JURY PICKED IN HAWAII 'HONOR SLAYING' TRIAL

Garner-For-President Chairmen Named In Nine Wichita Area Counties

BOOM TO OPEN AT PRECINCT CONVENTIONS

Meetings May 7 to Launch State's Campaign For House Speaker

ONEAL DRAWS LIST

Republicans Fear Texan As Candidate Above All, Says Letter

County chairmen have been appointed and a complete organization now is being perfected to stage an intensive Garner-for-President movement throughout the 23rd Texas senatorial district, according to information obtained Thursday from Senator Ben G. Oneal, state committeeman for this district.

Expression of Loyalty

"So far as we can discern," said Mr. Oneal, "practically every citizen of Texas is a supporter of Mr. Garner for president. But we hope during the next few weeks to give every community an opportunity to express that loyalty that the whole country will know positively that Texas is enthusiastic to the last man in advocating Mr. Garner's candidacy."

Chairmen named for the various counties are as follows: Wichita, P. B. Cox; Wilbarger, S. T. Dodson of Vernon; Hardeman, C. E. Carlock of Chillicothe; Baylor, Whit Whiteside of Seymour; Young, Graham Stewart of Graham; Knox, Charles Morehouse of Benjamin; Clay, W. J. Glasgow of Henrietta; Archer, T. L. Looney of Archer City; Beard county chairman not yet announced.

These county chairmen, Mr. Oneal said, will appoint precinct chairmen who will promote the Garner-for-President interests in precinct conventions to be held on May 7. In many communities in this senatorial district, it was stated, Garner clubs already have been organized and are functioning actively.

California for Garner

Prediction that John Garner will carry California is contained in a letter received this week by Mr. Oneal from R. W. Davis, formerly a banker at Weatherford, and now president of the Davis Mortgage company of Los Angeles. The former Texan wrote as follows:

"I think that Garner will carry California, because the Hearst papers are booming him in every issue and there are no other papers supporting a Democrat. All others are Republicans and they are hitting at Garner, showing that they fear his nomination and strength if nominated.

"All Democrats I meet will vote for Garner in the primary and all the Republicans I meet will vote for the Democratic candidate in the fall election.

"I find no one now who will vote the Republican ticket. However the Democrats made such fools of themselves last week before Garner whipped them in line that it shook the confidence of many Republicans in the Democratic rule though not in Garner. The registration this spring shows an enormous increase in Democratic voters and a decline in Republicans, though the latter are still in the majority in California."

TEXAS HAM AND GREENS PLEASE GARNER

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—Speaker Garner still hasn't said how he feels about running for president, but today he declared himself for "good old Texas ham with turnip greens on the side."

It happened when the grand champion ham of the second annual Panhandle South Plains Fat

John Garner of Texas, speaker of the house of representatives, has increased his national prestige through his recent fight for a balanced budget, political observers agree. Mr. Garner's dramatic appeal from the floor of the house, to which insurgents capitulated almost unanimously, was called one of the most striking scenes in the history of the house.

TEXAN SLAIN FROM AMBUSH

Farmer Recently Cleared Of Attack on Girl

CROCKETT, Texas, April 7. (AP)—Dan Whittiker, about 50, farmer, was slain from ambush early tonight on a road four miles north of Crockett. Officers immediately started a search for the slayer.

District Attorney Ben Greenwood said that last December Whittiker was charged with criminal assault on an 18-year-old girl. The grand jury no-billed him. The prosecutors expressed the opinion that might have had some connection with the slaying.

Whittiker was returning from Crockett to his home six miles north. He was alone in his wagon. He just had passed the Jeff Hill farm when two rifle bullets were fired from the underbrush at the side of the dirt road.

One of the bullets struck him in the neck and the other in the head, killing him instantly.

The widow and two daughters survive.

101 Ranch Sued For 'Well-Built Buffalo'

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 7. (UP)—The 101 Ranch circus, frequently involved in litigation in the last year, again was drawn into legal complications today in the damage suit of G. A. Fisher versus "one well-built buffalo."

Fisher claims $5,000 damages because a buffalo owned by the circus allegedly tossed him some 15 to 18 feet into the air when he carelessly turned his back toward the animal in July, 1930.

Methodist Missions Board Faces Deficit

NEWARK, N. J., April 7. (AP)—The board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church faces a deficit of $1,000,000 and is in danger of having its work wiped out, the Rev. Ralph Diffendorfer, corresponding secretary of the board, told the Newark conference today.

Three Norfolk Men Wait For Message From Kidnapers

EFFORTS CONTINUED

Negotiators to Make Hasty Trip if Plans Prove Successful

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 7. (UP)—Activities at Hopewell, Trenton and Norfolk, Va., today, indicated investigators of the Lindbergh kidnaping were chiefly concerned with providing a "smoke screen" behind which Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., may be returned to his parents.

Throughout the recent series of rumors, based on substantial evidence, that a solution of the crime was near, the police have maintained their "negative" position regarding all news of the private negotiations undertaken by the Lindberghs and their accredited agents.

It was stated unequivocally today, however, that the child is not yet back in Hopewell, and that if and when he is brought back the news will be given out immediately at Trenton.

Hope for Success

In Norfolk, Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, one of the three negotiators who have been dealing with persons they believe have possession of the child, announced that Colonel Lindbergh had commissioned them to continue their efforts. His announcement was regarded as evidence that the colonel had some hope of success in this direction.

It was also believed, and undenied, that Colonel Lindbergh met John Hughes Curtis, Norfolk boat builder, during his mystery airplane trip early this week.

Burrage added that he and his two co-workers, the Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock and Curtis, were "ready to leave Norfolk at a minute's notice" when it became necessary to meet the kidnapers.

Texan Killed As Train Hits Truck

HENDERSON, Texas, April 7. (UP)—One man was killed and his companion was critically injured today when the truck in which they were riding was struck by an International-Great Northern train at Norfolk.

Jack Campbell, 52, died while being taken to the Overton, Texas, hospital, never regaining consciousness after the crash. John Hamilton, 30, driver of the truck, was in a semiconscious condition tonight at Overton.

Hamilton had internal hurts and a possible fracture of the skull. The train which struck the truck was a combination affair, en route from Henderson to Overton.

Four-Power Conference Can't Reach Agreement

LONDON, April 7. (AP)—The four-power conference failed today to agree on a scheme to solve the Danubian economic crisis and tomorrow it will adjourn to resume sessions later probably at Geneva.

The opinion expressed by the British delegation was that a measure of progress was attained.

The possibility of dealing successfully with the central European situation is much greater today than it was before Britain, France, Germany and Italy sent their representatives to the conference.

FEDERATED CLUB APPEAL

WACO, Texas, April 7. (AP)—Mrs. J. W. Fincher of Houston, president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, today appealed to members attending the fourth district convention for funds to meet obligations incurred in constructing the state federation building at Austin.

Three Hurt When Planes Crash At Lubbock Airport

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 7. (AP)—Three persons suffered minor injuries when two airplanes crashed about 100 feet above Lubbock Municipal airport at about 7 o'clock tonight.

Miss Evelyn Richter, secretary of the City-County Welfare association, who was flying a small monoplane, was most seriously injured. Her nose was crushed and she suffered a fractured cheek bone. Cecil Casey, assistant fire chief, and Arthur Chase, who were in a biplane, received abrasions and small cuts.

Miss Richter, who had planned to try for a private pilot's license Saturday, had made a landing and started to take off again. Casey and Chase taxied off at about the same time. Miss Richter's ship, beneath the biplane, collided with it. Both airplanes were badly damaged.

R. W. Delaney, department of commerce inspector, was informed of the accident and will be here Friday to investigate the crash.

KANSAS SEEKS CRUDE HIKE

Standolind's Failure to Raise May Upset Price

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., April 7. (AP)—Thurman Hill, member of the Kansas Public Service commission, today informed the Standard Oil company of Indiana the commission considers taking of Kansas crude oil under different prices for the same quality of oil a discriminatory act under the ratable taking law.

Unless the Standard meets present prices, ranging downward from $1 a barrel, paid by other companies, he informed company officials, the commission will call an early hearing at Wichita.

Hill said action was promoted by failure to receive a reply to a telegram sent the Standard Wednesday urging them to meet the advance and the receipt of an appeal from 30 purchasers of Kansas and Oklahoma crude, saying the situation was critical and unless the Standard meets the advance, it will be necessary for them to return to the former price of 85 cents for the top.

MASS MEETING CALLED AT TYLER

TYLER, Texas, April 7. (UP)—A mass meeting was called here today to be held in Tyler Tuesday night, April 12, to protest a notice of the Humble Oil and Refining company that it will pay 83 cents per barrel for East Texas crude oil.

Other companies have posted increases bringing the price to 98 cents a barrel.

HUMBLE'S STAND STIRS FEARS OF INDUSTRY

TULSA, Okla., April 7. (AP)—Two companies purchasing oil in the mid-continent field increased their prices today to meet the current advance of 15 cents a barrel to $1 top, but rumblings from Texas kept the eyes of oil men turned southward.

Unofficial reports to oil companies here during the day were that the Humble Oil company of Houston, subsidiary of Standard of New Jersey, had balked at paying more than the old price of 85 cents for East Texas crude and would post its own prices hereafter.

The report circulated here was that Humble would pay 90 cents a barrel for oil purchased from April 1 through April 6, which it considered the average price paid in the area during that period, but would pay on a gravity schedule topped at 83 cents from April 7 until further notice.

A report that gained circulation here during the day but was quickly denied by company officials at Houston, was that the Texas company had decided to revert to the old price of 85 cents top after joining the independents in increasing prices April 1.

Pure Oil, of Tulsa, and National Refining company, of Bartlesville, increased prices to the $1 top level today.

Temporary Peace Comes To Columbia Campus

NEW YORK, April 7. (AP)—Riots ceased on the Columbia campus today, egg stains were cleaned off the gilt statue "Alma Mater," students went back to classes, a few bearing marks of fracases, but protests continued against expulsion of Reed Harris, editor of the college daily, The Spectator.

Harris remained expelled, following his editorial charges the dining-hall was run for personal profit, but The Spectator editorially claimed "victory" for a free press.

Strike leaders, who have called another mass meeting for tomorrow, say 16 faculty members have signed a petition protesting the ousting of Harris.

Cameron County Deputy Escapes Assassins

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, April 7. (UP)—Cameron county officers began an investigation tonight of an apparent attempt to assassinate Deputy Sheriff E. M. Yznaga near Dead Man's curve, south of San Benito, today. Revenge was believed to have been the motive of the deputy's assailants.

SPEED KING OF AIR SERIOUSLY HURT IN CRASH

Capt. Frank Hawks Injured As Ship Overturns In Fast Take-Off

WHEEL HITS ROCK

Facial Paralysis Threatens As Result of Famous Flyer's Accident

WORCESTER, Mass., April 7. (US)—Threatened with facial paralysis and other permanent disabilities, Capt. Frank M. Hawks, famous speed king of the air, lay in a hospital tonight painfully injured after his plane had overturned during a take-off from soggy ground.

Surgeons at the Worcester hospital to which Hawks was rushed immediately after the accident at Grafton airport said that the aviator had narrowly escaped death. After a two-hour examination, they listed his injuries as a fractured lower jaw and nose, severe lacerations of the face, and half of his teeth knocked out.

While they said there was no indication that his life is in danger, the doctors ordered a series of x-rays taken and word was sent to Mrs. Hawks, his wife, who left Fort Worth, for Worcester as soon as she heard of the accident.

Captain Hawks, who holds an imposing array of transcontinental speed records, was pinned underneath the wreckage of his Travelair "mystery plane" when it lurched from the soggy runway of the local airport, bounced against a rocky patch and overturned.

Saved From Death

His remarkable presence of mind in switching off the ignition of his motor as quickly as he saw disaster before him saved the famous speed king from death in a flaming plane.

Captain Hawks had flown to Worcester from New York to speak before a group of Boy Scouts last night and was taking off on his return trip when the accident occurred.

Because of the muddy condition of the field, the air man was fearful of sinking helplessly into the mire so he roared down the runway

Demo Party Pledge Case Opens at Dallas Today

DALLAS, April 7. (AP)—A large battery of attorneys will represent Democratic party officials here tomorrow in the first phase of the test of the legality of the party loyalty pledge prescribed by the state Democratic executive committee.

Thomas B. Love, former state senator and leader of the "ultra dry" forces that supported Herbert Hoover in 1928, filed a suit in district court here asking that party officials be denied the right to exact a pledge of participants in precinct and county conventions. The hearing on the petition was set for tomorrow before District Judge R. B. Allen. Regardless of the decision, the case likely will be carried to the supreme court.

Nephew of Former G.O.P. Leader Sued for Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. (US)—William D. Cannon, nephew of the late "Uncle Joe" Cannon, for many years Republican speaker of the house of representatives, today was sued for divorce here by Mrs. Ernestine Virden Cannon, daughter of the late Charles E. Virden, president of the Virden Packing company of California. She charged cruelty. They were married at a surprise wedding in Chicago on Feb. 11, 1924.

U. S. Engineers Go To Rescue of Soviet Plant

NIZHNOVGOROD, Russia, April 7. (UP)—Seventeen engineers and foremen from Ford plants in the United States arrived here today to help straighten out the huge Soviet Ford plant. Production is so far behind schedule that complete reorganization was ordered last week by the central committee of the Communist party. The men came here on individual contracts with the Soviet government.

Every State Except Delaware Seeks Flour

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—Every state except Delaware has asked for and has received or been promised some of the flour ground from the 40,000,000 bushels of wheat given the Red Cross by congress for the needy. Requests already filled and allowed account for one-third of the wheat and very little of it has gone for livestock food.

Oklahoma City Fire Hazards Ordered Probed

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 7. (UP)—Threatened cancellation of fire insurance in Oklahoma City brought an order from Acting Governor Robert Burns today for State Fire Marshall J. T. Jones to investigate fire hazards from the city oil field.

He directed Jones to report back to him or Gov. W. H. Murray and said any executive action that is needed will be taken.

Senate Party Heads Join Drive To Pass Billion Dollar Tax

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—Enactment of the billion-dollar tax bill with a minimum of delay was declared the common objective of both Republicans and Democratic senate leaders.

The Democrats held a party conference and decided to support the measure. Soon afterward, Chairman Smoot of the finance committee, speaking for the Republicans joined in the determination for prompt action.

The Democrats reached no agreement on the raging controversy over inclusion of new tariff duties in the tax bill, but one obstacle was removed when the sales levy, rejected by the house was ignored.

Sales Tax Dead

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the party leader, said:

"No proposal was made in the conference to revive the sales tax. Apparently the action of the house on the subject is regarded as conclusive."

Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas, opened a move at the Democratic conference for increasing the surtax rates applying on the incomes over $100,000. The house bill provides a maximum of 40 per cent on all incomes in excess of $100,000.

The Texan is considering a proposal to scale this 40 per cent maximum up to about 50 per cent with the latter figure to apply on incomes in excess of $3,000,000 or $5,000,000. There are signs of favorable consideration for the proposal on both sides of the aisle.

Senator Robinson joined in the movement launched at the party conference to exclude new tariff duties from the revenue bill. He said: "Many members, including the chairman, expressed the thought that tariffs should be dealt with separately. This phase of the matter is to be resumed at the next meeting."

An amendment to be proposed to the revenue bill for import levies on corn, lumber and timber not specially provided for in existing tariff schedules was introduced to-

Wheat Ransom May Release Americans

SHANGHAI, April 7. (US)—Bags of American wheat will be the new ransom offered Communists of the Kienli Soviet republic for the release of the Rev. Bert Nelson and Charles Baker, two Americans whom the Chinese reds have long held captive.

This strange ransom, it was learned tonight, will be offered Gen. Ho Lung, chief of commissary of the newly established republic between Hankow and Ichang. The wheat, it is understood, will be $10,000 worth of the grain shipped here by the American flood relief.

The Kienli Soviet republic is in that area of the Yangtze river devastated by last year's floods that threw 10,000,000 Chinese into Communism.

Woman Is Police Chief In Vermont Town

CHESTER, Vermont, April 7. (US)—Mrs. Alice Wiley, a matronly woman of 30, today assumed her duties as this town's new chief of police, tax collector, and treasurer after a victory over two rival candidates—both men. She announced that because of her multiplied responsibilities she will appoint an assistant to direct traffic in the village square.

U. S. C-C Opposes Effort To Restrict Immigration

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—A committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States today issued a report opposing pending legislation for further immigration restriction on the ground it threatens to establish a permanent policy instead of being limited to the present emergency period.

Wichita Legion Asks Reprimand For Commander

State Commander Earl Earp of Austin was asked to reprimand National Commander Henry L. Stevens for his stand on the bonus question in a resolution adopted by members of the Pat Carrigan American Legion post Thursday night at the legion room in the Memorial auditorium. A motion before the group to send telegrams to members of congress urging them to act in support of the bonus bill was carried.

National Commander Stevens was quoted by The Associated Press Thursday night as stating that if the bonus bill passed disabled veterans would very likely receive less money than if they awaited scheduled payments in 1945. "Irrespective of economic conditions, helpless women and children and sick persons should come first," Mr. Stevens declared.

Spanish War Vets

Capt. W. S. Langford of the Spanish war veterans delivered a talk favoring granting immediate cash payment of the bonus at the meeting as did Dr. Everett Jones before introduction of Manager Hank Severeid of the 1932 Spudders, who declared Wichita Falls would have the best possible club the manage-

ECONOMY 'WAR' NEARS CLIMAX

Hoover and Committee To Meet; and Talk

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—The bipartisan economy committee sent up by the Democratic house and President Hoover will meet at the White House Saturday in the first definite cooperative move to effect savings through governmental reorganization.

Chairman McDuffie today accepted an invitation from the chief executive that came in answer to the committee's request for specific recommendations on abolishing various agencies to aid in cutting the budget about $250,000,000 for next year.

The contact followed Mr. Hoover's request to congress Tuesday for a senate-house-executive department committee to effect economies.

Upon receiving the committee's acceptance President Hoover conferred on ways of cutting costs with Secretaries Mills, Adams and Hurley, Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans affairs, and James C. Roop, director of the budget.

There were indications Mr. Hoover plans to submit specific recommendations, for lack of which he has been flayed by Democrats.

Meanwhile house Democratic leaders suffered a setback when the expenditures committee tabled 12 to 8 the Byrns bill to consolidate the army and navy into a department of national defense, expected by them to save $100,000,000 annually. Five Democrats joined seven Republicans in this vote, while only one Republican voted with seven Democrats.

Connecticut G.O.P. Names 19 Delegates for Hoover

HARTFORD, Conn., April 7. (US)—The state Republican convention here today elected 19 delegates to the national convention. They will support President Hoover for renomination and will be prepared to stand for repeal of prohibition.

The session lasted only 30 minutes.

SIX WHITE MEN TO SIT IN BOX WITH ASIATICS

Darrow Wins Victory With Seven Caucasians To Hear Trial

COUNSELS BICKER

Testimony in Case Against Four Americans To Begin Monday

By DAN CAMPBELL
COURTROOM, HONOLULU, T. H., April 7. (UP)—A polyglot jury of mixed races and widely varied intelligence was sworn in today to try Mrs. Granville Roland Fortescue and three American naval men on charges of murdering Joe Kahahawai, foung Hawaiian street car conductor.

There were seven Caucasians on the jury.

All sworn to be without prejudice, the 12 men who will decide the fates of Mrs. Fortescue, her son-in-law, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, and E. J. Lord and A. O. Jones on charges of murdering Kahahawai were of races with traditionally divergent views on the sanctity of womanhood.

Clarence Darrow won his first victory when he had battled red-faced Prosecutor John Kelley through four tense days for a preponderance of whites. In achieving his desire he upset tradition here. Because Hawaiians and Asiatics predominate in population, they usually are in a majority on juries.

Jury Named

Here is the jury that will decide the fate of the Americans in a trial that is expected to be sensational in many respects.

John F. Stone, white, private secretary.

Olaf Sorenson, white, employe of the Oahu Land company.

Shadford Waterhouse, white, bank clerk.

Charles H. Strohlen, white, pump engineer.

Theodore Bush, white, civil engineer.

Willy Beyer, white, food manufacturer.

Charles Akana, Chinese-Hawaiian, accountant.

Edward Goeas, Portuguese, clerk.

Theodore Char, Chinese, accountant.

Walter Napoleon, part Hawaiian, meat cutter.

George D. McIntyre, part Hawaiian, clerk for a steamship company.

Henry Schang, Chinese, clerk.

The efforts of Darrow, master strategist, were directed towards the end that the jury might be entirely white. But he was checkmated, although not entirely. Racial lines were drawn in every move made by defense and prosecution.

Completed Suddenly

Completion of the jury came with startling suddenness in the stuffy little courtroom. A bitter undercurrent was reaching a climax when young Montgomery Winn, defense associate, said:

"We will accept the jury if Mr. Kelly will."

Kelley thought a moment.

"We accept," he said.

Several times during the day acceptance had seemed near.

After Kelley had waived a challenge, Darrow removed Kam Tai Lee, highly-educated young Chinese, Kelley's red Irish face became scarlet.

Ruthlessly, he began tearing the panel apart. Like a checkerboard, the light and dark squares of complexion in the jury seats changed rapidly. M. H. Eveleth, white, was removed.

Darrow appeared anxious to accept the jury. But Kelley challenged Robert Keu Hui, squat Japanese. Napoleon, the Hawaiian meat cutter, replaced him.

He explained he was a department manager of a chain store, and was given instructions by his employers not to discuss the case.

"Serving on the jury may interfere with my business," he explained in a soft voice.

"I can't fathom the oriental mind, Darrow said. "I don't know one way or another about this jury."

A tenseness so acute it was all but physically painful disappeared when the jury was accepted.

His usual smile again appeared on John Kelley's face.

Mrs. Fortescue ceased nervously

County Rescinds Fee Order When Claim Is Found Based on Error

Action of the county commissioners court last Monday in calling upon seven past and present county officials for the return of $4,789 in excess fees for several years past will be rescinded because of a decision reached Thursday that the fees in question were not accountable under the state law, according to L. V. Abernathy, county attorney.

A supreme court decision in a Harris county case, upon which County Auditor Paul Barnett was authorized to prepare a statement of fees supposed to be returnable to Wichita county, was misinterpreted upon its first examination several weeks ago, it was stated. A closer study of the decision this week has convinced local officials that under the state law, and under the supreme court's ruling, the fees in question were not accountable.

The order passed by the commissioners court Monday was based upon the belief that fees derived from tax suits for governmental units other than county and state were accountable to the county in allowing collecting officials their maximum incomes.

The officers named were Mrs. A. B. Eichelberger, present district clerk; the estates of A. F. Kerr and Miss Eunice Jackson, former district clerks; the estate of W. W. Murphy, former sheriff; W. G. Bralley, and Fred Smith, former sheriffs; and Frank Morgan, former constable.

French Resume Violent Attack On U.S. Dollar; False Stories Circulated

PARIS, April 7. (UP)—A new and more violent attack on the American dollar was launched today in Paris.

As a result of the anti-dollar campaign, the dollar sagged in late trading to 25.23 francs, below the gold point, although it was significant that it previously had closed officially at 25.25.

The campaign was climaxed by an article in the newspaper L'Ordre, owned by the French steel interests, which contend that a large American bank had ceased payments. The article was false and considered unusually brazen as compared to previous underhanded attacks on the dollar since last November.

The Paris agents of the bank in question appealed to the United States embassy, asking that the state department be notified. The attention of Premier Andre Tardieu also was called to the article. The anti-American newspaper Journal des Debates asserted that the decline of the dollar foreshadows "an immediate gold embargo," which would mean abandonment of the gold standard in the United States.

At the same time the Journal du Commerce devoted its entire front page to articles disparaging to the United States, particularly in connection with American reaction to the economic and financial crisis.

CAPTAIN HAWKS HURT IN CRASH

Speed King of Air Thrown From Plane Cockpit

at a speed of 100 miles an hour to attempt a quick take-off.

Just as he was about to leave the ground, a wheel of the famous ship he has flown in many parts of the North American continent struck the rocky ledge.

The plane lurched on its side with such terrific impact Captain Hawk's cockpit safety belt snapped and he was hurled into the air as the plane, turning a complete somersault came down after him, pinning the aviator underneath.

Rushed to Hospital

Officials of the airport and members of a reception committee which had come to the field to bid him farewell gasped with terror as they saw what had happened, ran over to the wrecked plane, quickly extricated Captain Hawks from his painful position, and rushed him in an automobile to the Worcester hospital, 12 miles away.

The aviator was unconscious at the time he was pulled out from beneath his plane but regained consciousness at the hospital.

Captain Hawks had a slight mishap yesterday when he landed here after a fast flight from New York. After making a perfect landing, the wheels of his plane sank into the soggy ground of the field, soaked by recent rains, and the pilot had difficulty when he tried to "taxi" his ship to a hangar.

An escort plane which had gone up to welcome Captain Hawks yesterday and accompanied him to the airport turned up on its nose in landing. The pilot, John Whitienlassel, was thrown from his cockpit but was not injured.

Captain Hawks is 35 and lives in New York City. He holds scores of speed records for long-distance transcontinental flights and recently made a three-capital speed hop from Ottawa to Washington to Mexico City.

MRS. HAWKS LEAVES FOR HUSBAND'S SIDE

FORT WORTH, April 7. (UP)—Mrs. Frank Hawks left here during the afternoon by train for the bedside of her husband, famous speed flyer injured in a crash at Worcester, Mass., today.

She had regained her composure after learning that Captain Hawks' injuries were not serious and that he probably would be able to leave the hospital in a few days. She said she was hopeful the crash would prevent him from making a projected Caribbean cruise.

"I am afraid for Frank on those over-water trips," said the intrepid flyer's wife. Three of his record-breaking flights have been over the English channel and adjacent waters.

ment could put out for the approaching season.

Reports were made at the meeting by Dr. A. F. Leach for the "man-a-block" system of reducing unemployment; V. V. Musick for the sick and relief committee; J. H. Simmons for the drum and bugle corps and L. M. Thayer for the firing squad.

The meeting was opened by Commander L. D. Woodward of the Spanish American War chapter opened the meeting and turned the session over to Post Commander Roy J. Daniel and Adjutant W. R. Irvin.

The featured speaker for the gathering was Louis Gould, Spanish war veteran, who discussed "American Citizenship," declaring a nation's first duty is to its soldier defenders.

State Meeting

Every indication points to the success of the Pat Carrigan post in its bid to entertain the state convention of the legion at Wichita Falls in 1933, Milton J. Gaines reported. The local post will make a strong bid for the 1933 convention at the 1932 session at Corpus Christi in July.

The meeting Thursday night was a joint session with members of the local Spanish American War chapter and was attended by 325 legionnaires and veterans. The Spanish war veterans decorated the legion room for the occasion and the altar was draped with a U. S. flag which flew over the Manila fortress for six months after the capture of the Philippine city in the Spanish American war. The flag is owned by J. M. Shay of Wichita Falls, a veteran of the 1898 conflict.

Ohio's birthrate is declining more rapidly among foreign born than among native whites.

Evanston Cops Given Text Books On Arresting

EVANSTON, Ill., April 7. (UP)—Evanston police did their arresting of speeders today with benefit of text books. The books say for arrests:

"You are arrested for speeding. Kindly follow me to the police station."

For warning:

"The speed limit on this street is 30 miles an hour, kindly conform to the regulations. Good afternoon."

Each police must not vary one iota from the phrasing, said Chief William O. Freeman. The officer must even say "kindly" in capital letters. The chief said he hoped the new rule books would spread far and wide Evanston's fame as a community of culture and courtesy.

Kidnapers May Return Baby

mentioned previously in the search. He was more definite than ever in giving his reasons for hunting for these two characters, one of whom was a reputed leader of the "Purple" gang, of Detroit. Both have disappeared from their accustomed haunts since the Lindbergh kidnaping.

"Peculiar circumstances surrounding their disappearance," Schwartzkopf said, "as well as reports as to where they had been seen, seem to bring them under suspicion and it is important to the investigation that they be located and questioned."

Observers agreed, however, that the police may be using "diplomacy" to camouflage the real activities.

MESSAGE EXPECTED FROM KIDNAPERS

NORFOLK, Va., April 7. (AP)—A call which might send one or more of them on a trip to a desination known only to themselves was awaited tonight by three Norfolk men seeking to bring about the return of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr.

Yesterday John Hughes Curtis, one of the trio, returned after a four-day absence and reported he had made a contact and received an assurance the kidnaped baby was well. He also said he had seen Colonel Lindbergh on his trip.

Admiral Burrage said they were holding themselves in readiness to leave at any time on another such mission as that undertaken by Mr. Curtis over last week-end.

Garner Leaders Of Area Named

Calf, Pig and Meat show, recently held at Lubbock, Texas, was presented to Garner by the "Lubbock County Garner for President club."

The Garner boosters paid $1 a pound for the ham, and they may have thought they'd get an out-and-out candidate in exchange for their money when their chairman, John L. Ratliff diplomatically wrote:

"I don't know whether you want to be president or not, and don't want you to say to me whether you do or not, but what I do want to say is that the plains country is for you to a man, and we are organized."

But Garner merely genially replied:

"I am by no means what might be termed an epicure, but there is nothing I enjoy more than good old Texas ham, especially when I have turnip greens on the side. I expect to fare well for days."

JURY PICKED TO TRY AMERICANS

Testimony in Case Begins Monday

Sailormen Jones and Lord looked at one another in silence. A slow grin appeared on Jones' face.

Lieutenant Massie was the most unresponsive of the four defendants. He barely seemed to notice that the preliminary battle was ended.

Judge Charles S. Davis rapped sharply with his gavel. Buzzing of excited whispers died in the overcrowded courtroom.

After he had given routine instructions to the jurors to not discuss the case among themselves or with others, he walked to his chambers.

There was a rush through the double swinging doors to get into the fresh Hawaiian air.

"ALARM CLOCK" INSANITY MAY BE DEFENSE PLEA

(Copyright, 1932, by United Press)

HONOLULU, April 7.—"Alarm clock insanity" is almost certain to be a defense of Mrs. Granville R. Fortescue and three naval men charged with the second degree "honor" murder of Joe Kahahawai Jr.

The United Press, which exclusively predicted such a defense move soon after Mrs. Fortescue, her son-in-law, Lieut. T. H. Massie and E. J. Lord and A. O. Jones were indicated, tonight learned that two noted mainland psychiatrists are in Honolulu incognito.

They are Edward Huntington Williams and James Orbison of Los Angeles. They arrived aboard the liner Malolo, accompanied by their wives.

Indicating the defense had planned a bombshell of surprise, the utmost secrecy surrounded the departure of Williams and Orbison, and their arrival here.

The United Press representative, meeting the ship offshore, recognized Williams. He reluctantly admitted his identity.

"I have been requested to come," he said. "I have no idea what I am supposed to do. All I know is that we received a wire to come. I cannot say more until I have conferred with those who sent for us. "After that we may have something to say."

"Alarm clock" insanity is defined as temporary departure from reason.

As psychiatrists explain it, some incident may release pent-up emotions in the human brain, causing a temporary and sometimes violent departure from human reason.

Observers believed that in the Kahahawai case, such a defense would claim that Kahahawai was abducted last Jan. 9, in an effort to make him confess the attack on Mrs. Massie, wife of one of the defendants, and daughter of another.

Some unrevealed incident during his questioning, it was believed such a defense would claim, set off the mental "alarm clock" in the mind of one of the defendants, rendering him or her temporarily insane.

HAWAII'S GOVERNOR UPHOLDS ISLAND LAW

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—Lawrence M. Judd, governor of Hawaii, today took distant but vigorous exception to the recommendations of Assistant Attorney General Richardson for changes in the island law enforcement machinery, characterizing them as an effort to "confiscate" some of Hawaii's "most treasured rights of self-government."

Judd's communication to Secretary Wilbur, under whose department the island is governed, was made public by the cabinet member without comment.

Richardson investigated crime conditions in Hawaii following the killing of Joseph Kahahawai for which Mrs. Grace Hubbard Fortescue, Lieut. Thomas T. Massie and two naval enlisted men are now being tried on murder charges. Kahahawai had been accused of being one of four men who criminally assaulted Mrs. Massie, Mrs. Fortescue's daughter.

Senate Hurries To Pass Tax Bill

day by Senator Steiwer, Republican, Oregon.

The amendment calls for a levy of $3 per 1,000 board feet on this class and on the following types:

Timber hewn, sided or squared, and other than by sawing; round timber for spars and wharves and all types of fir, spruce, pine, hemlock or larch.

Another amendment he proposed would extend the provisions of the existing tariff laws to pulp woods, firewood, gun blocks and laths.

Steiwer introduced several other amendments he intends to seek to add to the revenue bill, all designed to prevent capital or income taxes from being levied against funds accruing prior to 1913.

In a bill he introduced today, the Oregonian asked the secretary of the interior be authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the state landowners or grazing districts for grazing or range development on public lands.

U. S. Churchgoers

The last religious census taken in the United States proved that the country was nearly "half religious." Figures showed that about 54,576,350 persons, or 44 per cent of the total population, were churchgoers.

EXPERTS GIVE VIEWS ON GAS

Technicalities Clutter Up Childress Hearing

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, April 7.—Childress' gas hearing today had developed into a controversy between experts of one kind and another, with little testimony being offered for the understanding of the average layman. The United Gas system continued to offer statements of engineers to establish the cost of the system, and the basis for rate making.

The city will offer some of its own experts tomorrow, and will attempt to show the company's pipe line is larger than is needed to serve all of its customers. P. M. Biddison of Dallas, valuation engineer, was on the witness stand when the hearing was adjourned by Laten Stanberry of the gas division of the Texas Railroad commission.

The city is asking a reduction in gas rates for Childress, having recently passed an ordinance placing the rates at 50 cents per thousand feet as compared to the present price of 67½ cents per thousand. The hearing is expected to end Saturday.

Tests with butterflies prove that color, and not the odor of flowers, attracts them.

TEXAS TO CAST 46 FOR GARNER

Leaders of Party to Attend Convention

Special to The Record News

AUSTIN, April 7.—Democrats have figured out about one-third the probable long list of delegates at large who will be sent to the national convention June 7 to cast the Texas 46 nominating votes for Speaker John N. Garner.

Apparently Texas will have 10 votes "at large" as compared with the four of past years. But a large group of prominent Democrats will be named to cast these 10 votes.

Part of the group will be made up from the leadership of the members in the Garner campaign work. Others will recognize general party leadership.

Among those now regarded as most likely to be listed among the delegates at large are:

Gov. Ross S. Sterling; Senator Walter F. Woodul, present chairman, and Senator Walter C. Woodward, recent chairman, of the Garner forces in Texas; Senator W. K. Hopkins, vice chairman, and leader of an almost equal division of the Garner supporters; W. O. Huggins, state party chairman; Former Gov. W. P. Hobby; Former Gov. Dan Moody; W. A. Tarver, Claude D. Teer, Garner committeeman; H. P. Hornby, Uvalde, fellow townsman, and leader of the original Garner committee which has grown into the general campaign organization.

Each of the 18 congressional districts is to have a delegate and alternate to the national convention. That will make 36, while this year, with the congressional delegation to be increased to 1, Texas will have 46 nominating votes. The number of delegates at large and alternates will not be restricted to the number of votes to be cast at large.

The entire delegation will elect its chairman. It is certain to vote to retain the time honored "unit rule," of casting the entire 46 votes the way the majority of the delegates stand. The Texas delegation may, under a movement already gaining impetus, be instructed to assist in a fight in the national convention rules' committee to suspend the two-thirds rule for nomination.

Bishop Boaz to Conduct Revival at Burkburnett

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, April 7.—Bishop H. A. Boaz of Houston will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist church here for eight days, beginning Sunday, April 17, in a revival which will begin April 10. Dr. C. A. Spragins of Wichita Falls and Rev. C. W. Dennis, the pastor, will do the preaching for the first week.

Services will be held twice a day, at 10 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. New song books were purchased recently by the church in preparation for the revival.

Mellon's Embassy Freed Of Mice In Drive With Traps

LONDON, April 7. (US)—The cat and the king are pals but the mouse and the ambassador . . . well, 10 treacherous housetraps were scattered about the American embassy today in anticipation Ambassador Andrew W. Mellon's arrival.

It's not that Mr. Mellon is a sworn foe of mice. Kitchen attendants explained that the embassy was once infested with mice and that they are taking no chances. No mouse will look at Mr. Mellon—at least in the embassy.

The building in Price's gate has undergone a thorough American tion of the ambassador's arrival Thursday.

A number of pieces from Mr. Mellon's valuable collection of china and pictures have arrived. Most of the art objects are being arranged in his private study, where pipe-smoking Gen. Charles G. Dawes last held sway. The walls of the building's public rooms will also be generously hung.

Boys at Haulk Hill Organize 4-H Club

VERNON, Texas, April 7.—A 4-H club has been organized at Haulk Hill, according to announcement made here by County Agent R. E. L. Pattillo. James Knapp was elected president, R. V. Hilliard secretary and Leon Morgan reporter. The club's work will place emphasis on raising livestock and feed.

Members of the club are James Knapp, A. D. Shores, J. P. Morgan, Cecil Bibb, Waldo Bibb, Leon Morgan, Denzil Shores, H. T. Cardwell, Chester McCrummen, Cecil Box, Owen Box.

More Wage Cuts Opposed By Paper Mill Workers

MONTREAL, April 7. (UP)—A resolution opposing further wage reductions was adopted today at a joint conference of the paper mill union, including the brotherhoods of the Pulp and Paper and Sulphite Workers of the United States and Canada.

It was pointed out at the gathering that last year these workers received a reduction in wages of from five to 10 per cent. The various companies in Canada and the United States are now proposing a further reduction of 10 per cent.

MINER FINDS HUGE DIAMOND

Stone Weighing 575 Carats Among World's Biggest

DIAMANTINO, MATTO GROSso, Brazil, April 7. (UP)—A penniless prospector foraging through the Brazilian wastelands near Diamantino was reported today to have found one of the largest diamonds in the world.

The stone weighed 574 carats and it was said that an offer of $80,000 had been refused by the prospector. The offer was understood to have been made by a broker at Rio de Janeiro.

The diamond is the largest ever found in Brazil, and, if further examination of the stone upholds first reports of its value, the prospector will realize a fortune for it.

Diamantino is a mountain town of about 5,000 persons in the matto grosso (great jungle) district, far in the interior of Brazil. It is in this region that an expedition is now in search of the missing British explorer, Col. P. J. Fawcett, and communication is difficult.

A diamond of 574 carats is of extraordinary size, being outclassed by only a few discoveries in the past, one of which was the famous Cullinan diamond of 3,024 carats found in South Africa. No other stone ever found even remotely approached its size. It was presented to King Edward VII and cut up into smaller stones for the crown jewels.

It is estimated that Stradivarius, famous Italian violin maker of of Cremona, made about 1,000 violins.

NOW SCIENCE TELLS WHY BRAN IS SO GOOD FOR HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Has "Bulk" and Vitamin B; Also Healthful Iron

By using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, millions of people have overcome common constipation, and the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

New laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN supplies two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

Further experiments prove ALL-BRAN provides twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Eat this delicious cereal and avoid pills and drugs. They cause artificial action, and often lead to harmful habits.

Try two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily—sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN has a delicious, nutsweet flavor. Enjoy as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

'HONOR SEAT'

Stool Given to Bryan 26 Years Ago Returns To Japan

LOS ANGELES, April 7. (US)—Twenty-six years ago Admiral Heihachiro Togo, Japanese naval hero, sat on a historic ceremonial stool at a reception given in his honor, in accordance with an ancient Japanese custom.

Then the stool, on which countless Japanese heroes had been given "honor seats," was presented to William Jennings Bryan as a token of esteem from the Japanese empire.

And today the famous seat of the mighty" was again given back into the hands of Japan.

William Jennings Bryan Jr., son of the late "Commoner," officially presented the stool to Dr. Toshito Satow, head of the Japanese consulate here. It will be sent back to Japan, Dr. Satow said, to be placed in the national "Naval college" museum at Yetajima.

DEADLY ENGINE MADE FOR WAR

Invention to Destroy City By Remote Control

WASHINGTON, April 7. (US)—Lester P. Barlow's claims to invention of a war engine of destruction which will wipe out cities by remote control a thousand miles away were today endorsed by Ernest P. Goodrich, consulting engineer of New York.

In a letter to Senator Frazier, Republican, of North Dakota, Goodrich declared he has been told of the major details of the secret plan by Barlow and that the claims of the inventor are "conservative."

Senator Frazier has introduced in the senate a joint resolution for a federal commission to examine the Barlow claims. Goodrich has accepted Barlow's invitation to be one of the two engineers to serve.

In his letter to Senator Frazier, Goodrich said in part:

"In order that I may speak with full knowledge of the subject to be considered in secret by the commission, I have been authorized by Mr. Barlow to state that he has fully informed me on all of the major details of his proposed plans for military offense.

Claims Conservative

"It is my opinion that the claims which have been made by Mr. Barlow are conservative when he speaks in reference to the military secrets which will be later revealed to those who are selected as members on the secrecy commission.

"I wish to state emphatically that Mr. Barlow is amply justified in insisting on his military plans being revealed only to the fewest possible number of highly trusted men.

"I wish to assure the members of the congress that when the commission is created and its members selected and fully informed on the subject matter which Mr. Barlow will present they will realize and will be justified in informing the nations of the world that they are dealing with matters of the gravest importance.

"It is my opinion that there can be no effective defense against a military offense initiated upon the plans which Mr. Barlow has revealed to me. The only possible course will be complete international disarmament. The only possible substitution therefor will be international observation, supported by an economic embargo, if necessary; all agreed to by international treaty."

DIET CAUSES ARTERY ILLS

Doctor Advances Theory On Arterio-Sclerosis

By GOBIND BEHARI LAL

NEW YORK, April 6. (US)—Hardening of arteries, arteriosclerosis, is not a disease of old age.

It is the result of bad diet, fatigue, intoxication and other things that bring on constitutional disturbances in the body.

Among old persons, as well as among the younger ones, the conditions that lead to hardening of the arteries can be remedied to a marked degree. The treatment involves a regulation of diet, including a number of fasts.

This viewpoint is advanced by Dr. J. Plesch, university of Berlin medical scientist, in the Lndon Lancet.

Offers Proof

In proof of his contention that hardening of the arteries is not a specific disease of old age, Dr. Plesch points out that many young soldiers during the world war were found to suffer from this condition. One investigator computed that half the soldiers between 21 and 30 and more than half between 31 and 40 showed symptoms of hardening of the arteries of the heart.

Persons who indulge in excessive athletic sports are apt to produce conditions leading to hardening of the blood vessel walls. Sudden relaxation after severe physical exertion, like long hikes and outdoor games, may lower the tone of vitality and prepare the ground for disturbances of the unstriped muscles.

Instead of being a disease in itself, the hardening of the walls of the blood vessels is a protective device. That is, nature deposits lime from blood in those parts of the blood vessel walls that grow flabby and are in danger of breaking. The hardening of the blood vessels by the piling up of lime saves these vessels from rupturing, according to Dr. Plesch.

Gravel Contract Let For Road to Red River

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., April 7.—Contract for the remaining 5.6 miles of highway No. 14 to be graveled south from Davidson to the Red river bridge, was let Wednesday by the state commission to Merveldt and Lawton, of El Reno, low bidders for the project.

The firm bid $13,739 for the road building, and $7,196 for the two bridges. The bidding opened Tuesday.

'Europe Smoulders, Asia Is Ablaze,' Is Navy League's Plea For Warships

Proponents of Greater Naval Defense Challenge Honesty of Hoover in Opposing Bill for Treaty Navy

WASHINGTON, April 7. (US)—The "honesty" of President Hoover in opposing the Vinson bill for a treaty navy was challenged by the Navy League of the United States tonight.

Over the signature of William Howard Gardiner, its president, the league marshalled an array of figures to riddle the economy excuse set up by the administration for its failure to provide an adequate sea force.

Gardiner recently exploded a bombshell by charging President Hoover had displayed "abysmal ignorance" of the naval situation—an assertion which resulted in the president virtually demanding an apology and appointing a commission to absolve him of the charge. No apology was forthcoming, however.

War Activity Cited

Renewing the warfare tonight, Gardiner said that while "Europe smoulders and Asia is ablaze" the president's economy plea forced the house to refrain from favorably reporting the Vinson bill, which provided for an expenditure of only $18,000,000 for the fiscal year 1933. Then, citing congressional relief appropriations totaling a billion dollars that followed, he added:

"It hardly seems honest to allege that the United States cannot afford to spend $18,000,000 in the coming fiscal year to begin a naval replacement program — especially when, we recall that, according to recent statements by the secretary of the navy and by its chief constructor, about 90 per cent of the expenditure on building a naval vessel goes to labor."

Gardiner showed that since 1913, ordinary expenditures of the government for non-military activities have increased 834 per cent, while the increase for military expenditures has been only 270 per cent. Meanwhile the navy's percentage of total expenditures has dropped from 17.8 per cent to 7.4 per cent, he pointed out, adding:

"Thus the conclusion seems inescapable that in searching for the causes of the evident increase in the 'crushing burden of taxation,' we must look elsewhere than to the armaments scapegoat that Mr. Hoover and the pacifists parade."

Navy "Falling Apart"

Although President Hoover has been in office more than three years, during which many ships have been going over-age and are due for replacement, "Mr. Hoover has not inaugurated one single move to provide replacements—not to mention upbuilding categories in which we are below treaty levels," Gardiner declared.

Referring to the president's navy day assertion that the commanding officers had informed him that the nation is maintaining the strength and efficiency necessary to repel any invasion, the navy league head added:

"As the highest naval officer, Admiral Pratt, has more recently testified that our navy is 'falling apart,' it would be interesting to learn from Mr. Hoover who were 'the commanding officers of our forces' who thus informed him."

PRESCRIPTION

Physician Recommends Beer for Nursing Mothers

WASHINGTON, April 7. (UP)—Beer for nursing mothers was recommended today to the house judiciary committee by Dr. S. W. Lambert, a New York physician.

"I believe beer to be a very useful remedial agent for use of convalescents and nursing mothers," Dr. Lambert said. "A bottle of four per cent beer a day is the very least prescription that can be considered desirable."

Other medical men, including William C. Woodward of Chicago, counsel of the American Medical association appeared before the committee in support of the Beck-Celler bill which would remove the restrictions on prescriptions of liquor and another measure permitting more liberal prescriptions of beer.

Frederick Golf Course Open for Play Sunday

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., April 7.—As a prelude to the formal opening scheduled for the 15th of April, the new golf course northwest of town was opened to players Sunday. Some minor additions are still to be made, but the course will remain open.

Arthur Jackson, Oklahoma City pro, designed and laid out the course, which is now under the charge of Norman Kidd, who has all concessions on the links.

The Frederick Golf club, builders of the course, plan a club tourney for the opening event.

BOYS HELD IN GIRL'S DEATH

Youths Accused of Throwing Companion From Car

GARNETT, Kan., April 7. (AP)—First degree murder charges were filed today against two 18-year-old boys, Lowell Lloyd and Lawrence Richardson, in connection with the death of Evelyn Patterson, 19, of Lawrence, found unconscious along a highway near here Friday night.

In filing charges Raymond O'Hara, Anderson county attorney, said he believed the girl either was fatally injured when struck by or pushed from the car driven by the two boys.

The two youths at an inquest into the girl's death admitted being in her company the day prior to her death, but denied any knowledge of her fatal injury.

The county attorney said his investigation of the death was not complete. The girl's funeral will be at Lawrence Friday morning.

DEL RIO MAN INDICTED

DEL RIO, Texas, April 7. (AP)—Lawrence Latta was indicted by the Val Verde county grand jury today on a charge of murder for the fatal shooting of his wife, Mrs. Estelle C. Latta, the night of March 8, at their Del Rio apartment.

Latta was refused bond at his examining trial, but later was allowed bond of $7,500 at a habeas corpus hearing in Eagle Pass.

SAVES MONEY ON COFFEE

because you get more cups per pound!

These days you can buy a pound of coffee at almost any price you want to pay. But you're really cheating yourself when you buy cheap coffee!

First, cheap coffee doesn't last long. It won't give you many cups per pound. That's why it's cheap. Second, cheap coffee has little flavor because it lacks body. That's why it's unsatisfactory.

Your real coffee cost depends on how many cups of good coffee a pound will give you.

M.J.B is a richer blend. It has uniform flavor because the "Electric-Eye" and the "Electric-Sieve" make the roast and grind always uniform. It's fresher, too. That's why you use less M.J.B per cup to get your usual strength.

BONUS FIGHT OPENS MONDAY

House Committee to Hold Public Hearings

WASHINGTON, April 7. (UP)—A $2,000,000,000 fight over payment of the soldiers' bonus will be opened Monday before the house ways and means committee.

Public hearings will be held on proposals to pay the world war veterans' compensation in cash and in full at once.

Not only is there compensation now as an emergency measure, but there arises an even more important one—the means of payment.

The most earnest advocates of immediate cash payment do not want to see taxes increased. They favor a means of payment that will involve a $2,000,000,000 increase in the amount of federal currency, and that brings in immediately the problem of inflation.

Opinions Differ

Opponents of the bonus payments say inflation gravely damages a country's finances. Those for the payment believe frankly that inflation is a means of ending the depression.

President Hoover's program of depression legislation, capped with the gigantic reconstruction finance corporation, was aimed at ending deflation. But when faced with the positive idea of inflation as a supplement to deflation, the administration and many able economists outside of it fear evil effects.

The principal bill to be considered by the ways and means committee is that of Wright Patman, Democrat, Texas. It would pay the bonus through the issue of currency, backed to the usual 40 per cent by the free gold now held by the United States. Another means of payment suggested is to issue consolidated federal bonds which would be held by the federal reserve banks against special currency, issued to pay the bonus.

Debate Slated

Sponsors of payment are interested primarily in the payment itself. They are willing to leave to the experts the means of payment. Opponents are interested primarily in preventing inflation of any sort.

Patman and Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, are leaders in the house for and against the payment. Both are war veterans. Johnson served overseas. Allied closely with Patman is Representative John E. Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, a war veteran and chairman of the committee on world war veterans' legislation.

Rankin and Johnson will debate the bonus legislation over a national radio network Saturday night.

War veterans, like politicians, are divided over desirability of bringing up the payment question now. The veterans of foreign wars are solidly behind the payment, as an organization. The American Legion, partly due to administrative pressure, has taken no stand.

Iowa Park Officials To Be Installed Monday

Special to The Record News.

IOWA PARK, Texas, April 7.—Following the municipal election of Iowa Park city officials Tuesday, the newly elected officers will be installed next Monday night. The new mayor, James A. Griffin, was alderman at the time of his election to the position of mayor, and his resignation will necessitate the election of another alderman. Newly elected officers are Curtis Sewell, Gayle Park, and John Maier. B. L. Bradford is the only holdover alderman. Sewell and Park were re-elected. Maier was elected to fill the vacancy of H. R. Overbey, retiring alderman, who refused nomination. Miss Nellie Cowart, city secretary, was on the ballot for the first time—having been appointed soon after the previous election to fill the unexpired term of Miss Flora Cobb.

Sailors Mutiny at Port in Ecuador

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, April 7. (AP)—The crews of the gunboats Tarqui and Cotopaxi mutinied today apparently to hinder the disembarkation of Gen. Leonidas Plaza Gutierrez, former president of the republic.

Accompanied by his family, the former president, who was exiled in 195 and took up residence in San Francisco, returned today.

He declared aboard ship that he would abstain from political activities, but prominent members of the Liberal party planned a reception for him.

General Plaza said he came back to the country only to attend to his important interests which have been in the hands of a manager. ager.

Another disturbance was reported in the harbor today. A group of unemployed persons tried to attack workers loading agricultural products on ships on the river.

How Modern Women Lose Pounds of Fat Swiftly — Safely

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—in 4 weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished.

Notice also that you have gained in energy—your skin is clearer—your eyes sparkle with glorious health—you feel younger in body—keener in mind. Kruschen will give any fat person a joyous surprise.

Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—the cost is trifling and it lasts 4 weeks. If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—if you don't feel a superb improvement in health—so gloriously energetic—vigorously alive—your money gladly returned.

But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at Allison's Drug store or any drug store in the world. —Adv.

To Cash—Or Not To Cash?

Representative Wright Patman (left) is house sponsor of a proposal to pay about $2,000,000,000 to ex-service men by cashing the balance of their compensation certificates. He is shown with a group of veterans bearing petitions to that effect presented to congress. Senator David Reed (right) is among opponents of the measure, which President Hoover has indicated will receive his veto.

TREASURE HUNT LEADS TO SUIT

Engineer Seeks Pay for Aid To Searchers

LOS ANGELES, April 7. (AP)—The ghost of Pancho Villa, notorious Mexican bandit, and his ill-gotten gold stalked through a municipal courtroom today in trial of a civil suit revealing all the elements of a light opera situation.

J. F. Castelan alleged he was employed as a civil engineer to locate from a map a spot where Villa was reported to have buried ,00 gold bars, weighing 70 pounds each.

He said he was promised $250 a month and expenses by Guy Anspach and Joseph Maier, whom he is suing for $1,100 back pay.

Castelan said he located the spot, near Rosario, Mexico, and after fruitless digging, returned to Los Angeles for a radio metal detector. The detector failed and even a force of Mexican soldiers who aided the digging on promise of 10 per cent of the gold found, could not locate the reported treasure, he said.

Maier has claimed the engineer was employed for a period of only six weeks and was paid in full.

A safety rug now on the market will not slip on highly polished floors because of a rubber cushion on which the rug is built.

TRADES DAY AT ELECTRA

Auction for Farmers to Be Feature Saturday

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, April 7.—Arrangements are being completed for the rodeo which will be held Saturday in connection with the trades day. Trades day is sponsored by Electra merchants on the second Saturday in each month. The rodeo will open at 2 p. m. and will take place one block north of the high school building. L. E. Guthrie, prominent rancher, is in charge of the rodeo. Mr. Guthrie was in charge of the last rodeo held in Electra July 3-4 which brought hundreds of people to Electra. Seats are being erected and there will be ample parking space, it was announced. A small admission fee for children and adults will be asked. The rodeo will be held Sunday, also.

Contests to be held include calf roping, bronc riding, goat roping, steer riding.

Ball Game Slated

In addition, those in charge are expected to secure the services of a trick rider of international fame from Fort Worth to demonstrate his ability in bulldogging, roping, etc. Judges for the occasion include Lige Reed, Electra; Bill Burnett and Boss Smith, Iowa Park. There are groups of capable cowboys in and around Electra and other communities in Wichita county who are expected to furnish the thrills.

A baseball game between the Valley View and Clara schools will be included on Saturday's program. An auction sale for the benefit of the farmers will be held. Farmers and residents who have articles they desire auctioned are asked to bring them to Electra and they will be auctioned without charge.

Society Woman Enjoys Alaska Trip Despite Discomfort Of Frozen Nose

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 7. (US)—The aristocratic nose of Mrs. Edward Biddle, Philadelphia society woman, was "frozen" during her recent three-month tour of the interior of Alaska, she revealed in an interview today, laughing at her adversities.

Mrs. Biddle planned to leave Fairbanks by plane today for Whitehorse, Yukon, thence by rail to Skagway—"then a boat to Vancouver, a train across Canada, and back home to Philadelphia."

"I've had a glorious time," said Mrs. Biddle, her weather-tanned face glowing with enthusiasm. "And I'm coming back to Alaska. I dreamed of the north country when I was a girl, and it was my cherished ambition to come here."

Clad in a woolen shirt and breeches, with a bright green scarf around her waist, Mrs. Biddle talked of her experiences in the Northland, whither she came to gather material for a book.

She laughed at reports that she had been marooned and had appealed for an airplane to rescue her.

"I wasn't marooned anywhere," she said. "It's been very cold, but I haven't minded it. My only serious difficulty was when my nose froze, on my journey into the Kantishna country."

Arriving here by dog sled, accompanied by the veteran guide, "Alaska Mike" Cooney, Mrs. Biddle was proud of her new accomplishments. She said:

"Mr. Cooney taught me how to mush dogs on the trip, and later I accompanied trappers on their trap lines and also climbed the foothills in Mount McKinley National park.

"It was extremely difficult for Mr. Cooney to keep the dog team on the heavily covered snow trails.

"During the trip back from the interior the temperature fell as low as 70 below zero."

New Vernon Golf Course Will Be Opened Sunday

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, April 7.—Plans to open a golf course three miles southeast of Vernon have been announced by W. B. Smith. The course, a nine-hole layout with hazards to spare, will be opened to the public for the first time Sunday.

It is to be a 34 par course of about 3,000 yards. Opening of the course will give Vernon two public golf courses in addition to the country club links.

RADIO WAVES KILL GERMS

Science Creates 'Fever' To Fight Disease

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. (US)—High frequency radio waves, similar to those used in broadcasting, are being utilized by medical science to create "fevers" in human bodies, destroying micro-organisms responsible for a number of dangerous diseases.

The sensational discovery was disclosed today at the convention here of the American College of Physicians by Dr. C. F. Lenney of New York.

More than 1,000 patients have been successfully treated with this new system, Dr. Lenney asserted.

Disease organisms are frequently sensitive to even small increases in temperature, he explained, and even a slight raise in temperature will serve to kill them.

The radio wave has proved the most effective method of creating the required "fever," he said. The wave has been used in the treatment of pneumonia, circulatory diseases and others.

New developments in the use of dead germs to kill living germs of the same kind were also explained to the doctors.

Miss Eva Weber Is Guest Speaker At Writers Lunch

No prettier table has been used as a background for a Writers club program than that which glowed with color while Miss Eva Weber, guest speaker, addressed the group at the Woman's Forum clubhouse Thursday on "The Technique of Writing." An orchid bowl of orchid tulips graced the speaker's table from the garden of Mrs. J. O. Presley; blue crystal bowls filled with bougainvillea, snapdragon in all colors, verbenas and geraniums were from gardens of Mrs. J. W. Stringer and a black bowl filled with purple and white iris and sprays of sweet alyssum, brought by Mrs. J. L. Elkin, completed the lovely table. Red poppies in a crystal bowl made a smaller table bright.

Miss Weber, head of the English department at the Junior college was charmingly presented by the department chairman, Mrs. M. T. Clements, and went immediately into the lecture which was of deep interest to her audience. She chose the field of story writing as her theme, saying that of all types of writing, this seemed to have more lure. Classifying the stories as literary stories and popular stories, she said that while the literary story stood for the higher points of life, the popular story was one that might be written almost by rule of thumb.

"It has been said," Miss Weber asserted, "and I sometimes think it true, that you cannot teach the real art of story writing. Forms are so diverse that as soon as one rule is laid down, up pops another. Yet, as with every other art, there are fundamental rules that cannot be broken, at least until the writer becomes a real artist. No matter how spontaneous a story seems, it has been built up on fundamentals."

Miss Weber spoke of the first rules laid down for short story writing where the writer must settle on a definite effect to be reached and every thing must be used to reach that effect.

Stating that though critics remember this rule, the modern styles are different, Miss Weber said that a successful short story must be presented in an interesting narrative; must be artistic and must present characters in a struggle which has a definite outline. An interesting story interestingly told will give satisfaction to the reader.

Materials Named

One's own experience and news items were stressed as material for stories and Miss Weber told of the interesting work done by a group of about 20 freshmen in the Junior college this year, and of four places won by the writers club in the college last year in the state competition, two firsts, a third and a fourth.

Unusual settlements such as remote communities and communistic settlements were named as backgrounds for stories where human interest may be developed. "Freshness and original treatment," the speaker said, are essential. "An artist is not an artist," she stated, "until he is so intent on his purpose he forgets method. Spontaneity is a thing to be aspired to, but one must be acquainted with the knowledge of technique. When the author intrudes himself in his fiction," she continued, "he is as out of place as the dramatist who insists on being on the stage."

Plans Outlined

Writers were urged to make an outline of a story before starting it; to decide the beginning and ending and then block out the incidents. "Such a plan," the speaker said, "may seem subordinate to spontaneity, but it has a tremendous effect of unity and brevity."

A short outline of what present day writers mean by plot was given by the speaker who stated that plot was the underlying feature and details must be so arranged as to hold the reader's interest. A vivid New England story was quoted as an example of the dramatic order, which was compared with the old chronological order of telling a story. "Never," Miss Weber said, "tell anything too unusual," and she quoted Edna Ferber in her preface to "Cimarron," when she said she could not tell many things in her book, for they were too bizarre.

The first and third person point of view in telling stories was well discussed; dramatic personages and the problems of dialog were given as story values. Miss Weber urging that dialog be purposeful and natural, quoting a critic who said that "Samuel Johnson made his little fishes talk like whales." In closing she urged that writers try to analyze popular stories and also try to analyze their own work.

An animated round table discussion closed the program.

Business Meeting

Mrs. M. Clements presided in a short business session when members were urged to send recipes for the forum cookbook. Mrs. James P. Bowen announced an interesting series of programs contemplated for the next club year and announcement was made by the chairman of winners in the contest sponsored on miscellaneous writing in the past month. Mrs. L. N. Cason was presented with the prize for her article "Memories." Mrs. James P. Bowen was second with a review of John Masefield's latest book, "Minnie Marlow," and Mrs. J. L. Elkin, third with an editorial, "Cry of the Unemployed."

Guests for whom covers were laid included Mesdames P. L. Myers, O. W. Harvey, M. T. Clements, Sam Kruger, J. L. Elkin, W. M. Cason, Bentley Nelson, James P. Bowen, J. F. Bailey, Otis Nelson, J. E. Hall, J. E. H. Ralley, Ann Barker, O. R. Dunn, Henry C. Fulcher, W. W. Cook, Ben G. Oneal, J. Truman Stevens and Max Shain.

Floral Heights B. O. P. Class Has Monthly Social

Members of the B. O. P. class of the Floral Heights Methodist Sunday school were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. B. Clement on Dayton street Thursday afternoon when the hostesses were the losing group in a recent contest of which the leaders were Mesdames J. B. Stokes Jr., Ralph Pond, Floyd Pace and Shadie Hale.

Mrs. Glenn Berry gave a beautiful devotional on "Love," followed by a poem.

During the business meeting, various reports were given. It was reported that $79.73 had been raised on a special Easter offering, part of which was sent to Miss Dora Armstrong for the leper colony in Africa.

An interesting program was given as follows: Reading, Kenneth Spell, followed by an encore; piano solos, "Yellow Jonquils" and "Dragon Fly," Mary Eleanor Clement; vocal numbers, "Sunrise and You," and "God Touched a Rose," Mrs. Ray Wilhite, accompanied by Miss Ruby Murrell; readings in negro dialect, Miss Anna Lee Cherry, a pupil of Mrs. Harry Fuller.

At the close of the program, a delicious salad plate was served to members and guests as follows: Mesdames W. B. Lea, Hal Yeager, M. C. Batey, C. D. Hartman, Glenn L. Berry, Frank M. Brown, Raymond Davenport, F. E. Record, Jewel Childers, A. B. Short, B. P. Hathorn, C. F. Helmcamp, W. M. Elliott, Shadie F. Hale, W. M. Expert Advises On Proper Forms Of Stationery

By EMILY POST

The question today come from a firm of stationers. They write (1) "Our job is to keep posted on etiquette of every occasion. We have been asked about returning a call upon joint hostesses. It seems the person invited was very well acquainted with one but not at all with the other. Should she call on both?

Answer—She should leave her cards with both hostesses.

(2) "Please give us information on the visiting card of a divorcee. We do not approve of the name Mrs. Mabel Brown, but many of our customers insist that this is right, others order their maiden name Miss Mabel Gray."

Answer—Both of these are wrong. When Mrs. John Brown who was Mabel Gray, is divorced, her cards should be engraved, "Mrs. Gray Brown." (She can never be "Miss" unless her marriage was annulled). And "Mrs. Mabel" is in very worst social taste—always.

(3) "We are asked constantly for engagement announcement cards. It has been our impression that these were not in good form. Will you please give us your idea?"

Answer—In New York, engraved engagement announcements are tabu.

(4) "When our customers want the street and city on their stationery, is it correct for us to make it up this way?

"24 Chestnut Street
"Worcester, Mass."

Answer—It is entirely proper to put the street and city on paper, but I would write it in full and this way:

24 Chestnut Street
Worcester
Massachusetts.

Or, since Massachusetts is much longer than Worcester, you would either have to make the letters smaller and narrower, or abbreviate "Mass." which is never good, or leave it off. All of this comes to a decision upon shape of outline vs. abbreviation.

Alamo P.-T. A. Will Sponsor Junior Plays

A program of unusual interest is that to be sponsored by the Alamo P.-T. A. at the school Friday evening as a school benefit. There will be three Shakespeare plays brief, condensed and childish form, each lasting only a few minutes. Ella Merle Mathis Bristol will direct the presentations and 40 children will take part. The plays, "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Taming of the Shrew," and "Romeo and Juliet" will be interspersed by clever specialty numbers.

Children taking part will include Mary Frances Harris, Billy Leona Harris, Gerald Pond Jr., Peggy Jo Pond, Paul Stuckey, Elaine Stuckey, Eugene George Jr., Sylvia Price Jonas, Jimmy Brown, Frank Mytinger, Jimmy White, Patricia Wallace, Betty Nelle Potts, Bonnie Winninger, Billy Wells, Betty Sue Tennyson, Janie Lou Lankford, Betty Jane Staniforth, Jimmy McGuigan, Patricia Pond, Elizabeth Sue McHam, Burna Mae McHam, John Robbins, Ray Childers, Paul Marcus, Mae Anna Duncan, Roberta Gould, Bill Loggie and Bob Loggie.

Those giving specialty numbers will include a tap dance routine by six pupils of Minnie Rhea Sullivan, including Connie Jo Menke, Peggy Jo Pond, Lois Merle Daubert, Betty Jo Wright, Joyce Hamilton and Treon Parker. A novelty candy stick drill by eight pupils of Ella Merle Mathis Bristol, including Barbara Richardson, Betty Ann Wallace, Patricia Wallace, Alice Ann Presson, Dorothy Jo Brown, Martha Jean Noble, Elizabeth Noble and Betty Nelle Potts. A tap dance routine by pupils of Charles Doran, including Betty Jo Granger, Carol Carlisle, Doris Hanks and James Hanks.

PEEPS AT PEOPLE

By MRS. L. N. CASON

To know that Death stands waiting at one's door is a tragic thing, even if Death holds the one gateway through which all mortals pass. But to have one near and dear to you sentenced more surely than that criminal whom the judge sentences to death; with no hope of a new trial; no chance for remittance—it is agony for those who love a sufferer.

Death has been treated in all phases by poets, playwrights and authors. But a sentence of death is not like that grim specter of whose coming we have a dim idea. That "Why fear death; it is the greatest adventure of life," was a gallant gesture. But we question if just as gallant gestures have not been made when crowds have died together.

It is the man sentenced by incurable disease to die alone, who has bravery. There is no flare of trumpets to help him meet the destroyer. He must leave a beautiful world; he parts from those who are dear to him; death is a stranger. One who meets it fearlessly under such circumstances, has the supreme bravery.

We pass from so serious a subject to write of lighter things. We have questions to ask. Noting exquisite sets of highball glasses advertised in prominent magazines, we wonder why. Prohibition crusaders have certainly been on the job. We were much amused, when perhaps we should have been serious, at a story in the Houston Gargoyle.

A crowd of women crusaders were lunching at the Rice hotel when a very much inebriated gentleman blinked at the flurry and asked a newspaper man nearby, what was going on.

"It's a prohibition luncheon for women," he was told. "Pro'bishun for women?" the drinker asked blankly, "Y'mean they gonna stop women from drinking?" "They want to," he was told. The man went pale. "My God," he murmured, staggering toward the stair, "I gotta go wire my wife; she hasn't got a case in the house."

But highball glasses haven't nearly the interest for us that hose have. Why, we would ask, do they wear out so quickly. The very mention of a "run" (in hose we mean—not on a bank), makes us turn pale. A runnerless stocking would be worth many millions to one who could invent it.

Why do women who are in the habit of making public talks put in little anecdotes with the opening words, "I am reminded?" The talk is always prepared in advance and of course the story was remembered in advance.

How can so many women, admire them as we do, find time to go to so many clubs and parties. Getting socks darned and buttons sewed on is time taking work, but we suppose every one but ourself has some one to do it for them. These are enough questions for one day.

Musicians Club Program Features American Music

By W. L. UNDERWOOD

American artists and American compositions provided material for an admirable study program given before the Musicians club at the Woman's Forum Thursday morning at 10 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Charles Bouriand. The surprising growth of music in America during the brief period of its history was discussed and commended by Mrs. G. T. Buchanan. Mrs. Buchanan declared that musical composition and expression of very high standard has developed in this country with amazing rapidity, considering the long centuries of gradual evolution which produced the great European masters.

There are now, she said, almost 700 American musicians of international repute, of whom almost 400 have taken advantage of extensive study in other countries. America today boasts at least 531 accredited artists available and in demand for engagements throughout the civilized western world.

Six instrumental and one voice group comprised the program which followed Mrs. Buchanan's exposition. Not all of the composers represented were American, but of the 10 numbers given, seven were by American composers.

Conspicuous among the piano compositions presented Thursday morning were the "Fireflies" by Mrs. H. A. Beach played by Mrs. Russell Gilbert of Electra and the two-piano creation "Over the Hills and Far Away" of Percy Grainger, played by Miss Maurine and Mrs. Maurice Adams. Walter Kramer's "Toward Evening" also was given an impressive interpretation by Miss Sara Creath.

Among the piano numbers heard from the works of foreign composers, two of particular appeal were Debussy's "Second Arabesque," played by Miss Ruth Carney, and Liszt's "Liebestraum," played by Mrs. Clara S. Baber.

Mrs. William E. Young, contralto, sang two of the many excellent songs written by Frank LaForge. Accompanied by Mrs. F. R. Collard, Mrs. Young sang "I Came With a Song," and "To a Messenger."

Two numbers for violin were played with convincing brilliance by Miss Merrell Strong, accompanied by Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey. The first movement of Tartini's "G Minor Sonata," and Cecil Burleigh's "Ghost Dance" comprised Miss Strong's group. Tone of excellent quality, extreme clarity in enunciation, and genuine feeling for the text were admirably supported by graceful bowing and an easy stage presence.

The complete program was as follows:

"Tango" (Albeniz - Godowsky); "Fireflies," (Bach), Mrs. Russell Gilbert, piano.

"G Minor Sonata," (Tartini), and "Ghost Dance," (Burleigh), Miss Merrell Strong, violin.

"Liebestraum," (Liszt), Mrs. Clara S. Baber, piano.

"Second Arabesque," (Debussy), Miss Ruth Carney, piano.

"I Came With a Song," (LaForge), and "To a Messenger," (LaForge), Mrs. W. E. Young, contralto.

"Toward Evening," (Kramer), Miss Sara Creath, piano.

"Over the Hills and Far Away," (Grainger), Mrs. Maurice Adams, Miss Maurine Adams, two pianos.

Current events in the musical realm were reviewed by Mrs. J. Lewis Jackson. Mrs. J. A. Allison was named as delegate to the meeting of the Texas Federation of Music clubs to be held at Dallas on May 5-6. Mrs. J. W. Akin Jr. was named as alternate.

Lamar Baptist T. E. L. Class Has Splendid Report

Mrs. George Lawler was hostess in the monthly business and social meeting of the Lamar Baptist T. E. L. class at her home on Lucile Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened with the class song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and Mrs. A. J. Catlin gave an inspiring devotional, followed by prayer by Mrs. J. R. Self.

Mrs. R. E. Goode, president, was in the chair during the business meeting when it was decided to finish an honor roll for associate members and the class was divided into four groups; names were drawn for each group. Cards will be bought by the class to send to absentee members.

The social service report featured hospital visits, 13; sick, 74; visits in the interests of the class, 28; trays and deeds of kindness, 98; visitors, eight; new members six and telephone calls, 25.

Group one was in charge of the social hour when special musical numbers were given by Mesdames H. D. Biles and Maude Flowers.

Dainty refreshments were served to Mesdames George Lawler, T. P. George, C. O. Wilson, W. F. Wood, S. R. Lawler, M. W. Windham, R. W. Wilson, D. B. King, L. R. Hall, J. B. Bird, J. R. HEADACHES

"If I have the headache or feel the need of a purgative, I take Black-Draught," says Mr. Edgar Gamble, of 114 Fowler Ave., Hopkinsville, Ky. "It is easy to take and quick to relieve. I used to have dull headaches. My eyes would burn and when I would stoop over I seemed to turn blind. This isn't much of a good feeling when one has to work, and I have had to work hard in my time, being a timber man. This work takes me from home a good deal and one never likes to get sick, especially away from home. I found the best way to avoid this was to take an occasional dose of Black-Draught, and keep the system cleansed." rsa-s

CHILE FACES MONEY CRISIS

Run on Banks Precipitate Cabinet's Resignation

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 7. (UP)—Troops were confined to their barrages and machine guns were mounted at strategic points in one capital tonight after a day of serious financial uncertainty which led to a "silver run" of the Central bank and reports of a plot to overthrow the government of President Juan Esterban Montero.

The congress suspended its sessions this evening after receiving information that the cabinet had decided to resign and would be replaced by a new government formed by Victor Robles.

Shortly afterwards confirmation of the cabinet's resignation was made public, and it was announced that Robles had taken the oath, with the portfolio of minister for home affairs.

Bank Run Starts

With Chile facing a desperate financial and economic situation and with the congress debating a measure for temporary abandonment of the gold standard, the run on the Central bank began early today. Crowds gathered in a long line at the bank, awaiting to change their paper money into silver.

The bank refused to deliver silver in peso denominations and restricted exchange to 10 and 20 centavo pieces. Carabineros were summoned to maintain order as the crowd grew and speculators were paying as high as five pesos in paper for three silver pesos.

The run continued unabated all day, but large supplies of silver in the form of 20 centavo pieces were distributed to all banks for distribution. The public remained nervous, however, and prices were going up rapidly. It was estimated that 1,000,000 pesos was changed and it was feared all silver would disappear from circulation.

Paper Money Refused

The government was informed that the merchants in the public market place and in grocery stores were refusing to accept paper money, due to the bill for suspension of the gold standard. Silver has been hoarded in large quantities and is extremely scarce. It has been generally believed that the value of paper currency will drop 50 per cent if the gold standard is suspended.

The financial situation severely affected all prices and increased the social unrest. Sugar was up to 24 cents per kilogram and the ministry of interior announced that there were no funds to feed the thousands of unemployed.

The cabinet has been in session for hours and the palace guard has been redoubled against one threat of an uprising. The authorities did not amplify statements regarding an anti-government plot, except to say that it was reported that "certain elements" were planning to overthrow the cabinet.

Steamship Executive Claimed by Death

HOUSTON, April 7. (AP)—Semmes Steele, 52, of Galveston, widely-known steamship executive, died in a hospital here early today. He suffered a paralytic stroke last Saturday.

He was living in Houston temporarily at a hotel. He had been serving as general manager of the Tosco Steamship line after the death of B. W. Henry.

For about 15 years Mr. Steele was president and general manager of the Steele Steamship line, with offices in Galveston and New Orleans. During the war he held an executive position with the United States shipping board.

Surviving are his widow and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Steele, both of Galveston; four brothers, R. W. and Dan M. Steele, both of New Orleans; J. H. W. Steele of San Diego, Calif., and J. Y. Steele of Minden, La.; three sisters, Mrs. A. J. Himel of New Orleans, Mrs. R. A. Robertson of Galveston, and Mrs. W. H. Webb of Minden, La., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Naval Court Ends Probe Of Collision of Ships

SAN PEDRO, Calif., April 7. (AP)—A navy court has completed an inquiry into a collision Sunday night of the navy patrol boat Eagle 34 and the British motorship Jayanese Prince, in which two navy officers and several enlisted men were injured.

The court's findings were not made public but it was indicated unofficially today that Lieut. Joseph T. Talbert, commander of the submarine chaser, and other officers of the craft would be cleared of blame.

All witnesses testified the navy boat had the right of way and that the freighter failed to reply to whistle signals.

Money Asked to Finance Murray Special Train

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 7. (UP)—Hundreds of letters asking donations to finance the Murray-for-President "convention special" train to the Chicago convention and pay expenses of taking the Yeomen Kiltie band along were mailed today by B. H. Brooks, personal messenger of Gov. W. H. Murray.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food don't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Trapped

When it comes to love, Donald Loftus, 30, above, is no piker. After being captured by police in Mishawaka, Ind., he confessed to 12 bank robberies in the middle west in the last two years. He said he had spent almost $100,000 of the loot he obtained on a long list of women. His attempt to court a new wife led to his arrest.

'Smiling Faces' Ticket Sale To Open Saturday

Opening of the downtown sale of tickets for Fred Stone's "Smiling Faces" which plays at the Memorial auditorium on the night of Thursday, April 14, has been announced by H. C. Cheshire, local booking agent, for Saturday morning, April 9, at 9 o'clock.

Information received Thursday from Dallas indicated that the night performance in that city on next Wednesday night already has been sold out completely, and that arrangements have been completed for a matinee performance.

A marked favorite for more than 30 years with the American showgoing public, Mr. Stone offers an added appeal to patrons of his modern productions in the person of his daughter Paula, who for several years has been a co-star with her father.

The type of comedy invariably featured by Fred Stone differentiates his productions peculiarly from many others which have entertained the American public during the same period. "Smiling Faces," like other vehicles chosen by Stone in the past, is credited with a "clean book,"—lines which utilize brilliant humor and the star's persuasive personality without any attempt to shock moral sensitivities.

"Smiling Faces" will be presented by a company of approximately 80 persons, and will bring to the Memorial auditorium a much heavier equipment of stage properties than any other attraction on the road this season, it was said.

Soldiers Launch Search For Mexican Bandits

MEXICO CITY, April 7. (INS)—Soldiers under the command of Gen. Juan B. Vargas, chief of staff, will launch a search in the vicinity of San Felipe, Guanajuato state, tonight for the remainder of the bandit gang that attacked a United States to Mexico City train on March 20. Twenty bandits are reported hidden in the hills near San Felipe.

General Vargas disclosed that 33 bandits, arrested at Celaya, Apasco and San Felipe, already had been identified definitely as members of the gang. They will be executed at the scene of the crime at an early date. A total of between 40 and 50 are expected to face the firing squad.

Mexia Football Player Electrocuted by Wire

LONGVIEW, Texas, April 7. (AP)—Bill Hutchens, 20, football player at Mexia High school last season, was electrocuted today when he came in contact with a charged wire at an oil well near Kilgore. The wire had broken and fallen across a high tension line.

Six other men were shocked slightly. They were Orville Hutchens, 25; V. E. Hutchens, father of the dead man; Jesse Webb, E. E. Smithy, Delmar Barnes and Charles Lieberman.

Mexican Bandits Derail Passenger Train Coaches

MEXICO CITY, April 7. (INS)—Two passenger coaches on an express of the Interocesanic railway between Mexico City and Vera Cruz were derailed by bandits between Otumba and Auatepec today. None of the passengers was injured.

A military escort captured two members of the band.

Rheumatism Goes Swollen Joints Vanish

How to Stop Rheumatic Agony in Less Than a Week

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, sore muscles or stiff inflammed joints, it's because your system is full of the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatism and make thousands helpless. What you need is RU-MA, and need it right now.

RU-MA acts on the blood, kidneys and liver, and helps drive the dangerous rheumatic poisons from the system through the natural channels of elimination—it eases pain the first day.

You must use an internal medicine to free the joints and muscles of crippling stiffness, soreness and torturing pain. That's why RU-MA succeeds while external remedies and pain deadening drugs give only temporary relief.

Allison's Drug store says no matter what kind of rheumatism you have, or how long you have suffered, try RU-MA—it must completely stop all rheumatic agony or you get your money back.—Adv.

RAIL WORKERS ASK NEW LAWS

Texas Brotherhoods Board Opposes Wilkerson

AUSTIN, April 7. (UP)—A resolution opposing the confirmation of Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, named by President Hoover for the federal circuit court, was adopted at a joint meeting of legislative boards of Texas rail brotherhoods here today.

Issuance of injunctions against labor organizations was the basis for the opposition, leaders said.

Other resolutions commended U. S. Senators La Follette and Costigan for efforts to pass an unemployment relief measure and endorsed the Wagner-Crosser bill before congress for retirement insurance.

A program of preferential measures to be pushed before the next Texas legislature was announced. It includes:

Limitation on length of both freight and passenger trains.

Protection for railroads from "unfair" competition by airways, waterways, pipe line, trucks or travel bureaus.

Women's Wage Law

Requirement that self propelling equipment operated on rails have an engineer in charge unless it can be lifted from the tracks. Weed burners and similar types of equipment are specified.

Secondary legislation that will be urged includes a minimum wage law for women and an increase of the compulsory school attendance age to 15 years.

Temple was selected for the 1933 meeting.

The brotherhoods will be represented before the Texas legislature by O. L. Kinsey, San Antonio, B. of L. F. and E.; W. H. Gallagher, Denison B. of L. E.; J. T. Stedham, Fort Worth, B. R. T. and J. T. Maher, Fort Worth, O. R. C.

General Wolters Confers Secretly at Houston

HOUSTON, April 7. (AP)—Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters of the Texas national guard, Ranger Captain Frank Hamer and Police Chief Percy Heard conferred today with Mayor Walter Monteith here more than an hour. None would reveal the nature of the conference.

Captain Hamer is known to have interested himself in investigating alleged radical activities recently in this section, particularly in port cities in Houston and Galveston.

Leaders of radical organizations with headquarters in a Main street building have been under police surveillance here.

Dallas Officers Arrest Louisiana Bank Suspect

DALLAS, April 7. (AP)—Louisiana officers today identified a man picked up by Dallas detectives as a suspect wanted in connection with the $16,711 robbery of the Planters Bank and Trust company of Haynesville, La., Jan. 28.

He was turned over to Sheriff J. F. Kinder and Deputy Sheriff A. W. Greef, of Homer, La. It was understood they planned to return him to Louisiana immediately. He gave his name as Joe H. Brown.

Radicals Protest Argentine Election

BUENOS AIRES, April 7. (AP)—The Argentine radical party of former President Hipolito Yrigoyen, which was overthrown by the revolution of 1930 and whose ticket was ruled out of the elections last fall by provisional President Uriburu, today called the present government of Dr. Augustin Justo illegal.

The election of last Nov. 8, at which Dr. Justo was elected, was invalid, a resolution passed by the radical party yesterday said, but the radical nominee for president, Marcelo T. Alvear, was not allowed to run.

The only valid election since the revolution, the resolution said, was that of April 5, 1931, in Buenos Aires province, where the radicals won. This election was declared invalid by Provisional President Uriburu who then still controlled the government following his leadership of the revolution the previous year.

The resolution also protested against the income tax established by Uriburu's provisional government which only recently turned over the power to Dr. Justo's administration, and declared a return to constitutionality could only be attained in "free elections."

The radical party last Monday set up its own senate at Mantanzas and government police were sent to break up any meetings and to arrest the radical leaders if they attempted to act.

Cops Get Accused Bandit On Tip From 'Girl Friend'

LINCOLN, Neb., April 7. (INS)—Acting on information supplied by his "girl friend," police today arrested Virgil Harris, 25, an ex-convict, in connection with the robbery of a bank at Republic, Mo., last week.

Harris denied the charge, but was said to have passed travelers' checks taken in the holdup. He was identified by a special agent from Missouri.

The youth also was identified as having accompanied C. E. Darling into a clothing store at Omaha last week when they attempted a robbery. Darling was slain in the attempt.

SHERIFF RESIGNS

DODGE CITY, Kan., April 7. (UP)—The resignation of Abe Renick as sheriff of Gray county today was in the hands of Everett Steerman, assistant attorney general.

Renick tendered the resignation after Steerman investigated charges made against the sheriff's conduct in an affidavit by Clara Long, Dodge City woman.

Don't let them count you out!

Better still—why not bring out the hidden beauty in your skin

"I am so happy my skin is now clear"

You, too, may have a clear, smooth skin

"When old friends neglected me ... and new friends were harder to make ... I had sense enough to know something had to be done to clear up my skin.

"Happily, I heard about S.S.S. and put it to the test. It was not long before I could see an improvement—now I am simply overjoyed—I not only have a clear skin, but my system is strengthened, too, and again I mingle with my friends and associates with confidence."

Beneficial results come from within

Medical authorities say that skin troubles commonly manifest themselves when the system is in a weakened and "run-down" condition ... that the skin must have a ratio of body balance ... must have resistance from within.

In a large degree this resistance is measured by the hemoglobin content of the blood and the number of rich, red-cells it contains. They are the workers that carry nourishment and oxygen throughout the body ... also they remove the poisonous carbon dioxide. Upon their strength and number largely depends the body's vitality ... its resistance against infection and disease.

When these precious red-blood-cells are lowered in number, due to overwork, worry, colds, sickness, or dietary neglect, the system suffers ... usually lowered blood count is symptomed by quick fatigue, lack of appetite, pimples, boils, paleness, or other evidences of a "run-down" condition. Dangerous consequences often follow the neglect of a lowered blood count.

S.S.S. gives New Strength

If you require a tonic you should by all means try S.S.S.—this long established medicine acts by stimulating the secretions of the stomach ... reviving the appetite ... aiding digestion ... regenerating hemoglobin ... restoring the red-blood-cells—and builds greater resistance against infection and disease.

S.S.S. helpfulness is illustrated by this fact—our records show that nearly one-half of those who have taken it, for the first time, do so upon the recommendation of some friend who has been benefited. Can there be any stronger recommendation for its merit and usefulness than this?

A distinctive thing about S.S.S. is that it is made from fresh roots, barks and herbs ... it is readily absorbed by the system. Another thing is that its efficiency has been proved by scientific tests and by its use for more than 100 years. It is a safe Tonic to take.

S. S. S. is an economical way to health. Try it yourself. Get S.S.S. from any drug store. In two sizes: regular and double—the latter is more economical and is sufficient for a two weeks' treatment. It may be the means of bringing better health and happiness to you.

FARMERS TURN OUT FOR BILL

Nebraskans Hear Murray's Bid for Nomination

NORFOLK, Neb., April 7. (UP)—Puffing his habitual five-cent cigar, Gov. W. H. Murray of Oklahoma today brought his "grass-root" plea for the Democratic presidential nomination to a circus-day crowd of northeast Nebraska farmers.

More than 800 persons turned out to hear Murray expound his views over a loud-speaker system, and to "bet you farmers dollars to doughnuts the Oklahoma delegation won't vote for Roosevelt."

He declared for peace and rigid and honest economy in both state and national government.

"I believe in peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations—entangling alliances with none," the campaigning governor declared.

"I believe in equality of economic opportunity, and that this country should be in the future as it has been in the past, a land of opportunity unfettered by privilege and unshackled by monopoly.

"The American people are just like an old mule chained by the neck to Wall street, and all they can do is kick."

Murray, touring Nebraska during the final week before the presidential primary, told his hearers "your national committeeman, Arthur Mullen, brought $50,000 back from the East to get delegates to vote for Roosevelt, but he is not going to do it.

"You cornhuskers are going to have something to say about whom you want for president."

G. M. Exhibits Spur Sale of Automobiles

DETROIT, April 7. (UP)—Automobiles sales increased "to exceed all expectations" with interest stimulated by the General Motors national exhibits, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of the corporation, announced today.

Sloan said reports from 55 cities indicate more than 2,000,000 persons have visited the exhibits. He anticipated double that number by the time the shows end Saturday.

Cleric Needs Funds To Carry On Trial

LONDON, Apri 7. (INS)—With a promise from the pastor not to spread propaganda in his own behalf from the pulpit, the case against the Rev. Harold Francis Davidson, accused of immoral conduct with a score of London girls, was adjourned today until May 19.

The adjournment was taken to give the Reverend Davidson time to raise additional funds for his own defense. He turned down an offer of 250 pounds ($950) from the prosecution, stating through his attorneys that he had no desire to be under obligations to his accusers.

The prosecution completed its case today with brief cross-examination of Charles Butler, a private detective employed by agents of the Bishop of Norfolk, Davidson's superior, to shadow the accused clergyman.

Butler said he never saw Davidson take a drink, and characterised him as "the type of person who would engage in conversation with anybody."

TO BECOME DUKE

LONDON, April 7. (INS)—The Daily Express said today it understood Prince George, fourth son of King George and Queen Mary, would be created a duke in the king's birthday honors list this year.

WITNESS SAYS GIRL SUICIDED

'Beauty Queen' Placed Head On Rail, Is Testimony

ELDORADO, Ark., April 7. (UP)—Whether attractive Ruth Youngblood, 20-year-old college student committed suicide, or staggered in front of a train after an attack by a tramp, was a moot question in a murder trial here today.

Charged with murder is Irving Eddington, an illiterate hobo, who has repudiated an alleged confession that he attacked the co-ed, hit her on the head with a rock, and then saw her stagger into the path of a train.

W. O. Carter, locomotive fireman, a defense witness, said he saw Miss Youngblood deliberately place her head on a rail.

The co-ed was once named "beauty queen" of Arkansas A. & M. college.

President C. W. Overstreet of the college revealed that Miss Youngblood was under suspension at the time of her death, until she signed a pledge not to have further "dates" with male students.

Another witness said that a group of girls discussed the proposed pledge with the co-ed shortly before Easter vacation, and that she remarked "I'll die before I sign that pledge. You may never see me alive again."

Montague County Man Appeals Statutory Case

AUSTIN, April 7. (AP)—Leo White and Bill Nelson, alias William R. Carl, convicted by Harrison county juries for robbery with firearms and given life imprisonment and 99 years' confinement, respectively, appealed to the court of criminal appeals today.

Other appeals filed: J. E. Pledge, Montague county, statutory offense, five years, and Herman Hoppe, Hutchinson county, manufacturing liquor, one year.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE SIMPSON

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Out of the welter of uncertainty and dismay into which legislative leadership was thrown by the recent sales tax revolt in the house one figure looms in paradoxical fashion, that of Crisp of Georgia.

CHARLES R. CRISP

Upon his sturdy, erect shoulders had fallen the task of steering the huge revenue bill through the house as acting chairman of the committee that framed it.

The personal influence of Crisp, the respect in which his house companions, Republicans and Democrats alike, hold him, was a vital factor in that almost unparalleled achievement, a committee report unanimous on every item of a more than billion dollar tax bill except the sales tax, and a 24-to-1 committee division on even that.

His Bridges Burned

Crisp verbally and actually burned every bridge behind him when he brought that bill into the house. He carried the heavy load in debate day after day and, despite the tensity of feeling that developed as the crusade against the sales tax gathered way, the house invariably listened respectfully to Crisp, if unmoved by his arguments.

Upon Crisp, then fell, particularly the weight of that crushing defeat. As the trooping line of sales tax dissenters crowded up to storm by the tellers in the center aisle, Crisp sat dejectedly at his desk, head in hands. He knew he had lost.

A storm of applause greeted announcement of the vote, cheers, yells and formless shouting.

Crisp sat upright a moment, then rose to gestuse for recognition, instantly accorded not only by the chair, but by the rioting victors and the massed house membership.

Then he walked down to the well of the house to admit the full significance of his defeat, to offer to step aside as director of the destinies of the revenue bill in favor of some one more in sympathy with the purpose of the house as disclosed in the vote just taken.

They Wouldn't Let Him

Even the emotionless Congressional Record did not fail to note what happened then. "(Cries of 'No! No!')" is the way the Record shows it.

Actually it was thunderous shouts. Along the front benches man after man who a moment before voted against him, rose now to stand shouting and clapping in tribute to the Georgian.

It swept the Republican as well as the Democratic side. Members rushed from the cloak rooms to join in.

Crisp's economic theories went down, yet Crisp, the man, scored a triumph rare in house annals.

'Speakeasy Glass' Put in Door of Cop's Office

CHICAGO, April 6. (UP)—Chief of Detectives William H. Shoemaker has installed in the door to his inner sanctum today a panel of "speakeasy peep-hole glass."

"So I can see out without being seen," explained the chief, while supervising installation of the panel, which is regular equipment on nearly all Chicago speakeasy doors. It looks like a mirror on one side, like a clear sheet of glass on the other.

Women Drivers Safer Than Men, Judge Says

CHICAGO, April 7. (U8)—Women drivers do not hog the road, they are more courteous than men and less reckless and they are involved in a smaller percentage of accidents, according to a pronouncement today by Judge Franu M. Padden, arbiter of thousands of traffic accidents on Chicago's crowded streets.

Since the depression, America has become a land of law and no orders.

Al Smith, with the start he has, must be conceded an excellent chance to ruin as many Democratic chances as William Jennings Bryan.

Dry rot costs lumbermen millions, says a scientist. But just think how much it costs the United States government.

A Century of Crisis

BECAUSE of a geographic and socionomic paradox, American civilization and perhaps that of the world generally has entered with the 20th century upon a severe testing-time never before equaled in its serious implications.

Rudyard Kipling's words, "For East is East, and West is West, and never the twain shall meet," have gone round the world which they describe. Insofar as they refer to standards of living and systems of belief, they have met with general agreement as to their truth. But because, in a socionomic sense, the West has now met the East upon the shores of the Pacific ocean, America in particular and the human race in general is confronted today with economic and sociologic problems heretofore unknown and unequaled.

From the earliest beginnings of western history, the race has moved westward. The Latins followed Caesar's legions into Gaul and England. From the dark forests of Germany, sons of the ever-prolific Teutons surged also into the British Isles. Under the pressure of increasing European population and the disciplining influences of civilization, the wave swept westward across the Atlantic. Then with each military or political upheaval on the eastern seaboard, thousands of restive Americans pushed the frontier further and further toward the Rocky mountains—always a westward movement. Always rich lands to the west, where a new start could be made, where a new economic freedom beckoned to those who found civilization, industrialization, political organization annoying.

The corollary is, of course, that economic, social and political crises always found temporary relief in the escape of those who found old states untenable. Human intelligence was never pressed for the perfection of a democracy which would guarantee to each individual the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—the American ideal.

But with the turn into the 20th century, that ancient and overworked safety valve has been closed. No longer is there a western frontier toward which free-spirited Americans may move; no longer may countless Europeans flock to the "land of promise" with assurance of pronounced economic betterment. Geographically speaking, America and all the western world has its back to the wall—the wall of the Pacific. Beyond the Pacific lies the East. The East and the West have met, but are separated by social and philosophic differences even greater than the ocean which divides them.

Because America, and Europe, now have occupied almost to overflowing the limitless lands which ever beckoned the race westward to new freedom, they are confronted with economic problems which at last must be solved in their entirety if modern civilization is to endure. It is the paramount issue in the western world's 20th century outlook. Human intelligence is to be given the most trying test of its capacity to foster and preserve individual human welfare.

Some Advantages of Small Establishments

IS THE SMALL business establishment about to come back into its own?

Some economists believe it is and there is some evidence that it is in the number of small new establishments that are springing up, some of which have already successfully weathered a year or more of the depression.

Henry H. Heimann, executive secretary of the National Association of Credit Men, asserts that depression is bringing back the small business establishment.

"With unusual faculties, small business establishments," Mr. Heimann says, "have cut their overhead, reduced their costs of doing business, the while the giant businesses lumber along, floundering on a sea of burden costs, and find it impossible to speedily make the necessary readjustments to cope with the present situation. The immediate future will find small industries and independent merchants once again coming into their own if management is competent. Because of their ability to meet changing conditions and because they will be favored with but slight burdens of overhead as well as taxation, they are better able to pick up the tempo of the bargain hunters' tune in quick fashion."

There is plausibility in his argument to say the least. Business nowadays requires elasticity and initiative as never before. In these the man who owns his own business, however, small, has a decided advantage over the establishment that is run by rules and orders issued from some distant center.

SO THEY SAY!

I wish I could stand on the housetops and shout to all women "Don't dread middle age. Look forward to it instead. It is the best part of life."—Marie Dressler, film star.

That it makes no difference who originated the expression "Hot-Cha." It is merely a sneeze spelled out.

That John Jacob Astor once bought Times Square for $25,000. At the time it was christened, "Medcef Eden Farm." (So all right.)

That the Wedding March from Lohengrin played backwards resolves itself into Chopin's Funeral March. (As if it matters.)

That Ruskin gave his wife at the altar to another husband.

That Hollywood has more private phone lines than all the other cities in the United States put together.

That all the profits earned by Paramount films in Hungary go to charities there. Adolph Zukor, Paramount chief, was born there.

That Galsworthy says that the talkies will never kill the silent pictures. (Not again, at any rate.)

That the outlaws never refer to the federal government by that name, or even "Uncle Sam" . . . They slanguage it this way: "No foolin' around with 'Whiskers'—his arms are too long!"

That men in Berlin are wearing spats trimmed with fur!

That J. Pierpont Morgan is the grandson of John Pierpont, a preacher, who set New England on fire with his anarchistic ideas.

That Dr. Mayo says in another 25 years we all may expect to attain the age of 70. The average age is now 58. (Too long.)

That an Oregon judge now adds $2.50 to every fine and turns it over to the unemployed. (Swelegant idea.)

That there is supposed to be one half-hour longer daylight on top of the Empire State edifice than on ground level.

That both parties are stuck for a presidential slogan to match "Keep Cool With Coolidge!" "Hoover and Prosperity," "He Kept Us Out of War," "Back to Normalcy" and similar amusing cracks.

That pleasure cars kill more people than bommercials.

That the term "grass widow" was originally "grace widow"—that is, a widow by grace or courtesy.

That Abraham Lincoln was born in a house which he helped his father to build. (Oh, don't be so clever!)

That in "Ladies of the Big House" when you saw Sylvia Sydney leap into a roaring torrent, you didn't. The gal who did it was Josephine McKim, a well-known amateur champion fish.

That Juan March, Spain's richest man, can't write his name.

That if you think you have it tough over here with the taxes—consider the girls who work in England. If they make $25 a week—they pay the government almost $6 a month for the privilege.

That at a western university "a most popular news figure vote" revealed that Capone topped Valles and Bow nosed out John D.

That the author of "Mademoiselle From Armentiers" never received a penny for it. (And what punch lines.)

That according to George Gillingham Pathfinder every battleship carries 1,800 lbs. of cheese (not including ensigns).

And that the latest silly is about the Scot who bought his six kids a dachshund so they could all pet it at once.

Newspaper Stuff

The depression hasn't over-looked the newspaper business. Some of the best editorial rooms have had to fall in line and bow to the wishes of the efficiency experts. The other day, frinstance, one of the boys telephoned to Hopewell for some information on the Lindberghlery. The next day he got a memo, saying: "Yesterday you telephoned Hopewell, N. J. This cost the organization 60 cents. In the future please communicate with Hopewell by man."

M. MARCEL OF THE "MARCEL WAVE"—M. Marcel, the inventor of the marvel wave, celebrated his 70th birthday and the 50th anniversary of his invention in 1922. His invention, which made him wealthy and famous, is said to have been inspired by the beautifully waved hair of his mother.

THE NATURAL MUMMY—Chuquicamata is a copper mining district in the desert of Atacama, Chile. The mummified body of the miner was found in the Restauradora mine in a small drift, six feet below the surface. He had apparently perished in a cave-in ofe the mine and the dryness of the atmosphere, which was saturated with copper salts having a preservative quality, brought about the mummification by natural means.

The Story of an Unemployed Girl

By ETHELDA BEDFORD, Author of BROADWAY BRIDE

READ THIS FIRST

Lillian Abbott finds the lure of New York and her hope of a career far more intriguing than the prospect of inheriting her father's millions and becoming a New England society girl. She runs away to New York, due to the persuasion of handsome Thomas Bland and decides to become another girl, a working girl. Blane, who was to direct her career as a movie star, turns out to be a girl racketeer, steals her money and disappears. Howard Marsh, dapper manager of the little hotel near Broadway where Lillian lives, takes her in tow. She is attracted to him, but he does not flatter her vanity by any sentimental response. He takes her to a dine and dance place and encourages her to dance with his friends. But when Lillian begins to wonder why he doesn't dance with her she discovers he has disappeared.

Now Go on With the Story, CHAPTER XX

"Gone home?" she repeated the answer Sherron had give as a question.

He was a tall, angular man. Middle-aged, with thin gray hair. His eyes were light and shifty. Even when he smiled his face twisted unpleasantly.

"You don't mean—he couldn't have gone and left me here—alone—".

"Yeah," Sherron said. "He could. What's wrong with that?"

"But I—he brought me here!"

"How 'bout this dance?" a fellow who had danced with Lillian a little while earlier asked.

"No," she answered, "I'm not dancing—any more."

"Sure," said Sherron to the fellow, "she's dancing. Run along dance with him."

"But—I will not! I'm going home!"

The orchestra struck up something particularly loud and fast. The youth caught at Lillian's arm.

"Come on, little one. What's the matter with you? Somebody get your Irish up?"

Lillian's eyes sought Sherron's, his shifted, wandered over the crowd.

"Didn't Mr. Marsh leave any word, any message for me?" she sought Sherron again. He was starting to walk away. She caught at his sleeve.

"Said tell you to have a good time," Sherron told her, amusement twisting his face.

"But—how'll I get back to my hotel?" asked Lillian lightened.

"I'll take you home—if that's all's worrying you," put in the young fellow still holding to Lillian's arm.

Lillian tried to pull away from the persistent fellow. He was not to be discouraged.

"Look," he said, "don't bother about a guy who'd give a queen like you the go-by."

He wrapped his fingers firmly about her bare arm just above the elbow. His head bent close to hers. His eyes were heavy-lidded and his twany hair fell in a tousled unruly lock partly covering his brow. He had a way of running his fingers through the tousled lock, pushing it back.

He smiled into Lillian's frightened eyes. "Say, if you ain't a queen I'm a Chinaman."

"Oh—go 'way! I don't even know your name!" Lillian's hand pushed against the slick white bosom of his shirt.

"I don't know yours either. Let's get acquainted." He was drawing her near the dance floor. "Let's dance."

"Let me alone! I won't dance with you—I'm going home!"

"You danced with me while ago. Remember?"

Lillian didn't remember very clearly. There had been so many. She had been looking over their shoulders, trying to see Howard Marsh. Wondering if he were watching. Wondering why he didn't dance with her.

But he had gone home—and left her. Her heart became a bundle of aches. And her eyes stung.

The twany haired young fellow

"What did he mean?"

said: "Snap out of it, baby!" And with a masterful tug he had her on the glassy dance floor, with his arms about her waist.

"Come on—step fast! Rip 'em up!"

The music blared and a saxophone screeched furiously. With the rapid beat of the wild music Lillian's partner swayed, stepped and syncopated his movements. They moved with a combination of swing and hop. It was impossible not to follow his lead.

Everything whirled. The music grew madder and madder. The drums and the piano, the saxophones and the clarinets. Lillian's partner started into a series of fast turns. He held her against his slim, bony body as they whirled. He braced her with his body and his wiry long arm. His head bent against hers, his chin resting on her dark curls.

The rhythm and the savage beat of the music served as an intoxicant. Lillian's senses were sort of numbed.

And then, when the music got off on something like a waltz, the youth, between quick breaths said: "Wot a baby you've turned out to be! And do I love the way you shake your doggies!"

He relaxed his hold about her waist for a minute and then renewed it.

As they danced by a table with some unoccupied chairs Lillian pulled herself free and dropped into one of the chairs.

"Aw," her partner said, sympathetically, "all tired out?" And he pulled a chair over beside her.

Lillian was almost breathless and she was conscious of stinging little pains in her feet, which were so much exposed by their thin-soled slit-beaded little satin sandals.

She reached down and stroked her ankle.

A short darkish man came over. "How 'bout finishing this one with me?" he asked her.

"No—thank you. I'm not dancing any more tonight."

He glowered at her and then looked at the twany haired youth sitting so close to her.

The short darkish fellow said: "Oh, yeah?" with a smirk and walked away.

"Say, baby—give me all the rest of the evening will you? I've only got fifteen dollars, but it's yours—"

As he talked he ran his hand into his trouser pocket and brought out several crumpled greenbacks. He pushed them over into Lillian's lap.

Lillian got up from the chair. She bit her lip. She clenched her fists.

What did he mean? Give him the rest of the evening . . . for $15?

She began to reel. She thought she was going to fold up right there before she could move away from this heavy-lidded boy. She took a long step, her foot hung in her skirt, and she tripped.

She might have fallen to the floor only her hand caught the back of a chair.

With a startled exclamation, which turned to a friendly laugh, the girl occupant of the chair to which Lillian clung looked around.

"You'd better stay off that Jersey champagne," she said gayly.

But when she saw Lillian's face she got up quickly and ran a protecting arm about her shoulders.

"Oh, I'm sorry," she said kindly. "May I help? The ladies' room is right over by that gold and black screen. May I go along with you?"

"Yes," Lillian replied, responding immediately to the friendly tone of the girl, "that will be very kind of you."

Lillian grabbed at the chance to be out of the crowded, noisy room, away from the dancers, away from the heavy-lidded youngish chap who offered her $15 for the rest of the evening!

She fell in step with the girl who still held a protecting arm about Lillian. They walked to the door marked "Powder Your Nose."

As soon as they entered the little room Lillian was unable to suppress deep, heart sobing sobs. The sympathy and kindness offered by this stranger somehow told Lillian she was an object of pity. She began feeling great sympathy for herself and for long minutes she allowed the flow of crystal clear tears to race down her cheeks unchecked.

"Too much wine?" the girl asked, finally.

"No," said Lillian defensively, "I don't drink! I want to go home—"

"Well, is anything stopping you?"

It was unbelievable, that a girl so well dressed, so well spoken, who looked as if she had never wanted for a thing in her life . . . that she didn't even have subway fare . . .

Answers to Questions

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

This newspaper puts at your disposal a corps of trained researchers in Washington who will answer questions for you. They have access to the government departments, the libraries, museums, galleries, and public buildings, and to the numerous associations which maintain headquarters in the nation's capital. If they can be of assistance to you, write your question plainly, and send with two cents in coin or stamps to The Record News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.

Q.—What equipment does a man need to be a successful architect? —E. J.

A.—To be successful, the architect must have an intimate knowledge of a score or more of the building trades; of values, qualities, and uses of building materials; of plumbing, ventilating, heating and wiring; of decoration, furnishing and finishing; of landscaping, community design, and city planning, and of construction engineering and business management.

Q.—Has Westminster Abbey a flag of its own?—D. D.

A.—One was adopted in 1931 as the official ensign of the dean. It is a banner which incorporates the red and white roses of the Tudors, the cross and five martlets of St. Edward the confessor, and the royal arms.

Q.—Do pineapples contain vitamin C?—C. W. O.

A.—Pineapples are a very good source for vitamin C.

Q.—What is now being done on the Black Hills monument?—E. S.

A.—Lately, Gutzon Borglum announced that work will be concentrated on roughing away the stone above and back of Washington's head to separate it from the stone reserved for Lincoln. Borglum plans to give his entire attention this year to completing the Washington figure. Arrangements for Dakota's celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Washington are being made. Nearly a year ago, August was tentatively fixed as the month most suitable.

Q.—What is a Lombard loan?—A. E. R.

A.—It is a loan made on relatively poor security at a relatively high rate of interest.

Q.—How old is the present president of China?—E. C.

A.—The president of China is Gen. Chiang Kai-shek. He was born in 1886, and was inaugurated as president Oct. 10, 1928.

Q.—When were neckties first generally worn?—M. R.

A.—Neckties, formerly known as "cravats," were first extensively worn in Europe during the French revolution. The custom was borrowed from the Croats or Crabats, as they were called, in the 17th century.

Q.—How many countries will send athletes to participate in the Olympic games this summer?—L. W.

A.—At the present time 28 countries have answered the invitation to compete in the Olympic games.

Q.—What salary does Marie Dressler get?—E. S. W.

A.—Miss Dressler's salary is reported to be $5,000 per week and she is almost continuously engaged.

Q.—What is meant by a person's orientation?—H. A.

A.—Orientation is the appreciation of one's temporal, spatial, and personal relations at the present moment. It is determined by such questions as "What day is this? What place is this? Who am I?"

Q.—Where was Connie Mack born?—O. B. H.

A.—Cornelius McGillicuddy (Connie Mack) was born at East Brookfield, Mass., on Dec. 23, 1862, of Irish parents.

Q.—For what citizens is the United States flag generally flown at half-staff?—W. C. C.

A.—The custom regarding the half-staffing of the United States flag is that such action is taken only when an important official or national figure has died, for whom national mourning is declared, as in the case of the late William Howard Taft, former president and chief justice. In a case such as that of the late Knute Rockne, national mourning was not declared, and consequently the United States flag was not officially half-staffed. State or organization flags may be flown at half-staff in cases short of national mourning.

Q.—How much land did Thomas Jefferson own?—F. D. F.

A.—The acreage varied. In 1793 he had 10,667 acres of land, 154 slaves, 94 horses, five mules and 248 cattle.

Q.—How can a tenor banjo be strung and tuned so that it can be fingered and played like a ukulele? —F. W. S.

A.—Put the four regular guitar strings on the banjo, tune them as they would be tuned on the regular guitar.

Q.—How large is Arlington National cemetery?—H. L. M.

A.—There are approximately 408 acres in Arlington.

RECIPES
Rice Omelet

Four eggs.
One tablespoonful salt.
One-eighth teaspoonful pepper.
One-fourth teaspoonful paprika.
One-half cupful cooked rice.
Two tablespoonfuls chili sauce.
Two tablespoonfuls bacon fat.

Beat the yolks of the eggs until lemon-colored; add the seasonings, rice, and chili sauce. Mix well and fold in the stiffly-beaten egg whites and turn into a frying or omelet pan in which the bacon fat has been melted. Cook slowly until delicately browned on the bottom, then set in a 300-degree F. oven until the top has set. Loosen the edges with a knife or spatula, fold over, turn out on a hot platter and serve at once, garnished with broiled bacon. Serves four.

Asparagus Tip Cocktail

Chill one can asparagus tips. Prepare cocktail sauce as follows: Fold one cup whipped cream into one cup tomato catsup and season with one tablespoonful lemon juice. Chill. When ready to serve fill cocktail glasses two-thirds full of sauce, set upon small plate and besides the glass arrange nine or 10 asparagus tips in a small cupped lettuce leaf.

Crown Roast of Pork

Twelve ribs pork.
Two cupfuls dry bread crumbs.
One-fourth cupful walnut meats.
Salt.
Pepper.
One-half teaspoonful summer savory.
Twelve small white onions.
Four tablespoonfuls flour.
Two tablespoonfuls chopped tart pickles.
Paprika.

Six ribs from each side of a rack of pork are required for this dish, and each rib should be trimmed in the same way that lamb chops are cut when Frenched, only the ribs are not separated. Then the sections of meat are turned so that the bones are on the outside, and fastened together in a circle with skewers and string. Next make a stuffing. Soak the bread crumbs in cold water and squeeze dry. Mix with the walnut meats chopped, one and one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika and the savory. Place the stuffing in the center of the roast and cover the ends of the bones with greased papers to prevent their browning too soon. Put the meat in a 500-degree F. oven and cook for 30 minutes. Then lower the heat to 450 degrees F. and finish the roasting. Two hours should be given the roast—perhaps a little longer if it is very meaty, for it must be well done—and during the roasting process it must be basted frequently with the drippings in the pan, to which a cupful of boiling water was added after the roast was nicely seared. Sprinkle the meat lightly with salt and pepper one-half hour before removing it from the oven. Parboil the onions in slightly salted boiling water and place one on the end of each rib in place on the paper covering, about 10 minutes before the roast is done. Baste with the drippings so that they will take on an alluring brown. Accompany the roast with a gravy made from the drippings in the pan, the flour, sufficient boiling water to make the sauce of the correct consistency, the finely chopped pickle, with salt, pepper and paprika to taste.

Stuffed Carrots

Six large, boiled carrots.
Two onions.
Two tablespoonfuls salad dressing.
Salt.
Paprika.
Gravy.

Hollow out carrot centers and mince with onions, salad dressing, and seasonings. Replace in the carrots and bake for half an hour in brown sauce. Serve hot.

Muggins Potatoes

Boil new potatoes in their skins until tender. Peel and cook in deep fat (390 degrees F.) until light brown. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Drain on unglazed paper.

Stuffed Pear Salad

Place a pear half on lettuce on each salad plate. Fill the center with drained grated pineapple, sprinkle with chopped nuts. At the side of the pear place a date stuffed with cream cheese which has been moistened with salad dressing and seasoned with salt. Serve with either a thick mayonnaise or a French dressing. Stuffed peach salad may be made the same way.

Strawberry Shortcake

Two cupfuls flour.
Four teaspoonfuls baking powder.
One-third cupful milk or cream.
One-half teaspoonful salt.
From one-third to one-half cupful sugar.
One-third cupful butter or Crisco.
One egg.

Mix and sift twice the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Work in shortening with finger tips. Beat egg till light and combine with milk, add this to the dry ingredients to form a soft dough; knead lightly and quickly for four or five seconds. Turn on board and roll out to one-fourth inch thickness. Cut with a biscuit cutter, place two biscuits together after dipping one side of the top biscuit in melted butter; put buttered side next to bottom biscuit. Bake in a quick oven of about 450 degrees F. for 15 or 20 minutes, or until brown.

Crush a large size box of strawberries and let stand with about one cupful of sugar for at least 30 minutes.

Separate the biscuits when ready to use and put berries between and on top of biscuits. Garnish with whipped cream to which a little sugar and vanilla has been added and top with whole or sliced berries. This makes from 10 to 12 servings according to size of biscuits.

OPINION ON CRIME GIVEN

Public's View Distorted, Prosecutor Says

NEW YORK, April 6. (UP)—The public has a "distorted opinion of crime conditions in America." There are "no super-criminals." There is "no network of organized crime."

Having set forth these opinions as the mature judgment of one who has been engaged in fighting criminality, first as a state's attorney and then as a United States attorney for the "crime ridden" New York district, George Z. Medalie offered proof of his assertions today in an interview which was as free from conventional generalities as it was astonishing in its reversal of popular beliefs.

Spoke Freely

The federal prosecutor for the New York district spoke freely—except where his statements might injure his present business of catching and condemning violators.

He denied that widespread violation of the liquor laws has resulted in the organization of the criminal class in other lines, such as kidnaping, narcotic smuggling, general thievery, or common racketeering.

He admitted that a certain amount of organization was necessary to the bootlegger and liquor distributor, and that men like Alphonse Capone or "Bill" Dwyer have achieved a certain business success in their undercover calling because they are protected by public callousness towards the law. But he denied that in other criminal activities which are naturally abhorrent to the public, law enforcement agencies have broken down.

Cases Cited

"To a certain extent," he said, "the public attention given to such men as Capone, Dwyer, Owney Madde and the late Jack (Legs) Diamond is entirely disproportionate to their importance in the criminal world. Diamond, for example, was not important. When he died he had only a half dozen men loyal to him. He was broke. He had been forced to leave New York and take to a petty bootlegging business in the country. His case is typical."

Medalie was asked whether, in his opinion, such cases as the Lindbergh kidnaping were "the result of prohibition."

His answer was a flat and decisive "no."

"The various crime rings may touch each other at various points," he explained. "In other words, there may be occasions where a man in the bootlegging business will take on a side line as a temporary occupation. But there is no supercrime trust, engaged in all branches, and the cases where one set of criminals become involved in other activities are rare—at least in New York."

Rule by Fear

The final picture of criminality given by the prosecutor was this: Groups of independent bootleggers with a loosely knit organization at best, buying their liquor wherever they can, selling it where they can, and leading a brief and precarious existence. Other groups of "business racketeers," also operating independently, fastening their activities upon real or fake labor organizations, and ruling by fear; still other independent groups, also small, engaging in whatever brand of criminal pursuit offers.

But none of these, he assured the public, are bound together by anything stronger than a general philosophy of antagonism to society.

HUMANE

Oklahoman Plans Bull Fight With Padded Horns, Spears

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 7. (UP)—Just as city officials were beginning to recover from the battle against six-day bicycle races, walkathons and other marathons, news of an impending bull fight disturbed them today.

A promoter, speaking with a Spanish accent, applied to City Clerk Mike Peshek for a license to stage a bull fight at Fair park May 7.

"You see, we weel pad ze horns of ze bull and pad ze spears of ze fighters. Even ze spectators can buy pads to seet on. We have ze approval of—what you call it?—ze humane society," the applicant said.

Houston Pastor Resigns To Take Up Evangelism

HOUSTON, April 7. (UP)—The resignation of Dr. James B. Leavell as pastor of the First Baptist church here was accepted by the congregation last night.

Dr. Leavell long has wanted to give full time to evangelism, friends said. At present he is in Leeland, Miss., for a three weeks revival meeting. He will return shortly to serve the pastorate until June 1.

MODERN VIKING BELIEVED LOST

Daring Sailor Missing From Alaska Route

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, April 7. (UP)—For 19 days full-bearded Capt. Andrew Nelson and his sturdy motor ship Eunice have been missing and today searchers patrolled the desolate Aleutian waters in fear the modern Viking had met disaster.

The 60-foot Eunice is 19 days overdue at Unalaska after a trip along the isolated coast from Atka.

Aboard her were Captain Nelson, modern Viking of the dangerous Aleutian seaways, four members of the crew and A. H. Proctor and Antonian Bishop, passengers.

Only a little 40-foot motorboat engaged in the search. Roy Wheeler was in command. No other boats were available, it was said at Unalaska.

None but Captain Nelson dared take boats to the Aleutians in winter time. For two years he had made scheduled trips between Unalaska and the lonely little communities 800 miles away.

Terrific gales and powerful tides were more of a risk than other masters cared to take.

With his little crew, Captain Nelson took the 60-foot Eunice through the boiling seas, past the erupting volcanoes that darkened the sky in that remote part of Alaska, and on to Atka.

The last time, he did not return. Nineteen days they waited here, hoping the gigantic, laughing man with full black beard would bring the Eunice into port.

Nelson was a trader, sailor and patron of the lonely villages, bare of trees and swept by gales, that dot the Aleutians.

He risked hidden reefs, blizzards and hurricanes for the rich prize of cross, red and blue foxes to be transported. He was mailman and groceryman, and personal messenger to the whole 800 miles of islands.

Cedar vapors, used to repel moths in homes, soften paint used on woodwork by dissolving its drying oil.

Pastor Considers Bonus Service 'Capitalization'

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 7. (UP)—The Rev. George L. Willets, First Presbyterian church pastor, who was a marine corps artillery private at Quantico, Va., during the war, told the United Press today he considered payment of a bonus to ex-soldiers "a capitalization of a service which was rendered in unselfish loyalty to the nation."

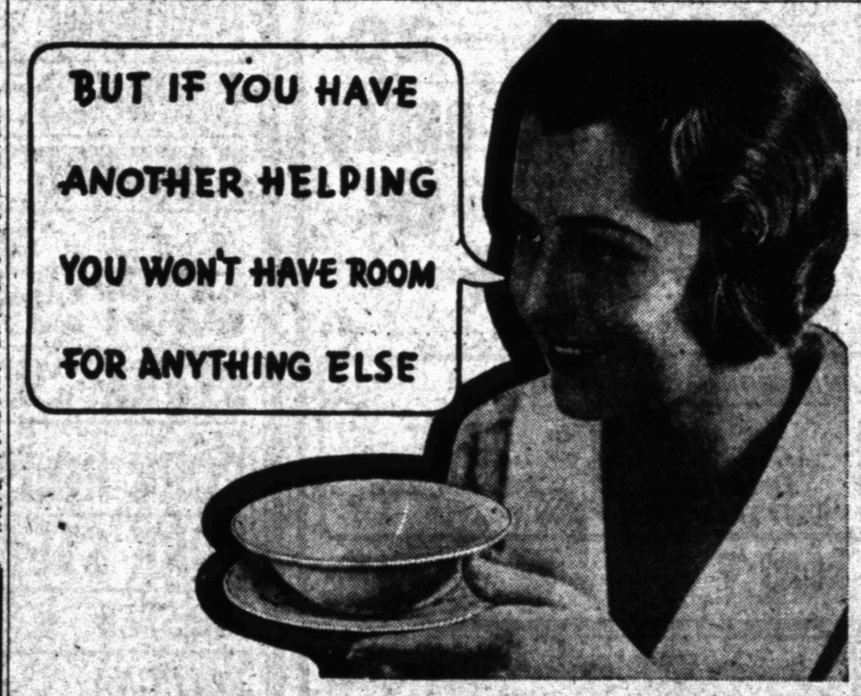

Reverend Willets was questioned after an American Legion post in the East sharply condemned efforts to pass a two billion-dollar veterans' bonus in congress.

Expert Makes Suggestions For Sunday Supper

usually be done by some member of the family. It is also a pleasant occasion for entertaining in a simple, informal way the chance guest.

Because Sunday dinner is generally a hearty meal and is served late in the day, the Sunday night meal may be a comparatively simple one and should be made up of dishes that are prepared on Saturday or such dishes as can easily be made ready in a few minutes from supplies that are on hand in the store closet or refrigerator. If the main dish is prepared on Saturday at least enough for one or two guests should be provided.

The following dishes may be prepared in advance or easily put together at serving time.

Tuna Fish au Gratin

Toss one cupful of tuna fish with one cupful of soft bread crumbs and one and one-half cupfuls grated cheese, then spread in a greased baking dish. Over this pour a hot thin white sauce made of three tablespoonfuls of butter, three tablespoonfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of salt and three cupfuls of milk. Sprinkle one-half cupful more grated cheese on top and then sprinkle with one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika. Bake in a moderate oven 410 degrees F. until cheese is melted and browned. Serve in noodle nests.

French Hamburger

In the bottom of well-oiled shallow baking dish put three-fourths cupful of sliced bermuda onions, and over these place three cupfuls of sliced apples. Mix one pound of ground round steak with one teaspoonful of salt and one egg, and form into small flat cakes. Arrange cakes, each with a ring of green pepper on the apples, pour in one-fourth cupful of meat stock or water and bake one-half hour in a moderate oven 410 degrees. Tongue or ham may be used in place of the steak.

Ginger Bread

Soak two tablespoonfuls of gelatin one-half hour in one cupful of cold milk. Make a soft custard of one cupful of milk, four egg yolks, two-thirds cupful of sugar, and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, then add softened gelatin. When beginning to stiffen, beat in one-fourth cupful of ginger sirup, one-half cupful shredded crystallized ginger, then fold in lightly four egg whites and one cupful of whipping cream, each beaten until stiff. Mold. As a variation substitute one cupful of crushed macaroons, one-half cupful of choped pecans and one-fourth cupful of candied cherries for the ginger and its sirup.

Date Nut Cakes

In a mixing bowl put one-fourth cupful of softened butter, one cupful of brown sugar and one cupful of sour milk. To these add two cupfuls of flour with which has been sifted three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful each of soda, salt, cinnamon and cloves. Stir all together well, using 200 strokes. Then add one cupful of chopped dates and one-half cupful of chopped black walnuts. Bake as tiny gems in a moderate oven—375 degrees F.—until firm to touch and loose in the pans. When cool, ice lightly with mocha frosting.

Mocha Frosting

One-third cupful butter.
One and one-half cupful confectioners' sugar.
One tablespoonful cocoa.
Coffee infusion.

Cream butter and add sugar gradually, continuing the beating; then add cocoa and coffee infusion, drop by drop—about two tablespoonfuls—to spread or force through a pastry bag and tube.

Chicken Pineapple Salad

The flavor is improved if the combined salad is allowed to stand several hours before the meal in three-fourths cupful of salad dressing. Toss together three cupfuls of diced cooked chicken, one cupful of shredded almonds browned in butter, one cupful of diced celery and one cupful of shredded pineapple. Serve in nests of lettuce or curly endive.

Stuffed Candied Prunes

One pound of 20-30 prunes.
One and one-half pounds sugar.
One cupful water.
Two lemons, sliced.
Pecan nut meats.

Alluring both to palate and eye are these sugary, dusky colored prunes. Wash them and remove the pits, making a lengthwise slit and then running the tip of a very sharp knife down on both sides of the stone. Fill the cavity with pecan meats and press the slit together. Drop into a sirup made of the sugar and water, add the slices of lemon and simmer very gently until the prunes are tender and well glazed, and the juice almost entirely absorbed. Drain and serve as a party sweetmeat.

SUNDAY MENU GIVES VARIETY

Mrs. Dawson Offers Many New Recipes

Celery Appetizers

Cut rounding stalks of fine celery into two-inch pieces; fill cavities with creamed cheese, brush with stiff mayonnaise and roll in chopped nuts; serve very cold.

Shrimp and Almonds, Japanese Style

Cook one-half cupful of blanched whole almonds very gently in two tablespoonfuls of butter until a golden yellow; add one cupful of celery cut in one-half inch pieces and cook again until the celery is a golden brown; add shrimps from an eightounce can, which have been cut in halves. Cook two minutes longer. Then add one-half cupful cream; season to taste and serve hot on toast.

Cream Cheese Sandwich Filling

Use one-half pint of cottage cheese, dash of cayenne pepper, two teaspoonfuls of finely chopped onion, one teaspoonful of chopped capers, one teaspoonful of minced parsley, one-half cupful of chopped nuts. Add enough mayonnaise to spread.

Graham Cracker Ice Box Cake

Use graham crackers (about 30) to line bottom, top and sides of narrow straight sided pan, and between the three layers of filling. Chilled in the ice box for 12 hours, this dessert slices easily for service with whipped cream or fruit fluff. Thick fillings hold up well and the use of a variety of fruits, nuts, brown or white sugar, changes the character of the foundation filling. One and a quarter cupfuls of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, three tablespoonfuls of flour and three tablespoonfuls of cornstarch are mixed well and then cooked with two and a quarter cupfuls of hot milk until thick and rich-flavored. Then stir into it the gelatin, one tablespoonful soaked 10 minutes in a quarter cupful of cold milk. Add three well-beaten eggs and cook in double boiler until quite thick. Add one cupful shredded coconut, three tablespoonfuls of butter and one-half teaspoonful vanilla. When cold, use in three layers between the four layers of crackers and chill for 12 hours. This recipe is sufficient for serving 8 or 10 persons.

Ham Rolls

One medium can Reins oven baked beans.
One teaspoonful prepared mustard.
Two tablespoonfuls tomato ketchup.
Twelve thin slices boiled ham.

Mash beans slightly, add seasonings, spread mixture on thin slices of ham, and roll like a jelly roll. Fasten with toothpicks. Fry in a skillet, which has in it a small amount of melted butter, until ham is thoroughly heated and slightly brown. These may be placed in shallow pans and baked in oven for about 20 minutes.

Apple Butter Refrigerator Roll

One-half pint whipping cream.
One-half cupful apple butter.
Thirty vanilla wafers.
Chopped nuts.

Whip cream and fold in apple butter. Spread each wafer with whipping cream mixture, placing one on top of another until all the wafers are used. Cover outside of the roll with remaining cream mixture, sprinkle with chopped nuts and place in refrigerator for about three hours. Cut in diagonal slices and serve.

Wife: You did, darling. I asked you if I might have some new clothes and you said, "Yes—buy and buy."—Pathfinder.

Bring a touch of SPRING to breakfast

All the family will welcome Kellogg's Rice Krispies these mornings. Delicious, toasted rice bubbles that are so crisp they crackle in milk or cream. What could be more refreshing—or so much of a change from the heavy, hot dishes of winter!

And truth to tell, we don't need so many heavy, hot foods in this age of steam-heated houses and closed automobiles. Cold weather just isn't what it used to be. That's why red flannels and bed warmers have disappeared—and why crisp, delicious cereals are becoming more and more popular.

Kellogg's Rice Krispies are rich in energy, easy to digest. Splendid for children's meals. Economical and healthful. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

TOO JEALOUS

Hubby Suspicious Of Coal, Ice and Milk Men, Says Wife

LOS ANGELES, April 7. (U)—A milkman in the movies has helped Mrs. Gussie Mavergan, sister of Max Factor, Hollywood cosmetican, obtain a divorce here.

She and her husband, Joe Mavergan, were watching a motion picture in which a jealous husband shot his milkman.

"Joe leaped to his feet in the theater and said in a loud voice he was going to shoot our milkman," Mrs. Mavergan testified yesterday in outlining charges that won her the decree.

Frank Factor, another brother of Mrs. Mavergan, testified his brother-in-law also was jealous of the coal man and the ice man. Mavergan filed a denial but did not appear in court.

ROYAL CHORUS GIVES CONCERT

Russian Group to Present Second Program Today

(By The Record News Critic)

About 1,000 high school and Junior college students, plus a large number of teachers and adult visitors, accorded tremendous applause Thursday morning to the Royal Russian chorus which presented a one-hour program in the Junior college auditorium at 9:30 o'clock under the direction of Princess Agreneva Slavianskv.

Engagement of the Russian company by the local schools for its appearances here was the result of a two-day gap in the itinerary of the organization. Accepting the opportunity of singing before local student bodies at nominal admission prices, Princess Slavianskv presented the same excellent company which sang in the Memorial auditorium early last spring. In addition to the 9:30 o'clock concert Thursday morning, the artists also sang later in the day before the student bodies of the Zundelowitz and Reagan Junior high schools.

Second Concert Today

The Royal Russian chorus will remain in the city until Friday evening, and is to sing again Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Junior college auditorium for school children of the city, and for as many persons as can be seated. Prices will be 10 cents for school children, and 25 cents for adults.

The obvious enjoyment of the concert Thursday morning by the student body was quite as deep as the astonishment which they audibly displayed at the first tones sounded by the company's basso profundo. Possessing one of the lowest and most resonant bass voices in the world today, the singer held the attention of his youthful audience throughout the entire performance.

There was a commendable degree of appreciation, however, for the conspicuous musical excellence of the program. The chorus presents not only an ensemble of beautiful voices, trained to the finest degree of expression, but affords a brilliant spectacle for the eye as well. Richly attired in characteristic costumes of the old Russia, dignified in attitude, and moving always with courtly grace, the ensemble delighted its audience from the first appearance to the final curtain.

Praise for Artists

As in the performance here last year, Mademoiselle Mara, daughter of the director, proved entirely captivating as soloist and accompanist. With exquisite vocal grace, dramatic piquancy, and an alluring personality, she completely commanded the entire house at each appearance.

The chorus reveals a remarkable capacity for pianissimo singing, reducing full chords of brilliant quality to a faint echo which fades imperceptibly into silence. Another of its outstanding features is the vivacious, joyous spirit of folk-song performance. Particularly amusing to the student body was the jocular presentation of "Massachusetts," introduced by Princess Slavianskv as "a college song,"—after the American style.

Local musicians, present in large numbers for the morning concert, were outspoken in their praise of the close attention and sincere appreciation shown by students in the Wichita Falls schools.

The oldest known crossword puzzle is about 2,000 years old and was found on the Island of Crete.

NEW FANS TO GREET SPUDS

2,000 'Recruits' Expected In Opening Day Crowd

More than 2,000 Wichitans who have not previously attended a baseball game or who are not acquainted with the fine sports of the game are expected to attend the opening day clash of the Spudders in Wichita Falls, April 15, with the Shreveport Sports, members of the chamber of commerce "Support the Spudders" committee declared Thursday.

This large group will attend the game with a sense of duty and cooperation in establishing a record opening day attendance for Wichita Falls. Other features of the opening day crowd aside from the actual game will attract many, committee members believe in view of the intensive arrangements for a great parade.

The thrill of a large crowd in all the bustle and excitement of the official opening of the baseball season, together with the display of every type of spring styles for men and women and the appearance of thousands of straw hats for the first time in the new season will add much to the attractiveness of opening day.

Ralph K. Pond, chairman of season ticket book sales, said Thursday that the majority of books purchased in the current drive would be used on opening day, from indications of fans securing the books of eight tickets at $6 each.

Wichitans have realized the responsibility of supporting the Spudders in the purchase of ticket books and the drive continues above expectations. A check will be made Saturday night of the drive results, Mr. Pond said.

4-H Club Contests Slated at Frederick

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., April 7.—Annual county team demonstration contests for the 4-H clubs will be held in Frederick Saturday beginning at 10 o'clock. Two girls' teams and two boys' teams will be selected to attend the state 4-H roundup at Stillwater Aug. 1-5.

Beginning at 1 p. m. high school and 4-H club model club contests will be held at the high school auditorium to determine the outstanding club in grade and high school classes.

Judges for all the events will be Mrs. Elva Duvall, assistant state 4-H club agent, Mrs. Edith Craig, Cotton county home demonstration agent, and L. Hulse, Cotton county farm agent.

PUBLICATION SOLD

NEW YORK, April 7. (UP)—Time, Inc., publishers of Time and Fortune, have announced the purchase of controlling interest in the Architectural Forum, for 40 years a leading publication in the architectural field.

Montague And Clay Poultrymen To Meet

Special to The Record News.

SUNSET, Texas, April 7.—The Montague-Clay Poultry Producers Cooperative association will meet in Bowie Saturday, April 9, to discuss plans for growing and marketing an unusually large number of turkeys here this year.

It is stated that poultry specialists are expected to be in attendance to discuss some of the best methods of turkey production, such as proper feeding and the prevention and treatment of poultry diseases.

This association was organized more than two years ago and has been gaining in some respects since its beginning. At first the membership mostly consisted of turkey producers in a few of the communities in the western and southern sections of Montague county, but began spreading to other communities and promises to become more profitable to its members as they gain in numbers and knowledge.

State Hospital Cuts Expense Per Patient

Special to The Record News.

AUSTIN, April 7.—The state hospital at Wichita Falls spent $29,740 in caring for its 1,755 patients during February, according to a report of the state board of control for the month, just completed.

The institution had 2,106 patients on its rolls, but reported an "average number of inmates present for the month" of 1,755.

It spent, in addition to support and maintenance, $10,624 on new constructions and improvement during February.

There were 208 employes on its pay roll during the month, or one for each 8.44 inmates. The pay roll for the month was $11,319, or an average of $54.42 for each employe.

Per capita cost of caring for the inmates was $16.94 for February, a reduction from the $17.85 average for six months, including February.

Eldorado Stock Show And Track Meet Planned

Special to The Record News.

ELDORADO, Okla., April 7.—Final details for holding a fat stock show and track meet here are nearing completion. The date for the event has been definitely set for Saturday, April 23. The committee on arrangement of the order of awards for livestock entries have listed awards for 17 classes.

Eldorado business firms have responded liberally in their contributions for awards for winners in the different classes. Considerable interest is being manifested in the coming event by local breeders of pure bred cattle.

NEW DIRECTORATE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. (U)—Management of Transamerica corporation, control of which was brought back to California by A. P. Giannini as a result of stockholders' vote some weeks ago, was in the hands of a new board of directors today.

Scores Injured in Rioting at Budapest

BUDAPEST, April 7. (INS)—Scores were injured in a dangerous revolutionary movement today in which workers, agitated by Communists, clashed with police.

One hundred and seventy demonstrators were arrested for participating in a parade.

The workers, active throughout the city, were in sympathy with Socialists who tried but failed to control them. The labor element joined the Socialist following yesterday's newspaper strike throughout the capital protesting government suppression of the Socialist organ Nepszava.

Police reinforcements were rushed here from the provinces.

Senate Votes $5,000,000 For Storm-Swept States

WASHINGTON, April 7. (UP)—The senate voted today a $5,000,000 relief fund for storm-swept southern states.

The money would come from the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction finance corporation and would be loaned to individuals who suffered storm damage.

Heath and Diet Advice

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"
By DR. FRANK McCOY

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy who can be addressed in care of this paper.

(Copyright, 1932, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

SUGGESTED MENUS

Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning Sunday, April 10:

Sunday

Breakfast — One coddled egg, three or four slices melba toast, dish of stewed prunes.

Lunch—Boiled potatoes, string beans, avocado salad.

Monday

Breakfast—Grapefruit as desired.

Lunch—French artichoke, cooked greens, sliced cucumbers.

Dinner—Boiled fresh beef tongue, cooked spinach and parsley, vegetable salad molded in gelatin, baked apple.

Tuesday

Breakfast—French omelet, melba toast, stewed raisins.

Lunch—One kind of acid fruit, glass of milk.

Dinner—Baked sea bass, cooked celery, string beans, salad of sliced tomatoes on lettuce, plain jell-o or jell-well.

Wednesday

Breakfast—Whole wheat muffins, peanut butter, stewed pears.

Lunch—*Salad of tomatoes with cucumber jelly.

Dinner — Roast mutton, cooked mashed turnips, asparagus salad of grated raw beets, pineapple whip.

Thursday

Breakfast—Coddled eggs, toasted cereal biscuit, stewed apricots.

Lunch—Corn, spinach, raw celery.

Dinner—Broiled steak with mushrooms, cooked greens, salad of chopped raw cabbage, small dish of junket.

Friday

Breakfast — Baked eggs, whole wheat muffins, stewed figs.

Lunch—Pint of fresh buttermilk, 10 or 12 dates.

Dinner — Broiled white fish, asparagus, salad of whole tomatoes, minced prunes in gelatin.

Saturday

Breakfast — Baked stuffed apple with cream.

Lunch—Baked eggplant, spinach, lettuce, glass of milk.

Dinner — Veal roast, vegetable souffle, salad of raw asparagus tips eaten as celery, raspberry whip.

*Salad of Tomatoes With Cucumber Jelly—Soak a tablespoonful of gelatin in a half cup of celery water (drained from cooked celery) and dissolve over the teakettle. Have ready a cupful of finely chopped cucumbers to which add a few celery seeds and a little salt. Mix with the dissolved gelatin. Dip a half dozen tomatoes into boiling water, slip off the peel, and hollow out slightly at stem end. Fill with the cucumber and gelatin mixture and place on ice to become firm. Serve the tomatoes on lettuce, with a cream cheese dressing which is made by thinning the cheese with cream to the desired consistency and adding a little chopped parsley or cress. Garnish with a bit of pimento.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Amount of Drinking Water Variable

Question — Mr. Peter G. asks: "How much water should a healthy person consume during the 24 hours without overworking the kidneys?"

Answer—The amount of water drunk during the day depends upon the amount of exercise taken, the weather, the amount of seasoning in food, and the proportion of fruits and green vegetables used. If one uses plenty of green vegetables and fruits, it is not necessary to drink much water. The kidneys eliminate only part of the water taken into the body. Much is also eliminated through the breath, skin and bowels. A person living on a well-balanced diet may get along with as little as one quart of water a day, but this may be increased to several quarts or even gallons in warm or dry weather, or if highly seasoned or concentrated foods are used. Unless there is a dropsical condition, it is safer to drink too much water than not enough.

Spots Following Pimples

Question—Stella writes: "I am pleased with the results from using your diet for acne. The red lumps have disappeared, and the face is clearer and smooth; however, purplish marks remain where the lumps were. Will they gradually disappear, or is there any treatment I could use for them?"

Answer — I am pleased to know that you have obtained such good results in overcoming your acne. The purplish marks are liable to remain for some time, until the congestion has entirely cleared up. A treatment with hot and cold wet application should be of assistance, and, if this does not entirely overcome the trouble, these spots should be treated with the ultra violet or actinic light.

Results Of School Meet Announced

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, April 7.—The all-round championship in the different classes of Wichita county schools was announced this week by Supt. B. M. Dinsmore who served as director-general. The county meet was said to have been one of the best ever held.

Literary and track and field events were run off in quick time. The results follow: Class A schools, Electra High, first, 270 points; Burkburnett High, second, 212½ points; Iowa Park High, third, 152 points; class B schools, Valley View High, first, 117¼; Clara High, second, 115; Fairview High, third, 60; Cashion High, fourth, 37½. Ward schools, Electra seventh grade ward, first, 117 points; W. F. George ward of Iowa Park, second, 112½; Waggoner ward of Electra, third, 95; Burkburnett seventh grade ward, fourth, 82½; Burkburnett Central ward, fifth, 80; Iowa Park ward, sixth, 77½; Valley View ward, seventh, 67; Thompson ward of Electra, eighth, 60; Fairview ward, ninth, 30 points.

Farmer Objects To Lien On Children

BOISE, Idaho, April 7. (US)—The puzzling question of whether children are assets to a farmer has not been decided at the office of the county agent here, but it has been quite definitely stated by the crop and feed loan committee that children may not be listed as mortgaged property.

One worried farmer, according to R. H. Davidson, Ada county agent, was much puzzled by the questions on government application blanks. He was assisted by a stenographer in recording the necessary red tape.

As security for the loan he had listed cows, horses, a derrick, and farm implements.

"All in your own name?" he was asked.

"Yes."

"Now, how many children have you?"

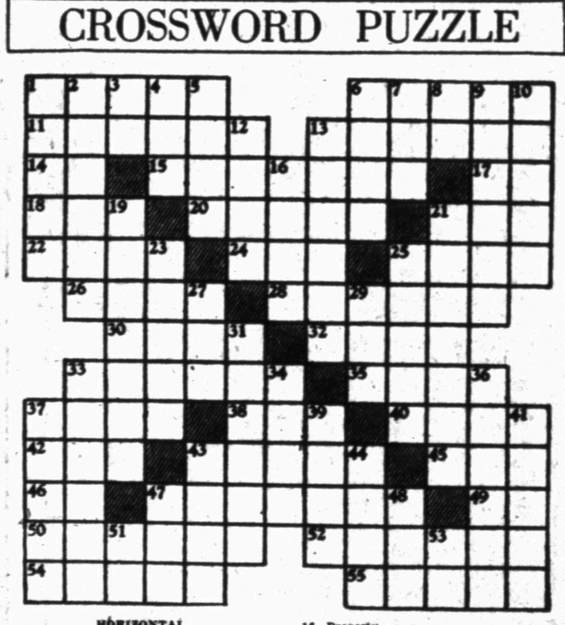

Two, but you can't mortgage them. They aren't in my name. You see, my wife was married before."

IN A HURRY

Teacher: What excuse have you for coming late?

Pupil: I had to run so fast I hadn't time to think of an excuse.—Hummel, Hamburg.

SEVEREID BEGINS LAST INSPECTION OF SPUDDER ROOKIES

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

Praises Rookies

"J. A.," a Spudder fan of Electra, writes as follows:

"I want to join Mr. Stanbrough in his praise for the rookies in the Spudder camp. I think it is very seldom that any one sees an infield of rookies like Sabine, Gragg, Clift and Garback. The outfielders and catchers also look mighty good to me, but I think the infield shows more promise than any rookie infield I have ever seen.

"What is your idea about this, Mr. Rambler?"

P. S.—Have Sabine, Gragg, Clift and Garback ever played professional baseball before?

I think you're exactly right about that infield, Mr. Electran. The only one of the four who has had professional experience is Gragg, and his experience is limited. Two years ago he reported to the camp of the Shreveport Sports, but not long after broke his leg in a camp accident. He is attempting a comeback. He is an Olney boy.

But in your enthusiasm for the infield, don't overlook the outfield prospects. Frank Jarvis and "Greenbrier" Douglas, for instance, make up a brace of hefty hitters, and both are good in the field. The catchers also deserve high praise.

We look for the whole bag and baggage of 'em to be shipped off to Fort Smith, Ark. About a year of sweeping the grassburrs off their pantlegs and they'll be ready for the big city stuff. We haven't seen the last of that bunch of rookies; not by a long shot.

Trumbull's Right, Too

Walter Trumbull, New York sports scribe, recently gave space to two products of Northwest Texas, and a number of other Texans who have loomed large in the sports world. The Northwest Texans mentioned are Sam West of Rule, and the late Tex Rickard of Henrietta. Trumbull's remarks follow:

"Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Baseball club, told me that Sam West, of Rule, Texas, not only has his best outfielder, but one of the best he had ever seen. Texas appears to be a state which turns out good outfielders. Witness, for instance, Mr. Tris Speaker.

"As a matter of fact, Texas appears to turn out major league players for all positions. There is Rogers Hornsby from Winters; Gus Mancuso from Galveston; George Watkins from Palestine; Art Whitney from San Antonio; Lloyd Brown from Beeville; Pat Caraway from Gordon; Tex Carleton from Comanche; Sam Gray from Van Alstine; Fred Marberry from Streetman, and several more. Tex Rickard always used to take pleasure in recounting to me the number of athletes Texas had produced.

"New York never will cease to miss Tex Rickard. Broadway has seen many colorful personages, but no one ever brought more color with him than Tex. And, as a promoter, New York never will see his equal."

About John McGraw

Every now and then you'll hear a fan contending that John McGraw is a better manager than Connie Mack, and that McGraw hasn't got a square deal when it comes to recognition of his services to baseball.

McGraw was 59 years old yesterday. Edward J. Nell, Associated Press sports writer, avoids an argument by putting it this way: "McGraw still shares recognition with Connie Mack as the peer of all managers."

Nell reviews McGraw's achievements briefly as follows:

"In 29 campaigns at the head of the Giants, McGraw has won 10 pennants, three world championships and finished out of the first division only twice. He alone has ever piloted a major league club to four successive pennants, 1921 through 1924.

"McGraw's ambition in life was to study and practice law, but baseball caught him in Olean, N. Y., when he was only 17 years old. That was in the old Oil and Iron league, not far from his home town, Truxton, N. Y. He was anything but a sensation. The first five days he played at third base he contributed generally to five straight defeats for Olean.

"Two years ago, when McGraw, now part owner as well as manager of the Giants, signed a new five-year contract, his annual salary was reported at $65,000."

Depression Chant

Not meaning any harm or anything, but how's this for an opening day slogan:

"Let's you and him go, but not on my dough."

Busy editor, just notified an overtime parking slip was dangling in his car: "Tell the chief I had a flat tire and COULDN'T move my car outa there!"

Suspicious friend: "Who was the flat tire?"

RAIN SAVES CHISOX

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 7. (AP)—Rain stepped in to save the Chicago White Sox from what looked like a second straight defeat at the hands of the Louisville Colonels today.

The Colonels were leading, 4 to 3, with "Sad Sam" Jones as their pitching victim when rain stopped the game at the start of the third.

PHILS WIN TITLE

PHILADELPHIA, April 7. (AP)—The Philadelphia Nationals put the city series championship in the bag today by defeating the Athletics, 3 to 2 in a 10-inning game.

With one game to be played, the series stands at three victories for the Phils and one for the A's. The Phils have thus taken the city series for three straight years.

CUBS RAINED OUT

KANSAS CITY, April 7. (AP)—Wet grounds forced the Chicago Cubs and Kansas City Blues to cancel the first game of their final tune-up series today, the first time this spring that Rogers Hornsby's men have been rained out.

FLOCK TO BE FARMED OUT

High Wind Interferes With Thursday's Workout

With the opening of the Texas league race only five days away, Manager Hank Severeid yesterday collected his baseball troops at Spudder park after the Oklahoma invasion, and began a last inspection of the rookies.

In two or three days a flock of the younger players who have shown real promise will be farmed out to lower class clubs. Eight or nine are expected to be sent out for seasoning, either to Rock Island of the Mississippi Valley league or Fort Smith, Ark., of the Western association. One player, Frank Jarvis, outfielder, already has been assigned the Fort Smith club.

Yesterday's workout was cut short by a high wind that seemed to follow the team home from Frederick, Okla., where the Spudders and Des Moines Demons of the Western league split a series Tuesday and Wednesday. Starting at noon, the squad went through a routine batting and fielding drill for a little over two hours, however, and no great harm was done.

Weather permitting, a camp game may be staged today, Severeid said. On Saturday the team renews warfare with the Demons, this time on home soil. Games will be played Saturday and Sunday afternoons, to bring down the curtain on the short exhibition season for the local team. Monday and Tuesday then will remain for last minute preparations for the opening game of the season, which the Spudders play at Shreveport, La. Two days later the local opening game will be staged at Athletic park with the same team.

Dick Fiorrid, slim right-handed pitcher, put in his appearance yesterday. Fiorrid, with Fred Vincent, also a holdover pitcher, trained with the Browns in Florida. Vincent had not arrived late Thursday but was expected momentarily.

Fiorrid reported in the best of condition, physically and mentally, and expected to be in uniform today.

BUCS WIN

GALVESTON, April 7. (AP)—While Cromer and Thurman of the Galveston Buccaneers were holding the Mount Belliville Gushers to a trio of hits here today, Galveston made six hits count for as many runs and won over the strong semi-pro team, 6-1. Cromer pitched the first six innings with only one single being registered off him.

The Bucs scored runners from second and third on a squeeze play in the fourth inning when Molesworth laid down a perfect bunt.

I. Imery, centerfield for the Gushers, pulled down two long drives by Rye and Riley respectively that would have ordinarily gone for extra base blows.

TRIBE GETS FITZGERALD

SAN ANTONIO, April 7. (AP)—Displaying their best form of the season, the San Antonio Indians shut out the Texas Chiropractic college Hawks 11 to 0 in League park Thursday afternoon. The Tribe showed an improved batting punch with John Zaeptel leading the stickwork with three hits, including a triple and driving in three runs, while Ray Flaskamper got a triple and single to send four runners across the plate.

Leo Najo stole four sacks and also helped at the bat with a timely hit to drive in a run, while he played a brilliant game in right field.

Howard Fitzgerald, center fielder, for a number of years with Wichita Falls, has been signed, and Ducky Scofield, shortstop from the Kansas City Blues, will arrive here Friday night, completing the team.

BEAUMONT EXPORTERS

BEAUMONT, Texas, April 7. (AP)—The Beaumont Exporters and Importers went nine innings to a 2-2 deadlock this afternoon, Manager Baker calling it off because a two-hour workout had preceded the game. Of best cheer to the railbirds was the pitching of Luke Hamlin who went six scoreless innings allowing four hits. He was followed by Dick Schuis who was touched for three hits and two runs in three innings.

Friday the Exporters will take a routine workout before detraining for New Orleans Friday where they play two week-end games.

HOUSTON BUFFS

HOUSTON, April 7. (AP)—The Houston Buffaloes of the Texas league in a practice game here today beat the Paynes, 8-4. Overgross pitched for the winners and Moss for the losers. Joe Medwick slapped out a homer over the left field wall for the winners.

The practice series will be resumed Friday afternoon at Buff stadium, with Moss and Payne the opposing pitchers. The first game of the Texas league season will be played here Wednesday night.

CATS 10, PITTSBURGH 9

FORT WORTH, April 7. (AP)—Ulmont Baker's single to left with Pete McClanahan on third in the 10th inning enabled Fort Worth of the Texas league to defeat Pittsburgh of the National league 10-9 here this afternoon.

The Panthers led the Pirates the majority of the way, getting off to a flying start off Ervin Brame, who started the major leaguers. The Cats collected 20 hits against 14 for the visitors.

SAINTS 16, STEERS 4

DALLAS, April 7. (AP)—Scoring four runs in the sixth inning to break a 2 to 2 tie, the St. Paul Saints of the American association defeated the Dallas Steers of the Texas league here today, 16 to 4. It was the final game of the season between these two teams and left Dallas one up.

Dallas turned in a poor defensive game. Wild throws by McConathy and Moody, recruit pitchers, allowed four of St. Paul's runs. St. Paul collected 18 hits off Murray, McConathy and Moody, one a home run by Todt.

The Steers will play the Pittsburgh Pirates here tomorrow. Today's game closed St. Paul's training work in Texas.

Electra Tigers Heavily Favored To Win Vernon Track Meet Today

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, April 7.—With Electra's Tigers, track champions for the past dozen years of district No. 4 heavily favored, the first annual track and field meet of schools in football district No. 2 will be held in Vernon Friday. Five schools offering an entry list of approximately 75 cinder path artists will compete in what is expected to be one of the fastest meets in this section this season.

The five schools entered are Electra, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Childress and Quanah. The cream of talent in this section will be seen in action at the meet.

Entries announced by all schools except Childress follow:

120-Yard High Hurdles—Rodawalt, Mogle and Smith of Electra; Smith, Paul and Wininger, Wichita Falls; Wilson, Jones and Lockard of Vernon.

100-Yard Dash—Parnell, Lane and Warden, Electra; E. Gregory, Fulson and Marsalis, Quanah; Warren, Creecy and Campbell, Wichita Falls; Thompson, Garner and Donahue, Vernon.

220-Yard Low Hurdles—Rodawalt, Smith and M. Stroud of Electra; Jones and Gossett, Quanah; Creecy and Paul of Wichita Falls; Garner and Wilson, Vernon.

440-Yard Dash—Parnell, Orr and Byrd, Electra; F. Gregory, Jones and Mills, Quanah; Smith, Wichita Falls; Lockard and Wheeler of Vernon.

One-Mile Run—Cloniger, O. Stroud and Ellis, Electra; N. Page and Wilson, Quanah; Humble and Holmes, Wichita Falls; Slaugenhop and Coleman, Vernon.

Discus—Koerth, Mogle and Lambdin, Electra; L. Page and Rogers of Quanah; Gorin, Reeves and Daugherty, Wichita Falls; Jones and Colwell of Vernon.

Shotput—Lambdin, Koerth and Ellis of Electra; Rogers and Smith of Quanah; Reeves, Gorin and Daugherty, Wichita Falls; Colwell and Jones, Vernon.

Javelin—Ellis, Cloniger and Lambdin, Electra; Smith and Rogers of Quanah; Gorin, Reeves and Daugherty, Wichita Falls; Miller and Jones of Vernon.

Pole Vault—Smith, Cloniger and Foy of Electra; Jones and Smith, Quanah; Nosy and Janeway, Wichita Falls; Miller, Vernon.

Broad Jump—Rodawalt, Lane and Byrd of Electra; L. Gregory, Fulson and Rogers, Quanah; James, Daugherty and Holmes, Wichita Falls; Thompson of Vernon.

High Jump—Rodawalt, Byrd and Hogle, Electra; Riley of Quanah; Meredith, James and Daugherty, Wichita Falls; Lockard, Wilson and Mudgett, Vernon.

Mile Relay—Electra (Rodawalt, Parr, Parnell and Cloniger); Quanah (N. Page, F. Gregory, Gossett, Jones or Mills); Wichita Falls (Warren, Daugherty, Paul and Smith); Vernon (Garner or Donahue, Thompson, Wheeler and Lockard).

'Long George' Kelly Returns to Majors

NEW YORK, April 7. (AP)—Once again "Long George" Kelly, once the idol of the Polo grounds, is coming back to the major leagues to plug a temporary hole at first base.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, worried over an operation on Del Bissonette's ankle that will incapacitate the club's regular first baseman during the early part of the National league season, announced today that Kelly had been purchased from Minneapolis and would be on hand for the opening game of the season with Boston Tuesday.

Kelly, now 36 years old and a former star with the Giants, was the only best first baseman available when the Dodgers failed to induce the Cardinals, Giants or Washington to loose a man capable of filling Bissonette's shoes. Brooklyn will deliver a pitcher and an unannounced cash sum within two weeks for Kelly, who had refused to sign with Minneapolis because of contract differences.

Kelly, who hit .328 for the Giants in 1922, his best year in the majors, has a lifetime batting average of .299. Although he never hit hard in four world series with the Giants in 1921, 1922, 1923 and 1924, his fielding always was good. He clouted American association pitching for an average of .320 in 185 games last season.

BRAVES 16, SENS 9

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—The Boston Braves pounded big Fred Marberry all over the lot today, nicking him for 13 hits in five innings to defeat the Washington Senators, 10 to 9.

Alvin Crowder held the Braves to two hits in four innings, while the Senators with 16 safeties, found Zachary and Brandt for eight each.

HITS TWO HOMERS

NORFOLK, Va., April 7. (AP)—Hack Wilson, playing only three innings, hit two home runs as the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated Norfolk of the Eastern league, 13 to 4, in their final southern exhibition game today. Tomorrow they open a three-game series with the Yankees at Ebbets' field.

Record Crop Of Slogans Received From Lady Fans

The slogan crop increased with a leap yesterday, when a total of 29 was submitted by women of Wichita Falls and surrounding towns competing in the slogan contest to boost attendance at the Spudders' opening game here. The best of the lot was held to be that of Mrs. Everett Hughes, 1905 Monroe street. It is reprinted above. In accordance with the plans of the contest, Mrs. Hughes, by submitting the day's best slogan, will receive a box seat ticket to the opening game.

The contest, which opened last Tuesday, closes Sunday at 6 p. m. A box seat ticket will be awarded the author of each day's best slogan, and the one selected from the six best as the official Spudder slogan will win for its author a whole box of six seats at the opening game. Slogans should be submitted in writing, and addressed to the sports department of this newspaper. They will not be taken over the telephone.

The interest in the contest shown by out-of-town women was an encouraging feature yesterday. A good many of the slogans were received from surrounding towns.

The contest is restricted to women.

Owl Hurler Downs Bruins With No-Hit, No-Run Job

HOUSTON, April 7. (AP)—Big "Smokey" Klaerner, 200-pound fireball hurler and premier right-hander of the Southwest conference entered baseball's hall of fame here today when he pitched the Rice Owl nine into the conference leadership with a brilliant no-hit, no-run victory over the Baylor Bears, 4 to 0.

The burly Fredericksburg Dutchman held helpless Morley Jennings' Baylor sluggers from Waco, the Bears not even getting the semblance of a hit in nine innings of futile swinging at the old agate. But 35 men faced Klaerner during the game. He struck out eight men, walked five and three got on base by errors, Ken Lee making two of them and "Pud" Hammett the other. Klaerner was invincible with his fast ball which the Baylor hitsmiths found hard to follow on a dark day.

Alabama cities will be host to three major golf tournaments.

MALONE NINE BOASTS POWER

Boss Robertson's Team Fast In Field

(This is the third of a series of articles dealing with pennant prospects of clubs in the Commercial league, local sandlot organization.)

By MACK TURNER

Skipper Sammy Robertson, boss of the Malone Beauty shop baseball nine of the Commercial league, is ready for the opening gun of the season Monday afternoon. Robertson has lined up the limit of 16 players and has formed one of the fastest clubs in the loop. He has one of the smoothest fielding clubs in the league and it is braced with plenty of power at the bat and welded together with a fair sprinkling of veteran stars.

The Malone club last year lost the playoff with the fast and hard-hitting Presbyterians, and this year are hoping for revenge over that aggregation. Eight of last year's team will be back in the fold this year, but only about five are expected to see much service. The club will take on just about the pick of the far-famed Texas Electric Service company Frigidaires. Three of that club have been drafted over to the Malone nine this year and much is expected of each of them.

Pigg Behind Plate

Dewey Pigg, the Texas Electric utility workhorse of last season, has been settled down behind the plate with the protector, mask and mitt. Last year the Electric company star never had a chance to hit his stride for jumping from one post to another, but getting settled down should help him this season.

Grady Ragsdale, elongated first sacker, is scheduled to hold down this post this season for Malones. Ragsdale was a whale of a first sacker several years ago around Burkburnett and has performed in this city for two or three years with various bank teams.

Manager Robertson deserts the mask and mitt duties this season to seek glory on the infield and plans to play at second base. Robertson is of the hustling type of player and his presence in the infield should go a long ways to steadying the inner defense.

At shortstop Robertson will count on Van Gifford, another old timer who once performed with Dimmock Plumbers back in the days when that organization sported one of the fastest teams in the city. Van Gifford is a speedy infielder and a clouter of some fame.

Ray at Third

At third base will be one of the holdovers from last year's team in Pat Ray. Ray is a steady and dependable fielder of ground balls and a sure and deadly hitter in the pinches. Ray last year was one of the outstanding third basemen in the league.

In the outfield, Skipper Robertson believes he has one of the best group of fly shaggers in the loop in Joe Deal, Jack Doyle, and "Too Tall" Wooten. All three of these men are excellent fly catchers and all are hard hitters. Joe Deal, last year was quite a sensation with the Noble-Little club and was considered one of the best hitters in the league. More than one club last winter sought the services of this star after the close of the season and Malones was lucky enough to land him.

Great Fielder

"Too Tall" Wooten, the hard-hitting Texas Electric star last year rounds out the outfield. Wooten is one of the greatest fielders in the league and a hitter who hits them far and often. He had a great season last year and hopes for an even greater one this season.

"Robertson's two-man pitching staff ranks with the best in the league this season. Both Everett Blue and Harry Geyer are veteran pitchers and both had great seasons last year. Blue was the ace of the Frigidaires and won far more than his share of games. Geyer had the greatest year of his career, hanging up a record of more than 200 strike-outs during the 1931 season. This record will very likely stand for many a day in the Commercial league.

Marion Barrett, last year of the Frigidaires, Stanley Herring, Andy Taylor, Hal Basham, Orville Malone and Hershall Johnson are all in line for utility posts. Johnson is one of the greatest second basemen to ever grace the Wichita Falls sandlots and in the days when he played with Continental and Texhoma Refinery pennant winners was the true sensation. His work with Hood Kizziar on double plays very likely still holds the City league record.

FLOCK BEATS YANKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 7. (AP)—Lefty Gomez weakened in the ninth inning and the Columbus Redbirds of the American association won their second straight game from the New York Yankees today. The score was 5 to 4.

Browns Win Final Tilt With Nashville

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 7. (AP)—A continuation of the recent selling movement was reflected by a further moderate decline in cotton here today.

An early setback of 8 to 10 points carried the market into new low ground for the life of the present contracts. The close was steady at net declines of one to six points.

The opening was steady at a decline of two to five points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and reports of continued favorable weather for farm work in the south. The market was said to include a little selling through houses with Liverpool and Japanese connections.

The lowest levels of the day were reached in the late trading when October sold off to 6.35 or about 124 points below the high price reached on the February advance. The closing rallies of about three to six points from the lowest, were attributed to increased covering and trade buying.

Some southern selling was reported during the day, but it was not particularly in evidence the local spot interests reported a continued steady basis in the south. A private crop report pointed to a reduction of 7.3 per cent in acreage, and weather reported indicated continued favorable conditions for farm work in the south.

Trade interests were credited with buying on scale down orders but the demand otherwise was said to be chiefly in the way of covering. Liverpool cables reported continental and Japanese selling in that market and said the cloth market in Manchester was unsettled with buyers cautious. Exports today 23,212 making 7,065,914 so far this season.

Futures closed steady, 1-6 lower. Spot steady; middling 6.05.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, April 7. (AP)—The cotton market was rather erratic today in fairly active trading and closed with the general marketshowing net declines for the day of 2@7 points.

The market experienced an irregular but active opening. Liverpool cables came in 1@ penny points worse than due.

In the morning May broke through the six-cent line to 5.96, July dropped to 6.14 and Oct. 6.35, or 9 to 11 points below the early highs and 7@ points below the previous close.

There was a slight rally around noon but prices soon eased off again and in the early afternoon made new lows at 5.95 for May, 6.12 for July and 6.35 for Oct. 9@12 points below the highs and 6@9 points below the previous close.

After ruling erratic most of the afternoon within the previous range, the market rallied near the end in sympathy with stocks and on Washington advices that wet plank would likely be inserted in one of the party platforms. July rallied to 6.17 and Oct. to 6.41, up 5@7 points from the lows. May closed only 2 points to 5.97.

Liverpool is due tomorrow on New Orleans 1@2 penny points up.

Port receipts 9,162, for week 81,055, for season 9,208,645; last season 8,556,275. Exports 20,212, for week 149,734; for season 6,935,724, last season 5,604,443. Port stocks 4,327,985, last year 3,727,378. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 129,552, last year 74,797. Spot sales at southern markets 5,416, last year 5,587.

Futures closed steady at net declines of 2 to 7 points:

Government Bonds in Strong Demand In Sharp Contrast to Other Issues

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, April 7. (US)—United States government bonds were in persistent demand today while the remainder of the bond list dropped to a new low average level.

Some of the short-term, tax-exempt government or treasury issues attained new peaks. During this paradoxical performance in the bond market, stocks were moving irregularly without any definite trend for the day. At the close the stock averages were modestly lower, but a few issues were able to oppose the trend for the day at least.

It was noticeable, however, that the issues showing gains were those generally presumed to harbor relatively sizeable short accounts. The stock exchange disclosure of an increased bear market during March exercised little more than temporary influence on the market, it being recognized that in the absence of individual stock positions, the aggregate has but minor value to the speculative fraternity.

It is only fair to report that the tense feelings of the preceding days of this week was somewhat relieved today, but there was still evident a skeptical disposition in important quarters. With the bringing out into the open of heretofore delicate situations, the main picture seems less frightening, but the final stage of solving any of these troublous situations always is aggravating to the market as a whole.

Throughout the day there were reports of a "settlement" of the Insull problems which have been overhanging for a long while. Actually, nothing was revealed on the outcome of the bankers' conferences with Insull, now in New York, beyond confirming the disclosure exclusively made here weeks ago that Owen D. Young has been acting as unofficial arbiter. However, it is now widely recognized that the Insull affair may have wide repercussions, even into national politics and for that matter is being handled very considerately.

The whole matter has reached the stage where decisions no longer can be much delayed. The influential Morgan partner whose departure for Europe was scheduled Wednesday evening has delayed sailing until tomorrow night.

Waiting for the Insull decision, the market had to content itself with straightening out technical conditions. In a few stocks short-covering was sufficient to overcome offerings for the day and these shares closed higher.

Telephone stood out prominently in this respect, yet nothing more than bear buying was reported. The issue closed up 1⅝. Steel common was another issue favored by such demand. The bulls in Allied Chemical attempted to stir up interest on the long side, but the market seems to sense overhanging stock here.

American Can was heavily hit and dropped off more than two points. The bear selling seemed to shift into this stock when other leaders firmed.

Kresge was a disturbing element, breaking three points net, and causing disquieting rumors. The company's president denied anything wrong with the business or any "reason or warrant for any excitement or alarm" with the company as a merchandising organization. As a matter of fact the market view of Kresge reflected only in part the merchandising end of the business. What has for some occasioned considerable comment and uneasiness was the knowledge, disclosed in the annual report, that the company held 381,000 shares of its own common stock at a cost price of $9,251,000, which is well over double its present value. Such stock dealings by any company have always occasioned nervousness and Kresge is no exception. There was some speculative buying of the stock when it broke under 10, on the theory that the sharp decline had terminated for the time being at least necessitous selling.

Preferred shares continued to slump, General Motors $5 preferred sold down to a new low at 67. Electric Power and Light $6 and $7 preferred stocks sold down to 21¼ and 22, respectively. The Electric Power issues, of course were reflecting the nervousness over the company's bank loans. As a matter of fact, bank loans today are more influential a factor in the markets than almost any other single element.

Union Pacific preferred, a $4 oldline investment favorite, got down to 57¾, off 7¼ points net on a single sale. American Sugar preferred sold at 60. This is a $7 stock.

With bonds and preferred issues still under pressure, investment interest in common shares necessarily must be limited to speculation.

There was some covering in stocks on the theory that any "good news" out of the Insull conferences might inaugurate a rally, but beyond such buying the market was still dominated by technical considerations.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, April 7. (AP)—Fair demand continued today on the cash grain market here. Offerings were light.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis carloads, freight paid, delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat, No. 1 ordinary hard milling 57½@58½c; No. 1 hard 13 per cent protein 59@59c; 14 per cent 60@61c; 15 per cent 62@63c; 16 per cent 64@65c. Barley, No. 2 nominally 41½@42½c; sorghums, No. 2 milo per 100 lbs. 71@73c; No. 2 kaffir 72@74c.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn, No. 2 mixed 42@43c; No. 2 white 42½@43½c; No. 2 yellow 48@49c.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats, No. 3 red 25½@26½c.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 7. (AP)—Despite widespread belief that houses with farm board connections were selling on price bulges in wheat, grain markets went upward anew today.

Crop reports from the Southwest and West proved increasingly bullish, and one authoritative unofficial estimate put the Texas Panhandle 1932 probable wheat harvest at not more than 50 per cent of last year's total.

Wheat closed nervous, ⅜@⅝c above yesterday's finish. Corn ⅛@¼c off to a shade advance, oats ⅛c down to ¼c up, and provisions varying from 2c decline to 7c gain.

From the outset, wheat values displayed a tendency to climb. Giving further incentives to purchase were predictions of frost tonight in Kansas, together with word that freezing temperatures prevailed over the Texas Panhandle accompanied by extremely high north winds.

Temporarily reactions from upturns in wheat prices accompanied heavy selling which developed on advances and which in one case tumbled the market down more than a cent from an early top.

Unsteadiness of securities was also a handicap to wheat bulls. An opposite factor, though, was attention given to likelihood that the department of agriculture forecast to be issued in Washington at 3 p. m. tomorrow would reflect some portion of recent crop losses.

Corn and oats chiefly followed wheat market changes. Country offerings of corn were not large, but shipping demand here was slow.

Provisions reflected the uncertain course of hog values.

Closing indemnities: Wheat, May 55⅝@¾, 58⅝@½; July 58⅛@⅝, 60⅝@½; Sept. 60⅛, 62½@⅝; corn, May, 34⅝@35, 35⅝; July 38⅝, 39@39⅛; Sept. 41, offers.

PIT NOTES

CHICAGO, April 7. (US)—Wheat traders expect that the government crop report to be issued after the close tomorrow will show substantially the same condition and yield as the average of the private estimates. Figures of the local crop experts averaged 502,000,000 bushels for indicated yield and 79 per cent for condition as of April 1.

The government crop report is based on conditions as of April 1, but the trade believes that considerable deterioration has taken place in western sections of the belt since that time. Also a great many of the complaints of winter kill have been received since that date from sections that had previously indicated little change.

Argentine wheat is still the cheapest, c. i. f. Liverpool, says Broomhall. Farm board offers are next in line at 61⅝c for No. 2 hard, then No. 3 Manitobas from Vancouver at 64⅛c and then western Australian varieties at 64⅝c.

The first Vandusen-Harrington crop report of the season failed to substantiate recent private reports of bullish conditions in the Northwest. It says that general soil conditions this spring are much better than a year ago due to abundant snowfall and even the areas most affected by the drouth have sufficeint moisture now to start the crop and germinate the seed. Further, the report says, there will probably be little if any reduction in seeded area.

PIPE LINE TAX TO BE FOUGHT

Meeting Called at Tulsa To Protest Enactment

TULSA, Okla., April 7. (AP)—The general board of directors of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association was called today to meet here April 15 and discuss plans for protesting the enactment of an eight per cent tax on the transportation of oil by pipe line.

The association complained the tax would be too heavy a burden on the midcontinent oil industry and would offset any advantage which might accrue from enactment of the import tax on crude and refined products.

A part of the revenue bill, the eight per cent tax, was passed by the national house of representatives and now is before the senate finance committee.

Harry H. Smith, association secretary, said a hearing before the committee to protest the tax would be asked.

The association complained that "the bill does not levy upon water or rail transportation of oil and consequently those regions, such as the midcontinent field, will suffer discrimination by reason of the added cost of the raw material laid down at eastern and northern refineries."

A statement issued today added "the tax will not apply to oil shipped by water from foreign countries and its assessment against the movement of domestic oil largely offsets any possible benefit from the import tax contained in the bill."

Henderson Murder Case Progress as State Rests

HENDERSON, Texas, April 7. (AP)—The state rested today in the murder trial of Bascom Owens, accused of shooting Rube Barker south of Henderson Dec. 19 and defense testimony was begun.

Deputy Sheriff L. W. Jackson testified for the state that Owens had threatened to kill Barker several weeks before the shooting. The defense objected to the admission of this testimony, claiming the alleged threat was made too long before the killing to have any bearing on it. The court overruled the objection.

Miss Emma Lou Lavender, fiancee of the defendant, said Rube Barker told her he was going to kill the defendant because of a disagreement over a card game.

Former Wichita Man Victim of Bandit Attack

V. R. Huffines, former resident of Wichita Falls, sustained several fractures of his jaw when struck by bandits Wednesday at Gladewater. The robbers took his watch and $70 in cash, relatives here were informed Thursday.

FREED IN FRAUD CASE

ENID, Okla., April 7. (UP)—Howard Mitchell, charged with using the mails to defraud, was acquitted by a federal court jury here today.

Mitchell operated the International Investors syndicate trust in Oklahoma City and Enid in 1930.

NEWS of the FIELD

NORTH OF NEWCASTLE

Stuckey and associates No. 1 Belknap, located in the northeast corner of section 8, T. E. & L. survey, in the shallow field north of Newcastle in north Young county, are rigged up and will spud in in the next few days.

MONTAGUE COUNTY COMPLETION

The Bridwell Oil company drilled out the plug from the sand at 1251 feet in No. 2 J. Brown survey in the Nocona pool of Montague county and the well is rated at 125 barrels. The well in the north extension to the productive area is 400 feet to the west of No. 1 which came in a few months ago with an initial production of 200 barrels daily.

COOKE COUNTY WILDCAT

The Monroe Petroleum company's No. 1 Joe Paulter, a rotary test located in the southeast corner of the Lewis Michaels survey, abstract 747, northeast of Marysville in Cooke county, has spudded in.

DOWN FOR REPAIRS

Thursday night the Primrose Refining company's plant in north Wichita Falls shut down stills for the first time during a four-year stretch. The plant before starting operations again will replace old boilers with new ones and also make considerable improvement in a number of its departments.

NEARING THE SAND

Lindsay Drilling company No. 2 L. F. Wilson, located in section 119, A. T. N. C. L. survey, in the Chalk Hill pool Archer county, is nearing the pay depth and drilling at 1930 feet.

ANOTHER SKIMMER

The Jacobs Oil and Gas company is erecting a small gasoline plant on its properties located northeast of Newcastle in Young county. The plant with a limited capacity will secure its supply of crude from the Jacobs properties and other nearby leases.

YOUNG COUNTY TEST

Bolling and associates No. 2 Brown in section 290, T. E. & L. survey, three miles east of True townsite in Young county, and a north offset to No. 1 producer, is feeling for the usual 570-foot sand.

Two Prisoners Slain In Penitentiary Fight

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 7. (UP)—Two men were stabbed to death and a third was critically wounded as they struggled today before 15 fellow prisoners in the Western penitentiary.

The dead were Michael Ferraro, 22; Martin Connelly, 29, both of Pittsburgh.

James Gordon, 33, Philadelphia, who attacked the others with a knife, was wounded critically by Connelly.

The affray resulted from a long feud between the prisoners, Warden Stanley P. Ashe said.

Death Claims Father Of Former Wichitan

PURCHASES OF GAS INCREASE

Jobbers Boost Orders To Refineries

TULSA, Okla., April 7.—News of the impending crude oil price advanced, effective April 1, caused jobbers in the Central Mississippi valley states to sharply increase their purchases and resulted in a steady growth in shipments of gasoline from Mid-Continent refineries.

During the week ended April 2, Mid-Continent refiners shipped 7,081,000 gallons more of motor fuel, an 8.9 per cent, than for the previous week while production declined 10 per cent and stocks were drawn on to the extent of 6.2 per cent.

The analysis of refinery operations for the province as made by Platt's Oilgram and National Petroleum News reveals the refinery situation in a very healthy state of affairs.

Crude oil runs to stills fell off 25,331 barrels, as follows:

HART OPENS LECTURE SERIES

Educator Warns Against Too Much 'Book Study'

Dr. Joseph K. Hart of Vanderbilt university opened the second annual series of open forum lectures under auspices of city and county teachers Thursday night at the Junior college auditorium with a plea for educators to develop educational systems by actual contact with the subject rather than through constant book study and lectures.

Dr. Hart will speak at the Junior college assembly period at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning, at Iowa Park at a teachers' conference at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and again at the Junior college auditorium at 8 o'clock Friday night on the subject, "Communism, Fascism and Democracy."

500 Attend Lecture

More than 500 citizens, teachers of Wichita Falls and neighboring cities, attended the lecture Thursday night. Dr. Hart opened the lecture on "What Is in the Mind of Youth Today?" with an illustration of a conflict in the minds of leading educators as to development of modern youth.

"Young people are interested in four major questions, which if answered properly by the right kind of training, will reach the principal end sought by instructors," Dr. Hart said.

The four major questions were listed by the speaker as— (1) A chance for work at a selected vocation, (2) A sensible solution of sex interest, (3) A desire for responsibility as a citizen of the community, and (4) An explanation of the ultimate meaning of life. "Youth thinks seriously along the lines of these four problems during the period from 16 to 18 years of age," Dr. Hart declared.

"If the youth's training does not offer him the right answer to the problems he will get wrong interpretations for other sources," the speaker said in declaring that youth needs experience in actual doing rather than through book knowledge.

Denmark Cited

Dr. Hart cited Denmark as the leading example of the proper educational system built on the aim of answering the four problems, and stated that these people have less crime, trouble in daily living, and difficulties in a satisfied working class than any other nation.

"The main meaning of work is not industrial and economic, but is educational development," Dr. Hart said in closing.

Dr. Hart will fill two speaking engagements in Wichita Falls Saturday at a breakfast at the Wichita club at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and again at the Junior college at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Taxpayers Association Holds Brief Meeting

Members of the Wichita County Taxpayers association to the number of about 100 held a brief meeting in the 78th district courtroom Thursday night without transacting any business.

Owing to the absence of Judge John C. Kay, the chairman, the meeting was called to order by Charles Quarnstrom. Judge A. H. Carrigan, who was chairman of a committee which drew up resolutions previously adopted by the association, announced that in the near future delegates will be selected to represent the Wichita county association in a state meeting. Perfection of a state taxpayers' organization, in order to unify demands for tax relief, will be necessary to obtain the passage of any relief legislation, he said.

After adjournment of the association's meeting, Mr. Quarnstrom called another meeting of those present in order to discuss candidates for public office and present office holders.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

ATLANTA, Ga., April 7. (US)—Six prisoners serving long terms on felony convictions escaped from the Fulton county chain gang today, after sawing their cell bars. One convict, Lonnie Davis, was shot and seriously wounded in his dash for liberty

CITY 'ADOPTS' 1-POUND BABY

Smallest Infant in World Gaining Strength

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 7 (UP)—Baby St. John, challenger for the world's flyweight title at birth, changed his diet today.

The one-pound son of Mr. and Mrs. William St. John began feeding on his mother's milk. Every two hours he gets 12 drops, administered through an eye dropper. Since his birth Monday he had been fed sugar, water and cow's milk.

The relish with which he receives the milk, wrinkling his doll face in satisfaction and smacking his lips, was interpreted as evidence of a strengthened body and a stout heart.

Nestling in his improvised crib, a cardboard box which once contained a dozen cans of coffee, the puckered bit of humanity gave every evidence of a fighting spirit which doctors said should bring him victorious through his struggle for life.

Gains Strength

He was sound and symmetrical in every respect when, after a Sunday outing, Mr. and Mrs. St. John suddenly and unexpectedly found themselves parents a few hours later. While his strength has increased steadily, the infant added no weight on the sugar-water-milk diet.

The father is 18 years old, the mother, 17. They have been married about a year. Their son's worldly advent was two and a half months earlier than was expected.

The unheralded arrival threw the cottage in the suburban district in the wildest confusion. Those slight provisions the young mother had made for an average sized youngster were all for naught, as only the blanket would fit.

Coffee-Box Crib

The coffee-box crib was the first detail. For a mattress the proud father, uncles and grandparents lined the box with hot water bags. There, swathed in countless depths of covers, baby St. John has waged his valiant fight. His 14 inches, his fists as large as his six-foot father's thumbnail, his wail described as that of a lost kitten, gave the miniature world an air of unreality.

The St. John home was deluged with callers. Kansas City adopted its prize infant, and thronged to his sanctuary to pass homage. The telephone buzzed interminable, occasionally bringing a tiny cry from the crib.

Uncle Harold appointed himself a reception committee, belligerantly explaining that his nephew wasn't to be hampered by the curiosity of the public.

Red-Haired

It was Uncle Harold, a carpenter with biceps several times as large as his nephew's body, who made the startling discovery that Baby St. John would be red-haired—if the almost imperceptible fuzz was a true indication.

"And he'll win," the uncle proclaimed. "There's a red-headed strain in our family, and he'll probably live to lick any of us."

Uncle Harold, Uncle Richard, Grandmother St. John and the father take turns serving the child. Their comparatively gigantic fingers have mastered the trick of pulling down the tiny chin and letting the dozen drops of nourishment trickle into the voracious stomach.

The young mother is making a rapid recovery.

"Name?" repeated Uncle Harold. "Yes, we've thought about a name, but any name would be too big for him yet. We will wait a while."

Wichita Students Invited to Enter Music Festival

Seven young musicians of Wichita Falls have been invited to enter the Tri-State Music festival to be held in the near future at Amarillo, according to Paul Seeds. The young Wichitans will represent the Panhandle Music Teachers association in the tri-state contest.

The students are Dick Seeds, G. W. McReynolds, J. G. Dixon, Bobby Burns, Billie Ralph Hyer, Wayne McReynolds and Dennis O'Brien. Each of the seven placed at the recent Panhandle Music Festival at Amarillo, with three first places, two seconds, and two thirds.

The tri-state festival will include the pick of musicians of the Panhandle, South Plains, East New Mexico and Southern Oklahoma teachers associations and winners will be eligible for the national contest in May at Marion, Ind. Judges for the contest will be Frank A. Beach, dean of the music department at Kansas State Teachers college; Horace Jones, of the University of Colorado music department; and Clarence Burg, of the Oklahoma City university.

Convict Stabs Two Prisoners to Death

PITTSBURGH, April 7. (INS)—Two western penitentiaty convicts were stabbed to death by a third convict during the morning exercise period today. The killer suffered only slight wounds inflicted by the men as they fought for their lives.

The dead were Martin Connelly, 28, and Michael Ferraro, 21, both of Pittsburgh. The slayer is James Gordon, Philadelphia, jail-breaker and general "bad" man. Gordon attacked the two men without warning and apparently without motive.

Long Introduces Bill Against Trade Restraints

WASHINGTON, April 7. (INS)—A new anti-trust law, drastically outlawing all restraints of trade and monopolies, was introduced in the senate today by Senator Long, Democrat of Louisiana.

He declared he was trying to restore the original anti-trust law which, he said, had been "nullified" by decisions of the U. S. supreme court. His proposed draft would prohibit all monopolies and bar the courts from using the "common law rule of reason" in applying the law.

House Bill May Repeal Railroad 'Revolving Fund' to Aid Weak Lines

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Striking out the "heart" of the government's system of regulating the railroads, the house interstate commerce committee today voted to report a bill repealing the so-called recapture clause of the transportation act of 1920 and relegating to incidental importance the factor of valuation as a basis for rate-making.

Providing for retroactive repeal of the recapture clause embraced in section 15A, the bill if enacted will save railroads from turning excess profits aggregating hundreds of millions of dollars into a revolving fund for aid to weak carriers.

Under interstate commerce commission estimates, $361,000,000 is due the revolving fund from excess earnings of railroads during boom times.

In the long series of hearings before the commission and in court proceedings, carriers have challenged these claims.

Passage of the bill would put an end to all of these claims and counter claims. Many railroads which had substantial surpluses, but no longer have them, would be saved the anxiety of how to raise the money to pour into the "pool" excess earnings of other years.

At the same time the government would have to give back to railroads approximately $13,000,000, which they have paid into the revolving fund. Much of this money was paid under protest.

As of Dec. 17, 1931, the general railroad fund of "revolving fund," held $13,277,888. Of this $10,717,922 represented payments by carriers and the remainder interest accumulations. Of the payments, $8,796,188 was paid under protest. Most of it came from small roads, as the big lines have stubbornly fought the proposition.

Chairman Sam Rayburn, Democrat of Texas, of the interstate commerce committee, disclosed the decision to broaden the rate-making base was reached unanimously, while an "overwhelming majority" approved repeal of the recapture clause.

STIMSON TO JOIN PARLEY

U. S. to Enter Conference For Disarmament

WASHINGTON, April 7. (UP)—Eventual success, or virtual failure of the Geneva disarmament conference, with the resultant world wide effect on the attainment of real peace, may be indicated clearly during the visit of Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson.

Stimson wound up his work at the department today. He will leave for New York at noon tomorrow, to sail on the Ile de France at 6 p. m. He hopes to spend two weeks or so at Geneva.

If Stimson finds the European powers ready at last to do some effective work, this country may be expected to cooperate constructively and lend the great weight of its influence to the shaving down, 14½ years after the world war, of world war-size military establishments.

If, however, Stimson finds Europe still armament minded, it is not hard for observers to see the outcome of the conference—months of profitless discussion, to wind up with a makeshift agreement that will retard, rather than hasten, real disarmament.

The importance of Stimson's visit at this time is indicated by the hasty decision to send him. He was to have gone for the beginning of the conference, but it became clear that no sincere step toward disarmament would be taken during the first weeks or months.

National High School Orchestra to Broadcast

The national high school orchestra, selected for merit from all parts of the United States, will broadcast from Cleveland Friday afternoon, at 2:30 p. m. instead of 5 p. m., as originally announced, according to a telegram received Thursday afternoon by Miss Erma Nala Voss, music supervisor in the Wichita Falls schools.

Arthur Davis, violinist, of Wichita Falls, a pupil of Ethel Allen Nelson, is one of six boys chosen from Texas. The orchestra will be composed of 50 members. The program is being given at the National Music Supervisors conference.

William Huff was a member of the chorus of 500 voices which broadcast a program Thursday afternoon.

Wichita Nurses To Attend Convention

Six nurses of the Wichita Falls Clinic hospital have announced plans to attend the Texas and American Nurses association convention at San Antonio, April 11-15. The group includes, Miss Eva M. Wallace, superintendent, Miss Agnes Anderson, Miss Florence Christoph, Miss Ann Vandiver, Miss Beadie Morris, and Mrs. Corrinne Smith.

Miss Wallace left Thursday and will attend a state hospital meeting on Friday.

Texas Senator Delays Postmaster's Approval

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—On motion of Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, the senate today reconsidered its action of April 4 in confirming Lela T. Toone as postmaster of Brownfield, Texas, and ordered the nomination recommitted to the postoffice committee.

Senator Sheppard said he had made the request to enable him to "get some additional information."

Father of 16 Asks 'Love Theft' Damages

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 7. (INS)—Charging "love theft" of the affections of his wife who had borne him 16 children during their 30 years of married life, Richard Altman, farmer, of Blackshear, today entered suit against A. B. Walker, of Savannah, for $20,000 damages.

Altman described Walker as a wealthy man "who wrecked my home beyond repair."

BLIND JURIST PLAYS CARDS

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Blindness does not keep Judge Sam Cathey of the police court here from enjoying a bridge game. Special cards with impressions in one corner enable him to identify them, and others playing "call their cards" as they lay them on the table. Judge Cathey also dances.

EEK! EEK!

Imbiber Comes to 'Life' In Casket as Women Admire 'Corpse'

CHICAGO, April 7. (UP)—"Eek!" cried the ladies in the Nick undertaking parlors when the body in the plush lined casket began to snore.

Henry Nick rushed into the room and where Mrs. Nick and two friends had been admiring his embalming handiwork, and gave the snoring body a punch on the jaw. The body woke up somewhat groggily in the person of John Killias, who admitted before Judge Allegretti today that he had imbibed not wisely but well and had strolled into the undertaking room for a snooze in the coffin.

Condemned 'Trunk Slayer' Removed From Death Row

STATE PRISON, FLORENCE, Ariz., April 7. (UP)—Irrational behavior of Winnie Ruth Judd, convicted killer of Mrs. Agnes Anne Leroi, caused prison authorities to move her from death row to the women's ward, it was disclosed today.

Mrs. Judd was hysterical for several days and acted so strangely in her death row cell that Warden William Delbridge ordered her moved to more pleasant surroundings.

Guards reported she had strung pieces of string about her cell and advised visitors to keep away from them, as "they were high tension wires." When Delbridge investigated, he was greeted by a wild tirade resembling her outburst in court two weeks ago.

Crosbyton Election Tied After Recount

CROSBYTON, Texas, April 7. (AP)—A recount of ballots cast in the mayoralty race here Tuesday resulted in a tie between Chester Huddleston and Mayor E. L. Roberts, and the city commission will call another election. The date has not been set.

Unofficially, Roberts was announced re-elected by a three-vote majority, the first count being 171 for him to 168 for Huddleston.

Huddleston asked for a recount. Five of seven ballots which the judges had declared mutilated were counted. Four were for Huddleston and one for the incumbent, resulting in each having 172 votes.

Riots Occur in Hungary After Paper Suppressed

BUDAPEST, April 7. (US)—Hungary was in political turmoil tonight after a day of rioting in which at least one person was killed, scores were wounded and more than 200 arrested.

Premier Karolyi refused to receive a Socialist memorandum which threatened employment of "ruthless fighting methods" unless the government lifts its ban on the capital's Socialist newspaper.

Today's clashes occurred in Budapest and neighboring towns. They were precipitated by parading strikers protesting the newspaper's suppression.

Russian Couple Burned In El Paso Cottage Fire

EL PASO, Texas, April 7. (UP)—Dr. Dimitry F. Snitsin, 61, renowned Russian scientist, and his wife, Mrs. Ludinilla Snitsin, 43, were burned seriously in an automobile camp cottage today. Mrs. Snitsin may not live.

Dr. Snitsin said that his wife poured gasoline on their bed while he was asleep and then set fire to the bed in an attempt to kill both of them. Dr. Snitsin is employed by the bureau of animal husbandry at Washington in sheep disease research work.

'There's Nothing New To Tax,' Says Mills

WASHINGTON, April 7. (INS)—Secretary of the Treasury Mills today admitted the treasury department had run out of new things to tax.

Asked whether the treasury was working on any new source of taxation, Mills replied:

"I cannot think of anything new to tax. That tax on wort was the last trick in our bag." A tax of five cents a gallon on wort was included in the bill passed by the house. Wort is used in making home-brew.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS ATWELL

National Unity of Thought Urged by Speaker

Universal thinking in government must be accomplished, or we are faced with eventual disintegration, Judge William H. Atwell of the federal district court told members of the Rotary club Thursday noon.

Speaking upon "America as a Paradox," Judge Atwell made a strong plea for "national unity, which permits the majority to rule." The people of this country, he continued, are "guilty of mass thinking as against the vagaries and inconsistencies of individualism."

"Solid mass thought in America is due to the press, pulpit, pictures, and platform," the speaker said. "Within 24 hours, all the people of the United States can be thinking the same thing. Our lack of national unity, more noticeable than in any other English-speaking people, may be due to the fact that America is made up of the oppressed."

In emphasizing the greater respect for law a jingle was quoted from John Gould's column in The Times, which Judge Atwell said expressed the attitude of many people. He commended Mr. Gould's thought and the point that was made. The tendency is toward individualism with small interest in government, he said.

"Let's stand for a united front for obedience to law, and may God grant that we, as a people, have enough sense and nerve to obey the law and govern ourselves," he concluded.

Rotarians were urged by Dr. O. T. Kimbrough to attend the baseball rally to be held next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Memorial auditorium. A singsong was conducted by R. E. Shepherd, accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd.

Court Upholds Taxes Assessed In Wilbarger

Judge William H. Atwell in federal district court Thursday denied the Phillips Petroleum company an injunction restraining Wilbarger county from collecting assessed taxes except in the case of one minor item in the suit.

Alleging in their petition that tax assessments upon their Wilbarger county property were excessive, the plaintiffs sought an injunction forbidding collection of taxes on that basis. Judge Atwell found for the defendant with reference to all properties save one 41-acre tract. In that instance, he ruled that through an evident error on the part of the tax equalization board the assessment was excessive to the amount of $190.65.

Hearing of the case has been under way since Tuesday.

Soviet Picks Siberia For New Development

KHABAROVSK, Siberia, April 7. (US)—During the fulfilment of the second Soviet five-year plan, which begins late next year, a mighty industrial outpost will be created here on the shores of the Pacific, the government announced today.

The development will include metallurgical works, factories, shipyards, new railroads, and great farms. More than 1,000 new stores will be opened at Khabarovsk, Vladivostok and Blagoveschensk.

Body of Drowned Man, Believed Texan, Buried

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., April 7. (AP)—Authorities here today attempted to confirm their identification of a body taken from the Verdigris river near here yesterday as that of C. G. Ireland of Dallas, Texas.

Dr. W. S. Hudiburg, county coroner, said the man had drowned. No marks of violence were found on the body. No inquest was held and the body was buried today.

C-C APPROVES SPECIAL TRAIN

Directors Launch Plans For West Texas Convention

The Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce directors launched plans for a large representation of the organization at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention May 12-14 at Sweetwater with approval of plans to run a Wichita Falls special train to that city at the meeting Thursday at the offices in the Hamilton building.

The board members agreed to continue cooperation with the Wichita county Izaak Walton league in authorizing the sports and recreations committee to proceed with plans for repairing and improving breeding pools at the local lakes. Dr. O. T. Kimbrough is chairman of the committee. Ben G. Oneal, league president, E. V. Lesley and James King attended the board meeting.

Jack Barnard was named chairman of a committee to secure an appropriation of $50 to aid in financing the Woman's Municipal Golf association tournament to be held here in June. Mr. Barnard will be assisted by C. H. Featherston and Dr. Kimbrough. Mrs. J. A. Rhodes, association president, and the secretary-treasurer, Miss Winnie Mae Giddings, attended the meeting.

Reports on the "Support the Spudders" plans and reorganization of the traffic department were also discussed by the committee.

Completion of School Census Expected Soon

A final check of Wichita Falls' scholastic census for the 1932-33 term is expected to be completed early next week when figures for the enumeration will be released, Supt. H. D. Fillers said Thursday. No indication of results of preliminary checks are available. Enumerators are now busy checking census records with permanent enumeration cards, Mr. Fillers said.

People And Beasts Of The 'Big Top' Are Ready For The Road Again

It's spring—and circus time again! They've patched the big top, regilded the wagons, and everything in winter quarters is ready for the road. Here are some of the scenes around the lot of "the biggest show on earth." At upper left a clown is telling a pachyderm pal that "it won't be long now," and below you see Miss Mabel Lennert touching off a fractious zebra named T. N. T. In the center is a close-up of His Majesty Goliath II, biggest of sea elephants. The depression seems to have displeased Goliath; he has been taken off the gold-fish standard. At upper right is Nero, who has promised to be good this year, after severely mauling his trainer, Clyde Beatty, during a workout some months ago. Hank Earle, the Texas giant, and Major Mite have resumed their pinochle game, and below you see them in action during a rest period on the lot.

Junior C-C Pledges Support In Merchants' Program On Visitors' Day

Full cooperation with the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce retail merchants division in staging "Wichita Falls Visitors Day" Wednesday, April 13, was voted by directors of the Junior chamber in session Thursday at the offices in the Hamilton building.

All members of the board pledged full support of plans for making the Spudders' opening day crowd one of the largest in the Texas league and to attend the party for the team Monday night at the Memorial auditorium.

The board authorized an order for a small stock of new lapel buttons, official junior chamber insignia adopted by the national organization, to be placed on sale at 75 cents each in about 10 days in charge of J. V. Leggett, Ray Bowmer and R. V. Fite.

The directors voted a resolution of thanks to Manager Joe Reed of the Reed air lines for his cooperation in offering low rates to delegates attending the recent conference of the organization at Oklahoma City.

T. J. Waggoner Jr., national committeeman on conservation of natural resources, reported that a pamphlet will be available in the near future issued by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce covering all phases of conservation.

Last Services Friday For Electra Woman

Funeral services for Mrs. Etta Swindall, 32, of Electra, will be held from the Nazarene church of Electra at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. Swindall died in a Wichita Falls hospital at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. The Hines mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors are the husband, M. D. Swindall; three children, Elna, Dorothy and Marvin Swindall; four sisters, Mrs. Anna Caldwell of Lawton, Okla., Mrs. Millie Martin of Electra, Mrs. Media Owens of Electra and Mrs. Ossie Martin of Muenster, Texas; and four brothers, J. B. Hilburn of Electra, A. L. Hilburn of Fort Worth, William Hilburn of Muenster, Texas, and Henry Hilburn of Overton, Texas.

Arkansas College Students Visit Kentucky Governor

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 7. (AP)—Five collegians from Arkansas bearing gifts for coal miners in Southwestern Kentucky came to Kentucky's capital city today for an interview with Gov. Ruby Laffoon before proceeding on their mission.

The group, representing Commonwealth college, labor school at Mena, Ark., was told Governor Laffoon had just gone to the mansion suffering a slight illness. They decided to stay here tonight and make an effort to see the governor tomorrow morning.

LUNCHEON TO HONOR SPUDS

Francis and O'Donohoe To Give Talks

Manager Hank Severeid and members of the Spudder squad will be honor guests of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce business council at the regular luncheon Friday at the Kemp hotel. John F. O'Donohoe and Charles I. Francis will be the principal speakers on the program, discussing "Baseball as a Big Business" and "Baseball —the Love of the Game," respectively.

Entertainment for the occasion will include a reading, "Casey at the Bat," by Miss Juanita Kinsey and a vocal selection, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," by R. E. Shepherd with Mrs. Shepherd as accompanist. Dr. Everett Jones, general chairman of the chamber "Support the Spudders" drive, will be in charge.

A new plan in speeding up luncheon programs will be observed Friday, according to plans announced by Program Chairman Grover Bullington. Council members arriving at 12 o'clock and later will go directly to the dining room when tickets are secured and begin eating, instead of the former practice of all members entering the dining room together.

GARAGE LOOTED

Loss of more than $40 in supplies and equipment from the W. J. Nolen & Son garage, 1009-11 Scott, was discovered by Mr. Nolen Thursday and reported to city police. The property was taken during the last 30 days, and included 16 spark plugs, a $25 welding torch and an $18 grease gun.

National Journal Tells Of Wichita School Tax Drive

A detailed description of the recent tax payment campaign for the public schools of Wichita Falls has been published in The American School Board Journal in an article written by Supt. H. D. Fillers of the public school system. The article presents in detail the opening story of the campaign published in The Record News of Oct. 16, 1931.

Failure of the school board to float a loan of $220,000 for a short period until the tax paying period opened Jan. 1, 1932, resulted in the publicity campaign. Immediate response to the newspaper appeal resulted with the school board enabled to pay operating costs and saving $12,000 in interest charges. The drive continued over two months resulting in collection of $75,000 out of a budget of $531,000. The article, published in the April issue of the magazine, is "Using Publicity in a Taxpaying Campaign."

Traffic Committee of C-C to Meet Friday

A meeting of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce traffic committee will be held at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning at the organization's offices in the Hamilton building. Chairman J. S. Hargett has requested all members to attend for a discussion of important traffic matters.

Widow of Former Railway Head Dies

DALLAS, April 7. (AP)—Mrs. Lucius J. Polk, 73, widow of a former vice president and general manager of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad, died at a Dallas hospital this afternoon. Before making her home in Dallas she had lived in Houston, San Antonio, Galveston and Sherman.

THREE ESCAPE CITY PRISON

Suspects in Series of Thefts Elude Officers

Loss from criminal activity in Wichita Falls and Electra amounting to $69.50 were reported to city police Thursday. H. L. LaFon, 1312 Third, reported the loss of a tent valued at $12.50; H. E. Hudson, 805 Rosewood, reported the loss of 75 feet of garden hose valued at $7 and S. T. Jones of Electra reported loss of six turkeys valued at $50.

Two of three youths held by police for investigation Wednesday night made use of a bed railing to spread the bars of a cell in the city hall and then squeezed through to freedom. They had not been recaptured early Thursday night. One of the boys was believed to have eluded officers at 1905 Kemp boulevard Thursday morning when he dived through a window as officers entered by the front and back doors.

The Kemp boulevard residence has been under surveillance of police several days and early Wednesday morning five chickens were found in the house when the three youths were arrested for investigation. Owners of the chickens had not been located late Thursday.

One youth is being held by officers in connection with investigation of the loss of two welding torches valued at $60, from the Hopkins Paint shop.
