Highway Fight To Be Carried To Appeals Court

Testimony In Tudor Murder Trial Will Begin Today

Jury Selected Monday; Fifty To Take Stand

Special Venire Of 75 Men Is Exhausted Monday Before 12 Men Are Selected For Case Of Slaton Man

Self-Defense Plea

Questioning Of Veniremen By Attorneys Points To Fact That Business Man Plans To Show He Was In Danger

TESTIMONY in the trial of A. L. Tudor, Slaton grain and coal dealer, for the slaying of Dr. S. H. Adams, pioneer Slaton physician, will get under way in 99th district court before Judge Clark M. Mullican this morning at 9 o'clock. A jury to try the case was selected Monday after exhaustion of a special venire of 75 men.

Fifty witnesses have been summoned for the trial, half of which will be used by the state.

Self-Defense Indicated

That self-defense will be advanced as Mr. Tudor's reason for shooting Dr. Adams was inferred strongly in questioning of prospective jurors Monday. Each talesman was asked by defense counsel if he favored the law of self-defense.

"Have you or any of your family ever been interested in a mal-practice case, that is where a physician has been negligent in administering to a patient?", was another question propounded frequently in examination of the venire.

Had Gone For Talk

Tudor, gray-haired defendant, declared in a statement made the day of the slaying which took place on October 13, that he shot the physician after he had made a move for his desk drawer. He said he had gone to the doctor's office to talk

Abernathy Is To Hold Show

Fourth Annual Poultry Show Will Be Staged On Friday And Saturday; Many Entries Being Expected

(Special To The Avalanche)

ABERNATHY, Nov. 28 — Abernathy's fourth annual poultry show, scheduled to be held here Friday and Saturday of this week, promises to be of greater benefit than any previous one, V. S. Payne, vocational agriculture teacher directing the event, said this week.

"Last year we had 240 entrants from 17 varieties," Payne said in a recent chamber of commerce meeting. "This year, we are expecting 300 entrants, and at least 18 classes.

"Besides chickens, we also had on exhibit rabbits, turkeys, bantams and ducks last year."

To Award Ribbons

The show will be held in the Elbert Overton building adjoining the First State bank here. Blue, red and white ribbons will be awarded winners in the different classes. Sweepstake awards will also be made.

Condition Of Henry Ford Is Reported Very Satisfactory

DETROIT, Nov. 28 (AP) — Henry Ford's condition tonight was reported by his physicians to be so satisfactory that no further bulletins will be issued until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

The latest bulletin, marking another step in the 69-year old automobile magnate's steady recovery from the major operation he underwent Saturday, revealed his temperature was normal. The bulletin, timed at 6:30 and issued at 7:05 p. m. said:

"Mr. Ford's condition remains very satisfactory. Temperature 98.6; pulse 84, respiration 20."

Mason Judge Tackles Deer In Bare-Handed Fight And Would Have Lost But For Arrival Of Friend

(By The Associated Press)

BURNET, Nov. 28.—Judge Carl Runge of Mason opened district court here on time today after an almost bare-handed battle with a nine-point buck deer he encountered on the highway while driving here from his home.

Judge Runge was about to lose in his tussle with the big denizen of the brush, when along came Pat Hatch, also of Mason, to lend him needed assistance.

And, imagine Hatch's surprise when, driving down the highway, he saw ahead of him a man struggling with a buck deer!

Judge Runge encountered the deer a short distance out of Mason, the animal caught in a barbed wire fence he had tried to leap. One leg was securely fastened between two strands of the wire.

Remembering that it was a violation of the law for one to fire a gun across or upon a public highway (and, at the same time, being unarmed) Judge Runge hit upon the idea of clubbing the deer to death with a hammer. A few blows and the handle of the hammer broke. The deer managed to extricate himself from the melee. He lowered his head with its antlers and took after the judge. The judge in the scramble fell down a ditch. He got to his feet grabbing at the horns. He obtained a fast hold and there they were, wrestling for life, when Hatch drove up.

Hatch armed himself with an automobile tire tool and a knife and went to Judge Runge's rescue. The deer lost.

The trophy of field was taken to Llano and placed on display.

Railroads Of Western Area Select Ruler

Harry Guy Taylor Is Named As Mediator To Iron Out All Disputes; Rulings Will Be Accepted As Final

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—A man of 20 years experience in transportation was selected today to iron out the disputes and attempt to increase the profits of the more than 30 railroads in the western half of the nation.

He is Harry Guy Taylor, 52, a small town boy from Nebraska whose career includes that of newspaper publisher and legislator, as well as railroad expert. His present position is manager of public relations for the car service department of the American Railway association.

Taylor's power in the financially distressed railroad world will be large, all of the western lines having agreed to accept his rulings as final.

Chiefly, his job will be to rule in matters of rates and train schedules. Railway officials predicted the new commissioner would do much to remove harmful competition from the industry.

"I have no doubt but that the new arrangement will work to the benefit of all the railroad and to the public," said C. R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific railroad and chairman of a Western Railway association committee which selected Taylor.

Taylor's appointment becomes effective December 15, and before that time he is expected to move here from Washington to assume the new duties.

Dallas Office Is Leading Others In Loan Collections

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP)— Owen W Sherrill, regional director of the crop production loan office here of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, reported today that the Dallas office led all other regional offices in the percentage of collection on loans made.

This office, he said, has collected more than $1,500,000 in cash, and in addition, about 25,000 bales of cotton have been collateralized at nine cents per pound or at an average of $45 per bale, representing $1,125,000 bringing the total for the two to $2,265,000. Loans to Texas aggregated $2,224,969.

Rev. Robert Shuler Loses In Radio Broadcast Fight

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—The Rev. Robert P. Shuler of Los Angeles was told today by the District of Columbia court of appeals that the radio commission was "in all respects right' in ruling his station off the air.

Holding that the pastor of Trinity Methodist church, south, had broadcast over station KGEF attacks against the Roman Catholic church, the Jewish race and public officials, the court ruled that the evidence "abundantly sustains" the conclusion of the commission that the programs were not in the public interest.

Roosevelt Holds Conference With His Leader In Senate

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 28. (AP)—During a series of conferences Franklin D. Roosevelt today went over with the leader of his party in the senate the plans by which he hopes the short session can make sufficient progress with the Democratic program to avoid an extra meeting early in his administration.

After his meetings with Senator Robinson of Arkansas there came word the Democrats expected virtually to control the senate in the short session, that unofficial committees probably would be set up to deal with several important subjects, and that executive appointments would be laid aside by the senate until after inauguration.

Taxi Driver Is Forced To Walk Back From Ride

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Nov. 28. — Joe Doyle, Amarillo taxicab driver, walked back barefooted from his own ride early this morning.

Doyle answered a call to an apartment house. There he was confronted by an armed man, who forced the driver to take him 10 miles south of here. At that point Doyle was forced to take off his shoes and sox and start walking.

After a half mile hike over a cold, unpaved road, Doyle, a former railroad man, flagged an incoming freight train and rode to Amarillo. The taxicab was found abandoned in the residential district.

Firing Squad Role Is Fatal

Boy Takes His Place Against Wall And Chum Raises Gun Which He Thought Was Empty To Fire Fatal Shot

(By The Associated Press)

LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 28—Mimicking the firing squad scenes they had read about, three Laramie boys took turns at standing first one and then another against a wall for "execution."

Kenneth Maring, 14, who had been on the firing end of the game, then took his place at the wall. His boyhood companion and playmate John Roum, 11, held the rifle.

The hammer had fallen harmlessly each time, but when John pulled the trigger there was an explosion and Kenneth crumpled to the ground.

The boy was dead when help arrived in response to the frantic cries of John and the third youngster, Irwin Morton.

The boys were at a loss to explain how the weapon happened to be loaded when John fired. Coroner Ray J. Hegewald today said he would not ask for an inquest, believing the death to be accidental.

"Poet Laureate Of Texas" Dies Monday At Age Of 85

GALVESTON, Nov. 28 (AP) — Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck died at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Affleck, here this afternoon at the age of 85.

Mrs. Affleck, whose home was in Brenham, was visiting her son and daughter at the time of her death. She was officially given the title "poet laureate of Texas" several years ago by the Daughters of the American Revolution in their state convention. Mrs. Affleck was a member of the Editorial association, the Daughters of 1812, the press women and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Rancher Given Freedom From Oklahoma Jail

Two National Guardsmen Sent By Governor Murray To Get Col. Zack Miller; Released Under Protest

(By The Associated Press)

NEWKIRK, Okla., Nov. 28—Colonel Zack Miller of the 101 ranch was released from the Kay county jail late today after two national guard officers sent here by Governor W. H. Murray informed District Judge Claud Duval and Sheriff Joe McFadden they were prepared "to use force" if necessary to free the prisoner.

Neither Judge Duval nor the sheriff recognized the chief executive's right to thus free a civil prisoner but the latter yielded "under protest" when the matter was passed to him.

Presented By Guardsman

The executive clemency order was presented to Judge Duval, who sentenced Miller Saturday upon his conviction for court contempt for failure to pay temporary alimony to his estranged wife, by Lieut. Col. Elmo D. Flynt and Captain Ted Heywood. The order was issued shortly before noon by Governor Murray, at Oklahoma City.

Judge Duval informed the national guard officers, sent here by Adjutant General Charles F. Barrett, that he would not recognize the governor's authority to order him to change a civil court order. He said his judgment was final but suggested the officers take the matter up with Sheriff McFadden.

The sheriff concurred in the judge's viewpoint and asked the guardsmen what they would do if Miller were not released. Told that the officers were prepared to "use whatever force was necessary" to free the ranchman, McFadden said he wanted to avoid bloodshed and would release Miller "under protest."

Conspiracy Count Facing Man Here

A federal indictment charging Tom Gilliam, alias Alfred Gilliam, with violation of the national motor vehicle theft act and conspiracy has been transferred to U. S. District court here from Wichita Falls. The true bill was returned at Wichita Falls Nov. 23.

There are six counts in the indictment and five overt acts are alleged. It was alleged that Gilliam conspired to transport "stolen motor vehicles" from "divers and sundry cities in the state of Oklahoma, to wit, among others being Seminole, Anadarko, Oklahoma City, El Reno, and Guthrie, to Lubbock, Texas." Transportation of stolen automobiles from Ada, Anadarko, Calumet, and El Reno, Okla., was alleged in four counts, and transportation of a stolen car from Seminole, Okla., to Littlefield in another count.

Overt acts alleged were receiving, concealing, and selling in Lubbock cars stolen in Seminole, Oklahoma City, El Reno, and Guthrie, Okla., and receiving, concealing, and storing a car stolen in Anadarko, Okla., in Slaton.

Shorter Work Week Favored By Federation

Thunderous Approval Is Given 30-Hour Week By American Federation Of Labor Monday In National Session

Racketeer Flayed

Government Will Be Asked To Place All Federal Employes On Shorter Hours; Pay Cut Would Be Barred

(By The Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 28.—Under the impassioned leadership of President William Green, delegates to the national convention of the American Federation of Labor late today thundered their approval of a 30-hour work week. The proposal met unanimous approval on roll call.

"We must let the world know we demand action in response to our appeal to reason or we will secure it through force if necessary," Green declared, in recommending adoption of the resolution for a six-hour-day, five-day-week work schedule.

Life Threatened

The convention's action provided a climax to a stirring day in which delegates heard Secretary of Labor William N. Doak fire vigorous broadsides at racketeering and assert his own life already had been threatened by labor racketeers.

"We have already sent up 200 of these racketeers," said Doak, "and we will continue our fight, despite opposition and threats—even threats of death."

President Green, urging universal adoption of the shorter working week, asserted the federation would call upon major political parties to make good their promise for shorter work week legislation at the coming session of congress.

No Pay Reduction

He declared the federation would request the federal government — "the greatest employer"—to make

Man Accused Of Posing As "The Fox" Freed On Bond

WASHINGTON, Nov 28. (AP) — Norman T. Whitaker, accused of posing as "The Fox" and "Chief Kidnaper" of the Lindbergh baby during the fake ransom negotiations which Gaston B. Means conducted with Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, was released today on $10,000 bond.

Whitaker was immediately rearrested in connection with a request of Virginia authorities for his return to that state on a charge of passing a worthless check in Richmond last June. He is also facing charges in Florida in connection with an automobile theft.

Faulty Indictment Causes Delay In Trial Of Pickett

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 28. (AP) — After all of the special veniremen had been sworn in to try John M. Pickett in the 37th district court today on a charge of attacking Mrs. G. W. Dillehay, district Attorney Walter Tynan withdrew his announcement that the state was ready and obtained a postponement on the grounds that the idictment was faulty.

The indictment alleged that the attack on Mrs. Dillehay occurred Sept. 11, whereas Tynan said the fact was that the offense was committed October 12.

Two Villanova Athletes Are Killed In Automobile Crash

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28. (AP) — Joseph Delaney, Melrose, Mass., and Arthur Shortall, Rockland, Mass., members of athletic teams at Villanova college, were killed today and two others injured in an automobile accident.

Delaney was a sub fullback on the football team and Shortall a member of the baseball and track teams.

Granbery Case Is Aired As Investigation Starts

Three Professors In Lubbock To Collect Data On College

A COMMITTEE of three, representing the American Association of University Professors, was engaged throughout yesterday afternoon and last night in collecting data and information concerning Texas Technological college.

Members of the committee, who may find it necessary to continue their work throughout this morning, are Dr. H. O. Eaton, department of philosophy at University of Oklahoma, Norman; Dr. D. Y. Thomas, head of the department of history at University of Arkansas, Fayetteville; and Prof. William R. Arthur, school of law, University of Colorado, Boulder.

Few Facts Given Out

The professors, while declining to make public any of their findings as well as the list of persons they called into conference, said they were here investigating a request made by Dr. John C. Granbery, whose contract was not renewed after seven years spent as head of the department of history at Tech college.

Considerable public interest attended the Granbery case throughout last winter and later, upon announcement of the board of directors that the doctor's contract would not be renewed for the current year, last spring. Doctor Granbery at present is visiting a sister in South America.

Thousands Of Dollars Are Poured Into Stock Feeding

FORT WORTH, Nov. 28 (AP) — Feeder loans totaling $466,210.17 have been made to 54 ranchmen by the regional agricultural credit corporation of Fort Worth and its branches at San Angelo and Houston, it was announced tonight by A. E. Thomas, executive vice president and general manager of the Texas agricultural unit of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Applications for 346 loans totaling $2,368,578.22 also have been approved and this additional money will be poured into the livestock and feeder industries of Texas as soon as inspections are complete, Thomas added.

Knapp Speaker Before Agents

More Than 125 Agents Gather At Spur For Annual Meeting Of Districts; Banquet Held Monday Night

(By Staff Correspondent)

SPUR, Nov. 28. — Dr. Bradford Knapp, Texas Technological college president, of Lubbock, made his initial appearance before the county agricultural and home demonstration agents of West Texas at the annual meeting here tonight at a banquet.

Dr. Knapp, son of the founder of extension service, the late Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, and himself a former extension service member, discussed the farm problems facing Texas and the cooperation being given by the extension workers along with the teaching courses in the colleges and universities of the state.

More Than 125 Attend

More than 125 county and home agents and others interested in farm improvement in districts one and two are here. Principal speakers at the day session were O. B. Martin, director of extension service, of College Station; Dan Otis, Madison, Wis., and T. G. Walton, Washington, D. C.

Otis, representing the American Bankers association, also spoke at

Woman's Wish To Die With Her Husband Granted Sunday

LONGVIEW, Nov. 28 (AP) — Soon after George Teague, 60, died last night after an attack of influenza, neighbors found the body of his wife, 55, in their home here. She had gone to the door to call for help and, upon returning to her husband's side, died of a heart ailment caused by shock.

Several months ago when an aged couple died within a few minutes of each other, Mrs. Teague expressed the wish that she and her husband might pass away in a similar manner.

Two Brothers Die In Blaze

Alva And Charles Blackshear Are Burned To Death When One Returns To Home In An Attempt To Save Other

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, Nov. 28—Alva M. Blackshear, 42, was overcome by smoke and flames when he went to rescue his brother, Charles Blackshear, 39, in their burning home near Satin, 14 miles south of Waco, early today and both men lost their lives.

Mrs. Alva Blackshear, who was burned seriously, said she heard Charles calling and awoke to find the house in flames. With her husband, she ran outside, but, upon missing his brother, Alva Blackshear rushed back to find him. His body was found in one room and Charles' in another.

When Alva failed to return soon, Mrs. Blackshear ran for help to the nearest house, 200 yards away, and was met by a man coming to her aid. Farmers and residents of Satin gathered quickly but were unable to extinguish the flames, and the four-room house was destroyed. Origin of the fire was unknown.

The Blackshears had lived near Satin all their lives and were tenants on the Charles Simenk land.

Sulphur Flare Is Exploded In Show

A sulphur and gunpowder flare was exploded at about 9:10 o'clock Monday night in the Lindsey theater. The fire was extinguished quickly with sand, and few theater patrons left their seats, it was said.

Geo. Eubank, identification officer and assistant chief of police, was seated near the spot on which the flare went off. He obtained a sandbucket and put it on the burning powder.

A similar mixture was set off in the building Oct. 29, resulting in the scattering of theater patrons then. The flare last night was in an outside aisle about one-third of the distance from the front of the show house. The explosives were believed to have been ignited by phosphorus.

New Production Allowables In Texas Fields Are Made

AUSTIN, Nov. 28 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission tonight had decided on new production allowables for oil fields within the state, but refused to divulge the figures.

C. V. Terrell, chairman of the commission, said it had been agreed that the findings, based on testimony adduced at a state wide hearing of operators in all oil fields, would not be made public until the orders had been drawn formally.

Road Projects In Garza, Terry And Hockley Counties Are Planned; Office Building Here Is In List

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Nov. 28.—James V. Allred, Texas attorney general, announced tonight the Texas highway commission would take an appeal direct to the third court of civil appeals here from a Travis county district court order restraining the commission from expending further funds for construction.

James E. Ferguson, husband of the governor-elect, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, joined by Bailey Hardy of Breckenridge and John M. Chamberlain of Palo Pinto county, last Friday obtained an order enjoining the commission from awarding contracts.

Confers With Ely

Attorney General Allred decided to defend the highway commission's right to proceed in the regular way with contracting for construction after a conference with W. R. Ely of Abilene, chairman. D. K. Martin, member and Gordon Lloyd, chief accountant, of the commission.

In announcing his decision to take the cotroversy immediately to the appellate court, Allred expalined that the court of Judge J. D. Moore, where the original restraining order was obtained, was in vacation, "and the highway commission is desirous of having the law points passed upon as scon as possible."

Order Is Modified

"A motion (in the district court) to dissolve would unquestionably require at least ten days' notice, and, since Judge Moore is sick, it is questionable just when the case could be tried on the facts," Allred stated.

Allred had obtained a modified order on motion before Judge C. A. Wheeler, of another Travis county district court, to permit the commission to receive and tabulate bids asked for today and tomorrow on projects estimated to cost $4,000,000.

The original order had forbidden

Insanity Plea Is Presented In Houston Conspiracy Case

HOUSTON, Nov. 28 (AP)—The government today sought to trace the varying transactions by which it claims John Gregg, former president of the Merchants National bank of Brownsville, conspired to misapply more than $250,000 in funds of the bank, which now is in a receiver's hands.

Gregg, on trial in federal court here, through counsel pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity, and the defense will offer allenists in an attempt to show he was in such a mental state at the time of the alleged offenses—a period from July, 1930, to October, 1931—that he did not understand he was violating the law. The facts of the indictment, Clarence Kendall of defense counsel said, were admitted.

Girl Revives After Attempted Suicide To Express Some Of Bitterness In Heart; Does Not Want To See Parents

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28—Reviving momentarily to clear away part of the mystery surrounding her, Yvonne Vontrees, former stenographer of Fort Lyon, Colo., today voiced some of the bitterness which led her to attempt suicide by shooting herself in a public park here Thanksgiving day.

Among the first things she said was that she had a baby son about six months old, in Mercy hospital, Albuquerbue, N. M., home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vontrees.

It was found there was no such hosptial in Albuquerque and that authorities there had been unable to find evidence of the baby mentioned. She also said her husband was Martell Duell LaPonte, but added she did not know where he was. Later she said the baby was born in Missouri.

Informed her parents were speeding here, the girl said:

"I don't want to see them. They must not come here. I had an argument with my parents. They told me they never wanted to see me again. My father hated me. He told me once when I was in an accident that he wished I had broken by neck."

"Do you want to get well?" asked Dr. J. C. Geiger, city health officer.

SCIENCE is a wonderful thing. After discovering a non-spill spoon, scientists went further and discovered that knives and forks made of chromium need not be dried but can be left to dry without streaking. Now the next thing will be for science to give us plates, cups, spoons and all the rest made of chromium so that dish towels can become obsolete.

It has been a little strange that women have clung so long to their dish towels in spite of the suggestion that has been made from time to time that water be allowed to evaporate from dishes. Even Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, in her recent cooking school lectures here, said that she always left her dishes to dry instead of wiping the water off with a dishcloth.

I have heard of women who did that and I have seen one or two try it. There was something wrong with their methods, however, as far as I could see, for their glasses were dingy and their plates streaked. Maybe if the water is very hot and everything is stacked properly the results are better.

Or, if we could have chromium dishes the method might work. Chromium, it seems, has little affinity for water and that causes the evaporation.

At least, I want the experiment to continue. Dry dishes without drying them would be a great help to housewives.

FOR CLEAN VESTS

WHAT non-spill spoon is made of chromium, also, the scientists having made use of chromium's non-affinity for water. And what a help that will be to vest fronts and neckties. The merchants and cleaners probably will be attempting to suppress the sale of these spoons.

MISCELLANY

HERE and there: Nothing tastes better on a rainy night than corn freshly popped. . . . People who oversleep are enigmas to me. I awaken at the same hour every morning and if I am to arise extra early awaken ahead of time instead of too late. . . . Half the time when I read a good story I wonder why it is that I couldn't have thought of that first. . . . I am frequently accused of having no sense of humor. . . . W. R. Waghorne and Harry Lauder were born in towns about three miles apart in Scotland yet, in spite of Mr. Waghorne's wide acquaintanceship with singers and his long association with artists, he has never seen Mr. Lauder.

THE City Federation of Women's clubs is planning to secure trees and shrubs to be placed on grounds of the county home for old people. Donations will be asked from people of the city.

There are few people who can't give a tree or a plant of some kind to go into that beautification project and it will help people besides those in the home to have the grounds made beautiful.

TAGS FOR NAMES

IF every one wore a tag bearing his name, what a swell old world this would be. Perhaps if I advocate this long enough some man aspiring to be in the legislature will add it to his platform and later make it a law.

Of course, if you are an individual who knows everyone, never forgets a fact or name and can always get the two correctly assembled, you can't appreciate this wish of mine.

But there are others in my class people who can't recognize their own brothers and sisters after having been separated from them for a week or so.

And what a relief it would be to have every body tagged. Then I could put this mighty mind of mine at work doing something besides trying to decide who the people are that I meet on the streets and elsewhere. It would be mighty convenient to have everyone wearing a tag.

IN DEPTHS OF DESPAIR

MRS. MARY JONES lives in New England. Every month was a nightmare to her. Her letter says, "I suffered periodical pains through my head, backache and female weakness."

She tried everything. Visited clinics. Nothing helped her. Finally she gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial . . . scarcely hoping it would succeed where more expensive things had failed.

But she was surprised. Through its tonic action, it built up her health . . . lessened her pain. She says, "My backache is completely relieved."

Notre Dame To Make USC Dig For Big Honor

Startling Upsets Flavor 1932 Football In All Sections; It's Not Over Yet; Army To Meet Navy In Headliner

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP)—As a result of what happened to the crack football team of the Army right out in view of 80,000 cash and chilly customers, it may not be necessary to wait until the New Year to determine the so-called national intercollegiate champion of 1932.

Southern California clinched this distinction last season by disposing of Tulane in the Rose Bowl game on New Year's day. The Trojans are unbeaten so far this year and will represent the far west again in the holiday intersectional classic at Pasadena, Jan. 2. But they are listed meanwhile to entertain Notre Dame in the Olympic Stadium Dec. 10, and if the Southern Californians can whip the green-jerseyed horde that overran West Point Saturday they won't have to worry about any other brand of opposition.

The east has seen some startling football this year, including Army's 46-0 slaughter of Harvard, Colgate's scintillating 21-0 triumph over Brown and Pittsburgh's dazzling finish for a 12-0 victory over this same Notre Dame team, but nothing to compare with the Rambler rout of one of West Point's greatest teams.

Accounts Are Squared

Notre Dame apparently keyed itself for revenge this year. The Ramblers were unbeaten through three straight campaigns until they were knocked off by Southern California last season and then whipped to a frazzle by the Cadets. Taking their conquerors in the reverse order, the "Irish" have now squared accounts with the Army. The cold and merciless touchdown blast that accompanied the big "play-off" here forecasts a stormy session for Southern California.

Meanwhile salient effects of the week end's football blast include: (1) The probabilities of a sell-out crowd of over 100,000 paying patrons for the Notre Dame-Southern California game in the Olympic Stadium; (2) A sharp readjustment of prospects for the classic Army-Navy game this Saturday in Philadelphia, which winds up the eastern season; and (3) The first big vote of confidence in the coaching administration of Heartly (Hunk) Anderson, Notre Dame's head coach, who has been a target for the "anvil chorus" ever since Knute Rockne died.

Customers who curbed their football appetites most of the season in order to buy tickets for the Army-Notre Dame battle contributed to a sellout "gate" of $360,000, rivalled this year only by the receipts for the California-Stanford game. The Army-Navy contest at Franklin Field is expected to touch the same figure, with accommodations for close to the 80,000 at prices of $4.00 for reserved seats and $6.60 for box seats.

Navy Hopes Brighten

The reaction of Army's battered forces to their crushing setback will have a lot to do with the outcome of a game for which Navy has been pointing all season. Prior to last Saturday Army would have been a 2 to 1 choice, but the odds already have shortened. Since 1921 the best Navy has been able to do is tie two games out of eight played. But the Sailors, resting in comparative comfort in the stands at the Yankee Stadium, saw the Soldiers put to rout and no doubt left the wintry scene with renewed hope and courage for their chances of victory this week.

Navy, coached by an old Notre Dame star, "Rip" Miller, did a much better job of holding the Ramblers than Army, in much the same kind of weather. The Middies' record otherwise does not compare with that of the Cadets, but the service battle this week will be decided on current form and by existing weapons, not upon October performances.

Several Thefts Are Reported In Lubbock Area On Weekend

Pete Cruz, charged in county court with theft and receiving and concealing stolen property, was released on $350 bond, the sheriff's office said. Cruz was accused of taking an automatic pistol owned by G. E. Pilley, a grocer.

Dorothy Brown, accused in a complaint filed Saturday in justice court of theft of $160, posted bond before being put in county jail, it was said.

Several thefts were reported to police Saturday and Sunday. Hijacking of a salesman at Ferguson switch, just south of Plainview, of $187 in cash was reported. Two men held up the salesman. Lubbock police were requested by an Anton officer to watch for an automobile believed to be carrying two stolen tires and rims, and 10 or 12 wagon sheets. M. G. Bowles, 2208 Tenth street, reported Saturday the loss of a white Persian kitten about four months old.

The University of Michigan football team has a star quarterback, a fine center and a dangerous kicker—three elements which always have made the Wolverines dangerous.

Ken Fields Again A Navy Worry

Thirty-Seven Deaths Attributed To Football During 1932 Season Under New Rules Designed To Halt Injury

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP) Despite added safeguards in the rules, death again took heavy toll of football players in the United States and territories during the season now drawing to a close, records today showing 37 succumbed to injuries in games on sandlot, club, municipal high school and college gridirons.

With most high school schedules completed, the total for the year probably will fall below the record number of 50 fatally injured in 1931, but the present figure is the second greatest for any year since national records were kept.

Up to 1931 the largest number was 20 in 1925.

Of the 37 dead, five were college players, 17 high school, and 15 sandlot, semi-pro and club team competitors.

Colleges May Have Benefited

The new rules, passed last spring and designed to ward against any such casualty list as that of last year, seem to have been successful in organized college and university conferences where games were played under stricter officiating and better coaching. Reports on sandlots, neighborhood and some high school games, however, indicate some of the deaths might have been avoided if there had been closer adherence to the rules and better medical supervision.

Although five college players died of football injuries, only one was hurt during a regularly scheduled game—Ralph McClure, of Colorado College, whose neck was broken in a game against the University of Colorado. Of the other college players who died, all were injured in inter-class games or in practice.

John Panek, captain of the Denver university team, died Saturday of influenza and general infection, but university authorities said his football playing was not responsible.

It has been estimated at least 400,000 high school boys play the game each year on organized school teams, 50,000 on college teams and unestimated thousands more on semi-pro, municipal and unorganized neighborhood teams. In the light of the number participating in the game the fatalities do not seem large.

In organized professional football, where the game is played under the old rules as to the "dead ball" and flying wedges, flying tackles and blocks are allowed, there were not fatal or even serious injuries. The players there, however, are more mature and injured men seldom go into the game.

Revolta Leading Miami Biltmore; Two Players Tie

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Nov. 28. (AP)—John Revolta, 21-year-old professional from Menominee, Mich., strode home with a glittering 73-71—144 to win second day honors in the last few minutes of today's play in the $10,000 Miami Biltmore open golf tournament.

Until the last few scores were posted the lead the the tournament's halfway mark virtually had been conceded to the 145's registered by Johnny Farrell, New York, and Al Espinosa, Akron, O.

Revolta coupled a 36 and 35 for second-day play in the nation's richest 1932 golf tourney as he pulled the lead from the two veterans after the gallery had departed for the day.

Farrell had two 35's today for a 70 and add to his 75 of Sunday. Al Espinosa took 35-36—71 today, but had 75 Sunday for his 145.

Roland Hancock, Stoneham Mass., who stood in second place as play started today, was in third place tonight with a 71-75—146.

Six professionals were grouped with scores of 147 and four with marks of 148.

The contenders at 147 were Jack Cattell, Jacksonville, Fla., pro who led the pack yesterday, with 69—78, Joe Kirkwood, Chicago, with 72-75; Paul Runyan, West Chester, N. Y., with 75-72; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., with 77-70; Walter Hagen, Detroit, with 75-72 and Tommy Armour, Boca Raton, Fla., with 73-74.

Opening Of Pavement On 137 To Wolfforth Is Expected

Opening of the pavement on highway 137 between Lubbock and Wolfforth is expected this week, according to highway department officials.

The contractor is then going to move his topping equipment to the Hockley county line and start from there and work towards Wolfforth.

Texarkana Par Gets Chase As Tourney Opens

Tyler Pro And Shreveport Man Lead Field In Pro-Amateur Set; Floyd Boone Scores An Ace On Par Three Hole

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

TEXARKANA, Tex., Nov. 28.—Old Man Par, who fight his own battles and wins most of them, was a badly bruised old gentleman tonight after the first event of the Texarkana Country club $500 open golf tournament. This first annual tournament was inaugurated today with a crack field of sharpshooters in the amateur-pro sweepstakes, and from noon until dusk, they had Old Man Par taking to the tall pines, looking for retrenchment.

There was a tie for low score, Ray Garrett, Tyler professional and J. D. Lamberth, Shreveport amateur, blistered the course with a best ball of 34-34—68. Ben Hogan, youthful and long hitting Fort Worth professional, and E. C. Brown, Texarkana amateur, played beautiful golf for their 68.

There was a tie for second low. Francis McGonagill, Dallas professional, and David "Spec" Goldman, Dallas amateur and finalist this year in the major Trans-Mississippi golf tournament at Oklahoma City, shot a 69, four under par. However, they were tied by Ted Longworth, Professional at the Texarkana Country club, and J. K Wadley, Texarkana amateur. The remainder of scores for the Amateur-pro event range from 70 to the eighties.

Sinks Tee Shot

The shot of shots today was made by the grey-haired Floyd Boone Corsicana professional, who stepped up and dropped his tee shot for a hole-in-one at the eleventh green, a 130-yard par three affair that is well trapped. Boone played with E. W. McClure of Shreveport and shot a 73.

The tournament championship grind for the rich stakes at the end of 72 holes of medal play starts tomorrow morning and continues through until the final putt Wednesday names the winner and the professionals, who had their best shots working, start splitting the purse which is definitely $500 and may be more since the tournament committee decided to allow the gallery admissions to apply on the tournament fund.

The initial threesome out tomorrow on the first 36 of the 72 holes will be Ben Hogan, Fort Worth professional; Edwin McClure, Shreveport and Louisiana state champion; and Orin Williams, Longview professional.

Dick Metz, Texas professional who finished second in the Los Angeles open last year and who played with Cliff Mooers today and carded a 75, plays tomorrow with George Bell and Zill Eaton. Metz is hitting his shots well and is one of the tournament favorites.

Colorado Champ Present

The "Gallery threesome" for tomorrow will be that composed of Ky Laffoon, Denver, who holds the Colorado and Rocky Mountain open championship; Tommy Cochran, twice Texas amateur champion, and Francis Scheider, Dallas professional who led the nation in the sectional qualifying round for the National open with two rounds of 68 each. All three are heavy tournament favorites.

Toney Butler, Corpus Christi professional and last year holder of the Texas Professional Golfers' Association state championship, plays tomorrow with Clarence Hubby of Waco and John Bredemus of Houston.

Many Texarkana amateurs who that L. G. Wilson will send from the 72 hole competition tomorrow, whittling down the starting field that L. G. Wilson will sent from the tee, but most of the stars, amateurs and pros alike, remain to take another crack at general par and his army of 18 holes.

Brownfield Cubs To Meet Olney In Bi-District Tilt

District 3 Champs May Play Tilt On Olney Gridiron

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 28. (Special)—The "Fightin' Cubs" of Brownfield High school, champions of District 3 in the Class B football race, will meet the Olney High school gridders in a bi-district championship game Friday afternoon, it was announced here today.

The game probably will be played on the Olney field, though no definite announcement had been made today. Decision on the site was still being discussed by school authorities and coaches, but Coach Marlin Hayhurst said last night the game more than likely would be played at Olney.

Nine Straight Victories

Brownfield defeated Floydada, 19 to 0, at Floydada on Thanksgiving day to win the district honors. The victory gave Coach Hayhurst's team a record of nine games won out of nine starts this season.

The playing of Neill, Cub halfback, has been outstanding this season, though Tankersley, Owens, Smith Graham and Huckabee have starred in a number of games. It is believed that Neill is one of the leading Class B scorers of the state. He has been responsible for 20 touchdowns or 180 points, and has not played in all the games.

The season's results are as follows:

Brownfield 45; Amherst 0.
Brownfield 20; Seminole 0.
Brownfield 10; Lubbock Cowhands 0.
Brownfield 20; Post 18.
Brownfield 7; Lamesa 4.
Brownfield 6; Slaton 0.
Brownfield 38; Tahoka 2.
Brownfield 25; Post 0.
Brownfield 19; Floydada 0.
Total points: Brownfield 198; opponents 24.

Rockwall Beats Van High To Win District 7 Class B Title

TERRELL, Nov. 28. (AP)—Rockwall High school won the District 7 Class "B" football championship here today by defeating Van High school 7-0, on the Texas Military college field. Rockwall will play the winner of the Gilmer-Henderson game for the bi-district championship.

Southern Methodist Prepares For Invasion Saturday By Nebraska U.

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP)—First string players took it easy today and watched the varsity reserves do most of the work as the Southern Methodist university Mustangs began preparations for their final game of the 1932 football season Saturday—an intersectional conflict with the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers at Fair Park stadium here.

Coach Ray Morrison sent his reserves through a severe dummy scrimmage against the freshmen. His regulars limited their own labors to light limbering-up exercise.

The Methodists had the prospect of being further crippled for their tussle with Coach Dana X. Bible's Big Six conference champions. Fullback Oliver suffered a severely twisted back in the game last Saturday against Texas Christian university and it was doubtful if he would be able to start.

Clyde Carter, who served as a guard in the game against T. C. U., was out with a dislocated thumb. Bert Baxter, star ball carrier and punter, who was ordered to refrain from practice last week because of a leg injury, did not put in his appearance today and it was doubtful if he would play. Two injured sophomore linemen, Goodwin Bray and Glenn Larrimore, will be available but were not expected to be at their best.

Prominent Canadian Mining Man Is Dead At Sweetwater

SWEETWATER, Nov. 28 (AP)—Col. J. R. Gordon, 74, of Toronto, prominent in Canadian mining and Masonic circles, died at 1:30 Sunday morning in a hospital here, after an illness of 12 days. Doctors gave cause of death as acute kidney trouble.

The aged Canadian, traveling alone, registeded in a Sweetwater hotel November 15. En route from his home to California, for the winter, he arrived here by automobile, very ill, and was removed to the hospital November 16 in a state of semi-delirium from which he did not rally. Papers established his identity, showing he entered the United States November 4 at Detroit, his destinaation California. It was learned from his Toronto attorneys that he was prominent as a mining engineer and high in fraternal work. He was a widower.

A sister-in-law, Mrs. Symmes, will reach Sweetwater tonight.

Commerce Is Class B Champ In No. 6 As Bonham Routed

COMMERCE, Nov. 28. (AP)—The Commerce High school Tigers walloped the Bonham High school eleven today 12 to 0 to win the District 6 Class "B" football championship. The game was a defensive battle for Bonham, Martin's fine punting keeping the visitors in their own territory most of the time. Costly fumbles inside its 10-yard line by Bonham resulted in both of Commerce's touchdowns. Hammer plunged over for the first and Etheridge scored the second.

Lubbock Educators Return After Fort Worth Meeting

Elated over results of the convention of Texas State Teachers' association in Fort Worth last week, Lubbock educators returned Sunday. Dr. Bradford Knapp, Tech president, Miss Margaret W. Weeks, Tech dean of the school of home economics, and Miss Mae Murfee, Lubbock county school superintendent, appeared on the program.

Between six and seven thousand educators adopted resolutions regarding finances and certification of teachers through the state board of education. Other Tech teachers attending were Misses Annah Jo Pendleton, Ruth Pirtle, Mabel Erwin, Jonnie McCrery, and Harriet Tilden. Five senior high school instructors and teachers from other schools here attended.

The rural superintendents division, of which Miss Murfee is chairman, outlined a plan advocating the cut of ad valorem tax and placing more tax on luxury for the benefit of the schools.

Southern California's 10 to 0 defeat of Stanford in 1928 was accomplished without making a first down by rushing and with but four first downs from passes.

Tech Athletes In Light Work Till Christmas

Heavy Basketball Practice To Be Postponed; No Games Scheduled Before Holidays; Four Letter Men Are Back

Texas Tech athletes have earned a rest, it would appear, and there'll be little sport activity between now and the holidays, according to announcement made yesterday.

Although Coach Del Morgan has had his 1933 basketball squad working out a few times each week for the past few weeks, there will be no games before Christmas, he said yesterday. There will be no rest, however, for the cagers during the holidays, who will be busy with daily workouts.

Four letter men report to Coach Morgan, and four members of the reserve squad are back this season. The letter men are Alvin Crews, Harvey Dunn, Aud Darr and Hayden Moody. Returning veterans of the bench are Varnel "Bulldog" Hale, J. C. Thomas, Polk Robinson and Basil Hill. Harold Crites, an important reserve last year, has not reported, although he has another season of eligibility.

Among the most likely looking prospects on the "new list" are Donald Bledsoe, Robert Bryant, Norval Bryant, Jessie Briscoe, Pat Caruthers, Frank Eddleman, W. N. Fuqua, Truman Green, Jesse Holmes, Henry Loter, Harris Phillips, Byron Terrill, Tracy Watson, Lawrence Priddy, Wilson Gilmore, Braxton Gilmore, Demp Cannon and M. F. Flake.

Verdict Of Suicide Given After Death Of McAllen Man

McALLEN, Nov. 28 (AP)—E. Bleifuss, justice of the peace, returned a verdict of suicide after investigating the death of Andrew J. Ratz, a retired farmer, Saturday. The body was found by Mrs. Earl J. Anderson, a daughter of Ratz, when she returned to her home after a short absence. A shotgun was near by.

Ratz came to the Rio Grande valley from Valley Falls, Kans., and the body was sent to that place.

Score One For The Garners

APPARENTLY there will be few arguments during the next national administration concerning who shall sit next to whom at state functions and who will precede whom in grand marches and into the banquet halls.

For Mr. and Mrs. John Garner, of Uvalde, Texas, suh, aren't interested in such matters—in questions which seemed so highly important to Mrs. Dolly Gann and Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth. To revert to our own language in these parts, "the Garners don't aim to worry near as much over social etiquette as they do about the affairs of state and the problems of the nation."

As a mater of fact, with times as they are, The Morning Avalanche suggests that the whole administration family forget about 99 per cent of the froth and foam of the capital and go about their business of helping the country along.

The first Democratic administration in more than a decade not only is faced with desperate problems but at the same time is faced with proving to a multitude of voters that the Democratic party is fully capable to efficiently operate the affairs of the nation.

We aren't sorry to learn that the Garners will do their part in relegating the idiotic social prestige argument to a decided background in the next administration.

In fact, we would have been disappointed in our Uvalde neighbors had they acted otherwise.

BRITISH HOME MARKET

Department of Commerce estimates show that the trade with the United Kingdom—Great Britain and Northern Ireland—subject to being affected by the Ottawa trade agreements, amounted last year to $82,000,000. But this does not include exports to the United Kingdom, which amounted last year to $48,000,000 of commodities, which were removed from the free list last March, and subject to a 10 per cent duty. An estimate of the United States Chamber of Commerce has placed at $69,632,747 the amount of American trade with Canada last year, which will be affected by the Ottawa, pacts. Without reckoning trade with the smaller Dominions, the volume of American export likely to be unfavorably affected by the imperial preferential arrangements entered into at Ottawa runs in the neighborhood of $200,000,000.

The actual amount of export trade to be lost by diversion through the workings of these agreements can only be determined by experience, as the department remarks in refusing to forecast it. But inspection of the commodities affected indicates that the farmer will bear the brunt of the loss. The Department of Commerce lists among the commodities of American trade with the United Kingdom to be affected wheat, dried, fresh and canned fruits, citrus fruits and ham and bacon. The latter products are to be regulated by quota. Imperial preference is a huge inter-imperial farm relief measure.

This is not surprising, since it was the demand of the Canadian wheat grower for an assured outlet for his grain that chiefly influenced the Canadian government to initiate the Ottawa conference. The other Dominions likewise are mainly concerned in seeking a market for their agricultural products and the prime factor in developing protectionist sentiment in Great Britain itself was concern for the farmer.

Attempts in this country to compensate the American farmer for whatever loss of his British and British Empire market the Ottawa pacts may effect, ought to take the form of appropriate protection of the home market from foreign invasion and development of the potentialities of that home market by expansion of co-operative marketing.

FRIENDLY COMPETITORS

The business community of 25 years ago was the scene of bitter competition. If a business man heard that a rival had failed, he was glad of it. Half the time he would not speak to his competitors on the street.

Today, it is the characteristic of a progressive community, that its business people realize that they all stand or fall together. If one business concern fails, its competitors are not helped. While they may seem to divide up much of the failed concern's trade, much of it will go to other communities, and money is taken away from their home town. And when one business concern runs a good store, it attracts trade from other places, which helps all business in the town.

Such visitors will patronize many other stores in due time. When the business concerns will pull together, they pull in trade for everybody.

Power Still Centralized

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Up to the very end of his White House tenure President Hoover is sticking to what has been the guiding principle of his whole administration—that the fewer heads put together to decide important questions, the better.

The president favors commissions to gather information, but centralization of gray matter to ultilize it.

In summoning the merest handful of members of congress into conference with him to agree on a policy toward America's war debtors he has followed this theory to its conclusion as faithfully as in every past emergency throughout his entire term in the executive mansion.

OF COURSE the six senators and half dozen of representatives, with whom he has discussed the debt situation, total only 12 out of the 531 lawmakers whose majority voice finally will pass on the administration's plan of dealing with the old world powers' latest attempt again to scale down or completely cancel their obligations to the United States.

However, 12 can fairly be regarded as a select group; 531 approach the proportions of "man in the mass", who, in the president's opinion, as he expresses it, "does not think but only feels".

Sensing the necessity of what he calls "the leadership of intellect and progress", the president turns to the picked dozens, ignoring the remaining 519—which might be all right if the 519 recognized the dozen's superiority. Scarcely needful to say, the 519 refuse to do this. His seemingly inability to foresee this refusal has been largely responsible for Mr. Hoover's failure to get on well with congress from the beginning of his White House tenancy.

THE PRESIDENT'S course in inviting his successor-elect to join him in studying the war debt problem was in a different class from his choice of a limited number of the members of the two houses of congress to aid in the shaping of the administration's policy.

A surprising degree of naivete on his part is indicated, if he really imagined that Governor Roosevelt would be willing to place his actual "o.k." upon his predecessor's action—as is suggested by accounts that Mr. Hoover showed disappointment at the governor's request that their exchange of views on the subject be confined to the purely "personal and informal".

Nevertheless, no distinction between Governor Roosevelt and anyone else was implied by the presidential invitation to the New Yorker to confer with him, as quite decidedly was implied by the singling out of a very few from several hundred legislators for a task of equal concern to all of them.

Whether Mr. Hoover (himself one of the most sensitive of individuals) is unconscious that senators and representatives, being human, are susceptible to irritation at what they interpret as slights, or whether he is indifferent, is an issue official Washington never has quite settled to its satisfaction. Anyway, such incidentals have characterized his regime from the beginning, and appear likely to do so to his last day in office.

IN CONNECTION with the debt controversy, recent dispatches from Paris have brought what is mentioned as a highly illuminating answer to folk who have been troubled to understand why the debtor countries, while obviously so unwilling to meet their obligations, nevertheless seem equally unwilling to default on them openly.

These cables reports the announcement by Undersecretary Raymond Patenotre of the French ministry of national economics of a giant Anglo-Franco-German "consortium" looking toward European industrial rehabilitation through the launching of new construction enterprises on a vast scale, beginning with $680,000,000 worth of railroad electrification—provided most of the bonds can be floated in the United States.

M. Patenotre is not quoted as emphasizing the fact that this may be difficult if England and France have just defaulted on their war debts to America, but it is being emphasized in congressional circles in Washington.

New Screeching Sound Which Chars Centers Of Corks To Cinders Found

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP)—A new screeching sound which chars to cinders the centers of corks, even under water, was reported in Physics, the scientific journal of the American Physical society.

The discovery is a new tool, both scientific and practical described by Newton Gaines, of the University of Texas.

Burned By Sound

The corks are burned by sound alone. Sound energy transforms into heat so fast that in about 25 seconds hot gases burst a hole in the cork. In two minutes the entire interior up to a thin outer shell is cinders. This happens both in air and water.

The sound is made by a small nickel tube, about as big as a policemen's whistle, but several times longer. It is straight and hollow, one end closed like a drop with a nickel plate. This plate vibrates to make the screech, when an electrical current is applied to the other end with proper instruments.

Plate Is Eroded

The drumming motion is so rapid that the plate is eroded by its hammer-like blows against water. The erosions forms an eight or nine pointed star. The vibrations move at the rate of one-tenth the acceleration of a bullet in a rifle barrel.

The new thing in this screech is audibility. Hitherto the strange, killing effects of "sound" have been obtained with inaudible, that is "supersound" waves.

But the long sound waves of the Texas whistle kill perhaps even faster than "supersound." When immersed in liquids its victims are frogs, smaller animals and bacteria. The latter die by millions.

There seems no prospect of this tube bringing true the creations of fiction which forecast killing masses of men with noise machines. Only close up is th's whistle deadly.

Painful To Hearing

The work must be fastened to the drum. A finer, however, will "burn" with pure sound if held very close in water without touching. The water, moreover, is kept chilled. The noise is painful to hearing, but cotton in the ears enables investigators to work in comfort a few feet or even inches distant.

Mr. Gaines suggests the instrument may be of practical value in testing the strength of metals, that is their wearing qualities, in studying erosion, and in biological research. It already has been used to sterilize milk.

LOWRY SELLS STORE

MULESHOE, (Special) — H. L. Lowry who opened a grocery store here last February, has sold the store to J. T. Gilbreath, a farmer and owner of a store at Enochs. Mr. Lowry, who came here from Wellington, plans to remain here. The new owner has lived near here for 10 years.

Three Minute Relief From Your Headache

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B.C.", a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B.C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B.C.", in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

Peculiar Bones Are Discovered

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 28 (AP)—The lower jaw and fragments of the skull of a man found by a construction company while blasting rock near Brownwood, may prove to be a link with primitive mankind, or merely the bones of an Indian. They may be aeons old or date only from frontier days. They may herald a great anthropological discovery, or they may be a "bust." People who have examined the bones do not know. But the possibilities make interesting speculation.

The bones were said to have been blasted from the solid rock. The lower jaw is much larger than the jaws of men of today. The well-worn front teeth were sound. The skull was judged from the pieces salvaged, to have been of unusual thickness and in excellent state of preservation.

The bones will probably be sent to an expert to estimate their age and to what era the man belonged.

Hawk Funeral To Be On Wednesday

EFFINGHAM, Kansas, Nov. 28—(Special)—Funeral services for La-Fayette T. Hawk, 83-year-old pioneer farmer and banker of this area and father of Wilbur C. Hawk, West Texas Chamber of Commerce president, will be conducted here Wednesday afternoon. The elder Hawk died at his home here last night.

A critical illness of three weeks preceded the pioneer's death, but he had been in failing health for a much longer period of time.

Wilbur C. Hawk, Amarillo newspaper publisher, and his wife, came to Effingham Monday.

In addition to the West Texas newspaper executive, the late Mr. Hawk is survived by three sons and three daughters. He has been engaged in farming and banking for many years and has been vice-president of the Farmers State bank of Effingham.

Healthy Increase Is Shown By Vicks VapoRub Company

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 28—An increase in employment of over 42 per cent; a rise in volumeof sales of more than 35 per cent!

That is the impressive record made by Vicks VapoRub, Vicks Nose and Throat Drops and Vicks Medicated Cough Drops for the first nine months of 1932. The figures were disclosed today by L. Richardson, president of Vick Chemical Company.

Vicks shows a healthy increase in volume of business and employment in the years of 1930 and 1931.

A year ago, running counter to the general current of business and against the judgment of advisers, Vicks more than doubled its appropriation for advertising and introduced two new products. The bulk of this appropriation, as usual, went to newspapers.

Volume of sales of the Vick leader, Vicks VapoRub, the most universally used treatment for colds—has increased steadily. Rise of the two new products has been phenomenal, it is claimed.

tonight's banquet. C. B. Jones, president of Texas Technological college board of directors, introduced speakers, and Sterling C. Evans, district agent, presided.

The Tuesday session will be combined with that of the key bankers of the two districts, and Mr. Otis will deliver the principal address at the noon hour.

Sessions are being held in the Methodist church.

R. E. Dickson, superintendent of the state experiment station, is showing his experiments in soil conservation to the group. The local station has conducted during the past several years extensive experiments on terracing, contouring and water runoff. A campaign is planned for the late winter to encourage more terracing in West Texas.

Women to Report

The women agents under Miss Myrtle Murray, leader for district No. 2 and Miss Minnie Mae Gibbs, district No. 1, will make reports on their work. Miss Lola Blair, extension nutritionist; Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, associate extension editor and Miss Mildred Horton, state agent leader, will assist in the program. Mrs. Maggie Barry, extension sociologist, also will be here.

Miss Ida Mae Chitwood, Lubbock county agent, and Miss Mary Sitton, Potter county agent, will report on the two farm women's markets where 4-H standardized goods have been sold. These markets are among the oldest in the state in point of service and are among the most active.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28. (AP)—Cotton was decidedly quiet today and prices moved towards lower levels, influenced mainly by lower Liverpool cables, weakness in sterling and hedge selling. After opening 4 to 6 points down prices gradually eased off until in the late afternoon they showed losses of 13 to 15 points. There was a slight rally of 2 to 4 points on covering at the end and the market closed steady prices for active months showing net losses for the day of 6 to 13 points.

The market opened easy owing to lower Liverpool cables and weak sterling exchange. Private cables stated that the market was small and featureless awaiting developments and Alexandria was weak with heavy selling. Manchester cabled that the market there was generally quiet. First trades here showed losses of 4 to 6 points and prices continued to ease during the morning owing to hedge selling and liquidation based on the continued fall in sterling. January traded as low as 5.68, March at 5.77 and May at 5.87, down 12 to 13 points from the previous close. Near noon there was a rally of 4 to 5 points form the lows on covering by shorts, but the price level was still 7 to 9 points below the previous close.

The market ruled quiet all afternoon fluctuating narrowly within the previous range most of the time but made a new low for the day in the late trading with January at 5.67, March at 5.76 and May at 5.85 or 13 to 15 points below the previous close. There was a rally of 2 to 4 points at the end on covering, January closing at 5.71, down 9 points net for the day, March at 5.87, down 11 points net and May at 5.88 down 12 points net.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow unchanged to 2 penny points up. Port receipts 49,814, for week 138,463, for season 4, 597,305, last season 5,136,255. Exports 23,772, for week 67,871, for season 2,915,101, last season 2,707,582. Port stock 4,823,275, last year 4,836,223. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 187,008, last year 169,666. Spot sales at Southern markets 37,195, last year 22,558.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP)—Cotton was generally lower today under scattered selling and liquidation promoted by easier Liverpool cables and weakness in the sterling exchange.

March contracts sold off to 5.79, closing at 5.81. The general market closed barely steady at net declines of 7 to 11 points.

The opening was 4 to 8 points lower. Trade buying increased somewhat as prices worked off to 5.65 for December and 5.88 for May or about 10 to 13 points net lower, and closing quotations were withtin a point or two of the lowest.

Aside from covering, the buying was attributed chiefly to the trade, although there was a little commission house buying encouraged by reports that conditions in the south pointed to a larger number of boll weevils in hibernation this winter.

Houses with Liverpool connections both bought and sold here during the early trading, presumably in a adustments of arbitrage operations while houses with Japanese and continental connections were credited with selling.

Liverpool cables reported a small market there with prices influenced by weakness in Egyptian cotton and said there was a tendency to await developments. The market for Egyptian futures in Alexandria was 11 to 28 points lower. Exports today 23,852 making 2,938,769 so far this season. Port receipts 49,414. U. S. port stocks 4,868,341.

Stocks Maintain Their Composure In Face Of Pound Sterling's Record Low

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP) Stocks maintained their composure in the face of a record low for the pound sterling today.

Net changes of shares were again insignificant, by and large, although the market over the five hours of dull trading was somewhat irregular.

With the British cabinet working on a new debt note to Washington, Wall street preferred to hold suspended its judgment on the eventual outcome of the debt negotiations. Sterling was reported as being under considerable French pressure; dealings were light. Reactions to the severe break, which carried the pound under its 1920 low of $3.10, were most evident in foreign currencies whose fortunes are linked to sterling, and in the silver market, where spot metal made a new minimum. Wheat softened about a cent toward the close.

Another reflection of the unsettled state of foreign monies was found in gold mining shares on the stock exchange Homestake reached a new high and was up 5 net, while Alaska Juneau and McIntyre were also active, although the last named was off a little on the day.

NEWS BRIEFS

have been filed in U. S. District court by two South Plains persons. Elzie Lafayette Teston, Ralls farmer, listed his liabilities at $9,975 and his assets at $8,360, not including $4,460 claimed as exempt. Nicolas John Lanotte, Post merchant, set his liabilities at $6,086.35, his assets at $10,707.39, and claimed $6,896 as exempt.

Livestock

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 28 (AP)—Receipts of cattle at the eleven markets numbered around 20,000 less than the total arrivals last Monday and values worked on a steady to 25 higher basis. In some cases where supplies of killing steers and yearlings were limited the advance was largely a forced affair. Chicago scored up to 8.000 on best weighty steers and a few other loads of better grade around the circuit made 6.50@7.25, but the general bulk of offerings were of quality to sell at 4.50@6.00. Stockers and feeders were in liberal supply at several of the larger markets with values holding mostly steady. However, some sales were quoted as weak to 25 lower. Better grade yearlings stockers brought 5.00@6.00 and choice stock steer calves made 6.00@25. Comparable grade stock heifer calves scored up to 4.50. Majority of replacement steers cleared at 3.50@5.50. Combined receipts at eleven markets totaled 70,000, as compared with 91,157 last Monday and 107,278 a year ago.

As compared with Friday's average weighty hogs were unevenly steady to 25 lower with spots off more. Chicago noted a top of 3.55 on choice light lights, while high prices elsewhere ranged downward to 2.95.

Lamb values were listed as steady to 25 higher in most cases with desirable fat kinds selling in a spread of 5.00@6.25 and a few closely sorted loads at 6.35@45. A few fed yearlings wethers cleared up to 5.00 and good to choice feeding lambs brought 4.75@5.40.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Nov. 28—Hogs-700 including 303 directs and 150 through. Markets steady to 10 lower than Friday or 10 to 15 lower than Saturday; top 3.45 paid by small killers for most of good to choice 185 to 245 lb. truck hogs; few good truck hogs to packers 3.35; load good 239 lb. rail butchers to packers 3.40, few 405 lb. butchers out at 3.00; packing sows 2.50@75 or steady.

Cattle—2,500, calves—2,000; most classes slaughter cattle fairly active, steady to strong, demand centering on low cutter cows at strong or slightly higher prices; slaughter steers around 3.00@5.00; some common grassers in 2.00 range; good heavy long yearlings 5.25@50; butcher yearlings around 3.50 down; few good fat cows 2.50@75; butcher grades 1.75@2.00; low cutters mostly 1.00@25; bulls scarce; several sales medium grade stock steers and yearlings 3.25@75; good stock steer calves 4.00@6.05 and well bred stock heifer calves up to 3.75 steady; slaughter calves unchanged; better grade heavies 2.75@3.25.

Sheep—2,000; fat lambs and ewes steady; yearlings strong; fat lambs 4.00@50; sorted yearlings up to 3.50; medium grade fat yearlings up to 3.50; medium grade fat yearlings 2.75; fresh shorn fat ewes 1.50.

Grain

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 28. (AP) — Dragged down by collapse of the British pound sterling underneath any previous bottom, Chicago wheat prices today outdid the season's lowest record for July.

Uncertainties regarding the war-debt situation, as well as slimness of European demand for grain, were additional disconcerting factions. Traders virtually ignored a big decease of 3,694,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply.

Wheat closed unsteady at almost the day's low point, 1-2 to 1 3-8 under Saturday's finish, corn 1-4 to 3-8 down, oats 1-8 to 3-8 off, and provisions unchanged to 10 cents decline.

Shorter Week

the 30-hour week effective among federal employes.

The committee report, unanimously approved by the convention, calls for universal adoption of the short week as "the only means whereby prosperity can be restored." It emphasized that "such reduction in labor hours should carry with it no reduction in pay."

Secretary Doak, speaking at a noon session, rallied the federation against the "evils of racketeering" and departed from his prepared address to reveal he himself had been the recipient of sanguinary threats.

No more than a month ago, he said later, in an interview, "a man called my wife the day I was to make a speech at Brooklyn and told her if I went there I'd be assassinated.

"I went ahead, anyway, and although a heckler had to be ejected from the hall, there was no further show of violence."

Granbery Case

case from the side of the college as well as from the standpoint of Doctor Granbery. The latter is a member of the association which is a protective as well as an educational organization composed of professors in all the leading universities and colleges of the country. It has numerous members at Texas Tech.

Included in those called to the conference held at Hotel Hilton were numerous Tech faculty men and women as well as business and professional men from the down town area.

Case Called "Closed"

Just what bearing the investigation will have upon Doctor Granbery's case last night appeared to be somewhat hazy. Members of Tech's directorate publicly stated at the conclusion of the Doctor's tenure of service that "the incident is completely closed" as far as the college is concerned.

Probably two score or more persons were interrogated yesterday and last night.

Doctor Eaton is the chairman of the committee.

Ralls Youths Believe They Set Cotton Pulling Record

RALLS, Nov. 28—(Special)—What is believed to be the record in cotton pulling was set here one day last week by Denzel and Harold Jackson age 21 and 19 respectively when Denzel pulled 2,010 pounds and Harold pulled 1824 pounds in ten hours and forty-five minutes.

These boys are the sons of Mr and Mrs. J. A. Jackson living two miles south west of Ralls.

Tickets On Sale For Dinner Here

Members of the Retail Merchants association attendance committee for the membership meeting and dinner Wednesday night in Hotel Hilton began selling tickets Monday following a meeting at 10 o'clock in the chamber of commerce offices.

Each committeeman will be responsible for attendance from his block. The members are: A. T. Cocanougher, D. G. Hobson, J. C. Sanders, L. W. Erwin, Bert Pinson, E. A. Miller, Overton Ribble, Clifford Williams, Paul Hardwick, W. R. Fickas, D. E. Sellers and Altus Sansom.

L. H. Buisch, a lecturer for the National Cash Register company, will be the principal speaker. R. C. (Dick) Smith will be toastmaster. Miss Ethel McKinley will read, and several musical numbers will be given by the Texas Tech ocarina quartet composed of Roger Knapp, Lynn G. Gordon, Fred Fairly, and Culver Hill. The dinner program will begin at 7 o'clock. Admission is 50 cents.

While in Lubbock Mr. Buisch will address a Tech class in economics Wednesday, the Lubbock Retail Merchants association that evening, and Red & White stores employes Thursday.

TWO ARE SOUGHT

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 28 (AP)—Police today sought two men who stopped B. T. Wallace of Abilene on the highway south of Plainview and robbed him of $187 last night. The men, one of whom was armed, escaped in a small automobile.

Americans are estimated as spending $6 annually per capita for medicines.

Tired..Nervous Wife Wins Back Pep!

HER raw nerves were soothed. She banished that "dead tired" feeling. Won new youthful color—restful nights, active days—all because she rid her system of bowel-clogging wastes that were sapping her vitality. NR Tablets (Nature's Remedy)—the mild, safe, all-vegetable laxative—worked the transformation. Try it for constipation, biliousness, headaches, dizzy spells, colds. See how refreshed you feel. Average Of 1,138,000 Gallons Water Used In City Each Day, Check Shows

Whether Lubbock residents use 1,138,000 gallons of water per day taking baths or if diligent housewives use it washing dishes is still undetermined but, the fact remains, that much water is consumed. The city, according to M. R. Smith, city engineer, has 72.34 miles of water mains varying in size from 12 inches to less than two inches. Six inch mains cover more territory than two inches. Six inch mains cover more territory than any other size, Smith said.

Last month's report showed that 35,280,000 gallons of water were pumped in and out of the standpipe which is kept full all of the time. It holds 1,200,000 gallons.

Precautions Taken

If a water main should break, the damage could not be serious. If the break is in a large main the drop in pressure would be detected immediately on a chart at the pump. The mains are so constructed that a valve on either side of the break can be cut off while repairing is done.

Should the six wells employed for pumping the water out of the ground quit pumping, a thing which is most improbable according to Smith, there is enough water stored in the standpipe, the four underground tanks and four reservoirs to last the city three days at this time of the year. In the summer time the supply would hardly last more than one day.

Wells 140 Feet Deep

The wells are, on the average, about 140 feet deep and the supply of water is unlimited. Daily reports describing the amount of water pumped shows whether or not the supply is decreasing. Even in seasons of drought there is seldom any cause for worry over the supply, although the amount of water pumped each day is decreased slightly under such circumstances.

Four booster pumping stations are employed to pump water from the reservoirs to the city standpipe. These pumps can take care of about 3000 gallons of water per minute.

The local water supply is absolutely pure from a bacteriological point of view. Tests are made 10 or 12 times during the month and two or three samples are sent each month to the state department of health at Austin. Contaminating substances have never been found.

Residents living in the 3100 block on 21st street are fartherest away from the plant which is located practically in the center of the town.

Houston Host To Physicians

First Annual Post Graduate Medical Assembly Of South Texas Opens; Many Prominent Doctors Attending

HOUSTON., Nov. 28. (AP) — The first annual post graduate medical assembly of South Texas, attended by some 400 physicians and surgeons from Texas and adjoining states got under way here today to continue for four days.

The clinical discussions, under agreement of the sponsors of the assembly, will be open only to delegates, but tonight there will be a public health forum open to all. Dr Morris Fishbein of Chicago, editor of the Journal of the American Medical association, and Dr. E. H. Cary of Dallas, president of the association, will be the speakers. Dr. Fishbein will discuss the evolution of food fads, beginning from early times, and Dr. Cary will speak on the purposes of the organization he heads.

Dr. Cary, in in interview, said the association "in every way supports public health projects that are guided by the proper motives."

"We believe," he added, "that if the public is informed on the science and history of medicine and its progress, it will be in position to better choose for itself as between ethical and unethical practitioners."

Dr. Fishbein, discussing the outlines he will follow in his talk tonight, said there was a relationship between the economic and industrial situation and the food supply. Illustrating the point, he said that in five years the consumption of sugar per year had fallen off some five billion pounds, adding that as a matter of fact, "all energy foods have fallen off sharply in consumption because of the decreased need for energy foods, brought on by the use of machines."

Among the other prominent medical men to attend the assembly are:

Dr. Walter C. Alvarez of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn.; Dr. Donald C. Balfour of the Mayo clinic, Colonel Charles F. Craig of the department of tropical medicine of New Orleans; Dr. Frank K. Boland of Emory university, Atlanta; Dr. Horton R. Casparis, professor of pediatrics of Vanderbilt university, Nashville; Dr. Arthur C. Coca of the faculty of the post graduate school of Columbia university; Dr. Robert C. Coffey of Oregon university medical school; Dr. George W. Crile of Western Reserve university, Dr. Lee W. Dean of Washington university; Dr. Robert B. Osgood of Harvard medical school, Erwin W. Ryerson of Northwestern university, Dr. Edward W. Ochsner of Tulane university, Dr. John R. Caulk of St. Louis, Dr. W. H. Moursond of Dallas, Dr. Wylie R. Buffington of New Orleans, and Dr. Chevalier Jackson of Temple university, Philadelphia.

Negro Bell Hop Declares Depression Is Over With Ross And Herbert Out

The depression is over:

We've turned the well known corner, if you take the hint from a former negro cotton farmer of near Levelland.

Riding south on one of the buses passing through Lubbock, the dusky cotton raiser stated he was going home to get his job back. Up until 1929 he had been a bell hop in a Dallas hotel.

"When they elected Sterling and Hoover, they dropped the bottom out of things," the negro said. "The big boys whut used to give me one dollar bills for tips started handing me nickels and pennies. I wasn't getting any salary, but was allowed all tips on the job. It finally got to where I couldn't live on the tips.

"I came to Levelland to farm until the depression was over, and now that they have elected Roosevelt and Mother Ferguson, I'm going back. If you ever need any service, just call on No. 11," he said just before the bus pulled out.

Tech's Livestock Team Wins Tenth

Texas Technological college livestock judging team ranked tenth in a field of 20 in contests at the Chicago International Livestock show, Dean A. H. Leidigh of the school of agriculture was informed Monday. The Tech team, composed of seniors, placed ahead of the Texas A. & M. college judgers.

Ohio State placed first in the senior contest, with a score of 4,598. Tech's score was 4,396. Oklahoma A. and M. ranked ninth with 4,412 points and Texas A. and M. 11th with 4,370 points. The 20th team placed 378 points under Tech and 590 points under Ohio.

"Tech ranked fifth in cattle, ninth in hogs, ninth in sheep and 12th in horses," Dean Leidigh said. "Our high man was Harlan Howell, of Brownfield, who ranked 18th in a field of 100. Howell and Curtis Williams of Lubbock tied for ninth individual in cattle."

Teams and their rankings as reported to Dean Leidigh were: Ohio State, Kansas State, Illinois, Ontario of Canada, Iowa State, Nebraska, Minnesota, Colorado Agricultural college, Oklahoma A. and M., Texas Technological college, Texas A. and M., Michigan Agricultural college; Wisconsin, Missouri, Pennsylvania Agricultural college, West Virginia, South Dakota Agricultural college, Massachusetts, Virginia Polytechnical college, and Connecticut Agricultural college.

Members of the Tech team are: Harlan Howell, Brownfield; Curtis Williams, Lubbock; Buford Browning, Fluvanna; Ben Jenkins, Gail; Lanoy Hazel, Spur, and E. G. Cauble, Stiles.

The team was expected to return Tuesday or Wednesday.

Seduction Is Charged Here; Mexican Man Is Being Sought

A Mexican was charged with seduction in a complaint filed yesterday in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court. The suspect had not been arrested last night, Sheriff Wade Hardy said.

The complaint was signed by a Mexican woman. It was alleged the man had promised marriage.

G. C. Hansard, charged with prohibition law violation, was released on $750 bond Monday. Hansard, who lives at a hotel in the 1,000-block of Avenue H, was arrested Sunday by deputy sheriffs who said they found five half-gallons of whisky in an automobile owned by Hansard and parked in front of the hotel. The machine was confiscated.

A forgery and passing charge also was filed in Connell's court Monday. No arrest had been made last night.

KERRVILLE, Nov. 28 (AP)—Wallace W. James, 45, was shot fatally yesterday by another man who mistook his gun for deer antlers while on a hunt near Center Point.

Two Train Loads Of Hearst Cattle Leaving This Week

Two train loads of cattle from the W. R. Hearst ranch near Madera, Chihuahua, old Mexico, are to leave this week for Brownfield, the Santa Fe has been advised according to E. Kancher, division freight agent.

Movement will be via El Paso and Clovis. It is probable a special train will be operated for both movements. About 25 to 30 car loads, with 1,000 head of cattle, will be in each train.

The cattle are not expected to reach Lubbock before the last of the week.

Mexican Hand-Blown Pottery Will Be Feature Of Home Ec Christmas Sale

Mexican hand-blown pottery will be a feature of the annual Christmas sale sponsored by the School of Home Economics at Texas Technological college in room 102 and in the halls of the home economics building. The sale, beginning Thursday and lasting one week, is expected to net about $100 to be applied on the department scholarship fund, according to Miss Margaret W. Weeks, dean of the school.

Each year a new type of pottery or glassware is introduced at the sale. Last year, Miss Weeks said, Rookwood pottery was the main feature. There will be about fifty articles sold for less than twenty-five cents. There will be very little on sale for more than a dollar.

During the six year history of the annual sales a demand has been built up for brass ware. The school buys candleabra, tea kettles, trays and various types of bowls. These are inexpensive and according to Miss Harriet Tilden, instructor of applied arts, they are popular among the patrons.

Indian prints, Russian toys and Jugtown pottery will also be displayed.

Norway's whaling prospects are better than last year.

Diphtheria Takes Lives Of Couple

Two young children in Lubbock county died of diphtheria Monday.

Jessie Nell Wright, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wright of Anton, died in a hospital here at about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and O. F. Lawson, jr., 19 months old, died at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. T. M. Lawson, ten miles northeast of Lubbock.

The Wright child, survived by the parents, one brother, Olen, and two sisters, Pauline and Examae, will be buried by Bynum-Stahler funeral home at Littlefield at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Funeral rites for the Lawson boy will be held at the grandmother's home at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial will be directed by Bynum-Stahler in Lubbock cemetery. Besides the parents and the grandmother, one sister, Betty Jo, and a brother, Billie Tom, survive.

Two Men Are Being Held In Robbery Of Santone Hotel

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 28 (AP)—San Antonio police left here today with two men wanted in that city for the robbery of a hotel of approximately $1,000 in money and diamonds. A third man who had been held by officers here was released.

One of the men is from Shreveport and the other from San Antonio. They had aroused suspicions here by pawning jewelry.

THE ONLY Indispensable Profession on Earth

That is a broad statement to make, of course, but you will agree that it is just about literally true. All the professions are important to the progress of the world, but Medical Science has been, and is one of the most useful and necessary to mankind.

In no boastful sense is this statement made, but with all reverence for the Doctor's privilege of being the physical "keeper of his brother." The Doctor without that deep inner sense of what he owes his profession and his patients, is most decidedly the exception that proves the rule.

Humility in the knowledge that all the problems of human health have not been solved, walks with your Doctor. Also pride in the strides that have been, and are being made, in this Scientific profession, which is so indispensable to the health and happiness of the world.

From before the cradle and throughout life, the Doctor is your counsellor, friend, health guardian and sometimes life-saver—get acquainted with your Doctor.
