He was married to Miss Gladys Brown here in 1921.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 p.m. Wednesday from the Church of Christ. Officiating were Minister Gaylord Cook and Minister Grandol Forehand of the Dalhart Church of Christ.

EARLY COLLINGSWORTH DEFENSE

Ancient Cannon Ball Found Near Dozier

A bit of the unknown past of an early Collingsworth came to light recently when a 12-pound cannon ball, its fuse intact and black gunpowder dry, was dug out of the mud of a usually dry creek by Johnny Holton.

A bomb disposal crew at Ft. Sill, Okla., estimates it could be as much as a hundred years old.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holton of Wellington, Johnny found the ball after recent heavy rains at the farm the family owns northwest of Dozier.

Mrs. Holton turned it over to Police Chief Donald Nunnelle, who in turn contacted SFC Ralph E. Callen of the bomb disposal unit at Ft. Sill. There the fuse, powder and bullets were removed to make a safe and historic souvenir for the Holton family.

Johnny said he and Chester Gibbons were riding horseback in the canyon when he noticed the fuse sticking out of the mud. The boys dug.

"It's about half a mile from Salt Fork, where our dam broke, and water must have uncovered it. There is a small creek, where water runs seldom.

"I thought it might be a bomb, but I didn't know exactly what it was," he said. The boys brought it in on horseback.

That kind of jarring or even a fall, would not set off the cannon ball, but it is especially dangerous around heat, and should it be in a fire could cause great damage, Police Chief Nunnelle said.

"It is what was called a case shot type shell," said Sgt. Callen. "This term 'case shot' is obsolete today. This type projectile consisted of a time fuse, thin-walled projectile filled with a very light bursting charge of black powder, sufficient only to break apart the casing.

"This type of projectile did not depend on the bursting charge for fragmentation, as did the common shell. When burst by the time fuse over, or slightly in advance of the target (in modern parlance an 'air burst'). The charge of bul-

Murder Charge Filed in Death of City Man

John Henry Colley, 28, of 407 Galveston Street, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 7:40 a.m. Friday, May 23, about an hour after he was shot in the stomach with a .22 calibre hollow point bullet, according to Sheriff John Rainey.

His wife, Dolley Mae Colley, was arraigned Saturday before Justice of the Peace Claude McKinney on a charge of murder, and is being held in county jail in lieu of $5,000 bond, the sheriff said.

The man apparently was shot inside the couple's home, then ran outside, where his wife beat him about the head and body until the stock of the .22 bolt action rifle was shattered and the barrel was bent and the bolt mechanism torn out, according to Sheriff Rainey.

However, Colley's death was due to the gunshot wound, the sheriff said.

Colley was employed by Robert Owens Auto Salvage and had returned home shortly before he was shot.

Funeral services for Colley were conducted at the Church of Christ Sunday at 4 p.m. with Minister Mitchell officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

He was born in Dalton, Ala., Aug. 22, 1940.

Reward Offered

Antiques Taken from 2 Area Farm Homes

Several items that likely will make their way into antique shops have been taken in two burglaries recently, Sheriff John Rainey said.

Palo Cummings told The Wellington Leader he is offering a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons who took a coal burning cook stove and an old-time phonograph from his farm house in the Buck Creek community.

The loss was discovered only a few days ago, and the Cummings family does not know when the items were taken.

Sheriff Rainey said that two black iron kettles were taken from the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Orbie Hartman at Quail. These are the old-fashioned kettles once used around farms for such things as rendering lard, making lye soap and boiling the family wash.

An antique dresser also was taken.

The sheriff said that loss of items of this type from vacant farm houses has been reported from time to time for several years. These are difficult to trace, it was pointed out, and usually bring a good price as antiques when disposed of.

Jaycees Host Donkey Ball Game June 7

The Wellington Jaycees will sponsor a Donkey Baseball game Saturday, June 7, fielding their own team against the Dirty Dozen from Memphis.

This event will be held at the ball park beginning at 8 p.m.

"There promises to be thrills, chills and lots of laughs," said Billy Wilkerson, Jaycee president.

"This is fun for the entire family to enjoy."

Tickets are now on sale by all Jaycee members.

Hamilton Instructor

Driver Education to Begin Here June 2

A driver education course for Wellington High School students will open Monday, June 2, with Coach Dick Hamilton as instructor.

While the closing date will depend on the progress of the students, it should be about June 30, Mr. Hamilton said.

He will have two classes each morning, from 7 to 9 a.m. and 9 to 11, with about 20 in each class.

The driver education fee has been raised to $35 and this should be paid to the business office of the High School at the beginning of the course.

Mr. Hamilton said that after 30 hours of classroom instruction, each student will have six hours of observation and six hours of driving.

A successfully passed examination at the end of the class period will entitle each student to receive a restricted license—meaning he can drive with a licensed adult driver in the seat beside him. At the end of the course, tests will be given those 16 years of age and they will receive a valid drivers license.

Public Urged to Attend

Meeting Called Thursday To Review Hospital Needs

A review of the financial needs of St. Joseph's Hospital and of the updating which has been done at the hospital during the last two-year period, will be set forth at a public meeting Thursday, May 29, at 11 a.m. in the county courtroom.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Wayne Cudd, president of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary, which accepted the responsibility for certain improvements.

This is an information meeting, she explained.

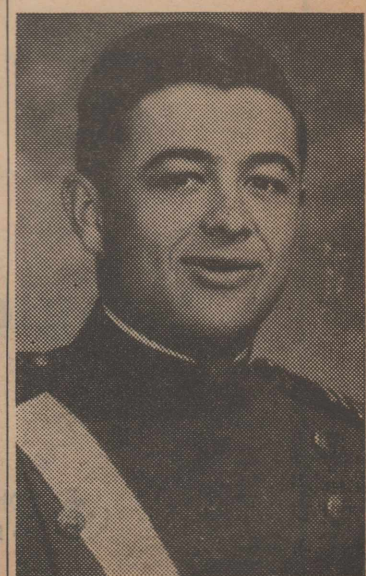

Present at the meeting will be representatives of the administration of the hospital, the hospital board of trustees, the commissioners' court, the Auxiliary, and others concerned with the hospital.

Mrs. Cudd emphasized the need for the public to attend and to be informed. There are certain standards which must be met if the hospital is to retain its accreditation, she pointed out. There are certain improvements ahead for which money will be required, it was explained.

There will be a discussion of community support of the hospital on a voluntary basis as compared to the effects of a hospital district, supported by taxes, Mrs. Cudd said.

But most of all, the public is needed at the meeting in order to be informed of the true status of the hospital in relation to the community.

Four years running track was only one part of his athletic career, however, for he played football three years and basketball four.
Herman is the son of Mrs. Frankie Moore and the late Herman Moore, Sr., and was born here July 18, 1951. His first year in school was at Booker T. Washington in 1957, then the following year he attended Sixty-First Street School in Los Angeles. He returned to Washington School and attended until 1965. Jimmy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bohannon of Silver City, N.M., formerly of Wellington.
He was born at Albuquerque, N.M., Nov. 23, 1950, and lived in that state until he had completed four years of school work. The remainder has been in Wellington.

One of the top honors a Wellington High student could receive in a school-related activity came to Jerry Ross Woolbridge when he was chosen president of the Youth Center this year.
Another facet of his ability was highlighted when Beta Club members also chose him their president this year and a delegate to the State Beta Club Convention. As a senior, he was chosen for Who's Who, and elected to represent the class on the Student Council.
Jerry played football as a junior and senior, ran track one year, and was manager of this year's Skyrocket basketball team. He was on the golf team two years, and last year was in the junior-senior play.
The designation of "Outstanding Student" was won in physical science, biology, and chemistry.

Just a few weeks ago, she received her cap, pin and certificate, denoting many, many hours of volunteer work with the junior auxiliary.
Shorthand, biology and English are Alice's favorite subjects.
Her hobbies are artistic, reading, sewing her own clothes, writing short stories and poems, and art of any kind—making and collecting posters, collage, and illustrating books that she has read.
Alice will attend Clarendon Junior College next year and later transfer to St. Anthony's Hospital School of Nursing in Amarillo.

He says that agriculture is his favorite study and hunting is his hobby.
Next year Jim plans to attend Clarendon Junior College.

PROOF!

That the $1.00 per Bale for Research and Promotion Is Paying Dividends

A Reprint From:
"The Cotton Gin and Mill"

BIG MAKER TO PROMOTE ALL-COTTON SHIRTS

• SO YOU WANT an all-cotton shirt, but can't find it. You are tired of synthetic substitutes, or cotton shirts adulterated with a synthetic, but have seen no relief in sight.

So cheer up—some relief is on the way. One of the top three shirt manufacturers (Manhattan) is making cotton the No. 1 object of a national sales effort.

This is the result of a push by the Cotton Producers Institute and the National Cotton Council and is aimed at increasing availability and sales of 100% cotton durable press and pure-finish shirts.

The manufacturer earlier had decided to discontinue its all-cotton durable press shirt. Now, it not only is going to keep this shirt but also is going to: (1) add two new lines of pure-finish cotton shirts, and (2) unite its promotional and sales resources with those of the cotton industry in a national selling campaign this fall.

CPI and the National Cotton Council also are working to develop coordinated promotion programs with other shirt manufacturers. So maybe before long you will be able to buy an all-cotton shirt in lots of places across the country.

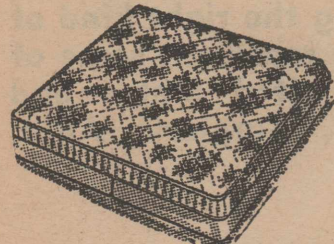

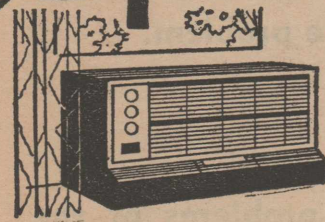

The demand for Cotton Fabrics can be increased ten fold by research and promotion and here is positive proof that the $1.00 per bale program is paying dividends.

The synthetics have been spending millions on research during a period when the cotton industry has been spending very little. This is evidence that the demand for this most useful of all fabrics can be greatly increased.

Financial Facts

By Jeff Wilson

THE STRANGE HALF-DOLLAR PERIOD

The "half dollar explosion" took place from 1793 to 1833.

The total silver coinage of that period amounted to $36.3 million. Of that aggregate, $33 million or 90.9% consisted of half dollars. Four percent of the amount was in silver dollars. The remaining 5.1% took in the smaller coins.

Half dollars predominated because they were cheaper to coin.

In those days, you could bring silver bullion to the Mint. By paying a brassage charge, you could walk away with half dollars.

Thus with half dollars, you didn't have to wait. Should you want smaller denominations, the delay was great. So people with silver bullion went for half dollars.

Strange that half dollars should have so predominated. Today, they are very scarce.

Sidney McGill Weds Linda Carden in Church Ceremony at Midland Sat.

The First Christian Church in Midland was the setting for the candlelight wedding at seven-thirty Saturday evening, May 24, which united Miss Linda Kathleen Carden and Sidney Coy McGill, both students in West Texas State University.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sanford B. Carden, 4311 Gulf, Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGill, 1606 Ellison Street, Wellington.

Dr. Ray Bristol, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar lighted with seven-branched candelabras, entwined with emerald foliage. Arrangements of white gladioli and snow-flake chrysanthemums were at each side.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ronald Provence, vocalist, and Mrs. Loyd Sanders, organist.

Mr. Carden gave his daughter in marriage.

Her wedding gown of organza over peau de soie was designed with an A-line skirt and empire waistline, marked with an organza bow. Scalloped lace edged the scoop neckline and formed the short sleeves. The bodice was trimmed with lace motifs, re-embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestones. A full train of organza trimmed with lace motifs and bows, fell from the waistline at back. Circlets of lace, edged and centered with seed pearls formed a crown from which fell her elbow-length illusion veil, edged with Chantilly lace. She carried a bunch cascade of Elegance carnations and English ivy, centered with Jaffette orchids.

Miss Teresa McMennamy of Arlington, Virginia, was the maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra McGill, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Sandra Greenwood of Pampa. The attendants wore floor-length blue taffeta dresses with sheer overskirts, designed with empire bodices and bell sleeves. They carried bouquets of white daisies and leatherleaf fern, tied with dark blue streamers. Their head-pieces were matching bows, which held short veils.

Gary Massingill of Snyder was the best man and ushers were Jerry Sartin of Dalhart and Pat Glenn of Wellington.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Carden were hosts at a reception in the church parlor.

The bride's table was laid with a white cutwork cloth and the centerpiece was an arrangement of blue and white carnations. Crystal appointments were used.

Guests were served by Mrs. Weldon E. Carden of Brownfield and Mrs. C. C. Carden of Midland, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. D. Ray McCarthy of Midland.

Miss Jan McGill, sister of the bridegroom, registered the guests at a table decorated with an anniversary candle surrounded by blue and white daisies and fern.

The bride was graduated from Lee High School in Midland in 1967. At West Texas State, where she is an art major, her sorority is the Phylletes. Mr. McGill, a Wellington High School graduate, is a business finance major and member of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity. He is employed by Levi Strauss Company in Amarillo.

After June 1 the couple will be at home at 2513 8th Avenue, Apartment 15, Canyon.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were these from Wellington: Mrs. Lucile Baird, grandmother of the bridegroom, Miss Sharon Daves, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor, Miss "Kay" Taylor, Neal Roberts, Mrs. Grace White, Pat Glenn, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGill, Miss Sandra McGill and Miss Jan McGill.

Former Wellington residents attending were Mrs. W. E. Leach, Harold Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Don Baird and children, Pamela, Wesley and Debbie of Odessa; Mrs. Bill Lindsey and Mr. and Mrs. Will Williams and Doug of Midland.

Trusten Thomas, Jr. Takes Joanne Hutcheson as Bride in Church Rites

Wedding vows were recited by Miss Joanne Gay Hutcheson and Trusten Alf Thomas, Jr., in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church in Wellington at two-thirty Saturday afternoon, May 24.

Father Sidney Pratt, rector of the Episcopal Church in Clinton, Oklahoma, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hutcheson, 3441 Pueblo Drive, Los Alamos, New Mexico, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Trusten Thomas, 809 Dalhart Street.

An arched candelabra holding cathedral tapers was at the center of the altar area, and on each side were seven-branched candelabras entwined with ivy. The white satin kneeling bench completed the decorations.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Vikki Saunders, vocalist, and Miss Cheri Lewis, organist.

Mr. Hutcheson gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride chose a floor-length gown in empire style. The satin bodice had short sleeves and a rounded neckline, while the A-line skirt was of bridal lace over satin. The headpiece of pearls held a shoulder-length illusion veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations and gladioli carried on a white ribbon.

Miss Carole Ruth Hutcheson of Los Alamos was the maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of turquoise lace in A-line design, with short sleeves and a rounded neck. Her nose-veil was of matching turquoise and she carried a single long-stemmed carnation.

Lyndal Bowen of Memphis was the best man and ushers were Billy Thomas of Austin, brother of the bridegroom, and Keith Henderson of Hereford.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hutcheson were hosts at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth, overlaid with net. Turquoise bows marked each corner.

An arrangement of turquoise carnations in a silver epergne formed the centerpiece. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Billy Thomas of Austin and Miss Patricia Thomas of Denton, sister-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Keith Henderson of Hereford.

Since returning from their wedding trip to Abilene, the couple is at home at 1705 Park Lane, Wellington.

1st Wellington Agency Observes Anniversary as Partnership

The business is located in the old Wellington State Bank building on the northeast corner of the intersection of the 1st and 2nd streets. The 1st Wellington Agency is observing its first anniversary this week as a partnership between Henry Sullivan and Bobo Castleberry. It was a year ago that they bought the agency from Elvis White and started operating the agency with the slogan of "The Insurance Corner."

ON COTTON PROJECT

Pictured is L. D. (Don) Anderson of Crosbyton, president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who will attend the annual meeting of the International Cotton Advisory Committee June 2 through June 11 in Kampala, Uganda, Africa, and do production and marketing studies in five other countries of Africa and the Far East.

Mr. Castleberry entered the insurance business nine years ago as a representative for the Great Southern Life Insurance Company and during that time he received many honors for his work as a life insurance salesman. The 1st Wellington Agency continues to sell life insurance as well as all other kinds of insurance such as fire, windstorm, etc.

Mr. Sullivan has been a partner in the Clark Chevrolet for the past 23 years and three years ago he received his insurance license.

Both Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Castleberry are graduates of Wellington High School and the University of Texas and have been active in many civic activities in Wellington.

Mrs. Laughter Out of Intensive Care at St. Anthony's

Mrs. D. H. Laughter, a patient in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo is "doing fairly well," according to her daughter, Mrs. Velma Niccum.

She is now out of intensive care and her room number is 305.

Mrs. Laughter entered the hospital May 8, and the family was told at the time she would probably be there three months, Mrs. Niccum said.

IRS Warns Taxpayers

The new thing in auditing income tax returns this year is that the computer gives a "score" to each taxpayer with an income of less than $10,000. Next year the computer will "score" everyone (and if you made more than $10,000, don't think that Internal Revenue will forget you until next year).

A score is determined by how close the return comes to what IRS considers the norm for a taxpayer of that income bracket with that particular type of business, with similar dependents or deductions, with that particular variety of income sources, in that geographic area, etc.

"Nation's Business" magazine recently reported that approximately 2.5 million returns receiving the poorest scores in 1969 will be reported back to the regional and district offices and will be thoroughly audited. If your return get a good score at Martinsburg it most likely will never be audited.

However, returns which flunk the score will be "eyeballed" at length at the taxpayer's IRS district office. Here the trained tax people review the mechanical thinking of the digitized selector and rule out those cases where it is obvious the taxpayer does not need an audit.

Thermal Pollution Big Headache

The National Wildlife Federation, a private conservation organization headquartered in Washington, has listed thermal pollution as a contender for "Environmental Headache No. 1."

Thomas L. Kimball, executive director of the Federation, zeroed in on thermal pollution by the rapidly expanding steam-electric industry in an address to the American Association of Civil Engineers in New Orleans.

Kimball said pollution authorities estimate that within the next ten years the steam-electric industry could require up to one-half the total fresh water runoff of the contiguous 48 states during low flow months for cooling and condensing purposes in order to meet the nation's skyrocketing demands for electric power.

Much of this demand will be filled by the increasingly popular nuclear-fueled power plants which require up to 40% more water for cooling than the conventional plants.

Kimball scored the power industry's plans to operate many of the required new plants by using the public's fresh water resource for cooling and condensing and dumping the water back at up to 20 degrees warmer than when withdrawn.

According to Kimball, several feasible methods of effectively treating waste heat discharges are available, including cooling ponds, cooling towers and closed circuit systems, all of which cost very little when compared to the total investment in the power producing facilities, or to the ultimate cost the public would have to bear as a result of thermal pollution. "We can no longer afford to gamble by taking out an IOU on the environment to cover a bet on short term economic gains," Kimball told reporters. "The stakes are simply too high."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers and son of Mustang, Okla., were in Wellington and Dodson over the week end on business. They also visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Vann and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Horton spent the week end with their son, John Horton in Grand Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horton were in Canyon last week visiting their children, Ray and Tanya, who are students at West Texas State University.

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, May 29, 1969

Glenn Curtis Barber

Three distinct honors came to Glenn Curtis Barber near the end of his senior year . . . honors that are almost "one of a kind".

First he was in the Inter-scholastic League One-Act Play which placed first in District 2-AA. Then at the close of the presentation, he was chosen a member of the district all-star cast.

The title "Mr. Basketball for 1969" was bestowed on him at the All-Sports Banquet a few weeks ago. Earlier in the Spring, he was chosen for the District 2-AA All-District Basketball team, and at the beginning of the cage season, the team members chose him a captain.

Glenn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Barber and was born Jan. 1, 1951 in Wellington.

He attended Booker T. Washington School from 1957 to 1966 and since then he has been at Wellington High.

His dramatic ability was seen again on the Wellington High School stage in the Junior-Senior Play.

Outside of school, Glenn was active in the Boy Scouts and in 1966 he was Troop Leader. Speech and government are his favorite studies, and his hobbies are music and basketball.

Glenn plans to attend Clarendon Junior College next year.

TFB to Hear of 1969 Farm Program, Labor Relations

Two issues of vital importance to farmers and ranchers will be discussed at a District 1 meeting June 2 in Amarillo, according to J. D. Coleman of Wellington, Texas Farm Bureau board member from this district.

The meeting, which will be attended by county Farm Bureau presidents and policy execution and policy development committee members, will get under way at 1 p.m. at the Herring Hotel.

Coleman said the purpose of the meeting is to explain in detail the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1969, which incorporates most of Farm Bureau's farm program proposals; and Senate Bill 8, which provides for extension of the Labor Management Relations Act to agriculture.

Bill Wedemeyer of Waco, TFB research and education director, will outline the provisions of both the farm program proposal and the proposed farm labor legislation. Farm Bureau opposes the extension of the Labor Management Relations Act to agriculture.

across Texas June 2 to 9. TFB President Sidney Dean urged all county presidents and policy development and policy execution committee members to attend and participate in their respective district meetings. He asked them to be prepared to "discuss these important issues with your County Farm Bureau members".

Hartman Attends Flight Course

A Wellington pilot and instructor, Cliff Hartman, was in Amarillo Tuesday through Thursday, March 20 to 22, attending a flight instructor's re-evaluation course.

It was sponsored by the Federal Aviation Agency office in Oklahoma City and the Texas Aeronautical Commission, Austin. Meetings were in the Coronado Inn.

Approximately 110 pilots from throughout the Southwestern states attended.

Remember the Hearing on Hunting Season on June 10

Landowners, conservationists and sportsmen should remember that on Wednesday, June 4, at 10 a. m., a hearing will be held in Wellington by the Texas Parks and Wildlife department concerning changes that may be desired in hunting regulations here.

This is the one opportunity we have to ask those changes that will mean the preservation of our quail, turkey and deer. The 1968 seasons were not satisfactory for any of them. It is much to be desired that the quail season be limited to December 1-January 15, and that there be no open season on turkey and deer for three years.

The Commissioners Court has passed an order requesting this. Now it is up to the people to make ourselves heard before the proper authorities. The Department has asked for our recommendations.

Landowners who have turkey and deer do what they can to protect them, but this fine game has not made a comeback to the extent that they can endure very many open seasons.

This hearing in the court house is one we should not forget.

It's always Halloween for the neighborhood lush—he communes with the spirits every night.

Disgruntled friend tells us that his boss pays him many compliments—and that's about all.

AUSTIN.—Filibusters began to slow the tide of legislation passed by the Senate as the June 2 adjournment deadline closed in. However, bills continued to roll through both houses in staggering volume on the local and uncontested bills calendars.

A minimum wage proposal landed in conference committee. Budget conferences brought out a one-year appropriations bill without knowing whether Gov. Preston Smith will veto it.

While bills to create a University of Texas at San Antonio, a UT of Permian Basin in the Midland-Odessa area, and a University of South Texas at Corpus Christi ran into senate filibusters, other new school measures went to the governor. Among them were UT at Dallas, medical schools at Houston and Lubbock, and a future site left to UT regents, a UT dental branch (probably in San Antonio) and nursing schools at San Antonio and El Paso.

An amended version of the implied consent bill to require breath tests of suspected drunk drivers found it's way to the governor's desk. UT regents were given authority to curtail enrollments.

A proposed new constitutional amendment (SJR 15) would allow the legislature to establish a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands.

Club Rules Firmed
Liquor Control Board announced its final version of new rules to clamp down on private bottle clubs, effective Sept. 1.

Club "guests" cannot pay cash or share in club services unless in the company of a member or present on his personal invitation. Clubs also would have to maintain written records showing when members were admitted or removed, have a membership committee or governing board to pass on memberships, and operate with at least 25 members.

Other new rules include keeping permanent records of all transactions involving the pool system or maintaining separate lockers for each member if operating under the locker system, filing quarterly reports to Texas LCB on pool transactions and requirement that regular food service be provided.

The Eyes Have It
A battle that has raged for almost 20 years between the

CROSSROADS REPORT

Current notion among some dissenting youths in institutions of learning is that they are entitled to pick their own teachers and their own study courses, and to decide what's relevant to be taught in same.

Which would simplify the working generation's problems. We could quit trying to pass on our experience and knowledge to them, and let the kids get theirs the hard way.

Like letting the baby find out for himself that he shouldn't pick up a bee, and the teenage driver learn on his own that 90 mph is too fast to turn a corner. And a broad self-education program like this would help cure the population explosion, too.

chain store and independent optometrists has been tentatively resolved by the final passage of a "compromise" bill worked out by Sens. Jack Strong and Tom Cheighton. Bill sent to the governor spells out a stiff code of ethics and advertising for the industry—something the non-advertising operators have wanted for years.

Big feature provides that there will be no more "one price" ads.

In the future, ads will have to carry the lowest and highest prices of lenses in stock.

On another health front, the legislature has sent to the governor a bill to license and regulate the hearing aid industry. It was passed with the full approval of the industry which worked closely with the lawmakers on perfecting the bill.

Atty. Gen. Opinions

Texas not registered as voters cannot serve as school district trustees, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin ruled in a new opinion requested for Honey Grove (Fannin County) schools.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—A legislator can run for office where pay was increased by legislative session when he was a lawmaker if the term doesn't overlap.

—Employment of adult probation officers is not subject to county commissioners' court approval.

—A school board of trustees does not have the authority to suspend a student for any act, such as possession or use of dangerous drugs, unless the board has adopted a rule, regulation or general policy covering such conduct or unless the act violated state statutes covering "incorrigible conduct".

—Industrial Accident Board cannot award an attorney a fee for fatal injury cases but can allow reasonable expenses for preparing and presentation of claim.

Vocational Education

State Advisory Council for Vocational Education has unveiled its new master plan for new directions in educating students for industry. The three-part program calls for spending the state's $16 million federal allocation for vocational education. A formal public hearing on the plan will be held June 7 at the regular meeting of the State Board of Education.

What will the new plan do for students? John Guemle, assistant commissioner for vocational and adult education, explained it this way:

"The state plan puts new strength in the standards of the vocational and adult programs, sets up special advanced courses for highly skilled craftsmen in junior colleges and James Connally Technical Institute in Waco, and even affects the preparation of teachers themselves."

Texas operated more than 8,300 programs in vocational education during the 1968-69 school year. This will increase to 8,700 programs in September of this year.

Appointments

Gov. Smith has named three former governors as co-chairmen of a committee to lead the campaign for the $3.5 billion Texas water bond constitutional amendment. Ex-Govs. John Connally, Price Daniel, and Allan Shivers will head the drive.

Short Snorts

State Supreme Court invalidated a $557,198 contract for improvement of the San Antonio water system because a member of the city electrical examining and supervising board was president of the company which entered the successful bid.

A legislative resolution seeks 1970 political party referendums on daylight saving time.

Governor Smith has written to the Texas delegation in Washington urging them to oppose any attempt to further reduce the number of questions to be asked in the 1970 census, saying he's convinced that proper safeguards for insuring privacy of the census have been provided.

This year Beta Club lost six members by graduation. They were Karen Waters, president; Betty Coleman, treasurer; Gary Oldham, Ken Wischkaemper, Sandy Hankins and Max Paschall.

Origin of the diamond industry is lost in time. It is believed that by 1000 B.C. the Chinese were obtaining the hard gems from northern Borneo. Traditionally, the first westerners to see the stones were the soldiers of Alexander the Great.

IRS Conducts Compliance Survey Here

DALLAS—A "compliance survey" of many Wellington business firms to determine if they are filing all required Federal tax returns will begin soon, the Internal Revenue Service said this week.

District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr., said the survey will take about three months to complete and will be conducted by Revenue Officers. A cross section of non-farm businesses will be checked to see if all required tax returns are being filed.

Mr. Campbell said the current survey is not designed to determine whether returns are accurate but only whether all required returns are filed. The survey will also be used to check the completeness of the IRS Master File of business taxpayers.

Most businesses comply conscientiously with the tax laws, Mr. Campbell said. However, he added, these laws are complex, and some business taxpayers may not be fully aware of all the tax returns which apply to their particular business operations. These may include returns covering income, withholding, social security and a variety of miscellaneous excise taxes.

"Compliance surveys," Mr. Campbell said, are a continuous part of the regular IRS program to maintain high levels of taxpayer compliance.

Most of the delinquencies brought to light will be the result of honest misunderstanding and oversight. But the rare instances of flagrant abuse which may be discovered will, of course, be dealt with according to law, he added.

Notes from Your County Home Demonstration Agent

By Mrs. Leta Hill

June Is Dairy Month

In the settling of the West, the cow trotted right along behind the covered wagon.

In fact many wagon trains set their pace not by what distance the horses or oxen could travel in a day but rather by the number of miles that the cow tied to the back of the wagon could do.

Why was the cow so important to the settlers? She provided an excellent food for the entire family while the business of clearing the land for crops was going on.

Cows no longer are a part of every household, but milk and dairy foods remain an essential part of our diet.

Fresh whole milk contains about 87 percent water and 13 percent total solids. Milk is processed in a number of ways to be sure you get just the kind you want. These products include whole, skimmed and flavored fresh milk, cultured milk, evaporated and sweetened condensed milk, dry milk, cheese, half and half, fresh and cultured cream and frozen desserts.

Try these recipes during the month of June:

Magic Fruit Cream Sauce

For cottage pudding and gingerbread. For 2 cups sauce, combine 2/3 cup sweetened condensed milk and 3 tablespoons lemon juice. Stir until mixture thickens. Add 1 cup fruit, such as drained crushed pineapple, sliced strawberries, fresh raspberries or cubed bananas. Blend well. Add cold water by tablespoonfuls until of desired consistency.

Low-Cal Buttermilk Dressing

For tossed salads. For 3 cups dressing, sieve 2 cups cottage cheese or mix in a blender until smooth and creamy. Stir in 1-cup buttermilk, 1 tablespoon red wine vinegar, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley and 3/4 teaspoon seasoned salt. Keeps well covered in refrigerator at least two weeks.

Dieter's Buttermilk Delight

Combine equal amounts chilled buttermilk and vegetable-tomato juice. It is a perky drink for summer afternoons, too.

Senior Citizens

May, Senior Citizens' Month, is nearly past. But please don't forget the senior citizens in our county.

Contrary to the old saying, opportunity knocks more than once. It may knock two, three or more times.

Age may slow one down a bit, but achievements still are possible. Here are some examples.

... Stradivarius still was making those fine violins at 93.

... Benjamin Franklin helped with the Declaration of Independence at 79 and wrote his autobiography after 80.

... Michelangelo completed the Sistine Chapel paintings lying on his back at 79.

... Grandma Moses started painting at 79.

Soybeans

More uses for soybeans? The list keeps growing. About 105 million pounds of soybean protein products were used by U.S. food manufacturers in 1967. Baked goods accounted for almost half of the total volume. Over the past few years, commercial bakery use of soy protein has gone up 7 to 10 percent annually. One of the primary assets of the soy protein is the fact that it holds moisture in bakery products which helps keep them fresh longer. It is also used in meat products and various vegetable protein foods and beverages. The U.S. produces about 75 percent of the world's supply of soybeans.

In Spite of the Many Other Advertising Media

Hometown Newspapers Are The Strongest

Here Are Some Very Good Reasons:

- It is the most thoroughly read publication invited into the home.
- National outlets and their advertising media are abstract quantities until they are identified with the local firm.
- It is by far, the most economical means of reaching the most persons, in the most receptive frame of mind.
- The mere fact that advertisers are alert and aggressive enough to offer their merchandise in the "show window" of the community, marks them as progressive and good business firms.
- An active market place (a hometown newspaper) is essential for progress and communication of ideas.

4-H Roundup in June

Participants in the Texas 4-H Roundup, scheduled for June 3 and 4 at Texas A&M University, will include some 1,800 4-H Club members.

They will come from every section of the state and the only livestock involved will be that used in judging and demonstration contests.

In addition to the 4-H members, approximately 250 county and assistant county Extension agents and adult 4-H leaders, 200 friends of 4-H and contest donors and 30 members of the board of directors of the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation will participate in planned activities for the Roundup.

The annual event is one of the oldest statewide 4-H gatherings in the nation and traces its beginning back to near the turn of the century even before 4-H officially became the youth phase program of the cooperative Extension service.

The 4-H club members who attend the Roundup have already been named county and district winners in their respective judging and demonstration contests. Only first and second place district winners are eligible to compete in the state contests, the state 4-H leaders say.

Ricky Nall and Mike Davis will represent Collingsworth County 4-H as they qualified for the state Roundup in Field Crops Demonstration.

The traditional barbecue will officially open the program on the evening of June 3. The first general assembly will follow with presentation of awards to individuals and business concerns as the highlight. Those to be recognized are strong supporters of 4-H on the district and state levels. The Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation will provide the awards.

On June 4 all previous training and hard work will be put to the test. Winners will be determined in 31 different judging and team and individual demonstration contests. State winners in dairy cattle, livestock and poultry judging will compete for national honors. Several other state winning teams will be invited to present their demonstrations at the state and national meetings.

Livestock Receipts High
Cattle and calf marketings in Texas for 1968 totaled over four million cattle and over one million calves. Hogs and pigs marketed numbered more than a million, while total sheep and lambs were about two million.

The total calf crop for 1968 was nearly five million head, and total lambs born numbered about 2.4 million. Pigs born during the year totaled 1.6 million.

Cash receipts is a figure that is widely quoted and gives some idea of the magnitude of the livestock industry in the state. Cash receipts for 1968 totaled over $900 million for cattle and calves, $52.3 million for hogs and pigs, and more than $34 million for sheep and lambs.

Texas cattle and calf production showed an increase of 549,000 head during 1968. Hogs and pigs remained the same, while sheep and lambs decreased slightly in population. Inshipments included 1.5 million cattle and calves, 11,000 hogs and pigs, and 89,000 sheep and lambs.

Farm slaughter, excluding custom slaughter for farm use, totaled 29,000 head of cattle and calves, 40,000 hogs, and 8,000 sheep and lambs.

Norwood Names 1969-70 Student Council Officers

For the past week many campaign signs have decorated the halls of Samnorwood High, and on Friday, May 16, student council officers and SHS cheerleaders were chosen for the 1969-1970 school year.

Candidates for student council officers were: president, Ruth Dwight, Ray Dwyer, and Larry Oldham; vice president, Cecilia Snead, Kim Janes, Johnny Breeding and Larry Waters; secretary, Beth Sanderson and Laura Whitson; treasurer, Mary Schaub and Jan Christner; reporter, Rita Lackey and Richard Barker.

Many campaign speeches were heard by the student body. The main topic of discussion was the fact that leadership is a 24-hour job. Each candidate promised his devoted service to the school and community, and after an exciting race these students were elected to lead their fellow classmates and friends through the coming year.

President, Ray Dwyer; vice president, Johnny Breeding; secretary, Laura Whitson; treasurer, Jan Christner; reporter, Rita Lackey. Although candidates came from the top four grades, the seniors showed their leadership by having an incoming senior elected to each office.

Eight girls participated in the cheerleader try-outs. The three elected were: head cheerleader, Cecilia Snead, a senior; and Jan Christner and Mary Schaub, senior and junior, respectively. Alternate will be a freshman, Rosa Day Oldham. These girls add a great determination and a school spirit to each of the Samnorwood student events.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

President Nixon has recommended scrapping the historic Post Office Department and replacing it with a government-owned, self-supporting corporation to handle the mail. Whether he succeeds in making the proposal a reality or not, it is a needed change and should be given the support of the people and the congress. Something must be done to change the constantly increasing rates and the possibility of a breakdown of this once proud service.

The change won't be easy. If the post office is to be run as a business the free mail for congressmen and all government departments must go. So must the excess amount of junk mail that now clutters the mail boxes. It won't be easy. Tremendous pressures will be put on the congressmen and senators from many different groups.

Few people will deny that some kind of drastic change is needed. The editor of one of the larger magazines made his own test of mail delivery. He sent three letters to California, one air mail, one special delivery, and one regular mail. The regular mail envelope arrived first. Mrs. John Ford of this newspaper says that when she puts the zip code on a letter to her son in Denton, it sometimes takes three days to reach him. When she omits the zip code, the letter arrives the next morning.

The Farmers Co-op Gin has a highly interesting advertisement in this issue of the paper. The heart of the ad is a reprint from "The Cotton Gin and Mill" telling of one of the largest shirt manufacturers (Manhattan) starting to feature 100 percent cotton shirts, one line a superior drip-dry and others the conventional all cotton shirts. Cotton can be saved. It is the most comfortable fabric to wear and it can be made into the best looking shirts and the loveliest dresses.

People who live in cotton-producing areas should insist on cotton when they buy fabric. They should also carry the message of cotton with them wherever they go.

Morris Higley in The Chidress Index:

I hope not but it is possible that Childress has been asleep in not taking at least a little interest in Water, Inc. which is being planned to bring water from the Mississippi River to Texas.

It is a big project and it will cost billions and it is in the future but plans are being made right now and are pretty well along, according to a recent article in the Amarillo Daily News.

A map in that paper shows that Childress County is not in the plans.

But I am sure that residents of Childress are in the plans as far as taxes are concerned to finance the mammoth project.

Why hasn't Childress County been in on the planning of the project? I don't know. But apparently because no one showed any interest.

Who is responsible? The blame can be laid to several doorsteps but now is not the time to lay blame. Now is the time to take some action.

Mrs. Nadine Birchfield Elected as Assistant V.P. of Wellington State

Mrs. Nadine Birchfield was named assistant vice president of the Wellington State Bank by the board of directors in a meeting held May 21, according to an announcement made Monday of this week by C. T. Hubbard, president of the bank.

Mrs. Birchfield, who started work in Wellington May 15, had previously spent 25 years in the First State Bank of Dodson, during which time she worked in every department of the bank.

She was first employed by the Dodson bank in April of 1944. The agreement was that she was to work until they could find permanent help; but her work was so diligent and her treatment of the customers so gracious that no effort was ever made to find a replacement during the years in which she earned the esteem of the people of the Dodson area.

Concerning her new position with the Wellington State Bank she said: "I am grateful for the opportunity to continue serving my customers and look forward to serving and knowing new customers."

"In acquiring the services of Mrs. Birchfield as an official of the Wellington State Bank," Mr. Hubbard said, "we feel that we have become a more complete bank than we have ever been before. Her experience and her proven banking ability will enable us to serve a growing group of customers better."

Mrs. Birchfield has been active in community work for many years and she says she has enjoyed every minute of all the activities in which she has worked.

"I like working with people," she said.

Cannon Ball

lets, upon being released by the breaking away of the casing, continued to travel forward at the velocity of the projectile in flight, fanning out into a broad dispersion zone. Naturally cast shot could only be effective as anti-personnel and anti-horse projectiles," Sgt. Callen continued.

"The fuse is what is called a Bormann Time Fuse. It was used by both the Union and Confederate armies during the Civil War. The CSA did not manufacture this fuse until after 1862. The fuse consisted of a metal disk of a lead alloy, marked in 1/4, 1/2, 3/4, and full seconds, to a total of 5 seconds. Underlying the marked surface was a horseshoe shaped channel containing a powder train. This was closed at the bottom by a tin disc, with a small flush hole in its center. The fuse was set for the desired time of burning by cutting a hole through the upper surface into the powder, which would start burning, it was diverted through a flash channel and into the bursting charge of the projectile, which in turn would break up the case."

The cannon ball weighed 12 pounds and four ounces, and has a diameter of about 4.52 inches. It was fired from what was called a 12-pound smooth bore gun.

The sergeant gave a sharp warning:

"All unexploded projectiles are inherently dangerous devices, even if they have been in the ground for a hundred years or more. No projectile should be exposed to excess heat, the ignition point of black powder, used as a bursting charge during this period, is 457 degrees. Under no circumstances should an attempt be made to drill a hole in a projectile either through the fuse or the body of the projectile."

The Holton farm lies in an area that bears many signs of the Indians who once frequented the area. It is rich in arrowheads.

Since Johnny Holton found his cannon ball, Dee Coleman has recalled to Mrs. Holton that he also found a cannon ball in that area when he was a small boy. He doesn't remember what ever happened to it.
