Interstate Road Expenditures Set

AUSTIN (AP)—The Highway Commission authorized today the spending of $188,550,000 to extend the Interstate 35 long section state road system.

It is the fourth in a series of right-of-way and construction programs to be started under the Federal Highway Act of 1956.

The outlay earmarks $169,912,000 for 54 1/2 miles of controlled-access highways. For buying rights-of-way it set aside $27,638,000.

Work will be concentrated in major metropolitan areas as well as in closing gaps between already-completed sections, the commission said.

The program will complete the gaps on Interstate 35, the long section of major highway from Laredo to Oklahoma.

The commission gave these details of the program:

Interstate 35
Harris County, from San Marcos to two miles north of Round Rock in Williamson County is either complete or under construction.

With this new program we will go ahead with grading and structures from the Round Rock area on up to the Bell County line," the commission said.

"We are going to start grading on the 34-mile section from three miles south of Hillsboro to south of Waxahachie. The program also provides for surfacing part of Interstate 35 from Houston to Hillsboro.

"On the Interstate 35W leg, we will start buying right-of-way on the 14 miles from Hillsboro on up to the Johnson County line. With what we are currently buying, this will complete the right-of-way phase all the way from Hillsboro to the expressway connection south of Fort Worth.

"This program authorizes the grading for the section of Interstate 35W from 2.5 miles north of Alvarado on up to Burleson."

Interstate 20
"We will complete 33 miles of Interstate 20 expressway from State Highway 64 in Van Zandt County to U.S. 69 northwest of Tyler. We will then start grading from U.S. 69 to U.S. 271 northeast of Tyler. This is a 14.6 mile section.

"In the west we will finish up the interstate loops at Abilene and Colorado City in this program. We will also start work on the bypass around Big Spring. Today's action authorizes grading and structures for this project."

Interstate 45
"On Interstate 45 in Galveston, from State Highways 6 and 146 southeast to 61st St., we have programmed a four-lane expressway with frontage roads and grade sections.

"In Harris County, we will add additional main lanes, frontage roads, and three grade separations from Alameda-Greene Road to FM 1849. This is a part of the Gulf Freeway.

"Interstate 45 from Houston to south of Conroe is either complete or under construction. Under this program we will finish up that 14-mile section from present location at Esperanza to two miles south of Conroe. This program authorizes the final phase—surfacing."

"We will also complete the 22-mile section from Huntsville loop to U.S. 75 north of Madisonville. From the point north of Madisonville, this program enables us to start the grading work to just south of Centerville.

"We are presently buying right-of-way from a point south of Centerville up to State 7 in that city. Today's program authorizes purchase of right-of-way from State 7 on up to the Freestone County line near Buffalo, a 16-mile section."

Aristocrat Wields A Wicked Shovel

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF

LONDON (AP)—An aristocrat in overalls swings a pick and shovels broken bricks on a demolition job near Piccadilly Circus.

He develops calluses five days a week, knocking down a lot of Cockney mates. Weekends he retires to his family's stately home near King's Lynn and gives orders to the butler.

He is Charles (Tiggy) Birkbeck, 24, nephew of the Earl of Munster. His mother is Lady Joan Mary, sister of the earl.

He is a grand worker," said the policeman, "and he's got persistence. He came along every day, asking for a job. You should have seen him, all doped up in bowler hat, stiff collar and carrying of course, an umbrella. He finally broke down my resistance, and now I've got a fine hand. His workmates love him."

Old habits got Tiggy into a bit of bother at the start. When the lunch breaks came there seemed to be nothing more natural than to eat in a top restaurant in the neighborhood.

"Then one day the manager called me aside and said, very politely, that he would be obliged if I didn't come in there with my overalls," said Tiggy.

Firefighters Get Best Of Big Blaze

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Firefighters were getting the best of the West's major blazes today.

In California and Western Nevada, rangers expressed hope of containing two huge blazes along the majestic Sierra Nevada.

In the Black Hills of South Dakota, three forest fires were contained Tuesday by 500 men using borate bombers and bulldozers.

In the northwest corner of Nebraska, 150 firefighters contained a 3,000-acre blaze that had been raging since Sunday.

The worst of the fires were along the eastern slope of the Sierra, in northern California, where more than 70,000 acres of woodland were destroyed.

Burned were nearly 100 million board feet of lumber—enough to build 6,500 average-sized homes—valued at more than four million dollars.

The best news from the Sierra was reduced winds and increased humidity. Near Truckee, Calif., where power lines to Reno and 14 other Nevada cities were knocked out Sunday, temperatures were dropping drastically.

The volunteer army of 3,000, including servicemen and Indian veterans from throughout the West, shivered through the night in dewy meadows that alternately blew hot and bone-chilling damp. Hundreds of deer and other wildlife, perished in the Sierra blazes. Conservationists were planning immediate reforestation to restore devastated watersheds.

While men were still battling the flames, others dropped mustard and rye grass seed from planes and helicopters, hoping the seed would quickly root and hold the soil before fall rains bring floods and erosion.

In Nebraska, rangers kept a close watch on Sogobly Canyon, a rugged pine ridge area west of Chadron. Flames broke out of the canyon for a while Tuesday but were quickly contained.

In addition to the three major fires in the Black Hills, firefighters were scattering to handle 15 smaller blazes that flared in S.D. in all, about 2,500 acres were ravaged by flames in the state.

Funerals For Seven Youths

WINOOSKI, Vt. (AP)—Most activities in this city of 7,000 were suspended today for the funerals of seven youths killed in an auto crash early Sunday.

Solemn High Requiem Masses were scheduled two hours apart at the city's two Catholic churches—St. Francis Xavier and St. Stephen's.

Separate services were needed because neither church is large enough to hold all the anticipated mourners.

At St. Francis Xavier church, the service was for Earle De Carrean, 19; Ronald Rogers, 20; Maurice Soulier, 19; and at St. Stephen's for Edward J. Foley, 19; James D. Daigle, 18; Norman C. Paquette, 19; and Louis Landino, 18.

Thousands moved past five of the bodies in the Winooksi High School auditorium Tuesday. There were similar lines at a wake for the other two at a funeral home.

"It is as though a complete crepe has dropped over the city," said Mayor Bernard L. Sumner.

The seven, killed when their car crashed broadside into a thick maple beside the highway at South Hero, were lifelong chums. They had graduated together from Winooksi High last June.

Officials Ired By Child Pickets

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Duval County authorities are trying to locate persons responsible for placing Negro children in downtown store picket lines.

"I am not going to permit anyone to place children on the streets as pickets," said Juvenile Court Judge Marion W. Gooding. "It is an occupation which is hazardous to the welfare of children, regardless of whether they are white or colored."

The picket lines were set up at several stores after a number of sporadic sit-ins by Negroes in downtown store picket lines.

Trujillo Has Friends In U. S. Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Alton J. Ellender (D-La.) served notice today he will fight attempts to choke off sugar imports from the Dominican Republic. He said he "wishes every Latin-American nation both a strong leader like the Dominican Republic's Rafael Trujillo."

Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) joined Ellender in an exchange of views. Ellender sharply criticized of President Eisenhower's call for legislation permitting a cut-off of Dominican sugar purchases.

Somewhat similar views were set forth at a House Agriculture Committee meeting.

Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon appeared before the House group to back up the Eisenhower proposal on Dominican sugar. He said this country should go on short sugar rations if necessary rather than buy more from Fidel Castro's Cuba or Trujillo's Dominican Republic.

Dillon branded Castro as "a Communist-type dictator" and described Trujillo as a tyrant who has tortured and murdered political opponents.

Dillon ran into heavy opposition from the two top Democrats on the committee, Chairman Harold D. Cooley of North Carolina and W. R. Poole of Texas.

Cooley and Poole stressed that when Congress gave the President authority last July to cut Cuban sugar purchases it specifically increased the Dominican Republic's quota to help make up the difference. Both accused the administration of ignoring the intent of Congress. Both also came to the defense of Trujillo.

Parr Party Sets Slate

ALICE, Tex. (AP)—A slate of four independents will be entered by the Old Party of Duval County in an attempt to unseat four foes of political leader George B. Parr.

Candidates for the Parr faction, announced Tuesday, and their opponents are:

Jesus Oliveira Jr., running for county assessor-collector, against incumbent E. B. Garcia.

O. P. Carrillo, running for county attorney against Walter Purcell.

Emede Garcia, running for county superintendent against Dr. A. N. Sanez; and Maruro Vera, candidate for constable of Precinct 5 against Jesus Ramos.

The political situation was further complicated by the entry of the Old Party slate because anti-Parr forces already had announced a Republican slate of four candidates.

Summer Romance Entrancing, But...

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Only are there so many "romances" about kissing? And if a romance is going to be unusual, it's almost always a summer affair. Maybe it's the moonlight on the water or the footprints in the sand that puts a young girl in a romantic mood. Here's a letter "from a very sophisticated girl" of 17.

"How many kisses are required if you are 17, newly acquainted with a brilliant, bearded artist of 23 who lives Bohemian-style and is always inviting you to the apartment he shares with another boy, although you haven't accepted. I have been to art exhibitions with him and we both like concerts."

Anyone who is dating regularly should know better. Bohemian types are likely to look very special to you at 17, a little tarnished by the time you reach 18, and at 19, you may not want to waste your time speaking to the off-beat type who seems so glamorous now. Save your kisses until you can answer the question yourself.

College Men Like New High-Lights

Footwear fashions, like fuiton coats, climb to new heights on campus as college men step out this year's newest shoes. Though inspired by British styles, this year's newest shoes are typically American in their tapered cut, lightweight leathers and varied shapes.

There is room at the top with the new "high-light" designed for campus trouser fashions. Extending over the ankle, the "high-light" meets the narrower trouser cuff seen in class, at the fraternity house and at a Saturday night hop. In smooth or grained black or true brown leather, the semi-box highlights tweeds, glen plaids and chevrons. Black olive, a new leather color, teams well with olive and loden green sports jackets.

Interpreted in front-lacing ball oxfords and bluchers, the high-light styles that lace or buckle at the side or slip-ons with hidden elastic gores at side or under the extended tongue. Tapered from heel to toe, "high-lights" are available in easy-going, most front styles, smooth center seam shoes and swag strap — and — buckle shoes.

Out from lightweight but durable American leathers, the high-light is functional as well as sophisticated. It protects the foot and ankle from wind and weather — without adding man-killing weight. Soft, supple leather uppers bend and flex with each step, never binding or chafing. The "high-light's" slender, sturdy leather sole supports the arch and provides a firm walking base. Its smooth leather lining protects the foot from blistering and friction burns even as it extends the life of the shoe.

For collegians who prefer more traditional dress styles, there is a wide range of trim, tapered American Continental shoes set on slim, flexible leather soles. The tapered toe and the squared-off look vie for top honors in this class, with moc-front and plain toes strong runners-up in both the brown and black families of smooth, waxy and grained leathers. For a change of pace, wing-tip shoes add a conservative style note.

Among big men on campus, the sturdy cordovan with its heavier but easy-flexing leather sole still has friends at many a bull session. Moccasins — from the hand-stitched favorite to the fine-lined shoe with inverted seams — are found in every campus wardrobe.

Dress occasions on the campus tend to be very formal, from foot-wear on up. Formal dances call for black patent leather shoes — slip-ons with a small bow or a handsome two-eyebrow design. Black leather blucher that takes a high polish may do double duty for formals and off-campus functions.

Fashion Now Goes Mature

AP Newsfeatures

Fashion is getting around to acknowledging the existence of mature women.

And with recognition has come an appreciation of their good taste, their varied interests and their concern for a flattering fit even though they may have outgrown the "emaciated-model silhouette."

Women who are busy with home, community and perhaps a profession, need attractive, serviceable fashions that will take them from daytime through dinner, from winter through fall. That may be one reason for the tremendous popularity of knits, these days. They hold their shape, they can be dressed up or down with the right kind of jewelry and accessories, and they adapt themselves for comfort whatever the temperature.

Featured in a style show held yesterday in the rear of a Chevrolet pickup are, from left, Charlotte Womack, Julie Free, Mary Bowlin, Rita Hornback, and Helen Joyce. They model the very latest in styles for midday—bold, loose-woven sheath dresses constructed from that new and exciting fabric, gunnysocks; and their hair-do's can be attributed to the most up-to-date radical of shampoos—Burma-Shave. Actually, they are in the initiatory stages of the Gov 20 Social Club of Snyder High, having gone through their pledgship the past summer. They, along with a number of other girls of similar circumstance, will be formally installed into the club tomorrow evening. (Photo by Jackson)

Reds Indoctrinate Their Youth Early

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONG KONG —The Chinese Communists start molding the minds of children soon after birth. Their aim, they say, is practical as well as ideological.

Minister of Public Health Li Tschuan said recently:

"The education and care of children is for the purpose of serving production...it releases the great potential labor power of women and enables them to take part in production."

A recent Peiping dispatch by Agency said "tens of millions of children are entered in breastfeeding rooms, nurseries and kindergartens." As a result, it said, "children begin to receive Socialist and Communist education from childhood."

A joint announcement from the Ministries of Public Health and education last month called for a nationwide educational program to teach children to love the Communist party, Chinese Communist party Boss Mao, The Tung, socialism, labor and the people's committee and to hate the United States.

Minister Li said children in nurseries and kindergartens should "perform labor within their capabilities" but in the case of very young children, she said, "this labor should be tempered with ease."

The joint announcement said children should be taught to understand the happy life of children in Socialist (Communist) countries and the bitter lot of children of working people in the capitalist countries and those in colonial and semi-colonial countries.

It said children should be especially taught that U. S. imperialism is the fiercest enemy of the world and should be nuked out.

At last report, some 50 million children in Red China's rural areas were in nurseries and kindergartens.

A recent Western visitor to Communist China said he was shocked at the pattern and scope of Communist education.

"You see nurseries and primary and secondary schools everywhere you go," he said, "and the products of this system that I met showed how twisted and incomplete their education was."

Young men and women who have graduated from Communist schools, he said, showed an alarming over-confidence "based to a large extent on ignorance."

Several young Chinese officials, he said, claimed U. S. forces, and not the Russians, cleared Manchuria of its industries at the end of World War II.

Others, he said, were equally convinced that allies launched the second front in Europe only after Soviet troops had reached Berlin.

And most everybody he talked to, he said, was sure the United States started the Korean War.

Patsy Ann Coker of Snyder is a candidate for the bachelor of music education degree at East Texas State College in Commerce.

Summer commencement exercises have been set for 7 p.m. Friday in the college auditorium.

L. D. Webster of Dallas, vice president of Lone Star Steel Co., will address the 42 graduates.

The list of candidates include 224 seeking master's degrees.

Miss Coker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Coker, 3702 Highland Drive.

She Wants To Be Diplomat

Salomon who are used to talking diplomacy may be in for a change if 21-year-old Maria Cristina Solari Barandou has her way.

The pretty blonde socialite is the first woman in Uruguay to get a "Doctor of Diplomacy" degree. She plans to use it too—and not for soft-soaping a husband.

While preparing for a law degree in 1957, Maria Cristina came across a 1918 law creating a diplomacy course in the University of Montevideo. Which she applied for the job started in 1958.

Uruguayans who made it after her point and the course was opened. Only three enrolled—two girls and one boy. Maria Cristina finished the course in two years with high marks. The other two students are still studying.

So far Maria Cristina has had little luck in getting a diplomatic job with the Uruguayan government. Uruguayan diplomats are usually politicians appointed by the ruling party.

"I know it will be difficult to get a post in my country's foreign service," she says. "I have written to the United Nations, the Organization of American States and other international bodies applying for a job. I think I'll have a better chance there."

New Furniture Must Follow Paper Pattern

Your pride and joy—that new furniture in your living room or bedroom—was put together the same way as the dresses hanging in your closet.

Craftsmen who made it started with a paper pattern; a furniture designer's work parallels a dress designer's.

First come the ideas. Then the designer makes a paper pattern for the furniture factory superintendent. Every single part of the design is represented in a paper cutout scaled to actual size.

The designer knows how each machine in the plant works. He notes exactly how each part is to be cut and how it is to be fitted into the whole. Finally the designer recommends woods, finishes and "hardware" handles and pulls.

ANOTHER FREE-FALL RECORD

Bulgarian Writers Found Sadly Deficient By Party

BY INEZ ROBB

Granted that one woman's Prince Charming is almost always another man's poison, still and all it would be a hard heart indeed that did not sympathize with the problem of the Bulgarian Writers Union.

The Bulgarian Communist party newspaper and the union's own secretary-general have told the members they have been weighed and found wanting. The 230 members of the union have been warned that they have failed to create the image of a modern Bulgarian Communist hero or Prince Charming.

The creation of such an image is an immediate task," they have been ordered, or else.

And just to make certain that there is no taint of gray flannel suitism, or angry young men or "beats" in the business, the party has thoughtfully laid down the qualifications for this paragon of party principles.

First off, this Bulgarian Don Quixote must be "the personification of the most beautiful human qualities forged by the party in the struggle for socialism."

As I see the story shaping up, by the time he is five, the lad has already displayed his heroic mold by turning in his grandmother as a counter-revolutionary after the old lady remarked one day that the blues weren't what they used to be. She gets life in the salt mines and he gets to skip first grade.

Next, he must "sum up in himself the whole profundity and complexity of our epoch."

The Bulgarian Bayard, chevalier sans peur et sans reproche, accomplishes this at the age of 10 by the simple expedient of taking a tractor apart and putting it together again in such a way that it can either be used as a milking machine or launching pad for Molotov cocktails.

The Bulgarian beau ideal must also "reflect the tremendous civic and moral growth of contemporary man."

The Communist Hercules, at 16, easily polishes off this difficult assignment and is marked as a corner in his country. During the party's one-ticket election, the hero apprehends the only person in his village, his own father, who instead of writing "yes" on his ballot wrote, "Nuts to you."

Such is the hero's moral indignation at such civic treachery that he does not even attend the funeral service for his old man after the latter is shot. "He asked for it!" is the hero's only comment.

So far, the Bulgarian strong boy has passed all the tests. But there are still more. He must be "the living expression of the maturity of the country's literature."

This is a stiff hurdle, but he makes it. Unlike the heroes of most Communist literature, he does not fall in love with a tractor. Instead, he fights off a number of blonde Bulgarian tractorists to form a tender attachment for Lutzik with a little occasional hanky-panky on the side with an ICBM.

Finally, the Bulgarian Lancelot must be "the exceptionally brilliant, positive hero, the masterfully chiseled image which raises to the level of the summit the achievements of Bulgarian literature."

So with an abacus and a homemade slide rule, this Balkan Ivanhoe squares the circle, invents the Space of Relativity and, in his spare time in a homesteaded laboratory, perfects talking pictures.

His country is not ungrateful. In recognition of his heroic deeds, the national Romeo becomes a hero of Bulgarian Labor and is given a 24-hour leave from his collective farm. He spends his leave denouncing his mother as a capitalist entrepreneur who knits sweaters on the sly for money to help support the family.

As for myself, I have given away my copy of "The Sheik" and am trying to subscribe to the Bulgarian Book-of-the-Month Club. (Copyright, 1960, by United Future Syndicate, Inc.)

The proposal's defeat on the Republicans when 19 members of his own party joined the Republicans to administer the defeat?

Since the Kennedy-backed plan was defeated 51-44, if only four of the 19 Southerners who joined 32 Republicans in killing the measure had voted with Kennedy, the final tally would have been 48-47 in favor of it.

Since it was his fellow Democrats who made repudiation of the platform promise possible, Kennedy will have a difficult time arguing that a Democratic victory in November will mean the platform promise can be carried out at all.

Maybe it was just a bad day for presidential candidates anyway.

Earlier Tuesday a different kind of medical care program for the aged backed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republicans' presidential candidate, was also defeated.

The vote on that one was 67-28, with not one Democrat supporting it.

In fact, five Republicans deserted Nixon to go along with 62 Democrats to beat it.

At the end of the politically tormented day the Senate finally rammed through by a 91-2 vote—a bill to make some medical provisions for needy old people. The two who voted against—even this measure were Sens. Strom Thurmond, a South Carolina Democrat, and Barry Goldwater, Arizona Republican.

Picture Of Executives Overplayed

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The average man today doesn't want to be a boss.

Ask him why, and he will probably say: "Too much responsibility, too many ulcers. You never get the job off your mind. It kills you young. I'd rather have 'less pay, less worry—and live longer."

The picture of the modern businessman—efficient, tension-ridden, individual who works around the clock and succumbs early from a heart attack has become as much a part of popular folklore as Cindersella or Little Red Riding Hood.

Bosses have done little to dispel this highly fictional portrait of themselves. After all, it flatters them and impresses the public. Why quarrel with it?

But what is the actual truth about American industrial leaders? Are they really dollar-mad robots who wreck their lives blindly slaving for a corporation god?

No, indeed! Not by their own testimony.

A recent issue of U.S. News & World Report carried some results of a poll of 6,000 U.S. executives made by Dr. Harry J. Johnson, head of the Life Extension Foundation.

Dr. Johnson found: Executives worked an average of only 35 hours a week. They worked only five days a week, just as do most union members.

Only 30 per cent took office work home with them, and these averaged only 4 1/2 hours a week at it.

In three cases out of four, executive fatigue came from boredom rather than overwork.

About 75 per cent of the executives were in good health, and as a group they suffered from ulcers or heart attacks no more than their underlings in the same age bracket.

The corporation executive, however, does differ from the ordinary business employe in one significant way.

He can afford to dissipate—the lower-salaried fellow can't," said Dr. Johnson.

Kennedy Puts Self In Awkward Spot

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy has put himself in an awkward spot.

The Democratic presidential candidate argued Tuesday that the medical care bill he favored failed to pass—Democrats could make it an issue in the campaign.

But he may have trouble making it pay off, for two reasons.

1. He suffered a smashing defeat. The Kennedy-backed proposal was beaten 51-44 in the Senate where the Democrats outnumber the Republicans 66-34.

2. He was defeated because 19 members of his own party, Southern Democrats, turned their backs on him and teamed up with 32 Republicans to kill the proposal.

Last July in Los Angeles the Democratic convention approved a campaign platform plank calling for a medical-care-for-the-aged program under the Social Security system and paid for by a slight boost in the Social Security tax.

This was the kind of program supported Tuesday by Kennedy and his Vice-presidential running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, leader of the Senate Democrats.

Kennedy threatened to make this kind of program a campaign issue by warning the Republicans if they ganged up to kill it, "then I think we should take the matter to the people of this country."

But now he is going to make it a campaign issue now by blaming

ON EVE OF GAMES

All Remains Quiet On Olympic Front

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
ROME (AP)—Amid tranquility which even sent Communist athletes to a special audience by Pope John this ancient, storied city was poised today for the start of the 17th Olympiad Thursday.

The papal audience for all Olympic athletes and officials in St. Peter's Square just precedes the arrival of the Olympic torch from Greece.

At City Hall, the torch will be set in a tripod, remaining lit until it is carried to the Olympic Stadium for the official opening of the games.

A pro-Communist newspaper, Paese Sera, disclosed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent an Olympic message to Rome, to be delivered by the Soviet embassy to the Italian games organizers shortly before today's papal audience.

The newspaper said as a result of Khrushchev's message, confirming a "spirit of brotherhood," that 10 of the Soviet Union's 400-member athletic delegation would attend the audience in the head of the Catholic Church.

After the opening ceremonies before an expected 100,000 in the Olympic Stadium, the games proper will start with eliminations in boxing and water polo Thursday night.

On Friday, seven more sports will move into action. But the kingpins of the games, track and field, do not start until next Wednesday and the last of the 18 sports to be contested, equestrian, gymnastics, weightlifting and shooting do not begin until the week of Sept. 4.

Favorable weather was predicted for the opening ceremony which will see 4,000 of the total 2,000 athletes from 85 nations parading under the late afternoon sun. The parading group was restricted because of space limitations in the white new Olympic Stadium.

The International Olympic Committee Tuesday cleared its decks for the start of the games by unanimously re-electing Chicago's Avery Brundage, 72, for another four-year term as president.

The wealthy hotel man, already president for eight years, thus defeated a reported move to unseat him. The re-election meant to unseat him was his wish, throughout the world.

The man who was thought to succeed Brundage as president, Lord Burghley of England, nominated Brundage for re-election and delegates from 37 nations backed him.

"I can only promise to throw more energy into the job," said Brundage who has the powerful handshake of a wrestler despite his years.

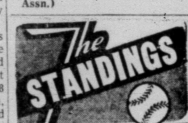

The United States reached full force in the pulsating Olympic Village with the arrival of Uncle Sam's 72-member track and field contingent and the 13-member basketball party.

Track coach Larry Snyder reported his talented squad was in top shape and he scoffed at printed charges his band might be overtrained from too many pre-Olympic meets.

BURLY EARLY SURLY Wynn Threatens Coates With 'Knot On The Head'

By ED WILKS
Now that Early Wynn has cut the New York Yankees down to size, the next step is to knock 'em flat.

The 40-year-old right-hander, a tough guy with a brush-back pitch, promised to do just that after he pitched the second-place Chicago White Sox to a 5-1 victory over New York and trimmed the Yankees' American League lead to a half-game Tuesday night.

What got Wynn riled was a ninth-inning pitch by Yankee reliever Jim Coates that just missed his head. Wynn made for the mound, but in hand, before teammates and the jumpy checked his charge.

"Sure it was a beanball," Wynn said afterward, "and someone I'm going to get all kind of 'em (the Yankees)."

"And if I get Coates outside the park, I'll put a knot on his head."

With Wynn, a first-inning placement for Billy Pierce in a sixth that led the Yanks to protect the game, putting away the 28th victory of his career, the Sox took over sole possession of second place.

The hot-running Detroit Tigers knocked Baltimore to third, 1½ games behind, by beating the Orioles 5-3 in 11 innings. Washington defeated Kansas City 3-1 and Cleveland edged Boston 3-2 in 10 innings.

In the National League, Lou Burdette followed up a no-hitter with his third consecutive shutout, a seven-hit job that gave Milwaukee a 7-0 victory at Los Angeles. The second-place Braves remained 6½ games behind the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates, who rapped Chicago's Cubs 8-3. St. Louis defeated Philadelphia 4-2, and San Francisco beat Cincinnati 6-1.

Wynn, now 10-8 with his third straight victory, allowed only four hits and faced the minimum 14 men over the last 4 2-3 innings after giving up a fifth-inning homer by losing pitcher Eli Grba (3-2). It was Grba's first in the majors, and ended Wynn's shut-out string at 16 innings.

Wynn struck out six, pushing past Hall of Famer Eddie Plank for ninth place on the all-time list with 2,114.

The Sox beat Grba with three runs in the first, one unearned, and then added two unearned runs in the seventh. A triple by Nellie Fox, a walk, one of the Yankees' three errors, and singles by Gene Freese and Al Smith wrapped it up in the first inning.

Manager Al Lopez then brought in Wynn to r-place Pierce, who made a couple of warm up tosses, but didn't pitch to a batter. The Sox lefty had pulled a muscle in a pre-game warm up. The Yankees protested, saying the rules state a pitcher must face one man, unless injured.

The Tigers made it seven in a row, their longest winning streak since 1956, when Charlie Maxwell tagged losing reliever Wes Stock (2-2) for a two-run homer in the 11th. Detroit had tied it with two in the ninth on singles by Maxwell and Rocky Colavito and a double by Al Kaline. Bill Fischer (6-6) was the winner.

Washington retained fourth place on a two-run homer by Harmon Killebrew and an inside-the-park home run by Reno Bertoia that backed southpaw Jack Krackiv, who won his fifth.

SUCCEEDS WEAVER Mutt Herod Named New QB Club Head

The Snyder Quarterback Club dove into its 1960 program with "all four feet" here in the High School cafeteria last night, with a large number of items filling the initial slate of activities.

Foremost on the program was the election of officers for the coming year. Those selected were Mutt Herod, president; Joe Williamson, vice-president; Roy Meador, secretary; and W. W. Parks, treasurer. Also named were four new directors—C. S. Cochran, Kenneth Snyder, Cass Mc-Nair and Arel Faver.

Meador is continuing in his post as secretary of the organization, while Williamson is immediate past treasurer. Herod succeeds Doc Weaver as president of the club.

In accepting the post, Herod stated that, "I'll do the best I can to fill the job. I've always backed the Tigers in every sport, and I will continue to back the coaches and boys all the way."

He further comments, "I think that John (Conley) did the best coaching job he's ever done during the past year."

In business of the night, dates were set for the annual Pigskin preview and also the watermelon feast held each year for the football boys and their dads. The preview will be held September 6, the Tuesday prior to the Tigers' home opener against Berger, and the melon feast is slated for a week prior to that, August 30.

Two new coaches in the system were introduced to the club members—Jimmy Gafford, "B" team mentor, and Dub Holt, who'll be assisting as seventh grade coach.

Coach Conley gave a brief talk on the status of the Tiger squad at the present time, painting a dark and obscure picture of the situation as it now stands. He commented that he is starting out with "the smallest squad ever," at this date there being only 28 boys on the varsity squad. "We just simply can't lose any more," he added. "That's the sum and substance of it."

He also brought to light the need for inter-city practice scrimmages due to the team's leanness. Numbers, one of which is scheduled this evening in Midland against Monahan beginning at 6 o'clock.

Then Saturday night another scrimmage is scheduled against Phillips, probably at a Hale Center site, and finally a session against Midland in Midland is to be held off the Saturday following.

Coach Dutch Stehley gave a brief rundown on a scrimmage which his "B" teamers conducted against Coahoma there yesterday, indicating that the meeting put his boys in a favorable light and that they performed well in their first outing against outside competition.

One other important item graced the first night's slate, and concerned the 3-AAA grid books which are to be placed on the city's newsstands.

The books give a complete rundown on each team in the district and hold a wealth of information on the players, coaches, and prospects. They will be put on sale immediately and will be priced at 50 cents a copy.

Wilson, Dean, Henderson In Top Efforts

It was "ladies day" at the Snyder Country Club yesterday, and the honors were split down the middle by a pair of the local link ladies.

Isabel Wilson copped both the low net and low gross laurels, while Abby Dean was low putter for the day and also nailed down the event of the day.

Two ladies stood out in play of last week, however, with Betty Henderson making the biggest splash with her nabbing of the low net and low putts for the day and also her winning of the event of the day.

She was kept from a grand slam by Ruth Bookout, who tied with her in the race for the low gross laurels.

Dynamite truly must come in small packages. At least that's the impression one gets while watching Coyote coach Eddie James.

The Coyotes, of course, are the Gall Coyotes. And they've got their work cut out for them. It's actually a gross understatement. A flashback over the past few seasons reveals that the James boys haven't been defeated during their last 25 games, a phenomenal record in any man's book. And they've produced a fine and never-ending crop of top players from their eight-man delegations during that span.

Back to Mr. Dynamite. James is short and wiry, an inconspicuous fellow size-wise. My guess is that he would tip the scales at around 140 pounds, give or take a few ounces. He has a ruddy complexion, well-tanned. And at first glance he looks a lot like Lew Burdette.

On the football practice field, however, he becomes a dynamo of perpetual motion, a jack-in-the-box, aackammerish somebody both in voice and movement. Continuous chatter, but constructive chatter is his trademark.

'No Bikinis' Is Ultimatum In Olympics

ROME (AP)—The International Swimming Federation wiggled out of a ticklish situation today—it ruled out bikinis in the Olympics.

The brazen Czechs had brought up the subject. They proposed elimination of the rule which sets certain standards for the cut of a girl's swim suit.

If adopted, the move would have opened the door for two-piece bikinis or similar scant attire.

The federation voted a prim "no."

"Our rule on swim suits isn't extreme," said Max Ritter of Jenkintown, Pa., longtime member of the federation executive board. "We say they should go so high under the armpits, so low in the back and should be in one piece."

"Mainly we set forth just two demands—the suit must be modest and it must not be transparent."

In a Church Softball League makeup game of last night in Winston Park, the second half title contending Avenue D Baptist nine strengthened their position with a 9-2 decision over the Mount Olive Baptists.

Avenue D's ace-in-the-hole, hurler, Guy Sullivan, was the victor, and he was touched for just two hits over the span of the contest.

Charles Collins went the route for Mount Olive in taking the loss' swim suit.

Politics Boils In Louisiana Again

By JACK DWENES.
BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A rough political battle between former Gov. Earl K. Long and youthful Rep. Harold McSwain for McSwain's seat in Congress today "boiled" his "tourists" and piney woods farmers alike in central Louisiana.

The Democratic second primary is Saturday, Long, 64, is attempting to defeat McSwain, 34, next-term congressman who won two years ago by fighting Long.

The prize is the Democratic nomination for the 8th District seat from Louisiana, once held by Dr. George Long, Earl's brother. In heavily Democratic Louisiana, the nomination is traditionally as good as election.

McSwain led Long by 3,000 votes in the first primary July 23, but a third candidate, Ben F. Holt, forced a runoff between the two by polling 10,000 out of 65,000 votes.

McSwain is the only man I know," Long said in one stump speech, "who can talk out of both sides of his mouth, whistle, hum a tune, smoke a cigar and hold his hand out the back door for a party all at the same time."

McSwain, who avoided getting personal in the first primary, detailed in one speech, "I didn't say Earl Long was crazy, his wife, his doctor and his close friends said that."

A Texas woman tourist who stopped for a Long rally giggled: "This and 'My Fair Lady' are the most entertaining things I've seen since coming to Louisiana."

In the background has sprung up what is called "The Committee to Save Louisiana From National Embarrassment."

The committee, headed by Roy Conn, Pineville, salesman, has bought advertisements in newspapers showing a large picture of Long with a pillow case over his head during a Texas trip last year.

"Who is this man?" the advertisement asks. The picture was taken when Long took a western junket after his release from mental hospital.

The Long-McSwain battle is one of two for Louisiana House seats. The runoff in the 7th District between former State Sen. Arsene Stewart and T. A. Thompson, the incumbent, is polite and dignified in comparison.

Long is fighting for new political life against an old political enemy, McSwain whipped Long's picked man two years ago. Before that he defeated Long's sister for a seat on the State Board of Education.

"If Earl Long was our congressman," McSwain said, "he would go all over the country and publicize our state. You wouldn't have to worry about that."

Long has called McSwain a spoiled brat. Of himself, he says he has never done "anything that would give any good Christian reason to be ashamed."

Bass Hired At Mesquite

MESQUITE, Tex. (AP)—Homer Bass, controversial figure in an East Texas school feud that cost one man's life, has been named supervisor of junior high schools at this East Dallas County town.

The news was confirmed Tuesday by School Supt. T. H. McDonald.

Trustees at Brownsboro fired Bass last May after he had been superintendent of schools for 23 years. A community split over school affairs was followed by a melee June 16 during which Thurman Jackson was fatally shot at a Brownsboro school board meeting.

McDonald said Bass was recommended for the Mesquite job by a number of other educators, including Dr. J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of schools who arbitrated a settlement of the Brownsboro troubles.

A letter from Edgar said Bass was "a capable school man of integrity. . . I would recommend him to any school in the state of Texas."

Bass' older brother, Dr. J. A. Bass, is Dallas city health officer. Dr. C. C. Rahm, who then was secretary of the Brownsboro school board, was indicted for murder in the Jackson slaying.

Bass was fired as superintendent at Brownsboro prior to graduation exercises at the Henderson County school last May. His successor at Brownsboro is H. H. Riley, formerly of Canton, Tex.

Young Texan Heads VFW

DETROIT (AP)—Ted C. Connell of Killeen, Tex., will become one of the youngest commanders of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Friday.

His current rank of senior vice-commander automatically assumes his election as commander-in-chief under the organization's promotion of officers. Connell will succeed Commander Louis Feldmann of Hazelton, Pa.

A one-time field artilleryman, Connell got in some practice at his new job Tuesday when he handled a series of votes on resolutions. Connell said his No. 1 objective will be "a stronger defense, with the standing army increased from 370,000 to 525,000 men."

The Texas delegation of more than 600 distributed a special Connell edition of the Temple Daily Telegram, which devotes almost half a page to Connell and his sendoff by Central Texas.

Extension Of U. S. 82 Set

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Highway Commission has agreed to extend U. S. 82 from Lubbock to the New Mexico state line, concurring with a New Mexico Highway Department decision to extend the route to Las Cruces.

The decision, made Tuesday, now will go to the American Association of State Highway Officials. The commission said if approval is granted the new routing will go into effect the day the 1961 highway travel map is released.

U. S. 82 begins in Georgia and ends at Lubbock. The proposed extension would follow U. S. 82 to Lubbock, Huebner and Terry counties, U. S. 300 to Terry and Young counties, and State 307 to Toyahvale County.

Traffic In Boston Is Back To Normal

BOSTON (AP)—Bostonians went to work in normal fashion today—their one-day public transportation strike ended—but business leaders figured the cost of the stoppage in millions of dollars.

The city's first transit walkout in 41 years was settled shortly before 5 p.m. Tuesday. Rapid transit lines were operating within an hour and by 6:30 the Metropolitan Transit Authority reported the system was nearly back to normal. It serves nearly 700,000 daily riders.

Dean C. Cushing, executive secretary of the Boston Retail Trade

Board, put a six-million-dollar price tag on the strike—the estimated cost to merchants alone, not counting business lost by theaters, restaurants and other lines.

In addition, ITA's 4,000 operating employees lost a day's pay totaling $85,000, and the system itself lost $125,000 revenue, according to other estimates.

The walkout began shortly before the evening rush hour Monday. The outward cause was the suspension of a veteran operator for refusing an order to work overtime.

But union spokesmen said the underlying grievance "as a dispute over arbitration of a new contract to replace one that expired Dec. 31."

Costa Rica Looks For Tourist Hike

By JACK RUTLEDGE.
SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—The conference of foreign ministers of the Organization of American States is costing Costa Rica a wad of money but the glare of the spotlight may lure more tourists, not yet a major economic factor.

One reason the ministers chose Costa Rica for the conference is because it is one of the most peaceful and free of tension. It doesn't even have an army.

Costa Rica is sometimes called the Switzerland of Central America. The climate is excellent the year around, temperatures ranging in the 70s generally. The best time to visit is during the dry season from December through April. Temperatures are so unvaried you see few thermometers.

San Jose, the capital, is a bustling city of about 215,000 sitting in a broad, fertile valley at 3,870 altitude. It was founded in 1755.

It is clean, tropical, colorful, with good hotels and better food than can be found in many Latin American nations.

It's one place in Latin America you can drink water out of faucets.

It's tropical, with bamboo, banana, bougainvillea, and huge coffee plantations turning out the country's major export. There are wild orchids and smoking volcanoes.

There are beaches on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, between which Costa Rica is wedged.

The city with its narrow streets, many not much wider than some sidewalks of New York, is bustling and happy.

Television has come to Costa Rica, and stores display them in windows—going full blast during programs—blocking the narrow sidewalks with awed children and even, adults. Stores are well-stocked with European and American merchandise.

"Finding your way around is difficult because few buildings have street numbers, and almost no streets have signs."

Five Negroes
Draw Fines

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Five Negro leaders have been fined $5 each for sitting in seats normally used by white passengers on city buses. They were convicted of disorderly conduct.

A conductor on a train, a steamship captain or a bus driver has a grave responsibility of holding the peace, and the peace was violated," said City Court Judge Beverly Boushe in passing sentence Tuesday.

The city's first sustained series of sit-ins continued with demonstrations at bus stations and restaurants in downtown department stores.

Police said 14 Negroes were arrested at various sites, charged with loitering and disorderly conduct, and released after making bond of $102 each.

Some Birds May Be 'People-Watchers'

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Robert W. Storer, zoologist and curator of birds at the University of Michigan museum, says birds have a lot of things in common with people—and "people-watching" may be one of them.

Storer points out that birds are active in roughly the same hours as people and have comparative senses of sight and sound.

Aid, he added, "They like to chatter."

The university is the site of the American Ornithologists' Union's meeting this week. Sixty papers are to be presented at the conference, which runs through Saturday.

Urban Shift Blamed For Youth Crime

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Department of Public Safety director said Tuesday youth is leading the crime parade and the shift in population from rural to urban areas is partly to blame.

"The nature of a boy never changes," Col. Homer Garrison Jr. told the Texas Peace Officers Association. "But society provides a different set of props. Youngsters are crowded together in a city with nothing to do, and they get into trouble. That problem does not exist in the country."

Other officers are: C. W. Bedard of Lufkin, first assistant director; John Hoyt of Longview, second assistant director; H. L. Ellison of Houston, educational officer; Earl Franklin of Marshall, paramilitary; W. L. Ferguson, legislative officer; D. E. Meyer of Port Arthur, sergeant-at-arms; and the Rev. Charles Danheim of Beaumont, chaplain.

The outstanding peace officer of the year award went to W. E. (Shorty) Russell of Fort Worth, undersecretary of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Tyler was a 1959 choice for next year's convention site. Ralph Kress, Cleveland first base coach, pitched a no-hit, no-run game for eight and one-third innings for Baltimore against Montreal in the 1945 International League playoffs. He lost 1-0 in nine innings.

Sept. 29 Looms As Banner Day For GOP

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Republican leaders have circled Sept. 29 on their calendars as one of the major nights of their 1960 campaign.
 President Eisenhower will make his first political speech of the campaign that night at a GOP fund-raising dinner in Chicago. His talk will be relayed by closed-circuit television to similar dinners around the country.
 Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, are expected to round out the big evening with speeches to other GOP dinners.
 Nixon's more immediate plans include speeches Friday in Atlanta, Ga., and Birmingham, Ala., after an address today in Detroit to the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention.
 Sen. Barry Goldwater R-Ariz. said he had advised Nixon to continue his campaigning in the South "because I believe the majority of Southern states will go for the Republican ticket."
 The Senate Republican Policy Committee told Nixon Tuesday that his campaign was going well. Nixon later told newsmen the group had given him "quite optimistic reports."
 Nixon's Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy, was scheduled to address a rally tonight at Alexandria, Va., just across the Potomac River from Washington. Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. said he would interrupt a vacation to welcome the nominee.

 Virginia's powerful Democratic leader, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, has not said whether he will support the Kennedy ticket.
 Separate measures backed by the two candidates to provide medical care for the aged were defeated Tuesday by the Senate. Finally approved was a program of federal grants to the states—a less liberal plan than those favored by either candidate.
 Kennedy's measure would have placed the health benefits under the Social Security system. The Nixon-backed measure called for a federal-state subsidy.
 Kennedy blamed his setback on the threat of a presidential veto. The Democratic national chairman, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, emphasized political implications when he said "with a Democratic president we will pass this program. We will bring it up next year as one of the first orders of business."
 A former Republican national chairman, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, said the defeat of the Democratic measure "was a vote of no confidence in Kennedy's leadership. Sen. Kennedy has failed to unite and lead his party."
 The religious issue—Kennedy is a Roman Catholic—bobbled back into the political news.
 North Carolina news executives attending a Capitol Hill luncheon asked Kennedy about the religious issue in the campaign. He said "I can't believe in the year 1960 the United States is going to say I cannot be president because of the church I go to. I think the country is going to be fair about it."

 Mrs. Charles Hymes of Minneapolis, president of the National Council of Jewish Women, urged all voters—particularly Jewish women—to "combat the religious prejudice which has entered the presidential campaign."
'Upgrading' Plan Urged
 HOUSTON (AP)—An "upgrading" plan in the Houston police department may help solve the high crime rate among Negroes, a Negro leader thinks.
 Dr. H. S. Bullock, chairman of Mayor Lewis Cutler's Negro Law Enforcement Committee and a sociology professor at Texas Southern University, said Tuesday upgrading of Negro police would help erase the "tarnished image" of law enforcement among Negroes.
 Houston's highest ranking Negro policemen are no detectives. There are no Negroes in the district attorney's office.
 Bullock's committee also recommended more vigorous prosecution and stiffer jury sentences in cases involving only Negroes.

Snyder Boy Top Camp Contestant
 Drake Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Snyder, was a top contestant in the final rodeo of Prude Ranch, summer camp for boys and girls.
 Young Snyder won places in the barrel race, third place in ribbon roping and second place in goat sacking. He also received ribbons for his outstanding participation in archery, riflery and swimming.
 While at Prude Ranch he participated in crafts, camp outs, sports, movies, calf riding and banding and many other activities.
 Second baseman Marv Breeding of the Baltimore Orioles is the only rookie in the league wearing uniform No. 1.

MEETING THE PRESS—Evert Carlsson, Snyder's new foreign exchange student for the coming school year stopped by the Daily News office on arrival from Sweden by jet to Dallas and by car to Snyder. The 17-year-old youth from Hofors, Sweden, is shown here as he met Daily News editor Wacil McNaire. With him is Mrs. Dan Martin, 2215 Forty-first Street, with whom he will live this year. The Martin's son, Dick will return soon from the Philippines where he has been an exchange student this summer.

Foreign Exchange Student From Sweden Arrives Here

Looking exactly like the Texas conception of a young man from Sweden, blue-eyed, yellow-haired Evert Herman Carlsson arrived in Snyder this week from his home in Hofors, Sweden, to take his place as a Snyderite for a year under the American Field Service Foreign Exchange Student program. He will be sponsored by the student council of Snyder High School.
 Evert, who will live with the Dan Martins at 2215 Forty-first Street, is having difficulty with the "slow-talking Texans" right now because they talk too fast for his English. Speaking with him one can see the puzzlement in his face as he searches his command of the English language for a word and then delight in the sparkle in the bright blue eyes as he finds it.

 This language barrier, according to Stig-Olof Fernstrom, Snyder's exchange student from Finland last year, is the main hump to be overcome by coming to Texas. Stig often said that "once you learn to think in English and learn that the literal translation of words used by Texans is usually not the right one, you've got it made."
 Arriving Monday afternoon, Evert has seen most of Snyder and the thing he seems to enjoy most is the air-conditioners, although he stated that he enjoyed seeing wide open territory that is so different from his native Sweden.
 Awaiting Evert's arrival was a letter from Stig Fernstrom telling him to act just like he was at home, that the people in Snyder were wonderful and especially telling him about the Martins and their son Dick, who will return in September from the Philippine Islands where he has been an exchange student this summer.
 After a day of struggling with English, Evert spent a happy few moments conversing in Swedish with Sven Swanson, 2013 Avenue E, who came to Snyder from Sweden in 1949.

Soviets Jump Ship
 CANAKKALE, Turkey (AP)—Two crewmen of a Soviet tanker jumped ship and asked Turkish authorities Tuesday night for political asylum. The two seamen were taken into custody. The tanker Ugleuroisk resumed its trip to the Black Sea after Turkish police refused to surrender the defectors.
