CHECK-UP MADE BY WORKERS IN RAILROAD DRIVE

TOTAL COLLECTED ISN'T ANNOUNCED; REFUSALS TO PAY ARE FEW

Members of the collections committee for the Denver right-of-way fund of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce made their first report to headquarters office Friday shortly before noon, but pending complete check-up on the collections to date, the amount secured by the committee workers was not announced. It was said, however, that reception of collectors in a few instances was not in the best of good humor, and that in a few instances signers of notes refused to make payment. The committees generally seem to agree that their job is not one to be solicited, but they insist that the notes must be paid in order that the railroad may begin early construction of the line into this city.

No Threats Made

While the railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce does not want to be placed in the attitude of threatening signers of the notes, they are agreed that there are ways of collecting them, for they were accepted, not only as a moral obligation by citizens of the city, but as legal tender on which court service may be had if necessary. O. L. Slaton, chairman of the committee, said: "Only in a very few instances have signers flatly refused to make payment, it was said. In the meantime, the right-of-way committee for city property, affected is going ahead with its work of securing information as to owners of property that is directly affected and signing up deeds. Members of this committee report good success, but cited one instance wherein owners of certain property have subdivided acreage that in the direct line of the right-of-way and blocked the property off into lots, all of which, committee men said, has been done this week. Committees will continue their efforts until sufficient funds are in the hands of the central committee to buy and turn over to the railroad company the necessary right-of-way, it was said at the Chamber of Commerce office.

July sold up to 14.33 and December to 14.75 in early trading, net advances of about 6 or 7 points, but the higher prices brought out some realizing and a little southern selling. This was absorbed on reactions of 2 to 4 points from the best and the market was quiet but fairly steady at the end of the first hour.

There was no improvement in the volume of business, but prices held steady on further covering, while a little trade buying was also reported. At midday July was selling around 14.32 and December 14.72, or 4 to 5 points net higher.

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—Renewed buying of the high grade investment rails featured the irregular opening of today's stock market. New York Central, New York, Ontario and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Baltimore and Ohio all registered early gains of a point or so, the last named crossing 116 to a new peak. Colorado Fuel and Pan-American B also opened a point or so higher but Dupont broke 4 points and Tobacco Products and International Telephone yielded a point or so.

Continuation of record breaking freight traffic and speculative hopes that recent wage increases would be followed by an upward readjustment of rates in some sections of the country stimulated demand for the rails. Commercial Solvents B. crossed 305, for the first time. Early bear selling was directed chiefly against the tobacco, which were in rather free supply on rumors of price cuts, and the foods, which reflected the omission of the southern dairies a dividend. Tobacco products sold down more than 2 points and Continental Baking A, South Porto Rican sugar, Great Western sugar and Southern Dairies A sold down a point or more, the last named touched a new low. A sudden demand for Southern Pacific carried that stock up above 115 to the highest price in several years. Foreign exchanges opened firm with demand sterling quoted at $4.85 5/16 and French francs just below 2.91 cents.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, April 8 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: The wool market is narrow and featurless at the moment and prices are inclined to favor the buyers lightly. Foreign markets are less active. In the west comparatively little business is reported, except for a few small clips in Nevada at 23 to 26 cents, for short combing fine and fine medium wools. Continued cold rains have delayed early shearing two to three weeks in many sections. Mohair is quiet. Some hair is reported sold in Texas at U'valde at 52 cents for goat and 62 cents for kid.

CHAMPION STEERS BEAT PITTSBURGH PIRATES, SCORE 3 TO 1

HEAVY HITTING TIGERS DEFEAT WICHITA FALLS

SCHALK FEELS BETTER AS FABER ROUNDS INTO REGULAR FORM

(By The Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, April 8.—Indications are that Ray Kemmer will pitch the opening game of the Pittsburgh Pirates at Cincinnati on April 12. Dallas trimmed the Bluecoats yesterday, 2-1 and today the Pirates were to oppose the Little Rock Travelers of the Southern Association.

Mackie Win Title
PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—The Athletics already have won a baseball championship, although the major league opening is still in the offing. They stopped the Phillies, 2 to 1, yesterday clinching the municipal title, three games to one.

Tiger Lineup Shifted
DETROIT, April 8.—The problem of arranging an effective batting lineup for the Detroit Tigers has been solved as the result of a successful experiment. Manush, a consistent hitter was moved to second place; Fothergill, a fence-buster to third; Harry Heilmann, a dependable safety man and slugger was given the clean up berth and Bill McManus and Warner followed in order.

This combination yesterday wrecked the defense of the Texas League team at Wichita Falls, with rallies each time it swung around to bat.

New Yorkers To Home
NEW YORK, April 8.—Gotham welcomes home three thumping metropolitan teams tomorrow after a hectic training campaign which has strengthened prospects of powerful pennant drives by the Yankees and Giants.

First of the northward bound clubs to reach New York will be the Yanks, who pulled stakes in Nashville, Tenn., last night, after holding the Cardinals even in a spring renewal of their world series struggle.

Frisch Hits Two
A pair of home runs by Frank Frisch, erstwhile Giant, enabled the world champions to carry off the eighth game of their tour, 10 to 8.

The Giants at the same time stove in the Senators' defense again with a high geared clouting attack, 19 to 9. Twenty three safe smashes, rode into the distant scenery of Washington Park, clinching the series honors for Manager John McGraw, 7 games to 2, on the occasion of the 5th birthday anniversary.

Faber Hits His Stride

CHICAGO, April 8.—The dean of the Chicago White Sox pitchers, Red Faber, has at last established his fitness for the pennant season, after two discouraging starts. Facing Memphis yesterday, Faber began as before, yielding three successive hits, but he began to bear down then and with the help of some lively fielding, the opposition dwindled.

A day of rest was presented the Cubs in Kansas City by the weather man yesterday.

LOCAL GOLFERS CONTINUE PLAY

Business in Lubbock Open Is Picking Up Saturday Is Qualifying Deadline

With tomorrow the last day for qualifications this afternoon is expected to be big with the local country club as many of the golfers entered in the wide open tournament have not made their rounds yet. Several scores were turned in yesterday, some good and some not so good.

E. T. Daniels, golfer of Idalou, made the rounds yesterday afternoon and turned in the next lowest score made thus far in the meet. Daniels shot a 39 and a 42 for a total score of 81.

Herbert Stubbs turned in a couple of 8's. Eric Pusey made a 46 and 45 for a total of 91. Vaughn Wilson shot a 98 in eight holes, and will no doubt be placed in the first division.

Oscar Lyles shot a 56 and a 51 for 107 score. Two Tech students qualified yesterday afternoon, Melvin Dow and Percy Denton. Dow shot a 47 and 48 for a total of 95. Melvin Denton made a 54 and a 50 for a total of 104.

Many other local golfers have played their qualifying rounds but have not posted their scores with the board at Bowen's drug store.

Voigt And Homans Play Golf Finals

PINEHURST, N. C., April 8.—George Voigt, a former caddy of Washington, and Eugene Homans, 18 year old metropolitan junior amateur champion of Englewood, N. J., will meet in the finals of the united north and south amateur golf tournament. The match will be for 36 holes.

Voigt today defeated Joseph Crawford of Pittsburgh 4 and 3 and Homans won from George T. Dunlap Jr. of New York, another youngster, 3 and 2.

Your ad in two papers for the price of one will bring sure results.

Two Texans Take Marathon Jaunt

AUSTIN, Apr. 8.—Breathing easily and without appreciable fatigue, L. V. Ray, 21 year old high school teacher, and Richard Ward, 17, high school student, ran 16 miles from Pflugerville to the Austin city limits last night in 2 hours and 15 minutes averaging slightly better than 7 miles an hour.

Ward was seized with a cramp in one leg at the city limits here and the boys abandoned the remainder of the 17 mile run which would have brought them downtown. Other than a painful knot in the thigh, Ward was in good condition and apparently suffered no great fatigue.

Ray declared he could run back to Pflugerville, and with practice could run from here to San Antonio, taking back trail on the Tarahumara Indians famous 48 mile run, recently.

National League's Owners In Session

PITTSBURGH, April 8.—Club owners of the National League went into executive session here today, to seek a solution of the problems surrounding the disposition of 1,167 shares of stock of the St. Louis Cardinals held by Rogers Hornsby, second baseman of the New York Giants.

The special meeting of the club owners was called by President John A. Heydler to decide whether he is right in his ruling that so long as Hornsby is financially interested in the Cardinals he cannot play ball with the Giants.

Strangler Lewis Beats John Pesek

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis of Chicago, heavyweight wrestler, defeated John Pesek, Nebraska "Tiger man" here last night. Lewis won two out of three falls.

HENDRICKS HAS GOOD PITCHING

Cincinnati Pilot Smiles As He Views Impressive Group Of Hurlers

ORLANDO, Fla., April 8.—John Charles Hendricks, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, believes in millions for defense and does not think he will be called on to pay tribute. His pitching staff impresses him so favorably and he is so confident that he will have an air-tight defense that he counts on the offense to take care of itself.

"I've have the pitchers," said Manager Hendricks. "I think we can compare our staff to that of any club in either league."

"I have a regular pitcher to start every day, something that can not be sold of all the managers. We have a good chance to pick up a couple of excellent pitchers from the new crop and Arthur Neff seems to have definitely returned to form."

"The return of Neff means a lot for he is a really great pitcher. He was so troubled by neuritis last year that he could not grasp the ball and came to me to protest against being continued on the pay roll. I'm not helping you," he told me, "and I shouldn't be getting paid."

"From all indications now he will not feel any hesitancy about accepting his pay-check this season."

"But our club is not top-heavy with pitchers, at that. We will have a good hitting and fielding outfit as well. I don't know any club that has two such first basemen as Wally Pipp and George Kelly. And in the outfield we can switch from left to right handed batsmen any time the occasion calls for it."

"Of course we are hopeful. I think we are justified in our confidence that at least we will be very much in the running. We were barely beaten last year and I think we are better now than we were then. The others are better, too, so it looks like it is sure to be a very exciting race. I have no fear that Christensen will not be able to take care of center

WITH THE COUNTRY CLUB TOURNAMENT

John Pennell shot the boy's right eye out yesterday. He parred the country club course yesterday afternoon with a 29 and pushed the ball around in the last nine holes for a 41. He has the lowest score now with a 77.

"Dead Eye Dick" Daniels of Idalou was over yesterday and qualified for the open tourney by checking in with an 85. Daniels will be in the high running in this tournament and will cause the local golfers to get down to real golf.

The high score for qualifications in the first division of the first open tournament will likely be 95. Some fairly low scores are being turned in by the local shooters and it is going to take a 95 or under to get in the first division.

Carl McCarty, caddy of the country club links, while resting between rounds yesterday turned in a 88 score.

field. Roush, of course, was and is a great ball player but Christensen can go get 'em, and he can hit. He had a better batting average last year than Roush by about 25 points."

Modern taste revels in the goodness of Camel

SMOKERS of today—the most particular and hardest to please—find their smoking wishes realized in the mellow goodness of Camels. They demand the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, and find them in Camel gloriously blended. Modern smokers put Camel ahead of all other cigarettes.

You should know the mildness, the mellowness that brings enjoyment to present-day smokers. You'll find it in Camel—every good point that could be looked for in a cigarette.

It's the modern favorite.

Matadors And Cadets Battle Through Eleven Innings And Close In 10-10 Tie

The Texas Tech Matadors and the Cadets of New Mexico Military Institute battled through eleven long innings yesterday in an effort to decide the last and second of a two game series here at the Tech Park, but were unable to break a 10-10 tie.

Although a grueling and tiring affair the game had its interesting characteristics and kept the fans interested throughout the entire eleven innings. Both clubs won and lost the same four different times but the score was readily changed with the smashing drives gathered in by both crews.

Freeland used three pitchers in an effort to check the free hitting of the trained recruits of Roswell but none were able to entirely block their hitting pace. Walker, ace right-hander who hurled to victory in the opener was sent to the mound in the eighth and with his fast curve slowed up the Institute hitting some, but did not check it.

Manning, Cadet pitcher, was better in the last stages of the game and pitched good baseball for the last five innings. In the last attempt to score off of Manning the Matadors were forced to retire to the bench as they were unable to touch him.

MANY USES FOR OLD-TIME FOOD

No longer just boiled rice with cream or butter! But a corn of three hundred uses. Food experts have found that rice can be substituted for anything with every thing from eggs to meats—that it absorbs the taste of any food it is cooked with, and improves the other food's flavor.

CALIFORNIA IS AFTER LAURELS

University Seeks Fourth Top Position In Track Circles Among Its Rivals

Berkeley, Cal., April 8 (AP)—Coach Walter Christie, who has directed California's track and field destinies for a quarter of a century has dedicated his 26th season to keeping intact his most cherished record—that of winning three successive I. C. A. A. A. championships.

To do this he must prevent Southern California's repeating this year. Christie's teams won in 1920, 1921 and 1922; the Trojans won in 1923 and 1924. If they amass the highest point total again this year they will have tied California. That will take much of the glitter out of the mythical shining shield that hangs in the training quarters of the Golden Bears.

THREE ON, TWO OUT AND LAZZERI UP! ALEX TELLS HOW HE FOOLED TONY

The first time I faced Tony Lazzeri in the world series last fall, he whiffed a line single to left field. It was as clean a hit as had ever been made off me. I don't mind giving Tony all the credit he is entitled to for that whiff, but I faced him seven times later and he didn't get another safe one.

Tony and I met in a duel that I believe has been discussed more than any play in baseball. This was the time I struck him out with three on in the seventh inning when I relieved Jess Haines with two out and the Cardinals leading, 3-2.

I will try to describe just what took place in that setting. I was warming up down in the bull-pen with my back to the infield when Bill Sherrod told me Gehrig had walked to fill the bases.

"Better speed up, Alex," said Sherrod. The next I heard was a yell from Rog Hornsby to come in. Now psychology has never made a base hit in the record book, but it gave me the advantage long before I pitched the first ball to Lazzeri.

I knew Tony, a high strung fellow, would be itching for his first swing. I stroled slowly to the hill. I let him do the worrying. After pitching to O'Farrell to warm up I delayed purposely in looking around the field to see how my fielders were set. All the time I had one eye on Tony. He was jerking his bat, scraping his feet, hitching his belt and all but shrieking for me to pitch.

That was the start. In such a setting never give a batter a toe-hold. Make him go after the ball. Don't put it through the alley for him. My first pitch was to be nothing but a curve. There was too much stuff on it, it was too wide, a ball. I was certain of this much—Tony wasn't going to get a good one to bust. I returned with a curve on the outside. It was practically in the same place as the first. Tony swung and missed a foot.

Something that followed won the battle for me. I saw Tony edge his way to the plate before I started to wind up the third time. I read his thoughts. He was going to get over to catch the curve on the outside and I crossed him. Standing almost on the edge of the line, Tony was an easy victim for a fast ball on the inside. I burned it.

straight over and Tony swung. He hit it but it could only go one place—a long foul to left field.

What resulted? Tony was now doing the guessing. He didn't know what to expect. I had him two strikes and one ball. He moved back a bit and I fired another wide curve, far on the outside. He missed by another foot.

But don't be too severe on Tony. He is a youngster and don't forget he was in a tough spot with three on, to decide the game before such a mob. What I admitted about the boy was that he went down swinging. That's the thing to do—never take the third strike with three on.

Despite the success I had against Lazzeri in the crucial spot of the 1926 world series, I have the greatest respect for him as a batsman. There are a lot of other Yanks I would have preferred to face instead of Tony. A dangerous batter is always a courageous one. Lazzeri proved he was that, even though he struck out.

When you are extended the courtesy of a charge account it is understood that all bills are due and payable between the first and tenth of the month following.

THEY LIED TO WIN A FORTUNE

WINNIE SHELTON

T. Q. Curtis, millionaire department store owner, tried a strange experiment in philanthropy and conducted a contest among his employes to find the three girls whose ambitions seemed worthy of furthering.

Those three—Billy Wells, Nyda Lomax and Winnie Shelton—went to his home to live for a year. His money was at their disposal to help them follow their chosen careers.

Of the three, only Billy Wells had told the truth about her ambition. The other two lied, not knowing what the prize was to be. When the girls learned that one of them was to inherit the millionaire's fortune, the home of T. Q. Curtis immediately became a place of jealousy and intrigue.

Curtis learned, too late, that money cannot buy everything. Before his experiment was over, he had nearly wrecked the lives of two girls and destroyed the happiness of the other.

This is the strange story that is unfolded in "Daughters of Midas," Anne Austin's latest serial. Be sure to read every chapter. It starts Sunday, April 10, in the Avalanche-Journal, and will continue in the Morning Avalanche.

KANSAS FLOOD BRINGS DAMAGE

Floods May Have Exacted At Most 12 Lives, Reports Say At Chickasha

(By The Associated Press)
TOPEKA, Kansas, April 8.—Flood conditions in southern Kansas, resulting from torrential rains Thursday night caused two deaths, injury to a score or more of persons and great property damage. Train service was badly impaired, with many washouts and tracks inundated.

Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger train number 22, north bound from San Antonio, struck a washout and went into the ditch near Parsons. E. L. Phillips, engineer, and Dave Ball, fireman, were drowned in their submerged engine. Fifteen or more passengers were injured.

Southeast Hit Hardest
Southeastern Kansas was hit hardest, with rainfall reaching cloudburst proportions. From seven to nine inches of rain fell, some creeks reached the highest stage ever known, railroad service was paralyzed and highways inundated.

At Chanute nearly nine inches of rain had fallen up to 5 o'clock this morning and it was still raining. Streets were out of their banks, property damaged by high water in drainage ditches passing through the city, telephone service hampered and basements flooded in the business district.

From 28 to 30 houses were partly submerged at Wellington. Nearly five inches of rain fell there. Train service on the Rock Island and Santa Fe railroads was curtailed by washouts.

HANKOW FEARS

Nanking this afternoon. It is believed his trip is to prepare for further Cantonese military operations north of the Yangtze river.

Powers Are On Hand
WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—Frowning guns of 21 warships of five powers at anchor off Hankow, seat of Cantonese nationalist activities in the Yangtze river valley, bespoke today the apprehension felt over conditions at that point.

While respective naval commanders have reported that every precaution is being taken to prevent an outbreak such as occurred at Nanking, more than 200 miles down the river, which resulted in the slaying of Dr. J. E. Williams, an American missionary, and several other foreigners, anxiety over the situation, nevertheless was manifest here.

State department officials had fresh in their minds the detailed report from Consul General Gauss at Shanghai, telling of the shooting of Dr. Williams in cold blood by nationalist soldiers, and plainly showed concern over the Gauss on the slaying of Dr. Williams was a reaffirmation of previous dispatches that have been received in Washington.

Regret Expressed For Raid

SHANGHAI, April 8. (AP)—Quo Tsi-shi, nationalist commissioner of foreign affairs in the Shanghai district, made an official call on the Russian soviet consul general last night to express regret over the raid by northern Chinese soldiers on the buildings near the soviet embassy in Peking Wednesday. He also deplored the surrounding of the soviet consulate in the Shanghai international settlement by a guard of foreign police and white Russian volunteers.

This guard at first refused to admit to search. After calling on the British consul to protest, and being advised that the consul was unable to assist him, he went to the municipal council, which furnished the police guard, and thus gained admission to the building without a search.

In a statement, Quo declared the action of the municipal council in guarding the consulate was an outrage against international rights, as a consul was accredited to a government not a city, which did not possess the right to take such action.

MOSCOW, Russia, April 8. (AP)—Publishing accounts of the raid on the soviet embassy compound in Peking and the stationing of police around the Hankow developments even though advices from Consul General Lockhart on the mobilization of the fleet at that city, as made public, did not indicate that the concentration of the war vessels had any other significance than as reflecting tension over the status of foreigners remaining there.

The report from Consul General consulate in Shanghai, the leading morning newspapers in Moscow choose England as the chief target for their condemnation.

Pravda, says it is useless to blame the Peking government for the raid there, as Marshal Chang Tso-lin would never have dared to attack on his own initiative.

The head of the imperialist diplomatic corps, directed by England, gave permission to the white guard band, it adds. "After the Nanking affair and brilliantly led by the most Christian agents of the Anglo-Saxon capital, England organized a raid on the soviet embassy, thus openly provoking the soviet union to take a definite step."

Isvestia, declares that the object of the raid was to provoke the soviet union to such steps as would enable the powers to interfere in China.

Rabotshaya Moskva, places responsibility on "the British and American imperialists, who daily feed the world with fantastic tales of soviet activities in China."

Japanese Attacked

WASHINGTON, April 8. (AP)—Eight hundred additional Japanese sailors were landed at Shanghai last night, after an attack by Chinese snipers upon Japanese guards along the north Szechwan road, Admiral Williams, the American commander in China, reported today to the navy department. Admiral Williams also reported that a police cordon and a detachment of Shanghai volunteers had been placed about the soviet consulate at Shanghai. All persons entering or leaving the consulate are searched by these military guards, he said, but he gave no further explanation.

General J. C. Foster, Houston, Chosen To Head Confederate Veterans In '27

HECTIC SESSION MARKS ELECTION AT TAMPA REUNION

TAMPA, Fla., April 8.—In a hectic session featured by impassioned addresses and hot disputes within state delegations over the candidate to be supported, General J. C. Foster, of Houston, Texas, formerly commander of the trans-Mississippi department, Thursday was elected as commander in chief of the United Confederate veterans for 1927. He defeated General Edgar D. Taylor of Richmond, Va., commander of the army of Northern Virginia. He succeeded General M. D. Vance of Little Rock.

Little Rock, Arkansas, previously had been selected as the site of the 28th reunion, with less of opposition from Lexington, Ky., only other city being for the place.

Lowry Heads Sons
The scene in the closing session of the sons of confederate veterans was vastly different. Dr. S. L. Lowry, of Tampa, chairman of the general reunion committee went in as commander in chief on rollers greased two weeks ago.

After the reappointment of General Harry Rene Lee of Nashville, Tenn. to serve his tenth term as adjutant general of the veterans, department heads were selected as follows:

Abilene Man Honored
R. A. Miller, of Abilene, Texas, commander of the trans-Mississippi department succeeding General Foster.

General Taylor to succeed himself as commander of the army of northern Virginia.

A. T. Goodwin, of Elmore, Ala., to succeed Hal W. Walker, Montgomery.

Upon the announcement of General Foster's election the cowboy band of Simmons University hailed the new commander in chief with "the eyes of Texas are upon you" only to be drowned out by the yells of the veterans when they broke from the Texas air into "Dixie". Few of the old fighters stayed for the voting on Commanders of departments.

Homage Done Fair
Last night the rear guard of Lee's legions, the Last affair of business behind them, went joyously to do traditional homage to the picked fairest of Dixie in the crowning social event of the reunion, the grand ball of the United Confederate veterans.

Today the parade to which the best of the gallants who followed Lee and Jackson look forward for twelve months as one of the impelling reasons for keeping up the fight will close the thirty-seventh annual roll of the gray clad army to its colors.

The fighting men of the sixties confined themselves to a resolution recommending the establishment of a University in Texas as a memorial to the women of the confederacy, and another censuring the sons for a practice of riding in automobile in the grand parade while their elders march behind the colors.

Reunion Nears End
TAMPA, Fla., Apr. 8. (AP)—One glorious hour of following the Confederate flag and then a journey home to while away fifty one long weeks before doing it all over again, was the prospect today for the few thousands left of the soldiers who fought with Robert E. Lee.

The last day of the thirty seventh annual reunion found Confederate hearts willing but strength of limbs had given way at last to time and only a few hardy souls hoped to remain on foot throughout the parade. Automobiles were provided for all who might find the going too rough.

Leading the veterans was a new commander in chief from the Lone Star state, General J. C. Foster, of Houston. In electing him yesterday, the Confederates decided to meet next year in Little Rock, Ark., the home town of their retiring commander, General M. D. Vance.

Commander A "Dandy"
General Foster, still a bit of the southern "dandy" at 79, is a native of Spartanburg, S. C. He began his service in the first South Carolina battalion and was a 17 year old private in the coast artillery when the war ended.

His services to veterans since 1865 have no fair overshadowed his record on the battlefield that not even Mrs. J. W. Wilkerson, Texas U. D. C. leader and his unofficial campaign manager, knew his regiment or where he fought.

"He has done more for the veterans over in Texas than any other man," she said. "His is not only a service of distinction in organization and direction but in personal work as well. When a veteran needed help, it was only necessary to tell General Foster. He got what he needed."

Killing The Goose

The gentleman who killed the goose that laid the golden eggs has long been looked upon as one of mankind's most accomplished idiots.

Yet it almost seems now and then, as if some of our friends in France had taken him as their model.

During the summer months hotel and restaurant keepers, shop owners and the like in Paris and the Riviera make millions of dollars from American tourists.

The amount of money left in France each summer by visiting Americans is simply staggering, take it away and a very sizeable slice of the French national income would be gone.

It is the French who are making money about the fact that it is the American dollar, rather than the American visitor, that they like.

For the last few months, with tourist trade at an ebb, the French have been outspoken in their relief at the absence of Americans. Such Americans as go to Paris find cool stares, or outright rebuffs, rather than the smiling and picturesque as Paris.

Some of the American tourists will discover what the discriminating traveler has long known—that there are many other places in Europe just as charming and picturesque as Paris.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says:

Some believe that an anti-fascist plot is responsible for the setting on fire of Commander DePinedo's plane. It may be that the flames originated from spontaneous combustion of spaghetti and garlic.

Seriously speaking this man DePinedo is of the stuff that conquerors are made. Turn back through the pages of history and you'll find either countless men who have dared fate in their efforts to get new heights. If DePinedo lived almost anywhere in America—if he was engaged in an ordinary line of business—to many of the citizens without investigation, he would be characterized as a "dago," a "kike" or a "wop" and honor and glory—even ordinary courtesy—would probably side-step him.

However, he is said to have cherished the state department job. It might be considered likely to afford him a chance to further his presidential ambitions. The outstanding athletes are of the greatest value to the school teams and efforts are concentrated on them, while as a matter of fact those students who most need physical training to correct the very defects which make them unfit for the regular training of the school.

When public school of college athletics resolves itself into merely contests to determine athletic supremacy between schools the real purpose of physical training in the school is defeated. There is a common agency on the part of physical educators to put their major efforts on developing good football teams, good baseball and basketball teams.

MAJOR BARNES ANSWERS CALL

Famous Soldier, Journalist And Author Dies In San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 8.—Major C. M. Barnes, soldier, journalist and author died at his home here Thursday at the age of 74 after a long illness.

Major Barnes was one of the organizers of the "flowers for the living" club and spent most of his time in his declining years, visiting hospitals and cheering those who were ill, concentrating his efforts in recent years on hospitals for former service men.

Major Barnes was born in Waterproof, Louisiana. He was educated in the Louisiana State University and in the military college at Baton Rouge, La. He was a member of the Louisiana Militia before he came to Texas in 1872. He settled at San Marcos, where he was admitted to the bar and later he went to Luling.

In San Antonio Since 1874 Major Barnes came to San Antonio in 1874 and entered the Alamo Rifles as a private, from this position he was promoted until he retired from the Texas National Guard with the rank of Colonel.

Major Barnes served in all Mexican border forts and military camps during the Indian campaigns against the Apaches, Comanches, Lipans, and Kickapoos. He was color sergeant of the first Texas volunteer infantry company, G., at Camp Copinger, Mobile, Ala. during the Spanish American war, until discharged on account of a wound he previously received and was an honorary member of the San Antonio and Belknap rifles. During the world war he was in charge of civilian watchmen at government warehouses here.

In the field of journalism Major Barnes was once a prominent figure, serving as a literary critic for the Chicago Tribune and later editing a paper of his own. He has written a number of books on Texas history and has published several volumes of verses. His funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

THREE FARMERS ENTER CONTEST

That Is Plan Of Agents Here Who Hope To See Lubbock County Represented

Plans have been launched by David P. Eaton, county agent, and Miss Helen Hamner, home demonstration agent, in co-operation with the extension department of the Texas A. & M. college and the Progressive Farmer, for at least three entries from Lubbock county in the annual Master Farmer contest for 1927. It was announced today.

Two members of a committee of five, which includes Mr. Eaton and Miss Hamner, have been named, but the fifth member has not yet been announced. Fritz Fischer, of the north end of the county, who last year was selected as one of the fifteen Master Farmers in the state, and L. O. Burford, another prominent farmer, have been named on the committee.

All Plans Complete It is the plan to score these farmers in the county by the final scoring date of May 31. On or about June 6, the score card for the No. 1 farmer will be submitted to a committee which includes the thirteen district agents in the state, which committee will be divided into nine sub-committees.

After this, the scores will then be submitted by districts, and four of the best records from each of the nine districts will be selected. District agents will score farms in their district during June and July. In the meantime the field editor of the paper will score all farms in the state in the contest, and on November 15, the scores of the editor, the district agents and the original scores of the county and home demonstration agents will be submitted to a state committee composed of T. O. Walton, C. H. Alford, state agent; H. A. Williamson, and Miss Mildred Horton, Miss Bess Edwards, A. K. Short and M. R. Martin. This committee will be charged with selection of the fifteen Master Farmers in the state.

State aid on the project recently was granted Crosby county, on a 50-50 basis, and the grade will be cut to conform to state specifications under plans. THOMAS ADDRESSES GINNERS

DALLAS, Apr. 8. (AP)—"One bale of cotton more than the world needs will break all the producers," Mike H. Thomas, Dallas cotton man, told 2,000 ginner and cotton men attending the annual convention of the Texas cotton ginner association here Thursday. "The only way to control the price of cotton is to keep the world hungry for it," Thomas said. The European outlook and possibilities of competition for American cotton growers in foreign countries was discussed by C. O. Moore of Memphis, Tenn., president and general manager of the American Cotton growers association. The danger is not great at present, and the real problem is economy and control of production, he said.

A PLACE---well filled

We have put Pharis Tires over the rough roads, and loaded heavily. Our test cars have run them unmercifully. We have had them tested in every known way, by an unbiased and well qualified Consulting Engineer, and have compared them with the highly advertised tires on the market today.

In these severe tests on the road, covering a period of many months, and in the Laboratory tests, Pharis Tires have demonstrated that they are the EQUAL of any of the Highly Advertised First Line Tires. We are Satisfied. They have delivered in the pinches. Their performance and wear are entirely satisfactory.

Then when you buy Pharis Tires from us, you pay LESS than you pay for tires elsewhere. You can not judge Pharis QUALITY by the PRICE, for we have eliminated much overhead expense in handling and selling, and for these reasons you will pay less for tires at our stores and dealers and get MORE in Weight, in Wearing Qualities, in Mileage. Drop in and look at a Pharis.

Anti-Fascist Plot Charges In Burning Of DePinedo Plane Ended By Confession

JOHN THOMASON, 17, SAYS HIS CARELESSNESS CAUSE OF FIRE

(By Associated Press)

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 8.—Confession of a young boatman that he started the fire resulting in the destruction of Commander Francisco de Pinedo's seaplane, the Santa Maria, stillborn of an anti-fascist plot rumor, as the Italian flyer today became the guest of American pilots for a flight to San Diego, Calif.

Reiterating a statement shortly after the plane burned at Roosevelt lake near here Wednesday, de Pinedo said there could be no doubt that the fire was set accidentally. He said he accepted the confession of John Thomason, 17 years old Phoenix youth, that the boy dropped a match on the oil covered water as the plane was ready to take off for San Diego, as a full explanation of the affair.

Lead Signs Statement
Thomason, employed as a boat tender at Canyon Lake, Ariz., confessed throwing the match to a reporter for the Arizona Republican. He then signed a statement to that effect in the presence of Commander de Pinedo and others who had conducted an investigation at Roosevelt lake. Pinedo was presented with the original copy of the confession. He said he would forward it to his government as final proof of the origin of the fire.

The youth said he knew there was gasoline on the water, but did not think it would burn. "I am certainly sorry it happened," he said.

With plans for the continuation of his four-continent flight taking definite shape, four United States navy planes were tuned up here today to take de Pinedo and his two companions to San Diego.

De Pinedo spent the night at Apache Lodge, on Roosevelt lake, planning a new route for his conquest of North America. Although his itinerary is indefinite, he said he probably would spend ten days on the Pacific coast before leaving for New York, where he will assemble a new plane shipped from Rome.

Beware — of the "Just as good"

WHEN you want Conoco Motor Oil for motor lubrication be sure that you get it. Beware of the unnamed, unbranded "just-as-good" which is a good profit-maker for the seller but which is apt to prove most costly to the unsuspecting motorist who buys it.

Let a reliable Conoco dealer or Conoco service station attendant drain your crankcase. Then you will be sure of getting genuine Conoco—the tested motor oil.

Conoco protects every moving part with its fine lubricating film. It is clean—full bodied—thoroughly tested. There's a grade for your type of motor.

To cut down repair bills, ask for Conoco and get it.
