

Open House Set At Feedyards

STANDING MAJESTIC AGAINST THE SKY is the newest industry in Olton, Olton Feedyards, Inc. The mill was constructed by Brown-McKee of Lubbock and is a continuous belt process, automatically mixing the roughage, principal proteins and supplements. Capacity of the mill is over 300 tons every eight hours and it is built with the potential to double its operation when needed. (Photo courtesy SWPS)

Olton's newest business will observe Open House, Saturday, Dec. 6 from the hours of 1:30 to 5 p. m.

Only a dream six months ago, Olton Feedyards, Inc. has blossomed into a frenzy of activity in the past few months.

The feedyards will begin tours at 1:30 p. m. which will continue until 2:30 at which time a program will be presented. At 3:30, a drawing will be held for a steer, dubbed "Computer Charlie" which will be won by some lucky adult who registers that day.

The steer will be kept at the lots and fed with records of his gain kept daily. At the end of his feeding, the lucky owner may claim him.

At the present time approximately 6,000 head of cattle are located in the pens and there are enough pens completed to feed 22,500. An expansion program calls for a minimum of 35,000. The pens will be added as needed.

Located four miles west and two miles south of Olton on the Fieldton highway, the site was formerly known as the "old Combest place."

The native grass on gently sloping hills made an ideal location for the feedyards.

Local businessmen and farmers own the one million and a half dollar business, which was constructed by Brown-McKee Construction of Lubbock.

The board of directors are Owen Norfleet, president; Jack Straw, first vice-president; Frank Cornelius, second vice-president; Earl Spruiell, secretary-treasurer; and Owen Jones, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Manager of the operation is Charles Koontz, a former resident of Roswell, N. M. He has had 14 years' experience in the livestock feeding business and at the time of his employment at the Olton Feedyards, was manager of Diamond A Cattle Company and overseer of five feedlot operations in New Mexico, California, Arizona, and Hawaii, as well as extensive grazing programs.

Koontz holds a BA degree from PolyTech in California and has some work toward a Master's Degree.

Assistant manager is Dr. Van Brimhall, a graduate of the University of California School of Veterinary Medicine at Davis, Calif. He has ten years' experience in feedlot management and health experience.

Office manager, Garland Ruthart, is a native of Canyon, having been born and reared there. He is a graduate of West Texas State University and has had nine years experience in livestock and related industry.

A young lady from Springlake, Carmelita Murrell, serves as secretary to the managers.

A lovely kitchen, just off the main office beckons visitors in for a cup of coffee, Coke or candy bar. Comfortable chairs and a table are provided.

Mill Superintendent Melvin Hines, "a hometown boy", has a lifetime of farming and agricultural plant operation experience. His assistant is Walter Earnest of Springlake.

Head cowboy is Ralph Polard, who has had 11 years experience in commercial feedlot and cattle handling. Buddy Nicholson is in charge of taking care of all the sick cattle.

For maximum security and stampede protection, the pens are well lighted and -- from a distance, the feedyards appear to be a small city which has "popped up" overnight.

Each pen has its own watering trough, which is fed by a continuous flow system, thereby assuring the cattle a fresh supply of clean water at all times, even on the coldest of winter days, as it will not freeze.

The mill is located at the highest elevations on the property and is a weigh belt, continuous flow percentage plant. It is operated by a computer, which dispenses a specified amount of hay, rolled grain, alfalfa pellets, mineral and ensilage along with fats and molasses. The fats and molasses are kept at degrees of 100. The rolled milo is kept at 200 degrees for 30 minutes.

As the ingredients are dispensed on the belt, they are carried underneath the machines to a blender or mixer, where they are thoroughly mixed, then elevated up to a storage unit, which then unloads into special trucks that have a built in scale. The trucks, which can be driven down the spacious alleyways, unload the mixed feed mechanically. Bud Scribner is employed as a truck driver.

Loading chutes are built so that a double decker truck may be unloaded without any trouble. A dipping vat is located near the chute also.

The cowboys have stalls and pens for their horses, as well as a lounge where they may come in for a coffee break. The saddle room is next to the stalls and lounge.

Stockholders include Merrill Brigrance, Ross Bryant, Doug Giles, J. L. Carson, J. E. Carson, Frank Cornelius, J. Frank Daugherty, Cloys Fancher, A. J. Givens, Delmer Givens, Owen Jones, Elmer Moore, John Norfleet, Owen Norfleet, Earl Spruiell, Quentin Redinger, Gilbert Roberson, Roy Roberts, Archie Sorley, Don Spavin, Jack Straw, Frank Struve, Fred Thompson, Louis Hair, Ken Burgess, Gene Trotter, F. A. and T. J. Roberson.

Bargain Days Drawing Grows To $200 This Week

The jackpot grows bigger each week.

This week, it's worth a total of $200, and that is divided three ways so that the top winner will be receiving a gift certificate worth $100, second place will be worth $60 and third money will be $40.

High money winner last week was Sam Cannon, who received $87.50. Mrs. Stella Bibby drew the $52.50 and Louise Petty received $35.00.

Be sure and trade with the merchants giving the tickets for the drawing. Each week, some lucky person is going to win -- IF he is present.

You must be present to win. No one can receive the money for another person, regardless of relation.

Merchants are also offering some "mighty good buys" during Bargain Days in Olton. Check on page 7; there just might be an item there that you have been looking for -- and at a real bargain!

Santa Claus Writes, Asks For Letters

It won't be long until Santa Claus will be making his yearly ride with a sleighful of toys and gifts for all good boys and girls.

But he cannot make the right deliveries unless his little friends let him know what they want for Christmas, so get your orders in now. When St. Nick is through reading your letters he will send them to the Olton Enterprise to be published.

Address letters to Santa Claus, North Pole, 99701, but be sure and mail them no later than December 16.

The Enterprise received the following letter from the jolly bearded-gentleman:

Toyland, North Pole
November, 1969

Dear Sue:

Once again I'm getting anxious to see you and all my little friends in and around Olton. It's been almost a year since I have been able to visit in the area, and that's a long time to be away from the fine group of friends living in the Olton area.

There have been a lot of changes made around here during the past year, and they have made the old workshop a lot more efficient. My helpers and I have been very busy all year long, and we have the best presents in the history of the workshop this year -- and in record-breaking numbers, too.

We're just waiting for the proper time to spread happiness and good cheer all over the world this year. We're doing our best to see that everyone has the very nicest and happiest Christmas ever this year -- we wouldn't want it any other way.

Sue, please remind the children in the Olton area that I still have a Zip Code (same as last year--99701) and ask them to please use the zip number on all their letters to me.

Oh yes, and ask them to include their own zip numbers on their return addresses. It would sure make things a lot easier on old Santa if every boy and girl would take just a minute or two and add a zip code number for me to use when I make the rounds this Christmas.

You see, one of the changes we've made around here was to install one of those computer gadgets to sort the mail. It really zips them through, but it goes all to pieces when it gets hold of a letter without a zip number -- and then one of our helpers has to stop making presents and go sort out the letters without any zip numbers.

And then, too, the zip numbers make it a lot easier for me to find my way around and get the proper presents to the proper children when I make my trip through Olton on Christmas Eve.

I have set up a visit to Olton Saturday, Dec. 13, so I can check up on just what all my little friends have been doing during the past year.

Until I see you again, I send my love, best wishes and hopes for the merriest of merry holidays to you and all my friends in Olton.

Sincerely,
Santa Claus

Only 6 Entered 'Miss Christmas' Entries Must Be In By Dec. 10

Plans have been finalized in the Miss Christmas contest, which is to be held here Dec. 13 and 20, according to Peggy Poteet, chairman.

At the present time, six girls have entered this year's Miss Christmas contest. They are Judy Wilkenson, Debbie McClain, Kathy Peterson, Susan Cannon, Paula Strain and Vickie Ray.

Deadline is Dec. 10 at 5 p. m.

Mrs. Poteet said that the contestants would be judged Saturday Dec. 13 and that the winners would be named Dec. 20. Trophies will be presented to the three top winners. A crown and roses will be given to "Miss Christmas."

The girls will have lunch with the judges, prior to being introduced to the community at the "Bargain Days" drawing which is held each Saturday. Girls interested in entering the contest should call the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture office before Dec. 10 at 5 p. m.

A picture must accompany the entry so that they may be published in the Olton Enterprise.

Rules and regulations concerning the contest may be acquired from Mrs. Poteet or from the C-CA office.

Bookmobile Plans Stops

Area stops are announced for the High Plains Bookmobile. The library will make stops in Hart Camp, Fieldton, and Olton Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5 and 6.

The Bookmobile will be in Hart Camp and Fieldton Friday from 1:45 to 2:30 and 2:45 to 3:30 p. m., respectively. Saturday, the library will be in Olton from 9:15 until 11:45 a. m.

Three Olton Mustangs Named To All-District Football Team

Olton's Steve Stockdale, Luis Rey and Gary "Bull" Durham were named to the All-District team, according to an announcement made by Coach Jerry Blakely Monday night.

The boys were picked from a team that was predicted to be "in the cellar" at the finish of the season, but came out second in the district after a season of spirited playing and hard work.

Stockdale, the only sophomore on the all star team, was named to the offensive team as quarterback. Durham made the offensive team as guard and Rey was named on the defensive team as a defensive cornerback.

Receiving honorable mention for the Mustangs on offense were Ronnie Sanders, Mickey Crowder, Luis Rey, Alonza Springer and Gary Dickenson. Crowder, Rey and Springer alternated carrying plays into the game on every offensive play.

Honorable mentions on defense were Alfred Garcia, Barry Cowart, Pete Riveria, Mickey Crowder, Joe Dale Chitwood, Bull Durham, Mike Parsons and Gary Dickenson.

Lockney led the league having the most boys on the all district teams with seven, Floydada followed with five, Olton, Dimmitt and Abernathy with three each, Friona with two and Hale Center, one.

Jimmy Joe Schenck of Hale Center, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schenck, are former residents of Olton, was named to the All-District defense team.

Others named to the defense team were Robert Duckworth, Lanny Glasscock, Tim Jeffries and Doug Hodel, all of Lockney; Steve Puckett and Stan Pierce, of Floydada; Roy Thomas of Dimmitt; Ronald Harkey of Abernathy; and Donny Carthel and Tim Oden of Friona.

Also named to the offense team were Thomas, Dimmitt; Tracy Dickson, Tommy Hulsey and Jim Martin of Lockney; Andy Selman and Steve Puckett of Floydada; Larry Turner and Harkey of Abernathy and Carthel of Friona.

Olton, picked by many forecasters last summer and fall, was to have been a "remember last year's team?"

Dave Campbell's "Texas Football" magazine had this prediction for Olton... "Graduation housecleaning at defending champion Olton was thorough; no offensive, only two defensive regulars return from a 9-1 team."

But the fighting Mustangs came through in fine style and spirit, finishing in second place in district.

If it had not been for a few bad calls, injuries, and sickness at critical times, the Mustangs would probably have been in the district throne room for the third year in a row. But as it was, fans saw one of the most thrilling years of football in Olton's history.

Olton's big Blue was small in size this year compared to the previous years weights. But what the small Mustangs lacked in size, they made up for in spirit as they entered all but two of this year's games as underdogs and came out victors five times, losing three and tying one.

Olton came from behind more than once this year to tie the game up and go ahead for the win. For the first time in several years, the Mustangs were led by a passing quarterback, sophomore Steve Stockdale.

Stockdale completed 100 passes out of 225 attempts for a 45 percent average and 1,427 yards for the season. Halfback Ronnie Sanders led the scoring for Olton with 11 touchdowns and 66 points.

Gary Durham led the defensive units with two many tackles to count. The Mustangs had two of what Olton considers the best defensive ends in the district, Alfred Garcia and Johnny Arroyos. Johnny was lost to the cause with a broken arm in the Hale Center game. Emily Marquez was a loss to the Mustangs early in the season with a knee injury which kept him side lined for the remainder of the season.

Olton's Mustangs were a team this year that played as a team instead of a group of individuals. Everyone played outstanding all year long, not giving up or quitting before the game and season was over.

When asked about this year's Mustangs and season, Coach Blakely had this to say:

"We had the smallest team in the district and probably the slowest but I personally feel they paid a bigger price for success than any team in the district. Their attitude was great all year long."

"When we started out it looked like we would never score, much less win. But I don't think there was ever any doubt in our kids minds. They simply refused to be losers. I think perhaps it was their tremendous pride that made them 'winners'."

"The district was more balanced than we first thought it would be. We think our kids represented Olton in a great manner."

"Our compliments would certainly go to Floydada, who had a great season."

"We would also like to compliment our seniors for their fine play and leadership they have given us this year and they certainly will be missed next year."

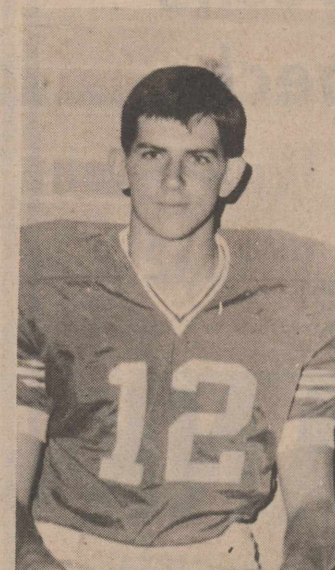

"I would also like to take this opportunity to recognize my fine assistants. Without good assistant coaches a head football coach cannot succeed. Ray Kimmon is our head defensive coach and the finest in West Texas. Our defense played a major role in our success this year especially early when we were trying to get our offense going."

"Dub Farris works with the defensive secondary and offensive backs. He inherited a secondary of no experience and brought them along to intercept 22 passes, 17 of which came in the last four games.

"Ed Miller works with our offensive line and defensive ends. Our end play was second to no one in District 3-AA.

"Jim Weaver, our head freshman coach, was responsible for much of the scouting done this year. Jim, along with Ben Cates, our Junior High coach, brought home sound analysis of every opponent we played. I personally feel I have the finest coaching staff in this part of the country.

"I appreciate very much the support our team has received from our school administration, faculty, cheerleaders, pep squad, band, twirlers and the many fine people in the Olton Community. This community is certainly to be commended for its support of the Olton schools and their programs.

"It has been a pleasure working and living in this proud community."

Sue's Views

New Experience

BY SUE CANNON

Well, I just shoulda wrote about taking pictures out at the feedyards last week instead of putting it off till this week.... cause I'm so pooped from getting this special issue together, I'm not sure if I want to write about it this week.

No, not really.
When I found out that the open house was this Saturday, I got my trusty camera and headed for the feedyards. Elmer Moore wanted me to go out and take a picture of "Computer Charlie" the steer that the feedyards is giving away at a drawing Saturday.

So I went. But he didn't get rid of me so easily. Once I was there, I decided I'd just get a grand tour. And grand tour I got! I saw every thing that there was about that mill and still didn't understand how the doggone thing works!

I just got one thing to say... that computer or somebody that runs it, is mighty smart!

It sets there with all those little red and green (I think) lights blinking on and off and all the time it's exactly measuring the amount of the different ingredients that go into the feed ration.

The steam rolling process is really something too. Melvin Hines dipped into the plant and brought out some of it for us to see and it looked kinda like breakfast oats only it was red. (since milo is red, Ah ha, bet you wonder how I figured that out.)

The whole outfit out there

VISITS MOTHER

Mrs. Ruby Ozment had visiting her during Thanksgiving her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Ozment and Mike of Phoenix, Ariz.

IN PLAINVIEW

Visiting Thursday afternoon in Plainview with Mrs. J. G. Measles were her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lambert of McFarland, Calif., and Mrs. Measles's sister, Mrs. L. A. Blackwell and daughters, Mrs. Larry Cunningham and Miss Lynda Blackwell of Canyon, and Michelle Cunningham, Mrs. Blackwell's granddaughter, who also lives in Canyon.

is absolutely breathtaking!

I'll tell you -- those steers never had it so good! Just sleep, eat and drink! And fresh drinking water all the time. All the feed they can eat. And if they get the least bit upset, you can bet some cowboy is going to ride by and notice it and get them to sick bay right quick!

Now can you ask for more? Those guys out there were very gracious when I told them I would like to get pictures of the offices and their machines. Of course, they wouldn't let me take the office and machines, unless I agreed to take their pictures also. So that's why there were so many pictures this week. (Kidding, of course.)

As I was out in the yards climbing around over fences and down into the pens and trying to get into the best positions to get the pictures, Dr. Brimhall came along with the "front loader", and asked me if I needed to get up higher to get a better shot, just get in the loader and he'd "elevate" me up as high as I wanted to go.

So... (you know me, I'll try just about anything for a good picture) up I got! And I must say it helped. I didn't realize I had gone up quite so high, until I looked down. But anyway, I got the shot I wanted. Once when I was out there taking pictures, they asked me if I'd like to get a shot from the top of the water tower. I'll have to admit, I turned that down.

But, it was fun (as well as work) this week, getting out this special issue and we hope that everyone will enjoy it. And everyone be sure and go out to open house Saturday.

IN HUKILL HOME

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hukill, Kregg, Kelli and Kevin entertained with a dinner in the home. Guests were Mrs. Tad Gilbreath of Iowa Park and the host's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hukill of Hart Camp.

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Prestridge visited Wednesday and Thursday in Abilene with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Flournoy, Pam, Kim, Gregg and Brad.

Janie Jones Is Chosen All-Region Choir Member

Miss Janie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, has been named a member of the

JANIE JONES

All-Region Choir and will be singing with the 128-voice choir in a concert Saturday night in Lubbock.

A junior at Olton High School, Miss Jones will be singing with members representing 17 schools in Region XVI. There were only nine schools represented in last year's all-region choir.

Being chosen to sing with the All-Region Choir is not new to Miss Jones. She has been named to the honor each of her three years in high school.

Rehearsals for the concert will be held from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday in Coronado High School's auditorium and at 8 a. m. and 1 p. m. Saturday.

A recording session is scheduled for 4 p. m. Saturday with the concert to begin at 7:30. Gene Kenney of Texas Tech will conduct.

Lay Witness Mission Set At United Methodist Church

A Lay Witness mission will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the First United Methodist Church. Approximately 50 laymen - men, women and youth - will be giving their personal testimonies in services during the three-day period.

Clyde Latimer of Baird is co-ordinator for the Mission and lay witnesses are from Methodist churches from Raymondville in South Texas to Kansas.

A covered dish dinner at 7 p. m. Friday will open the Mission. Adults will gather in Fellowship Hall of the church while youth will be having their dinner in the youth building. Children will be entertained with sack lunches and special science movies at the American Legion Hut.

Saturday is filled with activities, beginning with a Coke Party and inspiration hour for youth at 10 a. m. Also at that hour, six separate coffees are slated for women of the church.

A salad luncheon for the women is planned for noon in fellowship hall of the church and a dutch luncheon for the men in Hamill's Restaurant. Fellowship and sharing will be a part of each meeting.

Saturday at 7:30 p. m. the youth will again meet in the youth building, children at the Legion Hut and adults in the sanctuary.

Lay witnesses will be in charge of all youth and adult church school classes Sunday and Latimer will bring the morning message. Each family is asked to bring their Sunday dinner and share in an all-church dinner at 12:30.

The final service will be a sharing and evaluation session at the regular evening worship hour, 6 p. m.

A nursery will be provided for babies and toddlers at each of the services.

The Rev. Tommy E. Nelson, pastor, issues a cordial invitation to others to share in this unique series.

Iowa Park Kin Visit, See Game

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Miller, Lee Allen, Dee Lynne and Kenneth Lyle of Iowa Park and Mrs. Juanita Thomas, Margaret and Connie had dinner Friday night in Plainview and attended the Floydada-Iowa Park football game.

Miller is Student Counselor at Iowa Park High School.

The family visited in the Thomas home overnight and returned home Saturday. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Thomas are sisters.

Mrs. Wozencraft Hosts Dinner

Mrs. Cora Wozencraft had as dinner guests Thanksgiving Day her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wozencraft of Lubbock, and another son, John L. Wozencraft who was released that one day from the Veterans' Hospital in Amarillo.

Other dinner guests were the hostess' son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wozencraft and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wozencraft Jr., Dee, Deana, Darryl, Danny and Debbie. Attending the dinner, too were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sluder, son-in-law and daughter of the hostess. Another was Mrs. Edith Cole of Amarillo.

Party Fetes Five-Year-Old

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edd Carson entertained Wednesday evening in their home. The occasion was in honor of their son Wade's fifth birthday.

Those attending were Mrs. Geneva Brooks of Lubbock, Mrs. Houston Carson and Resa of Sunnyside and Mrs. Aven of Hart. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carson Jr. and Jan, Mrs. Tom Ross, Elisa Ann and Tommy, all of Olton, and, from El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. John Andestad and Lori. Assisting the host and hostess were Wade, his brother Danny and his sister Sharla.

MRS. MARGIE GOULD

Cook Of The Week

Our Cook of the Week, Mrs. Margie Gould, truly loves to cook. The more people she has to cook for the better she likes it.

Mrs. Gould has made her home in Olton approximately five years, moving here from Lamesa. She lives in a small trailer home near her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Maxey.

She has one son, Otha Gould of Plainview, and three other daughters, Mrs. Garna Fish of Plainview, Mrs. Nita Sweatt of Seminole and Mrs. Opal Gildon of Lubbock. She has eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Jetta, a black cat who just appeared one day, is practically a member of the family. That first day Jetta jumped into Margie's lap as if to say "I belong to you".

A small bell hanging outside the trailer door was placed there for Jetta. When she's tired of the outside world, she jiggles the bell, announcing she's ready to come inside.

In addition to cooking, Margie also enjoys sewing, although she does not sew so much now. She still makes lots of pretty aprons and always makes a matching hot pot holder.

She enjoys making patchwork afghans using small blocks of knit fabrics outlined with braid stitching. She has also made them of other fabrics. Reading is another favorite pastime, one that she especially enjoys in the winter months.

MRS. ALLEN ROSS TOLLETT

Tollett-Gallaway Vows Pledged Thursday In St. Peter's Church

Miss Barbara Jean Gallaway and Allen Ross Tollett were married Thursday afternoon in a double ring ceremony solemnized in St. Peter's Catholic Church.

The Rev. Clarence Huber officiated in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony and celebration of the Nuptial Mass. James Tollett of Malibu, Calif., brother of the groom, read the Epistle of the Mass.

Altar boys were Jimmy and Kenny Gallaway, brothers of the bride and Clyde Damerson of Dimmitt, Robert Covington of Daugherty and Mike Higdon of Plainview, all cousins of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallaway and Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Tollett.

The altar was flanked with candelabra of white votive candles, arrangements of white gladioli and white satin kneeling benches. At the center was a satin kneeling bench for the bride and groom.

Harold Dean Carson, organist, presented nuptial selections, the traditional wedding march and the love theme from Romeo and Juliet.

Presented in marriage by her father and mother, the bride wore a formal length gown of white peau de soie fashioned by her mother. Chantilly lace and seed pearl embroidery accented the high neckline of the Empire bodice and full Bishop sleeves of peau d'ange lace. The skirt was princess styled.

Her cathedral length veil of silk-tulle was edged with Chantilly lace and held by a headpiece of lace roses accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of carnations and yellow roses atop a white satin-covered Bible.

For the traditional "something old", she wore a ring belonging to the groom's great-grandmother. She "borrowed" her Bible from an aunt, Mrs. Neil Langley, and her dress was "something new." She wore the traditional blue garter, a gift of her aunt, Mrs. Jim Higdon, and carried a penny, coined the year of her birth, in her shoe.

Miss Margaret Gallaway, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a formal length dress of soft yellow lace over satin fashioned with an Empire waistline accented with soft yellow satin ribbon. She wore a matching satin bow in her hair and carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with a single large yellow rose.

Leslie and Theresa Higdon of Plainview, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore formal length dresses of soft yellow satin, fashioned similar to the maid of honor's, and carried lace baskets filled with yellow rose petals. Ring bearer was David Higdon of Plainview, cousin of the bride.

The groom was presented in marriage by his parents. His brother, James Tollett, was best man.

Guests were seated by Ralph Bell of Hart, Tommy and Clarence Drake of Portales, N. M. and Donnie Crockett of Lovington, N. M., all cousins of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gallaway chose a dress of royal blue wool with white sequin trim and black accessories. Mrs. Tollett wore a suit of gold wool with brown accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white satin cloth fashioned with ruffled tiers and scalloped with yellow roses. The cloth was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jim Higdon.

At the center of the table was the bridal bouquet and a silver candelabra. The traditional four-tiered cake, made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Neil Langley, was decorated with soft yellow roses and wedding bells. The cake and yellow fruit punch were served by Meses Connie Brown and Barbara Aigaki.

Guests were registered by Miss Jeannie Damerson of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride.

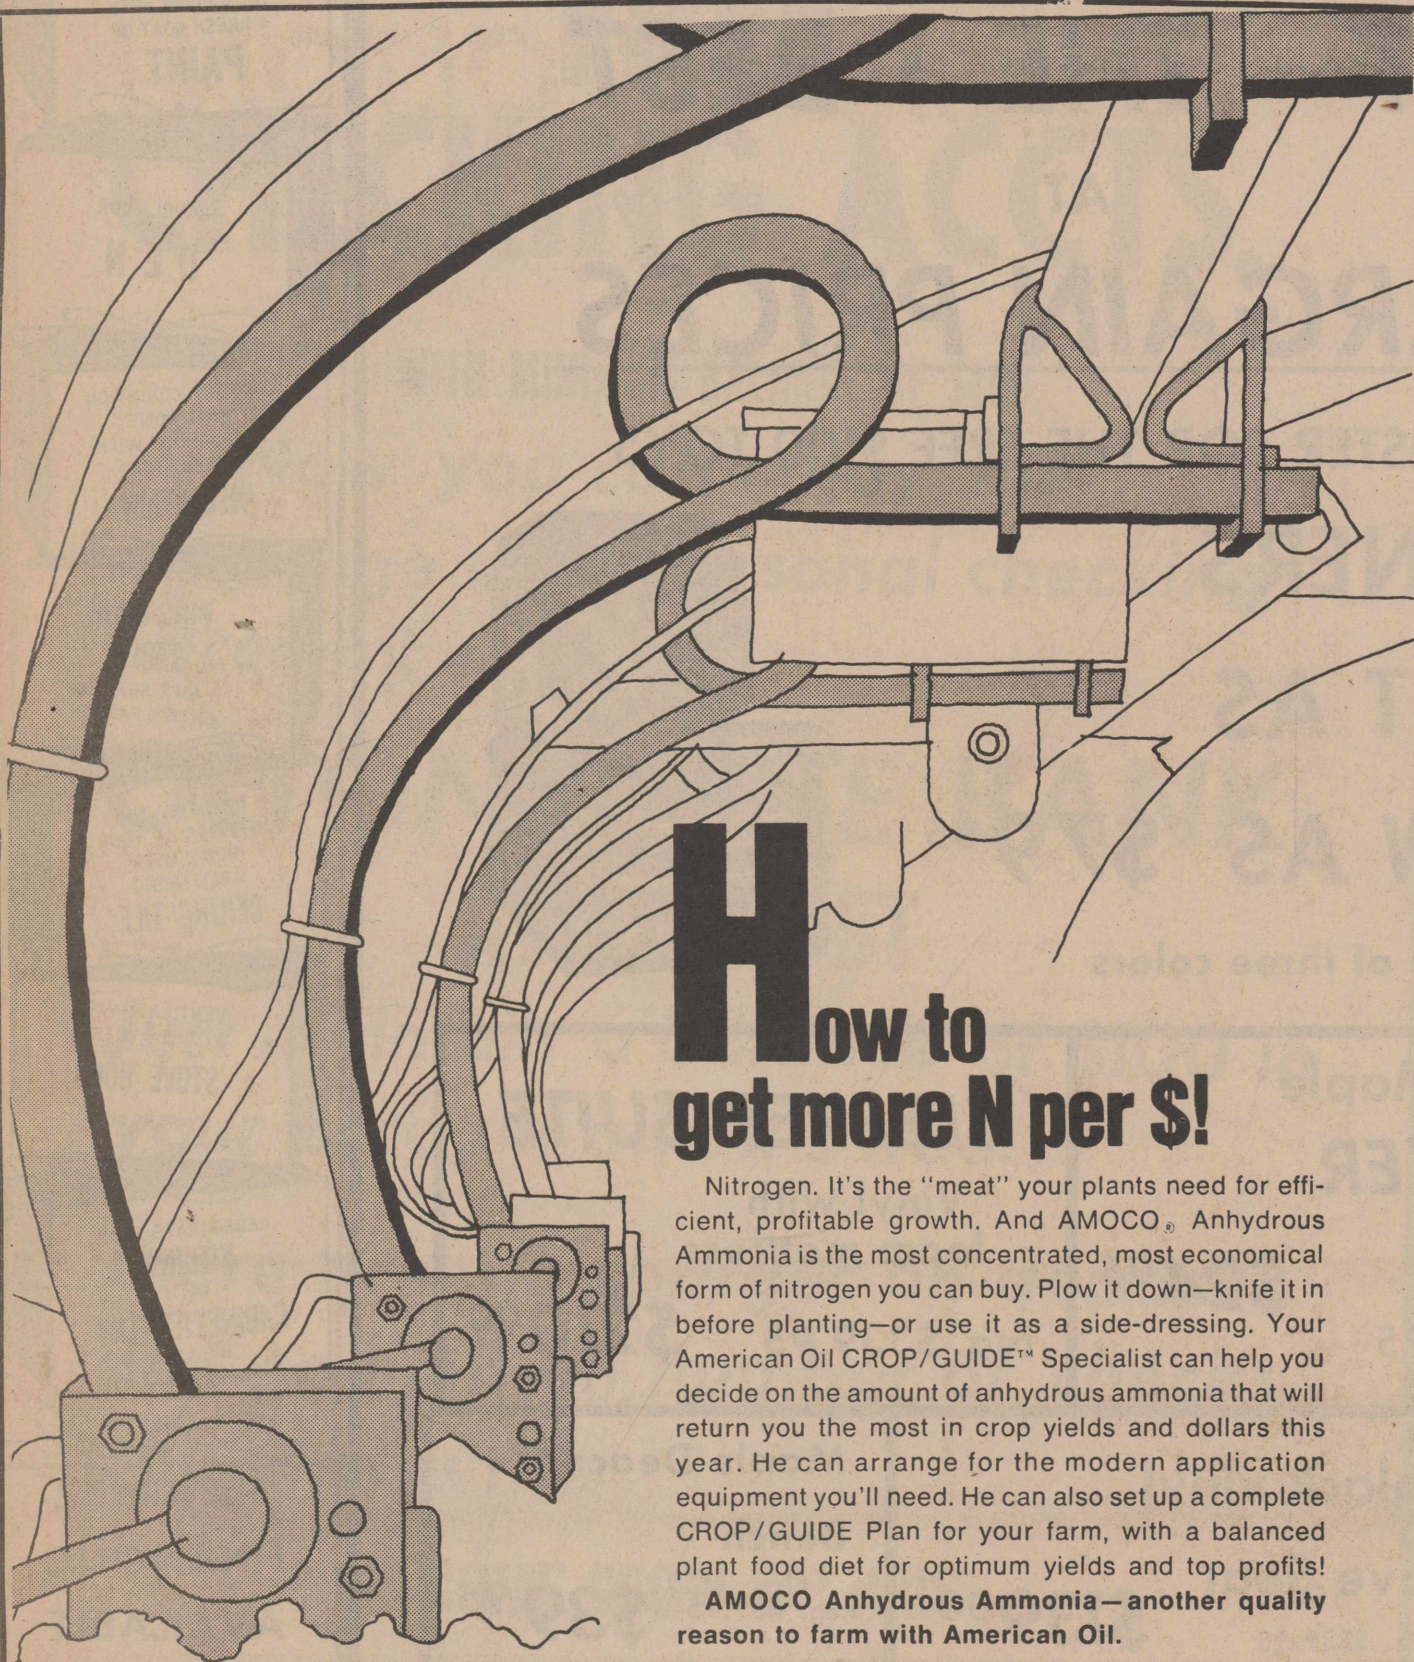

For travel the bride chose a gray A-line wool dress with multi-colored tie and long full sleeves. She added black patent accessories and a corsage of yellow roses lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Olton High School and is a sophomore at West Texas State University. She is a member of the Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society. The groom is a senior at Olton High School.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Covington, Frank and Robert of Daugherty; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Higdon and family of Plainview; Mrs. Esther Langley and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Langley and Andy of Lockney; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Langley and family of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Damerson, Jeanne, Clyde Jr. and Mary of Dimmitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dennis of Kress; Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Crockett and sons of Lovington, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and family of Hart; Mrs. J. H. Musick and Mrs. Leona Tollett of Rogers, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tollett of Sudan and Miss Tanya Bryant of Denver City.

Also Ann Allens of Papp; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Johnson of Canyon; Anna Drake, Anarilna de Sousa, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drake, C. P. Drake and Thomas and Clarence Drake, all of Portales, N. M. and Winola and Richard King of Clovis, N. M. The bridegroom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner in their home Wednesday night.

MRS. ROBERT ALLEN ORR

Robert Allen Orr-Jeannie Mallow Exchange Double Ring Vows

The First Baptist Church of Halfway was the scene Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Jeannie Mallow and Robert Allen Orr.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mallow of Halfway and Mrs. Howard Orr of Louisville and the late Mr. Orr.

Vows were pledged before an altar set with a Gothic arrangement of votive lights forming a background for an altar table draped with a white linen cloth and centered with a silver communion chalice flanked by lighted candles. Tropical palms and candelabras complemented the setting.

Veldee Hightower, student at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. directed the double ring vows.

Wedding selections were presented by Ray Fargason of Lubbock, organist. He also accompanied Miss Betty Easton of Bellville, Ill. as she sang "The Greatest of These is Love" and "Eternal Life".

Candles were lighted by Johnny Mallow, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white satin fashioned with princess lines and featuring a small rolled collar and long fitted sleeves. Motifs of Venice-lace adorned the front of the gown and chapel length train which was accented at the waistline with a large bow. A bandeau of peau petals and lily of the valley held her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a white Mother of Pearl covered Bible from Jordan, topped with white roses and velvet maiden hair fern showered with velvet ribbon.

For "something old and borrowed", she carried a handkerchief which was given to a late maternal aunt during World War I. She wore the traditional blue garter and carried a sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Lewis Brown of Denver, Colo., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Sherman of Lubbock and Miss Doris Taylor and Mrs. Veldee Hightower, both of Lewisville. Miss Tressa Mallow, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They wore formal length gowns of deep bronze velvet fashioned with Empire waistlines, marked with gathers in the front, jeweled necklines, long sleeves and modified A-line skirts. Each wore an antique gold cross necklace, a gift of the bride, and carried a bouquet of bronze mums tied with white velvet ribbon.

George Sheridan of Louisville, Ky. was best man. Groomsmen, who also served as ushers, were Jimmy Ray of Houston, Frank Orr of Nashville, Tenn. and Johnny Orr of Murfreesboro, Tenn., both brothers of the groom.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall. The bride's table was laid with a white nylon tulle cloth with lace trim over satin centered with a seven-branch candelabrum holding white candles with yellow and bronze mums interspersed between the branches.

Assisting with the reception were Mmes. Grady Pillow, Clyde Emberton, Lew Hooper, Harold Goree, Lester Cox, Andy Huddleston, Winfred Smith and Clyde Harrell, all of Halfway.

For a wedding trip to their new home in Louisville, Ky., the bride chose a white wool dress with brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Plainview High School and Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. She also attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville and served as a Southern Baptist missionary to Jordan.

Orr graduated from Athens High School, Athens, Ala. and attended Auburn University. He is presently attending Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He served as a missionary to the Philippines.

The newlyweds are both employed with Norton Memorial Psychiatric Clinic.

Mrs. Howard Orr hosted a rehearsal party Friday night at the Congress Inn for the wedding party and a special guest, Phil Caskey of Louisville.

Mmes. Andy Huddleston, Joe Sherman and Winfred Smith were hostesses Saturday for a bridesmaid luncheon in the Huddleston home.

DARLA FRAZIER & SUSAN CANNON

It looks like back to the old grind again. Everybody working hard so that they can pass those semester tests?? From the look on everyone's face Monday morning, everyone had a good one.

Just eleven days until the Christmas holidays, so it isn't so bad. We are real proud of our Fillies and Mustangs. This Tuesday the Fillies won over Amherst 61 to 16 and the Mustangs won over the Amherst boys 37 to 25. Connie Hall led the forwards with 12 points and Kathie Gary led the guards with 9 rebounds.

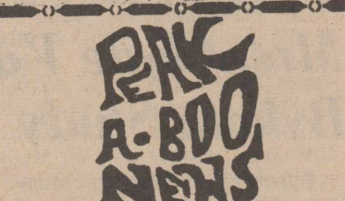

The Mustangs were led by Mike Parsons with 17 points and Steve Culwell and Mickey Crowder each had 11 rebounds. Congratulations to Susan Nicholas and Myrie Givens for being chosen by their teammates as Captains of the Fillies. Good luck Fillies in your Tournament with Kress this weekend. Go! Fight! Win! Beat Kress!!!

A&M?
Debbie McClain - Was it the car or him?
Marsha Moss - fun, fun, fun.
Gaysee - Pig and Myrlene - Gig Daryl - Is she trying to load you down with books??

MRS. ORVILLE FINCH JR.

Olton Graduate Selected 'Outstanding Young Woman'

Mrs. Orville Finch Jr. of Dalhart, the former Leabelle Sluder, has been selected as an Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1969 and will be listed in the annual biographical compilation, "Outstanding Young Women of America."

A graduate of Olton High School and West Texas State University, Mrs. Finch was nominated for the honor by the Woman's Literary and Las Vistas Study Clubs of Dalhart.

The annual Outstanding Young Women of America program recognizes young women for their unselfish contribution to the betterment of their communities, professions and country.

Each year more than 5000 young women are nominated by leading women's organizations and college alumnae associations across the country. Their biographical sketches are featured in the annual compilation, "Outstanding Young Women of America."

From that group, fifty are selected each year - one from each state - for their state's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year Award.

Mrs. Finch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sluder. She and her rancher husband have two children, a son Carl, seven, and a daughter, Donna Marie, five.

REV. LOGAN CUMMINGS

Olton Native Builds 'Fire'

"He's come here and he's built a fire under us," and "I've never seen anyone like him, he super charges everyone he comes in contact with," are just two of the enthusiastic statements made by members of the First Baptist Church in Brownwood of their pastor, the Rev. Logan Matt Cummings.

The Rev. Cummings is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummings of Littlefield, former residents of Olton. He was born in Olton and moved with his parents to Littlefield when the Court House was moved from Olton in 1946.

He graduated from Littlefield High School and attended Texas Tech on a basketball scholarship, receiving his BA Degree in August 1959.

As a junior in Tech, he made his decision to become a minister and enrolled in Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary immediately following his graduation from Tech. His first church to pastor after finishing Seminary was First Baptist Church in Columbus. During his pastorate there, he was privileged to open the United States Senate with prayer, the youngest clergyman to do so.

Rev. Cummings became pastor at Brownwood less than a year ago and since that time there have been more than 250 additions to the church. Added numbers is not the only thing that has happened to the congregation.

The church has established a coffee house in downtown Brownwood where young persons can meet, sing, listen to folk music and watch films. They have created a charm school for girls between junior high school and college ages with classes in proper makeup technique, fashion and poise.

The church has become the first in Texas and the second in the nation to take on the sponsorship of the highly popular "Powerline" radio program - one that features the music of today's youngsters with subtle religious messages.

And, in effort to accommodate increased attendance, the church has launched a $120,000 remodeling program and added an early service Sunday mornings.

The Rev. Cummings, however, does not claim credit for the progress. "I'm not being modest either," he says. "Nor humble, I'm just tapping the ideas of the laymen of our congregation. They have a wealth of ideas. Our church, any church - the church of the 20th century will be the one that uses this brain power."

"He's got us interested," said one member. "There's no doubt about it. He's come here and built a fire under us."
The fire has been ignited from a contemporary approach to religion.
"Churches tend to fall into legalistic traps," said the Rev. Cummings. "They have characterized God. They have made him a spiritual detective. Certainly there is wrath in religion - Jesus got angry and displayed it when he ran the people out of the temple. But religion is not all anger."

His ready grin and boyish good looks - he is six-foot-four and has long blond hair and sideburns - help him in his approach.

His success is proved by the liberal numbers of young persons crammed into the audience to hear him preach Sunday mornings and nights.

It was while he was pastor of Austin's Woodland Baptist Church that the Rev. Cummings developed his approach to young people.

"I saw kids who had led a sheltered existence really get the props knocked out from them. They would get turned on by drugs and other things. I got to thinking, 'What are we preparing our kids for? They can't get out in society and cope,'" he said.

To further his knowledge of the needs of youngsters, the Rev. Cummings went to Haight-Asbury, the hippie settlement in San Francisco. He discovered a lot there.

"A lot of parents, I mean upper-middle class parents, knock themselves out to get two cars and a swimming pool. The father develops an ulcer. Mother and dad fight constantly. Dad isn't home too often. The kids look at the situation and decide to kick that system. That's the trouble today with a lot of parents - they put a lot of things on the kid, good clothes, car, spending money. But they don't put anything in him."

The Rev. Cummings tries to put something into the young people with his approach to Christ. He does not beat them over the head with the fact that they're condemned if they don't do something, or if they do something.

"Kids are getting turned off by the church," he said. "But they're not turned off Christ. Here's a guy who stood up against the establishment. The kids like him and what he stood for."

The main thing, he believes, is to take the message to the kids or to the population.

"They, kids or anybody, are no longer going to beat the doors down to come to church," he said. "Those days are gone forever. The day of going up and button holing a guy and saying 'Are you a Christian?' is gone. You have to be different."

The coffee house in Brownwood, which the church is sponsoring, is different. Named "The Ichus" for the Greek word meaning fish, a sign in the old days that Christians used to greet one another, it was formerly a variety store. It has no furnishings and when a person walks in and pays his 50 cents, he is handed a pillow and told to sit on the floor. Popcorn and cold drinks are free.

There is a piano in the building. There one might hear Cynthia Clawson, 20, of Houston and student at Howard Payne University, sing folk songs.

Or it might be Linda Bliss with a guitar slung over her shoulder. From Dallas she too, is 20 and a student at Howard Payne.

Speaking of the non-paying job, Miss Bliss says, "You get paid in the long run. Not material payment, but knowing that you're helping kids come to grips with life. You see them get a purpose."

"A lot of kids are like I used to be," she said. "I was baptized when I was nine. But I really considered it just fire insurance."

Then she got involved. She credits people like Rev. Cummings for that involvement.

"B. C. (Brother Cummings - the kids label for the preacher) is the kind of person that sets your emotions to stirring and makes you want to do something about the world. He talks our language," she said.

The preacher keeps his sermons short.

"I limit them to 20 minutes at the most," he said. "As soon as I run out of soap, I quit. People don't like long sermons, like my grandfather used to like. But then, he had been following the back end of a mule all week, so he liked to hear someone talk. That's not true today."

He also maintains a steady voice during the sermon.

"I don't try to holler people down," he says. "I try to be cool. That's what people are used to. The cool media. Television is responsible for that. Did you know some kids have watched more than 15,000 hours of television by the time they get out of school?"

The Rev. Cummings is also modest and unassuming in the car he uses as he goes about, driving a small, worn foreign car.

"It's not classy," he says. "But it gets me there. It makes them realize that I'm pretty common."

OPEN HOUSE

Saturday, Dec. 6

1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Welcome to OLTON FEEDYARD, INC.'s open house!

We hope you will make yourself at home Saturday afternoon and take the time to see our entire operation.

We would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to our facilities and management staff.

LAND - Our property consists of one-half section of land located four miles west and two miles south of Olton in the heart of an irrigation area that can produce all commodities for a feeding program.

MILL - The mill is a weigh belt, continuous flow, percentage plant. It has a producing capacity of 45 tons per hour. It has been built with expansion in mind and if necessary could manufacture complete rations for 60,000 cattle.

PENS - At present our pen capacity is 22,500 head, however, expansion plans call for a minimum of 35,000 head. This expansion will take place as required to satisfy our customers needs. At the present capacity we have built six hospital facilities - one located on each cattle alley. Sick cattle will travel no more than 1,000 feet to a hospital. The pens are lighted at night for security and protection from stampede. Each pen has watering facilities on two sides of the pen. Our water system is a continuous flow system assuring the cattle of a fresh supply of clean water that will not freeze in the winter. Our pen water system is fed by two six inch wells which gives us adequate back-up should one of the wells fail.

WORKING FACILITIES - Our working facilities are of the latest design and are set up for high volume efficient handling of the cattle under our care.

AIRPORT - We have constructed a 3,000 feet runway which is adequate for single engine and twin engine light airplanes for the convenience of our flying customers.

RECORD KEEPING - Our office book-keeping and record keeping system is completely computerized for fast efficient service to our customers. Our computer is located "in house" which allows maximum utilization of the equipment.

Basketball Results

In Junior High Basketball this week the seventh grade girls defeated Lockney 38 to 13. Susie Culwell led the way with 20 points.

The eighth grade girls swamped Lockney's eighth graders 27 to 14. Cynthia Norfleet tossed in 11 points for her night's effort.

Olton's eighth grade boys fell to the visiting Lockney Horns to the tune of 58 to 24.

Dale Parsons contributed 12 points for the night's work. Lockney just had too much height and controlled the backboards all night.

In B-team boys action Tuesday night Olton downed Amherst 61 to 16. Jacky Kemp led the way for the Ponies with 17 points.

Varsity action this week found the boys and girls posting two wins Tuesday night. Olton's Fillies led by Connie Hall's 12 points and Kathy Gary's nine rebounds defeated Amherst 37 to 25.

This year's girls basketball captains are Susan Nicholas and Myrle Givens. Both of the newly elected captains are seniors.

Olton's boys grabbed their first win of the year in a big way as they outscored the Amherst boys 68 to 42. Mike Parsons led the offense with 17 points. Steve Culwell and Mickey Crowder tied with rebounds with 11 each.

The next home game is December 15 with Cotton Center.

Senior Homemakers Given Betty Crocker Search Test

Senior homemaking students at OHS joined more than 600,000 others in over 15,000 schools throughout the country Tuesday in an only-one-of-its-kind examination. At stake in the written homemaking knowledge and attitude test of the 16th annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow are $10,000 in college scholarships.

The girl scoring highest here will receive a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the homemaking education program, and her paper will be entered in competition with those of all other school winners in the state. From this, a state winner, who will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship, will be selected, as will a state runner-up, who will receive a $500 educational grant.

Next spring, first-place winners from the 50 states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will gather in Washington, D. C., for an expense-paid educational tour of that city and Colonial Williamsburg, Va. Climaxing the tour will be announcement of the 1970 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up. Chosen from the 51 state winners on the basis of original test score and personal observation and interviews during the tour, they will have their scholarships increased to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively.

The Betty Crocker Search, designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, is the only national scholarship program exclusively for high school senior girls. It has been placed on the approved list of national contests and activities of the National Association of Secondary-School Principals during each of its 16 years.

The examination, administered Tuesday, was prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago educational testing organization which is also responsible for its scoring and the subsequent selection of local, state and national winners. Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., presents sets of Encyclopaedia Britannica to schools of state winners.
