Cut In State's Oil Production Ordered

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission ordered today a cut of 78,347 barrels a day in Texas permissive oil flow for May.

The commission set the allowable at 3,290,224 barrels daily.

The commission retained the 16-day flow allowed for April but the 31-day month of May would result in the decrease in the average daily allowable.

Exceptions to the 16-day flow statewide and in the big East Texas Field were: Ft. Chadbourne, 13 days; Adamc Devonian, Jigger Y, and McElroy fields, 15 days; Round Top, 12 days.

Of the 11 oil companies represented at the statewide proration hearing, all recommended a cut in daily permissive flow.

Four companies asked for the 16 day production, 5 asked for 15 days and 2 asked for only 14 days.

Humble, Sun, Texas and Continental oil companies told the commission the present 16-day flow would satisfy their needs.

Atlantic, Gulf, Magnolia, Sinclair and Tide Water Associated asked for 15 days. A 15-day flow will drop production 220,000 barrels daily.

Stanolind and Phillips requested only 14 days.

The Round Top Field was reduced from 16 to 12 days and will result in an added drop of a little less than 1,000 barrels a day statewide.

Humble and Cities Service have been taking about 118,000 barrels a month from the field and with a 25 per cent cut will bring on the added drop, making the cut ordered by the commission of a little more than 79,000 barrels daily. The final exact figure was not announced at once by the commission.

Patterson To Aid Johnson In Campaign

Sen. Lyndon Johnson today appointed Robert R. Patterson to spearhead the Johnson-for president move in Scurry County.

Patterson, state representative for this district, said that a meeting would be called, probably for Saturday, for all Democratic precinct chairmen and others interested in the movement.

In a telegram to Patterson Sen. Johnson said, "It is evident now that major efforts will be made to prevent Texans from sending a united, effective delegation speaking for all Texans to the national convention. Texas' viewpoint and Texas principles cannot be worked for and expressed by a delegation which will not seek to participate sincerely in the Democratic convention.

"This is an important fight for principle. Personalities are not involved. Texas must not lose its last chance for dignified place of constructive influence in the Democratic party."

Patterson said the site and time of a meeting would be announced tomorrow. Patterson said he was urging interested persons to contact him at 3-5881.

Sen. Johnson's campaign headquarters in Austin plans to release the names of a statewide campaign committee this afternoon. This list is expected to contain the names of many conservative supporters of Gov. Shivers in the past who are now endorsing Johnson as a favorite son presidential candidate and also for chairman of the Texas delegation to the national convention.

Blaze Razes WF Building

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—The central section of Midwestern University's million dollar administration building was razed by fire of undetermined origin last night. Blazes threatened for several hours to destroy the entire 3-unit structure.

The fire was discovered about 10:30 p.m. when flames were seen shooting from the carillon tower. Firefighters worked until shortly after midnight and brought the fire under control.

They kept it confined to the center section and saved the auditorium and gymnasium on opposite ends of the several hundred feet long building.

An estimate of the damage had not been made but university officials said it would probably run high because of laboratory and other equipment was destroyed.

The center section of the building was completed in 1937 at a cost of $475,000. The gymnasium and auditorium were added.

Icardi Is Freed On Perjury Count

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Army Lt. Aldo L. Icardi was acquitted today of charges of perjury. He was accused of falsely denying complicity in the World War II murder of OSS Maj. Wiliam V. Holohan behind enemy lines in Italy.

The acquittal was directed by U. S. Dist. Judge Richmond B. Keech on a defense motion to throw out the indictment.

Under court rules, since the jury already had been sworn, the motion amounted to one for a judgment of acquittal.

There can be no government appeal.

Icardi, 35, is now a real estate broker in Pittsburgh. An Italian court convicted him in absentia of murder — meaning without being able to get Icardi's presence in court.

The perjury charge in the court here was brought after Icardi testified before a House Armed Services subcommittee in March, 1953, and swore he had no part in the slaying of Holohan.

Judge Keech ruled that Icardo's allegedly false testimony before the House subcommittee could not have been material to the subcommittee's inquiry.

Icardi, the father of five children, listened tensely as Judge Keech delivered a long legal opinion in which he said the subcommittee was "not functioning as a competent tribunal" when Icardi testified.

And, assuming that it was functioning as a competent tribunal, he said, Icardi's allegedly false answers "did not relate to a material matter."

Grace Kelly, Prince Repeat Vows In Monaco Ceremonies

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP) — Serenely composed, Grace Kelly became the wife of Prince Rainier III today in the eyes of their Church. Pope Pius XII sent them a special blessing. They were married in law yesterday in a civil ceremony which made her Princess of Monaco.

Under the high-vaulted roof of Monaco's crowded Roman Catholic cathedral, the Hollywood film star and her Mediterranean Prince exchanged wedding vows—"until death do you part"—in a 63-minute ceremony during which the Prince had trouble puting the ring on her finger. Grace helped him. She had no trouble with the ring she gave him

Once she gulped and appeared near tears. That was when the most Rev. Gilles Barth, Roman Bishop of Monaco, reminded the couple of their responsibilities as a married couple. Today's ceremony was kissless, as was yesterday's.

The 26-year-old Oscar winner and the 32-year-old ruler of this 370 - acre principality answered "oui" quietly as Bishop Barthe asked each in turn the key question: "Do you take this . . .?"

Rainier twiddled his thumbs and fingers and once had to briefly untangle himself from the sword that hung from his powder blue and yellow striped Napoleonic pants. Only once during the ceremony did the Prince steal a gance at his beautiful princess. This was toward the end, and she flashed him a quick, breathless smile.

Grace maintained her icy calm even when the 3½ yard long train to her dress caught on her chair. She didn't even flicker one of her lovely eyelids when 6 - year - old page boy Sebastian von Furstenberg dropped her ring at the beginning of the rites.

.87 INCH RAIN HERE

Rain, Cool Spell Hits

The Snyder area was hit Wednesday and today by what the Weather Bureau referred to as a "cold wedge" but there were no complaints.

The cool spell brought welcome rains which soaked all of Scurry County and most other areas of West Texas.

In Snyder, David Strayhorn reported .87 of an inch in the official gauge, and reports this morning indicated that figure was about average for the county.

Apparently the rainfall in various localities ranged from about 3 of an inch to more than one inch over Scurry County. Some areas east of Snyder reported up to an inch, while measurements in some localities to the south and southwest were slightly over one inch. The lighter showers were in the northwest part of the county.

Although the rain, which came mostly in slow drizzles, did little to replenish stock tanks, it was ideal for farm and range land, and it was Scurry County's biggest rain of the year so far. There was little runoff with most of the moisture soaking into soil that had been parched by severe sand storms during the past three weeks.

Skies were still overcast over most of West Texas this morning, and forecasts indicated a possibility of more moisture today and tonight.

By The Associated Press

Hail, sleet, snow and rain in a strange mixture of late winter weather has brought badly-needed moisture to a number of Texas points.

The snow fell at Lubbock last night. It covered the ground and bushes.

Hail fell at Midland and Big Spring Rains, varying from a trace to .72 of an inch, fell Wednesday and were continuing early Thursday at a number of points.

The hail, snow, sleet resulted from a layer of warm air sliding over cold air and underneath high clouds that reached up to 11,500 feet, the Weather Bureau said.

Hailstones which started falling from the higher cloud mass almost melted before they reached the ground and fell as light sleet or snow, the Weather Bureau said. The ground temperature was about 40 degrees at the time.

A Reese Air Force Base plane from Lubbock was struck by lightning while aloft but the plane suffered only minor damage and the pilot and his two student passengers made a safe landing.

The heaviest rainfall up to 6:30 a.m. Thursday was .72 of an inch at Abilene. Other totals included Big Spring .44, Mineral Wells .27, Amarillo .22, Odesa and Midland .20, Lubbock .19, Dallas .09, Fort Worth .08, Wink .07, Alpine and Electra .05.

The forecast called for continued cloudy weather over most of the state, scattered rain showers, and little changes in temperatures.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 39 at Amarillo to 72 at Brownsville. Wednesday afternoon Brownsville with an 82 was the warmest spot in the state and Big Spring with 48 the coolest.

More Rainy Weather Is In Prospect

Rain fell during the night along the Atlantic coast from Virginia northward through Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Scattered showers or rain fell in the central Rockies and far Southwest. Thundershowers hit the Los Angeles area and the southwest desert region last night. Thundershowers also were reported over most of Utah, Colorado and parts of southern Wyoming.

Rain that started in central Texas yesterday diminished during the night Precipitation this morning was in northeast and south central Texas.

The warming trend continued over the Pacific Northwest and extended into Montana and Wyoming. Temperatures in the Sacramento Valley were mostly in the low 80s yesterday.

There was slight warming in most of the middle Mississippi Valley and the northern Great Lakes region but cooler weather was reported in other sections of the country.

The committee vote was 36-7 to give the administration funds to put into emergency operation the President's plan to pay farmers for taking a percentage of the surplus croplands out of production.

Three Hurt In Accidents Near Snyder

Two automobile accidents near here yesterday and last night resulted in injuries to three persons, Bill Love, sheriff's deputy who investigated, said.

One of the accidents occurred just before noon yesterday on the Roby highway east of Snyder.

Mrs. Nancy Jennings, 23, wife of Joe Ellis Jennings, 24, of El Paso, driver of their car, was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Love. Her condition was not believed serious.

The other person injured in the accident was Mrs. Christine Benito, 25, wife of Richard Benito, 35, of New York City, driver of the other car.

Love said that one of the cars skidded on a rainslick highway into the rear of the other car. Both cars were damaged.

The other accident occured about 2:10 o'clock this morning 24 miles north of Snyder, four miles north of the Scurry-Garza county line in Garza County.

Jimmy Lee Hull, 22, of Lubbock was driver of the transport truck. It was not heavily damaged, but Love said the car was heavily damaged.

Love was called to investigate the accident because highway patrolmen for this area were not available. He would normaly not investigate out-of-county accidents.

Love said that none of the accident victims were seriously injured.

Insurance Firms Are Called Sound

DALLAS (AP)—Gov. Shivers told a meeting of insurance commissioners today that the "illness of the Texas insurance industry proved to be a minor one and not an epidemic."

The governor spoke to a zone five meeting of the National Assn. of Insurance Commisioners.

"The Texas insurance industry as a whole is a responsible, sound industry which is making untold contributions to the progress of this state and nation," Shivers said.

"The vigor and judgment of the Texas Insurance Commission, strengthened by the fine laws passed by the Legislature, have protected this healthy, growing industry from the abuses of unworthy and incompetent operators."

The governor said that of the nearly 900 insurance companies with home offices in Texas, less thn 80 have failed in 15 years.

He said 60 per cent of the failures involved companies holding only 3 per cent of the insurance assets of the state. The governor said only 5 per cent of the failures have occurred among companies holding over 92 per cent of the insurance assets.

"These figures show clearly that most failures have been among the fringe operators, the people who didn't have the resources or the experience to be in the business in the first place," Shivers said.

Shivers praised the Insurance Commission for taking "the lead in pushing the new laws that were needed" and the Legislature for its acting "with resoluteness and directness to eliminate the weaknesses in our insurance laws."

Cranes Start Going North

WASHINGTON (AP)—The northward flight of the 27 whooping cranes making up the only known surviving flock has started, the Fish and Wildlife Service said today.

The service appealed to humans not to molest the big white birds on their 2,500-mile flight from the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas to their summer grounds near Great Slave Lake in Canada. A regular resting place for them is along the Platte River in Nebraska.

The service said only 8 young whoopers made the trip to Arkanso far as is known. Last fall 28 whoopers made the trip to Aransas but during the winter one of the adults disappeared. Only 21 of the cranes were in the northward flight last spring.

The birds are large enough to be seen easily and recognized—five feet tall with a seven-foot wing spread, white except for a red crown and black wing tips.

It is against the law to shoot the birds. The Service said no large white bird may be legally shot at this time of year so it is imposible to bag a whooper by "mistake."

Dag Confers With Israel

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold announced today Egypt and Israel have agreed to an unconditional cease-fire on their borders, effective at 6 p.m. last night "and from that time on."

The U.N. Secretary General's announcement came out through headquarters of the U.N. Palestine Truce Commission almost 24 hours after the agreed deadline for an end to the hostilities such as those which flared dangerously two weeks ago.

The announcement of the agreement was issued simultaneously in Cairo, Jerusalem and the U.N. headquarters in New York.

"At the request of the Secretary General of the United Nations," it said, "the governments of Israel and Egypt have notified him that as of 6 p.m., April 18, and from that time on, orders are in force to the effect that, in implementation of assurances to observe Article 2, Paragraph 2 of the (Israeli-Egyptian) armistice agreement, no military or paramilitary force, including nonregular forces, may shoot across the demarcation line or pass over that line for any purpose whatsoever."

That Article of the armistice agreement says:

"No element of the land, sea or air military or paramilitary forces of either party, including nonregular forces, shall commit any warlike or hostile act against the military or paramilitary forces of the other party, or against civilians in territory under the control of that party; or shall advance beyond or pass over for any purpose whatsoever the armistice demarcation line set forth in Article 6 of this agreement, and elsewhere shall not violate the international frontier, or enter into or pass through the waters within three miles of the coastline of the other party."

Third Monaco Theft Probed

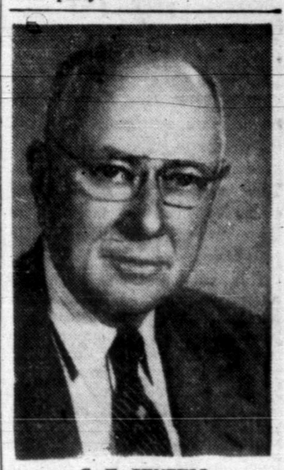
MONTE CARLO, Monaco, April 19 (AP)—Monaco's third—and biggest—robbery of the weeklong wedding celebration for Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III was announced today.

Police said five rare paintings valued at more than $95,000 were stolen yesterday afternoon from the home of Dr. S. Mikhaelos, a wealthy resident of the principality. The home is on the Boulevard DesMoulins, Monaco's equivalent of Park Avenue.

Earlier jewels totaling $55,000 in value were stolen from a wedding guest, Mrs. Matthew McLoskey of Philadelphia, and from one of the bridesmaids, Mrs. Maree Pamp of Philadelphia.

The most valuable of the paintings was a Rubens portrait, valued at about $70,000. Also stolen were a Rubens portrait of an Apostle, Van Dyck's Deposition of Christ, a Guido Reni of David holding Goliath's head and a portrait of a young girl by John Russell.

Descriptions of the paintings were flashed to police throughout France. Security forces at ports and airfields were asked to keep a close watch.



C. F. SENTELL
. . . seeks office

Sentell Will Seek District Attorney Post

C. F. Sentell, Snyder attorney, announced today that he is a candidate for district attorney of Scurry and Borden Counties, the 132nd Judicial District.

Sentell is well known throughout the two counties in the district. He has had varied and extended experience in criminal law, both in the prosecution and defense of criminal cases, and is fully qualified to efficiently handle the duties of district attorney, his announcement stated.

The candidate states that he will use his experience to attend to the duties of the office with diligence, fairness, and economy; that his experience will enable him to know a case that should be prosecuted and how to meet opposition, and as well to avoid the prosecution of persons who are innocent.

"It is expensive and a waste of the time of the court and of a jury panel, and of the jury selected to prosecute a case where the evidence does not justify conviction, only to have the jury return a verdict of 'not guilty'," Sentell said.

Sentell states that felony law violations should be prosecuted, but that fairness and economy should be carefully practiced, and that his experience will enable him to render the best of service along these lines.

He has served three terms in

Vote Set On New Park Facilities

(Editors note—this is the second in a series of articles on the $205,000 bond proposal which will be submitted to Scurry County's tax-paying voters Saturday).

From virtually every standpoint, Towle Memorial Park is the most popular recreation spot in Scurry County. This county facility is used regularly by individuals, family groups and organizations from throughout Scurry County, and even by visitors.

Although Towle Memorial Park is being improved constantly, its facilities already are hard pressed to take care of demands during peak periods of the spring and summer. Moreover, it is not easiy accessible to many residents, particularly in the immediate Snyder area.

Consequently, $65,000 of the total $205,000 bond proposal to be voted upon Saturday has been proposed for providing additional park facilities. The original proposal would call for a new park at some site within easy walking distance of the Abraham Lincoln School.

Facilities envisioned for such a park include a swimming pool, a baseball diamond, picnic areas and some playground equipment. Proponents of the park proposal believe that such a park would fill a definite need in the community.

In addition, it has been proposed that some of the funds be used to construct picnic facilities in some of the country's rural communities.

The park project is one of three separate proposals in the over-all $205,000 bond issue. A proposal of $90,000 has been made to construct a public library, and $50,000 to provide an additional runway at Winston Field.

The county's financial condition is such that the entire three-fold program could be financed with five-year bonds with a tax provision of about four and a half cents for that period.

East Germans Seeking To Take Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—East German Communists are setting up a menacing clamor to erase the four-power status of Berlin and take over. They call the city's four-power status a legend and threaten the three Western sectors with new restrictions.

This clamor could foreshadow a fresh attempt by the Reds to annex West Berlin, an island surrounded by East Germany and 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

East Germany's Communist party boss, Walter Ulbricht, hints at uniting Berlin by infiltration among workers.

Divided Berlin has been a focal point in the East-West struggle since the end of World War II. For 11 months during 1948-49, the Russians blockaded the city in an attempt to force the Western allies out. The attempt was thwarted by the giant airlift, which brought food, clothing and other essentials to more than two million West Berliners.

In their campaign to annex West Berlin, the Communists also have made use of their control over the access routes to the isolated city from West Germany.

Last year they boosted taxes on western trucks bringing in supplies on grounds the money was needed to keep up the roads. West Berlin officials called the levies exorbitant and paid them through government subsidies. In another move, the Russians announced that East Berlin was the sovereign capital of sovereign East Germany. When two U.S. congressmen were detained in East Berlin, the Russians told protesting Western officials to take the matter up with the East Germans.

The U.S. commander, Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher nipped this move in the bud, however. He insisted on dealing only with the Russians.

Prisoners in Cook County Jail Revolt

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 50 prisoners demonstrated for 10 minutes in the Cook County jail yesterday.

Guards brought the prisoners under control after the inmates had broken 26 windows and smashed furniture in a dayroom on the jail's ground floor.

Warden Jack Johnson said the outbreak apparently was staged in resentment over a shakedown of jail cells. The prisoners demonstrated while waiting in the dayroom to be led back to their cells following the routine check.

Johnson said five ringleaders were put into solitary confinement and that the others would be denied all privileges for one week.

Government Charged In Polio Suits

BOISE, Idaho — Parents of two Idaho children felled by polio during mass vaccinations last spring charge the federal government was to blame because of what they call negligence in permitting dangerous serum to slip into the program.

Exactly one year after their daughter was inoculated, Lester and Myrtle Pierce of Pocatello filed suit in Federal District Court here yesterday, seeking $150,588 damages for her death.

Susan Diane Pierce, 7, died April 29 of bulbar polio, 9 days after she was inoculated. She was the first child in the nation to die after receiving shots of Salk vaccine.

In a separate suit, Kenneth Turner of American Falls asked for $250,000 damages. He claimed his son, Terry, 5, became paralyzed in both legs after "close association" with a brother who had been inoculated.

Both suits named "The United States of America" as defendant and said government agencies carelessly permitted "live-virus laden" vaccine to be injected into children. The suits named Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif., as the source of the vaccine, but the firm was not named as a defendant.

Idaho caled off the mass vaccination program last May because of a statewide outbreak of polio. The program was resumed late this March on a limited basis after state health officials concluded new testing methods removed the risk of running into faulty vaccine.

The Telegraph said the weapon is 11 inches in diameter, and big enough to carry an atomic warhead.

Teach Jazz, Pianist Says

ST.LOUIS (AP)—America's music teachers have been urged to teach fundamentals of jazz "as an important American art form."

Dave Brubeck, modern jazz pianist, yesterday demonstrated his piano techniques at the closing session of the National Conference of Music Educators.

"There's no mystery about jazz," Brubeck said. "It's based as much on fundamentals as anything you can teach."

George Avakian, director of jazz artists for Columbia Records, told the teachers he isn't worried about the current "Rock and Roll" craze.

It is neither a cause nor an effect of juvenile delinquency, he said

Margaret Getting Ready For Wedding

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — There was an air of quiet anticipation in Independence today as the folks at 219 North Delaware awaited the arrival of the bridegroom-to-be.

E. C. Daniel Jr., the New York newspaperman who will be wed Saturday to Margaret Truman, was due in neighboring Kansas City, by air, about noon.

Margaret planned to meet him at the airport. Daniel will be a house guest of her parents, former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman. So will Daniel's parents, Mr and Mrs. E. C. Daniel Sr. of Zebulon, N.C., who are due tomorrow.

A big family party is scheduled at the Truman home tonight. It's to give Daniel a chance to meet Margaret's aunts, uncles and cousins.

Meanwhile, Independence continued to take wedding preparations in stride.

In the big, white, freshly-scrubbed frame house on Delaware Street there was "hustle and bustle," the lady of the house said.

But the emphasis was on keeping wedding preparations quiet—and thorough.

"We want the wedding to be very solemn and serious—because it is," Truman said.

"They've got me muzzled," he added. He wouldn't talk politics—not to the point of saying something that might be controversial, anyway.

He explained: "I wouldn't want anything to happen that would embarrass the boss or Margie." The "boss" is Mrs. Truman, and he made it clear she's giving the orders this week.

Margaret, 32, and Daniel, 43, will be wed at 5 p.m. Saturday in little Trinity Episcopal Church, where her parents were married 37 years ago. It's just a few blocks around the corner.

The Rev. Patric Huton, the young-looking rector, said the couple received premarital instructions of the Episcopal Church in New York.

Trinity church can accommodate only about 125 people, so invitations to the wedding have been limited to the families and close friends. These also will attend a reception afterward at the Truman home.

Margaret will wear a beige wedding gown of 300-year-old Venetian lace, designed by Nicole Fontana, an Italian designer who will be among wedding guests.

Four Miners Are Buried After Cavein

SUNNYSIDE, Utah (AP) -- Coal miners dug deep in a mountain side tunnel early today, hopeful but doubtful of finding still alive four miners buried in a cave-in.

The roof of the mine collapsed yesterday afternoon while six men worked in the tunnel. Two of them escaped.

The choked tunnel leads from the main slope of the Kaiser Steel Corporation's No. 2 mine at this desolate spot in mountainous east central Utah.

Rescue operations began at once, with co-workers of the trapped men attacking the jumbled mound of drubble with mechanical coal diggers.

Relatives of the men trapped inside stood alongside miners waiting to help in the rescue operations.

Rescue workers reported they had heard no cries for help nor noticed any other signs of life in the mound of rubble.

A mine spokesman identified the four as LaVell Marion Golding of Wellington, Utah, Joe Archuletta of Dragerton, and Lloyd D. Heath and Joe Otterstrom of Sunnyside.

North Dakota's lignite mines produce about three million tons a year.

Aikin Endorsed

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris received yesterday the endorsement of the house of delegates of the 1,700-member San Antonio Teachers Council in his campaign for lieutenant governor. The council praised Aikin for "the terrific struggle he has waged as the champion of the Texas teaching profession."

Glen Taylor Seeks Office

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — Glen Taylor, cowboy turned politician who once was a senator and ran for vice president in 1948 on the Progressive party ticket, said yesterday he would run again for the Senate.

Taylor will seek the Democratic nomination for the Senate seat now held by Republican Herman Welker. Five other Democrats also are trying to win the nomination. One, Mayor Theron Ward of Jerome, also announced his candidacy yesterday.

It will be Taylor's sixth try for the Senate. He lost the nomination in 1940 and 1942 but won in 1944 and served six years. He ran again but lost in 1950 and 1954.

Now 52, Taylor ran on the Progressive ticket in 1948 with Henry Wallace as the presidential candidate.

Raise Lake Level

DALLAS (AP)— Army Engineers were asked by Dallas yesterday to raise the level of Garza-Little Elm Lake from 515 to 522 feet to provide more city water storage space.

The City Slickers

Not until next November will anyone be able to say for sure the effect President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill will have on the so-called farm vote.

The farmers themselves were far from one mind regarding the merits of that bill. Also, if Congress heeds the President's request to pass the soil bank plan and half of the proposed benefits are made available this year, it will give the administration a talking point. By the same token if Congress —meaning the Democratic majority plus a few Republicans who joined them to pass the vetoed bill in the first place—turns down the soil bank request, the possible balance against the administration may be redressed, and the effects of the veto offset.

However, no one incident can be said to turn farm sentiment one way or the other. The farmers have been suffering, alone among our major economic groups, for more than two years now, and the principal blame falls upon the "ins." The cumulative effect of disappointment and discontent is really the deciding factor, and if the farmers as a class accept the veto as fresh evidence that the Republican Party isn't the farmer's friend, and has no serious intention of doing anything about the sorry state of agriculture, nothing that party can do between now and the election will offset the effect of the presidential thumbs-down.

So, while the veto may not be a deciding factor of itself, it may become the final straw on the camel's back—a fact that may not become apparent until next November.

It may be that the shrewd politicians around Mr. Eisenhower who advised him to veto the bill fell the same way about the "farm vote" as Northern Democrats and Republicans alike feel about the South—that is, not essential to victory at the polls, a sort of poor relation who has to be kidded along, but not really important when the chips are down.

If the results are not what they expect, it won't be the first time the city-slickers have been taken to cleaning by the boys from the forks of the creek.

Bulgy And Khrush

A couple of sawed-off pudgy Soviet statesmen whom the British press uniformly speaks of as "Bulgy and Khrush" desended upon the British Isles this week. Premier Bulganin and Party Secretary Khrushchev are spoken of as "traveling salesmen," but there is some doubt about the line of goods they carry in the island kingdom.

"Bulgy" has given his word that their stock in trade will not be anti-Americanism. "Our country wants to be friends with the friends of Britian, too," he declared a week ago. "We do not need to deprive Britian of her friends."

Well, that was thoughty of "Bulgy." But it just so happens that the posture of Anglo-American friendship in under-going an acid test just now in the Middle East, where Britian wishes to employ its traditional show of force to cool the Arabs off, and the American administration in Washington is just as dead set against making any move resembling force, with an election coming on and "peace and prosperity" the watchword.

Trust "Bulgy and Khrush" to find countless small ways to aggravate this momentary rift within the lute of Anglo-American accord. The fact that Russia herself is fishing in the roiled waters of the Arab-Israeli controversy won't hamper them in the least. They are old hands, by this time at the art of smiling sweetly while driving the dagger home.

The "new look" which the Kremlin has assumed for purposes of fooling the yokels consists in hail-fellow-well-met tactics to mask its real purpose—the stealthy aproach, better known as the "front" movement. You can do business with us, they say; you can let us put a few members in your government just to demonstrate that no hard feelings exist; you can even take one of our boys into your inner cabinet, and no harm done.

That is the approach which led to the downfall of every European satellite now under the iron heel of Moscow.

American Policy In Palestinian Row Is Cleared By President's Statement

By WALTER LIPPMANN

The main line of American policy in the Palestinian disorders has been clarified very considerably by the statement that the President issued from Georgia. We shall work primarily with and through the United Nations, relying in case of big fighting in Palestine upon the Security Council to determine who is the aggressor, and who is the victim to be defended.

This is, I believe, a beter line of policy than the alternative, which would be for London and Washington and Paris to make themselves the sole judges of aggression and to assume the whole responsibility for intervention. This alternative line, which would make the Tripartite Declaration of 1950 rather than the Charter of the U. N. the sovereign document, has two very serious disadvantages.

This first disadvantage is that it asserts a Western jurisdiction in the Middle East which is contrary to the facts of the actual situation and also to the spirit of the times. The second disadvantage is that an Anglo - American attempt to pacify the Middle East would carry with it the incalculable risk that the Soviet Union would then have a free hand to throw its weight around.

The great advantage of working through the U.N. is that it seeks the collaboration of the Soviet Union in working out agreements to prevent war, and it fixes the fact that the Soviet Union has a solemn responsibility for the prevention of war. It is the part of wisdom not to have the Soviet Union operating, so to speak, from the outside and with a free hand, publicly accountable to no one. An Anglo - Amerian attempt to act outside the U.N. and without consultation with the U.N. could go a long way to giving the Soviet Union a moral right to exercise a free hand of its own. The Soviet Union has entered deeply into the Middle East and, as she is a principal power in the U.N., she now holds the keys to war and peace.

The threatened Palestinian war is just the kind of war that the United Nations is designed to prevent. There are no great powers directly involved. The United Nations recognizes in the veto provision the fact that if the great powers themselves are in direct and vital conflict, the U.N. can do nothing more than attempt to conciliate. But where only small powers are involved, it is posible to limit if not to prevent war, provided the Big Five concur.

A Palestinian war can certainly be limited and probably prevented if the Big Five concur. The Soviet Union has already concurred in the decision to send Mr. Hammarskjold to Palestine. The American policy is surely right in assuming that the next step is to seek more of that collaboration on the implementation of Mr. Hammarskjold's recommendations.

It is not feasible, it seems to me, to take the alternative line, which would leave the Soviet Union on the outside relieved of responsibility under the Charter. A unilateral Anglo - American intervention in Palestine, which ignored the power and the responsibilities of the Soviet Union, as well as the opinions of the rest of the United Nations would be subject to all the risks of Soviet intervention. Palestine is not right up against the Soviet frontier as Korea and Indo-China were up against the Chinese frontier. Nevertheless Soviet intervention in the Middle East by infiltration, by propaganda and by arms running could not be prevented. This might not lead to a world war. But it might well lead to a long, indecisive and frustrating guerrilla war.

The keys to peace are, I say again, in the hands of the Soviet Union. If Moscow speaks the word in Cairo and we speak it in Tel-Aviv, there is every reason to think that war can be prevented. The word that needs to be spoken in Cairo is that the Soviet Union is opposed to war as the way to settle the Palestinian conflict. The word that needs to be spoken in Tel - Aviv is that Israel, while defending itself against these provocative raids, must not forfeit the support of the U.N. and of Britain and America by going on with the policy of big retaliatory blows.

The word should be spoken everywhere through diplomatic channels and publicly through the information services that this is not only a test of the U.N. but its greatest opportunity. For it is committed to preventing a war which the U.N. can in fact prevent. All that is required is the concurrence of the great powers, everyone of which has vowed that it is a peace-loving state.

RADIO-TV REPORT

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Not long ago a bright young man who is making a study of the television industry under a foundation grant interviewed me concerning my role as a television critic.

He set me to wondering just what is the proper function of criticism in this big new industry. It's easy, of course, for any critic to overestimate his importance. But criticism, while it seldom affects general trends in the industry, sometimes does have an affect on television programming.

So a critic does, in a sense, talk to the industry as well as to the viewing public. The creative minds of televison care what critics think—as long as it's a balanced opinion offered without peevishness. As far as I know from personal experience, TV sources do not try to exert pressure on critics' opinions apart apart from the customary mild blandishments of publicity agents

Several months ago a press agent told me that one other critic and I were the only two in the country, as far as he could learn, who had panned a certain show. "But you've got a right to your opinion," he said. "It's a free country."

Indeed it is. But it's heartening to see such a spirit at large in an industry whose methods often are unjustly maligned by persons who actually know little about it.

There is one state of mind, apparent in some critics, that does trouble those in the world of television. That is a state of superiority to the medium. It's a curious phenomenon never before so widely apparent in any field of criticism.

I agree with those in television who see it this way: If you honestly believe that television is a branch of the creative arts, you are capable of separating its best from its worst efforts. If you honestly believe it's a great entertainment medium, you are capable of judging its better from its worse attempts.

But if you hold it in total contempt as a medium, how are you capable of judging its works? You are like a drama critic who hates the form of the drama or a book-reviewer who would abolish the printing of books.

This Is A Good Business Week Despite Distractions Of Love, Politics, Sports

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite all the distractions of love and politics and sports this week business confidence and activity is managing to creep higher.

It's a big week, all right. The two most written-about romances of the nonce are at the "I do" stage. The national pastime got under way with President Eisenhower tossing out the first baseball. He also has tossed the farm problem right back to Congress and to the two parties' national committees. Color TV moves one short step nearer the ordinary fellow, with a $15 cut in the price of a tube. Russia's top travelers bounce into London.

Business confidence seems sturdy enough to rise above all this.

So far confidence has shown itself mostly on paper — in industry's optimistic plans to plunk down 35 billion dollars this year for expansion and its eagerness to borrow money from the banks and other financial sources at steadily higher interest rates.

In the regions where growth has been the most astounding in recent months and year it's hard to find there has ever been any leveling off in the boom, such as some of the staider regions displayed in the last few months.

To name just a few, in Albuquerque, Phoenix and Tucson housing developments go right on endlessly reaching out row on row toward the mountains. In cities like that the report that housing starts dropped for the nation as a whole is met with indifference. Businessmen out that way just can't believe the boom can ever end.

Some concrete evidence of increased activity in the industrial picture in the entire nation is also at hand today, to back up the growth in confidence in the business community.

The American Iron & Steel Institute says the steel mills have just turned out more tonnage than in any other week in history. The Aluminum Assn. says production of that metal has set a record high for the first three months of the year.

Construction contract awards in general are being signed in exceptionally large volume.

Looking at all this and more the Federal Reserve Board finds industrial activity in March and April a little higher on an unadjusted basis. But it says the output of consumer goods didn't increase as much as expected with the spring thaws, so its adjusted index is slightly off. One disappointment for the always-bigger-and-better boys is the indication that auto production may not spurt much before the 1957 models go on the assembly late in summer.

Another reason consumer goods may not have moved quite as fast as the extreme optimists hope can be found in another report which shows that the citizenry used January and February to pay up some of their charge accounts at the stores. This item showed the biggest drop of any type of consumer credit. They still owe the stores around six billion dollars more than they did this time last year. And total consumer credit at the end of February stood at nearly 35½ billion.

Businessmen can take some comfort from the evidence that people are saving a little more now than last year. Savings finance the growing demand for credit. When the saving supply got a little tight last year there was some trouble raising money for new mortgages. This year business wants six billion dollars more than last to finance its growth plans.

The big demand for credit — to back up business confidence — is a chief factor in this week's rising interest rates.

Grace Is Not Likely To Match One Predecessor

(Editor's Note: Inez Robb is in Monaco for the wedding of Actress Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III. In this, another dispatch from the storied Mediterranean principality she tells how another Princess who brought financial stability to Monaco about a century ago.)

By INEZ ROBB

Monaco—No matter how much additional tourist trade the new American Princess of Monaco attracts to this roulette Ruritania, she can never hope to replace in Monegasque hearts and admiration one of her predecessors.

Even if John B. Kelly, the father of the bride, and a milti-million dollar syndicate from the U.S.A. modernized and rebuilt Monaco from the ground up (this is just one of the fancier rumors now circulating in Monaco), Princess Kelly will never be able to hold a financial candle to Princess Caroline.

It was this inspired Princess, great-great-great grandmother of Prince Rainier III, who in the mid-19th century dreamed up the idea of a casino to put this financially tottering principality on its feet.

A royal financier to rouse envy in a Hettie Green, Princess Caroline encouraged her son, Prince Charles III, to create a House of Chance under the innocent name of the Societe des Bains de Mer.

Monaco lost about nine-tenths of its former territory and was reduced to its present breast-pocket size in 1960 when Menton and Roquebrune, uppity and full of oats, voted to divorce themselves from the rest of Monaco and annex themselves to France.

Taxes in Monaco had been zoomed until they couldn't be hiked again, and it was then that Princess Caroline came up with a solution that is second best to free access to Fort Knox.

The rest is history and E. Phillips Oppenheim. The Monegasque pays such a ridiculous soupcon of taxes (and is free of military service, to boot) that he lives in perpetual terror that the Princely line will die and Monaco, under an old treaty, revert to France-high taxes and boot camp.

If Princess Kelly produces an heir and thus saves them from taxation (death is less feared), Monegasques will be eternally grateful.

But it was Princess Caroline who put the principality in the chips. The only facet of the affair that surprise me is that a grateful populace has not raised statues at every corner and in every park to Caroline, the Morgan of Monte Carlo.

Thanks to her, the present Princes will reign over one of the few nations without a national debt or an unbalanced budget. Our girl has married into a going concern with no outstanding bills.

As a brochure, "Monaco, Its Past and Prestige" puts it, "Monaco is enjoying a prosperity brought about by the intelligent handling of touristic advantages" which include, in addition to an incomparable union of mountains and sea, roulette, chemin de fer, baccarat and dice.

The dice tables in the Casino are a mondernization since World War II, when American soldiers once more brought to France a game sometimes confused with baseball as our national pastime. Slot machines, too. With Princess Kelly in the palace and one-armed bandits in the Casino, there is no reason for any American to feel lonely in Monaco.

Tourists Themselves Are Attractions On A Cruise

By HAL BOYLE

NASSAU, Bahama (AP) — Leaves from a sunburned notebook:

Tourists arriving here by ship in the old days used to get a thrill out of tossing pennies into the sea and watching native diving boys retrieve them.

But it has graduated into a two-bit sport today.

It is difficult to say what is more entertaining on a cruise—to look at the sights or watch the tourists, who make quite a spectacle of themselves.

They storm ashore at the first chance, a merry mob in search of souvenirs at a bargain rate.

The surest way to tell a tourist here is by the fact that half an hour after he hits Bay Street, the main shopping thoroughfare, he will be wearing a $1.50 Nassau straw hat. The local residents go bare-headed.

But the best bargain in Old Nassau to many a food lover is conch chowder. It has a rich, almost nut-like tang to it that makes Manhattan or Boston clam chowder pale in comparison.

Some two centuries ago 3,000 pirates hung out in the Bahamas. It couldn't have been the loot that caused so many to flock here. It must have been the conch chowder.

Nassau is a conservative community. While it welcomes all tourists it doesn't like to see too much tourist epidermis exposed anywhere except at the beach.

"It is against Bahamian custom," says a polite note handed to all visitors, "for ladies to appear on the public streets in abbreviated sports costumes. Extremely short shorts and bra or halter ensembles are not welcomed on the streets and should not be worn while shopping."

This commonsense rule has done much to enable Nassau to retain its old world charm. It is picturesque enough as it is. It has no desire to be flooded by tourists who land looking as if they were refugees from a shipwreck.

Congressional Club Has Rummage And Bake Sale

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — White elephants and purple donkies joined forces in a bake and rummage sale put on by wives of Republican and Democratic members of Congress for the benefit of their nonpartisan Congressional Club's headquarters. The event which drew more than 1,000 customers was a complete sell-out by mid-afternoon.

Mrs. James C. Davis, wife of the Democratic congressman from Georgia, in charge of the affair, said sales exceeded $900. Mrs. Omar Burleson, wife of the Democratic congressman from Texas, and president of the club, said members hoped to buy a new bake oven and a new speakers' stand with microphone with the proceeds.

Highlight of the event were the pies, cakes, cookies, dips, and meat dishes whipped up by members from recipes they had submitted for publication in the club's new cook book.

There was pheasant baked in cream made by Mrs. Harold Lovre, wife of a Republican congressman from South Dakota; "Surprise Meringues," selling for five cents each, made by the wife of Rep. Fred Schwenged (R-Ia); pecan pie selling for $1.50 made by the wife of Rep. Jamie L. Whitten (D-Miss), and "Ambrosia Cake," the product of Mrs. John Bell Williams, wife of a Democratic congressman from Mississippi.

Mrs. Charles R. Hoeven, wife of a Republican congressman from Iowa, brought four beautiful country-style ham loaves, the kind she say she makes for company back home, and serves with a sauce made of cottage cheese and horseradish. "These are mildly seasoned," she told me, "when I'm making them for the menfolk, I spice them up a bit more."

Mrs. Carlos Romulo, wife of the Philippine ambassador, sent over trays of her "Mother's Puddin" by a white-jacketed Filipino boy in the embassy limousine. Mrs. Thomas G. Abernathy, wife of a Democratic congressman from Mississippi, hardworking chairman of the cook book committee, also donated some of her famous pecan pies to the sale. "My husband's beginning to grumble," she said, "He complains that since I've been on this committee all he gets for meals at home are peanut butter sandwiches and canned tomatoes."

At the country fair booth, fresh eggs donated by Mrs. J. Allen Frear, wife of the Democratic senator from Delaware, were sold for 60 cents a dozen. Here, too, were cheeses from Wisconsin, maple syrup from Vermont.

LITERARY GUIDEPOST

AN END TO DYING. By Sam Astrachan. Farrar, Straus & Cudahy.

Some gruesome pages, filled with the stupor of the drugged, with the moans of the dying, with unendurable stabs of pain, open this first novel. Sam Star, who is the narrator, after seeing his father die of cancer, now must stand by while his mother suffers the same insufferable ordeal.

While this goes on in the background from beginning to end, there is unfolded the rich, teeming history of the Russian Jews from whom Sam will get his heritage of blood and stamina and status. Though the name in New York is Cohen, it was Kagan in the old country. Through the long bitter years of ghettos, of riads by blood-thirsty Cossacks and, finally of the ruthless warring of Reds and Whites, some Kagans had managed to prosper, through furs and lumber, and most of the brothers, Sam's father and uncles, had made their way to this country.

The father was a doctor, but not a rich one. The brothers help the wife, and then widow, open a mid-town liquor store which does not prosper. There's only one big-shot businessman Cohen. Though he's big enough to make up for all the others, Uncle Jack, shipping magnate thanks to the wartime boom.

This isn't so much a novel as it is a kind of wild, unrestricted growth, in itself related to the cancer that kills the parents. But here in the art of the book, it's a benignant growth, and after the furious bustle and welter that is Kagans and Cohens, dying comes to an end, the young Sam begins, with pride and strength, to live.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

IT WAS AGREED BY MOST fans who viewed Tuesday's 4-3 Tiger victory over the highly regarded Abilene Eagles that it was one of the most interesting games they had ever witnessed.

Many more believe it was the best played high school game they had ever seen.

We certainly go along with both factors. Both teams put forth their all and we've never seen a game where tension was so high on the part of both ball clubs throughout a game as it was with the Tigers and Eagles Tuesday.

Neither team was ever able to relax anytime during the game. The fans appeared to be sitting on the edge of their seats on every pitch.

The Eagles, we believe, didn't hold much respect for the Tigers' very fine pre-district record of 15-5. They had to be showed the Tigers were equally as good as their record showed, if not better.

We may be a little off beat but our recent observation that the 8-6 Tiger defeat at the hands of Odessa might pay off in the long run is holding up.

You'll recall the Tigers should have downed the Broncs going away but a couple of errors at wrong time, the only two miscues the Tigers committed in the game, turned victory into defeat.

Well, anyway, the Odessa victory made it a clean sweep over the Tigers in this season's two-game series, the Broncs having already won the opener, 12-3, early in the season.

Abilene, on the other hand, took care of the Broncs easily in two games, 5-1 and 12-3. The Eagles apparently noted the comparisons of the Odessa series and must have figured the Tigers weren't in their class.

Loss To Broncs Lifted Win Streak Pressure

The second loss to Odessa, too, snapped a nine-game Tiger winning streak. Had the Bengals won that game they would have carried a 12-game winning streak into the Abilene game Tuesday.

The pressure of the streak would have been on the Tigers Tuesday and the Eagles, of course, would have liked nothing better than to stop the streak and they might have been more bent on winning.

The Eagles, mind you, went all out to win but I think they were somewhat surprised at the caliber of ball the Tigers displayed in Tuesday's contest.

Some of the defensive plays pulled in the Eagle-Tiger game would have made some professional players envious. The fielding gem of the day perhaps was executed by Tiger shortstop Tommy Prichard who scooped up a ground ball on the first base side of second base and then tossed out the batter by about two strides at first.

You don't see many of those kind of plays in organized baseball.

You may have heard of baseball moundsmen pitching with their hearts. That was the case of Tiger Alan Snead Tuesday.

Snead, it's true, gave up eight hits, a pretty high figure in a seven-inning game, but he was double-tough in the clutches. The senior right hander faced some mighty rugged hitters with "ducks on the pond" in Tuesday's game but he pitched himeself out of trouble most of the time.

After all, it's not the number of hits a pitcher gives up, it's the number of runs he is charged with that counts for or against him. Holding powerful Abilene to three runs is a pretty good pitching job.

We hope Snead has several more pitching jobs that will match Tuesday's performance left in his system before the season is out.

Tigers Still Hold Eagles In High Esteem

The Tigers certainly didn't lose any respect for the fine team Abilene has in Tuesday's game.

One thing that will help the Tigers, though, when they go to Abilene for their return game, April 28, is that they know the Eagles can be beat.

Attention is called to all hunters in this area to tomorrow's rabbit drive in the Pleasant Hill Community southeast of Snyder on the Colorado City Hiway.

The drive will commence on the J. A. Merritt place just off the C-City Hiway at 8 a.m. tomorrow. Hunters will be treated to a big dinner at Travis Berry's home at noon tomorrow.

Reports have it that there are more rabbits than usual this year so a good time should be had by all who wish to take part in tomorrow's rabbit drive.

There is no charge to participate in the drive. Shells will be sold at cost on the scene so why not dust off that shootin' iron of yours and be on hand tomorrow for the big rabbit drive.

Tiger-Vernon Game Postponed

The scheduled District 3-AA baseball game between the Tigers and Vernon here today was postponed because of wet grounds and threatening weather, Tiger coach Speedy Moffett revealed this morning.

The game has been re-set for May 8 at Vernon. The game was originally slated for Vernon Saturday but Vernon asked to have it moved up to Thursday to avoid conflict with the regional track meet of which several Vernon baseballers are to compete.

Since the Tigers couldn't make the trip to Vernon today because of the Senior play here, the game site was switched to Snyder.

The Tiger - Lion game, thus, will be played three days ater the final scheduled 3-AA games.

The Tigers will be idle for the remainder of the week. Next on tap for the Bengals will be next Tuesday when Wichita Falls comes to town for a 3-AA contest.

Larry Wilson of Buffalo scored two goals six different times during the American Hockey League campaign.

Expansion On Agenda For SWC Meeting

DALLAS (AP) — Expansion has been placed on the agenda for the meeting of the Southwest Conference at Fayetteville May 10-11-12, meaning Texas Tech will come up for another vote.

Tech has been an applicant for membership for 30 years and only last December obtained 4 votes—just 1 short of the necessary support. Since then Southern Methodist has announced it is switching its vote and indications are that Tech will have a minimum of 5 when it comes up again.

Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the conference, said there was a motion on the table that called for an invitation to both Tech and Oklahoma. This motion was made at the spring meeting at Waco in 1954. Whether it will come up for a vote isn't known but indications are that it will not.

May Lift Aggie Probation

Texas A&M also may have its probation lifted at this meeting. A&M was placed on two-year probation last May but with the provision that it would be reviewed after one year. Recruiting practices got A&M into its trouble.

The conference meeting opens May 10 with a session of the athletic directors. The Faculty Committee opens its meeting May 11 at the same time that the athletic directors, coaches and business managers of athletics are discussing recommendations to be made to the faculty committee.

The annual golf tournament will start May 11 as will preliminaries in varsity and freshman track. Finals in track will be May 12. The tennis tournament is being held at Waco.

YANKS SWEEP SEN SERIES

Berra Off To Rousing Start

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Yogi Berra's running this "most valuable player" thing into the ground.

With three American League MVP plaques already up on the game-room wall in his Woodcliff Lake, N.J., home, the 31-year-old New York Yankee catcher is off to his best start yet in a shot at an unprecedented fourth award.

The Yanks have scored 19 runs in walloping the Senators twice so far in Washington and Yogi, always a dangerous hitter with a man on base, has driven in seven of them. He just plain gave the Senators a fit—reaching base safely in his first nine trips to the plate in the two games with five hits and four walks.

It wasn't until his 10th trip that Washington—showing even worse pitching than was expected—finally got him out, on a pop foul. That was in the eighth inning of last night's game and by then the damage had been done as the Yankees scored four times in the first off ex-teammate Bob Weisler.

The 2-0 record enabled the Yankees to keep pace with Boston's Red Sox, who rallied to beat Baltimore 8-4 yesterday for their second straight.

Chicago and Cleveland were idle. Cold weather postponed Kansas City at Detroit.

The National League had only one game scheduled, and the New York Giants scored twice in the ninth to take another one-run decision from Pittsburgh 5-4.

Billy Martin took up where Berra let off for the Yanks, driving in four runs as New York scored six runs in the first three innings off Wiesler and then added three more in the fourth off rookie Hal Griggs. That was enough to shrug off a three-run Washington rally that chased starter Johnny Kucks in the eighth. Jim Konstanty finished.

Pete Runnels' home run and a triple by rookie Dick Tettelbach provided the only bumps for Kucks over the first seven frames.

Bob Porterfield, late of the Senators, gave up only five hits for the Red Sox, but they included two-run homers by Gus Triandos and rookie Tito Francona, and Boston had to rally for six runs in the fifth to get home safe. The big inning was manufactured on four hits, four walks and a sacrifice fly off starter - loser Ray Moore.

Jimmy Piersall's accidental hit scored two runs to keep the rally alive. Ducking from a 3-2 pitch, his bat got in the way of the ball and popped it into right field for a single.

Ted Williams singled and walked twice, putting his batting average at .800.

Willie Mays provided the clinch hit for the Giants, lining a two-out single to score the winning run in the ninth after Alvin Dark's sacrifice fly had tied the score. Vern Law had retired 10 in a row in a fine relief bit until the ninth.

Frank Thomas homered twice for the Bucs, who chased starter Ruben Gomez with three runs in the fourth.

The second one-run defeat left two Pirates — Roberto Clemente and Dale Long—with $25 fines for what freshman manager Bobby Bragan termed "careless plays."

Michigan State will meet Indiana, Purdue, Wisconsin and Kansas State in home football games next fall.

Port Arthur Holds Lead

By The Associated Press

The boss appropriately enough sets the standard for the Port Arthur Chieftains in staying on top of the Big State League race.

Lloyd Gearhart, manager of the Chiefs, hit a 3-run homer in the first inning and it brought Port Arthur an 8-2 victory over Victoria Wednesday night.

It kept Port Arthur a game out front.

Waco moved into fourth place with a 12-2 victory over Abilene.

Pony Tryouts End Tonight

Tonight is the last scheduled night for Pony League tryouts at Towle Memorial Park.

Forrest Beavers, Pony League official, says the tryouts would go on as scheduled if it doesn't rain anymore today. If more rains do come, then the final tryout would be scheduled for late tomorrow afternoon.

Pony League managers are to choose their teams tomorrow night afterwhich team tryouts will begin. Season openers in the Pony League have been set for May 14.

Tryouts continue today in the two Little Leagues, the American and National, with the 11 year olds slated for tryout sessions.

The National Little Leaguers, consisting of boys living west of the Big Spring and Clairemont Hiways, will report to West Elementary school at 4 p.m. today while the American Leaguers, consisting of boys living east of the two hiways will tryout at the rodeo grounds at 5 p.m.

The remainder of the Little League tryouts will be held next week with the 10 year olds reporting Monday and the nine-year olds and under on Thursday. The same tryout places and times of the two leagues this week will prevail for the tryouts next week.

Weatherman Wins In SW

By The Associated Press

Cold weather frosted out three games in the Southwestern League last night

Tampa at Ballinger, Clovis at Carlsbad and Midland at Plainview were postponed by late winter temperatures.

The 10 teams play in the same places tonight.

At San Angelo, the Hobbs Sports evened the series with a 9-1 victory over the Cons, and at El Paso, the hometowners beat Roswell 7-4.

Fifty-degree weather failed to slow down the Sports' Bill Kearns. He held San Angelo to seven hits. The one that counted was in the eighth when shortstop Gene Hourdou homered. The winners, who lost 3-2 in Tuesday's opener, got four runs off loser Orval McElrath in the third.

Tempers Flare In TL Tilts

By The Associated Press

The pitchers are tightening up and the wild hitting that marked the Texas League race in its first few days has subsided but it's still the home run that gets the job done.

Les Peden parked the ball against San Antonio Wednesday night and it brought Shreveport a 4-2 victory and a tie for first place with Houston.

Tempers continued to be frayed as the race rolled through its first week. Leo Thomas, Austin third baseman, was suspended indefinitely by Dick Butler, league president, for shoving Umpire Mike Briscese during an argument.

Red Davis, manager of the Dallas club, was thumbed out of the game with Oklahoma City in the very first inning for sassing the umpires when a balk was called on pitcher John Fitzgerald.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD WITH CHEESE, VEGETABLES, CHICKEN
. . . vegetables are peas, pimientoes and asparagus

Spring Salads Satisfy Town Folks' Dandelion Hunger

Just as the Grandmother of Tabacco road carved dandelion greens each spring, many a mouth is already tasting spring's new vegetable crops.

RIPE OLIVES FLAVOR MEDITERANEAN SALAD

1 clove garlic
1 flat can anchovies
¼ cup olive or salad oil
1 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
Freshly ground pepper
1 tablespoons capers
2 potatoes
1 No. 2 can green beans
Lettuce
2 tomatoes
1 cup ripe olives

Peel and mash clove of garlic with 2 anchovies. Add oil, vinegar, lemon juice, seasonings and capers. Let stand 1 hour. Cook potatoes in jackets until tender; peel and dice. Drain beans and put in lettuce lined bowl with potatoes. Pour dressing over them; toss to coat well and chill in refrigerator at least an hour. Just before serving, cut tomatoes into wedges and arrange over top of salad along with ripe olives and remaining anchovies. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Chef Otto Bismarck of the liner "United States" stresses the salad itself more than the dressing, but offers several suggestions on salad preparation. He advises several seasonings such a summer savory, thyme and Marjoram. He also repeats the old saying, "A spendthrift with the oil, a miser with the vinegar and a diplomat with the salt." His most popular salad is Medley Salad United States

2 cucumbers
3 carrots
2 bell peppers
1 large bunch watercress
1 small head romaine
3 tomatoes
2 bunches spring onions
½ small head chicory
½ small head escarole
½ small head red cabbage
1 bunch radishes
1 medium size can pimientoes

All vegetables should be very fresh and crisp. It is wise to wash them, dry them thoroughly and put in the vegetable container for a few hours before using. Cut unpeeled tomatoes into eighths. Scrape and slice carrots very thin. Break up escarole, romaine and chicory by hand into bite size pieces. Cut up one bunch of onions, tops and all, and add, reserving one bunch for decorations. Score one unpeeled cucumber endwise slice around. Slice other cucumber long way to use for decoration. Slice bell pepper and radishes very thin and cut up cabbage, cut pimento into thin strips. Add watercress and toss vegetables together with dressing made of olive oil, and lime juice and seasoned with herbs. 8 servings.

1 package frozen spinach
1 package frozen cauliflower
2 hard cooked eggs, chopped
¼ cup chopped onion
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sour cream
2 tablespoons orange juice

Defrost and drain spinach and cauliflower. Separate and cut spinach leaves for easier mixing Cut cauliflower in small pieces. Mix vegetables, egg, onion and salt together. Blend the orange juice with sour cream, pour over vegetables and toss lightly. Garnish with additional hard cooked egg slices if desired 4 to 6 servings.

1 medium tomato, peeled
Salt and pepper
½ cup shredded lettuce or 1 lettuce cup
½ cup cottage cheese
1 tablespoon cooked peas
1 tablespoon fine strips white chicken
2 strips pimiento
4 cooked asparagus tips
3 tablespoons French dressing

Shape tomato into a rosette by making 4 cuts out from the center, taking care not to cut all the way through. Tomato will open like a flower. Arrange shredded lettuce on chilled salad plate and place tomato on top. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Shape cottage cheese into a ball and place in center of tomato. Sprinkle with peas and chicken. Crisscross with pimento strips. If desired, stand an asparagus tip between each section of tomato. Serve with 3 tablespoons of French dressing Makes 1 serving.

2 cloves garlic, cut
¼ cup olive oil or salad oil
6 cups crisp salad greens
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1½ teaspoons Worchestershire sauce
1 egg
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup corn soya shreds

Put garlic in oil and allow to stand about 2 hours. Remove garlic. Combine salad greens, cheese seasonings, Worchestershire sauce and 3 tablespoons of oil. Break egg into greens; pour lemon juice on egg. Toss well. Add corn soya which has been mixed with remaining oil. Toss again slightly. Serve at once. 8 servings.

2 cucumbers
4 tomatoes
1 dozen blanched almonds, chopped fine
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon dried mustard
3 tablespoons white vinegar
6 tablespoons pure olive oil
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon black pepper

Slice cucumbers paper thin. Put in bowl and thoroughly cover with salt. Place plate on top of cucumbers to press out salt. Allow to stand in refrigerator for at least two hours. Then gently squeeze cucumbers so that all moisture is eliminated.

Marinate cucumbers in dressing of mustard, vinegar, olive oil, salt and pepper, for about ten minutes before serving. Drain and put into firm tomatoes which have been scooped out, peeled and chilled. Garnish with almonds and parsley. Serves 4.

1½ cups cubed peeled tomatoes
½ cup cubed green pepper
½ cup diced onion
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
Few drops Tabasco sauce
1 ripe avocado, cubed

Place tomatoes, green pepper, onion, lemon juice, mustard, Tabasco, Worchestershire and avocado in glass container of blendor in order indicated. Cover container and turn on blendor. Run until avocado just pulls in, about 10 seconds. Serve immediately over lettuce, or as a sauce for meat. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Another vegetable and fruit combination makes a lunch-in-one banana vegetable salad bowl. The first step is to arrange clean, dry crisped greens in the individual salad bowls. Long pieces of ripe banana are garnished with cucumber slices, celery curls, onion, radish roses, tomato wedges, strips of carrot and green pepper rings. A blue cheese dressing is served with the salad combination.

1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 clove garlic, thinly sliced
¼ cup sugar
3 tablespoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon cayenne pepper
¾ cup salad or cooking oil
1½ cups vinegar
1 cup crumbed Blue cheese

Place onion, garlic, sugar, salt, paprika, mustard and cayenne pepper into a bowl. Rub ingredients with a wooden spoon about 2 to 3 minutes, or until a thin paste is formed. Cover and let stand 1 to 2 hours. Pour onion mixture, oil, vinegar and cheese into a jar or other container with tight fitting lid. Shake vigorously before serving. Makes about 3 cups dressing.

1 cup strips of Holland Edam cheese
2 tomatoes
1 cup diced cold potato
French dressing to taste
1 small head lettuce
¼ cup sliced radishes
½ green pepper
½ small Spanish onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

To prepare the cheese strips, cut about 4 ounces of cheese into ¼ inch thick slices, then cut slices into strips about 2 inch wide and 1½ inches long. Peel tomatoes and cut into large dice; add to cheese. Add the potato. Drizzle with ¼ cup French dressing and toss lightly; let marinate in refrigerator one half to one hour.

Cut lettuce into cubes. Prepare the radishes. Remove seeds from green pepper and cut pepper into thin strips. Peel onion and cut into thin slices; separate slices into rings.

When cheese mixture is ready, add the prepared lettuce, radishes, green pepper and parsley. Toss lightly together, moistening with French dressing as needed. Serve immediately. 6 servings.

1 package frozen Brussels sprouts
1 package frozen pineapple
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
8 marshmallows, cut

Humphrey Claims Democrats Can't Ignore Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said today the Democratic party can't afford to go to the voters with a 1956 platform that "ignores or rebukes" the Supreme Court's school integration decision.

Humphrey, who has taken a leading role in past convention fights for adoption of strong civil rights planks, will participate in a two-day Democratic rally opening here tomorrow.

The conference schedule calls only for informal discussion of campaign issues and leaders obviously hoped to avoid any public debate now on the civil rights question, with its threat to party unity.

But Humphrey said he thinks the party's presidential nominating platform will have to express "concurrence in and support of the Supreme Court's decision and the court's implementation of the integration order."

"That doesn't include any congressional or executive action on the issue," he said. "My position is that the court has taken jurisdiction and that it can and will gain compliance with its order."

Some Southerners have made it clear that if the platform calls for White House enforcement of the court's order, or a candidate is nominated who pledges such action, they might walk out of the August convention in Chicago.

Humphrey seemed to be stopping short of such a declaration.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), one of those who signed a recent congressional "manifesto" advocating legal reversal of the court's decision, declined to say whether he thinks the kind of plank Humphrey outlined would be acceptable to Southern Democrats.

Sparkman, the 1952 Democratic vice presidential candidate, expressed confidence the matter will be worked out without causing any walkout by Southern delegates.

"Every four years we have our differences over this issue," he said. "We never get a plank that is satisfactory to everybody but at least we get one that most of us are able to live with.

"It is going to be mighty difficult to write that plank but I hope that it can be done."

Sen. Holland (D-Fla), another manifesto signer, promised a fight to prevent inclusion of any language he would regard as "an insult to the South."

Sam Brightman, publicity director for the national committee, said he doubts the civil rights issue will come formally before any of the conference sessions.

He sad the national committee, meeting tomorrow, will discuss convention arrangements and campaign techniques.

Negro Singer Given Long, Boming Cheer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Negro singer Nat King Cole, attacked while performing in Birmingham, Ala., last week, received a deafening roar of applause from some 10,000 white and Negro fans in the Jefferson County Armory here last night.

The singer, who said he canceled an Atlanta appearance Tuesday night because he feared a repetition of the Birmingham attack, was escorted to the armory by city police. Detectives were scattered throughout the audience, but Police Chief Carl Heustis said this was simply a precautionary measure as he had anticipated no trouble.

Referring to sentencing of his attackers in Birmingham yesterday, Cole told reporters "I'm glad to see them take a stand in that direction. No one in that capacity (the attackers) should go without reprimanding, regardless of where the incident happened or to whom it happened."

Three Anniston, Ala., men were sentenced yesterday to 180 days in jail and fined $100 each plus court costs for the April 10 attack on the Alabama-born Negro. They were Mike Fox, 36; E. L. Vinson, 25, and Orliss Wade Clevenger, 18.

A fine of $100 and a 80-day jail sentence was given Jesse W. Mabry, 43, Birmingham, associate editor of the White Citizens Council publication.

All defendants were members of the North Alabama White Citizens Council which is campaigning against what they call "Negro music."

Missing Cat Is Back Home

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Missy, a fluffy brown and white cat missing for 14 months, has joined her family here after a 200-mile journey that left her dirty and bedraggled and her paws almost raw.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bass said yesterday they moved here 14 months ago after their home at Lyles, Tenn., was destroyed by fire. The day they moved, however, they couldn't find Missy and left without her, much to the disappointment of their daughter, Wanda, 6.

The couple said Missy appeared in their front yard here Tuesday.

"That cat had never been outside Hickman County when we lived there and I don't have any idea how she got here or how she knew where we were," Bass said. "But I'm certain she's our Missy."

Report On Testing Program Is Given

AUSTIN (AP)—Some 92 per cent of 3,000 high school seniors tested indicate they plan to continue heir education at least four years beyond high school, Dr. H. T. Manuel, University of Texas testing and guidance bureau director, said today.

The students were tested in the university's new admissions testing program. An additional 1,000 are expected to take the May 12 tests scheduled in Abilene, Amarillo, Beaumont, Bryan, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, Lubbock, Midland, San Antonio, Tyler, Waco, Wichita Falls and elsewhere.

Manuel said many students had very high scores, and there were relatively few failures."

Wheat In Northwest Texas Shows Damage

AUSTIN (AP)—Wheat in the northwest Texas "is showing heavy damage" from the recent dust storms, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said yesterday.

The report said wheat still holding on was covered with dust and struggling to survive. Wheat deterioration was reported in the northern Low Rolling Plains, Cross Timbers and northern Blacklands from the intensifying drought.

The drought, dust and winds also further retarded planting, germination and early growth of crops in East Texas.

Range and pasture feed along the coast and in scattered eastern counties responded to rain, but much more is needed, the USDA said. Range prospects dwindled in West Texas and most stock was being fed.

Scrap Iron Loaded While Owner's Away

OMAHA (AP) — Henry Stolley, a welding shop owner, came to police last night to tell them:

Three men came to his business place and told his assistant they wanted to make a purchase. The assistant told the men to see Stolley, absent at the time.

Later the men came back, told the assistant they had talked to Stolley, loaded their truck and departed.

They took three tons of scrap iron.

Man Stays True To His Namesake, George

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—The man being questioned by police said "I cannot tell a lie. I committed the crime."

The officers weren't surprised by the admission because they said the man's name was George Washington.

And just to keep in the spirit of things, he was 76.

Former Dutch Officer Dies In Indonesia

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—The Dutch Foreign Ministry today announced the death of Capt. Leon M. Jungschlager, the Dutchman on trial for his life in Indonesia.

A spokesman said Jungschlager, former chief of military intelligence in the Netherlands Indies, died after two cerebral hemorrhages.

Dutch radio broadcasts were interrupted to give listeners the news.

Jungschlager has been on trial in Indonesia for more than a year on subversion charges. The Indonesian prosecutor had demanded the death penalty, accusing the retired naval officer of aiding a fanatic Moslem movement dedicated to overthrow of the Indonesian government.

The verdict was to have been given April 27, and foreign observers in Indonesia expected the court to find him guilty.

Jungschlager was arrested in Jakarta, Indonesia, Jan. 30, 1954, with 33 other Dutchmen while working for a shipping concern.

His son, Pfc. John W. Jung who came to the United States in 1950 and entered the U.S. Army in 1954, recently asked President Eisenhower to help him save his father.

Jungschlager was a lieutenant commander in the Dutch naval air forces at the outbreak of World War II. In 1942-43 he trained Dutch airmen at Jackson, Miss.

From 1946-48 he headed the Dutch intelligence services at Jakarta. Later he returned to a prewar post with an interisland shipping company in Indonesia.

On Saturday, Jungschlager was taken to Tjikini hospital for a medical checkup.

His doctor diagnosed a small cerebral hemorrhage. Yesterday it was announced he would be hospitalized for at least a week.
