Club members to man pledge center

Jerry Lewis' Muscular Dystrophy Telethon will have a pledge center at the Wallace Center, with members of the Lions Club manning the phones, according to Monte Jones, president of the Club.

The phone numbers to be used for making pledges will be announced over KTAB in Abilene during the telethon and they will be open from Sunday at 8 p.m. to Monday at 5:30 p.m., Rev. Jones said.

There will be special packets available for young people who wish to go out and collect donations for muscular dystrophy. The packets will have to be turned in by 5 p.m. Monday.

There will also be containers at the Wallace Center for anyone who wants to drop by and make a donation.

Jones noted that this was the first time in several years that there has been a pledge center in Colorado City and added that the amount of pledges from each center would be announced periodically on KTAB.

Rev. Jones said that local merchants were donating food and drinks for the workers at the Center throughout the telethon.

Auto insurance rates increased

The State Board of Insurance approved a 9.1 percent increase Tuesday in auto insurance rates in Mitchell County.

Figures released by the board show that the average price of auto insurance will rise by about $31 in Mitchell County. The average premium now costs $340. Effective Nov. 1, the average premium will cost $371.

The figures used reflect the price of insuring a low priced 1982 model Chevrolet, Ford, or Plymouth driven to and from work with no male drivers under 25, or female drivers under 21.

Insurance used for the figures includes minimum liability coverage with a $200 deductible collision policy.

The board approved an overall statewide average increase of 14.8 percent, rather than the 33.2 percent the industry had asked for.

David B. Irons, spokesman for the insurance industry, said he was dismayed at the decision. He added that there are some 400 companies which will have to decide for themselves how they are going to handle the rate increase.

William P. Daves, insurance board chairman, said the increase was necessary because of the rising costs, especially hospitalization.

"People are also paying less attention to the 55 mph speed limit and that has increased the cost of insurance and the frequency of accidents," Daves said.

The insurance companies had also sought to increase their underwriting profit (the profit companies make from

Labor Day honors workers

The first Monday of September, which falls on the 6th this year, is the only nationally observed holiday honoring the work ethic. The celebration of Labor Day in the United States was originated by the Knights of Labor who held parades in 1882, 1883 and 1884 to recognize the work force of America.

Congress made Labor Day a national holiday in 1894, one year after the date of observance was changed from the first Saturday in June to the first Monday in September.

In keeping with the spirit of the day, the RECORD office will be closed Monday, but will be open again at 8:30 Tuesday morning.

Governmental offices, such as the post office, city hall, tax offices and drivers license office, will be closed also as well as financial institutions and area schools.

Rita Espinoza, city secretary, said Colorado City residents whose trash is usually picked up on Monday will get their regular service on Thursday.

Many attend annual farm tour

Another successful farm tour was held last Thursday, when approximately 220 farmers, ranchers and local citizens toured several Mitchell County farms and ranches.

Bob Benson, Mitchell County Extension agent, headed this year's event which included several stops throughout the south and east parts of Mitchell County.

Tour stops included the Frankie Stewart farm and the O. C. Gabler sunflower field north of Loraine.

Watermelons, furnished by Travis Turner, were served during a mid-morning stop at Custom Ag Services in Loraine. East of Loraine, the tour made stops at the Bob Fee ranch, the Guthrie Ranch and concluded with stops on the Whit Holman farm and Wayne Oliver farm south of Colorado City.

The tour concluded at the Colorado City Civic Center with a barbeque. Guest speaker was Don Newbury, President of Western Texas College in Snyder.

Cook's Corner

Jones enjoys cooking

The Rev. Monte Jones, vicar of All Saints Episcopal Church, is well-known for his cooking ability and is often asked to cook for special activities of local civic groups.

He enjoys cooking, he says. "I've been cooking since I was five years old. All the men in my family are good cooks, so it kind of comes naturally."

Monte shares kitchen chores with his wife, Virginia; they have two children, John and Julie.

Included in the recipes Monte has divulged is the one for chicken-fried steak which he cooks at the Texas Folklife Festival in San Antonio.

CHICKEN-FRIED STEAK

Use tenderized round steak, well-trimmed, cut in serving-size pieces. Season with salt and pepper. Dredge in flour and shake off excess.

Dip in a buttermilk-egg mixture then roll in finely crushed cracker.

Deep-fry in 350 degree oil until just golden brown. DO NOT OVER-COOK.

Serve with cream gravy.

CHILE MACHO

Roast fresh green (poblano or anaheim) chiles until the skin is blistered all over. Wrap in a damp dish towell for a few minutes, then rub off the skins. Remove stems and seeds, then chop.

Add finely chopped fresh tomatoes and purple onions.

Season with salt, pepper and garlic powder.

Service with pinto beans.

FLAN

In a small cast-iron skillet, caramalize 1½ cups sugar over high heat, stirring constantly with a wooden spoon until sugar melts.

Reduce heat and cook until syrup turns a rich, golden color. Being very cautious, pour into a 2½ quart oven-proof dish and tilt dish until it is lined with caramel. (To remove from skillet, add water and boil until dissolved).

Bring 2 13 oz. cans of evaporated milk almost to a boil. Remove from heat and stir in ½ teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon vanilla extract.

Beat 8 eggs well, then add 2 cups sugar and beat more. Add hot milk and blend well.

Strain milk-egg mixture into caramel lined dish.

Put dish into water-filled pan and bake in 325 degree oven for 1½ hours.

Cool to room temperature and refrigerate for at least two hours.

To unmold, run a sharp knife around edge, dip bottom of dish briefly in hot water, place chilled platter over dish and turn over. Slice and serve.

Price explanation not easy

A simple explanation doesn't exist about beef demand and why prices to producers are remaining low.

"Saying the demand for beef is keeping prices down is a simple explanation to a highly complex problem for some people, but it also may not be completely right," says Dr. Edward Uvacek, Jr., economist in livestock marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

An official of the American Meat Institute recently commented on this issue, he notes.

People in the meat industry have increasingly blamed declining demand for sluggish prices and poor or nonexistent industry profits, he says, but consumption figures show no real evidence that demand is to blame.

Demand is the relationship between the prices paid for a product and the quantities consumed of that product, he explains.

Beef and pork production are both currently down, he comments, and reduced herd size means less available supplies.

The quantity of beef available for consumption is lower than in 1976, while beef prices have risen relative to other protein sources, he says.

In 1976, beef and veal accounted for 42 percent of the total meat, poultry and fish consumed by Americans. Last year beef and veal comprised 35 percent of the total. Over the same period, beef and veal prices increased 66 percent, while overall meat, poultry and fish increased just 44 percent.

A smaller supply of beef is accompanied by a higher relative price, he says, so the demand for beef still exists.

A Timely Message...

Religious Broadcasting

The Rev. Monte Jones
Vicar
All Saints' Episcopal Church

John 10:1 & 7 Jesus said, "In truth I tell you, in very truth, the man who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is nothing but a thief or a robber...I am the door of the sheepfold."

Our Lord tells us there is no back door to salvation, that He is the way, the only way. If we are indeed to be the recipients of God's mercy and grace, we must do so in the manner set forth by Jesus. Since Jesus no longer physically dwells among us, we are told that the church is now that doorway, since the church is in fact the "body of Christ" here on Earth. To really participate in God's plan in accordance with God's will, we must be actively involved as members of God's family through the Church.

In today's world, we see many false doors and those who would entice us to enter them. Many of these "easy entrances" are held out to us by what is called "the Electronic Church," so-called "television and radio ministeries." Religious broadcasting, in and of itself, is not a bad thing, until it begins to take the place of a church family. Then it becomes a back door. Who has ever received communion from a T.V. set, or shared blessings and problems with a radio? How can one reach out and touch a neighbor, when that neighbor is hundreds of miles away in a T.V. studio?

Our Lord in very specific about our being part of an immediate, touchable family. If you stay home and try to get your church attendance done via an appliance, you've missed the point, the door, and the joy of Jesus' call to enter, to participate, and to be a part of God's family. Go to church this and every Sunday.

Cotton Board's budget approved

Meeting in Dallas on August 20, Cotton Incorportated's Board of Directors approved an $18 million budget for 1983 for research and promotion. The amount is reduced due to general business conditions which have affected the volume of all fiber consumed by textile mills all over the world and, in turn, the rate of offtake at the grower level.

After careful study of company goals, Cotton Incorporated will effect a series of cost reductions and some postponements in program development. Certain job functions will be eliminated although all priority programs will be aggressively pursued. The company is confident that the adoption of this strategy will enable cotton to continue its market growth based on the increasing consumer awareness and demand for the comfort and performance that only cotton can deliver, according to J. Nicholas Hahn, executive vice president.

"According to MRCA consumer panel data, purchases of cotton in apparel and home products have risen steadily since 1975," reported Hahn. "Our latest share of market figures for second quarter 1982 reveal even stronger consumer buying of cotton. Women's wear is up. So are men's wear, boyswear and home furnishings. Overall, cotton's share reached 38.5 per cent vs. 37.2 percent in 1981. These are significant gains in a tough business environment."

Hahn also stated that Cotton's consumer advertising will be continued at its present high level. "We intend to increase cotton's sales movement by continuing our successful consumer campaign on television. We know it is working and more and more retailers and manufacturers confirm this fact by featuring more cotton. When the recession eases, cotton will be in the optimum position to capture a greater share of the consumer dollar," Hahn concluded.

Cooperative's outlook dim

It's true that farm cooperatives reflect the mood and economic circumstances of the farmer, and currently the outlook for both is dim at best.

"Adverse weather conditions in the High Plains have sharply reduced cotton and grain sorghum prospects for this fall, and many areas won't have enough volume to operate all cotton gins," said Dr. Bill Black, economist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Because of this, the cooperatives must decide which gins will operate and which will close," he said. "It's more economical to operate a few gins, even though cotton must be hauled from a wider area."

Reduced production also affects a cooperative's cash flow, Black pointed out, because farmers lack income.

Texas farmers must also decide how to market cooperatively-stored grain since the Producer's Grain Corporation has shut down.

"This decision affects not only High Plains growers but also those in the Rio Grande Valley and Coastal Bend regions," Black said.

Since PGC's port elevator in Corpus Christi has been sold, farmers must turn to FarMarco or Agri-industries for marketing services.

And the ability of cooperatives to move and market grain economically is affected by the continued high cost of energy, credit and railroad abandonments, Black added.

The current situation suggests that many grain cooperatives, especially in the High Plains, should consider merging into larger, more economic units, the economist said.

Wolves defeated in opener by tough Slaton team

Friday night at Wolf Stadium, the Slaton Tigers used a very stingy defense and a big play offense to down the Wolves 20-0 in the season opener for both teams.

Five Wolf turnovers coupled with some nifty running by Slaton tailback Geryl Lacy and some big catches by wide receiver Timmy Slay, were vital causes in the Wolves downfall.

Slaton dominated the game from the outset as the Tiger offense kept the ball three-fourths of the contest. The Tigers were so dominant, that the young Wolves could only manage 40 yards total offense the entire night. Meanwhile Lacy had a field day by carrying the ball 32 times for 230 yards and two touchdowns and Slay caught four passes for 107 yards and one touchdown.

The opening kickoff started off good for the Wolves as Lacy took a mishandled kick five yards deep in the endzone and elected to run it out. He was stopped at his own five. The first play gained no yards, the second play gained two yards, but the Tigers gained a first down on a penalty.

From there the Tigers gained two first downs by running Lacy into the middle of the Wolf defense down to the Wolf 44. Then on a second and seven situtation, Tiger quarterback David Henzler found Slay on a deep out pattern behind the Wolf cornerback. Slay bolted down the sideline, cut back against the grain at the 20 and strode into the endzone completing a 56 yard scoring play. The point after touchdown was good. The Tigers had a 7-0 lead with 6:46 remaining in the first quarter.

Late in the quarter, the Tigers started another drive from the Wolf 37, with Lacy doing most of the damage. But on a fourth and one situation from the C-City 28, the Wolf defense rose to the occasion, led by Fred Dakan and Paul Wood to stop Slaton short.

Early in the second quarter with the Wolves facing a second and six from the C-City 45, their second fumble of the night occurred.

On the first play, Slaton promptly cashed in when Lacy went wide and raced 55 yards to pay dirt. The PAT was no good and the Tigers lead was 13-0 at halftime.

On Slaton's third possession in the third quarter, they drove to the C-City 21, but then the Wolf defense rose to the occasion again by stifiling the drive. Dakan roared through to sack the Slaton quarterback on fourth down.

In the fourth quarter, bad luck hit the Wolves on their second possession. Quarterback Doug Chitsey found wide receiver Mike Luera behind everybody, but the ball slipped through his hands.

On the following play, a bad exchange between quarterback and center resulted in a Wolf fumble. From there, the Tigers ran Lacy into a weary Wolf defense until he broke untouched through the middle for an 18 yard T.D. with 6:32 left in the final quarter. The PAT was good and that ended the scoring for the night.

Mistakes costly in Wolves loss

Coach Rick Robinson
Wolves Defensive Coordinator

"We missed too many tackles, and dropped a couple of passes, and the kids got kind of frustrated. We need to work on our technique. But I think we'll come around."

Wolf Strong Safety and Punter Stacy Tarter
Kicked five times for a 38.0 average & intercepted a pass

"I've been punting ever since my sophomore year on the varsity. I practice about 15 minutes a day after practice. We learned a lot tonight, we learned that just because we are named Colorado City that we can't just step out on the field and win a game. We lost our mental concentration, we had too many fumbles and dropped a lot of passes. We'll be better next week."

Larry Hamilton, Wolf Running Back

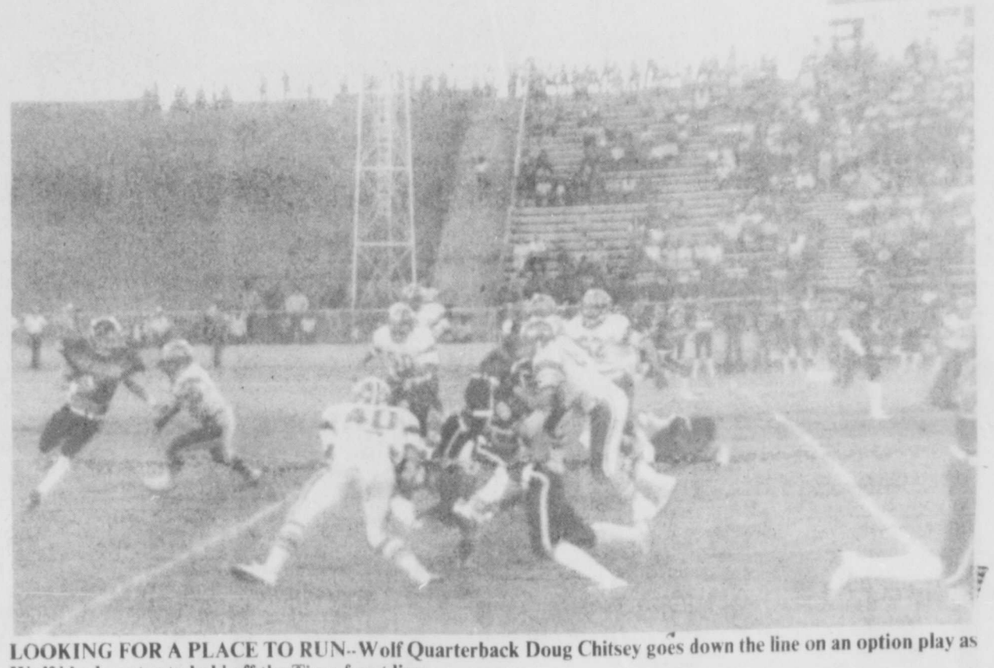

"Slaton was better than any team we have faced so far, they executed well. We have a lot of guys on our line that do not have any varsity experience. We need to improve on our passing plays, especially the screen."

Rosendo Rodriquez, Wolf Wide Receiver

"We just made too many mistakes, they were all right, but we could have beaten them. We were nervous, we were forgetting plays and blocks. We'll work harder; everybody has the goal of making it to the playoffs."

Wolf Head Coach Tom Ramsey

"We had a lot of first game jitters, we have some young kids and they just got nervous. We'll get better as the season goes on. I knew we would make some mistakes, but not this many, we'll just have to iron them out. We had a couple of plays that could have turned the game around. Our wide receiver drops a long pass, and the next play we fumble and they score. So instead of 13-7, it's 20-0. We just dropped too many passes, I know it was five that I saw. Slaton had some speed that we probably won't see again, sometime they got to the outside and just out ran us. Lacy is a premiere back, he ran inside better than I anticipated. I don't think we'll see a better back."

LOOKING FOR A PLACE TO RUN--Wolf Quarterback Doug Chitsey goes down the line on an option play as Wolf blockers try to hold off the Tiger front line.

ON A COLLISION COURSE--Wolf Cornerback Frank Torrez converses on Slaton wide receiver Timmy Slay as Slay attempts to catch a pass in Friday night's action.

SPORTS

Bulldogs open with big win

Defense has been the name of the game for the Loraine Bulldogs so far this year, and Friday's night contest with Irion County in Mertzon was no exception.

The Bulldogs and Hornets hooked up in a defensive struggle that left Loraine clinging to a precious 6-2 victory. The battle was so intense that the Bulldogs could manage only 46 yards rushing and six yards passing the entire contest. The Hornets did not fare much better as they gained a measley 66 yards on the ground and none through the air.

The game's lone touchdown came in the second quarter when Bulldog outside linebacker Jerry Darnell picked off an Irion County pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown.

Irion County scored a safety in the final quarter. But the climax of the game came in the final quarter when the Bulldog defense held the Hornets four times from the Loraine two yard line to preserve the victory.

CC Junior Varsity nips Slaton

The Colorado City junior varsity and freshmen opened up their season last Thursday in Slaton with the JVs winning and the freshmen losing.

The junior varsity Wolves downed the Tigers by a decisive 27-6 margin. Touchdowns were scored on runs by Billy Jackson, Joey Ritchey, and Jay Piland. Slaton's only score came late in the final quarter on a kickoff return.

Coach Mike Hart was pleased with the play of all of his players, especially the backfield of Jackson, Ritchey, Piland, and quarterback Amondo Rivera.

Hart also praised the offensive line composed of center Johnny Rivera, guards Larry Hearn and Dorsey Johnson, Jr., and tackles Wylie Stice and David Brittan. Also having good games were Perry Conner, John Gilstrap, Don Randle and Charles Iglehart.

The freshmen Wolves were downed by the Tigers 28-6, with the lone C-City tally coming on a run by Jimmy Thompson. Both teams' next game will be Thursday against the Seminole Indians.

Freshmen game starts at 5, followed by the junior varsity game at 7 p.m.

Volleyball teams compete against Odessa Broncos

Last Tuesday, the Colorado City freshmen, junior varsity, and varsity volleyball teams traveled to Odessa to take on the class AAAAA Odessa High Broncos.

In the freshmen contest the young Wolves could never get untracked as the Broncos downed them 15-2 and 15-4. According to coach Linda Mathis the long bus ride took a lot out of her players, and their performance showed it.

In the first contest Denise Jackson scored both of the Wolves points. Tabatha Nichols and Linda Walker scored two points each in the final match. The Freshmen's record is 0-2 for the year.

The junior varsity fared better in their battle with the Odessa school, as they downed the Broncos in two consecutive matches 15-11 and 15-13.

Playing what Mathis called their best game so far this year, the Junior Wolves 5-1 offense was simply too much for OHS. "We just switched from the 4-2 (four spikers and two setters) to the 5-1 (five spikers and one setter) because it gives you more mobility and hitting power. Also it teaches the spikers to set the ball just as good as the setters," said Mathis.

Leading point scorers in the first match were Cres Aguilar with four points. Also Sherri Morris and Chris Castillo added three points each. Scoring leaders in the second match were Jodi Mann with five and Julie Wade with four points.

Also having good games were Anita Silva who made several good pickups and led the team in spikes with nine. She also had four kills. Carla Callaway did a good job of setting and Rebecca Erwin served two aces. According to Mathis, the key to the victory was good teamwork and communication. The JVs upped their record to 2-1 for the year.

The varsity contest was a battle that lasted three matches with the Broncos finally downing the Wolves 16-14, 8-15, and 15-9.

The first match was nip and tuck all the way with biggest lead by either team being three points. OHS jumped out to a fast 5-2 lead, but the Wolves quickly tied it up, only to see the Broncos go ahead 7-5.

From there the Wolves started one of their patented rallies, as they scored five unanswered points to take a 10-7 lead. The game went back and forth until the score was tied 14-14. From there the Broncos scored two points to win the contest.

The second match the Wolves played very intense volleyball as they gained a lead and never relinquished it. They won going away 15-8.

Coach George Martin was very pleased with the performance. "The second match was good for us because the girls knew they should have won the first one. We played better and the substitutes came off the bench and played well."

"In the third match the girls physically played good, but we had a lack of mental concentration. We will work on it this week for our game against Cooper."

Leading scorers for the Wolves were Carolyn Green, 10, Tomika Randle, 8, and Stacy Hamrick, 5. Martin also signled out the fine spiking of Robyn Turner and Laura Baum along with Green, Randle and Hamrick.

Martin also praised Pam Ehert, Della Ausbie, Mona Molina, and Hollie Taplin for their play coming off of the bench.

The loss moves the Wolves record to 1-3, with all losses coming against either class AAAA or AAAAA schools. The varsity and junior varsity's next game will be Tuesday, Sept. 7 in Abilene versus the Abilene Cooper Cougars. Junior varsity starts at 6, and the varsity begins at 7 p.m. The freshmen's next contest will be the same day in Big Spring starting at 5 p.m.

Volleyball to begin at Jr. High

It's almost time for the Colorado City junior high school volleyball teams to get action underway. This will be the first time that both the seventh and eighth grade will sport two squads.

Kathy Marshall will be directing the eighth grade who opens up their season Saturday, Sept. 11 in the Junior Lone Wolf Tournament.

There will be eight teams entered; two from Colorado City and Sweetwater. Also entered are teams from Merkel, Bronte, Miles and Water Valley.

The seventh grade will be coached by Debbie Goforth. They will open up their season at home Monday, Sept. 13 against Big Spring.

Post serves dessert

On Thursday, September 2, the Wilson Wyatt VFW Post 9178 and its Ladies' Auxiliary furnished a large cake, decorated with fall leaves, for the Senior Citizens noon meal at the Wallace Center.

Centerpieces of fall flowers were also placed on ten tables for the pleasure of some 75 Senior Citizens present for the meal.

Birthday honorees for the month were given take-home cupcakes also decorated with fall colors.

Auxiliary members participating were Audrey Wilson, Virgie Mosley, Mary Bell and Ann Ingram.
