Exams No Buffer To Campus Unrest

By United Press International

Student boycotts were on tap today at Stanford University, Darmouth College and the University of Rhode Island, a sit-in continued at Lincoln University in Missouri and protesters maintained a quiet vigil outside the Marietta (Ohio) College administration building.

The Stanford strike was called to protest military research at the Stanford Research Institute. The institute has been the target of sit-ins and other protests throughout the early part of the year.

Today was also the ninth day of a fast for two Stanford students camping outside the door of President Kenneth S. Pitzer.

One hundred Darmouth students met late Sunday to consider action in support of 45 students jailed last week in the wake of a sit-in. They said their protest would be peaceful.

A U.S. District Court judge Sunday denied motions for writs of habeus corpus for the jailed students. He said he acted on Sunday because "this is a very unusual case." The students are serving 30-day sentences.

Black students at the University of Rhode Island said they would boycott classes today because of low black enrollment, absence of a black studies program and a shortage of black faculty members. Rhode Island University has 50 blacks among its 8,000 students. A statement from the administration said the school has trobule recruiting blacks because so few attend high school in the state.

About 75 protesters continued a sit-in at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo. Some 175 students, mostly black, entered the building Friday and presented a list of 30 demands, including academic, social and athletic items. About half the school's 2,300 students are black.

Marietta College students Saturday ended a boycott over the expulsion of the president of the student body, but planned new forms of protest to keep the issue alive. Some maintained a round-the-clock vigil circling the administration building and 98 of the school's 2,000 students planned a hunger strike. Some 1,400 set up picket lines Friday.

Job Corps Ties Up Senate Pace

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate opened a Democrats vs. Republicans joust today over President Nixon's order to close 59 Job Corps centers.

At issue is a "sense of the Senate" resolution criticizing the closing which asks the President to delay his order pending congressional action. Democrats on the Labor and Public Welfare Committee rammed the resolution out onto the Senate floor with a party-line vote.

The Senate took up the resolution in a debate expected to last two days.

Fearing embarrassment for the administration, Sens. Jacob K. Javits ,R-N.Y., and Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., have drafted a substitute resolution. The substitute says it is the sense of the Senate there be no net reduction in manpower training opportunities until those presently enrolled in the camps scheduled for closing are given other opportunities for training.

This, to Sens. Ala Cranston, D-Calif., and Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., is not satisfactory. Cranston is the author of the original Democratic resolution, and Nelson, as chairman of the manpower and poverty subcommittee, will handle the measure on the floor.

Democrats also contended the Javits-Prouty resolution is redundant. They said Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz has already promised to find other training opportunities for the youths displaced by the closings.

Republicans contend the Job Corps camps—a keystone of President Johnson's war on poverty—are too costly for what they accomplish; that the dropout rate is too high; and that training frequently does not fit the graduates for the employment.

Republicans also were reported ready to spring ammunition about alleged immorality at Job Corps camps. Reports have already been leaked about rape, homosexuality and drug abuse at a number of camps.

Operation of the camps cost more than $200 million for 1968, he last full year of operation for which figures are available.

The resolution is the only major floor action planned in Congress for the week, but both Senate and House committees will continue looking into campus riots, the antiballistic missile controversy and a plan to dispose of a batch of poison gas.

Countdown For Apollo 10 Starts

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—The long Apollo 10 countdown begins tonight for the launch of three astronauts Sunday on the final trial run for a manned landing on the moon.

Thomas P. Stafford, John W. Young and Eugene A. Cernan will orbit the moon for 2½ days next week to check the landing machinery, perfect moon navigation techniques and inspect the site Apollo 11 is to visit July 20.

"We consider this flight as being the final test for the whole system before the landing," Young said recently.

The three astronauts took Sunday off and hoped today to begin slowing down the pace of preparations for the most ambitious manned spaceflight yet.

Sunday also was a rest day for the launch crew that is scheduled to begin the preliminary portion of the countdown at 11 p.m. CST.

Other activity in support of the eight-day moonflight is picking up. Four large Air Force jets left nearby Patrick Air Force Base Sunday for stations on the other side of the world where they will help fill in tracking gaps when Apollo 10 rockets away from earth.

The aircraft are heading to Cocos Island in the Indian Ocean and Perth, Australia, by way of stopovers in California and Hawaii. They are among eight four-engine EC135 jets that will support that mission over the Indian and Pacific oceans.

In addition, 44 other Defense Department aircraft, 12 ships and 7,669 persons will support the flight of Apollo 10.

Soviets-China Commence Border Talks

HONG KONG (UPI)—Communist China today said it has accepted a Soviet proposal to discuss navigation on their disputed Ussuri River border, where battles have cost both sides heavy casualties.

Peking Radio said Chinese delegates would attend the meeting of the joint Sino-Soviet River Commission next Monday at Khabarovsk as proposed by the Soviet Union April 26.

There was no indication the border dispute would come up in the discussions. The Soviets also have proposed resuming border negotiations which broke off in 1964.

China's defense minister, Lin Piao, told the nation's eighth Communist party conference last month the leadership of Chairman Mao Tse-tung was "considering an answer" to the border talks proposal.

But the broadcast today said only that Chinese delegates would attend the River Commission meeting, making no mention of the border dispute.

German Bankers End Speculation On the Mark

BASEL, Switzerland (UPI)—West Germany today began sending back to the nations that lost it more than $4 billion foreign speculators spent buying German marks in a crisis that threatened the international monetary system.

The west's government bankers agreed to buy back the billions that had flowed into West Germany and said they were confident it would put the damper on the wave of speculation on the mark, Europe's hottest currency.

The western bankers decided in a weekend meeting to take that route to try to control speculation on the mark after Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger assured them Germany would not revalue.

The government bankers had been faced with coming up with a way to halt the soaring demand for German marks that began when French President Charles de Gaulle resigned. It had driven down the value of the franc and pushed up the mark's value accordingly.

Financial sources estimated speculators had sold $4 billion in francs, British pounds and other currencies to get marks since then—hoping West Germany would yield to international pressure to revalue the mark upward.

Those with marks would have been left with a windfall profit.

The communique announcing the decision to move the speculative money back out of Germany was issued at the end of a 5½ hour meeting, the longest meeting western bankers had ever held. The central bank includes all major West European industrial nations along with the United States, Canada and Japan.

159 Towns and Bases Blasted by Viet Cong

(Photo by Bob Kelly)

HE GOT A LITTLE BEHIND IN HIS WORK — After the car in front of him stalled in a downtown Pampa intersection another driver decided to see if he could be of assistance. As you can easily see this fellow got right to the point of the trouble.

Offensive Aimed at Conference

SAIGON (UPI) — Opening what U.S. officials called a new "summer offensive," the Communists shelled 159 Allied bases and towns overnight — their heaviest round of mortar and rocket attacks since the Tet offensive in 1968.

In addition, military spokesmen said, they slammed ground attacks into three U.S. and South Vietnamese outposts guarding approaches to the capital from Cambodia and lost 278 men in the process against "light" Allied casualties.

Viet Cong gunners fired one man-sized rocket into Saigon and staged nine terror attacks late Sunday and early today, killing seven persons and wounding 22. Government troops routed a Viet Cong squad trying to set up a mortar tube in a school six blocks from the presidential palace.

U.S. intelligence sources described the overnight surge as the "prelude" of a "summer offensive," with indicators pointing to mid-May as a high point, with Saigon as the main target. Ho Chi Minh's birthday is May 19.

Having replaced their losses from the February-March offensive, about 65,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have begun moving into position for the attack around Saigon, the sources said. They predicted the drive would end in defeat.

U.S. officials said the offensive was designed to bolster the Communist position at the Vietnam peace talks in Paris by increasing American casualties and forcing U.S. public opinion to demand a quick end to the war.

Systems "Go" on ABM

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Nixon's Safeguard ABM system is expected to breeze through the House, with leaders of both parties giving it their full support in marked contrast to the opposition mounted against it by key Democrats in the Senate.

There are, to be sure, many ABM critics in the House.But they acknowledge privately the controversial antiballistic missile program cannot be defeated in the House so long as both Republican and Democratic leaders stand firmly behind it.

The events of last July point up, as nothing else can, how effectively Democratic leaders can influence party policy.

On the afternoon of July 11, Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., rose from his seat on the House floor and made his way to the rostrum to defend the Cheyenne helicopter.

The 77-year-old McCormack, a veteran of 40 years in Congress, all but admitted he didn't know anything about the pros and cons of the Cheyenne —a superfast, heavily armed chopper the Army has been trying to build for four years with mixed success.

But he told the House he was going to vote against an amendment to delete funds to start buying the helicopter because, when it came to military questions, he would stick with the "experts" and that when it came to the nation's defense, one should "err on the side of strength."

The amendment was soundly defeated.

While party leadership appears a vital factor in the apparent easy victory for the ABM in the House, there are other reasons for the ease with which it is being accented.

"Generally speaking, I think it's because of a more conservative orientation of the House," says Rep. Lucien Nedzi, D-Mich., one of the leaders of the anti-ABM block. "I think House members are more easily intimidated by our Armed Forces Committee than the Senate is of theirs."

Sen. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., until last year a member of the House, attaches great significance to the fact a House member represents only one district while a Senator represents an entire state.

While in the House, representing a relatively conservative district, Goodell showed no antimilitary traits. Now, as a senator, he is adamantly opposed to the Safeguard system, apparently recognizing that he will need some of New York City's big liberal vote for re-election in 1970.

Although ABM opponents concede they have lost the battle in the House, they are encouraged by indications it will be the most closely fought military issue there in years.

Both sides now estimate about 100 out of the 434 members will vote against Safeguard but the headcounting has only just begun.

Our Block Won't Be The Same

'MISS LA PETITE' -- Pameula Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown, 820 S. Banks, was named 'Little Miss La Petite' for Northwest Texas Saturday night in a contest at Stinnett. Pam will compete in the state contest in June in Dallas. She is sponsored by Montgomery Ward's in Pampa.

BY RON CROSS

The 800 block of south Banks St. will never be the same. We now have royalty living in our block.

The petite blonde-haired, brown eyed, four-year-old girl who lives a couple of houses down the street from us won a beauty contest Saturday night.

Pameula Brown, who'll be five in September, was named 'Little Miss La Petite' for Northwest Texas in ceremonies in Stinnett.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown, were pretty excited about the whole thing but Pam, as she's always been known around our block, appeared to be taking it all in stride late Saturday night.

She wouldn't say anything but you could tell she wondered what all the fuss was about. She would rather have been home in bed since it was getting quite late and she wanted plenty of rest so that when playtime rolled around Sunday she could hold her own.

I had never really thought of Pam as a beauty contest winner before, although my two boys had been assuring me all week she was a shoo-in for the title.

I had always thought of her as — that tomboy down the street who had caused some embarrasment at our house last week.

She announced that my two boys weren't getting anywhere with their boxing lessons, and proved it by putting the gloves on and whipping both of them.

Her mother Diane had a ready explanation for this, explaining that Pam's brother, Kevin, and father, Dale, had been helping her learn how to take care of herself in case any of the guys in the block got too fresh.

She learned well.

She had always come to our house in either shorts or pants, which is alright since she wasn't coming to see me anyway and what little boy or girl plays in the mud and sand in a dress anyway.

But Saturday night when she was brought into the News office she was 'Little Miss La Petite' alright, there could have been no other.

I didn't recognize her at first and she pretended not to recognize me either.

She was probably thinking, "Oh, brother there's that guy that has the kids who do not know how to box."

Pam is a regular little girl. She has already learned how a girl acts.

She likes boys which is the first requirement for being a girl. She is very clean and dainty, which is requirement No. 2. She lets you know she is the boss, which is requirement No. 3. She is never wrong, which is requirement No. 4 and she always has the last word which, well maybe that's requirement No. 1.

Chances are Pam isn't through being a beauty queen yet, even though she was kinda tricked into being one in the first place.

Her mother didn't tell her she was entered in a beauty contest, instead she told her she was going to be in a play and model clothes.

Pam modeled a party dress and sportswear and carried out her part perfectly.

Now she has to go to Dallas in June for the state contest. Her mother assures us Pam won't take her boxing gloves.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 49-year-old divorcee who had a three-year affair with a married man when he visited my city (twice a month) on business.

Well, all of a sudden his conscience started to bother him so this dirty rat told his wife everything — in detail. He even turned over to his wife all the letters I had written to him and she sent them to my mother along with a complete list of hotels and dates I met him in his room.

He tells me that this is the only way he knows to relieve his wife of all the anguish she has suffered because of me, and now he wants to make it up to her and start over again with a clean slate.

What about me? I bought him an expensive watch, which his wife soaked in salt water and returned to me— ruined!

Is there any way I can get back at him legally? I have letters from him, too.

BITTER

DEAR BITTER: If I were you, I'd quit losers.

DEAR ABBY: My son got a girl in trouble and they got married, and now they have a wonderful baby boy they both love. They love each other, too, and are very happy together.

The problem is my husband. He refused to go to the wedding when these kids got married, and he wouldn't go to see the baby when it was born. In fact, the baby is nearly a year old, and he still hasn't seen it. He says, "Those kids will pay for their shame. I want nothing to do with them!" If he sees them on the street he won't even speak to them.

Abby, I know my son did wrong, but I am willing to forgive and forget. My son doesn't know this but his father hasn't led such a clean life that he can cast stones at anyone.

This is breaking my heart. What can I do?

HEARTSICK

DEAR HEARTSICK: Don't nag your husband about it. If you haven't been able to make him see how wrong he is for "playing God" and sitting in judgment, ask someone whom your husband respects (a clergyman, perhaps) to talk to him. A grudge-bearer invariably punishes himself far more than those he hopes to punish.

DEAR ABBY: I know you can't publish every letter you receive but even tho this is a very delicate subject, I hope you will print it, as it contains a very important message for many wives. Perhaps I should be completely honest and confess that it is meant for my own wife whom I cannot bring myself to tell.

Wives write to you by the dozens, complaining that they do not get the physical love they need. Have they ever considered that perhaps there is a reason? I know of no better way to say this than, "feminine hygiene."

Nothing turns a man on quicker than a freshly bathed, sweet- smelling woman. And nothing turns him off quicker than one who is not.

I love my wife. She keeps a spotless house, and a man couldn't want a better mother for his children. But she is careless about her person. I realize she is tired, but if she would add 10 minutes to her day by taking a bath, dabbing on a little body powder, and a dash of cologne, she could add years to her love life. Believe me, I know.

Pampa Cyclist Breaks Leg

A Pampa woman, 26-year-old Mrs. Ramona D. Fought, was listed in satisfactory condition in Northwest Texas hospital in Amarillo today.

Mrs. Fought was injured Sunday when the motorcycle she was riding hit a chug hole in the pavement at the intersection of Hobart and Wilks Sts.

The road had been under construction but construction was apparently over since no signs were up.

The deep hole in the road was right at the corner just past the stop light at the intersection.

Mrs. Fought was traveling south when the cycle struck the hole throwing her and her three-year-old son from the vehicle.

The boy was not seriously injured but Mrs. Fought suffered a broken leg and a possible broken collarbone.

She was taken first to Highland General Hospital but later transferred by Duenkel Ambulance to Amarillo.

Sgt. Danny Honeycutt investigated.

Judge to Rule On Trial Delay For Durbin Jr.

AUSTIN (UPI) — A district judge was expected to decide today whether to grant a state request to delay a pretrial hearing for Clyde Durbin Jr., 21, charged with two murders.

The delay was sought from Dist. Judge Tom Blackwell in order to await a ruling from a Burnet County judge in September affecting evidence in the case of the former University of Texas student.

Durbin, of Dallas, is charged in Travis County with the murder of John Albert White, 21, of Corpus Christi, found Jan. 8 at a popular picnic spot near Austin.

The body of White's date, Keitha Morris, 19, of White Deer, was found a day later about 65 miles northwest of Austin in Inks Lake in Burnet County. Durbin was indicted in Burnet County in Miss Morris' death.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS

TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

Our Capsule Policy

The News believes each and every person would get more satisfaction in the long run if he were permitted to spend what he earns on a volunteer basis rather than having part of it distributed involuntarily.

A Word For The 'Upperdog'

In the U.S. everyone seems to be concerned with the poor underdog—the misfit, the pervert, the drug addict, the drifter, the ne'er-do-well, the maladjusted, the chronic criminal, the underachiever. But there's at least one responsible official who does not go along with all this wailing and gnashing of teeth over these born losers.

Dr. Miller Upton, president of Beloit College, believes that this country has lost touch with reality and become warped in attachments, if not, in fact, psychotic.

Dr. Upton in an article in the Interscholastic League paper writes: "I feel it is time for someone like me to stand up and say, in short, 'I'm for the upperdog!' " I'm for the achiever—one who sets out to do something and does it, the one who recognizes the problems and opportunities at hand and endeavors to deal with them, the one who is successful at his immediate task because he is not worrying about someone else's failings; the one who does not consider it square to be constantly looking for more to do, who isn't always rationalizing why he should not be doing what he is doing; the one, in short, who carries the work, of his part of the world squarely on his shoulders. Not the wealthy, necessarily, not the one in authority, necessarily, not the gifted necessarily — just the doer, the achiever — regardless of his status, his opulence, his native endowment.

We are not born equal; we are born unequal. And the talented are no more responsible for their talents than underprivileged for their plight. The measure of each should be what he does with his inherited position. No one should be damned by the environment condition of his life — whether it be privileged or underprivileged.

"This is an occasion to honor the successful—to say it is better to win than to lose, better to achieve an A than a C, that class rank is meaningful, that those who have developed the pattern of achieving in college will go on achieving out of college, and because of their achievement the rest of us will live richer and easier lives.

"Let us stop referring to creating a "great" society. It's enough at this stage of our development to aspire to create a decent society. And to do so our first task is to help each individual be decent unto himself and in his relationship with other individuals. A decent society can't be created out of a vacuum and imposed. Our economic system has become the scapegoat for the failures of our educational, religious, and family institutions to develop decent and responsible individuals.

"We seem to be in the process of developing a moralism which says that since love is the one absolute virtue of man, the one way we will solve the problems of poverty, crime, racial discrimination and the like is by forcing everyone to love everybody else. This is a hideous abuse of the notion of love that avoids the hard fact that love is a uniquely personal experience.

"The evil I see about us so much at the present time: Love is expressed in a masochistic way — as a duty to be performed rather than a blessing to be received.

"Love in its very essence is selfish. Were it not so, there would be none—not real love, only martyred imitation.

"Our loving should not be restricted to the poor and dispossessed but should be offered to all. It's in the act of loving that we are redeemed — not in loving the poor alone. And it's in the personal redemption of each individual that the hope of the world exists, not in the changing of the other person.

"It's in the act of giving that one feels rewarded. And by the same token, it's in the act of loving that one feels loved. If the reward is not experienced simultaneously with the fact it will never be realized.

"The hardest task in the world is to love the person at hand. It is so much easier to love in your imagination the Saigon waif than it is actually to pick up in your arms and hold firmly and lovingly the emaciated, sore-covered body of the unwanted child that can be found in any American city or town. This kind of ersatz compassion is not humanitarianism; it is escapism.

"We will never create a good society, much less a great one, until individual excellence and achievement are not only respected but encouraged. That is why I'm for the upperdog—the achiever, the succeeder. I'm for building an ever-better society, and this will only be done by those who take seriously their responsibility for achievement, for making the most of their native ability for getting done the job at hand."

Legal Liabilities In Campus Riots

College administrations not only need to display more backbone in the face of student violence, as President Nixon has suggested. They may also need strong bankbooks—to pay for defense attorneys.

"Coming months may see a wave of lawsuits brought by nondissenting students, parents, taxpayers, contributors, alumni and others whose rights are abridged when dissenters commit criminal acts," says Fred E. Inbau, president of Americans for Effective Law Enforcement, a national, nonprofit organization whose directors include prominent lawyers and civic leaders.

Persons whose positions of authority require them to maintain order, but who do not through malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance of duty, are leaving themselves open to legal action, says Inbau, professor of criminal law at Northwestern University.

Among potential defendants are individual college administrators, boards of trustees, faculty members who permit violence or participate in it and law enforcement officials who fail to act when criminal acts are committed in plain view, even though college officials will not press charges.

A governmental body, such as the city or county, may be liable for injuries resulting from failure to enforce the law.

Dissenting students or faculty members who clamor for their brand of "freedom" may ironically find themselves charged with violations of the Federal Civil Rights Act if they abridge the rights of others through unlawful detention or other criminal acts.

Among potential plaintiffs are taxpayers, who might bring suits against public institutions on the grounds of misuse or waste of public money, and donors of funds or their heirs who might sue because of the failure of administrators to manage the funds properly.

At least one university, Columbia, already is being sued by a group of students, who charge that their studies were interrupted by last year's riots.

It could be an isolated case or as Inbau warns, only the beginning.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economics and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

QUESTION: Why do you think a volunteer army will provide enough men to defend the nation when it has failed in Great Britain and failed here after World War II. A Future Draftee.

ANSWER: We believe that adequately paid volunteers will provide sufficient manpower to provide all legitimate defense of a free country. We do not know that voluntary military service failed in Great Britain nor that it failed in the United States after World War II.

B. H. Liddell Hart, British military authority and military historian and critic for the Encyclopedia Britannica, wrote in 1944: "Conscription does not fit the conditions of modern warfare — its specialized technical equipment, mobile operations and fluid situations. Success increasingly depends on individual initiative, which in turn springs from a sense of personal responsibility — these senses are atrophied by compulson . . . ("Why Don't We Learn from History?")

But the principle involved is most important. Daniel Webster said of conscription: "The question is nothing less than whether the most essential rights of personal liberty shall be surrendered, and despotism embraced in its worst form."

Webster foresaw that if the United States adopted compulsory military service, the soldiers would be sent all over the world. He said: They may be put on any service, at home or abroad, for defense or for invasion, according to the will and pleasure of government." We submit that is what has happened, with American soldiers scattered around the world, "according to the will and pleasure of government."

Our contention is that if freedom were restored to Americans, there would be plenty of volunteers to protect that free country. But freedom does not come from compulsion.

Returning to B. H. Liddell Hart: "Efficiency springs from enthusiasm — because this alone can develop a dynamic impulse. Enthusiasm is incompatible with compulsion — because it dries up the source. The more an individual, or a nation, has been accustomed to freedom, the more deadening will be the effect of a change to compulsion."

H. L. Hunt Writes

KEYNESISM SLOWS PROGRESS

Keynesian economics are retarding progress around the world.

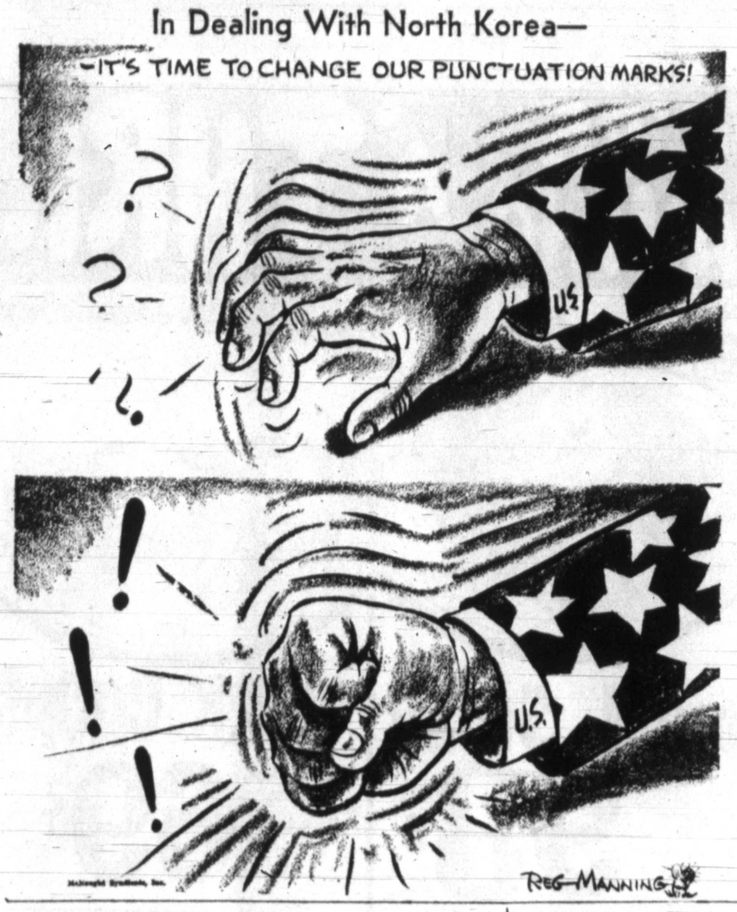

New Zealand, even more than the United States, has fallen victim to the economic philosophy of the late John Maynard Keynes of England. The New York Times for May 5, 1965, reported that New Zealand has been overcome by stagnation. This large Pacific island has all but eliminated poverty, and provides housing, health services, and education for all who will reach out for it. Even so, citizens of New Zealand, as well as visitors to their land, constantly complain about the poor service and lack of progress there.

Dr. L. L. Pownall, Vice-Chancellor of Canterbury University in New Zealand, said that his generation has laid stress on security and that the country is no longer competing. Now they are resting on the efforts of their pioneers. Dr. Pownall said: "We are going soft as a people, just when others are fighting to raise their standards."

By contrast, West Germany's former Economic Minister, Ludwig Erhard, rejected the advice of Professor Walter W. Heller of the United States to follow a policy of deliberate inflation as counseled by Keynes. During its postwar recovery, West Germany's economic policies were those of a free and uncontrolled order, and she came from ruins to riches in one generation.

When man is left free to compete, work for himself, earn what he is paid, and use his income for his own private ends, you have a dynamic society. When society at large intervenes through the agencies of law and government, frustration, inflation, high taxes, confusion, and anger swell up from the people.

'Recognize Prejudices,' Douglas Told—Get Off Draft Law Case

JOHN GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — Another controversial member of the Supreme Court is coming under renewed irate fire.

Justice William O. Douglas, long an openly avowed "peacenik," is being caustically denounced as notoriously biased and prejudiced against the Vietnam war, and bluntly pressed to withdraw from sitting on a far-reaching case involving the constitutionality of a key provision of the draft law.

This extraordinary demand is being made by Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., chairman of the House Armed Services subcommittees on National Guard and Reserve affairs and the draft.

"The personal vendetta being pursued by Justice Douglas against the war in Vietnam," declared Hebert, "clearly makes him incapable of providing an objective judgment on this case. He should recognize his prejudices and parochial interest and withdraw from any active part in the decision on this case."

The crucial case revolves around the recent ruling of Federal District Judge Charles Wyzanski, Boston, that a provision of the Selective Service Act relating to conscientious objectors is invalid. He held it discriminates "against atheists and agnostics and men who, whether they be religious or not, are motivated in their objection to the draft by profound moral beliefs which constitute the central conviction of their being."

On that basis, Wyzanski maintained, the provision violates the First Amendment that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or probibiting the free exercise thereof."

The Supreme Court has agreed to consider this sweeping judgment in the next term that begins in October.

By then there will be a new chief justice — in place of incumbent Earl Warren, who is retiring next month at the close of the current Term. Also, there may be other changes, due to the latest furore raging around Justice Abe Fortas and the increasing blindness of Justice John Harlan.

"PEACENIK" JUDGE — In bluntly challenging Justice Douglas' fitness to act on the draft case, Rep. Hebert renewed his previous attacks on the New Deal jurists's manifest bias and prejudice against the Vietnam conflict in particular and "militarism" in general.

As reported in this column, Hebert on two occasions in reecnt months wrote Chief Justice Warren assailing Douglas' "improper" granting of stays and demanding the Supreme Court tighten its rules of procedure to preclude "arbitrary and capricious" actions by its members. Unless the tribunal itself institutes such corrective measures Hebert warned, legislation imposing curbs will be enacted.

On the Wyzanski decision Hebert asserted that unless reversed it could "seriously endanger the ability of our armed forces to effectively engage in combat operations."

"The theory of 'selective objection' to a particular war is one of the major issues in this case," declared Hebert. "The resolution of this issue virtally erode the ability of the Selective Service System to meet future military manpower requirements. . .The outcome of this case is therefore of immense importance to our national security."

If Douglas is to take part in passing on this crucial issue, Hebert charged, "It would appear that the 'cards' in the Supreme Court are already stacked against a favorable decision (for the government)."

"Justice Douglas has publicly committed himself in opposition to the war in Vietnam," continued the one-time outstanding New Orleans newsman, "and has long sought opportunity to take 'legal action which would cripple the ability of the military to continue our operations in Vietnam."

As evidence of this, Hebert cited two significant facts:

(1) A dissenting opinion by Douglas last year demanding the Supreme Court rule on "whether conscription is permissible in the absence of a declaration of war"; (2) a series of stays granted by Douglas blocking the shipping of troops to Vietnam.

"His determination to emasculate the draft law was evidenced by the stays he granted in cases involving reservists who had been ordered to report to Vietnam," said Hebert. "These stay orders prohibited the movement of these reservists and, for practical purposes, all other similarly situated, to any base outside the United States.

"These stay orders were issued by Justice Douglas after his colleagues, including the Chief Justice, had specifically refused to issue such stay orders, and prompted a spate of legal actions which, for a short time, seriously inhibited the Secretary of the Army's ability to properly use manpower resources. All these stays were subsequently vacated by the Supreme Court, but not until incalculable and irreparable mischief had been done."

Douglas, 71 and proud of his prowess as a hiker and outdoorsman, has never served in the armed forces. However, he has been married four times. His last two wives have been in their early twenties.

WIT AND WHIMSY

A new group of draftees was awakened on their first morning in the Army by a burly sergeant who strode into the barracks, snapped the lights on and roared:

Sergeant Gray —All right, you guys, it's four-thirty!

Private Lang (in a sleepy voice from the row of bunks) — Man, you ought to get to bed. Tomorrow's going to be a big day.

The Doctor Says

By DR. W. G BRANSTADT

Learn Howe to Relax Muscles Completely

Excessive nervous tension is the underlying cause of fatigue, insomnia, anxiety and such physical ailments as high blood pressure, mucous colitis and peptic ulcer. Through progressive relaxation or tension control a person can learn to avoid these conditions, conserve his energies and increase his efficiency.

Tranquilizers and sedatives may reduce tensions but, since they do nothing to remove the cause, a dependency on these drugs is likely to develop. Although these drugs offer the line of least resistance they cannot be recommended for prolonged use. Learning to control one's tensions requires time and perseverance. The results depend entirely on one's own efforts. But for those who succeed, these efforts are most rewarding.

It is necessary, first of all, to understand that no abstract thought or daydream can occur in the brain alone. It is always accompanied by muscular tension in some part of the body. Before the average individual can accept this fact, he must learn to recognize the feeling experienced (1) when a muscle is contracting and (2) when it is being held in a state of contraction.

To this end, try resting your arm on a table and bending your hand at the wrist without moving any other muscles. Concentrate on the sensation produced. Then let the hand rest on the table again and compare the sensation of complete relaxation. Do this for all the muscle groups of your arms. legs, abdomen, neck and back.

Learning to relax these muscles completely will help you to fall asleep at night. If you feel a muscle becoming tense and are unable to relax it completely, try making it as tense as possible for a few seconds, then relax it.

The relaxation of these large muscle groups is important but even more important is learning to relax the muscles of the forehead, eyes, ears, mouth. diaphragm and voice. The best position for learning progressive relaxation is flat on your back, your elgs straight and not touching each other and your arms at your side but not touching your flank.

Wit and Whimsy

Mr. Blank (the humar question mark) finally asked How far are we from land, captain?

Captain Black (shortly)—One mile.

Mrr. Blank (protesting)—But that's impossible. I can't even see land.

Captain Black (hotly) —One mile. Straight down.

Mr. Jones (the applicant for an insurance policy) — Well, Doc, how do I stand?

Doctor Long — I don't know. It's a miracle.

The average book on your shelf contains 50,000 words. Would you believe you can read that book and comprehend its meaning in less than 10 minutes?

Speed-reading specialists say you should and you can and they offer to prove it to you.

There is a young girl in Canton, Mo., who could read that entire book, if somebody could turn the pages fast enough, in less than one minute!

Jeanne Crandell, age 11, sixth grade, probably is the fastest reader in the world, reading as many as 70,000 words a minute.

If this child were an isolated exception, her ability could be dismissed as a "stunt.' On the contrary, Jeanne is surrounded by a whole classroomful of exceptional speed readers, proteges of a director of teacher education at Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Dr. Vearl G. McBride.

"Normal" reading speed is 205 words a minute for sixth-grade students, 250 words for adults.

With special instruction, in 30-minute periods four days a week for five weeks, Dr. McBride has taught a 5-year-old kindergarten girl to read 6000 words a minute. A 16-year-old mentally retarded girl now can read and comprehend words a minute. One college student reads 10000 words a minute. A 14-year-old eight-grade boy now reads 48,000 words a minute.

How is it done? Dr. McBride says, "We simply convince them that it can be done. Then we give them a few directions, such as how to move their eyes rapidly without attempting to understand what they are reading in the beginning we want them to move their eyes in whatever way they might find most comfortable, up and down, crisscross, spirals — not necessarily the laborious left-right-left word-for-word way most of us were taught."

Why should we read faster? Because, says Dr. McBride, this is "more in keeping with the speed at which the brain operates. Most of us, while reading, find our minds wandering because our eyes are moving too slowly."

Thus the slow readers not the fast ones, are the "sloppy' readers.

Other advantages are more enjoyment from reading, greater learning and, for industry, a tremendous saving in dollars if employes could read and comprehend faster.

Can old adults be taught this new trick?

Dr. McBride says adults will find speed reading more difficult because we are so highly structured in our thinking, have had so many limitations placed upon us. But "our adult reading rate can be vastly improved if we think it can.'

"My 15 years of experience in the field of reading" says Dr. McBride, "have taught me not to be surprised at anything where the human mind is concerned. Most of it, in most of us, remains unused."

Or as author-poet George Cuomo said of slow readers: "They are driving a powerful car down a smooth highway in low gear.'

WASHINGTON:

Sino-Soviet Border Events May Be Key To Viet Peace

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — What happens on the Sino-Soviet border the next six months may determine how and when the Vietnam war is settled.

If the Moscow-Peking quarrel heats up sufficiently, the theory runs in some government quarters here the pressure will be on Ho Minh to settle.

Rearming his southern invasion forces with the very practical AK 47s and with a family of highly efficient weapons has made Ho's forces more formidable on the battlefield.

But these arms also make him overly dependent on the Soviet Union and Communist China.

If Ho's two principal foreign backers face a showdown, he may find his military-economic-support cut to a sliver. For China and Russia would consider their showdown more pressing than the Vietnam war.

As indicated above, a cutoff of Russian and Chinese weapons, supplies and ammunition would emasculate Ho's military operations in South Vietnam.

This explains why some administration Vietnam watchers spend a part of their time feeling the pulse of Mao Tse tung's quarrel with Leonid Brezhnev.

It's not the open fighting over an island that interests these American watchers. They don't expect open war. What some are looking for is more subtle—a Chinese attempt to create a Vietnam in parts of the vast eastern Soviet territories populated by tribesmen.

In a number of areas members of the same tribes live on both sides of the border— in both Russian and Chinese areas. It would be relatively simple for Chinese-trained men and women to infiltrate the Soviet Union's east, set up underground cells, foment disorders.

The modern Soviet armies would be faced with the same sort of problems the U.S. and South Vietnamese and Korean armies face in Vietnam.

Since 1927, Mao has believed Russian techniques and the Russian approach to communism were wrong.

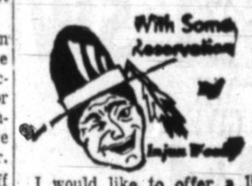

The Russians have, time and again, attempted to assert their power n China and in the Chinese Communist party. Over the years, Mao's strongest rivals within China have been men with Russian backing or Russian connections.

After the death of Stalin, Mao has considered himself the true leader of world communism. Here, too, Russia stands in his way.

Moscow thus endangers Mao's position, both at home and abroad.

By Mao's reasoning (based on past observation of how this ingenious man operates) it would be very fitting indeed if he could with ragged Asian tribesmen create a "Russian" Vietnam that Moscow could not solve with its sophisticated weapons, conomic power and and "modern" Communist techniques.

Mao could then say to Communists worldwide and to his people at home—Moscow's methods do not work, You must follow Mao to win.

I would like to offer a little advice to the student who is planning on entering college next year.

First, you will need a survival kit. For girl students I recommend Mace. It is easily transported to and from classes and does not require a knowledge of intricate mechanisms.

For the boys, the ones really desirous of getting educated, a small-caliber piece, worn underneath the arm-pit in a buckskin holster is the thing. Hardly noticeable, it is always handy when anarchy occurs.

Most of all, do not wend your innocent way to the campus in the belief that college or university authorities will protect you. They are not that ilk anymore. They now bow to every whim and demand thrown up to them by force. Neither should you expect them to call for the local police. They avoid any confrontation like it was the drizzling plague.

Also don't expect any help from the federal government. The way it works it, the government lends the revolutionaries the money to attend college in the first place. They have more money for guns and equipment for destroying the institutions than you have. But with prudence, you might be able to afford some protection.

Books? Don't worry about books. Classes will be closed more often than they are open. Better still, if you really are intent on learning, buy yourself some books and stay home. At least you'll learn to think for yourself.

Beman Wins In Playoff

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Deane Beman had not been so close to his first pro tournament victory since early last year when he missed a 10-foot putt and lost to Arnold Palmer on the first sudden death playoff hole of the Bob Hope Desert Classic.

When Beman stepped up to another 15-footer on the first sudden-death hole against Jack McGowan in the Texas Open Sunday, he was surprised to find that the putt looked just like the one he missed a year ago.

"I usually don't think about anything except just getting the ball in the hole," he said. "But I was really struck by the similarity of those two putts. I left that other one short, so I decided to go for this one."

The birdie putt dropped and made the 31-year-old Beman the eighth player this year to win his first tournament victory. It also netted him $20,000 and left the disappointed McGowan, who seemed to have the tournament in his grasp two hours earlier, with second-place money of $11,400.

Parnelli Wins

CAMBRIDGE JUNCTION, Mich. (UPI)—Against the backdrop of tragedy on a rain-spattered course, Parnelli Jones chucked aside human error and came up a winner.

Jones won the Trans-America race at Michigan International Speedway (MIS) Sunday after officials upheld a Ford Motor Company protest that his laps were counted incorrectly in the four-hour race.

Bht the Torrenre, Californian's victory, declared nearly four hours after the race was finished, was marred by a spedway acident in which one spectator was killed

Cepeda Makes His Hits Count

The Pampa Daily News SPORTS

By United Press International

Hitting is a matter of equality and not quantity for Orlando Cepeda this season.

Cepeda, obtained by the Atlanta Braves from the St. Louis Cardinals for Joe Torre, is hitting .241—a far cry from his .303 lifetime average and his .325 mark in 1967 with the Cardinals when he won the National League's most valuable player award.

But the Braves are still more than satisfied with Cepeda's hitting since he colleged his seventh game-winning hit Sunday with a ninth inning single that scored Felipe Alou from second base and gave the Braves a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Those seven games are the reason the Braves has posted a 20-9 mark this season—including nine victories in the last 11 games—for a .690 percentage that is the best in baseball. Atlanta leads the western division of the National League by two games over Los Angeles and three games over San Francisco.

Elsewhere in the National League, San Diego topped slumping St. Louis 4-2, Chicago blanked San Francisco 8-0 and Houston beat New York 4-1 but lost the second game 11-7. The Cincinnati at Montreal and Los Angeles at Pittsburgh games were rained out.

Cepeda's winning hit came after Felipe Alou opened the ninth with a slow hopper to third for a hit off reliever Dick Farrell and took second when Felix Millan bounced out. Hank Aaron was then intentionally walked to set the stage for Cepeda's hit that snapped a 3-3 tie.

Cepeda also scored the Braves' third run on a passed ball in the sixth after Rich Allen dropped his pop fly behind first for an error. Cepeda moved all the way to third when Allen's throw to second hit Cepeda in the back.

Chris Cannizzaro's tie-breaking double with two out in the ninth gave the Padres the victory over the Cards. Cannizzaro's hit, his 11th in the last 27 at bats, came after Ollie Brown and Ed Spiezio walked and snapped a 2-2 tie. It was the eighth loss in the last 12 games for the slumping Cards, who are 7½ games behind Chicago in the eastern division.

Billy Williams hit a two-run homer in the first inning. Randy Hundley drove in three runs with a homer and a single and Ron Santo singled in two runs as the Cubs blanked San Francisco. Ken Holtzman pitched a nine-hitter and struck out 10 to match his career high.

A two-run homer by Jimmy Wynn in the four-run fourth inning and Larry Dierker's five-hitter gave the Astros the victory over the Mets in the opener. But Tommie Agee, who hit a homer in the first game for the Mets' only run, added two more in the second game to pace the Mets to the victory.

Something He Ate Helped Rico?

By United Press International

Rico Petrocelli vowed Sunday morning he would never touch Mexican food again. He may have had some different thoughts Sunday night.

Petrocelli showed up at the ballpark Sunday with a badly upset stomach. He skipped batting practice and seriously considered missing the game. He finally decided to give it a try and wound up hitting a pair of two-run homers, his ninth and 10th of the season, to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 7-3 victory over the California Angels.

"I ate at a Mexican restaurant with a couple of team members after the game Saturday night," said Petrocelli. "And something really upset me. I couldn't take any batting practice before the game so I just kept eating stomach pills."

Petrocelli's homers, both off Rudy May, sparked three-run outbursts in the fourth and sixth innings and the Angels contributed four errors to help Sonny Siebert even his record at 3-3.

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore blanked Kansas City 5-0, Detroit nipped Minnesota 3-2, Oakland shut out New York 2-0, Chicago whipped Cleveland 7-5 and Seattle edged Washington 6-5.

Jim Price and Al Kaline homered and winning pitcher Denny McLain contributed a run-scoring single as the Tigers edged the Twins.

McLain's sixth inning single, after reliever Jim Perry walked Willie Horton and Don Wert, proved to be the decisive hit, because the Twins rallied for single runs in the seventh and eighth innings to knock out McLain.

Tony Oliva homered and Rich Reese, who had three doubles, scored the Minnesota runs.

The victory, McLain's fifth, kept him even with his pace of last season when he won 31 games.

Jim Hunter pitched a three-hitter and drove in a run as Oakland beat the slumping New York Yankees to move into a virtual tie with Minnesota for first place in the western division.

PHS Footballers Start 2nd Week Of Grid Drills

By RON CROSS

Pampa starts its second week of spring football drills today and the Harvester grid camp is full of optimism.

The spirit is there, the 'loser' attitude appears gone, if it will come back after a defeat remains to be seen.

Coach Swede Lee was happy with the overall performance of his squad in Saturday's scrimmage but he expects to be even happier next Saturday when his chargers hold their second full-scale scrimmage.

Lee was especially impressed with the defense, although he wasn't expecting the offense to be at its best because of lack of practice time last week.

The Saturday session pointed out one thing — the Harvesters are going to have some depth for the first time in a long time.

Take the case of the three quarterbacks for instance.

Neither John Jenkins nor Dan Hood have had quarterbacking experience and both did a remarkable job.

Then there is the case of Ross Holmann who looked sharp on his passing and could breathe a little easier with some good pass protection.

Talking about passing, the Harvester pass defense shined on all three units with the No. 1 defense intercepting there aerails.

Don Willis, who is expected to take some of the heat off Scotty King, was injured and didn't play.

His place was taken by Randy Cantrell, a lineman last year and a youngster who still is not fully recovered from a knee operation.

But Cantrell ran well several times.

Larry Kotara stuck out on defense like a sore thumb and had his best day of the spring on offense from his tackle position.

There's beef up front besides Kotara in Mark Watkins, who is bigger than 'old Dad' and Jay Roth, who has come of age. Rody Porter and Mickey Sims did well on their blocking assignments and played good on defense.

Ray Tindall, Randy Glover, Steve Scott, Moss Hampton, Denny Johnson, Chuck Lanehart, Clark, Weatherly and Brister all showed improvement over 1968.

The Harvesters will scrimmage again Saturday, then the annual Green and Gold game will be held May 24.

Bigger Hassle Facing Owners

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stubborn pro football owners finally have created two 13-team conferences by shifting three National Football League teams. Now they face an even bigger hassle: making up three divisions out of the remaining 13 teams in the national conference.

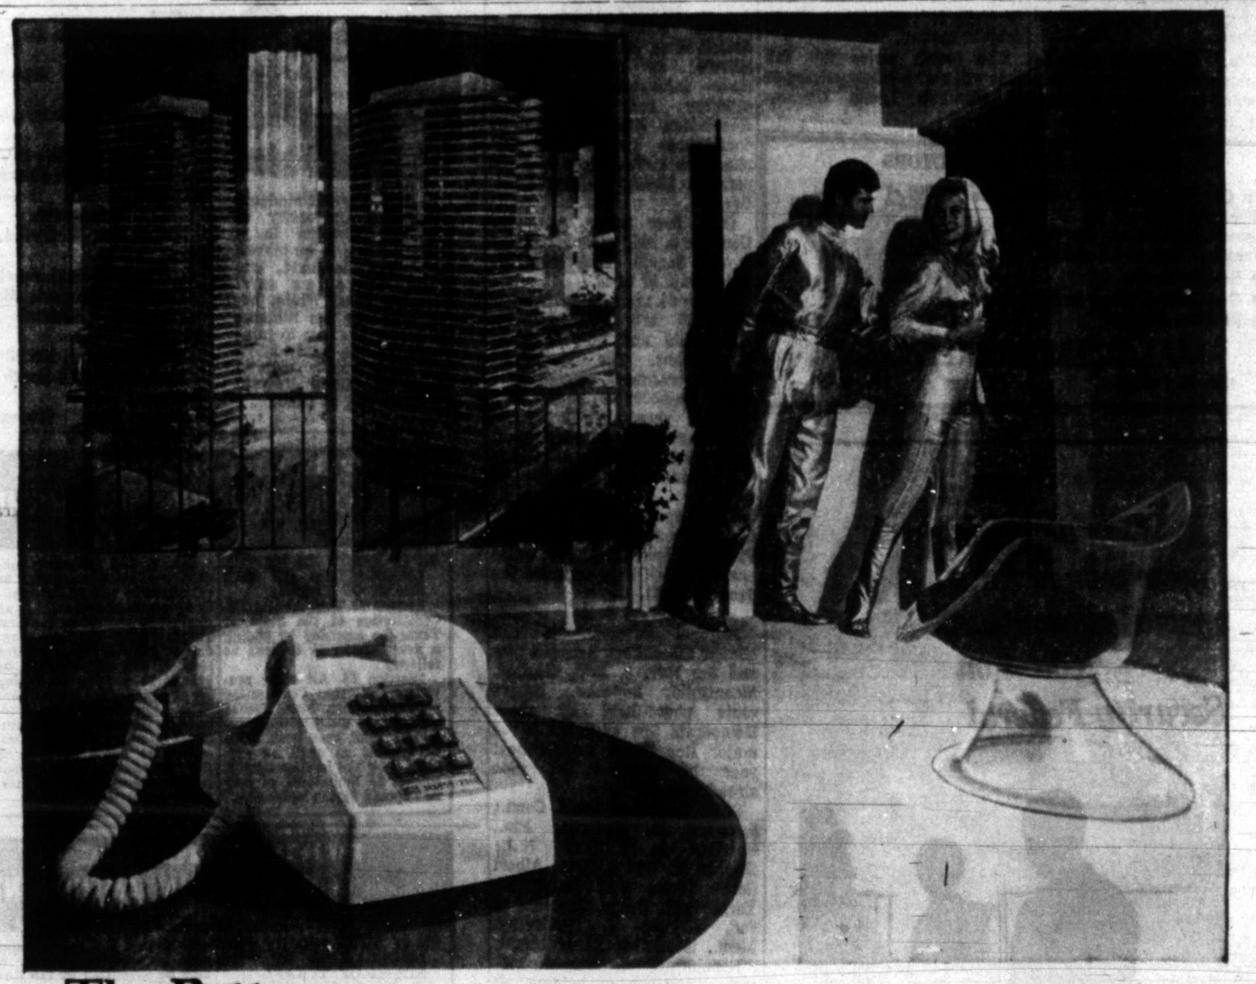

Under the terms of the agreement announced late Saturday night after a marathon 36-hour session, Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh moved into the American Conference to join 10 American Football League teams.

The remaining 13 teams will be in the national conference and will be divided into two four-team and one five-team divisions. But when the owners convene in June, the question of how to divide the teams is expected to take many hours

In the years ahead, you'll be able to preset your telephone to transfer calls to the number where you're visiting.

Electronic switching—using a sophisticated computer system—will make this and many other new services possible.

For example, your phone will have a memory. By dialing just two digits of a frequently called number, you'll activate that memory, then the phone will dial the remaining digits automatically. Electronic switching is fact, not fiction.

It's part of our program to plan today for tomorrow's communications needs.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—It was not too many seasons ago that Bill Cosby became the first Negro to emerge a television idol by starring successfully in his own network series, NBC-TVs "I spy."

And, actually, you couldn't say he was the sole star because he and Robert Culp shared the billing.

This past season, in fact, was the first in which a black performer triumphed singularly as star of a video series, and that was Diahann Carroll in NBC-TVs "Julia." And of course she was—and is—a great popular hit.

Come next season, the changing times will be more obvious than ever on the home screen when four regular, weekly television series appear with Negroes as the principal headliners.

"Julia," of course, will be returning—with Miss Carroll continuing to portray the widow of a serviceman killed in Vietnam, a working mother with a young son.

Cosby, meanwhile, will return to NBC-TV for his weekly outings. His program will be called "The Bill Cosby Show,' and he will portray a physical education teacher in a high school. Quite obviously, the half-hour entry will be a situation comedy with attempts to offer human touches.

ABC TV will also offer a half-hour comedy-drama about a black high school teacher. This one is called "Room 222," and Lloyd Hanes will play a teacher of American history.

In view of the current furor over black studies programs on the nation's campuses, and the controversy over how Negro achievements have been treated in the teaching of American history, this series is going to find itself scrutinized very carefully if it gets into textbook subject matter.

The fourth series this fall that will star a black performer is CBS-TVs Leslie Uggams show.

Washington Window

By RAYMOND LAHR

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Democratic party officials are quietly holding a series of state conferences emphasizing one of their high priority problems in the 1970 state and congressional elections.

These conferences are putting emphasis first on the defense of the Democrats' shrunken majority in the United States Senate.

Nine of these meetings have been held in Washington so far, all of them giving special attention to Senate seats held by Democrats and expected to be major Republican targets in 1970.

In this order but not indicating priority, the nine sessions have involved:

Utah (Sen. Frank E. Moss), Indiana (Sen. Vance Hartke), Nevada (Sen. Howard W. Cannon), North Dakota (Sen. Quentin N. Burdick), Michigan (Sen Philip A. Hart) ,Wyoming (Sen. Gale W. McGee), Maryland (Sen. Joseph D. Tydings), New Mexico (Sen. Joseph M. Montoya) and Wisconsin (Sen. William Proxmire).

Strategy Talks

These strategy talks are described as preliminary, to be followed by more involving other incumbent Democratic senators and states with Republican senators, and by conferences giving more emphasis to state offices and the national House of Representatives.

Only four years ago, the Democrats held a 68-32 margin in the Senate. They now are ahead onyl 57 to 43 .

Of the 34 seats to be filled in 1970, 25 are held by the Democrats and only nine by Republicans. The Democrats include members elected in a good Democratic year, 1958, after a recession during the Eisenhower administration, reinforced by others elected in the Democratic landslide of 1964.

A pickup of seven seats and the tie-breaking vote of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew would enable the GOP to organize the Senate in 1971.

Target Seats

Political developments can change the outlook between now and the Nov. 3, 1970, election. Meanwhile, however, Senate seats now held by these Democrats are expected to be major Republican targets next year in addition the nine already named:

Sens. Thomas J. Dodd, Conn.; Spessard L. Holland, Fla.. Harrison A. Williams, N.J.; Stephen M. Young, Ohio; Albert Gore, Tenn., and Ralph W. Yarborough, Texas. The seat of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, Minn., is another likely target.

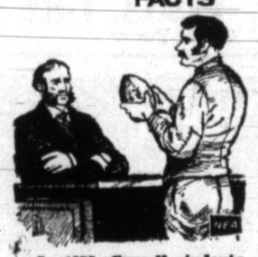

Republican spokesmen talk with confidence of holding all nine of the Senate seats they have at stake in 1970. But they will worry about some of them, notably in Delaware, where Sen. John J. Williams is retiring, and in New York and Alaska.

Sens. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., and Ted Stevens, R-Alaska, were appointed to seats left vacant by the deaths of Democratic Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and E. L. Bartlett.

With all 435 House seats at stake, the GOP will need an unusually favorable political climate to gain the 27 seats it needs to control that chamber. But the Republicans already are preparing a record budget for these congressional district campaigns.

After they think about defending their majorities in Congress, the Democrats look with hunger at the governorships, which are bases of political power. There were only 16 Republican governors 10 years ago; now there are 30.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

In 1873, Cornell students challenged University of Michigan students to a football game to be played at neutral Cleveland, The World Almanac says. Cornell's Pres. White, being asked by the athletes for permission to miss some classes, replied: "I will not permit 30 men to travel 400 miles merely to agitate a bag of wind."

The bonds authorized herein shall be executed in such form, upon such terms and be in such denomination as may be prescribed by law and shall bear interest, and be issued in such installments as shall be prescribed by the Board provided that the maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by such bonds may be fixed by law.

"(b) The moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited to the credit of the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund created by Section 50b of the Constitution and shall otherwise be handled as provided in Section 50b of the Constitution and the laws enacted pursuant thereto.

"Section 49-d-1. (a) In addition to Texas Water Development Bonds heretofore authorized to be issued by Sections 49-c and 49-d of Article III of the Constitution, the Texas Water Development Board is hereby authorized to issue $3,500,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of bonds. "(b) The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund.

"(c) The bonds herein authorized and all bonds authorized by such Sections 49-c and 49-d of Article III shall bear such interest and mature as the Texas Water Development Board shall prescribe subject to the limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature.

The aggregate principal amount of Texas Water Development Bonds authorized herein and in said Sections 49-c and 49-d shall be reduced by the aggregate of principal payments committed under such contracts constituting general obligations of the state. The provisions hereof shall not be construed to limit the authority of the Texas Water Development Board to execute contracts or issue revenue bonds when such contracts or bonds are not secured by the general credit of the state.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Pundits hereabouts recently have been deeply involved in appraising President Nixon's first 100 days in office.

Since that subject by now has been pretty well e.. usted, I thought I could better devote my energies to evaluating Hubert Humphrey's first 100 days out of office.

Three months and 10 days is, of course, too short a time in which to form any rash conclusions. I don't feel that anyone should summarily judge a defeated presidential candidate until he has been out of office at least three months and 11 days.

This is particularly true in Humphrey's case. After all, he had been in public office about 25 years when he stepped down last Jan. 20. So it is only fair to give him a reasonable length of time in which to adjust to private life.

Nevertheless, 100 days traditionally marks the end of the so-called "honeymoon" period during which a losing candidate is allowed to get a grip on himself.

By the end of that interlude, we usually have some general idea of how he will conduct himself as a private citizen.

The consensus seems to be that Humphrey has done remarkably well in coping with the myriad problems that he inherited whe nhe left government service.

Even those who voted against him last November concede that he has made no major mistakes thus far.

"I'll have to admit that he has made a better private citizen than I had expected," one Republican leader who asked to remain anonymous told me.

"Hubert is going to surprise a lot of people," said a prominent Democrat with whom I discussed the matter. "I would be willing to bet that historians will rank him among the better will rank him among the better private citizens."

It is obvious that Humphrey's experience as Lyndon Johnson's vice president did a great deal toward preparing him to take up the burdens of private citizenship.

In that capacity, he became accustomed to being out of the limelight. Thus he has been able to handle himself with competence and assuredness in the relative obscurity of private life.

Even so, sources close to Humphrey indicate that he has found the problems of private citizenship somewhat more complex than he had anticipated.

He spent much of his first-100 days just getting the feel of being out of office. He has yet to hit his full stride as a private citizen.

The next 100 days should be more Revealing.

More eye-filling vistas include the Upper Tahquamenon Falls in Michigan's Upper Peninsula (top) and the necklace of 750 keys linked by Florida's Overseas Highway (bottom).

$1.00 NO RISK OFFER—SPECIAL ENROLLMENT EXPIRES MIDNIGHT, MAY 25, 1969

How to leave the hospital with extra cash in your pocket!

Now...a remarkable plan pays extra cash directly to you—even for life—in addition to any other insurance—even Medicare—tax-free extra cash to use as you wish!

$100 every week for you (See all plans below)
$75 every week for your wife (See All-Family and Husband-Wife plans below)
$50 every week for each eligible child (See All-Family and One-Parent Family plans below)
$350 every week you and your wife are both injured (See All-Family and Husband-Wife plans below)

PLUS Double cash benefits for cancer and heart attack
Extra cash extended in event of accidental death

ALL PAID AS LONG AS YOU OR ANY COVERED FAMILY MEMBER IS HOSPITALIZED—EVEN FOR LIFE!

Regardless of your age, occupation or size of your family, you get your first month for only $1.00!

During this Special Enrollment Period, you can enroll yourself and all eligible members of your family simply by mailing the Enrollment Form below with $1. There's nothing else to do—but you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, May 25, 1969!

Think of it. Now, with a stroke of your pen, you can have tax-free, expense-free extra cash paid direct to you—not to the doctor or hospital—when a sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Special Enrollment Period without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever.

How you can get extra cash in addition to ordinary health insurance

All you need do is mail the Enrollment Form below together with just $1 before the expiration date. It's that easy!

Anyone who has been in the hospital recently knows ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. You have to pay many "extras" out of your own pocket—and it can add up to hundreds of dollars in a frighteningly short time.

But even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers most of your medical and hospital bills, what about the bills that keep piling up at home?

If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay.

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized you will certainly spare no expense. You wouldn't even want to think about the cost.

If you're over 65 and are suddenly hospitalized, Medicare won't pay all your hospital expenses or any household expenses.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—even your recovery can be seriously delayed by money worries!

How the plan pays off for you

But now, with Direct Extra Cash, you can help avoid these worries—because you can count on extra cash for every day, every week—week after week even for life—when you or any covered family member goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation, you can choose whichever of the four low-cost plans shown at right suits your family best.

You may actually come out "Money Ahead"

because the Direct Extra Cash Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance—individual, group or even Medicare—and because all your extra cash benefits are tax-free, you may actually leave the hospital many dollars ahead... money you don't have to account for to anyone—extra cash in addition to anything and everything!

Extra cash benefits at surprisingly low cost —Your first month for only $1

You get all of these extra benefits at a cost even less than you would expect! See the actual low rates in the panel at right. And, regardless of the plan you choose, your occupation, your age or size of your family, you get your entire first month for only $1.00!

How can we offer so much for so little?

The answer is simple: We have lower sales costs. The Direct Extra Cash Plan is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted directly with you by mail. No salesmen or investigators are used. It all adds up to maximum protection at minimum cost for you.

Backed by Executive Fund—licensed in your state—rated "A Plus (Excellent)."

In addition to the wide range of benefits, the extra cash values, the surprisingly low cost, your policy is backed by a legal reserve company—a company talked about today as "the breakthrough company" because it has pioneered—safely and soundly—several of the most important insurance developments in years.

For example, this company—Executive Fund Life Insurance Company—achieved the first major price breakthrough in years in the field of life insurance. These "tremendous price advantages" were actually reported in the Congressional Record, and Executive Fund was described as "providing everything the consumer wants and needs." Because it is perhaps the only company in the U.S. that sells all its policies without salesmen. Executive Fund can offer you exactly the same kinds of insurance you can buy from anyone else—but at a lower price!

Executive Fund—licensed in your state and regulated by your state's own insurance department—has its National Service Center in Omaha, Nebraska, the very center of the U.S. Its multi-million dollar facilities and expert personnel provide swift and efficient service to families all over America. The company is managed by a group of highly respected, responsible insurance executives—men dedicated to giving you the best insurance, the finest service, the lowest rates.

It's no wonder that Dunne's Insurance Reports, one of the nation's leading authorities on insurance companies, has awarded Executive Fund its highest policyholders' rating "A Plus (Excellent)."

Easy to enroll! No salesman will call!

Take a moment right now to fill out your Enrollment Form and mail it with only $1.00 for your first month. We will issue your Direct Extra Cash Policy (Form P308 Series) immediately—the same day we receive your form. This automatically puts your policy in force. Along with your policy you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form that makes it possible for us to pay extra cash direct to you, the fastest, easiest way.

CHOOSE THE PLAN THAT SUITS YOU BEST

ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly extra cash when you are hospitalized. $50 weekly for each eligible child hospitalized.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Family Plan. It covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 23. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the One-Parent Family Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly extra cash when you are hospitalized. $75 weekly when your wife is hospitalized.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

INDIVIDUAL PLAN

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly extra cash when you are hospitalized.

If you are living by yourself, or if you wish to cover only yourself or one family member, choose the Individual Plan.

You pay only $3.50 monthly and you get your first month for only $1.00!

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Double extra cash benefits

Whichever plan you choose, you get:

100% increase in your cash benefits

...if you or any covered family member is hospitalized by cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease) or heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis or coronary occlusion).

If you choose the All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan, you get:

100% increase in [illegible] cash benefits

...if both you and your [illegible] are injured and hospitalized at the same time. You get twice the regular combined benefit—$350 a week!

For the first time—Extended extra cash in event of accidental death!

In addition to all the regular and double cash benefits, here is a real plus: in case of death in the hospital from any accident covered by your policy—special extended extra cash benefits provide an extra two weeks of benefits for each covered family member on all plans: $200 for you, $150 for your wife, $100 for each child—all in addition to all other benefits.

IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses, it will not cover all of your needs. During this special enrollment, you can get the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years without any qualifications just by using the form below!

It's a fact that people over 65 go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills. That's exactly why they need extra cash protection! And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But the Direct Extra Cash Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly increase applies:

Female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan	$2.25
Female on One-Parent Family or Individual Plan	3.00
Male on any Plan	3.00

ALL ACCIDENTS AND NEW SICKNESSES COVERED IMMEDIATELY—EVEN PRE-EXISTING CONDITIONS COVERED AFTER ONE YEAR

Important: No matter which plan you choose, extra cash is paid directly to you—even for one day—for as long and for as many times as you or any covered family member is hospitalized—even for life!

The Direct Extra Cash Plan covers you immediately for any new accident or sickness—major or minor.

You're covered for any accident on or off the job—any time, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, anywhere in the world.

You're even covered for pre-existing conditions (old conditions that come back again and again or are likely to recur) after your policy has been in force for just 12 months. And, if you select the All-Family Plan, even maternity is covered after your policy has been in force for 10 months.

Only a few minimum exceptions

There are only these few minimum exceptions: war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism, drug addiction or attempted suicide. You may go to any hospital of your choice—even government hospitals—but not nursing homes, convalescent or rest homes or self-care units.

Enjoy life-long security

For as long as you live and pay your premiums, we will never refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—in fact, we guarantee that we will never cancel or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. Moreover, no change can ever be made in your rate unless we make a general change for all persons of the same classification in your entire state.

19 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW DIRECT EXTRA CASH PLAN

1. What is the Direct Extra Cash Plan.
The Direct Extra Cash Plan is an entirely new, low-cost plan that pays extra cash direct to you when sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or any covered member of your family.

2. Why should I have the Direct Extra Cash Plan in addition to my regular insurance?
Because your present insurance probably won't cover all your hospital expenses, but even if it does, you can still use the extra cash to help with your household expenses when you're hospitalized... extra cash week after week even for life... extra cash you can use any way you wish!

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?
Yes. The Direct Extra Cash Plan pays you in addition to any insurance you carry, individual, group or even Medicare—and even in addition to Workmen's Compensation and auto insurance! And, all your benefits are tax-free!

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?
None at all. During this special enrollment period, there are no qualifications. Simply complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. Which plan should I choose?
You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best!

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for new sicknesses and injuries, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 23 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 23. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN.

Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

6. If I become hospitalized, when do my extra cash benefits begin? How long can I be paid?
On all plans, you collect from the very first day you enter the hospital, even for one day—for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized—a week, a month, a year—even for life.

7. How much can I be paid?
ALL-FAMILY PLAN—$100.00 a week extra cash income for you; $75.00 weekly for your wife; $50.00 weekly for each of your eligible children.

ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN—$100.00 weekly for you; $50.00 weekly for each of your eligible children.

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN—$100.00 weekly for you; $75.00 weekly for your wife.

INDIVIDUAL PLAN—$100.00 a week for you.

8. What if my wife and I are both hospitalized at the same time?
If you have the ALL-FAMILY or HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN and are hospitalized by sickness, you collect $100 a week, your wife $75 a week, a total of $175 weekly. And if you are injured and hospitalized at the same time, your benefits will be doubled—$200 for you, $150 for your wife—a total of $350 a week!

9. Are there any other "double" extra cash benefits?
Yes. On all plans you receive double cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), or heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis, or coronary occlusion): $200.00 a week for you, $150.00 a week for your wife, $100.00 a week for each eligible child.

10. Tell me about "extended" extra cash death benefits.
In the event of death in the hospital of any covered family member from any accident covered by your policy, a lump sum cash benefit will be paid: $200 on you, $150 on the wife, $100 on each child.

11. Does this plan pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in any hospital of your choice—even government hospitals—except nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals.

12. When does my policy go into force?
It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. New sicknesses and injuries are covered on that date. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, childbirth, pregnancy and any consequences thereof are covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.

13. What if someone in my family has had a health problem that may occur again?
Even if one of your covered family members has had chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for just one year.

14. What conditions aren't covered?
Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY PLAN), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism, drug addiction, or attempted suicide.

15. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?
We will never refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums. In fact, we guarantee that we will never cancel or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.

16. Will I get fast personal service?
Will I receive my money promptly?
Yes. Thanks to the multi-million dollar facilities and trained personnel of Executive Fund's National Service Center, you get swift, expert service. Your claims are handled promptly and your extra cash sent directly to you.

17. Why are the premiums so low?
With the Direct Extra Cash Plan, you actually get all these benefits—at such a low cost—because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used. Our volume is higher and our sales costs are lower.

18. How much does my first month cost?
Only $1.00 regardless of your age, the size of your family or the plan you select. After the first month, if you are under 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $7.95 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $3.50 a month for the INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (When you are over 65, premiums are adjusted. See modest increase in panel above.) No other change can ever be made in your rate, unless we make a general change for all persons of the same classification in your entire state.

19. Why should I enroll right now?
Because an unexpected sickness or injury could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.
