Needy Names Wanted

Olton area residents who might know the name of a needy family in the area whose children might be forgotten at Christmas are asked to contact the Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture office.

The request came after the C-CA board of directors met with representatives from the Olton Ministerial Alliance Monday.

A spokesman for the two groups said the office needs to have the names of any such families by Dec. 17 to allow for processing of Christmas baskets.

Persons may either write or phone the C-CA office in Olton. The two groups also requested the names and ages of members of any such families reported.

In other business, the C-CA directors appointed a committee to select nominees for new C-CA directors.

The group also noted a report that the organization was running slightly in the red, but took no action on assessment of members for additional revenue.

December Good Month For Soil Test Says Agent

December is a good month for collecting and submitting soil samples for testing, reminds County Agent Buddy C. Logsdon.

At the present time, samples are processed as soon as they arrive at the laboratory and test reports are mailed within 10 days. This schedule should benefit farmers since prompt service is an important requirement for an effective soil testing service, Logsdon said.

Sampling well in advance of planting offers the advantage of allowing time to obtain the fertilizers needed. In many instances, wet soil may be encountered during the winter and cause a delay in sampling, therefore, sampling now is advisable.

Shipping weights can be reduced by allowing the sample to dry a day or two at air temperature said Logsdon. Samples should not be heated since high temperature cause potassium to be fixed in some soils in such a way that it cannot be removed by chemical procedures, Logsdon advised.

If reliable information is to be obtained from a soil test, it is necessary for the sample to be as nearly representative of the field on which information is desired as possible.

Brigance Named Water Chairman

Merrill P. Brigance was re-elected chairman of the Lamb County Soil and Water Conservation District in a regular meeting last Thursday in Littlefield.

Edward Mitchell of Spade was named vice-chairman of the group and Herbert Dalle of Littlefield was named secretary.

Under Brigance's leadership in 1966, the district took second place in the annual Good-year awards.

A three-man committee from the district gave a program for teaching conservation in public schools to the Littlefield school faculty the same day. The same program was given to the Olton school faculty on Monday.

Members of the committee included Brigance; Roy Stevens, county school superintendent, and Joe Eblevins, new Soil Conservation officer for the county.

B-TEAM TRAVELS TO HART

Basketballers Try Luck In Springlake

Olton varsity basketball teams try their luck in the three-day Springlake tournament which started today, while the junior varsity groups will be competing in the varsity section of the Hart tournament.

Olton's Filly team picked off a second place trophy in the Friona tourney last week, winning two games and losing the third and final match.

Host team Friona played the spoiler for the varsity girls, picking up a 62-51 win in the final girls game of the tournament.

Earlier the Olton quintet had downed Cotton Center, 61-32, and Farwell, 43-17.

The boys, in the meantime, took a 41-34 win over Cotton Center in the opening round of the tournament, then fell to Muleshoe, 50-29, in the semi-final game.

In a try for third place, the young Mustangs were downed by Petersburg, 69-48.

The B-team boys, meanwhile, were busy in their own tournament in Morton.

The junior varsity group wound up in third place after downing Anton in the finals, 55-52.

Earlier the group lost the opening round game to Morton, 50-27.

In action Tuesday night, the two varsity squads both picked up their third consecutive wins against Cotton Center.

The girls took their game, 44-34, while the boys won their match, 45-43.

Lannie McClain was high point man for the Mustangs in the Tuesday contest, picking up 15 points.

McClain and Pat Bodkin shared rebounding honors with 12 each.

In the girls' game, Lynn McGill led the scoring with 16, closely followed by Karen Hipp and Kay Schultz, each with 14.

Pam Foster, five-foot two-inch tall guard led the rebounding with 12.

In the Friona tourney, Coach James Cagle cited Lannie McClain for top offensive efforts, while both Kenneth Johnson and Pat Bodkin were singled out for their defensive efforts. Bodkin also was high scorer against Petersburg in the tourney with 18.

Karen Hipp picked up 25 points in the final game against Friona to lead the Olton scoring in that game.

In the junior varsity contest against Anton, Joe Luera hit for 18 points to lead the scoring in that contest.

Olton's girl varsity members were scheduled to take on Bovina's girls at 2:30 p. m. today in the Springlake tournament, while the Mustangs were slated to meet the Amherst team at 3:45 p. m.

The junior varsity was slated to begin play at 10:30 a. m. today in the Hart tournament.

A LETTER FOR SANTA Josi Johns, 5, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Basil Johns of Olton, deposits a letter for Santa Claus in a special box in the Olton Post Office. The box, set up by Postmaster I. B. (Doc) Holt, will insure youngsters that the man in red will get a chance to read their letters. Santa will give youngsters a chance to visit personally when he makes a pre-Christmas visit to Olton Dec. 17.

Meeting Held In Olton By Church Group

"A Christian Home - Foundation for Faith in Action" was the theme of the Training Union "M" Night held on Monday, Dec. 5, for the 45 churches and missions of the Staked Plains Baptist Association. The meeting, which was conducted in the First Baptist Church, Olton, began at 7:00 p. m.

The Rev. Ed. Schmeltekopf, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Burleson, Texas since 1961 was the inspirational speaker. He is a graduate of Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth.

During his college career, Rev. Schmeltekopf was engaged for three summers in youth-led revivals throughout Texas and served in 1954 as a summer missionary to Alaska. He was also named all-conference full-back and listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Before moving to the church in Burleson, Rev. Schmeltekopf served as pastor of churches in La Vernia, and Graham.

A special feature of this year's program was the presentation of a brief drama, "What Went Wrong?", written especially for the "M" Night meetings.

"Mobilization" Night is observed annually by churches throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. Last year approximately 20,000 churches were represented by more than 373,000 persons. The purpose of the meeting was to provide fellowship, information and inspiration concerning the total ministry of the churches through the Training Union organization.

Serious Injuries Avoided In Mishap

Two pickups were demolished in a collision on U. S. 70 in Olton Monday morning, but both drivers escaped serious injury.

R. D. (Dewey) Dennis of Olton was headed west on the highway when his vehicle and another driven by Stephen Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith, collided. Smith was headed east on the same road.

Smith received a slight concussion and had several stitches taken in cuts suffered in the mishap, but was not kept at the hospital.

Smith's injuries could have been more serious, but a cast, which he had on a foot due to an earlier accident, prevented it. The cast was broken, but Smith had no other serious injury.

Both vehicles were esti-ated to be almost complete losses.

The force of the collision threw a camper bed from the back of the Dennis' pickup into a bar ditch and his pickup wound up headed back east, while the Smith vehicle rested near an electric line pole in the bar ditch next to the road.

Only a few hours after the accident, Olton firemen were called to fight a burr fire on the Smith farm northeast of

The fire, which occurred on burrs covering ensilage in a pit on the Smith farm, apparently started when the exhaust pipe from a tractor being used in the pit caused the burrs to catch fire.

Smith reported only slight damage to the tractor and feed in the pit.

ZIP Code Books Are Available

Zip code books, being sold by Olton Booster Club, are expected to arrive some time between Christmas and the first of the new year.

Persons interested in receiving one of these books may contact any member of the booster club and leave his order, which will be delivered as soon as the books arrive. Cost of the books is $1.

NO SERIOUS INJURIES--Stephen Smith, driver of this pickup, received no serious injuries in the Monday smashup. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith, suffered a mild concussion in the mishap, but was otherwise unhurt. His pickup collided with another pickup driven by R. D. Dennis on U. S. 70 near the Dairy Mart.

CAMPER TOP IN DITCH--This camper top was thrown in the bar ditch after the Monday morning accident on U. S. 70. The top originally went on the pickup in the background, which was driven by R. D. Dennis. The pickup, pointed east, was originally traveling west when the mishap occurred.

Services Held Friday For Horace G. Walker

Services were conducted Friday, Dec. 2 at the First Baptist Church, Olton, at 2:30 p. m., for a long-time resident of the Olton area, Horace G. Walker.

The Rev. John E. Lewis officiated, assisted by the Rev. Tommy Nelson and the Rev. R. H. Campbell. Interment was in Olton Cemetery under direction of Parsons Funeral Home.

Walker, born July 31, 1893 in Claybourne County, Tenn., died Dec. 1, in Olton Community Hospital, where he had been a patient for four days.

A resident of Olton for the past 49 years, Walker moved here from Cooke County. He was married to Callie Nix, at St. Jo, June 10, 1920.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Masonic Lodge, and the American Legion.

Always interested in the betterment of his community, Walker served as director of the Plainview Co-Op Compress, Farmers Co-Op Compress, Lubbock, Plains Co-Op Oil Mill, Lubbock, and the Lamb County Rural Electric Co-Op.

He was a public servant in that he served as County Commissioner two terms for Precinct 1 and he taught school in Olton Public Schools in the winter of 1917 and 1918, went to the army in July of 1918 and returned to teach again in the school year of 1919 and 1920.

Walker served as executive director of All-American Security Life Insurance and All-American Acceptance Corporation.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Holt, Dumas, Mrs. Jean Hall, Olton, and Mrs. Joan Blackburn, Thousand Oaks, Calif.; three brothers, John Walker, Shamrock; White Walker and Ike Walker, Gainesville; one sister, Mrs. Mae Robertson, Plainview; 12-grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Governor Calls Attention To Needless Traffic Deaths

Governor John Connally said today in proclaiming Sunday, Dec. 11, "Safety Sunday" in Texas that useless infliction of human injury is "an abuse of God's most precious gift -- life itself."

The Governor also called attention to the fact that 3,028 persons were killed and 186,062 injured on Texas streets and highways in 1965 "despite an intensive and continuing campaign by both official State agencies and citizen-support groups."

"Safety Sunday" is sponsored each year by the Texas Safety Association. S. Ross Carr of Houston, TSA President, said purpose of the observance is to focus public attention on the moral obligations and responsibilities of vehicle drivers to protect their own lives and the lives of others. It is observed each year during one Sunday in December to give further emphasis to the need for accident prevention during the Christmas-New Year's holiday season.

In his proclamation, Governor Connally said: "It is essential that every Texas driver realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as other drivers and passengers is a matter of moral responsibility, and that useless infliction of human injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift -- life itself."

He urged all citizens to join in a united effort to awaken the conscience of every driver and further urged the pastors of all churches to remind their members of the personal and moral responsibility "to drive carefully, to obey the traffic laws and to protect the sanctity of human life in our State."

RING SHOULD BE SECONDARY!

Dear Amy:

Our son who is 21 and in college wants to become engaged at Christmas. He still has a year and a half to complete his education. Although we approve of the girl, we wish they would wait until his education is completed. But the crux of the problem is the ring. His girl wants a ring that is more costly than our son can afford and she won't settle for less. In fact, she offered to match out of her own pocket what our son can afford so that she can get the ring she wants.

My husband and I don't approve of this. We feel she should be happy with what our son can afford to give her. Further, I never heard of a girl part-paying for her engagement ring! Did you? And we also don't appreciate a struggling college student trying to keep up with . . . The "Jones"

Dear "Jones":
Girls should not pay for their engagement rings. If your son is mature enough to get engaged, he should be mature enough to know his financial limitations, and his girlfriend should be happy to accept what he is in a position to give her. If she loves the boy, the ring should be secondary.

Girls who want to settle down, settle for less. . . .

Dear Amy:

I am 20 and my boyfriend, whom I plan on marrying, is 25. He is a wonderful guy and is everything I ever wanted. However, there is one thing that bothers me. I come from a very close family and have always wanted to marry into a close family. He does not come from a close family. In fact, he's never even felt loved by his family. They are all very indifferent and rather cold (brothers and sisters alike). He wants to have his family love him and he tries very hard, but they just don't seem to care one way or another. If they feel this way toward him, I'm sure their feelings for me would even be less.

I would appreciate knowing how you feel about this. Would this be a reason for not marrying him, or if I do marry him, should we have nothing at all to do with his family? Is the family that important that I should let it concern me so much?

I will be looking forward to your advice. . . . Barbara

Dear Barbara:

The attitude of families toward one another is important, but it should not be the deciding factor in whether to marry a man or not. Sometimes, one cannot change the actions and feelings of others no matter how much they try. Some people are warm and loving, while others are just "cold fish."

The "cold fish" people are rarely genuinely happy nor do they bring happiness to others.

By all means, marry if you love each other. Start a family of your own filled with love and care . . . and set an example for those members of his family who need an example set!

Dear Amy:

I read your column all the time and think you are wonderful in helping people with their troubles . . . and I sure do have troubles. I don't know which way to turn anymore. I've tried my best to make this man I married happy and to live decently. But for the past 3 years, he's made my life h---! Nothing I do pleases him. He gets mad, breaks things or hits me. He goes out and stays till all hours and gets drunk. He won't take me any place or let me go anywhere. If I do anything or go any place, he raises the roof. I can't even read; he gets mad. I can't see anyone; neighbors or my family.

Please tell me what to do. Stay before something awful happens or contact a lawyer? Do you think he loves me or is there another woman in his life? Or does he plan to take me to the "cleaners"? . . . P.G.

Dear P.G.:

I'm not clairvoyant. I can only assume what your future will be from what you have told me about your past. Your husband sounds like an uncivilized beast, and frankly, I wouldn't take any bets on your future with him if he is not willing to get help . . . now!

If I were you, I would give him a choice of going to a psychiatrist or the Family Counseling Service, and if he refuses to help himself, help yourself. See a lawyer. . . .

Dear Mike:

The only picture I've been able to come up with is a candid shot someone here at the office made of me while "experimenting" with the camera. I'm the only one on the staff who uses the camera.

If you want to use it and label it a "typical pose," that might lighten it up to where it wouldn't do too much damage to your fine paper's front page - or whichever page you run it on.

I want to express my appreciation of the opportunity to enter the Enterprise's football contest, which I've thoroughly enjoyed. Also to the Olton State Bank, which has accepted my entries each week.

Yours very truly,

Art Display In Lunchroom To Be Taken Down, Sold

Members of the Art Guild have announced that the paintings now hanging in the school lunchroom will be taken down the day school dismisses for the Christmas holidays. This is the last showing until spring.

The paintings, winter and Christmas scenes, were painted by members of the Olton Art Guild and may be bought before they are taken down. Persons interested in buying them may contact any member of the Art Guild.

Several members of the Guild have volunteered their time and talent at the local schools. Mrs. Maxine Struve teaches in the primary grades, Mrs. Jean Green, Junior High, and Mrs. Francine Andrew, High School. Students of these ladies will display their paintings in the lunchroom when school resumes in January. Following this exhibit, the traveling exhibits from Lubbock district will be on display.

The Art Guild provides paintings at all times for Hamill's Restaurant, Olton State Bank and the women's clubhouse.

At the present time, Larry Hilburn is conducting classes for the Art Guild in various mediums — oil, incroscopic and water color and sculptor will be introduced later. These classes, to continue through the school year, are being held in the house, located on the Farmer's Gin lot.

Visitors are welcome and

MR. AND MRS. IRA McLAIN

Ira McLains To Be Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McLain will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Dec. 18 at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil King, located in West Olton on Highway 70.

Calling hours will be from 2 to 5 p. m. and everyone is invited to attend. The couple requests no gifts please.

McLain was born in Prescott, Ark., in 1896 and came to Castro County in 1904. Mrs. McLain, the former Angie Henderson was born in Higgins, Tex., Lipscomb County in 1897. They were married on Christmas Day in the year 1916 in Lamb County.

They have two children, Mrs. King of Olton and Laurence, of Hart; four living grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Olton Members Hosts Delta Kappa Gamma Dinner

Members of the Epsilon-Delta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society were hostesses to the annual formal Christmas dinner for the society. They met in the dining room of Hamill's Restaurant.

The room was decorated in green, red and gold. Table decorations carried out the colors with huge gold cards, little sequin-trimmed stockings and red candles in gold goblets. Christmas carols were played throughout the meal.

Before the dinner, Catherine Lewis, an Olton teacher, was initiated into the society. An initiation ceremony was prepared by Elizabeth Ayres, ceremonials chairman.

In a business session, following the dinner, Mrs. Blanche Johnson, president reminded members of some changes that were made in the society's rules and by-laws.

Mrs. Peggy Tooker of Olton was accepted as a member through transfer from Lubbock. Another Olton teacher, Mrs. Lea Belle Hooper was reinstated after several years of absence from the Delta Kappa Gamma Society.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 4 at Amherst.

RETURNED HOME

Mrs. Edith Walling returned home Saturday from a visit with friends and relatives in Hereford, Fritch and Carnegie, Okla. She left before Thanksgiving to visit.

Kimichi Club To Give Doll

Kimichi Study Club met Thursday, Dec. 1 in the women's clubhouse for a regular meeting, with Mrs. Houston Hamby as hostess.

The program was presented on "Christmas Customs and Their Origins" by Mrs. Leslie Ross. A Christmas reading "The Wood Carver of Hollenthal", was given by Ruth Holaday.

In the business session, the annual Christmas party was set for Friday, Dec. 16 to be held in the women's clubhouse. A Barbie doll and wardrobe will be given away by the club and is now on display at Kelley's. Members who have not brought the clothes for the doll as yet are asked to take them to Kelley's.

Those present were Mmes. Ross, Holladay, Hamby, Amos Walden, Garland Rose, E. J. Houston, Buster Nicholas, Garland DePrang, Danny Cure and Randall Roper.

RITA STILES

Marriage Plans Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stiles announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Rita, to Glen Edward Eagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eagle of Earth.

The marriage vows will be exchanged at the Main Street Church of Christ Tuesday, Dec. 27 at 8 p. m.

All friends of the couple are invited to attend.

For Holiday Activities Add Color To Your Fireplace

Your fireplace can add an especially gay note to holiday activities if the fire is made up of multi-colored flames, says County Agent, Buddy C. Logsdon.

Instead of the usual yellow flame from wood, the flames can be green, red, blue, orange or purple in color depending upon the chemicals used to treat the material to be burned.

Logsdon explains that calcium chloride can be used to produce orange colored flames, copper chloride—blue, potassium chloride—purple, stronium nitrate—red, lithium chloride—carmine, and copper sulfate—emerald green. Dry pine cones or small blocks or chips of wood can be soaked in solutions of these chemicals to produce the multi-colored flames when burned. Most of the chemicals can be purchased from chemical suppliers or local drugstores.

To treat the cones or wood, a plastic pail and onion sack are needed. The cones or chips are placed in the sack and immersed in a solution containing 1 pound of the desired chemical dissolved thoroughly in one gallon of water. The bag must be weighted down so that the material is completely covered by the solution. The cones or wood should soak for at least 10 minutes.

After soaking, the treated material may be placed on newspapers to dry. After drying overnight, they will be ready for use in the fireplace.

The county agent adds that "logs" can be made of loosely rolled newspapers tied with a heavy twine and soaked in a solution of four lbs. of copper sulfate and three lbs. of rock salt in a gallon of water. They will take several days to dry out. Once dry a paper log will burn all evening and produce a rainbow of colors.

Cotton Producers Payments Increase Of $24 Million

Direct payments to cotton producers on the Texas High Plains in 1967 should come to over $24 million more than in 1966 under the newly announced provisions of next year's cotton program.

This is according to the calculations of Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the organization that represents growers in 23 counties surrounding Lubbock.

Johnson emphasized that these payments are a part of the cotton support price. The loan level under the 1967 provisions has been set at 20.25 cents per pound, down from 21 cents in 1966. Under previous government cotton programs, when direct payments were not involved, the lowest level reached by the loan was 29 cents per pound in 1964.

"Direct payments, as any cotton grower can tell you, are in no sense of the word a bonanza to farmers," Johnson stated, adding that "they are simply a method of keeping the price of cotton to American farmers high enough that, in theory at least, he can afford to produce it."

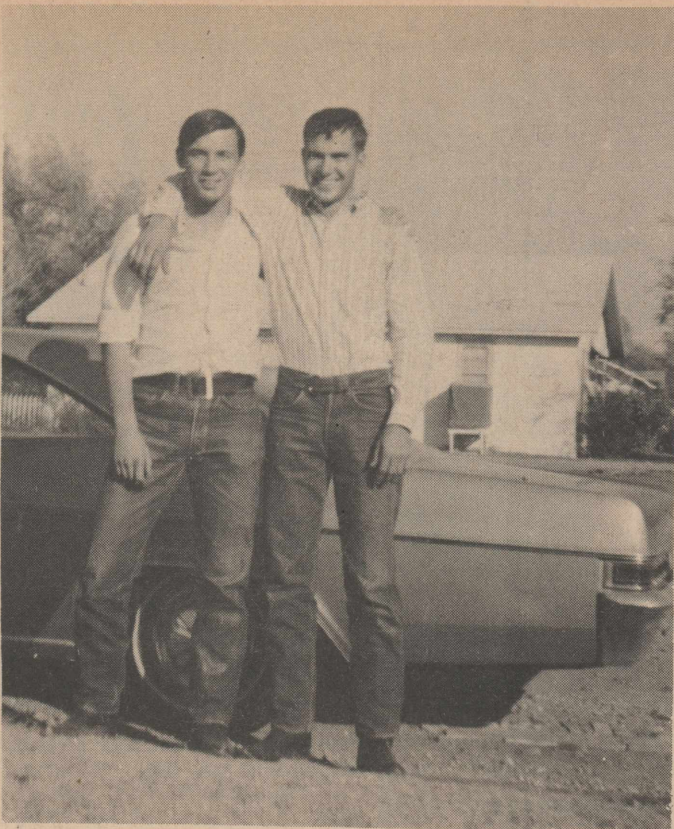

Johnson said the additional area income would be the result of three factors -- a higher level of payments per pound for both price support and acreage diversion, an increased average per-acre projected yield, and a slight increase in cotton allotments on the Plains.

The 1967 cotton law provisions set the price support payment at 11.53 cents per pound, 2.11 cents above the 9.42 cents paid in 1966. This payment is made on each producer's projected yield from domestic acreage, which has been set again this year at 65 per cent of total allotment.

Acreage diversion payments next year will be at the rate of 10.78 cents per pound, paid on the projected yield from that part of an allotment, up to 35 per cent, which the farmer diverts to conservation uses. Payment for acreage diversion in 1966 was 10.50 cents.

Weight average projected yield per acre on the Plains in 1966 was 513 pounds per acre, raised 29 pounds to 542 for 1967. Minimum acreage diversion for those who wish to participate in the program is again 12.5 per cent.

The total Plains allotment for 1967 comes to 2,165,872

BUDDIES in civilian life and now buddies in army life, are Dwight Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clark and Jerry LaFrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest LaFrance. The boys are stationed at Ft. Bliss, El Paso, where they are taking their basic training. They will both be home for Christmas.

acres, compared to 2,122,770 this year.

Johnson used these new payment rates, the new allotment figure and the higher projected yield to come up with the $24 million increase. He assumed the same rate of acreage diversion on the Plains as in 1966, which was 32.7 per cent.

"The cash incentive to producers will be even greater next year than this," Johnson said, "and we may see the acreage diversion percentage in the area even closer to the maximum 35 per cent."

Concerning the 20.25 cent loan rate for 1967, Johnson said "Most cotton men are speculating that the area's crop will sell in the market place at prices either equal to or above prices paid this year, so the increased direct payments may show up as increased net income to producers," Johnson stated.

He explained that cotton might sell at greater premiums over the loan rate in 1967 because USDA also announced that the minimum sales price of cotton in CCC stocks would not drop below this year's 22.5 cents.

"If this announcement holds true, then current crop cotton next year will have more head room above the loan level, and farmers will not lose much if any income because of cotton's price," Johnson said.

He went on to say that of course each farmer would have to calculate for himself what changed yields would mean to him in 1967. Some Plains counties had a decline in projected yield for 1967, and these will naturally show a smaller increase in income.

But, based on the average projected yield for the Plains, direct payments for the coming year -- spread over the entire allotment -- will be about $11.00 per acre higher than in 1966.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my deep appreciation to the many friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and floral arrangements during my recent illness.

TO VISIT CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith left today for Mount Lemmon, Ariz., to visit their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith. From there they will travel to Reno, Nev., to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Johnson.

Highlights AND Sidelights

New recommendations in the executive budget call for spending $11,600,000 on the state's water planning, development and administration activities during the next two years.

This is $6,700,000 more than the present level of $4,900,000. (A 137% increase.)

Broken down by agencies the budget proposals for 1968-1969 call for:

- * $7,500,000 for the Texas Water Development Board, ($3,500,000 more than the present budget of $4,000,000.)

- * $2,400,000 to a separate, greatly-enlarged Water Pollution Control Board. (Presently spending $103,223.)

- * $1,700,000 to the Water Rights Commission. (Now $792,987.)

These boards requested $9,400,000; $4,100,000; and $1,160,000 respectively.

Highlights of Gov. John Connally's recommendations include:

- * Funds for increasing the staff of the Water Development Board to 245 employees (from 182). Also to expand services to implement the statewide water plan and "provide for continued state leadership in water resources planning and development."

- * Establishment of the Water Pollution Control Board as a separate state agency with its own staff of 45. (It now has only four regular employees.)

- * Enlargement of the Water Rights Commission staff from 48 to 63 and strengthening of its role in rights administration and determination.

- * Adoption of a strong administrative water rights adjudication act.

- * Financing a WPCB-River Authority cooperative water quality monitoring and surveillance program in metropolitan industrial areas ($375,000 a year) to help formulate beneficial water quality standards and enforce water quality permit conditions.

- * Continuing supervision of Texas river compacts by the Water Rights Commission.

"These recommendations represent not a cost but an investment for the present and future benefit of all Texas," stated Connally.

SALT WATER PIT BAN URGED--A House salt water pollution control committee has asked the Railroad Commission for authority to issue a statewide ban on salt water disposal pits.

The Commission has approved no-pit orders for 43 counties and isn't sure a statewide ban is necessary.

A House committee also recommended a law against dumping of salt water on public roads or public land and licensing of salt water haulers and disposal operators.

APPOINTMENTS--Charles R. Schulte, El Paso attorney, has been named by the governor as resignation of Judge David E. Mulcahy.

George M. Cowden, state representative from Waco, will be the state's First Assistant Attorney General when Attorney General-elect Crawford Martin assumes office in January, Martin has announced. A special election will be held on Jan. 7 to choose Cowden's successor in the House.

J. Pat O'Keefe is moving from State Democratic Committee to the Texas Fine Arts Commission as executive director.

The Texas Chamber of Commerce Association at its meeting here named Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde its chairman; Jack Drake of Weslaco, secretary; and Fred Pool of Longview, treasurer.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS--County tax assessors cannot "back assess" houses for previous years when they were erroneously left off tax rolls, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in a Houston controversy.

In other opinions, Carr ruled a motor fuel tax increase could not finance removal of billboards or screening of junkyards under the highway beautification act.

Also, a state agency can retain its own legal "house counsel", but official state attorneys must represent it in court.

FAIR TRIAL-FREE PRESS COMMITTEE MEETS--A study committee made up of newsmen, lawyers and legislators agreed here that no legislation is needed to regulate crime and trial news coverage.

The fair trial-free press panel recommended self-discipline for press, radio and television to insure protection of constitutional rights of accused.

Six members of the committee endorsed a five-point statement of principles presented by Felix McKnight of the Dallas Times Herald. Statement advised voluntary restraint in publication of confessions, editorials which might influence a jury or a judge, testimony excluded from a jury, reference to past criminal records of the accused and statements of lawyers and officers concerning guilt or innocence prior to trial.

MIXED DRINK CAMPAIGN FORMING--A large-scale, businesslike campaign for legalization of mixed alcoholic beverages is shaping up quietly behind the scenes.

A House-based Citizens Committee is being organized with high-level membership in all areas. It already has an executive secretary and press agent.

San Antonio's HemisFair and Houston's competition for really-big-time convention trade will add strength to the biennial campaign to convince the Legislature that liquor laws should be liberalized.

There is no indication the dries have relaxed their opposition.

MODELS UNVEILED--The University of Texas has unveiled its models of the Lyndon B. Johnson Library, together with an associated library and research building to house the Lyndon B. Johnson Institute of Public Affairs.

The complex, to cost $10,750,000 is to be built from income from the University's endowment fund made up of income from its oil lands. Included will be 100,000 square feet of space to house the LBJ papers during his political career. It will be turned over to the National Archives for operation.

A 19-acre hill, covering eight city blocks east of the main university campus, overlooking Memorial Stadium and the campus, will be the library center site.

WELFARE EXECUTIVE DIES--John H. Winters, one of the state's senior administrators, died last week following a long illness. The former Potter County commissioner had headed the State Department of Public Welfare since 1943. He was 64.

SHORT SNORTS Legislative Budget Board will convene here on Dec. 12 to look over spending proposals of its staff.

State Rep. Tom Holmes of Granbury proposes a cent-a-bottle tax on soft drinks (yield $25,000,000) to help finance a raise in teachers' pay.

Seasonally-adjusted index of construction shows a drop (16 per cent from year earlier) for the fourth consecutive month. Total for October was $106,200,000, compared with $125,000,000 one year ago.

Annual meeting of the Texas Mosquito Control Association will be held here on Dec. 13-14.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDermott of Dallas have been awarded the official Texas Award for Historical Preservation by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee for contributing money to renovate the old Gillespie County Courthouse at Fredericksburg.

More than 26,000 members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will cosponsor the cultural resources inventory now being conducted by the state of Texas through its newly-appointed Fine Arts Commission headed by John Ben Shepperd of Odessa.

HOSPITAL GRANTS--State Board of Health will meet on December 11-12 to decide how to allocate the $17,300,000 in federal Hill-Burton grants among the 80 Texas health facilities which apply for over $43,000,000.

This federal appropriation is slightly above the $16,900,000 allocated to Texas for 1966 grants.

These federal grants will be matched with local money for health modernization and expansion programs. Total cost of the improvements sought in the applications is $104,917,000. Since the amount requested is so much more than the amount available, the health board will have to sift through the applications and recommend the most pressing ones for acceptance.

EAST TEXAS OIL--Railroad Commission has been given proposals by five oil companies for changing the method of allocating oil allowances in the East Texas Field to eliminate what the companies said was discrimination.

Atlantic Richfield, Mobil, Sun, Cities Service and Superior oil companies all put forth widely different plans to eliminate both inequities within the field between marginal and profitable wells and inequities between the East Texas Field and other fields in the state.

The city of Kilgore Chamber of Commerce and other local governmental bodies oppose all changes.

JEWELLED CHRISTMAS TREE--Old jewelry, styrofoam, pins, gold spray paint, green paper, doilies, braid and "plenty of patience and ingenuity" went into making this lovely Christmas tree centerpiece, according to Mrs. Tom Smith, who was the "builder" of this one. Each side has a different design which is made of old jewelry pinned into a styrofoam cone covered with green paper. Mrs. Smith says there are thousands of ways one might design a tree and it is a fascinating way to use up old jewelry.

Future Homemakers

'MR. SNOWMAN' was the center attraction of the refreshment table at the homemaking cottage Tuesday, when the freshmen homemaking girls presented a style show for their mothers.

Home Ec. Girls Present Show

Freshman homemaking girls presented a style show in the Homemaking Cottage, Tuesday, Dec. 6, with their mothers as special guests.

Hostesses Josephine Springer and Cora Martinez greeted the mothers at the door and gave them a tour of the cottage, showing the sewing department and cooking department.

Refreshments of fruit cake, fruit cookies and punch were served from a table laid with a cloth of red net over red cloth adorned with Christmas decorations. Serving were Susan Cannon, Judy Meadows, Kathy Peterson and Margaret Thomas.

The style show, narrated by Brenda Leonard, featured the dresses that the girls had recently made in classes.

Participating in the style show were Thelma Batee, Judy Meadows, Katherine Johnson, Joyce Lambert, Sandee Coleman, Carmen Robertson, Dolores Pedroza, Kathy Peterson, Susan Cannon, Margaret Thomas, Minnie Davis, Cora Martinez, and Brenda Leonard. Josephine Springer and Andrea Heredia each made dresses but did not model them.

ERSHEL JOHNSON proudly displays the 10-point deer he shot when he and his wife and brother, Lenrel, were in Arboles, Colo., hunting last week.

Colorado Deer Hunt Proves Fruitful For Olton Man

"When I looked up on that mountain side and saw him, I just couldn't believe it."

This was what Ershel Johnson had to say about a ten-point mule deer he shot while on a hunting trip last week at the Southern Ute Indian Reservation at Arboles, Colo.

Johnson, his wife and his brother all returned home Monday night from a trip to Colorado, where the Johnsons had the good fortune to each down a deer.

Ershel shot a 10-point mule deer and Lenrel got a six-pointer.

The hunt, an annual post-season deer hunt, was managed through the Southern Ute Tribal Council, with headquarters at Iganico, Colo. A three-day hunt, one may hunt by special permit, which is obtained only through the tribal council.

Johnson commented that "we had permits to shoot two deer each, but a snow storm ran us out. It had rained before it began to snow and we decided when it began to snow, it was time for us Texas Hunters to head for home."

Johnson explained that this type deer had horns that flattened out toward the points, rather than being tubular in shape like most other deers. He also pointed out that "they are called Colorado mule deer because they have ears like a mule."

When asked if he was pleased with the size animal he got, he commented, "He field-dressed out about 180 pounds and that's a near record."

He added that he intends to have the head mounted and put up in his den.

Hart Camp Happenings

The ladies of the Baptist Church are meeting each morning this week at 9:30 for their annual Lottie Moon Week-of-Prayer programs. Mrs. Elma Burleson, local prayer chairman, was in charge of the program Monday morning, which was "Behold the Lamb of God as a Healer." Tuesday, Mrs. L. W. Sullivan had charge of the program which was "Behold the Lamb of God-as Teacher." Each day the program topic will follow the theme for the week which is "Behold the Lamb of God." Ladies present and taking part on the program were Mmes. M. W. Wheeler, Blanton Martin, John Nelson, Dewey Parkey, Elma Burleson, L. W. Sullivan and Edwin Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oliver, co-leaders of the Royal Ambassador boys, and Mrs. Blanton Martin, counselor of the Junior G. A. Girls, entertained the groups with a hamburger supper Friday night in the Edwin Oliver home. Following the supper, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Oliver finished reviewing the mission study book, "My Island of Sumatra." All of the boys and girls took part in the discussion and playing of games which emphasized and reviewed the book. Present other than Mr. and Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Martin, were Don Parkey, Greg Burleson, Danny Leonard, Jerry Hendrick, Steve Parkey, Debbe Oliver and a guest, Ramona Neinast.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pressley spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter and family, and daughter, Elizabeth, in Wichita, Kan.

Mary Bess Smith was one of six Olton High School girls participating in the district "Sew it With Wool" contest held on the Tech Campus in Lubbock Saturday. The girls were all in the Homemaking 3 class of Olton High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parkey and sons spent Thanksgiving Day at Floydada with Parkey's brother and family. Thirty members of the Jarrett relatives were present for the dinner. They also visited Parkey's sister, Mrs. Gladys Higgins and children, and his mother, Mrs. Jack Parkey.

Saturday the Dewey Parkey family visited in Lubbock in the home of Parkey's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Parkey and family. All of the Parkey brothers and sisters were present for the Thanksgiving celebration. Mrs. Laules Parkey was also present; she is the step-mother of the Parkey children. There were 36 relatives present at this gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Neinast and children, Ramona, Cindy and Jeff, left Wednesday afternoon before Thanksgiving for Dateland, Ariz. where they spent the holidays with Neinast's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Neinast and children. Mark Neinast, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Neinast, accompanied the Aubrey Neinast family as far as Las Cruces where he spent the holidays with Dennis Hines.

Visitors in the Nolan Hukill home Thanksgiving Day were her mother, Mrs. Pearl Jones of Littlefield and a sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Broadus and family of Littlefield.

Ramona Neinast spent Friday night in the Edwin Oliver home with Debbe Oliver.

Mrs. Loree Clark, Knox City and Mrs. C. G. Clarke of Abilene visited Thursday in the Dan Puckett home and the E. P. Oliver home.

Mrs. Larry Lewis, formerly Jerolyn Timmins of this community, was honored with a bridal shower Monday afternoon at the Lions Club Building in Whitharrel.

A Brotherhood meeting was held Monday night at the Baptist Church. The Brotherhood president, Edwin Oliver, was in charge of the business meeting after which several ladies of the local WMS brought a program which they had earlier on Monday in their Week-of-Prayer program. Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Elma Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Martin, The Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Nelson, L. W. Sullivan, Fay Moore, D. R. Leonard, Ed Kinsky, and Edwin Oliver.

An uncle of Mrs. Don Muller, Ben Forcher of Littlefield, is scheduled to have surgery later this week in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Mrs. Edwin Oliver received word last week that her brother, N. I. Mitchell of Fort Worth had emergency surgery on Monday for a bleeding ulcer. He will be confined to the hospital for at least a couple of weeks.

Kenneth Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, was one of the three Olton Mustang football boys named to All-District second team. He was named for a corner-back spot on the second team group.

Steve Burleson received a honorable mention at end on the defensive unit.

Hart Camp boys and girls named on the Olton Junior High and Olton High School honor roll for the last six weeks were "A" students, Gary Parkey, Brenda Leonard, Steve Parkey, and Kathy Langford. "B" students were Lajuana Burleson, David Neinast, Wanice Neeley and Helen Ruth Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caddell and Kathy visited in Sundown Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Caddell. Also visiting there was Joe's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Caddell and children, of Springfield, Colo.

Mrs. Elma Burleson, counselor of the Intermediate G. A. girls of the Baptist Church and all of her G. A. girls met Friday evening at the Baptist Church for a salad supper and book review. Mrs. Burleson reviewed the mission study book, "Few Among Many" by Mrs. Marjorie Bennett. Girls present were Sharon Hendrick, Lesa Nelson, Lajuana Burleson and Brenda Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Muller and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Langford were in Lubbock Monday to visit K. W. Mahaffey who is seriously ill in the Methodist Hospital. He had surgery there two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Martin visited their daughter, Suzanne, at Wayland Baptist College Tuesday afternoon. While in Plainview Mrs. Martin attended a meeting of "Women For Wayland". They also visited in Lubbock at the Methodist Hospital with Mr. K. W. Mahaffey, Martin's nephew, David Dabbs, was released from the Methodist Hospital last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Muller, Donna and Bryan were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Muller.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Loman are in the process of moving to Paul's Valley, Okla. They have two sons and their families living there and they will live near them. The Loman's have lived here several years, living on and farming the Kesey farm just south of Hart Camp.

Mrs. H. J. Loman accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Willard Loman to Paul's Valley Saturday where she is visiting her son, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells visited in Littlefield Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Wells parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Neinast.

Jackie Overman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Overman, has been awarded a Sears Roebuck Gilt in 4-H work. He had to write an essay on "Why I want a Sears Roebuck Gilt" and his essay won.

Jimmy Overman visited in the T. B. Wheeler home Tuesday night to help plan a 4-H Christmas program to be held Thursday night in the American Legion Hut in Olton. Officers for the new year will also be installed. Jimmy will be installed as the new president.

Segregation Is On The Decline

Segregation in Texas schools is on the way out. All but four of Texas 1,303 school districts have filed intentions to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act with the U. S. Office of Education, says the Texas Education Agency.

Out of 283,426 Negro students enrolled in state schools a total of 84,575 are in substantially integrated schools.

Of the 1,875,352 white pupils tabulated, 718,537 were on integrated campuses, and an additional 401,497 were on campuses having a small percentage of Negroes. There were 504 on campuses having a predominantly Negro enrollment.

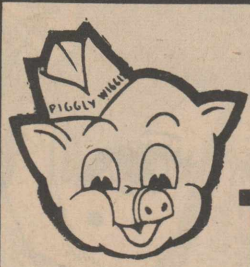

"Of the 754,814 white pupils on campuses without Negro pupils, 285,231 resided in school districts having no Negro pupils," the report said.

Major sanction against a district failing to comply with the Civil Rights Act is the loss of funds under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, which this year totals a little more than $66,000,000 for Texas schools.

Winter Sports May Bring Sunburn To Participants

Why talk about sunburn in midwinter?

Because outdoor winter sports, especially skiing, sometimes are accompanied by sunburn fully as severe as that of swimmers at the seashore in midsummer.

Of course, the winter sunburn is confined to face and neck, rather than most of the body, but it can be just as painful on the exposed parts of the body as summer sunburn.

Today's Health, the family magazine of the American Medical Association, points out that the sunburning effect of sunshine is due in large part to the ultraviolet radiation that accompanies the visible light.

These ultraviolet wave lengths, intense in outer space, are partially filtered by the atmosphere as they reach the earth. In the higher altitudes, the sunlight does not pass through so deep a layer of atmosphere, and so the burning effect is more intense. And another factor is reflected radiation bouncing off the bright snow cover.

Since overexposure to sunlight is, in general, injurious and hastens the aging of skin, purposeful exposure should be avoided. Protective clothing should be and usually is worn in winter, except in the heat of spring skiing.

There are a number of sun-screening agents which are helpful when applied to the skin. These include preparations containing benzophenones and preparations consisting of 15 per cent para-amino benzoic acid (PABA) in a cream base, as well as preparations containing physical sunscreens such as zinc oxide and titanium dioxide.

In general, the protective agents must be applied frequently because perspiration, rubbing and accidental falls into the snow will remove them.

Experienced skiers already have learned to beware of winter sunburn. Those heading for the slopes for the first time this season are cautioned to guard against burning.

LCC Chorus To Perform

The Lubbock Christian College Meistersinger Chorus will present a program of religious music Sunday, December 11, at 7:30 p. m. in the gymnasium of Hart High School.

Songs selected for the performance include "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel; "Christ is Born" by Boberg; "Beautiful Savior" by Christiansen; "Ain't That Good News", a Negro spiritual by Dawson; and selected hymns.

Narrations by men in the group tie in the different songs to fit the theme of "The Story of Jesus." Special music at halftime intermission will be provided by a women's octet and men's quartet.

The chorus is composed of 54 young people from seven different states and two foreign countries. They take extended concert tours through Texas, New Mexico and Colorado. The Hart stop is part of a short three-day trip through the Panhandle.

Charles Cox, a native of Florence, Ala., is beginning his sixth year as director of the Meistersingers. One of the chorus members, Paula Brooks, is from Hart.

Allen J. Doggett Gets Promotion

Allen J. Doggett, son of Mrs. Tempie Doggett, was appointed to the grade of Specialist Four E-4, Nov. 6.

Mrs. Doggett received word from her son's commanding officer this week stating his promotion and that "Allen has been doing an outstanding job since his assignment and is a definite asset to this organization. At present his health and morale seem to be very good, and his conduct in Vietnam has been above reproach."

Oil Production Reaches 1 Million

Texas oil production reached the one billion barrel total in 1965 for the first time since 1957, figures compiled by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association show.

There were 1,000,749,000 barrels of crude oil, valued at more than $3 billion, produced in 200 of the 254 counties during 1965, statistics show.

Since production records began 70 years ago, the state has produced a total of 28,403,016,481 barrels of crude.

Andrews County continued to be the leading county in oil production, with 76,908,300 barrels, although all sections of the state have several high producing fields.

"The state's excellent oil and gas conservation system must be given credit for the widespread and continuing development of production throughout Texas," said W. A. Landreth, Fort Worth, independent operator who is president of Texas Mid-Continent.

"Under our state laws, administered ably by the Texas Railroad Commission, the state's petroleum resources development has been encouraged from the driller to the refiner."

Lamb County had a 1965 crude production of 176,300 barrels to bring its total to 9,193,600 barrels since its first discovery in 1940. Its 1965 production rate averaged 483 barrels a day.

In 1965, Texas had three counties that produced in excess of 40 million barrels. Besides Andrews, Ector County had a total of 61,266,600 barrels and Crane County produced 43,952,300 barrels.

In addition, five other counties produced more than 20 million barrels in 1965 and an additional 24 had production in excess of 10 million barrels.

Gregg remains the only county in the state that has produced more than two billion barrels, while three other counties — Rusk, Ector and Andrews — have produced more than one billion.

Dec. 1 Cotton Estimate Below Nov. 1 Estimate

The Dec. 1 estimate of cotton production from the 23 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., totals 1,313,500 bales, 104,750 bales below the estimate made on Nov. 1.

Estimates are made jointly by PGC and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange each year on the first of each month, August through December.

The drop from the Nov. 1 estimate is generally ascribed to under guessing the damage done by the mid-October freeze which blanketed much of the area.

The three classing offices on the Plains, at Lamesa, Brownfield and Lubbock, through Dec. 1 had received 1,048,000 bales for classing. So, based on the final production estimate, the area harvest was something like 80 per cent complete at that time.

Through Dec. 1 last year, the three offices had only received 531,000 bales, which was less than 45 per cent of the 2,205,000 bales finally harvested.

The Oct. 1 estimate for this year, made after beneficial rains and before the devastating October freeze, set the High Plains crop at 1,585,000 bales. If the final estimate of 1,313,500 bales is assumed correct, then, the early freeze can be said to have cost the area 271,500 bales or about 17 per cent of anticipated production.

The untimely cold weather also contributed to the lower quality of this year's crop, down in every category excepting staple length.

As of Nov. 25, the date of PGC's latest semi-monthly quality report, micronaire on this year's cotton stood at a 3.3 average, compared to 3.5 at a period last year when only a little greater percentage of the area crop had been harvested.

Pressley, or fiber strength, this year averaged 73,900 pounds per square inch to Nov. 25, compared to 78,300 pounds for the comparable period last year.

At about the same point in the harvest, percentage-wise, in 1965, 65 per cent of the crop graded white. This year only 12.6 per cent fell in that category.

The reverse is true of staple length. Staple of the 1966 crop as of November 25 was averaging 30.7 thirty-seconds of an inch, with 18.2 per cent one inch or longer. Last year, on a similar percentage of the total crop, staple averaged 30.3 thirty-seconds, with only 9.5 per cent one inch and longer.

STUDENT-OF-THE-MONTH for October is Albert Salas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Salas. He has two sisters and two brothers. Albert is known to be cooperative, friendly, hard working and a good sport. He was an honor roll student last month, and participates in football and other athletics.

Olton P-TA Hears Report On 'Financing Education'

Olton Parent-Teachers Association met Thursday, Dec. 1, in the school cafeteria. Superintendent Ray Schultz was featured speaker on the subject "Financing Public Education."

The invocation was led by the Rev. Tommy Nelson, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olton. Mrs. M. C. Church, PTA president, gave the welcome and made announcements concerning a parliamentary procedure course to be offered each Monday evening and to be taught by Mrs. Jack Strong, district PTA president, from Lubbock. The public is invited to attend these studies which began December 5.

Mrs. William Cottrell Jr. read the minutes of the last meeting, after which Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Virginia Moss and Mrs. Ed Thompson brought reports of the State PTA

Convention in Austin, to which they were delegates.

As speaker for the evening, Schultz pointed out the receipts and expenses necessary for the financing of the local school. State and local are principal sources in providing funds, while instruction, administration, transportation, maintenance, upkeep and others are expenditures in rank of importance.

An eighth grade girls' trio sang three numbers. Rita Graham, Jo Ellen Spain and Janie Jones composed the trio, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Bob Allford.

A refreshment hour followed the meeting. The Olton PTA meets each first Thursday night of the month. Rooms winning room count this month were the fourth grade of Mrs. Carl Hooper, the eighth grade in junior high and the junior class in high school.

STUDENT-OF-THE-MONTH for November is D'Lyle Wilks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Wilks. D'Lyle has two sisters, Teresa and Nan. She is on the junior high basketball team and is a twirler for the Junior High Band.

Texas' new Air Control Board came up with a tentative plan for regulation air pollution starting in 1967.

Plan includes air quality surveys and continuing studies particularly in urban areas, assistance in developing local programs, procedure for investigating complaints and plans for public education on pollution hazards.

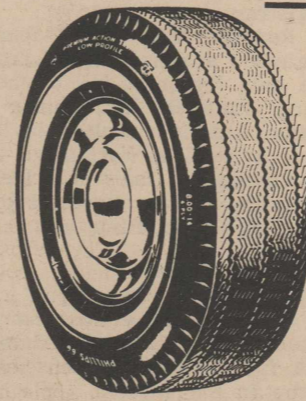

Board is thinking about a graduated set of standards for industrial emissions from cotton gins, petrochemical plants, dry cleaning establishments and any other that could possibly add pollutants to the air.

Although the plan is directed toward pollution from smoke and particulate matter, board members indicated it would be made to apply to other air pollution sources after six to eight months compliance notice.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

BOB DUNCAN - PAULA CROSS

DUNCAN'S 5&10

Chit Chat

BY SANDEE GREGORY AND JANE ANN DUNCAN

Who goes to basketball games?

Our basketball kids play their hearts out to win, not for themselves, but for the school and community. They need all the support they can get.

We thought we'd let you hear what the players think of all this and how much it means to them.

Does the support and turnout of the student body and town effect the playing of basketball players?

Coach Cagle: WHAT TURN-OUT AND WHAT SUPPORT?

It would help the players if they knew more of the students and the town people were behind them. Half the students in school don't know when our next ballgame is going to be.

We definitely need more support from both students and town in order to create more interest in basketball. The boys and girls that play like to be encouraged to play and to enjoy basketball. But they aren't always encouraged to play here; sometimes they are discouraged against basketball.

Basketball is a great game to watch as well as play and we would love to have everyone out for every ballgame.

Lannie McClain: I like to have a lot of people there to yell for the team and give their support. When you know the town and everybody is behind you when you are playing, you put a little more effort into it. But if nobody cares to give their support, you feel unimportant and don't feel like giving your best. The fans make the game more exciting, so the more fans, the more exciting the game will be.

MacArthur says Amen!

Kay Schultz: I play basketball for several reasons, one of which is to represent my school and community. If the students, teachers, and community don't care enough to come to the game, then how can we, the players, care enough to play our best? When there is a large crowd at a game, I feel I must play my best to keep from disappointing the spectators. I appreciate each person that takes the time to support us, and we shall continue to do our best for you!

Kenneth Johnson: Well, it lets me know that the student body is behind me all the way, and while I'm on the floor I'm setting an example for some little fellow up in the stands. It gives me more fight to know that there is someone in the stands yelling their head off just for me as well as the team. The support of the student body, the town, and the faculty gives me the spirit to do the best I can when I'm on the field or on the floor.

Coach Meadows: I suppose, everyone likes to feel that people care about what they do, and I'm sure everyone will give a better effort to any activity if they know someone cares. When the student body and townspeople support the basketball teams by coming to the games, every player gives just a little more of herself to the game and the results are usually rewarding. Every girl who takes part in the girls' athletic program learns early that she is not playing for herself, but for Olton High School and the community of Olton. A girl works hard and long to earn the privilege of representing her school and community. Therefore, it is only proper that the school and community should support her in her game efforts. A steamed up crowd can make a team rise to heights that they never believed possible!

Karen Hipp: I guess I am no exception to the fact that people wish to perform and do perform better when there is an audience. I personally have a greater desire to win when the Olton fans are present. When they are not present, winning does not seem quite as important. After all, we Fillies aren't out there on the court just playing for our own glory. We are playing for Olton High School and Olton, Texas. I, however, have learned not to let the absence of Olton fans affect my playing because I know a victory for the Fillies is still a victory for Olton High School, whether Olton High School cares or not.

GO FILLIES GO MUSTANGS

The two varsity teams traveled to Friona to attend a tournament held there last weekend.

The Fillies won their first two games against Cotton Center and Farwell, but they fell to the Friona Squaws to end up in second place.

The Mustangs won their first game but failed to end up on top in the scoring in their last two games of the tournament.

Both teams are looking forward to the Springlake tournament this weekend.

The Junior Varsity will go to Hart Friday and Saturday for their tournament.

Two victories were accomplished Tuesday night by the two varsity ball clubs.

Lynn McGill netted 16 points and following close behind Kay Schultz and Karen Hipp both scored 14 points each. Pam Foster led in rebounds with 13. Mustang Lannie McClain dropped 16 points to lead in that division. The boys' game was filled with excitement and quite a few surprising incidents.

GO - FIGHT - WIN

It's that time of year when everyone is trying to please his parents to the utmost, hoping for that special something you've been hinting about for the past six months. Yes, Christmas season is here! And also time for parties - - parties of fun and excitement.

FHA is having a whopper next Monday night! We're going to have some very special guests and it should be full of fun. There's something unusual about this party though! Everyone is to dress up in some form of costume that reminds them especially of Christmas. A prize will be given to the one with the most "original" dress. Santa says come along and we'll all have a real good time!

A "Winter Concert" will be given Dec. 15 by the Elementary Junior High Choirs and the Olton High School Mustang Chorale. The choirs have been selling tickets for this occasion for a couple of weeks. Money raised will help purchase choir robes for OHS choir. Sure hope you all get those robes!

Also, the school bands will present a Christmas concert the following Sunday, Dec. 18. We hope to see everyone there!

Seniors were measured for caps and gowns last week and were quite excited about the event. It won't be long either, after semester there will be only 85 more days of school.

Our FHA recently attended a study of Parliamentary Procedure sponsored by the local PTA. We learned things such as the correct way of electing officers, and rules for making amendments to our constitution. Most of the girls benefitted from the program, and we'll have to admit, the sponsors learned quite a bit, too!

The Olton High School band is selling fruit cakes again this year. The selling won't last long so if you care to buy a cake and have not been asked, be sure and get in contact with one of the band members.

WHO'S WHO

Cindy, why are you shch a "killer"??!

We hear that there's a new match-maker in school??!

Remember, Karen, we still owe you something!!

Sunya, what's this we hear about you last Saturday night??

Sissy, we hope you get to feeling better!!

Carol, too bad you didn't get to go to Littlefield again this week-end??!

Robbie, what was on your gear shift the other day??

ALL FOR FUN

We over heard a conversation between David Norfleet and his father, and it went something like this:

"Can't you do anything right? All you do lately is make mistakes!" shouted Mr. Norfleet.

"We learn from our mistakes!" replied David.

"Then you have a brilliant future ahead of you!"

Didja hear about the Alaskan students who were touring the other 49 states by train?

They bought a bunch of bananas at the store because they'd never seen them before. One of the students took a bite of his banana just as the train entered a tunnel. He turned to the others and shouted, "Don't eat the bananas!"

"Why not?" asked his friends.

"I took only one bite of mine and I've gone stone blind!"

One reason the big apples are always on top of the basket is the fact that there are always a lot of little ones holding them up there.

Here are some real swingers you might enjoy:

What kind of a train carries bubble gum?

A chew chew train!!

What day of the week do witches ride their brooms?

Fly day!!

What can I do to make me rise and shine?

Eat yeast and shoe polish!!

If a dog's tail wore out, where could he get a new one?

At a re-tail store, of course.

If I do not believe as you believe, it proves that you do not believe as I believe, and this is all that it proves.

"YOU'RE ONLY AS OLD AS YOU FEEL" seems to be the sentiment of Mrs. Annie Moore as she takes a ride with her great-grandson, Gail McClain, on his motorcycle recently. Mrs. Moore will be 82 years old New Year's Day.

Richard Redinger On Honor Roll

Richard Redinger, Olton High School graduate was named to the Dean's Honor Roll at Wayland Baptist College, according to Mrs. Audrey Boles, registrar.

Redinger was one of four Plainview students listed and the only freshman boy on the Honor Roll. He is a music major and is enrolled in 18 hours of study at Wayland.

Redinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick A. Redinger of 823 Itasca Road, Plainview.

Wish to thank our many friends for the prayers, flowers, food and kind words of sympathy in the passing of our nephew, John Dennington.

KITCHEN KORNER

By Lela Gallion

The Christmas Holidays are upon us and Christmas will be here before we hardly realize it. The season usually brings out the best in us if at no other time of year. Let us all examine our hearts and minds and see if we are really doing good unto all others as we profess to be doing or if we are hurting others by our own acts to please ourselves. Share some Christmas Candy with friends or give to those who you can not think of anything to buy for them.

MARSHMALLOW FUDGE

Mix in a heavy 2 quart saucepan:

- 2 1/4 c. sugar
- 2/3 c. evaporated milk
- 1/4 c. butter
- 5 oz. jar marshmallow creme

5 minutes. Remove from heat and add: 6 oz. pkg. semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Beat until chocolate is completely melted and blended into mixture. Pour into buttered 9 inch square pan. Cool thoroughly. Cut into 1 1/2 inch squares. Makes 2 lbs.

MARTHA WASHINGTON CANDY

Mix together:

- 2 boxes powdered sugar
- 4 c. chopped pecans
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 can Angel Flake cocoanut
- 1/2 lb. melted oleo
- 1 can Eagle Brand milk

Roll into small balls. Melt in top of double boiler:

- 12 oz. dipping chocolate
- 1/2 pkg. paraffin

Chill balls of candy, then dip in chocolate and paraffin mix by inserting toothpick in balls of candy. Place on waxed paper.

ENGLISH TOFFEE

- 1/2 lb. butter
- vanilla
- 1 c. granulated sugar (1/2 may be brown sugar)
- 1 c. blanched almonds

Place butter over very slow fire, stir constantly. Slowly add sugar. Cook to hard ball stage when tested in cold water. Stir mixture constantly. If it separates, slowly add tablespoon sugar. Let boil slowly. When brittle, remove immediately from fire, add vanilla and almonds. Pour into buttered cookie sheet. Pour and spread in thin layer.

Turkey Shoot Set December 10
