Dr. James M. Doran, commissioner of industrial alcohol, resigned effective tomorrow, to become director of the domestic distillers' code authority.

Acting Secretary Henry Morgenthau, jr., of the treasury, announced Doran's action simultaneously with an announcement that the bureau of industrial alcohol would be returned to the bureau of internal revenue tomorrow, where it was in the pre-prohibition days.

Big Monoplane Is Being Held By Dead Calm

Lindbergh Tries Repeatedly To Lift Plane From Surface Of River; Fresh Wind Being Awaited By Pair

(By The Associated Press)

BATHURST, Gambia, Dec. 4.—Their big red monoplane held in the Gambia river by an almost dead calm, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh waited tonight for the first fresh wind to lift them on a flight to South America.

How long the calm will continue could only be guessed at. That such conditions often last for many days along the West African coast is known to the sorrow of many mariners.

Fails To Lift Plane

Repeatedly Colonel Lindbergh has tried to lift the heavy plane from the unruffled surface of the lower river. With a load of fuel sufficient to carry them across nearly 1,900 miles of open sea the craft refused to rise. Surface tension held the pontoons as in a groove.

From November to March is the season for what is known as the "Harmattan," a hot desert wind which comes from the vast interior region. The "harmattan" blows intermittently, but if it comes, it would speed the Lindberghs on their way.

Ship Overhauled

The colonel spent the morning overhauling the big monoplane after failure of repeated attempts to take off last night. Mrs. Lindbergh helped him. Later she slept for a short time while additional gasoline was jettisoned to lighten the load.

Previously 40 gallons of fuel and considerable baggage was unloaded but the craft still was too heavy to overcome a lack of headwind for a takeoff.

Intensive Search For Two Negroes Is Being Conducted

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 4. (AP)—An intense search for two negroes driving a large sedan was being conducted in this area tonight as officers sought to bring to justice the attackers of Arnold Keith, 21, of Wichita Falls, who was robbed last night in Archer county.

Physicians said a drug was administered to Keith by his assailants. He was recovering tonight from the effects of the drug and mistreatment at the hands of persons who left him bound in a ditch 12 miles south of Wichita Falls. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keith of Springtown, were here.

Officers learned that Keith was forced to enter an automobile a few miles north of Archer City. He was hitch-hiking back to Wichita Falls after a week-end visit with his parents at Springtown.

Double For Floyd Injured In Crash

FORT SMITH, Ark., Dec. 4. (AP)—A man described by an officer who knew Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd as his "exact double" was here under a police guard at a hospital several hours today until it was established he was not the Oklahoma outlaw. The man was injured in an automobile accident with Floyd's wife and niece.

Another man, identified as Fred Stiles of Fort Worth, was injured fatally in the accident, which occurred near Charleston, Ark., late last night.

The man at first believed by officers to be Floyd and who sought to leave the hospital on a broken leg before they arrived was identified as Bob Carney of Fort Smith.

Raymond Drake, a deputy sheriff of Sallisaw, Okla., Floyd's home town, hurried here to view the suspect. He said the man was "an exact double" for the hunted Oklahoma bandit, but scars and other identifying marks of Floyd were missing. Relatives of Carney also went to the hospital and established his identity. The police guard was removed.

Declares He Wanted Money For Poker Game At House

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, Dec. 4. — Detective Captain Buchanan said tonight that Frank Flowers, alias Arthur Gaines, 34-year old negro ex-convict, had confessed killing Mrs. Reba Carney of Kennedale here the night of Nov. 25 because he "wanted money for a poker game" at his house.

Buchanan said the negro told of subsequently losing the money in the poker game.

No Charge Filed

No charge has been filed against the negro and no confession signed, Buchanan said, but a charge will be filed tomorrow.

"Flowers said he was walking toward his home two blocks from the scene of the crime when he saw a woman, apparently alone, sitting in a car," Buchanan said. "He decided to rob her and get money for the poker game, so he went back to the car with a pistol.

"The woman flashed a light on him and he saw a blackjack in her hand, which he mistook for a pistol, and fired. He ran away after snatching her purse.

Pistol Is Lost

"After running some distance he lost his automatic pistol in a mesquite patch, then went home, hiding the purse in a cemetery enroute. Later the money was lost in the poker game."

The detective captain said Flowers was arrested last Tuesday night for investigation and had been in custody since then. His half-brother, L. B. Gaines, also was arrested.

Connally Condemns Election Practices In Nearby State

HOUSTON, Dec. 4 (AP) — United States Senator Tom Connally, en route from New Orleans to his home at Marlin, issued a statement here today "heartily condemning" certain asserted election practices in Louisiana.

The Texas senator is chairman of the senate sub committee which last week concluded an investigation of the Overton-Broussard primary election in Louisiana.

"Speaking individually and not for the committee," Senator Connally said, "I have no hesitancy in saying that I heartily condemn the practice of using dummy candidates for the purpose of gaining control of the election machinery as practiced in Louisiana.

"I also heartily condemn the assessment of state and city employes and deductions from their salaries for political and campaign purposes."

Federal Aid For Teachers Of Texas Is To Be Sought

DALLAS, Dec. 4. (AP)—Federal aid for Texas teachers and schools will be sought in Washington this week by Maury Hughes, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee and also of the state recovery board. Hughes left today for New York and Washington to attend to some legal business and then to see General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, and Harry Hopkins, federal administrator.

"The government is already trying to do what it can for the unemployed teachers of the country," Hughes said. "I am going to try to find out how much of this relief is going to be given to Texas and how it will be given. This is a very serious problem and probably more serious to the children than for the teachers."

Son Of Former President Is Arrested For Speeding

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Dec. 4 (AP)—A traffic tag turned in today at the highway patrol office here disclosed the arrest Saturday night of Allan Hoover, son of the former president, on a speeding charge. He gave his address as Stanford university.

The arresting officers, Captan Rudolph Schmoke and Milo Hewitt, said young Hoover was going 58 miles per hour on the Bayshore highway, where the limit is 45. An order was issued for Hoover to appear before a justice of the peace in South San Francisco December 7.

FIRST testimony in the trial of J. R. Readhimer, 56, for murder in the slaying of Stokes Campbell, a Floydada High school student, will be given in 99th district court before Judge Clark M. Mullican this morning.

The jury was completed at 5:15 p. m. Monday, after 42 members of the special venire of 100 persons had been questioned. Defense questions indicated Readhimer would plead the "unwritten law." Jurors are:

Jurors Are Chosen

Hays, Acuff, all farmers; J. I. Drewhy, a Slaton ginner; J. L. Combs, a Lubbock plumber; F. E. Malone, Shallowater druggist; S. E. Cone, a Lubbock graindealer; and H. L. Cantelou, a Lubbock service station operator.

With an "unwritten law" defense, Vert A. Readhimer, a son of J. R. Readhimer, was acquitted of murder by a jury in the same court in October.

State witnesses testified the younger Readhimer held Campbell while J. R. Readhimer shot him.

Case Transferred Here

The prosecutors are District Attorney Dan Blair; Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney; A. J. (Jack) Folley of Floydada, district attorney of the 110th district, from which the case was transferred; J. E. Vickers and W. W. Campbell of Lubbock, and G. R. Hamilton of Matador.

Members of the defense staff are Joiner & Cook of Plainview, W. H. Bledsoe, C. C. Crenshaw, and George W. Dupree of Lubbock, and L. G. Matthews of Floydada.

Continuance For Trial Is Sought

LAMESA, Dec. 4. (Special)—A defense motion for continuance of the trial of Deputy Sheriff John Johnson of Lynn county for murder was taken under advisement today by Judge Gordon B. McGuire of 106th district court.

Johnson was indicted in connection with the slaying last May 24 of B. O. (Bunk) Best, 30, near O'Donnell. The defense, in asking the continuance, claimed three material witnesses were unavailable. Judge McGuire's ruling on the motion is expected Tuesday morning, District Attorney G. H. Nelson said.

Best and his brother Grady, 32, were shot while Johnson was searching for a calf reported stolen, according to Dalton Barnhart, a witness, who said he had asked Johnson to investigate loss of the calf.

Judge McGuire this morning overruled a motion to quash the indictment. Defense Attorneys Tom Garrard of Tahoka and Carl Rountree of Lamesa sought to have the charge quashed because some members of the grand jury indicting Johnson had not paid their poll taxes.

Dyrel Kirk, Dawson county attorney, is assisting in the prosecution.

Two Applications Overruled In An Attempt To Free Bates

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 4 (AP)—Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaught today overruled two applications by which Ben Laska of Denver, attorney for Albert L. Bates, sought to obtain Bates' release from the Leavenworth federal prison where Bates is serving a life term for the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping.

The court declined to vacate Bates' sentence on Laska's contention the federal kidnaping law provided a penalty "for a term of years." Judge Vaught then denied an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Sale Of Bonds Again Planned

Texas Bond Commission Sets December 21 For Consideration Of Bids; Changes Are Made In Procedure

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. — The Texas bond commission today set December 21 for consideration of bids for the state's $2,750,000 relief bond issue, for which there was no sale when they were offered the first time on last Friday.

Members of the commission decided to readvertise for bids after a conference with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

Notices that bids will be received differ somewhat from the order to invite offers which was drawn for the other proposed sale.

Change Announced

The board announced that this time it will receive bids in any sum not less than $1,000, which is the par value of the bonds. Previously offers were limited to blocks of not less than $45,000.

Also, the new notice calls attention "to the fact that a specific appropriation and allocation of funds was made by the legislature to meet interest and maturities and that the law creating a sinking fund with a specific direction to the state treasurer to allocate sufficient moneys out of the general fund received from any source other than taxes on real estate; and to the further fact that the legislature made a specific appropriation of sufficient money to meet all obligations for the ensuing two years."

It was thought the bonds might be sold to a federal agency.

Several Pleas Of Guilty Entered In County Court

Roma Stevens, charged with aggravated assault after Vera McCullough, 26, was stabbed Nov. 14 here, pleaded guilty of affray and was fined $5 and costs in county court yesterday by Judge E. L. Pitts.

Each was fined $1 and sentenced to a day in county jail. County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson said. G. F. Powell, who had appealed from city court, was acquitted of a charge of drunkenness.

Trial of Ed F. Eycock for swindling will be called Thursday.

ROCKDALE, Dec. 4. (AP)—Relatives here were notified that the body of Kelly Phillips, 32, who was drowned in the Mississippi river near Greenville, Miss., on Nov. 16, was recovered today. The body will be sent here from Vicksburg.

San Antonio Man Hurt Near Here

Tom D. Dagett of San Antonio suffered a skull fracture when the sedan he was driving northward on highway 9 three miles south of Lubbock was in a head-on collision with a truck late Monday.

Dagett, received in an unconscious condition at Lubbock sanitarium shortly after 6 o'clock, had not become rational late last night.

Deputy Sheriff Cap Moore, who investigated the accident, did not learn identity of driver of the truck, but he had the license plate number. The truck was registered in Lubbock county. The driver was not reported to have been injured.

Cleve Cobb, a Santa Fe special officer, who arrived at the accident scene soon after the collision, said both vehicles were in the east barrow ditch.

Dagett was driving alone. His identity and his San Antonio address, 307 West Johnson street, was found in his clothing.

State Officers Are Reminded That Traffic In Intoxicating Liquors Is Prohibited; Companies Warned

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. — On the eve of repeal of the eighteenth amendment, which will leave some states free to dispense hard liquor, James V. Allred, attorney general, today reminded Texas law enforcement officers that this state still prohibits the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

He "particularly" called to attention of county and district attorneys to a Texas law which authorizes "the seizure and condemnation of any automobile, truck, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship or other vehicle used for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquor."

Warns Companies

Allred warned transportation companies that if they hauled banned liquors he would lend his own hand to forfeit and cancel permits of offending concerns, and invoke fines against them.

He further reminded peace officers of statutes which direct "the filing of a suit to padlock places where intoxicating liquors are kept, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or to which persons resort for the purpose of drinking intoxicating liquors."

Texas has legalized by constitutional amendment the sale of beer or wine of not more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content. It still maintains its ban on intoxicating liquors and makes possession, transportation, manufacture or sale a felony.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Judge Joseph B. David gave orders today for the trial of Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop to begin a month from today and clamped down, meanwhile, on further public statements by state and defense attorneys on the operating room murder case.

Her own illness and the desire of the court to remain unprejudiced until the trial will keep the elderly woman a prisoner in the county jail until January 4.

BIDS ARE ASKED

AUSTIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—The highway commission today advertised for bids on $670,000 worth of NRA emergency construction, proposals to be considered on December 18. The commission had previously asked bids for work estimated to cost $754,000, to be received on next Monday.

Citizens Arm Themselves To Halt Election

Shots Exchanged Last Night On Bridge Between Group Of Citizens And Men Believed Hauling Ballots

Expect Bloodshed

Ballots And Tally Sheets Are Seized; Armed Deputies Are Sworn In; Long Threatens Court Prosecution

(By The Associated Press)

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 4.—Shots were exchanged tonight on the Amite river bridge between a group of Livingston parish citizens and occupants of a truck, believed by the men to be hauling new ballots from Baton Rouge to replace ballots burned earlier in the night on the main street of Denham Springs.

The truck ran off the bridge and swerved into a swamp road and escaped from the twenty-five armed citizens angered over the calling of an election in the sixth district without holding a Democratic primary.

Bloodshed Expected

No one was injured in the exchange of some twenty shots, but the shooting added to the grave fears of bloodshed held by officials.

Earlier in the evening, men traveling in fifteen automobiles had seized the ballots and tally sheets for Livingston parish from a storehouse at Centreville, the parish seat, and had taken them to the main street of Denham Springs, the largest town in the parish, and burned them in a public bonfire.

Then the citizenship armed themselves and started a patrol of the highways to prevent the sending in of new ballots. As the truck neared the end of the bridge, twenty-five armed men stepped out into the road and ordered the driver to halt but he speeded up the truck and drove straight at the men.

Windows Shattered

As the truck passed, the citizens fired a volley and the fire was returned from inside the truck. Windows of the truck were shattered but the men lost it on a narrow trail in a swamp.

Armed deputies empowered to make arrests, had been sworn in today to carry out the order of District Judge Nat B. Tycer enjoining the distribution of ballots. At the same time highway patrolmen, controlled by the opposing state administration, were ordered to assemble at Baton Rogue from all parts of the state. Tonight they came in in small groups and registered at hotels

The burning of the ballots in Livingston parish represented burnings in four of the twelve parishes of the district.

Seven days of citizens' demonstrations against the administration reached a crescendo in Hammond this afternoon when a laughing.

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE BEAN WILSON
Avalanche Woman's Editor

THERE is still some talk of that writer's club. People who write continue to mention it and a number are interested in joining such an organization. But the same difficulty remains. No one wants to try to effect the organization and no one with whom I have talked knows how to go about forming the society. The writers, it seems, have a general idea that it would be a good idea to "let George do it." So there it stands.

Perhaps you have belonged to a club or know someone who has who could assist with the organization. If so, several scribblers in town will be glad to know about it. We have a number of joiners but no leader, as yet.

A LOT OF BAPTISTS

THE Baptists are estimating that there will be 4,000 at their Baptist Training Service convention here next Thanksgiving. There were 6,000 at Mineral Wells, so J. D. Riddle, the First Baptist educational director, tells me and that is a lot of people to be at one gathering.

If 4,000 Baptists invade this town at one time, those of us in other congregations had better look out. Any one who is doubtful about his church may be turning Baptists by the sheer force of numbers.

People of other beliefs will be glad to see them, though. It's going to take considerable food to feed 4,000 people for three days and grocers should feel the benefits. It is going to be necessary to use a lot of sheets to bed down 4,000 extra people for three days. The laundries might be glad to know about that.

A Christian convention has its commercial significance in a town, particularly if 4,000 arrive.

ADVERTISING

LUBBOCK has been getting some national advertising during the last year and a half in the American Paint and Oil Dealer, a trade magazine that goes to paint dealers throughout the country.

Mrs. T. R. Prideaux, 2408 Thirteenth street, wrote a series of articles for that magazine, telling of her personal experiences in Lubbock. Each article was illustrated with pictures of Lubbock homes and yards.

One article, "Down the Back Alleys," carried pictures of the M. C. Butler and C. J. Wagner back fences. Other articles, "Meet the Folks Who Want to Meet You" and "Don't Ignore the Farmer's Wife," were illustrated with pictures of ranch and farm homes in this vicinity.

CALL US UP

PERHAPS you have gone to, considerable trouble to write up some party or gathering and have brought it in and left it some place in this office only to discover that it never appeared in print. There may have been several reasons for this omission. You may have left the story on the wrong desk and it may never have reached this one. Or you may have brought it in too late.

Many times people wait several days after a party and then write it up and mail or bring the article in to this office. In the meantime we have been printing two papers a day and have other and later news to fill the space. Perhaps it would be better under these circumstances to get in communication with us at the time of the event.

MAKE THEM MATCH

SOME smart people make their gloves match their costumes. They buy plain kid gloves in the color wanted and then make their own flaring cuffs of material to match the costume or of the same material used in the costume. When they are extra special, decorative buttons are sewed on the gloves with buttonholes in the cuffs to attach them.

There are some decorative edibles that you may add to your table. Here are some of them: Slices of lemon rolled in chopped parsley; celery stuffed with cheese and covered with paprika; curled celery; stuffed eggs; tiny onions sprinkled lightly with minute pieces of parsley; watercress; pickles; cream or cottage cheese balls sprinkled with paprika; orange or lemon slices; stuffed dates.

Columbia Accepts Stanford's Invitation To Play Tournament Of Roses

Rose Bowl To See Lions And Indians Clash

Impressive Finish By Columbia Brings Invitation, In Spite Of Lions' Defeat In Early Season Conflict

(By The Associated Press)

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 4. (AP)—Columbia university's acceptance of an invitation from Stanford to play the annual East-West football game in the Rose Bowl here was announced today.

Al Masters, Stanford graduate manager, made the announcement following advices from the Eastern university that it would toss its Lions into the arena with the Indians New Year's Day.

Masters said the invitation to Columbia was tendered late yesterday and the acceptance was received by telegram from the university athletic committee this afternoon.

Really A Great Team

"Football critics have informed us that despite an early season defeat by Princeton, Columbia has really a great team," said the Stanford graduate manager.

"We are impressed by its great finish," he added, and went on to say:

"In making its selection, Stanford took into consideration the scholastic standing of its possible opponents and thought Columbia was above reproach."

Stanford has scored a total of 131 points to 36 for opponents in winning eight of its ten games, with one a tie. The only reverse for the Cardinal team was at the hands of the University of Washington, 6 to 0. Columbia scored 172 points to 45 for the combined opposition.

The season was opened with a 27 to 0 victory over San Jose State. University of California at Los Angeles was repulsed 3 to 0, and Santa Clara fell, 7 to 0. There was no decision in the Northwestern scoreless game but San Francisco university was stopped 20 to 13. Two field goals enabled the Washington Huskies to score its triumph and the Olympic club of San Francisco was turned back, 21 to 0. The Trojans of the University of Southern California fell, 13 to 7, and the University of California, 7 to 3, with a 33 to 7 rout of the University of Montana in between.

Lost To Princeton

Columbia played eight games and won seven, Princeton with a 20 to 0 defeat placing the only black mark on the Lions' record. Lehigh was first to fall, 39 to 0, and Virginia was stopped, 15 to 6. Then came the Princeton game, but Penn State following was defeated 33 to 6. Cornell was downed, 9 to 6, and Navy 14 to 7. Columbia scored 46 points to 6 for Lafayette and concluded the regular season with a 16 to 0 victory over Syracuse.

Columbia Quick To Accept Invitation

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Confirming an announcement from Pasadena, Dr. Edward F. Elliott, chairman of the Columbia committee on athletics, tonight said Columbia's football team would meet Stanford's Indians in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, New Year's Day.

Dr. Elliott's announcement came at the end of a three-hour meeting of the committee whose decision in favor of accepting the invitation was delayed until it could be revealed first by Al Masters, graduate manager of athletics at Stanford.

First From New York

Reynolds Benson, Columbia graduate manager, said that most of the time of the long conference was devoted to discussing the various details of a trip into the far west no New York college football team ever has taken before.

From the start, Benson said, the committee members were unanimously in favor of accepting the invitation.

Amarillo Badgers May Play Lamar College In State's Junior College Grid Race

AMARILLO, Dec. 4. (AP) — Frank Kimbrough, coach of the Amarillo college Badgers, said today that negotiations were under way for a bi-district football game with Lamar Junior college of Beaumont the latter part of this week.

"We have agreed to exchange offers by night letter to determine where the game will be played," Kimbrough said. "It will be tomorrow before anything definite is known. If Lamar comes to Amarillo, the game will be played Friday, but if we go to Beaumont, it will be played Saturday."

Meanwhile, Kimbrough said, Marshall, Texarkana, and Paris will be trying to settle a three-way tie in the third district of the state's junior college association. Kimbrough said he hoped to see the winner of the Amarillo-Lamar game play the winner in the third district for the junior college championship. Amarillo and Lamar are champions of their respective district.

Jimmy Wilce, son of Dr. John Wilce, former Ohio State football coach, played in a "kid game" curtain-raiser to the Buckeye-Indiana clash at Columbus.

Eight Letter Men Return For Matador Cage Season

Team Meets Former Wichita Henry Outfit Here

Bidding farewell to another football season, over the protest of any number of fans who would like to see a post-season game, the Texas Tech athletic department will turn its immediate attention to basketball, at the same time making plans for an extensive winter football program.

Like Gene Tunney, Bobby Jones, et al, the Matadors are retiring while they're at the top of their form. Having completed a tough nine-game schedule in which they were victorious eight times, the athletes and coaches are content to call it a season, especially after the upset victory over Kansas State on Thanksgiving.

Schedule Half Made

John O'Dell Morgan and his cagers will be cavorting ere long before the public at the Tech gymnasium. An interesting schedule is in the making, nearly half done, and already the intended backbone of the Matador quintet has been working out. Practice two or three times weekly was inaugurated about three weeks ago, and the practice season will get into full swing next week.

Coach Morgan issues an invitation to all varsity basketball candidates to report at the gymnasium at 7 o'clock Friday night of this week. At that time the prospects will be looked over, and ordered back to practice next Monday night.

While the dates have not been fixed definitely, the Matadors have tentatively scheduled a series of games with the Ogden Boosters, formerly the Wichita Henrys, national A.A.U. champions. This series will bring old enemies back together, as at least three members of former West Texas State Teachers college teams are on the Booster squad. Big Joe Fortenberry, one of the most outstanding athletes ever to enroll at West Texas, and Burton Comer, another great performer, are members of the Booster club, which, as the Wichita Henrys, won national fame more than one season by taking the National A.A.U. tournament.

Star Cagers Return

Nine games are definitely scheduled for Tech's cagers this season, or approximately half of the number they expect to play.

Coach Morgan has eight letter men returning for duty this season, along with several reserves and sophomores who promise to make it one of the most successful basketball seasons in Tech history.

Letter men coming back are: Polk Robison, center; Alvin Crews, forward; Henry Loter, forward; Wilson Gilmore, forward; Truman Green, guard; Larry Priddy, guard; J. C. Thomas, guard; and Butcher, forward.

Notre Dame Ramblers Get Big Welcome By Homefolks

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. (AP)—Notre Dame's Ramblers, who faund themselves in the final period of their final game of an otherwise dismal season to beat the Army, received a tumultous welcome today as they came back home.

Despite a drizzling rain, 3,000 students, most of whom have been patiently waiting all fall to "cheer, cheer for old Notre Dame," jammed the plaza of the union station as the conquering heroes of footbal came back from the big city and thundered an ovation surpassed only by that given the Rockne Raiders on their return from their triumph over Southern California three years ago.

Arkansas Razorbacks Perform Before 56,000 Fans In 1933

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Dec. 4. (AP)—Boyd Cypert, business manager of athletics at the University of Arkansas, said today that the Arkansas football team played before approximately 56,000 persons during the season just ending, including an aggregate attendance of 10,000 for five home games and 6,000 for the Arkansas-Baylor game at Little Rock.

This year's attendance probably exceeds last year's although comparitive figures could not be obtained, Cypert said.

Gwinn Henry, W. H. (Lone Star) Dietz and "Potsy" Clark, former head football coaches at midwestern universities, are tutoring professional elevens.

Tangles Title

Here's the young man who has caused all the conversation in the Southwest conference regarding the University of Arkansas and whether it shall or shall not be awarded the conference championship, which it has won on the gridiron. He is Ulysses "Heinie" Schlueter, ineligible substitute Razorback tackle who played a total of eleven minutes in three games. Conference bigwigs meet in Dallas December 9 to throw Arkansas out of the race or to award the Razorbacks their first title.

Heinz, Kanthe In Main Event

Detroit Strong Man Comes To Avenge Previous Defeat By Sunshine; Jack Van Bebber And Tremaine In Semi-Final

Back to avenge a defeat suffered two weeks ago when he made his debut here, Professor Dick Kanthe, the "strong man" artist from Detroit, will face Lubbock's Tommy "Sunshine" Heinz tomorrow night in the main event of Promoter Sled Allen's regular Wednesday night wrestling show.

Heinz went to work on Kanthe after losing the first fall week before last and caught the enraged Kanthe in a couple of holds that spelled victory for the popular sandy-haired grappler from San Diego, and defeat for the unpopular "maneater," Kanthe.

Fought Last Week

Both of them were on last week's program, but not in the ring together. It took the combined efforts of referee and winner to subdue Kanthe two weeks ago after he lost to Heinz. Following the third and victorious fall, he arose in great wrath, headed for Heinz and sought to take it out in a boxing encounter.

Tomorrow night's show brings two other popular wrestlers back in the ring. The house will be divided when Andy Tremaine, clean-limbed young fellow from Tucson, matches wits and holds with the Texas Tech wrestling coach and Olympic champion, Jack Van Bebber. Both are popular here because of their clean wrestling, their fair play and their ever-charging fights. They will go to grips with determination and zeal, but there will be little rough stuff in their 30-minute semi-wind-up.

Promoter Allen announces a fifteen-minute preliminary will be staged as a curtain raiser.

Prices will remain the same, and reserved ring side seats are on sale today at the J. & J. Sporting Goods company store. They go for 65 cents each, including tax. General admission is 40 cents, or 10 cents for wome nand children. A large crowd is expected when this trio of favorites flash their well-kept physiques under the spotlight.

Klein Proves Senior Loop's Slug Champion

Batting Averages For 1933 Released Yesterday Shows Phil Slugger Far In Lead; Virgil Davis Is Second

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. (AP)—Charles H. (Chuck) Klein, traded to the Chicago Cubs by the Phillies in the biggest of the off-season player deals, clearly was the National League's greatest all-around batsman during the 1933 season, the official averages, made public today, revealed.

Klein not only captured the league batting title with an average of .368 in 152 games but also topped all rivals in base hits with 223; in total bases, with 365; in doubles, with 44; and in home runs, with 28.

The clouting outfielder thus added one more link to one of the most brilliant records any player ever has achieved in the national loop. In his five seasons as a regular, Klein never has scored fewer than 100 runs nor made less than 200 hits and his lowest batting average, in 1931, was .337.

Davis Hits .349

Behind Klein trailed his teammate, Virgil Davis, burly catcher, who since has been traded to the St. Louis Cardinals. Davis wound up in second place with a .349 average. Then followed, among the regulars, Tony Piet of Pittsburgh, now a member of the Cincinnati Reds, with .323; Bill Terry, manager of the world champion New York Giants, .322; Wes Schulmerich of the Phillies, .318; John L. (Pepper) Martin of the Cardinals, .316, and Floyd Vaughan, brilliant young Pittsburgh shortstop, .314.

In addition to his five individual titles, Klein tied with Paul Waner of the Pirates for second place in runs, each having 101 against 122 for Martin, the leader. Martin also stole the most bases, 26, his closest rival being Frankie Frisch, Cardinal manager, who pilfered 18.

Chick Fullis of the Phillies was at bat the most times, 647, collected the most singles, 162, and was runner up to Klein for most hits with 200.

Berger Is Runner Up

Walter Berger, heavy hitting outfielder of the Boston Braves, took down two second places with 299 total bases and 27 home runs, being runner up to Klein in each department. Joe Medwick of the Cardinals, trailed Klein in doubles with 40.

Vaughan and Paul Waner ran one-two in triples with 19 and 16, respectively. Dick Bartell of the Phillies led in sacrifices for the second year in succession with 37. He also tied the major league record, held by eight players, when he clouted four doubles in a single game on April 25.

BONHAM PLAYS TODAY

CLARKSVILLE, Dec. 4. (AP)—The Clarksville High school Tigers will meet the Bonham High school football team here tomorrow to determine the championship of District 6, B. An earlier game between the teams resulted in a scoreless tie, either was defeated during the conference season.

Each of the 10 teams in the National Professional football league averages more than 200 pounds to the man, with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Green Bay Packers weighing in at 209 pounds.

Football Offense Too Standardized, Thinks Shaughnessy, Chicago Coach

Maroon Mentor Does Not Favor Change In Regulations

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. — Contrary to the widespread football belief that the defense has the advantage under existing rules, Clark Daniel Shaughnessy, University of Chicago head coach, is convinced the offense has all the better of it nowadays, providing it makes full use of opportunities.

CLARK SHAUGHNESSY

"In my opinion, the offense has so much more advantage over the defense in modern football that it isn't even close," said Shaughnessy today, before returning to Chicago. "Frankly, I can't see where there's even room for argument. Other factors, such as manpower, being anywhere near equal, the team in possession of the ball should have the other side guessing nine-tenths of the time.

"The chief reason why you hear so much about defensive dominance is that most offensive operations have become too standardized; so much so that a smart defense knows most of the time what is going to happen.

Two Main Systems

"Nearly every coach has adopted the Warner or Rockne system. Their formations are all common property. This simplifies the defensive problems and likewise robs the offense of its biggest weapon—deception.

"What the offensive structure of the college game needs is more variety and originality; not new rules to make scoring easier or restrict the defense. I believe the rules should stand the way they are. The game is balanced enough now but most coaches do not take advantage of their opportunities to diversify the offensive.

Professor Shaughnessy scribbled a flock of diagrams to illustrate what he meant by making the offense more difficult to diagnose. They all looked very baffling. The point he emphasized was the number and variety of plays possible to produce from certain fundamental formations in the system he learned under Dr. H. L. Williams at Minnesota and has used succesafully ever since.

BI-DISTRICT GAME

Deadline On Oil Agreement Is Set

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP) —As the oil code administrator, Secretary Ickes today postponed until noon Thursday the deadline for proponents and opponents of price fixing to file with him an agreement to substitute for the projected administration control. No additional postponement will be granted.

If an agreement is filed on or before Thursday, Ickes will announce his decision on whether and when hearings on the price schedule shall begin.

If no agreement has been reached, hearings will be started and proceed to their conclusions.

The hearings originally were set for November 20, but were postponed until December 5 at the last minute, and price fixing was delayed until January 1 when factions within the oil industry informed Ickes they believed they could reach an agreement which would make price control unnecesary.

Dimpled Knees Are Bruised Today And Feminine Feet Hang Heavy, But The Gals Can Play Indoor Baseball

If your secretary or stenographer prefers to stand up while taking dictation and moves her typewriter to a shelf, or if central emits that cheery "please" when you pick up the telephone, or if your sister, daughter or girl friend moves around with less agility than usual—just ask any of the two hundred fans who went to the Auditorium last night and you'll get the answer.

Indoor baseball, an offshoot of the national pastime, sanctioned by the sporting world, popularized in Lubbock by man and boy, has been adopted by the women, and is now "of the weemen, for the weemen."

The Inaugural Ball

And how they took to it last night, the inaugural ball of feminine indoor baseball in Lubbock! About forty girlies, three of whom wore skirts but who wished they'd worn something else, took their places in a double header at the Auditorium and hammered and fielded the oversize pellet from hither to hither, slamming out two-baggers and stealing third, or completing twin killings and shagging high flies from the ceiling.

Fans, and there were more of them than at almost any game participated in by men of the late indoor league, who went to the hall expecting to witness a travesty of the honored sport of baseball, were pleasantly surprised. There was neat pitching and fine fielding, fast footwork and heads up baseball, also several knees whose cute dimples became overshadowed by black and blue bruises.

Plenty Of Pep

Little girls and big girls, fat girls and slim ones, they took to their new game like little ducks to water. They jumped up and down when they made a killing and squealed with delight when they scored a tally, and—but let's see who won the ball games.

In the opener of last night's twin bill, the Southwestern Bell Telephone company defeated the Five-Cent Magazine Shop girls, 15 to 6. Little Peggy Glover turned in a fine twirling job for the winners, and did her stuff with the stick. Her outfielders shagged flies like stickum-paper, and her infielders couldn't miss 'em.

Heinie To The Rescue

The All-Star club didn't have a chunker to start the contest, so that eminent printer and pressman, "Heinie" Hines, was the only male allowed on the court except the officials. But they smacked the offerings of Heinie just as hard as the other teams smacked the feminine tollers. The Myrick Building team had him beat in the fourth, but the All-Stars came from behind to win a thrilling 14 to 13 victory in the fifth with a five-run spiurge. The Myrick team batted all around in the third for nine counters, and scored four more in the fourth. In the other three innings, they were at the mercy of the moundsman.

The lineups:

Telephone Company—Harrington, P. Glover, Hatmaker, Hefner, Holman, D. Glover, Lee, Cooper, Capps and J. Glover.

Magazine Shop—Head, L. Taylor, Oliver, M. Taylor, Felty, Hodges, Blagg, I. Fulford, D. Fulford, Abbott.

Myrick Building—Allen, Burge, I. Catlett, Wagner, Herset, Pullem, Felty, Harkey, Snodgrass and Taylor.

All-Stars—Hines, Blagg, Bounds, Parker, Combs, V. Baker, T. Baker, Allcorn, J. Glover, D. Glover.

Owl Officials Meet Today To Discuss Coach

Jack Meagher To Go On Mat This Morning; Gridsters Show Desire To Keep Him; Jimmie Kitts In Line

HOUSTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—The Rice committee on outdoor sports, of which J. T. McCants is chairman, will meet Tuesday morning to determine the head football coach for 1934.

If Coach Jack Meagher is displaced at Rice, the chances are Jimmy Kitts, freshman football coach, and varsity basketball coach, will be named his successor.

It is believed Meagher's chances of being retained have been enhanced by the way Rice football players, both varsity and freshman, have rallied to his support.

Tony Mazziotti, Notre Dame sophomore quarterback, played in only one losing game as a high schooler at White Plains, N. Y., and that in an intersectional game with a Florida team.

Suppose You Were Called Back To Pre-Electrical —Days—

Can you picture yourself living in days of American Colonists and pioneers before Electric Power worked its refining and comfort-creating influences upon our mode of living. Filling oil lamps for light; depending upon "shanks mare" or old Dobbin for transportation; sweeping carpets with brooms, washing clothes with scrub boards; cooking by wood fires, and all the other primitive means of following the daily routine.

No movies, no motor cars, no radio, no electric lights, fans, washers, vacuum cleaners, telephones, and the hundreds of other conveniences that are dependent upon electric power for their best operation. When you consider that all these luxuries and comforts can be operated and enjoyed by you for only a few cents a day because of electric power is there any reason why the modern household should not take full advantage.

Death Penalty Will Be Asked

Clarence Click Goes On Trial In Kansas City In Kidnaping Of Girl; Others Face Death And Life

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4. (AP)—Clarence Click went to trial here today on a charge of participating in the kidnaping of Miss Mary McElroy, daughter of City Manager Harry F. McElroy, here last spring.

M. W. O'Hern, assistant prosecutor, announced as the selection of a jury was started, that the death penalty would be asked. Walter McGee, alleged leader of the kidnaping band that took Miss McElroy from her home, is under a death sentence, while a younger brother, George, has been sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the crime.

The state will present testimony, O'Hern said, that Click provided the kidnap house near Shawnee Kans., where Miss McElroy was chained to a basement wall for more than 30 hours while her abductors negotiated the collection of a $30,000 ransom from her father.

Danish Steamer Reports The Rescue Of Crew Of Schooner

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Dec. 4. (AP)—The Danish steamer Maine reported by wireless today the rescue of the crew of the fishing schooner Edward VII, 300 miles off Cape Race.

Last sighted off Bacalliu island just before a raging storm paralyzed coastal shipping, the 40-ton Edward VII, it was thought, had been drifting helplessly off the Newfoundland coast for days.

On board were a crew of nine, Captain Wilson Vey and a passenger, Llewellyn Barefoot, who was making the voyage to Random Sound.

The Maine is a freight steamer of 1,314 tons, bound from Hamburg, Germany, to Wilmington, N. C.

Details of the Edward VII's plight were not immediately available.

King Bacchus, Incognito Many Years, Prepares For Big New York Welcome

BY RAYMOND CROWLEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—The past and the brand new future mingled in a strange admixture today as King Bacchus, incognito many years on the sidewalks of New York, prepared for his welcome Tuesday.

Part of the past is dead beyond recall, old timers realized, as they read in the papers the lists of liquor licenses issued by Chairman Edward P. Mulrooney's Liquor control office.

Favorite Places Missing

Nowhere on the lists could they find Rector's, Churchills, Reisenweber's—smart eating houses of a vanished era. Some folk said the Broadway that knew those places is not likely to be restored.

But the old timers smiled as they saw the name that stands opposite "restaurant license number one" on Chairman Mulrooney's list. It is Luchow's—famous 14th street restaurant. There the old song "Down Where the Wuerzburger Flows" was born and there, in the old days, one might have seen James Huneker, Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, H. L. Mencken, Richard Strauss, Caruso or Paderewski—attacking the sauerbraten and savoring the wuerzburger and pilsener that made the place known to the world.

Famous Steins Dusted

Luchow's 700 tables are just as they were before the 18th amendment, and the famous steins—some of them three feet tall — have been dusted off.

Chairman Mulrooney, casting his eye over the roster of clubs seeking licenses, gave first place to the oldest, the Union club, organized in 1836. It was the first of the exclusive clubs patterned after the London clubs, and behind its windows old gentlemen in leather chairs watched many a generation eddy up Fifth avenue.

Quarters Moved

Here too, the hand of change has left its mark, for during the dry era, the club has moved to more modern quarters on Park avenue.

A long list of hotels, built since the war, will be serving liquor for the first time next week. They will have no bars, however—at least unless the rules are modified. 'John of the Knickerbocker" today mourned that fact. John was manager of the Knickerbocker's famous "Old King Cole" bar, named for the huge painting by Maxfield Parrish which adorned its wall. John, whose boast is that he can mix 15 cocktails in one lot without a drop left over, will be in charge of the Savoy-Plaza's wines and liquors after Tuesday.

Almost All Cotton Graded In Texas Of Spotted Class

A report of cotton marketing division of the bureau of agricultural economics shows that approximately 50 per cent of the cotton classed for Texas during the week ending Nov. 30 was equivalent to one of the grades of the spotted standard. About 21 per cent was white middling and strict low middling.

Ten per cent was classed shorter than 7-8 inch in staple length; 56 per cent 7-8 to 29-32 inch and slightly more than 30 per cent was 15-16 to 31-32 inch. Seventeen per cent was classed as untenderable.

"Some 25 per cent of the cotton from district No. 2, the high plains, was white strict low middling and low middling this week," the report added. "Approximately 61 per cent was spotted. Slightly more than 29 per cent was untenderable on future contracts and 14 per cent was shorter than 7-8 of an inch in length. Eighty five per cent was 7-8 to 31-32 inch in length."

Austin Motorcycle Cop Is Dead As Result Of Crash

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. (AP)—James R. Cummings, 31, member of the Austin motorcycle police squad, was killed early today in a collision with an automobile occupied by two negroes.

He was the second motorcycle officer to die in accidents here within the past few weeks.

A charge of negligent homicide was filed against Albert J. Quinton, 18, driver of the automobile.

Capital Hustle Is Now Lacking

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—Hustle and bustle in the capitol, making every first Monday in December since 1788, was absent today from the national legislative halls. The opening of the annual session of congress has been deferred until January 3.

That was due to the new twentieth, or "lame duck" amendment to the constitution.

Lack of activity today was one of the first visible evidences of the new amendment's effect. Its provisions call for one unlimited session of congress each year beginning January 3, thereby abolishing the short session which had come about each second year, lasting from December until March 4.

In those short sessions, many members defeated for re-election in the previous November sat for three months and voted on important measures. They were the "lame ducks."

Because of the delay in the opening of the session, many notables usually around at this time were absent.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were just returning from Warm Springs, Georgia; Vice President and Mrs. Garner were at home in Uvalde, Texas; Secretary and Mrs. Hull were on Pan-American conference in Montevideo, Uruguay; Secretary and Mrs. Woodin on a trip to rebuild the secretary's health; Postmaster General and Mrs. Farley on a vacation in Europe.

CASE CONTINUED

VERNON, Dec. 4. (AP)—The case against Que R. Miller, former Foard county sheriff and tax collector charged with misappropriation of public funds, was continued by agreement at Quanah today upon Miller's agreement to accept a seven-year sentence in a previous case, Ed L. Gossett, district attorney, said today.

Miller will withdraw an appeal in that case.

Pharmacist Faces Charge Of Murder In Death Of Fourth Wife; Second Wife Also Is Believed Slain

DENVER, Dec. 4 (AP)—Authorities prepared today to continue here and in San Francisco their investigation of the death of Mrs. Rhoda Keith Wickman, second wife of Carl W. Wickman, 45-year-old pharmacist, who is facing murder charges in Albuquerque, N. M., where police said he confessed to beating his fourth wife, Donalda Chicoine Wickman, to death with a tire tool.

District Attorney Harry Behm at Brighton was conferring with investigators for the Denver district attorney, relative to asking a court order to disinter Mrs. Rhoda Keith Wickman's body, buried in Crown Hill cemetery, outside Denver county.

At the same time, Denver investigators said they had learned from another son of the second wife, George Keith, that he had received letters from her when he was in San Francisco, indicating his mother was "disgusted with Wickman."

George Keith, authorities said, gave them authority to get the letters, as well as letters he said he received from Wickman, telling of his mother's death. He said he left them with a friend in San Francisco.

Keith, according to the authorities, said he couldn't remember the exact wording of the letters. In one from Wickman, however, he was quoted as saying, the pharmacist told of giving his mother soft drinks and of finding her in convulsions later.

The body of Mrs. Marie Burns Wickman, the pharmacist's third wife, was exhumed at Vici, Okla., and authorities there, dispatches said, disclosed that an autopsy had revealed poison in her body. They emphasized, however, that the poison might have been from the embalming fluid used.

Albuquerque officials have quoted Wickman as emphatically denying he had anything to do with the deaths of his second or third wives, after his purported confession to slaying his fourth wife November 25, while they were on their honeymoon.

Wickman's first wife, Mrs. Mona Wickman, divorced him and is now living at Edmond, Okla.

Wife Of Publisher Asking Maintenance And Judgment

PITTSBURG, Kas., Dec. 4. (AP)—Mrs. Marcet Haldeman-Julius, wife of the Girard publisher, E. Haldeman-Julius, today filed suit in district court here for separate maintenance and judgment of $125,000. She charges that sum has been turned over to the publisher by her since their marriage at Cedarville, Ill., in 1918.

Mrs. Haldeman-Julius charges extreme cruelty, declaring her husband refused to supply her with funds for household expenses. The petition alleges Haldeman-Julius left home Nov. 13 and has not returned.

At the time of their marriage, according to the petition, the plaintiff had $125,000 in property, while the defendant "was possessed of the sum of about $2,000." The petition then cites a financial agreement between the two made July 2, 1925, and demands judgment for the sum she alleges was turned over to Haldeman-Julius, whose "little blue books" have had national circulation.

U. S. Public Debt Reveals Increase

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—The United States public debt increased $483,859,000 during November to a total of $23,534,115,881, a new peacetime high.

Receipts during the month were $208,861,275.

Ordinary expenditures were $205,905,621.

But emergency expenditures for various phases of the recovery program were $293,514,399 to make November's outlay $499,420,221.

While emergency expenditures accounted for approximately half the increase in the public debt, a gain in the general fund accounted for another $200,000,000.

At the close of November, the treasury's cash balance was $1,107,325,902 as compared with $909,161,293 at the close of October. For the first five months of the fiscal year treasury receipts came to $1,136,504,402 while ordinary expenditures over the same months were $692,826,803.

The deficit at the end of the five months, including emergency expenditures, was $772,465,574 as compared with $1,181,986,591 at the same time last year.

FORMAL NOTIFICATION

The Biggest user OF FINE TURKISH TOBACCOS

—why Luckies taste better, smoother

On certain mountains in the Near East is a limited collar of earth—called in Turkish, "Yacca." Tobaccos grown there cost as high as $1.00 a pound. Carefully they are examined, leaf by leaf. Often it takes a man a whole day to select two pounds of certain of these fine tobaccos. Lucky Strike is the world's biggest user of fine Turkish tobaccos. For these tender, delicate Turkish leaves are blended with choice tobaccos from our own Southland—to make your Lucky Strike a cigarette that is fully packed—round and firm—free from loose ends. That's why Luckies taste better, smoother.

A Suggestion In Economics

ALTHOUGH it has not yet been circulated in and around Lubbock, a very interesting volume dealing with an American economic problem has recently come from the presses.

Samuel Crowther has written a book entitled "American-Self Contained." Mr. Crowther, who is widely known for his writings on economic subjects, has brought out the point that America has little to gain and need not expect much in the future from trading with other nations.

Mr. Crowther emphasizes that trade agreements cannot be made with other nations except on an equal basis. In other words, we cannot hope to sell the foreigner goods unless we expect to take goods from him in payment.

This kind of trade, Mr. Crowther thinks, would place America on an equal basis with other nations and would result in lowering materially America's standard of living. If American manufacturers hope to compete in the home market with goods manufactured in other nations where a much lower wage is paid to workers then, the same kind of wage must be paid in America, it is emphasized.

Many other economists as well as Mr. Crowther think the salvation of America is in the home market and can be accomplished only by creating increased consumption through further raising our own standard of living.

If Mr. Crowther's book does nothing else, it lends support to the Roosevelt theory of a shorter working week and a government operation similar to, if not identical with, the National Recovery administration.

MONUMENTS TO HEROISM

Unveiling of another monument — by Alabama this time—on the battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., recalls to mind the almost forgotten fact that not all the battlefields and "fronts" are in Europe. We prefer to forget our wars and cover the scars they left.

The Gettysburg battlefield is the largest and best developed of our military national monuments. Its miles of drives and square miles of fields, hills, ridges and ravines are studded with monuments erected by states, cities, organizations and individuals to commemorate the heroes in blue and grey who fought and who fell there.

Alabama did not erect this monument to open old sores, revive almost forgotten issues or keep alive the spirit of military conquest. Nor is that the purpose of the other battlefield stones and statutes.

Washington has preserved the battlefields as nearly as possible in their wartime state as memorials to the soldier dead rather than as monuments to war. The millions who make pilgrimages to them in the course of a year come away with an unspeakable horror of war, a reverence for the victims of war and a new determination to prevent war at any cost except freedom and national honor.

So the American people erect monuments not to war but to heroism.

FRIENDLESS JAPAN

Among the silent protestants against American recognition of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics was Japan, for the reason that if there is anything Tokio fears more than Moscow it is Moscow recognised by Washington.

Another fact in connection with recognition is that Moscow desired recognition by Washington for the psychological effect it would have on imperialistic Japan.

The fact that Washington looked with disfavor upon the Japanese occupation of Manchuria and invasion of China and joined with the League of Nations in protest tells Japan that her Far East policy as regards Russia will find no sympahy on this side of the Pacific.

The purpose of Moscow and the trend of thought in Russia are immediately apparent. The first Soviet ambassador to Washington is M. Troyanovsky, who was ambassador in Tokio for five years and is an expert on Japanese affairs. The state department is sure to get an earful on Japanese ambitions and encroachments.

Japan now occupies the unenviable position in world affairs the United States had before 1929. Recent world trade accessions have brought with it unpopularity and distrust. If the Japs get into trouble now, they can count on little outside help.

STARS OF THE EAST

" 'We have seen his star in the East.' " Matthew, 2.2.

From that day to this the wise men of every generation have seen the stars of the East—stars which point to a new day. Even in our own day they may be found. The N. R. A. and the league of Nations are some of our Eastern stars, calling us into a new dawn. Let us pray that they fail us not.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By George Durno

SOCIAL and political Washington has noticed a void for some months. There has been a dearth of those penetrating epigrams from the facile mind of Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth.

The other evening "Princess Alice" was shining at a local function.

"Oh, Mrs. Longworth," exclaimed one lady present, "with so much going on in this 'New Deal' your cousins in the White House are giving us, why haven't we heard more from you?"

"My dear," was the answer, "I am trying terribly hard to be impartial and malevolent at the same time."

RE-FILLS: Secretary of Interior Ickes — Eye-kees, please—is dead set against issuing any official compilation at present on the number of men put back in jobs by the Public Works administration.

Some of his aides think he is making a mistake. They have seen his confidential charts and noticed PWA employment shown thereon has jumped around 10 per cent each week for some weeks past. But Ickes vetoes every suggestion that figures be given to the press.

If PWA were permitted to make them public you would be told 1,700,000 had been reemployed to date through expenditure of Public Works dollars.

There is one little catch—and an explanation therefore—in this figure.

It would be labelled "Direct and Indirect Reemployment."

Administration statisticians, headed by Commissioner of Labor Statistics Isidor Lubin, estimate that for every man put to work on a federally-financed project two others find indirect employment in manufacture and shipment of the materials the government worker uses and in other ways.

The 1,700,000 total breaks down about as follows: Men "directly" employed on PWA projects, 475,350; men "indirectly" employed as a result, 950,650; the Civilian Conservation corps, 270,000; Administrative personnel of PWA and NRA, 3,100, and Tennessee Valley authority, 900.

They don't count 2 for 1 against the office workers of PWA, NRA and TVA. Also no attempt is made to multiply personnel of the C.C.C. to show "indirect employment."

SNAG: Gene Vidal's understandable passion for advancing the cause of aerial navigation seems to keep him down in hot water of late.

First the Director of the Aeronautics bureau (remember him as the erstwhile Army football star and then a big-time war aviator?) jumped the gun and announced Public Works administration had allotted $1,500,000 for building an experimental section of a seadrome. If it worked, five of these aerial islands were to make a traffic lane across the Atlantic.

Unfortunately the State department heard some possible dissents from our European neighbors and the War and Navy departments decided they had better look into that ambitious experiment. The allotment is still hanging fire.

Then Gene saw a chance to blanket the country with airports through the new Civil Works administration. He went to Administrator Hopkins and asked that 30,000 men be earmarked for him.

He promised to have the municipalities stirred up and the work available by Dec. 10.

Hopkins told Vidal airport construction and improvement was part of the scheme.

Vidal enthusiastically went back to his office, worked out a wage scale, multiplied it by 30,000 tossed in 20 or 30 per cent for material and announced to the world he had $10,000,000 for airport work.

The announcement was designed only to steam up the cities and get them rushing to Washington with applications.

Alas, the Civil Works administration said it had pledged no $10,000,000 or any part thereof. Airport work will be passed on by the respective State administrators on individual merit.

NOTES: A Washington wag reports that an Ohio wag wrote in to Civil Worth administration saying: "Please send us some new leaves. We have raked ours until they're worn out.". . . It would seem however that raking worn-out leaves at $15 a week is better than being on the relief rolls at 60 cents a day for the whole family. . . . The Department of Commerce reports that the ladies of South Africa are manifesting a great yen for fancy American pocketbooks. . . . Someone must have sold the fair sex of the Dark Continent the idea we had discovered a way to keep money in the pocketbooks.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

ONE large New York bank has taken care of most of the government's actual gold purchases abroad. It has handled about $18,000,000 to date and has been paid in R.F.C. debentures—which it sold in turn to people who wanted to invest in short term governments.

Ex-Under Secretary Acheson's published opinion that the debentures are not legally government obligations knocked the bottom out of the market for these securities. Nobody here wants them as a gift—although they circulated freely enough before. For the moment the holders seem to be stuck.

But smart New Yorkers have concocted a scheme to dump them in the lap of the Federal Reserve. They will threaten—unless the Federal Reserve takes them off their hands—to offer them in the open market for whatever they will bring. They figure that bids would show an enormous discount which wouldn't be good advertising for government credit. They are confident that the stunt will work.

SIXPENCE: Local banks and the R. F. C.' finally reached an amicable agreement about cotton loans. The banks were adamant against lending ten cents a pound but consented to kick in with six cents if the government would guarantee payment. This was arranged through the Department of Agriculture. So more than half the money the cotton farmers are getting on loans comes from New York banks. A similar system is probable in the case of corn loans.

The six cents a pound which the R.F.C. doesn't have to pay out of its own funds is quite a help and relations on this front are more cordial than before.

HURRICANE: New Yorkers who have had recent contacts with congressmen say that the anti-Wall Street legislation of the last session was a zephyr to the hurricane that's coming. Banks, investment houses and the stock exchange are all slated to be taken for the wildest ride yet. As far as Wall Street can make out no one in the executive end of the government will lift a finger to save them from the ravening jaws. They have felt out every contact that offered the slightest hope of relief and have been unanimously told they might as well stick out their chins and take it.

THE CRIME OF H2O

Until Sultan Hamid II of Turkey was deposed in 1908, the censorship on all written matter was incredibly strict. The word "dynamo" was tabu, because it resembled "dynamite" too closely. The formula H2O baffled the ignorant censor, until somebody suggested that it might read "Hamid II is a zero." It was then forbidden as constituting the crime of "less majeste."

158 HOURS OF GOLF

Edward A. Ferguson, who is a well known actor during the theatrical season and evidently has marvelous endurance, has chosen marathon golf as his extra-seasonal hobby. After establishing a record of 60 hours of golf in August, 1928, he bettered it in 1932, by playing for 158 hours, at the end of which a swelling of his hands forced him to stop. The average was slightly over 86 for each 18 holes. The night play was accompanied with the aid of a flashlight and a common barn lantern, carried by his caddy. He also uses a luminous ball in the darkness.

Letters To The Editor From The People

High School Girl Suggests More Student Activities For Co-Eds Here

Editor, The Avalanche: I think I speak for all the girls in High school. The boys may agree with me, I don't know.

The girls of Lubbock High school are not allowed privileges that the boys are. Not nearly so much as the girls of other high schools. The boys have a football team, basketball, track, tennis and golf. We girls must be content to look upon them and grieve that we wern't born boys. We must cheer them and keep the "home fires burning". Not that we mind cheering their good plays, but we want to play some, too. Why can't the girls of Lubbock High participate in school artivities?

Are our school officials preventing this? I think so. We students are modern in our ideas, while they are trying to hold us to the limit that they ran when in school. "Long, long ago" girls wore bustles and hoop skirts. Is that a sign we must wear them? We want officials who are modern in ideas, and who can be one of us. Officials whose youth is not so far behind that they can't remember what it is like to be young. Those who can live with us in the present, not the past, who will not put an oppressing hand on the weaker sex. Are we not just as much human as boys?

We, Lubbock, have not only the hardest school in Texas, but the most old-fashioned.

Half the Pampa Band was composed of girls. Would the girls of our school be allowed to put on trousers, and play in the band? No indeed! It would have been in 1890. But it is not 1890 but 1933. How we wish they would find this out!

I implore the people to think this question over and deal us justice. Put yourself in our place and think as we think. Would you like to go to school and study, study, and not have any place in the school activities? We do not mind studying if there is a little fun to go along with it. If we had a basketball team, et cetera, we would have just as much fun as the boys. Why deprive us of this pleasure when it would take so little to give it to us?

I thank you sincerely,
A High School Girl.

Noted Actress Is Ill Of Poisoning

PARIS, Dec. 4. (AP)—Alice Cocea, a noted French actress whose life has been dogged by tragedy, lay gravely ill today with blood poisoning, the result of pricking her finger on a lobster claw.

Mlle. Cocea played in the first underground theatre during the world war and was starred in shows that had long runs in Paris.

Recently she tried a comeback in the face of upopularity resulting from the suicide in August, 1932, of Lieut. Victor Point, a French naval officer, after he and the actress had quarrelled.

Mlle. Cocea is the wife of Count Stanislas De La Rouchefoucald. They were married in 1925 after an attempt of the count's father to prevent the union. At the time of Lieut. Point's death, the count was quoted as saying Mlle. Cocea intended to marry the officer after obtaining a divorce.

Capitol Chatter

By Charles E. Simons
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson becomes impatient at long discussions.

At a recent meeting of the Texas relief commission over which she presided, Earle Adams, member, and Lawrence Westbrook, commission director, became involved in a lengthy exchange over the wording of a resolution. The governor couldn't see why so much time should be used in apparently fruitless discussion.

She sat at the head of the table and tapped her pencil restlessly.

After the tempest had subsided she smilingly remarked:

"You men can talk about women having the gift of gab if you want to but the women could take lessons from some of you men."

Her husband, James E. Ferguson, does not appear any more at meetings of the commission. Ferguson presided at session of the old Texas rehabilitation and relief commission, representing his wife.

This was brought in in legislative hearings on the bill to provide for disbursement of state relief funds and proved displeasing to certain members of the legislature. Ferguson's activities were so distastful to several of his opponents that they succeeded in having inserted a provision stipulating that only the governor in person, or a member of the commission may preside.

Mrs. Ferguson is accompanied to the meetings by her private secretary, J. H. Davis, Jr., who sits at her side and engages in frequent conversation with the chief executive.

She makes an efficient presiding officer and generally takes an interest in the proceedings. When not interested she becomes restless.

The governor insists that the meeting start on time.

On adjourning the commission for a noon recess she told them to be back "on the dot" because she was a busy woman and had lots of things to attend to in the executive office and wanted to get through.

Bloodshed In Voting Feared

Shots Exchanged Last Night On Bridge Between Group Of Citizens And Men Believed Hauling Ballots

hooting crowd hanged effigies of Senator Long and Chairman Lee Ponder of the district Democratic committee on the courthouse square and then burned the figures at a stake.

Deputies Are Sworn

In three parishes of the district a district judge swore in 300 special deputies to see that the court's order against the holding of the election was not violated.

Earlier in the day the town of Hammond, with others in the area had defied the state by seizing and burning ballots prepared for tomorrow's election, in which the administration hoped to send Mrs. Bolivar E. Kemp, Senator Long's candidate to congress without opposition and without a party primary.

Today's effigy demonstration followed upon an order handed down to citizens by Judge Nat Tycer, making absolute an injunction to prevent the election supervisors of Tangipano, Livingston, and St. Helena parishes from distributing the ballots to the polls. Judge Tycer followed up his ruling by swearing in 300 men as special deputies to see that his injunction was respected.

Plans Go Forward

At Baton Rouge, a similar injunction was granted to citizens by District Judge George K. Favrot of East Baton Rouge, who excoriated the administration from the bench for a "defiance of both the spirit and the letter of the law."

In spite of the demonstrations and injunctive processes, both Senator Long, directing his political forces from a New Orleans hotel site outside the district, and Governor O. K. Allen, in Baton Rouge, announced the election would go forward as planned and warned that attempts to interfere with the voting would be met by prosecution in the federal courts.

Both announced emphatically that they did not intend to use the "militia or armed men" at the polls.

Report All Quiet

While reports of violent demonstrations continued to come in from over the district, including the burning of a house containing an election booth at Clinton, Senator Long in a statement said that "all is quiet up in the district."

Judge Favort in court here issued two injunctions during the day, one to prevent printing of the ballots which the secretary of state admitted in court had been printed even before the election was called or the state committee met to nominate Mrs. Kemp and the other to prevent distribution of the ballots by the election supervisors of the parish.

The court noted that the injunction against printing came after the printing, but expressed hope that it would serve to prevent the turning out of additional ballots to replace those seized and burned by citizens in four parishes during the past week.

Election Was Called

Governor Allen called tomorrow's election just a week ago today and simultaneously the district committee met and named Mrs. Kemp, the Long candidate, as the unopposed nominee, for the congress seat left vacant by the death of her husband six months ago. The maneuver, skipping the party primary, had the effect of throwing all anti-administration candidates out of the race without a popular vote by the district Democrats.

Late today Judge W. C. Carruth issued an injunction to prevent the ballot distribution in Pointe Coupee parish and then moved on to hear similar cases affecting West Baton Rouge and Iberville parishes.

A break in the injunctive procedure occurred at Franklington where Judge C. Ellis Ott dismissed the citizens' petition for injunction against distribution in Washington and St. Tammany parishes on grounds that his court was without jurisdiction in the matter.

Aside from the injunctions, however, the day saw a majority of the 12 parishes in the congressional district formally on record as refusing to share any expense in the election, thus further beclouding proposed procedure at the polls tomorrow.

Rendezvous With Death Is Held By Writer And Wife

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 4 (AP)—Sidney Lazarus, writer, and his wife, Maud, held a rendezvous with death at their attractive home here, police learned today.

Their tryst was like the scenes he had written for fiction stories and for the screen, but none had the tragic ending of this real life episode.

His arm embracing her, and her head nestled on his shoulder, they settled in the comfortable back seat of their big car in the garage of their home and rode together into eternity of the fumes of a poisonous gas exhaust of the engine.

Police went to the garage after receiving a telephone call from a friend and neighbor of the Lazaruses that he had received a letter jointly signed by the couple asking him to send officers to look in the garage.

Dawes-Controlled Bank Note From RFC Slashed Materially

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP) — Although the original note still rests in Reconstruction Corporation files, the much discussed $90,000,000 loan granted in June, 1932, to the Dawes-controlled Central Republic Bank and Trust company of Chicago was recorded in senate banking committee files today as having been reduced to $62,157,596.

It also was learned that the note never has been renewed and that corporation officials now regard it as having the status of a demand note.

WALL STREET REPORT

By JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Speculative markets watched dollar appreciation with indifference today, making scanty changes in listless dealings. Bonds, on the other hand, improved sufficiently to lift the averages a trifle, though U. S. government issues turned slightly easy toward the close.

With the treasury's gold price holding at $34.01 for the third successive day, foreign exchanges declined sharply, later their losses were substantially reduced, but the dollar's strength was an interesting feature of the financial day. Wheat and corn finished virtually even with Saturday's quotations. The average net change for stocks was a minor fractional decline in a turnover of 970,584 shares.

Demands for dollars, it was assumed, came partly from covering speculators abroad who again found themselves wondering whether the steady R. F. C. gold quotation had special significance. Washington advices said it did not. However, purchase of American currency found offerings light and rtaes on pounds and francs scrambled upward until around noon when buying slackened. Sterling touched $5.06, where it was off 14 1-2 cents, before strengthening and French francs dipped under 6 cents. At the franc's lo wdollars had an indicated gold value that approximated 65 1-2 cents against Washington's 60.77 cent appraisal.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4. (AP)—The lethargy which has come over the cotton market of late remained unbroken today. Price fluctuations were narrow but the tendency was slightly downward. After easing 7 to 9 points the market rallied 2 to 3 points in the afternoon and closed steady at net declines of 4 to 7 points.

The opening was easier, 3 to 5 points down despite better Liverpool cables. Sterling, however, was lower at 5.13 and there was no change in gold from last Saturday's price of $34.01. March rallied 3 points after the start on covering reaching 10.00, but the market soon eased off again on a drop in sterling to 5.07. Before noon March traded down to 9.95 and May to 10.08 or 7 to 9 points below the previous close.

In the early afternoon the market was a shade steadier and prices rallied 2 to 3 points from the lows. March closed at 9.97 down 5 points net for the day and May closed at 10.10 down 7 points net.

Port receipts 41,591, for week 113,614, for season 4,896,246, last season 5,007,407. Exports 53,245, for week 111,462, for season 3,437,786, last season 3,268,936. Port stock 4,144,528, last year 4,742,561. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 164,587, last year 158,351. Spot sales at southern markets 19,691, last year 41,880.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. (AP)—Cotton was quiet today with narrow and irregular fluctuations influenced chiefly by the action of the dollar in the foreign exchange markets. After selling off to 9.97 during the early trading, March rallied to 10.03, and closed at 9.98, with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 8 to 11 points.

The opening was quiet at a decline of 2 to 4 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and the firmer ruling for sterling. December worked down to 9.80 and May to 10.09 before the end of the morning, making net losses of about 9 to 12 points. Offerings were absorbed by continued trade buying or covering on the decline, however, and prices steadied early in the afternoon when a steadier tone developed in the foreign exchange markets. December rallid to 9.85 and May to 10.15 making recoveries of 5 or 6 points from the lowest but the bulge encountered a little local or southern selling and closing quotations were within a point or two on the day on most positions.

Three private end-November crop reports were issued. Figues on the indicated yield ranged from 12,486,000 up to 13,249,000 bales and estimated ginning prior to Dec. 1 at from 11,825,000 up to 11,895,000 bales. These reports were without apparent effect on the market which was narrow and sensitive to comparatively small orders either way. Exports today 53,248 making 2,479,000 so far this season. Port receipts 41,591. Port stocks 4,126,634.

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4. (AP)—With a steady to higher trend prevailing at eastern dressed beef centers and receipts for live trade at ten mid-western markets running around 10,000 short of arrivals last Monday, fed steers and yearlings of light weight met a steady to 25 higher outlet. Yearlings and light steers of good to choice quality cleared chiefly at 5.50-6.15, while medium weight and heavy beeves made 4.25-5.00. Stockers and feeders carried a steady to 25 higher trend with most replacement steers of medium to choice quality selling around 3.00-4.50. Choice yearling stockers sold up to 5.00.

As compared with the close of last week, hogs sold at mostly steady to strong prices with Chicago securing a top of 3.60.

Lambs realized strong to 15 higher prices in the day's trade with the bulk of better grade kinds selling at 5.50-7.35. Feeding lambs were quotable at 5.50-6.35.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Dec. 4. (AP)—Wheat and corn were in fair demand on the Fort Worth cash grain market.

Prices ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to delivery point:

Delivered Texas gulf ports, export rates, or Texas common points—wheat No. 1 hard 88-89. Barley No. 2 nominally 59-60; No. 3 nominally 58-59.

Sorghums No. 2 milo per hundred pounds nominally 98-100; No. 3 milo nominally 96-98. No. 2 kafir nominally 82-84; No. 3 Kafir nominally 81-83.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: corn No. 2 mixed 61-62; No. 3 white 62 1-2-63 1-2; No. 2 yellow 61 1-2-62 1-2. Oats No. 2 red 43-44; No. 3 red 42-43.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 4. (AP)—Reluctance to enter into new commitments characterized grain trading today, and wheat at one time sagged to fresh bottom price levels unequaled since October 20.

Hesitance was ascribed largely to uncertainties of financial prospects. The fact that unofficial December crop reports indicated no curtailment of United States winter wheat acreage, despite the Washington administration's control program, was construed as somewhat bearish.

Wheat closed unsettled, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-4 cent lower, corn was unchanged to 1-4 off, oats 1-4 down to 3-8 up, and provisions varying from 27 cents decline to a rise of 2 cents.

Jury Completed For Trial Of Toy Woolley At Dallas

DALLAS, Dec. 4. (AP)—A jury was completed late today in the trial of Toy G. Woolley, 28, on a murder charge growing out of the shooting of his second wife.

Mrs. Dorothy Joynes Woolley, 20, wife of the defendant, was killed Nov. 5, at the newly-purchased Woolley cottage home in East Dallas. At the time, Woolley told police he was cleaning a shotgun after a hunting trip in East Texas and that it discharged accidently.

Four days later Woolley was arrested and charged with murder.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—John (Jake the Barber) Factor must go back to England from Chicago for trial on a charge of participating in an $8,000,000 swindle.

Refuge in the United States was denied him today by the supreme court which upheld the action of the seventh circuit court of appeals directing his extradition.

While the case was pending, Factor and his son claimed to have been kidnaped and held for ransom.

Safety Campaign

children in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the city will compete, by grades, in an essay contest and a prize of $1 will go to the winner in each grade. Children in first and second grades will compete for a $1 prize for the best poster. Judges in both contests will be announced later in the week.

Mrs. Wood, in announcing the club's campaign, said late yesterday that the league was being met mith fine co-operation upon the part of school authorities and teachers, as well as on the part of the police department. She said the idea of the campaign came from recent articles in Avalanche-Journal papers, stressing the need for a greater degree of safety upon city thoroughfares.

The Child Conservation league is a national organization featuring a child study course. Aim of the league, Mrs. Wood said, is "simply to aid mothers in making better citizens of their children."

BEAUMONT, Dec. 4 (AP)—A negro who aided in escape the negro slayer of Mrs. Mellie Williams Brockman, 30, shortly after the murder Saturday afternoon at Kountze, has been arrested and is held in the Hardin county jail, Sheriff Miles Jordan said tonight.

He said that when officers prepared to enter a negro shack in the town of Kountze Saturday night, the resident aided the slayer to escape through the rear door as the officers approached the front.

Street Corner Boasts Dignity

SAN SABA, Dec. 4 (AP)—"High and dry" is no drier than the rest of the city but a certain amount of dignity goes with the oddly-named city corner here. The two streets intersect within two blocks of the San Saba business district.

A little history goes with the corner. Mrs. E. L. Rector, widow of the late Senator E. L. Rector, has lived on the corner nearly half a century and the historic homesite may have had some influence on the late senator's lifelong campaign to put over irrigation projects for San Saba county.

Mr. Rector finally built a dam on the San Saba river and established an irrigation system for his own and several neighboring farms.

Warehouses of the state highway department wanted to be safely located so Superintendent Dave Chadwick sorted the machinery on the corner of "high and dry."

Dry street terminates at High street—possibly the pioneer planner of the city thought he had gone far enough when he got to "high and dry."

Campaign For Girl Units In Lubbock Is Opened Monday

The Girl Scout budget calls for $1,500; that of the Camp Fire Girls $1,200.

Petition Is Sought

Counsel for Canon William Sheafe Chase of Brooklyn, N. Y., and George S. Duncan of Washington, D. C., argued that the conventions in the states did not have the authority to ratify prihibition repeal. They sought a petition restraining the acting secretary of state from issuing a repeal proclamation.

Chase said an attempt would be made tomorrow to have the Pennsylvania supreme court restrain the convention called in that state from ratifying repeal.

District Attorney Leo A. Rover, in defending the government against today's action, argued that the constitution put no restrictions on the states in calling conventions and that ratification by the 36th state and not the proclamation would make the twenty-first amendment effective.

Conference Is Held

President Roosevelt conferred during the day with Acting Secretary Morgenthau who is to draft recommendations to submit to congress for a revision of the liquor taxes to replace more than $200,000,000 in special levies that repeal will end.

Preparing for the recommendations, the senate finance and house ways and means committee decided today and meet jointly next Monday to consider them in order to expedite legislation when congress meets in January. The present liquor tax is $1.10 a gallon. It may be raised to $2.20 to $3.

The ways and means committee today began a study of proposed revisions of the administrative provisions of the income tax law in an effort to find more revenue. It was estimated that $20,000,000 might be raised through tightening of the income levy.

Ready To Function

After his conference with President Roosevelt, Administrator Choate said he had set up headquarters here, and added:

"We will be ready to function immediately upon repeal, but of course, there still remains a tremendous amount of work to be done in the matter of organization."

Choate said he had discussed with President Roosevelt the question of import allotments and liquor quotas to foreign countries.

"We want to make these as fair as possible," he said.

Permits allowing importers to start shipments toward American shores were suspended Saturday night at the request of Choate after he received complaints that some allotments were too small and others too large.

Commissioner Doran, representing the treasury, Ray Miller of the agricultural department, today resumed the issuance of permits. Meanwhile, Acting Secretary Morgenthau designated Choate as the treasury representative to succeed Doran.

Spanked Pupil Seeks Damages From Teacher

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 4. (AP) —Mrs. Nellie S. Cunningham, a school teacher for 26 years, is defendant in a $5,000 damage suit brought in behalf of James K. Hyde, 12, who alleged he suffered permanent injuries in a whipping administration by the teacher because he could not answer "what state is nearest the Rio Grande."

Mrs. Cunningham, teacher at the Zaring country school, denied she had struck the boy with a club, as charged.

"I did discipline him for insubordination, but not as severely as I myself was disciplined on many occasions," she said.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN, No. 38

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

As the echoes of the blood-curdling cry died away, Tarzan turned toward the prostrate Swede. His face was cold and cruel, and in the gray eyes the Swede read murder. "Where is the woman?" growled the ape-man. "What have you done with the child?" Like a bronze image—cold, hard, and relentless—he stood over the helpless man, waiting to wring such information from him as he needed, and then to kill.

The Swede tried to reply, but an arrow entirely through his chest caused the words to die in his throat. Presently the paroxysm passed and again the wounded man's lips faintly moved. Tarzan knelt down and again demanded: "Where are they?" The Swede pointed up the trail. "The Russian—he got them," he whispered. "They catch us. I fight, but they wound me and leave me. He take your wife and kid."

Tarzan started in amazement at the words! So the fugitives were his own wife and child! His fierce eyes blazed with the passion and vengeance that with difficulty he controlled. "Why were they with you? What have you done to them? Speak quick. Tell me the worst, or I will tear you to pieces with my bare hands!" A look of pained surprise came over the Swede's face. "Why," he whispered, "I did not hurt them."

"I try to save them from dot Russian. Your wife vas kind to me on dot ship. I hear dot little baby cry sometimes. I got wife and child too, in Sweden." Something in the man's tone convinced Tarzan he was telling the truth. Quickly his mood turned from hate to pity. "I am sorry," he said very simply. He lifted the Swede tenderly in his great arms, comforting him as the wounded man breathed his last.

Prison Record Given Review

First Known Record Of Attempt To Establish Prison In The State Was 1829; Two Plants Were Ordered

HUNTSVILLE, Dec. 4. (AP)—The first known record of an attempt to establish a prison system in Texas was taken in 1829, when the congress of Coahuila and Texas adopted resolutions to establish two prisons in Texas one to be in the eastern part of the state and the other in the western. Apparently the two prisons were to be leased out to contractors as the records indicate that all expense was to be borne by contractors who were to pay each prisoner $30.00 when he was released.

In 1837, the congress of the republic authorized the sheriffs of the several Texas counties to lease or rent suitable houses "for the safekeeping of any prisoners and that such counties should pay for same.

Penitentiary Planned

This method, however, proved so unsatisfactory that in 1842 provisions were made for the erection of a penitentiary by the republic. A committee was appointed to select a number of ten-acre sites and when congress met, Huntsville was chosen. An agent was appointed to superintend the building of the penitentiary, having convicts do the work. Two thousand dollars was appropriated and a number of small log cabins were erected.

In 1848, the legislature authorized the purchase of 100 acres of land for the erection of a more permanent penitentiary. The records show that 1 6-10 acres were purchased from Grace McGary, 3 2-10 from Robert Smither, and 94 from Pleasant Gray for the sum of $493.

The present Huntsville prison stands upon this site today.

Three Prisoners

The permanent record of prison operation began in 1849, when the prison of log construction started with three prisoners.

In 1871 the legislature enacted a law by which the governor was required to lease the penitentiary by published advertising, for not more than fifteen years and not less than ten. Under the lease the state was to relinquish control but it retained the right to employ inspectors. Some of the results of this lease system were that escapes increased from 50 in 1871 to 382 in 1876. The death rate doubled in six years, many abuses appeared and medical attention was lacking. This lease was revoked in August, 1876.

Other leases followed but more care was taken in each case to prevent inhuman treatment of the prisoners. In 1910 the state adopted the plan of the central prison at Huntsville with a series prison farms located in adjacent districts.

SERVICES PLANNED

BORGER, Dec. 4. (AP)—Funeral services were planned in Vernon today for Archie R. Mallard, 48, drilling company employe killed Saturday in the Borger field. He was survived by his widow and two sons of Fort Worth.

Mallard stepped on the rig floor just as a crownblock wheel was being lowered in the course of razing the rig. Boxing at the end of an axle slipped and struck him in the head.

A. E. McShay Faces Charge Of Whisky Possession Here

A. E. McShay, 30, who gave his address as 914 Thirty-fourth street, Monday was charged with possession of whisky before Victor H. Lindsey, United States commissioner, who released him to make $300 bond.

Police arrested MsShay late Saturday, after going to the Thirty-fourth street address, where they said they found two gallons of whisky, as a result of arrest of a 22-year-old man living at the same address.

Three cases of 3.2 per cent beer had been found in an automobile driven by the younger man, who was stopped when he made an illegal turn into an alley. Police Monday released the younger man without charge and said the beer would be returned to him.

Gene Tunney Still In Retirement From Social Register, But He Only Smiles

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. (AP)—Gene Tunney, retired king of fistania, chuckled today when the 1934 social register showed he still was in retirement from the who's who of the blue bloods.

The former heavyweight champion got his name in the register when he married Polly Lauder. But he was not listed last year and the latest edition skipped his name again.

Both Parties Listed

If either party in the prominent marriage is listed in the book at the time of the marriage, it is customary for the book to publish both parties' names in its next edition. After that, a decision is made on whether the names shall remain in subsequent years.

Hence, Prince Alexis Mdivani of Georgia is listed in the 1934 book because of his marriage to Barbara Hutton.

Col. Charles Lindbergh, who "made" the register when he married Anne Morrow, is one of the few persons who entered the book by marriage and stayed there.

Tunney flatly refused to discuss the matter.

"I think the weather is fine," he said. Then he laughed when asked directly to comment on his retirement from the register.

The social register's office also declined.

Other Names Missed

Tunney, whose fists took him to prominence, was not alone on the retirement list. Jack De Ruyter, corespondent when Freddie Rich, the orchestra leader, divorced Peggy Lawton Rich, also was missing in the 1934 edition. So was the name of Mrs. Rhoda Tanner Doubleday, who recently brought a breach of promise action against Harold McCormick.

The 1934 book shows a falling off in society marriages—910 last year as against 1,044 the year before.

POSTMASTER NAMED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Mrs. Floyd Cooper today was appointed acting postmaster at Amarillo effective Nov. 30.

Citizens Should Thank Destiny They Didn't Live Back In Good Old Days

GALVESTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—Citizens of the state of Texas who bemoan the 3 cent postal rates should be thanking destiny they were not citizens of the republic of Texas in the "good old days" when postal rates were based upon mileage instead of weight.

A law passed Feb. 1, 1842, made the rate of postage on all letters, newspapers, books, pamphlets, and packages as conveyed by the mail posts of Texas, as follows, according to an article in Stamp—it is, a publication issued by the Texas Philatelic association.

"For each letter composed of a single sheet of paper and conveyed not exceeding 50 miles, 12 1-2c; over 50 and not exceeding 100 miles, 18 3-4c; over 100 and not exceeding 200 miles, 25c; over 200 miles, 31 1-4c; all ship letters in addition to the above rates, 6 1-4c; on all double letters, double the above rates of postage; on each newspaper conveyed over 100 miles, 2c; on all books or pamphlets, for each sheet, the same as newspaper postage."

This same act provided for the establishment of a postoffice at the town of Liverpool. It further provided that "all postage shall be received in gold, silver, or exchequer bills authorized to be issued by the act of this congress."

Nervous, Dizzy

Mrs. Robert Newton of Route 6, Little Rock, Ark., said: "I suffered from weak nerves, ached all over and felt weak and all played out. I had dizzy spells and ripping headaches. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and noticed a decided improvement in my nerves and I was soon enjoying good health, so necessary to a mother." Sold by all druggists.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE THE CHAMPION TRAP SHOOTER

SHOOTING FROM SCRATCH, 25 yards behind the traps, Walter Beaver pulled out of an exciting tie to win the 34th Grand American—the first time it has been won by a limit contestant! He has been a steady smoker of Camels for years, and says: "I like their taste and mildness...they never jangle my nerves."

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES? If you smoke a lot...inside...outdoors...wherever you are...join the swing to Camels. You'll like those costlier tobaccos in Camels. You'll find them milder, better tasting, and they never get on your nerves.

A MATCHLESS BLEND

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

WALTER BEAVER, holder of the coveted Grand American Handicap, says:

"Winning a trap-shooting championship is partly a matter of luck, partly the result of practice and partly healthy nerves. I'm a steady smoker. People kid me about it at the tournaments. They say I never have a cigarette out of my mouth. During all these years I've been smoking Camels, not only because I like their taste and their mildness, but also because they never jangle my nerves."

It's no fun to feel that your nerves are ragged—and to wonder why. Check up on your eating...your sleep ...your cigarettes. Get a fresh slant on your smoking. Switch to Camels. Your nerves and your taste will tell you that Camels are a more likable cigarette—and that they don't upset your nerves.
