Ski Basin To Be Made Safer

As the result of a water safety meeting held here June 28, two steps are to be taken to increase safety in the Ski Basin.

The steps are 1) to prohibit swimming in the Ski Basin to eliminate the dangerous practice of some swimmers swimming across the path of speeding motorboats, and 2) to put up new signs emphasizing that ALL BOATS (including sailboats) must proceed in a counterclockwise direction.

These actions were agreed upon at a meeting in the City Hall attended by representatives of the Navigation District, Chamber of Commerce, City of Rockport, and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Among those attending were Ted Little and Matt Scott of the Navigation District, John Kinsey of the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Delmar R. Hiller, City Attorney Dick Hatch, Chief of Police Bob Hewes, Alderman N. F. Jackson, Regional Director Tom Moore of the Parks and Wildlife Department and Wardens J. O. Jennings and W. C. Walker, Pat Smith, Gordon Stanley and the Rev. Cecil H. Lang, Jr.

In order for the state wardens to be eligible to help enforce safety regulations, the Navigation District will file its "no swimming" edict with the County Clerk's office, State Highway Department and Parks and Wildlife Department.

Along The Waterfront

Fishing news from Palm Harbor: Mildred reports that due to the high winds there wasn't much fishing out of Palm Harbor Marina until Sunday, when Vernon Green of Corpus Christi reported a nice catch of trout.

Monday fishing picked up as the wind died down. The L. W. Monzingos of Palm Harbor had a nice catch of trout as did J. P. Archer and Bob Archer of Houston, plus a few gafftop.

Wayne Lindsley and Gary of Rockport caught over 30 trout on Monday so it seems to be picking up.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hewitt of Dallas aboard their sailboat "Galicia" spent Monday night at Palm Harbor boat basin after Bailey and Bob Hewitt completed the sailboat race from Galveston.

We also have another sailboat enthusiast with us. Dr. Paul Hanson of San Antonio with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Oklahoma and his brother and family from Missouri, who are vacationing at Palm Harbor.

Brown's Harbor/Marina reported a few good catches this last week. Joe Browne said that since the bad weather, we have had, "Candy" and the heavy winds and rains since then, the fishing had gone from very good to just fair. The weather also was responsible for fewer fishermen trying their luck than the preceding weeks.

The past few days have brought calmer waters and the bay is beginning to become clear. The late night pier fishing has begun to pick up and the outlook for the holiday fisherman looks very promising.

Wagley Gets Construction Job

A construction contract for $86,818 has been awarded to Wagley Lumber Co. to build new outdoor recreation facilities at Goliad State Historic Park, a mile south of Goliad in Goliad County, according to Johnny Buck, director of park planning for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The new facilities, which should be complete in December, include a water system one service building; one rest room with showers; five screened shelters; 20 trailer sites with water, sewer and electrical hookups and 25 picnic sites.

These facilities will supplement the 17 picnic sites and the museum in the 209-acre park.

Goliad State Historic Park located on the San Antonio River, contains a replica of the Mission Nuestra Señora del Espiritu Santo de Zuniga originally established in 1722.

Restored Presidio Nuestra Señora de Loreto de la Bahia, established in 1722 and settled on the site in 1749, is located about one-quarter mile south of the Park.

Goliad memorial shaft which marks the common burial site of Fannin and victims of the Goliad massacre (1836), is located near Presidio in La Bahia.

Six Boys To Attend Camp

The Rockport Salvation Army Service Unit Committee will send six boys to Camp Hoblitzelle for a week's vacation starting July 14, according to the 1968 camp chairman, Mrs. Roy Lee Hart.

"Our youngsters will be among 800 others from 313 Salvation Army Service Unit cities who will attend the big camp near Midlothian over a four-week period this summer," Mrs. Hart said.

The boys are Tony Moreno, Joe R. Reyna, Robert Polina, Joe Gilbert Dominguez, Bobby Joe Garcia, Charles Oliver Dietrich.

They will go to Midlothian via Continental Trailways.

"It's a real opportunity for the kids who have never been to a real camp. At Hoblitzelle they enjoy boating, archery, horseback riding, swimming, crafts, movies, sports, worship services . . . you name it, and Camp Hoblitzelle has it."

Operated year around by the Salvation Army, the 370 acre camp near Dallas offers underprivileged youngsters and families a free vacation with all the modern facilities of a country club. Between now and Labor Day, over 2,800 people will attend a total of 16 different camp sessions.

Mrs. Hart said all organized activities are supervised by coaches and counselors. The campers are housed in brick redwood cabins, and receive well-balanced meals at the camp's own dining room.

Camp Hoblitzelle was built through the generous gifts of more than 100 individuals in Texas. The Salvation Army operates the camp for the benefit of children and families who would otherwise not have the opportunity to enjoy camp life.

School Board Explains Tax Ratio Change

The Board of Trustees of Aransas County Independent School District has issued the following statement:

"There has been some misunderstanding about the Aransas County Independent School District tax ratio change for 1968.

"This change will not amount to a 40 per cent increase in school taxes as is rumored by some uninformed sources.

"It is true that raising the ratio from 25 per cent to 35 per cent with no change in current tax rate of $1.98 per hundred dollars valuation would indicate a 40 per cent increase.

"Only after the August budget hearing can the exact tax rate be established, but at this time the Board of Trustees can assure taxpayers that the tax rate will be no more than $1.55 per hundred dollars valuation, which will result in LESS than a 10 per cent tax increase."

He reported that during the past three months his office has been in contact with 385 veterans or veterans' dependents. There have been 15 requests for direct home loans for these veterans or dependents.

"I have made 60 long distance telephone calls," Hunt added, "and have written 76 letters and filled out 52 forms for these veterans."

Permit Required for Possession Of 21 Undesirable Tropical Fish

Austin — Tropical fish fanciers should check their aquariums to make sure they are not supporting, without a permit, one of the 21 species and genera of fish placed on the undesirable list by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, according to Marion Toole, inland fisheries coordinator of the Department.

The purpose of the proclamation, Toole said, is not to prohibit the possession of such fish but to make sure they never find their way into the lakes, rivers and streams of the State.

The law, Senate Bill 507, passed by the 60th Legislature, requires anyone to obtain a permit to import or possess and of the 21 species and genera or their eggs regarded to be harmful or potentially harmful to human or animal life. Violation of the law and conviction could mean a fine ranging from $50 to $200.

"I don't think we'd have to tell any tropical fish buff what the introduction of the dreaded piranha would do to our wade fishermen, swimmers and water skiers," he said. "The piranha is best known for his eating habits,

Local People To Start Paying 4% Sales Tax Oct. 1

Now that the State Legislature has added a penny to the 2 per cent state sales tax, and since the City of Rockport passed a 1 per cent sales tax, this means that beginning Oct. 1st people buying things in Rockport (and in Texas cities where 80 per cent of the state's residents live) will begin paying a 4 percent sales tax.

Texas' 2 per cent retail sales tax was touted as a "growth tax" when it was first enacted in 1961.

Its "growth" Tuesday was of a different sort than was advertised by its 1961 sponsors who said the tax's revenue would grow with the economy and keep pace with the state government's financial needs.

The Legislature added a penny to the 2 cents on the dollar state tax, starting Oct. 1.

Combined with the 1 per cent local sales taxes paid in 270 cities, which have about 80 per cent of the state's people, the new increase means a 4 per cent sales tax for most Texans.

That means the "growth tax" has really grown, doubling its impact on the typical consumer's wallet or purse in just about seven years.

In addition to the retail sales tax increase, the Legislature also passed a 1 per cent (continued on page 8)

Landings of headless shrimp in Texas during May totaled 2.1 million pounds. This was somewhat below May landings in 1967 but kept the January-May 1968, five-month total some 1.2 million pounds above the corresponding 1967 period, according to Orman H. Farley, supervisory fishery reporting specialist, Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, Galveston.

The following data represent landings of headless shrimp for specified areas and periods:

Port Arthur-Sabine: 31,600 pounds, May 1968; 223,000 pounds, Jan.-May 1968; 264,800 pounds, Jan.-May 1967.

Aransas Pass-Rockport: 370,100, May 1968; 1,598,400, Jan.-May 1968; 1,609,500, Jan.-May 1967.

Brownsville-Port Isabel: 1,246,400, May 1968; 5,261,200, Jan.-May 1968; 4,025,800, Jan.-May 1967.

Totals: 2,065,100, May 1968; 8,821,300, Jan.-May 1968; 7,641,700, Jan.-May 1967.

Shrimp trawl vessels working brown shrimp made poor to fair catches throughout May. Captains reported trip averages of 150-200 pounds per night in all areas from off Veracruz, Mexico to south of Cameron, La. Catches were mixed with brown and pink shrimp. The pink (hoppers) were rather sparse, contrary to earlier indications of a large population of juvenile animals in the central and southern bay areas.

NOTICE

Youth Recreation Sponsors will have a dance at the Airpark Recreation Center Friday evening, July 5 from 8:30 to midnight. Music will be furnished by the Portly Dragons.

County Judge John D. Wendell said today that tests by the State Department of Health have revealed contamination in 45 per cent of all samples of water taken from private water wells in Aransas County.

It is estimated there are more than 3,000 private water wells in the county. Most of the contamination has occurred, authorities believe, during the heavy rains in recent weeks which left water standing in many areas throughout the county.

After conferring with W. R. Johnston, P. E., Corpus Christi, regional engineer, State Department of Health, Judge Wendell issued the following suggestions to persons whose wells are contaminated and to those who fear their wells may be contaminated:

1) Chlorinate your well. Do this by pouring a gallon of liquid bleach containing chlorine into the well.

2) Then turn on each faucet and let the water run until you can smell the chlorine. Then turn off each faucet. It is recommended that you do this in the late afternoon and that you don't use any water for 24 hours (or at least overnight.) This gives the chlorine enough time to kill the bacteria.

3) Check well construction to see if it is properly sealed at the top casing.

4) Make sure that surface water can drain from around the well. A sloped concrete slat around the casing is recommended.

5) After you have given your well a chlorine treatment, place a sample of your well water in a sterile bottle and take it or mail it to: Corpus Christi-Nueces County Health Department, Health Center Building, 1811 Shoreline, P. O. Box 49, Corpus Christi, where it will be tested.

Judge Wendell has copies of a Texas State Department of Health booklet titled "Protection" which he will distribute to interested persons.

Anyone who needs more information is advised to contact his County Commissioner or Judge Wendell.

INVASION PREDICTED

The automobile population in the United States—the number of cars registered—is expected to jump 14 million in the next five years to a total of 89 million. This good news for the auto manufacturers but it could be bad news for the public if our streets and highways are not able to absorb this increased load.

The addition of 14 million cars would clog many of our cities and highways if local, state, and national officials should get bogged down in the current highway problems and fail to prepare for this predicted invasion.—Houston Chronicle.

COMPUTER COURT

Can a computer deliver more equitable sentences than a flesh-and-blood magistrate?

The question may soon be answered in Britain where the Lord Chancellor has appointed a committee to study a proposal that computers replace magistrates in the lower courts.

Sentences for all types of crime would be stored in a central computer. Fresh information would be fed in, giving the offender's previous record, his financial circumstances and other information. Sentences would be based on the computer's recommendations.

The fact that a machine has been devised with the capability of measuring human transgressions is terrifying, in a sense.

Only a few short years ago, man, the proud inventor, was showing off his new brainchild, the computer.

Now the computer is judging man.—St. John (N.B.) Telegraph-Journal.

GOOD NEIGHBOR

The concept of a good neighbor is slowly changing. Indeed, the word "neighbor," itself has been extended to mean more than the man next door. It embraces the man who is starving in India, the underdog in Vietnam, and the illiterate in remote places. The whole world is our neighborhood, we are told. Yet, in the strict sense, your neighbor is still the one who lives in the house next to yours or the farmer down the road a piece.—Frederic (Wisc.) Inter-County Leader.

MAN, YOU NEED SOCKS!

Fads go and come with the years. Many are distasteful and some are just plain funny. One of the more recent ones brought to our attention is that of many of our college men and some of our high school boys, wearing shoes without socks.

Is it sexy to show the top half of one's foot or the lower half of one's ankle? Sickening seems to be the most appropriate word. It appears that there is very little excuse for one having to wear shoes without the comfort of socks. If it is that these people can't afford socks, then they should apply under the new federal give away program.

You can call us old fashioned if you like, but one passing example of this was a college man with a colorful new sport coat, slacks, and a clean white shirt and the tie, but lo and behold, no socks!—York (Ala.) Sumter County Journal.

THE WONDERS OF SCIENCE

After elaborate laboratory tests, presumably with a computer a Chicago dentist announces that "the jaw must be in its normal position in space" if Homus Americanus is to chew gum properly. His admonition, coming at the start of the circus season, will doubtless be weighted carefully by all gum chewers of 12 years or under.

But what of popcorn munchers? Why are they and all juvenile consumers of hot dogs, lollipops and soda pop ignored in this epochal scientific report? What of their rights under the First Amendment? Or the Commerce clause? Who is to say that the jaw has a "normal position in space"? Isn't that a breach of privacy?

More research obviously is in order. What the good doctor needs isn't more laboratory work, but a seat opposite the center ring, amid the small fry, where he can intensify his field work.—Boston Globe.

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q—Both I-Y and IV-F are given those unacceptable to the service. What's the difference?

A—The man classified I-Y is not currently qualified for service, but would be in time of war or national emergency declared by the Congress. The man in IV-F is not qualified for service either now or in time of war or emergency.

Q—When is a Selective Service classification subject to court review?

A—Section 10(b)(3) of the draft laws says: "No judicial review shall be made of the classification or processing of any registrant by local boards, appeal boards, or the President, except as a defense to criminal prosecution instituted under section 12 of this title, after the registrant has responded either affirmatively or negatively to an order to report for induction, or for civilian work in the case of a registrant determined to be opposed to participation in war in any form: Provided, that such review shall go to the question of the jurisdiction herein reserved to local boards, appeal boards, and the President only when there is no basis in fact for the classification assigned to such registrant." Section 12, referred to above, deals with penalties.

Q—May I get details about educational benefits under the "G.I. Bill?"

A—The Veteran's Adjustment Benefits Act of 1966, frequently called the "Third Generation GI Bill," is administered by the Veterans Administration, not Selective Service. Contact any office of that agency, or write the Veterans Administration, Washington, D.C. 20420.

Why do we need so many more new customers for paints?

Because the ones we sold yesterday probably won't be back for another 5 years

When you sell a really good paint, it's a long time between customers. Not that we're complaining. We know "once a TRU-TEST customer, always a TRU-TEST customer". Once a man actually puts TRU-TEST on his brush. Or roller. Sees how easy it is to apply. How clear and true the color stays. And how it wears for years and years and years. Oh, he'll be back all right. But not for a long long time. So that's why we're always looking. Are you, by any chance, a new customer?

YOUR CHOICE: Our finest pure Lead-Zinc-Titanium and linseed oil in properly balanced blend. OR: Latex—the best features of oil base, plus easy application and clean-up.

Fort Griffin Was Rough and Tumble Outpost

Albany—In the saga of the wild and woolly west, it is hard to imagine a frontier outpost wilder or woollier than Fort Griffin, now a 503 acre State Historic Park, 25 miles north of Albany in Shackelford County.

Established as the most strategic point in a frontier defense line to protect settlers from the Comanches, the fort attracted both the skum and dregs of humanity. With the constant danger which any frontier outpost faces, life was cheap, and there were men who took advantage of the bargain basement prices.

First known as Camp Wilson for the late son of the U.S. Senator from Massachusetts, the fort was established July 31, 1867 by units of the Sixth U. S. Cavalry commanded by Lt. Col. Samuel D. Sturgis.

Temporary structures, chiefly tents and picket houses, were set up to house men, and log houses from a nearby ranch were hauled in and reconstructed to serve as headquarters for the post commander and as a hospital.

Built on a bluff overlooking the Clear Fork branch of the Brazos River, a site which came to be known as "Government Hill," Fort Griffin was in a commanding position to withstand attack, and had the added advantage of being close to a constant supply of good water.

The fort was an important supply post for buffalo hunters, trail drivers, and settlers. The Western Cattle Trail which wound through Fort Griffin brought more than 1,000,000 head of cattle driven by 2,000 cowboys through there in 1871.

At the time Fort Griffin was established, the situation along the far western border of Texas from the Red River to the Rio Grande was desperate indeed.

Some 800 persons on the frontier had been murdered by Indians in the period from June 1862 to 1867, and the Indian marauders, chiefly Kiowas and Quahada Comanches, usually managed to elude the punitive expeditions sent against them.

Scarcely a fifth of the ranches were occupied, according to a report in the "Waco Register" of April 21, 1866, and the area around Fort Griffin in particular was swarming with Comanches, drawn there by the numerous buffalo herds.

White outlaws dressed as Indians raided Indian Territory, stirring up the savages to vengeful atrocities. Petitions and angry letters to Congress and to military authorities finally achieved the desired result: A decision to establish a new frontier defense line, one on which "Fort Griffin was the most strategic point."

With troops from the fort garrisoning subposts at Belknap and west of Phantom Hill, the settlers at last had some measure of security against Indian raids.

After several campaigns and battles, the Indian problem in Fort Griffin area was substantially solved, and plans to abandon the Fort as early as 1873 were made.

But the settlers protested. They were by no means positive that the Indian menace was a thing of the past, and they drew up a formal petition, requesting the "border guardian" be maintained.

Their pleas were heeded, and troops stayed on at Fort Griffin for a number of years.

Frontier towns and forts, by their nature, attracted the most adventurous and roguish characters in the country, and during the years which Fort Griffin guarded the country, it got its share of fortune seekers and cutthroats.

Soldiers, settlers, cowboys, buffalo hunters, and marauding Comanches mingled and clashed throughout its exciting 14 year history. Shoot-outs and fist fights were part of everyday life at Fort Griffin, and both the town calaboose and the Fort Griffin guard-house were full to overflowing.

Full of outlaws and scoundrels, the town had 35 killings, eight or ten persons found dead, and 12 more either shot or strung up by officers of the law.

Wyatt Earp and Doc Holiday began their celebrated friendship in Fort Griffin, and the notorious outlaw "Joe Bowers" was a barkeeper in one of the numerous saloons in the town just south of Fort Griffin.

No frontier town would have been complete without its house of ill repute, and Fort Griffin had one with one of the most picturesque names in the west. It was called the "Palace of Beautiful Sin" and was presided over by Mollie McCabe.

The roughness of the town, of course is only one side of the coin. The beautiful land attracted sober and respectable businessmen and ranchers as well as ruffians; men such as Frank Conrad, W. S. Dalrymple, Judge Reynolds, John Alexander Matthews, and heads of other distinguished frontier families—"the vanguard of culture which would soon transform that country."

Law and order did ultimately prevail. The Comanches were subdued, the buffalo hunters had slaughtered most of the southern herd by 1879 and moved on to other pastures, cattle drives along the Western Trails gradually diminished, and responsible citizens allied themselves with efficient military commanders to bring civilized peace to the area.

The fort was officially abandoned on May 31, 1881, when the last troops, Captain J. B. Irvine and Company A of the 22nd Infantry, marched off to Fort Clark for reassignment.

Within a few years, the frame structures had deteriorated or had been hauled away by settlers. On the level top of Government Hill today, only a few remains of the stone structures may be seen—crumbling walls, and naked rock chimneys, mute evidence of a rip-roaring past.

Now a part of Fort Griffin State Park, the site contains a 40-ton granite monument, with bronze tablet on which are recorded the dates of military occupancy, and a tribute to the town as the seat of West Texas civilization, Heritage "History of Flight." The children would enjoy Mier's "Where Liberty Stands Guard," the First Book of the American Revolution, stories of the Pilgrims, Johnson's "America is Born," "Land of the Free," Ross' "Know Your Government," "How we Became Americans," and stories about the Indians of America.

All these books and many others will be found at your Aransas County Public Library.

Cut Calory Intake To Trim Waistline

Counting calories is a favorite pastime among those of us who want to lose weight.

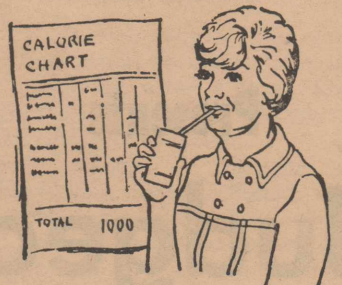

The term "calory" is used as a unit in expressing the energy-producing value of food. When we say that a tablespoon of honey contains about 100 calories, it means that the honey, when utilized by the tissues of the body, will release that amount of energy to be expended in bodily activity.

The usual weight-reduction goal of one or two pounds' loss per week is achieved by a daily intake of 500 to 1,000 calories less than the intake needed to maintain the weight at which reducing was begun.

The American Medical Association's home health book, "Today's Health Guide" points out that 1,000 calories represent the smallest practical intake that can provide the recommended daily allowances of essential minerals and vitamins through usual food sources. For children, the minimum figure on which to lose weight is close to 1,600 calories, with 1,800 often recommended to ensure a margin of safety.

But all of us are different, and caloric needs are an individual affair. They should be worked out in consultation with your physician. He can help you arrive at a reasonable figure, permitting you to lose weight steadily and gradually, and at the same time maintain good health and not go hungry.

Liquid formula diets unquestionably have helped many persons to lose weight. Although some of these preparations combine the merits of economy, acceptability and nutritional balance, they lend themselves to short-term, intensive weight loss. This only postpones the day of reckoning when the dieter must return to usual food-stuffs.

Calory charts will help guide you in determining what you can eat, and in what quantity, to maintain your desired daily intake. Some diet specialists now recommend five or six small meals a day, rather than two or three large ones. Others favor periods of complete fasting at the onset of the diet for an excessively overweight person.

Whatever program your physician prescribes for you, there is one important thing to remember—calories do count. To lose weight, we must expend more energy than we take in.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Horton of Rockport announce the engagement of their daughter Linda, to Robert James Seawright, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Seawright, Sr. of Fulton.

The couple will marry Aug. 3, in the Memorial Baptist Church in El Copano.

"Don't Blame Me!"

Startlingly simple was the defense offered by a young man accused of murdering his own father.

"I'm a rough character," he conceded in court, "but only because my father brought me up that way. He taught me to drink whiskey, use a gun, and run around with a gang. So don't blame me for what I did. Blame my father."

No doubt the slain father bore a share of the fault. But the court held the son guilty anyhow because he was old enough and rational enough to take responsibility for his own behavior.

To what degree should extenuating circumstances otherwise be a crime? To what degree should a killer be allowed to blame his upbringing? A thief his poverty? A rapist his passion? A vandal his youthfulness?

In an earlier day, there was little of such talk in the courtroom. Wrong brought retribution almost as a matter of course. Scarcely a century ago, a murderer was put to death in an American prison even though he was only 12 years old.

But with greater insight into human motivations has come greater understanding in fixing blame.

Thus, mental deficiencies are increasingly taken into account—not only in deciding on legal guilt but also in setting the punishment. And all states recognize a minimum age below which a person cannot be held to criminal liability.

Nevertheless, while today's law avoids total responsibility,

Two Birthdays Are Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Freeborn entertained their son, Terry, on his 12th birthday, and their niece, Debbie Lineberry, on her 14th birthday, June 22, with a swimming party and picnic at the Freeborn home in Fulton.

Guests present were Roy Sarver and David Mundine of Fulton, Chuck and Cheryl Campbell of George West, Kathy, Lynn, and Beth Freeborn of Orange Grove, Mary, Lyn and Beth Freeborn of Orange Grove, Mary, Patricia and Janie Torres of Rockport, Sandra, Mitchell, Sharon, Brenda and Joyce Rae of Rockport.

it also avoids total responsibility. It holds that most people, in most situations, do indeed have freedom of choice between doing right and doing wrong.

Because of that freedom, an individual is expected to stand on his own feet, be his own man, and "take his medicine" for what he does wrong—just as he is entitled to take credit for what he does right.

In short, despite outer influence or inner weakness, despite the pressure of adversity or the lure of temptation, he usually has the power to refrain from harming others—if he tries hard enough.

And, for the sake of society the law demands that he try that hard.

cent increase in the present 2 per cent automobile sales tax, adding about $30 to the price of a $3,000 car. The tax applies to both new and used motor vehicles.

Businessmen also were hit by the tax bill. The corporation franchise tax was boosted from $2.25 to $2.75 per $1,000 of assets. The additional tax would expire April 30, 1973. The debt component of the present franchise tax formula would be gradually scaled down from $2.25 per $1,000 this year to 50 cents per $10,000 in the year ending April 30, 1973.

The franchise tax changes would take effect with taxes paid May 1, 1969.

In cities with local sales taxes, the combined state and city tax would start with purchases of 13 cents or more. Where no local tax is in force, the breaking point would be 17 cents.

Vending machine sales of 16 cents or less would be exempt. No important changes were made in exemptions from the tax, which are the same for both city and state levies and include such essentials as food, housing and prescription drugs. Services and a large number of purchases ordinarily made by farmers and ranchers, such as implements, seed and fertilizer also are exempt.

On sales under a dollar, it would be 1 cent on purchases in city sales tax towns, the rates would be 1 cent on purchase of 13-37 cents, 2 cents on purchases of 38-62 cents, 3 cents on purchases of 63-87 cents, and 4 cents on purchases of 88 cents—$1.12.

Where there is no city sales tax, the rates will be 1 cent on sales of 17-49 cents, 2 cents on sales of 50-83 cents and 3 cents on transactions of 84 cents—$1.16.

SHRIMP LANDINGS—

only fair to poor. However, spawning females were taken inside of five fathoms along the entire coast. The pink shrimp fishery in the Campeche Bay continued fair to poor as in previous months.

Blue crab landings of 480,000 pounds during May were the largest May landing since 1962 and also the largest monthly landing since that date. The large population of blue crabs in lal bays resulted from good ecological conditions brought about by heavy rainfall in all coastal watershed areas. One of the most abundant crab populations in the state is in the Laguna Madre and was not worked during May with the exception of the few taken at Port Isabel. Fishermen do not seem interested in working this area.

Young-of-the-year brown shrimp in Texas bays displayed irregular patterns throughout May as a result of flood waters along the entire coast. All rivers were at or above flood stage throughout May, creating fresh-water bearers in all bays. Some coastal counties recorded over 15 inches of rainfall, excluding small brownies from regular nursery areas except the Laguna Madre. Young-of-the-year brown shrimp moved into bay systems along the Texas coast about mid-May. With the anticipated movement of juvenile shrimp came unexpected heavy floods in all nursery areas. All rivers were at or above flood stage, creating fresh-water barriers. Some prominent nursery areas were to near fresh—at best brackish. The Laguna Madre from Corpus Christi to Port Isabel showed the largest population of any bay system. However, this entire area is closed to commercial trawling. Other bays contained fair to good numbers of very small brown shrimp confined to waters adjacent to passes.

Heavy rains from Calhoun County southward have created severe health problems from mosquitoes and contaminated water sources. All low-land areas are either submerged or partially so and the only way to drain many of these areas will be with mechanical flood control devices. Nine new vessels made maiden voyages in May. The large number of Texas vessels now in the shrimp fishery, along with out-of-state units that work adjacent waters, will exert heavy fishing pressure from June through October. Small units that work bay areas and small dockside facilities that service the units are finding it very difficult to remain operational.

The 1967 white shrimp crop in Texas bays was poor; the 1968 spring brown shrimp crop practically non-existent, and early summer conditions do not look promising for the 1968 fall white shrimp crop.

PERMIT REQUIRED—

wade fisherman or a fallen waterskier. Most of the fish on the undesirable list are native to tropical countries but could survive and reproduce in Texas waters, Toole said. Several states have passed similar laws concerning these undesirable.

Toole said the Texas law also covers fish which were in possession at the time the law was passed as well as those brought into the State after the law was passed. Any tropical fish fancier buying, selling or possessing these undesirable fish or their eggs should secure a permit from the Executive Director, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, 78701. The permits are free.

DID THE RAINS LEAVE YOU SOAKED -- SOGGY WITH WATER STANDING IN YOUR YARD AND STREET AND LAWN -- YOUR SHRUBS DESTROYED OR DAMAGED?

ARE YOU FED UP WITH

Non-operational septic tank or "slop-jar" plumbing inconveniences—Contaminated water well—necessitating boiling or chlorinating water before consumption — Uncurbed streets — plugged culverts — water filled ditches — and the wet and soggy and unsightly mess of weeds and grass and dirt piled along your road in desperate but virtually futile efforts of your commissioner to try to drain excess standing water to lower ground — assuming you are not yourself living in the low.

Higher insurance rates because you reside outside City Limits and have virtually no fire protection.

Higher utility bills because you reside outside the City Limits.

Spending good money for constant water well and septic tank repairs.

The complete frustration of seeing your home investment lose value because you can't control the use your good neighbor makes of his house and yard to collect and store junk.

Do you have to send your children to school after they've been soaked, with their home-work soggy wet, waiting for the school bus.

IF YOU ARE TRULY FED UP WITH SEWER CONDITIONS . . .

If you are ready for a change to CITY SEWERS that work, rain or shine, for a change to curbed streets that get rid of all the water Beulah or Candy or Tillie or Lula can deliver just about as fast as it collects. For a change to a dependable supply of potable treated City water; for and locating adjacent to the Aransas County High and Junior High Schools; for lower insurance and utility costs for that offset City taxes which provide the sewers, dependable water, proper drainage, police protection, fire hydrants, garbage and trash collection, street maintenance, and other urban benefits.

THEN SEE PENINSULA PARK

By taking your boat to the nearest dry land and proceeding by auto to the S.W. corner of the high school and the PENINSULA PARK SIGN located there, and STOP!

Visualize the wide street ahead of you, paved with curb and gutter on each side and sidewalk along the south side and an attractive and distinctive entrance at the point where you have stopped, beautifully landscaped and illuminated at night; then proceed forward 150 feet to the paved intersection with East Piasiano Drive and turn left and again stop!

Observe the high terrain, the pretty oaks, the street sloping gently but constantly south, between curbs and gutters, carrying off excess surface waters as fast as they accumulate (if it happens to be raining hard when you are stopped there, you will have the most convincing evidence); and then visualize acres of paved and curbed and guttered streets and beautiful all masonry residences, with all utilities underground (no interior utility poles in this subdivision) and water drained into storm sewers and sensible deed restrictions prohibiting businesses, trucks, shanties, junk and nuisance conditions and shrimpboats and whatever you wouldn't like next door to your home from ever being there.

You say THIS IS FOR ME AND MINE and you would like to change, then CALL SO 4-5177. Plan your change for a wide, roomy, tree-shaded lot in PENINSULA PARK where . . .

(1) There are or will be all these wonderful features we've described.

(2) Five unsold lots are available already connected to City sewer, water and natural gas. Each lot having minimum 84 foot street frontage and prices from $2750 to $3500.

(3) FHA and GI loan approval has been obtained for minimum down payment and loans.

(4) You can use your plans and your builder or we'll build for you to your plans or ours.

(5) More streets will be built and utilities installed as soon as present plans of City of Rockport to install additional sewer lines to connect to the recently modernized and enlarged sewer plant have been completed and as demands for lots warrants.

(6) Subdivision entranceway will be built, as described, when public projects essential to proceeding have been accomplished.

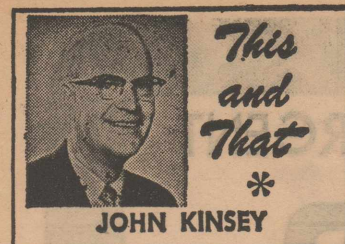

It may be that you are FED UP, but stuck with an inundated house and are boiling water and trying to devise a way to flush a slop jar and make surface water run uphill, but don't let this deter you. Some day the rains will cease and the floods will recede, perhaps you can be fortunate enough to find a buyer for your house who hasn't been in the area at any time since Beulah and you might drop it on him—in the meantime you will have your new home site partially, or perhaps fully, paid for. And if you can or must wait a year or two, pick a lot not yet on street and utilities at special discounted pre-development prices and the owners will contract to have your lot ready to go when you are.

IF YOU ARE REALLY GOOD AND FED UP, THEN SOME DAY
YOU WILL NO LONGER BE FED UP!

If You Will Call SO 4-5177

and Plan Your Future — High and Dry and Out of the Mud

U. S. Highway accidents between 1900 and 1967 took the lives of 1,666,113 Americans. This figure exceeds the 1-146,415 Americans killed in all the U.S. wars between 1775 and 1967.

This information was supplied by the Statistical Services branch of the Texas Department of Public Safety which also supplied the following data on the cost of traffic accidents:

The playing area of a football field measures 300 feet by 160 feet.

United States currency measures about 2 1/2 inches by 6 1/2 inches.

If a football field was completely covered with one dollar bills, then a layer of two dollar bills, then a layer of five dollar bills, then a layer of ten dollar bills, then a layer of twenty dollar bills, then a layer of fifty dollar bills, then a layer of hundred dollar bills, then a layer of one thousand dollar bills—now on top of these nine layers of paper money, dump 1,961 tons of silver dollars and the money on that football field would represent the economic loss we suffered in Texas for the year 1967.

The $793,094,000 estimated loss for this one year would buy:

10,000 homes at $20,000 each. 10,000 refrigerators at $400 each. 10,000 electric ranges at $350 each. 10,000 TV sets at $350 each. 10,000 dishwashers at $300 each. 10,000 automobiles at $3,000 each. 10,000 central air conditioning at $1,400 each, and furnish the head of each of the 10,000 households with a bank account of $53,509.

HUGLUND'S HAPPENINGS

APRIL 14, 1894—The public got its first peek at inventor Thomas A. Edison's Kinetoscope, a prototype self-contained motion picture machine, when it was shown at 1155 Broadway, New York City. It never quite caught on, and was patented only in the United States.

CHILD'S BENEFITS MAY BE PAID ON MOTHER'S ACCOUNT

The children of a deceased woman worker now have the same right to social security payments on their mother's account as they do on the account of the father, says H. M. Cleveland, District Manager of the Social Security Administration in Corpus Christi.

Some children, who could not receive benefits at the time their mother died, may now be paid. These survivors' insurance payments may continue each month to age 22 if the child remains in school and does not get married.

"This change is the result of a new definition of 'dependency' in the Social Security Act," Cleveland explained. "Of course, the deceased mother must have worked on social security jobs long enough to be insured. In some cases, children whose mother died as early as 1947 or later can now be paid."

"An application for the child's benefits must be filed," he said. "We would like for anyone who believes he may be eligible to receive the payments to get in touch with the social security office without delay."

This applies especially to those whose applications were denied at the time of their mother's death. Detailed information can be secured from the Social Security Administration, 1802 South Staples Street, Corpus Christi.

Letter to the Editor

June 26, 1968

Mr. John R. Kinsey
Editor, The Rockport Pilot
Rockport, Texas
Dear Mr. Kinsey:

Your answer was prompt, warm and responsive. You seem to have sensitivity to the problems of the area and its people.

When we drove along the Gulf Coast last year from Brownsville to Galveston and looked at our lot at Holiday Beach, I was impressed with the refreshing mixture cities, small towns, open country and nice people. And between just north of Corpus Christi to about Bay City, I noticed the absence of so-called sub-standard housing or the disenchanting poor so much in the limelight these days.

This seems to me to be one of the most attractive features of the Rockport area. I saw very little potential for violent racial or social unrest. There appears to be a well distributed pattern of economic growth opportunity, and very little evidence of slums.

We have every reason to believe that Rockport will be our home within the next few years.

Sincerely,
A. R. Frasier

Do discounts cover the extra cost of getting there?

Do you really save money shopping outside our home business community? When you consider gasoline, oil, tires, depreciation, repairs, parking, investment in time and money—do so-called "big city discounts" really cover the cost of getting there?

Unless you enjoy the confusion and frustration of off-ramps, on-ramps, diamond, cloverleaf and one-way directional flow interchanges, we suggest you save your tension, time and money. Shop at home.
