TRAGIC FATE OF STARVING IS VISUALIZED

Miniature Cemetery in Local Store Window Pictures Future for Europe's Hungry Kiddies.

Exhibit Arranged as Appeal to Wichitans for Contributions for Their Relief.

The tragic and desperate condition of the little children of war devastated Europe, who are facing a cruel and lingering death from starvation unless given a tithe of the plenty enjoyed in America and other lands, is visualized for Wichitans in the shape of a miniature cemetery, emblematic of the fate which awaits them unless their need is relievd, which has been arranged in the P. B. M. windows by Jack Culbertson, chairman of the local committee for their relief.

In this little window hundreds of little white wooden crosses stand out in relief against the green background of the cemetery, each cross representing the fate in store for one of the little children who have been assigned to Wichita county, unless some Wichitan comes to its relief with the $10 necessary to provide it with sufficient gruel and black bread to keep it alive until the next harvest time.

Twenty-five hundred of these innocents have been assigned to this county, Mr. Culbertson states. But there are not 2,500 crosses in the field—for there are miniature American flags in place of some of the crosses—each flag representing the gift of a Wichitan which has enabled one child's life to be saved.

Four Sections Cleared.

Four of the 25 principle sections of the field have been entirely cleared of crosses and a baby doll holding an American flag represents the hundreds of lives which have been saved in each. Individual flags in other fields represent the additional ten.

As each contribution comes in, and another child is saved from the prospect of starvation, a cross is taken down and a flag substituted.

In the center of the cemetery stands a baby's casket, covered with a wreath of flowers, with a sorrowing angel bending over it with outstretched hands in benediction.

Culbertson Expects Relief.

"I do not believe that the men and women of Wichita Falls will go on and spend as much money as they do for pleasure, and for things which are not necessary, with this mute reminder of the need of these little children, which they have done nothing to meet, constantly before them," Mr. Culbertson said.

Arrangements have been made with P. B. M.'s whereby the public may leave contributions in the store if they desire. Or checks, made payable to Edwin Hobby, state treasurer, may be mailed to Mr. Culbertson at the Wichita Motors company.

In terms of money, the 410 crosses which are absent from the cemetery represent $4,100. The 2,500 children which were assigned to this county represent a total figue of $25,000, or 33 1-3 cents per capita. Wichita county's contribution to date of $4,100 is being contrasted, Mr. Culbertson said, with the more than $80,000 which has been raised in Houston, less than four times as large.

The material at the cemetery was constructed at the Motor plant and at the Ball Brothers glass factory. The committee acknowledges its indebtedness is arranging the display to E. R. Huey, display man at P. B. M.'s, to Markle & Lunn, to the Deatheridge Marble Works, and to the North Texas Notion company.

Census Records Destroyed When Building Burns

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Valuable records dating back to 1790, when the first enumeration of the United States was taken, were destroyed tonight in a fire of undetermined origin at the department of commerce. The records included figures from every census up to the present one, and officials said that it would be days before even an estimate of the damage could be given.

The blaze originated in the basement of the commerce building, and five alarms quickly brought every piece of apparatus in downtown Washington to the scene.

The Weather

West Texas: Tuesday, rain in south, rain or snew in north portion, except snow in the panhandle. colder in north and west portions; Wednesday probably fair, colder in southeast portion, continued cold in north and west portions.

Oklahoma: Tuesday probably rain or snow; colder. Wednesday probably unsettled, weather continued cold.

Pretty Bride in Brilliant Wedding

MRS. BENJAMIN KING.

One of the most brilliant weddings ever held in Washington was that of Miss Marjorie Brown, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Edward T. Brown of Atlanta, New York and Washington, to Benjamin King of New York, which took place at the home of the bride's parents in Washington recently. Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's daughter, was maid of honor for her cousin. The bride was given away by her father, who was a first cousin of the first Mrs. Wilson The ceremony was attended by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president; Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones and many friends of both families from all parts of the country.

COUNCIL STANDS PAT FOR PAVING NOW DESPITE PLEAS FOR DELAY

The unanimous decision of the city council not to retract in its program of paving the fifteen blocks for which contract was let recently, featured its meeting Monday night. The decision was made after a two-hour hearing with property owners concerned in the improvement, several of whom voiced strong objection to the paving at this time. Mayor Cline and all members of the council were present.

Following the hearing and during its regular session the council voted to accept the proposition of a representative of the quartermaster corps of the United States army for the distribution of canned meats in this city. The council made an initial order of three cars of the canned meat with the privilege of ordering three additional cars later if they see fit.

Dr M. M. Walker, city health officer, made a brief report as to the scarlet fever situation in the city. He said that members of certain civic bodies had requested him to have the public school buildings fumigated as a preventative measure. While he said that the situation was serious, he declared the fumigation of the school building would not be of any aid. The council took no action in the matter, it being the opinion of those present that precautions against further spread along the lines now being followed out by the health department are sufficient.

Route of Paving.

The hearing on the proposed paving concerned property owners on fifteen blocks. The improvement which the action of the council assures, will be a reality within a few months. It will start in the down town district on Eighth street and continue on that street to Denver. At that point it crosses to Ninth street and extends on that street to Tayler street. The main consideration of the council in adopting this route was the relief of the present heavy traffic on Tenth street. In addition, the contract calls for the paving of Grant street from Avenue D to Avenue H, and on Avenue A from Tenth to Eleventh streets.

Part of This Paving is Completed

The objection to the paving by property owners at the hearing was mainly based on the inability at this time to pay the cost of the improvement. Several said that they desired the improvement but thought the cost under contract already let was too high.

The attitude of the council was expressed by Mayor Cline. He called attention to the fact that the paving would enhance the value of the properties concerned and declared his belief that there would be no material decrease in the cost of building material in the next few months. His statement was substantiated by City Engineer Montgomery and two contractors that were present at the meeting.

The mayor also pointed out that the paving would be done under the provisions of the state paving law which gave a better proposition from a property owner's standpoint than that under which the majority of the paving in this city has been and would be done after the paving provided for under the present bond issue had been exhausted provided no additional bond issues are voted.

Three Years to Pay.

A representative of the Texas Bithulitic company said that it was the policy of the company to handle all agreements with property owners in such a manner that the payment of the cost of the improvement worked no unnecessary hardship on the property owners.

Each case, he said, was handled separately and, where necessary, considerable time was given for the payments due on the paving Under the state law the city pays one-fourth the cost of the paving and the property owner the remainder. Under the law the property owner pays one-third of the remainder at the time the contract is entered into and the remainder made in two annual payments.

Mayor Cline said the canned meat ordered will be sold at approximately one-third the price charged by retailers. The goods are put up by the best known packers and are guaranteed by the government. Mayor Cline suggested that local retailers might purchase the goods with the stipulation that they sell at the price set by the government.

Dr. M. M. Walker, through Sanitary Commissioner McDowell, presented a report for the last six months covering the work of the city health department. The report indicated that progress has been made, with special reference to the handling of contagious diseases.

Without discussion the council passed on its first reading as an emergency measure a new plumbing and sewer ordinance.

Dr. J. F. Reed asked that work of constructing curbs in the driveways of Riverside cemetery be expedited. The improvement, according to the estimate of the city engineer's department, will cost approximately $12,000. The improvement will be provided for under the $25,000 bond issue for park and cemetery improvement. Dr. Reed announced that Frank Lancaster had been placed in charge of the cemetery and park of the city at a salary of $150 a month.

Inaugural Festivity Plans Are Abandoned

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Abandonment immediately of all plans for a celebration in connection with the inauguration of President-elect Harding was announced tonight by E. B. McLean, chairman of the Washington inaugural committee, in accordance with the desire of Mr. Harding.

HARDING ASKS INAUGURATION BE ECONOMICAL

By Associated Press

MARION, Jan. 10.—In the interest of national thrift, President-elect Harding tonigth requested officials arranging for his inauguration to abandon all plans for an inaugural ceremony.

In a telegram to E. B. McLean, chairman of the inaugural comdittee at Washington, Mr. Harding declared he preferred to simply take the oath of office, deliver a brief address and then take up his duties. He said it would make his position a very unhappy one if the outlay for an elaborate inaugural created the impression of extravagance.

At the same time the president-elect telegraphed Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, in charge of the congressional end of the plans, suggested that the proposal to erect stands on the capitol ground for the event be abandoned. This proposal has been the schedule of heated debate in congress with some members severely objecting to the use of public funds for such a purpose.

Federal District Attorney to Quit In Ward's Favor

United States District Attorney R. E. Taylor expects to resign his office at the end of the spring term of the federal court at Dallas, according to word received in Wichita Falls, Monday.

Assistant District Attorney W. L. Ward is said to be slated to succeed Mr. Taylor. Stress of private interests were given as the cause of Mr. Taylor's contemplated resignation.

TWO HELD AND 20 SOUGHT TO FACE GRAND JURY BILLS

Charges of burglary in each case are made in indictments against Chester West and Fred Hendricks, which were returned abong 22 true felony bills by the grand jury in its reports in open court Monday morning to the judge of the Thirtieth district court. Names of men charged in the 20 other bills of indictment were withheld pending their arrest.

At the conclusion of its report, the grand jury was ordered to resume its work. No indication was given as to when investigations for this session will be completed.

Return of four misdemeanor indictments was also reported by the grand jury Monday morning.

New York Financiers Agree to Back Texas Cotton Men's Venture

By Associated Press.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Jan. 10.—Fred Roberts, prominent cotton man here, declared today he had made arrangements which, if accepted by the executive committee of the cotton marketing bureau now forming a pool for the sale of low grade cotton, would assure all charges on shipments to Germany, including insurance, transportation and overhead expenses. Mr. Roberts just returned from New York, where he conferred with bankers, who agreed, he said, to finance shipments to Bremen.

Under the proposed plan the raw cotton will be exchanged with German millers for cotton goods from which both growers and millers would realize their profit.

Detroit Proposes Service at Cost Street Rail Line

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 10.—Formation of a company to be conducted on a service-at-cost basis, having administrative control over all street railways lines and, in effect, ending the controversy between the city and the Detroit United Railway company, is proposed in the draft of an ordinance presented to the city corporation council by attorneys for the company today.

CONGRESSMAN BOX ASSERTS LETTING DOWN BARS WILL BE UNFAIR TO EUROPEANS

Testifying Before the Senate Committee Charges That Laborers Desert Farms for Other Work.

BY R. N. TIMMONS.
Staff Correspondent.

gressman John C ETAOIN NUNU

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Congressman John C. Box of Texas appearing before the Senate Immigration committee today told senators that it was entirely impractical to make an exception in the immigration bill which would permit the entry of Mexican laborers and the east wanted European laborers and if the concession was granted to Texas the east would send great lobby here and demand that it be given the privilege of importing European laborers.

Mexican Job

The Texas solon was questioned by Senators Colt of Rhode Island, Dillingham of Vermont and Harrison of Mississippi as to the situation in Texas.

Replying to questions, Judge Box declared that in certain parts of the state it is now being said that "farm labor is a Mexican job." He protested importation of a class of labor that would lower farm standards

"If congress admits Mexicans without the head tax and literary test it must also admite Epropeans," Judge Box said, "it is proposed that these Mexicans be admitted only for farm labor. That is establishing a system of peonage, where they must be carefully watched by their masters.

Reports of the commissioner of immigration show that year before last six thousand of these Mexicans brought in for farm labor deserted To keep them on farm for which they are brought in would require a great number of federal agents, which I am sure congress is in no mood to provide.

Give Unemployed Work.

Congressman Box said that there are now thousands of unemployed in the city, many of whom would naturally flow back to farms if work were provided for them and many of these Americans now unemployed in cities, would some day become land owners, while Mexicans could never be assimulated and made into farmers in their own right.

Mr. Box appeared before the senate committee at the request of Chairman Johnson of the house committee on immigration, of which Box is a member.

He said the proposal to admit Mexicans under present conditions, both on the farms and in the cities is economically wrong, and fraught with great danger.

Begin Campaign Today to Found Junior College

The campaign to raise the $100,000 fund required for bringing a junior college to Wichita Falls will be officially launched Tuesday at noon at the regular weekly luncheon at the Kemp hotel. The club, which has been been growing rapidly since it was organized, is expecting the largest attendance in its history at the meeting Tuesday.

In addition to discussion of the proposed college, short addresses will be made by Judge Guy Rogers and A. F. Bowden, income tax expert. Mr. Bowden will explain the procedure necessary in filling out income tax blanks.

C. C. to Seat 800 At Annual Dinner

Reservations for the annual dinner for the Chamber of Commerce, for which arrangements are being made to accommodate 800 people, must be made before 10 a. m, Wednesday, according to Hubert Harrison, secretary. Every one who expects to attend, must make a reservation in advance.

Inasmuch as the Chamber of Commerce is giving this dinner complimentary to the membership, it is desired that preparations be made as nearly as possible for the exact number who wish to attend.

Peter Lombardi, steward at the Wichita club, is the caterer for the winner.

PAT O'KEEFE IS CHOSEN COURIER FOR ELECTORS

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—At a meeting here this afternoon of democratic presidential electors Pat O'Keefe of Dallas was named as messenger to the electoral college at Wahington. Canvas of returns shows Cox received 289,688 and Harding 115,640 votes in Texas.

GULF OFFICES TO BE MOVED TO WICHITA FALLS

North Texas Headquarters Will Be Established in the Proposed Seven-Story Building Here.

Removal of the North Texas headquarters of the Gulf Production company and the Gulf Pipe Line company from Fort Worth to Wichita Falls, a move which will add some six hundred families to the population of Wichita Falls, and which will necessitate the construction of a six or seven story office building at this place to accommodate the various departments, is contemplated by high officials of the Gulf, according to reports obtained from an authoritative source Monday afternoon.

This report was later supplemented by an affirmative answer obtained from R. O. Harvey when asked whether he was conducting negotiations with officials of the Gulf for the erection of such a building on the lot owned by himself and W. J. Grisham just beyond the City National Bank of Commerce building, and fronting 50 feet on Eighth street.

The principal factor entering into the negotiations has been the building of the extension of the [illegible] Falls and Southern to a direct railroad communication between Wichita Falls and Breckenridge—a factor which Mr. Harvey and Mr. Grisham now feel themselves able to make a continent clause in the contract.

Logical Position Conceded.

Wichita Falls' position as the logical place for these headquarters is one which has for some time been conceded by high general officials of the Gulf company, and the removal of these headquarters to Wichita Falls has long been considered among local oil operators as only a question of time.

The construction of the mammoth camp and supply yards and warehouses being constructed by the Gulf at Jimkurn, now the northern terminus of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth, and the point from which the Wichita Falls & Southern will have trackage rights into Breckenridge, is of particular interest in connection with the reported move to Wichita Falls of the headquarters for north Texas. According to reports from this section, in addition to the immense warehouses, the Gulf is now constructing a big hotel for its unmarried field employes, and houses, laid out like a regular modern little city, to care for the families of its field forces.

It is generally understood throughout the field that the Gulf contemplates making this the central point of field operations throughout the Ranger, Breckenridge, Eastland, Stephens and Young County districts.

Other Moves Expected.

The removal of the Sinclair offices from Fort Worth, to take place about the first of February, with the contemplated move by the Gulf, and an inquiry as to the probable time of the completion of the road by a third great company, which states its intention to move its Texas-Oklahoma headquarters here, is generally predicted by oil men to be only a forerunner of the benefits to be derived by the city through the completion of the extension of the Southern.

With this line, and with the present railroad connections of Wichita Falls to the north, this city is pointed out as the absolutely logical headquarters point for oil operations in Texas and Oklahoma. The completion of the Southern extension will give direct short line access to all the important Texas fields, and will put the city in the direct line of travel of oil men from south and central Texas oil fields through the north Texas district and into Oklahoma. It also puts the headquarters in close touch with the Panhandle, regarded by oil men as the most likely scene of the next big oil development.

Railroad communications to the north are also expected to be improved, by the early extension of the Rock Island, and possibly another road, to this city.

BAKER URGES NEW CANAL BE CONSTRUCTED

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Construction of a sea level canal to parallel the Panama water way was advocated today by Secretary Baker. Within 15 years, he said the Panama canal would be inadequate to handle world commerce between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

"Commercial reasons primarily, and military consideration in a less degree, demand that we should begin to build another canal," said the secretary. "I believe it should properly be a sea level project. It should be built either through Panama at the point once considered as a site for the present canal, or through Nicaragua."

A suggestion made yesterday to President-elect Harding that the Panama canal be changed to a sea level waterway prompted Mr. Baker's statement. He did not favor such a project, he said, believing that the money should be applied to the construction of an entirely new canal.

"I have not given great consideration to the military considerations involved, and do not know what the navy department's plans are as to the size of future battleships, but it is conceivable that our next dreadnaughts may be of too great beam to pass through the present canal," Mr. Baker added.

New battleships of the Massachusetts class, expected to be completed in 1923, are 105 feet wide at the water line and the width of the Panama canal locks is 110 feet.

FORT WORTH WILL CONTINUE SEVEN CENT CAR FARES

FORT WORT, Jan. 10.—The Fort Worth city commission, after a two-day conference with the Northern Texas Traction company officials, agreed today to continue the seven cent street car fare in effect temporarily and to conduct a hearing on whether it shall be in effect premanently. The city had been insisting that the fare be reduced to six cents, pending the outcome of the hearing.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 10.—The Continental Motors corporation expected to re-open with a small force tomorrow. It has been closed since December 22. Normally the plant employs 3,000 men.

The Studebaker corporation reopened its local plant this morning, as did several other smaller factories.

Announcement that the Ford Motor company will reopen February is expected to be made shortly.

HOUSE ALLOWS INAUGURATION APPROPRIATION

Sum of $50,000 Is Authorized After Heated Debate in Lower Branch of U. S. Congress.

Solons Make it Clear That They Shall Have no Part in Pageant, Ball or Other Festivities Proposed.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Five members of the house, one from President Harding's home state, and the others from the South, voted today to cut down the $50,000 appropriation for erection of a grandstand at the capitol, from which congress, as in years gone by, breaks the bleak March weather during the big outdoor inaugural ceremony.

Against this handful, 285 members voted for the fund so that the long established custom might still prevail. The snow was clinging to the first pile of lumber, stacked in orderly array outside when the debate in the house started, coincident with another flurry of talk in the senate on a proposal to eliminate this year all expensive and ostentatious inaugural show while so many people in Europe are starving.

Carry Out Program.

By its action the house made possible the carrying out of the part of congress in the celebration. It has nothing to do with any pageant down town or any inaugural ball, against which there has been protest on the ground that the pension building is used for the night festivities is needed for the proper conduct of the government's pension business. Senator Borah (republican), Idaho, leader in the fight for simplicity, indicated he would keep it up in an effort to prevent other appropriations.

Nobody except congress and its friends will sit in the grandstand at the capitol, the 10,000 seats being equally distributed on a man basis without regard to party affiliation or length of legislative service. Representative Blanton of Texas hurled a firebrand into the usual routine proceeding by protesting the expenditure, but on the first vote he stood alone in support of an amendment making the amount $10,000. Not many members and their families could be seated in a stand costing so little.

Both Sides Roar.

There was a roar from both sides of the chamber, several democrats urging their party not to be swayed by the plea of money saving for such an event. Declaring that President-elect Harding was averse to a spectacular inauguration, Representative Davis (republican), Nebraska, insisted that a time-honored ceremony of half century standing should not be stopped by the cry of "demagogues." Representative Hudspeth of Texas brought a volley of applause by the statement that the people of Texas, who decisively voted against Senator Harding, did not subscribe to Mr. Blanton's views.

Representative Huddleston (democrat), Alabama, shifted the discussion into a different channel by announcing that while he was not concerned with a plea for economy, he did not want to bring a mob to Washington to be held up by commerce highwaymen, nor to butcher a president-elect to make a Washington holiday.

Although members expressed the wish to agree with the president-elect in modestly requesting a simple inaugural, they contended that the was the people's show and that they were entitled to have it presented in the same elaborate and dignified style as heretofore.

POSTOFFICE AT BRIDGETOWN TO USE OLD BANK

The opening of a fourth-class postoffice at Bridgetown was announced Monday by H. A. Wallace, postoffice inspector of the North Texas district. The new office will serve approximately 500 persons who during the past two years have been getting their mail from Burkburnett through a carrier hired by private subscription.

The new office will be on the star route with Thrift Branch. Mr. Wallace expressed the belief that the Bridgetown office would be given a third-class rating after the usual three months tryout.

James C. Erwin will be in charge of the new office. It is located in a building formerly occupied by a bank.

Inspector Wallace also announced that the postoffice at Nocona, in Montague county, had recently been moved into a new brick building with approximately $5,000 worth of new fixtures. Mr. Wallace accepted a contract for a ten-year lease of the building and new fixtures. The Nocona office is a large third-class office.

G. E. Beach vs. Frederick Laundry company, no announcement.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT CALLED FARCE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Prohibition enforcement "is a farce in every locality in the country," Representative Wood, (rep.), Indiana, declared today in the house in proposing that enforcement be transferred from the bureau of internal revenue to the department of justice. His proposal met with instant objection from Chairman Volstead of the judiciary committee, and heated debate ensued.

Under the present system, Representative Wood said, there is a conflict of authority between representatives of the bureau and the justice department and they are "quarreling and quibbling with each other and in many sections representatives of the department of justice have interfered with the enforcment of the Volstead act."

Representative Volstead said it was true that enforcement was "a failure in some localities," but he was of the opinion that prohibition could be enforced if "ten states which have failed to enact state enforcement laws would only do so."

All except eight states have adopted some form of a mothers' pension.

Nearly 40,000 patents have been granted in the United States for carriages and wagons.

Average of all plow lands in California is worth $100 per acre.

Negro Vag Works Alley But Kicks At City's Meals

"I can not work, boss, on what dis here place feeds me," was the comment of a negro worker in the alleys of the downtown district Monday. The remark was only a comment and was not made to indicate a strike on the part of the employee. The ebony worker along with several negroes have been "polishing" the alleys under the direction of Tom Taylor of the city sanitary department.

The activity in the alleys is in line with recently announced plan of Chief Huff of the police department to enforce employment on all "vags" and others who for similar reasons are being detained at the city jail.

Most of the "vags" that are brought to the station claim that they are unable to find employment. According to police officials several have changed their minds as to their ability to find employment after working for their board for the city a short time.

TO INTRODUCE ONE BOOK PER YEAR SYSTEM

Introduction of the "one book per year plan" into Texas schools wherever practicable, was given as the chief accomplishment of the state text book commission by Lee Clark, superintendent of the city schools, on his return Monday from Austin, where he has been attending a meeting of the commission

For the 1921-22 school year Mr. Clark said that the five-book series of language books to supplant the three-year book series for the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades had been chosen. It will effect a saving of public money, estimated at approximately $100,000. Under the old plan one large book was used for the fourth and fifth grades and another for the sixth and seventh grades. Superintendent Clark pointed out that as many of the large books would be required for issue to the children as of the smaller and that a great saving is affected in material used by buying smaller books.

WOLLEN MILLS REDUCE WAGES; PRICES LOWER

By Associated Press

WOOLEN MILLS— 8 .. ..

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 10.—The American Woolen company today announced a wage reduction of 22½ per cent, to take effect next Monday. General business conditions were assigned as the reason.

In a statement to employes announcing the reduction, President Wood said that, notwithstanding curtailment of operations, the company had been accumulating cloth. "It has been unable to re-sell its cancelled orders or to secure new orders for what little cloth we have been manufacturing," he said.

Continuing, Mr. Wood said:

"We have been waiting for business, but no business comes, so we have decided to do something to start business, if it can be done.

"First, we propose immediately to sell the cloth on hand at greatly reduced prices. This will be done at a substantial loss to the company, but we must meet it. It will be the company's loss alone. It will in no way affect your wages. Then we propose immediately to make the biggest effort we have ever made to get business to run our mills.

"But we are convinced our best efforts will not bring business unless we reduce prices on our new season's goods. To do this, we must reduce not only our profits, but our costs as well, and, among others, our labor costs. If we do not do this, we must close our mills.

"We believe that the action we have taken will meet with your approval, for we believe it to be really in your interest, in that it will, in our judgment, avoid a shutdown and give to the workers a more permanent employment."

PAN-AMERICAN LABOR MEETING IN MEXICO CITY

By Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 10.—Delegates from labor organizations of the United States, Mexico and 16 South and Central American republics were here today for the opening session of the third Pan-American Federation of Labor conference.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and 14 other representatives of American labor made up the delegation from the United States.

Leaders planned to expedite business before the conference, which, it was expected, could be brought to a conclusion before the end of the week. The purpose of the gathering, according to Mr. Gompers, was "to promote good relations among the laborers of the United States, Mexico and South and Central America."

LOCAL REFINERIES TO SUPPLY THIRD OF REFINED PRODUCTS FOR GIANT EXPORT CONTRACT

Wichita county refineries will furnish approximately a third of around $11,000,000 worth of the refined products involved in the 170,000,000-gallon light oil contract closed with the Export Oil corporation at last week's meeting of Mid-Conitnent refiners at Tulsa, according to Wichitans who returned Monday from the meeting.

The products involved in the contract will be delivered in approximately equal monthly installments over a period running to February, 1922. The total contract involves around 1,600 cars of these products per month, the quota of the local refineries running just over 500 cars per month.

This is roughly one-third of the present output of gasoline and kerosene from the refineries of the county.

Through assuring local refiners of a market for one-third of their gasoline and kerosene under any conditions during the coming year, and allowing them an opportunitw of taking advantage of a possible rise in price for the remainedr, which they are able to dispose of in domestic markets, the closing of this contract will, as set forth in an earlier account of this transaction, published by The Record News, go a long way toward stabilizing values and stabilixing the market price for crude in the local field.

The contract which has been closed calls for 65,000,000 gallons of 64-65 gravity, straight run, water-white, doctor-tested gasoline of under 370 end point, at 25 cents; 65,000,000 gallons of new navy specifications gasoline at 21 cents, and 40,000,000 gallons of 41-43 gravity prime white and doctor-tested kerosene, at 9½ cents.

The shipment of these products will be financed in the same way as grain or cotton exports—on 90-day warehouse receipts, bearing 7 per cent interest per annum after 30 days from date.

This financing, which is one of the biggest items of the deal, received tremendous impetus from the agreement of Wichita Falls banks to undertake $2,000,000 worth of it—an amount proportionate to the quota of the local refineries, as reported in an exclusive Record News story of something more than a week ago.

Prior to the action of the Wichita Falls banks, efforts to secure financing of the project had been making little headway.

Captain Eugene Constantine is president of the Export Oil corporation. The Constantine Fefining company is one of the refineries participating in this contract, as are practically all of the other refineries in this district.

Captain Constantine is reported to be working on a crude oil deal of similar proportions.

EMPLOYMENT OF EXPERT AGENT UP TO FARMERS

The farmers of Wichita county will take a mail vote on the advisability of employing a farm demonstration agent and a home economics expert.

This was announced by Hubert M. Harrison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Monday afternoon after the commissioners for various reasons had refused to vote money now toward the salaries and expenses of these two agents. Each commissioner pledged himself to vote for the measure if he were assured that the farmers want it.

Commissioner Kuntz of Iowa Park was opposed to the employment of a farm demonstration agent, because, he said, he did not believe that the farmers wanted one and he held that such a man could not do much good now.

Commissioner Prescott favored the idea. But he thought that the outstanding need this season among the farmers was some method to finance their crops. Commissioners Jackson and Haynes also were favorable toward a farm agent on general principles but doubtful as to immediate expediency.

Mr. Harrison pointed out that now that the first "fever" is over and the oil business has settled down to a stabilized industry that Wichita county must begin to regain her former prestige in an agricultural way. He declared that many letters from farmers have approved of the farm agent plan. He pointed out that Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett commercial leaders had endorsed it and promised to pay part of the expense.

J. M. McFall, director of the Chamber of Commerce, highly endorsed the measure. John R. Edmonds, extension department of A. & M. college, said that Wichita county is the only big county in the state which has no farm demonstration agent. Almost two-thirds of Texas counties do have such agents.

Under the plan proposed the county commissioners' court would pay $1,000, the A. & M. college, $1,500, and the commercial clubs of Wichita Falls, Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett, $1,000, toward the salary and auto expense of the farm demonstration agent.

The expense of a woman home economics worker would be similarly apportioned on a smaller scale. Her salary would be about $160 per month.

Wichita county was offered an opportunity to vote on a bond issue paying additional taxes thereby. The court ordered an election Feb. 19, to vote on the passage of $75,000 bonds to match the same amoung of money voted by the city authorities for building an annex to the hospital. County Auditor Murphy explained that interest and sinking fund money on hand would pay for the $75,000 bonds without additional taxes.

It was the sense of the court that all the aged and worn out mules the county owns be sold and replaced by good ones. J. M. McFall offered to demonstrate to the court on any stretch of road they name a road machine he has to offer them.

SCHOOLS REPORT TARDY EPIDEMIC TAKES STUDENTS

A general epidemic of tradiness among the school of Wichita Falls was reported at the school principals' meeting held Monday afternoon at the High School. Superintendent Clark said that no especial cause could be given for the delinquency and asks that parents lend their cooperation to have pupils reach the schools on time.

To prevent the possible spread of contagious diseases, of which a few have been reported, school heads were advised to take care that infected children were not returned to school until entirely well.

Superintendent Clark was appointed by the text book commission to assist in the revision of the present book on civics in use in Texas schools.

Deputies Landers And Butler Leave Constable Morgan

Announcement was made Monday by Constable Frank Morgan that the resignations of W. A. Butler and Tom Landers, who have served as deputies under him during the new administration, have been accepted and that they will be relieved of their duties immediately.

No reasons were advanced by the retiring peace officers as to the cause of their action in the matter. It is understood that they have become connected with a private business enterprise.

L. M. Estes, who went into office as deputy with Morgan, is at present the only deputy in the department. Constable Morgan asserted that an effort would be made at once to obtain the services of the two men to fill the places of Butler and Landers.

SUMMERS ASKS ESTABLISHENT OF FARM MART

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Economic difficulties of the farmers are driving them "into class solidarity," Representative Summers, democrat, Texas, declared today before the house agriculture committee in support of his bill to establish a federal farm produce exchange under direction of the secretary of agriculture. Such an organization would work in co-operation with the states in the sale and distribution of agricultural products.

No government can be strong, Mr. Summers asserted, through whose citizenship runs the lines of vocation cleavage, "within which are groups held together and held away from the body of its citizenship by that sort of class consciousness and class prejudice which the present condition is developing among the farmers of this country." The person who could not see that "must be blind," he asserted.

Would Co-Ordinate Agencies.

Representative Summers said his bill was directed at this condition. Under it, he continued, the various governmental agencies dealing with agricultural products would be co-ordinated and function as a unit in their sale and distribution. It would also operate against the "toll taking" power of the middlemen, he declared.

The secretary of agriculture would be required under his measure, Mr. Summers said, to keep posted as to the demand and supply of agricultural products and distribute this information to the producers and purchasers, "and shall endeavor to bring about such system in the sale and distribution of such products as shall eliminate the waste and extremes in prices resulting from the present lack of system."

Proposes Trading Center.

Those desiring to sell would furnish a grade or sample to the exchange under rules and regulations to be made by the secretary of agriculture, but all tenders should be for a definite quantity and quality.

"Individuals, co-operative groups, small merchants, small manufacturers as well as the larger ones," Representative Summers said, "would be given the same direct trading contract with the source of supply and the general market, and there would be made possible the movement of agricultural commodities under prior sale from the point of concentration to the point of use in quality and quantity in accordance with the demand for need." This plan would eliminate waste, he added, duplication of expense in distribution and would be a better way to do it "than by pestiferous beauracratic control towards which we are rapidly moving."

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(Adv.)

Errant Auther And Amour Not Yet Reconciled

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 10.—Reconciliation and reunion of the two families involved has not resulted from the return of Mrs. Pierre Franzen, to her husband in Madison as reported. Declarations made this afternoon showed that Pierre Paul Auther, the love bandit, is still uppermost in the mind of the wife of Franzen, the University of Wisconsin painter, whose wife was stolen from him last Tuesday.

"I'm glad it all happened," she declared. "It was worth it. I am also very determined and so is the other party, to see this matter through. Don't think this is the end, for Mr. Franzen and I will never live together again.

"I only came back to Madison to get the rest of my clothes and personal belongings," she continued. "I don't know what is going to happen and neither does he. But I do know that this is not the end. We are just going to leave it to fate and faith."

Chief of Police Shaughenessy stated that the charge of grand larceny would be pressed against Auther for the alleged forcible taking of $110 from Franzen. It is not known what action the Highland Park police will take with Auther, who was arraigned on the charge of wife abandonment.

My daughter took ill and wanted to come home. She couldn't leave the children. She brought them here. Mrs. Bannitz can have them whenever she wants them."

PRIMARY LAW IS UPHELD BY U. S. SOLICITOR

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The primary is accepted as an integral part of the elecitons process, Solicitor General Frierson contended today in resuming arguments before the supreme court in the appeal of Senator Truman H. Newberry and others from conviction in Michigan under the corrupt practices act.

Charles E. Hughes, of counsel for Newberry, devoted much of the pliantiff's argument to an attack on the constitutionality of the statute, contending that the constitution strictly limits congressional interference with the ballot to "time, places and manner of holding elections.

"Even if the word 'election' is not construed as including primary elections," Mr. Frierson said, "congress had the necessary power to enact this legislation under an article which authorizes it 'to make all laws necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers.'

"If congress has no power to make regulations of the kind now involved, neither have the states, and there is no power anywhere which can control and prevent excessive expenditures by candidates for senatorial or congressional nominations."

Killed by Girl He Thought Too Cute to Shoot

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, Jan. 10.—William J. Coleman, restaurant proprietor, whose death has been a mystery for 10 days, lost his life at the hands of a girl he believed "too cute to shoot."

Miss Louise Meir, aged 18, arrested at Groesbeck yesterday, confessed to local police last night that to protect her honor she fired the shot that caused Coleman's death, according to J. G. Gunning chief of detectives. She is in jail here. Coleman was found in a suburban park unconscious from a bullet wound in the abdomen on the night of Jan. 1. He died without regaining consciousness and police at first worked on a theory of robbery as a motive.

Miss Meir in her alleged statement said she was employed here as a typist and that on New Year's eve she accepted Coleman's invitation to visit a camp of an alleged party of his friends in a suburban park.

Arriving at the park, the girl's statement said she found it deserted and started to leave whereupon Coleman is alleged to have grabbed her.

"I told him to turn me loose or I would shoot him," Chief Gunning quoted the girl's statement as saying. "He (Coleman) said I was too cute to shoot. So I pulled the pistol and shot him as he held my left arm."

SMOKERS AND FIRE DANGER.

The unusual number of fires that have occurred in Wichita Falls in recent months remind us that America has not yet equalled the older countries beyond the Atlantic in permanency of construction and that the newer localities of the west are behind our older eastern communities in this respect.

Among many preventable causes of fires are three which are often suspected, but seldom convicted, owing to the fact that the conflagration usually destroys the evidence of its origin. These three suspects are electric wires, cigarette stubs and matches.

Laws have been enacted prescribing caution in the use of electric wires. Wiring may be installed only by those who have satisfied the authorities of their skill in such work. But as yet law-makers have apparently not concerned themselves about the cigarette or the match as a fire menace.

A cigar stump will cease to burn soon after the smoker has abandoned it and therefore a cast-off cigar is seldom accused of starting a conflagration. But a cigarette is an almost perfect slow-match, as it will usually continue to burn until it is entirely consumed. In a waste basket or a quantity of dry grass or other rubbish, a burning cigarette is an extremely dangerous thing. Some smokers take the trouble to extinguish their cigarette stubs before abandoning them, usually by stepping upon them, and many others would take this precaution if their attention were directed to the importance of so doing.

The third frequently-suspected cause of fires is the igniting of matches by gnawing rats and mice. This is easily prevented by keeping all matches in metal or earthenware containers, through which the rodents are unable to gnaw.

It would seem that the manufacturers of cigarettes and matches would print a warning of these dangers upon the packages in which they send their products forth to the public, but as this is not done it would be well if a printed suggestion of this nature were posted conspicuously in each establishment in the city where cigarettes or matches are sold.

WONDER WELL POINTS MORAL.

Wichita Falls operators returning from the "wonder well" at Fort Stockton say that it is like most gushers in comparatively new territory. Everyone in the vicinity who sees it, however conscientious he may be, can't judge production with a clear vision.

First the well was reported at 2,500 barrels. Then it was agreed that it was making "better than a thousand." Then it stopped flowing suddenly and was pumping from "50 to 100" barrels. Estimates were made that it would pump 500.

Finally on Saturday came the report that it was making 25 barrels.

It did develop a freak initial gas pressure so strong that operators could not explain it when the shallow depth was considered. It undoubtedly will pay when the small expense of drilling is considered.

But it merely points to the moral that experienced oil men all accept, discount the flush production reports heavily, very heavily.

FARM CAMPAIGN GETS RESULTS.

The Chamber of Commerce campaign to improve farming conditions and the farming industry in Wichita county as a whole have already gained two important results:

They have assisted in bringing to realization of buyers that values of farms along the territory which the Wichita Irrigation system will serve will be greatly enhanced.

They have obtained a tacit agreement where a farm demonstrator and a woman's home demonstration are, it is understood, assured for Wichita county.

URGES UNIFORM MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE LAWS

The necessity for uniform laws in the United States on the subjects of marriage and divorce was emphasized by Judge Edgar Scurry in a short address made Monday at the weekly luncheon of the Ad. Club. Judge Scurry expressed the belief that efforts should be made for uniformity of many of the laws that are now on the statute books.

A. F. Bowden, internal revenue expert and former head of the Wichita Falls internal revenue office, emphasized the need for simplification and reduction in income tax laws and rates

The refund of $400,000 to one Wichita Falls tax payer was cited by Mr. Bowden as one of the many mistakes being made daily by the revenue department. He leclared that regulations and changes of the department were so complicated that it was impossible that employees should fail to make errors, and urged simplification and reduction as the only cure.

The aggressive campaign planned by the local Retail Merchants association for advertising Wichita Falls and bringing outside trade here was outlined to club members by Burton Stayton. The new firm is known as the Williams-Thompson Motor Co., and will handle both automobiles and trucks.

The firm now has a touring car and Sedan, and is expecting a shipment of cars, trucks and automobile parts at an early date. A crew of expert factory mechanics have been engaged and, with the well equipped shop of the firm, Mr. Thompson says that he can safely guarantee the highest class of automobile service.

Millionaire Kid Asks Permission To Marry Fiancee

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 10.—Louis M. Osterweiss, 25, said to be the son of wealthy New Haven, Conn., parents, who was convicted on a charge of counterfeiting treasury notes and honorable discharge papers at the disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth last year, appeared in the federal court in Kansas City, Kans., today to report to Federal Judge John C. Pollock. The court suspended the sentence against the "millionaire kid," by which name Osterweiss is known, on a promise that the youth make his own way for a year without financial aid from his mother or other relatives.

Osterweiss appeared today before the judge with his attorney. His clothes showed signs of wear, although very neat, making him an entirely different man than he had been at the trial, at that time having worn the best of clothes that showed not a particle of wear.

Through his attorney he told the judge that he had been in San Antonio, Texas, working as an advertising man for a magazine. While there, he said, he became engaged, but can not marry without the consent of his guardian, who is in New Haven.

According to his statements he is heir to $90,000 left him by his grandfather and $75,000 which was left him by his father.

Judge Pollock will not make a decision in the case until he can discuss it with Fred Robertson, United States district attorney here, who will return from St. Louis Thursday.

Legislature Meets Today

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—The Thirty-seventh Texas legislature, which convenes at 12 o'clock tomorrow will be greeted with an avalanche of bills after the routine business of organization has been completed and both branches are ready for business, according to opinions expressed today by senators and representatives here for the session.

The house will be called to order by Secretary of State C. D. Mims, and the first business of that body will be to elect the speaker. Charles G. Thomas of Denton county and A. B. Curtis of Tarrant county, are candidates for the place. Election of clerks will follow.

A caucus of senators will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Senator J. C. McNealus of Dallas will preside. When Lieutenant Governor W. A. Johnson calls the senate to order at noon, the election of the predetermined officers will be only a formality, Senator McNealus said today.

Governor Hobby has said he will transmit his message this year in a series of messages covering different phases, in connection with his term of office. It is understood at the capital that his first message will be presented Wednesday.

KING ALFONSO WILL VISIT IN VATICAN

By Associated Press

ROME, Jan. 10.—The official announcement of the visit of King Alfonso of Spain to Rome has been received with general satisfaction, all parties being animated by a sincere desire for closer union between the Latin countries, especially with Spain, to which Italy is united by so many racial, linguistic and historic traditions

The visit of Alfonso recalls the attitude of the Holy See after the pope lost the temporary power. The form of protest chosen by Pope Pius IX against deprivation of his domains was to threaten with ex-communication any Catholic ruler coming to Rome as the guest of the king of Italy.

Boxers Barred From Wearing American Flag

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Wearing of the American flag by boxers appearing in bouts in Massachusetts is prohibited in a ruling announced today by the state boxing commission. The ruling was made at the request of the American Legion.

The commission also requested that boxers refrain from making religious signs in the ring.

Southern Loop Will Meet in Chicago Today

By Associated Press.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 10.—The annual spring meeting of the Southern association will be held in Chicago tomorrow instead of at Little Rock, Ark., next Thursday as originally planned, according to a telegram received at Southern association headquarters here today from Chicago where directors of the association are attending in a body the meeting in that city of the National association of minor league clubs.

Decision to advance the meeting was reached today accordihg to the telegram

In addition to adopting a playing schedule for 1921 it is expected that the salary and player and other questions affecting the internal affairs of the association will be discussed at the meeting tomorrow.

Clear D. D. Morninger in Mortgaged Property Case

Telegraphic communication from Denver Monday advised local county authorities that a charge of disposing of mortgaged property, which led to the arrest here several weeks ago of D. D. Morninger on a fugitive from justice charge, had been dismissed.

Bondsmen who assumed the responsibility for his release pending his return to Denver to answer to the charge there, were automatically released.

JAP CLAIMS NATIVE BROTHERS HAVE NO DESIRE TO COLONIZE IN LANDS PURCHASED IN TEXAS

By Associated Press

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 10.—Denying that the presence of the two Japanese families at Harlingen, in the Lower Rio Grande valley, is a forerunner of an extensive colonization scheme, S. Ishii, representative of Z. Yamada, reputed to be a millionaire of Los Angeles, upon his arrival here tonight issued a statement, in which he said if the people of the valley wish to buy the land already sold to eight Japanese families, he will be glad to act as their agent in the matter. He said the total holdings of Japanese in the valley is 283 acres, all of which was told to Japanese farmers by Mr. Yamada following a visit to Harlingen.

The presence of two families in Harlingen the early part of last week drew forth vigorous protests from people of not only that town but other communities in what is known as the Lower Rio Grande valley. The Okumas were advised by members of the American legion post of Harlingen that they were not wanted in that section and suggested that they remain in their hotel rooms until they made ready to depart. This was agreed to, according to reports received in San Antonio, and a telegram was sent to Ishii to come to Harlingen at once. Upon his arrival here from Callfornia, Mr. Ishii said he would leave tomorrow for Harlingen.

Ishii said he does not know whether the eight Japanese farmers who have already purchased land will sell.

The statement issued by Ishii follows:

"When Mr. Yamada of Los Angeles was in the Rio Grande valley the early part of September, 1920, accompanied by a party of eight Japanese farmers, they looked over several tracts of land which were for sale, and stayed in the valley for several days. There was no sign or evidence whatsoever that citizens of the valley did not want them to settle there. On the contrary, they were treated with such fairness that they determined to buy a small tract of land near Harlingen rather than go to Louisiana, Florida, Mississippi or other states which wanted them as settlers.

KELL CAN RUN GRAHAM LINE IN 2 MONTHS

Trains will be running into Graham within 60 days after the time a certificate of public necessity and convenience is granted by the interstate commerce commission for the extension of the Wichita Falls & Southern, if that body does act favorably on the road's application, according to a statement by Frank Kell.

Men and materials are on the ground ready to go to work on the extension at a moment's notice, and have been ready for some time past.

The work of the extension of the line will be rushed south to the Brazos river right from Graham, and a false bridge will be used to cross the river, while the steel bridge is being constructed, Mr. Kell stated. The way will be opened so that through service may be inaugurated as soon as possible.

The necessity of the new road for the development of the country through which it passes was the basis on which Mr. Kell made his fight for the granting of the certificate at the recent hearing held by the Texas railroad commission for the interstate commerce commission, and it is his purpose, he indicated, to fill this need at the earliest possible moment by rushing his line to completion.

ELECT BRADLEY BLAIR, INGE ON CHURCH VESTRY

Merrill W. Blair, Nat L. Inge and T. Andrew Bradley were elected to the vestry, parish of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) at a largely attended parish meeting held Monday night.

Reports on the various phases of the parish activities were rendered by those in charge of the various departments, all showing an encouraging growth and progress in the various church activities. A dinner was served following the meeting. C. W. Reid, senior warden, presided as toastmaster.

In the various reports rendered, the community services being held each Sunday night under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at the Olympic theater, through which the church is reaching out and securing touch with people who are not ordinarily churchgoers, received prominent mention.

Following the annual address by the rector, Rev. F. T. Datson, came the report of the church treasurer, L. E. Mooney. Mrs. R. J. Goodale reported on the work of the guild. Carter McGregor, superintendent, gave the report of the Sunday school work. The woman's auxiliary and the primary department of the Sunday school were reported on by Mrs. Datson. Carl C. Eckman talked of the work of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and J. C. Galbraith of the community service.

American Legion to Assist in Drive on Kansas Crime Wave

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 10.—The American legion here today offered the services of its 3,000 members to John Ranson and John Halpin, police commissioners, in an effort to stop the crime wave which prevails. No suggestions were in the resolution, which accompanied the offer, as to how the legion might cooperate with the police.

Gets $100,000 for County But Finds More Pay Banned

Everett Hughes, county abstractor, although he has uncovered unrendered taxable property expected to add at least $100,000 to the county treasury this year, can not obtain more than $200 per month salary, Judge Jones told the commissioners' court Monday in a report based on partial investigation. The judge understands that the law specifies that Mr. Hughes shall be rated as a chief clerk. He is getting $200 per month, the maximum salary so allowed.

Judge Jones said he would investigate the legal end further. In the meanwhile Mr. Hughes has had two offers of as much money to start with as he is getting now and one offer of $300 per month. The possibility of his resignation was noted in his statement that though he "preferred to work with the county, a man has to take care of his own interests." This followed his statement about other higher offers.

DINNER STORIES

"He's perfectly quiet," remarked the liveryman to the two ladies who were about to hire a pony and trap, "only you must take care to keep the reins off his tail."

"We won't forget," they replied.

When they returned the liveryman inquired how they got on.

"Splendidly!" they exclaimed "We had one rather sharp shower, but we took turns holding the umbrella over his tail, so there was no real danger."

In congress they tell this story of a certain youthful but successful representative. This gentleman's self confidence has always been most marked, a dominant characteristic even of his extreme youth.

When he was about eight years old he decided to take a job during his school vacation, and accordingly sought work in a grocery. After he had been there a week or so his uncle, meeting the old grocer, asked.

"Well, how are you getting on with William at the store?"

"I seem to please him," said the old grocer with a smile. "I seem to please him."

"What is the Higgins family doing now?" asked Mrs. Jones of her neighbor.

"The wife is writing poems that nobody will read, the daughter is painting pictures that nobody will buy, the son is writing plays that nobody will put on the stage, and the husband is writing checks that nobody will cash," was the startling reply.

Judge Jones Gets "More or Less" 2 Weeks of Freedom

County Judge Jones, public prisoner, was allowed "two weeks, more or less" of freedom Monday.

Under the state law a county judge can not go outside of the state, and, it was believed, outside of the county, without permission from the court. Judge Jones' wife is sick. He expects to take her to Hot Springs, Ark., The judge expected to be gone not more than two weeks. The court gave him leeway in the "more or less" wording of the order.

Commissioner Haynes was suggested as acting judge in the meanwhile.

Fleeing Youth Killed by Cop

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Jan. 10.—Eugene Wiley, aged 14, son of a Muskogee attorney, was shot to death early today by Policeman Paul Nobles, who says he discovered Wiley and a companion fleeing after committing a burglary in a downtown office building.

Wiley was hanging from an electric sign outside the building when he was shot. The bullet struck his spine, causing instant death.

Paul Bailey, 15, member of a prominent family, was arrested as Wiley's companion. Wiley was a high school student.

According to Nobles, he answered a call to the building and discovered Wiley and Bailey as they were leaving. He says he did not recognize them as boys when he shot.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

By EDITH NORIARTY

One usually thinks of an artist, a woman artist particularly, as a temperamental person who knows nothing about figures (the kind used in mathematics) and nothing about such complicated things as machinery and other such technical subjects. There is a woman artist in Seattle, Wash., however, who has upset some of these pet theories about her sex.

She is Mrs. Anna L. Harroll, wife of Dr. M. G. Harroll of Seattle. She has invented a bolt and safety nut, which, she claims, cannot be loosened. Alternating threads prevent this loosening, which is said to have caused a large percentage of railroad and industrial accidents. The bolt and nut consist of three holding parts, one having a right-hand thread and the other two left-hand threads. Mrs. Harroll is perhaps more unique among women artists because of the fact that she knows anything about nuts and bolts than a man who knows all about the technicality of art is among machinists.

NEWS FROM ENGLAND.

That the women of England are having the time of their lives and enjoying heretofore junknown freedom and independence and are still working and refusing to give up their jobs to the men who have returned from the war was the word brough back by Mrs. Stuart Paton, wife of the president of the Universal Film company.

"Just get out of your head," said Mrs. Paton, "the idea that there are no men in Great Britain and a doleful array of old maids. There are plenty of men left to go around—only the women hold nearly all the jobs and absolutely refuse to give them up. They have never had so much liberty or so much money to spend.

"Every girl has her own latch-key and does exactly as she pleases. They smoke on the streets and on top of the busses and have all the cocktails and flirtations they want. But as to marrying, well, there isn't so much of that because so many men are jobless, and the women are not anxious to adopt the obligations of matrimony and housekeeping when the cheapest meat is $1 a pound.

"The prices in London are terrible. Eggs and oranges are 15 cents apiece, butter $1.50 a pound and sugar 35 cents a pound. A small chicken costs $5."

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Creamed Beef—One-fourth pound diced beef, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one cup of milk.

Method: Place butter in frying pan, and when pan is hot, and butter melted, add the beef separated in small pieces. Allow it to frizzle. Add flour, mix thoroughly with beef and butter, allowing flour to brown a little. Add milk slowly, and cook until thick and smooth. Pour over toasted rounds of bread, and, if you wish, garnish with parsley.

Breaded Pork Chops—Four chops, one egg yolk, one tablespoon water, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon butter.

Wash and look over chops so as to remove any pieces of bone. Beat egg yolk and water. Dip each chop in egg mixture, and then roll in crumbs to which salt has been added. Place in buttered pan, dot well with butter and bake 25 minutes in a hot oven.

Steamed Date Pudding — Two-thirds cup fresh crumbs, two-thirds cup flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, two-thirds cup finely chopped suet, one-half teaspoon salt, two-thirds cup sugar, one teaspoon vanilla, two-thirds cup of chopped dates, two-thirds cup milk.

Method: Stir well for two minutes. Place in buttered mold. Steam two hours. Serve hot with lemon sauce.

Lemon Sauce—Beat together until foamy one egg and one cup sugar mixed with a scant tablespoon flour. Add nearly a pint of boiling water and butter the size of a walnut. Let it come to a boil. Flavor with lemon.

GOOD PUDDINGS.

Indian Pudding — Place two and one-half cups of water in a saucepan and add one teaspoon of salt, one-half cup of molasses and one-quarter cup of shortening. Bring to a boil and add one cup of corameal and stir to prevent lumping. Cook slowly for 10 minutes and then turn into a mixing bowl. Now place in a shallow bowl one cup of brown sugar and one egg. Cream sugar and egg together and then add one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of ginger, two cups of cooked pumpkin and one and one-half cups of milk. Turn into a baking dish and bake in a slow oven for 40 minutes.

Black Pudding — One cup of molasses, one egg, teaspoon ginger, teaspoon soda dissolved in two-thirds cup boiling water, one and one-half cups flour. Steam one and one-half hours without moving. Serve with any sauce desired.

Mrs. Anderson Gives Party to Workers

Mrs. W. W. Anderson entertained the girls who are employed in the Anderson store, Sunday afternoon, with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Elizabeth Roberts, who is connected with the ready-to-wear department, and who recently lost her belongings in a fire where she lived.

A prett contest featured the entertainment. Mrs. H. M. Young won the prize, a dainty bottle of toilet water. Mrs. Johnson won the booby prize, which proved to be a dunce cap, well decorated with bells. She wore it all afternoon, much to the merriment of the other guests.

At a late hour little Frank Carter, a neighbor's boy, acting as the parcel postman, appeared at the door with a package for Miss Roberts, which revealed a large amount of beautiful gifts.

A salad plate and tea was served to about 25 guests.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Parker Return From Honeymoon

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Parker returned Sunday from a wedding tour, which included New Orleans, Galveston and Fort Worth.

Dr. Parker was married two weeks ago to Miss Una Stark Anderson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stark Anderson, one of the prominent and influential families of Gainesville. Dr. Parker is affiliated with Drs. Fletcher and Dalton.

Dr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home at the Kemp hotel.

Friendly Hour Tea Is At the Goodner Home

The first Friendly Hour tea since the new year began was held at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon with Mrs. E. S. Goodner as leader of the Scripture lesson. Special musical numbers were features of the tea, and the Y. W. C. A. extends a cordial invitation to all young men of the city to attend these affairs.

Tea was served at 5 o'clock, and the Friendly Hour begins at 4:30 o'clock.

Says Knights Pin Growth on Faith In Americanism

The underlying principle of "God and country, in which nationalism is forgotten and Americanism is the main thought," was given as the biggest element in the growth of the Knights of Columbus from a parish organization in 1882 to an organization of over 2,100 councils and 700,000 members, by George T. Burgess of Dallas, state deputy of the Columbians in an address Sunday night before 47 new initiates to the major degree and some 150 knights who assisted in conferring the degrees.

Forty-seven candidates were initiated to the major degree Sunday at the Labor temple. The degrees were conferred by Mr. Burgess, assisted by Frank D. Keim, district deputy, and staff. The council attended 10 o'clock mass at the Sacred Heart church in the forenoon, and the degrees were exemplified in the afternoon.

Following the conferring of degrees a banquet was tendered the initiates at the Kemp hotel. Besides the candidates, 150 knights, many of whom were from other cities, attended the banquet.

Rev. C. J. McCarthy of Dallas, chaplain in the late world war, addressing members, stated that moving shoulder to shoulder with the coming body and living religion at any and all times, rather than preaching it at improper times, was one of the paramount causes of the astounding growth and success of Columbianism.

P. P. Childsey, grand knight of the local council, acted as master of ceremonies at the banquet. Other speakers included C. K. Walsh, Rev. C. A. Dreilling of Henrietta, chaplain of the local council; E. J. Daveron of Dallas, Frank D. Keim and several of the new initiates.

KETONEN RETAINS MAT CHAMPIONSHIP IN ONE FALL

IRSLINGER OUT OF GOING WHEN HE HITS FLOOR

Waino Ketonen of New York city defeated Henry Irslinger Monday night at the Wichita theater in a match for the middleweight championship of America and retained his title.

Thrown off the mat two minutes after the fight for the second fall began, Irslinger hit the hard floor with the back of his head, groaned and lay still. He was carried into an anteroom for first aid treatment.

Dr. T. J. Strong said Irslinger was not seriously injured.

Irslinger was unable to proceed with the match. The agreement provided that if either men were hurt after one fall and before the end of the two-out-of-three series that the winner of the first fall would be declared winner of he match. Acting on this fact, Eugene Liepold, referee, declared Ketonen the victor.

First Fall in 53 iMnutes.

The titleholder won the first fall in 53 minutes with a leg scissors, headlock and cross bar. Henry went to the mat in the second contest with half Nelson on Waino. With a double armlock Waino threw him clear of the mat and the back of his head hit the floor. Henry was out of it.

The New Yorker showed himself a master of the game. In the first match he got twenty-three holds to Irslinger's ten and had by far the better of it in slipping on dangerous holds.

Henry's gains were practically all in the first 20 minutes of going. Then Ketonen settled to work and from that time on Irslinger was almost entirely on the defensive. Ketonen was in real danger but twice, once when he stepped into a head scissors and armlock; again from a headlock and arm scissors.

Ketonen Gets Dangerous Hold.

Ketonen was all confidence. Often in the early part of the match Irslinger was on top but he was not able to gain dangerous holds or to press his advantage when he did. Irslinger took things as seriously as a funeral. Only once did he smile—when he came out of a dangerous combination of holds near the end of the first match.

Waino started the going with a kind of split hold, new to wrestlers here. Locking his feet around one of Irslinger's legs and curling Henry into the curve of his body. Waino would reach around for Irslinger's free leg and pull it away from the other. This is a painful and dangerous tactic.

Henry dropped his eternal wad of gum the first time Ketonen tried the hold. After a second or two of misery he reached down for saving chewing and put it back into action.

Waino put his opponent in four dangerous places in the first five minutes. Irslinger crawled out of two body scissors and slipped an armlock onto Ketonen. His right shoulder on the mat, Ketonen allowed his left to go almost down and then suddenly bobbed his head clear of the flour. Then he slipped out on the opposite side—a way of getting away which he often repeated.

The split-hold fastened Henry again for a moment. Ketonen's foot got into action and with vengeful pats on Henry's jaw, kept Irslinger off. Irslinger fell in a bridge that Ketonen tried in vain to break by slamming him down on his head.

Irslinger was cheered as he broke away from that split-hold again. Henry got a headlock and arm scissors, but couldn't turn him. Irslinger got Ketonen's feet in the air and bounced him around on his head. Ketonen grabbed both Irslinger's ankles and toppled him backwards. Henry took an armlock and then a double wristlock, Ketonen's own device, but couldn't close them.

Thirty-five minutes had elapsed. From then on it was almost all Ketonen. Henry was caught in a stepover toehold, than a headlock and again in a half scissors and three-quarter Nelson. Irslinger came out of an armscissors and onto his feet. He came down in a head scissors and bar lock. Irslinger took a crotch hold and got kicked in the eye with a nasty jab.

Waino took successively from then on the following holds: Head scissors and armlock; three-quarter Nelson, reverse full Nelson, a combination of a split-hold, armlock and headlock, a cradle hold, body scissors and cross bar arm, half Nelson, split hold, a combination of a grapevine, cross bar and headlock, leg scissors and cross bar and headlock.

Irslinger wriggled free of them all and was on his feet at the end of 50 minutes. Waino brought him down with a headlock. They were on the floor again. This time Irslinger came down in the triplicate hold that proved his undoing.

Sailor Jack Woods lost the preliminary in 19 minutes to Steve Maryol, local wrestler, who outweighed him 50 pounds.

Manager Crosbie announced that Charles Rentrop should meet the winner of the match here. Rentrop recently has defeated Matsuda twice in 28 minutes and beat Bull Montana twice in 51 minutes. Irslinger threw him here some months ago.

WHO WILL BE THE JUDGE LANDIS TO FIX UP THE QUARRELING FACTIONS OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS?

THE TRAIL TO NOWHERE.

There are swarms of us, up in the early hours, and hunting along the trail.
Following tips that our friends have slipped—directions that cannot fail!
They say that some other good old pal, who lives on a far-off street,
Has plenty of stuff laid by secure—concealed in a safe retreat!
And ever when that old pal is found, the talk that he tells is the same—
Not a drop is left of his private stock—but—he mentions some other name!
And here and there, on an endless track, we must wander to and ro,
Seeking the Fellow who has Some Left, till the evening sun is low!
For hard is the heart of your oldest friend, and the loftiest man will lie—
Lie like a villain, standing there, as he looks right into your eye!
So what is the use of the ceaseless quest? If you travel slow or fast,
It's the endless trail and the cold, dead trail, and the trail leading nowhere at last!

Boulders Instead of Dummies Tackled by Montana Gridders

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 10.—Padded "dummies" and bucking machines had no place in the football curriculum of Coach Chester Pittser, of the Montana School of Mines. Following the close of the grid schedule of Montana, which made the best showing of any school of mines squad in many years, it became known that Pittser used real boulders as tackling dummies.

Pittser's warriors did all their preliminary practicing and scrimmage work on the side of a mountain, and there was little space for kicking the pigskin around. The linemen had no bucking machines, and the backs were sans tackling dummies, so Pittser sent his men up against huge boulders in the mountainside. Tackling humans in their games afterward was something akin to going up against sofa cushions compared to the mountain bouders.

Despite the handicap of not having a gridiron upon which to practice, Pittser's players finished third in the Montana Conference race.

Several of the Mines players worked shifts in the copper mines in addition to attending school.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS BY JACK KEENE

We have received the following epistle from Marty Killilea, manager of Johnny Wilson, middleweight champ:

"Dear Sir—On May 6th last, Johnny Wilson defeated Mike O'Dowd for the middleweight championship of the world. No champion in the history of the ring has ever been the target of such abuse and ridicule as the present middleweight champion. Porch-climber, fakir, robber, cheese champion and the fightless champion are only a few of the unfriendly terms that Wilson has been referred to.

"Seven months the new champion has held the title. Five months of that time, Johnny Wilson has been under the care of Dr. Plummer of Boston, one of the leading physicians of New England, and on his advice, Wilson has not put on a glove. Any fair-minded fan will admit it is impossible to fight a sick man. Yet they call him the fightless champion. The press has been panning Wilson for not giving O'Dowd a return bout. I could name a score of champions in the past ten years that never gave the man from whom they won the title a return bout, yet not one word was ever said about them. But with Wilson it is different. He defeated Mike O'Dowd, the popular champion. It is a crime to defeat O'Dowd.

"I want to tell the public a few facts that they probably don't know. Mike O'Dowd could have had a return match directly after he lost his championship but for the fact that he wanted to be the dictator. I don't intend as manager of Wilson to challenge anyone, but as the champion is feeling well and strong again, he will defend his title against any man in the world at 158 pounds, O'Dowd, Greb, Smith or any boxer the public demand.

"Take the case of Mike O'Dowd. The general public is under the impression that Wilson refuses to meet O'Dowd. Wilson is ready and willing to meet O'Dowd at the middleweight limit. But I refuse to allow Paddy Mullins to name the conditions. Harry Greb, a light heavyweight, has been a persistent challenger of Wilson. The same conditions go for Greb as O'Dowd. If these fighters are sincere, they will accept conditions. If not, they should stop trying to get a lot of publicity at Wilson's expense.

"Trusting that you may be able to give this notice so the public can judge for themselves as to whether Johnny Wilson is the dodging champion a few managers would have you believe, I am,

"Sincerely yours,

"(Signed) MARTY KILLILEA."

Which reminds us of that famous remark of a big league pilot who said: "But the hellofitis be ain't hittin'." Marty's dope may be o. k., but all the boxing fans know is that Johnny isn't fighting—which is the main thing a champion is supposed to do.

Those who believe that Englishmen lack of sense of humor would change their opinion if they could meet the British amateur boxers who are now in New York taking part in the International Sporting club's tournament next month. They all have a fund of good humor and are full of quips and jokes. John Watson was alert when he filled out his application for a passport on the eve of his departure from London. When he came to the question: "Have you ever been maimed or disfigured in any way?" he had in mind his coming meeting with American boxers and naively wrote as his answer:

"No, not yet."

PEACE REIGNS IN BASEBALL CIRCLES NOW

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Committees chosen by the two major leagues to draft a new agreement today officially voted their approval of the agreement formulated in New York recently, which provides for reorganization of the game, with Judge K. M. Landis as baseball commissioner. Their action put at rest rumors that the American league was not satisfied with the agreement which will be formally acted on by the two leagues, probably tomorrow, but this action is looked upon by baseball men as a mere formality, the National league already having signed the agreement, and President B. B. Johnson of the American league having officially announced that the agreement met with the approval of the club owners in his circuit.

Prospects of the minor leagues joining with the majors appeared bright tonight, although no action on the agreement was taken at their meeting today. The minors drafting committee will meet with the two major league committees tomorrow, when it is expected that all differences of opinion concerning rules under which the game should be governed will be settled.

Michigan to Have Stadium During Fall

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Jan. 10.—Plans for the erection of a new concrete north stand and a new west stand to complete the "U" stadium on Ferry Field have been approved by the board in control of athletics at the University of Michigan and work on this project will begin in the spring if the bids are inside the $400,000 mark.

The old wooden north stand will be torn down and part of it moved over to the baseball diamond, where it will serve a much-needed purpose in taking care of the baseball fans in the spring. A modern concrete structure silimar to the present south stand will take its place, while another one on the west side will connect the two, thus forming the giant horseshoe.

Will Go Over Bids.

Plans soon will be given to the engineers for the finishing touches and bids will be called for. The board in control will meet the middle of this month to accept or reject the bids. It is hoped that, barring unforeseen obstacles, the new stadium will be completed in time for the 1921 football season.

It is estimated by the board that between $350,000 and $400,000 will be needed to do the work. If the bids prove to be around these amounts no doubt contracts will be let. The estimate is considered reasonably safe by members of the board.

The new "U" stadium will seat about 44,000 persons, thus equalling the capacity of the Harvard stadium and falling short of the Yale bowl by about 18,000. The plans were drawn up by Prof. Lewis M. Gram of the engineering department.

Can Make Additions.

Professor Gram says that if a greater seating capacity is needed in future years, additions can be built above the present heights, thus forming the so-called "double-deckers."

Michigan has long needed a larger stadium. Last year in particular inadequate seating facilities were badly felt. It is said that many more people would have witnessed the Michigan-Chicago game if they could have been accommodated.

CROSSING COPS.

The adective in the soubriquet, "Crossing Cops" is derived from two words: "cross" meaning cross or sore, and "ing" meaning "in the state of." Hence, "Crossing Cop" means one who is always sore.

The one who the Crossing Cop is sore at is you. The reason is because you are trying to drive across his crossing. He is put there to see that you don't get across and he isn't the man to neglect his duty.

Sometimes you manage to evade his vigilance and get across. In that case, he is instructed to insult you. He does it either by giving you a nasty look or else by hollering "Hey, Whatthahel!" Sometimes he varies it by hollering, "Hey, Whothahel!"

Crossing Cops are all given the same training and they learn their ritual from the same book. Their vocabulary is a beautiful example of brevity combined with clearness. It consists of—but perhaps I can better explain it in verse:

Undertaker's Advertising.

"Say it with tombstones."
"Eventually we will bury you, why not now?"
"Since using——'s embalming fluid I have tried no other."

(See Tomorrow's "Ignorant Essays")

I've studied crossing coppers
For many weary years,
Their habits and their customs.
Their sorrows and their fears.
I know their eccentricities,
I know their language well—
Their lexicon has just five words,
And one is Wothahel!

I say I've studied crossing cops
Intensively and long,
And I have learned that they are right,
And I am always wrong.
I've learned their manners and their speech—
I know the last too well—
It all consists of five small words,
And one is Wherethahel!

I've had a long curriculum
Of all the cops devised,
I've canvassed, probed, and faithomed them,
I've parsed and analyzed;
And I have learned their speech consists
Of sundry phrases swell;
Of Whothahel and Whenthahel
And Wherethahel and Whythahel
And also Wothahel!

Alexander Leads Pitchers In National League Records Allowing Fewest Eearned Runs

BY JACK VEIOCK,
International News Sporting Editor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Alexander the Great still holds sway among the pitchers of his league.

The big fellow tops all hurlers in the National league in the matter of earned runs made off his delivery per game, according to the official pitching averages, made public today.

During the season of 1920 Alex pitched in 46 games and completed 33, giving up but 1.91 earned runs per "pastime." The year previous he also led the pitchers of his league in this department with an average of 1.72.

In the won and lost column Burleigh Grimes, premier of Uncle Wilbert Robinson's Dodgers' staff, finished with the best percentage, .676, though Alexander won the greatest number of games, tucking away 27 victories for the Chicago Cubs. Eppa Rixey of the Phillies won 22 and lost the most games, 22, and Jess Haines of the Cards pitched the greatest number, 47.

In the matter of completing games Alexander once again tops the 1920 list with 33, and he also pitched the greatest number of innings, 363. In piling up 11 straight victories the great Alex took another honor during the reason recently closed, and he led in strikeouts with 173.

William Sherdell of St. Louis finished the most games. He is credited with 28. The veteran Babe Adams of the Pirates led the field in shutout games, with a total of eight, and game a wonderful exhibition of control by permitting only 18 of the 1,035 batsmen who faced him to take first on bases on balls. The year previous Adams pitched to 1,017 batters and gave up 23 passes.

Ferdie Schupp of St. Louis was the most liberal pitcher. He gave up 127 passes. Charley Ponder of the Pirates made the greatest number of wild pitches, 10, and John Scott hit the greatest number of batters, 13.

There were 34 pitchers in the senior league who pitched at least ten complete games and 25 who took part in ten or more games, but did not complete ten nine-inning games.

Four pitchers—John Benton, Dick Rudolph, Elwood Martin and John Scott—tied in making the longest losing streaks during 1920, with sever straights defeats apiece.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 10.—The Cleveland American league team, the world's champion, will leave for Dallas, their spring training camp, between March 1 and March 5, Manager Tris Speaker announced today, following a conference here today with James C. Dunn, president of the team. The pitchers and catchers will go to Dallas in the first squad.

Dartmouth Will Have New Coach

HANOVER, N. H., Jan. 10.—Larry Bankhart, coach of the successful Colgate teams, and former Dartmouth football player, and Jackson ("Rip") Cannell, quarterback and captain of the Big Green team, which shared top honors in Eastern football for the season of 1919 are mentioned as successors to Coach Clarence Spears.

Either or both would be acceptable to the great body of Dartmouth men, graduate as well as student, but no member of the Dartmouth Athletic council was willing to make any statement about who would be chosen to direct the 1921 football team. A meeting of the powers that be, however, will be held soon and it is likely that Spears' successor will be named then.

Dorothy's Diary

Jan. 11.—My new position is fine. I'm just as pleased as can be. It's in a real estate office and the people here are very pleasant.

This morning the boss said, "We'll need to get another typewriter for you. I wonder if I can pick up a good one second-hand."

And almost before I thought I blurted out, "You can advertise for one in the Record News." Then I realized that I'd been awully cheeky, but he just smiled and didn't seem to mind.

Fact is, he did advertise for a machine, just as I suggested and got one, too, the next day.

VERNON SCHOOL CHIEF TO QUIT JOB THIS YEAR

VERNON, Jan. 10.—B. F. Sisk, superintendent of the Vernon school, has tendered his resignation to accept a position in the University of California at San Francisco. He has agreed to remain with the Vernon schools until the end of the term.

VERNON, Jan. 10.—Word has been received that Robert January, son of R. A. January, has been awarded a scholarship to the state A. & M. College at College Station offered by J. L. Strickland of Dallas to the boy making the highest record of grain sorghum. He grew eighty-six bushels of feterita on one acre of land. He won first premium on grain sorghum heads at the Cotton Palace at Waco, and took off many prizes at the Dallas fair.

VERNON, Jan. 10.—One hundred bales of pooled cotton has been sold by the Warehouse association to a firm at Bowie at 12½ cents, middling basis. Individual sales were made by the farmers having cotton stored in the warehouse. Over 2,000 bales are stored in the warehouse. Three gins of Vernon are still in operation. Cotton is coming in at a lively clip. The Blanton gin has turned out 2,843 bales. The Farmers' gin, 1784 bales, and the Peoples gin, 1,530 bales.

VERNON, Jan. 10.—A Vernon business man is in receipt of a communication from the United States Machinery company regarding the advisability of establishing a cotton mill at Vernon. The company has opened a branch at Dallas for the purpose of furnishing machinery in units of 5,000 spindles or more for the manufacture of cotton yarn or cotton cloth, and the company desires to establish a mill at Vernon.

Officials at the city hall say that about one-fifth of the city taxes have been paid to date. The valuation is about 80 per cent higher this year than last year and not much speed is being made to pay up.

R. L. More who bought the Vernon theater Jan. 1 from Nicholas Duke of Wichita Falls, has taken charge. Mr. More built the theatrer building six years ago and sold it to Mr. Duke last year, and has again taken charge of the theater. Consideration, $30,000. It is the most modern theatre building in North Texas.

CITY CHARGES VIOLATIONS OF HEALTH RULING

Milkmen and grocerymen must stop removing milk bottles or packages from premises under quarantine unless the stuff has been sterilized, according to a warning Monday from the office of the city sanitary department.

According to reports, this has been done in a few cases on premises which are under quarantine, due to contagious diseases. The practice is forbidden by city ordinance.

It also was pointed out by sanitary officials that the same ordinance forbids laundrymen entering premises under quarantine to remove any laundry until it has first been boiled or otherwise sterilized. In delivering milk, milkmen are required to empty milk in covered containers placed outside the door.

GRAIN COTTON

BULLS CARRY COTTON PRICE MUCH HIGHER

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 10.—Bullish sentiment carried the price of cotton strongly higher today, the most active months being more than a cent a pound up at one stage of the late trading. Smaller ginning returns than expected, the rise of nearly 10 cents in the rate of sterling exchange and reports from Southern mill centers that many mills were on a full-time schedule, beginning with today, stimulated traders friendly to the market to take on large quantities of contracts. The opening was at the advance and there were no very wide reactions from it during the day.

The ginning report of 11,559,230 bales produced to the first of January was almost 100,000 bales smaller than expected and had much to do with the early gains.

A feature of the day was the report that from 4,000 to 5,000 bales of cotton was being prepared in this market for shipment to New York as delivery on January contracts in that market. Spots here were 75 points up, with middling quoted at 14.75.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—There was a continuation of last week's buying movement in the cotton market today and all positions made new high ground for the movement. The feature was the relative strength of January, which sold up to 17.75, or 115 points above the closing quotation of last week.

It closed at 17.75, at which the general market closed barely steady at a net advance of 61 to 105 points. There was good buying by trade and commission houses on this decline, however, while the Southern selling tapered off as soon as the early offerings had been absorbed, and the market became very firm during the middle of the day. Stop orders were uncovered as prices worked above the best point of Saturday.

SUGAR UNCHANGED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—There was no change in the local raw sugar market today, and prices were quoted at 4½ cents for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 5.52 for centrifugal. There were no sales reported, although it was believed that sugar was obtainable at the quoted prices for last January shipment.

In refined there is a fair inquirp noted and prices are unchanged at 7.75 to 7.90 for fine granulated. Sugar futures were firmer and closing prices were 6 to 15 points net higher on covering and buying by trade interests, although trading was light. Closing bids: January, 4.70; March, 4.69; May, 4.81; July, 4.94, all bid.

LIVERPOOL COTTON.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 10.—Cotton spot in moderate inquiry; prices firm. Good middling, 21.56; fully middling, 11.56; middling, 10.56; low middling, 8.81; good ordinary, 7.31; ordinary, 6.56. Sales, 4,000 bales, including 3,100 American. Receipts, 28,000, including 26,800 American. Futures closed very steady; January, 10.61; March, 10.66; May, 10.72; July, 10.77; October, 10.65; December, 10.62.

Godley Brings in 700-Barreller In 2,100-Foot South Bend Stuff

The No. 3 Graham of the Godley Oil and Gas company in the South Bend field of Young county was brought in Monday morning with an initial production of 700 barrels, according to reports reaching here in the afternoon. The well was reported making preparations to drill into the 2,100-foot sand of that field last week. The test is the first to be completed on their lease in that field. The initial size of the well is the average shown by others in that territory.

The well is located on the Graham tract, to the south and across the Brazos river from the producing McCluskey lease of the Panhandle Refining company. Several other tests in that field are approaching the 2,100-foot sand depth, according to reports from the field.

No developments are reported from the test of the North American Refining company, southeast of the town of South Bend, on the Scott tract. This test is reported to have a strong showing of oil at a depth of 3,200 feet. The test is in a district with shallow production, but it is said to be the first test to have an oil showing at a deeper test.

COFFEE ACTIVE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Coffee futures showed increasing activity and firmness today. Active months sold 17 to 20 points net higher in the late trading, with May touching 7.15, or 55 points above the recent low record. That delivery closed at 7.14 with the general market showing a net advance of 15 to 19 points.

Father Deserts Seven and Mate Six to Run Away

By Associated Press

HARRODSBURG, Ky., Jan. 10.—Police of important Kentucky and various border cities were notified by Sheriff Ikell Coleman to look for Charles Grimes, 48, and Mrs. Cora Adkinson, 29, wife of Grimes' neighbor, and arrest them on charges of child desertion.

Mrs. Adkinson is the mother of six. Grimes is charged with deserting his wife and seven children.

It is computed that from a tenth to a quarter of the cost of foodstuffs in the United States goes to pay for crates and other containers that are thrown away instead of being used a second time.

Women now have full suffrage rights in the little Mohammedan republic of Azerbaidjan, one of the newly created dominions lying between the northern borders of Persia and the Caspian sea.

SHORT DEMAND BOOSTS WHEAT PRICE UPWARD

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Indications of short demand gave an upward swing to wheat prices today, after a decline at the start. Closing quotations were strong to 1¾c to 3¾c higher, with March $1.77 to $1.77½, and May $1.68¼; corn finished ½c to ½c down, oats unchanged to ½c advance, and provisions at a setback of 15c to 45c.

Active buying on the part of houses with seaboard connections accompanied the ascent of values in the wheat market, and an unsual rise in sterling exchange was also regarded as significant. A further stimulant for the advance was that the committee hearings on the emergency tariff would be ended tomorrow and that the bill would shortly be returned to the senate. On the advance March delivery touched the highest figures since November. Earlier weakness was ascribed to reports from the Southwest telling of fairly liberaly country offerings and to the circumstance that this has been a traditional favorite day for calendar speculators to press the selling side.

STOCK MARKET IS MARKED BY UNSTEADY TONE

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The successive stages of today's stock market were characterized by a hesitant opening, general heaviness before noon, spectacular recoveries in several of the issues during the intermediate period and irregular strength at the active close.

Attendant features included a vigorous advance in foreign exchange, notably the British rate, decline of call loans to 6 per cent, the lowest figure in three weeks, and the December report of the United States Steel corporation, disclosing anothr severe decrease in unfilled tonnage.

Strength of foreign remittances, some of which rose to highest quotations in almost half a year, was based in part on reports that the British treasury has in contemplation a plan for refunding its extensive obligations in this country.

Relaxation of demand money, which failed to extend time funds, seemed to be little more than a belated recognition that the supply of such accommodations is vastly in excess of present requirements.

The drop of about 875,000 tons in United States steel tonnage is the largest reported in any month since the set back which began last August and reduces the corporation's bookings to the smallest total in more than a year.

Sales amounted to 1,135,000 shares.

There was only a moderate market for bonds, including the Liberty division, and the general trend was most often indefinite, an irregular tone ruling at the close.

Total sales, par value, $13,850,000.

AGREES TO BUY BIT AND FINDS OWN PROPERTY

Contracting to purchase an eight-inch drill bit, valued at $500, that had been stolen from his lease in the K. M. A. field is apparently the experience of a local oil operator. The bit was stolen from the lease several months ago. A week ago the owner was approached by two men who offered to sell a bit for $400. The operator contracted to purchase it and was told where the bit was being held in this city.

Investigation led to the belief that the bit was the same as had been stolen from his lease. The bit was taken to the police station to await the arrival of the sellers of the bit.

No one has called for it and it is believed by the police that the supposed thieves will be content to allow it to return to the former owners without payment.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

After five years it is possible to say with entire truth that all other considerations are second with Dodge Brothers to the solid satisfaction of the owner of the car.

Dodge Brothers always have pursued and always will pursue this policy, not from any spirit of philanthropy, but because it is in the highest sense of the word good business to do so.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low
The tire mileage is unusually high

LEGAL NOTICE.
CITATION BY PUBLICATION.
The State of Texas.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita county greeting;
You are hereby commanded to summon Matt Foster by making publication once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the county court of Wichita county at law, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Wichita Falls, Texas, on the first Monday in February A. D., 1921, the same being the 7th day of February A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 22nd day of September A. D., 1920, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 4078, wherein J. L. Maxwell is plaintiff and Matt Foster is defendant said petition alleging in substance: That heretofore, to-wit, on the 19th day of April A. D., 1920, defendant made, executed and delivered to plaintiff his certain promissory note in the sum of $425 bearing date the day and year aforesaid and due the 19th day of May, A. D., 1920, and drawing interest at the rate of 10 per cent annum and contained the usual 10 per cent attorney fee clause; that said note has an aggregate credit of $48.55; that plaintiff has placed said note in the hands of John Ryan, an attorney at this bar, and has promised him the 10 per cent attorney fees provided for in said note; that defendant, though often requested, his hitherto failed and refused and still refuses to pay the balance due on said note to plaintiff's damage in the amount due on said note and attorney fees, as aforesaid and costs of suit, etc. Herein fail not but have before said court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Tex., on this the 24th day of December A. D., 1920.
W. T. HARRIS, Clerk County Court, Wichita County at Law, Texas.
By M. F. YEAGER, Deputy.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
The State of Texas, County of Wichita.
By virtue of a certain execution issued out of the Honorable District court of Wichita County, on the 14th day of December, 1920, by A. F. Kerr, district clerk, against the Power Oil and Refining company, a corporation, for the sum of Eleven Hundred Seventy-Seven and 55-100 ($1,177.55) Dollars and costs of suit in cause No. 8285, in said court, styled North Side Lumber and Building company, a corporation, versus the Power Oil and Refining company, a corporation, and placed in my hands for service, I, Fred K. Smith, as sheriff of Wichita county, Texas, did on the 14th day of December 1920, levy on certain personal property situated in Wichita county, described as follows, to-wit: One Western Electric Co. Generator Type E 4½ 15 K. W. 125 volt, 1,000 R. P. M., No. 47,733; two 6-4-6 Worthington pumps, one 4½-5-4 Worthington pump, two 10-6-10 Worthington pumps, one 7½ Worthington pump, one 6-8½ Worthington pump, two 250-barrel steel tanks, one 500-barrel steel tank, and levied upon as the property of said Power Oil and Refining company, a corporation, located at the Power Oil and Refining company plant, and on Tuesday, the 18th day of January, 1921, at the courthouse door of Wichita county in the City of Wichita Falls, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. I will sell said personal property at public vendue for cash to the highest bidder as the property of said Northside Lumber company, a corporation, by virtue of said levy and said execution. And in compliance with law I give this notice by publication in the English language, once a week for 10 consecutive days immediately preceding said day of sale in the Wichita Falls Record News, a newspaper published in Wichita county. Witness my hand this the 4th day of January, 1921.
FRED K. SMITH, Sheriff Wichita County, Texas.
H. T. LANIER, Deputy.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.
The State of Texas to the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon The Oklahoma and Texas Petroleum company, a foreign corporation and a non-resident of the State of Texas, by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 78th district court of Wichita county, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Wichita Falls, on the first Monday in March, A. D., 1921, the same being the seventh day of March, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer an amendded petition filed in said court on the sixth day of January, A. D., 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 8978-B, wherein, the Carey Brothers Oil company, a partnership composed of E. S. Carey, C. W. Carey, R. R. Carey, Guy Rogers, J. E. Childers, E. H. Breedlove, T. T. T. Reese, Henry Patterson, J. J. Moran and J. B. Stokes, all of whom reside in Wichita county, Texas, are plaintiffs, and The Oklahoma and Texas Petroleum company, a foreign corporation, and W. M. Moore, who resides in Wichita county, Texas, and J. P. McKinney, who resides in Harris County, Texas, are defendants, and said petition alleging: That on or about the 12th day of May, 1920, the plaintiffs sold and delivered to the defendant, the Oklahoma and Texas Petroleum company, 1,800 feet of steel casing at $1.50 per foot, terms being cash, or 8 per cent interest per annum on all the purchase price not so paid; that on or about June 12, 1920, said defendant paid $1,000 of said price, but that no more of the same has been paid and that the balance, including interest is now due in the sum of $1,643; that said casing was furnished with the understanding that it was to be used, and it was so used for the improvement of a certain oil and gas lease belonging to the defendant in Wichita county, Texas, and described as follows: Beginning 990 feet E. and 660 feet N of the SW. corner of Block 88, Red River Valley Lands Subdivision in Wichita county; thence E. 165 feet; thence N. 660 feet; thence W. 165 feet, thence S. 660 feet to point of beginning; that on the 10th day of September, 1920, plaintiffs fixed and secured a mechanics and material man's lien on said lease by filing in the office of the county clerk of Wichita County, Texas, a material man's lien statement, as in such cases is provided for by law; that on or about the seventh day of September, 1920, the defendants, W. M. Moore and J. P. McKinney purchased said lease, subject to plaintiffs' aforesaid claim against it; that plaintiffs' said lien is now a valid and subsisting claim against said lease and, except as aforesaid, has not been paid off by either of the within defendants. Plaintiffs pray for citation, for judgment foreclosing its said lien, for judgment against the defendants jointly and severally in the sum of $1,643 for costs and for general relief. Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the tenth day of January, A. D., 1921.
A. F. Kerr, Clerk District Court, Wichita County, Texas.

O'Callaghan May Yet Have To Go Home

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Passport restrictions will not be waived by the state department to permit entrance to the United States of Daniel O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who on his arrival last week at Newport News as a stowaway and without a passport, was temporarily admitted on parole by order of the labor department.

The state department's decision announced today by acting secretary of labor. This indicated a continuation of the controversy between the two departments which has been apparent since the landing of the lord mayor on American soil.

Labor department officials asserted that Secretary Wilson did not realize that the case of O'Callaghan had yet come within jurisdiction of the state department inasmuch as he had not formally referred it to Secretary Davis. Secretary Wilson had not begun his consideration of the case today and it was said that he would not take it under advisement until it had come to him through the regular channels of the department.

North Wichitan Prays Wife Will Pay Penalty for Quitting Home

"Can a man have his wife arrested for leaving him and three small children without cause" was the question of a North Wichitan as he stepped into city detectives' office Monday afternoon. "My wife left me last night without saying a word and I want to have her arrested," he continued.

Detective Chief Boyd explained to the irate husband that while the law was very forcible in its statements as to what will be done with a husband who leaves his wife and children it said nothing about the responsibility of the wife to the family in a similar situation. The husband was unable to understand why in these days of equal suffrage and equal everything" that any difference as to husband and wife responsibility should exist. Chief Boyd attempted no explanation.

The husband did not give his name. He said his wife left Sunday and probably went to Ranger to work. The three children are small, he added, the youngest being 4 months old.

"I hope they put her in jail when she gets there and then, perhaps, she would be glad to get home," the husband said in parting.

NEGRO LYNCHER CROWD MISSED RETURNED HERE

Floyd Ray, negro, who confessed criminal assault upon a young white girl here on the night of October 23, as charged in an indictment returned against him by a special grand jury, and who narrowly escaped death at the hands of a mob on the night following his arrest, was returned to the county jail from the Tarrant county jail at Fort Worth, where he was taken for safe keeping only a few hours before the "neck-tie committee demanded that he be turned over to them.

In response to a request from the negro immediately after he arrived here, he was taken before the district attorney and there made a second written confession to the crime with which he stands charged.

It is expected that he will be arraigned for trial during the criminal term of the present session of Thirtieth district court.

Amusements

EMPRESS.

Some photoplays which entertain us while we are viewing them are quickly forgotten for more serious or more frivilous affairs. Other pictures not only entertain, but give us food for serious and profitable thought. We remember them. We pick out certain parts of the story and turn these over in our minds; and we reach conclusions that help us get more joy out of life. Such a picture is "Blind Wives," produced by William Fox and based on the famous stage play "My Lady's Dress" by Edward Knoblock. It was shown for the first time yesterday at the Empress Theater and drew crowded and enthusiastic houses.

"Blind Wives" is really not one play, but five—four episodes being skillfully interwoven into the main idea, which is to show the struggles and the griefs recorded in different parts of the world.

OLYMPIC

One of the most charming figures in the new Paramount picture, "The Charm School" starring Wallace Reid, which is being shown at the Olympic theatre today is Lila Lee, who plays the leading feminine role opposite Mr. Reid.

Miss Lee will be remembered as having played with Mr. Reid in "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." Since her remarkable work in such famous pictures as C. B. De Mille's "Male and Female" in which she played the little scullery maid, and later in William De Mille's production "The Prince Chap," the popularity of the little actress has increased by leaps and bounds.

In this picture, she is the principal charmer of the charm school and is the other party to the romance which blossoms when Wallace Reid, as Austin Bevans, inherits a girls' school from his aunt and converts it into an institution where young ladies are taught how to be charming, graceful and lovely.

A breath-taking story and a brilliant cast are the combination promised in William De Mille's latest picture, "Midsummer Madness," coming to the Olympic theater for three days commencing Monday week.

The story was adapted from Cosmo Hamilton's novel, "His Friend and His Wife," Mr. Hamilton is well known as the author of "Scandal," "The Blindness of Virtue," and many other successful plays and stories.

The plot centers around two young married couples who are close friends. One of the wives is so lavish withe the outward expressions of her love for her husband that he becomes a bit tired of her. Now that she is so completely won, he longs for new fields to conquer. His friend's wife, on the other hand, is blessed with a husband who is more interested in business than in her; she craves romance. So the over-loved husband and his friend's under-loved wife are attracted to each other. In a moment of folly they commit an indiscretion that nearly ruins four lives.

The cast of "Midsummer Madness," includes such sterling screen players as Lois Wilson, Jack Holt, Lila Lee and Conrad Nagel. The picture has been sumptuously produced and abounds in moments of unusual dramatic strength.

Burk Casinghead Gas Fight Begun In Court Monday

Arguments in the injunction suit of Hameir et al, against the Tidal Western Oil company, trial of which was begun before Judge P. A. Martin Monday in Eighty-ninth district court will be heard Saturday afternoon, it was announced by the court late Monday after taking of testimony had been completed.

The suit is for a permanent injunction restraining the defendant company from preventing the use by owners of the natural casinghead gas supply for domestic purposes by residents of Burkburnett.

A temporary restraining order was issued upon the filing of the suit.
