M. O. NEWLIN IS VICTIM OF FATAL WRECK ON ROAD

Wet Pavement Blamed For Loss of Control of His Machine

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Occupants of Car Hurt As They Attempt to Avoid Crash

M. O. Newlin, a motorcycle deliveryman employed at the local post office, was instantly killed at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon when his machine skidded and overturned on the Iowa Park road two and one-half miles west of the city. His neck was broken and he died before passing motorists could pull him from beneath the wrecked motor.

Two Others Injured.

Two other men, Robert A. Faver, 1717 Kemp boulevard, and Walker Wartley of Iowa Park, were painfully but not seriously injured when they drove their automobile into a ditch to avoid running down Newlin as he slid across the road directly in front of them. Both were taken to the General hospital where an examination revealed that their injuries were of a minor nature.

The victim of the accident was running west on his way to the home of his parents, three miles out on the road. A light shower had made the pavement slippery, according to eye witnesses and it is supposed that Newlin lost control of his machine. As it slipped from under him he fell beneath it, skidded across the highway and landed in a shallow ditch at one side. Faver and Wartley, coming into Wichita Falls, swerved their car to the opposite side of the road and were pinned beneath it when it overturned.

Newlin's Death Instant.

Motorcycle Officer Melvin Johnson, L. T. Ruwe of 311 Morgan building, Fred Rice of Maakins and R. E. Barr, 314 Scott avenue, were all near the scene of the crash. They immediately pulled Newlin, Faver and Wartley from beneath the wrecked machines and a hurried examination revealed that Newlin was dead. In addition to his broken neck he suffered a broken hip, both ankles fractured and terrible cuts and bruises about the head and body. Most of his teeth were knocked out.

The two injured men were brought to the hospital and an ambulance was summoned to take the body to the Merkle undertaking parlors.

Newlin lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newlin. He was 26 years of age, unmarried and had been employed by the post office department here for about a year and a half.

Funeral services will probably be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene with Rev. W. H. Phillips, pastor, in charge. Definite announcement of the time is being held up pending word from relatives.

DAVIS SPEEDS BACK TO WORK

Conferences on Political Situation Started For Nominee Today

By The Associated Press.

ABOARD THE HARBOR EXPRESS, EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK, July 30.—Ready for his great political adventure, John W. Davis, democratic presidential nominee, is speeding back to New York tonight after two weeks of needed rest in the island of Penobscot Bay. In the early stages of his journey several waysite receptions were held.

Upon his arrival in New York tomorrow morning, Mr. Davis will go direct to his personal headquarters in an uptown hotel. He first will receive a report from his campaign manager, Clem L. Shaver, on the progress of the organization of the campaign machinery and then will confer with Daniel C. Roper, one of the McAdoo pre-convention leaders, and Walker D. Hines, former director general of railroads.

During the day Robert Jackson, chairman of the New Hampshire democratic state committee, brought encouraging reports to the nominee on the political outlook in New Hampshire. He and other democratic leaders in New England believe the democrats have better than an even chance of carrying the state in November.

While he has been greatly benefited by his stay in Maine, Mr. Davis frankly says he is glad to get back to headquarters. He has been out of touch with the political situation generally, so much that he has declined to comment on developments. He refused today to discuss the declination of Governor Bryan of Nebraska, his running mate, to carry out the request of the president for a general mobilization of the army reserves next September.

U. S. FLYERS IN START ON LAST LEG OF JOURNEY

Lowell and His Party Reach Scotland on Return Home

RECEPTION DELAYED

Americans Want Entertainment Put Off Until Flight Ends

By the Associated Press.

KIRKWALL, Scotland, July 30.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his band of United States army aviators, arrived here this afternoon from Brough, England, on the start of the last leg of their round-the-world flight.

Flight Proves Easy.

The jump-off at Brough took place at 10:24 o'clock this morning and after an easy flight under good weather conditions very nearly all the way the planes dropped down gracefully upon the waters of Houton bay about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and taxied to their moorings in the presence of a large portion of the population of the Orkney islands and the officers and crew of the United States cruiser Richmond, anchored nearby.

The journey of about 370 miles from Brough was made in about five and a half hours. Shortly after passing Edinburgh the airmen encountered a heavy fog, which forced them up to an altitude of 1600 feet. They lost the fog, however, after an hour's run, and the last 100 miles of the flight was made in an hour with the wind behind them.

Off Today For Iceland.

The plans of the aviators are still indefinite, but they probably will jump off from here tomorrow for Iceland. The Richmond will depart at the same time the aviators make the jump and again will meet them in Iceland. The cruiser Raleigh is awaiting their arrival at Hornafjord and will take care of the airmen until the Richmond arrives.

DELAY RECEPTION.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—On request of Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, commanding the army world flight, orders were issued by the air service today canceling plans for a celebration in honor of aviators when they reach Washington. Lieut. Smith had urged that no ceremonies be held until the flight had been completed and it was indicated that efforts would be made to have his wishes met in other cities.

Acting Secretary Davis of the war department and Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, will meet the American around-the-world fliers upon their arrival at Boston and welcome them upon their return to American soil.

Proceeds taken in during the games between the Floral Heights and Texhoma teams who are playing a series of games for the championship of the city will be turned over to the Record News milk and ice fund.

FRENCH PRESENT DEADLOCK PLAN

Attempt to Break Up Hitch on Adoption of Dawes Proposal

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, July 30—The new French proposal embodying Premier Herriot's rock bottom offer in concessions to break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference was handed to Prime Minister MacDonald at four o'clock this afternoon and laid before the chief delegates including American Ambassador Kellogg who were gathered in the prime minister's room of the house of commons. The French delegates hope that the proposals will bring the allied delegates together on methods of launching the Dawes plan and at the same time reconcile the international bankers to the security for the Dawes plan loan to Germany.

If the plan fails, the French say they have nothing more to offer. They do not submit the scheme in any sense as an ultimatum and they emphasize that they are not looking out of the window toward a train waiting to take them back to Paris.

Nevertheless they maintain the document on which their experts have labored for the last 48 hours should provide a means of settlement. Unless it does they do not know what more they can do toward reaching a settlement which will put the Dawes plan to work.

Stage Topsy on Trial in Theatre For Alleged "Roughing" of Cop

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Testimony that Miss Rosetta Duncan, a black face "Topsy" of the stage, slapped Policeman Delaney and then kicked him, was given today by Michael R. Rafferty, a witness for the defense in the trial of Chief of Police Theodore Sroboda and three of his policemen in Cicero, a suburb. The quartet is charged with assault.

"Topsy" previously had denied striking the policeman and had charged that Policemen Delaney and Widlock struck her and twisted her arms, broke her nose and cracked one of her ribs.

The trial, termed by counsel for the defense "a vaudeville show," is being held in Evanston theatre, hired by Magistrate Henry Williams to accommodate friends of both sides in the contest which began July 4, when Topsy's brother Harrold was arrested for violating a traffic rule and she was arrested charged with interfering, striking, biting the policeman.

The court moved back to the Evanston police station this afternoon when the audience failed to justify the renting of the theatre.

BOYS' SANITY OCCUPIES TRIAL OF FRANKS CASE

Attorneys In Hot Fight On Admission Of Insanity Evidence

DEFENSE IS UPHELD

Prosecutor Threatens He Will Confess Error On Appeal

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30 — Whether mental disease constitutes insanity or only a degree of responsibility that can be considered in mitigation of sentence was the problem presented today to Judge John R. Caverly. He bears the responsibility of deciding the punishment of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, for the kidnaping and murder of Robert Franks, and the legal puzzle was put up to him today when the defense started.

Over-Rules Objection.

Judge Caverly flatly over-ruled an objection by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, to any evidence bearing upon the mental condition of the defendants. Despite this, the prosecution insisted upon being heard, saying: "If this hearing results in a sentence of death, the order of the court would not be worth the paper it was written on. It would surely be appealed to the supreme court and if you admit evidence concerning any degree of insanity I will confess error in the upper court."

"I don't care what is done with this case after I get through with it," retorted Judge Caverly.

At one point, Benjamin Bacharach of counsel for the defense, suggested that in view of Judge Caverly's ruling on the objection, time consumed in argument was being wasted.

Would Devote Days.

"I will devote days instead of hours to this if necessary," rejoined the judge. "Two lives are at stake here."

The state contended throughout that any question dealing with the mentality of the defendants should be submitted to a jury for a finding of facts as to their sanity.

The defense took a position without precedent in this state that "functional mental disease" was a proper

Lynch Claims Sufficient Errors Made In Count To Put Him In Run-Off

Asserts Omissions In Reports Discovered by Him Already; Others Suspected.

Special to The Record News.

HOUSTON, Texas, July 30.—Election count errors, discrepancies, and omissions, already discovered, will lift Lynch Davidson into second place in the race for governor, despite Mrs. Ferguson's reported lead of over 4,000 votes according to claims of the Lynch Davidson organization, it was announced here.

Declare Errors Found.

Lynch Davidson was Wednesday in Dallas in conference with his campaign manager and north Texas supporters. At the same time leaders in his campaign here reported that errors and discrepancies have been found which will materially increase his count, and will put him ahead of Mrs. Ferguson.

"Lynch Davidson will be in the run-off," was the emphatic declaration made by his friends.

Reports are being assembled on the county returns, and extensive checking of the conflicting reports from various counties is being made.

Lynch Davidson's supporters expect to show a consistent gain over Mrs. Ferguson in all the western counties not yet reported, and to show that he will more than hold an even break in the final returns of more than 125 counties on which only incomplete returns have been received.

Claims 1,000 Majority.

When omissions from the totals of votes already reported are accounted for, and when discrepancies are corrected, the lead of Mrs. Ferguson, it was declared, will have been overcome. A lead of 1,000 votes in Hidalgo county over Mrs. Ferguson not yet reported by the election bureau was claimed by the Lynch Davidson organization.

No question of contesting the election has been raised, so far as reported; however, the Lynch Davidson campaign will keep a rigid check on the returns of counties still incomplete and unreported, and expects when the official count is made by county committees next Saturday that Lynch Davidson will be found to be in the run-off race.

The injured were passengers on an express train bound from the Pennsylvania terminal to Port Washington, Long Island. While passing through the Woodside railroad yards, the last three of its nine passenger coaches jumped the rails, as a result of the premature throwing of a hand switch.

Houston Candidate Says Present Tabulation Is Not Correct

LOSES IN GRAYSON

Recount at Sherman Takes 70 Votes From His Total

By the Associated Press.

DALLAS, Texas, July 30.—"Nothing short of an official count will decide who really holds second place in the gubernatorial race" declared Lynch Davidson, the third place man, tonight while visiting at his state headquarters.

Statement Issue.

The statement follows: "Answering the thousands upon thousands of inquiries received from friends all over the state as to my opinion as to what the outcome of the close race between Mrs. Ferguson will be I am confident of winning.

"The tabulations made by the Texas election bureau will not finally determine the matter. Due to the closeness of the vote' he said, "nothing short of an official count will determine the status of myself and Mrs. Ferguson in the race. So many counties over the state favorable to my candidacy have not yet reported that it would be a very easy matter to overcome the slight lead now held by Mrs. Ferguson.

Mrs. Ferguson Leads Tonight.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, had again passed the 4,000 mark separating her from Lynch Davidson, her nearest rival for second position in the democratic primary standing. This was the information given out by the Texas Election bureau at 6 p. m. after the final tabulation for the day had been completed. Between 2:30 p. m. and 6 p. m. Mrs. Ferguson had increased her lead over Davidson from 3,619 to 4,393 votes.

The new totals include returns from 246 of the 252 counties in Texas as including 149 complete, with a total vote of 654,196.

Barry Miller of Dallas continued to hold his slight margin over W. G. Edwards of Denton, for leading candidate for the lieutenant governorship. The vote was Miller 177,084; Edwards 174,622, McCall 89,354, and Malone 32,867.

The attorney general's race stood: Mosely 253,495; Ward 100,213; Wall 98,544; Nelson 84,854.

Run-off For Congress.

In the only race for congress where a run-off seems probable the first congressional district, Black, the incumbent, has a lead of 879 votes over the combined vote of Murray and Sturgeon, with two counties yet to be heard from. However, only three of the nine counties in the district have reported complete.

Lynch Davidson, the third man in the gubernatorial race, after demanding a recount in Grayson county, lost seventy votes and Robertson, the high man gained 139, according to a dispatch from the election bureau correspondent at Sherman. L. DAVIDSON DEMANDS OFFICIAL COUNT

M. O. NEWLIN IS VICTIM OF FATAL WRECK ON ROAD

Wet Pavement Blamed For Loss of Control of His Machine

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Occupants of Car Hurt As They Attempt to Avoid Crash

M. O. Newlin, a motorcycle deliveryman employed at the local post office, was instantly killed at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon when his machine skidded and overturned on the Iowa Park road two and one-half miles west of the city. His neck was broken and he died before passing motorists could pull him from beneath the wrecked motor.

Two Others Injured.

Two other men, Robert A. Faver, 1717 Kemp boulevard, and Walker Wartley of Iowa Park, were painfully but not seriously injured when they drove their automobile into a ditch to avoid running down Newlin as he slid across the road directly in front of them. Both were taken to the General hospital where an examination revealed that their injuries were of a minor nature.

The victim of the accident was running west on his way to the home of his parents, three miles out on the road. A light shower had made the pavement slippery, according to eye witnesses and it is supposed that Newlin lost control of his machine. As it slipped from under him he fell beneath it, skidded across the highway and landed in a shallow ditch at one side. Faver and Wartley, coming into Wichita Falls, swerved their car to the opposite side of the road and were pinned beneath it when it overturned.

Newlin's Death Instant.

Motorcycle Officer Melvin Johnson, L. T. Ruwe of 311 Morgan building, Fred Rice of Mankins and R. E. Barr, 314 Scott avenue, were all near the scene of the crash. They immediately pulled Newlin, Faver and Wartley from beneath the wrecked machines and a hurried examination revealed that Newlin was dead. In addition to his broken neck he suffered a broken hip, both ankles fractured and terrible cuts and bruises about the head and body. Most of his teeth were knocked out.

The two injured men were brought to the hospital and an ambulance was summoned to take the body to the Merkle undertaking parlors.

Newlin lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newlin. He was 26 years of age, unmarried and had been employed by the post office department here for about a year and a half.

Funeral services will probably be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene with Rev. W. H. Phillips, pastor, in charge. Definite announcement of the time is being held up pending word from relatives.

DAVIS SPEEDS BACK TO WORK

Conferences on Political Situation Started For Nominee Today

By The Associated Press.

ABOARD THE HARBOR EXPRESS, EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK, July 30 — Ready for his great political adventure, John W. Davis, democratic presidential nominee, is speeding back to New York tonight after two weeks of needed rest in the island of Penobscot Bay. In the early stages of his journey several wayside receptions were held.

Upon his arrival in New York tomorrow morning, Mr. Davis will go direct to his personal headquarters in an uptown hotel. He first will receive a report from his campaign manager, Clem L. Shaver, on the progress of the organization of the campaign machinery and then will confer with Daniel C. Roper, one of the McAdoo pre-convention leaders, and Walker D. Hines, former director general of railroads.

During the day Robert Jackson, chairman of the New Hampshire democratic state committee, brought encouraging reports to the nominee on the political outlook in New Hampshire. He and other democratic leaders in New England believe the democrats have better than an even chance of carrying the state in November.

While he has been greatly benefited by his stay in Maine, Mr. Davis frankly says he is glad to get back to headquarters. He has been out of touch with the political situation generally, so much that he has declined to comment on developments. He refused today to discuss the declination of Governor Bryan of Nebraska, his running mate, to carry out the request of the president for a general mobilization of the army reserves next September.

U. S. FLYERS IN START ON LAST LEG OF JOURNEY

Lowell and His Party Reach Scotland on Return Home

RECEPTION DELAYED

Americans Want Entertainment Put Off Until Flight Ends

By the Associated Press.

KIRKWALL, Scotland, July 30.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his band of United States army aviators, arrived here this afternoon from Brough, England, on the start of the last leg of their round the world flight.

Flight Proves Easy.

The jump-off at Brough took place at 10:24 o'clock this morning and after an easy flight under good weather conditions very nearly all the way, the planes dropped down gracefully upon the waters of Houton bay about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and taxied to their moorings in the presence of a large portion of the population of the Orkney islands and the officers and crew of the United States cruiser Richmond, anchored nearby.

The journey of about 370 miles from Brough was made in about five and a half hours. Shortly after passing Edinburgh the airmen encountered a heavy fog, which forced them up to an altitude of 1000 feet. They lost the fog, however, after an hour's run, and the last 100 miles of the flight was made in an hour with the wind behind them.

Off Today For Iceland.

The plans of the aviators are still indefinite, but they probably will jump off from here tomorrow for Iceland. The Richmond will depart at the same time the aviators make this jump and again will meet them in Iceland. The cruiser Raleigh is awaiting their arrival at Hornafjord and will take care of the airmen until the Richmond arrives.

DELAY RECEPTION.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—On request of Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, commanding the army world flight, orders were issued by the air service today canceling plans for a celebration in honor of aviators when they reach Washington. Lieut. Smith had urged that no ceremonies be held until the flight had been completed and it was indicated that efforts would be made to have his wishes met in other cities.

Acting Secretary Davis of the war department and Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, will meet the American around-the-world fliers upon their arrival at Boston and welcome them upon their return to American soil.

With the warmest month of the year at hand and a great demand for milk and ice at all times it is hoped by those in charge of the fund that contributions will not cease now that the fund is in a fairly good condition. Proceeds taken in during the games between the Floral Heights and Texhoma teams who are playing a series of games for the championship of the city will be turned over to the Record News milk and ice fund.

FRENCH PRESENT DEADLOCK PLAN

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, July 30.—The new French proposal embodying Premier Herriot's rock bottom offer in concessions to break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference was handed to Prime Minister MacDonald at four o'clock this afternoon and laid before the chief delegates including American Ambassador Kellogg who were gathered in the prime minister's room of the house of commons. The French delegates hope that the proposals will bring the allied delegates together on methods of launching the Dawes plan and at the same time reconcile the international bankers to the security for the Dawes plan loan to Germany.

If the plan fails, the French say they have nothing more to offer. They do not submit the scheme in any sense as an ultimatum and they emphasize that they are not looking out of the window toward a train waiting to take them back to Paris.

Nevertheless they maintain the document on which their experts have labored for the last 48 hours should provide a means of settlement. Unless it does they do not know what more they can do toward reaching a settlement which will put the Dawes plan to work.

Stage Topsy on Trial in Theatre For Alleged "Roughing" of Cop

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Testimony that Miss Rosetta Duncan, a black face "Topsy" of the stage, slapped Policeman Delaney and then kicked him, was given today by Michael R. Rafferty, a witness for the defense in the trial of Chief of Police Theodore Svoboda and three of his policemen in Cicero, a suburb. The quartet is charged with assault.

"Topsy" previously had denied striking the policeman and had charged that Policemen Delaney and Widlock struck her and twisted her arms, broke her nose and cracked one of her ribs.

The trial, termed by counsel for the defense "a vaudeville show," is being held in Evanston theatre, hired by Magistrate Henry Williams to accommodate friends of both sides in the contest which began July 4, when Topsy's brother Harrold was arrested for violating a traffic rule and she was arrested charged with interferring, striking, biting the policeman.

The court moved back to the Evanston police station this afternoon when the audience failed to justify the renting of the theatre.

BOYS' SANITY OCCUPIES TRIAL OF FRANKS CASE

Attorneys In Hot Fight On Admission Of Insanity Evidence

DEFENSE IS UPHELD

Prosecutor Threatens He Will Confess Error On Appeal

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30. — Whether mental disease constitutes insanity or only a degree of responsibility that can be considered in mitigation of sentence was the problem presented today to Judge John R. Caverly. He bears the responsibility of deciding the punishment of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, for the kidnaping and murder of Robert Franks, and the legal puzzle was put up to him today when the defense started.

Over-Rules Objection.

Judge Caverly flatly over-ruled an objection by Robert E. Crowe, states attorney, to any evidence bearing upon the mental condition of the defendants. Despite this, the prosecutor insisted upon being heard, saying: "If this hearing results in a sentence of death, the order of the court would not be worth the paper it was written on. It would surely be appealed to the supreme court and if you admit evidence concerning any degree of insanity I will confess error in the upper court."

"I don't care what is done with this case after I get through with it," retorted Judge Caverly.

At one point, Benjamin Bachrach of counsel for the defense, suggested that in view of Judge Caverly's ruling on the objection, time consumed in argument was being wasted.

Would Devote Days.

"I will devote days instead of hours to this if necessary," rejoined the judge. "Two lives are at stake here."

The state contended throughout that any question dealing with the mentality of the defendants should be submitted to a jury for a finding of facts as to their sanity.

The defense took a position without precedent in this state that "functional mental disease" was a proper

Lynch Claims Sufficient Errors Made In Count To Put Him In Run-Off

RECORD BREAKING WHEAT TRAIN IS TWO MILES LONG

By The Associated Press.

Asserts Omissions In Reports Discovered by Him Already; Others Suspected.

Special to The Record News.

HOUSTON, Texas, July 30.—Election count errors, discrepancies, and omissions, already discovered, will lift Lynch Davidson into second place in the race for governor, despite Mrs. Ferguson's reported lead of over 4,000 votes according to claims of the Lynch Davidson organization, it was announced here.

Declare Errors Found.

Lynch Davidson was Wednesday in Dallas in conference with his campaign manager and north Texas supporters. At the same time leaders in his campaign here reported that errors and discrepancies have been found which will materially increase his count, and will put him ahead of Mrs. Ferguson.

"Lynch Davidson will be in the run-off," was the emphatic declaration made by his friends.

Reports are being assembled on the county returns, and extensive checking of the conflicting reports from various counties is being made. Lynch Davidson's supporters expect to show a consistent gain over Mrs. Ferguson in all the western counties not yet reported, and to show that he will more than hold an even break in the final returns of more than 125 counties on which only incomplete returns have been received.

Claims 1,000 Majority.

When omissions from the totals of votes already reported are accounted for, and when discrepancies are corrected, the lead of Mrs. Ferguson, it was declared, will have been overcome. A lead of 1,000 votes in Hidalgo county over Mrs. Ferguson not yet reported by the election bureau was claimed by the Lynch Davidson organization.

No question of contesting the election has been raised, so far as reported, however, the Lynch Davidson campaign will keep a rigid check on the returns of counties still incomplete and unreported, and expects when the official count is made by county committees next Saturday that Lynch Davidson will be found to be in the run-off race.

ONE DEAD, 28 HURT IN WRECK

Fast Express Cars Jump Track and Sideswipe Electric Train

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 30—One woman was killed and 28 persons were injured, 15 of them seriously, late this afternoon when several cars of an express train on the Long Island railroad jumped the rails, one of them side-swiping an electric locomotive on an adjacent track at Woodside, Long Island, from where the 13 seriously injured were brought to the Pennsylvania station in a special ambulance train and then transported to Bellevue hospital. The injured were passengers on an express train bound from the Pennsylvania terminal to Port Washington, Long Island. While passing through the Woodside railroad yards, the last three of its nine passenger coaches jumped the rails, as a result of the premature throwing of a hand switch.

The first of the three rear cars grazed an electric locomotive on an adjacent track, and it was thrown on its side. The other two were derailed.

Then the experts reported that the bomb was "just plain tin"—a small railroad torpedo and the sleuths learned that the radicals were just plain boys, experimenting with noise.

Houston Candidate Says Present Tabulation Is Not Correct

LOSES IN GRAYSON

Recount at Sherman Takes 70 Votes From His Total

By the Associated Press.

DALLAS, Texas, July 30.—"Nothing short of an official count will decide who really holds second place in the gubernatorial race" declared Lynch Davidson, the third place man, tonight while visiting at his state headquarters.

Statement Issue.

The statement follows: "Answering the thousands upon thousands of inquiries received from friends all over the state as to my opinion as to what the outcome of the close race between Mrs. Ferguson will be I am confident of winning.

"The tabulations made by the Texas election bureau will not finally determine the matter. Due to the closeness of the vote" he said, "nothing short of an official count will determine the status of myself and Mrs. Ferguson in the race. So many counties over the state favorable to my candidacy have not yet reported that it would be a very easy matter to overcome the slight lead now held by Mrs. Ferguson.

Mrs. Ferguson Leads Tonight.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, had again passed the 4,000 mark separating her from Lynch Davidson, her nearest rival for second position in the democratic primary standing. This was the information given out by the Texas Election bureau at 6 p. m. after the final tabulation for the day had been completed. Between 2:30 p. m. and 6 p. m. Mrs. Ferguson had increased her lead over Davidson from 3,619 to 4,393 votes.

The new totals include returns from 246 of the 252 counties in Texas as including 149 complete, with a total vote of 654,136.

Judge Felix D. Robertson, Dallas, continued to increase his lead for first place with a plurality of 40,982 votes.

Barry Miller of Dallas continued to hold his slight margin over W. C. Edwards of Denton, for leading candidate for the lieutenant governorship. The vote was Miller 177,094; Edwards 174,622; McCall 89,354, and Malone 52,867.

The attorney general's race stood: Mosely 253,495; Ward 100,213; Wall 98,544; Nelson 84,854.

Run-off For Congress.

In the only race for congress where a run-off seems probable the first congressional district, Black, the incumbent, has a lead of 879 votes over the combined vote of Murray and Sturgeon, with two counties yet to be heard from. However, only three of the nine counties in the district have reported complete.

Lynch Davidson, the third man in the gubernatorial race, after demanding a recount in Grayson county, lost seventy votes and Robertson, the high man gained 130, according to a dispatch from the election bureau correspondent at Sherman. The new totals for this county show; Barton 118; Burkett 128; Collins 312; Lynch Davidson 2,385; Whit Davidson 1,486; Dixon 172; Ferguson 1,337.

WHERE DO YOU SOW?

IF YOU were sowing for a crop, would you sow in your own field, or in someone's else? Sounds like foolish question doesn't it? But there are a great many people who do sow in the other fellow's field when it comes to buying. Instead of buying from home dealers, or having home folks render them service, they send their money away to firms that they have never seen and folks they never will see.

THE MONEY spent at home yields a crop in building up home business—making it possible for home folks to buy what you have to sell. The money sent elsewhere doesn't do that. It can't, for it never comes back. Patronize the firms represented on this page and you'll be sowing in your own field—and reaping a twofold harvest. Spend your money where it will have a chance to return to you.

Cotton gins throughout the county are prepared and repaired for one of the greatest cotton crops in the history of Wichita county. Local cotton men are predicting that the cotton crop this fall will be much larger than that of last because of an increased cotton acreage.

It is true that few have thus far had the opportunity to take advantage of the irrigation project but some few have irrigated their land and this land will be watched with much interest.

The first bale of cotton was ginned in Wichita Falls last year about August 22 and it is thought by local cotton men that the first bale will be much earlier this year.

plea in mitigation of punishment, even though the defendants had pleaded guilty as in this case.

Without making an opening statement, the defense called as its first witness Dr. William A. White of Washington, D. C. He was asked the four usual formalities of names, residence, age and profession. Then Walter Bacharach for the defense said:

"Please state your professional experience."

"I object," interposed Mr. Crowe.

"Why?" asked Judge Caverly, and the legal battle was on.

Wrangle Four Hours.

Dr. White tilted back in his chair, crossed his fingers over his vest and for the next four and a half hours of the court session held the pose while the lawyers wrangled.

From the outset Mr. Crowe argued that the plea of guilty had effectually barred from the proceedings any offer of insanity as a legal defense. Judge Caverly pointed out that the defense had given no indications of what they expected to prove by Dr. White's testimony.

Thomas Marshall, the state's attorney's expert on indictments and other intricacies of the law was given the floor and started to cite decisions. Hour after hour he read from the court records of Colorado, Georgia, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, and Great Britain.

Clarence S. Darrow, chief of the counsel for the defense, for the most part stayed out of the argument. Occasionally he injected a quiet remark when he saw opportunity to make a legal principle in which the defense contention rested.

Several times Judge Caverly interrogated the state as to the effect their attitude would have upon the case. Once he pointed out that Mr. Crowe and his assistants had been allowed to introduce testimony by 81 witnesses without hindrance by the defense. "If I should now rule out all testimony as to mentality which the defense offers in mitigation," he said, "could not I be subject to just censure by any court of review for acting in an arbitrary manner?"

COOLIDGE URGED TO TAKE REST

Various Duties and Sudden Emergencies Are Telling

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Friends are urging upon President Coolidge a brief vacation immediately after the exercises at his formal notification as republican presidential nominee here August 14, but the executive has failed to reveal any plans for the immediate future.

Mr. Coolidge, friends point out, has been under heavy pressure during his year of office, being forced to assume the duties suddenly upon the death of President Harding. During the year he has been almost constantly at his desk while suffering an additional strain in the recent death of his son, Calvin, Jr.

Mr. Coolidge has gained some relaxation in his week-end trips with iha family aboard the Mayflower, presidential yacht, but the work incidental to writing his speech of acceptance coupled with the routine duties of the office last week keep him even from this.

Secretary Weeks has invited Mr. Coolidge to his summer home in New England and it is thought if the president does leave the capital for a short time he probably will go to New England.

G. O. P. FIXING TO RAZE N. Y.

Embattled State To Be Center of Elephant Attack

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30. — Campaign plans for New York state which may make that commonwealth the thundering maelstrom of the most intensive presidential contest in recent years, are being tentatively considered by republican managers here.

To what degree the republican effort will be intensified in New York will be finally determined by eastern advisers of National Chairman William M. Butler, who left today for Boston, New York and Washington for a week's meeting with part leaders in New England and the eastern seaboard states. Regardless of what the eastern councils of the party may recommend, however, it seemed certain as Mr. Butler departed that the battle for New York's 45 electoral votes would represent the best campaign efforts of the forces waging the fight for Coolidge and Dawes.

From several quarters has come the suggestion to republican headquarters here that with the New York votes in the republican column in November, President Coolidge's re-election will be virtually assured, regardless of what the LaFollette forces may accomplish in electoral votes in their own camping ground to the west.

A similar situation, although on a smaller scale, prevails in regard to the outlook in Minnesota, where the LaFollette forces are expected to make a strong bid for the electoral vote of 12. Here, too, the republicans will make something in the nature of a super-campaign.

Walker-Leonard Bout to Gotham

NEW YORK, July 30.—Tex Rickard's decision today to hold the welterweight 15-round match between Mickey Walker and Benny Leonard in this city on the evening of Thursday, August 21, is considered a noteworthy victory for the New York state athletic commission in local boxing circles. The commission has ruled that the bout, which was originally scheduled for the same date in Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, must take place in New York and must be for a decision if Walker fought Leonard before meeting Dave Shade.

Walker said he was perfectly satisfied with the new arrangement.

It is considered certain that the match will be held in one of the local baseball parks.

Marrs Champions Rural Schools and Junior Colleges For More Aid

PROMISES TO PETITION STATE

Says Studes Should Not Attend Senior Col. First

Special to The Record News.

DENTON, Texas, July 30.—Promising that rural schools in Texas will be assisted during the coming biennium more than ever before and championing the cause of junior colleges everywhere in the state, S. M. N. Marrs, superintendent of public instruction of the state, told students and faculty members of the college of industrial arts further that the greatest weakness in the Texas educational system today lies in the elementary grades. The latter condtion he attributed to the fact that the time of many teachers in smaller communities is being taken with providing instruction for small numbers of high school students to the neglect of large numbers of little tots who are not grounded in the proverbial three R's as a consequence.

Mr. Marrs promised that he will petition the next legislature to set aside a half million dollars of the rural aid fund to pay the tuition of those boys and girls of rural districts who find it necessary to leave their districts to secure high school educations. This, he declared, will relieve the problem in many communities of caring adequately for the elementary grades.

The educator expressed his doubt over the wisdom of anyone under 18 years of age attending a senior college in Texas. Two-thirds of the university freshmen class of 1500 this year, he said, was composed of students 17 years old. To obviate this Mr. Marrs suggested the encouragement of junior colleges through favorable legislation in order to keep those students under 18 years nearer their homes. This, he said could be accomplished by a state subsidy of such a college in communities having a taxable value equal to or exceeding ten million dollars, and accredited high school graduates numbering annually more than 100. Superintendent Marrs declared that the state should not make general appropriations for equipment for such junior colleges, but should assist in paying the salaries of the faculty members.

Bad Case of Woman's Illness Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Mo.—"I had such a bad case of female trouble that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. PALO DURO ROAD APPEARS SURE

Clarendon Wins First Step When Mail Route Established

Special to The Record News.

CLARENDON, Texas, July 30.—Another point has been scored by the Clarendon chamber of commerce in the proposed exploitation of the Clarendon-Silverton scenic route through Palo Duro canyon. For some time the organization has been endeavoring to have a mail route established over this road. Word was received here Monday that such a route had been authorized between Clarendon and Silverton providing for daily service beginning September 1.

This will directly serve 75 families totaing 300 persons living along the road who have heretofore been able to get their mail only three times a week and have at that in some instances been compelled to travel ten or more miles to secure it. It will also expedite mail delivery to Silverton by 22 hours which will be a great advantage to that city. Heretofore it has been necessary for mail to go on to Amarillo thence down the Santa Fe to Tulia and by carrier to Silverton, and connections can be made here with the Fort Worth and Denver 22 hours earlier than the former method. It is also expected that mail designated for Quiteque will be routed through Clarendon and Silverton over this route to connect with the Silverton-Quiteque route. Bids for carrying the mail are being advertised for.

Incidentally, Clarendon has been trying for several months to establish a stage line through the canyon over this route but as advertising of the route was only recently begun traffic has not been sufficient to warrant maintenance of the line. However, it is believed that operated in conjunction with the main contract the stage will be a paying proposition and will be the foundation of an extensive travel over west Texas' scenic highway, especially since this will facilitate travel between Silvertown and eastern points by twenty hours.

Boost Wichita Falls

PROGRESSIVE INSTITUTIONS of Wichita Falls

WHERE DO YOU SOW?

Wonderful Opportunities

West Texas offers unlimited opportunities for every line of business. Wichita Falls has proven to be the center of mammoth enterprises in its development.

IF YOU were sowing for a crop, would you sow in your own field, or in someone's else? Sounds like foolish question doesn't it? But there are a great many people who do sow in the other fellow's field when it comes to buying. Instead of buying from home dealers, or having home folks render them service, they send their money away to firms that they have never seen and folks they never will see.

THE MONEY spent at home yields a crop in building up home business—making it possible for home folks to buy what you have to sell. The money sent elsewhere doesn't do that. It can't, for it never comes back. Patronize the firms represented on this page and you'll be sowing in your own field—and reaping a twofold harvest. Spend your money where it will have a chance to return to you.

Getting Ready For Bumper Crop; County Is Watched

Cotton gins throughout the county are prepared and repaired for one of the greatest cotton crops in the history of Wichita county. Local cotton men are predicting that the cotton crop this fall will be much larger than that of last because of an increased cotton acreage.

People from all parts of the state are watching the crops in Wichita county with much interest due to the irrigation facilities. It is true that few have thus far had the opportunity to take advantage of the irrigation project but some few have irrigated their land and this land will be watched with much interest.

The first bale of cotton was ginned in Wichita Falls last year about August 22 and it is thought by local cotton men that the first bale will be much earlier this year.

plea in mitigation of punishment, even though the defendants had pleaded guilty as in this case.

Without making an opening statement, the defense called as its first witness Dr. William A. White of Washington, D. C. He was asked the four usual formalities of names, residence, age and profession. Then Walter Bacharach for the defense said:

"Please state your professional experience."

"I object," interposed Mr. Crowe.

"Why?" asked Judge Caverly, and the legal battle was on.

Wrangle Four Hours.

Dr. White tilted back in his chair, crossed his fingers over his vest and for the next four and a half hours of the court session held the pose while the lawyers wrangled.

From the outset Mr. Crowe argued that the plea of guilty had effectually barred from the proceedings any offer of insanity as a legal defense. Judge Caverly pointed out that the defense had given no indications of what they expected to prove by Dr. White's testimony.

Thomas Marshall, the state's attorney's expert on indictments and other intracacies of the law was given the floor and started to cite decisions. Hour after hour he read from the court records of Colorado, Georgia, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, and Great Britain.

Clarence S. Darrow, chief of the counsel for the defense, for the most part stayed out of the argument. Occasionally he injected a quiet remark when he saw opportunity to make a legal principle in which the defense contention rested.

Several times Judge Caverly interrogated the state as to the effect their attitude would have upon the case. Once he pointed out that Mr. Crowe and his assistants had been allowed to introduce testimony by 81 witnesses without hindrance by the defense. "If I should now rule out all testimony as to mentality which the defense offers in mitigation," he said, "could not I be subject to just censure by any court of review for acting in an arbitrary manner?"

COOLIDGE URGED TO TAKE REST

Various Duties and Sudden Emergencies Are Telling

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Friends are urging upon President Coolidge a brief vacation immediately after the exercises at his formal notification as republican presidential nominee here August 14, but the executive has failed to reveal any plans for the immediate future.

Mr. Coolidge, friends point out, has been under heavy pressure during his year of office, being forced to assume the duties suddenly upon the death of President Harding. During the year he has been almost constantly at his desk while suffering an additional strain in the recent death of his son, Calvin, Jr.

Mr. Coolidge has gained some relaxation in his week-end trips with his family aboard the Mayflower, presidential yacht, but the work incidental to writing his speech of acceptance coupled with the routine duties of the office last week keep him even from this.

Secretary Weeks has invited Mr. Coolidge to his summer home in New England and it is thought if the president does leave the capital for a short time he probably will go to New England.

G. O. P. FIXING TO RAZE N. Y.

Embattled State To Be Center of Elephant Attack

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30. — Campaign plans for New York state which may make that commonwealth the thundering maelstrom of the most intensive presidential contest in recent years, are being tentatively considered by republican managers here.

To what degree the republican effort will be intensified in New York will be finally determined by eastern advisers of National Chairman William M. Butler, who left today for Boston, New York and Washington for a week's meeting with part leaders in New England and the eastern seaboard states. Regardless of what the eastern councils of the party may recommend, however, it seemed certain as Mr. Butler departed that the battle for New York's 45 electoral votes would represent the best campaign efforts of the forces waging the fight for Coolidge and Dawes.

From several quarters has come the suggestion to republican headquarters here that with the New York votes in the republican column in November, President Coolidge's re-election will be virtually assured, regardless of what the LaFollette forces may accomplish in electroal votes in their own camping ground to the west.

A similar situation, although on a smaller scale, prevails in regard to the outlook in Minnesota, where the LaFollette forces are expected to make a strong bid for the electoral vote of 12. Here, too, the republicans will make something in the nature of a super-campaign.

Walker-Leonard Bout to Gotham

NEW YORK, July 30.—Tex Rickard's decision today to hold the welterweight 15-round match between Mickey Walker and Benny Leonard in this city on the evening of Thursday, August 21, is considered a noteworthy victory for the New York state athletic commission in local boxing circles. The commission has ruled that the bout, which was originally scheduled for the same date in Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, must take place in New York and must be for a decision if Walker fought Leonard before meeting Dave Shade.

Walker said he was perfectly satisfied with the new arrangement.

It is considered certain that the match will be held in one of the local baseball parks.

Marrs Champions Rural Schools and Junior Colleges For More Aid

PROMISES TO PETITION STATE

Says Studes Should Not Attend Senior Col. First

Special to The Record News.

DENTON, Texas, July 30.—Promising that rural schools in Texas will be assisted during the coming biennium more than ever before and championing the cause of junior colleges everywhere in the state, S. M. N. Marrs, superintendent of public instruction of the state, told students and faculty members of the college of industrial arts further that the greatest weakness in the Texas educational system today lies in the elementary grades. The latter condtion he attributed to the fact that the time of many teachers in smaller communities is being taken with providing instruction for small numbers of high school students to the neglect of large numbers of little tots who are not grounded in the proverbial three R's as a consequence.

Mr. Marrs promised that he will petition the next legislature to set aside a half million dollars of the rural aid fund to pay the tuition of those boys and girls of rural districts who find it necessary to leave their districts to secure high school educations. This, he declared, will relieve the problem in many communities of caring adequately for the elementary grades.

The educator expressed his doubt over the wisdom of anyone under 18 years of age attending a senior college in Texas. Two-thirds of the university freshmen class of 1500 this year, he said, was composed of students 17 years old. To obviate this Mr. Marrs suggested the encouragement of junior colleges through favorable legislation in order to keep those students under 18 years nearer their homes. This, he said could be accomplished by a state subsidy of such a college in communities having a taxable value equal to or exceeding ten million dollars, and accredited high school graduates numbering annually more than 100. Superintendent Marrs declared that the state should not make general appropriations for equipment for such junior colleges, but should assist in paying the salaries of the faculty members.

COULD NOT WALK BECAUSE OF PAIN

St. Louis, Mo.—"I had such a bad case of female trouble that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am a strong woman now and can work down any of my neighbors. They wonder how I can do so much work. PALO DURO ROAD APPEARS SURE

Clarendon Wins First Step When Mail Route Established

Special to The Record News.

CLARENDON, Texas, July 30.—Another point has been scored by the Clarendon chamber of commerce in the proposed exploitation of the Clarendon-Silverton scenic route through Palo Duro canyon. For some time the organization has been endeavoring to have a mail route established over this road. Word was received here Monday that such a route had been authorized between Clarendon and Silverton providing for daily service beginning September 1.

This will directly serve 75 families totaing 309 persons living along the road who have heretofore been able to get their mail only three times a week and have at that in some instances been compelled to travel ten or more miles to secure it. It will also expedite mail delivery to Silverton by 22 hours which will be a great advantage to that city. Heretofore it has been necessary for mail to go on to Amarillo thence down the Santa Fe to Tulia and by carrier to Silverton, and connections can be made here with the Fort Worth and Denver 22 hours earlier than the former method. It is also expected that mail designated for Quiteque will be routed through Clarendon and Silverton over this route to connect with the Silverton-Quiteque route. Bids for carrying the mail are being advertised for.

Incidentally, Clarendon has been trying for several months to establish a stage line through the canyon over this route but as advertising of the route was only recently begun traffic has not been sufficient to warrant maintenance of the line. However, it is believed that operated in conjunction with the main contract the stage will be a paying proposition and will be the foundation of an extensive travel over west Texas' scenic highway, especially since this will facilitate travel between Silvertown and eastern points by twenty hours.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

JULY 31, 1924.

VALUE OF A GOOD NAME:—A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold.—Proverbs 22:1.

PRAYER:—May we, Lord, be so definitely Thy children, that all good men shall speak well of us.

TIME CHANGES EVERYTHING—EVEN TAMMANY

If we are to believe the New York political writers, Tammany Hall has undergone a change with the coming of its new boss—George W. Olvany, although it is freely admitted that Governor Al Smith of New York is the real boss of Tammany Hall.

Olvany is described by one writer as a man "with an excellent reputation for integrity, a deep and earnest sympathy with the purposes of historical, as well as political Tammany," and "popular with a group of statesmen, who in combination with Governor Al Smith hold the balance of power."

Olvany is described as a "first rate lawyer" and of better education than the late Charles F. Murphy, although it is conceded that he will have to fight for the power which Murphy enjoyed. The new boss of Tammany Hall—they are now calling it the county committee of the democratic party of New York—will have the advantage, or disadvantage of Tammany's activity in the present presidential campaign.

If he can be instrumental in swinging New York's 45 electorial votes into the democratic column his rise to the supremacy which Murphy enjoyed may be quick, while if New York should fail to respond to the leadership of Tammany he will of necessity take his share of the blame.

The New York writers with only one or two exceptions point out that through the rule of Tweed, Croker and Murphy, Tammany is responding to the demand of progressiveness and that much is expected of the new chief in this regard. But when all is said and done, Tammany is a powerful political machine and as is always true in politics, many of its workers are inspired rather by the hope of reward than through an unselfish desire to do something for the party which they represent. If Olvany can overcome this spirit which still exists in Tammany he will have accomplished much and may give real reason for refering to the organization as "famous," while in the past it has frequently been described as "infamous."

WHY NOT GO FARTHER

The mayor of Oklahoma City has taken definite action toward prosecution of merchants who sold blank pistols to small boys during the Fourth of July period. The announcement follows the death of two small boys in the city from wounds resulting from the firing of these so-called blank pistols.

Everyone will admit that this is a step in the right direction; that the sale of such dangerous and supposedly harmless weapons to boys is deserving of punishment. But why shouldn't the mayor of Oklahoma City and other cities throughout the country go still further and take definite steps to stop the sale of firearms to irresponsible persons who feel called upon to carry a "gun?"

The sale of these blank pistols to boys has created quite a stir, yet thousands of revolvers and pistols are sold openly all over the country without any check on the persons to whom they are sold or any demand as for what purpose the weapons are intended.

If a man tires of a heckling wife or sees no reason for remaining on this earth, or has decided to rob a safe, and wants to arm himself for the occasion, all he has to do in the majority of states is to go into a hardware store and buy his favorite weapon and go about the rotten business he has in view.

The prosecution of those who sell blank pistols to boys is all well and good, but there must come a time some day when not only the sale, but the manufacture of fire-arms is regulated.

UNEXPECTED PLEASURE

"The Woman He Desired"

There he found a letter awaiting him in the round, unformed hand he knew now—the second of the sort he had seen.

It was sent from the old chateau in the mountains, and it ran:

"My Dear Friend—As perhaps you know, Mrs. Green has left Paris for England, and I have come back here to the peace and quiet, of the country.

"But I wish I had some one here with me who really knew how to look after the place. I want to start a home for blind babies.

"I would like to have an Englishman here, as steward on my estate, because I have learned to trust your nation. He need not necessarily be a farmer, but a man who knows how to deal with the world and men and money—things I have not learned to do, that I sometimes feel I never shall learn, having so many years of darkness and ignorance before me.

"Always yours most gratefully,

EUGENE DE MAILEY.

"P. S.—Miss Ryder, my governess and companion, says that in a case like this a salary must be mentioned. You will perhaps know what to offer. Would 1,000 pounds a year be enough?—D. de M."

The girl had never seen him. He would go himself, pretending he was sending his cousin. He would be her servant and steward. Then at least he could serve her—his fairy princess—although his poverty and her position now placed them as far asunder as the poles.

There and then he sat down and wrote a letter to Desiree.

He regretted he was too busy to come himself, he said, but was sending his cousin, Edward Wilson, a most reliable man, one she could depend on in every way. Three hundred pounds a year would be ample salary. She could expect her new steward in about a week's time. He would let her know the exact day and train later on.

About a week later Wilson was driving in a hired carriage along the narrow road leading to the old chateau. As Wilson drove along he was realizing that one deception invariably begets another. Also, it had dawned on him that by hook or by crook he must have an interview with Pierer and Juliette before seeing the girl, for the two old servants had not been blind.

To attend this end he left Paris by an earlier train than the one he had mentioned in his letter to Desiree.

Luck was with Wilson. At the broken iron gates leading into the Domaine de Mailly his carriage overtook Juliette.

On seeing the occupant of the carriage she threw up her hands.

"It's the English monsieur himself!" she cried.

At once Wilson was out of the carriage and laying his campaign of deceit before her. She agreed to his plan.

She told him Desiree had gone with her governess into the distant town to meet the train. Then she drove with him to the chateau, showed him his room, and, leaving him to wash and tidy himself, went off to let Pierre into the secret.

He came downstairs and was given something to eat and when his hunger was appeased he sat on, planning to himself how the mansion could best be modernised, whilst still retaining its old features, when the sound of wheels coming up the drive sent his mind to other matters, and made his throat swell with a choking, excited sensation.

He knew who would be coming—Desiree, whose eyes would rest on him for the first time of sight. But, thank God! she would be thinking him his cousin.

He heard the carriage halt. A few moments later there was the sound of light feet entering the hall beyond.

When she came in Wilson stood dazed by the vision of grace and beauty confronting him, knowing exactly how much he had lost by doing the right thing.

He had tried to deal as honestly by the girl he loved as he had dealt with the rest of the world. And now—

She came toward him with outstretched hand.

"I'm so sorry I missed you. Why didn't you wire and say you were coming by an earlier train?"

Like a man stunned Wilson took her hand into his.

"I should have done so, countess," he lied, "had I known you were coming to the station to meet me."

At his voice Desiree started, and a quiver ran through the hand she was just drawing from the relaxing grip.

Because Desiree had never seen him, it did not follow that she would not recognise him. He reckoned without the years of blindness that lay behind her—years that had taught her to recognise people by voice and touch and step.

To compose herself, Desiree turned from him and went to one of the long windows to let in Wolf, who was scratching frantically at the glass panels.

But for it he would be rich man still, standing on a pile of gold that raised him to something approaching her level, not what he was now her paid servant.

If only there had been no railway strike! If only the Gilberts had turned up in time to have got that accursed necklace! Then——

There would have been happy days for the girl, safe in the knowledge that he stood between her and a marriage loathed.

And one evening, when he came to her bedside to kiss her good-night, she would put her weak arms about his neck, refusing to let him go, pressing against him with innocent desire.

Wilson came back to earth again. Desiree had not eloped with him. He had been fool enough to touch that accursed "necklace of tears." He had done the right thing by her all along the line, and his reward was a crop of bitterness, not a harvest of love.

Juliette has looked after me very well indeed," he said surprised to find his tone of voice quite normal. "She has seen after all my creature comforts, even to feeding me," he finished glancing at the diminished heap of sandwiches on the table.

"I'm so glad," Desiree said shyly, still avoiding his gaze. "I—I shouldn't like to think of you being neglected in any way."

"It's you who are being neglected, countess, not me. I'm sure you must need something after your long, hot, dusty drive down to Nice and back."

Yes, this must be the same man—John Wilson, not Edward. There was no mistake. There could not be two men so kind and thoughtful, with the same firm, pleasant voices, the same strong, careful hands.

But why had he come back as a servant to his slave, this man she would call "master?"

CHAPTER XXI

On the afternoon of the second day Wilson ran her to earth, alone by the old reservoir with the crocodile, an array of lesson books on the old oh press beside her.

He paused, watching her with eyes that held a stifled, worshipping gleam.

"Do you know, Countess," he said, "that you've omitted to tell me what you want me to do?"

"You—you must do just what you like," she faltered.

Then Wilson had to laugh.

"But it's what you like, Countess, not what I like. You're master here, not I."

A faint blush came to Desiree's face, but she made no reply.

The next morning, since there was no sign of temptation, he sought for it diligently, eventually finding it in one of the moldering rooms upstairs, doing lessons with Miss Ryder.

He excused himself for intruding, but when he set out to do a thing he liked to get on with it.

Had he the Countess' permission to go to Nice and get estimates for the builders?

Wilson was more than two hours in getting to Nice, a journey a motor could have done in a quarter of the time, and the idea of the wasted hours irritated him, for he wanted them all to spend in Desiree's service.

The next day after lunch Desiree would have escaped, as she always did, the moment the meal was over, but as he stood, holding the dining room door open for her and Miss Ryder, he said:

"I think we'd better begin by buying a motor car. There's too much time wasted in jogging up and down to Nice in that mule cart."

"That would suit me all right," she said.

The matter being arranged, Desiree would have slipped away there and then, but again his voice stopped her.

"When you have time I should like you to show me round the estate, so that I can get some idea how much there really is of it, and what should be done."

"I can come any time," she said submissively.

"Then perhaps we can go now," he answered, delighted with himself at having enticed her out for a walk.

As they walked together, now in sunshine, now in shade, in a world full of flowers, and sweet with the scent of broom, with thyme, lavender and roses, for the once Wilson forgot they were mistress and servant. There was such a feeling of fellowship and equality, as if what was lacking in one was balanced by the other.

The girl was all eyes for the thing around her. The most ordinary of birds and butterflies and flowers were a delight to her, something to which to call Wilson's attention. He always responded heartily, remembering she had only been able to see them for a few months.

So Goes It

By BURNS HEGLER

After grinding out piffling paragraphs about people and things for nigh onto a year, So-Goes-It is going to give his faithful followers a much needed rest.

It won't be a very long rest at that, but it will mean something in the way of reward for those who have been reading the kolume. For more than three hundred days the kolume has been on the job and has never missed an issue.

There have been times when we have considered discontinuing the kolume on the theory that it wasn't read by a very large per cent of this newspapers readers. About that time some friend would meet us on the street, call attention to a paragraph that had appeared in the kolume and we would vow, then and there, that we'd go on grinding out the bloomin' thing if no one but that one man read it.

So from day to day we carried on. Some days the kolume would be punk; other days it would be rotten, but we have always contended that if we average per day one good paragraph that will cause someone to get a "kick" out of life, it was worth the effort.

Those folks who do not read the kolume haven't missed a great deal, but they don't get the rest and relief that the friends of So-Goes-It will in the few days that are ahead. You remember too, that we always have contended that there is nothing compulsory about the kolume. You may take it or leave it. That probably is its greatest attraction. If you had to read it, it would grow almost as tiresome for you as it sometimes does for the gink that writes it.

In closing the kolume for a week or so perhaps it would be well to wind up with a little yarn which we picked up elsewhere. So Goes It:

There was only one telephone booth in the store and the tall and aggressive person waiting to call became impatient at the unconscionably long time taken in the booth by the meek little chap with side whiskers.

"See here!" shouted the tall person, thrusting his head into the booth and addressing the occupant thereof, "You've had that phone 20 minutes and not said a word!"

"Sir," returned the meek one, "I am talking to my wife."

HOW IT STARTED

Silver Threads Among the Gold.

With the death, a few weeks ago of an old woman in a shabby rooming house in New York, there was closed the last chapter in the history of that song that is sung and loved wherever the English language is spoken. "Silver Threads Among the Gold." And the promise of the exquisite melody which had its origin in the love of a man for his wife was left for the man who wrote it and the woman who inspired it, unfulfilled.

In 1874 a young musician and singer, Hart Pease Danks, living happily with his wife, composed for her one of the tenderest and most beautiful love songs ever known, to which Eben E. Rexford wrote the words. The song sold, prosperity came, and with it domestic strife. Danks and his wife parted, he dying alone in 1903 in Philadelphia in circumstances similar to those in which his widow, poor and alone, closed her eyes the other day

The Short Sprinter and the Marathon

Less than a minute to run a quarter of a mile. That's the short sprinter's record. What a burst of speed for human legs! What dinamic power is described in that record.

Then there are the longer races, not quite so fast, but where the idea is to be in at the finish. There is the marathon—twenty-five miles.

You may think that a man who can run a quarter of a mile in less than one minute should be able to win a marathon. But any sportsman can tell you that it isn't so at all. Not a single first rate short sprinter has ever finished in a marathon.

And that's how it is in life, which for everyone of us is a race. The obstacles and the goal may vary, but the race is the same. And it is not a short sprint. It is the greatest of marathons.

In life, as on the track team, there are short sprinters. Some have fine talents and are capable of extraordinary bursts of fire and speed. They can hurdle obstacles and overcome set-backs—on a short sprint. But if the race is a long one they frequently drop out—sometimes, if only they knew it, in sight often enough if they knew it, in sight of the goal. It is because they had not trained themselves for the longer stretches. Their talent, their flaming energy and magnificent power is worthless, wasted, and lost to them and to the world, because life is not a short sprint, but a marathon.

The people to whom these short sprinters frequently lose the lead in a long, telling race may be less gifted, without their poetic qualities of fire and ferror and speed. But they have the more valuable asset of endurance to take long punishment and stick, perseverance to last longer than thru obstacles and pain, determination to reach the goal, whether position, attainment, health, or victory over self. Life is a marathon and oftener than not the less fleet win the prize.

Not long ago I heard a group of young people at a college celebration sing this old refrain:

"I can run like the devil,
When the road is level,
For about a hundred yards."

And a hope and a prayer rose in my heart that these thoughtless, carefree, jolly young sprinters would train themselves to the longer stretches where the road is not always level, to the hills and rocky bypaths on the road of life that lead to the glorious, open, sunkissed peaks of victory.

More Truth Than Poetry

HERBERT'S MISTAKE

It was Herbert, the photoplay hero,
Who galloped forth over the trail,
With a gun in each hand, the horse-rustling band
Hiding down in Deep Gulch to assail.
One knew by the set of his eyebrows,
One knew by the pull of his breath,
That he'd capture and hang every one of the gang
Or learn the discomfort of death.

Stern purpose one read on his forehead,
Though a smile rippled over his mouth,
As onward he rode to the bandits' abode
Unflinchingly, steadily south.
And fast beat the hearts that beheld him
(For we see with our hearts at such times)
As onward he flew toward the dastardly crew
That had done such unspeakable crimes.

* * * *

But lo! back the trail hastens Herbert,
As fast as the pony can lope,
And hot on his trail is a hard-featured male,
Who is armed with a gun and a rope.
And Herbert emits as he passes
One piercing and blood-curdling yelp,
But the pulses are stirred by that single short word,
For it sounds quite a little like "help!"

Let us hasten to make explanation
Why Herbert, once hot on the track,
With woeful acclaim has got out of the game
And hurries affrightedly back.
For Herbert got lost in his travels,
And found the wrong hangout of crime;
To his bitter regret he by accident met
With a genuine bandit, this time!

After Five Years

In a recent number of the Atlantic monthly an article appeared called "After Five Years."

It was a record of the league of nations since its formation.

Those who have championed and those who have opposed this league have been so hot that it is difficult for either side to see the exact facts. These will only come out after time has sifted them.

So far as we can see, the facts in the case at present are as follows:

1—The league never has been, and never will be, a partisan question, for it is a matter of engaging the co-operation of the whole world.

2—Some 47 out of the 53 or more nations of the world are united in it.

The league neither does what its protagonists claimed for it, nor threatens what its antagonists declared for it. It is more valuable than its opponents had supposed; it is less valuable than its defenders had imagined.

The league has demonstrated itself to be in no sense a super state. Every nation, and particularly those who are members of the league, is as jealous of its national sovereignty as we ourselves could be.

4—The most of the weaknesses of the league have been due to the refusal of the United States to become a party of it. The militarism of France and the collapse of Germany have been very largely due to this refusal. If we had taken our place, as was proper, in the league, and participated in its discussions, it would not have been necessary, for instance, for France to assume the imperialistic and intolerant ideas that she has done.

5—The league may not be, as it was hoped, an admirable and perfect way to end war, but it is some way. It has prevented wars by merely furnishing an opportunity for all people to express themselves.

6—The league has influence, but not authority. That is, it assists the nations to become world minded by virtue of bringing everything into a place where the good of all is discussed.

7.—It is impossible to live in the world without doing one of two things; either co-operating with it or being independent of it.

Every form of activity tends to co-operation, as art, letters and commerce. Some way should be found to enable us to co-operate politically with the other peoples. We shall have to do one of three things: To enter the league without reservations to enter it with reservations, or to co-operate without entering.

It is impossible for us to maintain a consistent isolation.

When the people of the country have had time enough seriously to digest the idea of the league of nations they will decide upon one of these three things. No man lives forever, not even a lodge, or a Johnson, or any other of the irreconcilables. Nothing lives forever but an idea. There was an idea at the bottom of the league; a beneficent idea which should be welcome to the world. It was the idea of co-operation and that idea will not die.

How Can a Tired Housewife Be Attractive Companion to Husband?

Dorothy Dix Discusses Problems of Women In Love and Home Life

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Everything I pick up lately regarding the increased number of divorces seems to be pretty much the same—that is, placing the blame on the wives for neglecting their husbands. We are told that a woman should pal with her husband, that she should keep herself looking neat and attractive, that she should be a good cook and housekeeper; but how is the ordinary woman to do all of this? By the time a wife and mother gets through cooking, cleaning, nursing, shopping, sewing and goodness knows what else, she is so worn out and tired and nervous that she is anything but a pleasant companion for friend husband.

I know just how a woman feels at the end of an imperfect day, but what I want you to tell me is what the mother of a couple of children should do? The housework has to be done, as hubby wouldn't stand living in disorder. The family has to eat. The children have to be cared for. Everything that makes the mother tired and worn out has to be done, and if the husband's salary doesn't permit servants, what can be done to remedy the trouble?

My husband thinks it an imposition to be asked to help with the housework, and I don't expect him to work at home and downtown, too. So please tell me how a woman of meager means can be a better companion?

A READER OF YOUR COLUMN.

Answer:

Frankly, I don't know. A woman who performs all the multitudinous tasks that are involved in making a comfortable home and taking care of little children works so much harder than any other laborer on earth and is such a marvel of efficiency that it is persumptuous for any outsider to even offer her a suggestion.

And her insolvable problem comes in with the fact that only too often her husband expects her to be both a domestic slave and a vamp, which are two incompatible jobs for any one to hold down at the same time. He wants his wife to be a purveyor of corned beef and cabbage, and nectar and ambrosia. He wants her to wash his clothes, yet keep her hands in a lily white, squeezable condition. He wants her to work like a servant, yet have time to read and gad with him; to be beautifully dressed on nothing, and to meet him, serenely calm and cool, of an evening after she has been stewing over cooking his dinner.

And it can't be done. There are limitations to human versatility, and there are very decided limitations to a woman's time and strength. If she gives these to making her family comfortable she has mighty little leisure to devote to being a parlor ornament. The best that any woman thus situated can do is to simplify her home life as much as possible, so that she can have a little time to devote to companionship with her husband.

After all, it isn't necessary to put so many frills on the children's clothes, and make as elaborate desserts as most women do. And most husbands and children would rather have an untired, good-natured wife and mother and plain food than hand-made dishes served by a woman who is so exhausted she is cross and nervous.

But I never see a woman like you, Constant Reader, a woman who is toiling beyond her strength trying to make her family comfortable, who spends her days cooking meals that are gulped down and forgotten, straightening up rooms that are disordered the next minute, darning stockings that have to be darned again next week, rocking babies to sleep, washing dirty little faces, treading the dull round of domestic duties without thanks and without praise, I say I never see such a woman without feeling like taking off my hat and standing uncovered before her, for I know I am in the presence of a great hero, even if she is unnoted and unsung.

And if I could have my dearest wish in the world I would ask that the eyes of the husbands of all such women might be opened so that they would see their wives, not as worn, tired women who have been too busy to even care for their personal appearance, but as shining angels, clothed in glory, that they were privileged to serve and worship.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Dorothy Dix—Four years ago my husband and I, having no children, adopted a darling little baby girl. She is a dear little daughter to us, and our home would lose its sunshine if it lost her. We bestow everything possible on her, and last but not least, love.

But, Miss Dix, people will never let us forget that she is not truly our own, although they know I try to keep the fact that she is an adopted baby as much of a secret as is possible. The neighbors are always calling her a "poor, little orphan" and saying how lucky she was to get a good home and asking about what sort of a woman her mother was, etc. Such remarks make me feel that life is not worth living, and I dread to meet women who happen to know about this baby as much as though I had committed a serious crime. What shall I do?

MRS. A. N.

Answer:

Try to look at the matter in a more common-sense way. You have got morbid on the subject. It is no reflection on the baby to have been adopted, and certainly you should be proud of having done such a fine and noble thing as to have taken a homeless, motherless little one into your tender arms.

I think it is a mistake to try to keep the baby from knowing that she is an adopted child. Sooner or later she is bound to find out the truth, and if this occurs after she is a big girl the shock is apt to alienate her affections from you. Also, she is likely to have an idea that there is something shameful about her birth that you have kept from her. Better by far to let her always know that she is the dear daughter of your soul, and that just because you took her when she was friendless her duty is far greater to you than if she had a child's natural claim on her parents.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a day laborer, twenty-two years old. The opportunity of going away to college for a year or two is offered me, but I don't know what to decide because I have kept steady company with a girl for three years and she does not want me to leave her. Shall I go or not?

J. L.

Answer:

Go by all means. If you stay and marry the girl you will always be a day laborer, and you will come to hate her because she stood between you and your opportunity. If you fit yourself for a better position you will be more able to make life pleasant and easy for her if you marry her. It is a poor love that will not stand the test of absence, and at your age you have plenty of time to wait.

Friend's Daughter Found Tied With Food Tantalizing

By the Associated Press.

OMAHA, Nebr., July 30.—A police sergeant yesterday found Mary Wisner, 3 1-2 years old, tied to a wall in the home of Roy Hill with her hands above her head and a tantalizing plate of grapes in front of her.

Hill, who was arrested, said the child had a bad temper and that he had to "do something to curb her." He admitted he had tied the girl up, but denied any accusation of the child and her sister, Dorothy, 6, that he had put sugar on her chest so flies would torture her.

Hill was also accused of tying the little girl up with a cherry dangling in front of her and of smearing glue on her face and sprinkling feathers over it.

The child was placed in Hill's care by her father, who is divorced.

Mothers AND THEIR CHILDREN

For Balance

One Mother Says:

My son suffered from rickets and on his recovery found it very difficult to walk. I put a row of sticks on the floor about the distance apart of rungs in a ladder. I then got him to try to walk down the row, stepping over each stick. At first he was very uncertain and stepped on all of them, but after some practice he regained his balance. Any child who has had a long illness will benefit by this exercise which aids in restoring the sense of balance.

PECOS COUNTY IS ELECTION DRY

By the Associated Press.

SAN ANGELO, Texas, July 30.—Pecos is one of the few counties of the 252 in Texas which held no democratic primary Saturday. And there will be no election in August. For years—at least for the 17 that G. T. Jessup, Sheffield merchant and ranchman, has lived in the county—there has been but one biennial battle of ballots, the general election in November, when either pluralitis or majorities are final. Pecos county, though one of the largest in Texas in area, normally has only one thousand to twelve hundred votes. Taxpayers and candidates alike save money in holding but one election, instead of two or three. Only three county officers, sheriff-tax collector, judge and assessor, so far have opposition, Jessup reported here today.

Wichita Falls ..... 000 010 001—2
Galveston ..... 140 110 00x—7

Two Base hits Whiteman, Bagwell. Bandrimer. Stolen bases Fitzgerald. Sacrifice hits Burkett, Mueller. Innings pitched by Osborne 1 2-3; struck out by Gleason 10; Musser 1. Bases on balls off Osborne 3; Gleason 1; Musser 2. Left on bases Wichita Falls 8; Galveston 8; time 1:55. Umpires Kane and O'Toole.

GALVESTON, July 30.—Galveston took the first game of the two-game series here today from Wichita Falls, 7 to 2. Gleason hurled airtight ball practically all the way, giving up runs only in the fifth and ninth after his mates had sewed the contest for him.

Osborn gave way in the second inning when the Crabs loaded the bags. Musser, relief hurler, was then pounded for a pair of doubles, scoring four runs.

Walks, coupled with errors, and bunched hits gave the local team the contest. Galveston like Wichita Falls, accumulated but seven safe blows.

The Crabs took the lead in the first inning, scoring a run on two hits, a walk and a sacrifice fly.

Spuds Lose in Fourth

The game was won in the second inning Perussina singled to left but went out attempting to steal second. Smith to Turgeon, Wolgamot beat out an infield hit down the first base line and went to second when Coombe threw wild to Osborn who covered the bag. Osborn attempted to catch Wolgamot off second but threw wild to Turgeon and the runner went to third. Gleason walked. Bandrimer popped out to Coombs. Wisterzil walked filling the bases. Musser relieved Osborn on the mound. With the count of three and two, Whiteman doubled to center, clearing the bases. Bagwell doubled to right, scoring Whiteman. Burkett filed out to Weis.

Bandrimer, midget local second baseman, hit a home run in the fourth bringing the score up to 6 to 0 for Galveston.

Wichita Scores in Fifth

Callaghan of Wichita Falls made second on an infield hit in the fifth when Wolgamot threw wildly to first in an effor to stop the runner. He went to third on infield out by Locker and scored when White followed with a single to left.

The Crabs scored their seventh run in the fifth without the sign of hit or error. Bagwell drew a pass, and went to second on a wild pitch. He advanced to third on an infield out, and scored on sacrifice fly to left by Mueller.

The second Spudder run in the ninth came when Turgeon led off with a triple to center, and scored on infield out by Callaghan who grounded to second.

The two teams play here again tomorrow.

Top O'Morn
BLONDY

That rabid fan who early in the season chirped that the Spudders would do something not even Fort Worth could do, must have been right. He declared the Spuds comprised the only team in the league that could keep Shreveport out of the cellar.

Lost number nine on the road jaunt yesterday, but Shreveport's already out of the dungeon, and the Spuds'll have to drop more than that to pull Galveston off the bottom.

The breaks have been pretty tough, but if we can't be the champions at the top of the heap, we'll be the champions of the bottom, the homelings must be thinking right about now.

They all have their ups and downs. Electra pitcher chunked no-hit game yesterday but got licked, 1 to 0. Brings to mind the time Pete Donohue, brilliant starboard slabman of the Cincy Reds, was attending college prior to his big league debut. Donohue, playing with T. C. U., lost a no-hit game on day back in '21 to S. M. U., 1 to 0, the second no-hit contest he was defeated in during his amateur days.

Bib Falk, the Texas lad, with the White Sox outfield, will probably be a notch ahead of Ruth when this week's American league batting averages are released. Just yesterday, Bib poled three out of four, two of which were doubles.

In Margie Bright, 17-year-old Wichita Falls miss, Helen Wills may find a bit of tough competition some day.

Margie, under the coaching of Miss Ruth Doty, formerly champ of Texas feminine collegiate netsters, has developed until she rates with the best in girl tennic circles of this state.

The youngster has another year coming up in Wichita Falls high school. Playing as she does with the style and power of drive of the average male tennis star, court concentration during the coming months should put her in a fair way to capture the Texas high school singles title next spring at the annual tournament in Austin.

But where Helen Wills may get hers some day is this: Margie, after she graduates from the high school here, expects to enter California university where two years from now Helen will be a junior.

With the possibility of great improvement between now and the time she leaves Wichita Falls, and the benefits she will derive from matching Wills in action and from playing with the Californian, the local girl athlete may some day develop into nearly as great if not as great a star as Helen Wills, herself queen of American courts and woman champ of the Olympic games, just over with.

MONTE A GLUTTON.

Wildcat Monte, Amarillo featherweight is such a glutton for punishment that when he found he was not billed for this week's legion card, and when told that no boxer his weight could be brought in in time for tonight's embroglios, compromised by chooing up with a welterweight.

Monte, after pushing all of 'em around the ring this week in daily workouts, will step out tonight and tackle Jack Ford, army boxer who is two classes above his poundage. And Monte will probably come off the victor, too. They will fight the four-round curtain raiser.

With No Bouts in Sight Dempsey Daily Trains Hard, Nevertheless

Robert Edgren Tells How Jack Was Found, But Wiseacres Overlooked Best Gamble of All

By ROBERT EDGREN

NEW YORK, July 30.—Jack Dempsey just now is in California, where he has been busy with some motion picture work. He hasn't any championship bout in prospect and may not fight again until next summer. But Dempsey isn't neglecting his condition. For three weeks or so he has been out early every morning for a five mile jog on the road, and has been doing an hour a day of gym work and boxing.

"I like to loaf," says Dempsey, "and whenever I feel lazy, I punish myself by going into training. I am within six pounds of my weight in the Firpo fight and am in good condition to start training any time if something shows up. I never get entirely out of training. If I ever really get lazy and lie around and let myself grow fat I'll never fight again. When a man can't keep in condition he isn't good for much. It means that he has lost ambition. I haven't lost ambition yet by a long shot. When I box again, if somebody comes along and the public and promoters want to see whether I'm still there or not, I am going to be as near my best form as possible. I always figure on training to my best form for any fight, and I'd train as hard for a dub as for the toughest proposition I ever got into a ring with. They're always tough when they can work their way up to a championship match anyway.

"I wouldn't take on any match without at least six weeks of hard training in camp, with Jack Kearns on the job with me. Two months would be better. I'd have to get at least five weeks of boxing after conditioning myself on the road. Nothing can take the place of actual fighting in the ring, but it seems so hard to find opponents now a days that I can't box often the way I'd like to, so I have to do the best I can with sparring partners. I always try to get the toughest and hardest I can find and tell them to knock me out if they can."

That's Jack Dempsey's philosophy. No dissipation, no irregularity in living, hard work and plenty of it, punishing hard work when he feels an inclination to loaf. No wonder he has been world's champion five years and looks good enough to hold the old title five years more.

Durlacher Found Champ

Lou Durlacher tells a story about Jack Dempsey's first appearance in the east. Dempsey was an unknown "ham and beaner" when he wandered into New York and began training at the New Polo club. Durlacher took him down to Philadelphia to box a local heavyweight who was having everything his own way in the Quaker town. Durlacher told Jack McGuigan that he was bringing down a very good heavyweight.

Not having any hotel money the two took a train for Philadelphia and arrived just in time to go on. When McGuigan saw Dempsey he threw up his hands and said: "I never saw this bird before. You told me you'd bring down a good fighter from New York. Who is this bum anyway?"

"Don't worry," said Durlacher, "he can fight. Your man is in for a licking."

Whips His First Man

It was too late to get a substitute for the unknown Dempsey and McGuigan was so sure he'd make a poor fight that he refused to referee. Dempsey started like a whirlwind and knocked the unbeaten local favorite out in a couple of rounds. Durlacher took him back to New York and told the boys around the New Polo that the unknown westerner was a coming champion—that he'd manage Dempsey himself and sign him up to a contract if he had about $5,000 capital to start a campaign with, but that he was a little short at the moment and had to attend to his own business and not mix up with the fighting game.

He mentioned Dempsey to several managers, and they all smiled. Dempsey pottered around a bit until he had carfare home, and went west. A few months later he returned with Jack Kearns as manager, and went right up the line to the world's championship.

Four Seeded Players Reach Fourth Round Southwestern Tennis Tourney

DALLAS, Texas, July 30.—Four seeded players reached the fourth round in singles in the thirteenth annual southwestern tennis tournament in progress on the courts of the Dallas Lawn Tennis club as a result of today's play. By keeping on the courts until dusk, the doubles play was carried to the third round. In the doubles likewise, the seeded racquetment, including the champions, are still holding their ground. Perhaps the only upset of the day came in the fourth singles round when Claude Monnett of Oklahoma City, a brilliant player, defeated Arthur Seeligson of San Antonio, 6-4, 6-3.

Five Dallas players, two Oklahoma City and one Fort Worth player remain to fight out the tournament. They are Ben Parks and Claude Monnett of Oklahoma City, and Ted Hackney of Fort Worth. The Dallas players surviving in the singles include the present champion, Levin Jester, Bradley Hogue and J. B. Adoue, former champions, and John Barr, one of the most promising players in the tourney.

John Barr, who holds the southwestern doubles title with Jester, easily defeated Wilbur Allisson of Fort Worth, 6-1, 6-4.

The sensation of the third round was the loss of a love set by "Tiste" Adoue, the veteran former champion, to Jimmy Quick, Dallas, city parks champion. Quick, the youngest player in the tournament, went down before Adoue's attack 6-4, 0-6, 6-1, but the love set reflects his sensational playing.

Bradley Hogue, another former title holder, and, Roger Stone of Oklahoma City furnished another colorful battle but the swarthy young Oklahoman lost in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4.

Settle and Parks, who share the upper bracket with Jester and Hogue, had an easy time. Settle eliminated Henry Lawrence of Fort Worth, 6-1, 6-2, and Parks put out Albert Reed, of Waco, 6-3, 6-2.

Monnett and Hackney were the lower bracket winners besides Adoue and Barr.

A match that is expected to be one of the hardest events in the tourney is scheduled for tomorrow when Champion Adoue meets Bradley Hogue, the former title holder. This pair have met in many duels of the courts and the outcome is always in doubt.

Texas Duo Wins At Sealbright

J., July 30.—Louis White and Louis Thalheimer of the University of Texas, national intercollegiate tennis doubles champions, dropped a set to Jerome Lang of Columbia and Frits Mercur of Lehigh before they recovered their accuracy and won, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, in the round before the semi-final in the Seabright invitation tennis tournament today.

BEAUMONT CATCHER NEEDED NO MORE

BEAUMONT, July 30.— Shreveport slugged Steengrafe and Malone for 18 hits and won the opener today 14 to 6. Catcher Burns of the Exporters did not receive a ball during the second and third inning and not until a run had scored on successive hits in the fourth when the Gassers hit the fifty-ball pitched throughout the stretch.

Legion Stages Triple Header Boxing Card Tonight

DICK DIXON IN FEATURE TILT

Trammel Versus Maywood; Rich and Denton Again

"All is well, and we're ready to go," said Promoter Don Wofford last night in regards to the all-star boxing triple header scheduled for this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the open air arena at Tenth and Ohio.

"Every man is in tiptop condition, and they're all rearing to get at each other," said Wofford. "Each boxer has been training hard for this occasion, and when the last bell has rung for the evening we hope to have settled by that time the dispute between Rich and Denton, and Trammel and Maywood."

THE CARD.

Tabby Levine, Wichita Falls, versus Dickey Dixon, Fort Worth. Featherweights, eight rounds.

Harmon Rich, Wichita Falls, versus Joe Denton, Amarillo. Welterweights, 12 rounds.

Ray Maywood, Wichita Falls, versus Duke Trammel, Fort Worth. Welterweights, eight rounds.

Twice has Harmon Rich battled Joseph Denton on even terms, one a ten-rounder the other for 15 rounds, and tonight's tilt, the third, is supposed to be the charm. "I'm going to slug it out with him," declares Denton. "I'll either stop him, or he will stop me."

"I expect to win by a knockout this time," avers Rich. "If I don't put him down for the count, I'll whip him to a frazzle anyway."

Gimme One More Chance.

Maywood and Trammel have also fought a couple of draws, and now, too, hope that the third bout will prove a charm. "Just let me get one more chance at Maywood." Trammel has wailed ever since their last fight. "I'm going to run him out of there this time."

Maywood, of course, feels just the opposite, and believes undoubtedly, that he will this time pour it on Duke, a state of mind, of course, which is not a bit of the unusual in the case of the average glove chunker.

Fights Should Be Good.

If the principals in these two bouts live up to their expectations, something which certainly would be unusual, local fight enthusiasts will see two of the best battles ever staged in Texas. And there is that essence of possibility of the boxers coming through, especially Rich and Denton do, in their other pair of scraps kept fandom on the verge of nervous prostration penetically the entire routes.

Pre-fight talk labels the Levine-Dixon tilt as the most likely number on the program. These speedy youngsters are hard mixers. Both are combinations of boxers and sluggers, and each is a fairly tough boy. Dixon rates as Levine's hardest opponent to date, and the local boy will doubtless be pushed to the limit to continue on his streak of victories.

The usual added attraction in the form of a jazz orchestra will be on hand tonight, said Wofford.

Anthrax Tocsin Sounded Out In Southwest Texas

AUSTIN, July 30.—Warning that the outbreak of anthrax in southeast Texas is proving serious and that every precaution must be practiced was issued today by Dr. Leon G. Cloud, state veterinarian of the live-stock sanitary commission of Texas.

Anthrax is so quickly spread that its presence in any section is dangerous to the entire state, according to Dr. Cloud. When one area becomes infected it is practically impossible to entirely eradicate the disease, he declared.

Grain Letter

W. N. Graham of Wichita Falls, Texas, today received the following telegraphic communication from Clement Curtis & Co.:

CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—Wheat: Lower cables, better weather conditions for Canadian wheat and break of nearly 5 cents in Winnipeg accounted for a weaker market with general liquidation. The movement of wheat in the southwest is nearly double the amount of a year ago and hedging pressure was increased to some extent. The late bulge yesterday had reduced the short interest, affecting the buying power today. On the breaks, however, there was influential commission house buying. Rains in the winter wheat belt are interfering with threshing and offerings to arrive are reported light. Argentine crop continues to need rain and is causing a strengthening of the Buenos Aires market.

Corn: Market declined nearly 3 cents, caused by general selling, running into stop loss orders which increased the pressure. Cash market was weaker along with futures. Weather over the corn belt has been favorable for several weeks and there is a disposition to buy more cautiously at the present level of prices.

Oats: Market broke in sympathy with corn and wheat. Eastern houses were good buyers at the decline. Cash market was relatively firmer than futures, but eased off in sympathy.

Cranfill No. 2, Mills, Pumps 100 Barrels of Oil, First 24-Hour Guage

Baylor County Well Has Every Appearance of Making Good 50-Barrel Well

Cranfill Brothers and Penn have placed their No. 2 Mills, on the pump, and showed 105 barrels of fluid for the first 24-hours guage, 100 barrels of oil and five barrels of water, from the sand at 1,432 1-2-36 feet. There is every indication that the well will settle down to at least a 50-barrel well with water trouble amost negligible.

This well filled 500 feet with oil Monday in three hours, when the sand encountered at 1,432 1-2 feet was drilled into to a depth of 1,436 feet. Preparations were immediately made to place on the pump, and yesterday's guage is the first indication of what the well will actually do.

The well was drilled with cable tools and there is a string of 6 5-8-inch casing to the sand.

This well is 358 feet south of the old Cranfill No. 1, Mills, abandoned finally when a lead and steel plug paced in the hole to shut off water could not be drilled out. It is about 758 feet southwest of the Magnolia No. 1 Portwood, which failed to make a well from a similar sand and is drilling deeper down past 1,-751 feet.

The well is located in block 2413, T&NO survey, about two miles southwest of Megargel, east Baylor county.

Texhoma Tests Second Sand In Montague Co. Test

The Texhoma Oil and Refining company failed to make a well for the second time in a week on the Bouldin ranch, near Nocona, Montague county, about two miles from the Boy-Oil company's Salmon farm well. A second sand encountered in this well at 1190 feet was drilled into to a depth of three feet and showed salt water when bailed night before last.

Casing has been pulled and the test will be drilled deeper.

OIL INVESTMENT CO. GOING IN NEAR WAITE PHILLIPS

The Oil Investment company will drill the well on the Belle Z. Lyles land, section 2, SPRR survey, abstract 1231, about a mile northwest of the Waite Phillips well on the Horrifs survey, west Archer county. The location was announced formerly as being made by Carter and Ballyest. The test will be located in the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 2.

EVANGELINE AND BRUNSON TO DRILL ON FARMER LAND

The Evangeline Petroleum company is drilling past 1694 feet on their test on the T. W. Roberts land, northeast of Fowlkes station, Wichita county, section 10, A. R. Collins survey, abstract 416. Several sands have been encountered in this test but none considered worth setting casing on. The test is located on the top of a dome-like structure just north of the Wichita-Electra highway near Fowlkes Station.

SHAMROCK GETS 100 BARREL WELL, SWASTIKA FIELD

The Shamrock Oil company has completed their No. 2 Richardson-B lease, Swastika, and estimate its probable production at around 100 barrels from the usual 1300-foot Swastika sand.

The No. 3 Richardson-B has been rigging up and should have been spudded yesterday.

The No. 9 Richardson-Mayfield has been spudded and is drilling around 200 feet.

EVANGELINE DOWN 1,694 NE FOWLKES

The Evangeline Petroleum company and T. R. Brunson have acquired 37 acres in the southeast corner of block 17, R. R. Farmer land, Wm. Baker survey, abstract 15, west and north of the Gerke-Ross, Sanders-Taylor wells, and will put down a test, drilling to commence within two weeks, in the southeast corner of the lease, 200 feet west of a direct north offset location to the Sanders-Taylor well.

MAGNOLIA DOWN PAST 240, PARRISH

The Magnolia Petroleum company is drilling down past 240 feet on their Parrish No. 1, 150 feet each way from the northeast corner of the northwest 40 acres of section 26, AT NCL, H&TCRR survey, abstract 1197, Archer county, south and west of the Carter-Pice, Murchison-Fain and Tex-O-Kan group in sections 34 and 40.

CLAY COUNTY WELLS GOING ON DOWN

Cumley and Callendar are drilling around 1000 feet down on their Stine test near the Cumley-Callendar-Stump well on the Stine land, Parker county school lands, Clay county. Bowen and Ross to the southeast are down about 1050 feet, and the Verschoyle test down around 450 feet.

BOWER AND JONES DOWN 1,145 FEET

Bower and Jones are shut down temporarily at a depth of 1145 feet on their No. 2 Mae Rutty, J. Creilly survey, abstract 60, Archer county, account of water trouble but expect to be going again today.

This test is located 750 feet west from the northeast corner of the lease, two locations west of the No. 1, dry and abandoned.

New Name Given Refinery to Be Reopened Here

"Wichita Refining company" has been chosen as the new name for the old Keystone-Ranger (Knox-Finley) Refining company plant, now to be reopened and operated again under a new management. Plans for the operation have been under way for some time and announced last week at the time when repairs were begun. At that time, however, a name for the plant had not been decided upon.

The management of the plant will be invested in B. D. (Doc) Dawson, Orient Petroleum company, who, in company with other Wichita Falls parties have made arrangements for its reopening.

It is expected that needed repairs will be made and everything ready for actual operation by August 10 or 15. The capacity of the plant will approximate 2000 barrels of crude oil a day. It is located about two miles north of Wichita Falls near the Wichita Falls and Northwestern right of way.

Oil Personals

J. W. Thomas, Humble Pipeline company, is expected back today after a trip to Corsicana.

Walter Priddy, American Refining company, has left for a short trip to Tulsa. He is expected back about the end of the week.

B. J. Shaw has left with his family for a short stay in Colorado. Mr. Shaw will return in two weeks, his family staying there, however.

Roy B. Jones, president of the Panhandle Refining company, is expected to return from a month's vacation in Colorado tomorrow night.

W. H. Sutton of Tulsa and J. F. Champion and E. L. McMillan of Ranger, all of the Prairie Oil and Gas company, were in Wichita Falls yesterday and the day before.

W. R. Kneedler, Panhandle Refining company, has returned from a short vacation in Colorado.

R. D. (Bob) Farish, formerly head of the land department of the Humble Oil and Refining company at Houston, and now in business for himself, has been in the city for the past two days looking over this territory.

STANIFORTH AND TEXHOMA MAKE LOCATION FOR NO. 6

The Texhoma Oil and Refining company and Staniforth have made a location and are erecting a derrick for their No. 6 Kemp and Kempser, north offset to the Humble Oil and Refining company's No. 1 B. Orton. The well will be 150 feet each way from the southwest corner of block 64.

No. 5, to the west, is drilling about 1300 feet. Nos. 3 and 4 are both producers from 1780-foot sand.

COMAC DISTRICT WELL DOWN 1,130

The Magnolia Petroleum company is drilling past 1130 feet down on its No. 3 Llewellyn, east of their No. 2 Llewellyn, John Llewellyn survey, abstract 256, Archer county, Comac district.

OHIO OIL COMPANY MAKES NEW CUTS

FINDLAY, Ohio, July 30.—The Ohio Oil company today reduced the price of Wooster crude oil 25 cents a barrel. Six grades of Wyoming crude were cut 10 cents a barrel, following a 15-cent reduction yesterday.

UNITED CENTRAL RESEATING, MURRAY

The United Central Oil company is getting a new seat in their No. 1-A Murray, Roberts and Hill-Watkins district, southeast of Electra. Casing was set at first at 1813 feet to test out an 1800-foot sand.

STUMP ET AL SPUD WICHITA CO. TEST

Stump and others spudded their test yesterday on the north side of irrigation ditch and the west side of the old K-M-A road, block 57, Wichita county, and are drilling near the surface.

STUMP CLAY CO. TEST BELOW 1,450

E. J. Stump is drilling past 1,450 feet on his test on the Ashland farm, Clay county, northwest of Petrolia, offsetting the Body farm and the old well of Body and associates about 900 feet to the east.

COCHRAN DRILLING PAST 1,451, WEETH

Cochran is drilling past 1,451 feet on his well on the Weeth land, northeast corner of the northwest quarter of section 3, SPRR survey, abstract 277, Wichita county, south of the Rule Farm Oil company's holdings.

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 30.—A wave of profit taking today interrupted the current upward movement of stock prices, but a renewed outburst of buying in the final few minutes of trading sussained the strength shown earlier in the day. Steel shares assumed the leadership of the advance, but railroad issues were hammered down under realizing sales.

Constructive developments in the steel trade, including the extra dividend declared yesterday by the United States Steel corporation and reports of a measurable increase in new buying by the weekly trade reviews gave a firm tone to the steel issues, which was communicated to other industrial leaders. U. S. Steel common opened 1 5-8 points higher and mounted almost 3 points to 106 5-8, a new high on the current movement, on substantial heavy transactions. It closed at 105 5-8, a net gain of 2 3-8 points.

American Can, Baldwin, General Electric, which receded sharply when reactionary movements developed in the afternoon, joined in the final rally. American Can established a new high level for the year at 125 3-8, representing a net gain of 2 5-8 points.

The selling movement which replaced the initial advance was perhaps the most severe encountered in the last seven weeks. While the staying quality of U. S. Steel and other pivotal stocks enabled the general list to stage an impressive recovery, rail issues failed to regain their previous high levels and reactions at declines were general throughout this group. Atlantic Coast Lines, however, maintained its independent strength, moving up four points.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

By The Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, July 30.—Mid-week cattle receipts were liberal and buyers took advantage of the opportunity to force prices downward, steers and cows averaging 15 to 25 cents lower, while yearlings and bulls were slow and 15 cents. Calves remained about steady. Around 5,000 head of cattle and 2,000 calves were here.

Buyers did not look upon beef steers with favor.

Bids were weak to unevenly lower and actual sales indicated a 15 to 25-cent lower level.

Cows sold with some freedom, but at reduced rates, the general offs measuring around 15 to 25 cents. Some good and fair to medium cows sold $2.50 to $2.85, with canners and cutters around $1.50@2.50.

MONEY At Work

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments.

The entire economic greatness of North America has been built up by men who were willing to forego present comforts for the expectation of future gains.

In order to produce the capital necessary to finance industrial corporations, mines or railways, some one must establish a surplus—fail to use as much as they produce. When a large number of people do this a great surplus is built up which may be used for new development. This development usually takes the form of producing things which will enable mankind to produce other things more easily, more swiftly and more cheaply.

To build up an economic system of this sort a new country must either employ a foreign capital or go through a period of niggardly hardship in order to get operations. The United States used both methods when it was a new country. Canada has been largely helped by British capital. Russia is trying to use the method of having its people accumulate the capital—even though it is practically an international bankrupt. Russia gives a good example of the suffering and horror which must be endured when a nation tries to build up its surplus through the individual efforts of its own people in an impoverished (industrially impoverished) country.

By The Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, July 30.—The cotton market was again reactionary today and declined practically five dollars a bale from the close of yesterday before a real halting place was reached. There was a rally of nearly two dollars a bale from the lowest in the last half hour of trading. The start was fairly steady, and although prices eased off 16 to 18 points right after the opening call, on private reports of western rains, there was prompt recovery, October trading up to 28.22 and December to 28.03, or 2 to 4 points net higher than yesterday's close.

October declined rapidly and in the afternoon traded as low as 27.12, or 110 points down from the high of the morning. December declined to 27.00, or 103 points down from the early high. In the late trading October rallied to 27.45 and December to 27.38, or 35 to 38 points up from the lows. The close showed net losses for the day of 67 to 80 points.

Most of the selling during the day was due to liquidation by longs, although there was a good deal of short selling on the private advices received from most parts of the belt claiming that the crop was making excellent progress. More or less heavy selling against the expected early cotton movement was also reported during the day.

The late afternoon reaction was brought about by contracts proving scarce when satisfied shorts sought to cover. The Texas temperature report showed 25 stations with maximum of 100 to 106 degrees yesterday.

SOILS AND SOIL PHYSICS, Growing Plants Without Soil.

It is perfectly possible to grow farm plants without soil. They have been grown to a full and luxuriant maturity in the laboratory without any soil at all. They were grown in water. Not just plain water but water that had had the necessary plant food elements added to it in solution.

Water prepared in this way is similar to the soil solutions used by plants when growing in the soil. It is from the soil solutions that plants take their food.

In these laboratory experiments it has been found that the best results can be obtained when these solutions have an excess amount of plant foods in them. Or in other words if there is more plant food present in the solution than plants can use they will grow better.

Oftentimes fertilizers are applied to soils that show by chemical analysis that they have sufficient plant foods in them. Adding fertilizer, however, will cause crops to grow and yield better. Therefore what is the function of fertilizers?

In view of the work that has been done in investigating the toxins that are thrown off by the roots of growing plants it is thought that fertilizers act as neutralizers of these poisons at least in part. It may well be that they change the form of these toxins to some harmless form.

In as much as the exact nature of these plant poisons are more or less unknown it would seem that it would be a difficult matter to prescribe the exact kind of fertilizer that might be needed.

This is a correct surmise; it is hard to tell by making an analysis of the soil. However, there is a simple way of finding out. We will discuss this matter further in future articles.

RAINS IN CANADA DEPRESS WHEAT

Corn Also Finishes Day's Session With Prices Down

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Canadian rains and cool weather led to heavy selling of wheat today in connection with a noticeable tendency to increase estimates of the size of the Canadian crop. Largely as a result the wheat market closed unsettled, 7-8 to 1 5-8 cents net lower, September $1.31 5-8 to $1.31 7-8 and December $1.34 1-2 to $1.34 3-4. Corn finished 3-4 to 1 3-8 cents down, oats 3-8 to 1 1-2 off, and provisions at a setback ranging from 35 to 57 cents.

Houses with northwestern and southwestern connections were persistent sellers in the wheat market here and were given a decided advantage by a sharp break in quotations at Winnipeg and Liverpool. A majority of traders here appeared to lean to the view that the drouth in Canada had been effectually broken and that for at least the time being the temperatures there were too low for development of rust.

Corn and oats declined with wheat and as a result of more favorable crop news and better weather conditions.

Provisions dropped owing to profit taking sales and also a fall in hog values.

HUMBLE MOTOR OILS
Unblended Lubricants From Cold Test Crudes
In order to get the desired viscosity, or body, many manufacturers blend their oils by mixing a heavy oil with a light oil in the correct proportion. This practice produces a "blended oil," the lighter portions of which quickly vaporize under the high temperature of the cylinder walls above the pistons—and the heavier portions leave a large residue of carbon when burned.
On the other hand, Humble Motor Oil is produced only from high-grade, cold-test crudes, and is "straight run." It is not mixed or blended. Humble Motor Oil is a clear, beautiful amber color, and has just the right "body" to properly lubricate all bearing surfaces in the motor and to stand up under the extreme heat to which it is subjected. Owing to the fact that it is unblended, there is but a small range between its lighter and heavier fractions, and it leaves but little carbon when burned.
Humble Motor Oil insures longer service life for the car.

YOU can get Humble Motor Oil at conveniently-located filling stations and garages. Look for the signs as shown below. For convenience and safety on long-distance trips, into sparsely-settled territory, keep a small, leak-proof can of Humble Motor Oil in your car.

Billy Whiskers

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY.

You remember Billy ran into the principal and knocked his wig off.

There he sat with his bald head shining like a billiard ball when a sweet voice said, "I hope you are not hurt, Mr. Wheeler!" and looking up he saw standing before him the prettiest teacher in the whole school, the one above all others he would not have had see him in such a predicament for a whole year's salary.

"Oh, no, not at all, thank you!" he replied, as his nervous fingers tried to adjust his wig. He jumped to his feet and walked off as quickly as he could, trusting his wig was on straight. But when he reached his office and looked in the mirror, he found it was on hind side before, and the part at the back of his head when it should have been on top. From that day the boys nicknamed him Baldpate, though they took very good care that he never heard them call him that.

As for Billy, he found his delicious looking apple had a false heart and was worm eaten, so he had all his trouble for nothing and had a nasty spot of black ink on his snow-white whiskers and hair, too.

"I guess I'll go back to Mr. Noland's and see if Stubby and Button have returned," he thought, and as he rounded the corner of the street on which Mr. Noland's house stood, he saw the auto turn in at the other end of the very short block. Stubby jumped out and when he saw Billy he ran joyously to meet him, barking as he came, "Oh, Billy you should have been with us! I never had more fun in my life. But what has pahpened to you."

So the two of them trotted off toward the lake to recount their adventures. And as you are interested in the doings of Billy, Stubby and Button, perhaps you might like me to delate to you what happened to each of them.

Nellie took Button up in her arms and started over to see her best friend, Kittie Mead. Kittie owned a beautiful white Angora cat named Bella, who always wore a tiny gold bell tied around her neck with a blue ribbon.

When Nellie was within calling distance of Kittie's house, she began to call, "Oh, Kittie, bring your doll carriage here quick! Hurry, hurry, for this cat is getting heavy!"

(But we shall have to wait till tomorrow to come to the rescue).

WHAT TODAY MEANS TO YOU

By MARY BLAKE LEO

Although the new moon occurring today is a Solar eclipse, it is not of malignant nature from the fact that it occurs in the Sun's own sign Leo, while the luminaries are forming a good aspect to the benign Jupiter. The period of the forenoon is, however, not auspicious for any undertaking of importance. In the afternoon and evening, the conditions improve materially, and affairs, which are in suspense, can be tackled with some degree of assurance that efforts along conservative lines will be successful.

A child born today will suffer in infancy from the ordinary ailments to which all children are, more or less, subject; with devoted attention and careful nutrition, it will develop into healthy maturity. Its character will, however, need much attention; it will show a disregard for truth, and a love of exaggeration altogether incompatible with honest development; much stress in its training must be laid on straightforwardness and honesty of purpose.

If today is your birthday, many of your characteristics are those of immaturity, notwithstanding your years, your education and your experience. You still retain many youthful tendencies. You are disposed to be impulsive. You are very responsive emotionally, and when your emotions are aroused you are prone to decide important matters without reference to facts, reason and logic.

Another very youthful characteristic is your tendency to be headstrong, wilful, stubborn, and opinionated. When you have arrived at one of your swift conclusions you find it very difficult to take advice. Even when you do listen to what others say, you do not listen well. Your mind jumps ahead to conclusions that are erroneous and which were never in the mind of the person giving the advice.

You can readily see, it is this inability to get competent counsel from others, coupled with your own lack of observation and deliberation that leads you into so many situations that turn out to be undesirable.

You are very idealistic. Your standards are high. You naturally expect much, but you are also critical. Indeed, you are inclined to be hypercritical, to find too much fault, to see too many flaws and failures. You need to cultivate far more courage.

Successful people born on this date are:

Abraham S. Hewitt, merchant and mayor of New York.

George Hoadley, once governor of Ohio.

Ben Foster, artist.

Color Cut-out

"You have a pretty garden," said Betty Cut-out to the shy little girl who lived in the strange cottage with the big fence around it. "We often stop and look at it when we go past."

"Dou you live in the town?" asked the little girl.

"No, we're just staying here for a few weeks this summer. It's lots of fun."

"I think it would be, running around like that," sighed the little girl.

"Sometime we'll stop and get you to go somewhere with us," offered Betty.

"Oh, I couldn't. She wouldn't let me. I don't know what she'd do if she saw me talking to you. O-o-h." And suddenly the little girl turned and ran back in the house.

Color the little girl's hair golden brown and her dress dull blue. Mount her on light cardboard and cut her out.

YOU KNOW ME AL — The Adventures Of Jack Keefe — —By Ring Lardner

Friend Al:

Well what do you think now Al, somebody has named a horse after me Jack Keefe and they are going to run him at the races in Saratoga tomorrow and the boys say I can make a bet right here on him and they say the odds will probably be 10 to 1 which if I would bet say $100.00 I would clean up $1000.00. Pretty soft hey Al and I am going to take a chance because if he was not all right they would not have him up to Saratoga which is one of the finest race tracks in the country. One of the boys on the St. Louis club told me the name of a book keeper who takes bets and I am going to meet him tomorrow A. M. and maybe tomorrow night I will have a $1000.00 soft money in the old kick.

T-O FAIR GETS OUT CATALOGUE

Booklet of 1924 Exposition Contains 100 Pages of Details

The official Texas-Oklahoma Fair catalogue is off the press and anyone desiring one can obtain the same by calling at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair association's offices in the Kahn building, according to officials of the association.

The new catalogue which outlines the third Texas-Oklahoma Fair to be held here September 29 to October 5, inclusive, contains a hundred pages of useful information. One of the chief attractions of the fair this year will be the Chicago Cadet band which is regarded as one of the best in the nation. The fire works will be 100 percent better than last year, according to R. E. Shepherd. The fire attractions at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair last year compared with those at the state fair in Dallas and should they be 100 percent better this fall, it will be worth seeing.

The officers of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair association are: G. Clint Wood, president; W. E. Moore, vice-president; W. E. Norton, treasurer; and R. E. Shepherd, secretary. The executive committee consists of G. Clint Wood, George Keith, C. H. Verschoyle, R. E. Shepherd, W. M. Moore, W. E. Norton, and P. A. Rogers. The directors are George Keith, W. W. Waggoner, W. M. Moore, C. H. Verschoyle, J. L. McMahon, Carl Williamson, R. M. Waggoner, T. L. Burnett, P. A. Rogers, J. I. Staley, G. Clint Wood, W. F. Weeks, W. E. Norton, W. C. Young, T. B. Noble, W. Daniel, R. H. Henry, A. H. Murchison, E. W. Schloffke, J. F. Boyd, and R. E. Shepherd.

The department directors are: Admission, W. E. Norton; agriculture, Guy Jones; art, Wichita Falls Art association; automobiles, Frank Quiesser; better baby show, E. S. Goodner; cattle, George Keith; dogs, Allen Montgomery; educational, Burl Bryant; hogs, sheep and goats, Carl Williamson; horses and racing, Fred Weeks; hotel accommodations, Joseph Huckins III; machinery, P. A. Rogers; petroleum products, W. D. Cline; poultry, Irn Brown; rabbits, James R. Buchman; transportation, J. W. Chatham, Jr.; women's department, Mrs. C. R. Hartsock.

SCOUT SCHOOL IS PLANNED HERE

Plans are being made for the opening of the Scout school which will be held in Wichita Falls this fall by F. B. Creighton. Scoutmasters are taught the finer points of Scout work by men who know different phases of scouting. The school will probably open about the first of October and continue for several weeks.

Creighton conducted the first training Scout school in Wichita Falls last fall and at the conclusion of the instructions 16 men received their diplomas certifying that they were recognized as Scoutmasters. Men interested in Scout work took turns in lecturing to the students and an interesting course was given.

LIONS DONATE TO SEA SCOUT'S BOAT

The Lions club at their regular weekly luncheon at the Kemp hotel yesterday voted an appropriation of $25 toward the purchase of a boat for the use of the sea scouts, a branch of the boy scout organization here.

Representatives of this organization were present at the meeting of the club a week ago and told the plans to purchase the boat before it. It was declared that the funds of the scouts were not sufficient to cover the cost of the purchase and the assistance of the Lions and other clubs was solicited.

This assistance was voted and the request amount partly raised at the meeting of the Lions yesterday. The boat will be placed on Lake Kemp.

CREIGHTON VISITS BURK SCOUTS

F. B. Creighton, boy scout executive, spent Tuesday in Burkburnett on Scout business. There are six Boy Scout troops in Burkburnett and due to the warm weather and the majority of the boys working interest in the Scout work is not high as during the winter months. At the present time there is a shortage of Scout masters in Burkburnett.

Mr. Creighton will return to Burkburnett Friday and spend the day there in reviving interest in the Scout work and selecting some Scout masters to take charge of those troops that are without leaders.

out in a ward at the General hospital a youth in the middle twenties is fighting desperately to overcome a handicap. Hour after hour he lies in his bed learning to write with his left hand—for he lost his right hand several days ago in a circle saw. The odds are against him as they have been for the past five years but with that determination that has carried him through school for the past five years he says he will "go over the top in this fight."

John Keith came to Wichita Falls in 1919—a big raw boned 21 years old country boy. He entered the local high school and was placed in classes with a group of youngsters. In less than three months he was taking an active part in all class activities—was a member of the Glee club, one officer in the Boy's club class, post, and on top of this was working his way through school. Those were the days of the boom and during the summer he would go to an adjoining oil field and work, only to return to Wichita Falls the following fall.

At last he secured a janitor's job at the Kemp library and has been working there ever since. There have been times that he was just a little hungry but there has never been a time when his courage wavered. He graduated from the local high school with honors and then entered the Wichita Falls Junior college and graduated from that institution last spring as one of the honor students in the school.

Not satisfied with this Keith began work this summer to save enough money to enter the University of Texas this fall when the accident took place and shattered his dreams. No, not shattered because nothing will daunt him. Hour after hour he practices writing with his left hand and his writing is slowly improving. Thus far he has made no plans but when he leaves the hospital he will have some definite aim and with an unconquerable spirit will "come back."

PARNELL TALKS ON POLITICS

Candidate For Senator Urges Folks To Keep On

"However we may have differed before the national convention," asserted J. D. Parnell, recipient of the greatest number of votes in the recent election for senator from this district to the legislature, yesterday at the regular weekly luncheon of the Lions club, "a better man and a better democrat could not have been picked to lead the party in the November election than John W. Davis of West Virginia. Balloting could have continued for two years and the result would not have been better."

"Regardless of your own opinion, however, now that that man has been selected get behind him and do the best you can to help the party win, and if it wins, carry on a successful administration. If Coolidge is elected do the same by him. He is an upright and honorable man, and capable.

Applied Locally.

"It should be the same way with your state officers. If you voted for one man and he did not win get behind him anyway. When the election is over forget the differences and the embitterment that attended the campaign and make the administration of the one elected as successful as is in your power."

Again, "The farmer has been mighty nearly ruined by the politician. He has my sympathy. The laborer has my sympatry; I know what he does and the hardships that come his way. The big business man has my symanthy; I know the problems that confront him. But let me say, that the bumblest among you has the right and will receive as much attention in the service he requires at Austin if I am finally sent there as any one of my constituents.

Positive Stand.

"As long as I lived in Wilbarger county I always stood on one side of the fence or the other; there was not an issue that I did not take a decided stand on, and I have done the same since coming to Wichita Falls.

"If I am finally elected I want to pledge myself to serve you in the Texas state senate to the height of my ability, playing no favorites and giving as nearly as I can justice to all demands that are made upon me."

Destitute Family Receives Small Sum, Clothing

Rev. W. H. Phillips, pastor of the Church of Nazarene, reported last night that approximately $30 and a few pieces of clothing had been collected for the family of John Ayres, whose home burned completely to the ground Tuesday at 1316 Fifth street. The family consisting of the father, mother, and five children had just moved into the little home and Mr. Ayres was working on a local paving job while the mother, despite the fact that she had five small children, was also doing work to add to the family's income.

Then came the fire. All the furniture, a purse containing every cent of the family, and practically all the clothing, was burned. The family was absolutely destitute. A few dishes and some quilts have been given to the family but they are in dire need of more clothing, and a mattress and some springs, according to Rev. Phillips, who is in charge of the collection work. Rev. Phillips said last night "that the family was one of the most deserving in Wichita Falls, had never depended on charity and that both parents were hard workers."

Record News readers who desire to donate some clothes or an old mattress to the family, may do so by calling at the home of Rev. W. H. Phillips, pastor of the Church of Nazarene, 1200 Fifth street, or telephone 2448 and ask the pastor to call for supplies.

Lots of Glim For Jail Birds, New Idea At Bastille

"If they climb out the windows and start for the ground we don't want 'em to fall and hurt themselves so we're putting the lights in to help them see."

This was the explanation county jail guards gave Wednesday for the new flood lights that are to be put on the jail in the next few days. Plans have already been made for the installation of powerful globes on each corner of the bastille and these, it is said, will be burned throughout the night as an additional safeguard against possible jail delivery.

The building will be bathed in light and any one who should effect an opening from a window would be forced to make his water-gutter descent in the glare of illumination.

New screens are also being installed on the jail and exterior decorating will later be done.

DANIELS SPEAKS TO OPTIMISTS

Rotary President Commends Club For Boy Work

Dan Daniels, president of the Rotary club, was the principal speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the optimist club Wednesday at the Kemp hotel. Mr. Daniels told the Optimists that they were doing a great work in taking an interest in the boys of this city.

He told of a trip to the county jail in Chicago and of his visit to the cell of Loeb and Liepold who are being tried in Chicago at the present time for the murder of the young Franks boy. Mr. Daniel said that the boys were fine clean looking young men with intelligent faces. He told how the jail contained hundreds of young men between the ages of 18 and 22 and who were charged with every possible crime. He added that such cases as these would in future time be prevented through the work of organizations like the Optimist club.

Judge B. D. Sartin, acting chairman, spoke briefly on the duties of the club in helping the juveniles of the city and told the members present that he would give them several cases that needed attention.

R. E. Shepherd, accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd at the piano, gave two vocal selections. In conclusion he sang an original song "Come to the Texas-Oklahoma Fair." Mrs. Shepherd was presented with a boquet by the club.
