Lodge Urges Cooperation

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States told a Soviet boycotted U.N. committee today that the world can expect great things from earth satellites in the fairly near future if every nation cooperates in exploring space.

"In no field of endeavor is cooperation among nations more appropriate or more necessary," U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said in the organization meeting of the U.N. Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

"The job is far too big for any one nation, no matter how big or how advanced in technology that nation may be. Every nation has a part to play and all peoples stand to gain from the results."

Lodge did not mention the boycott of the 18-member committee by the Soviet Union.

Delegates of four other members also stayed away. These were Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland, which backed a Soviet charge that there are too many Westerners on the committee; and India and the United Arab Republic, which said that to meet now serves no useful purpose. Representatives of all the other 13 were on hand.

Lodge said that, with full international cooperation, earth satellites in the fairly near future could:

1. Scan the whole earth for weather data and make forecasts possibly weeks in advance.

2. Become reflectors and repeating stations for radio messages and perhaps be used for intercontinental TV.

3. Gain geographic details for mapping unexpored lands, and

4. Possibly enable ships, by tracking satellite radio signals, to calculate their positions within less than a mile in any weather.

Scientists, he added, hope to set up an astronomical telescope in outer space to view the stars without atmospheric distortion.

"Finally," he said, "there is the near certainty that man himself will circle the earth in satellites within a few years — and that, sooner or later, he will travel in interplanetary space."

The United States took the lead in pressing for today's meeting, which was to elect officers and set up subcommittees. Military aspects are ruled out of the committee's jurisdiction.

Thursday nations on the committee will present working papers on which the subcommittees can draft special reports before June 15. These will be turned over to the parent committee so it can write a combined report for the General Assembly meeting next fall.

On U.S. initiative, the Assembly set up the committee last Dec. 12 to investigate (1) what the U.N. family is doing about outer space, (2) how the U.N. can foster international cooperation in peaceful uses of outer space, (3) "future organizational arrangements" deemed necessary and (4) legal problems likely to arise.

'LULU' IS BACK HOME AGAIN—Here's a happy ending to the case of the missing chimpanzee. That's Michael Blanchet, 4, watching over Lulu, a big-eared, year-old African chimpanzee, after the pet was returned home. Lulu was taken from Michael's father's Oakland, Calif., pet shop in a burglary last March 29. Police traced the chimp through finger and footprints to a pet shop in Glendale and Michael's father claimed the pet. (AP Wirephoto)

New Mexico Girl Admits Kidnaping

DALLAS (AP)—A nervous, stringy-haired girl admitted kidnaping an 18-month-old boy from his home near Albuquerque, N.M., Monday, then abandoning him this morning in a downtown Dallas drug store.

The girl, Betty Smithey, 16, a reform school inmate employed by the school's former psychologist as a baby sitter, was arrested by two Dallas patrolmen minutes after she fled the drug store.

The baby, Mitchell Johnson, who could be mistaken for a girl because of his long blond hair, appeared healthy and unharmed.

Biting her fingernails nervously, the young abductor said, "I don't know why I did it. I just took it."

The girl said she took the boy from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Monday afternoon. They live in Placitas, a mountain village 20 miles northeast of Albuquerque.

Mrs. Johnson, former psychologist at Girls Welfare Home, had employed Betty after she came to the home as a runaway from the home of her sister, Vickie Wilson, of Chandler, Ariz.

The relieved mother expressed compassion for the confused girl after being told of her arrest.

"It's tragic . . . she's basically honest," she said.

The girl said she had planned an escape from the Johnson home and that she thought if she took the child, it wouldn't cry and give an alarm.

Besides, she said, she liked him.

She said when she walked out, they started hitchhiming.

A truck driver on U.S. 66 gave her $14 after taking her and the baby to Woodward, Okla., Monday night, Betty related.

With this, she fed Mitchell milk and soup.

Meanwhile, FBI Agents had launched a three-state search.

Betty took a bus to Dallas yesterday afternoon, she remembered, and arrived here about midnight and stayed with the baby in a hotel room.

She has been here before and has an aunt living here.

Last summer, the girl climbed on top of a motor company building and threw rocks at passersby. When police arrived, she threatened to jump off, but was dissuaded. It was at this time, police records show, she was listed as a runaway from the Oklahoma State Mental Institution at Norman.

This morning, the girl took the child to a drug store and pleaded with Mrs. Angie Ryan:

"Will you please take my baby?"

Mrs. Ryan said the girl appeared dirty and distraught. She refused to take the child.

Then Betty tried to get other customers to keep the baby, said Mrs. Ryan. Finally, an unidentified man permitted her to put the child in a booth beside him. Another customer ordered bacon and eggs and the child readily ate them.

Betty used the telephone, said Mrs. Ryan, then fled.

She had called her aunt, Mrs. C. H. Goolsby, wife of a Dallas traffic policeman. Mrs. Goolsby notified police.

Minutes later, patrolmen C. R. Groves and C. L. Palmer spotted Betty in Ray's Cafeteria as she ate breakfast.

"What's your name?" They asked.

Betty, she replied.

"Go ahead and finish your breakfast," they told her, but somehow, they said, she lost her appetite.

Man Admits Slaying Of Two Women

BEAUMONT (AP)—Two women were killed by rifle fire at an apartment house here yesterday and police quickly arrested the man who says he fired the fatal shots.

The man, father of a local policeman, was quoted by police as saying he killed the two women because one had him arrested and both laughed at him when he was jailed.

Killed were Mrs. Alpha Bell Hill, 49, a nurse's aide here, and Mrs. Elsie Huistutler, 48, of Vidor, a Beaumont suburb.

Thomas Jefferson Jones, 57, was ordered held without bond on murder charges after a daughter called police and told them, "Daddy . . . says he has killed two women."

Jones was arrested at the home of the daughter, Mrs. J. O. Rexes, about an hour after the shooting in an apartment house here where Mrs. Hill lived.

Two city detectives who arrested Jones said he was sitting in his daughter's kitchen and offered no resistance when they arrived.

Are they dead?" he asked Detective Max Kadish. When Kadish answered affirmatively, he quoted Jones as saying, "Well, I'm glad I killed the two s-o-b's. I intended to."

Reed, Clinton Are Named To C-C Board

Harry Reed, owner of Southern Electric Co. here, and Robert Clinton, director of choral music in the Snyder High School, have been named to fill two vacancies on the Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

Reed and Clinton will fill the posts formerly held by Bill Eiland and Russell Yorgesen, both of whom resigned following their election to the Snyder City Council.

At the same time, the board named Bill Brown to serve as treasurer, a post formerly held by Yorgesen. Brown is local manager for the Texas Electric Service Co.

During the May board meeting, the board heard reports from Max von Roeder, chairman of the agriculture committee; Verba Logan on plans being made by the chamber's recreation committee for a summer program for girls here, and Herman Dook of the tourist development committee.

Dr. John Blum, chamber president, made a report to the board on industrial prospects in behalf of the industrial committee, and also on activities of the chamber education committee.

Steel Talks Focus On Market Perils

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel-labor contract negotiations centered today on a discussion of industry claims by the U.S. Steel Corp. that rising wage levels are pricing American steel out of the market in competition with foreign steel.

Seven other steel companies began formal contract talks with the United Steelworkers Union. One more bargaining session starts Thursday to make an even dozen sets of negotiations—all in the Roosevelt Hotel.

Present contracts expire June 30 when an industrywide strike could occur, although both union and management negotiators pledged an allout drive to reach a peace pact before then.

In a key bargaining session between the union and U.S. Steel, the subject was foreign competition.

This has been minimized by the union, but the industry said:

"Aided by favorable investment conditions abroad, modernized and expanded steel plants and a wide advantage in wage costs, foreign steel producers have recently demonstrated their new ability to compete with American producers — not only for world markets but also for the U.S. market."

The industry said the "only important effective solution is less disparity between the labor costs of steel production in the United States and abroad."

The union's response is that present inroads of foreign steel is only temporary and sharply rising productivity of the American industry will keep it favorably competitive.

The dozen negotiating sessions are expected to boil down to industrywide talks represented by four-man teams from the union and industry.

William G. Caples, vice president of Inland Steel, which has its main producing facilities in the Chicago area, proposed a one year freeze on present wages averaging $3 an hour.

Caples said the general good of all concerned would be served best if the status quo was maintained for a year." But similar proposals by other steel companies have been rejected by steelworkers President David J. McDonald.

Caples said in a statement U.S. steelworkers are "envied by workers all over the world, including those of other industries of the United States." He said they enjoy high wages and security.

The union's economic statement, however, said industry claims of steelworkers' earnings are exaggerated on the basis of government and independent studies of minimum living standards needs.

Demos Watch Johnson Move

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The belief is growing among Democrats that Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas is quietly making himself available for the 1960 party presidential nomination.

Party members who have rallied around former President Truman on his current visit to Washington have been talking in terms of four principal candidates—Sens. Johnson, John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) and Adlai E. Stevenson, twice the presidential nominee.

Truman, whose influence on the outcome of the nomination game may not be great, has kept the situation cloudy so far as he is concerned.

He has suggested that as the likely favorite son of Missouri, Symington will be his initial candidate. But the former President has indicated he would be prepared to ride another horse if he felt he was picking a winner.

Truman's position is not clear to Symington. The Missouri senator has told friends he learned long ago not to try to gauge another man's thinking. For that reason, he is sitting tight, awaiting developments.

By every criterion, Kennedy is running hard. Stevenson apparently is not running at all but remains the sentimental favorite of many Democrats. Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) is interested but seems to be having some difficulty getting under way—at least among the Democratic leaders in Washington.

For a man who says he isn't a candidate, Johnson is making a lot of moves that politicians find familiar. He is looked upon as a middle-of-the-road Democrat who might have an appeal for all party factions—especially if he succeeds in getting the Senate to pass a moderate civil rights bill.

Both houses of the Texas Legislature Tuesday passed a bill to change that state's primary elections to May and June instead of July and August. If signed by Gov. Price Daniel, it would permit Johnson to seek Senate renomination before the Democratic national convention in July next year.

The Legislature completed action April 28 on a bill which would let Johnson's name appear twice on the state's ballot for Senate and for president or vice president.

Johnson turned out for a luncheon honoring Truman Tuesday and praised the former President warmly.

After a quick check on the Senate to see that everything was in order, Johnson took off for Harrisburg, Pa. to speak at a Democratic victory dinner.

Possibly to offset the contention that he isn't partisan enough often enough, Johnson aimed some haymakers at the Republicans.

He said the time had come to end divided government, with one party in control of Congress and the other occupying the White House.

Johnson also expounded his favorite theme—that the Democrats must be the party of "responsibility."

He spelled out this middle-of-the-road creed: "Democrats must be candid and courageous. As we must have the courage to be liberal when public well-being requires it, so we must have the candor and integrity to be conservative when responsibility demands it."

Tentative By-Laws Adopted For Livestock Auction Firm

A Scurry County group working toward establishing a livestock commission auction concern here adopted tentative by-laws last night and then received $23,600 in stock commitments from 17 individuals.

Those who pledged to purchase stock in the corporation which the group hopes to charter turned money covering their pledges over to Ralph Miller, acting president of the group.

The group is working toward obtaining a state charter to be capitalized in the amount of $125,000.

The limited corporation would construct and operate a livestock commission auction facility here.

Those who made stock purchase commitments last night included Weldon Johnson, R. C. Lunsford, Max Von Roeder, Ralph Miller, Paul N. Gray, Marvin Key, Aubrey Headstream, H. H. Cary, G. A. Dismor, Sam Houston, A. A. Heath, Dan Gibson, John W. Jordan, Jess Everett, Nolan Von Roeder, Jesse Koonsman and J. N. Eicke.

The group has scheduled a county-wide meeting for next Tuesday night in the district courtroom of the county courthouse here. All farmers, businessmen, ranchers and others interested in the economy of the Scurry County area are being invited to attend the county-wide session.

The tentative by-laws adopted last night follow:

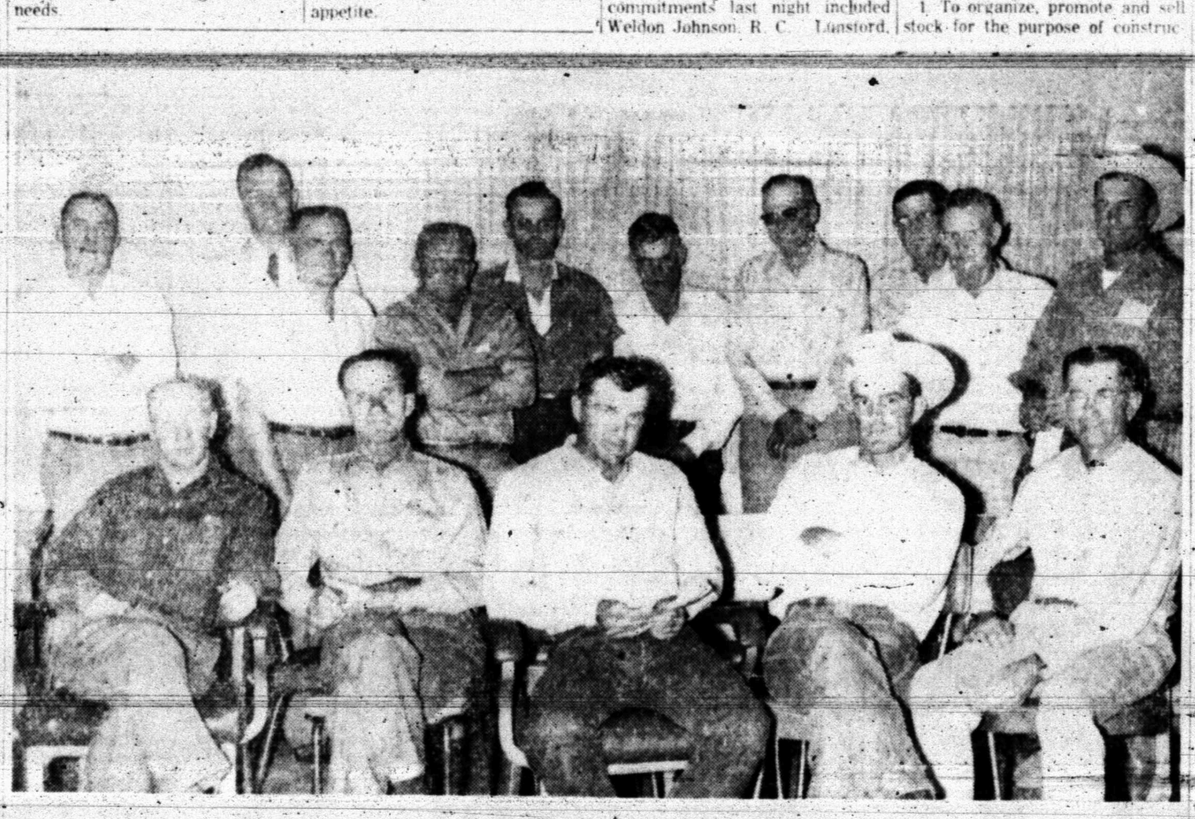

1. To organize, promote and sell stock for the purpose of construction of Auction and commission Corp. Ltd. To establish a local market for livestock. A. To be conducted on sound business principles. To share equally in profits on the basis of monies invested.

2. To apply to the State for Charter, said Charter being capitalized for $125,000.00. A. Setting par value of stock at $100.00 per voting share. B. Said Charter will set forth a limited Corp., liable for its Assets and Liabilities — and the owner of said stock will in no way be liable further than the stock that is in the Corp.

3. To place any and all monies in escrow dividing such monies equally as possible between the two banking institutions at Snyder, Texas. A. All monies will remain in escrow until Board of Directors of Corp. is formed. B. Tentative Board of Directors will have authority to refund such monies to said owners should charter fail to be completed.

4. To call First Stockholders Meeting. A. To supervise the Election of Five Board of Directors a. Who in turn will elect President, Vice President, and Secretary-Treasurer. B. To present all monies and records to duly elected board.

5. At this such time the work and by-laws of the tentative board of directors all terminate.

Max von Roeder, chairman of the committee, said tickets will go on sale at the chamber officer here tomorrow. The tickets will sell for $3 each and each ticket pays for the meal of one farmer and one businessman.

Row Flares Anew At Aldine School

HOUSTON (AP)—The president of the embattled Aldine School Board said today he has decided not to file charges against a minority board member.

The minority member said however, he will file a slander and libel suit against the president and has hired a former FBI agent to help prepare his case.

Richard Cass, the board president, said last night that Robert L. Whitmarsh had threatened to kill him a the two conferred shortly before the scheduled opening of a board meeting.

Cass conferred a half hour today with Asst. Dist. Atty. W. C. Moore.

"I have no intention of filing any charges against Robert Whitmarsh," he later told reporters. "I feel we have enough troubles out at Aldine."

Whitmarsh conferred with his attorney and then announced his plans to file suit against Cass. He would not identify the former FBI agent he said he had retained.

The Aldine schools have been closed since Thursday afternoon when teachers voted not to work until sufficient funds are found to operate the 11 schools through August 31, the end of the fiscal year.

Last night's reorganization meeting of the board was delayed over two hours as Cass sought to file charges against Whitmarsh.

At the time the meeting was called to order at 9:50 p.m. there were some 600 persons present. Another 100 to 150 had gone home.

Cass quoted Whitmarsh as saying that if the crowd started anything he would kill Cass before he left the meeting. Cass announced over the school address system to the 600 persons that Whitmarsh had threatened to kill him.

Whitmarsh and two other minority members left the meeting after waiting until 8:35 p.m. Whitmarsh told the Houston Post at 11:15 p.m. that he denied making any threat to Cass.

School Musicians To Corpus Christi

About 62 members of the Snyder High School A Capella Choir and about 85 members of the band will leave at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning to attend the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi.

Last year Snyder won the sweepstake award for Class AAA schools in the festival.

Approximately 8,500 students from three states are to compete in the third annual festival Thursday and Saturday.

Thirteen nationally known musicians will judge band, choral ensemble and solo events. Robert Clinton, director of choral music for Snyder schools, said.

The events will be held in buildings on the Del Mar College campus and Snyder students attending will stay in three motels in Corpus Christi during the event. They will return to Snyder Sunday.

Awards which include five sweepstakes trophies and 30 first-place trophies will be presented in Saturday night ceremonies.

Students of the band and choral departments earned all money for this trip through magazine sales and presentations of the Musical Revue.

Megan Montgomery directs the band, assisted by Bill Green and Tim Dennis.

Bob Hope Warned To Take It Easy

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Hope has been warned again by his physician to slow down.

The comedian was hospitalized recently by a blood clot in one eye—but it has not been active recently. Hope has complained of becoming tired easily, however.

Acting on his doctors' advice, Hope canceled a trip to San Francisco Tuesday and another to New York City May 13 in connection with his movie, "Alias Jesse James."

Recording By School Choirs Due

A recording of several numbers presented by Snyder school choirs in the Christmas Carol program and in the Spring Musical Revue is to be available.

Robert Clinton, director of choral music for the school system, said the record will cost $3.50 and that orders should be placed by sending checks to the School Choir, Snyder High School, Snyder.

Orders for the record must be placed as soon as possible to permit manufacture of the records by the end of school or the first week in June, Clinton said.

Tape recordings of the numbers, mostly made during the programs, have been sent to the recorder and will be made into a 33 rpm long playing record.

Some of the numbers feature the A Capella Choir, directed by Clinton; others feature the sixth grade choir of Miss Pat Yarbrough at East Elementary School and some the Junior High School Girls' Choir and Mixed Choir.

Clinton urges anyone who wants one of the recordings to send their checks to the choir as soon as possible. Reorders are not possible because of high cost of recording the records, he said.

The plane vanished in a snowstorm Feb. 21 on a return flight from Berlin to Lebanon.

Aboard were Drs. Ralph E. Miller, 60, and Robert Quinn, 32, members of the Dartmouth College medical school faculty and staff physicians at Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital in Hanover.

Weather In State Calms After Rains

By The Associated Press

Only patchy fog in Central Texas and partly cloudy skies over South Texas marred Texas skies Wednesday after days of rain, wind and turbulent weather.

Forecasts, however, called for scattered showers and a few thunderstorms in East Texas and widely scattered thundershowers over the coast in South Central Texas.

Otherwise, for Wednesday, partly cloudy skies were expected.

An 8 o'clock Tuesday forecast issued Wednesday morning called for locally heavy precipitation in scattered thundershowers near the end of the week.

Temperatures slightly below normal in East and Central Texas and 2 to 8 degrees below normal in West Texas were expected during the five days through May 11.

A tornado funnel spun harmlessly across East of the Texas Panhandle Tuesday and thunderstorm threats in North Central Texas eased Tuesday night. An alert against wind and hail expired with no reported damage.

Heavy rain was blamed for a collision that killed Jimmy Dunn of Waco and injured four other persons. The accident occurred 6 miles north of Whitesboro during a rainstorm.

Rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Tuesday included: Big Spring 1.00; Midland .96; Childress .80; San Angelo .78; Abilene .44; Wichita Falls .42; Sherman .20; Mineral Wells .13; San Antonio .02; Lubbock .08; Dallas and Waco .06; and Austin .02.

Assault Case To Grand Jury

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The Leon County grand jury goes into special session today to consider indicting four white men charged with raping a Negro girl.

Meanwhile a committee of the Florida Legislature killed a bill which would have abolished the death penalty for capital crimes including rape.

Students at Florida A. and M. University, the school attended by the 19-year-old victim, held a mass meeting Tuesday night and applauded announcement of the committee's action. They have contributed $500 towards a fund for their classmate.

The rape case had been scheduled to go before a new grand jury convening June 1 but the December jury was called back because of the great public interest, State Attorney Williams Hadlow said.

CHEVY'S THE HOTTEST ONE AGAIN!

HOTTEST LOOKING, HOTTEST SAVING,

A V8-powered Impala Convertible . . . unmistakably '59!

HOTTEST SELLING OF THE LEADING LOW-PRICED 3

What we mean—this new Chevy's gone and whipped up a one-car heat wave. Its fresh, flashing style (nothing warmed over here!) caught on right away, of course. And on no other American car will you find a V8 that actually puts out better than one horsepower for every cubic inch of displacement.

As for getting the most out of a gallon, a pair of Chevy 6's came in one-two in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run—ahead of every other full-size car. And the winning average over the Los Angeles to Kansas City route was a hot 22.38 m.p.g.

But, impressive as these records are, they can only hint at why Chevrolet's '59's hottest selling car. To really find out, just drop down to your dealer's and drive one.

CHEVROLET

No wonder more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car!

OUR VIEW

The Shah Is Wasting Time

The Shah of Iran is doing a lot of traveling these days—and one of his journeys takes him to Europe for Europe.

The Shah isn't looking for just any type of wife. He needs one that will suit the bill from the viewpoint of royalty and who can in due time produce an heir to his post, if that's what you call it.

From the news dispatches concerning his travels we gather that the hunting is not a simple task for the Shah. Moreover, he appears to be overlooking few, if any possibilities.

A few days ago it was reported that he was feasting his eyes on Italy's Princess Maria. Then, more recently, two more princesses came under his scrutiny, to be specific the Princess Margaret of Britain and her cousin, Princess Alexandra. Those who witnessed his service in London reported that the Shah's eyes kept returning to Margaret however.

The Shah, of course, faces some religious obstacles in his search for a wife because his heir, if one appears, must be reared a Moslem. Things have a way of working out, however, when a suitable match becomes apparent in such cases.

However, we suggest that the Shah may be wasting his time in Europe, and that is no reflection on the princesses whose names have been linked with his. America might well be a better hunting ground.

The ruler of Monaco set out on a similar mission a few years ago, and he did rather well at it in the Western Hemisphere. In fact, his objective has been realized twice over, and his kingdom is still going strong.

Vote For English Sense Of Humor

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—As if our world weren't already topsy-turvy enough, now along comes a Frenchman who says the English have a very good sense of humor—said Robert Dhery, star of Broadway revue "La Plume de Ma Tante."

They have gags. It's funny because they seem so straitlaced and serious.

They have a gag running where the hero refuses to be shorter—than wife. They have a gag where a man is trying to have a baby. The baby comes out of the mother's ear instead of the usual place.

The Americans laugh slower and longer.

Dhery, all 5 feet 6 and a dilly, sees a difference between French and American audiences.

"I like it here because the audience comes to the theater ready to laugh and enjoy itself," he said. "In Paris they have to go in and wheedle and cajole them into laughing. There is a difference."

Dhery, the slender mobile-faced son of a Chatillon miller, has been in some 20 films. He is also one of the busiest revue directors in Paris.

"Few revues in Paris last as long as six months," he said. "And people there book their tickets only a few days ahead at most.

"Here a man and his wife may buy their tickets as much as four months ahead. Then on the night of the show their seats are empty. When I see this it makes me mad. I can only suppose they have died in the meantime."

One American theatrical custom which both Dhery and Collette find an utter abomination is the matinee.

Collette has 17 costume changes. On matinee days she has to change her clothes 34 times. If she did nothing but this she would be tired, he said.

Asked what impressed them most about America, Collette said the spooky city streets, and Dhery said Sunday newspapers. "They are so heavy. We have nothing so thick in England or France," he said.

The Dherys have found Manhattan a cultural wonderland.

"I cannot understand your buffet parties," said Dhery. "They are so crowded there is no place to sit down.

"I went to one buffet party where there 200 or 300 guests. I climbed into a bathroom, and there was a young lady enjoying the only place she could find to sit down."

Indians Bar Holdridge

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — A retired Army general has been formally barred from the Navajo reservation by the Navajo Tribal Council Advisory Committee.

Brig. Gen. Herbert Holdridge Ret.) and Craig Carpenter, a non-Navajo who was with Holdridge when he was arrested last Saturday, were barred by the Council under the terms of an 1868 treaty. The treaty, which is between the United States and the Navajos, allows the tribe to remove "undesirables" from the reservation.

Holdridge attempted a citizens arrest of Navajo Tribal Council Chairman Paul Jones on April 21.

He was arrested by Navajo police Saturday on a warrant charging simple assault on Jones.

Disarmament Talk Confuses Public

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—You're a rare one if you are not befuddled by all the American and Soviet talk—going on for years—about disarmament, suspending nuclear tests, and abolishing nuclear weapons.

The result of all the talk so far is zero. There will be more. But here in ABC form, is an interpretation of what this government wants, doesn't want, and why.

It is based on answers given by the State Department to a series of questions from the Senate Disarmament Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota Democrat.

Arms control, or disarmament, can be undertaken only to the degree that it can be enforced. This means some kind of inspection system to prevent cheating by either side.

But American scientists have not been able to develop any techniques that would make it possible to enforce an agreement outlawing nuclear weapons.

So it follows that even if there were an agreement on banning nuclear tests, it would not mean that nuclear weapons already in the hands of the United States and the U.S.S.R. would be destroyed.

Therefore, the possibility of nuclear war, even though the big powers agree not to do any more testing, will hang over the world's head a long, long time.

It would be to the disadvantage of this country to have an agreement banning the use of nuclear weapons in war—even if both sides lived up to an agreement not to use them. Why?

Because—since the Soviet Red Chinese and satellite ground forces so hugely outnumber the Western ground forces—America's possession of nuclear weapons helps it offset the manpower advantage of the Communists. How?

Because, so long as this country has nuclear weapons that can be used in swift retaliation, the Communists stand a war the chances will be discouraged from starting one.

Therefore, the State Department says, this country has always insisted that disarmament be carried out in a balanced way so the Soviets would not be left with a military advantage.

In short, the United States refuses to go along with outlawing nuclear weapons alone. It wants balanced arms limitation, fool proof inspection and controls.

Arms limitation would include conventional weapons, because this country insists on balanced disarmament.

The State Department says: "We have insisted that each step in one field of military strength must be complemented with a similar step in other fields, and that all must be verified by international inspection."

But since the department says there is no way of knowing that the Soviet Union had destroyed its stocks of nuclear weapons—if it agreed to destroy them—it is easy to see how far off as any agreement on destroying nuclear weapons.

And since this country links all the steps in disarmament together, any disarmament looks a long way off, too.

As more nations—besides the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union—develop the ability to make nuclear weapons, it will be increasingly difficult to have a safeguarded disarmament agreement covering all types of nuclear weapons.

For instance, the department says that if Red China reached the point of being able to make nuclear weapons, no disarmament agreement based on Red Chinese commitments alone could be relied on to curb Peiping production of the weapons.

Plant Sites Are A Major Problem

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

BONN (AP) — Americans shopping for a plant site in the European Common Market will find the six nations differ widely in many respects—taxes, labor costs, material costs, restrictions in importation of raw materials, and in the consumer market they offer.

The six also have many squabbles among themselves yet to be solved.

Americans should take into account all the factors," says West German Finance Minister Franz Etzel. "Low wages alone do not justify a factory site."

He refers to the often heard charge that Germany is a high wage country compared say with Italy. Other members of the Common Market are France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

"There are wage differentials in Germany, too," Etzel notes. "Bavaria has a lower scale than does the Ruhr."

Germany has higher direct taxes than some of the others, but lower indirect taxes—the partially hidden taxes that add to the cost of living in the long run but not necessarily to the initial production of goods.

This has been giving German steel producers a headache.

"French steel is a problem. Etzel admits, since it can be sold here cheaper than German steel can be produced. The reasons are many. French steel mills may be more modern. Devaluation of the franc gave them an advantage.

But tax differences are the chief stumbling block. German direct taxes are high and French low. The French try to balance their federal budget by high indirect taxes, while ours are low.

Because of the low direct tax on steel production in France compared with the high one here, the European Coal and Steel Community has put a 6 per cent tax on French steel exported here, or some 30 to 40 marks per ton. We think the tax should be 10 per cent.

But this is another of the Common Market's growing pains that will be eased in time.

Still another problem is the differing currencies of the six. Common money is the ultimate goal.

But this is a final objective, Etzel says, "and shouldn't come first. Germany didn't have it either when the Reich was formed in 1870. It came in time."

In the Common Market, the first step has been making the currencies freely convertible among the six nations. German marks are also freely convertible with the currency of all nations.

Couple Tells How Tots Were Slain

SAN DIEGO, Calif., (AP)—A mother and her unemployed boy friend calmly told officers Tuesday how they planned and carried out the murder of her two young sons.

The couple, who had been in San Diego only two weeks, were quoted by sheriff's deputies as saying they killed the boys last Saturday because they were bad, and left their bodies in the mountains east of here.

Kenneth Archie Merriam, 36, an unemployed painter, told officers and reporters he strangled the boys, at the suggestion of their mother, Wanda Brogdon, 33.

She talked me into it," Merriam said. "It's a shame." He had been asked to explain why he strangled David Wayne Brogdon, 4, and Virgil Brogdon Jr., 5.

Merriam put his own hands to his head and neck in demonstrating how he choked the boys.

Dist. Atty. Don Keller said Merriam and Mrs. Brogdon would be arraigned on two counts of murder.

They are accused of taking the boys—along with a 19-month-old sister, Cynthia, who was not harmed—into the Laguna Mountains about 50 miles east of here where Merriam confessed he took first the older boy and then the younger boy from the car and strangled them.

Sheriff's Lt. Tom Isbell said the mother told the boys "that they wouldn't need their shoes because they wouldn't be coming back."

The couple, after a round of bars early Tuesday, returned to the murder scene, put the bodies in their car, and drove to the home of Merriam's sister, Margaret Schmitter, in suburban Spring Valley.

When Mrs. Schmitter learned what had happened she telephoned the sheriff's office, saying "There are two dead kids in the car and they're going to get me."

Mrs. Schmitter said later she served Merriam and Mrs. Brogdon coffee to keep them from leaving before deputies arrived.

Merriam, Mrs. Brogdon and the three children came here from Rockford, Ill., where Merriam said they met when both lived in the same apartment.

In Rockford, Virgil Brogdon, 42, father of the boys, said he and his wife had been separated a year. He filed suit for divorce, charging his wife with desertion, April 16.

Award Goes To Teacher

LUBBOCK, (AP) — Mrs. Mary Lynn Boatright, of Mathis, Texas Teacher of the Year, was awarded a symbolic "Learn—and Live" key today at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention.

During a panel discussion yesterday, Dr. Morris Wallace of Texas Tech predicted that the enrollment of colleges and universities will increase and that the quality of education "will bear the imprint of our society."

Dr. A. C. Murphy of the University of Texas cautioned, "It is not the size of the school that determines the quality of secondary schools. We need more learning instead of teaching."

Wesley S. Izzard, publisher and editor of the Amarillo Daily News, discussed federal aid to education. He suggested that money applied heavier its source would be more effective in its accomplishments.

"Federal aid to education is a form of socialism," he said, "and is not the best way out."

L. D. (Red) Webster of Dallas, a vice president of Lone Star Steel Co., in speaking of his tour of Russia last year, told the club women that 90 per cent of Russia's women do manual labor. They mix cement and drive trucks, Webster said.

Add flare to fish. Chopped parsley or pimento added to melted butter is delicious served with broiled fish fillets.

—Junior Editors Quiz on FOOD

QUESTION: What makes the holes in Swiss cheese?

* * *

ANSWER: All cheese is made from milk. But since the milk of many different animals is processed in many different ways, there are many kinds of cheese with a wide variety of flavors. Swiss cheese is made from cow's milk and has a somewhat sweetish flavor. There are holes about one to three inches apart throughout the cheese. These holes are called eyes and when a Swiss cheese doesn't have them, it is called a blind cheese. After the cheese is made and put into molds it must be cured. A fine Swiss cheese might be cured for eight to 10 months. During the curing process, gas is formed inside the cheese and the gas bubbles make small holes. As the curing goes on, more and more gas is formed and the holes get bigger.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: If you live in Wisconsin, New York, Indiana, Illinois, Oregon, Minnesota, Michigan or California, there might be a cheese factory nearby that you can visit. If not, examine the cheeses at the dairy counter of your grocery to see how many kinds there are and the countries or places they come from.

Singer Satisfied With Her Salary

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Are you satisfied with this salary," the judge asked.

"Well, I think it's pretty good," replied actress-singer Connie Stevens. "I'm only 20."

The judge then approved a seven year, $1,750,000 contract which starts the pretty blonde at $500 a week and will pay her $1,250 weekly in seven years if all options are exercised.

Emmy Awards Set Tonight

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — Television's big annual show—the Emmy awards—beams tonight. Most eyes here are expected to be on Fred Astaire and an unnamed guy with a stopwatch.

The ageless Astaire is the favorite of the Vine Street bettors to become Emyy's man of the year. His single program, which took months of rehearsal time to get that relaxed look, has nominations in three major categories.

Most of the so-called experts figure that Astaire will be called to the podium three times—for best single program, best special musical or variety program and best single performance by an actor.

The fellow with the stopwatch comes into his own tonight. The Television Academy doesn't want any repeat of what happened to the annual Oscar show on April 6 when 100 stars were left on stage with nothing to do—and 21 minutes of TV time to fill.

It's more likely that there won't be time enough tonight as the 90-minute show is faced with how to get rid of winners in 42 categories among 197 nominees. Some technical awards will be handed out before showtime.

The golden statuettes will be awarded by the biggest names in television — Bob Hope, Dinah Shore, Jack Benny, Ed Sullivan, Shirley Temple and others. But there will be no master of ceremonies.

No official reason was given for this ommission, but it's remembered that last year Danny Thomas took too long to tell one of his famous jokes, and Milton Berle turned his turn into an audition—one that stole the show and got him back on television after a two-year layoff.

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon will pesent the award for the best news and public service program. He will be cut in from Washington. Most of the show will originate at the Moulin Rouge here, with cut-ins to New York for the winners there.

Gracie Allen has the chance to become the first winner while retired from show business. She is nominated for best actress in a comedy series—for her work before she quit.

Another interesting race has three Western stars shooting it out with three private eyes for the best dramatic series actor. They are James (Gunsmoke) Arness, Richard (Have Gun, Will Travel) Boone and James (Maverick) Garner versus Raymond (Perry Mason) Burr, Craig (Peter Gunn) Stevens and Efrem (77 Sunset Strip) Zimbalist, Jr.

Airtime is 10 p.m. EDT.

Tors Win 5-3 To Keep Hopes Alive

By BUCK FRANCIS

LAMESA, May 6 — A listless Snyder Tiger baseball team blew a 3-0 lead here Tuesday as the Lamesa Tornadoes battled back for a 5-3 decision to get back in the running for the District 3-A title.

Lamesa can now tie the Tigers for the top by beating Colorado City in a makeup game at Colorado City next Monday. If the Tors proceed to beat the Wolves of which they will be heavily favored to do so, a special playoff would then be held between the Tigers and Tornadoes for the right to advance into the state playoffs.

The Tigers literally handed the Tornadoes the victory in Tuesday's game. The Bengals came up with six errors that led to all five Lamesa runs.

Lefthander Tim Roberts pitched his usual fine game for the Tigers, allowing no earned runs on five hits but loose defensive play led to his downfall. Roberts struck out four and walked two.

The Tigers scored the only earned run of the day in the third inning when Spencer Dyer led with a walk, moved to second on Steve Free's sacrifice and then scored on a single to left by Jerry Fleming.

Fleming was the only Tiger solving Ken Barr's offerings with any consistency. Fleming spanked a single to center with two away in the first and ultimately scored on a stolen base and a Tornado error.

Then in the third Fleming grounded a sharp single to left that scored Dyer and in his final trip in the fifth Fleming drove center-fielder Ronnie Reeves back near the wall before hauling in his long fly.

Fleming's first inning run gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead and the Bengals moved ahead 3-0 with a brace of tallies in the third. After Fleming drove in Dyer with run No.2 in the third, he took second on the throw-in and scored on a pop single by Kenny Drake and an error. Drake's hit dropped between third baseman Kenneth Cox and shortstop Frank Doshier.

Fleming, who had held up on the play, broke for third and scored when Doshier overthrew third. K. Drake took third on the error but was later thrown out at the plate on Johnny Drake's grounder.

The Tigers didn't offer a serious scoring threat after the third.

Free led with a single in the fifth and Roberts started the seventh with a one-baser but neither runner made it to second. Free was forced at second on Kenny Drake's grounder and Roberts was wiped out on a double play on a grounder by Dyer.

Lamesa, after spotting the Tigers a 3-0 lead, tied the score at 3-3 in the third and then scored their winning runs in the fourth.

Two Tornado batsmen in the third got on errors by second baseman Drake. Both were routine ground balls but Drake couldn't find the handle on either one.

Doshier then flew out to right for what should have been three outs but the Tornadoes took advantage of the new life given them to score three runs and tie up the game. Barr singled to drive in Cox and after Johnny Moffatt flew out to right, Nat Self singled to score Corley and Barr with the tieing runs.

Three more errors enabled the Tornadoes to score the winning runs in the fourth. Everheart led with a walk and raced to third when Roberts attempted pickoff throw sailed by Mike Moffett at first.

The Tornadoes proceeded to load bases when Reeves walked and Cox got aboard by another error by Roberts. The Tigers would have still gotten by without a run scored except for their third error of the inning.

Corley forced Everheart at the plate and Doshier followed with a grounder to Fleming at short but Fleming's throw to the plate was over catcher Ronnie Wylie's head allowing Reeves and Cox to score.

That ended the scoring for the afternoon.

Lamesa threatened in the fifth when Self singled, moved to second on a sacrifice and was then thrown out at the plate on a perfect throw from centerfielder J. Drake on Everheart's single.

The defeat of the Tigers with a 3-1 district record and 12-11 for the season. Lamesa is now 2-1 in district play and 4-8 for the season.

Next on tap for the Tigers will be a doubleheader against Big Spring here Saturday.

Woman Flier Due To Leave Panama

By LUIS SOLT

PANAMA (AP) — A Texas woman flier grounded for 10 days in Panama after landing during the invasion crisis planned to take off today for Colombia and Venezuela.

Mrs. Marian Burke of San Antonio, flying with her 15-year-old son Johnny, described her delay as "uncomfortable but understandable."

Mrs. Burke stopped at David in Panama's Chiriqui province April 26 on her way to Maracay, Venezuela, to deliver the single engine plane she was flying.

A small force of Cubans had just landed on Panama's Caribbean coast, trying to launch a revolution against President Ernesto de la Guardia. Officials had a major case of invasion jitters and grounded Mrs. Burke's plane. She said they also advised her that the plane might be commandeered by the government.

Mrs. Burke said she was not placed under arrest but told she would have to turn over the keys to the plane if she wanted to leave the city. Rather than do this she stayed in the Hotel Nacional for a week until the invaders surrendered and the crisis calmed down.

She was able to contact Panama's director of civil aeronautics, Juan Vas, last weekend. After meeting his stiff demands to clear her plane, she flew to Panama City on Sunday. Weather permitting, she hopes to make Venezuela in one hop with only a short refueling stop at Barranquilla, Colombia. The plane is being delivered to Ed Cloud, a part-time resident of San Antonio who now lives with his family in Venezuela.

There's A Difference In Shorts, Says Judge

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — The man who stripped down to his shorts Monday in a do-it-yourself laundry found out Tuesday why he shouldn't.

"What's the difference?" he asked. "These women come in here in shorts to do their laundry. Why can't I?"

"It's a diference of the shorts," Acting Police Court Judge Conrad G. Matz told him. Then he fined the man, James Hamlery, 59, of Cincinnati, $10 and cost and told him to get out of Newport.

Judge Matz said the difference was that the shorts worn by Hamlery were just plain underwear—neither decorative nor decorous.

Hal McIntyre Dies Of Burn Injuries

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bandleader Hal McIntyre, 44, died Tuesday of burns suffered in a Hollywood apartment fire.

He was found Sunday huddled under a blanket on the kitchen floor of his vocalist's apartment. Firemen said he apparently fell asleep while smoking.

He started leading a band at 16 and played saxophone and clarinet with the Glenn Miller Orchestra.

A native of Kentucky, he is survived by his estranged wife and their two children, living in Cromwell, Conn.

Mayor Nearing His 12th Or 13th Term

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP) — Barring an unexpected write-in campaign, Harry Cissold, 66, will be elected to his 12th or 13th term as mayor next Tuesday.

"It's been so long I can't remember," Cissold said when asked the date of his first election. It was 1935 or 1937.

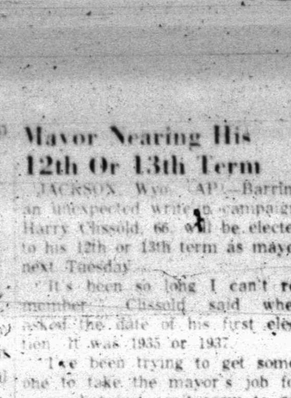

"I've been trying to get someone to take the mayor's job for years, but just can't seem to get rid of it," he remarked.

Elvis To Start TV Spectacular Series

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Elvis Presley will start a once-a-year series of television spectaculars for ABC next spring, when the rock 'n roll singer gets out of the Army.

Presley's manager, Col. Tom Parker, announced signing of the agreement Tuesday. Terms and length of the contract were not disclosed.
