

Harper asks commissioners for consideration of appointment as constable for Precinct 4

Mike Harper, former reserve deputy with the Garza County Sheriff's department, met with the County Commissioners Monday morning and asked for their consideration in appointing him to serve as constable of Precinct 4.

With only two commissioners attending the meeting and Judge Dalby, they advised Harper that they could make no decision until all commissioners were present and for him to come back to the August meeting.

Commissioner Mike Cisneros is in a Lubbock hospital and Commissioner Craft was out of town.

In other action, a letter from the State Library was read concerning the destruction of old records in County Clerks, Carl Cederholms' office. A letter from a concerned citizen was also read about the destruction, but records given approval for destruction are only old officials bonds, notary bonds, medical examination certificates, campaign expenditures, bank statements, terminations of financing statements, release of chattel mortgages, jury lists, public notices, and notices of elections. Cederholm met with the commissioners to ask for an order from the court for such destruction and approval was given.

Commissioners also passed a resolution for Western Texas College giving authority for the Panhandle Plains Higher Education Authority,

Inc., to purchase loans from lenders (banks, savings & loans) in the Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Program. This creates a market whereby the banks can sell the loans if they desire and this could assist some residents of Garza County in pursuing an objective in higher education. Justice of the Peace Shelia Melton of Pct. 1 met with the commissioners to ask their permission in hiring a part time secretary with the request receiving their ok. Sharla Wells with the Human Resources Center also met with the commissioners and asked their help in financing a former resident of Garza County in his placement at Ca-

"Yesteryears Edition"

We have been overwhelmed with the response from readers concerning the "Yesteryears in Garza County" special edition, planned for Sunday, July 31.

Treasured photos from the past, clippings from now-defunct newspapers, valued stories of what has passed before...all of these and more have poured into our office this week.

We are grateful to so many people for sharing these moments...and we know everyone is anxious to take a peek at the tabloid.

Due to the unexpected number of photos and stories, which in fairness should all be printed, we have had to extend the publication date to Sunday, August 7.

To accommodate all these interesting views of the past, we are soliciting additional advertising to support a bigger-than-planned special edition.

Those advertisers who last week either didn't have time to work with us on their ad, or weren't sure about the tabloid's advertising value, now have until Monday, August 1 to be included in the popular publication.

We want to make sure every merchant in Post has an opportunity to be a part of this project and jump on the enthusiastic band-wagon, which is lead by our readers.

Methodist Bible School

The First United Methodist's Vacation Bible School has been set for August 1-5.

Classes will be held from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. with registration set for Monday, Aug. 1 at 8:30 a. m.

Refreshments will be served at mid morning each day.

There will be Bible stories, crafts, recreation and singing each day and the school is for ages two years through the sixth grade.

Crime Line

A $300 cash reward is being offered by the Crime Line for information leading to the arrest of individual or individuals responsible for the theft of a new, uncrated Chevrolet 350 pickup engine.

The theft took place the evening of June 29 at the Garza County precinct barn on the Tahoka Hwy.

Garza County Sheriff's Department will follow up any Crime Line calls, and callers will not be identified in any way.

Crime Line callers will be given an identification number, which will be used in all future telephone calls.

City Council holds special meeting to discuss needed roof repairs on city hall

A special meeting was held by the Post City Council Monday night, July 25 in the City Library building.

Mrs. Peggy Lofton, who appeared before the council at their July 11 meeting was given approval to establish a gift and flower shop within her home at 616 West 4th after no complaints were received from letters sent to neighbors of her intent to build.

Maxine Earl, council woman, told the council of a meeting of the C. D. B. G. workshop that she and Becky King had attended in Plainview last week. They were told that the state will be handling funds through the State Community Action Corporation, which will receive direct input from the regional level as the switchover from federal to state responsibility took time, the submission deadline is approximately Sept. 1. Next years submittal should be set for late spring or early summer.

Mrs. Earl told the council that it appeared likely they would have less competition in the Jobs Bill program with the maximum set at $200,000 and with the time crunch which coincides with the budget preparation, she wanted to know if the council wanted to consider application for whatever they could and utilize Parkhill, Smith and Cooper Engineering Firm for some of this application. Council gave their approval for filing of applications.

Becky King gave council members a report on the repairs and renovation now being made at the city hall and chamber office and showed members the color schemes to be used and then advised them of the condition of the city hall roofs.

She advised council members that she had contacted Schauer Associates and requested their inspection and recommendations of the roofs and look at how each roof's drainage or lack of drainage, affects the other roofs.

Council members discussed the situation and approved the advertising of bids on a complete roofing job with bids to be opened at a special meeting to be held at the earliest possible date after August 9.

Mrs. King also advised council that current renovation called for the moving of the Library heating unit to a different location while replacing the city hall unit, but upon the replumbing it was discovered that the library unit was not in as good shape as it had been originally thought and would not stand a move. Estimated cost of replacement of the unit was set at approximately $992. Council approved the replacement with the County coordinators sought for chemical abuse program

County coordinators are being sought on a volunteer basis to determine local chemical abuse problems, determine means of combating them and establishing a plan of action.

The volunteers are being sought in conjunction with the Public Broadcasting Network (PBS) who will broadcast "The Chemical People" on two successive Wednesdays, Nov. 2 and 9.

The program will present communities with the opportunity to join together to combat school-age drug and alcohol abuse. The county coordinators will organize town meetings of interested citizens who will view the two programs together and then establish a plan of action.

A steering committee made up of community organizations and interested persons has been es-

One for the books

"Phantoms" is the story of an urgent, incredible investigation involving a dedicated county sheriff, federal and state authorities, scientists, and one woman doctor who discovers the horror in Snowfield, California. Yesterday, Snowfield was a charming little town. That was yesterday. Today, half of the town's citizens have disappeared, and at least 150 others have died suddenly, horribly, and mysteriously. And the worst is yet to come. Dean R. Kootz tells the tale.

Another book intended for your summer reading enjoyment is "The Fourth Horseman," by Alan E. Nourse. A Wilderness Patrol officer in Washington State's high country spots a ying squirrel, unaware that it is infected with bubonic plague. Nourse explores a hypothetical, though possible, situation, an eruption of the Black Plague which spreads across the country, almost totally destroying Savannah, Georgia. A pharmaceutical company perfects a drug which could eradicate the disease, but chooses to restrict its production in order to make a financial killing. Finally a renegade scientist from the company joins forces with an unlikely group of people, all of whom are determined to do whatever they can to bring the disease under control.

The movie star, Merle Oberon, pretented for years that she was a Tasmanian aristocrat, the story which her studio circulated. Charles Higham offers another story, that she was born in India, of half Indian blood, and spent a lifetime covering up that fact. Truth is surely stranger than fiction. An example? "Princess Merle: The Romantic Life of Merle Oberon."

Richard Sharpe

wages war against Napoleon with cunning, cruelty, and secret intelligence. Set in the medieval city of Salamanca in western Spain, Bernard Cornwell tells a tale with Sharpe at the center, facing enemies both known and unknown. The high-tension plot takes this rugged and romantic fighting man through a maza of secrecy and deception that might cost Sharpe his career, his life, even his sword. Cornwell gives his novel the title "Sharpe's Sword."

In a completely different vein, Herbert Small offers an ornate book about "The Library of Congress: Its Architecture and Decoration." And while we are on the subject of Washington,

Tips for the Health Conscious

LESS IS BEST

Hop on the bandwagon. Join the millions of health conscious Americans who are cutting back on excess salt, fat and calories in their diets.

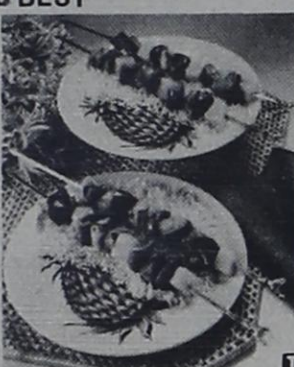

We're eating lighter, exercising more regularly and feeling better. Now we can cook light, with new Fleischmann's® Light™ Corn Oil Spread which contains 25 percent less salt, fat and calories than regular margarine.

Busy cooks will be delighted to find that there is no sacrifice to taste and flavor, as the following recipe will prove. It calls for chicken and pineapple, two foods that are high on nutrients and appetite appeal and low in fat and calories.

PINEAPPLE CHICKEN KABOB

Makes 4 servings

- 1 (20-ounce) can pineapple chunks in unsweetened juice, drained
- 2/3 cup reserved pineapple juice
- 1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 to 2 teaspoons curry powder
- 1/4 cup Fleischmann's® Light Corn Oil Spread
- 3 large whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned and cut into

1-inch cubes
2 medium green peppers, cut into 1-inch squares

In small saucepan, over medium-high heat, bring pineapple juice, brown sugar and curry powder to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes; remove from heat and stir in Fleischmann's Light Corn Oil Spread until melted.

Pour pineapple mixture over chicken pieces; toss well. Marinate 1 hour, stirring occasionally.

Drain chicken; reserving marinade. Skewer chicken pieces alternately with pineapple chunks and green pepper pieces. Place on broiling rack and brush with marinade. Broil 12 to 15 minutes, about 4-inches from heat, turning and brushing with marinade, until chicken is done.

FALL GARDENING TIME

It's time to start getting things in shape for your fall vegetable garden, says a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Many popular warm-season vegetables such as tomatoes, potatoes, squash and pole beans can be planted during the coming weeks as well as so called "winter" vegetables such as broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, greens and carrots. Get the land in good shape and apply a complete fertilizer. Watering is critical to get crops up during hot, dry weather.

Moorehouse Ranch to defend Ranch title

The Moorehouse Ranch will defend not one but two titles during the 1983 Texas Ranch Roundup in Wichita Falls August 19-20. The 40,000-acre ranch headquartered here lays claim to the 1982 Ranch Queen, Susan Stephens, and the 1982 Best Ranch in Texas title.

After edging out the Pitchfork Land and Cattle Company and the U Lazy S Ranch teams—both tied at second-by one point last year, the Moorehouse team plans to use the same strategy which has proved successful in the past.

"We'll try to do our very best," says Tom Moorehouse, co-manager of the 40,000 acre spread. "We're also unselfish about our selection of participants. Everyone gets a chance."

"Everyone" includes a 12-person ranch team, eight of whom are from the Moorehouse family. Since grandparents, brothers and children all work on the ranch, they are included in the round-up team.

Moorehouse claims that winning helps the team strategy. "We have won the title once," Moorehouse says. "Once you do that, it just makes you try that much harder to reach the top again."

The top is something Tom Moorehouse has reached before. Voted the best all-around hand in the first roundup primarily for his breath-taking saddle bronc ride, he lead his ranch to victory last year with an equally spectacular showing atop a bucking horse.

Though a smaller and younger ranch than most entered in the Texas Ranch Roundup, the Moorehouse Ranch perennially has ranked high in roundup competition. Moorehouse says he has no secrets for winning in the roundup.

"Everyone is capable of winning that trophy," notes the cowboy. "But you have to count on the luck of the draw and then go into this event with a spirit of competition."

That spirit of competition was the catalyst for Moorehouse's joining the Texas Ranch Roundup in the first place.

"We felt that the roundup resembled chores and activities which we had done all our lives," Moorehouse explains. "We felt if we could compete against other ranches on the same level, cowboy to cowboy, we would find out if we were really as capable as we thought we were."

The other ranches facing the Moorehouses at the Mounted Patrol Arena will include R.A. Brown Ranch, Cowan & Son Circle Bar Ranch, Double U Hereford Ranch, Four Sixes Ranch, Lewis Ranches Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., Scharbauer Ranches, Renderbrook-Spade Ranch, Swen R. Swenson Cattle Co., Tongue River Ranch Corporation, U Lazy S Ranch, and the W.T. Waggoner Estate.

In addition to such roundup events as team branding, the ranches will also compete in a ranch cookin' contest and queen and talent contests.

The event begins Friday night at 7:30 p.m., followed by a country and western dance at 9 p.m. Saturday's afternoon events include the cooking, talent and queen contest, followed by the evening roundup performance at 7:30 p.m. and the 9 p.m. dance.

The 1983 Texas Ranch Roundup is co-sponsored by the North Texas Rehabilitation Center and Budweiser. Proceeds from the 1983 Texas Ranch Roundup will benefit the North Texas Rehabilitation Center, Wichita Falls; the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, Abilene; and the West Texas Boys Ranch, San Angelo.

One day, when the sun was the hottest, Abraham sat by the door of his tent, waiting for strangers to arrive, so he could invite them to stay in his home. (You can read the story in Genesis 18).

The rabbis, who have a long tradition of reading and probing for the meaning of stories, suggest that Abraham was in the middle of prayer, and he interrupted his prayer in mid-sentence so that he could go show hospitality to strangers. "Greater than the reception of God," said the rabbis, "is the practice of hospitality."

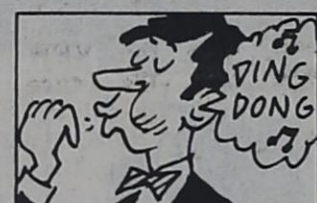

The Presbyterians of Post gather every Lord's Day because the Lord has promised to be in that place where people are gathered in his name. But we also assemble to provide a rest for the journey, a source of refuge and hope for the stranger.

This morning we will celebrate the Lord's Supper. It is not a "Presbyterian" Table, but the Lord's Table. We hope you will come and share in the Feast that God has prepared for you.

Some of those issues include establishing the service areas of Southwestern Bell after divestiture and assessing the impact on other telephone companies in Texas, including General Telephone of the Southwest, of current settlement arrangements between Southwestern Bell and those companies. Additionally, Docket No. 5113 will deal with the issues arising from the Federal Communications Commission's Final Order in Docket 78-72 (the Access Charge Docket) as they impact all telephone companies, including General Telephone Company of the Southwest. It is anticipated that Docket No. 5113 will be evidentiary in nature. RATES FOR GENERAL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF THE SOUTHWEST MAY BE DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION IN OR AS A RESULT OF THIS PROCEEDING. Interested parties seeking further information or desiring to participate in Docket No. 5113 are advised to write to Rhonda Colbert Ryan, Secretary and Director of Hearings, Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757 or telephone the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512)458-0223 or 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 TTY for the deaf.

Senior Citizens News

By Cleao Sappington
Garza County Senior Citizens which is called Garza County Trail Blazers would like to take this means of inviting all Senior Citizens of Post and surrounding communities to come and participate in our activities at the center.

We play games, watch TV, exercise and always invite anyone who would like to do any arts and crafts or put up a quilt to feel free to come down and we will help any way we can.

This is an open invitation to all Senior Citizens, no matter what your race, color or creed might be. It is your center also, so feel free to come.

We serve meals five days a week at a suggested donation of $1.50 for those over 60 and under that a $2 donation. We have a very close relationship with all our people and we love them all.

We have a bus that runs each day for our people to go shopping to the grocery store or whatever you need to do.

Tuesday, it goes to Lubbock for Doctors appointments or what you might need to do. The bus stops running at 2 o'clock so if you need to go please call in time to finish by that time.

There is to be a picnic at Roaring Springs for Senior Citizens. If you would like to go, you will have to furnish your own transportation. It is to be held Aug. 1 at Roaring Springs, Tex.

"Good Ole Summer Time" will be held again this year at the Civic Center in Lubbock for the South Plains Area Senior Citizens. The date for this is Aug.

12 at 6 p. m. This includes your meal and entertainment. There will also be door prizes. The price of the tickets will be $5.50 and they have to be purchased by the 8th of August. If you want to go please contact Cleao Sappington so she can order the tickets and they have to be paid for when picked up. The bus will be going and already have five signed up to ride it and it will only hold eight, so if you want to ride the bus, better call 495-2998 and make arrangements.

There is a few going to Roaring Springs, but the center will be open and there will be a sandwich lunch as the cooks are going. Bus will be running also.

United Convalescent

By Nell Mathews

Dear Friends,
Just a few lines to let you all know what a good time we are having here at United Convalescent Home.

Did you know that last Monday at 2 p. m. we played Bingo and had a great time with JoAnn Reed and Elfreda Price. They come all the way from Justiceburg every Monday afternoon to play Bingo with us.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning we have exercise and Tuesday and Thursday afternoon we also have exercise.

We sometimes have music with our exercises and we sure have a lot of fun seeing who can dance the best. We also play ball and sometimes we can hit the activity director with the ball.

Last Tuesday we went on a picnic with the VFW Ladies. We sure had fun, and we sure thank all of them for the fun and the good sandwiches, cookies, potato chips and punch.

Last Thursday we had Gospel singing with Cleao Sappington, Marion Mathews, Nell Mathews and Inez Grantham with Juanella Hays at the piano and you know that we sure enjoyed doing this with them. We got to sing along with them too.

Did you know that

Kenda on honor roll

Kenda L. Windham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Windham of Route 3, was among more than 1,000 students at Texas Tech University qualifying for the dean's honor roll in the university's six colleges during the 1983 first summer term.

The standards and symbols we use today for graduation attire were set back in 1894 by the Intercollegiate Commission.

Twin Cedar News

By: Tina Rodriguez
We have had one busy and crazy week.

To start the week on Monday we had condies and coke while everyone played their favorite game. They all enjoyed it and said it was a great treat.

We had homemade ice cream and sliced bananas on Wed. afternoon and we thank Katie Tipton for this treat. We also had a great performance put on by the Seniorettes that evening. They always do great in entertaining our residents.

We thank Lisa Claborn for the films she brought over on Thursday to show us. We also had some popcorn and cokes that went great with the movie.

We have also had our regular activities which are: bingo, dominoes, films, sewing, grooming and exercises.

We thank the Church of Christ for the good church service we had on Sunday. All the residents said they enjoyed it very much.

We would like to thank all our visitors for this week: Chanda, Debbie and Meagan Moreman, Doris Jones, Hooter Terry, Ruby Carpenter, Mack and Lola Ledbetter, Bobby Lewis, Doug Smith, Jenny Lewis, Tammy Lewis, Tom Lewis, Bernita Maxey, Mary D. Tillman, Charles and Dessie Hoskins and Derrell Roberts all of Post. Eva Lee

We sure get into some hot Dominoes or 42 games sometimes. Mrs. Woodard and Mrs. Williams beat Nell and Mr. Babb, (I think someone cheated.)

We thank all of you for coming by to see us and we are looking for you all back soon.

Love you all

Certified free herd numbers double over last year

Certified free herd a year ago. As of numbers in Texas July 1 this year, are virtually double there were 793 certified from what they were in 1982.

herds compared to 419 a year ago at the same time. Throughout the state, 171 counties have one or more certified free herds. The majority of certified herds are located in the eastern half of the state where brucellosis is more of a problem than in the western half.

"This shows to us that many livestock producers in the eastern half of Texas are using the certified brucellosis free herd program to protect their cattle against this highly contagious disease," Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

Hopkins County in northeast Texas has the highest number of certified brucellosis free herds with 32. Milam County in Central Texas is in second place with 27. Other counties with 20 or more certified free herds are Henderson (23); Navarro (24); Bell (22); Washington (21); and Bosque (20). Counties with 10 through 19 certified herds are Fannin (12); Lamar (12); Denton (10); Collin (12); Kaufman (12); Van Zandt (11); Hill (12); Rusk (11); Williamson (14); and Fayette (14). "A certified brucellosis free herd is a producer's best assurance for as much free movement of cattle as possible within Texas or out of state," Dr. Holcombe noted.

Certified brucellosis free herd is available for beef cattle producers, both registered and commercial as well as dairy-men.

For beef, a complete herd blood test is needed. This involves two consecutive negative blood tests of all test-eligible cattle. They must be tested not less than 10 months nor more than 14 months apart. To maintain certification, a test of eligible cattle is required within 60 days of the anniversary date.

Complete details may be obtained from area TAHC offices.

Keep backyard playground safe

Backyard slides and swings can help children fill long, "boring" summer days with fun. They can also cause needless injuries. "Last year thousands of children, mostly under 10 years of age, were injured on or around outdoor play equipment," cautions Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, a health education specialist. "Many of these accidents could have been prevented." According to Shirer, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, the first step in safety is to properly install the equipment. Swing sets should be installed a minimum of six feet away from fences, walls, walkways and other play areas such as sandboxes. The equipment should not be placed over hard surfaces such as concrete, brick, blacktop or cinders. Grass or sand is best. For stability, the legs of the equipment can be set in concrete, but all types of anchoring should be placed below ground level to avoid a tripping hazard. "Parents should also remember to check on the equipment at least every two weeks," says Shirer. A maintenance check should include: tightening any loose nuts, bolts and clamps, inspecting hangers, hooks, frames, connections, suspensions and equipment supports for wear and strength, applying tape over protruding bolts and screws, regularly oiling metal parts and repainting them as necessary, checking wooden equipment for splinters, refilling landing pits if needed. Most important, Shirer says repairs should be made immediately. Broken, rusted or worn equipment should not be used until it is repaired. The doughnut was brought over to America from the Netherlands more than 300 years ago by Dutch colonists.

Add a cup of water to the bottom of broiling pan before sliding into the oven. The water absorbs smoke and grease.

COOKING CORNER

Mix And Match Fruits With Freezer Jam

One of the greatest rewards of jam making is being able to serve a treat not available in any supermarket. And, those who've discovered the freezer method of making no-cook jams and jellies have found a simple way to delight their families and friends with unusual, easy-to-make combination fruit jams.

An advantage of freezer jams is that you can easily combine your backyard fruit with many other of your favorite fruits to achieve a variety of outstanding jams. If, for example, you have a peach tree, you can combine your peaches with such fruits as raspberries, strawberries, apricots, pineapple, blueberries, or blackberries.

In addition to living up the morning toast, freezer jams are great as a pancake topping, filling for crepes or other desserts, and as a topping for ice cream. Just imagine the delicious taste of fresh fruit on your waffle or pound cake next winter.

BERRY-PEACH FREEZER JAM (Yield - 7 cups)

Note: Raspberries, Strawberries, Blackberries or Black Raspberries may be used.

2 cups peaches, fully ripe, crushed (about 2 lbs)

1-1/4 cups berries, fully ripe, crushed (about 1-1/4 pints)

1/4 cup lemon juice

1 package MCP Pectin 1 cup light corn syrup (Karo)

4-1/2 cups sugar

To Prepare Fruit:

Peaches: Rinse, peel, pit and crush peaches.

Berries: Rinse and stem berries. Crush berries one layer at a time to let juices flow freely.

Method:

1. Measure sugar into dry bowl to be added later.

2. Measure crushed peaches, berries and lemon juice into a large bowl or kettle; stir well.

3. Slowly pour in MCP Pectin, stirring vigorously. Set aside 30 minutes. Stir occasionally.

4. Add light corn syrup (Karo), stir well.

5. Gradually stir in sugar. Warming to 100° will hasten sugar dissolving time, but do not heat any hotter than 100°.

6. When sugar has dissolved, the jam is ready to ladle into clean, air-tight, suitable freezer containers with tight lids. Leave 1/2" head space. Store in refrigerator for up to three weeks or in freezer for up to one year.

The expression "piping hot" alludes, experts say, to the hissing sounds very hot food makes as it boils.

Microwaves not energy efficient

Microwave ovens have the advantage of speed, but are not always the most effective means of saving energy, says home economist 'Bon-of that energy in heating the air around the food. Standard electric ovens are 14 percent efficient and gas ovens are 7 percent efficient in this same task.

"Since the microwave absorption of foods depends on their water and salt content, microwave cooking is not equally energy saving for all foods," states Piernot, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

According to the specialist, research shows the greatest energy savings when cooking small to medium quantities of concentrated foods such as meats, potatoes, desserts and TV dinners.

Foods such as corn, broccoli and similar vegetables require more energy to cook with microwave than with conventional electric surface units.

"For any normal saucepan operation, the cooktop of an electric range is as energy efficient, or more so, than the microwave oven," she adds.

Since the biggest advantage the microwave holds over conventional cooking is time, the choice of which appliance to use may be largely a matter of whether energy or time is more valuable to the consumer, Piernot says.

NEW EXTENSION VETERINARIAN

A new Extension veterinarian, Dr. Floron C. Faries, Jr., has been named to fill the position formerly held by Dr. Jimmy Howard, who resigned several months ago. Faries is a veterinarian in private practice at Madisonville, and formerly practiced at Jasper, Mauriceville and Buna for about seven years. He also has served a number of assignments with Texas A&M University's College of Veterinary Medicine. In his new assignment, he will work throughout Texas on all aspects of livestock and companion animal health.

Most topaz is white or blue. The famed golden variety is actually very rare.
