biggest holiday season.

THE FIRST ANNUAL Capon Show of the Chamber of Commerce proved to be successful. The show staged under the supervision of the Agriculture and Livestock Committee, with Ralph Jones and Elbert Steele directing the activities. We do appreciate the attendance of out-of-town persons who helped make the show a success by making purchases of the capons raised by the boys and girls of the 4-H and FFA Clubs of Stanton and Martin County.

OUR THANKS to the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative for the 1955 Birthday Calendar, compiled by the Martin County Home Demonstration Council. This is our favorite calendar, inasmuch as it contains the birthdays and anniversaries of a great number of our friends. They failed to get my birthday in it, and if you actually want it, call me and I'll help you complete your calendar! I've added several dates to mine —it's fun!

SPORTS CAST

SIGNING OFF

This issue of The Reporter rings down the curtain for this column and its place on the printed page for the 1954 football season. Of course the column has been teeming with bright sayings as the football season progressed, hence the lamenting you hear coming from its readers??

The reason for originating this column in the first place was upon instructions from the editor, who found this reporter was too handy with scissors clipping out copy from newspapers and sending back "canned" copy to fill up white space. This kind of copy required no brain work.
Even though the column may fall flat of interest to the reader, it at least would have a smattering of local color appear at times.

Anyway, Adieu for the football season of 1954.

The pot is boiling in the camp of the Breckenridge Buckaroos. The blaze was set under the pot by the officials of District 1-AAA at their meeting held recently at Snyder. The Bucks were ruled out of district play during the years 1955-1956, due to the fact the Breckenridge school is well below the minimum enrollment required of 550.

Breckenridge was voted out of the higher classification once and then voted back last year.
Last year the Bucks were co-champions and in 1952 were champions.

This bit of news will be of interest to the many Stanton friends of Coach Leo Fields of Dimmitt.

He was coach of the Stanton Buffaloes the year they went on to win the district and bi-district championships before les-sing the regional championship to Rochester by one point. This game was played at Abilene.

High school coaches in the Panhandle area named a "Coach of the Week." Fields was given that honor last week.

He won the honor on the strength of his squad's 22-7 upset win over Springlake.

The young Dimmitt coach was featured on a television program.

The Stanton Buffaloes retained second place in District 4-2, recently by defeating the Coahoma Bulldogs, 13-0. The Bison herd was led by Conrad McKaskle. In the second quarter he romped 45 yards for a touchdown, and at another period in the game he raced 75 yards before being run out of bounds.

The Stanton team is not the only squad to shed crocodile tears over losing the district championship. Midland's Bulldogs went down in defeat at the hands of the Abilene Eagles 28-14.

The powerhouse player of both teams for the night was Midland's back, Wahoo McDaniel.

Results of other District 4-A games played Friday night were:
Sundown 42, O'Donnell 6; Denver City 51, Morton 14; Seagraves 14, Whiteface 6.

MAX LYNDON THOMASES AT HOME IN MIDLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lyndon Thomase are at home in Midland following their marriage November 13 in Carlsbad, New Mexico.

The bride is the former Verna
Bell Clinton, daughter of Mrs.
Jessie A. Clinton of Star Route, Stanton. She is a graduate of Stanton High School and attended Texas Tech.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thomas of Coahoma. He is a graduate of Coahoma High School and served three years with the U. S. Army in Korea.

Funeral Held For Sister Of Mrs. Rogers

Funeral services were held Saturday in Lubbock for Mrs.
Lou Jordan of Lubbock.

Mrs. Jordan, who was a sister of Mrs. Dee Rogers of Stanton, died Wednesday.

She is survived by her father,
Dick Arnett, who was making his home with her; one brother, Carter Arnett of Merced, Calif.; and one sister, Mrs. Dee Rogers of Stanton.

Attending the funeral from Stanton were Mr. and Mrs. R. K.
Rogers, Jimmy Rogers, Dee Rogers, Mrs. Flora Rogers and many friends.

ced this week.

ACKERLY NEWS:

Ackerly Downs Dell City To Gain Place In Finals

By DOROTHY BAKER
Reporter Correspondent

Ackerly defeated Dell City, 44-19, at Pyote Thursday afternoon to enter the Regional finals in six-man football play.

Ackerly will face Sterling City at a site yet to be determined. Sterling City belted Lohn in bi-district competition Wednesday night.

Dell City jumped out in front by scoring the first time. Then in the closing minutes of the first quarter, Ackerly ran across the goal line, then added two extra points.

Alvin Cates added Ackerly's second TD in the second period but the Cougars came back to get another tally shortly afterward and an extra point.

Ray Weaver caught a pass from Charles Brown for the third Ackerly tally and Eddie Gill again booted the ball for two extra points.

In the last minute of the second period, Gill got away for an Ackerly score. The try for point was missed.

The teams never scored again until the fourth round. Dell City counted first in that quarter but Paul Alexander and Dub Grigg restored the Eagles' lead by taking a pass from Weaver. Alexander took Weaver's toss and fired the scoring pass to Grigg. The play covered 35 yards.

Barney Springfield scored the last Ackerly touchdown on an intercepted pass. Gill booted for two points.

The Lewis boys, Pete, Austin and Gerald, each scored a touchdown for Dell City.

The Eagles were boosted by a large number of fans from Ackerly and surrounding schools. Also a good number accompanied the Dell City Club.

Darlene Ruth Horton recently celebrated her thirteenth birthday with a dinner and slumber party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Horton. Guests included Peggy Ingram, Wanda Lou Jones, Janice Bearden, Dorothy Williams, Judy Brown, Sandra Campbell, Sylvia Ann Smith, Winnie Taylor, Patay Bristow and Bessie Smith.

Class favorites were elected at recent meetings of the Ackerly High School classes. They were Dolores Mabry and James Darrell Springfield, senior class; Patricia Iden and Jerry Hall, junior class; Zenobia Crain and Dalton Gill, sophomore class; and Helen Cozart and Floyd Husy, freshman class.

The sophomore class at Ackerly High School was recently entertained with a theater party in Lamesa. John Massey, sponsor, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reithmayer and Mrs. Scheulke accompanied the group.

The freshman class had a picnic supper at Lamesa park on Friday night. They also attended a movie. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. G. Lassecock accompanied the group.

Part Of U.S. 80 Work Nearly Done

Work is expected to be finished on the Martin County part of the Highway 80 road improvement program by December 15. G. T. Orenbaum, senior resident engineer for the highway department, said here Saturday. This news will be welcome to motorists as the Christmas season approaches.

The Martin County stretch of the Highway 80 program was begun last January 4, taking approximately a year to complete. And, it will have cost approximately $300,000 for the Martin County part of the work.

The stretch of the highway from Martin County to Midland will be completed around July 1, Orenbaum figured. The whole Martin and Midland County project will have cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000, and will give motorists a four-lane highway from Big Spring to Odessa.

crowd fell to the lot of the Sunday Roughnecks.

Winning of the district crown pitted Sundown against the Hale Center team to determine the bi-district championship. Last week Sundown defeated Hale Center for this mark of distinction.

Coach Melvin Robertson and his assistant, Larry Wartes, molded the Stanton Buffaloes into a football squad that played the game in a sportsmanlike manner—clean, hardfought, down-to-earth football.

Though the ambition of the Buffalo squad was to win the crown, the Buffaloes and coaches are sportsmen enough to bow gracefully in defeat and declare that in all the squads they met in contest, in and outside the conference chase, during the season, they found not one but where good clean wholesome football was encountered.

NEITHER THE ATTORNEY General's office or the legal staff of the Texas Education Agency can find anywhere in the Texas Legal Code, a statute which prohibits the use of intoxicating beverages in a high school stadium or gymnasium.

The Interscholastic Leaguer says: "To be on the safe side, the school should prevail upon the local city governments to pass ordinances prohibiting the use of intoxicating beverages on the high school (or any school) premises."

This column is not in possession of any information on which it could base a claim there was any disturbance at any game played on the Buffalo field this year, which could be traced to drinking intoxicating beverages on the grounds.

In order to be armed with the proper legal authority to use in case of need, the City Council, if it has not already a city ordinance prohibiting drinking in public places, perhaps should pass one at its earliest convenience.
