Light Rain, Snowfall Bring Area Moisture

The elements were acting up in the Snyder area again today, apparently in defiance of the weatherman.

Light rain which began falling here after midnight turned to snow by mid-morning, and heavily overcast skies gave promise of more moisture.

The Weather Bureau had predicted rain for much of West Texas today, but had made no mention of snow in this area. However, relatively heavy snow fell in the Big Spring section last night and the storm that produced it apparently was moving eastward out of northern Mexico.

The snow here was melting almost as rapidly as it fell this morning. The temperature at the outset of the snowfall in Snyder hovered just above the freezing mark at 33 degrees. The high reading in Snyder yesterday was 50 degrees.

Up to 7:30 a.m. today .08 of an inch of moisture had been recorded on the official gauge here by David Strayhorn.

By The Associated Press

Heavy snow spread a white blanket in the Big Bend Country of West Texas Thursday. A low pressure system that formed during the night near Brownsville touched off widespread rain showers in South Central Texas.

Nearly 2 inches of snow fell at Alpine during the night. Snow was falling again early Thursday across much of the Big Bend Country. Lighter snowfalls were reported at Marfa and Ft. Davis in the Davis Mountains.

Snow also drifted down at Dalhart where the temperature dropped six degrees below freezing early Thursday.

Skies were mostly cloudy over the state east of the Pecos River with light rain over much of the remainder of the south half of Texas.

The only clear patches were in the Texarkana-Tyler-Longview area of East Texas and at El Paso, west of the Pecos.

Bus travel was hampered by the snowfall at Alpine. One bus from Fort Stockton was an hour late. Another from Alpine to Presidio cancelled its run Wednesday night.

Longtime residents said the new moisture, making a total 2 inches for January, is the most since 1946.

The Weather Bureau forecast occasional rain in all areas except West Texas during the day. Colder temperatures were forecast for all sections.

High temperatures Wednesday ranged mostly in the 50s, with Brownsville's 64 degrees the high, and Amarillo's 41 the low reading.

Rains of up to 1.5 inches fell early Thursday around Kenedy in South Texas. Kenedy had .78 inches in less than half an hour. Rain also was reported falling early Thursday at Galveston, Houston, Palacios, Victoria, Beeville, Abilene, Kingsville, Junction, San Antonio, Austin, College Station, Wink and Midland.

The weather bureau said rain for 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. Thursday included Kingsville 1.91 inches, Corpus Christi 1.26, Laredo 1.12, Alpine .50, Palacios .49, Beeville .48, Cotulla .42, Junction and Del Rio .40, San Angelo .30, San Antonio .24, Victoria .22 and lesser amounts at Austin, Presidio, College Station, Brownsville, Big Spring, Beaumont, Houston, Lufkin, Dallas and Fort Worth.

George Parr Plans To Try Comeback

AUSTIN (AP)—South Texas politician George Parr will try a comeback this year, Duval County Clerk Ralph Garcia said today.

"The Old Party headed by Parr is coming up with a full slate for this year's election," he said.

Garcia was here with Duval County Judge Dan Tobin Jr. and C. K. Gravis of San Diego and 17 other Duval residents who are part of the New Party, opponents to Parr.

"We want to talk to Gov. Price Daniel and Jake Pickle about the Duval County Democratic Committee chairmanship," Garcia said. Pickle is state organizer for the Democratic Executive Committee.

Gravis said he was elected county chairman last October to succeed J. C. King, a Parr follower.

"He has only two supporters on the committee and I have 10," Gravis, a rancher, said. "But King would never call a meeting. We called one last October and I was elected chairman by a majority."

Tobin said the Parr group was challenging the election.

"We want the State Democratic Executive Committee to recognize our chairman," Garcia said. "That's why we want to talk to the governor."

Daniel, who stayed at the mansion today because of a cold, was expected to meet with the group.

SPOT MUSE

THAT FLU BUG is biting again. Although the flu has not yet reached the intensity which was seen earlier in the winter, it is still fairly heavy.

HOSPITALS HAVE had a larger number of patients, and physicians, waiting rooms are getting fuller.

SICKNESS, however, does not seem to have affected the schools here much. There are some absences in places from sickness, probably flu and measles, but it is not reaching any great proportions yet.

Gunman Robs Orange Bank

ORANGE (AP) — A Negro gunman held up the First National Bank today and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash.

A short time later, officers surrounded a home in the Orange Negro section and laid seige to the structure.

Shortly before noon police still were preparing to assault the house.

The teller who was robbed, Mrs. Delores Simar, about 25, was in shock and could not balance her books to determine the loss, bank President Jerry Thornell said.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Wednesday, 50 degrees; low, 24 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 33 degrees. Precipitation, .06.

West Texas: Occasional rain Pecos Valley eastward ending this afternoon. Otherwise partly cloudy through Friday. Colder tonight mainly Pecos Valley eastward. Lowest 20 to 30 in Panhandle and South Plains and 25 to 35 elsewhere tonight. Warmer Friday.

North Central Texas: Occasional rain mainly in south this afternoon, becoming partly cloudy tonight and Friday. Cooler with lowest of 25 to 35 tonight. Warmer Friday.

State Panel Will Study College Plan

Men who will serve on a special committee to look over the feasibility of a public junior college in Scurry County will meet here tomorrow night and Saturday.

The committee includes three members of the State Board of presidents, and three lay members. They represent all parts of the state.

The committee was named by the state board to make a special investigation here after the state board received petitions with 750 signers from Scurry County asking for a local election which would proposed forming a junior college district.

The special committee will hold a meeting alone tomorrow night to organize. On Saturday, the committee will talk to a number of local citizens who will be requested to meet with the group. The high school cafeteria has been made available to the group for its meetings.

After its Saturday studies here, the committee will compile its information and report back to the state board at a future meeting. It has been reported that the committee may not have its information compiled soon enough to report to the board at its February meeting.

The state board will receive the report and then decide whether an election should be held here on forming a junior college district. If the state board approves the election, the county commissioners court will call the election. Proposed is a county-wide junior college district.

Settlement Hinted In Teamster Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rival attorneys conferred today with the judge trying a suit aimed at upsetting the election of James R. Hoffa as president of the Teamsters Union. Rumors spread that a settlement was near.

On leaving the session in the chambers of U.S. Dist. Court Judge F. Dickinson Letts, the opposing attorneys declined comment except to say they would return later in the day. The trial currently is in recess.

Thomas J. Dodd, one of the lawyers for 13 New York area rank - and - file Teamsters who brought the suit, said "I can't talk about it." Then he added: "I'm always hopeful."

Asked by reporters for his comment, Edward Bennett Williams, attorney for the union, replied: "Nothing."

In asking for a recess of the trial this week, the lawyers told Judge Letts they intended to work on various stipulations of fact with a view to shortening the trial.

Rumors, however, started that the lawyers might be given more attention to a possible compromise settlement. The hurried conference with the judge lent some credence to this speculation.

The executive board of the Teamsters is meeting here today.

Ike Asks Curb On Racketeers In Labor-Management Fields

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today urged Congress to curb "corruption, racketeering and abuse of trust and power in the labor-management field." He made the recommendation in a 12-point proposal for legislation.

In a special message, Eisenhower recommended specifically that unions be subject to loss of legal bargaining status if they fail to file true and proper data on their finances and other subjects.

Against a background of congressional inquiries disclosing abuses in the labor-management field, Eisenhower called for legislation "to benefit and protect the welfare of American workers and the general public."

He added it should curb abuses, and provide greater harmony and stability in labor-management relations.

The entire 12-point legislative program recommended by Eisenhower had been unveiled previously by Secretary of Labor Mitchell. He outlined it in a speech at the AFL-CIO convention last December.

As given out in the Mitchell address, the program had drawn fire from both labor leaders who contended it went too far, and management spokesmen who said it did not go far enough.

Coupled with the normal political wariness of congressmen on labor matters in an election year, that lack of enthusiasm lessened chances for major parts of the program to get through this year.

Abuses at which Eisenhower aimed have been sharply outlined in hearings before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark). That group is preparing its own proposed remedies.

"No labor - management relations legislative program today can ignore the disclosures of corruption, racketeering and abuse of trust and power in the labor-management field," Eisenhower told Congress.

Eisenhower said much is being done in some quarters to eliminate evils and abuses.

"Union officials—most of whom are decent, honest Americans — are also doing much to eliminate the few in the ranks of organized labor who are corrupt," the message said.

"However, the importance to American workers and to the public of preventing the impairment of the individual rights of employes and the fact that voluntary action is inadequate in this respect have become increasingly evident.

"In order to protect the basic rights of the individual worker and to maintain the integrity of trade unionism itself, action on the part of the government is needed."

REJECTED—Mrs. Myrna Gray, 27, holding her application, walks away after she failed in her attempt to register at Texas A&M College, an all-male institution. Mrs. Gray, a registered nurse and wife of a graduate student at A&M, said she wanted to enter the school to complete her work on a biology degree. Her application was refused by the registrar. ## McLaughlin Appointed To State Board

AUSTIN (AP)—C. T. McLaughlin, rancher, banker and oilman of Snyder, was named to the State Commission of Public Safety today.

This is the policy-making board of the state police and related agencies in the Department of Public Safety.

Gov. Price Daniel said the appointment would be effective Feb. 15. McLaughlin's term will end Dec. 31, 1963. He succeeds W. E. Dyche of Houston, retiring chairman.

McLaughlin has been active in Democratic party affairs and has been a member of the State Executive Committee. He is a director of the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation and formerly served a six-year term as a director of Texas Tech at Lubbock.

He is a director of the Citizens National Bank of Lubbock, Continental National Bank of Fort Worth, and Securities State Bank of Big Spring.

Other members of the commission are Tom Hickman of Gainesville and Hoxie Thompson of Trinity.

Houston Gunman Still At Large

HOUSTON (AP)—A gunman, who staged Houston's biggest robbery of the year, remained at large today despite the capture of two persons suspected of being his companions in the hijacking of Randall's Super-Value Store.

The loot was estimated by Blocker Martin, president of the grocery chain, at $8,000 to $9,000.

The same store was held up and robbed of $13,000 Oct. 12. The two bandits are believed to have been killed in an El Paso gun battle with police some weeks later.

Venezuela Ruler Flees; Government Is Ousted

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Military leaders overthrew the dictatorship of President Marcos Perez Jimenez today. A bloody revolt of civilians led by a newspaper reporter brought about the overthrow.

Perez Jimenez, ruler of the nation for nearly 10 years, fled with his family and aides to the Dominican Republic. Another ex-dictator, Juan D. Peron of Argentina, to whom Perez Jimenez had given refuge, was reported fleeing to Colombia by car.

The revolt, which began with an abortive air force uprising on New Year's Day, culminated in a civilian-led general strike Tuesday. Hundreds were killed and wounded in rioting and pitched street fighting while Perez Jimenez maneuvered in vain to hang on.

There was no certainty that the flight of Perez Jimenez would end the trouble.

A military junta, headed by Rear Adm. Wolfgang Larrazabel and including four colonels, was sworn in as the executive power at Miraflores Palace.

But the civilian "Patriotic Junta," led by 31-year-old Fabricio Ojeda, a reporter for the newspaper El Nacional, declared it would support the military only conditionally.

The conditions included the holding of national elections as soon as possible, the formation of a national union government in the meantime, arrest of persons responsible for crimes under the deposed regime, and restoration of freedoms, including freedom for political parties.

The Patriotic Junta declared it had directed the general strike which started Tuesday. Its leaders said they had no contact with the young military officers who grasped control of the government by informing Perez Jimenez that the country's armed forces had turned against him and that he must abamdon the presidency.

Three other young civilians were identified as leaders of the Patriotic Junta. They were Sylvestre Ortis Buzaran, 32; Guillermo Garcia Ponte, 33; and Enrique Aristeguieta, 34. The junta includes every shade of political opinion from Communists to extreme rightists.

The pandemonium that broke out in Caracas at the dictator's downfall resulted in even more bloodshed.

A determined mob stormed headquarters of the national security police, most hated division of the dictatorship, to liberate prisoners. Security agents inside the building fired on the crowd, killing three. The mob burned several police cars, and several agents were badly beaten when they came out of the building.

After a brisk gunfight outside, the mob forced its way into the building and set secret police files afire. Some security agents were shot down, others beaten.

Other mobs ransacked the offices of the Electoral Council, which conducted the Dec. 15 plebiscite by which Perez Jimenez had been declared elected for a five-year term.

A mob began forming at the Dominican Embassy.

Civilians fought a pitched battle with police in a housing project a few blocks from Miraflores Palace Wednesday afternoon.

Other serious gun fights took place in other parts of the city. The strong fight put up by these groups drew the support of younger military officers and led to the overthrow of the government.

The new governing junta sworn in today included:

Adm. Larrazabal as president; Col. Abel Romero Villate of the air force, Col. Roberto Casanova of the army, Col. Carlos Luis Araque of the security police, and Col. Pedro Jose Quevedo of the military institutes.

This junta immediately appealed for restoration of calm, and began restoring some of the liberties taken away by the dictatorship.

Orders were issued for freeing of political prisoners, rehabilitation of officers demoted or punished for the New Year's Day uprising, and lifting of censorship.

Dr. Arturo Uslar Pietri, a leading author and one of the signers of several manifestos issued against the regime in the last few days, went on the radio in behalf of the junta and called on Venezuelans not to stain their victory with more bloodshed.

"Prove yourselves worthy of freedom and peace," he urged.

At early dawn the streets were packed with thousands of cars and trucks racing with honking horns in celebration. Flag-waving crowds on the sidewalks cheered and shouted. Police and soldiers waved the joyous mobs on.

Anti-Italian sentiment was noted during the rioting. A number of Italian-owned stores were looted and damaged. There are about 100,000 Italian immigrants in Venezuela.

The radio appealed to oil workers to remain calm and continue at work. There have been no reports of any serious stoppage in the huge oil industry despite the general strike and the rioting in the capital.

Sen. Gore Is Due In Snyder Friday

Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee will be speaker at a special high school assembly here tomorrow afternoon and will be among several nationally-known persons at a private dinner tomorrow evening.

C. T. McLaughlin, Snyder oilman and rancher, will be host at the dinner, to be held at the Country Club.

Other than Mr. and Mrs. Gore, those who will be here for the dinner will number about 300, including such persons as Mr. and Mrs. Phil Regan and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lauck.

Regan, nationally-known tenor, appeared in Snyder several times and has oil interests here. Lauck, the Lum of the former "Lum and Abner" radio show, is assistant to the president of Continental Oil Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Gore who are to arrive here Friday, will be guest of McLaughlin at his Diamond M Ranch southwest of Snyder. They were to fly from Washington to Dallas, where McLaughlin's plane was to pick them up.

Gore's talk at the high school is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Referendum Asked On Profit-Sharing

DETROIT (AP) — Carl Stellato, president of the 45,000-member Ford Rouge Plant Local 600 of the United Auto Workers, appealed to the union's special bargaining convention today to submit a profit-sharing proposal to a referendum vote of rank-and-file members.

His statement brought loud cheers from a vociferous minority on the convention floor.

Stellato argued that the union would be united in fighting for a shorter work week. He added "We may have some rough going in the face of what is going on in the country at this particular time."

The UAW president appeared confident that he had ample strength among the 3,000 delegates to win approval of the plan. It would give auto workers a one-quarter slice of a company's profits over 10 per cent on net capital before taxes.

In an hourlong opening debate on the plan, the redhaired labor chief bristled at a delegate's suggestion that it "appears we're serving as a rubber stamp."

The criticism came from Lewis H. Michener of Long Beach, Calif. He said in the 1958 bargaining program should have been worked out in the convention instead of being publicized before the delegates convened.

Reuther retorted, "We only told you our thinking. The companies rejected our thinking. We could have been criticized justly if we had not given you time to think it over."

Reuther announced that General Motors President Harlow H. Curtice had rejected the union's invitation to address the convention on what he believed should be its bargaining goals this spring.

The delegates listened politely as Reuther's administrative assistant, Jack Conway, read Curtice's letter. Curtice urged the convention to "adopt a (wage) program tailored to the economic facts of life" instead of demanding a share of profits.

Curtice said, "I can make our position clear without a personal appearance."

Gen. Clay Proposes Sweeping Shakeup

WASHINGTON (AP)— Gen. Lucius Clay (ret) proposed to investigating senators today that U.S. military forces be drastically reorganized with all major commanders in the same uniform and under a single chief.

Clay said single control is necessary because "no future commander is going to fight a war with the weapons of one service."

Clay, a friend of President Eisenhower, is a former commander of U.S. forces in Europe. He is now head of Continental Can Co. and a director of other large corporations.

He testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, as that group sought to wind up the current phase of its missiles-satellites inquiry.

Clay urged greatly increased power and authority for both the secretary of defense and the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He said the secretary should have authority to transfer the billions of dollars of defense funds from one purpose to another, in order to push research and development.

He said the JCS chairman, now a nonvoting member of the group that includes top service commanders, should take over their authority.

He said the present JCS now is "just another committee" and they should serve only as advisers.

"The time has come when senior officers should belong to the same service and wear the same uniform," he said.

He said this still would permit some specialists who could be promoted in their separate fields.

"We have to have that kind of a defense organization because we can't afford any other," Clay said.

In advance of the committee session Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said "we must tighten our belts and do more perhaps for years to come" to surpass the Soviet Union in missiles and satellites.

No Response In Appeal To Red Chinese

LONDON (AP) — Three American mothers received no definite commitment when they appealed to Mrs. Li Teh Chuan, Red Chinese health minister and Red Cross president, today for the release of their three sons, jailed on espionage charges, the British news agency Reuters reported from Peiping.

William Downey, brother of one of the prisoners, told Reuters Mrs. Li undertook during a two-hour interview to refer the appeal to Premier Chou En-lai but did not say when or whether he would reply.

Mrs. Ruth Redmond of Yonkers, N.Y., flew to Peiping from Shanghai to join Mrs. Jessie Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Mary Downey of New Britain, Conn.

Mrs. Redmond's son, Hugh, is serving a life term in a Shanghai prison on a charge of spying. Richard Fecteau, serving a 20-year term; and John Downey, serving life, are in a Peiping prison.

Callas Gets Big Ovation In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — If Maria Meneghini-Callas had any echo in her ear of the fiasco attending her Rome Opera appearance, it vanished last night in a thunderous 10-minute ovation that set the Civic Opera House vibrating with shouts of "Bravo!"

The concert sponsored by the Alliance Francaise brought her back to the scene of her first American triumph and also marked her first appearance since the Rome revolt Jan. 2.

At times, the audience appeared unable to wait for her to conclude an aria before beginning an outpouring of adoration. There were no catcalls and whistles such as she received at Rome.

In the Rome Opera, singing the title role in Bellini's "Norma," the audience reaction caused her to quit after the first act. She claimed she was ill. Critics said she lost her voice and then her temper.

But last night, the 34-year-old diva seemed beyond annoyance.

Strikingly gowned in black velvet, a stole wrapped around her shoulders, she presented a stunning picture as she stood before the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

At the concert's end, a huge bouquet of long-stemmed roses was placed in her arms. Then a second bouquet of lilies. And finally, a third bouquet of pink roses, which was set at her feet.

3 Convicts Stab Deputy

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Three convicts stabbed a deputy sheriff with a crudely fashioned knife last night in a desperate bid for freedom. They were subdued when another officer pulled a gun.

Bexar County Deputy Sheriff Melvin Maltsberger was stabbed in the wild melee which occurred in a station wagon north of here while the prisoners were being returned from San Marcos where they had testified in the robbery trial of James Green. Green had summoned them in his behalf.

Sheriff Owen Kilday identified the prisoners as Michael Nolan, 37, serving 18 years in the state penitentiary for armed robbery; Richard Mulkey, 28, serving 20 years for robbery, and Daniel Summers, 30, awaiting the outcome of an appeal of a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

Deputy Sheriff Tony Lobello, who accompanied Maltsberger, was driving. The trio were handcuffed together in the back seat. Lobello said they lunged forward and attacked Maltsberger and he hit the brakes.

He said they surrendered when he leaped out of the car and pulled his gun.

Germany May Reclaim Its Scientists

BONN (AP)—Some of Germany's leading scientists who left the country before and after World War II may soon return home. University posts likely will be available to several.

The question came up at a committee meeting of Germany's Atomic Energy Commission, attended by leading scientists, including Nobel Prize winners Otto Hahn and Werner Heisenberg.

Official sources said the committee members know of several emigrants inclined to return home if they get adequate positions.

These scientists would be welcomed warmly. Since 1933, Germany has lost hundreds of first-class scientists who fled Nazi persecution.

After the war, other scientists were either forced to work in Russia or got jobs in Western countries.

West German universities must look abroad today to fill many of their scientific chairs, especially in nuclear physics.

This is due not only to emigrations. Germany was banned from nuclear research during the first postwar decade, and the young German scientist generation is not advanced enough to hold responsible university posts.

Many emigrated scientists, among them a number of Jews, have returned to Germany since the war. Most, however, are now working in the fields of philosophy, history, sociology and the like.

Prominent men in rocket research, such as Vernher von Braun, Hermann Oberth and Walter Dornberger live in the United States. Others have still not returned from Russia.

Only a few of the rocket elite are left.

Convicted Klansmen Sentenced

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Four Ku Klux Klansmen convicted in the beating of an aged Negro man were sentenced to prison terms here today.

General Sessions Court Judge James M. Brailsford Jr. sentenced Andrew Marshall Rochester, 30, Greenville Klan head, to six years at hard labor.

Wade Henry Howard, 24, who with Rochester was convicted of conspiracy to commit assault and battery and with committing assault and battery, received a three-year sentence.

Two others, Jack Bentley, 24, and Robert E. Waldrop, 28, were sentenced to one year each for conspiracy.

An all-white jury returned the verdicts last night against the four who were charged in the beating last July 21 of Claud Cruell, 58, who with his wife were caring for seven white children whose mother was hospitalized.

The state contended the beating was planned and carried out because of friendship of the Cruell's with Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Turner, a destitute white family who rented a house on Cruell's property, about 13 miles from here and near Traveler's Rest.

The first talking movie was "Don Juan," which Warner Brothers released in 1926. The soupd was on synchronized phonograph records.

Florida was once a colony of Spain and Great Britain. It was later ceded to the United States.

U. S. Blamed For Revolt

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio claimed today President Marcos Perez Jimenez' government was overthrown because the people of Venezuela resented "the plundering of the country by 'American monopolies.'"

The broadcast, in English and based on a Tass dispatch, called Perez Jimenez the stooge of American economic interests, and added: "The U.S.A. has long controlled the oil resources of the country, syphoning 130 million tons of oil out of the country annually."

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Oliver, 1905½ Thirty-first Street, are parents of a six-pound, nine-ounce daughter, born at 1:20 a.m. today at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

A daughter weighing six pounds, 12 ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ybarra, Box 422, at 6:55 p.m. yesterday in Battenfield-Jones Hospital.

Toastmasters In England Want Raises

LONDON (AP)—London's professional toastmasters have decided to butter their own toast in 1958.

"Toasts are going to cost more because we want more money for our toasts," said Harold Dean, president of the Society of London Toastmasters.

The London professional toastmaster is a unique calling — and as essential to public dinners and luncheons as salt and pepper.

Dressed in scarlet coats dripping in gold braid, they introduce the guests and speakers and do it so grandly they can make mister sound like marquess.

"It's not easy work," Dean explained. "Have you ever considered what it takes out of a man to introduce 800 guests in a loud clear voice and get all their titles right?"

He cited the annual Lord Mayor of London's banquet, the derby of all the dinners. It usually includes the Prime Minister, Cabinet members, the Archbishop of Canterbury, ambassadors, assorted peers, judges, baronets, knights and a lot of just plain people.

"A mistake in title or precedence is unthinkable," said Dean. "Everything has to be correct and it is correct."

After each guest is announced, the toastmaster takes his position behind the lord mayor. With each toast — and they are numerous — he must thunder this preamble: "My Lord Mayor, my late Lord Mayor, your grace, your excellencies, my lords, aldermen, sheriffs, ladies and gentlemen. . . ."

To this the toastmaster must add the name of the speaker. For instance: "Pray silence for the Right Honorable Harold Macmillan, the prime minister."

The toastmasters charge from 4 to 5 guineas for each function. They want at least a guinea ($2.94) more.

Mrs. Warren Dies In Post

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today in Post for Mrs. Bob Warren, about 80, who died yesterday morning in Post.

Mrs. Warren was a former resident of Snyder. The Warrens lived here and were operators in Warren Bros. Drug Store until moving to Post about 25 years ago. Her husband now operates a drug store in Post.

Services were to be held at the First Methodist Church in Post. Graveside services were to be held here at the Snyder Cemetery at 4 p.m. The Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was to officiate. Bolger Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Survivors include the husband, one daughter, Mrs. Tom Gates of Post; one granddaughter, Mrs. Joe Bob Bumpass of Lubbock; one great-grandson, Mike Bumpass of Lubbock; one sister, Mrs. Neil Gross of Sweetwater; one brother, Dink Merrill of San Angelo; and one niece, Mrs. Bill Penney of Los Angeles, Cal.

Robert Stevens Arrives To Direct Follies Of '58

About 100 persons from all walks of life in Snyder turned out Tuesday night for the talent party of the Snyder Follies for 1958 at the exhibit building in Towle Memorial Park.

The party was in honor of Robert Stevens, member of the Jerome H. Cargill Productions Organization of New York, who had arrived here earlier that day to assume direction of talent in the all-local musical comedy show which will be produced here the nights of Feb. 7 and 8.

A wide variety of specialty acts and routines were auditioned that night, and everyone who went to the party was given an opportunity to perform in some capacity.

Mrs. Martha Hartley, general chairman of the Follies, said the party was highly successful, and that some exceptional talent was discovered among the local citizens who were auditioned.

Stevens will direct the musical comedy which is to be sponsored here by the Acacia, Cosmorama and Atheneum clubs of Snyder.

Born in New York, Stevens grew up in San Francisco and attended the University of California. He specialized in theatrical training for four years and attended the Hollaway School, Theater Arts Colony in San Francisco and the American Theater Wing in New York.

During service in the Military Police and Intelligence in World War II, Stevens also produced, directed and performed in many Army entertainments with such stars as Danny Kaye, Hazel Scott and Bob Hope.

After discharge from the Army he became associated with Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco as host and supervisor at the Top of the Mark and production assistant for their Peacock Court.

O. N. Laster Honored On 81st Birthday

Guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray, and Helen Jo Laster of Coloradlo City, Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Laster Jr., and W. E. Laster.

Recent Bride Honored With Tea Wednesday

HERMLEIGH (Spl.) — Mrs. Johnny Don Hall the former Reeda Ashley of Snyder, was complimented with a gift tea in the recreation hall of China Grove Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon.

Co-hosting the affair were Mrs. Jim Merket, Mrs. Toro Webb, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Everett Haggerton, Mrs. Martin Murphy, Mrs. Stanley Merket, Mrs. Bill Hairston, Mrs. Roy Allen and Mrs. Jess Brown.

Guests were received by the bride, her mother-in-law, Mrs. N. F. Hall and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Pete White of Dunn.

Mrs. Bill Hairston registered approximately 50 guests.

Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Webb and Miss Donna Ann Hall, sister of the bridegroom. The table was laid with a lace cloth over yellow. The centerpiece included a bridal couple standing under a large silver wedding ring, backed by orange blossoms and greenry. Yellow satin streamers were inscribed with Redda and Johnny. A four-tier cake with miniature bride and groom graced one end of the table, while a two tired cake of ice frozen with small silver wedding rings and yellow flowers, floated in the punch bowl at the other end.

Plate favors were inscribed with the couple's name and tied with wedding rings.

The gift table was covered with a yellow linen cloth and marked at each end by an arrangement of white flowers. The registry completed the decor, carrying out the honoree's chosen colors of yellow and white as it featured a tall yellow taper.

A humorous reading, "The Newlyweds" was presented by Mrs. C. B. Underwood of Colorado City. The honoree was also presented a book, "Pearls of Wisdom for the Newlyweds", in which each guest wrote advice and good wishes to the couple.

The couple will make their home for the present with the bridegrooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hall. Johnny Don will finish high school before entering college.

INFLATION

MCALESTER, Okla. (AP) — A little girl put a nickel on the counter of a drug store and asked for a candy bar.

"We have no nickel bars," the clerk said.

"Then may I please have a pop?"

"They're 7 cents now," the clerk replied.

"I'll take a Popsicle," the girl tried again.

"They're 7 cents too."

The little girl turned to walk out of the store and the clerk called after her that she had left the nickel.

"That's all right," she said. "I can't buy anything with it anyway."

Sliced store-bought pound cake is especially good if it is buttered and toasted. Serve as is or with ice cream and chocolate sauce.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

IT LOOKS LIKE THIS District 3-AAA cage race is going to be strictly a "home court" battle.

Four district games have been played and the home team has won out on each occasion.

All games, nevertheless, have been close. The biggest "romp" was the Tigers' 7-point decision over Lamesa here Tuesday night. And this game was much closer than the final score indicated.

In the other three games, Lake View topped Colorado City by six, Lamesa tripped Lake View by two and Sweetwater edged out Colorado City by one.

Action resumes tomorrow night with the Tigers playing at Colorado City and Sweetwater at Lake View. Lamesa has an open date.

If tomorrow's games follow true to form, meaning if the home teams continue to win, Lake View will emerge with the league lead with a 2-1 record.

There really hasn't been much light thrown on the district cage picture as yet. It was generally agreed before the race began that all five teams were pretty evenly matched and therefore the home teams were expectd to win.

Lake View's win over Colorado City Tuesday, though, must be considered an upset.

Wolves Will Be Tough

The Tigers may or may not be catching Colorado City at the right time tomorrow night. The Wolves, considered by some as the favorite to cop the district flag, have their "backs to the wall" with a 0-2 conference mark.

You can expect the Wolves to battle back tomorrow as another loss would all but eliminate the Pack from the title picture, at least for the moment.

In other words, the Wolves will be "geared to the hilt" when the Bengals invade Wolf Gym tomorrow night.

And then, too, Colorado City has never lost a game in her new gym. The Wolves began this season in a brand new playhouse and have won every game played in it thus far.

It could be the Wolves are in a "slump" and it may continue through tomorrow night. But this isn't likely.

See where Lamesa scribe Jim O'Brien has taken issue with us on a recent statement made in this corner about the freshman basketball game between Snyder and Lamesa.

The thing that stirred O'Brien was when we said "Snyder could have won the game had it meant anything."

O'Brien, apparently, misinterpreted what we were driving at. By the statement "had it meant anything" we were referring to any title hinging on the outcome of the game. We'll admit that a bunch of kids, regardless of grade, had rather win than lose.

Experience Vital In Lower Ranks

But in this particular game, we referred to the fact Snyder held a 17-9 lead midway in the second quarter and went into a stall in attempt to pull Lamesa out of its zone defense.

The Snyder lads just leisurely passed the ball around for a couple of minutes with Lamesa making no effort to get the ball. Finally coach Hal Battle signaled his charges to "epen up" saying "If we didn't need the practice so bad I'd just have them to hold the ball until Lamesa came out of the zone."

Well, the primary purpose of basketball or any other sport in the lower grades is to groom the kids so they'll be ready for varsity play when the time comes.

And you certainly aren't getting much experience when two boys just leisurely pass the ball back and forth with the opposition making no effort to get the ball. The kids can get this kind of "experience" in PE class or just anytime.

There was no title of any sort riding on the outcome of the game so Ba le was more interested in giving his charges the right kind of experience than winning the game. Had there been anything hinging on the outcome of the game, the Tiger Frosh would have stayed in the stall and Lamesa would have eventually come out of her zone or else get beat for sure.

That, Jim, is what we meant when we said "had the game meant anything."

The Tiger Frosh, in the long run, benefited more from the game than did Lamesa. The locals got some experience working against a zone but Lamesa didn't gain any experience at all in going to a "man for man" defense which, someday, she will have to do or take it on the chin.

Ted Spikes Injury Rumor; Says He's OK

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams and two doctors have quashed reports that the 39-year-old Boston Red Sox slugger's baseball career is endangered by broken ankle bones.

Williams told Boston sports writers by phone from his Florida home yesterday that he sprained the ankle on a fishing trip in Labrador last fall. He flatly denied any bones were broken.

A report in the Boston Traveler had said his future baseball status was "in jeopardy" because of two small broken bones in his right ankle.

The 1957 American League batting king said the ankle still is a little sore, but he expects to be ready for the 1958 season.

Ted was backed up by Dr. George Bennett of Baltimore and Dr. Russel Sullivan of Boston, who viewed X-rays of the tender ankle.

"The X-rays are all right, and as for Ted's career being endangered, that's a lot of nonsense," said Dr. Sullivan, who treated Williams for a shoulder separation in 1954.

Dr. Bennett, Johns Hopkins Hospital staff member, said there was no break, but the X-rays did show "real small pieces of bone—not big enough to be really called chips."

He explained the tiny splinters probably have been in the ankle for years and won't bother Williams' play.

Williams said he taped the ankle after the sprain, but he suffered a little pain when he jogged or ran.

'A FINE YOUNG COACH'—Matty

Rival Coaches Welcome Myers

By The Associated Press

Jim Myers, the new coach at Texas A&M, drew a warm welcome to the Southwest Conference from league athletic directors and football coaches.

Arkansas and Southern Methodist officials said he had been strongly recommended to them when those schools were seeking coaches.

John Barnhill, Arkansas athletic director who was Myers' coach at Tennessee, said he would "do just about as well as anybody could" at Aggieland.

"He's a good man. I had him down for an interview as a prospect for this job."

Barnhill referred to Arkansas' recent search for a head coach after Jack Mitchell moved to Kansas. Frank Broyles of Missouri got the Arkansas post.

Matty Bell, SMU athletic director, said Myers was "strongly recommended to us last year before we hired (Bill) Meek," the present Mustang coach. He described Myers as a "fine young coach."

Meek was a teammate of Myers at Tennessee in 1941 and 1942.

He called the new Aggie coach "a top notcher. He will be a fine addition to the Southwest Conference, both as a coach and a man."

Meek voiced respect for Myers' ability and his single wing offense, but added, "I've seen that style of attack before."

The single wing has long been favored by Tennessee and that school has produced a number of top flight coaches who favor it.

Ed Olle, athletic director at Texas, said, "I congratulate A&M on getting Mr. Myers and we are looking forward to knowing him. He will be an asset to our conference." He said coaches who knew Myers spoke very highly of him at the recent NCAA meeting in Philadelphia.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said Myers was an "excellent choice." He said he expects him to install the single wing at A&M.

Coach DeWitt Weaver of Texas Tech said he thinks Myers will do A&M a fine job. "He's a fine young coach, and I'm glad to welcome him to the Southwest Conference. A&M is such an outstanding school that it was bound to come up with a fine coach. I think he'll do a great job at A&M."

City League Cage Action Resumes

Action resumes in the City Basketball League tonight with two more games on tap at Junior High Gym.

Clashing tonight will be D&H Grocer and Canyon Reef Sports Center in the first game at 7 and the Boys Club and Brooks Oil in the second game at 8:30.

Canyon Reef and Brooks Oil won opening games Monday night to share the league lead.

Canyon Reef won over the Boys Club, 61-52, while Brooks downed D&H, 50-32.

If Canyon Reef and Brooks win tonight of which they will be favored to do, then the two will get together next Monday in a game that would break the deadlock for the league lead.

There is no admission to the games but a hat will be passed to help defray the expenses.

A league spokesman said today that the league will give the "passing the hat" one more trial. If no more comes in than was taken in last Monday, then an admission charge will be assessed.

West Texas 11 To Play Virginia Tech

CANYON (AP)—West Texas State yesterday announced a home-and-home football series with Virginia Tech. West Texas will open the 1958 season against Virginia Tech Sept. 20 at Roanoke, Va. The teams play here Nov. 7, 1959.

Snyder Glovers To Open Season

The Snyder boxing team will open its season tomorrow night in a five-way meet at Sweetwater.

It will be the only appearance for the local squad before the Regional Golden Gloves Tournament next week at Abilene.

The local team is co-sponsored by the Snyder Optimist Club and the Scurry County Boys Club.

Several holdovers from last year's squad are on the current roster.

Between 15-20 boys have been training almost daily for about a month for the coming campaign.

Several meets plus two or three home bouts are on tap for the local mittmen.

The Regional Golden Gloves Tournament will start Jan. 31, in Abilene, and will extend through Feb. 3.

Snyder had one champion in last year's regional tournament, middleweight Joe Reaves, who is now a student at Texas Tech.

Leon Deere, a finalist in last year's regional tournament, will make another bid for a regional crown next week. Deere is a welterweight (147 pounds).

Coach of the local team is Lacy Boles of the Optimist Club.

North Texas Slates 10-Game Grid Sked

DENTON (AP)—North Texas State has announced a 10-game football schedule for next fall, including five Missouri Valley Conference games.

The schedule: Sept. 20, Texas Western here; Sept. 27, Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Okla; Oct. 4, Trinity here; Oct. 11, Drake at Des Moines; Oct. 18, Brigham Young at Provo, Utah; Oct. 25, Tulsa here (homecoming); Nov. 1, Cincinnati here; Nov. 8, at University of Wichita; Nov. 15, University of Houston here; Nov. 22, at University of Louisville.

3 Baylorites Are Put On Probation

WACO (AP)—Dan W. C. Perry said yesterday Baylor University has placed three male students on probation for their part in a fracas after a basketball game between the Bears and Texas A&M Jan. 14.

Perry did not release any names. Fighting broke out near the end of the game, which A&M won 57-47.

Perry said other students may be involved, but he feels the affair is closed. He expressed regret at the incident.

"The conduct was not becoming to a host school," he said. "We will work with A&M to try and eliminate this sort of thing and get relations back on good footing."

Mazur To Marquette

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Johnny Mazur, one-time Notre Dame quarterback and backfield coach at Tulane for the past three seasons, today accepted the backfield coaching job at Marquette.

Texas Ags End Ordeal; Sign Iowa's Jim Myers

By FRANK N. MANITZAS

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Texas A&M College pulled the biggest surprise of its widespread hunt for a football coach yesterday. It hired Jim Myers of Iowa State, a single-wing stylist who was rejected when first nominated.

Numerous other coaches had been mentioned as a possible successor to Paul (Bear) Bryant, who returned to Alabama, his alma mater.

The 51-day search for a coach and athletic director erupted into controversy between Aggie officials who seemed ready to interview anyone who would take the trip to Texas and alumni groups angered by what they considered bad publicity.

Two students, Gary Rollins of Houston, Tex., and Cadet Col. John Hagler, La Grande, Tex., were credited with a key role in getting Myers to change his mind and accept the $16,000-a-year post, which also includes rent-free use of a house. He was given a four-year contract.

"They were dynamic, impressive young men with a sparkle in their eye, and they sold me, really," Myers said at Ames, Iowa. The two students headed a "get Myers" campaign among the student body.

They passed up three final exams to fly to Ames, where they told him they wouldn't take no for an answer.

Myers, 36, said he hopes to come here later this week. "I'm looking forward to being a loyal Aggie," he said.

Myers had withdrawn from consideration for the post last week when Navy's Eddie Erdelatz flew here for a visit and the Aggie board tabled 5-4 a motion to hire Myers, who was then the top prospect.

Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the college, said the board of directors had pledged unanimous support for Myers. But during the special meeting four board members left, including supporters of Erdelatz.

The four members of the board's athletic committee, who had been criticized for the independent manner in which they contacted coaches, resigned from the committee but not the board.

Iowa State officials expressed surprise at Myers' decision, but declined to comment. It apparently didn't suit some Iowa State students. An effigy of Myers was found hanging on the campus last night, presumably a student prank.

Myers had a 4-5-1 record at Iowa State last season. He is a protege of UCLA Coach Red Sanders, who also was mentioned for the job and made a trip here. Sanders, however, never was given a formal offer.

Myers said he decided to accept the offer because "they were so persistent."

He acknowledged that a telegram signed by 2,229 students and the visit by the two Aggie students were partly responsible for getting him to change his mind.

"It's nice to be wanted," he said. "They have tremendous student support."

He said the "opportunity is better than it was."

"I've always had a soft spot for Texas A&M since I was a kid in the days of John Kimbrough." Kimbrough was an All-America back for Texas A&M in 1939 and 1940.

"There have been a lot of people here at Iowa State who've been good to me," he said. "But I couldn't let that enter into my decision."

Iowa State now must find a head coach, but no prospects were in sight.

Dwight Nichols, tailback on the 1957 Iowa State team, said he hopes the Cyclones can get back LeRoy Pearce, line coach under Myers, who recently accepted an appointment on the coaching staff at Nebraska.

When Pearce accepted the Nebraska job, he disclosed he had delayed his decision because of Myers' indecision over the Aggie post.

Bud Sherrod, Texas Tech assistant, has been mentioned as a possible aid to Myers at A&M, but Myers declined to comment on the report.

Sherrod visited Iowa State last week and reportedly was offered the No. 1 assistant's post there.

TELEGRAM PAYS OFF—Iowa State Coach Jim Myers ended Texas A&M's long search for a football coach late yesterday when he signed a four-year contract. Myers is shown with his family in Aimes, Iowa, persuing a telegram signed by 4,000 Texas A&M students asking that he reconsider the Aggie job. ISC line coach Russ Faulkenberry is shown standing. Myers admitted upon signing yesterday that the telegram had something to do in re-considering the job. (AP Photo)

Georgia Tech 'Ready' For Big Challenge

By ED WILKS

It might sound screwy, but maybe Georgia Tech has lost just in time to win in college basketball.

Could be the 80-72 upset by Auburn last night was just what Tech needed before taking on Kentucky and Tennessee, running 1-2 in the Southeastern Conference, this weekend.

The defeat didn't hurt the Yellow jackets (10-6). It was a non-conference game. But it should have ploughed under any signs of complacency that may have cropped up after four consecutive victories.

There already had been some talk Tech might be ready to a giant upset. Vanderbilt Coach Bob Polk, beaten 81-60 by Tech last Saturday, was so impressed he figured Tech could beat Tennessee Saturday and then take Kentucky Monday.

That double kill would hoist Tech from third (4-2) to second in SEC play. Kentucky is the leader at 5-0 with Tennessee second at 3-1.

The upset came on a light night that also saw St. Bonaventure defeat Niagara 69-66 and Duquesne whip Toledo 67-54.

A great floor game and a 30-point scoring touch by Jimmy Lee paid off for Auburn, now 6-6.

Rex Frederick, Auburn's high scorer tied it 45-all with a free throw and seconds later gave Auburn the lead for keeps with a field goal just before he fouled out.

Terry Randall kept Tech in the game until the closing minutes. He was high for the Engineers with 20 points. Soph Dave Denton, who has sparked Tech's surge since regaining his eligibility, scored 19.

Myers Hires Sherrod, Two Other Aides

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Jim Myers, new football coach at Texas A&M, picked three assistants today. They are Bud Sherrod, Russ Faulkinberry and Doug Bradley.

Myers told of the appointments by telephone from Ames, Iowa, to officials at A&M. He plans to arrive in College Station tomorrow.

Sherrod, No. 1 assistant coach at Texas Tech, will be Myers' top assistant here and will coach the ends.

An All-America guard at Tennessee, Sherrod later played with Carswell Air Force Base and the New York Giants pro team.

Faulkinberry, assistant under Myers at Iowa State, will coach tackles. Faulkinberry, 30, starred at Vanderbilt and coached at the Naval Academy before joining Myers at Iowa State.

Bradley, 23, was termed by Myers as "one of the finest young coaches in the country." He is on the coaching staff at University of California at Los Angeles, where he starred as a football player.

Bradley, who will coach the tailbacks, is expected to be a key man in the conversion of the Aggie squad from the split-T to the single wingback formation.

Also on Myers' staff will be present Aggie assistant coaches, J. T. King and Willie Zapalac.

Thunderbird Opens

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Three-time winner Jimmy Demaret headed a select field of 42 professionals into the first round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational golf tournament today, marking his first appearance on the 1958 winter circuit.

Jim Tobin, a pitcher for the old Boston Braves, once hit three home runs in one game.

RODEO PROMOTER and performer for the Air Force is S-Sgt. Elmer (Dusty) Randell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Randell of Snyder. Residents of the Mediterranean area got their first taste of American rodeos after Randell began promoting them for the Air Force.

Snyder Airman Takes Rodeo To Troops In Mediterranean

S-Sgt. Elmer D. (Dusty) Randell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Randell, 119 Twenty-fourth Street, is an Air Force rodeo hand.

Randell, who is normally a flight engineer in the Air Force, now has one of the service's most unusual assignments, promoter of rodeos in countries where American troops are stationed around the Mediterranean.

The first airman's wild west show was the idea of Randell, and he staged a small show for the American community in Ankara, Turkey, last July 4. About 4,000 Turks and Americans turned out. Since the, Randell has been in the rodeo business for the Air Force, which decided to turn it into a special public relations program.

Maj. Gen. Richard J. O'Keefe commander of the Seventeenth Air Force, saw the success of the first big show last September in the Turkish capital, and he requested that the sergeant put on a bigger rodeo in Tripoli.

The rodeo business was something new in the Mediterranean area, and Randell had a lot of work to do both at Ankara and Tripoli in rounding up airmen who were cowboys, securing enough horses and bulls, and building special arenas for the shows.

He secured the cooperation of airmen and government officials and borrowed cattle from local farms. He even rented horses from hackney drivers in Tripoli.

"I've ridden better and I've ridden worse," the Stars and Stripes, service newspaper, quoted Randell as saying. "There weren't any dozers in the lot. They're chronic buckers in this part of the world — that's all they know how to do."

Government officials at both Ankara and Tripoli sanctioned the rodeos, and proceeds went to local charities. Members of the Turkish riding clubs staged a steeplechase at the Ankara show. Crack horsemen of the Libyan mounted police demonstrated horsemanship made famous by the Bengal Lancers at the Tripoli rodeo.

At the Ankara show, Randell managed to get about 60 performers to participate. There were even camel riders in the Tripoli show.

"Most of the fellows who turned out had no previous experience in rodeos. They sure deserve a lot of credit — it takes guts to get out there on those bulls and broncs, Randell said.

About a dozen of those in the Tripoli show were ex-rodeo professionals, and there were six real Indians to perform a series of ceremonial dances. Two Indians, however, said they had never been on horseback.

The Tripoli rodeo even had a buckboard race, in which old Libyan farm sulkies were used. This was won by Lt. Col. William McGinty, information chief of the Seventeenth Air Force.

More than 10,000 Libyans and Americans turned out for the Tripoli event, held in December. U. S. Ambassador John L. Tappin gave his backing by heading 300 Libyan and American horsemen in the opening day parade.

Randell, 30, has been in the Air Force 11½ years. A member of the Rodeo Cowboy Association, he has performed in rodeos in the western part of the U. S. while stationed there.

The Mediterranean shows were his first as promoter, however.

Lt. Governor In Visit To Kiwanis Club

Clyde Davidson of Midland, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis Division 22, paid a visit to the Snyder Kiwanis Club at its luncheon meeting Wednesday in The Village.

Davidson spoke to members of the local club briefly, outlining plans for Kiwanis work in the division this year. He reported on the mid-winter conference of the Texas-Oklahoma District, which was held in Fort Worth last weekend. He emphasized the importance of committee reports.

Howard Milburn, who was in charge of the program, presented Michie Brous, who advanced a proposal for the Kiwanis Club to sponsor a teenage Road-E-O. He outlined generally how the event would be conducted and said the public and business affairs committee and boys and girls committees would give further study to the proposal.

In a directors meeting immediately following the luncheon the Kiwanis board elected Leon Autry to be the club's "Playboy" candidate for the Snyder Follies.

Robber Just A Customer

BALTIMORE (AP) — James G. Klein started out as a tough customer bent on robbing a grocery but wound up as customer—period — Magistrate Linwood G. Koger was told yesterday.

Klein, 22, was charged with assault and attempted robbery.

Koger was told the defendant tried to hold up grocer John Belton by threatening him with a toy pistol. When Belton just laughed, it was testified, Klein switched roles by ordering a quart of milk and handing the grocer $1 in payment.

Belton then drew his own pistol and called the cops.

Klein was held in $1,000 bail for the grand jury.

Sarah Gets Treatment

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Sarah Churchill is undergoing medical treatment for exhaustion and emotional upset, her agent reports.

The daughter of Britain's Sir Winston Churchill was fined $50 last Thursday on a drunk charge.

The agent, Lillie Messinger, said Miss Churchill is under the care of a UCLA internist and added: "She has been under an emotional strain for a long time—since the death of her husband."

The actress' husband, society photographer Anthony Beauchamp was found dead last Aug. 18 in his London apartment. Police blamed an overdose of sleeping pills.

The Apache Indians derive their name from the Zuni word "Apachu," which means "enemy."

Empire Standard Removes President

AUSTIN (AP)—Arlin Anderson has been removed as president of Empire Standard Life Insurance Co. of Tyler, center of a House Investigating Committee hearing scheduled tomorrow.

William Harrison, state insurance commissioner, yesterday said he had been notified of this action by the board of directors who promised to institute necessary legal proceedings to recover any money or property due the firm.

Harrison said his department and other state agencies had been investigating "certain financial transactions between Empire Standard and its president, Arlin Anderson, and certain related corporations which Anderson controls."

"It appears no financial condition now exists in the Empire Standard Life Insurance Co. that would require formal action . . . against the insurance company," said Harrison.

He said the company would be expected "to pursue a proper course of action in connection with the various financial transactions between it and Mr. Arlin Anderson."

Harrison said the Insurance Board, the attorney general, the State Securities Board, the State Auditor and the House General Investigating Committee have been working on the investigation.

A meeting had been scheduled earlier for tomorrow by the House Committee to look into financial transactions of the company.

Earlier this week Securities Commissioner William King set a hearing for Jan. 28 to determine whether or not to issue a license for selling securities to Underwriters Fund, Empire Standard and Empire Industries Inc., whose application for renewal of an issuer's permit was denied Jan. 9.

He said he refused to renew the permit for Empire Industries because the corporation's plan of finance and business does not meet the "fair, just and equitable" ards prescribed by law. King said the corporation planned to sell 236,175 shares of common stock at $1.25 a share.

Harrison said in addition to steps taken by King, "other appropriate actions have been or will be taken in the near future by the state agencies involved."

Convict Has A Fling At Philanthropy

BOSTON (AP) — Robert Perry is a convict in Massachusetts, but a philanthropist in the Mideterranean island of Crete.

The story came to light in The Mentor, the prison's "inside" newspaper.

A prisoner's pay averages about $1.25 a week — but that's only a dollar less than Elli Mantadaki, a widow on the island of Crete, makes to support her three children.

The Mantadakis — they lost their father when he was killed in Korea — make ends meet thanks to a benefactor. They call him "Uncle Bob."

Bob Perry, who makes extra money doing avocational work at the prison on weekends, sends his adopted family in Crete about $3 a week.

That isn't a fortune, but in poverty-stricken Crete the added cash helps Mrs. Mantadaki keep her children clothed and fed.

In addition, "Uncle Bob" sends clothing and presents when he can afford it. His gifts total about $150 a year.

Perry receives about a letter a month from his overseas "family." It is not known how he learned of the widow's plight.

The Mantadakis probably think of him as another well-to-do American philanthropist. Bob has never told them he is a convict.

Reasons Given For Suspicious Symptoms

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Edmund W. Clapp, 40, was acquitted of a drunken driving charge in Common Pleas Court.

He had been accused by the arresting officer of speaking incoherently, staggering when he walked and giving the general appearance of an intoxicated man.

Clapp told the jury has symptoms could be attributed to a speech impediment, a wooden leg and a fight with his wife.

Snyder Man Is Elected

M. L. (Mal) Andress, Clairemont highway, has been elected high priest of the Suez Temple by Shriners.

The election was held in San Angelo this week by the temple, which has 3,200 members.

Virgil Musick of Abilene is potentate. Elected this week, other than Andress, were Frank Smith of Midland, chief rabban; B. W. Smith of San Angelo, assistant rabban; John Martin of San Angeo, oriental guide; and Otis Griham and N. E. Godfrey, both of San Angelo, treasurer and recorder.

Police Asked For Brooklyn Schools

NEW YORK (AP) — The rape of a 13-year-old girl in the basement of a Brooklyn junior high school has brought a new grand jury demand for stationing policemen in every school.

School Supt. William Jansen replied that there was a patrolman in the school when the attack occurred Tuesday.

"As deplorable as this situation is, it does not appear that the presence of a policeman in a school can prevent a thing like that," said Jansen.

The Kings County grand jury recommended last November that a policeman be placed in each of the city's 918 public schools. School and police officials rejected the idea.

The grand jury now has reiterated its suggestion in a statement that said in part: "How long must we wait? Until some one is killed? We cannot and will not countenance indifference to the safety of the children.

Police again arrested a 15-year-old Negro boy questioned earlier, then released, in connection with the rape.

The girl, who is white, and the boy are both pupils at John Marshall Junior High School. Because of their ages, names were not released.

Police said a check of the boy's story and a laboratory test of his clothes led them to doubt his account of his whereabouts at the time of the rape. They said the boy admitted being out of his classroom for about 15 minutes.

The girl did not recognize the youth as her assailant. She wears thick glasses and has had two operations for cataracts in the year.

She was raped after she had been forced at knifepoint to accompany her attacker to the basement. She was on an errand for her teacher.

QUESTION: Are lefties as able as right-handed persons?

ANSWER: Doctors often have wondered what makes a person left-handed. Heredity is not the answer, they say, but they believe it may be caused by a habit formed soon after a child is born.

Pediatricians advise that if a child shows left-handed tendencies, he should be encouraged to do things with his left hand. It's easier for him that way.

Studies show that a left-handed person is no less and no more effective than a right-handed person. They point to many top musicians and athletes, especially baseball players, as examples of how effective a leftie can be.

FOR YOU TO DO: A good way to disguise your writing for use in secret communications is to write with your left hand, if you are right handed. Try it and see how successful this is — and how hard.

Office Here Helps Win TESCO Award

The Snyder office of the Texas Electric Service Co. has been honored for its share in winning the "Reddy Kilowatt Trophy" in the Sweetwater district of the firm for sales gains last year.

The trophy was presented to the district manager, L. L. Zeigler, of Sweetwater, at a recent sales department meeting in Fort Worth.

The three offices of TESCO in the Sweetwater district are at Sweetwater, Colorado City and Snyder.

This is the first time that the trophy has ever been won by this district.

In 1954, when the trophy was first started, it was won by the Midland district, then in 1955 and 1956 it was won consecutively by the Fort Worth district.

In its meeting at Fort Worth, sales plans and objectives for 1958 were featured and their importance emphasized along with customer service and relations.

Attending the meeting were district and division managers and commercial department employes as well as representatives from division and district engineering and accounting supervisions.

Attending from Snyder were Bill Brown, manager, Tommy Ivison; Gerald Pullig, Billy Bob Hardee, L. H. Hardee and Garth Austin.

Experimental Moon Pilot Off Limits

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Airman 1.C. Donald Farrell, 23, who makes a simmulated flight to the moon next month, has been declared off limits to newsmen seeking interviews.

Farrell, a 23-year-old Air Force accounting clerk from the Bronx, N.Y., will spend seven days in a space chamber at the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base early in February.

"Airman Farrell was picked for his intelligence and his complete normalcy, according to many previous tests," a school spokesman said.

Scores of newspaper reporters and photographers have turned up for interviews since the upcoming test was disclosed. "We were afraid all this would cause Farrell to develop psychological eccentricities," the spokesman said. "So we put him off limits."

Some people find confusing our different state and national laws dealing with the same things. Income tax laws for an example.

Surely, they say, you can have no real justice, unless there is some one "best way" to do each thing — to hold property, to manage traffic, to pay taxes, or to enforce contracts.

So it bothers them. Why should Englishmen drive on the left side of the street? Why should married couples hold title under community property laws in some states and not in others?

Is law merely a man-made contraption?

Is it true that like good manners much law is man-made, growing out of custom or local problems? In card games you can play many different games with one deck. You merely change the rules. But as with cards and all games, the law goes deeper than convention into man's basic needs for order, for a grasp of the part he is to play, and for a way to settle disagreements.

Law provides an orderly way to make long-range plans and work together. Its rules help you to find out where you stand — your rights and duties. And last, law has binding ways of settling disputes if need be, first to keep the peace, and then win people over by dealing with them in ways that satisfy sense of fairness.

You can find these traits of law in most groups from the most primitive to the civilized.

As man finds out more and more about himself and his world, as his experience and wisdom grow, the law may get better. For example, as the psychological laboratories find out more about man's reaction times, his fears and faults, our laws about driving, for instance, may improve.

And here is another purpose the different kinds of laws may serve. You may look upon each as a sort of experiment. Some turn out badly, and some well.

But in the give and take of public discussion, these efforts may yet bring us more nearly to the "one best way" — if any such thing exists.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Woman Mistaken About Intuition

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A woman's intiuition was wrong and her baby was born in a car on a hospital parking lot.

The mother, Mrs. Pauline Payne 22, and her 8-pound, 1-ounce daughter were reported doing fine at the hospital.

A surgeon walking from the parking lot to the building noticed the situation and lent his aid yesterday.

The father, Joseph W. Payne, told hospital attendants his wife "kept telling me it isn't time yet."

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE

TO: ALL SNYDER AUTOMOBILE OWNERS
FROM: YOUR SERVICE STATION OPERATOR

YOUR SERVICE STATION OPERATOR:

is engaged in one of today's most competitive businesses. In order that he continue to be favored by your patronage he must convince you that he can best service your car with superior products and superior service, which an only be provided by the superior skill of trustworthy, well-trained personnel!

OVER THE YEARS COMMODITY PRICES . . .

and wage increases have decended upon all retail businesses and most of them have, in turn, ben promptly passed on to you . . . the consumer . . . Most retail businesses have, from their beginning, established an appreciable percentage of profit which has been maintained . . . regardless of cost of operation.

YOUR SERVICE STATION OPERATOR . . .

has through the years, realized a critically low margain of profit . . . in ratio to his investment and his volume of gross business. Regardless of general increaes in price, you will find that your Service Station Operator has been the last to pass these on to you . . . the consumer. And yet . . . through all these increases there has been no curtailment in the many "extras" (no charge) such as: cleaning your windshield checking your tires and oil, sweeping out your car, clean rest rooms at your disposal and many others, which have become a part of the retail gasoline business.

YOUR ARE INVITED TO COMPARE . . .

the cost of the services of the gasoline retailer with those of others upon whose skill you depend . . . the plumber, the TV repair man, the electrician, etc. Your Service Station Operator feels that such a comparison will surprise you. Your Service Station Operator or garage must receive a reasonable compensation for his services in order to maintain a normal profit and pay a liveable wage for skilled personnel who are necessary for the proper servicing of your car.

YOUR CAR MAY BE . . .

an "old timer" . . . perhaps it is one of those examples of American engineering skill which was manufactured in 1958. In either case, your Service Station Operator has at your disposal the very latest equipment (you would be surprised at its cost) with which to provide the most demanding service.
