C.E. Coffee Dies in Crash

A former Wellington man died and two others were injured in a two-vehicle collision which occurred at 9:45 p.m., 6.3 miles south of Wellington on Highway US 83.

Charles Edward Coffee, 30, now of Muskogee, Okla., died at 11:46 p.m. in Collingsworth General Hospital, where all three men were taken by Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service.

Injured in the accident were Selemom Camacho, 32, of Briscoe and Efrain Oranio, about 22, of Childress, who was identified as driver of the second vehicle.

DPS Trooper Herb Duncan, who headed the investigation, said Coffee was traveling north in a pickup.

The southbound car carrying Oranio and Camacho, drove into the northbound lane and struck the pickup almost head-on.

Oranio was later transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo with multiple injuries. His condition was reported as stable last Tuesday.

Camacho remained in Collingsworth General Hospital where a hospital spokesman said Tuesday evening his condition was stable.

Funeral services for Coffee will be conducted at 2

Cemetery Association Permanent Trust Set

The Wellington Cemetery Association and the City of Wellington are working out an agreement by which a perpetual care trust fund will be set up for the three Wellington cemeteries, Fairview, North Fairview, and Memorial Gardens.

County Judge Zook Thomas and Grant Wooldridge, president of Wellington Cemetery Association, met with the city council Monday night, May 2, to discuss plans.

The council unanimously approved the proposal on a motion by Councilman John Rainey and seconded by Councilman Lyndon Crelia.

The agreement will be drawn up by John T. (Buddy) Forbis, Childress attorney who grew up here.

It will call for a perpetual care trust fund to be set up, deriving its monies from memorial gifts and contributions made by the general public and members of families and friends of those who have died or from donations made by those who want to help the cemetery association through the trust fund.

The trust fund will be administered by the City.

The agreement will contain a provision that will make it binding on future city councils, so that the money can never be diverted from its original purpose, or spent in any other way.

The principal of the trust fund will never be spent, but the monies earned from the fund will be used to care for and maintain the three cemeteries.

Because neither of the Wellington banks has a trust department and rather than handle the fund through an out of county bank, the Cemetery Association chose to ask the city to set up and administer the trust fund.

City Manager Glen Taylor said the money placed in the trust fund will be invested in certificates of deposit or placed in Money Market funds, or other similar short-term investments, depending on which will pay the best rate of return at the time.

He emphasized that the trust fund will in no way affect the city budget, and there will be no way in which the monies of the trust fund and the city can be mingled.

Members of the Wellington Cemetery will receive

Herman Childress Dies In Traffic Accident Tues.

Herman H. Childress, 70-year-old Wellington businessman, died in a one-vehicle accident which occurred a short distance southeast of Memphis on Highway 287 at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday, May 3.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday, May 5 at the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Don Bland officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Gardens Cemetery under the direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

DPS Trooper Robert Byrd, who headed the investigation, said Mr. Childress was southbound on US 287. Witnesses reported that his vehicle veered to the right on the roadway, then swerved back across the road and into a bar ditch dividing the two sections of the highway.

At this point, the pickup rolled over one time and Mr. Childress was thrown out of the vehicle. There were two witnesses to the accident Trooper Byrd said.

One of these was Dr. Ralph Erdmann, forensic pathologist of Childress who was en route to Amarillo and who reached the accident scene immediately.

Trooper Byrd reported that the 1982 Dodge pickup truck was heavily damaged in the roll-over.

Just before Mr. Childress left Memphis, he drank coffee with two former Wellington residents whom he had known since high school: Mrs. Helen Combs

Clean-up Drive Set For May 9 through 13

The annual City-wide clean-up covering both residential and business areas will begin Monday, May 9 and continue through Friday, May 13.

The drive is sponsored jointly by the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce and City of Wellington.

City Manager Glen Taylor and Tommy Hudson, CC president is urging all residents to clean up their premises of trash, rubbish and refuse and put this in their alleys for pickup by the City trucks.

There will be only one pickup.

"If you want it hauled off, put it in the alley. If you have something in the alley you don't want us to pick up and haul off, then you must get it out of the alley," Taylor declared.

During the pickup, rubbish of all kinds and sizes will be picked up.

Hudson, said it will be appreciated if residents will clean up any adjoining vacant lots.

The free pick up will begin Monday morning. Trucks will cover the city in three sections. Starting at 1st and Haskell Streets, they will travel across town from Haskell to Highway 83, with 7th street as the end of the first segment.

The same pattern will be followed in covering the second segment, 7th to 15th Streets, and also for the third segments, south of 15th Street.

The city will not make a second pickup.

Again, Taylor emphasized that articles in the alleys that the owners do not want hauled off should be removed from the alley. "They City of Wellington cannot be responsible for any article hauled off by mistake."

Verdie Ketchum Recipient of Region 1 Award

Mrs. Verdie Ketchum of Los Angeles, California has been named the recipient of Region 1 Texas Conservation Award to the "Absentee Conservation Farmer/Rancher."

The award will be presented at the fifth annual Region 1 Texas Conservation Awards Program in Lubbock on May 6.

The award will be presented to Mrs. Ketchum for outstanding land management and conservation systems applied on her farms west of Quail and northwest of Wellington.

The award is presented to individuals who do not actually reside on their land or within the SWCD submitting the nominee, nor who depend fully upon their land for their livelihood.

Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District sponsored Mrs. Ketchum.

Tommy Powell, Soil Conservation Service director, made the announcement.

After talking with Mrs. Ketchum, he said that she and her husband, Oscar Ketchum, hope to attend the awards banquet, although she has been ill recently.

Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate plan to be at the banquet.

Mrs. Ketchum was named the outstanding Non-Resident Farmer/Rancher by Salt Fork SWCD earlier this year and was honored at the annual banquet of Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce.

Forty-eight soil and water conservation districts in the Panhandle and High Plains region of the state which covers a 51 county area are represented in the program, which is sponsored by the Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

The purpose of the awards program, which begins at 7 p.m. in the ballroom of the Student Union Building of Texas Tech University, is to acknowledge, recognize and honor individuals who have dedicated themselves to the conservation and wise use of renewable natural resources on their private land or who have contributed time and talent to promoting sound soil and water conservation in their communities.

Runner-up in the Absentee Conservation Farmer/Rancher category is Foster Parker of Happy. He was sponsored by the Palo Duro SWCD headquartered at Canyon.

Mrs. Ketchum's conservation achievement was made on deep sandy land, so often a problem to Collingsworth farmers and ranchers. Her program, which she carried out in close association with the soil and water conservation district and Soil Conservation Service, emphasizes the value of grass to this type of land.

formal notice of the perpetual care trust fund in the annual letters to be mailed by the association next week.

"There are two things we need to tell the people:

The principal of the trust fund will never be spent and no city council in the future will ever be able to change the purpose for which the fund was set up," declared Thomas.

The Association will emphasize that only the monies earned from the trust will be used for expenses incurred in upkeep of the three cemeteries.

In the future, Thomas and Taylor announced, all donations for the Cemetery Association trust fund should now be sent or brought to the City Secretary Nell McKinney, at the City Hall, or addressed to Box 949, Wellington, Texas 79095.

Judge Thomas has been deeply concerned about the care of the cemeteries for many years, and was one of those who helped to organize the Wellington Cemetery Association.

Allison Donnell Duchess of Buccaneer Days

Miss Elinor Allison Donnell was the duchess representing Classical Sculpture in "The Court of Treasured Art," held April 28 in the exhibit hall of the Bayfront Plaza Convention Center, Corpus Christi, Texas. This was the thirtieth annual pageant, held in conjunction with the city's annual Buccaneer Days celebration.

Miss Donnell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Addison Donnell of Corpus Christi and the granddaughter of Mrs. Clyde Drake and the late Mr. Drake. Mrs. Donnell is the former Elinor Drake.

Miss Donnell was the duchess of "Classical Sculpture." Her cerulean blue gown and train of velvet featured clouds of iridescent lame in pink, blue and gold. She held the blue and pink satin ribbon reins of Pegasus, who pranced above the clouds. One shoulder was draped with pale blue chiffon.

Mrs. Drake was in Corpus for the weekend of celebrations as were Dr. and Mrs. John R. Beauchamps of San Antonio, the former Francis Drake, aunt of the Duchess. Sixteen duchesses from Corpus Christi participated, along with 16 young ladies representing other Texas cities.

Reigning over all social activities was King Alonso XXX, named for Alonso Alvarez de Pineda, discoverer of Corpus Christi Bay, and the Queen and Princess of "The Court of Treasured Art." Festivities honoring the court began with a reception on Wednesday, April 27, and ended with an illuminated parade on Saturday, April 30.

Gowns worn by duchesses depicted the coronation theme by illustrating collectible art forms beginning with bronze and wood carvings and extending to decorative china, rare books and jewels.

The Buccaneer Coronation pageant, presented for the first time in 1954, is the city's largest and most spectacular community event. The entire program is sponsored and executed by the 50 members of Las Donas de la Corte. The women of Las Donas work closely, on a year around basis, with the Buccaneer Commission since the purpose of the Coronation presentation is the promotion of the traditional Buccaneer Days celebration in Corpus Christi.

UDC Members Hear of First Confederate Decoration Day

Sabine Pass Chapter 2459, United Daughters of the Confederacy held a salad luncheon Wednesday, April 27, in the Heritage Room.

During the business meeting, the group made plans to place small confederate flags on graves of Confederate soldiers buried in Collingsworth County cemeteries.

Mrs. J.R. Ross gave the program on the origin of Confederate Memorial Day, first called Decoration Day, which was originated in Jackson, Miss., April 26, 1865 by Miss Sue Adams, she pointed out.

"That first Decoration Day was conceived in sorrow and defeat. Mississippi's devoted daughters met on the 26th of April, 1965, at the cemeteries to garland the graves of the fallen brave in commemoration of their valor and patriotism."

The speaker continued: "Wandering among the graves of the cemetery, Miss Adams, accompanied by little girls, noticed a bare plot of mounds without flowers. 'Why they are northern soliders,' exclaimed the children. 'I will decorate them with my roses,' replied Miss Adams, 'for mothers and sisters sobbed prayers over them as they marched away.'"

Four states, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida still observe Decoration (or Memorial) Day on April 26.

Mrs. Monty Mitchell presided at the meeting and led the group through the rituals and pledges to the United States, Confederate and Texas Flags. Mrs. Lowell Wells led in singing the National Anthem, Dixie and Texas Our Texas.

Mrs. Roland Mayhugh, read the secretary's report and Mrs. Ross the treasurer's report. Mrs. Mary Jones received her certificate of membership and Confederate flag.

Members present were Mrs. George Porter, Mrs.

Louise Orr, Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. B.B. Martin, Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Joseph Graham, Mrs. C.R. DeArmond, Mrs. Russell Hill, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Mayhugh, Mrs. Ross, and a guest, Miss Virginia Robey.

Program on "Friends" Given For Excelsior Club Members

Excelsior Club members met Wednesday afternoon, April 20, in the Heritage Room with Mrs. Melvin Kiker as hostess and program leader.

In discussing "Friends," she defined friendship as a compound of esteem and love, which derives from one its tenderness and its permanence from the other.

She drew on Biblical illustrations of love, and added that "Life is a spring morning if you have a friend—someone to walk with and talk with and turn to. 'There is no one rich enough to be without a neighbor," she added.

In rounding out this portion of her program, Mrs. Kiker said, "A friend is the best possession any of us can have."

She continued her program with readings and quotations.

Mrs. Kiker, who is president, conducted the business session.

A dessert plate was served to two visitors, Mrs. Violet Potter and Mrs. James R. Ross, and to these members: Miss Bonnie Willis, Miss Rose Shadid, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Miss Marie Shadid, Mrs. Lowell Wells and the hostess, Mrs. Kiker.

CONSUMER RIGHTS RESPONSIBILITY

President Reagan has proclaimed April 24th to April 30th, 1983 as National Consumers Week. This is a good time to explore our consumer rights and responsibilities.

As consumers, we have the rights to accurate consumer information, to product safety, and to product choice.

Along with consumer rights, however, comes the responsibility to use consumer education programs and information which can help us function more effectively in the marketplace. Wauer at Appraisal Board Training Session

Ann Wauer, county tax assessor-collector attended a training and orientation seminar conducted by the State Property Tax Board training and orientation seminar conducted by the State Property Tax Board this week to familiarize Appraisal Review Board members with the authority, duties and administrative actions required of review boards.

The half-day seminar was held in Amarillo Thursday, April 28, at the Region 16 Education Service Center. Instructors are staff of the agency's Office of General Counsel and Education & Standards/Publications Division, Austin.

The ARB is a quasi-judicial panel of local taxpayers appointed by the directors of an appraisal district.

The panel's principal function is to examine property values generated by the appraisal district office, in order to ensure that all property subject to taxation within that district is listed on the appraisal roll and is valued fairly and uniformly under the law.

The board also has the authority to review applications for exemption and special valuation, as well as questions about ownership of property or identification of the jurisdictions in which it is taxable. At a hearing before the ARB, an individual taxpayer may protest or a taxing unit may challenge any of those aspects of taxability or property value.

According to Kenneth Graeber, executive director

Pictures of 4 Sheriffs Sought

If Sheriff Kenneth Maxwell can located the pictures of the State Property Tax Board, "The right to appear before the appraisal review board is the most important remedy available to taxpayers. In this way, you may discuss your concerns about your property valuation and exemptions in an informal session without resorting to litigation." Graeber stressed though, that the ARB has no authority over budgets or tax rates, which are set by the governing bodies of individual taxing units.

of four former sheriffs, he will have completed the collection of all who have served in that office since the county was organized in 1890.

These men, who served two-year terms rather than the present four-year, are: H.E. Singley, two terms, 1906-1910; L.T. Sullivan, two terms, 1910 to 1914; J.G. Neece, two terms, 1914 to 1918; and George Corey, who served one term, 1933 to 1935.

If pictures of these men are not available as a gift, then Sheriff Maxwell would like to borrow one long enough to have the picture copied, and the original will be returned to the owner.

Childress assumed the ownership and management of the Herman Childress Mattress Co., a career that he was still pursuing on the day of his death this week. He had just completed a delivery to Memphis and had a chair to be reupholstered on the back of his delivery truck when the accident occurred that took his life.

From time to time Childress employed handicapped workers in his mattress company, and for one five-year period employed a Hungarian refugee who spoke little English. Herman Childress knew handicapped employees were often excellent workers because his father had been blind. His father had learned his trade at the School for the Blind in Austin, and was blind all the years that he operated the mattress company.

He passed that vocation on to Herman Childress who recalled once that he knew how to make mattresses by the time he was 13.

It was a tradition that Herman Childress also passed on to his son, Herman Clyde Childress, who is now associated with the mattress company.

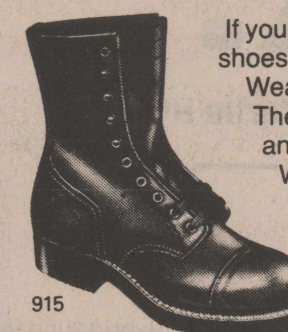

Childress is survived by his wife, one son, Herman Clyde Childress of Wellington, one daughter Mrs. Sam (Karen Kay) Norris of Pasadena, Ca., two grandchildren, and two sisters, Erma Faye Kersten and Elise Wilson.

TABS Test Results Here

Results of the Texas Basic Assessment Tests (TABS) given in February, have been received, according to Louis Graham, Wellington High School counselor.

Parents who have children in 3rd and 5th grades may see the results in his office in elementary school from 2 to 3:45 p.m. each school day.

Ninth grade students will be receiving their test results at the time they pre-enroll for next year, along with an interpretation. They should be bringing those home this week, Graham said.

If any parents from the 9th grade class would like to see the test results for themselves, they can come by the counselor's office in the high school from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

An overall view of the TABS test will be presented to the school board at its June 13 meeting.

"We plan to have a meeting in the fall for those who were unable to come by and see the test results and they will be able to compare the individual with the entire class results," said Graham.

Holy Sanctuary Plans Crusade

A revival and crusade will be held at Holy Sanctuary Church of God in Christ, beginning Monday, May 9, and continuing through Sunday, May 15, according to Elder Jimmy Barber, host pastor.

Evening services will be 7:30 p.m., and the closing service will be at 3 p.m.

Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church will assist in the crusade.

Evangelist Leroy Walker of Altus, Okla., will preach, and the West sisters of Altus, well known recording artists, will be in the revival, singing at some night services and ministering on other nights.

The public is invited, said Elder Barber.

Evangelist Walker has been preaching at Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church each Sunday for the last 6 months.

"We invite all the sick, crippled, disheartened and grieved to come down and we will be praying for each of them," said Barber.

"We will be walking the streets to see shut-ins and we will be going house to house distributing cards for special prayer requests.

"If you can't get to the meeting, call 447-5426 after 2 p.m. or 447-2471 at any time, and someone will pick you up," Barber said.

"All those who are sick, crippled, or need help should come by.

"Although the evening service is 7:30 p.m., all those who are sick, crippled or dispirited should come early for front seats," he continued.

These will not be long services, and won't last over two hours at most. On the closing Sunday, a special dress code will be request-

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks for the many kindnesses shown us and for the beautiful flowers, the food and cards of sympathy, prayers and memorials sent by our many friends at the time of the death of our loved one. May God bless each of you.

Susanna Seale, Sheldon, Shannon and Scotty, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Seale and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Needham, Jr., Sam and Bud, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Seale and Justin, Cindy Davis, Stephen, Wesley and Michael.

We would like to express our appreciation to all of you who were so kind to us during the passing of our loved one. Especially do we thank Dr. Kumar, the Wellington Ambulance Service, Larry Adams, all of our friends and neighbors who brought food, sent flowers, cards, memorials and generally made your presence felt during this time. God bless each one of you.

The Family of Ava Thomason
Roy Thomason
Troy, Kay, Terri, Jannon & Tommy

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to Clarence and Nell Wilbur for making the celebration of my 89th birthday a success, also to Ben Karnes for coming from Dallas to assist.

Thanks to Miss Alexa Karnes, Miss Denise Wilbur and Mrs. Vic Wilbur for helping serve.

Another surprise came when the Methodist Church began singing "Happy Birthday" just for me. With wonderful children and grandchildren and good christian friends growing old isn't so bad. I shall never forget the day of April 24, 1983.

Mary Karnes

My dear friends: I want to thank each of you for your prayers, visits, cards, flowers and gifts while I was in the hospital.

May God bless each of you.

Booker T. Washington Exes Plan Reunion

The Booker T. Washington Alumni-ex-students will hold their reunion in Wellington Friday through Sunday, June 17-19. The major goal of the group is to establish scholarships in honor of several individuals who contributed significantly in the education of black children.

Plans were announced by Dr. Francine Childs, a professor in the Center for Afro-American Studies, Ohio State University, in Athens. She is a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School, who returned as one of its teachers.

The Booker T. Washington Memorial Scholarship Fund is being established to pay tribute to several individuals who contributed significantly to the education of black youth in Wellington from the early twenties until their deaths.

They are: Prof. W.E. Brown, the first principal of Booker T. Washington High School in 1947; W.F. Simpson the second principal and W.E. Franks the last principal.

Prof. Pearson was the first head teacher of the two room brick building, which was later named Booker T. Washington.

Mrs. Clara V. "Mama Clara" Frazier, who used her car as the bus for children who had to walk 5-10 miles to school at the Methodist Church, and was instrumental in the building of the two room red brick school.

Norwood Barbecue Tickets Go On Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the barbecue which City State Bank is sponsoring for the benefit of the Samnorwood Fire Department on Friday, May 13, according to Kenneth Martindale, fire chief.

Price of the tickets is $4 for adults and $3 for children under 12 years. "Every cent is clear for the fire department," said Richard Fourmentin, acting president of City State Bank, and Martindale.

The barbecue will be held at Samnorwood School. Serving hours will be 5:30 to 7 p.m.

This is also the night of Samnorwood high school graduation and the hours were set so that those who plan to attend may eat a barbecue supper before going on to the commencement.

Those who want to drive out from Wellington after they get off work can attend the barbecue and still get back home early, Martindale pointed out.

All members of Samnorwood Fire Department are selling tickets and they are also available at City State Bank.

Don't pile other produce on top of eggplants in the refrigerator. They bruise easily.

Some people used to think hawthorne would protect a house from lightning.

Ex Countians at Coalinga

Two former Samnorwood residents, members of the Lowe family, are in the Coalinga, Calif., area, said their aunt, Mrs. Tom Cunningham.

They are Jim Lowe and Nelda Lowe Dericks.

Mrs. Cunningham was unable to reach them by phone following the earthquake that centered in the Coalinga area Monday.
