San Angelo, Abilene, Hobbs, N. M., and others, and is fully capable of giving you complete and detailed information at all times as to what is going on.

Five entrants are named in the contest for local rodeo queen and they will be chosen by the casting of ballots at any store in town where a cash purchase is made. Each 5 cent purchase entitles purchaser to one vote for any one of the entrants he desires. Those entered at present are Misses Dorothy Sullivan, Mildred Underwood, Ethel Laura Nance, Zoe Harrell, and Ruth Murrah. Others who care to enter the contest should place their name with Stump Duke immediately so that they may be in on the first stages of voting.

The winner of the contest will be announced Wednesday night at the Princess Theatre and the queen, with Doc Turk, will lead the big parade scheduled for 10 o'clock in the morning instead of at 1 p. m. as previously announced. Everyone is invited to bring their horses and ride in the parade.

At 9 o'clock in the morning the Saddle horse races are scheduled to take place. This event is to be followed by the big parade and then the big free barbecue from 12 to 1. This is to be during the first day only. At 2 p. m. the gates to the rodeo grounds will be thrown open and will remain open until 6 p. m. Then at 9 o'clock two big dances will be given, one to be a modern dance with Joe Buzze furnishing the music at the CAC hall and the other to be an old timers' dance to be held on an open-air platform.

A roping exhibition by 12-year old Ruth Bendele will also be given during the rodeo events, and a head and heeling will be added to the roping events, with the Old Mexico steers to be used in this event.

LITTLE ANNIE RUTH WARE BITTEN BY PET CAT WED.

Wednesday morning the household pet of the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ware came out from underneath the house where it had been since it had become ill a few days before. Emma Lee, 9-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ware, received a slight scratch when she caught the cat and placed it in a box. Later little Annie Ruth, 2½ years of age, decided she wanted to play with the pet and received a severe bite on the right arm.

The cat was killed and the head sent to Austin to find whether or not it had rabies. No word had been received from it late Thursday evening.

Community Public Service Company Force Have Picnic

The Employees of the Community Public Service Co. enjoyed a barbecue picnic Wednesday evening of last week at 7 o'clock at the 5-mile hill.

The goat for barbecue was furnished by John Harrison with Clyde Morris doing the barbecuing. Others of the force brought baskets of trimmings to go with the barbecue and a picnic was spread that would delight anyone.

Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs. McDuffy Kessler, Miss Betty Bassett, Ben Estes, and guests of the employees, Miss Dorothy Sullivan and William Lea.

Rev. John V. McCall returned Tuesday afternoon from a business trip to El Paso.

August Term Court Closes Tues. Afternoon

The August term of the 63rd Judicial District Court closed unofficially Tuesday with the docket wiped clean with the exception of one case which was discontinued. Judge Brian Montague returned to Del Rio on that day to hold a special session of court in which he will hear the election contest suit filed by Mrs. Dixie S. Dunn vs. Mrs. Mary Jourdan Sartwell. This suit involves the race for District clerk in which Mrs. Sartwell received 14 votes more than Mrs. Dunn who was running for re-election.

The two insurance cases between the Great American Life Insurance Co. and the American National Insurance Co., and Mrs. Alma Cook, et al, were disposed of last Thursday and Friday, an agreed judgement being entered in both cases.

Eleven tax judgements were rendered against non-resident owned lands in the County, and Delinquent Tax Collector T. R. Kuykendall stated that he had approximately fifty more for the next term of court.

The case of the State of Texas vs. Lee L. Starling, et al, was dismissed in favor of similar suits pending in Travis and Dallas counties, and in the case of the State of Texas vs. W. L. Bridges charged with a felony theft and swindling was dismissed.

Mrs. Draper Receives Broken Collar Bone In Auto Wreck

Word was received here Tuesday that while enroute to their home in Memphis, Texas, Mrs. M. J. Draper and daughters, Misses Martha and Jean, were involved in an auto accident some thirty miles this side of Lubbock. Mrs. Draper received a broken collar bone and severe cuts and bruises, while the young ladies received bruises and a severe shaking up. The accident was result of a tire blowing out which caused the car to overturn three times.

Mrs. Draper is a sister of Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. Notley Scott and Mrs. Bustin Cann.

R. R. Lancaster, Pasture Specialist for the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service spent last Monday in Terrell County looking over ranges with the county agent.

Mrs. D. C. Richey and Mrs. R. W. Williams and daughter, Elizabeth, of Carrizo Springs, spent Sunday and Monday here with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams. Mrs. Williams is the mother of Mr. Williams.

Miss Reba Taylor and Miss Marjorie Thornton of Alpine were visitors here Tuesday.

FATHER ASKS THAT WATCH BE KEPT FOR BODY OF SOLDIER

Word was received here the first of the week by Sheriff J. S. Nance to notify the people along the Rio Grande River to keep a sharp watch for the body of Harry Buckman who drowned in attempt to navigate the swollen waters through Santa Helena Canyon. The word was sent by the father of Buckman, E. V. Buckman, and stated that the government had offered a $50 reward for discovery of the body and that he would double that amount. In case of discovery Sheriff Nance asks that he be notified at Sanderson immediately or that notice is sent to Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa.

Two others, Sgt. Clyde Ryberg and Clarence Hansen, were rescued after remaining for five days on a ledge in the canyon.

Cowboy's Camp Meeting to Open August 16th

Visitors Expected From All Over State for Meeting

Fort Davis, Aug. 8.—Preparations are complete for the opening of the 49th annual session of the "cowboy camp meeting of the Davis Mountains," August 16, according to the Rev. Richard G. Irving, superintendent.

This is officially, the Bloys Camp Meeting Association, founded in 1889 by the late Rev. W. B. Bloys, D. D., a presbyterian missionary to the then wide open and thinly populated cattle country.

The association is made up of four denominations, and the preachers for the year's gathering August 16-23 have been announced as the Rev. L. D. Anderson of Ft. Worth, Descriptive; the Rev. W. R. White of Oklahoma City, Baptist; the Rev. Richard J. Parker of El Paso, Methodist; and the Rev. E. B. King of Fort Worth, Presbyterian.

In recent years much attention has been given to young people's religious activities, and the following leaders have been named for this year: Primary group, Miss Mabel Bloys of Fort Davis; juniors, Mrs. Joe Evans of El Paso; intermediates, Mrs. Loyd Mitchell Marfa; and older young people, Miss Dorothy Clark of Fort Davis.

Following a tradition of the meeting, established long ago by the frontier cattlemen, nothing is bought or sold on the grounds, nor are tents or cabins for rent, but camping space, lights, fuel and water are free. The camp site, in a grove of ancient oaks, is 6,000 feet above sea-level, and the nights are often cool people planning to attend are advised to take warm clothing and wraps. Arrangements may be made with permanent camps for meals.

A quarter of a beef is said to have sufficed for the needs of the first gathering held under an oak tree, which is now known as the "first-tree," but in these later years 25 to 30 beefs are slaughtered, and the attendance is made up in part by visitors from over Texas and adjoining states. More preachers are usually present than the people all told in the earlier years.

W. J. Ferguson and Houston Chandler made a trip to Dallas last week to select a new school bus for the route between Sanderson and Dryden. Mr. Chandler has a contract with the school board as driver for this route and will purchase the new bus so that he can better accommodate and care for the school children.

Election Ordered on Proposed Livestock Tax

Meeting Called for Monday to Discuss Matter

At the regular meeting of the Commissioners' Court Monday an election was ordered for August 27 to decide whether or not a tax would be placed on the stockmen of Terrell County for the purpose of retaining an inspector to check shipments of livestock in and through the county by truck, and to combat loss of stock by theft.

An Association was organized a few weeks ago with each member paying a certain fee. Efforts are now being put forth to place a tax of not more than one cent on sheep and goats and not more than five cents on cattle, returns of this tax to pay expenses of the inspector, etc. In such case Commissioners' Court will have complete charge of affairs and the association as organized will be discarded. Funds will not be by subscription but by the tax levied on each stockman according to the amount of livestock he may own.

Notice of a meeting of the stockmen of Terrell County at the court house on Monday, August 15, appears elsewhere in this issue of the Times, at which time the proposition will be discussed. All Terrell County livestock owners and others interested are invited to attend the meeting and to join in the discussion as to the advisability of placing the affairs in the hands of the county commissioners or retaining them in the hands of the stockmen.

John Hardgrave Wins Second in Grass Identification Contest

John Hardgrave, and W. T. Frazier, accompanied by County Agent, E. L. Williams, returned from Balmorhea last Saturday where they attended a three-day 4-H Club encampment with 72 boys from twelve other West Texas Counties.

John won second place in a grass identification contest sponsored by R. R. Lancaster of the Extension Service by finding and identifying about 45 different grasses. Norman Wright of Brewster County won first place with a score of 99, John Hardgrave 97, and Tom Johnson of Upton County scored 92 points for third place. Seventy-two different grasses were found and identified by the twenty boys in the contest.

The balance of the program consisted mostly of baseball and swimming with talks on wild game and courtesy and safety on the highways. The latter talk was made by Mr. Townsend of the Texas Highway Patrol.

77th Field Artillery Gas at Sanderson

Monday morning the 77th Field Artillery of Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa, stopped long enough in Sanderson to gas about 90 trucks which were en route to Dodd Field, Fort Sam Houston, where they were to join the Eighth Corps for Third Army maneuvers which will last some two weeks.

Gassing of the trucks was done by the Ferguson Motor Company, using something over 1,000 gallons of gasoline. Part of the trucks were serviced at the station pumps and others were serviced at the edge of town from company trucks of Mr. Ferguson.

Mrs. W. J. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, Billy, made a trip to San Antonio the first of the week.

Dale Vuelta

By W. G. (GG) Downie

Dale Vuelta's life is not devoted entirely to newspaper reporting. He, like other people, must do a little work now and then. He has to work sheep, doctor "wormies," fix fences, etc., most of the time, and cannot run all around the country looking for livestock news. Therefore, he asks each of his readers to phone in any livestock news that he may know. It really will help out. Many thanks.

What has been called Mesquite grass up to now by most West Texans, is really buffalo grass, according to government experts. The curly mesquite, they say, grows only east of the Pecos River.

Lamb shipments continued heavy out of Sanderson during the past week. Thirty cars of livestock were billed out by C. J. Watts, agent.

Dee Finley, commission man of Fort Worth, shipped 16 cars of lambs to points in Illinois, Missouri, Colorado, and Texas.

Albert Appel, Jimmie Mills, Clay Kitchens and Gene Thorne all shipped 2 cars of lambs each to Fort Worth.

Pecos and Northern Terrell County ranchmen who have recently sold their lambs include B. B. Noelke, Bill Monroe, Jerry Monroe, Worth Odum, Albert Bailey, Sid Slaughter, Charles Canon and C. H. Posey.

The three-day Hereford field tour held recently in the Highland country around Marfa, Fort Davis and Alpine, was a great success, with breeders from all over the United States attending. Its purpose was to acquaint out-of-state Hereford fanciers and raisers with conditions in the Big Bend country, of which Sanderson and Terrell County occupy the extreme eastern section.

Col Coates, Sanderson ranchman, has two pet deer. One is a blacktail and the other a white-tail. The latter was caught on the Chupadero ranch in South Texas, near Carrizo Springs.

R. N. Allen, Terrell County ranchman, reports the sale of 23 head of steers, ones, twos and threes, at $35 per head. He also sold 5 head of Corriedale-Rambouillet cross bucks to Mullins & Messeck of Plainview, and 6 head to Frank K. Harrell, of Sanderson.

A friend was recently heard to remark: "My feet have kept me out of more trouble than my fists ever will."

Upholding the modern idea of range conservation and lighter stocking are the words of John Randolph, great statesman from Virginia during Revolutionary days: "Take care of your land when you are young and when you are old, the land will provide for you." Some present-day ranchmen whose hills, although they have had rain in abundance, remain white and eroded, should heed these words of a truly great American.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. Mabel Yeates, who has been in a San Antonio hospital for the past two weeks, underwent a major operation Monday there. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Litton were with her at the time of the operation, Mr. Litton returning Tuesday and Mrs. Litton returning Wednesday. Latest reports were to the effect that she was doing fine.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

A campaign has been announced beginning next week for cleaning up the debris and other unsightly accumulations that have gathered around town in different places. This campaign should have the wholehearted support of every person of Sanderson and efforts should be put forth to have your own premises as clean as is possible.

Since the good rains received in town weeds have sprung up and are almost taking the town. County workers, under Commissioner W. J. Banner have done much to eliminate weed crops on the sidewalks and along streets but they can hardly be expected to keep all the weeds out of town unless they receive your cooperation. Mr. Banner states that anyone who has trash of any kind, whether it be weeds cut from your premises, tin cans that have accumulated over a period of months, or some other unsightly trash that detracts from the appearance of your yard, can have same removed free of charge simply by putting it in containers and placing the containers where they will be available to county trucks which will be sent around.

Tin cans, besides being very unsightly, are an ideal place for mosquitos to breed when they are allowed to lay around with a little stagnant water in them. Dr. J. C. Kern, county health officer, who announced the clean-up campaign, stresses the importance of emptying all containers which hold stagnant water in an effort to curtail the breeding of mosquitos.

It's our town—let's try to keep it clean and healthy. Many tourists travel through our town and if it is a well-kept town others will hear about it—and if it isn't well-kept they will hear about that too. Clean up your premises, cut the weeds on vacant lots adjoining you and place the trash where the truck drivers can find it. And if they fail to find it, call W. J. Banner or D. L. Duke. They will direct a driver to you.

Texas Streets and Highways Growing Safer for Travel

Austin, July 30—Texas streets and highways are definitely safer for the motoring public as shown by a steady decline in fatal traffic collisions, state police reported today.

Final tabulations of casualties in June revealed that 115 persons were killed in 1,026 accidents, a saving of 44 lives if compared with June, 1937, a total saving of 130 lives during the first half of 1938 compared with the same period of last year. There was a sharp drop in the number of crashes recorded in June compared with 1,417 reported in that month last year, when Texas' final death toll reached the unprecedented high mark of 2,043 fatalities.

A selective enforcement program—the placing of state patrolmen at strategic points where surveys show the largest number of fatal collisions taking place—which was put into effect recently, is the reason for the diminishing death rate, safety officials believe. With 300 mounted officers patrolling death stretches of highways there are authoritative predictions that Texas will rank as a safe state of the nation by the end of the year.

Encouraging to the recorders was the continued decrease in the number of pedestrians who met death under the wheels of vehicles in most instances when pedestrians crossed streets at places other than intersections. The pedestrian death toll has steadily declined from 40 in January to 21 in June.

The fatal smash-ups involving bicycle riders brought a sharp warning from Captain Homer Garrison, Jr., assistant state police director, who pointed to the four deaths crashes of this type last month as examples of carelessness. He urged that riders of cycles carry lights and abide by traffic regulations that guide motorists. In addition to the four deaths there were 27 bicycle riders severely injured in collisions.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Pugh were Sanderson visitors several hours Wednesday with Mrs. Pugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. White. They were enroute to San Antonio from Abilene where they have been making their home. Mr. Pugh is employed as bookkeeper for the Zachery Construction Co.

Never Failed Yet

GRANDVIEW.—Being a baseball enthusiast and having all the superstitions of a player in a batting slump, C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, halted his campaign for re-election just north of here at the fork of the Fort Worth-Cleburne roads to tack placards to his lucky post. "Every time I've run for state office I've tacked my own placards on this post," said Terrell. He has never lost yet. Pol. adv.

President Federal Land Bank Here August 4; Seeks Sound Loans

The Federal Land Bank of Houston is interested in making sound farm and ranch loans in West Texas, said A. C. Williams, President of The Federal Land and General Agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, who was in Sanderson Aug. 4, 1938, conferring with Alfred E. Creigh Jr., secretary-treasurer, and other officials of the Sanderson National Farm Loan Association.

"In spite of the passing of the emergency when loans were made at a rate as high as $1,000,000 a day, there still exists a steady demand for long term land mortgage loans," Mr. Williams said. "Texas farmers and ranchers," he continued, "are coming more and more to recognize the many advantages offered by Federal Land Bank loans. These loans are made on what is known as an amortization plan, whereby reasonable semi-annual payments gradually reduce the principle portion of the loan as the interest is paid. Provision is made for repayment over a long term of years, permitting semi-annual payments to be as small as is consistent with loans are now being made by The Federal Land Bank at the low interest rate of four percent per annum."

Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans now outstanding in Texas total more than $262,474,000 and represent about 38 percent of the entire farm mortgage debt of Texas as estimated in the 1935 census. Mr. Williams expressed his appreciation of the work being done by the local National farm loan associations both in making new loans and servicing loans already made.

ELECTRIC COOKERY is Fast

Today's Electric Ranges Cook as Fast as Food Can Cook

If you have thought of electric cookery as slow, the speed of today's electric range will completely revolutionize your ideas. The turn of a switch brings instant glowing heat—all the heat you'll ever want or need. Surface units cook vegetables with little or no water, which speeds up cooking because there is so much less water to heat. Ovens bake perfectly without preheating—a real time saver. Broiler units provide quick searing heat for fast broiling. Yes—electric cookery is fast. It's also cool, clean, safe, economical and time releasing. See the new Hotpoint and Westinghouse electric ranges on display at our office. Let us explain the many advantages of electric cookery.
