Top Area Teams Collide Tuesday

Colorado High's District 5-AAA basketball champs journey to Winters Tuesday night for a practice tilt with Brady Bulldogs, who won District 8-AAA crown. After Tuesday's encounter, the Wolves will mark time until Crane and El Paso Parkland decide the championship of District 6-AAA. Crane, who beat C-City in bidistrict play last year, will meet Parkland next Friday night, February 23, in Crane. Time and place of the bidistrict contest between C-City and the 6-AAA finalist, of course, will not be determined until after the Crane-Parkland contest. Parkland defeated Marfa 58-51, Friday night in Marfa to keep a perfect record as a zone champion in 6-AAA. Earlier in the week, Crane was upset by McConkey 62-60, but kept the championship of the other zone. Coach Caddo Matthews and his Wolves will oppose one of the strongest AA teams in Central and West Central Texas when they meet Brady Tuesday night in neutral gym in Winters. Colorado is ranked as the No. 1 team in Abilene Reporter-News Big Country AA area rankings. Brady with only one loss in district competition is No. 2, having moved up ahead of Hamlin after the Wolves defeated Hamlin for 5-AAA crown. While the Wolves were speaking by the Pied Pipers, 65-64, in the last second round was rallying for 17 points in the final period to barely beat San Saba, 59-58. That victory clinched the district title for Brady with a 9-1 mark. Johnny Jones and Walter Barnes, each with 10 points, led the Brady victory pace. The Colorado-Brady game Tuesday night will begin at 7:45 p.m. in Winters with admission 30 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. There will be no B-Team game, only the varsity. Coach Matthews said Saturday he did not know whether he would schedule another practice game before moving into the bidistrict playoff. His Wolves on the way to their 16-70 season. See Teams Page 5

Shubert & Sons of Abilene completed the two important wells as their No. 1-2F McDaniel and No. 1-36 McDaniel.

A third test is scheduled by the Abilene drilling firm in the same vicinity. The new discovery well is 1.5 miles west-northwest of Edwards, Mississippi field and 1.5 miles east of depleted Abilene field which originally produced from Pennsylvania, Fusselman and Yates sands.

The new discovery well, Shubert No. 1-2F McDaniel, reported as water with its daily flowing potential of 261 barrels of 41 gravity oil. Gas-oil ratio was logged at 725:1. Production is from perforations between 7,976 and 7,986 feet, after fracturing with 5,000 pounds of sand and 5,000 gallons of treatment. Flow was through 16.61-inch choke and tubing pressure was 125 pounds with sucker on casing, set at 8,006 feet over total depth of 8,010 feet. Baylor Signs Graves

Southwest Conference Signing Comes To C-City

Jeral Graves the big Colorado High football lineman is Baylor bound. He signed a pre-enrollment agreement with the Southwest Conference University here Thursday with Chuck Purvis, Baylor's No. 1 assistant coach, smiling approval. For Jeral the signing was the key to a long ambition to obtain his college education at Baylor. The Colorado High Senior was co-captain for the 1967

Wolf team and was a stand-out on both offense and defense. His tackles and tackle assists were always among the top defensive performers for the Wolves throughout the season. He also was credited with fine blocking as a center in line where his speed, despite his size, was a special asset. During the playing season Graves tipped the scales at about 202 pounds, but his 6 feet 3-inch frame now carries 210 pounds.

"We believe that Jeral's best football is in the front of him," Purvis said here Thursday at the signing. His production is based upon a study of Colorado High game films and the evidence that the lineman has not yet reached his full growth. Coach Purvis also liked Graves' long-time desire to go to Baylor. "There are far good number of boys who are overlooked by Southwest Conference schools because their high schools were not particularly outstanding or did not win a state championship," the Baylor coach said, "and we are glad to offer a young gentleman like Jeral the opportunity."

On The Line For Baylor

agreement with Baylor. Looking on from above are Colorado High Coach Truman Nix, left, and the athlete's parents, Mrs. H.B. Graves and Mr. Graves.

Dr. Chinn Speaker At B & PW Program

Business & Professional Women's Club heard Dr. John H. Chinn, mayor of Colorado City, speak on "Personal Development."

Tuesday night at their after-dinner program in Civic House. Dr. Chinn accented "Imperturbability and equanimity." One of the highlights of his address was the reading of excerpts of "Aquianimitas," a vocabulary address by Sir William Osler at University of Pennsylvania, May 1889.

"I'll call your attention to one sentence in this address," the speaker said. "A calm equanimity is the desirable attitude. How difficult to attain, yet how necessary in success as in failure."

Later he warned "Imperturbability must not be carried to the extreme that we accomplish hardening of the human heart by which we live. Physical and mental fitness are inseparable and the desirable situation is a sound mind in a healthy body, for only with sound mind and healthy body can we achieve true equanimity, a peace of soul," he concluded.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Howell Wed To A. Barton Smith, Jr., Saturday

Walnut Hill Methodist Church in Dallas was the setting for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Ann Howell and the Rev. Arnel Barton Smith, Jr., of Wichita Falls, Saturday, February 17, at six-thirty in the evening.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Louis Howell, 4632 Myrtlewood Lane, Dallas. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Arnel B. Smith, Sr., 801 East 5th St., Colorado City.

Double ring vows were heard by the Rev. John Brand, pastor of Walnut Hill Methodist Church in Dallas, and the Rev. C. D. Wooten, minister of visitation, Meadowbrook Methodist Church, Ft. Worth.

White candles in candle trees entwined with greenery decorated the altar. Organist Weldon Flanagan accompanied wedding soloist Joseph Porter who sang an arrangement for honor of I Corinthians, 13:13.

Escorted by her father the bride wore a gown of ivory puffed silk fashioned in the Edwardian tradition with ruffled sleeves and long cuffs buttoned with handball buttons which also fastened the back of the dress. An empire waistline was set off by a sash and soft bow in the back of the skirt which swept into a cathedral train.

Headpiece of the dress was a French bow with small pearl-centered rosettes. The veiled veil of ivory illusion was of bridal length. Bridal gown was designed by the bride who also designed and made the headpiece and veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses, anemones, and white orchids.

Maid of Honor was Mrs. Jack Rhoads of Nacogdoches, college roommate of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Martin and Miss Betty Jean Rea, both of Dallas, and Mrs. Donald Cunningham, sister of the groom, of Arlington.

Bridal attendants wore giraffe styled dresses of aqua pou-ou-ou with seersucker necklines and sleeveless bodices. Floor-length skirts had flowing panels at the back. French bows and rosettes were worn in their hair. Each carried an old-fashioned bouquet. The bride's bouquet was a large one, and was carried with both hands. The groom's bouquet was a small one, and was carried with one hand. The bride's bouquet was a large one, and was carried with both hands. Arnel Barton Smith, Jr., Formerly Miss Elizabeth Ann Howell of Dallas

Wife of Colorado City and Captain George B. Harrison, Major, U.S. Army, were Donald Cunningham of Arlington, Donny Welton, Lonnie Brooks of Los Angeles, Calif., and Lyndell Fletcher of Dallas.

Reception was held in the church parlor which was decorated in white with crystal serving pieces and white candles wreathed in white flowers and smylax.

Assisting as members of the houseparty were Mrs. Donald Koons, Mrs. Samuel Rea, Mrs. Charles McCoy, Mrs. Pringle Ramsey, all of Dallas, and Mrs. Gerald Beal of Richardson.

For a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, La., the bride chose a navy blue gabardine dress with matching belt, coat, red shoes and white felt hat.

Crater Lake is one of the six great wonders of the world. Mrs. Martin said it is a rich sapphire blue, 1000 feet deep and six miles across its surface. The lake was formed, she told the club, by an erupting, then disappearing volcano about 4600 years before Christ.

Record High Sales For Safeway

Safeway Stores, Incorporated, Sunday reported that for the 52 weeks ended Dec. 30, 1967, consolidated United States sales were $3,360,879,094, a record high for Safeway, fractionally above consolidated sales of $3,345,180,000 for 1966.

Consolidated United States net income for 1967 was $50,822,927 or $2.60 per share compared to $49,747,937 or $2.35 per share in 1966.

While the profit for 1967 was below the record figure of 1966, it was still the second best year in Safeway's history. A marked improvement occurred in the latter part of the year as evidenced in a profit figure for the 16-week period ended Dec. 30, 1967, of $20,366,626, or 80¢ a share. This was 14.2% above the net income of $17,822,852, or 70¢ a share, reported for the comparable period of 1966.

Sales for the 16 weeks ended Dec. 30, 1967, of $1,069,433,877 were 3.2% above sales of $1,036,605,804 for the comparable period a year ago.

Reporting of consolidated sales for 1967 has been changed to include sales of overseas operations, converted to U. S. dollars, not included in previous years, and to include Canadian sales converted to U. S. dollars rather than at dollar for dollar without conversion as in previous years. These changes in reporting did not have a material effect on 1967 sales, or on sales for previous years, if restated.

There were 2,240 stores in operation at the end of 1967 compared to 2,222 at the end of 1966.

Read by Mrs. Doss, the paper prepared by Mrs. C. Jones was titled "Northwestern Wonderland, Washington State."

will be Friday, Feb. 23, when Mrs. W. W. Rhodes will host the annual anniversary party.

Colorado High's Randy Parker, No. 12, is showing scoring two-points in a losing effort against Hamlin High here two weeks ago as Terry Holt, No. 25, and Milbourn Newland attempt to block the shot. Hamlin won to knock C-City from undefeated record, 59-64. Tuesday night, however, the Wolves turned the tables to beat Hamlin, 65-61, and win the 5-AA championship with Parker scoring the winning points in the final second.

HUNDRED MILES AWAY

If you drew an imaginary line from your house to a friend's house about 100 miles away, you would almost certainly cross rural electric territory. Rural electrics serve in 2578 of the nation's 3072 counties—providing electric power to about 10 percent of this country's population.

That's a big responsibility! It's comforting to know that there are people on the job to perform a service like this—working constantly to assure a reliable source of power in the countryside.

CONVERSATION CORNER

THINGS like this tickle both my funnybones: "Optimism is the thing that makes a woman think she'll feel more like washing the supper dishes next morning."

Can't think where I saw that little bit, but it's so true! Optimism is also what makes a woman think she can reform a man.

Optimism is what keeps beauty shops busy.

Optimism is what makes a kid think he can pass modern math without doing homework.

Optimism is what makes a size 14 woman try on a size 16 dress.

Optimism is what makes an elderly gentleman snicker at sweet young maidens.

Optimism is what makes hitchhikers hike.

Optimism is what makes people keep on entering contests and sweepstakes.

Optimism is what makes a losing poker player of a wife and mother try, try, and try again.

Optimism is what makes heavy smokers vow they can quit any old time.

Optimism, children, is the opposite of pessimism. And deliver us all from pessimism.

PESSIMISM—is what makes any politician from the other party make screeching speeches.

Pessimism is a weatherman carrying galoshes and umbrella while predicting fair and warmer.

Pessimism is the affliction of anybody on a diet that first week.

Pessimism is the state which makes adults refuse to try anything new. Cause, naturally, they wouldn't like it anyway.

Pessimism is the stuff of which insomnia is made. Pessimism is a thin, that makes a fellow bet against home team.

Pessimism is what moves people to criticism.

Pessimism is the chronic condition of the "killjoy," the crepe hanger, the wet blanket.

Pessimism, says an old saying, is a man who wears high belt and suspenders.

Pessimism is the opposite of optimism.

THERE ARE all kinds of "isms," come to think of it. There's realism, which is exactly what it says.

Then there's rheumatism or oh, my aching back.

Cynicism is the poison in a bitter brain, the sting of a bitter tongue or pen. The next step after pessimism.

Euphemism use of the less distasteful word... a habit which George Womack finds distasteful.

Romanticism... ah, sweet mystery of life.

And finally, for now at least, there is stoicism, a sort of calm acceptance of things, distant relative of patience.

Stoicism is what a woman needs the morning after the night before when she gets up and finds those supper dishes still in the sink.

HEAR TELL that Marie Bosham received a bouquet of Valentine flowers the other day.

It happened because Marie is mother of an optimist named Camilla (Mrs. Richard) Pachall of Big Spring.

Camilla entered a card saying why her mother was a sweetheart. The flowers were one of the prizes from Radio Station KBBT Sweetwater contest.

SEEN LATELY, included Viola Erwin (Mrs. Curtis St.) and Ernestine Stubblefield (Mrs. C. N.) getting beautiful.

Saw Mrs. Adolph Wood headed for home after her work day. Mrs. J. Ed Pickard laughing while feeling a year older on her birthday. Erma Lou Part, wife of Mike, on the downtown scene. Lotta Mrs. Olson Sweat that Eskimo Wednesday.

Stated that nice couple Leola and Warren Anderson had lunch. Leola was being happy over the fun her children had playing in the snow. Warren opined, "Leola had as much fun as any of the rest of the kids."

Saw Helen and Robert Chambers with Helen looking relaxed in slacks suit.

FAMILIAR FACES, here and there places, belonged to Florence Pratt, wife of Newby, and mother of beautiful bride-to-be Pam... Rev. Claude E. Cogwell who'll move with Mrs. Cogwell to San Antonio this week. The Cogwells are looking forward to living in a modern apartment and to being in the same city as their elder daughter.

Mrs. Ed Graham was an office visitor. So were Eddie Frasswell and Bobby Lemons at one and the same time. Ruby Cawthron, wife of Drue and mama of Shirley, Mrs. Don Delaney.

Mrs. A. J. Hooks of Tuford community was a drop-by. So was Omera (Mrs. Tom) Fritchett.

TRIFF ENCOUNTERS brought short talks with Mattie Lou (Mrs. Curtis) Clemmer and her brother Phillip Anderson. Used to know the two-as children. Ah, tempus fugit. They are daughter and son of Mrs. Gaines L. Anderson and the late Mr. Anderson.

Dwight Temb, Wolf Band director, came by with publicity notes on the Junior High and High School band concert coming in Tuesday night in CHS auditorium.

Wendell Bedichek, old friend of Abilene, was speaker at Lions Club here Friday. Charlie Godwin strolled in Joe Earnest... and Buster Baker, bareheaded. Well, think Buster threw his hat in the ring, didn't he?

POSTSCRIPT when it comes right down to it, optimism is the thing that makes a person bat away the tears and know that tomorrow is going to be a better day.

Pessimism is what makes people shake the head and say tomorrow is another day, all right. It can't get any worse... but will doubtless turn out to be a heck of a lot worse, anyhow.

"We might just play that one game next week and then wait for the winner of Crane and Parkland," he said. "One game a week might be good for us."

Check Reveals

Planting Now Points to 68% of Acres

A spot check of 6 county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service shows that the first 1,128 producers to sign up for the 1968 cotton program will plant an average of 68 per cent of their cotton allotments.

Office managers of the six counties however were quick to point out to Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., that the survey, though this probably cannot be taken as an indication of final planting percentages. First they note that this small number constitutes only about 25 per cent of the farmers in these counties.

They also indicate that producers who plan to divert the maximum 25 per cent of allotments are the ones most likely to sign up first.

Producers can get their advance diversion payments in advance if they so request at sign-up time, and these advance payments will be larger for those who elect the highest diversion percent.

Mandatory diversion, in the 1968 program is only 3 per cent of allotments, therefore producers who choose that route are eligible for very small advance payments.

For this reason most are expecting that the farmers signing up in the latter part of the period, which extends to March 15, will show a higher percentage who intend to plant the maximum allowable acreage.

The counties checked were Baylor, Cottle, Fisher, Jones Taylor and Tom Green. Included were only those farmers who had completed signing up through February 14.

With producers in 1968 given option to plant anywhere from 65 to 95 per cent of the cotton allotments cotton observers have estimated that between 75 and 85 per cent of the cotton acreage on the Rolling Plains will be planted. Many farmers are still undecided, and others will wait to sign up until near the March 15th deadline date.

A national cotton production of about 13.5 million bales some experts say, will be needed this year to prevent losses to synthetic fibers in domestic markets and to foreign cotton in export channels. The 1966 crop was only 9.5 million bales and the 1967 crop totaled about 7.1 million, smallest in the 20th century.

If an adequate supply can be grown this year, the other major requirements of a healthy cotton economy seem to be within the capability of a united industry, these same groups say.

Museum

renovation will provide on the main floor an entrance lobby fronting the 300 block. A museum entrance on north side of lobby, eight display bays lining the north and south interior walls, a center display hall for hanging of artifacts and historical documents.

Addition of restrooms at the west end of the museum's main floor, installation of refrigerated air conditioning, new roof, removal of windows, remodeling of the front, extensive framing and support work, interior sheetrocking and painting, new wiring and plumbing, new floor covering are also included in the initial phase.

Second phase of the museum development will come later with the second floor and converting of motel-type cabin areas adjacent to the 2-story building into special historical displays.
