Conservation, Reclamation Election Set For April 2

Two directors for the Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District will be elected for six-year terms at an election scheduled for April 2, it was announced at a meeting of the District's board of directors February 6 in the Courthouse.

The one polling place in the county will be the north lobby of the Courthouse and all qualified voters in Aransas County will be eligible to vote. The position pays no salary but there is a $10 fee for board meetings.

Directors whose terms expire this year are Thomas L. Morgan and Frank Yosemite. Because he is moving from this area, Yosemite will not be a candidate in the April 2 election.

The District, created by an act of the state legislature, is responsible for providing a county-wide water supply system. It buys water from the San Patricio Municipal Water District and sells it to the city of Rockport. In turn Rockport operates the system and collects from individual users. The Aransas County District floated the original bond issues to pay for the system, and it has authority to extend it when necessary.

The District also has authority to install a county-wide sanitary sewage system, also financed in part by revenue bonds. The District has no authority to issue tax bonds. Although preliminary engineering studies have been made on a sewage system, there are no active plans underway, in part because federal funds at present are not available for such projects.

Candidates for the April 2 election are to file petitions with the signatures of not less than 10 qualified voters with David H. Crooks, 252 Starboard Avenue, Rockport, secretary-treasurer of the Board, not less than 10 days before the election. Copies of petitions may be obtained from Sam E. Wilcox, attorney for the District at his office, 1004 East Main Street.

In addition to Morgan, Yosemite and Crooks, present directors are John S. McDavid, president, and John P. Mitchell, Jr., vice president. There is one vacancy on the Board to be filled by appointment to complete an unexpired term.

At the February 6 meeting of the Board, Bob Mosier, auditor for the District, gave the District's financial report as of January 31, 1974. McDavid reported the water tower in Fulton needs repainting and other maintenance work. It was decided to have the situation checked by the engineers who supervised construction.

Conversational Spanish Offered

A course in conversational Spanish will be offered at the First Presbyterian Church beginning February 19 at 7 p.m. for anyone in the Rockport area who is interested. The twenty (20) hour course will be taught by Mrs. Eric Henderson. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday nights, February 19 - March 19. Cost for those participating will be 60¢ per person per hour or $12.00 for the complete course.

Those interested are urged to register at the First Presbyterian Church on Thursday, February 14 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

Because of interest last year and requests this year, this local church is offering such a service to both winter tourists and local residents. Climaxing the course completion, the church is offering persons in the area an opportunity to "buy into" a five day trip to Monterrey, Mexico, tentatively scheduled for March 21-25.

Participation in the Spanish course is not prerequisite for making the Monterrey trip, nor will involvement in the Spanish course indicate a person's interest in the tip. However, it is felt that such a trip would be an excellent chance to practice the skill of conversational Spanish.

Any person interested may register for the course and meet Mrs. Henderson at the Presbyterian Church, February 14, between 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

Fish Fry

There will be a fish fry sponsored by the Rockport Oddfellows Lodge, #342, on Friday, February 22, starting at 6 p.m., at the Oddfellows Hall, 814 Wharf Street. All you can eat for a $2.00 donation.

All donations will be used to send a boy or girl on the United Nations Tour.

For many years the Independent Order of Oddfellows have been sponsoring teen age boys and girls on a bus trip to visit the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. They are allowed to attend the sessions and meet many of the delegates from the many nations.

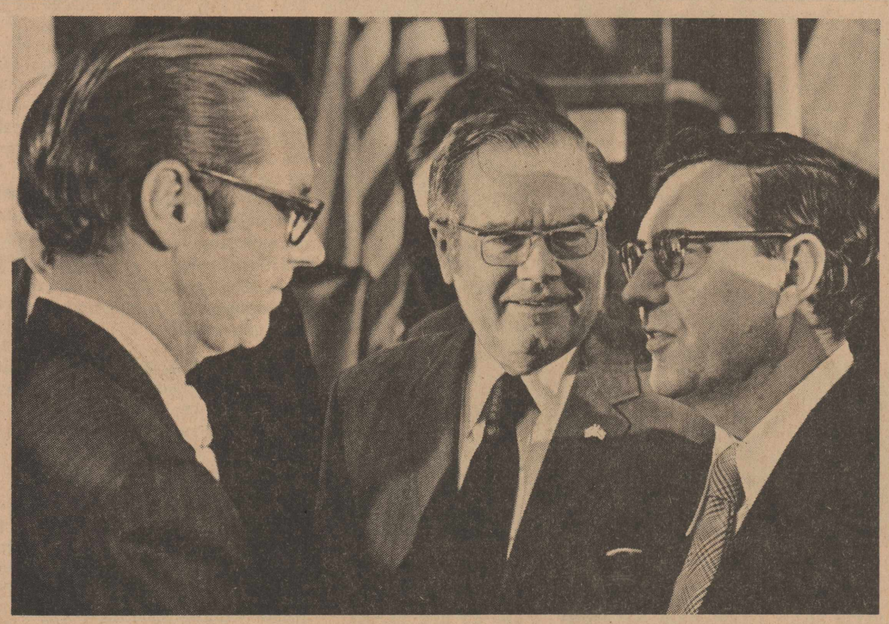

The tour includes visits to many of the places of interest along the route and when they return they are encouraged to give talks and show pictures of their trip, for the benefit of people in their home area.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows is the only organization that is permitted to conduct such a tour. Last year Texas sent two bus loads of children on this tour.

Immunization Clinic

The monthly immunization clinic will be held Tuesday, February 19 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the V.F.W. Hall in Rockport. Public Health nurses will be on hand to provide immunizations (shots) at no cost to anyone requesting this service. Immunizations available are: diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis (whooping cough) or diphtheria-tetanus, polio, measles, rubella. Tuberculin skin tests will also be available.

Those attending should bring all records of previous immunizations or skin tests with them to the clinic.

Representative Leroy J. Wieting conferred early last week with Governor Dolph Briscoe and William Simon, President Nixon's director of the National Energy Council. In their discussion Representative Wieting emphasized the need for more fuel and petroleum products for the agriculture and marine interests in his Districts. Also discussed was the severe problem that retailers will be presented with when agricultural, fish, and other seafood products are unable to get to market due to the scarcity and high prices of petroleum products.

Highway Commission Authorizes Road Work

The Texas Highway Commission has authorized work on 23 highway projects in the Corpus Christi District at an estimated cost of $11.8 million.

The authorization includes funds to buy right-of-way for widening Texas 35 in Aransas and San Patricio counties. Some $378,000 has been set aside for the 22.5 mile stretch from just north of Gregory to the south end of Copano Bay Causeway.

The Highway Commission authorized $305,000 for the first-phase of work on an interchange at Texas 35 and U.S. 181 in Gregory. The intersection has been labeled as one of the most dangerous in South Texas for many years.

Another $40,000 has been provided for resurfacing Texas 35 in Aransas County from Copano Bay north to the Refugio County line.

Driver Education Courses Will Start June 3

Driver education courses will be offered in the Rockport - Fulton High School this summer starting approximately June 3. The tentative plan is to complete the classroom phase by June 28 and some of the driving phase will be completed for some students by July 1. The plan now is to complete the remainder of the student driving phase during the month of July.

The Rockport-Fulton High School has obtained the two Aetna Drivotrainer trailers for the month of June to be used in this driver training program.

One phase of the program employes a fleet of computerized simulator cars which students "drive" to filmed traffic situations. The other phase uses an audio-visual system which presents a series of programmed situations and questions of film and instantly records both

Police Arrest 4 In Marijuana Raid

The Rockport Police Department conducted a narcotics raid at 1126 Cedar Street last Wednesday night. Narcotics and a large quantity of marijuana were seized. This seizure of marijuana is believed to be the largest amount ever seized thus far in Aransas County.

Four persons were arrested and were placed in Aransas County jail under $5,000 bond each. Arrested were Paul Riojas, 31, Eva Mary Rodriquez, 17, Jimmy R. Maseda, 21 and Pablo Riojas, Sr., 53, all of Rockport. Maseda is also listed as AWOL from the U.S. Marine Corps.

A number of tires and wheels were also seized in the raid. They had been used to transport the contraband. It was noted by the officers that some of the inner tubes used to hide the drugs were manufactured in Mexico.

The Aransas County Sheriff's Department assisted the Rockport Police with the raid. Both of the agencies are working very close to reduce the narcotics problem in this area.

Chief Craigmile, of the police department, stated that his department has been collecting data for some time on users, suppliers and pushers.

"However, we want good cases on these people before we make a move. Some persons I have talked to are apathetic to the users of marijuana, however, if the users did not provide the market for the suppliers then we would not have the problem," he stated.

Chief Craigmile advises all parents in the area to take an interest and a part in the drug scene. Find out for yourself what is goin on. Do not take someone else's word. Find out where the young people hang out, visit these places yourself. Learn who your youngsters associate with. Don't wait until too late to learn these things, start now. Tomorrow may be too late.

For the 1968-69 school year enrollment was 1,901 with 102 teachers and 34 non-professional employees. That year the evaluation was $51,000,000 and the school budget was $1,230,000. For the current year the budget is $1,977,000 on a tax evaluation of $65,275,000. and geologist, of Beeville, They have two children: Janet, who is a teacher in Alvin, and John, a teaching fellow in Harvard University Graduate School.

Her continuing interest in affairs of the community is evidenced by her many activities. She is a member of the Order of Eastern Star, and active as a sponsor of the Rainbow Girls. She is also a Sunday School teacher and a member of the First Baptist Chruch of Beeville.

Although she is a newcomer to politics, the candidate believes that she is particularly well qualified for the office of District Judge. She has been persuaded to enter the race at the urging of numerous friends and acquaintances who know her capabilities. Mrs. Littlejohn declares that if elected she will administer justice impartially to all persons appearing before her.

She states: "If the people of this District will elect me as their District Judge, I will accord all litigants appearing before the court a fair hearing and every right that the law allows. I shall endeavor to see that every case is heard and decided in accordance with the law and with dispatch, in order that the administration of cases in the court be handled efficiently.

"I have no commitments or ties which would prevent me from administering the law faithfully and fairly. I solicit the votes and support of all the people of this Judicial District. As your judge, I will devote my full time and effort to the improvement of jurisprudence for our state of Texas."

individual and class responses.

The cars are those of the Aetna Drivotrainer system, furnished through Region II Education Service Center of Corpus Christi, which provides facilities for training 16 students at a time, compared to the three or four students an instructor can handle in a dual-control car.

The Rockport-Fulton installation consists of 16 stationary cars which students "drive" to meet changing road and traffic conditions seen in the wide screen color film shown at the front of the classroom. The simulated car is equipped with all the controls used in standard automobiles. The controls function exactly as they do in real cars.

Under the hood is an electronic "engine" with intagrated ciruits connected to a digital computer that tells the student immediately what action he should be taking if he varies from good driving procedures. The computor also scores the student's performance for the instructor.

At Rockport-Fulton High School, students will get 12 hours of behind-the-wheel instruction with the Drivotrainer system while on-the-road time in dual-control cars will be reduced from six to three hours.

Sixteen films and accompaning teacher's guides have been prepared for use with the Drivotrainer system by driver education specialists. The films contain a carefully programmed series of situations selected and filmed to develop judgment and build proper student driving attitude.

Advanced films prepare the student for handling emergency crises and for driving in bad weather. The movies provide opportunities to experience these extreme and dangerous situations in complete safety.

Aetna's Drivocator system, the new multi-media teaching aid, will be used in the classroom phase of driver education. The advanced method, which coordinates 16 mm movies magnetic sound tape and 35 mm film strips, will assist an instructor in teaching up to 32 Rockport-Fulton High students at once.

The Drivocator system will encourage active class particiapations by requiring Rockport-Fulton High students to respond to programmed filmed questions and situations. Immediate and cumulative records of individual student and class responses are automatically recorded on instant-reading meters in a central console, giving the instructor a continuing progress report.

The curriculum, consists of 18 filmed lessons covering automobile operation from the physics and mechanics of driving to coping with high emergencies.

Enrollment for the driver education classes will be taken during the month of February. State Law and Texas Education Agency Laws specify that a student must be fifteen (15) years olf or older on the date the class starts to be eligible to take a driver training class.

A charge will be made for the driving phase of the program.

system is big business and getting bigger as enrollment grows and all costs increase," he commented. "Also, the direction of secondary education is changing. We are no longer preparing everybody for college. Fewer are enrolling and more are dropping out, after they start, Randow asserted.

He explained that to meet this change in viewpoint, standard high school and elementary courses are being revised and new courses added. One of the new courses in the local high school is Arts and Handicrafts which provides training in leather, ceramics and plastic. This course has proved very popular, as have two others, titled Home and Family Living and Home Management. Both boys and girls at the junior and senior levels are enrolled in these courses, he continued.

For the first time there is a Speech class for eighth graders and Conversational Spanish is offered in the seventh grade.

State regulations require a 45-minute planning period each day for elementary teachers. During this time music is taught for elementary school pupils from the first grade on.

Randow said local schools are offering a kindergarden program on a half-day basis. Also, a snack bar facilites have been added in the junior-senior high school cafeteria. This helps keep pupils on the school grounds, he said. Approximately 200 students patronize the snack bar every day.

Additonal changes in study courses are planned for next year, including a course in Advanced Social Problems for seniors and emphasis on Distributive Education at the junior and senior level, with enrollers spending up to two periods a day working in industry and with business firms. Also, there will be Vocational Office Education to give juniors and seniors experience in office procedure.

Superintendent Randow discussed briefly the quarter system which will be in effect next year. The state requires that three-quarters of the school body be in school all year under this system, he explained.

He also touched on bilingual education, another state requirement for the next school year. So far no guidelines have been received so local school authorities are somewhat in the dark as to procedural requirements. Another unsolved problem is how to comply with federal and state laws which next year will prohibit any pupil standing on school buses. This will require rerouting or more school buses, Randow said.

Finally, Randow discussed briefly the involvement of the state's school system in the new constitution which is in the process of being written in Austin.

pared so they can be received on the first Tuesday of March. Commissioner Maguglin seconded the motion. Commissioners Fox and Landrum agreed. Commissioner Brown cast a negative vote and asked that it be put on record that it was based on priorities. That first priority should be placed on stabilizing and securing the channel to minimize filling and the ensuing cost of continuous dredging at an estimated cost of $12,000. Second priority, bulkheading and reclaiming washed out sections of the East end of the Beach, to provide impoundment area for the dredge to be accomplished in the channel at an estimated cost of $20,000. Third priority -- dredging of the channel, with all actions in this order with completion as soon as possible.

Jack Gwynn appeared before the Board to request the Shell Shop lease be transferred to Virginia Frenzell, Administrator for the Estate of Ruth Gwynn, until the termination of the lease. All Commissioners concurred.

R. L. Eckman appeared to protest the use of boats, particularly air boats, in the Connie Hagar Wildlife Sanctuary. The Navigation District passed a resolution at the August 7, 1973 regular meeting that no Air Boats were to be allowed in the Basin and now agrees an addenda be made to encompass all of Little Bay and that all boats are off limits during the wildlife season with signs to be posted to this effect. The Board also agreed that notice of such action be given to the City Council, Aransas County Commissioners Court, Parks and Wildlife Department, Parks and Wildlife Commission and the Audubon Society.

Commissioner Brown discussed the increase of the Cost of Living Index and stated that it had risen to 138.5 as of 12/31/73. Commissioner Maguglin made a motion to give all employees a Cost of Living raise. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Landrum.

The Woman's Club Lease renewal to be placed on the Agenda and brought before the Board at the March 5th regular meeting.

Minutes of the January 2 regular meeting were read and approved. Treasurer's report was reviewed and placed on file. Monthly bills were approved and checks signed.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

"Father of Modern Band"

Frederick the Great of Prussia is considered the "father of the modern band." In 1763, he ordered a military band to be established and named the instruments to be used. Later military bands were sponsored by other countries of Europe. Thus, the band came into being through its use in Military training.

TAXPAYERS ASK IRS

Q. My employer gives all his employees a ham for Christmas. This is a tax - free gift, isn't it?

A. Yes. If to promote good will, your employer makes a general distribution of hams, turkeys, or other items of merchandise of nominal value at Christmas time, the value of these gifts is not income and, therefore, not taxable.

However, if your employer distributes cash, gift certificates, or similar items of readily convertible cash value, the value of such gifts is additional salary or wages.

Q. A prospective employer paid my travel expenses to come in for a job interview. Is payment of these expenses taxable income to me?

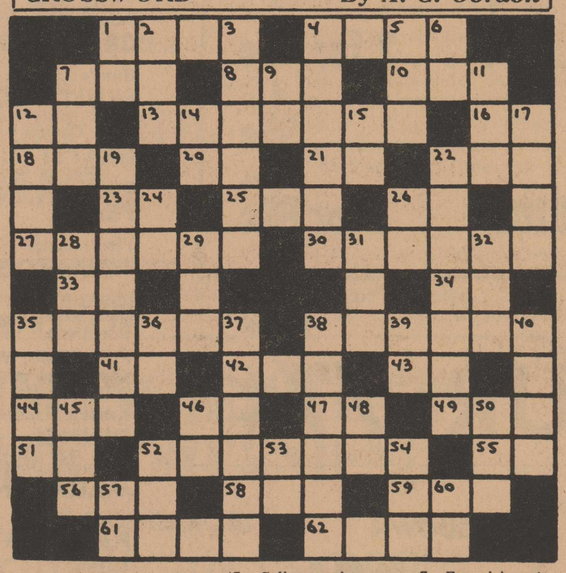

A. The amount you receive is income only to the extent that it exceeds your actual expenses.

Q. What are some of the typical records that a taxpayer might use in operating a small business?

A. A typical recordkeeping system for a small business might include: a daily summary of cash receipts, a monthly income journal, a check disbursements journal, a business checkbook, a depreciation record, and an employee compensation record. For more details, see IRS Publication 583, "Recordkeeping for A Small Business." It's available free from your nearest IRS office.

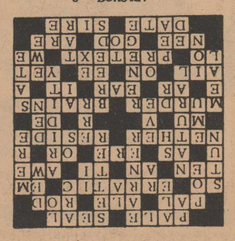

No charge for dumping, your troubles, at the Concern Center, 410 S. Austin, Phone 729-7722.

BLACK DRUM TRUE TEXAN

The black drum is a true Texan. He is the largest and noisiest of his species, the croaker family, and he's always ready to blow his own horn, a drumming noise which can sometimes be heard above water.

Texas is one of the few coastal states in which black drum are caught and marketed for a profit because enough Texans have found out just what a versatile fish the black drum is when mealtime rolls around.

According to Rocille Campbell, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's seafood home economist, the black drum is one of Texas' lower priced seafood items. Texans can get high-quality, delicious protein at a price they will love.

In the recipe below, two popular flavors, bacon and onion, turn this economically priced fish into an elegant, yet low-calorie, entree.

For additional seafood recipes, send a postcard with your name and address to Seafood, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan, Building, Austin, Texas 78701.

SAVORY BAKED DRUMFISH

2 pounds black drum fillets, or other fresh fillets
2 teaspoons lemon juice
Dash pepper
6 slices bacon
1 medium onion, thinly sliced
1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Place fillets in a single layer in a greased baking dish. Sprinkle with lemon juice and pepper. Fry bacon until crisp, remove from fat and crumble. Cook onion rings in bacon fat until tender then arrange evenly over fillets. Combine bacon, bread crumbs and parsley. Sprinkle mixture over fillets and onion. Bake at 350 degrees for 25-30 minutes or until fillets flake easily when tested with a fork. 4-6 servings.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue of The Pilot Mrs. James Russell was reported as having done a great deal of work in re-establishing lot boundaries throughout the cemetery. Mr. James Russell did this work.

Speaks at Cancer Board Meeting

Mrs. Jay Hubbard, Jr., Port Lavaca, was guest speaker at the regular board luncheon meeting of the Aransas County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, Friday, February 8 at Corky's Restaurant.

She indicated that new medical advice recommends that all women (including those who have undergone hysterectomies) should have annual Pap Smear Tests made. Free tests for all women are available at a special clinic operated every Wednesday morning in Rockport in the old Dr. Elliott offices at Market and Live Oak, near the post office.

The speaker emphasized the community services performed for those suffering from cancer, if the local unit is informed of the need. She further emphasized the strict confidentiality under which service is given, with doctors and ministers often relied on for information.

Local units help with many items for cancer victims, locate equipment to help the family take better care of its sick member, and make arrangements for help to children in such families to attend school.

Mrs. Hubbard, R.N., is on the District Leadership and Development Committee for the American Cancer Society, covering Aransas, Calhoun, Victoria and DeWitt Counties. She also serves as Calhoun County Service Chairman.

Various local unit chairpeople gave reports, as called for by President Mrs. Jim Fowler. Mrs. Helen Foster of the Corpus Christi office introduced Malcom Mittag as a new district executive.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Tainted" Car

Suppose you lend your car to a friend, who uses it to carry narcotics. If he is caught, could your car be confiscated—even though you were unaware of your friend's illicit intentions?

State laws on narcotics often do say exactly that. The car itself is considered tainted by its misuse, and is therefore subject to seizure.

From time to time, a luckless car owner will put up a fight in court. He will argue that he should not be penalized for someone else's transgression.

But most courts have upheld the confiscation of the car. Two reasons are commonly given:

1) that this will teach car owners to be more careful about lending their cars to untrustworthy friends; and,

2) that in fighting the drug problem, the state should not have the difficult task of proving the car owner's complicity.

As one judge put it:

"The traffic in narcotics is so great an evil as to justify the drastic penalty of confiscation. The public interest outweighs the loss suffered by the innocent car owner."

Usually, however, an automobile can be confiscated only if it was "caught in the act." Thus, your car could not be taken away merely because the authorities find that someone had used it unlawfully the day before yesterday.

Furthermore, you are in a stronger position if the car was not just borrowed but was taken without your consent.

In one case, a youth was caught carrying narcotics in his mother's car. But when authorities tried to seize the car, the mother pointed out that her son had taken it against her express orders.

Under these circumstances, the court felt confiscation was simply too drastic. The court said that would be "an arbitrary invasion of (the mother's) property rights protected by both the state and federal Constitutions."

OUTDOORS 'n things

by L. D. NUCKLES

Someone is always asking our game wardens and biologists, "How do you guys figure out how many deer are in an area -- you don't think you're smart enough to count them, do you?" Well--over the years, several methods have been developed to find the estimated deer population in any given area. It is usually expressed in number of acres per deer.

Deer pellets counts, track counts, driving cruise lines, aerial transects, and the walking or "Hahn" cruise lines have all been used. The Hahn cruise line was developed by the late Henry Hahn, a dedicated wildlife biologist who spent most of his adult life working on methods of deer management in the Edwards Plateau area of Texas. His method has been proven remarkably effective in the Hill Country, and is used almost exclusively there. In the last few years the aerial transect has been perfected and is used in South Texas and in parts of the Trans-Pecos.

The Hahn cruise line works something like this. A site two miles long is selected through representative deer country. Feeding areas, oat fields, water holes, and other areas that tend to congregate deer are avoided, and the line runs east and west so as to take advantage of the prevailing wind direction and the position of the sun. The lines are always walked in the late afternoon so as to be finished just about sundown.

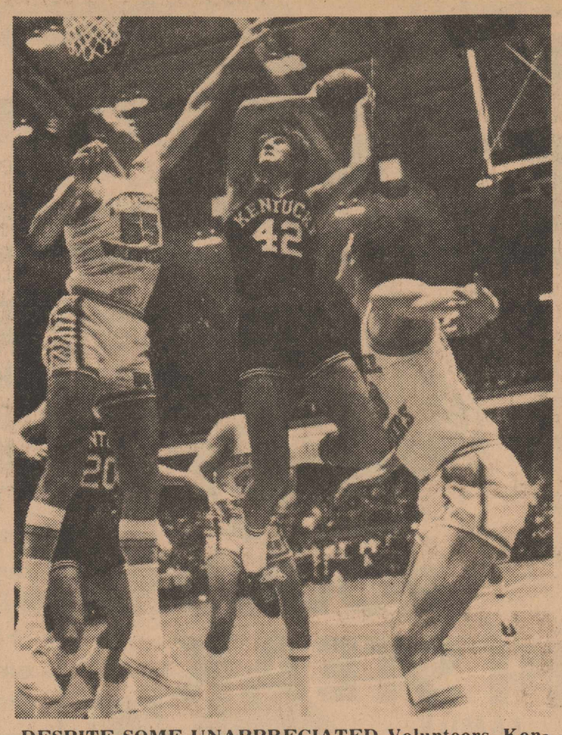

To lay out a line the biologist and/or a technican will walk the line marking trees, fence posts, and rocks with splashes or sprays of yellow paint so that it can be followed by a person who has never been in the area before. This explains why so many hunters, especially in the Hill Country, talk about the yellow paint daubed on trees and things in their pasture. The biologist and two assistants then map the area and measure the amount of land that can be seen while walking the line. They do this by walking the line and counting their paces. Every hundred paces they stop and the two assistants walk in different directions at right angles to the line. They have white handkerchiefs sticking out of their hip pockets so as to expose about as much white as would be seen on the tail of a deer. They keep walking and counting their paces until the biologist can no longer see the handkerchief. They then call back the number of paces and the biologist plots it on his field sketch. When they have covered the whole line they will be able to determine how many acres they will observe in walking the line on which a deer can be seen. From time to time this process must be repeated because of changes in vegetation that will effect the amount of land they can see.

Just before deer season, biologists, technicians, or game wardens will walk these lines several times. From his observations the biologist will be able to calculate the number of acres per deer in that area.

The aerial transect is a line 30 to 70 miles long across a county that is flown by department pilots carrying two biologists as observers. The plane flies a hundred feet high at an average speed of 60 mph. Each of the observers watch a strip of land they can see that is outlined by markers on the windows of the plane. At a hundred feet high these strips that they can see are a hundred yards wide, thus, they count all the deer and identify them as bucks, does, or fawns, that can be seen in a strip two hundred yards wide for the entire length of the transect.

The Hahn cruise line and the aerial transect are about the most reliable methods we have to census deer and you'd be surprised at how accurate those biologists have become. If they tell you that there are a hundred acres per deer in your area and that the buck/doe ratio is one to five, you can just about expect no more than a couple of bucks on your thousand acre hunting lease. On the other hand, if they tell you that their counts show a deer to four acres, and this is not uncommon in the Hill Country, you can be pretty sure that antlerless deer will be legal there.

Many years have been spent in the development of these two methods of deer census and biologists have learned that the data collected in this manner can be used, that it is reliable, and that it is one of the most useful tools we have in trying to manage our deer herds.

Watering Critical For House Plants

"Improper watering techniques probably cause the highest per cent of home plant failures," say Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

This is especially true during the winter months when plant growth in slow because of low light intensities. Frequently additional water and fertilizer are applied to try to make the plant grow large and healthy. Actually, plant leaves produce very little food at this time and thus the plant cannot grow rapidly.

"If the soil is kept saturated with water, little or no oxygen can reach the roots," explains the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Roots need air as well as water. Lack of oxygen causes the plant's small feeder roots to die and eventually the plant succumbs.

"Never water plants by rule of thumb, such as every other day or twice a week," cautions Janne. "Once the soil is thoroughly moistened, water plants only when they need it."

Supply sufficient water so it runs through the potting soil into the saucer below. This helps prevent the accumulation of soluble salts in the potting soil.

"Experience will help in determining the moisture content of the soil from its color and feel," adds Janne. "Plants in a cold room need less water than those in a warm, dry atmosphere. Flowering plants and those with much foliage require more water than those without blooms or with very little foliage."

School Trustees Meet Monday

The Board of Trustees of the Aransas County Independent School District met in regular session on Monday, February 11 and transacted the following business.

A Trustee election was called for Saturday, April 6th, to be held at the Junior High School Cafeteria. The election will be held to elect two trustees, one from the Rockport area and one from the Lamar area. The incumbents, Harold Picton of the Rockport area and W. Dailey Heldenfels, Jr., of the Lamar area have both announced they are candidates for re-election for a three year term. The State Highway will conduct a survey in regard to the flow of traffic near the school, and set speed zones accordingly in the designated school zone. The School District will purchase necessary signs as recommended by the Highway Department and have them erected.

The Board discussed and approved an amendment to the Consolidated Application for State and Federal Assistance budget for the 1972-73 program year.

Two year contracts were unanimously extended to Joel M. Mixon, Director of Instruction; C. R. Barre, High School Principal; Pat E. Smith, Junior High School Principal; W. C. Underwood, Fulton Elementary Principal; William J. Ratliff, Rockport Elementary Principal; James F. Gillis, Live Oak Elementary Principal; Edith Cruser, Dietitian and Bobby G. Black Drum On Decline In Texas

Black drum -- rough fish or food fish?

By Texas law and by many sports fishermen the big croaker is a rough fish but it is also an important commercial food fish.

Like trout and redfish, black drum populations have declined tremendously in the past decade expecially along the lower coast.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department gill net studies in 1952-53 yielded 80 drum per 1,200 feet of net. In 1973 studies only 26 of the fish were caught in the same amount of net.

Even though the 1973 study has yet to include samples during the peak winter months, the decline is evident and department biologists cannot readily point to the cause.

During the 1950s, black drum were heavily fished but the populations flourished. In fact, there were so many drum 20 years ago that hugh schools of the fish destroyed trout and redfish habitat during their bottum foraging for crustaceans and worms.

Since the drum feeds off bottom-dwelling organisms, it should be adversely affected by persistent pesticides such as DDT.

However, the Baffin Bay-Alazan Bay Area along the South Texas coast contained large numbers of black drum during the winter of 1972-73. The species could be on the upswing from the reduced usage of DDT by agriculture in the area.

Like the more popular redfish, large drum have pronounced spawning runs usually to the Gulf of Mexico.

They spawn in the Gulf, passes and bays. Young drift into bays and frequently move into small tidal creeks.

Spawning season is February through April with a probable second season in June or July. This split season has caused considerable confusion among biologists but available evidence shows that black drum reach about 7 to 12 inches by the end of the first two years and grow two inches per year thereafter.

In addition to the spawning season run, drum will move into freshwater streams which are swollen by heavy rains. Periods of severe drought kill their food and send them from the area.

These periods of high salinity caused by drought have blinded drum in the Laguna Madre.

When the water temperature drops to 40 degrees for an extended period, massive die-offs can occur if the drum cannot escape to deeper water.

Very little is known about the morality of the black drum. Since old fish are fairly common, the rate may be low.

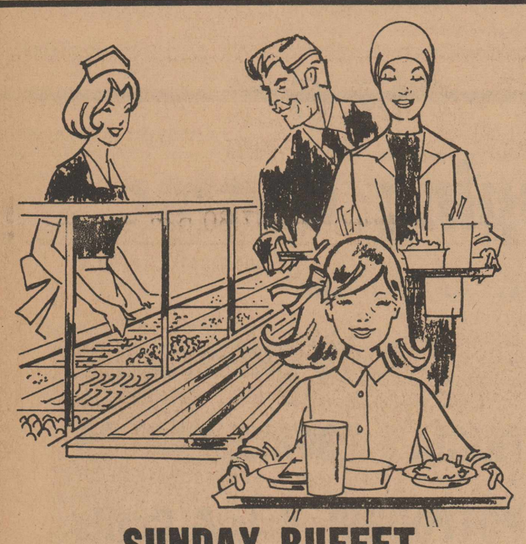

Coupled with the slow annual growth rate of only two inches, the 78-pound Texas State Fish Record drum must have been a venerable old fish indeed.

Week of February 17, 1974

AQUARIUS -- Many intellectuals are born under the sign of Aquarius. They are usually original in their ideas and opinions. Lucky day for the Aquarian is Saturday, lucky number is 1 and best color is blue.

AQUARIUS -- Jan. 20 to Feb. 18 -- What happens this week depends entirely upon you. Train yourself to be more concise when telling someone something. You have a tendency to go into unnecessary detail.

PISCES--Feb. 19 to March 20 -- A venture you have started only in a half-serious way could mushroom to success. This period should be extremely lucky one for you.

ARIES--March 21 to April 20 -- Put the needs of others before your own during this period. Respect the wishes of your mate or partner. You can gain in popularity and with co-operation of others by being thoughtful.

TAURUS--April 21 to May 20 -- Make a final check of your income tax records. Examine past records to see where you overspent last year. Adjust your budget accordingly.

GEMINI -- May 21 to June 20 -- Show more respect for your elders or you might end up the loser. Your devil-may-care attitude won't help you climb the ladder of success.

CANCER--June 21 to July 22 -- Check carefully to see that you have taken all deductions allowed on your income tax. You might uncover savings. Enlist the help of your mate or partner.

LEO -- July 23 to Aug. 22 -- Go into new ventures cautiously. What seems foolproof may not be. Educate yourself in a field that interests you.

VIRGO -- Aug. 23 to Sept. 22 -- Plan an at-home project now for the forthcoming weekend. Work in the daytime and enjoy friends in the evenings.

LIBRA -- Sept. 23 to Oct. 22 -- Cut down on unnecessary spending in everything except giving to worthwhile causes. Set your thoughts on higher things than materialism.

SCORPIO--Oct. 23 to Nov. 22 -- Take care of important correspondence, both personal and business. Take steps to become better organized at home and at work.

SAGITTARIUS -- Nov. 23 to Dec. 21 -- Protect your business interests. Someone may try to pressure you into over-extending your financial investments. Don't do it.

CAPRICORN--Dec. 22 to Jan. 19 -- Be slow to let your temper become aroused. Hasty decisions made in a fit of rage could make you sorry later on. Stay calm, cool and collected.

The ceremony will be held at 8 o'clock p.m. at the Taylor Oaks Recreation Center where a reception will follow with visitors to the Park and friends of both Mrs. Schoepf and Mr. Bennett invited to attend.

W. M. S. MEETS

Women's Missionary Society of First Baptist Church met at the Church on February 5. Mrs. Larry Stewart, president, was in charge of the meeting. She opened with a scripture reading from the 9th Chapter of Matthew.

Prayers were offered for the missionaries whose birthdays appeared on the "Calendar of Prayer," missionaries being in France, Japan, Israel, Equador, Laos and a retired missionary from China.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Eva Lutz and approved. Mrs. Lillie Calvert gave the treasurer's report.

After the president read a letter from the Blind Organization, the Society voted to send an offering each month to them. The Society also set their goal for the Home Mission offering.

Mrs. George West had charge of the lesson, the topic being "Maximum Missions in Metropolitan New York".

Those on the program were Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herman Gayle and Mrs. Charles Yount. A prayer was made for the sick of the church.

There were 12 members and one visitor present. Mrs. Annabel Chinn, the visitor, dismissed with prayer. The members and visitor enjoyed coffee and cookies after the meeting.

PUBLIC NOTICES
"BECAUSE THE PEOPLE MUST KNOW"

(Editor's Note: Public Notice advertising plays a unique role both in American history and in the process by which this country's democracy is preserved. Its one premise is that people must be informed if they are to govern themselves competently. Public Notice advertising first came into being with the Congress of 1792. That body, recognizing its responsibility to the people, required the Postmaster General to advertise for bids for the construction of new post offices. From that inauspicious beginning to the complex publication requirements in federal, state and local laws today, government officials have come more and more to understand their obligations to inform the public through Public Notice advertising. Newspapers over the years have been the vehicle by which these obligations have been fulfilled. They will continue to be as long as the public demands that it be informed frequently and by the best means possible.)

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

A Hearing Commission of the Texas Water Quality Board will hold a public hearing beginning at 10:00 a.m., March 19, 1974, Council Chamber, City Hall, Corpus Christi, Texas in order to consider evidence relative to Waste Load Evaluations for:

Segment No. 2001 -- Mission River Tidal (San Antonio-Nueces Coastal Basin)

Segment No. 2002 - Mission River - above tidal (San Antonio-Nueces Coastal Basin)

Segment No. 2003 - Aransas River Tidal (San Antonio-Nueces Coastal Basin)

Segment No. 2004 - Aransas River - above tidal (San Antonio-Nueces Coastal Basin)

Segment No. 2103 - Lake Corpus Christi (Nueces River Basin)

Segment No. 2104 - Nueces River - Lake Corpus Christi headwater to IH 35 at Cotulla

Segment No. 2105 - Nueces River - IH 35 at Cotulla to headwater

Segment No. 2107 - Atascosa River - Frio River confluence to headwater (Nueces River Basin)

The evaluations have been made pursuant to Title 40, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 130, Sections 130.24, 130.25, and 130.26, and the State of Texas Continuing Planning Process which requires a waste load allocation for those segments classified as water quality limiting. Segments classified as water quality segments are defined as those segments in which the measured instream quality does not meet the Texas Water Quality Standards.

The purpose of the Waste Load Evaluation is to define waste treatment levels that will result in the stream segment meeting applicable stream standards. The general approach followed is: a) describe the stream segment, b) define the water quality problem, c) calculate the segment assimilative capacity, d) define the localized assimilative capacity by mathematical modeling, and e) establish acceptable waste discharges and schedules of implementation.

Some of the segments described herein have been reclassified to effluent limiting and do not require that load allocations be made. However, the reclassifications have not been approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency at this time.

Copies of the evaluations are available upon request. Persons having questions or desiring to make comments in regard to this matter may contact Mr. Jerry Mullican, Administrative Operations Division, Texas Water Quality Board, P.O. Box 13246, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711; telephone (512) 475-3454. This hearing may be continued if necessary.

Issued this 6th day of February, 1974.
s/Hugh C. Yantis, Jr., Executive Director, Texas Water Quality Board. c48

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

Aransas County Municipal Utility District No. 1 (Sewage Treatment Plant), P.O. Box 469, Rockport, Texas 78382, has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for an initial permit for a proposed discharge not to exceed an average flow of 250,000 gallons per day of domestic sewage effluent from the proposed District sewage treatment plant (oxidation ditch) which is to be located approximately 700 feet south of 8th Street and immediately west of Park Road No. 13 (Palmetto Drive) on Lamar Peninsula, Aransas County, Texas. The treated domestic sewage effluent will be discharged into a holding pond and utilized for irrigation on a golf course. There will be no discharge to the surface waters of the State. A public hearing on this application will be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Corpus Christi, Texas at 10:00 a.m. on March 18, 1974 to receive evidence on the conditions, if any, under which the permit may be issued, and to determine whether State Certification in accordance with Section 401 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 may be issued. Preliminary information available to the staff of the Texas Water Quality Board indicates that a waste discharge conforming to the conditions shown in the Fact Sheet would not unreasonably impair the quality of waters in the State.

Additional data will be developed at the hearing, but further technical information concerning any specific aspect of the discharge, if available, can be obtained by writing the Texas Water Quality Board, P. O. Box 13246, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711. c48
