Steakley Hurt Again

Injury Plague

Nix Joins Sick

Just as Coach Truman Nix and his Wolves began to breathe easier about injuries and illness, they got snake bit again.

The hard luck came Tuesday as Colorado High prepped for its Friday night contest against Snyder Tigers in Snyder.

All-State Dan Steakley reinjured his ankle in a freak fall as he hurried out to field for practice.

Randy Nix, a standout in linebacking, received doctor's orders to go home with a virus infection that is expected to keep him off the practice field all week and may hold him out of Friday's fray.

Quarterback Keaton Grubbs is still slowed with a painful thigh muscle tear and a handful of other Wolves continue to nurse hurts and illness.

Steakley has reported for practice Monday much improved after a hurried out-of-town trip over the weekend for a college athletic trainer to provide special help with his ankle injury.

It looked like he was progressing fast enough to be in shape to start against Snyder. Then, Tuesday after Coach Nix had taped his ankle, he left the dressing room, slipped and fell on concrete before he reached the field. His ankle buckled in the fall and the pain and swelling started again.

The injury bug has been a fear of Nix and his coaching staff all along for the Wolves, who are comparatively thin in manpower while compared with the larger schools of the big 3-AAA District.

However, the club impressively threw off the injury handicap last week in a tremendous comeback triumph over Lamesa 20-19, to keep alive their championship hopes.

The Wolves are in contention with three victories and one loss, trailing behind unbeaten, unscored upon Lubbock Estacado, 4-0; Sweetwater, 3 wins and one tie and Lubbock Dunbar, 2 wins and one tie.

13 Men Charged Here In Assault Complaints

A disturbance which started at a wedding dance has resulted in nine criminal cases in felony and misdemeanor courts here.

County Attorney Frank Ginzel filed the complaints following a lengthy investigation by his office and the force of Police Chief Jesse Browning.

Thirteen males are named in the cases which accuse them of aggravated assault to murder.

Six are named in a joint felony complaint filed in Justice of Peace Leonard Henderson's Precinct 1 Court.

They are Raymond Castro, Brigido De La Cruz, John Munoz, Pete Castro and two others believed to be juveniles.

All six are accused of "acting together with malice aforethought" of shooting at Tomas Aguilar with a rifle Sept. 22.

Aguilar is a relative of Sammy Contreras, who now is jail serving a term for aggravated assault one night earlier, Sept. 21.

He pleaded guilty Tuesday before County Judge Elmer Martin to premeditated cutting and stabbing Pascual Madrid. He received a 60-day jail term, assessed court costs and had a probated 3-day jail term revoked by the judge.

Contreras' previous term, along with $50 fine and $40 court costs was handed out by the court last June 3 also for aggravated assault.

County Attorney Ginzel has filed in County Court also to revoke a driving while intoxicated jail sentence against Donato Herrera, who is charged twice with aggravated assault at the wedding dance Sept. 21.

The assault complaints allege that Herrera hit Brigido De La Cruz, defendant in the assault to murder shooting case, with a broken glass bottle and hit Pascual Madrid with his fists.

Herrera was found guilty of DWI Sept. 4 in County Court and fined $75, $37 court costs and had a 20-day jail sentence probated for year. It is the 20 day term which Ginzel seeks to have revoked.

Alex Rocha is charged a second time with and Narciso Contreras with aggravated assault on Pascual Madrid by inflicting serious bodily injury with a knife at the Sept. 21 dance.

Visiting Band Booster Speaks

Gene Campbell of Big Spring, left, was guest speaker Monday evening to Colorado City Band Boosters. Campbell, band enthusiast, was introduced by Dwight Tomb, director of band music in Colorado Independent Schools. The speaker stressed "Creating a Good Image In Your Town Through School Band Boosting."

'Now Is The Time'

Kiwanis And Jaycees Told

"This has been a very strange year," Miss Katharyn Duff, political editor and columnist for the Abilene Reporter-News told Colorado City Kiwanis Club and their guests, Tuesday, in a challenging speech here.

Miss Duff, assistant editor and writer of Page One, daily column, addressed an audience of 75 luncheon guests on the subject of "Conventions in Chicago." She gave an eyewitness account of what she termed "The two conventions."

Jaycees, Kiwanis wives, and invited guests joined the civic club for the luncheon program.

Introduced by T. J. Goss, Colorado City correspondent for the Reporter-News, Miss Duff presented a vivid commentary on the Democratic Convention which she attended, and on the crowds in the park which she also visited.

The speaker based her timely address on the old phrase used by typists, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party – or country."

"Now is the time of tremendous change," she said. She then praised people of this generation for great progress in the past 30 years in the social order, in science.

"We have made progress in every field except one – the crime rate," she said. "And some of the people who yell the loudest for change have upped the crime rate."

"We – our own generation – have adjusted in the midst of change. The young dissenters are talking to old pros when it comes to change," she added.

"Now is the time for a new kind of politics – the politics of confrontation of dissent, of the activist. . .The new kind of confrontation politics was practiced so remarkably in Chicago that there were actually two conventions – one in convention hall, legal and orderly, the second in the streets and that second convention startled us and the country," Miss Duff told her listeners.

She then pointed to reasons the television version of what went on in Chicago was not necessarily a true picture of what took place.

"Militant confrontations were always staged directly in front of the TV cameras when crews were on duty," she said, adding

Perry O. Barber To Abilene Post

Perry O. Barber, Sr., Colorado City municipal judge since Jan. 1967, has been named first assistant district attorney by 42nd District Attorney Ed Paynter of Abilene.

Barber's appointment is to be effective Jan. 1, 1969 when the 104th and 42nd districts combine into a newly created criminal district.

Paynter, who appointed Barber his first assistant, is unopposed in the November election for district attorney of Taylor, Jones, and Callahan counties. He will assume the combined post Jan. 1.

"This is a fine opportunity for me to put to use things it's taken me a lifetime to learn," said Barber Wednesday morning, "and I look forward to the new post with pleasure."

Mr. and Mrs. Barber expect to move to Abilene as soon as they can find a suitable furnished apartment. They will keep their Colorado City home for the present, said Barber.

He was graduated from high school in Abilene and was a member of the AHS championship team in 1928. Veteran of World War II, he is an active member of First Baptist Church, and has been a practicing attorney in Colorado City since 1949. He taught school in Abilene three years before receiving his University of Texas law degree.

Annual 4-H Awards Banquet

Annual 4-H Achievement banquet for Mitchell County 4-H Club members has been announced for 8 p.m. Saturday in the cafeteria at Colorado High School.

Mitchell County 4-H Club and the new Westbrook 4-H Club members will present the program.

The annual event honors outstanding 4-H boys and girls, according to Miss Janice Miller, home demonstration agent, and Bobby Lemons, county agent here.

Feature honor of the evening will be the presentation of the Gold Star Award to a county 4-H girl and boy. Gold Star Award is the highest county award 4-H Club members can receive. Winners will be revealed at the banquet.

Theme for the banquet will be "4-H, Fiesta Style," and will be carried out in table decorations and entertainment.

"Highlights of the 4-H Club year" will be reviewed by Christy Stubblefield as one program feature.

Steve Hill and Sally Smith, co-chairmen of the Mitchell County 4-H Club, and Don Denson, president of the Westbrook 4-H Club, will also take part on the program.

The banquet climaxes National 4-H Week which began Sunday with theme for the national celebration "A World of Opportunity."

Families of 4-H Club members will bring vegetables and desserts to the dinner party. The two clubs will furnish meat bread, and drinks.

Thinking Spiritually

Your Hometown Minister Speaks

"SATISFACTION GUARANTEED"

Rev. L. K. Lakey
Pastor, First Assembly of God

In Job 9:2 we read the answer and a question of Job to his comforters, "How should a man be just with God?" This is an age-old question. A question and a problem that worries many people.

I believe the Book of Romans has the answer to this question. This Book of the Bible is dedicated to the wonderful doctrine of justification through faith in Jesus Christ.

So how may Job and all those who have asked the question since him find a satisfying answer to the question, "How can I be just with God?" Romans 1:17, "The just shall live by faith."

What do we mean when we say "just" or "justified"? A homemade definition is: Just as if "I'd" never committed the sin. When you trust in Jesus, by faith, he justifies us, he satisfies, takes away the guilt and shame and makes us worthy to stand before a righteous, holy God.

Certainly Job's righteousness did not make him feel just before God. He simply had to believe a righteous God would take care of him. Rahab, the harlet in Joshua 6, lived in the slum section of Jericho, and had no righteousness of her own, she should have died with the re. of the wicked in the fall of the walls of Jericho, but the Bible records, she had faith in God, and it was accounted unto her for righteousness and she was saved.

God guarantees satisfaction to your question "How shall I be just with God?" when you bow before Him and express faith that He is God and there is none other like Him.

A missionary in India tried to win a pearl diver to Christ. The old man was bound by heathern ideas and his religion called for rituals to gain acceptance with his gods. Therefore, he could not accept Christianity by just simple faith.

One day as he and the missionary friend were talking, he revealed his plans of retiring from pearl diving, then he would walk and crawl to the capital city (some 900 miles away) kissing the ground as he went, in hopes of obtaining eternal life.

Before he left however, he brought the missionary a box, it contained a perfect pearl, the most beautiful the missionary had ever seen. The old man wanted the missionary to have it as a parting gift, his son had died as a result of diving for this pearl. The missionary expressed appreciation, but told the old man he would not accept it without paying for it.

Upon the old man's insistance that he accept the pearl as a gift, the missionary explained that this is the way we must come to God, we must accept the gift of eternal life, simply as a gift by faith in God.

Judy Oyler Installed Worthy Advisor in Formal Ceremony

Miss Judy Oyler was installed as new worthy advisor of Order of the Rainbow Girls Assembly No. 174 in a formal cermony Saturday evening in Masonic Hall.

Miss Oyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Oyler of 1437 Walnut Street, is a junior student in Colorado High School and a member of CHS Wolf Band.

Appointive officers installed were Marsha Green of Loraine, chaplain; Elaine Mikle, drill leader; Mary Lou Cooley, love; Dixie Edge, religion; Lynn Whitaker, nature; Shirley Gary, immortality.

Also, Debbie Brame of Loraine, fidelity; Anita Brooks, patriotism; Martha Kinard, service, and Judy Brooks, confidential observer.

Installation program was opened with a drill by retiring officers. Miss Cooley, outgoing worthy advisor, welcomed guests and presented a tribute to the incoming worthy advisor.

Rev. Weems Dykes, paster of First Christian Church, said the invocation.

Installing officers - presented and introduced by Mrs. Wilford Oyler, mother advisor - were Linda Banks, installing officer; Miss Cooley, marshall; Shirley Gary, chaplain; Martha Kinard, installing recorder; Mrs. Farris Lipps, musician.

Miss Oyler introduced members of her family who were special guests for the evening. They included her parents, her parental grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Oyler, and her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Ann Williams.

She also read a poem, "Roses for Remembrance", by Mary R. Hurley.

Her chosen song, "God Bless America" was sung by the assembly and guests.

Mrs. Oyler presented a white Rainbow Bible to outgoing worthy advisor. Miss Cooley then presented officers pins for perfect attendance during her term of office to Miss Morgan, Miss Costin and Miss Green.

In a special cermony of dedication Susan Jackson was given a Rainbow Bible by her grandfather, Tom Grant.

Benediction was spoken by J. A. Sadler, Jr. Officers directed the retiring drill and the assembly sang "My Rainbow" to conclude the evening's program.

Mrs. Myrle Jameson and Mrs. Stanley Merket presided at the refreshment table. Mrs. Bubba Kennedy registered approximately 70 guests and members.

Serving table was covered with a white satin cloth and centered with a white cake decorated with red roses and the Rainbow emblem. Highlighting the setting was a single rosebud in a white vase.

Red punch and red velvet cake were served.

Committees Named

Committees heading arrangements for last weekend's District Eight convention for VFW were named recently during a VFW Auxiliary in Post Home.

Mrs. Charles Summer, Auxiliary president, named Mrs. Warren Goode to chairman the foods committee.

Working with Mrs. Goode will be Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Bill Adams, Mrs. H. Jones, Mrs. Edna Simmons, Mrs. Merlin Wilson, and Mrs. P. C. Smith.

Registering out-of-town visitors were Mrs. Cecil Odell, Mrs. Joe Kirkland, Mrs. M. F. Bearden, Mrs. Arthur Milsap, Mrs. Felix Martin and Mrs. A. C. Clark.

Auxiliary has made and filled 11 ditty bags which are to be sent to servicemen in Vietnam.

Attending the recent business meeting were a new member, Mrs. Lee Summers; Mrs. Charles Summers, Mrs. Goode, Mrs. C. L. Morton, Mrs. Odell, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Bearden, Mrs. Milsap, Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Bonnie McDowell.

Head, Heart, Hands, Health

Ever notice that 4-H Club members and their adult leaders are a special kind of people?

Kids who take part in 4-H programs and projects are nearly always natural leaders in other fields, too. . .at school, in church and community.

That's true, maybe, because adult 4-H leaders stress a well-rounded schedule of activities. The 4-H's, you know, stand for head, heart, hands, and health.

Saturday night the organization's achievement bandquet will bring Gold Star awards to a boy and a girl outstanding in 4-H Club work.

Congratulations in advance!

Chambers, a senior in WHS, was installed president of the chapter last Thursday in a candle lighting ceremony in the school.

Other officers installed were Gary Matlock, vice president; Sue Bell, secretary; Christine Read, treasurer; Junior Oden, historian, and Cindy Richardson, reporter.

Ralph Bryant, principal of Westbrook School, said the invocation. Carl Kuykendall, business teacher, served as chairman of installation and induction of new members.

John Ritchey led the pledge to the flag.

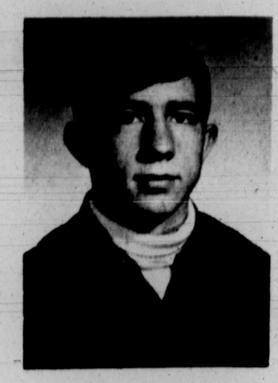

The new president presented the purpose and aims of NHS and Mr. Bryant explained the method of selection of members.

Qualifications for membership, based on scholarship, character, service and leadership, were discussed by Sue Bell, a senior; Junior Oden, senior; Gary Matlock, junior and Christine Read, senior.

Four sophomore students were inducted into the chapter. Receiving membership certificates were Sandy Anderson, Judy Chambers, Jessie Contreras and Vickie Hogue.

An annual display of pictures and scholastic ranks of the top five NHS members, determined each six weeks by grades, is one of the honor society's projects.

Preston C. Lightfoot is sponsor for the group.

ROBERT CHAMBERS, . . .NHS president.

Mrs. Hale Speaks About Changing Role of Women

"The Changing Role of Women", an article by Helen M. Young, was discussed by Mrs. John Hale for Hesperian Study Club members Friday afternoon in Hesperian Room of Mitchell County Public Library.

Mrs. Hale reported that woman, whose role used to be defined as homemaker is now free to choose what she wants to make of her life.

Woman can choose to be a glamour girl, a brain, executive type, house beautiful type, clubwoman, socialite, civic minded or given herself to her children and husband, club members heard.

Mrs. Hale advised the woman to eliminate the unimportant and simplify her life so that she may give herself to the more important.

The speaker discussed the roles of the Christian wife, the Christian mother, single woman and the Christian woman outside the home.

During the business session, members voted to buy and sell place mats depicting Texas scenes.

They also voted to serve refreshments at regular club meetings. It was announced that Mrs. Lynn Halbert, the club's federation counselor, will head an educational department at the Mesquite District Texas Federation of Women's Club's workshop in Merkel Oct. 19.

Mrs. Perry Barber was hostess for the Friday afternoon session in Hesperian Room. Mrs. G. D. Foster was program leader.

that such TV coverage, "Instant information is not instant understanding."

"Now is the time of complexities," Miss Duff said. In Chicago all types of dissenters arrived in one bundle she noted.

"But they were led by a masterful organization put together, not by the young, but by seasoned street fighters, headed by a 53-year-old ex-con. Of the 10,000 dissenters there in the park, I venture to say that 9,700 were innocents. The others were hard core fighters. And they didn't get their heads bashed. The seasoned fighters kept out of the way," she explained.

Miss Duff told of literature she found, guided by a young man, with complete plans for the Chicago disturbance—how much bail money to take, clothes to wear, protection from tear gas and mace.

The organizers expected two things which they did not get, she said. "They expected the McCarthy kids to join the mob. They didn't. And they expected the ghettos to explode. They did not."

Here, the speaker paid tribute to Chicago Negroes. Speaking directly to Robert Bracey, Kiwanis member, she said "Our whole nation owes a great debt of gratitude to your race. Chicago Negroes would have no part of it."

The speaker was most emphatic when she stated "This is not a racist problem."

"Now is the time of oversimplication," she said, "of confused thinking, shallow thinking.

"Now is the time of polarization," she continued, "the time of absolutism. And to those of us who remember, it is a time reminiscent of Germany in the early thirties.

"The extreme right and the extreme left both add up to totalitarianism. And they both scare me to death!

"Now is a dangerous time," she went on to say. "The time for all good men to come to the aid of their country. The main establishment must limber up and let the young people take part," Miss Duff urged, "Do not try to brush them aside!"

She suggested that good citizens strive for effectiveness—"Know what you're trying to do. Don't be gullible. Go to work for your candidate, put your money and time on his side. You and your vote will help decide the destiny of 200 million people."

In conclusion she urged that older citizens not try to ignore the young dissenters as "episodic."

"The dissent has more epic proportion," she said, recalling that young dissenters have already unseated the president of Berkeley, the president of Columbia University.

"In a sense they unseated the President of the United States. They kept him from going to his own party convention," Miss Duff reminded her audience.

"The aim of the hard core street fighters was to break up the convention, destroy the party. They didn't. But they disturbed it, mightily. They now plan to disrupt the ballot boxes in November.

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country," she said, "and I'd like to plead don't forget your kids!"

They can't afford to drop another encounter and in Snyder they will be facing a team that is blessed with the rest which comes from an open date last week.

The Tigers have one triumph and two losses – including a 20-21 heartbreaking setback to Slaton in their last game.

Their fine back, David McGinnis, in only three games, is No. 2 in district scoring with six touchdowns.

He is the big gun in the Snyder break-away attack which is based on competent quarterbacking and swift running.

While Colorado City travels to next-door Snyder for the Friday encounter, Estacado and Dunbar will be playing in the 3-AAA game that probably will go a long way in deciding the championship.

Estacado, with four wins, will be favored over Dunbar, tied by Sweetwater, who will host Slaton. Lamesa meets Brownfield and Littlefield plays Lake View in other district skirmishes. Levelland, badly beaten four times without a sniff of victory, has a much needed rest.

Landau Wins $10 Prize

Jerry Landau won the first prize, $10 cash, in last week's football contest sponsored by the Colorado City Record.

Landau missed picking the winners in only four of 30 games listed in the contest and came closest with his guess of Colorado City 28, Lamesa, 22, in the key game.

Second prize of $8 goes to Ricky Smith, 604 East 4th St. who missed five winners and guessed the key game at 20-13. Don Hardegree, also with five misses, and his key game guess 36-15, takes the third prize of $5.

CONVERSATION CORNER

SOMETIMES, thinking how it is that the very young are so eager and often so determined to see, hear, taste, know, and feel all of life's experiences before they get old enough to vote, I take to wondering what will be left when they reach the old age of 30 or 40 or more.

Then, there are other times when, remembering how the very young are always surprised that mature people, too, still like to experience the new, I take to counting all the things yet to be sampled when the right time comes along.

Once you quit caring to see, hea., taste, know, and feel you might as well lie down. 'Cause you're dead.

LIST of things left to do would stretch from here to Hawaii, all a lifelong at the top of the want to see list.

Have never heard a real live Swiss Yodeler echoed across the Alps.

Would you believe that on the left to taste list, so far, are things like the artichoke. . .birds-nest soup. . .dandelion wine. . Baked Alaska. . .roast piglet with the traditional apple in his mouth (ugh). . . .the papaya. . .the passion fruit?

Things it might be fun to know include what makes a computer work. . .and for that matter, what makes a telephone ring, an electric freezer freeze. . .and how to speak fluent Spanish.

Wonder how it feels to travel by helicopter? Ride in a submarine? Or take a little cable car in San Francisco?

TIME WAS when this heart was so young and gay that it, too, felt that if something fine didn't happen to people by the time they were 30, life might as well skip the treat.

What a surprise to find that every age has special delights in store just for the realizing!

Just because the time comes when you put the bike away and don't entertain a yen to take up skin diving or parachuting is no sign you have to stop looking forward to other, if more sedate, amusements.

So long as there are books, old and new. . .music in the air for the mere flip of a switch. . .good shows. . .and, more than anything, people to share ideas and ideals. . .there are still new horizons.

And whether we get to the moon or not, there is still this planet earth to enjoy. . .and perhaps even improve a little before we leave it.

Saw Chief of Police Jesse Browning. . .Buddy Hertenberger and Jim Mauldin. . .Buddy's wife LuAnn and Jim's cute wife were in the stands together.

Spied the Leonard Hendersons. . .Johnny Tiller. . .Tonie Boles, second daughter of Lacy and Dolores. . .Frank and Carol Prewitt with Carol looking stunning in black and white.

The Doyle Kikers, Glenn Thomases and Luke Thomases were sitting together. . .Melba Mikle was strolling along. . . So were Annie Dixon and Bessie House. . .Danny and Dolores Holman Fisher.

There, too, were T. J. Goss. . .The Brice Webbs with JoAnn Webb Little (Mrs. James) of Abilene. . .Dr. John Chinn joining the Wolf bench.

DID YOU ever hear anything more beautiful than the Wolf Band bullfight song with Bob Newman as trumpet soloist?

Did you know Ed Roach was honored with a surprise birthday dinner party at his home right after church, Sunday? Hosts were his children, grandchildren, and his sister, Charlie Lindsey and her family.

Did you know Bill McGuire has been home on leave from his Marine Corps training? Hear tell he's loving the Marines.

Mike Burson is also on leave from Fort Sill where he has been in Army training.

FAMILIAR FACES at the special program presented to Kiwanis Club and guests by Katharyn Duff, Abilene Reporter-News columnist, were those of Henry and Luna Bilberry and Luna's bridge club as Henry's guests.

Saw Margaret and R. B. Baker. . .Billie and Elmer Martin. . . Joe and Vickie Weaver. . .Mary and Ralph Lee. . .Gladys Miller and Geneva (Mrs. C. S.) Martin. . .Mary and Dell Barber. . .Nelle and Sims Palmer.

Gwen and Dick Wistrand were there. . .Acie and Marie Benson. . .Charlie and Emmabeth Thompson. . .Sefton and Aldred Pickens. . .T. J. Goss. . . The Robert Braceys. . .Tom Rees. . .Lawrence Ruddick.

You say you'd like a few suggestions on how to get more out of your telephone service?

Here are five tips to help make your every "hello" a real good buy:

1. Whenever you're moving to another town within the Bell System, let us arrange for your phone service before you move. If you know the address of your new home, we can make arrangements in advance so you'll have the exact service you want in your new home. We'll also refer calls from your old phone to your new number if you like. Just call the business office and ask about our Easy Move Plan. There's no extra charge.

2. Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.

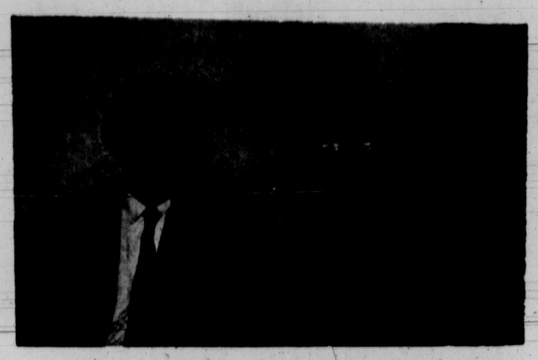

3. Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.

4. And if you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.

5. Long Distance interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.

At Southwestern Bell, our goal is to help you get the very best telephone service. We want your every "hello" to be a real good buy.

Local Attorney Speaks to Clubs

Tom Rees, local attorney, was guest speaker Monday afternoon for a joint meeting of the Plainview, Spade and Carr Home Demonstration Clubs in the home of Mrs. B. A. Jackson.

Rees, who spoke about family legal responsibilities, discussed three phases of family law - husband and wife relationship, child and parent relationship and divorce.

In speaking of husband and wife relationships, he explained laws concerning marriage vows or contracts, homesteads and community property.

During a business meeting of Plainview HD Club Mrs. Willis Tilley was elected as president.

Other officers nominated and elected were Mrs. Paul Logsdon, vice president; Mrs. Swan Taylor, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Richard Keathley, reporter, and Mrs. W. C. Harlow, HD council degegate.

Club members also voted to sell assorted cookbooks.

Members of Spade Club attending the afternoon session were Mrs. Nolan Fincher, Mrs. Joe Boyd, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Herman Salley, Mrs. Whiteside, Mrs. Allard, Mrs. Ross Hargrove, Mrs. Bobby Lemons, Mrs. Wright Hock, Mrs. J. R. Erwin, Mrs. Harry Dockrey, Mrs. Robert Bolin and Mrs. Ed Thrift.

Carr HD Club members attending were Mrs. Tom Jackson, Mrs. John Latty, Mrs. Ben Ellett and Mrs. T. A. Reas.

Plainview Club members present were Mrs. Logsdon, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Tilley, Mrs. Sam Thompson, Mrs. Harlow, Mrs. W. B. Head, Mrs. Eldon Smith, Mrs. Keathley and the hostess.

Velvet Ball Gown Gift To Museum

On display at Colorado City Historical Museum is the museum's newest addition, a formal ball gown.

Made of rose velvet, trimmed in matching rhinestones, the gown has a 12 foot train and there is a tiara on exhibit with it.

The dress is one of four worn by duchesses at the coronation of San Jacinto Queen in San Antonio. It was presented to the local museum by A. V. Pate, Jr., member of Texas Historical Survey Committee, and president of Texas Refining Corporation, said Mrs. Claude Eudy, curator.

Award Winner Co-Stars

A new brand of movie favorite is on the cinema horizon but none of them are going to win any beauty contests.

"I couldn't care less," says big and beefy George Kennedy recent winner of an Academy Oscar for best supporting actor.

"All I know is that the parts I'm being offered are bigger and better and a lot less vicious than they used to be." George currently will be seen with James Garner, Eva Renzi and Nigel Green in Universal's Technicolor action comedy, "The Pink Jungle," at the Palace Theatre, beginning Sunday.

"I think all of us plug-uglies owe a lot to Lee Marvin," says Kennedy, who really isn't as homely as he insists. "He struck a chord for the anti-heroes when he won the Academy Award for "The Ballad of Cat Ballou,' a couple of years ago."

In "The Pink Jungle," Kennedy's newfound charm drips all over the screen. He dances a South American cha-cha with Miss Renzi, is bussed by her, flexes his muscular torso in partial dishabille to intrigue her and, even though he loses the girl to Garner, wins more than his share of rooters among the audience.
