Third Party's Loss Reports Encourage HST

Dewey Emphasizes "Individuality" In New York Speech

(By The United Press)

Campaigning as a champion of the new deal, President Truman was bidding today for the support of liberals who may be ready to desert Henry Wallace.

Encouraged by public opinion polls and field reports showing the Progressive party losing ground, the President served notice that he will go all-out for the liberal vote during the campaign swing he begins tomorrow.

Dewey Slates Final Week

Mr. Truman reaffirmed his faith in the New Deal in a seven-minute radio talk last night. At the same time, he castigated his GOP rival, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, as the "chief prosecutor" of the New Deal, and said the Republicans would "get rid of it" if they won the election.

Gov. Dewey himself spoke last night in New York City. He scored the Russian concept of the "Common man," and proposed a "human rights" program aimed at abolishing discrimination. Describing human differences as "the priceless ingredient of a free society," he called on the nation to "rediscover the everlasting variety among us."

While the Republican nominee conferred in New York with his political advisers today, his campaign manager Herbert Brownell, jr., released the itinerary for Dewey's final week. The Dewey campaign train will pull out of Albany early Tuesday for Chicago where the governor will make a major address. Other speeches are scheduled Wednesday in Cleveland, Thursday in Boston and Saturday in New York City.

Wallace Loses State

Mr. Truman makes a flying trip through Pennsylvania tomorrow, then sets out for the Midwest by train on Sunday.

In his radio talk, the President renewed his challenge to Dewey to come out from behind "catch phrases like 'unity' and 'efficiency,'" and let the people know where he stands on important issues.

Mr. Truman said the Republicans "tasted blood" when they pushed through the Taft-Hartley labor law. They are waiting now for a Republican administration,

Russian Radio Jamming Flop

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP) — Russia's reported all-out effort to smother "Voice Of America" radio broadcasts may be boomeranging.

American listening posts have picked up a total of 18 Soviet stations, mostly centered around Moscow and Vladivostok, which State department officials say are used to "jam" the voice programs.

These officials add, however, that they have reason to believe the jamming never succeeds entirely and that the reaction of Russian listeners therefore is one of intensified interest; they want to find out what information it is their government seeks to deny them.

Not Retaliation

The United States is not trying to retaliate by jamming Soviet broadcasts to this country, the authorities say, but is making a special effort in its broadcast to Russia to tell Russian people all the news their government may not be giving them.

There is evidence that this news is getting through, officials say, citing the Kasenkina case as an example.

Many Injured As Result Of Bitter Fights

Threat Of Martial Law Over France's Mines Is Sounded

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Total casualties of the violence - studded French coal strike hit 200 today as the crippling walkout of 335,000 miners went into its twentieth day.

There were no incidents reported today, however, as soup kitchens were rolled out in eastern France, signifying the Communist-led strikers were pulling in their belts.

Yesterday's bitter fighting in which scores of police and soldiers were injured brought a threat of martial law. Some cabinet ministers were said to feel Premier Henri Queuille should not only declare a state of siege in the coal fields, but should send more troops there and call up reserves.

Fighting Breaks Out

An announcement last night that a policeman had been killed at St. Etienne in south central France was retracted by police today. They said he was "near death."

Five hundred strikers surrounded a pit near Valenciennes today while their delegates influenced workers still on the job to quit work. Police stood by and took no action.

The bitterest fighting took place yesterday at Grandcombe in southern France when 6000 persons overwhelmed police and soldiers, about 50 of whom were seriously injured.

Police finally fled the town, abandoned a large quantity of material including a truck loaded with helmets and rifles.

At Bethune in northern France 13 police were badly wounded in a clash with 5000 strikers who surrounded the local jail and forced authorities to release seven arrested strikers.

Police suffered heavier casualties than strikers, who attacked with clubs and iron bars. Government forces realiated with tear gas.

Most of the clashes occurred when strikers attacked police and troops guarding the pits to keep safety devices operating.

Communist labor leaders ordered maintenance workers to quit the pits Monday. As a result at least ten mines already

'Sweetest Baby' To Pay For Appetite

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—Hospital attendants said today that a 16-month-old boy who swallowed $18 worth of perfume might be the sweetest baby in town for a while but would probably pay for it with a case of hives.

Harry Kane, son of John J. Kane, jr., Democratic congressional candidate, swallowed the contents of the bottle he found in a dresser drawer.

English Meet Starts Today

High school and college teachers of English in District IV of the Texas State Teachers association were registering early this afternoon at Lubbock Senior High school for a two-day first annual English workshop.

Sixty-one reservations had been made before noon for a dinner to be conducted tonight.

The first conference session was to open at 2:20 p. m. in the school auditorium, with Miss Glenys Honey, general chairman of the District committee, presiding. Floyd Honey, principal of Senior High school, was to give the welcome address. Dr. Alan M. F. Gunn, program chairman of the committee, was to give a brief review of the integration program.

Panel Is Planned

The first session, scheduled to end at 3:30 p. m., was to have as its general topic "The Theme," with Mrs. Carabel Payne of Hale Center, Mrs. J. S. Birtciel of Levelland, and Mrs. A. L. Carter of the Texas Tech faculty as leaders. At 3:40 p. m., a panel discussion and correction of college English themes were planned, with Mrs. V. B. Hall and Mrs. Nils Akeson presiding.

An informal dinner will be held at 6:40 o'clock tonight in the Texas Technological college cafeteria. James G. Allen, dean of men at the college, is to preside, and Dr. E. N. Jones, Tech vice president, will be principal speaker.

General Session Set

A general session will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the Aggie Memorial auditorium of the Tech agriculture building. Mrs. Lenore Tunnell, Lynn county school superintendent, will lead a discussion on "Problems of the English Teacher in the Smaller High school" and Dr. W. B. Gates, English professor at Tech, will be chairman of a discussion on "Teaching of Literature and of

West Texas Skies To Be Fair Today

(By The United Press)

Light to heavy showers drenched the lower Rio Grande valley during the past 24 hours, the Weather bureau reported today. There was considerable fog in central Texas which was expected to disappear during the day.

The outlook was for partly cloudy weather in East Texas and fair skies in West Texas with little change in temperatures.

Rainfall reports included: .76 inch at Del Rio; .41 at Presidio, .37 at Laredo; .33 at Crystal City and .20 at San Angelo.

Yesterday's temperatures ranged from 83 at Brownsville to 60 at Guadalupe Pass and this morning from 39 degrees at Amarillo and Lubbock to 67 at Corpus Christi.

Plane Builder Keeps Promise To Mother

SANTA ANA, Calif., Oct. 22. (AP) —Plane builder Glenn L. Martin has kept a 40-year promise to his mother.

He flew her across the country in one of his own planes—just as he said he would back about 1908 when she held a kerosene lamp for him as he worked on his first airship.

One Confesses Causing Blast At Bus Office

Lubbock Man, Two From Hobbs, N. M., Held For Arson

By R. C. HANKINS
Journal Staff Writer

A Lubbock business man and two Hobbs, N. M., men were held here today under charges of arson by explosives in connection with the June 14 bombing of an office of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches, Inc.

They were:

Houston Miller, about 35, operator of Miller Drafting service in 1100-block Fourteenth, and a former TNM&O union bus driver;

Clyde Lomax, 24, former Hobbs policeman; and

Drew Storey, 42, Hobbs carpenter and painting contractor who, officials said, once had been a Garza county deputy sheriff under administration of two sheriffs, Lon Cross and Jim Powers.

Statement Is Signed

Lomax, is was announced, had signed a statement admitting he tossed a fuse-lighted half-stock of dynamite into the office of Hurley Carpenter, bus company official, after breaking a south window of the office with a rock.

Storey made no admissions, except a verbal statement that he accompanied Lomax to Lubbock from Hobbs the night of the bombing, investigators further said.

Both men waived examining trial in the court of C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, late this morning, and bond of $2,500 each was set in binding them over to grand jury investigation. They were remanded to custody in lieu of bail.

Miller declined to give a statement after his arrest over the noon hour. He demanded to see an attorney. He had not appeared before Lynn to ask bail.

Charges Filed Thursday

The charges, sworn to by Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank, were prepared by District Attorney Lloyd Croslin. Croslin filed two about 8 p. m. Thursday, then left with warrants for New Mexico. He was accompanied by E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, and Eubank.

At Hobbs, they joined Sheriff Grady Harrist and Texas Rangers Capt. Bob Crowder and Raymond Waters, all of Lubbock, and Dep. Sheriff Charlie Trimble of Hobbs—officials who had been working on the case several hours there.

Extortion Plot Suspects Held

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—A plot to extort $100,000 from Edgar F. Luckenbach, jr., heir to a steamship fortune and "angel" for broadway shows, was disclosed today by police.

Detectives said the scheme had been broken up with the arrest of two men, one of whom admitted sending an extortion letter.

Detectives seized one of the men last night outside Luckenbach's east side home, after the steamship family scion had emerged with a package purportedly containing the extortion money.

Suspects Identified

Luckenbach, now 23, inherited two-thirds of $10,000,000 left by his father at the latter's death in 1943.

Detectives said the letter received by Luckenbach Monday at his home asked a "contribution" of $100,000 and implied "it would not be well" for him if the money were not paid.

The two men picked up were identified by police as Anchel (Artie) Stolzberg, 27, of New York and Dale Neidich, 24, of Yonkers, N. Y. They said Stolzberg admitted writing the letter and that Neidich was the man seized outside the Lunckenbach home.

Post-War Planes To Be Offered For Sale

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—The United States soon will offer jet fighters and other post-war military planes for sale to at least some American republics, it was learned today.

The planes to be made available are the F-80 Lockheed Shooting Star, F-84 Republic Thunderjet, F-82 North American "Twin" Mustang, and the C-82 Fairchild Packet, a troop carrier transport.

Both the State department and the Air Force will make a formal statement soon.

10-Day Suspension Given Two Officers

HOUSTON, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—The Houston police force decided today it could do without the services of two of its members, for at least ten days.

A 10-day suspension was announced for Patrolmen T. L. Parker and J. W. Carter because of alleged rough treatment in arresting a prisoner. Acting Chief Inspector Capt. Tom Sawyer said the two officers had been unnecessarily rough in handling Welborn J. Rogers, 30, of Houston.

OUTSTANDING FOE OF REDS

Cardinal Hlond Of Poland Is Claimed

(By The Associated Press)

WARSAW, Oct. 22. — August Cardinal Hlond, primate of Poland, died today. He was 67.

Cardinal Hlond, an outspoken foe of the Communist-led Polish government, passed away at 10:30 a. m., of pneumonia, which he developed after undergoing an appendicitis operation.

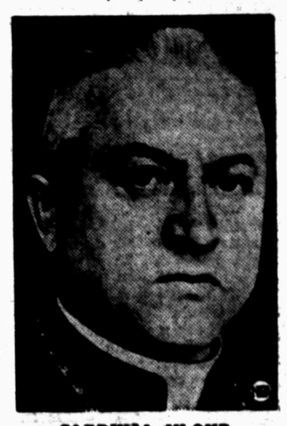

His death reduced the membership of the sacred College of Cardinals to 56. Its full quota is 70.

Close Friend Of Pope

He began his career as a priest in Milan, Italy, where he became a close friend of the man who was to become Pope Pius XI.

In Sept. 1939 when Germany overran Poland, Cardinal Hlond sent a report to Pope Pius XII which was said to have touched on Nazi atrocities to Poles and damages to Catholic church property. He spent some time in Nazi jails.

Since the war, Cardinal Hlond had been outspoken in his criticism of Poland's Communist-dominated government. On May 23 of this year he attached his name to a special pastorial letter which warned Poles against abandoning their religion and becoming slaves to materialism.

LEADERS OF CHURCH PROTEST

Criminals Hanged At German Prison

(By The Associated Press)

MUNICH, Germany, Oct. 22— Ten German war criminals were hanged today at Landsberg prison, despite recent appeals of German Catholic and Protestant church leaders that further executions be halted.

Alex Piorkowski, 44, one-time commander of the Dachau concentration camp, and former S. S. Col. Hans Trummler, 48, who passed out cigars to his troops after they killed parachuted aviators, were the best known of the men.

The men went to the gallows under a gray sky in the courtyard of the prison where Hitler wrote "Mein Kampf."

All were convicted by American courts of shooting unarmed American fliers or torturing and killing concentration camp inmates.

Investigation Desired

The plea for suspension of the executions of 139 war criminals under death sentence was made by churchmen after 10 other Germans had been hanged at Landsbery last Friday for similar crimes.

In telegrams to U. S. Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall, the church leaders asked that the hangings be halted until further investigation showed whether conviction of those involved had been properly obtained.

The 10 executions were completed in about an hour and a half.

The other eight hanged were Arthur Fuhr, 39, Michael Raaf, 42, Karl Franz Stattman, 37, Emil Hoffman, 55, Herbert Kunze, 35, and Fritz Dietrich, 50, charged with killing fliers; and Wladislaw Dopierala, 59, and Wenzel Wodak, 38, charged with killing inmates of concentration camps.

Understanding Cop Saw Nothing Wrong

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 22 (AP) — Motorcycle Officer D. B. Gleason says the car was weaving down the highway. The driver had only one hand on the wheel and seemed to be rubbing his face with the other.

As Gleason pulled alongside the driver dropped a razor, plugged into the dashboard.

"Everything's okay. Just shaving," volunteered the driver.

Texas Air Bases To Get Housing Units

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (U.P.)— About 376 family housing units for commissioned and non-commissioned officers will be built at four Texas air forces bases, the Department of the Air Force has announced.

The units will cost more than $10,000,000.

Seventy units are scheduled for Randolph at an estimated cost of $1,035,700; 70 for Lackland to cost $1,035,700; 104 for Bergstrom at a cost of $1,546,220 and 132 for Carswell at a cost of $2,135,370.

Also, two helicopter test cells will be built at Kelly Air Force base at a cost of $152,000, the Air Force said. A control tower at Randoph will cost $154,000; an air safety and fire program will be instituted at Bergstrom at a cost of $3,539,280, and an ammunition storage at Carswell will be built at a cost of $500,000, according to the Air Force.

Former San Antonio Police Chief Dead

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 (U.P.)—Capt. Walter A. Harvey, former chief of police in San Antonio, died early today at the home of a daughter here. He was 73.

Capt. Harvey served in San Antonio 34 years before retiring as chief in 1939, and was well-known in Texas police circles for half a century.

Survivors are his wife and four daughters, Mrs. Henry B. Woods and Mrs. J. L. Webb, both of Houston; Mrs. John W. Taylor, Bandera; and Mrs. Lawrence Hicklin, San Antonio

Wright Speaks Here Tonight

For the second time within a month, members of the States' Rights political alignment of Lubbock county were preparing today for the appearance of one of their candidates — Gov. Fielding L. Wright, of Mississippi, vice presidential candidate.

Gov. Wright, vice presidential running mate with Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, will make a campaign talk at 8 p. m. in the district courtroom, third floor of the Lubbock county courthouse. The talk will be broadcast over stations KCBD and KFYO.

To Be Met By Group

Wright, who is following Gov. Thurmond by a month on the second "ballot blitz" of the Lone Star state by the States' Righters, is to speak in Plainview at 3 p. m. today before coming to Lubbock.

He is to be met in Plainview by a Lubbock States' Rights committee headed by former Lieut.-Gov. John Lee Smith, James O. Cade, C. L. Harris and S. P. Boling, and will be driven here for tonight's talk. He is traveling by plane and will leave here Saturday morning for Wichita Falls.

A former member of the Mississippi Senate and House and a former lieutenant-governor, Gov. Wright was elected chief executive of his state in 1944. He was the first man to call the Southern Governors' conference after the Civil Rights program made its appearance under President Truman's endorsement.

Ten Injured When Truck Hits Train

LONGMONT, Colo., Oct. 22 (U.P.) —Ten persons, including three members of the Drake university football team, were reported injured today when the passenger train they were aboard collided with a truck.

Four passenger cars overturned and about 600 feet of track were ripped up when the heavy truck plowed into the train. The truck driver was reported injured seriously.

Ambulances were sent to the scene of the accident southwest of here and brought the injured to Longmont hospital.

SOLON ESTIMATES RED FOLLOWING

115,000 In U. S. Communist Party

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—The Communist party, through secret registrations and other underground means, today commands the militant following of some 115,000 persons in this country, according to Chairman J. Parnell Thomas of the House un-American activities committee.

That is almost double the 60,000 members claimed by the party itself.

Thomas said his committee has information indicating that secret registrations run the list of actual members closer to 75,000. In addition, he said, there are about 40,000 unregistered persons who are considered members under strict party discipline.

New York Heads List

The New Jersey Republican said the largest concentration of Communists is in New York City, with Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit and Pittsburgh following in that order.

"All this emphasizes the need for legislation that will force the Communists above ground," Thomas said in a telephone interview from his home in Annandale, N. J.

"I'm willing to predict that one of the first bills that will be introduced at the new Congress will be one aimed at that objective."

Thomas believed the legislation would be "something along the lines of the Mundt-Nixon bill."

Few Carry Cards

The so-called Communist-control bill passed the House earlier this year, but died in the Senate. It would have required Communist organizations to register with the Justice department and file the names and addresses of their officers. Any person who joined or remained a member of an unregistered organization would have been subject to heavy penalties.

Thomas said there is "increasingly stronger sentiment for some kind of legislation that will outlaw Communists as a political party."

He said very few Communists carry cards these days. Only those self-admitted leaders of the party and members under specific orders to do so carry cards, he

Price Drop On Meat Seasonal

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22. (U.P.)— The current drop in meat prices caused by the rush of livestock to market is only seasonal and meat prices will continue to be high for at least another year.

That is the opinion of 16 agricultural writers and economists today who are touring the country as guests of Armour & Co., to study the livestock situation.

They arrived here from Oklahoma last night at 8:30 p. m., two hours late because they were delayed by motor trouble at Tulsa.

Dr. L. B. Darrah, agricultural economist from Cornell University, said it would be at least 12 months before the results of this year's bumper feed crop will be noticeable in the cattle markets.

Feeders Cut Discounted

Charles Hughes, livestock editor of Successful Farming magazine, Des Moines, Iowa, discounted plans of Illinois feeders who said they would cut their number of cattle on feed by 50 per cent next year. He added that there was only one profitable way to market the bumper corn crop and that was by selling it on the hoof.

Today, they will visit Armour's plant and the Fort Worth Poultry and Egg company plant. They will be given a luncheon at the Fort Worth club by the poultry company before continuing their tour to San Antonio.

Texan And Daughter Die In Truck Mishap

HUGO, Okla., Oct. 22. (U.P.)—A Paris, Texas, man and his eight-month-old daughter are dead today as a result of an accident on state highway three, six miles west of Antlers.

Mack McCall Pittman, 25, and his daughter, Linda Sue, were killed yesterday when Pittman's pickup truck went out of control, turned a flip and crashed into a car driven by George A. Lamb, 63, Miller, Okla. Lamb suffered head and knee injuries.

Mrs. Dorothy Pittman, wife and mother of the two death victims, received severe leg injuries which resulted in amputation. She was taken to a Paris, Texas, hospital.

Endurance Fliers Skirt Bad Weather

KILGORE, Oct. 22 (AP)—Two Dallas endurance fliers refueled at dawn today at Gregg county airport.

The fliers, Pred Vinmont and Bert Simons, took on 15 gallons of gas at dawn and were to take on two five-gallon cans of gas and breakfast at 8:45 a. m.

An automobile speeding along the runway at 85 miles per hour was used in the refueling operation.

Dewey Dovel, airport manager said the fliers planned to fly over the Gregg county airport all day, refueling when necessary, unless weather forces them to move. The forecast was for possible showers.

The fliers had been in the air 38½ hours at 8:30 a. m. today. They were forced to move operations from Grand Prairie, near Dallas, to Gregg county because of a low ceiling.

POLICE SEEK ELDERLY COUPLE

Youth Held Prisoner On Diet Of Bread And Water For Year

(By The Associated Press)

TORONTO, Oct. 21—Police today sought an elderly couple accused by a half-starved, badly bruised boy of keeping him locked in a closet and feeding him bread and water for a year.

Police said they identified the boy as Gordon Kelly, 14, but that he was unable to lead them to the house where he reported he was imprisoned. He said he could not recognize the house from the outside.

At first it was thought possible the boy was Richard Marlowe of nearby Mount Dennis, who disappeared in 1944 when he was nine years old. Mrs. James Marlowe, Richard's mother, saw the boy and said she could not be sure he was not her son.

"I looked at him closely," she said. "He had the same hair as Richard and the same features, but he didn't know me and in fact, didn't seem to know anyone or much of anything."

Mrs. Marlowe recalled that her son had a small scar near his temple just above the

Bewildered People Believe In Communism For Queer Reasons

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—I have a friend, a man who worries a great deal about the world he lives in.

When I saw him a few years ago he was more than ever deeply troubled. He was tense and unhappy.

He told me he was thinking of joining the Communist party. Why?

He said he thought the Communists were the only people who had the answer to the world's sickness.

He said they would wipe out racial discrimination and make all people equal politically and economically, as well.

Recently I saw him again and I asked him: "Have you joined the party yet?" he said no. Why?

"Because of the stand they've taken on genetics," he said. "It's unscientific."

Scientists Kicked Out

Last August, the leaders of the Communist party in Russia, not scientists themselves, bounced the top Russian scientists who disagreed with them and announced their own new theory of how plants and animals and men can be made better—chiefly through environment, rather than heredity.

Immediately the scientists outside Russia called this a scientific swindle, a perversion of science to help the Communists' political ends: the spread of Communism.

Deep within him my friend may have been moving away from the Communists quite a while. Perhaps, without realizing it, he seized on the new genetics theory as the excuse he could make to himself for not joining.

Whatever the deep forces at work in him, he said he was shocked by the perversion of science which the new theory meant. But why should he have been shocked by that, if he understood Russian Communism at all?

Quick Solution Sought

The only reason I write this story is that I think it explains a lot of people, including my friend, who are Communist sympathizers or who join the party in this country and later quit in pain or dismay.

Through emotion or dissatisfaction with conditions in their own country, they want a quick solution. And, without thinking the problem through, they accept blindly at first the idea of Communism as a cure-all.

But if my friend could accept everything else involved in Russian Communism, the perversion of science, if it helped Communism, should not have shocked him.

It would have made a lot of sense to a real Communist who thinks the end justifies the means so long as the end is reached: world Communism at last.

The true Communists—or the Russian Communists—know they have a long struggle ahead.

Views Considered Naive

In trying to reach their goal they've already made switches, compromises, backtracks, and side shifts.

For example: say they look forward to a struggle of 100 years. (Lenin pointed out that they must think in terms of decades.) Then, with their view that the end justifies the means, the perversion of science for 10 years or 100, so long as it helps the struggle, is justified.

So a Russian Communist probably would look upon the views of my friend as childish. But my friend shocked me.

He didn't turn away from Communism because the individual has no freedom in Russia; or because it's a police state; or because it uses tactics of terror; or because it's a dictatorship whose end no man living can see positively.

He forgets that men in the Western world have fought for hundreds of years and at vast sacrifice of their lives to gain political independence in a democratic society—where the state exists for the individual and not the individual for the state.

Struggles Forgotten

They fought against the tyrannical dictatorship of kings, with bitter cost, so man could be free at last, or fairly free.

My friend forgot all that and all that freedom means: freedom to work democratically toward a better society.

He forgot that once tyranny, through a dictatorship is set up in the world, as it is in Russia, it may never end.

He forgot that this very dictatorship makes Russia not a land of progress but a land of black reaction, ruled by a group of feudal lords who refuse to let the people think for themselves.

So my friend, like others before him, instead of rejecting Russian Communism on the basis grounds just mentioned, rejected it because of a minor detail, like the new genetics theory.

New Chemosurgery Technique Removes Skin Cancers Safely

CHICAGO, Oct. 22. (INS) — A Madison, Wis., physician declared today that skin cancers of all readily accessible parts of the body can be removed completely and safety by chemosurgery, a technique which employs chemistry, surgery and the microscope.

The physician, Dr. Frederic E. Mohs, writes in the current issues of the Journal Of The American Medical Association that chemosurgery is especially valuable for highly malignant or highly invasive lesions which fail to respond to other treatment.

Dr. Mohs, who is from the surgery department of the Wisconsin State General hospital and the McArdle Memorial Cancer Research laboratory, pioneered the development of chemosurgery.

Used Externally

The technique is used on the face, lip, nose, ear, limbs, and other external parts of the body except some body openings.

The article claims chemosurgery is "unprecedently successful against different types of skin cancers and there is practically no mortality rate from the operation."

Physicians using the technique can be certain cancers are entirely removed because chemosurgery is controlled miscroscopically. Such control enables removal of each of the deeply permeating, branches which are characteristic of some skin cancers without mutilating surrounding normal tissue to any significant extent.

Paste Is Applied

In using the technique, a paste is applied to the area which is believed to be cancerous. This paste kills a layer of tissue without breaking it up or so changing the appearance of the cancerous cells that they cannot be recognized under a microscope.

A moisture-tight dressing is applied, and in a day or two, the dressing is removed and the layer of dead tissue cut off.

Successive layers of cancerous tissue are removed in this way until the growth is completely erased.

People Have No Room To Die In Squalid Singapore Slums

SINGAPORE, Oct. 22 (U.P.) — There is no room to die in Singaport's squalid, filthy Chinatown.

There the density of population runs over 400 to the acre, mostly housed in two-storied dwellings divided into innumerable dark, airless cubicles.

Hence, establishments which cater for the dying are experiencing a boom.

In the houses, euphemistically termed "hospitals," "nursing homes" or "houses for the reception of the sick," a person whose life has been despaired of is received for $20. The service provided while the patient is yet living is limited to permission to occupy a few feet of floor space.

If food is required, it must be brought in by relatives. If the patient survives more than ten days another $20 has to be paid.

But it is after the hapless wretch has lost his or her feeble grasp on life that the home proprietor can expect something worth while in the way of profit.

There is a coffin to be brought, joss sticks and papers are required for burning and the services of the priests and nuns must be engaged.

If the relatives are comparatively well-to-do (and not all Singapore's cubicle wellers are short of money there may be catering arrangements for parties of night visitors. They sit through the small hours playing cards and mahjongg, thus keeping evil spirits at a respectful distance. Evil spirits will not approach light or noise.

Well Lighted

The death houses are brilliantly illuminated by fluorescent lighting for the same reason and they are kept tolerably clean.

The purchase of all the funeral appurtenances and the making of the arrangements usually are left to the home proprietors, who add a percentage to the cost.

A simple funeral may cost no more than $50 or $100 (Straits); an ostentatious one engaging many priests and several bands will run into thousands.

Enlisted Reservists May Apply For OCS

Army enlisted reservists between ages of 19 and 28 who are high school graduates or have the equivalent may apply at the organized reserve office in the basement of Lubbock court house for entrance to officers' candidate school, it was announced Thursday.

Col. Oscar B Abbot, senior Army instructor for the organized reserves in Texas, recently had announced enlisted reservists meeting those educational and age qualifications are eligible for officers' candidate school.

All candidates attend officers' candidate school in the grade of sergeant or above, depending on their previous military standing, if any. If the applicant is without previous military training, he must accept a basic training course before attendance at officers' candidate school.

The candidates attend a regular training course of six months and, after graduation, a three months' specialized course for the branch they have selected. Distinguished graduates will be accepted as regular Army officers, if they desire. Other graduates are to receive a commission as second lieutenant in the reserve corps and will be required to complete a two-year tour of active duty with the Army, it was stated.

Dewey Will Skip Visit To Scene Of Crucial Race Despite Struggle For Senate Control

BY JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—Although the struggle for control of the Senate is hot, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey plans to skip any visit to West Virginia, scene of one of the crucial races.

Dewey's aides tell newsmen privately that Republican Senator Chapman Revercomb's handling of the displaced persons issue is the real reason for this decision.

The official explanation being made in West Virginia, however, is that the state couldn't be fitted into the GOP presidential candidate's itinerary; that "from top to bottom" the national ticket wants Revercomb re-elected.

Need Every Seat

Ten days away from the November 2 election, Republicans generally concede they are going to need every seat they can get to keep the reins in the Senate. Their loss of command there would seriously handicap a new administration's legislative program.

In line with this, Dewey has swallowed some obvious personal differences to campaign for other GOP senatorial candidates.

Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota, who bolted the Dewey-Bricker ticket in 1944, is a case in point.

But Dewey is said to view the Revercomb race in West Virginia in a different light. The background is this:

Congress last session enacted a bill to admit some 205,000 Europeans displaced by the war. Critics said the bill discriminated against Jews and some Catholics. Dewey asked Revercomb, as chairman of a judiciary subcommittee, to try to have the law changed. Revercomb denied the measure was discriminatory and sat tight.

YOUNGSTERS FLIRT WITH DEATH—For nearly an hour, these three youngsters, inmates of the psychiatric division of New York's Bellevue Hospital, cavorted on this ledge, eight floors above the street. During a post-lunch play period, when children were allowed on the eighth floor playground, this trio climbed over the 10-foot wire fence to frolic along the parapet. They were lured to safety by a promise of lollypops.

Position Explained

Thus Dewey is said to feel that if he now gives any personal help to Revercomb—as he has been under strong pressure to do—he would be put in the position of hedging on the question of opening the immigration gates wider for the European refugees.

However, William S. Ryan, Republican chairman of Roane county, West Virginia, announced yesterday that he has a letter from Dewey campaign headquarters saying it is "doing everything possible" to help Revercomb.

Ryan said Herbert Brownell, jr., Dewey's campaign manager, wrote that the difficulty of arranging schedules was the only factor keeping the New Yorker out of West Virginia.

Last night, GOP National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, jr., said in a speech at Huntington that the entire Republican organization and the national ticket "from top to bottom' wants Revercomb re-elected.

Propaganda Used

Addressing the same rally, Revercomb said "propaganda" from outside the state is being used against him and, win or lose, he "will not bow to outside dictation."

In the Dewey camp, there is some hope that Revercomb's vote will be available when the time comes to organize the Senate in January. He is opposed by Matthew M. Neely, Democratic former senator.

Even if Revercomb falls by the wayside along with some other GOP candidates, the Dewey strategists feel the Republicans still can retain senate control.

They now have a 51 to 45 margin over the Democrats. That means a net gain of four seats would let the Democrats take over.

The Republicans could keep control with a 48 to 48 tie, if they elect their presidential ticket Warren, as vice president, would be able to break the tie in their favor as soon as he was inaugurated.

Hope On Two Senators

The main hope in the Dewey camp centers on saving two Republican senators—John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and E. V. Robertson of Wyoming — and knocking off Democratic Senator James E. Murray of Montana. Murray is opposed by Republican Tom J. Davis.

The Dewey strategists line it up this way:

They are afraid they will lose three seats through defeats of Senators Ball in Minnesota and Revercomb in West Virginia and of Rep. Ross Rizley, who is seeking the seat being vacated by Senator E. H. Moore in Oklahoma.

That would make the Senate line-up a 48 to 48 tie.

But if Cooper survives, Davis beats Murray in Montana and Robertson pulls through against Gov. Lester C. Hunt, his Democratic opponent in Wyoming, they would wind up with a 50 to 46 margin.

Seem To Have Little Hope

The Dewey strategists seem to have little hope of defeating Democratic Senators Edwin C. Johnson in Colorado and Theodore F. Green in Rhode Island. Neither do they expect Carroll Reece, former Republican national chairman, to win over Rep. Estes Kefauver, Democrat, in Tennessee.

On the other hand, they poohpooh Democratic contentions that there is any serious challenge to the re-election of Republican Senators C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, George A. Wilson of Iowa or Homer Ferguson of Michigan.

Cro-Magnon man was so called because the first remains of this prehistoric race were found in the cave of Cro-Magnon, France, in 1853.

Thursday Programs Given By Lubbock P-T Associations

Thursday, parent-teacher association day here, found hundreds of patrons and teachers at programs.

Mrs. Aubra Cromer, president of the Roscoe Wilson association, presided at a meeting at the school Thursday afternoon. She was elected a delegate to the annual convention, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, to be held in El Paso.

Mrs. F. C. Stanley led the Mother Singers in several selections.

Mrs. L. E. Parsons introduced Dr. James T. Hall who spoke on "The Common Head Cold."

PUPILS PRESENT PLAY ON NATURE

Sixth grade pupils of Central Ward school presented a play, "Mother Nature's Family," and the Choral club directed by Miss Marya Hooten sang numbers preceding a talk, "Health in the Home," given by Dr. W. H. Gordon. Mrs. Gradie Bownds presided.

The food booth at the school's carnival will open Friday night, Oct. 29, at 6 o'clock at the school.

Room count was won by rooms of Miss Hooten and Mrs. J. T. Shaver. One hundred twenty-nine persons were in attendance.

UNIT PRESIDENT RESIGNS THURSDAY

Mrs. Bruce Craig, president of Dupre P-TA, resigned at the Thursday afternoon meeting held at the school. Mrs. Frank Ohnemus was elected to fill the position.

Dr. Travis White, pastor of First Christian church, addressed the group on "The Home, a Pattern for Building Sound Character and Moral Values."

The meeting was attended by 122 patrons.

DR. ENGLISH IS UNIT SPEAKER

"The Home in the Light of the Health of the Family" was topic of a talk given for Chris Harwell P-TA Thursday by Dr. O. W. English. Poems were recited by fifth grade pupils of Mrs. Faye Mann.

During the business session, the Oct. 29 carnival which will open at 6 o'clock at the school, was discussed. Mrs. Ralph Cline presided.

Attendance count was won by the first grade of Mrs. F. L. Mize.

FILM ON HEALTH SHOWN FOR P-TA

The program for Sanders P-TA Thursday included the showing of a film, "Life of a Healthy Child," and a talk, "The Common Cold," given by Dr. Clyde F. Elkins.

Mrs. A. L. Halford presided and announcement was made that the school's Hallowe'en carnival will be held Oct. 29 at 7 p. m. Yearbooks were distributed.

Sixty-five persons attended.

HEALTH IMPROVEMENT DISCUSSED FOR UNIT

A plan for the improvement of health in Lubbock county was discussed by Dr. R. C. Douglas for Cottage School P-TA Thursday at the school. Mrs. L. O. Crowder, president, presided.

The Choral group of Mrs. Mary Evelyn Clepper's fourth grade presented musical selections.

Approximately 75 persons attended. The school's Halowe'en carnival is scheduled for Friday, Oct. 29, at 6:30 p. m.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Mother's Intemperate Rages Directed At Small Sons Is Of Concern To Her Next-Of-Kin

DEAR Mary Haworth: Our sister Joyce has two lovely boys whose behavior is normal for their age — four and six years. Joyce gives them excellent care, materially. They are well fed and well clothed, have a spotless home, and she often indulges them beyond what her moderate income justifies.

However, since their infancy she has displayed such a vicious unreasonable temper with them that those of us who have observed this are constantly worried about the ill effects it has on them now, and the future outcome.

Any little thing may cause her to scream at them, sometimes in unprintable language. For instance, if they waken early, as most young children do, and their whispers or play disturbs their parents, they are screamed at and punished.

WORRIED SISTER SOLICITS ADVICE

THE father's treatment is also severe on many occasions, but we suspect it is governed largely by Joyce's attitude; and he never opposes her intemperance. What amazes us is that the little fellows show normal affection for their mother, although the older boy told her recently that he was going to run away from that "mean house."

I spent a weekend there recently and some inconsequential act of one of the boys invoked such violent ravings and threats from Joyce that I became completely unnerved and had to leave before the scheduled time. We have tried by tactful suggestion and example to improve the situation, without avail; and anything more blunt would result in estrangement, leaving us no contact with or news of the children.

While we have no desire to dictate to Joyce with respect to her children, her violence with them has been so persistent and upsetting that we feel she needs some kind of help; but we are completely at a loss to know what. Can you advise us? Signed—E. S.

MOTHER ENGROSSED IN SELF-CONCERNS

DEAR E. S.: Life, for Joyce, is a drama of self-worship. She is the heroine of all that concerns her. Her house of marriage is simply a stage setting, the most "model" she can make it by, say, Harper's Bazaar-type standards, in which she would preen herself in the role of chic young matron leading the full life, and she petulantly resents any "tiresome" intrusion upon her ritualistic self-engrossment.

She wanted "a home of her own," of course; also a husband to head it socially, and supply the income to keep it going with choice equipment; also children to fill out the picture—or maybe that was the husband's idea.

But as for being a wife and mother in the creative, nurturing, mature-loving, richly self-giving sense of the term, well, Joyce shriekingly proclaims distaste for the proposition, as an odious hijacking demand on her precious vitality, which she feels should be conserved, every drop of it, to prolong her youth and sustain her zest and fitness for narcissistic forms of "self expression."

FATHER'S BEHIND EIGHT BALL, TOO

HER husband's unmanly echo and tacit endorsement of her vicious severity with the children suggests that he feels "behind the eight-ball" along with them, in her estimation; and very possibly her "raging" impatience with his progeny carries a secret message of smoldering hostility aimed at him, for having involved her in their begetting.

In other words, it occurs to me that in jumping on the boys for nothing at all, she is irrationally venting a peeve at pape for having brought motherhood upon her; and maybe by now papa has an unconscious double-dyed guilt sense (implanted by her) about his enterprise in this respect, and the fruits thereof, hence tends involuntarily to "shout down" the boys, too, as intolerable trespassers in their erstwhile Garden of Eden.

Lots of infantile wives carry on like this; and lots of infantile husbands, bamboozled and witless, let the children take the rap. In which case there is no "help" for the situation, unless some elder statesman (or matriarch) in the clan has the moral drive and force of personality to verbally lambast the parents into doing right by haling them before the Court of Family Opinion and reading the Riot Act. M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care to The Lubbock Evening Journal.

Egypt And Israel Order Troops To Stop Fighting In Palestine

(By The Associated Press)

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 22.—Israel ordered her troops to cease fighting in the Negev desert at 3 p. m. today (6 a. m. CST), the government announced.

(The Egyptian government announced in Cairo it has informed the U. N. mediator, Dr. Ralphe Bunche, that it has ordered Egyptian troops to stop fighting in Palestine in accordance with the U.N. order).

The announcement came almost simultaneously with the wail of air raid sirens in Tel Aviv, the capital's first daylight alert in three months. Anti-aircraft fire could be heard but no planes were visible.

Order Meets Deadline

The cease-fire order met the deadline set by the acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche.

Egyptian artillery pounded Israeli-held roads in southern Palestine this morning apparently in a last-minute blow before the cease-fire was to take effect, the Jewish army said.

Gunfire snarled traffic and halted a convoy of civilian cars which had been scheduled to take a party of newsmen to Beersheba, capture of which was reported by the Israeli army yesterday.

The battle of the Negev desert is a week old.

The cease-fire order was handed the government of Israel at 1 a. m., 14 hours before the deadline. U. N. officials said. Israel had asked a 12-hour margin after receipt of the message to allow time for issuance of orders to advance positions to stop shooting.

Bombs On Coast

The daylight air raid alert lasted an hour and a half without planes appearing over Tel Aviv. It was reported unofficially that some small bombs were dropped in the general coastal area, south of the Israeli capital.

(The Syrian national defense ministry announced in Damascus last night that enemy patrols crossed no man's land into the northern sector of the Syran front early Wednesday and attacked Mukhayla. The communique said "our posts at the Samakh area suffered some enemy shelling with mortars" but the attacks were repelled).

Despite reports that the Egyptians were shelling roads leading to the Negev, 12 U. N. observers were to be dispatched shortly after midday to watch the cease-fire go into effect. They will be distributed at six points throughout the southern desert area, it was learned.

Jews Congratulated

The Israelis, flushed with their reported capture of Beersheba, cradle of the modern Arab world, had informed Acting United Nations Mediator Ralph Bunche they would quit fighting when assured the Egyptians would do so.

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion sent a telegram to the Israeli commander on the Negev desert front, congratulating him.

In his capacity as minister of war, Ben-Gurion asked the commander to "convey the thanks of the Jewish people and the Israel government to the soldiers who liberated the Negev by capturing Beersheba."

Fall of Beersheba undermined the positions of the Egyptians, who invaded Palestine five months ago. The Egyptian front appeared in danger of crumbling into isolated pockets of resistance against a Jewish offensive. The Jewish victory also threatened the Egyptian front south of Jerusalem and aimed a threat at Gaza, capital of the Arab-proclaimed Palestine state and base of the Egyptian spearhead into Palestine.

Guizar Wins World Fame With Guitar Technique

Tito Guizar, Mexican tenor, who will appear here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Senior High school auditorium with his Singing Mariachis, has been judged by critics to be one of the outstanding guitarists in the world today.

He originated and developed the guitar slapping technique which he uses in accompanying himself and helps him manage to make one guitar sound like a whole Latin-American orchestra at times. Shunning the pick, he uses his strong fingers to bring out the tonal quality of the instrument.

Tickets are on sale at $1.80 for reserved seats and $1.20 for general admission. Beta Sigma Phi council is sponsoring the program to supplement funds to buy an iron lung for Lubbock.

Orange And Black Motif Used At Birthday Party

Honoring their daughter, Margot, on her fourth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wilbanks entertained with a party at their home, 3022 Twentieth, Thursday afternoon.

Halowe'en theme was used in decorations, games and refreshments. The dining table was decorated with orange and black streamers, lighted jack-o-lanterns and orange candles. The birthday cake with chocolate icing featured orange Hallowe'en faces and candles. Noise makers were given as favors.

Attending were Linda Sue Zachary, Becky Noblitt, Frances Jean and Sue Galloway, Jeannie Williams, Janis Dale and Brad Parkinson, Lloyd and Lowell Croslin, Ellison and Mike Lynn, Clinton David Chism and Phil Wilbanks.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Ludonna Berry, who is attending the National American Legion convention with her family writes to share some of her experiences with her Lubbock friends. She has seen and heard addresses by several nationally known legionnaires including President Truman, John L. Sullivan and Gov. Earl Warren.

Ludonna, her father, George S. Berry and her brother rode horses in a parade, which was one of the main events of the convention. Texas is the only delegation which parades on horseback.

The family is staying in a hotel on Miami Beach, and Ludonna, a Tech student, enthusiastically describes the view of the ocean from her bedroom window.

FOLK DANCING

An all school party to be held tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Lubbock High school gymnasium will climax a week of student devotion to practicing folk dancing.

For the second year, physical education instructors have taught the lively dances to students during p. e. classes, study hall periods, noon hours and even for an hour before school in the mornings. Enthusiasm for the colorful activity will be at its height tonight when E. J. Lowrey calls the steps for students and faculty alike.

Assisting in directing dancing will be physical education teachers Pat Farriss, Joe Bob Foster, Leon Bacheler, jr., and and W. I. Pittman. Sponsored by the Lubbock High Student council, attendance at the dance will be limited to students and faculty members of the school.

Cowan Club Election Is Held In Hudnall Home

Cowan Home Demonstration club members who met with Mrs. O. M. Hudnall Thursday afternoon elected the following officers:

Mrs. Robert Harper, president; Mrs. Hudnall, vice president; Mrs. Doy Nichols, secretary, treasurer and reporter; Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Hudnall, council delegates; Mrs. G. V. Cooper, alternate delegate; Mrs. Jess Davidson, parliamentarian; Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Nichols, clothing demonstrators; Mrs. C. J. Lightholder and Mrs. Harvey Brock, yard demonstrators; and Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. W. A. Miller, food demonstrators.

Mrs. Roger McCowan and Mrs. Brock gave a report of the meeting of County Federation of Women's clubs held in Slaton last week-end and Mrs. Davidson reported the meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration association held in Temple recently.

The club will have a luncheon and hobby show No. 4 in the home of Mrs. Harper.

Lamesa Organizing Tech Ex-Students

LAMESA, Oct. 22 (Special) — Lamesa will have an organization of former Texas Technological college students for the first time as result of a recent meeting.

Braswell Gilbert was named president. Other officers elected were Earl Sears, vice president; Billi Grace Webb, secretary; Durwood Peterson, treasurer; and Betty Carpenter, reporter.

Mrs. R. A. Stuart, sr., and Henry Norris were appointed to serve with the newly elected officers and prepare the constitution and by-laws.

The group also decided to enter a float in the parade to be held in Lubbock Oct. 30 during the homecoming celebration at Texas Tech. The committee for the parade float will include Margaret Gilbert, Dale McIlroy Joe Allbright and Billie Grace Webb.

Pop More Adept At Changing Baby's Diapers, D-Man Says

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (U.P.)—The hand that rocks the cradle isn't the most adept at changing baby, George Garland said today. That hand belongs to pop.

Garland, the secretary of the National Institute of Diaper services, is a man who knows whereof he speaks. Garland was in town along with some 200 other D-men from 34 states, to attend the NIDS' annual convention.

"When it comes to diapering baby," said Garland, "the men have it all over the women. They don't depend on intuition like a woman does.

"Give a man a job like that and he goes about it in a scientific fashion. He studies it, concentrates on it, because he wants to overcome a natural inferiority complex."

For expectant fathers he had this advice: Don't worry about learning the art of diapering. It's getting easier.

"We are now in the fourth stage of the diaper evolution," he explained. "First it was swaddling clothes. Then the three-cornered pants came into style. After that came the rectangular diaper. Now the hour-glass diaper is all the rage."

Services Are Set For Polio Victim

SLATON, Oct. 21. (Special)—Funeral services for Rosalie Ann Klesel, 10, who died Wednesday night in the Plainview polio center, were to be held at 2:30 p. m. today at the Lutheran church of Southland, Rev. C. F. Shulte officiating. Interment was to be in Southland cemetery, under direction of Williams Funeral home of Slaton.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Klesel; two young sisters, Judy and Beatrice; and a brother, Glenn.

J. M. Hobbs, 60, Dies After Stroke

J. M. Hobbs, 60, of 1902 Tenth, resident of Lubbock about 10 years, died at his home about 11:30 o'clock this morning. His death was believed due to a heart attack.

The body is at Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home. Funeral arrangements had not been made early this afternoon.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Claudia Brannon, of Lubbock, Mrs. Hazel Grace of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Johnny Sagle of Littlefield; two grandchildren, and his mother, Mrs. Ann Hobbs of Matador.

Terry-Yoakum Fair Judging Continues

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 22 (Special) — Additional judging was in progress this afternoon as a crowd comparable to Thursday's opening day attendance of 2,500 viewed the exhibits and midway of the Terry-Yoakum fair.

In judging community exhibits Thursday, George Samson of Post placed Gomez first, Wellman second, Union third and Sligo fourth.

Individual exhibits are being judged today.

Livestock judging, with Ray Mowery of the Texas Tech department of animal husbandry presiding, was also to begin this afternoon. Winners are to be named in dairy and beef cattle, swine and club boys' calves divisions.

The hog show this year was exceptional, fair officials said. Some of the finest animals in the area are said on display. Merchants exhibits were also praised.

Record attendance is expected on closing day Saturday, it was indicated.

$250,000 ESTATE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22. (AP) — The estate of Samuel S. Hinds, film character actor who died Oct. 13 at the age of 73, amounted to $250,000, his will disclosed today.

Rites To Be Held For Polio Victim

AFTON, Oct. 22 (Special) — Last rites for Joyce Elaine Robinson, 6, who died of polio Saturday in Costa County hospital in Concord, Calif., were scheduled for 11 a. m. today in Duncan Flat Baptist church, Rev. E. L. Vernon officiating.

Burial was to be in Afton cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home of Lubbock.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin L. Robinson of Concord; a brother, Eddie Robinson, Concord; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sedgwick of Roaring Spring; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Robinson of Jarrell; and a great grandfather, L. E. Brown of Lubbock.

Plainview Club Wins Prize At State Fair

DALLAS, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—First prize in an attendance contest at the state fair of Texas has been awarded the Upshur county 4-H club.

The prize, of $100, went to the Upshur club which brought 799 boys and girls a distance of 135 miles to attend the fair.

The Aldine high school ((Harris county) Future Farmers of America won $100 in its division. Eighty FFA boys came 246 miles.

In the Future Homemakers of America contest, the Plainview club—55 girls traveling 380 miles—won the $100 prize.

Porter Fires Verbal Barrage At Johnson

TYLER, Oct. 22 (AP)—Jack Porter, Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, threw verbal darts at Democratic nominee Lyndon Johnson here last night in a radio speech.

Porter said "Lyndon Johnson obtained an injunction in the district court in Jim Wells county preventing any change in the certification which gave him an additional two hundred votes. He opposed in every court in which he and his attorneys appeared any investigation into the legality of the election and the counting of ballots in Duval or Jim Wells counties."

Porter said the situation in the south Texas counties relieves members of the Democratic party of any moral obligation to support the party nominee.

Chiang May Quit Manchuria In Attempt To Head Off Disaster

BY SPENCER MOOSA
Associated Press Staff Writer

PEIPING, Oct. 22 — President Chiang Kai-Shek is trying to head off disaster for his armies of north China and Manchuria — and this may call for the hard decision to abandon Manchuria.

Chiang time and time again has said Manchuria will be defended to the death.

If he changes his mind it will mean for him a heart-breaking but realistic approach to the problem with which the government armies have been unable to cope.

Events Are Given

Here in brief is what events of the past week have brought him face to face with:

The Communists are top dog in Manchuria and very much so; inner Mongolia is threatened; Taiyuan, capital of the north province of Shansi is hard pressed, possibly doomed; in north China the danger increases.

Reports are current here that Chiang has decided to abandon Manchuria and bring all his troops there south of the great wall. These reports may or may not be well founded.

But the belief is strong in Peiping that the government's current fighting in the Manchuria corridor to north China is designed more to blast a way out than to blast a way in.

Would Fit Strategy

The abandonment of Manchuria wuold fit the strategic conception which Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer when commander of U. S. forces in China is credited with having advocated.

That was to pull back the extended lines, which the government has been maintaining in Manchuria at prohibitive cost, and consolidate for a solid defense zone in north China.

Those who argue for this view say it would be better to withdraw the armies than to have them bottled up in Manchuria, there to wither and eventually surrender to the Communists.

Dissatisfaction Growing

Among the factors Chiang has to consider is the growing dissatisfaction in north China over the way the war has been handled —or, in the opinion of many, bungled.

As the Communists advance in Manchuria and north China, the economic situation grows graver in the north. Many in north China worry now how they will find the food and warmth for this winter.

Many Americans and other foreigners are wondering how they can go on in this economic pinch. Some are packing and leaving. More are thinking of doing the same thing.

GRANDPA AND GRANDMA RAISE THE ROOF—"Grandma" and "Grandpa" Branan, of Atlanta, Ga., 71 and 69 years old respectively, are building another house—and it doesn't bother them half as much as it does some of the neighbors, who fear one of the oldsters may slip from a high perch. It's the 16th house the couple has built since 1910. Above, they get some kibitzing advice from their grandchildren.

Chilean Asks Limit On Crime Stories

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 22 (U.P.) —Crime stories in Chilean newspapers would be limited to 300 words under a pending bill to curb, its author says, the "yellow press." A Conservative deputy, Manuel Montalba Vega, introduced the bill in Congress. It would:

Limit crime and police news to 300 words, with one-column headlines in type only one size larger than the text. Require the newspaper to keep copy, signed by the writer, of stories 'affecting the honor or good name of third persons." This copy would be kept available a month for possible court action.

Punishment for exceeding the crime story limit would be a fine of 20,000 to 50,000 pesos (about 645 to 1,613 dollars). Libels in such news would be punishable with imprisonment and a fine of 1,000 to 5,000 pesos. So, too, would "false" political stories which "damage the honor and good name" of persons mentioned in them.

Montalba Vega said his bill was aimed only at newspapers that "exaggerate" police news and falsify stories to "attack others" for their own gain. He said it would not impair freedom of the press, but "purify it of its imperfections." Two leading Santiago newspapers, El Mercurio and El Diario Ilustrado, endorsed the bill editorially. El Mercurio said it only applied to a few "exceptions" among the newspapers and would not harm the "legitimate privilege of the press."

Finland will try to curtail private power consumption by steep progressive rates.

Entire GOP Backs Candidate In Race

HUNTING, W. Va., Oct. 22 (AP) —West Virginia Republicans have the word of National Committee Chairman Hugh Scott today that the entire GOP "from top to bottom" is backing Senator Chapman Revercomb for re-election.

Governor Dewey of New York has not given personal aid to Sen. Revercomb, who is waging a close campaign against the Democratic nominee, former senator Matthew M. Neely.

However Rep. Scott (R-Pa) told a rally here last night that the entire GOP organization, "and I do mean from top to bottom," is supporting Revercomb. Without mentioning Dewey's name, he emphasized that he included the national ticket.

Dewey and Revercomb took different views of the displaced persons bill passed during last summer's special session of Congress. Revercomb refused Dewey's appeal to amend sections which critics said discriminated against Jews and Catholics wishing to enter the United States.

Scott explained that limitations of schedule would prevent Dewey from campaigning in West Virginia.

Ex-Convict Charged In Theft From Singer And Movie Star

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—A 38-year-old former convict was being held without bail today for an Oct. 28 hearing on charges of burglarizing the apartments of Gertrude Niesen, the singer, and Screen Actress Gene Tierney.

Assistant District Attorney Paul F. Reilly identified the man as George Feld and said he had admitted looting from 40 to 50 Manhattan apartments of articles estimated by Reilly to be worth $500,000.

Reilly said articles taken from the Niesen and Tierney apartments were insured for $100,000.

In Philadelphia, meanwhile, Miss Niesen last night recovered an estimated $11,000 worth of jewelry left in a taxicab after a trip here to examine some of the gems allegedly stolen from her New York apartment by Feld.

The jewelry was returned to Miss Niesen by Mrs. Sue S. Zienbicki, of Philadelphia, who said she got into the taxicab which the singer left and found a handbag with Miss Niesen's identification in it.

Terry Wildcat Coring Starts

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 E. M. Hinson, Northeast Terry County wildcat, 10 miles northeast of Brownfield, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X, psl survey, was coring from 11,441 feet in an unidentified lime.

Operator tried a drillstem test at 11,426-441 feet. The packer failed and there was no test. A Schlumberger log was taken, and the coring was then started.

Informed observers reveal that the project has not yet reached the Ellenburger. Some interested operators expect it to find that formation at any time.

Drillstem Test Run

Argo Oil Corporation No. 1-N Jones, Northwest Gaines County possible discovery from the Devonian, 10 miles southwest of Denver City, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 496, block G, CCSD&RG-NG survey, took a one hour and ten minute drillstem test on perforated section at 11,180-190 feet. Recovery was 450 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, and 480 feet of gas cut mud. No formation water developed.

A drillstem test is now being taken on perforated section at 11,150-180 feet. Top of the Devonian was picked called at 11,123 feet. The project is on a total depth of 11,205 feet, and the casing is cemented at that point. Producing ability of the project should be determined shortly.

Cooperative Refinery Association No. 1 Ellwood, outpost to proven producing area from the Glorieta, in the West Smyer field of West-Central Hockley County, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 12, block A, R. M. Thompson survey, was bottomed at 5,995 feet in lime.

The project has indicated on preliminary tests that it will make an oil well. A Lane Wells survey was to be taken and the pay section was then to be acidized, tested, efforts to complete will be undertaken.

Will Upheld In Jury's Verdict

A 72nd district court jury of which Ira E. McCarver was foreman deliberated only 20 minutes late Thursday afternoon before returning answers favorable to the defendant on four special issues in the suit contesting the will of the late Mrs. C. D. Shaw.

The jury verdict, in effect, upheld Mrs. Shaw's will.

Counsel's arguments started at about 2:20 p. m., following reading of the court's charge on special issues, of which there were four.

Special issues No. 1 and 2 were based on testamentary capacity, and this was applied in special issue No. 1 to the will dated Jan. 25, 1944, and in special issue No. 2 to the codicil, which was dated May 22 of the same year.

Special Issues Outlined

The court's charge defined testamentary capacity as "sufficient mental capacity to understand the business in which she was engaged, its effect in making a will, and the nature and extent of her property. She must be able also to know her next of kin, and the natural objects of her bounty and their claims upon her."

The definition continued that "her memory must have been sufficient for her to collect in her mind elements of a business transaction, and to hold them long enough to perceive at least their obvious relations to each other, and be able to form a reasonable judgment as to them."

Special issues No. 3 and 4 applied to whether or not there was "undue influence by C. D. Shaw," the first concerning the original will, and the other the codicil.

Defining "undue influence," the court's charge set out that it means "such influence as destroys the free agency of the testatrix and prevents the exercise of discretion required by law . . . ", continuing that "undue influence, to invalidate a will or codicil must have been in operation upon the mind of the testatrix at the time of execution of the will or codicil, and her free agency, liberty to act and independent volition must have been overcome by the influence exercised upon her."

The case, in which Dean Owen of Carlsbad, son of Mrs. Shaw by a previous marriage, attacked the legality of the instruments, was called to trial Monday afternoon.

The questioned will was signed jointly by Mr. and Mrs. Shaw on Jan. 25, 1944, and the codicil, also jointly executed, was signed on May 22, that year.

Owen filed the suit on behalf of his two children, who were not mentioned in the will or codicil. He contended that Mrs. Shaw was not mentally capable, due to injury and illness, and to other influences, of exercising a will.

The original will, valued by official court-directed appraisal, at more than $76,000, left the entire property under the joint signature, to the survivor of the couple. The codicil provided that the survivor have use and benefit of the estate as long as he or she lived, then it was to pass to three grandchildren who were stipulated by name in the instrument.

Representing Shaw and the estate at the counsel table were Geo. W. Dupree and Charles Crenshaw, jr., of the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree, Milam and Crenshaw. Representing Owen were W. W. Campbell of the firm of Campbell and Adams here, and Foster Windham of Carlsbad.

TURNS TO RELIGION—Dr. Alton Milford Young, 61, of Jersey City, N. J., national chaplain of the Ku Klux Klan and for a time grand kailiff of the New Jersey Klan, has announced his conversion, four months ago, to the Catholic church. At right, Dr. Young, a former Baptist minister, is pictured addressing a joint meeting of the Klan and German-American Bund at Andover, N. J., on Aug. 18, 1940.

Scout Work Of Boy Saves Woman's Life

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 27. (INS)—A Cheyenne mother was alive and recovering from serious burns today because of the training her 10 year old son received in Cub Scout work and school fire prevention classes.

Mrs. Roger Cottle was severely burned when gasoline or oil used in a stove to heat water exploded in an outbuilding.

David, who was playing nearby, heard his mother's screams. When he reached the building, Mrs. Cottle's clothing was aflame.

The boy grabbed a blanket, wrapped it around his mother and made her lie on the ground and roll out the flames—precisely as he had been taught.

Doctor Regains Memory After Hearing Juke Box Tune In Cafe

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 22 (AP)—A physician and his wife gave prayerful thanks today for their reunion, credited to a cafe juke box's playing of "Because."

Like the love song, their story was a pensive one.

Home after an absence of 19 months, Dr. William Aston, 34, Amnesia victim, told of regaining his memory upon hearing the song.

In March of 1947 he had left for the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn. Since his departure he had not been seen by friends nor could he account for what happened.

His wife, Patricia, 28, mother of two children, meanwhile returned to her old hospital job as a nurse, hopeful her husband would return some day.

Dr. Aston heard the juke box play "Because" in a Chicago restaurant Monday night. The song was played at their wedding in 1940 just before both entered the army.

"All I know is that Bill is home and that everything is fine again," Mrs Aston said. "I thank God for that."

Mother In Kansas Is Suicide Victim

WELLINGTON, Kans., Oct. 22 (INS)—Mrs. Luella Utz, 25-year-old mother of two children, got up early today, dressed herself, and left her home.

She got into her car and drove two miles to a railroad crossing. Then she waited for a train.

When it came along, she stepped in front of it.

Sheriff Charles Howard said her husband, B. H. Utz, did not know his wife was missing until he got a report of her suicide.

Utz said his wife had been in ill health and had recently tried two other suicide attempts.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Utz is survived by a daughter, Anita, 2, and a son, Roger, 8 months.

Leaders In Junior Loop Win; O.L. Slaton Has A Close Call

Leaders in the South Plains Junior High football league chalked up victories over loop opponents Thursday night, but the runner-up eleven — the O. L. Slaton Redskins — had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to nose out the J. T. Hutchinson Rangers, 7-6, at Chapman field.

The scrappy Rangers took the lead in the opening seconds of the second half, when Fullback Billy Presley returned the Redskin kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown, but the extra point try by Presley failed.

A 35-yard pass from Quarterback Charles Brewer to End Jimmy Crawford in the final quarter, with Crawford racing another 35 yards to the double stripe, put the Redskins back into the game. Then Johnny Tatum, hard-running fullback, plunged for the game-winning extra point.

Lubbock's Carroll Thompson Cowboys protected their lead in the area junior grid loop with an impressive 32-0 win over Lamesa's juniors in the first game of the "double bill" Thursday night at Chapman field.

Fullback Don Jones paced the Cowboys to the victory with brilliant running and passing, but he received perfect support from a forward wall headed by End Tommy Yelvington.

The powerful Levelland juniors notched another loop win with a 19-0 triumph over Brownfield last night at Levelland. Fullback Harvey Campbell plunged for the first touchdown, then Halfbacks Stanley Ritchie and Boyd Patton raced for the second and third counters.

Seminole's scheduled tilt with Littlefield was postponed, but the Seminole eleven turned in a 7-6 win over the Andrews juniors. Brilliant runs by Seminole Backs Alford Sims and John Stephens tallied for the home team.

Minnesota In For Rough Go

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Michigan was chosen the nation's No. 1. college football team this week. Coach Bennie Oosterbaan followed that by announcing he would have his regulars playing as a unit for the first time this season in Saturday's fray against Minnesota.

That would indicate a walkaway for the Wolverines.

But this game is for the Little Brown Jug, the championship of the Big Nine conference and a possible trip to the Rose bowl. With that much at stake it will not be a walkaway for anybody—even the mighty Michigan machine.

Report Performance

Minnesota was defeated, 13 to 6, in a rugged contest a year ago. The prediction is that the same thing will happen to the Gophers this year by about the same score.

Other predictions:

Notre Dame at Iowa: The defensive minded Iowans probably will keep the score down but their attack isn't strong enough to outscore the Irish. Notre Dame.

Louisiana State at North Carolina: This is the day that Bernie Moore will be especially happy that he resigned as coach of the Louisiana Tigers. But North Carolina will not have time to think about the game next week with Tennessee. North Carolina.

Army at Cornell: Gil Stephenson, rookie Army fullback, has a better plunging average than the fabulous Doc Blanchard. He should be the difference in a game in which two rough, tough lines will be featured. Army.

California Is Choice

California at Washington: Washington couldn't whip Washington State so how does it expect to dump the title-hungry Bears? California.

Vanderbilt at Yale: The southerners are the choice in the belief that Yale's meager squad can not keep the pitch it had last week when it dumped Wisconsin. Vanderbilt.

Texas A. & M. at Baylor: Who would have guessed in September that Baylor still would be unbeaten on Oct. 22? Baylor.

Wisconsin at Ohio State: Joe Whisler and his Ohio mates to add more thorns to the crown of Harry Stuhldreher, Wisconsin coach. Ohio State.

Alabama at Mississippi State: The home field gives Shorty McWilliams and the other members of the classy State backfield about a three-point edge. Mississippi State.

Syracuse at Northwestern: Here's where the Northwestern reserves get the chance to earn their letters. Northwestern.

Duke at Virginia Tech: The question is: Will Tech be able to score? It is the nation's only major team without a 1948 point. Duke.

It's Michigan State

Michigan State at Penn State: The midwest eleven almost beat Michigan, bowed to Notre Dame after a fierce struggle, Penn State yielded two touchdowns to weak Syracuse. Michigan State.

Auburn at Tulane: Coach Henry Krnka isn't happy unless he is spending the Christmas vacation in a bowl atmosphere. Tulane.

Dartmouth at Harvard: The Harvards will believe that this is a continuation of last Saturday's Army affair. Dartmouth.

Friday:

Detroit over Wayne, Georgetown over Fordham, Georgia over Miami (Fla), North Carolina State over Chattanooga, Boston university over New York university, Lebanon Valley over Moravian, Iowa Teachers, over North Dakota, Missouri Valley over Warensburg State Teachers, Omaha over Colorado State, San Jose State over Santa Barbara.

Saturday

East: Brown over Connecticut, Columbia over Princeton, Holy Cross over Colgate, Pennsylvania over Navy, Rutgers over Lehigh, Bowdoin over Colby, Case over Carnegie Tech, Coast Guard over Norwich, Lafayette over Bucknell, Maine over Bates, Muhlenberg over Gettysburg, New Hampshire over Vermont, Rochester over Sampson, Springfield over Toledo, Trinity over Middlebury, Tufts over Williams, Wesleyan over Amherst, William & Mary over St. Bonaventure, West Virginia over Washington & Lee.

South: Georgia Tech over Florida, Maryland over George Washington, Mississippi over Boston college, Tennessee over Tennessee Tech, Virginia over Virginia Military, Catawba over Elon, Davidson over Wofford, Furman over The Citadel, Richmond over Hampden Sydney, Louisville over Western Kentucky.

Midwest: Kansas over Nebraska, Kentucky over Marquette, Cincinnati over Butler, Indiana over Pittsburgh, Missouri over Iowa State, Nevada over Tulsa, Oklahoma A. & M. over Temple, Purdue over Illinois, Xavier over Western Michigan, Denison over Oberlin, Evansville over Indiana State, Grinnell over Coe, South Dakota over Morningside, Youngstown over Central Michigan.

Southwest: Southern Methodist over Santa Clara, Texas over Rice, Texas Christian over Oklahoma, Texas Mines over New Mexico, Texas Tech over Arizona, Oklahoma City over Mississippi Southern.

Far West: Southern California over Stanford, St. Mary over Denver, Utah State over Brigham Young, Utah over Wyoming, Oregon State over UCLA, Oregon over Washington State, Idaho over Montana, Colorado over Kansas State, Colorado A. & M. over Drake, Washington (St. Louis) over Colorado college.

Last week: 63 correct 19 wrong, .768.

Season's figures: 252 correct 63 wrong, .800.

HS-U And Tech Frosh Tangle Raiders Seek First Victory

Undefeated freshmen from Harden-Simmons will put their record on the line this afternoon at 2:30 in Jones Stadium, where the Texas Tech yearlings will be after their first victory of the season after one defeat.

The Cowboy first year men are strong favorites to hand the junior Red Raiders a solid thumping on the basis of comparative scores. They licked the WTSTC frosh 20-0, while Tech was dropping a 6-0 game to the Junior Buffaloes. In addition, the Cowboys sport three victories this year.

Game Considered Important

An indication of how important the game is to waning Hardin-Simmons prestige is the presence here of Warren Woodson, H-SU head football coach, to direct the freshmen. Ordinarily Woodson leaves such duties to Freshman Coach Al Milch, but this game is against Texas Tech and the Cowboys are out to win it.

Last year the Red Raider Fish fought the H-SU first year men to a 0-0 draw, when the Cowboy gridders were heavy favorites to win. It was in that game that Ray Crenshaw, reserve varsity quarterback for Tech, had his arm broken, leading the Raiders without a capable field director.

It will be almost homecoming for a potent member of the Cowboy squad, with Bobby Hart of Levelland leading the return. Hart was an outstanding player on the Levelland Lobos in 1947 and paced that team to a district championship. This year he is quarterback on what has been termed the finest freshman team ever assembled at Hardin-Simmons.

Buttons Work Out

The Buttons, as they are termed at Abilene, arrived in Lubbock yesterday and took a light workout in Jones Stadium. They appeared husky, fast and capable of causing trouble. In their four games to date, their backs have shown unusual speed, while their line has been almost impossible to penetrate.

In addition to Hart, one of the outstanding quarterbacks in West Texas, if not the state, the Buttons have two other signal-callers of topnotch ability. They are Jimmy Riddle of Wichita Falls and Charles Williams of Refugio. All three are excellent ball handlers and passers.

Dunne Goode of Midland and Tommy Bice of Borger have given the team additional punch in the backfield, as have Harold Taylor of Lordsburg, N. M., and Chick Tiger of Altus, Okla.

Tech Fish Look Good

Against the imposing array of talent from Abilene, Coach Maxey McKnight and Tipp Mooney, assisting McKnight today, will throw a team that so far has lacked an offense. The Red Raider first year men also have been highly touted, individually, but have failed to demonstrate team play.

But Ralph May of Sudan, formerly an H-SU fullback, may ignite the Raider spark. May has no love for the Cowboy juniors and his spirit might start the Tech offensive rolling. He will get good assistance from Bobby Close of Shamrock, an elusive runner, as well as Judson Brawner of Atmore, Ala., former All-State performer.

The Raider yearling line is outstanding, with Jerrell Price of Brownfield at one tackle, Res Pinson of Falfurrias at a guard and Dick Pirtle of Lubbock at an end. Aubrey "Red" Phillips, of Fort Worth is another outstanding freshman. And behind these players are several more counted on for varsity play next year.

ROOSEVELT CAGERS WIN

Roosevelt High school's basketball team turned in its fourth victory of the season against one loss when they beat Spade last night 33-20 at Roosevelt. Paul Hammett was the leading scorer with seven points for Roosevelt. The Roosevelt girls beat the Spade girls in the curtain raiser, 33-21.

Former Baseball Manager Gets Year In Jail For Taking Bribe

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 22 (U.P.)—Bernard Deforge, former manager of the Reidsville baseball team of the Carolina league, today was under a one-year prison sentence for accepting a bribe to "throw" a game to the Winston-Salem team this spring.

Deforge had pleaded guilty to the charge, saying that he guaranteed Reidsville would lose by at least three runs in order to safeguard gamblers' bets and that he received $300 when the game was over.

Appearing as defendants with Deforge in the trial which concluded yesterday were W. C. McWaters and Tommy Phillips, used-car dealers of Clover, S. C. However, both McWaters and Phillips were freed of charges that they had offered Deforge the bribe.

Fusari May Get A Shot At Robinson

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 22 (AP). If a couple of imponderables work out, Ray Robinson may lay his welterweight title on the line against Charley Fusari, the reformed Irvington, N. J., milkman.

The imponderables are, in order of importance:

1. Can Ray make the 147-pound welter limit any more? There are many who say he can't.

2. Does Fusari want to fight Robinson? After Charley stopped Tippy Larkin, the veteran Garfield, N. J., welter in the armory last night in the Tournament of Champions first indoor promotion, Fusari said he was eager to meet Robinson.

Terms Must Be Right

However, Vic Marsillo, Fusari's manager, hemmed and hawed over the proposition.

"Sure, we'll fight Robinson," Vic said, "but the terms would have to be right, something to keep both me and my boy here happy."

Robinson promised the winner of the scrap a title shot, but until the Fusari camp decides on its strategy, Ray doesn't have to do much worrying.

Larkin, who was knocked out by Fusari once before, managed to stay on his feet this time, but when Referee Paul Cavalier stopped the proceedings in 2:35 of the sixth of the scheduled 10-rounder he was wobbling all over the ring.

Matter Of Time

After the first round, in fact, it was obvious to the crowd of 7,687 that it was just a matter of time until the hard-punching Fusari would halt 31-year-old Tippy.

Larkin's poor showing and the fact that he kept his left down and crouched almost all the way drew scattered boos from the crowd.

"We planned it that way," said Angelo Pucci, his manager. "We figured that we'd make Fusari shoot at the moving, weaving target instead of a stand-up guy, then, if possible, get him in the end. It just didn't work out that way."

Larkin said later "I simply was not in shape."

Fusari weighed 147, Larkin 143½.

Film Star Coached By Ex-Big Leaguer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22. (AP) —Actor Jimmy Stewart, set to play the title role in "The Monty Stratton Story," is getting good coaching.

Stratton, himself, the former Chicago White Sox twirler who lost a leg in a Texas hunting accident 10 years ago, started to show Stewart yesterday on the MGM lot how to look like a big leaguer.

June Allyson will play the part of Stratton's wife, who encouraged him to continue as a player after the loss of his leg.

Country Club Golfers In Second Round Play

One match remains to be played in the first round of the Senior Handicap tournament at Lubbock Country club, Pro Herb Schroeder reported Thursday night, as entries open competition in the second bracket tussles.

Results in the tourney include: Wilkie Talbert defeated O. C. Gooden, 5 and 4; Ira Carpenter bested C. C. Caldwell, 4 and 3; F. L. McRee gained a default from Al Townsend; Cecil Horne drew a bye; H. H. Holmes topped Chick Trout, one-up; A. E. Miller won over J. A. Raley, jr., 2 and 1; and Guy Brown defeated Don Jones, 4 and 3.

O. L. Byrd and Charles Whitacre have not played their match.

1949 Game Is Last For Bucks, Trojans

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22 (U.P.) — The 1949 football game between Ohio State and the University of Southern California will be the last for the two schools, OSU athletic director Richard C. Larkins announced today.

The Bucks and the Trojans, Larkin said, will conclude the present home-and-home agreement next season in Los Angeles. Four such home-and-home dates have been made since the competition first began in 1937.

Raiders Leave By Air

Tech Favored Over Arizona

The Red Raiders of Texas Tech, generally favored over the Arizona university Wildcats by two to three touchdowns, were scheduled to leave the local airport aboard a Continental Airlines Convair this afternoon at 1 for Tucson, Ariz.

The Raiders were 37 strong for their trip to the Arizona city, where tomorrow night they meet the Wildcats in the second Border conference contest for each eleven. Coach Dell Morgan hasn't worked the Raiders hard in practice this week and they are eager for contact. Spirit on the squad is virtually at a new high.

Work On Offense

Yesterday's final drills for the game included additional polishing of offensive plays for the Wildcat battle, most of the plays being worked on including new interpretations of offensive work. Tech has been scouted carefully, but Coach Morgan and his staff have come up with potential touchdown plays that the Wildcats have not seen.

The defensive work continued to stress guarding against forward passing, one of the Arizona strong points. The varsity and reserves still appeared weak against the Wildcat aerial game, but showed improvement over early week sessions.

Arizona will come up with a system that employs the modified T, an offensive system that gets a variety of attack and usually for good distance. If Tech can stop the running of Charles Hall, Bill Peterson, Bill Penn and the other Wildcat backs, along with breaking up the passing attack, they stand a good chance of swamping the home club.

Mom's, Dad's Day

It will be Mom's and Dad's Day at Arizona and the history of the event shows that Arizona has been defeated only twice in 17 years. One of those defeats was by Hardin-Simmons and the other was by New Mexico University.

Between The Lines. . .

By Joe Kelly

A pair of enterprising young men of the South Plains, O. C. Foster of Lubbock and Bill Henderson of Levelland, have opened a gymnasium here. Neither citizen needs introduction to sport fans of this area. Foster played football at Lubbock High school and Texas Tech. Henderson was featherweight champion (Golden Gloves) of Texas for two years.

Their gym, still in the process of being furnished, is located at 2417 Main street and after almost a week of operation, the walls don't seem far enough apart to hold all the persons who want to work out there. We stopped by there Thursday afternoon and spent the better part of an hour and half there. Several men, making no pretense of being athletes, were working out with the weight lifting equipment, as well as other paraphenalia. Boxers were using the punching bags, the heavy sand bags, skipping rope, and using other equipment.

And in the ring was Henderson, looking just as fit as ever and twice as good. Bill learned a lot from his experience in Joe Vella's camp in New Jersey and he is intent on putting it to good use. His body is trained to a fine edge. He looks sharp and he punched impressively. And taking a decided interest in his ability was Babe Ritchie, veteran of 12 years in the ring. Babe, looking almost ready to go a few himself, was tutoring Bill, getting him to develop more power in his punches and to strike hard when he found the openings he was after.

Bill sparred four rounds, first with a good welterweight prospect and next with a fine high school boxer. Against both he looked ready to meet good opposition. Bill intends to keep fighting, even though efforts to buy back his contract have met with failure. He doesn't intend to let boxing interfere with his studies at Texas Tech, but he does need the additional money he can get for fighting once or twice a month. His contract with Bert Kahn, that was sold conditionally to Vella and was annulled with him by Bill's return here, runs for five years.

Babe said that Bill doesn't know how hard he can hit and that he still hasn't reached the point where he uses his power to the best advantage. But he's getting there. After he had finished two rounds with the welter, the boy admitted that he was still trying to get his mind to focus. Bill was wearing 16-ounce gloves; his opponent, 12-ounce. The truth of the matter is that Henderson is a great prospect. Jack Dempsey said, when he was here for the Jaycee fight card, that he hadn't seen a better one. Pound for pound, Bill packs a terrific wallop.

Foster is almost like a mother hen around Bill. Although they are operating the place jointly, Foster virtually clucks lovingly around Bill and watches every move he makes. He has a tremendous admiration for the little man and the two get along like peaches and cream. Bill has the same respect for Foster's ability to handle men, to train them and to get them ready either for fights or for being healthier. O. C. has had extensive experience and his ability to train men paid off in having physically fine boxing teams for the Golden Gloves.

But boxing isn't the only thing that is being taught or stressed at the gym. Clean living is the first thing and better bodies, not for just a few, but for everyone, is next. All the equipment isn't in yet, although it should be there within the next few days. If you feel the need of a good workout in a good, clean place, drop into the gym, which is just off College avenue. Both O. C. and Bill will be glad to see you and will set you on the right track. It's a good gym and business should be brisk, continually. We're glad to have the boys in business here.

Texas Tech's football team is flying to Tucson today and they intend to win their second Border Conference game of the year. Meanwhile the freshmen are playing the Hardin-Simmons frosh here. The game begins at 2:30 p. m. and the stands should have a large number of spectators in it. H-SU is out for blood, as shown by their bringing Coach Warren Woodson up to direct the forces. Somehow or other we feel that it isn't "cricket." A head coach belongs with his squad, not directing the freshmen. We hope the junior Red Raiders pin their ears back. Better drop out and see the fun.

Meadow Takes 33-0 Licking From Idalou

MEADOW, Oct. 22. (Special) — The Meadow Broncos had slipped from second to fourth in the District 4-B conference football scramble today as a result of their 33-0 licking at the hands of Idalou last night.

The Wildcats kept their spotless record unmudied through the victory, their fourth straight on conference play and their fifth, of the year. One tie is on the record.

Don Jarrett sparked the Wildcats to victory with two touchdowns, while other scores were turned in by Harold Rogers, David Reddell and Donald Seale.

Seale passed twice to Lloyd Allen and once to Alvin Joiner for Idalou's three extra points.

One of Jarrett's plunges for touchdown was set up by a pass by Seale, who ramrodded the victory.

Rapid growth of Caracas, Venevuela, has made power and light rationing necessary.

SMU, Oklahoma, Baylor, Texas Are Picked In Southwest

Rice, Aggies In Hard Test

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Southwest conference football campaign hits the halfway mark tomorrow with a chance to go ahead in intersectional strife and with two teams likely to be eliminated in the championship race.

There are four games scheduled, two of them conference affairs. Texas goes to Houston to battle a Rice team that must win to stay in the title picture. Texas A. and M. journeys to Waco to play Baylor in a game with the same complexion. The Aggies will be out of the race if they lose.

Intersectional Tussles

Meanwhile, two conference members have night games against highly-regarded outside foes. Southern Methodist collides with Santa Clara in the Cotton bowl at Dallas. Texas Christian runs into Oklahoma at Fort Worth. The conference needs victories in both to go ahead in intersectional play for the season.

Prospects are considered bright for SMU to win but TCU definitely is the underdog against an Oklahoma outfit that has won three out of four, including a 20-14 decision over Texas. The Sooners, who dropped their opening game to Santa Clara 20-17, then took three straight, will be throwing a backfield at Texas Christian that has romped for an average of 363 yards per game. This terrific ground power makes things pretty dark for the Horned Frogs, who, however, have gone up against other teams that looked just as tough in intersectional play and come through.

Southern Methodist's aerial circus is expected to handle Santa Clara, which has lost only one game out of five—that to a mighty California team. The Broncs, however, haven't beaten anybody of note—Fresno State, Loyola, Stanford — except Oklahoma. That was early in the season.

Rice Has Good Team

Matty Bell, Southern Methodist coach whose team strapped Rice 33-7 last week, says he wouldn't be surprised if Rice licked Texas. "We got the breaks against Rice—we were lucky," he declares. "They have a good team."

But the odds-makers can't see Rice.

Baylor must meet a team that can't score more than two touchdowns, in order to win. The Aggies have gotten 14 points in each of five games and lost them all. Baylor doesn't appear to be the kind of club that will let two touchdowns lick it.

Our average went up last week when we picked four out of four. Thus, with more confidence — almost a swagger — we take 'em like this tomorrow:

Southern Methodist vs. Santa Clara at Dallas — Here's where the Mustang rides the Bronc; Southern Methodist by two touchdowns.

Texas Christian vs. Oklahoma at Fort Worth — TCU will make a game of it but Oklahoma will score two more touchdowns than the Frogs.

Baylor vs. Texas A. and M. at Waco — A good game for a half but Baylor will win by three touchdowns.

Texas vs. Rice at Houston — This ought to be a nip-and-tuck battle; we'll pick Texas by seven points.

Texas Colleges Begin Championship Fight

KINGSVILLE, Oct. 22 (AP) — The battle for the highly mythical championship of Texas independent college football begins here tomorrow night when Texas A. and I. plays East Texas Baptist.

There are four independents in the state—A. and I., East Texas Baptist, Daniel Baker and the University of Corpus Christi. The game here will be the first for members of that circle to get together.

A. and I. has won three and lost two games this season. The other three teams each has won only one.

Corpus Christi U. goes to Alpine to play Sul Ross Saturday night while Daniel Baker entertains Ouachita college of Arkansas at Brownwood.

Post Season Vote On Coach Is Asked

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 22 (AP)—At least one petition asking a post-season student vote on whether Harry Stuhldreher should keep his coaching job was being circulated on the University of Wisconsin campus today.

The petition asks for a referendum of the student body on the question: "Do you think Stuhldreher should continue as Wisconsin football coach."

Stuhldreher also is athletic director.

Tuesday night the student board voted to urge students not to petition for a referendum before the current season ended. Approximately 500 signatures are necessary to force a referendum at the campus election Nov. 11.

Future Foes Of Texas Aggies Given Tip On When To Score

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 22 (U.P.)—If Baylor, Arkansas and other future foes of the Texas Aggies haven't already noticed it, a good time to figure on scoring against the Aggies seems to be in the final seconds just before the first half ends.

Villanova scored on the Cadets within 37 seconds of the half. Texas Tech turned the trick with a 92-yard pass play with 14 seconds remaining in the second period and last week Texas Christian punched across a score in the final 10 seconds of the first half.

Longhorn Regulars Are On Injury List

AUSTIN, Oct. 22. (U.P.) — Two regulars, kicking specialist Frank Guess and end Proctor, were definitely sidelined for tomorrow's clash between Texas and Rice at Houston, Texas Mentor Blair Cherry said today. Ends Lewis Holder and Ray Stone were ailing, but were expected to get into the fray.

TEXAS AGGIE END IS OUT OF ACTION

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—A concussion suffered in the Texas Christian game last Saturday definitely has put end Wray Whittaker out of action for the Texas A. and M. football team for at least 10 days, Coach Harry Stiteler said today. Andy Hillhouse or Cedric Copeland will start in Whittaker's place against Baylor at Waco tomorrow.

COACH DUTCH MEYER IS FAR FROM PLEASED

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Only Guard Milton Farmer among the six injured Texas Christian Horned Frogs was listed today as definitely out of action for tomorrow night's intersectional tilt with Oklahoma here. Coach Dutch Meyer was far from pleased with Horned Frog defense against Oklahoma plays in a prolonged scrimmage session last night.

INJURY TO WALKER IS NOT SERIOUS

DALLAS, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Southern Methodist university followers breathed easier today with the report from All-American Doak Walker that his ankle wasn't hurt when someone fell on it in practice yesterday. The high-scoring tail back went down with what had appeared to be a sprained ankle and SMU's stock for a victory against Santa Clara tomorrow night took a temporary plunge until Walker reported ok.

SHIFTS AT RICE FAIL TO CLICK

HOUSTON, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Shifts made in the Rice offensive backfield during the past week after the Southern Methodist debacle failed to click, Coach Jess Neely said today as he indicated the Rice starting lineup against Texas tomorrow would be the same as started against SMU. Only kicker Huey Keeney appeared definitely lost for the game.

INJURED BEARS ARE READY FOR ACTION

WACO, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Tackle Rupert Wright and Center Bucky Qualls, who missed last week's Texas Tech game because of injuries, will be in the Baylor lineup against Texas A. and M. tomorrow, Coach Bob Woodruff reported today as he hoped for a dry field on which to operate the Baylor passing attack.

Pace Stiffens In Golf Play

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 22 (AP)—The pace stiffens in the quarter finals of the hardscrabble $1,000 Women's Open golf tournament here today, but Mrs. Babe Zaharias remains the outstanding favorite.

The defending champion and co-medalist downed Mrs. Bob Cargile, steady Fort Smith player, 9 and 8 in her first round match yesterday. Today she plays Mrs. R. E. Winger of Fort Worth, Tex., who eliminated Mrs. Ben Butler of Van Buren, Ark., one up yesterday.

Co-Medalist Advances

Mary Agnes Walls of Menominee, Mich., the other co-medalist, advanced with a 5 and 4 victory over Mrs. R. L. Cassingham of Shawnee, Okla., and today meets Miss Ed Dell Wortz of Fort Smith, winner of yesterday's best match.

Patty Berg of Savage, Minn., 8 and 7 winner over Mrs. Tom Lichty of Fort Smith, plays Mrs. Mike Sicard of Fort Smith, who downed Mrs. Carle Robbins of Fort Smith, 2 and 1 in the first round.

In the other quarter-final match, Peggy Kirk of Findlay, O., defeated Mrs. Daisy Josephs of Oklahoma City, 7 and 6. She meets Betty McKinnon of Mt. Pleasant, Tex., today.

Stranahan In Favored Role

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22. (AP)—Low medalist Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, met Armando Damy of Mexico today in the first round of the Mexican amateur golf tournament.

Two rounds of eliminations are scheduled for the first day of match play.

Stranahan, who holds the British and Canadian amateur crowns, is a heavy favorite to recapture the Mexican title he won in 1946.

Fires A 69

He fired a 69, three under par for the tough Mexican Country club course, yesterday to lead qualifying. Only four players, all Americans, were able to equal or crack par 72 over the rain-soaked layout.

The others were Larry Dana, jr., of Bradford, Pa., 71; Charles Kocsis of Detroit, Mich., and Bobby Riegel of Houston, Tex., each with 72.

Dana met Allan Cooke of Houston, Tex., in the first round. Riegel played Roberto Chavez of Mexico.

Houston Schoolboys Remain Undefeated

(By The Associated Press)

Milby of Houston stayed in the unbeaten, untied ranks of Texas schoolboy football last night by brushing off San Jacinto, 32-14.

Adamson opened the Dallas district race in City conference play with an easy 28-7 decision over Crozier Tech.

North Side walloped Fort Worth Tech, 33-14, in a city conference tilt last night, and Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio dusted off crosstown rival, Harlandale, 14-0.

Jesuit of Dallas edged McKinney, 21-19.

SPORTSMANSHIP TROPHY

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 22 (AP) — The Southwest Conference school which displays the best sportsmanship during the remainder of the current football season and the winter basketball season will be presented a trophy.

Grid Socials To Be Rowdy

BY OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The two major social function of the gridiron this weekend find Army and Cornell holding a tete-a-tete at Ithaca and Michigan and Minnesota having tea at Minneapolis and in both cases mine host probably will discover that his guest is a rowdy.

Some immortal philosopher once allowed that you can't score while the other guy has the ball. He should have added that you can't score even when you have the ball—if you don't have the backs.

Two Touchdowns Better

Not that Cornell and Minnesota don't have the full quota of men allowed by football legislation. Each will have seven up front, four behind them and, probably, an aging citizen ready for hari kari on the bench.

Because when you compare the rival backfields in each of these two games you have to go for the Cadets and the Michigans. A vote for the Big Red or the slightly-tarnished Golden Gophers would be tantamount to wearing an orange tie to a St. Patrick's day parade.

Give Minnesota and Cornell an edge in the line, if you will, and Army and Michigan still add up two touchdowns better. On paper, that is.

Cornell Backfield Weaker

Take those Army-Cornell backfields. The Cadets have five fleet backs who give them a greater all-around punch than they had in the days of Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis. This quintet has made them the nation's leading team rushing with an average of 351 yards per game.

To match Army's four speedboys, Cornell has only two men, fleet Hillary Choliet and Paul Girolamo. Bob Dean's punting gives the Big Red an edge there, a debatable help.

Koceski Top Scorer

The good residents of Minneapolis are going to see another hot shot backfield when Michigan comes to town. Pet Elliott can run a club with the best of them and he has plenty of buttons to push.

Wing-footed Leo Koceski is the leading scorer in the Big Nine and fifth in rushing with a 4.5 yard average.

Minnesota's hopes depend on Billy Bye, who has rusted with injuries, Ev Faunce, eighth best ground gainer in the Big Nine; the passing of Dick Lawrence; the fullback plunging of Frank Kuzma, and the mediocre punting of Harry Elliott.

If they ever hold on to the ball they might be dangerous.

BOWLING SCORES

Hemphill-Wells almost moved into first place last night in the City Ladies Bowling league, taking a clean sweep of three games from the State Drug five.

They were the only team to whitewash their opponents, Lubbock Packing company taking two out of three from Hub Laundry, Mission Orange, the leaders, taking two out of three from Bell's Ice Cream, and KCBD taking two of three from Lubbock National bank.

Team high scorers last night included G. Hanson, Hemphill-Wells, 168-477; Joyce Vaughn, State Drug, 131-378; Francis McDowell, Lubbock Packing, 181-443; Maxine Buckner, Hub Laundry, 198-490; Billie Maslover, Mission Orange, 182-482; Lovie Beavers, Bell's Ice Cream, 164-408; Paola Patton, Lubbock National bank, 171-476, and Bennie Pressley, KCBD, 212-543.

THE STANDINGS

Team	Won	Lost
Mission Orange	15	6
Hemphill-Wells	14	7
Hub Laundry	14	7
State Drug	11	10
Lubbock Packing	10	11

Tennis Pace Picks Up In Mexico Play

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22 (AP) — The pace picks up in the Pan-American tennis tournament today with top-ranked players tangling in both the men's and women's singles semifinals.

Chief interest is in the top bracket men's joust between Jaroslav Drobny of Czechoslovakia, and the veteran Frank Parker of Los Angeles.

The victor will meet the winner of the tilt involving Richard (Pancho) Gongalez of Los Angeles and Eric Sturgess of South Africa.

Three American women—Dorothy Head of Alameda, Calif., Nancy Chaffee of Ventura, Calif., and Helen Pastall of Los Angeles—swept into the semifinals of their division along with Mrs. Sheila Summers of South Africa.

Among pygmies of the Central African jungles, the women average about 3 feet, 11 inches in height the the men range from three to six inches taller.

Reports Of Coach Change Are Denied

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 22 (INS)—Reports that Abe Stuber, present football coach at Iowa State, was to succeed Potsy Clark as coach at Nebraska met with the horse laugh today from Dean Earl S. Fullbrook, chairman of the Nebraska athletic board.

"That's somebody's pipe dreams," Dean Fullbrook said.

Clark himself called the reports "Just a lot of conversation," but he added:

"We do have plans for the future when I will step down from the job of head coach to devote my full time to the duties of athletic director. But any possible candidates for my post have never been revealed to me."

Upsets Expected In Schoolboy Games

Port Arthur, Wichita, Texarkana And Odessa Given Edge In Close Battles

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Good games are plentifully scattered throughout a busy state schoolboy football card this weekend with at least two of them matching undefeated teams.

For the most part, we look for the favorites to come through, especially in the flock of district games on the card, but in some cases the margin of difference between the favorite and the underdog is so slight a swing in the result either way could not be called an upset.

Last week we picked 40 out of 51 with one tie for an average of .784, while for the two-week period we've hit 81 of 105 for a .771 average.

The big ones are on tap tonight:

Port Arthur over Houston Reagan, but look for it to be much closer than most observers predict.

Alice over San Benito as Alice marks its debut into class AA with a virtual clincher for 14-AA title.

Wichita Falls over Highland Park, even if Scottie passer Wendell Bray should get into the lineup.

Texarkana over Gladewater, which is against the dope sheet but the Tigers have the edge in our book.

Odessa over San Angelo, but here's the spot for a sleeper upset.

Breckenridge over Stephenville, also against the records, but the undefeated Stephenville crew hasn't met the opposition the Bucks have and experience should be the margin.

San Antonio Brackenridge over Alamo Heights, but here again is a good chance for an upset.

Fort Worth Arlington Heights over Fort Worth Poly by a good margin.

Class AA:

Amarillo in a breeze over Brownfield, Pampa to clip Plainview, Borger to take Bartlesville, Okla., Quanah over Hollis, Okla., Bonham on the rebound over Childress, Sweetwater over Lamesa, Abilene over Midland, El Paso Austin over Roswell, El Paso Bowie over Carlsbad, N. M., Ysleta over Clovis and Phoenix over El Paso High.

Gainesville over Sherman, Denison over Paris, Denton over Sulphur Springs, Weatherford over Cisco, Henderson over Tyler in a breeze, Kilgore over Longview, Waco over Ennis with reserves playing enough to letter, Cleburne over Hillsboro, Greenville over Waxahachie.

Nacogdoches over Jacksonville, Palestine over Bryan, Conroe over Lufkin, Orange over Port Neches, Beaumont South Park over Beaumont St. Anthony's, Baytown over Texas City, Galveston over Galena Park, Freeport over Pasadena, Kerrville over Laredo, Corpus Christi over Victoria, Robstown over Brownsville, McAllen over Harlingen and Kingsville over Edinburg.

City conference:

Houston S. F. Austin over Houston Davis, Houston Lamar over Houston Sam Houston, San Antonio Tech over San Antonio Lanier, Dallas Sunset over North Dallas, Dallas Woodrow Wilson over Dallas Forest.

Leadership Of Loop At Stake

(By The United Press)

One of the four leaders was due to topple in Borger conference play this week when Texas Tech and Arizona collide in the feature game of the schedule at Tucson.

Each has one victory in title play, Tech having beaten West Texas State and Arizona having beaten Hardin-Simmons.

Texas Mines, one of the quartet, wasn't expected to have much trouble against New Mexico at Albuquerque. Arizona State of Tempe, the fourth co-leader, will be idle.

Arizona State of Flagstaff meets University of Redlands at Flagstaff, New Mexico A. & M. plays Highlands University at Las Cruces and West Texas State meets East Texas State at Dallas in non-conference play. Hardin-Simmons also is idle.

Lubbock Schoolboy Squads Play Today

Two Lubbock schoolboy grid teams will be in action this afternoon and tonight at Chapman field, giving Hub city fans an opportunity to see a football game even though the High school Westerners will be idle this weekend.

A torrid clash is slated at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon on the practice gridiron, when the Lubbock Cowhands tangle with the strong Littlefield "B" team. The Cowhands, coached by Pat Farris and Joe Bob Foster, are undefeated this year, but the Wildcat "B" eleven is expected to give the Hub city gridders one of their roughest tussles of the season.

The tilt will not be a battle of "scrubs," since the Littlefield mentors will use all of their high school squad except the top 11 players, and the Cowhands boast a heavy, powerful team that has defeated the Slaton Tigers and the Plainview "B" by impressive scores.

Littlefield's representatives are expected to use the usual "T" formation attack, with the Cowhands using the single wing.

At 7 o'clock tonight the seventh and eighth graders of two Lubbock Junior high schools—the O. L. Slaton Warriors and the J. T. Hutchinson Ranches—will meet in a city tilt. The Warriors recently tied the Carroll Thompson Calfropers, 7-7, but the Ranchers are paced by a speedy backfield and a hard-charging line.

Longhorn Coaches Happy Over Backfield Prospects For '49

AUSTIN, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Looking ahead to 1949 even before they are far from counted out of the 1948 Southwest conference race, University of Texas coaches smiled with satisfaction today at backfield prospects for next fall.

Some hard-running junior backs have taken up the Longhorn attack, stolen the spotlight from a rugged senior line and placed the club in a contending position for conference honors.

Arkansas Game Cited

Only one of the four—Billy Pyle—played an appreciable amount before this season, but the figures speak for themselves in the case of Pyle, left half Perry Samuels, right half Randall Clay and Ray Borneman at full.

Such as in last week's game with Arkansas:

Three of them—Borneman, Clay and Pyle—each totaled more running gains than the Razorbacks' total for the day. Samuel's speed accounted for one touchdown; Clay's power for another. Clay kicked both extra points (that's 8 of 9 this year).

Samuels Always Threat

Clay, who moved into the starting lineup only three weeks ago, has improved tremendously. In those three games, he has carried the ball 23 times, gained 122 yards and helped considerably in the tough blocking assignments.

Samuels is a threat anytime he's in the game. He whipped off a 40-yard scoring run against Louisiana State and his 65-yard kickoff return kept Texas in the Oklahoma game. He has averaged 21 yards on five punt returns.

The ever-dependable Pyle, always good for yardage, still rates his biggest praise for touchdown-saving tackles from his defensive safety post.

Boreman's awaited rise to stardom seems imminent. He broke out for 98 yards on the ground against Arkansas in 16 tries and has averaged 6.3 yards every time he's carried the ball all season.

Russia Quits Policy Of Sports Isolation

LONDON, Oct. 22 (U.P.) — Soviet Russia has abandoned the policy of sports isolation that kept it out of the 1948 Olympics and has applied for affiliation with 10 international athletic bodies, the United Press learned today.

The move was regarded as another step in the Russian "five year sports plan," which began last year with the greatest talent hunt in history and has as its goal toppling the United States from the world athletic leadership in the 1952 Olympics at Helsinki, Finland.

Rusia had dabbled in sports with the west previously, but only to the extent of accepting executive posts in international federations devoted to soccer, track and field, wrestling and basketball.

However, it never set up an Olympic committee which could receive invitations for participation in these events. British sports officials believe this will be remedied in plenty of time for the 15th Olympiad at Finland.

Girls Cage League Officials Set Meet

Coaches and officials of District 18, Girls Basketball League of Texas, will hold a rules interpretation meeting tomorrow morning at 10 in the Lubbock County courthouse here.

All officials are urged to be on hand to hear a member of the state advisory board of the league, who will discuss rule changes and interpretations.

Federal Reserve Board Unable To Throttle Inflation Forces

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP) — The Federal Reserve board said today it hasn't been able to throttle inflationary forces with a 15-month check on credit expansion.

Fed by borrowed money purchases, these forces still dominate the economy and are in position to surge forward, the board's October "bulletin" reported.

Ready To Spend

In an analysis of bank credit developments, the publication said plenty of customers are ready to spend if they can get credit. The bulletin added that lending recources also are plentiful, despite efforts at restraint.

The bulletin came out with the first open expression of concern by federal authorities over recent heavy selling of government bonds by insurance companies.

In the last three months, it said, insurance companies alone have sold over a billion dollars in government bonds, mainly to get funds to lend to businessmen and others.

No Power Of Control

The reserve board has no power to control insurance company lending, although it can restrict the lending capacity of banks.

"This process of shifting out of government securities results in the creation of bank deposits and bank reserves and is just as inflationary as bank credit expansion," the bulletin commented.

It asknowledged that the Federal Reserve system bought up much of the insurance companies' offerings, as well as those of other sellers.

This policy of buying government bonds "in the absence of other buyers" willing to pay par-value or slightly more for them has been hotly disputed in recent months.

One of the chief critics, Thomas Parkinson of Equitable Life Insurance company, contends the policy is inflationary.

Point Not Debated

He and other critics say the reserve system's support of bond prices itself spurs the sale of the bonds and reuse of the funds for other loans, while at the same time keeping interest rates low enough to promote further borrowing.

The bulletin did not debate the point. It acknowledged that by absorbing these bonds from "non-bank investors" the FRB may be increasing reserves for possible bank loans.

"Should sales of government securities by non-bank investors continue, banks would be able, in the absence of further restraining action, to accommodate a very large loan demand without reducing their own holdings of government securities," it said.

The bulletin said credit developments have been "an important influence in the continuation of inflationary pressures, notwithstanding some of the acute shortages of goods and the substantial treasury surplus."

Candidates

he said, so they can "do a real hatchet job on the New Deal."

The President's hopes of attracting liberal support got a boost when the United States Supreme Court voted to keep the Wallaceites off the ballot in Illinois. The Progressive party had claimed a large bloc of votes in that state and Democratic strategists are confident that a good share of them will fall now to the Democrats.

Thurmond Wants Debate

In Memphis, Tenn., States' Rights presidential candidate J. Strom Thurmond reiterated his challenge to both Mr. Truman and Gov. Dewey to debate the civil rights issue.

"If Truman won't debate me," said Thurmond, "he hasn't got the courage to be President of the United States."

Speaking from the same platform, Rep. John Rankin, D., Miss., an outspoken opponent of racial rights legislation, said that "when Tom Dewey signed the New York FEPC law, he put his mustache in the wringer."

U. S. Communists

said.

"Furthermore," he said, "the Communist party no longer requires its members to take an oath to support the cause. It's indicative of the Communist trend to go deeper underground in this country."

He said Communist members are registered under a code name or number in the district where they join up. This code, he said, is changed with sufficient frequency to make it difficult to check identities.

Thomas said the party is ruled by a small "hard core" or officials who take orders from one individual representing the Communist internationale or its successor organization.

Radio Jamming

jumped out of the window of the Soviet consulate in New York several weeks ago, the "Voice" picked up news reports of the incident and began broadcasting them to the Soviet Union within a matter of minutes.

Observers in Moscow reported later that within three hours news of what the refugee Russian school teacher had done was widely known over the Soviet capital.

Assistant Secretary of State George Allen said in a domestic radio broadcast earlier this week that Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith's early estimate of 8,000,000 "Voice" listeners in the Soviet Union has been revised upward three or four times. Other officials said this means Smith now thinks the number of listeners exceeds 24,000,000.

MARKET SHOOTS AHEAD

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — The stock market shot ahead at high speed today.

Prices advanced 1 to 6 points in one of the biggest jumps of the past three months. Closing quotations were at or near the day's best.

The advance carried the general level of the market to a peak since mid-July and within close distance of the 1948 top.

Steel issues led the move, most of them hitting new highs for the year or more. Chemical, oil, railway and motor shares were close behind.

Trading volume stepped up sharply to the largest total in some three months. Turnover was at the rate of around 1,700,000 shares.

Today's advance, according to financial quarters, was the latest climax in a pre-election market.

Selling at 1948 peaks during the day were National Steel, U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, Bethlehem, Wheeling, Jones & Laughlin and Dow Chemical.

Others higher included General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Dupont, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse Electric, Gulf Oil, Standard Oil (NJ), Caterpillar Tractor, Kennecott Copper, Nickel Plate, Southern Railway, Atlantic Coastline, and Southern Pacific.

Aircraft stocks refused to go along. Off as much as a point or more at one time were Douglas, Boeing and United Aircraft.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in moderate trading today. Hedge selling was offset by mill buying, with New Orleans and local son both sides of the market. With a fair volume of producer offerings overhanging the market, favorable news did not have immediate effect on prices.

Japan reentered the market for 60,000 bales of United States cotton for November-December shipment, with prices too be based on March futures.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (AP) — Feed grains turned downward on the board of trade today while wheat maintained a steady tone. Easiness in corn and oats was caused by less-urgent demand for the cash grain, particularly corn.

Purchases of cash corn on a to-arrive basis from the country expanded to more than 100,000 bushels. Prices in the spot market were off a few cents.

Wheat was aided by a weather bureau five-day forecast showing little prospect of rain in the southwest winter wheat area. Purchases of moderate quantities of flour by France also helped, as did trade reports of a slight pick-up in domestic flour business.

Wheat closed ½-⅝ higher, December $2.28⅝-½; corn was ⅛-1¼ lower, December $1.39¼-⅜; oats were ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76½.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22 (AP) — Wheat—No. 1 hard 2.41-2.44.

Oats—No. 2 white 94½-95.

Coke's Complaints Are Being Checked

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—A move to impound ballots cast in the Texas Democratic senatorial runoff primary isn't expected to hit any snags, says Nelson B. Derenian, chief counsel of the Senate rules sub-committee on elections.

Derenian said yesterday that an investigator now in Austin, Tex., reported he was making satisfactory progress in checking complaints of former governor Coke Stevenson.

Stevenson lost the senatorial nomination to Rep. Lyndon Johnson by 87 votes out of nearly 1,000,000. He charges fraud in the returns from Duval, Jim Wells and Zapata counties.

Derenian said the committee wants to preserve the ballots in case it decides to make a formal investigation of the primary. Stevenson said in his complaint that the ballots could be legally destroyed Oct. 26, 60 days after the runoff primary.

of extradition to Texas, and were returned here at 1:15 a. m.

Newsmen at Lubbock and Hobbs had been asked by officials to allow them until midmorning before "breaking" the story, so that they might untangle some of the elements of their investigation.

Charge Is Quoted

The charges accuse the men of having ". . . unlawfully and willfully caused an explosion of a house belonging to Texas, New Mexico & Oklahoma Coaches, Inc., by means of placing therein an explosive matter; to wit, dynamite, and causing the same to be exploded . . ."

Capt. Crowder, Sheriff Harris and District Attorney Croslin released here an account of the investigation at 11 a. m., and Dep. Sheriff Trimble gave the Hobbs newspapers the story at the same time.

Lomax, an ex-serviceman, had been an oil field roughneck until joining the Hobbs police approximately two months before the bus terminal bombing here. He is unmarried and came from Coweta, Okla. He was a member at one time of the Oil Workers of America union. A few days before the bombing he was ordered discharged from the Hobbs police force after complaints that he had interfered with the duties of non-union bus drivers who had replaced union drivers on strike there. He allegedly had charged the non-union drivers with traffic violations in Hobbs, and bus company officials protested.

Worked As Carpenter

Storey is married and the father of one child. He had been making $2 an hour as a carpenter, some of the investigators were told. He had lived in Hobbs approximately two and a half years.

Lomax allegedly was told that he would be "paid" if he would bomb the terminal here. The bombing would stir excitement in a several weeks strike that thus far had not affected the bus company's ability to recover from early stage difficulty in maintaining its schedules, and might direct public attention again to the fight of the union (Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen) to gain concessions from the employer bus company.

Lomax, allegedly accompanied by Storey, was said to have come here and studied the physical arrangement of the terminal's exterior and interior, together with outside property adjacent to the terminal; stood outside to determine whether there were witnesses, smoking a cigaret while leaning against a corner of the building, then to have walked a few feet eastward to the window, smashed it with a rock and tossed the dynamite into the office.

Sped Away In Car

Investigators were told that he then dashed southward to where the car was waiting on Fourteenth, a block south and a few yards eastward of the bus terminal and to have sped away. Storey was described in his statement to have been in the waiting car. Less than a block westward from where the car had been waiting, Lomax tossed under an empty bus parked near shops of the bus company a sack filled with dirt and pulverized dynamite, the fuse to which had failed to burn. Neither man heard the explosion, they said, the fuse on the bomb that exploded was from 12 to 16 inches long, it was related.

Investigators were informed that Lomax had been instructed not to toss the dynamite when anyone was in the official's office.

Hobbs News-Sun will say this afternoon that Storey had claimed to be the bodyguard of Mayor J. Paul Heard of Hobbs, but that he never had any commission except one Heard obtained for him under Heard's official connection as commissioner of the state police.

The News-Sun also will say that Aaron White, Hobbs city police commissioner, resigned, recently as a result of his insistence that the Hobbs police department insist that its members conduct themselves out of uniform as though they were on active duty and had asked that Lomax be discharged from the force.

The newspaper told The Evening Journal that White had received written threats of personal injury in connection with his demands.

The Lubbock terminal, at 1215 Thirteenth, was bombed about 12:15 a. m. the morning of June 14. The office of Carpenter, assistant general manager, and that of Cecil Peyton, Superintendent of drivers, were damaged.

Driver Saw Bomb

L. P. Rheudasil, one of the drivers who did not go out on strike which was touched off May 21, saw the bomb before it exploded. He had just walked out of Carpenter's office when he heard the window smashed.

The strike found its way even before the bombing into 99th district court, when Judge G. V. Pardue restrained the union from interfering with conduct of the company's business. Indictments were voted by King county in connection with assault of one of the striking drivers, and another substitute driver, attacked at Abernathy, defended himself so stoutly that several men were worsted and withdrew from the scene.

No indictments were voted in Lubbock county.

Two union pickets were on duty the night of the bombing, but were walking only along the north front of the terminal and around the west side only to the baggage room—several feet from the corner of the building where the bomb-thrower allegedly watched for witnesses before tossing the bomb.

Galveston Man Held On Murder Charge

GALVESTON, Oct. 22 (UP) — A Galveston man was held without bond today, charged with the murder late yesterday of Woodrow W. Holmes, a refinery worker.

Holmes was shot to death at 11 p. m. in front of a tavern.

Charged was Joe Swyton, a tourist court caretaker. Swyton told assistant county attorney Jack Beckhausen that he had argued with Holmes in the tavern, and that the man made a move to attack him.

Former Texas Labor Commissioner Dies

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22. (AP)—C. W. Woodman, 84, former state labor commissioner and publisher of the Union Banner here for 45 years, died today.

Woodman also headed the United States farm labor service, which provided a clearinghouse for seasonal labor from 1919 to 1935, when federal and state employment agencies took over. He was active as a labor organizer, conciliator and leader for more than 50 years.

As commissioner of labor in 1914 Woodman organized the "Buy-It-Made-In-Texas" association, which was credited with re-employment of 40,000 men.

City Plans To Double Flourescent Lighting

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Twin-tube fluorescent street lights have proved so satisfactory here that the city plans to double its 104-unit system.

They are four times as bright as the former standard bulbs and use less electricity, city Manager T. Edward Temple reports. They cost about half as much, last approximately a year and are easily replaced.

Plain white tubes can be replaced with multi-colored ones for Christmas decorations or other special occasions. The patented fluorescent lights were invented in 1939 by A. M. Miles, who was city electrician for 12 years.

Neutrals Urge Berlin Moves

PARIS, Oct. 22. (AP)—The "neutral" powers on the United Nations security council called on Russia today to lift the Berlin blockade at once.

The meeting was delayed nearly an hour by last-minute conferences among the Big Four delegations directly concerned in the issue. The United States, Britain and France have accused Russia of endangering peace by blockading Berlin.

West Has Accepted

Russia has asserted no blockade exists and that the council has no jurisdiction. The neutral powers — Argentina, Belgium, Canada, China, Colombia and Syria — drafted a compromise solution which the western powers accepted.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was reported to have told Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia yesterday he objected to only one aspect of the resolution. He added, however, he still was awaiting instructions from the Kremlin.

Vishinsky was reported to be opposed to the section of the resolution providing for raising of the Berlin blockade before the issue of Berlin's currency is settled.

Russia heretofore has insisted the two actions must be simultaneous.

Bramuglia, however was believed to feel this was a minor consideration which could be overcome by the apparent desire of both sides for a settlement.

The resolution was reported to call on the four occupying powers to establish a financial control commission on a local level in Berlin. This group would arrange four-power supervision of Berlin's currency within 15 days after the blockade was lifted. The Russian zone mark would be Berlin's sole currency under the plan.

Ten days after such a settlement, the four-power foreign ministers council would begin a discussion of all outstanding German problems.

ear. But the emaciated boy's hair was so long and matted and his skin in such poor condition she could not be sure whether he had a similar mark. Police, however, said he did not.

"I don't know," Mrs. Marlowe sobbed. "I just don't know."

The boy turned up last night at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Davis. They heard a scratching at the door and found him there, clad only in a pair of trousers, his matted hair almost down to his shoulders. He begged for food.

The boy, who weighed only 65 pounds, told police he lived with an elderly "aunt and uncle" in Mount Dennis, a tiny suburb about four miles west of Toronto. He said he believed his parents had died about four years ago.

"I was locked in the clothes closet most of the day," he said. "I was given food only twice a day—bread and water. At night I slept on a couch, but I couldn't see out because the blinds were pulled down tight."

The boy said he was forced to do heavy housework and that he was beaten almost every day by the elderly couple. His back was scarred and bruised.

The boy said he escaped yesterday when he was allowed to go on the back porch. He said he fled to nearby Etobicoke creek, where he tried unsuccessfully to catch fish for food. He said he lost all his clothing except his trousers while he was fishing.

He was taken to the Toronto psychiatric hospital for an examination.

Movie Actor And Girl Friend Are Charged With Drunkenness

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22 (UP) — Actor Robert Walker was arrested on a drunkenness charge today, and his companion, Thelma Byrnes, 22, was booked on a charge of drunken driving.

Police said Walker, 29, who gained prominence in films for his portrayal of Private Hargrove, was belligerent when seized.

Police made the arrests after spotting Miss Byrnes driving down the wrong side of a street. They chased the car for three blocks before halting it.

Skinned His Knee

Walker and Miss Byrnes then got out of the car and started to run, but the actor fell down and skinned his knee.

"I know I'm drunk," Miss Byrnes told police. "I don't ask forgiveness for that."

"Don't pick on her," Walker protested to police. "I'm to blame for all this. I know I'm drunk."

Walker posted $50 and was released for a court appearance Monday. Miss Brynes bond was set at $500.

Walker was sued for divorce recently by Barbara Ford Walker, 25, daughter of movie producer-director John Ford.

Hereford Bull Calf Brings $33,333.33

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22, (AP)—The Combs & Worley ranch of Pampa, Texas, paid a record price of $33,333.33 in private sale here for a 10-month-old bull calf, S. O. Symbol Seth.

The calf, sold yesterday by the Suncrest Hereford ranches of Gunnison, Colo., and Phoenix, Ariz., was named reserve champion of the 1948 Hereford show at the American Royal Livestock show.

Officials of the American Hereford association said it brought the highest price ever paid for a junior bull calf.

Sales of Texas cattle at the American royal follow:

The Flat-Top ranch, Walnut Springs, Tex., sold a bull to Dudley brothers of Commanche, Tex., for $1,950.

Combs & Worley, Pampa, Tex., sold bull to O. J. Richards, Port Huron, Mich., for $1,000.

Jim Hering, McGregor, Tex., sold a heifer to Edg-Clif farms, Potosi, Mo., for $1,000.

J. R. Straus of the Straus-Medina Hereford Ranch, Tex., sold a heifer to the Wiate brothers, Winfield, Kas., for $1,000.

F. D. Jones, Rome, Tex., sold a bull to Robert S. Morr, Dryden, Va., for $1,600.

F. D. Jones, Rome, Tex., sold a heifer to the Emadine farms, Breckenridge, Mo., for $900.

Boost In Galveston Bus Fares Possible

GALVESTON, Oct. 22 (UP)—A possible ten-cent bus fare confronted Galveston residents today, after complaints by transit officials that the boost would be needed to meet operating costs.

Rayburn E. Bowen, president of the Galveston Transit Co., told city commissioners yesterday the present seven-cent fare was no enough to meet rising costs. He suggested new rates of ten cents for single fares, or 25 cents for three tokens.

The proposal was referred to City Attorney Edward Watson, who, it was presumed, will draft an ordinance to be submitted to the commissioners at the meeting next Thursday.

Chinese Film Star On Way To England

SINGAPORE, Oct. 22 (AP)—One of China's leading cinema stars, Lily Lee, is on her way to England "to see the British film business at first hand and to see J. Arthur Rank."

Miss Lee is travelling with her producer husband, T. Y. Lo, who at the invitation of the British Council will study the British film industry. The actress has made more than 25 pictures in the last decade, entering films at the age of 14.

Her husband during the last war made documentary films in the United States.

Chest Fund Totals More Than $30,000

Approximately $1,000 in contributions to Lubbock Community Chest were received this morning, increasing the total to more than $30,000, almost one-third of the goal of $97,500.

The total Thursday night was $29,546.86.

The Thursday report showed a gain of slightly over $10,000 over the Wednesday afternoon total, which stood at $19,470.90, and approximately $4,590 over the Wednesday night total, which was $24,956.

All reports from Chest workers were due in Thursday.

Meanwhile, a letter addressed to all faculty and staff members of Texas Tech was sent over the campus Thursday from Frank Junell, assistant to the president, with the suggestion that one day's pay be given to the chest by each.

Contributions will be accepted by Miss Flossie Burkholder, cashier at the college, Oct. 22, 23, and 25. It has been asked that Tech faculty and staff members make their contributions before next Tuesday, in order that contributions reach Chest headquarters as quickly as possible thereafter.

Former Plains Land Agent Visiting Here

Wm. Zappe, who as a land agent here from 1922 to 1939 assisted in colonization of thousands of acres of land toward the lower part of the South Plains, was shaking hands with friends here today and expressing amazement at development of the area.

Now a resident of Shiner, Texas, from where he operates extensive holdings in land and oil properties in several parts of the state, Zappe was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Beatrice.

Formerly a partner of the late Wm. D. Green, whose family still controls much property in this city and area, Zappe operated a land company which bore his name. He aided in colonization of the 26,000-acre Wilson county school land tract in the vicinity of Wilson in southern Lubbock and northern Lynn counties, and in settling by farmers of the several sections of the Emory Butler estate around New Home, in northwest Lynn county. He assisted also in colonizing 28,000 acres of the old T-Bar ranch.

Once owner of considerable property in the city of Lubbock, Zappe ruefully remarked that a lot on Nineteenth which he sold several years ago for $2,700 has recently sold for $45,000.

Pilots Pass 64-Hou Mark In Long Flight

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Oct. 22 (AP)—Their four-place plane still chugging along, two Fullerton fliers passed the 64-hour mark today in their assault on the world's air endurance record.

Dick Reidel and Bill Barris have been aloft since 5:26 p. m. Tuesday. Their immediate goal is the 726-hour record set in 1939, but they hope to make 1000 hours before they set down Dec. 7. Their ground crews reported pickups of gasoline, food and mail were being made uneventfully.

THE CROSSLEY POLL

Democratic Party Split-Up Blocked Truman's Chances

BY ARCHIBALD M. CROSSLEY
Director, The Crossley Poll

The combined actions of the two split-off parties, States Rights and Progressive, have played a major part in blocking Truman's chances for re-election. If all the vote for these parties were added to the Democratic vote, Truman would increase his total electoral votes by 66 and would be tied in states with 70 more.

As the situation now stands, the poll gives 130 electoral votes to Truman. If the 66 and 70 were added to these, the total would be 266, or just enough to elect. Additional votes perhaps might have been picked up from California (25) or Massachusetts (16), in which Dewey now has only 51% of the total vote.

Truman Votes Lost

The following table shows the states which President Truman might have had a chance to win if Thurmond and Wallace were not running (electoral votes in parenthesis):

States Now Favoring Thurmond Where Combination Favors Truman (36)	% Truman Combined with % Truman Thurmond and/or Wallace	% Truman Alone	% Dewey
Alabama (11)	40	24	16
Louisiana (10)	38	75	25
Mississippi (9)	18	89	11
South Carolina (8)	20	80	20
States Now Favoring Dewey Or Dewey-Truman Tie Where Combination Favors Truman (28)
Minnesota (11)	47	51	49
Colorado (6)	49	51	49
Virginia	45	51	49
Where Combination Produces Tie (70)
New York (47)	49	50	50
Washington (8)	44	50	50
Montana (4)	48	50	50
Nevada (3)	48	50	50
West Virginia (8)	50	50	50
States Favoring Dewey By 51% Where Combination Produces Near-Tie (41)
Massachusetts (16)	48	49	51
California (25)	41	49	51

This table presumes that all Thurmond and Wallace votes would be cast for Truman in the absence of these candidates. However, special analysis indicate that an appreciable number would not vote in such case. Furthermore, the Wallace vote apparently is definitely decreasing. Therefore, the table must not be interpreted as exactly what would have happened in popularity percentages, but rather as an indication that without Thurmond and Wallace, the Dewey-Truman race could have been close enough for the latter to win with adequate effort.

Southern Division Given

The Thurmond movement is greatest in Mississippi and South Carolina, home states of its candidates. At this writing, Truman is not even represented on the Alabama ballot and must lose the state. Georgia legislators can appoint substitute electors not committed to Truman if he receives less than a popular majority. In at least one other state likely to go Democratic, the chosen electors may divide up their votes among different candidates when the electoral college meets.

The following table shows how the southern states divide. Percentages are for the total vote given the leading candidate; the remainder being divided among the other parties.

States favoring Thurmond: Mississippi 71% for Thurmond, South Carolina 51%, Alabama 44%, Louisiana 47%.

States Favoring Truman: Arkansas 63%, for Truman. Florida 48%, Georgia 62%, Kentucky 53%, North Carolina 57%, Oklahoma 58%, Tennessee 49%, Texas 69%.

State Favoring Dewey: Virginia 49% for Dewey.

West Germany Has Brighter Outlook

BERLIN, Oct. 22. (AP)—Things are looking up in western Germany under U. S. and British administration and a majority of the Germans there expect a more prosperous 1949.

This was shown by a military government public opinion survey conducted in the American occupation zone. In the same survey the Germans gave overwhelming approval to the currency reform instituted by the three western occupation powers in June.

The survey found a "high degree of confidence in the future, with three persons in five believing they will be more prosperous in 1949."

The interrogators found that seven persons of ten intended to buy more clothing, household utensils and furniture than they had in the six months preceeding currency reform.

Mother, Daughters Victims Of Suicide

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. (DS)—An 83-year-old mother and her two daughters died in an apparent suicide pact in their Burlington home today.

They were Mrs. Mary Schroeder, the mother, and Mrs. Sophia C. Eibel, 62, and Viola M. Schroeder, 47.

Police said they had turned on all the burners of a kitchen gas stove. Coroner Robert O. Giles said personal papers and prepared obituaries found by police indicated suicide.

They had been dead several hours when found.

Giles said no inquest would be held.

JESTER TO SPEAK

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22 (AP) — World War I graduates of the first officers training camp at Leon Springs open a two-day meeting here today with Gov. Beauford H. Jester scheduled to deliver the main address. Jester took the Leon Springs officers course.

AND WHAT IS A SNIPHOCLUG?—This is a sniphoclug. What, you don't know what a sniphoclug is? Simple—a sniphoclug is hippopotamus spelled sideways. And this picture is a sideways view of a hungry hippo at Whipsnade Zoo, England. Turn it around and see.

Average Income Of $100 Per Week Possible, Wallace Says

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Henry A. Wallace says "fearless planning for abundance — not scarcity" could make it possible for the average American worker and farmer to earn $100 a week.

"It can be so," the Progressive party presidential candidate contends, "if we plan for it in the same resolute way that the men in Washington and Albany today are planning for war."

Speaking last night over the American Broadcasting company network, Wallace said:

Planning Necessary

"We can get $100 a week, but we cannot achieve this goal unless the productivity of the entire world is stepped up. This will take planning through the government, the establishment of a world-wide ever-normal granary through the U. N. This will mean making available American technology to every country in the world—including Russia."

Wallace, a farming expert and former secretary of agriculture, declared:

"I know something about this question of planning because I personally planned to produce abundance in the corn fields, and I saw this dream come true. . . .

Double Output Possible

"I know that it is possible in ten years to double the output per hour of labor on all the farms of the world. All that is required is a plan to do it and a will to do it.

"But it cannot be done by the men who sit in high places in Washington and Wall street. They are not interested in such plans. These apostles of scarcity protect their vested interests.

"They are doing their best to keep atomic energy out of effective peacetime use. They are doing their best to prevent the building up of the backward areas of the earth."

Immigration Trouble Dim As Dutch Proxy Bride Wed Again

NEXT: CABBAGE—Mrs. Roxie Angell, 62, of Alexandria, Ind., may soon trade her tomato-canning job for a mess of cabbage. She has said she will inherit part of the $2,000,000 John O'Banion estate, but she'll keep on working "at least until the end of the tomato-canning season."

GLENDALE, Calif., Oct. 22 (AP) The little Dutch proxy bride had her American man today.

And strands of immigration red tape were dimmed by honeymoon bliss.

The former Wilhelmina Johanna Nyenhuis, 24, and her groom, Everett D. Masters, 41, hoped those strands were permanently cut by their church wedding here yesterday.

Wilhelmina wore the same satin and lace gown she had on at her proxy ceremony at the Hague last July 19.

Met Two Years Ago

They met two years ago when she was a Dutch airline employe in Amsterdam and Masters was delivering a plane there for Lockheed aircraft corp.

Later when he asked her to come to this country and be his bride it developed there would be a long wait under the immigration quota system. So they were married by proxy and she came to New York as soon as feasible, arriving Oct. 11.

Enters On Parole

Then the immigration department held her at Ellis Island, declining to recognize the proxy marriage, until under an appeal to Washington she was permitted to enter on parole.

She flew here a week ago and yesterday they were united by a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. George B. Hammond.

The ceremony went off smoothly after one slight delay. The nervous bridegroom had forgotten the license and had to hustle home after it.

Argentina now is losing $320,000 a day on the railroads it bought from Britain.

Desert Is Prize For Jews In Southward Battle For Space

BY RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

A desert is one of the stakes, in fact a prize, in the Palestine conflict.

The Israeli government announced yesterday that its troops have taken ancient Beersheba in the very heart of the Negv, a wasteland.

Why fight for a wasteland? For Israel, there is not much choice. Her spokesmen contend that she must have the Negev, not only for future expansion, but to achieve the Jewish dream of a modern state with an economy evenly balanced between agricultur and industry.

Reasons For Drive

The Negev is a pretty poor area.

It is a little smaller, in square miles, than Connecticut. The Negev is barren, waterless, bleak, brown and unfriendly.

Nevertheless, Israel claims it, and is expending blood and treasure to get it. These are the reasons:

The new state is already feeling population pressure. Immigration since the end of the war has brought the population mark to nearly 800,000.

Many thousands more are waiting in Europe to go into Palestine.

The Israeli government contends that it must have the desert territory.

Industrial Potential

The new state cannot expand northward, except at the expense of Lebanon. On the east are Syria and Trans-Jordan. The sea is on the west. Hence, the Jews must look to the south, toward a desert.

Population is not the only factor. Industrial potentiality—and it is only a potentiality now—is equally important.

During the years of the British mandate, the Jews conducted extensive experiments, and with considerable success, in areas not greatly different from the Negev.

Thy were able to organize collective farms in other desert lands, and make them produce. They propose to do the same thing now in the desert of Negev.

GANGSTERS BATTER BRIDGE

BANKKOK (AP) — Would-be ferry operators are blamed by a Siamese communications ministry official for damage to a bridge near here. The official said log rafts had been released in the river, damaging the bridge supports. He surmised that a gang wanted to put the river crossing out of action so they could set up an alternate ferry crossing and make a profit.

CONFEDERATE VETS NAME NEW HEAD—The surviving veterans of the Confederate Army, at their convention in Montgomery, Ala., named Gen. J. W. Moore, 97, left, commanding general of the United Confederate Army. He is being congratulated by Dr. W. H. Scudder, surgeon general of the Sons of Veterans.

Jerry-Built Houses In Hong Kong Falling

HONG KONG, Oct. 22 (AP) — A number of Hong Hong's post-war jerry-built dwelling houses are, like the old London Bridge rhyme, "falling down, falling down," but not so very "merrily" for the plaster-spattered victims.

In the collapse of one rebuilt pre-war structure four people were killed. The building, standing next to the end in a block long row of four story tenements, had been severely damaged by bombs during the war. At the war's end the building was repaired with inferior materials. Mud was used in place of cement and gaps in supporting concrete walls were smoothed over with plaster. The building stood because it was supported on both sides by tenements.

One night the end tenement, which had been crammed to the roof with dry goods, caved in and the jerry-repaired structure went right along with it and so did the wearly old building on the other.

Building authorities say that unscrupulous contractors and slipshod architects are often responsible for the collapse of post-war built houses.

Building Authority V. Kennif says his office just doesn't have the staff to keep a day and night eye on contractors and architects. "With all the building that's going on it would take several thousand inspectors to do the job," he said.

The cost of erecting a building today, according to a government estimate is three to 10 times that of pre-war years and the cost of labor has increased seven to 12 times.

Jet-propelled aircraft are to be manufactured in the Netherlands.

Poles, Czechs Unify Tele-communications

WARSAW, Poland, Oct. 22. (AP) —Poland and Czechoslovakia, already working hand-in-hand in every branch of economic and industrial recovery, are now planning to unify and expand their communications facilities.

One big project planned is the establishment of direct tele-communications system between Szczencin (Stettin) on the Oder river leading into the Baltic sea, and Czechoslovakia. This is particularly important for Czechoslovakia, since Poland has assigned to the Czechoslovaks a customs duty-free zone in the Szczecin port.

Poles and Czechs also contemplate setting up a big uniform tel-ecommunications net-work in the Silesian-Moravian basin. They also are to build a new transit telephone cable between Warsaw and Prague via Koszyce in southern Poland.

Next To Presidential Contest Attention Is Focused On Control Of Senate In January

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—President Truman's closest advisers say he is convinced the Democrats will recapture control of the Senate regardless of the outcome of his own race next month.

Talking privately, these men tell newsmen they expect Democratic senatorial candidates to outrun Mr. Truman in some states and to win in a couple he may not carry.

Congressional candidates themselves told correspondents traveling aboard the President's campaign train they felt they had been helped by the chief executive's repeated attacks on the Republican leadership on capitol hill.

Four Victories Seen

Most Democrats—the President among them—take the view that the party will knock off GOP seats in Oklahoma, Minnesota, West Virginia and Wyoming.

These four would give the Democrats a 49 to 47 margin — provided they do not lose any of the other hotly contested races, such as those in Tennessee, New Mexico and Montana.

Former Gov. Robert S. Kerr exuded optimism when he boarded Mr. Truman's campaign train in Oklahoma. He got off saying the President's talks there had boosted his own margin and made the state "safe" for the President. GOP Rep. Ross Rizley is Kerr's opponent. Republican Senator E. H. Moore did not stand for re-election.

Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota campaigned in Minnesota with the President, who called Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball one of the "champions of reaction." Humphrey told newsmen he expects to beat Ball. And, White House aides reported, the President agrees with him.

Other Races Watched

Mr. Truman came out of West Virginia with glowing reports of former Democratic senator Matthew M. Neely's chances of unseating GOP Senator Chapman Revercomb. Neely himself was optimistic and so was Senator Harley M. Kilgore, the Democratic holdover.

Mr. Truman hasn't been in Wyoming since his cross-country pre-convention speechmaking. At that time, he said he was encouraged by reports that Democratic Gov. Lester Hunt could defeat GOP Senator E. V. Robertson.

Kentucky, in the eyes of the Truman strategists, looks better for the President than it does for the Democratic senatorial aspirant.

Rep. Virgil Chapman is trying to defeat Senator John Sherman Cooper (R) there. Mr. Truman has expressed hope, however, that the home state popularity of Senator Alben W. Barkley, his running mate, can put Chapman over.

The President let this reporter know that he is more optimistic than other members of his party about Democratic chances of unseating Senator C. Wayland Brooks (R) in Illinois. Paul H. Douglas is the Democratic candidate.

FIRST RAM-JET HELICOPTER FLIES—Charles Wood pilots the first ram-jet helicopter, as it flies over St. Louis, Mo. The little craft, named "Little Henry," was built by McDonnell Aircraft for the Army.

Anderson Given Boost

Those aboard the presidential special had an opportunity to talk with former senator Guy M. Gillette (D) when Mr. Truman spoke in Dexter, Iowa. They were reminded the state is normally Republican, but Gillette said he has a fighting chance to beat Senator George A. Wilson (R).

Presidential associates talk hopefully, but not too convincingly, of this one. Most Democrats on the scene said they look for Gillette to run ahead of the President in Iowa.

The President — judging from his talks with newsmen — isn't worried about the senate races in either New Mexico or Colorado.

However, he gave Clinton P. Anderson, former secretary of agriculture, a speaking lift in New Mexico where Republican Patrick J. Hurley is a candidate again. Senator Carl Hatch (D) is not seeking re-election.

Johnson Confident

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D) talked so confidently of his own prospects when he rode the campaign train in Colorado that Mr. Truman's strategists consider him a sure bet to turn back Will F. Nicholson (R). Johnson said he though Mr. Truman picked up enough votes personally to give a "fighting chance" in Colorado.

...ator James E. Murray (D) is having a hard fight in Montana with Republican Tom J. Davis, but the Truman people say Murray will pull through.

The President has had no first hand look into the senatorial fight in Tennessee where Rep. Estes Kefauver (D) is opposed by former Rep. Carroll Reece, until recently GOP national committee chairman. However, Truman staff wokers say they are confident Kefauver will come out ahead.

Australia will entertain the British Royal family for 10 weeks, from April 24, 1949.

Deer Hunters Warned To Make Their Plans Early For Season

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press Staff Writer

Deer hunters were warned today they had better lay plans now for what appears to be a well-booked 1948 hunting season.

Game officials already are a step ahead of the hunters, and are lining up a force of 20 extra game wardens to cope with an expected increase in the number of sportsmen who take to the field this year.

Shooting of deer will open generally on Nov. 16, and Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster commission, says "we'll have a heavy kill of game—there's no question about it."

Hunting Grounds Private

He expected that sportsmen would take a toll of about 40,000 bucks, approximately the same as in past years, and perhaps would shoot some 7,000 turkey gobblers.

"But the hunter needs to understand," he said, "that the land is privately-owned, and all the people who expect to hunt should be advised to locate a place to hunt well beforehand."

"There's an inclination for the hunters to gang up on the areas where hunting is known to be best," he added.

One of the choice spots is in the hill country west of Austin. Dodgen reported that the deer population is "improved," and said there appears to be a wider distribution for the 1948 hunt than last year.

The improved prospect for the hunt was borne out in figures furnished by game restoration Director W. C. Glazener.

Deer Areas Recovering

He said that the most populous deer areas are recovering from a heavy lie-off of bucks in 1946-47.

In one area in the hill country in which a census of deer was taken two years ago, it was found that there were close to 300 bucks per section of land.

After that, Glazener said, the population dropped down to about 100 deer to each section. But now, according to censuses in recent months, there are about 200 deer to a section.

"If that indicates a general trend," Glazener said, "there will be more deer than last year."

However, the game commission is sure that hunting won't be good in one part of Texas — the five East Texas counties which had a summer deer hunt in August and September.

Season Opens In November

Glazener said there were indications that more deer were killed in the five counties — Jasper, Newton, Sabine, San Augustine and Tyler—than had been generally believed.

For one thing, he pointed out, while some wardens reported kills of from 300 to 500 in their counties, that estimate included only the deer shot by outsiders. "The actual kill may have been twice that high," Glazener believed.

One suspicious note of the summer foray in East Texas, Glazener said, was that just one deer tag taken from a transplanted buck was turned in to the game commission. He felt that others were taken, but that hunters did not want the commission to know they had killed a deer.

Generally, the state-wide deer season will stretch from Nov. 16 to Dec. 31, coinciding with the legal shooting of turkey.

The season will open early west of the Pecos, with shooting of mule deer from Nov. 6 through Nov. 11.

The bag limit on deer is two per season, and west of the Pecos that includes one white tail and one black tail deer per season.

Dodgen expected the turkey kill might reach 7,000, and said there had been a "surprisingly good crop" of turkeys in some hill country areas this year.

RAF TRAINS 'PARA-NURSES'—In Upper Heyford, England, Britain's first teams of "para-nurses" are in training. The volunteers are part of airborne medical groups, which will fly to the aid of crash victims. Sister O. E. V. Craig, left, and Sister M. M. Bradley attend a "casualty" after a practice leap.

Barkley Raps GOP's Record

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — The Republican party was accused last night by Sen. Alben W. Barkley of "indifference to the needs of the people."

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate also said the Republicans regard working men "not as human beings but simply as grist for the mills of industry."

The Kentucky senator spoke at a CIO-PAC rally in New York City's Carnegie hall.

GOP Arm Of NAM

He also spoke at a tea arranged by the Democratic women's organizaton and at separate rallies of the New York county Democratic organization and the Kings county (Brooklyn) Democratic organization during a one-day visit to New York City.

In his speech at the CIO rally, Barkley said the Republicans have an "anti-labor, anti-public record."

He described the Republican party as the "political arm" of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Barkley said the Democratic party would support "the right of all to equal opportunity of employment, regardless of race, color or creed, and the principle of equal pay for equal work."

Private Rites For Actress Scheduled

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 22 (AP) —A private funeral service will be held for Elissa Landi, 43-year-old actress and novelist, who died of cancer yesterday at Kingston hospital.

The time and place of the service were not disclosed by the family.

The public will be permitted to view the body today at a Kingston funeral home.

Australia To Use Flares For Fliers

SYDNEY, Oct. 22. (AP)—Australia is trying out British-made Schermuly flares as a flying safety measure.

Flares, each of 150,000 candle power, are kept at airdromes where normal night-landing facilities do not exist. They can be lit on the ground and give off enough light to enable an aircraft to land.

Australia has been unable to provide night-landing facilities on all emergency airdromes. On occasion, all automobiles of a country district have been mobilized to make a flare path for a plane to get down.

Women From Texas Succeed In Making Names For Themselves In Washington Law Practice

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—In a profession dominated by males and in a city full of lawyers, Texas women have made a name for themselves in the practice of law in Washington.

Most prominent of them is Marguerite Rawalt, formerly of Corpus Christi. Known professionally by her maiden name, she is the wife of Harry Secord, a retired army officer.

Miss Rawalt is with the Bureau of Internal Revenue and presently is reviewing cases which are to be brought before the U. S. Tax Court for final disposition.

Given Honorary Degree

After pre-legal studies at the University of Texas, Miss Rawalt obtained her law degree at George Washington University here. Baylor U. at Waco conferred an honorary doctor of laws degree on her in 1945.

She has served as president of two national bar associations—the National Association of Women lawyers in 1942-1943 and the Federal Bar association in 1943. Attorney General Tom Clark, a fellow Texan from Dallas, succeeded her as head of the latter organization.

Most women lawyers in the capital are with governmental agencies or are on Capitol Hill.

Mrs. Nina Haynes Ikard, legislative secretary to Rep. J. M. Com of Beaumont, is a member of the American and Women bar associations. She is chairman of the juvenile committee for the District of Columbia for the women's bar group.

Formerly a public school teacher in Fort Worth, Dallas and Mineral Wells, Mrs. Ikard is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College at Denton. She got the idea of becoming a lawyer when she was a secretary to a U. S. district attorney in Fort Worth.

After getting a law degree from Southeastern University in the District of Columbia, she worked as adjudicator and claims reviewer in the General Accounting Office.

Another of the women barristers from Texas is Mrs. Lotus A. Van Huss, secretary to Chief Justice Marvin Jones of the U. S. Court of Claims. She formerly lived in Stratford, Dalhart and Amarillo.

A graduate of a Washington law school, she served as secretary to Judge Jones when he was congressman from the Panhandle district.

Two other Texas women have deserted Washington to practice law in their home state.

From Corpus Christi

One is Emeline Jackson of Corpus Christi, formerly on the staff of Rep. John E. Lyle. The other is Miss Lou Nora Spiller, formerly of Austin. Miss Spiller got her law degree here while working for Senator Tom Connally and now is an assistant U. S. district attorney in Houston.

Miss Fannie M. Bovis, member of a family noted in South Texas legal circles, is now a principal attorney on the general counsel's staff of the National Labor Relations Board. She supervises the briefing of cases and argues them in the federal courts.

She got her law degree from the University of Texas in 1929. For five years she engaged in private practice, first in the San Antonio law firm of her father, the late James F. Boyls, and then in Beaumont.

With Government

Since 1934 Miss Boyle has been with the government, starting with the Home Owners Loan Corporation in Washington and then going to Dallas to serve in the regional office of the agency. She has been with the NLRB since 1937.

Ivy Lee Buchanan formerly of Dallas, is engaged in private law practice here. She attended Texas State College for Women in Denton and Southern Methodist University, before receiving her law degree at National Law school here in 1942.

She is chairman of the committee on communications law of the National Association of Women Lawyers.

All of the Texas women lawyers here have been admitted to practice before the supreme court.

Swiss To Clean Out Rental Racketeers

GENEVA, Oct. 22. (AP)—The tidy Swiss have a kind of housecleaning problem. The federal council has announced that it is taking steps to clean the rental racketeers out of Geneva. The seat of the European headquarters of the United Nations is bulging with new residents and there aren't enough homes for them.

Before the war there were 6,000 empty dwellings in Geneva. Now there is an estimated shortage of 2,500. Operators have obtained control of a large number of apartments and rent them at fantastic prices either furnished or unfurnished. Some foreigners, in their anxiety to find a home, are even paying rent on apartments still under construction.

Lamour To Ask Release From Studio Where She Got Start

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct 22—Dorothy Lamour plans to seek complete freedom from Paramount, where she got her start in pictures.

The New Orleans sarong girl left the home lot a year ago, but the studio retained rights for one film yearly. This year's commitment has been given to Pine-Thomas for "Betrayed" with Dan Duryea. Dotty resents being shunted to the independent unit, even if it is for a high-budget picture.

Lamour, who has been busy on the independent film circuit and with her air show, has two more films to make for Paramount. Whether she'll win a release is problematical. The studio might want to keep her on tap in case Bing and Bob hit the "Road" again.

Just About Has Wish

When Jane Wyman signed her Warners contract in 1936, she wrote this in her biography questionnaire: "My ambition is not to be just an actress, but THE actress of Warner Bros." It took a long time, but—after "Johnny Belinda"—she just about has her wish.

Ingrid Bergman proved mighty popular with her countrymen when she returned to Sweden, even though she said she and her husband will probably soon become U. S. citizens. Crowds greeted her everywhere she went, until she longed for the quiet life of Beverly Hills.

Victor Mature is being mentioned for a 20th Fox film in Italy after he finishes "Samson And Delilah." He would be the only American in the cast. Vic isn't so sure he'd like to leave home, though.

Author Given Grant For Book Research

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 (AP)—J. Frank Dobie, folklorist and author, has accepted a research grant for study leading to a book he plans, "The Mustang Horse."

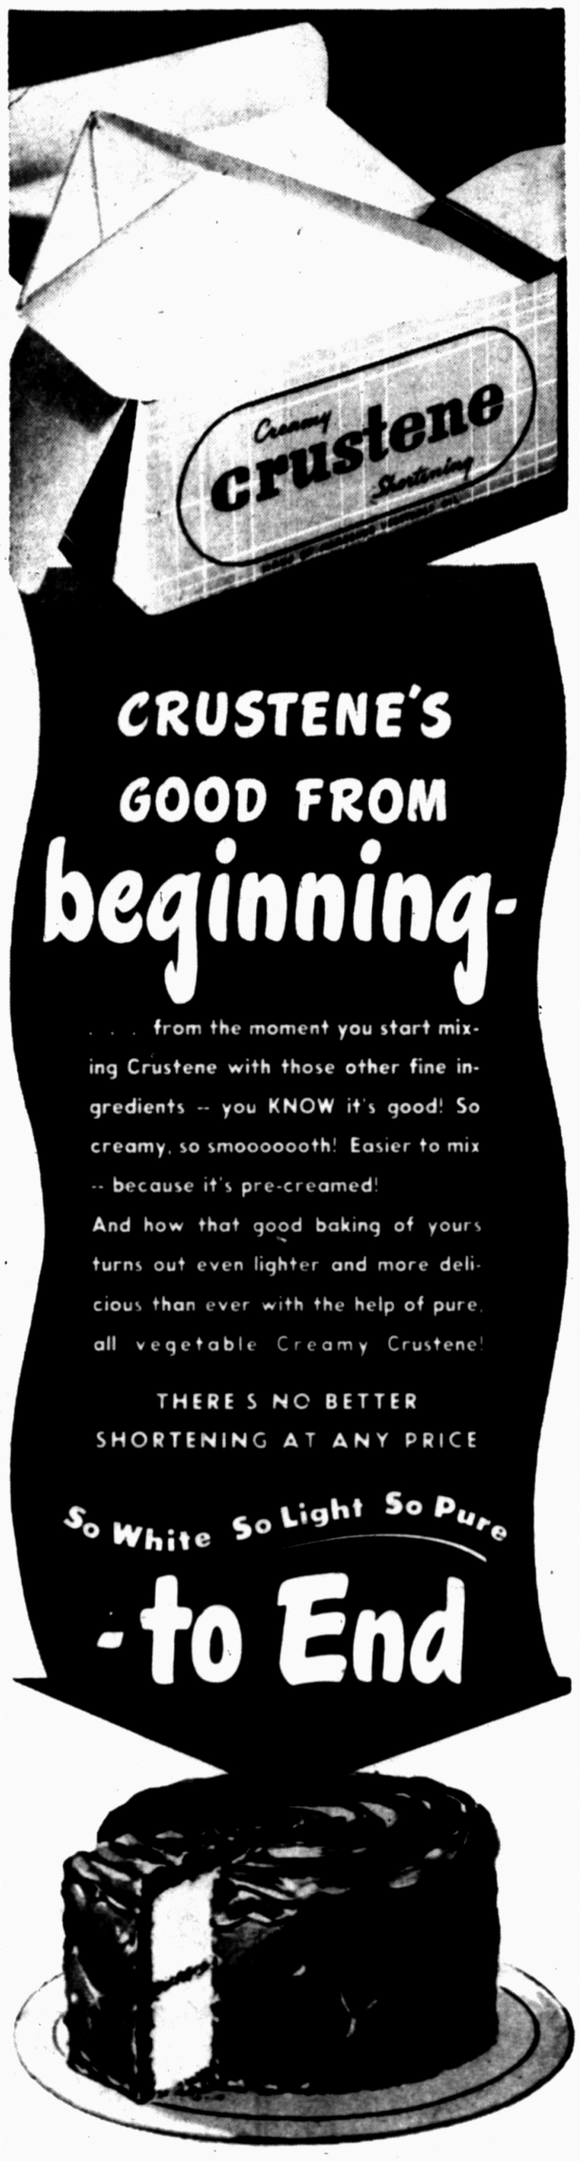

Dobie will leave later this month to begin the work under the grant by the Henry Huntington library in San Mateo, Calif.

Dobie was dropped from the University of Texas faculty last year after a dispute with the administration over his request for an extension of leave of absence.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 Eire civil servants, mostly living in Dublin, have been promised a pay raise of $1.10 a week for women and $2.20 for men workers.

Texan Is Named Commander At American Legion Convention

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22. (AP)—S. Perry Brown, the American Legion's newly-elected national commander, and about 70,000 other Legionnaires were on their way home today.

They wrapped up the 30th annual national convention late yesterday with unanimous approval of Brown for the Legion's highest office.

Whe nthe 56-year-old Beaumont, Tex., business man's election became apparent midway the balloting, one opponent, George N. Craig of Brazil, Ind., yielded. As balloting ended, the third man in the race—James F. Green, 33, Omaha, Neb.—moved to make it unanimous.

Brown is a veteran of both world wars.

The national executive committee will meet in Indianapolis next month to choose a site for next year's convention. Only Philadelphia and Miami extended invitations. Boston put in a bid for the 1950 meeting.

Two resolutions approved by the Legionnaires asked pensions for all honorably discharged veterans of World War I or World War II.

FANS FOR SPAIN

SAN SEBATIAN (AP)—The first national fan exhibition has been staged here as part of a program to revive Spain's fan making industry. An estimated 400 antique fans and several hundred modern products were displayed. Prizes totalling $1600 were awarded. The exhibition was sponsored by the artisans syndicate under which the Spanish fanmakers guild functions. Spain, Japan and France were pre-war leaders in the fan making industry.

Texas Manufacturers Told To Expect Regulatory Proposals

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 (AP) — Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers told Texas manufacturers they can expect new regulatory proposals to be presented to the legislature next year.

Shivers said at the Texas Manufacturers association meeting yesterday that among measures to be introduced is a proposed industrial safety code which he described as "sweeping." He said he believes the proposed measure grants too much authority in some respects to one man or one commission.

Tax Proposal Expected

The state official also said he expects proposals for a tax on natural gas and for a one or two cent levy on gasoline to finance farm-to-market roads.

New directors named for one-year terms include C. H. Elliott, Houston, and Ned A. Cole, Austin.

Named to three year terms were J. Floyd Malcom, Abilene; Clark Barrett, Orange; W. J. Edwards, Wichita Falls; B. H. McGill, Tyler; E. P. Trout, Lufkin; J. G. Coman, Mexia; Homer C. Hirsch, El Paso; G. M. Rossell, Texarkana; W. D. Johnson, Austin; L. Luton Henson, Greenville; George D. Ramsay, Daingerfield; Edgar J. Lewis, Lubbock; Madison Clement, Waco; Max D. Lovett, San Angelo; L. O. Vogelsang, Brownsville; R. A. Young, Dumas; A. R. Watson, Amarillo.

BALLOT BONNET—Mrs. Riley Miles Gilbert, New York socialite, says she'll wear this Dewey hat until the GOP candidate is elected president.

Trial In Slaying Of Sergeant Postponed

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 22. (AP)—Trial of Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, charged with slaying her husband, Sgt. John Ybarbo, 24, of Victoria, Tex., has been postponed a month.

Mrs. Ybarbo, who resided at Melrose, Mass., is accused of firing four shots at her husband in the bedroom of their Fritzlar home on Sept. 20.

A military government trial had been tentatively set for Wednesday. It was postponed because the army doctor who is to testify for the prosecution has been transferred to Vienna on special duty.

Missing Book Turns Up In Chinese Mart

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 27. (AP)—A book, missing from the Pasadena city college library for 10 years, has been returned.

It was found, appropriately enough, in Thieves' market, Hong Kong, China.

The American consul-general in Hong Kong, Arthur A. Simpson, discovered the book, a volume from an encyclopedia set, while browsing in the Thieves' market book mart. He noted the Pasadena City college sticker and stamp marks and prepaid its shipment home.

Wallace Appeals To Illinois Governor For Place On Ballot

CHICAGO, Oct. 22. (AP)—Blocked by a Supreme Court decision, Henry A. Wallace and his Progressive party today appealed directly to Republican Gov. Dwight H. Green to get the third party's state and national tickets on the Nov. 2 Illinois ballot.

But there appears to be no chance that the Progressives will be on the state ballot. The political effect seems to favor the Democrats.

Wallace himself, disappointed because Illinois is regarded as one of his strongest strategic states, asked Green in a telegram that he call a special legislative session or have the state certifying board order the Progressive tickets to be put on the statewide ballot.

Illinois Law Upheld

Green made no public comment. Associates said he plans none and that it is now "a physical impossibility" to make ballot changes.

The U. S. Supreme Court yesterday refused by a 6-3 vote to order the third party on the ballot. Its decision upheld a 1935 Illinois law.

The Progressives contended the law is unconstitutional after the state electoral board decided Progressive nominating petitions had failed to comply with the law. Their appeals were supported by some Republican state officials and opposed by some Democratic officials.

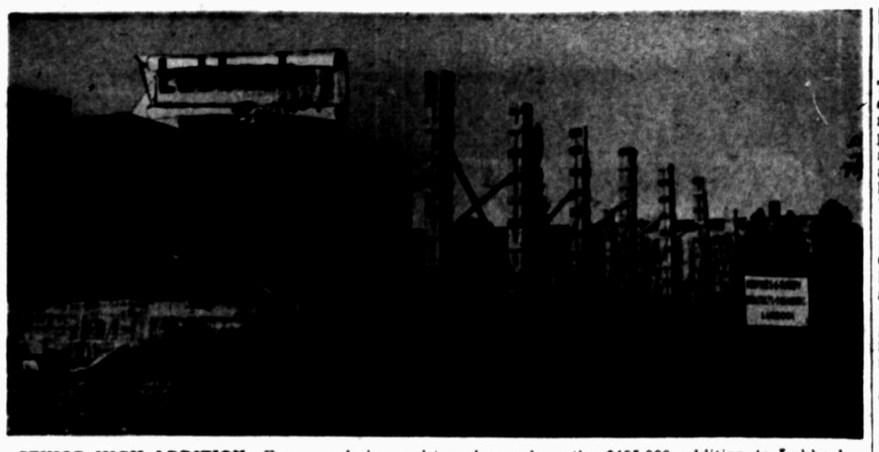

A few hours later Wallace made his appeal to Green. He said that Green and other certifying officials should put the Wallaceites on the ballot because an Illinois assistant attorney general had told the court that the legislature and state officials made "a mistake" in enacting the law.

Ballots Printed

Otherwise, Wallace said, Green should call a special session of the legislature and "thus assure" the Progressives a place on the ballot.

Green associates said any special session probably would find time an element. Partisan and two-thirds majority difficulties would prevent quick action. They also said that the certifying officials can't do anything because they are bound by the state electoral board decision. And anyway, they said, it's too late—ballots already are printed and there isn't time to print new ones.

SENIOR HIGH ADDITION—Framework is reaching skyward on the $485,000 addition to Lubbock Senior High school, as shown in the picture above. The addition will provide badly needed classroom space as well as another gymnasium, music room and other facilities. A Dallas firm, T. C. Bateson Construction company, is general contractor. New Health System Draws Canny Scots

EDINBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP) — The canny Scots are rushing to cash in on Britain's new "free" medical service. "If all the applications made in Glasgow for spectacles are genuine, I can only assume that the population must be going blind," commented Sir William M. Marshall.

Sir William, chairman of the Lanark County Health Service Council, told a conference of health supervisors that in July alone there were 567,000 applications in Scotland for medical prescriptions—three times the monthly average under the old national health insurance scheme.

"Sleeping tablets with ten ounces of whisky was one of the prescriptions asked for," Sir William said. "Many people have asked for wigs." He reported that 92 per cent of Scottish physicians have enrolled for service under the health plan. All Britons, who pay weekly health taxes, are covered under the "crib to coffin" national health plan which became effective last July.

Tuesday Is Their "Red Letter" Day

ORANGE CITY, Ia., Oct. 22 (AP)—Tuesday is a special day in the Bernard Wobbema family here.

Wobbema, a postoffice clerk, was born Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1907. His wife was born Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1909. They were married Tuesday, June 16, 1931.

Disposable Baby Bottle Made Of Plastic Gets Its Sendoff At Cocktail Party In Washington

By ARTHUR EDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. — A disposable baby bottle made of plastic, shyly described by its maker as the greatest improvement in infant nursing in 80 years, had its first public testing yesterday.

And like everything else in Washington these days — from meeting the new ambassador to watching a lobster cooked by electronics—baby's bottle got its send-off at a cocktail party.

Some of us students of science and/or Scotch showed up for the event, in the swanky Mayflower hotel.

Mrs. Adda May Allen, a local nurse who invented the bottle, explained how it works.

The plastic bottle comes in a roll of 100. Mama or papa gets the formula ready, then unrolls six of the bottles, cuts out each one, puts it on a rack.

A little gadget is used to pry each bottle open. The formula is poured in. The special nipple is put on.

The way Mrs. Allen did it, it looks simple.

According to her, the advantages are many.

When baby is through, the bottle is thrown away. This saves all that busines of sterilizing glass bottles.

Since it takes heat of 400 degrees to mold the plastic in the first place, it's bound to be sterile. And baby's bottles of the old-fashioned kind, even with sterilizing, are apt to have bacteria.

Bottle Collapses

Then, too, (this is still Mrs. Allen talking) as the baby nurses, the plastic bottle collapses. This prevents him from gulping down a lot of air. One burp at the finish, and he's all set.

The new bottle is being put out by the Shellmar Products corporation of Mount Vernon, Ohio. A kit containing the racks, the gadget to expand the bottles, nipples and 100 plastic bottles will retail for $6.95. Refills will cost a penny a bottle.

On this commercial note Mrs. L. B. Haywood came in toting Robert, her four-month-old son. Mrs. Haywood looked flustrated. Robert looked calm.

He made a face when the new-fangled thing was stuck in his mouth, but he soon was chomping away happily, ignoring the photographers' flashbulbs.

FAB with SUPER-WETTING ACTION!
washes everything
FASTER, CLEANER, WHITER, BRIGHTER

Fabulous new washday discovery from the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet laboratories gets even extra-dirty wash extra-clean!

It's *fab*ulous the way women are switching to FAB with Super-Wetting Action because it gets all family wash cleaner faster!

Super-Wetting Action, a new scientific washing principle. When you wash, FAB penetrates materials faster and more thoroughly . . . pushes dirt out!

Rich suds . . . no soap scum . . . in hardest water! Yes, rich suds to get clothes extra-clean . . . and no "graying" soap scum. Wash gets whiter, cleaner with FAB.

You Can't Swim the Mississippi with a Million Head of Cattle

The Mississippi River always has been the "continental divide" in the geography of the livestock-meat industry. In the old days the great herds of longhorns trailing north from Texas had many rivers to cross. The Red. The Canadian. The Big Blue. The Platte . . . but there was never a trail that ended east of the Father of Waters. The Mississippi was, and is, one river you couldn't swim with a million head of cattle.

It's a staggering job to get the nation's meat from producer to consumer. Two-thirds of the meat animals are produced west of the Mississippi . . . two-thirds of the meat is eaten east of it. On the average, meat has to be transported more than 1,000 miles. It's a big job—a huge job. Just consider: in 1947 alone, this job of getting the nation's meat from the farm and range to the cooking range involved 32,158,000 beef animals, 24,044,000 sheep and lambs, 82,579,000 hogs!

Harvesting any national crop—from wheat to meat—is a big job. Big machines are needed. Who uses binders when combines are more efficient? Similarly, in the processing and nationwide distribution of meat it takes large-scale, efficient "machinery." There's a need for all of us—producers and meat packers; shippers and marketing people; transportation lines; wholesalers and retailers. We all play a part—whether we are individuals or companies, whether we operate locally or on a nationwide basis.

Over the years, we at Swift have worked to perfect our nationwide system of marketing. We, and 26,000 other commercial slaughterers, provide a competitive cash market for your livestock. We buy your animals and dress them. We process and refrigerate them. Then, we distribute the meat to retail store men everywhere. (Our earnings for all these essential services are only a fraction of a cent a pound.) Because this big job is done efficiently, you producers are assured of markets . . . consumers everywhere are assured of meat. We at Swift & Company are proud of our part in building the "1,000-mile bridge"; the "bridge" which carries meat from the point of surplus production to the point of consumption. So long as all America wants meat it will take efficient nationwide organizations to bridge that 1,000-mile gap.

All That Glitters Isn't Profit

J. F. Brandt

Government reports tell of farm and ranch income from livestock that totals more than 17 billion dollars. Many folks read those reports and say—"No wonder meat is so high. Livestock producers must be coining money."

That is a thoughtless comment, based on misunderstanding. That 17 billion dollars is not profit—it is gross income. Many expenses must come out of your gross livestock income before you can make any profit on it. There's the cost of breeding-stock and feeding-stock . . . of your hired labor . . . of feed, machinery, equipment. All these costs are at all-time high levels. Out of your gross income also must come property and income taxes, interest; insurance premiums; repairs; new buildings; fences; death losses, etc. After you've paid all those necessary business expenses, you're lucky if you end up with 10 or 15 per cent profit.

A lot of people are just as wrong about Swift's profit as they are about yours. They look at our total sales of 2¼ billion dollars last year and say—"That's a barrel of money. No wonder meat is high!" But the fact is that competition in both buying and selling is so keen that from those 2¼ billion sales dollars an average of 79¢ went to pay you for your livestock. 10¢ for pay to our employes. 6½¢ for supplies and other necessary business costs. 3¢ for taxes and transportation. All we had left as earnings was 1½¢.

Yes, in our business, as in yours, there's a big difference between gross income and net profit!

Tally and Cull "Newcomers" in Breeding Ewe Flocks

by Clair E. Terrill
United States Department of Agriculture

Clair E. Terrill

As you swing the cut gate, you can increase total salable lamb weight—your margin of profit. For here you can cull ewes that are barren in their first lambing season. You can also cut out those unable to raise singles in their first lambing year. These ewes often get by on their appearance alone. For frequently they are heavier wooled and in better condition than nursing ewes. But they do not always pay their way.

Recent research has proved that subsequent market lamb production from such dry ewes may not justify keeping them in efficient commercial breeding bands. Experiments with Columbia range ewes at the U. S. Sheep Experiment Station, Dubois, Idaho, established this fact. There is a definite relationship between the total weaning weight of lambs produced in the first year and in the three following years of lambing.

All ewes that twinned the first year, regardless of whether the lambs were raised, weaned 19 pounds more lamb weight in the three years of study than ewes that failed to lamb—five pounds more than ewes which did not rear their first single lamb. Ewes that dropped and raised singles had 16 pounds greater annual lamb yield thereafter than ewes which did not lamb. And ewes that did not rear their first lamb later produced 14 pounds more lamb weight yearly than ewes which were barren their first lambing season.

So, to increase efficiency in market lamb production, tally "newcomers" in ewe herds at breeding time. Then mark barren low-producing ewes for culling after the lambing season.

A depression is that period of time during which people learn to do without "necessities" that their parents never dreamed would exist!

WE RAN into Former Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith on the street the other day and noticed he was wearing a Thurmond-Wright campaign button. This reminded us that the campaign button business ain't what it usta be.

When we were a kid of 10, or so, we did a 20-month stretch in the Middle West. It was during a political year, and every boy in town had a lapel full of the gadgets, usually representing all candidates for office from constable to President.

Later, in Oklahoma, campaign years brought out a lot of buttons, too, although not so many as in the older, Midwestern section. But, on the other side of the picture, the buttons, we are told, were more numerous in the crowded cities of the East than they were even in the Middle West.

They still go stronger for buttons in the Midwest and East than most of us imagine, although the buttons aren't as popular as campaign advertisers as they once were.

The reason we don't have 'em down here much is that throughout the "one-party South" (although it's a two-or-three-party South this year) most people are "rubber stamp voters" and it's taken for granted on normal years that "everybody" is voting Democratic.

OF COURSE, if Texas ever becomes a two-party state, you can bet your bottom dollar that will be great news for the manufacturers of political buttons.

Most Texans are ever-ready to "stand up and be counted," and a lot of us would wear campaign buttons in the middle of any hot fight, just to let other people know we weren't afraid to show our feelings.

As it is now, even Texans who don't give a hoot who knows where they stand don't wear buttons, because there's no fun in it.

According to "Pravda," the Russian propaganda sheet, the large Mikoyan shoe factory in the USSR now is turning out shoes of one size only. "Presumably," cracks a publication of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, "the next step will be a decree ordering Russians to grow only one size of feet."

We wouldn't say that.

Recalling the customary Russian practices in such matters, our guess would be that the next step will be a decree ordering the secret police to chop all Russian feet down to that one size!

HERE is a true story, told us by one of Lubbock's more prominent doctors. We aren't using his name, because he might object. But we'll vouch for the veracity of the story.

Some years ago a patient came to this doctor suffering from a severe case of rheumatism. This patient had been running a fever for 26 years.

He had had his tonsils out, his teeth out and all sorts of other treatments, including professional care in one or two of the major clinics in the country.

The Lubbock doctor questioned the patient after running him through a general examination. The questioning brought out that the patient, 26 years before when a boy of 11, had been operated on at home for the removal of puss from his lungs. The operation had been successful and rubber drainage tubes had been inserted.

After the patient convalesced, he was permitted to walk around in the yard. One night he came in from the yard and went to bed. When the doctor arrived to dress the incisions next morning, the tubes were missing.

The doctor figured the tubes had slipped out while the patient strolled around the yard. A complete search for the missing tubes was instituted, but they couldn't be found.

Finally it was decided that chickens, of which there were many on the place, had carried the tubes away.

The patient got well—or, as far as anybody, including himself, could discover—he was well.

LATER came the fever and rheumatism, followed by the loss of tonsils and teeth. Time rolled on and finally, 26 years after the operation, the patient got so run down he could hardly make a living. That was when he came to Lubbock, having moved to this area a short time before.

The Lubbock doctor listened to the story, ordered new chest x-rays. The pictures showed the barest sort of shadows on the lungs—shadows which probably would not have been noticed unless the doctor studying the pictures knew what he was looking for.

Sure enough, the resultant operation uncovered the tubes, each about six inches in length, inside the patient. He recovered his health, his fever and rheumatism left—and everything was hunkle-dunkle.

Quite a story, especially since it actually happened as we set out.

Speaking further of medical matters, we are indebted to that old scientific researcher, Edward M. (for Montmorency) Pooley, for the information that Napoleon Bonaparte suffered from an allergy.

According to Mr. Pooley, in his "Side-Bar Remarks" column in the El Paso Herald-Post, Bro. Bonaparte's allergy was an especially bad one, because it came from something about one of his girl friends.

Every time Napoleon stayed around that particular girl friend for a couple of hours, he started sneezing. And he sneezed, off and on, for several hours thereafter.

Napoleon, of course, didn't know he had an allergy. Allergies weren't known then.

But his wife, Josephine, knew that something about Nap's girl friend caused his sneezing and she could tell Nap had been with the girl every time he came home ker-choo-ing!

Mr. Pooley's research, we are sorry to say, didn't go far enough to tell us (1) if Napoleon quit the girl friend because she made him sneeze; or (2) because Josephine raised so much hob with him about his dereliction!

SINCE we've given up so much of today's space to medical science, we might just as well go a little farther on the subject.

We were lapping up a choc'lit sody with Homer Dane Grant, sr., and Dr. J. T. Krueger the other night and the conversation got around to cancer.

We talked about how many people we knew had turned up with the dread disease and how medical science is still baffled by it in its advanced stages, although much progress has been made in curing cancer victims if their infection is caught in early stages.

Finally, we asked Doctor Krueger if there is a greater incidence of cancer today than ever before and, if so, if something in our faster living tempo, or in our softer ways of living, is to blame.

He said there is a greater incidence of cancer today because doctors of this era know better how to diagnose it. He said more people had cancer today than ever before, because medical science has been able to increase the human life span by successfully combating many other diseases, thus permitting people to live longer, hence run the greater risk of cancer.

He said, however, that our faster, softer living has nothing to do with the increase in cancer; that our habits of eating, living under airconditioning, largely sheltered from the elements, etc., have nothing to do with it.

More people are dying of cancer today than ever before, he said, because fewer die early from pneumonia, scarlet fever, ruptured appendices, smallpox, etc., then later fall victims to cancer.

BY DREW PEARSON: FORRESTAL DID HIS BEST TO BLOCK HST'S ORDER ON RESERVES

Lobbyist Invades Tennessee To Back Republican

WASHINGTON. — Secretary of Defense James Forrestal had no comment for the press after he was ordered by the President to revitalize U. S. military reserves.

PEARSON

"The executive order relating to reserve components has not been received," Forrestal told reporters bluntly on Oct. 16. He wouldn't be able to comment, he apologized, until he had a chance to study it.

The real truth is, Forrestal not only had studied the directive thoroughly in advance but had done his best to stop Truman from issuing it.

The order was first sent over to Forrestal's office on October 9. Although the next day was Sunday, Forrestal marched over to the White House in a sweat. For reinforcement, he brought along Army Chief of Staff Omar Bradley.

They tried to talk the President out of issuing the order, but all Truman would promise was to hold it up until the following Thursday to give them a chance to make suggestions. Late Thursday night Forrestal came up with a barrage of recommendations that would have blasted the heart out of the order.

Except for a few minor points, these were rejected. The most important concession Truman made was to cite Forrestal's pet service, the Navy, for its excellent reserve program.

The President was out of town campaigning when the release was finally made by presidential assistant Dr. John Steelman. Yet even as late as the evening before publication, Forrestal was in Steelman's office still trying to block the directive.

Old Lobbying Tricks

Old lobbyists, like chickens, always come home to roost.

One of the oldest lobbyists, who has tried his hand at all sorts of little games, is Robert E. Smith, who once held forth in a swank mansion in Rock Creek Park where congressmen drank champagne and listened to sweet words whispered by the big utilities.

Smith was then lobbying against the holding company act. When his lob-nest was exposed, he slipped quietly out of the limelight: only to come back later with another high-sounding name — "The National Conference of Investors," supposedly to protect the stockholders of the New Haven railroad.

However, U. S. Judge Carroll Hincks of Connecticut soon punctured that. After exposing the way Smith had put his daughter on the payroll, made his son-in-law office manager, and paid a salary to himself, Judge Hincks stated:

"The dominant motive underlying the formation of this company was the desire . . . to obtain a gainful retainer."

When this lobbying venture blew up, Smith conceived another high-sounding title —"The Life Insurance Policy-Holders Protective association." Under this letterhead Smith has scared enough insurance holders out of money to pay around $50,000 in expenses.

LATEST Smith operation has been to jump into the Tennessee senatorial campaign with a letter to insurance policy holders asking them to vote for G. O. P. candidate Carroll Reece. The letter begins by inviting the policy holder to "serve as a member of our national advisory board." Since the mimeographed letter is sent to thousands of people the advisory board must be a gigantic one.

Continues lobbyist Smith: "We wish to call to your attention a matter which is of vital concern to every policy holder in the nation. This is the election of Mr. Carroll Reece as U. S. senator from Tennessee."

"Carroll Reece," claims lobbyist Smith, "was quick to realiz how fatal this 'new deal' plan would be to those whose future is dependent upon their insurance."

The joke is that Reece, when a member of Congress served on the new deal's temporary national economy committee, which conducted the most critical investigation of the insurance companies since the days when Charles Evans Hughes probed them in New York. The life insurance companies were cross-examined from stem-to-stern, with Carroll Reece not only participating but helping to appropriate more congressional money for the investigation.

Despite this, lobbyist Smith concludes his letter: "I shall appreciate a line as to your views on the probability of Mr. Reece's election. We are of course deeply concerned."

Interesting Tennessee Battle

NOTE—The senatorial race between Reece and Estes Kefauver is one of the most interesting in the nation. Young Kefauver dared attempt what everyone predicted was impossible — successfully buck the Crump machine. After being defeated in the senatorial primaries, the cantankerous boss of Memphis got sore and bolted the Democratic party.

Kefauver is considered a young-and-coming Cordell Hull, while Reece got in wrong with many Tennesseans because he opposed Cordell Hull's trade treaties. Reece, once an energetic congressman, in recent years has veered toward Taft isolation and was a vigorous Dewey opponent before and at Philadelphia.

SPANISH diplomatic representatives throughout Latin America worked diligently on their assigned task of trying to get additional invitations for Alberto Martin Artajo, Franco's foreign minister—without much success. Artajo came to Buenos Aires as a guest of the Peron government and his boss in Madrid was anxious to have him visit other Latin countries.

The going proved tough, however. Only Peru and the Dominican Republica came through with official bids, and the Peruvian invitation aroused vigorous criticism in that country. Artajo was cool toward the idea of trundling all the way to the Caribbean just to get wined, dined and hugged by Dominican Dictator Trujillo.

Invitations from Chile, Colombia and Bolivia were considered possible a few weeks ago, but the recently announced accord between Spanish monarchist and republican groups in exile caused these governments to back down.

So Franco's chore boy had to content himself with the somewhat patronizing hospitality of President Peron who now figures that Spain is just a rather wobbly tail to the Argentine kite.

Disappointed, he was flown back to Madrid.

This Cloak Of Optimism Seems To Be All Front

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

ALONG with 6,000,000 other kids, Johnny is going to school for the first time this fall. But Johnny—and no telling how many other of the 6,000,000—doesn't like the idea a bit.

MILLETT

No wonder, though, that Johnny looks with a jaundiced eye on the whole business of going to school.

In his hearing his mother makes such remarks as, "It will be such a relief to have Jhonny in school all day," and, "As soon as school starts I'll be able to do such-and-such."

Her friends don't help much, either. Maybe they didn't notice that Johnny was all ears when they were saying: "It will be grand for you to have Johnny in school. Think how much time you'll have for yourself!" But Johnny was listening. He not only took in the words, but their implication. His mama was glad to get rid of him.

IT'S just this kind of thing, probably, that a New York psychologist had in mind when he recently warned parents that whether or not their children would like school depended mostly on the parents' attitude.

So if you have a first-grader in your home, avoid remarks that make him believe you're glad he's going to school because you'll be free of him for hours every day.

Even if that's the way you really feel—put his school going on a different basis for his sake. "Isn't it nice that Johnny's big enough to be going to school"—nice for Johnny, instead of nice for mama.

Dewey Landslide In Popular Votes Seems Lot Less Likely

WASHINGTON—With some objective evidence to support their claim, Democratic strategists believe that a trend has set in away from candidate Dewey and in the direction of candidate Truman. If the campaign could go on until Thanksgiving, the realists quickly add, the President would have a chance.

Quite apart from public boasts made for political reasons, these same realists are confident that the Democrats will capture control of the Senate. They list Democrats in Wyoming, Oklahoma, Minnesota and West Virginia as sure to defeat Republican incumbents, with Iowa as a strong possibility for a similar upset.

CHILDS

If the four victories come through, and no Democratic seats are lost, the Democrats would control by a majority of 49 to 47. Several Democratic senators are in close contests.

A Dewey landslide in popular votes looks a lot less likely than it did a month ago. On the other hand, the Republican majority in the electoral college still promises to be top-heavy.

Can Cite Reasons

Democratic advisers can cite some fairly substantial reasons for the change in trend that they see. One is the deep impression that President Truman appears to have made in the course of his recent swing through the midwest on the large crowds that came out to hear him. The force of the Truman attack on the Republican Congress and the Republican party seems to be getting through.

Along with this goes a natural human sympathy for a fighter who is struggling so hard to come up from the bottom. Truman, in the popular imagination, is assuming the role of David, hurling his stone at the Republican giant of wealth, power and efficiency.

The President is making his fight almost alone. Virtually the only cabinet officer giving him any effective support is Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin who was appointed after the Democratic convention at Philadelphia. Tobin is speaking around the country up to the limit of his endurance and there are far more demands than he can fill. Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan has filled a few engagements.

THAT is just about the score. Some of the men who have been most eager to take the presidential ride, rising out of dimmest obscurity thanks to their good friend, Harry, are sitting this one out.

Among the little handful of men loyally working for Truman's election there is ironic laughter over Secretary of Interior Julius Krug. Krug is supposedly campaigning for Truman in the west where issues under his province, such as water power and conservation, are to the fore. But thus far it is a secret campaign, since no word of it seems to have leaked out to the press.

In contrast ,a former secretary of interior, Harold L. Ickes, after breaking violently with the President, is now like a retired fire horse who hears that old alarm bell. He is ready to charge off in all directions in Truman's behalf and he has begun in the old curmudgeon fashion to toss off epithets and acid adjectives.

Any discussion of Democratic hopes brings up so many ifs. If only organized labor had started in August the kind of get-out-the-vote drive that began a month ago.—

Any Straw Seized

Any little straw in the wind is seized upon. The Alaska's early Autumn elections showed a complete reversal of the Republican tide of two years ago, with Democrats capturing control of both houses of the territorial legislature and re-electing Bob Bartlett, Democrat and new dealer, as territorial delegate to the Congress. For 30 years Alaska's elections have accurately forecast the national result.

In contrast to Truman, Dewey appears aloof and even cold. His high-level campaign, so carefully planned and so deliberately staged, has not drawn a very enthusiastic response from trainside crowds.

Little things often count for more than big in public reaction.

Dewey's slip in a moment of irritation and apprehension when he referred to the engineer of his train as a lunatic who should be shot at sunrise is the kind of episode that starts speculation about the candidate's temperament and character. In the early stages of a campaign such an episode can count more than major speeches.

A WELL-CHOSEN PROGRAM

Most residents in the other portions of Lubbock will approve the City commission's improvement program which makes liberal provision for northwestern parts of the city in and adjacent to the Arnett-Benson addition.

Most of these areas were annexed to the City about three years ago. The City commission carefully emphasized at the time the uncertainty as to when such conveniences as storm and sanitary sewage, water and paving could be provided. Most of the residents of the area understood these uncertainties and wanted to become a part of the City just the same.

But they now have waited a long time for the improvements. It is time that they should be provided.

Therefore, it is just and proper that the present program of expansion should take generous cognizance of the needs in Northwest Lubbock. The present prospects are most encouraging that their situation as to utilities will be improved greatly by next Summe-

New Grain Elevator Planned

Million Dollar Project Is Set

Plans for a $1,000,000 grain elevator, one of the largest and most modern in the Southwest, to be built on the outskirts of Lubbock were announced here Thursday afternoon by J. Frank Triplett, vice president and general manager of the Producers Grain corporation of Amarillo.

Work on the 2,000,000-bushel concrete and steel elevator, to be constructed approximately three miles southeast of downtown Lubbock, is scheduled to start by early November, and Triplett expressed hope that the structure will be completed in time to accomodate the 1949 wheat crop in June.

Served by Two Railroads

The project will add further to Greater Lubbock's building total for the year, already at record proportions.

"We think this plant will not only help the grain farmers around Lubbock, but that it will also be an asset to the city of Lubbock," Triplett said as he discussed plans for the project.

The elevator, he said, will have 167 bins approximately 100 feet high, and will feature the most modern machinery.

It will be equipped to receive grain by rail or truck, and will be able to spot as many as 75 railroad cars at a time. Both the Santa Fe and Fort Worth and Denver City railroads will serve the plant, which will handle as much as 55,000 bushels of grain per hour.

Could Add Second Unit

The elevator will be similar in pattern to two other 2,000,000-bushel Producers' Grain corporation units in Amarillo and Fort Worth, but will feature several improvements, Triplett said. It is being constructed so that a second plant of equal size may be added if necessary, giving it a total potential capacity of 4,000,000 bushels.

Approximately 25 persons will be employed at the plant under ordinary operating conditions, he said.

Triplett visited Lubbock Thursday to further plans for the project. He was accompanied by H G. Onstad, representative of the James Stewart corporation of Chicago, engineers for the elevator.

Triplett stated that several details in plans for the structure remain to be completed, and that the date for letting of contract bids will be announced later.

SECOND PROGRAM SET TONIGHT

Famed Opera Star Appearing In City

Lauritz Melchior, who is heroic in both stature and vocal endowment, provided a rare and wonderful treat to a packed house in his appearance with the Lubbock Symphony orchestra Thursday night at Senior High school auditorium The program opened the fall concert season

An identical program will be repeated tonight at 8 o'clock at the auditorium, to which single admissions have been sold.

Beaming with good humor, despite a wretched cold which he contracted early this week in Corpus Christi, the Metropolitan's "Great Dane," encnanted his audience with the remarkable voice that is acclaimed throughout the world. His numbers ranged from Wagnerian arias, as only Melchior can sing them, to the beloved "Ave Maria" by Gounod and his rich, pure voice was heart-warming in "Because" by d'Hardelot, which was greeted with a thunder of applause. For his first encore the heroic tenor sang Canino's heart-broken "Vesti la Giubba" from Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" and his final encores were two lighter love songs, "Without a Song" and "For You Alone."

One could easily come to know why Melchior is considered the greatest Wagnerian singer on hearing his rendition of Lohengrin's Narration from the opera "Lohengrin," which he gave with dire drama and sorrowful mood and made epic, and in the warrior Siegmund's Love Song from the opera "Die Walkure," second part of Wagner's tetralogy of music dramas, "The Ring of the Nibelung."

Orchestra Given Praise

The snowy - haired titan of the song world presented a striking picture, his left lapel resplendent with decorations from many countries, as he stood and smiled at his audience, exuding the personality which has made him a favorite in opera movies, concert and records.

Although it was Melchior's night, words of praise certainly must be spoken for the orchestra, which under the baton of gifted William A. Harrod played with artistic caliber and great assurance.

The orchestral numbers ranged from "Hungarian March" by Berlioz to Beethoven's "Allegretto" which opened with a dirge like quality and closed on a jubilant note and included "Caucasian Sketches," a gay and colorful composition by the Russian Ippolitov-Ivanov.

Singing Violins Featured

After intermission the orchestra played four numoers from Bizet's "L'Arlessienne Suite No. 1, delicate selections which featured singing violins, continued with the Prelude to Act 1 of the popular opera "La Traviata" by Verdi and as the final number offered Cole Porter's ever popular "Begin the Beguine."

After prolonged applause, Mr. Harrod returned to the podium to direct a gay little number "Syncopated Cloek," made famous by the Boston "Pops."

Musical history was made in Lubbock Thursday night in a program that was presented in less than two hours.

Molesting Of Grave Brings Damage Suit

MADILL, Okla., Oct. 22. (U.P.)—Sid Hall, Sherman, Tex., was the defendant today in a $11,490 damage suit filed by the mother of an Indian woman whose grave allegedly was molested by a ghoulish cemetery "treasure hunt."

Hall is one of eight persons charged with molesting at least two graves at the Star cemetery, six miles southeast of Kingston.

The suit was filed jointly with four others of kin to the deceased, Altha Brown, who died Nov. 6, 1936, by Lucy Brown, her mother.

The eight accused persons allegedly took part in a 13-month search for "gold bullion, silver coins, and jewelry."

Hall, Gene Jackson and J. B. Wright, the latter of Sherman, were bound over to district court after they entered pleas of innocent at preliminary hearing last week before peace Justice Charles S. Grider.

The civil suit was filed yesterday.

Tech Students On Study Trip

Freshmen biology students at Texas Technological college left here this morning for Las Vegas, N. M., where they will study the general vegetation, plant succession on mountain sides, and visit scenic spots of historic fame. The group of 26 students and three faculty members will return to Lubbock Sunday afternoon.

Traveling in Texas Tech's bus, they expect to arrive in Las Vegas this afternoon, where they will spend the early part of the night seeing the sights and visiting the old Spanish Mission there Saturday morning they will leave their rooms in La Loma court with picnic lunches to spend the day in the 9,500-foot altitude of Evergreen Valley.

Instructors to Make Trip

In Evergreen Valley the students of biology will observe and study the various stages by which the sheer rock of the mountains have been transformed into the plant-supporting soils that now rest there. Accompanying the group and helping to explain the various phenomenons of nature that will be viewed, will be Earl Camp, Fred Widmoyer and Jane Holman, all of whom are instructors in biology at the college.

Saturday night the group will spend in Las Vegas preparatory to the trip back Sunday. The trip is made semi-annually, in fall and spring.

Students who will make the trip include Bob Slagle, Albert Drachenberg, James R. Johnson, Harry Fry, Jo Anne Thompson, Dwain Parrack, Betty Formby, Fillmore Hendrix, jr., Janelle Armstrong and Eddie Stephens, all of Lubbock, and James Bell of Plainview, Ray Van Eaton of Olive, James R. Jennings of Texarkana, Marvin James of Wilson, Floyd Scott of Panhandle, Marvin Pair of Petersburg, Gene McLaughlin of Ralls, Earl Martin of Rotan, Emma Morrison of Ralls Lewis Wardlaw of Hale Center, Joe Bailey of Big Spring, James Stribling of Levelland, Bob Poteet of Olton, N. E. Byrd of Odessa, Billy Powell of Hale Center, and Audra B. Cary of Cuthbert.

Dr. Wiggins Is Lamesa Club's Guest Speaker

LAMESA, Oct. 22 — "Business and industry must march hand in hand with education and there must be sympathetic cooperation if we are to teach young people how to live together happily," Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college told Lamesa Rotarians and their guests last night.

The occasion was the annual Ladies night of the club, held in the Mesa room of Liddell's cafe here. In addition to Dr. and Mrs. Wiggins, O. B. Ratliff, Texas Tech director, Mrs. Ratliff and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Guy of Lubbock were honored guests.

Must Learn to Meet Change

Speaking of the need for adjustment to constantly changing conditions, Dr. Wiggins remarked that adjustment must be a dynamic force, not static. "People from the beginning of time have disliked change, but the world changes," he said.

He compared education to a basketball game. As a good player learns to pivot and sidestep, so must a well educated man learn to pivot, he pointed out in his analogy.

"If you can't pivot and sidestep, you're going to be hurt pretty badly," he emphasized.

"The great problem is not to teach young men how to be engineers, doctors or lawyers. It is to teach them synchronization—how to get along in the world and yet use fair play."

Teacher Shortage Discussed

He discussed briefly the shortage of teachers in this country, and expressed his belief that the answer is to be found, not in raising salaries, but in developing common understanding and dignity in the teaching profession and in its relationship with industry and business.

President Hays M. Walker of the Lamesa Rotary club presided. G. B. Wadzeck, superintendent of Lamesa public schools and Ross Woodson had arranged the program. Wadzeck introduced Mrs. John F. Luckie of Brownfield, a former opera singer who sang several numbers. Wadzeck then introduced Ratliff, who introduced Dr. Wiggins.

Invocation was asked by Rev Sam A. Thomas.

Guests included the presidents of other Lamesa civic clubs, J. P White of Kiwanis, Perry Roberts of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Tracy Campbell of the Lions, and their wives.

Preceding the dinner meeting, Dr. Wiggins, Mr. Ratliff and Mr Guy were honored at a stag party at Lamesa Country club, and Mrs. Wiggins, Mrs. Ratliff and Mrs. Guy were guests of honor at a coffee at the Delphian clubhouse.

NOTED REVIVALIST SPEAKS HERE

Evangelist Declares Pastors Can't Displease Members Now

"There are very few pastors today who can preach anything that displeases their members," Dr. Mordecai F. Ham of Louisville, Ky., noted revivalist who first preached in Lubbock 19 years ago at a city-wide revival, said Thursday afternoon.

In the days when the "old school" of revivalists was conducting meetings over the country, "The churches could come together and go into a campaign for the salvation of souls. Now they are serving sects instead of saving their souls," said the minister.

Curbs On Pastor Now

Revivalists would tell the congregation about their sins, what was wrong and what needed changing. Now, said Dr. Ham, "they won't let the pastor do it and certainly not a revivalist."

Holding the Bible, Dr. Ham frequently referred to the Book and opened it upon passages. "The Bible says the next great war will be fought in Palestine between Russia and her allies and Great Britain and her western allies," he said. Russia intends to sieze the Dardanelles, Suez canal and the Persian Gulf. The Bible said it and they, the Russians, say it."

"We are living today in the most perilous times we have ever lived," he said. "Seventy thousand people in the United States are committed to overthrow of this Republic," he said.

Forecast World War I

He said that in 1914 at Mineral Wells he forecast the opening of World war I. Crowds stayed away from his meetings until war opened a few days later, then he was carried in on the shoulders of some of those who had stayed away, he said.

Dr. Ham, who said he is a nonsectarian despite the fact he represents the eighth generation of Baptist ministers, delivered sermons at the Tabernacle Baptist church Thursday afternoon and night, during a one-day meeting.

He used some of the gestures described in a newspaper account of the opening service of a six-weeks revival meeting which opened in Lubbock Aug. 18, 1929, shortly after he had resigned as pastor of the Oklahoma City First Baptist church for the expressed reason that he wanted to be "free." He gestures with his hands and sometimes sings hymns in illustration of a point he is making in a sermon.

Tabernacle Was Built

For that 1929 revival meeting, a tabernacle was built at Texas Ave. and Sixteenth especially for the revival and was torn down after the meeting. It was crowded to its capacity of 4,000 on opening night and boys under 15 years of age relinquished their seats and sat around the platform, Avalanche-Journal files reported. Fifty ushers served during the revival and a choir of 300 voices from different churches in the city sang.

Dr. Ham recalled that business places closed in the morning so personnel could attend the morn-

Problems Of Water Supply Are Discussed

Members of the South Plains chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, at a monthly dinner meeting Thursday night at Hilton hotel, heard reviews of three aspects of the Panhandle and South Plains underground water situation, with discussion by two of the organization's members and a dinner guest.

Max Tidmore, president of the chapter, presided at the meeting and introduced Bill Anderson and Bob Lacy as prospective junior members of the organization and Norman Igo, at present a junior member, as a prospective regular member.

Pampa Man Speaks

Tidmore presented H. N. Roberts, local engineer, who at the outset commented that the area's water supply has for years been a matter of technical interest, and in the immediate years past, has also become of popular interest.

Roberts introduced Wayland Merriman of Pampa as the first speaker in a three-speaker symposium, who reviewed the occurrence and supply of underground water on the South Plains.

Merriman pointed out that the South Plains' water comes from the Ogallala formation, a high plateau-like formation which is entirely cut off from any source of water other than water that falls on the surface of the Plains itself.

His talk was illustrated by maps showing the geology of West Texas. He also showed a chart of studies made by the State Board of Water Engineers with regard to irrigation wells in Hale and Floyd counties, which he said shows that there is a general downward trend in the water level in that area.

Tech Man On Program

Second speaker was Dr. A. W. Young, head of the department of Plant Industries at Texas Tech, whose talk dealt with the water requirements of various crops raised in this area, or more specifically, the amount of water required by a plant to produce a pound of dry matter.

Yields of dry-land and irrigated crops were analyzed by Dr. Young, who said that an average acre of dry-land cotton yields one-third of a bale while an irrigated acre yielded a bale. Similarly, an acre of dry-land wheat produces an average of 12 bushels, while irrigated wheat yields about 30 to 35 bushels.

Roberts, the last speaker, reviewed underground water conservation movements in Texas from their first inception, and water laws legislation in this and other states.

Discussing in more detail the Texas Water Conservation association, Roberts pointed out that five district water divisions are recognized in the association, in-

Koreans Claim MacArthur's Aid In Suppressing Red Rebellion

(By The Associated Press)

SEOUL, Oct. 22 — The Korean republic today appeared to be stamping out a two-day rebellion, and its president said the Korean people have the protection of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

The U. S. Army said it had been advised heavily armed Korean troops almost unopposed had pushed into the southern port of Youu, the first of two cities seized by Communist-led rebels Wednesday.

A high official source predicted early recapture of the second city, Sunchon, 20 miles northwest of Yosu. Three loyal battalions were said to be fighting encircled rebels there. Korean regulars opened a mortar and machine gun attack. On other rebel bands in Korea's southern mountains.

General's Personal View

President Syngman Rhee told newsmen MacArthur had assured him:

"Personally, I will do anything I can to help the Korean people and protect them. I will protect them as I would protect the United States against aggression."

Rhee said that while he was visiting in Tokyo earlier this week MacArthur told him he could give this assurance to the Korean people. He said MacArthur had not learned of the uprising when they talked.

The President said he believed MacArthur was expressing his personal sentiment and not official United States policy.

American-occupied South Korea comes under the occupation area command of MacArthur.

Rebels Captured

Loyal police estimated some 4,000 persons had joined in the rebellion and that more than 400 on both sides had been killed.

A reliable source said that a dozen or so liaison planes were assisting loyal troops in ferreting out rebel hideouts in the hills.

The U. S. Army reported 29 rebels were captured by a Korean sergeant and two privates yesterday southwest of Sunchon.

Their captors quoted the rebels as saying they were informed at the outbreak that the police had revolted and that they were "ordered to suppress the police."

At least 95 other rebels were reported captured.

Meanwhile, the Soviet controlled radio at Pyongyang, in Russian occupied North Korea, said that rioters in Sunchon "had set up a revolt of army headquarters and traitors, pro-Japanese and malicious policemen through the peoples trials."

Man, 72, Who Tired Of Cotton Picking Finds New Job Costly

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 22 (U.P.)—Daniel Foster, 72, grew tired of picking West Texas cotton at $2.50 per hundredweight.

Police here say Foster, who came to Brownwood recently, would drive his car to a parking lot, don dark glasses, pretend blindness and peddle pencils.

Foster pleaded guilty yesterday before County Judge A. E. Wilson to possession of 42 half-pints of whisky for the purpose of sale.

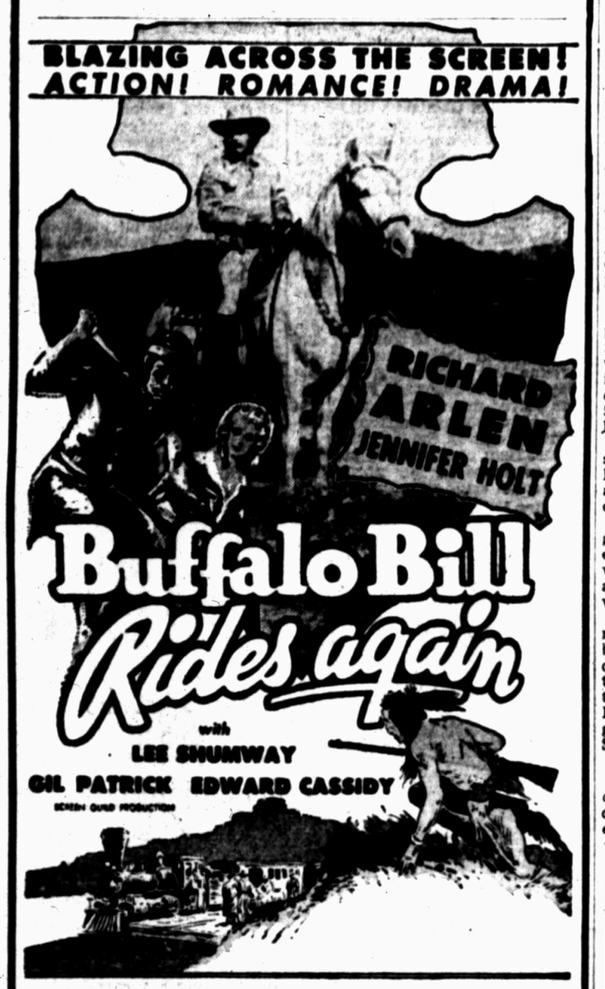

He was returned to the county jail until he pays a $100 fine.

Teacher, Preacher Salaries Lowest

HAMILTON, N. C., Oct. 22 (AP)—Teachers and ministers are the lowest paid among Colgate University graduates out of college one and two decades, while those in industry are the highest paid, a placement bureau survey has revealed. Average salary for members of the class of 1928 is $8,444, while that for the class of 1938 is $5,104, the survey showed.

Although teachers in the class of 1928 are averaging only $4,105 and those in the class of 1938 only $3,513, men in industry in the twenty-year class are averaging $12,510, while those in the ten-year class are averaging $6,144. Highest salary reported by a class of 1928 graduates was $40,000 in industry while the lowest was $2,400 by a minister. Lowest salary for the ten-year group was $1,800 by a minister. Two members of the class of 1938 are earning $20,000, one in business and the other in industry.

Forget Pawnshop, They're All Counted

Millions In Ice Cubes Raked Up For Little Get-Together

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Ever go to a multi-million-dollar diamond show?

Well, throw on some lipstick and wrap up in your 1927 furs, and let's get going. But leave off your sparklers. They'll look awful dim at this bonfire.

Here we are at the Ritz-Carlton. The crystal garden? Downstairs to your right.

Who's that rough character at the door giving us the evil eye? That's one of the 16 guards here to see that only the right people get in, and nobody grabs any rock candy and runs off with it to a pawnshop.

They Throw Party

Sit here. Who're the other people? Why they're the people throwing the party. It's the first nationwide diamond show for the fashion press. Yeh, 11 jewelers from coast-to-coast raked together $3,500,000 worth of ice cubes for this little get-together.

There go the spotlights. The show's on—the band's playing. Here come the models now, one at a time, parading down the staircase.

After they parade around, the girls come and sit for a while at each table. Here's one coming our way now. What's your name, miss, and how much rock candy you wearing?

"I'm Dru Avedon. This is a half-million-dollar necklace, and the bracelet is about $100,000. How does it make you feel to wear them? Oh, it makes you feel beautiful—like a great lady. But when I get through here I still have to go home and give my baby a bath. Sure I have a baby—a girl, 2½."

Go Ahead And Touch

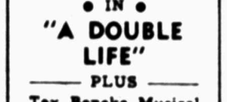

You want to touch Miss Avedon's diamonds? Sure, go ahead. She doesn't mind. Okay, okay, that's enough. Let go of them. Let go!!

There's that guard again. Boy, is he giving you a tough stare. Listen, remember, they got all these things counted."

Well, come on. Yes, you've got enough lipstick on. Let's go. What? What? How about asking for a little teentsie-weentsie diamond for a souvenir? Are you crazy! Whatta you think this is—a radio give-away show?

A serious cholera outbreak is reported from Bihar and the United Provinces, India.

Scientists Make Grave Announcement On Strip Tease Find

Glamor Girls' Frenzied Dancing In Days Of Cicero Puts Modern Sally Rands In Shade

By JOSEPH BAICICH
United Press Staff Writer

POMPEII, Oct. 22.—Lydia took it all off every time—and Cicero may have cheered as she peeled.

Archeologists made that grave announcement today on the basis of new excavations in this long-dead city which was buried in about 79 A. D. in ash from a great eruption of nearby Mt. Vesuvius.

Previous excavations had revealed ancient frescoes showing plainly that Pompeiians liked their fun uninhibited.

But new digging has uncovered drawings of an unclad blonde beauty the scientists believe must have been the undisputed queen of night life around the time of Cicero. The archeologists decided to call her Lydia.

Two Kinds Of Dancers

"We can learn a lot more about Pompeii now," the learned men agreed. "These new excavations make it clear that there were two kinds of dancers in the Pompeiian pleasure palaces.

"There were the ordinary public dancers in diaphanous tights with their breasts powdered with gold dust.

"And then there was this—this lusty worshipper of Venus whose erotic contortions must have been witnessed only by the initiated."

One of the bearded archeologists shook his head slowly as he thought of it, and said:

"From the pictures, she must have made old men young."

Act No Secret

The frescoes on the dancing blonde leave no secrets of her act. She appeared first in a sort of transparent tunic, open all the way up one side, and pinned at the shoulders with gold ornaments.

A series of pictures show that the slightest motion of her body as she danced was sufficient to oscillate the veil revealingly. And at just the right moment she simply ripped off the tunic.

After that, the scientists say, she finished her act in frenzy that must have driven Roman baldheads wild.

Lydia and other dancers of her type must have had select private followings, the archeologists said. They didn't appear for the general public. Private cards of invitation to their showings told in frank drawings and blunt language of the delights those who attended might expect to see.

Out Of This World

Dances and pantomines were the favorite entertainments of Pompeiians, the archeologists said. These usually started on amorous themes—and progressed to downright licentiousness. The sort of thing that went on wouldn't have been okayed even by Kansas City police in Tom Pendergast's palmiest days.

The dancers were beauty contest "winners" imported from Greece. They took care of themselves, too. They were massaged, they took milk baths before Anna Held ever thought of it, and they anointed themselves with fragrant and aromatic oils and subtle perfumes.

There was a kill-joy, of course. "They danced anyway they liked until Justinian came along," the archeologists said. "Then they had to wear fig-leaves—the antique version of the G-string.

"But by then the dancers had deteriorated anyhow, and the men had lost interest. Maybe it began to bore them."

BIG BENDER—This powerful, portable machine bends cold oil and gas pipe with the greatest of ease. The inventor of John Coody of Houston, Tex., is able to bend perfect curves in pipe lines as big as 31 inches in diameter. S. M. Butler, who will manufacture the machine with Ole and Weed Peterson, said the bender will also fit pipe lines to any terrain without leaving wrinkles on the inside of the pipe.

More Refugees Head For U. S.

BREMERHAVEN, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—The American army transport General Black sailed for the United States today with the first contingent of some 800 European refugees to be admitted to America under the recent displaced persons act.

For them the trip to the United States promised the end of 10-year odyssey during which they have been hounded across the continent by one hostile government or another.

Severe Changes Expected

Each was permitted 200 pounds of luggage. Artisans were permitted an extra 300 pounds for the tools of their trade.

Many, like Dr. Enofont Sileccy, face severe changes in their way of life. He was a prominent physician in Poland before he was deported to Germany by the Nazis. He will work in the furniture factory of his sponsor, Mrs. Fanny Bloomgarten, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Among the group were unborn babies as well as Mrs. Olga Karpoff, 79, from the Soviet Union, who will start life again in America with her son, Alexander Karpoff, of Jackson Heights, Long Island, N. Y.

Woman Given Place

One of the group, bearded Rabbi Isaac Haut, stayed behind voluntarily until the next ship leaves again in two weeks. He was scheduled to leave to join his niece at New York, but he gave up his place to a pregnant woman whose baby was due within five months. Under emigration regulations, if she missed the ship she would have to wait until her child was born.

"I have waited 13 years for the land of peace and freedom," he said. "Another two weeks don't matter to me now."

Snakes and fish have ears and have no outside openings. They "hear" mostly through vibrations in the ground or water.

Scholarship Won By Shallowater Student

The scholarship and awards committee at Texas Technological college announced Thursday the selection of Mrs. Jean Beene, of Shallowater, to receive the annual Panhellenic scholarship award for 1947-48. She was chosen on the recommendation of Margaret W. Weeks, dean of the Home Economics division.

Approximately $50 will be awarded Mrs. Beene by the Lubbock Panhellenic Society in recognition of her superior grade average in all work during her freshman year as a Home Economics student.

700 Legion Cops Keep Rowdy Doughboys In Line During 30th Annual Convention

MIAMI, Oct. 22. (U.P.)—For a town invaded by 30,000 rootin', tootin' legionnaires who did a roughly estimated $2,000,000 damage in New York only a year ago, Miami came out of the 30th annual convention of the American Legion today like a city ruffled by a zephyr when it expected a hurricane.

What happened to those rough, tough doughboys who used to pinch the girls, bounce whiskey bottles off the heads of natives, hold up traffic and generally act like they wouldn't at home?

Legion Cops There

They were here. But so were 700 legion cops ordered to arrest any legionnaire caught committing a "rowdyism" or "nuisance," which takes in about all the territory the legion used to cover.

Miami and Miami Beach police reported, as if they didn't believe it, that only one legionnaire was arrested for disorderly conduct. He was charged with shooting a toy cannon in the back seat of a taxi.

Few Are "Helped"

Police "helped" a few legionnaires who couldn't help themselves, but otherwise the law just stood around directing traffic.

The American Legion, disturbed by a diminishing number of cities asking for the annual convention, issued orders a month before the present one against any form of rowdyism. The penalty was expulsion from the legion.

Prizes have been offered by the Government of Pakistan for a national anthem.

Water Problems

cluding irrigation, municipal, navigation, industrial, and river authorities, and that appointment of seven directors from each division has been provided for.

A water laws committee of the association, composed of advisory committees from the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and the High Plains Water Users association, has prepared several bills for presentation to the committee of the whole of the Texas Water Conservation association, with ultimate presentation to the Legislature. The bills have not met complete approval of the committee and the association, however.

At the annual meeting of the TWCA on Oct. 8, members voted to prepare a revised ground water code, Roberts reported, to include the following provisions:

1) Districts to be created within the state for control of underground water by consent of the people within the district, with 2) rules covering the withdrawal of water and drilling and equipping of wells in the district; a groundwater recharge program; and the issuance of bonds by vote of the local qualified voters in the district to carry out the work of the district. 3) Legislation will also provide that waste and pollution will be prohibited and ground water utilized to the maximum benefit; wells for domestic use up to 30,000 gallons per day will be exempt from control, and control of district will be under a local board of directors elected by the people in the district.

A discussion period followed Robert's talk.

Tidmore, upon conclusion of the discussion, appointed five members of the organization as possible members of the nominating committee, with three to be elected to serve on the committee. Elected were F. C. Stanley, G. W. Parkhill, and M. J. Adderton.

Australia has stopped public transport of horse race equipment.

Whiffs Of Gas From Springs Kill Birds

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Wyo., Oct. 22. (AP)—Whiffs of carbon dioxide—considered a non-poisonous gas—are killing birds flying over Mammoth hot springs in this famous park. Park rangers said they needed suggestions for some way to warn the birds of the deadly fumes over the bubbling pool near Orange Spring mountain.

The birds die, naturalists said, after inhaling a large volume of the gas. It forms a cell block against oxygen, causing suffocation. Victims include screech owl, western robin, evening grosbeak, green tailed towhee, cassin's purple finch, warblers and sparrows.

Love Match For Male Orangutan Arranged

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 22. (AP)—A love match for Kokok, the San Diego zoo's long-frustrated male orangutan, was being arranged today by Mrs. Belle Benchley, zoo director.

Kokok has a child bride-to-be, five-year old Doris, who arrived from the East Indies, making the last stage of her journey by plane from New York, and truck from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Benchley planned the nuptials after fate played Kokok a cruel trick last December, when an animal described as an orangutan turned out to be a common, long-tailed macaque after it was sent here by a dealer. Furthermore, it wasn't even a female.

The "wedding" of Kokok and Doris will have to be delayed about six month, while the female becomes acclimated to San Diego.

SWISS AID CHILDREN

BALE, Switzerland. (AP) — Despite the political situation in Berlin, the Swiss Red Cross continues to organize group holidays in Switzerland for undernourished children from Berlin. A group of 450 boys and girls arrived here recently by train for a month's holiday in one of the few countries of Europe where all food rationing has ended.

Germany has an estimated 2,000,000 bicycles out of use for want of spare parts.

Gov. Thurmond In Tennessee

MEMPHIS, Oct. 22 (AP)—Gov. J. Strom Thurmond started an abbreviated tour of Tennessee today in an effort to corral the state's 12 electoral votes.

The States' Rights Democrats candidate for president opened his campaign in this "political border-state" last night at a rally here in which he branded the proposed fair employment practices act "a despicable piece of legislation."

A crowd estimated at 2,200 by auditorium Manager Charles McElravy heard Thurmond's talk.

Rankin Flays FEPC

An unscheduled speaker was Mississippi's Rep. John Rankin. He aimed the bulk of his speech "at the New York state FEPC" and called Republican presidential candidate Thomas Dewey a "moustached midget."

Thurmond charged that Democratic, Republican and Progressive presidential candidates are "tools of the subversives and the socialistic planners."

The South Carolina governor said President Truman was "an inefficient and confused little man." Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, he said, "is a pennyweight glamor boy who has shoved himself into the limelight with the best vaudeville technique."

Evangelist

ing service. He said more than 1,000 persons joined churches during the meeting.

Deploring some of the changes over the years, he listed some of the "old school" of revivalists as Sam Jones, George Stewart, M. B. Williams, Charles Ray Scoville, B. Fay Mills, J. Wilbur Chapman, B. A. Torry, D. L. Moody, Billy Sunday and Gipsy Smith. He said he is the only surviving "revivalist of the 'old school'." He formerly was a co-worker 33 years of William J. Ramsey, who died recently. They held Ham-Ramsey meetings.

"My ministry was that of a prophet—the revivalist," he said. "He brings the people back to the truth from which they have departed. The evangelist," he said, "brings good news."

"I have one message—Christ," he said.

No Extended Meetings

He said he had not tried to hold an extended campaign in the last eight years. Reasons, he said, are that churches lost their interests in such extended meetings; that, during the war gas could not be obtained to go to meetings, and that now he "goes into the homes" with radio messages given through free-will support. Dr. Ham delivers the radio messages as the "Old Kentucky Home Revivalist."

"We're putting our money in brick and mortar instead of evangelizing and that never saved any civilization," he said.

He said that he had conducted meetings in 86 Texas cities in the 48 years since he entered the ministry and that 74,000 persons had joined churches during meetings he had conducted. He said that after churches had built up their membership, "They built the big churches and they didn't want to be 'revived' any more."

During his long ministry, Dr. Ham has attracted wide attention. Once, he prayed that sufficient rain would fall to fill Lake Worth. Someone called from as far away as Sweetwater to say rain had started there. Heavy rain fell at Fort Worth.

Dr. Ham has crossed the ocean six times and said he had studied every civilization and the cause of its downfall.

He said, "We've got an international hidden group." He said that group, a non-Christian group, was causing wars.

Discussing overseas activities, he said he "wouldn't be surprised" if Hitler is in Rissia.

Texas Firm Told To Bargain With Union

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—The National Labor Relations board has ordered the Itasca Cotton Manufacturing company at Itasca, Tex., to bargain collectively with the Textile Workers Union of America, CIO.

The union, the NLRB ruled, must be the company's exclusive representative of all its production and maintenance employes excluding plant protection employes, clerical employes and supervisors.

The order was issued after the NLRB heard a complaint filed by the union against the cotton manufacturing company charging unfair labor practices.

CALLING ALL FISHERMEN

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Fort Peck reservoir is so full of fish authorities may have to dynamite them if anglers can't be persuaded to catch them. The drastic action is planned, fish and game officials said, because the man-made reservoir is overpopulated with trout, pike, bass, sturgeon, catfish, perch, crappie, ling, bullheads, gold-eyes and drums.
