Strong Winds Rake Midwest

One Killed And At Least 11 Injured; Property Damage Is Reported Heavy

(By The United Press)

CHICAGO, July 30—Strong winds swept the midwest today in the wake of tornadoes and thunderstorms that killed one member of a farm family, injured at least 11 other persons, and wrecked thousands of dollars worth of property.

A blanket of hot, humid air hung over the eastern section of the nation, breeding squalls and rainstorms.

Lucille Ballweg, 10, was killed when a tornado dipped to earth 15 miles northwest of Madison, Wis., and wrecked her parents' farmstead. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballweg, both 41, and nine other children from 10 months to 13 years of age were injured.

Fifty Girl Scouts in a camp near the Ballweg farm narrowly escaped death or injury when the tornado lifted and passed over their heads. The twister lifted back into the clouds shortly afterwards.

Another twister roared down Highway 14 south of La Crosse, Wis., but no injuries or serious damage were reported.

A freak windstorm struck near Osterne, in Benton county, Ia., last night. It wrecked buildings in a 100-yard wide swath, tore up trees, and strewed debris over Highway 30, blocking the road for a time.

Other windstorms hit in the area around Cascade and Worthington, Ia. One home was damaged and several barns blown over but no one was injured.

POLITICAL FIREWORKS PROBABLE

Conventions To Be Held On Saturday

With both parties split in disagreements, Lubbock county Democrats and Republicans will gather in their biennial July conventions Saturday afternoon in the courthouse in what may turn out to be "rather turbulent" sessions.

The Republicans will meet at 2 p. m. in the county courtroom on the first floor and the Democrats at 3 p. m. in the third floor district courtroom.

"Fireworks" will probably pop in both sessions, due to the clash of pro-Truman and anti-Truman forces among the Democrats and the Hopkins and Cranger groups among the Republicans.

Blows Were Struck

In the recent May convention of the Republicans, blows were struck by County Republican Chairman John L. Vaughan in a vociferous argument between the two groups.

The county GOP leader refused to speculate on the possibility of a reptition of the May session's trouble in Saturday's session and said he hoped everything would be conducted in an orderly manner. Principal business will be the selection of delegates to the state Republican convention at Waco in September.

County Democratic Chairman L. C. Ellis also would not comment on the possibility of trouble in the Democratic convention, although it was indicated that an attempt would be made by one faction to present a "Dixiecrat" resolution in opposition to President Truman's civil rights program.

Copies Are Received

Who will present the resolution was not known today, but copies of it have been received by numerous Lubbock people.

Lubbock county is entitled to name 25 delegates for the "governor's convention" to be held in Fort Worth in September. Ellis said an estimated 75 to 100 delegates had been named in last Saturday's precinct conventions.

The Republican county committee is scheduled to meet an hour early to certify delegates to the county convention scheduled at 2 p. m. The Democratic executive committee will meet at 1 p. m. to canvass the vote of last Saturday's primary election prior to the county convention, set for 3 o'clock.

Texas Widow Takes Over Millionaire's Home In "Sit-Down"

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 30. (U.P.)—An auburn-haired ex-model continued a "sit-down" in the mansion of a millionaire today while lawyers argued over a settlement of her claim that he was the father of her unborn child.

Doris Furst, a 24-year-old widow of Houston, Tex., took over a bedroom last night in the home of Joseph Bancroft, 40, wealthy owner of a steel sash company, and said she would not leave until he made a satisfactory arrangement.

Bancroft, she said, had promised to marry her.

"He won me over, brought me to New York, made me pregnant and, when I refused to have an abortion, kicked me out," she said.

Woman Facing Murder Count

A charge of murder with malice was filed this morning against Nettie Bowles, 38, in connection with the death at 7:54 p. m. Thursday of Roy L. Bowles, 37, her divorced husband.

The woman, a cafe operator, has employed as counsel the law firm of Campbell and Adams.

Bond Is Posted

She posted bond of $2,500 at 10:45 a. m., set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, in binding her over to grand jury investigation.

Prior to filing the murder charge, the state moved for dismissal of an assault with intent to murder complaint filed in Lynn's court Wednesday night, a brief time after Bowles had ben shot once in the neck. He had assaulted Mrs. Bowles that afternoon at a hospital and just before he was shot, was attempting to get into her residence, she said in a statement to officials. Bowles died in a hospital.

The murder charge was sworn to by Detective Lee Rice, jr., before assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr.

No Funeral Arrangements

Mrs. Bowles had posted $2,500 bond on the former charge early Thursday.

Stalin Offered His Choice--War Or Peace!

Bevin Claims Use Of Force Is Possibility

British Secretary Says Allies Will Not Back Down

(By The United Press)

LONDON, July 30. — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin grabbed the initiative in the cold war from the other western powers today and offered Generalissimo Josef Stalin his choice—war or peace.

In one of the strongest and most pointed official statements made anywhere since the end of the war, Bevin warned Stalin indirectly that Britain is determined to take all necessary steps in either direction. He made it clear that it is within Stalin's power to choose the future course of events.

Might Lead To Force

1. If the Berlin blockade is not lifted, the situation might lead to the use of force. In any event, Britain probably will halt her demobilization program and reexamine the strength and policy of her entire armed forces.

2. If the blockade is lifted, Britain will enter four-power talks with the Russians, even looking toward an overall European settlement—if that's what Stalin wants.

Bevin's statement in Commons late yesterday was in effect a British preview of the statement U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith will make as spokesman for the three western powers when the three western ambassadors see Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in Moscow.

Will Not Back Down

Bevin made it clear the western powers have faced up to the worst crisis since Munich and have decided not to back down, even if it means war.

There were varying degrees of optimism and pessimism among western officials about the results of this new approach to the Kremlin.

The statement also represents somewhat of a diplomatic triumph for Bevin who for weeks has been advocating an agreement on the four-power conference as a "quid pro quo" for lifting the Berlin blockade.

It represents a major change in American thinking. As recently as last May the highest American officials were opposed to seeking another conference with the Russians at this time. They preferred to wait until the balance of power had been restored—until the Marshall plan was well underway and the western union was more than

Texas School Change Urged

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—Appointment instead of election of the state superintendent of education was recommended today as the Gilmer-Aikin committee met with its statewide advisory groups.

The recommendation on this highly-controversial matter was presented formally by Dr. J. W. Edgar, co-chairman of the subcommittee on state organization of the public school system.

Appointment By Board

Appointment under the new plan would be by the board of education.

Dr. Edgar, superintendent of Austin public schools, said there was not unanimous agreement on any of the recommendations in the report which he presented, but the proposals represented majority opinion.

The subcommittee also suggested selection of a nine-man board of education by popular vote on a regional basis. Dr. Edgar pointed out that four members of the present state board, which is appointed by the governor, come from a North Central Texas area which would be only one region under the proposed new setup.

Term Indeterminate

The state superintendent's term of office "should be indeterminate, after a probationary appointment of two or three years," the subcommittee's report stated, adding: "The board should be permitted to appoint out-of-state residents."

"It is well to realize that stirring up a great hullabaloo about the method of selecting the state board of education or the state superintendent may draw red herrings across the trail of the fundamental overhauling needed by the state's machinery for school management," the report continued. "The fundamentals upon which attention should be concentrated are—1. Unity of management, 2. Defined flow of authority."

Mother Charged In Kidnaping Of Son

ALICE, July 30. (U.P.)—A Detroit, Mich., divorcee today was charged with kidnaping her 10-year-old son she had been forbidden by court order to see.

The boy, Michael Wilford Dining, allegedly was spirited away from his father's home last night by his mother, who lost custody of the child in divorce proceedings last January. She was to see the boy only with the father's permission.

The father, Wilford Jesse Dining of Alice filed the complaint of kidnaping with Justice of the Peace Brown Fuller, charging that the mother came to his house, asked to talk to the boy and disappeared with him while Dining was talking on the telephone.

Two Reported Dead In Coal Mine Blast

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 30. (AP)—Two miners were reported killed and at least 13 injured today in a blast at the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co.'s big Edgewater coal mine.

A source at the company's main offices said unverified reports from the scene placed the death toll at two. A company spokesman said he was unable to confirm this immediately.

A hospital attache said some of the men appeared burned severly.

General Will Take Over Air Division

Johnson Sent To England To Command Two Wings Of 60 Superfortresses There

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30—The steady build-up of American airpower in Europe, reflecting the strain of Western power relations with Russia, reached a new phase today.

A major general was ordered to England to take command of the 60 superfortresses which flew there from this country two weeks ago. When the two wings of B29s unobtrusively departed the United States, the highest ranking officer was a colonel.

Furthermore, when Maj. Gen. Leon W. Johnson takes over his new assignment early next week he will be commanding what actually amounts to the framework for an "air division," a unit designation widely used during World War II.

The Air Force now defines an air division as two or more wings. A wing is the operating formation of one or more groups of aircrafts, with its own maintenance and service organizations. Customarily, a major general commands an air division.

Johnson will be under the over-all direction of Lt. Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, commander of all United States air units in Europe. A wing of B-29s presently based in Germany is under LeMay's command.

Johnson up to now has been commander of the 15th Air Force, one of the two fleets of B-29s based in the United States. He will leave Sunday for England.

He knows that country and the Continent like the back of his hand. Johnson served with the 8th Air Force in England when its thousands of bombers were sweeping deep into Germany and Nazi-occupied lands. Of the 22 years in military service since he was graduated from West Point, 18

FILIBUSTER ENTERS SECOND DAY

Republicans Idle; Southerners Talk

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30 — Republicans sat happily on the sidelines today while Dixie Democrats carried their filibuster against the anti-poll tax bill into its second day.

The rebellious southerners had no opposition even from their own party regulars as they plodded through legal arguments that Congress lacks the constitutional right to regulate state election laws.

The Republicans will come out swinging next week. But all they expect to prove, one GOP leader said, is this: That President Truman was wrong when he said the Republicans could force any civil rights bill through Congress by breaking a filibuster with "cloture"—a limit on debate.

Strategy Preview Given

This leader, who asked not to be named, gave this preview of the Republican strategy:

They will let the southerners talk until next week. Then a cloture petition will be brought in to shut off the debate on the motion before the Senate—to bring up the anti-poll tax bill for a vote.

To be invoked cloture requires a two-thirds majority.

But since there is no precedent for limiting debate on a motion—as distinguished from a bill actually under consideration — the president of the Senate, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), is expected to rule against it.

The Republicans then can appeal this ruling to the full Senate membership. But the chamber probably will string along with Vandenberg—the Senate's regard for precedent being what it is.

Thus, the actual merits of the anti-poll tax bill seem unlikely to come to a vote at all.

Meanwhile, the Republicans are content to let the southerners talk.

Taft Makes Prediction

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP policy committee, predicted the Dixie dawdling would be interrupted only long enough today for the Senate to vote down a resolution to quit and go home tomorrow.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Johnston (D-SC) who promised he would bring it up for a vote before nightfall.

Then the filibuster—or "educational campaign" as the southerners prefer to call it—will drone on its way toward killing any action on the anti-poll tax bill and perhaps any others.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) is directing the filibuster with a squad of 20 other senators from 11 southern

Wheat Supply Gluts Market

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 30. (U.P.)—Prosperity is deluging the farmer this year—so much so that neither the farmer nor the grainman knows what can be done with the tremendous crops.

Where just six months ago America was worrying about how it would feed a hungry world and maintain marginal grain stocks for itself, it now is wondering what to do with more than 6,000,000,000 bushels of all grains coming from its farms.

There is no storage space for it and foreign demand has been reduced by the best crops since before the war.

"It's the worst situation that has ever confronted the grain trade," Frank A. Theis, chairman of the Kansas City joint terminal grain committee, said today.

Embargo On Shipments

In this major terminal, there is no space for another bushel of wheat. Grain on tracks here awaiting unloading will fill every available bit of storage space. Wheat, making its great comeback in the last spring, is piled on the farmers in the breadbasket belt. Much has been shipped as so-called free wheat, wheat for immediate sale.

There is a six-state embargo in the southwestern belt against movement of wheat for storage, unless space was arranged prior to July 9. Farmers are shipping the free wheat, rather than at-

Cold Shoulder Is Given High Price Of Meat

Dallas Women Will Be Asked Not To Buy For A Week

(By The United Press)

A one-week "housewives' strike" against high meat prices shaped up in Dallas today.

Mrs. R. D. Vaughan, president of the Dallas Women's Chamber of Commerce, disclosed that an organized movement had resulted from an offhand remark. Dallas women will be persuaded, if possible, to stay from butcher counters for seven days.

Mrs. Vaughan predicted prices would tumble. She said her telephone had been "ringing off the wall" ever since she let it be known in a newspaper interview two days ago that she considered prices "ridiculously high" and took out the advice—"stop buying."

To Call Each Home

Volunteers in the housewives' strike will be assigned to one page in the telephone directory with instructions to call each home listed. They will ask that every family use no meat for one week, Mrs. Vaughan said.

"I never dreamed that people were so upset about meat prices," she said. "The men are as agitated as the women.

"We hope to have it worked out so that by Monday morning we can get this started."

Among the thousand telephone callers, Mrs. Vaughan said, were members of "church groups and such, an other all had something constructive. Several women, unacquainted, said the very same thing. So you can see their minds are running in the same channel."

Called For Interviews

The women called for interviews, Mrs. Vaughan said, "and I gave my club's view and my views. I didn't dream that it was going to start all of this. I've had a thousand or more calls."

She said 100 to 200 women would be at work by Monday calling housewives in behalf of the "strike."

"When I said we should strike, I meant that we should strike among ourselves—we should just refrain from buying meat," said Mrs. Vaughan.

Sales Volume Declines

A United Press survey over the state showed today that lots of Texas housewives are already giving high priced meat a cold shoulder. They complain frequently to their butchers about $1-plus beefsteak, then buy hamburger or lunch meat.

Butchers' sales volumes declined steadily in most places as the price of meat went up.

Louis Slaughter, Edinburg butcher, noted a slight decline in

Truck Helper Dies Enroute To Hospital

ALICE, July 30 (U.P.)—A 30-year-old helper on a soft-drink truck died en route to a hospital today after the truck swerved from the highway near Kingsville.

He was Emilo C. Alderete of Corpus Christi.

Alderete and the truck had been reported missing three hours earlier.

When highway patrolmen went to investigate an accident report, they found the truck for which they had been searching. Alderete was alone in the truck.

Heat Wave On Plains Eased

A cool mass of air from the Pacific Northwest passed over the South Plains this morning, dropping temperatures and causing scattered showers as it moved into the warm air over the area.

The temperature at the U. S. Weather bureau station north of Lubbock at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon was 69 degrees, which was 25 degrees less than the reading at the same time Thursday.

Low 60's Tonight

Indications at that time, the weather station reported, were that the 83 degrees recorded shortly after midnight today will be the high for the day, compared to Thursday's maximum of 102 degrees. Tonight's minimum, it was forecast, will be in the lower 60's. Saturday's maximum is expected to go a few degrees higher than today, probably between 85 and 90, it was stated.

The temperature began to drop shortly after arrival of the cold front. At 9:30 a. m., temperature was 75 degrees or nine degrees less than at that time Thursday. As cloudiness and showers continued, the outlook improved for lower temperatures.

Rainfall Scattered

Rainfall was of widely scattered nature. The weather station received sprinkling now and then, and measured .02 inch at 1:43 p. m. At Texas Technological col-

President Tildy Of Hungary Abdicates

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 30. (AP)—President Zoltan Tildy abdicated today. The Communist-dominated government had accused his son-in-law, Minister to Egypt Victor Csornoky, of espionage and treason.

Tildy, a Methodist minister, belongs to the Smallholder party, which had an elected majority before the Communist coup in May of last year. He was the first president of post-war Hungary and retained that office after the coup.

Tildy, however, had been under Communist pressure for a year or more.

Csornoky is under arrest. He resigned as minister to Egypt yesterday, about two weeks after his return from Cairo.

GOP Accused Of Disregard Of Inflation

President Renews His Demands For Sweeping Powers

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—President Truman fired a new demand for anti-inflation laws at Congress today, saying they are needed "to forestall business collapse." He told the Republican legislators there has been "blind disregard" for the danger.

Bitter words flew back at him. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told the Senate Mr. Truman "doesn't want to stop inflation" and that it is "difficult to believe he will use" any new powers voted him by Congress.

Economic Report Made

Taft's outburst was touched off by Mr. Truman's new call for legislation, made in the form of an economic report.

The report reached the capitol while two Truman aides were on "The Hill" battling personally for the President's program.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, appearing before the Senate banking committee, urged (a) government power to control installment buying, and (b) authority for the federal reserve board to increase required bank reserves. The idea back of increased reserves is that it would tie up money that banks might otherwise lend to people whose spending would increase inflationary pressures.

Urges Control Power

Paul Porter, former OPA administrator, carried the administration fight to the House banking committee. He was urging nowep to put back price controls and ration short commodities.

There was a flurry in this committee when Rep. Monroney (D-Okla), demanded that Republicans bring forward an anti-inflation program of their own, and that Thomas E. Dewey, GOP presidential candidate, be invited to present such a program personally to Congress.

Monroney said that since Republicans have doomed President Truman's cost-of-living program, Reoublicans now should come up with their own program.

Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) said that if the Democrats would get Mr. Truman to appear personally before the committee he would invite Dewey and all other presidential candidates, including Henry Wallace, and the candidates of southern "Dixiecrats."

Taft, in his Senate speech, said

Youth Begins Prison Term

WAUPIN, Wis., July 30 (AP) — Gordon Fisher, jr., a 16-year-old farm boy, is on the first day of a life term in the Waupun state prison for killing the mother he said he loved.

The husky, one of the youngest persons ever tried for homicide in Wisconsin, was brought to the prison yesterday a few hours after he pleaded guilty to a charge of first dgree murder in Oshkosh municipal court.

The state charged Fisher had had a "premediated plan" to kill his parents, but that his foot slipped after he had aimed a shotgun at his father, spoiling his aim.

In a statement to Dist. Atty. John A. Moore, Fisher said his father required him to "work like a man" but treated him "like a boy" when he wanted the family car to go on dates.

Moore said the youth related he "loved" his mother and "hated" his father, but decided he must kill his mother first because she might tell authorities.

Fisher told Moore he shot his mother in their home June 29 as she stood at an ironing board. The youth had disappeared by the time his father found the body. He was captured the following morning hiding in a haymow on the farm.

Plan To End Illegal Parking Is Proposed

PEABODY, Mass., July 30. (U.P.) —If Police Sgt. John J. Purcell of Peabody gets a legal green light, he has a sure fire plan to eliminate illegal parking in this city.

He's awaiting approval by the police chief, the courts and the city councilors to paint any automobile he finds straddling a driveway or blocking a hydrant. His choice of colors is red, yellow, blue and green.

"Just giving tickets isn't enough," he said. "Folks pay their fines and then buzz down to the nearest no-parking area and park. It's demoralizing. But if this scheme doesn't stop 'em, nothing will."

Rainless July 29 Wins New Hat For Charlie McCarthy

Waynesburg Weeps As Wetness Skirts Area In Pennsylvania For Fifth Time In 71 Years

WAYNESBURG, Pa., July 30—There is no joy in Waynesburg today—it didn't rain on July 29.

The absence of precipitation may seem like a boon to some communities, but to Waynesburg a rainless July 29 is like Christmas without carols or the Fourth of July without firecrackers.

A few years ago, one of the local boys figured out that it had rained on almost every July 29 since goodness knows when.

Since then the Waynesburgites— and a lot of former residents now making good in the bigger cities—have been accepting bets on the probability of rain in the old home town on the 29th day of July.

By and large, the bets were a pretty good thing, because until this year it had rained on every July 29 for the last 71 years, except in 1880, 1930, 1937 and 1946.

Yesterday, as usual, the bets were down—including one made by official rainmaker John Daily with Charlie McCarthy of radio fame. Daily wagered a new hat it would "make wet" in Waynesburg before last midnight. Charlie said it wouldn't.

The good people of Waynesburg donned raincoats and rubber boots, confident that nature would not let them down. Daily assumed his official position at the town's fire bell—prepared to ring in the glad news of a wet Waynesburg.

Daily and his fellow townspeople waited, and waited—and waited. At midnight, Eastern Daylight time, they hurriedly set the clocks back

11 Electoral Votes Assured Dixiecrats

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 30. (U.P.)—Eleven electoral votes for the States Rights Democratic ticket were assured today. Alabama Democratic electors pledged themselves to vote for J. Strom Thurmond and Fielding L. Wright.

Seven electors and four proxies decided unanimously at a meeting here that the Dixiecrat ticket would receive their support. Southern rebels against the regular party hopes to stymie election of the next President in the electoral college.

All 11 electors were chosen in the Democratic primary, and all had promised to oppose President Truman or any "civil rights" candidate. They will give official notification to Thurmond and Wright in Dallas, Tex., at a Dixiecrat meeting set for Aug. 11.

Heiress To Millions Marries Shoe Clerk

MILWAUKEE, July 30 (AP)—Suzanne Froedtert, 18-year-old heiress to a malting company's millions, is honeymooning today in a small, modest home of her mother-in-law, a widow of a Greek immigrant barber.

The pretty teen-age Suzanne, daughter of Kurtis Froedtert, president of the Froedtert Grain and Malting Co., eloped Tuesday with Nick George Poulos, 26, a shoe clerk.

Two years ago Suzanne disappeared from fashionable boarding school at Madison, Wis., and was believed to have been kidnapped. But police found her a week later at Highland Park., Mich., she said she had run away to visit relatives.

Nick and Suzanne both worked at a downtown Milwaukee shoestore. They dated frequently but the marriage idea was "sudden," they said. They were married by a justice of the peace at Crown Point, Ind.

Poulos said he is not going back to work as a shoe clerk because he had receive a "number of offers."

Suzanne, said she might return to work—but not in the shoe store.

Socialite Is Bride Of Randolph Hearst

WARRENTON, Va., July 30. (AP)—Austine Cassini, Washington socialite and columnist, became the bride of newspaper publisher William Randolph Hearst, jr., here last night at her parents' home.

The bride is the daughter of Major and Mrs. Austin McDonnell of Warrenton. Since 1943 she has written a daily column for the Washington Times-Herald.

Hearst is publisher of the New York Journal-American and the American Weekly. He is the son of William Randolph Hearst of California, owner of a chain of newspapers.

After a wedding trip to Canada and California, the couple will maintain residences in New York and Washington.

Czechs Win European Zone Tennis Finals

PRAGUE, July 30 (U.P.)—Czechoslovakia's Davis cup tennis squad today looked forward to a trip to the United States after dumping Sweden in the European zone finals, 4 to 1.

The Czechs will meet the winner of the American zone finals between Australia and Mexico at Boston next month. The survivors will then engage the U. S. squad in the challenge cup series at New York's Forest Hills courts.

Airline Heads Will Represent Governor

AUSTIN, July 30 (U.P.) — Two airline executives have been chosen as the personal representatives of Gov. Beauford Jester for the opening ceremonies of the International Air exposition at New York on Saturday.

The Governor yesterday announced the selection of Charles E. Beard of Braniff airways and Robert J. Smith of Pioneer airways to be his representatives to the air exposition.

Truman Raps Jim Crowism

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—President Truman insists that an eventual end to "Jim Crowism" in the armed forces will be his aim as long as he is Commander-in-chief.

He told a news conference yesterday that the "equality" order he issued Monday meant just that.

The subject came up when a reporter said Gen. Omar Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, had been quoted as saying he favors segregation among the lower echelons of the Army. The newsman asked whether that is consistent with Mr. Truman's "equality of treatment and opportunity" order.

The President said he had been informed by Secretary of the Army Royall that Bradley had made no such statement.

End Of Segregation Is Aim

Then, to another question whether his order aims at an eventual end of segregation, Mr. Truman replied yes.

The day after Mr. Truman announced he was setting up a seven man committee to put the nonsegregation policy into effect, Bradley told a news conference at Ft. Knox, Ky.:

"The Army is not out to make any social reforms. The Army will put men of different races in different companies. It will change that policy when the nation is a whole changes it."

Qualifying Rounds For Golf Meet Set

District qualifying rounds for the 48th annual U. S. Amateur Golf Championship tournament will be held at San Angelo August 18, according to H. W. Schroeder, of Lubbock Country club. The tournament will be held at Memphis, Tenn., August 30 through September 4.

Entry fees and forms have to be received in New York City by 5 p. m., August 2, Schroeder said. Interested persons may obtain the blank forms from him.

Chicago Doctor Makes Appeal For His Son To Return Home

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—An appeal to his 21 year old son to return home to his wife and two small children was made yesterday by his father, Dr. Willis J. Potts, internationally known "blue baby" surgeon.

The son, Robert Eugene Potts, after nearly completing his third year in the pre-medical course at the University of Rochester (N. Y.), disappeared on June 2. Dr. Potts said his son, who was an honor student and had taken a heavy course, left a note saying he was going to New York City and then to California.

"I think he had been working too hard," Dr. Potts told a news conference he had summoned at Children's Momerial hospital where he is chief surgeon.

Discovers Operation Method

Dr. Potts, who is the discoverer of one method of "blue baby" operations, has performed about 130 such operations since 1946, including one yesterday before he called the news conference.

"This sort of publicity is horrible for me, but I don't care," Dr Potts said. "I'm ready to do anything to get him back."

He told reporters he had delayed undergoing a gall bladder operation "because I wanted my boy with me." He said he had conducted a continuous search since his son left Rochester. He will be operated on tomorrow.

Young Potts was married two years ago to Joan Fielder, whose father, Edward, is a vice president of the Pabst Brewing company. His brother, Willis J., jr., is a student at the University of California and a sister, Judith, 15, is a high school student in suburban Oak Park.

Post Looks To Future With Industry, Farms And Oil Sharing The Spotlight In Garza County City

By BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

POST, July 30—Post, nestled in the shadow of the Caprock, is unique among South Plains cities. It is the result of one man's dream, and his power to make that dream a reality.

The man was C. W. Post. The dream, to quote from his own mater-of-fact pen: "Wife and I talked the matter over, and concluded we would build a good town for the people."

It has been 40 years since Post, immensely wealthy owner of a cereal-food empire, undertook to lay out an entire city, parcel out farmlands at give-away prices and start a huge construction program, many buildings of which are still in use today.

Famous Ranches Near

The years have seen, as he expected, the development of an agricultural empire in the western part of the city, and the continuation of a great ranch area in the east and south.

Post's population today is between 4,000 and 5,000 and it has a slogan, "not the biggest, but the busiest little city in West Texas."

Post's economy depends largely on agriculture and ranching, as it did when Post first laid out 80- and 160-acre farms. Cotton leads, with sorghums, wheat, oats, peanuts and watermelons and vegetables grown extensively. Ranching, principally beef-cattle raising, is carried on in a large-scale manner, with many famous old ranch brands still in use today. They include the Double U, U Lazy S, the 76, John B. Slaughter, J Lazy S, T-Anchor, OC, OS and others.

Oil Also Making Show

In late years oil has become important, but so quietly that many old-time residents are unaware of its extent.

The county has more than 200 oil-producing wells, and many of these are within sight of the city limits. In fact, Post probably has the most profitable city dump-grounds of any South Plains town, since a producer was completed in the middle of it and now busily pumps away surrounded by piles of tin cans and other debris.

Others are located on ranch properties, on Santa Fe railroad right-of-way at the edge of town and in the most unexpected gulleys and canyons of the rugged terrain surrounding the city. Many of them are shallow wells, some no deeper than 2,800 feet. Drillers say the formations are tricky, that a good producer may be found on one location, and the adjoining location may prove to be a dry hole.

Most of the oil development occurred during the critical shortage of building materials after the war. For that reason building was delayed, and Post escaped the oil-boom building that might otherwise have occurred. Now that the peak of drilling has passed, Post may not have a large building program, although many better-class homes and some business buildings are planned.

Business Is Good

One merchant said, "I just don't know where all the business comes from." The answer, as it was speculated by a public official: "From the oil field workers."

Dr. David Templeton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, summed up Post's civic spirit neatly. He said, "Post citizens place their civic spirit and appreciation of the town's history next to patriotism and religion, if indeed they are not blended together."

Dr. Templeton has, with the help of Sherrill Boyd, city secretary and chamber of commerce manager, made a hobby of collecting data on Post in the old days. He recalls his school days in Canyon, 33 years ago, at a time when Post was a main topic of conversation all over West Texas.

The story of Post City started back in 1895, when Charles William Post, victim of chronic indigestion, hit upon the formula for Postum in his kitchen at Battle Creek, Mich. This was followed by the cereal-food, Grape-Nuts, in 1897 and by other products which he skyrocketed into a huge fortune.

By 1906 Mr. Post was in Fort Worth, where he arranged to buy a big portion of Garza county, to colonize it. Later he wrote a summary of his development program for the Post City Post's first edition, on Nov. 4, 1909. Dr. Templeton has a copy of that paper, and passages from Mr. Post's own article tell the story:

"Several years ago I bought all of one and part of two other ranches, gathering in one body 200,000 acres of land. . . . The land is rich and will raise abundant crops of kaffir corn, maize, Indian corn, peanuts, cotton and vegetables. It will also raise wheat and oats in large quantities if cultivated under the dry land system. . . . We had fine crops in 1908, and in 1909 we experienced the driest year this county has had for 15 or 16 years. In spite of that we raised some cotton and some feed, as well as melons, vegetables, etc. . . ."

After expressing his faith in the country, he describes his plans for building the town: "Wife and I talked the matter over and concluded we would build a good town for the people Plans were arranged. . . . The main business street is 128 feet wide, with little parklets in the center. . . . I reserved one full block for my own house to be built later on." (The house is still there, is now a funeral home, after another pioneer, G. W Connell, lived in it for years) .

Post goes on to describe his building program. He describes one large stone store, 160 feet square, with eight units, which is still in use virtually as he built it. He describes the construction of sidewalks, hitching racks, a 30-room stone hotel, the planting of trees, construction of a water system, and dedication of a block for the courthouse which was built later.

There are many persons living in Post who can remember those days. Oldtimers recall the old "Rag Town," or tent-city, that perched on the caprock while the town was being built. They remember that many materials were hauled from Colorado City, the nearest railroad point, in wagons.

Fascinating in this time of housing shortage is Post's description of the residential program. "We have erected a large number of comfortable homes. . They are sold for 2/100 as the first payment, and 1/100 for each monthly payment. . . . A $1,500 home would be sold for $30 down payment, and $15 a month. This includes all interest and other charges."

He described the farm program. He divided his holdings into 80 and 160-acre farms, building farm homes, wells and making other improvements, then sold them at $20 an acre, with payments to be made out of the crop.

He mentioned plans for an ice factory, electric light plant and

HUBS DOWN AMARILLO, 12-6

Abilene Blue Sox Open Series Here

The Amarillo Gold Sox left town last night with a triple play to their credit, a freak double play and their pride, but left two out of three games in their series with the Hubbers behind them, the local club thrashing the Sox last night 12-6.

The two victories enabled the Hubbers to climb to within four games of Amarillo and to within one of Pampa, which had its game with Albuquerque rained out. The Hubbers also gained a game on Abilene, which lost to Clovis, 10-9, while Lamesa tounced Borger again 10-5.

Second Time In League

The triple play pulled by the Gold Sox was the second in the West Texas-New Mexico League, but the first one at Rosenthal Field this year. It was not, however, the first ever in the local ball orchard. And here's how it happened.

Floyd Walker led off with a single and went to second when Don Moore walked to start the sixth inning. Chick Fowler came to bat and attempted to sacrifice. But he hit a short pop fly that Paul Halter dove for and caught in his glove hand on the ground. Halter rolled over, got up and threw to first to double up Moore and Jerry Folkman threw to Earl Harriman to catch Walker.

It all happened so fast, and Halter's catch was so hidden from the base coaches and runners, that no one in the ball game seemed to realize what had happened.

Freak Double Play

Walker also was the victim of a freak double play in the eighth. Jackie Sullivan fanned to open the inning, but Virgil Richardson singled through second. Walker leaned into a fat pitch and drove it to right centerfield, getting what appeared to be a double. Bob Crues fired the ball to Harriman, who relayed it to Ted Clawitter in time to catch Richardson at the plate. Clawitter then threw to first base doubling Walker, who had failed to touch the bag.

But that didn't stop the Hubbers from pounding out a 12-6 victory, with Royce "Rooster" Mills doing a beautiful chore of relief hurling again. The little fireman limited the Sox to three singles and a double, while fanning seven and walking four. He whiffed Crues, who went hitless in five trips, twice and forced him to ground out to the infield in his third appearance. Only one man reached third and this runner was one of three to reach second.

Plenty Of Bingles

Amarillo spotted the Hubbers a run in the first, then punctured the plate six times in the second for a five-run lead. That didn't daunt the local nine, which came back with six runs in the third. Gene Hixson hit a two-run homer, Walker singled in a run and Moore drove a blow off the Avalanche-Journal scoreboard for three more runs.

Fowler smashed a two-run homer—his 18th—in the fourth, after Walker had singled home two more runs. And in the fifth, Mills hit his first homer of the year, the ball clearing the net over the leftfield fence.

Tonight the Abilene Blue Sox, who took three straight from the Hubbers in Abilene recently, come to town for a three-game series. Sullivan said that Lefty Fred Pollock will go after the first of what they hope will be three victories.

Upsets Reported In Tennis Play

WICHITA FALLS, July 30. (Special) — Upsets marked first round play in the annual Northwest Texas Open tennis tournament which opened here Thursday, with Fred Reed of Fort Worth stroking out a 6-4, 6-4, victory over Jake Broyles, Texas Tech star.

Broyles' running mate, Glenn Ivy, also took the count in a marathon match with James A. Schultz of Commerce, runner-up in last year's tourney here, the latter winning 6-2, 3-6, 6-3. The men's division turned up a big and rugged field.

Ivy and Broyles remained prominent in the doubles bracket, however, with a 7-5, 6-2 victory over J. C. Murrin of Dallas and David Bryant of Sherman.

Joe Wheatley of Texas Tech took a first round singles match victory over Jack Long of Dallas, 6-2, 6-8 and 6-4.

Eddie Scudday and David Hester of Lubbock were eliminated in the doubles division by Oklahoma city champion Bill Brown and Frank Jones, former Southern Methodist university star.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

The umpire doesn't have a friend in the world, except maybe his wife. He's hated by the ball players, the fans, the sports writers, the radio men, the bat boys. Mothers take their children into the house when they see an umpire approaching. They are spurned in eating houses and at the movies. They live in a world of their own and are welcome to it. It is said they occasionally scan the rule book and once in a while have been known to study their profession, all this being done safely behind closed shutters and locked doors.

Umpires have more control over a baseball contest than any other individual. They are the only ones who can call a game because of rain, who can have the lights turned on or off, who can throw out balls or any number of other things. Incidentally, they also are the only ones with the power to pronounce the official decision, ball or strike, after the pitcher has made a delivery. The umpire can banish players, managers or batboys from a game, from the park. They rule on whether a hit is fair or foul, despite myopia or astigmatism, proximity to or longevity from where the ball hit. They officially open a ball game and during its official progress, they are totalitarian powers.

All of which means that we are trying to say that the umpire is more important to the success or failure of a baseball game than any other single individual. He should, as a result, be chosen for his position with diligence and discernment. He should be a man without vainglory or selfishness, firm but retiring, friendly but reserved. He should make his decisions on each ball and strike, or base calls, with unflinching firmness. He should be consistent in his calls. It is entirely within his power to make a baseball game better than the actual playing performance, merely by keeping it running smoothly.

Which leads us back to the case in point, the uniformly poor umpiring in the West Texas-New Mexico League this year and the regretable situation at Abilene Wednesday night. As we said yesterday, it is the fan who supports organized ball, who pays his good money to see the games. He is entitled to something in return. When poor officiating causes such intense feeling that a manager calls his teams off the field, something is rotten in Denmark—and the WT-NM loop.

On the other hand, we think that Price has been guilty of a dereliction of duty this year in his selection of arbiters for the league. You can overlook mistakes made by greenhorns at the start of the season, for you expect them to improve. But there has been no improvement this season. The umpiring has been inconsistent, faulty and generally slipshod. Umpires have reversed their decision; they have failed to make their decisions clear much of the time; they haven't been able to anticipate plays and be in a good position to call them; they have failed to demonstrate good generalship; they have let the ball players get the best of them.

And who selects the umpires? The league president. We doubt if Milton Price has seen over half a dozen games this year in this league, but he must have heard of umpire troubles in fully 80 of the 90 odd games played to date. And still nothing has been done about it. Oh yes, they have broken up some of the combinations, pairing one better umpire with an inferior one, but it has helped to only a minor degree. The time has passed making changes now, with only approximately 40 games left to play, but we hope that selections are made with more care next season. And the first sign that an umpire is incompetent should be the signal for Price to oust the arbiter, replacing him with another.

We don't sympathize with Bottarini and the Pioneer club for being fined, but we do sympathize with them over the amount and the cause of the fine. It is a situation that must be corrected if organized ball is to be held in the respect it maintains now. We're 100 percent for baseball good or bad, so long as it is properly operated. When it gets out of hand, it is hurting only itself. We don't think that the players want it that way. We know that the fans don't.

Giant Hurling Staff Is Hot

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

What happened to the New York Giants pitching staff?

Spiders spin cobwebs in the Polo grounds bullpen. Starters finish without relief. Fireman Kenny Trinkle doesn't even make the box scores.

The strange situation has existed for almost a week. Three straight shutouts by Larry Jansen, Clint Tartung and Dave Koslo have left the National league reeling.

Into Third Place

Seven complete games in eight pitching starts have lifted the club past the St. Louis Cardinals into third place.

Koslo, particularly, has come into his own in recent days. Two straight no-run jobs, including yesterday's 5-0 effort against Cincinnati, stamp him as a most important factor in the club's pennant hopes. Before that he hadn't thrown a complete game since May 9.

Brooklyn clubbed the Cardinals 9-6 permitting New York to take over third place. Neither club gained on front-running Boston which edged Pittsburgh, 2-1.

The Phillies made it two out of three under Manager Eddie Sawyer, subduing Chicago, 7-4.

Pitcher Jack Kramer and Rookie Bill Goodman got into the home run act for the first time this season as Boston swamped Detroit, 8-1 in the only American league game.

Legion "B" Club Is To Meet Brownfield

Lubbock's American Legion "B" team will tangle with the Brownfield nine at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Chapman field diamond in the final game of the 1948 schedule.

Coach Garland Head announced last night that he will start Morris (Moe) Turner, dependable righthander, on the mound for Lubbock, with Tommy Yelvington handling the catching chores.

The Hub city youngsters copped a narrow 9-8 victory over the Muleshoe team Thursday afternoon at Muleshoe.

The Muleshoe nine collected two runs off David Clark, starting Lubbock twirler, then added four while youthful Bennie Day was on the mound. But dependable Mack Taylor took over in the fifth frame and blanked the home nine for the final two stanzas.

Lubbock whittled at the Muleshoe lead with a three-run triple by Billy Presley in the second inning, then deadlocked the count in the fourth. The single tally in the sixth provided the margin of victory for the Hub city team.

Brinkley Is Pacing Glen Garden Play

FORT WORTH, July 30. (AP)—J. H. (Doc) Brinkley paced the 19th Glen Garden invitation into second round play today.

Brinkley shot a 68 yesterday in the opening round to take a three-stroke lead. Trailing at 71 were Reynolds Smith, Dallas; Tv A. Avrello and Homer Chokas of Fort Worth.

Medalist Dick Martin had a 72 yesterday and Gene Towry, North Texas State college links star from Dallas, had a 73.

Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, posted a 79.

Longview Is Winner Of Double Victory

WACO, July 30. (AP)—Longview won the right to meet Adamson of Dallas in the American Legion jpnior baseball area playoff with a double victory over Waco here last night, 8-2 and 10-3.

Waco had won the first game of the three-game bi-district series in Longview.

Defending Champ In Broadmoor Tourney Believed Man To Beat

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 30 (AP)—Quarter-finalists in the Broadmoor invitation golf tournament today set their sights on red-hot Charles Coe of Ardmore, Okla., defending champ.

The Oklahoman came through yesterday with a 70 to down Dr. E. M. Stokes of Tulsa, by a 1-up margin.

Coe will tangle with Claude Wright, Denver today. Wright breezed by another Oklahoman, Ernie Blanton of Enid, 5--and-4.

In yesterday's top match—Darkhorse Tex Jones of Wichita, Kans., and another Tulsan, Dick Pringle, matched strokes for 22 holes before Jones copped the match on the fifth extra hole.

Howard Creel of Houston, carded a 71 to nip Loy Martin of Tulsa one-up. He will meet Keith Fowler of Bartlesville, Okla., who defeated Byron Potter of Oklahoma City, 7-and-5.

Colorado's only survivor, Bob Veylupek of Pueblo, will match strokes with E. J. Rogers, Jr., of Oklahoma City. Veylupek chalked up a one-up win over Van Lewis of San Antonio. Young Rogers had an easy time whipping Rufus King of Wichita Falls, 4-and-3.

Clayton Heafner Has Only One Stroke Lead In Western Open

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 30 (AP)—Clouting Clayton Heafner "enjoyed" only a one-stroke lead today as he and 19 other par-wreckers led a blue-ribbon field into the second round of the Western Open Golf tournament.

The burly pro from Charlotte, N. C., scorched the sod yesterday as he fired a six-under-par 66 in the opening round. But belter Ben Hogan, the favorite, was only one swing behind.

And right behind Hogan came George Smith of Buffalo with a 68, seven other hotshots each with a 69, and a pair at 70.

Model In Coolness

Heafner, a model in coolness, topped the pack by shooting par on 12 holes and bagging six birdies. He just missed an eagle on the 504-yard 16th hole. Hogan failed to tie for the lead when his 12-foot putt on the final hole was inches short. He outshot Heafner or the out nine but slipped up coming home, taking a bogey on the par-three 15th.

Smith surprised as he went out in 33 and came back in 35 for his 68.

The seven golfers at 69 were Jimmy Demaret, the 1940 winner from Ojai, Cal.; Ed (Porky) Oliver, the 1941 winner from Seattle, Wash.; dentist Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn.; veteran Skip Alexander of Durham, N. C.; Stan Staszowski, a "sleeper" from Winsted, Conn.; Mike Parso; and Bill Nary of Albuquerque, N. M.

Two Tennis Stars Are Bounced Out

NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—Two of the brightest young tennis prospects to come out of California in recent years — Bob Falkenburg and Pancho Gonzales—were unceremoniously bounced out of the Seabright tennis tournament this week . . . That seems to emphasasize the experts' contention that there's nothing like grass court play to show up the weaknesses in a player's game . . .

Shots And Shells

Henry Olshanski (wotta way to mis-pell O'Shaughnessy), a rookie end with the Baltimore Colts, competed in the Olympic ski trials last winter . . . And Jeff Durkota, bidding for a place in the Buffalo Bills' lineup, fought with a ski outfit, the 10th mountain division, in Italy and captured a German general . . . Those boys ought to be in their element at one of those late-season games in Buffalo . . . The New Orleans Pelicans aren't boasting about it—in fact they're moaning about lack of help from the Pirates—but they're probably the only Southern association club that ever was completely shut out in picking the all-star team . . . The new press box at the U. of Texas stadium features reclining swivel chairs for the writers . . . with soft cushions they'd be just the thing for dull games.

White Sox Win In Pee Wee Loop Tilt

The White Sox gained a 19 to 14 win over the Yankees Thursday afternoon in a Pee Wee League tilt, while in the Junior loop tussle, the Exchange Club shut out Methodist Men, 19 to 0.

Ronald Hall was credited with the Sox win. Gene Bittick had two singles and a homer in five times up to pace the attack for the White Sox. For the Yankee nine, George Nelson batted out two singles in three times up.

The Exchange Club opened up in the first inning with two homers and from there on, most every player on the team batted one in. Frank Wright got three singles in four times up plus a homer. Winning pitcher, Charles Brewer, Ray McLarty, Melvin Kaylor and Johnny Carpenter, all smacked in home runs. Brewer allowed the losers only one hit.

The Red Sox will meet the Dodgers in the Pee Wee League tilt today, and the ABC nine will tangle with the Jaycees of the Junior League in the second game.

Figures Show Hogan Leading Competitors

CHICAGO, July 30 (U.P) — The dynamiting mite from Texas, Ben Hogan, who won both the National open and PGA crowns this year, also leads his pro golf competitors in all records kept by the Professional Golfers' association for the entire campaign, official figures showed today.

Belting Ben paced the money winners for the year with a total take of $22,797.50. He was ahead in the race for the Vardon trophy with an average score of 69.64 for the season, and he had 569 points in the Ryder cup point tabs for another first place.

Rebels Are Groggy After Fifth Defeat

By SILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Dallas Rebels, groggy from their fifth straight defeat and their 16th in the last 20 games, play host to Beaumont tonight with a hefty slugger from Sherman-Denison due to be in the lineup.

Right after the Rebels lost their third straight to San Antonio last night, 2-1, owner R. W. Burnett announced he had shelled out $5,000 in cash and optioned outfielder Joe Smaza to the class B Big State league club for Robert L. (Buck) Frierson.

Frierson, who hit 58 home runs last year and has 28 to his credit this season, will be placed in left field.

In other games last night, Willard Ramsdell saved a 4-3 decision for Fort Worth over Houston; Oklahoma City beat Beaumont, 8-3, and Tulsa and Shreveport battled to a 4-4 overtime deadlock. The game was called to allow Shreveport to catch a train.

Baseball Tourney Off Until August

WACO, July 30. (AP)—The state semi-pro baseball tournament takes a brief vacation after tonight's play, suspending until Aug. 6.

Two elimination games are on tap. Argyle meets Goldthwaite and Bellmead tackles Corsicana. The losers will be out of the double-elimination meet.

Last night the Waco Dons hung a 9-5 licking on Speegleville.

Teams in the tournament with a perfect record of two victories and no defeats are Waco, Conroe, Center and Sweeney. Ten others have been beaten once.

OLYMPIC COMPETITION STARTED

Yanks Cage Forces Gain Easy Victory

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Wembley, England, July 30. (AP)—Uncle Sam's basketball forces led off with an easy victory as expected today as competition in six sports began in the Olympic games.

Coach Bud Browning's rangy, sharp-shooting cagers conquered Switzerland, 85 to 21, in the first round of the preliminaries although big Bob Kurland of the Phillips (Okla.) Oilers fouled out.

Track, central sport of the games, started with qualifying trials in the high jump, one of America's strongest events.

Weather Is Ideal

The sun was hot, to the liking of the three American jumpers—Dwight Eddleman of Illinois, Vern McGrew of Rice, and George Stanich of the University of California at Los Angeles.

The morning program for the opening day of competition drew only a few thousand to the low, sloping stadium recently converted from a dog racetrack. The temperature stood at 79.

The first two heights in the high jump were disdainfully passed by virtually all contestants, and serious jumping started at 1.80 meters, or 5 feet 10⅞ inches.

Eddleman, first of the Americans to jump, did not bother to take off his sweat suit. To his great embarrassment he knocked the bar down.

Has Three Chances

Each jumper has three chances. To enter the finals this afternoon it is necessary to clear 1.87 meters, or 6 feet 1⅝ inches.

On his second try, still wearing his sweat suit, Eddleman cleared the bar with ease. McGrew and Stanich passed at 1.80 meters.

When the bar went to 1.84 meters, or 6 feet and ¼ inch, the entire field of 30 jumpers was still in competition.

Qualifying tests in the women's discus were advanced to the afternoon program.

Eddleman refused to take off his sweat suit even for 1.84 meters, but cleared it easily. All other contestants had stripped down.

Failures Are Common

Failures became common in the cosmopolite field that included long haired, bearded Sing S. G. S. Gurnam of India, and barefoot B. Gundersen of Norway who cleared 1.84 meters with ease.

Pierre Lacaze of France cleared the same height with plenty to spare, but B. Casado of Puerto Rico, failed three times. Gurnam and A. M. Jackes of Canada made it on the third try.

The round-robin preliminaries in basketball opened with only 17 spectators and a charwoman on hand for the opener in which a small squad from the Philippines trounced Iraq, 102 to 30.

The first official protest of the games was filed and allowed.

Egypt objected to the officiating in last night's water polo game in which Hungary defeated Egypt, 4-2. Officials ruled the game should be replayed tonight with new arbiters.

Cowpokes Compete For Rodeo Prizes

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30 (AP)—Range-wise cowpokes settled down to the serious business of ridin' and ropin' here today with an eye on part of $50,000 in rodeo prizes offered at the 52nd Annual Frontier days.

Records are expected to tumble as the show enters its next to last day. Champs in all events will be named Saturday.

Zeno Farris of Las Cruces, N. M., walked from the arena last night with a check for $915, top money in the first go around calf roping event. He wrapped up his bawling calf in 14.5 seconds.

Second place money of $686 went to John Poage of Miami, Okla., who tied his calf Tuesday in 14.8 seconds. Jim Snively of Pawhuska, Okla., placed third with 15.4 to win $457.

Colorado bronc busters walked off with the first three money awards in the amateur bronc riding first go around.

Softball Game Set Saturday

The Baldridge Bakery softball team, one of the strongest nines in Lubbock and in this area, tomorrow night meets Ragsdale of San Angelo in what will be the next to last Texas Softball league game of the year at Jumbo Webster Field.

Curley Hayes probably will be on the mound for the visitors in the first game, which starts at 8:30 p.m., with one of three Baldridge hurlers available for action. Loy Hubbard, the dependable ace, probably will get the starting nod.

In the second game, Ragsdale is expected to throw Bert Hester, one of the league's top pitchers, against either Bill Kizer of Amarillo or Wayne Ward of Dallas for the home nine.

Both games loom as pitcher's battles, with four of the top hurlers in the loop going into action. Ragsdale and Baldridge each have a chance to get into the Shaughnessy playoffs and the games will be bitterly fought.

Baldridge currently is tied for second place in the league and Ragsdale is fourth, the lowest possible place they can finish to be in the playoffs. If the San Angelo nine should sweep both games, they might assure themselves of a first division berth, while a double loss for Baldridge wouldn't knock the bakers out of the first four.

On the other hand, Baldridge wants the prestige attached to finishing second in the loop race that already has seen the Lubbock Sunbeamers clinch first place, win, lose or draw.

Hayes, who probably will see action on the mound for San Angelo in the first game, is the only lefthanded hurler in the loop. He is rated close behind Jackie Neel of Lubbock as one of the best softball pitchers in the state.

The Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the games, assures fans that they will see two of the fastest games that have been played here this year.

SOUTHPARK IN PLAYOFF

BEAUMONT, July 30 (AP)—Southpark entered the playoff of the American Legion area four baseball championship yesterday by beating St. Thomas of Houston, 23-7.

TOO REALISTIC

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U.P) — Colie Stoltz, orchestra leader, has eliminated the clowning in the novelty number, "Saber Dance." At the end Colie would whip out a knife and slash his drummer's tie in two. The other night Colie held the tie with one hand, slashing into the tie and his finger. Three stitches were required.

GOP TALKS INFLATION CONTROLS

Curbs Planned For Installment Buying

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—New curbs on "dollar-down" buying and on bank credit were reported today as possible Republican answers to President Truman's demand for inflation controls.

A GOP leader who asked not to be quoted by name told a reporter that if present plans work out the special session of Congress may:

1. Restore installment buying rules calling for one-third down payments and limiting credit to 15 months.

2. Freeze up to $12,000,000,000 of possible new bank loans by upping authorized federal reserve requirements 10 per cent.

3. Boost the gold reserve requirements behind bank notes and deposits for the psychological effect such a move might have.

HST Warns Of Credit

President Truman's aides have urged passage of the first two of these proposals but have not taken a stand on the gold reserve matter.

Mr. Truman told his news conference yesterday that consumer credit is building up fast. He said that is why he asked now for credit controls that he didn't seek in his anti-inflation message last November.

But at about the same time Marriner S. Eccles was telling the Senate banking committee that Secretary of the Treasury Snyder was responsible for the President's not having urged such controls long ago.

Bust Period Predicted

Eccles, booted out of the Federal Reserve Board chairmanship by Mr. Truman last winter, predicted that the country is "going to have a bust."

He said this deflation could be eased if the Federal Reserve Board would withdraw its support from the government security market—a move to which Chairman Thomas B. McCabe previously had told the committee he is opposed.

Eccles called the President's program "about half inflationary as well as about half deflationary." On the inflationary side he listed the housing bill which Mr. Truman told Congress he wants as badly as he does cost of living controls.

Truman Warning

the general price question "is an emergency matter" and that he hopes Congress will pass some legislation dealing with it.

"In my opinion the President has full powers to check inflation if he wants to check it. If he is not using the powers he has now, it is difficult to hope that he would use any new one.

"He doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman threw a whole book of economics at the special session. It was his midyear economic report, 115 pages long.

Demand Is Renewed

Undaunted by the icy reception he got on Tuesday, when he presented his program in person, the President renewed his demand for sweeping powers—including control over prices, wages, rationing and credit, plus an excess profits tax to discourage price-boosting.

Mr. Truman, in his message today, insisted:

"It is not too late for preventive measures, and we are not yet forced by the tragic consequences of depression to adopt measures which would interfere with our free economy far more than would any or all of the measures I have proposed.

To Impede Some Plans

"I realize that the anti-inflationary program I have offered will impede some business plans, will curb some profit opportunities, and may limit some wage advances.

"It is of the very essence of a plan to counteract inflation that this be done. All groups will ultimately benefit when it is done."

In eight pages the President gave a glowing account of peacetime or all time records achieved at midyear in jobs, wages, production, trade—and prices.

The other 107 pages he sent to Capitol Hill comprised the report of his council of economic advisers. The three-member council backed up Mr. Truman's plea for more power, but did not endorse any particular form of regulation.

Using the council's data, Mr. Truman pointed to strong inflationary factors he said are entering the picture now. He listed these as including multi-billion dollar spending for defense and foreign aid, "third-round" wage boosts and the probable wiping out of the federal surplus in the next year.

"The facts add up to a clear and disconcerting conclusion," the President said. "In spite of some favorable factors, we are in the very midst of gathering inflationary forces, which day by day are imposing additional hardships upon countless families . . .

"But thus far we have shown a blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path. Despite my repeated warnings and recommendations, we have not adopted adequate legislation for controlling inflation. . . .

Success Is Essential

"It is no less important to take action to forestall a business collapse than it is to use government measures to overcome a depression once it has arrived.

"Our success in this effort is essential for the reconstruction of a peaceful world."

The economic council, headed by Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, came out more strongly than ever before for emergency controls. The council was created under the employment act of 1946 to steer the country away from recurrent booms and busts.

Daily Markets

Stock Market

COMEBACK ONLY FAIR

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The stock market tried a late comeback with fair success today but closing prices were still down fractions to more than 2 points.

Turnover was around 1,400,000 shares.

Probably the most unsettling influence was the report that top strategy of the Republican leadership called for a modified credit control program.

Superior Oil of California, a high-priced issue, cracked around 23 points at one time but closed 15 lower. Skelly Oil plunged 9½ then finished with a loss of 7½.

Others ending down included U. S. Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Dow Chemical, Du Pont, International Paper, Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, Standard Oil (NJ), and Pacific Western Oil.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Cotton futures moved lower today under pressure of commission house liquidation and local selling. The decline was influenced partly by easiness in securities and sentiment that the special session of congress will adopt some measures to curb the inflationary trend. Offerings were absorbed through mill buying and short covering.

Continued favorable crop reports also contributed to the easiness in futures.

Futures closed 5 to 50 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

Grain Market

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, July 30. (AP)—Wheat No. 1 hard 2.31½-38½.
Oats No. 2 white 89¾-90¾.
Corn No. 2 yellow 2.25¾-27¾.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 3.40-45.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—Many grain contracts sank into new season low ground today. Losses were not very large.

Corn encountered most pressure. A private forecast of a crop of 3,500,000,000 bushels, a record and well above the last government estimate, discouraged buying.

At new seasonal lows were May wheat, December, May and July corn, and September and December oats.

Wheat closed ⅝-1¾ lower, September $2.39⅛-$2.39, corn was 1¼-2¾ lower, September $1.69⅞-⅞, oats were ⅛-⅞ lower, September 73¼-⅜.

Rainless Day

an hour—to 11 p. m., Eastern Standard time.

It was to no avail.

True, rain fell less than one mile from town along the Blacksville road, but that wasn't in Waynesburg — although a movement was started immediately to incorporate the rain-soaked sector in the town's limits.

Finally, Daily admitted it had not rained in Waynesburg on July 29, 1948, and announced he was ready to send a new hat to Charley McCarthy—as soon as he learned the radio dummy's head size.

And throughout the town, Waynesburgites prepared to pay off their own bets to the residents of other communities.

There was one consoling note. Before the midnight deadline, Daily auctioned off a hat lost on a rain bet last year by Bing Crosby. The Cheapeau was knocked down for $137, with the proceeds going to the town's swimming pool fund.

And among a group of die-hard Waynesburg residents there were rumblings that the whole situation was caused by the fact that this is leap year.

Except for that fact, they pointed out, the previous day would have been July 29 this year. It rained that day.

Air Power

have been with the air arm. His decorations include the Medal of Honor.

The Air Force announcement of Johnson's assignment to Europe followed the cautious pattern of previous announcements regarding the departure of bombers and fighters for Europe—he is going to take command of superfortresses "in England on a training mission."

But how long those bombers are to stay whether they are to be relieved by a similar number if they return or whether still more may go never has been stated. However, large quantities of maintenance equipment and ammunition have been dispatched to England.

The two wings now in England presently as basing on three Royal Air Force fields—Scampton, Waddington and Marham. It was from this East Anglia area that the 8th Air Force mounted its attacks against German targets.

A year ago American air combat forces present in the entire European area were tiny. By the spring of 1947 not a single bomber equipped for use as such, was in Europe. There were a few war-weary B-17s, stripped of guns and bomb racks and used for personnel carrying. The only armed aircraft was one group of 75 fighters, planes of World War II vintage, powered with conventional reciprocating engines.

Russian Expansion Indicated

Meanwhile, Russia gave every sign of hastening to modernize and vastly expand her air fleet. More and more jet fighters bearing the Red star appeared in air parades over Moscow. Bombers, with a marked resemblance to the American B-29s, were noted in growing numbers. New and large transports, capable of carrying airborne or infantry troops, were seen.

In the early summer of last year the Air Force sent a squadron of nine superfortresses to Europe on a training mission. The squadron flew to Germany, based at Giebelstadt, southeast of Frankfort, made a goodwill visit to England, and returned to the United States in about three weeks. But from then on the number of bombers visiting Europe has increased steadily. And the length of their visits has increased from weeks to months.

Recently, the Air Force took cognizance of the fact that its fighter planes in Europe are not only far outmatched numerically by the Russian force but outclassed in performance. It ordered a wing of F-80 jet fighters to transfer from the Panama Canal Zone to Germany. Then 16 jet fighters took off for Europe to explore the problems of ferrying fighter aircraft over the North Atlantic quickly, if urgent need should come.

Peace Talks Possible

Now the number of transports in Europe is being expanded to augment the air lift of supplies into surface - blockaded Berlin. About 105 twin-engined C-47s and 54 four-engined C-54s have been engaged in this air lift—and more are leaving for Europe next week.

The Air Force has sizeable stocks of B-29s and transports which it can pull out of storage or divert from other duties for service in Europe if needed.

German Crisis

a scrap of paper.

Events in Berlin have forced the U. S. to change its views.

There are two major western views on Russia's objectives.

First, that she wants to drive the west out of Berlin at all cost, although short of war if possible.

Secondly, that she merely wants to force the western powers into another conference and get them to abandon plans for a western Germany.

General Makes Speaking Tour

PARIS, July 30. (AP) — Gen. Charles De Gaulle is taking his plea for votes to the grass roots of France.

The tall, somber-faced war hero has been battling to regain control of the government for more than a year. He resigned as premier in 1946.

Now he's on the hustings in earnest. He made three speeches in Atlantic coastal villages last weekend. Tomorrow and Sunday he goes inland to Nancy, Mulhouse and Colmar.

His immediate objective: To win votes for his new political party—the rally of the French people (RPF)—in this fall's local canton elections. In last winter's municipal elections he pulled the RPF into first place, ahead of the Communists who finished second. About 40 percent of the nation's city councilmen now are RPF members.

Canton Elections Set

Cantons, where elections are tentatively scheduled for October, correspond to counties in the United States.

The RPF has only a sprinkling of representatives in the national assembly because the party was formed after the last general election. But De Gaulle's followers said he plans to gain control of key Cantons just as his party took over the city administrations in Paris, Marseille, Bordeaux and other key municipalities. And then, said a spokesman,

"The next step, the General believes, will be victory in general elections."

This would make De Gaulle premier. But general elections will not be held until 1952 unless two governments fail to win a vote of confidence before the national assembly.

Meat Prices

meat prices early this week, but said it probably was only temporary.

"The special session of Congress put the fear in the packers, and I'll bet anything that as soon as Congress goes home the prices will go up again," said Slaughter. One major packer is delivering to him now at prices 4½ cents under a week ago. Steaks were down to the 90 cent class now, against a top of $1.10 two weeks ago. At McAllen, ten miles away, they had reached a top of $1.30.

M. L. Knapp, manager of one of Abilene's largest supermarkets, said beef prices were up an average of seven cents per pound over 30 days ago and estimated the city's overall sales were down 15 to 20 per cent.

Hamburger is the best-selling item. T-bone and loin steaks are the slowest moving. "We'd make more money and the customer would be happier if prices would drop to the level of last fall, or 75 to 89 cents per pound for better cuts," said Knapp.

Resistance Is Urged

Many butchers recommended continued consumer resistance as the best way to force down prices.

A San Antonio butcher said resistance among his customers was weakening, but said frankly that "if the customer refuses to pay high prices, they've got to come down."

Houston's largest retailer said beefsteak was priced now at $1.09 per pound. A month ago it was 85 to 89 cents. The market foreman said customers were refusing to buy "out-of-reach products" but there "is no decline in prices and no sign of one."

With better cuts of beef ranging up to $1.19 per pound, numerous smaller stores in the Dallas area have stopped buying meat. The larger independent and chain markets have an abundance of good grade meats and a scarcity of buyers.

Prices were up sharply for the month everywhere.

arrangements had been made for Bowles.

Survivors had not arrived, the funeral home said. The father lives at Glasgow, Ky.

Mrs. Octa Borden of 1918 Ave. P said that someone had entered her apartment and taken a piggy bank from a front room into a dining room, and there broke it and removed about $20 or $30.

Cleo Eudy, of 1318 Ave. M, said $80 was taken when a billfold was stolen from that address.

Money Is Recovered

A report was entered in the case this morning, explaining that the money had been recovered. It was found in a dresser drawer, George Hall and Pete Hubbard, investigators said. A suspect will not be prosecuted by Miss Eudy, officials said they were informed.

County court officials said Lawrence Bunton, 21, a negro, was fined $25 and costs for aggravated assault on May Frances Anderson, 24, a negro woman.

County court officials said Walter M. Welch, 23, had been fined $100 and costs for aggravated assault, and that D. E. Bradshaw had paid a fine of $1 and costs on a check violation complaint.

Three men, two of them 18 and the other about 17, are wanted in Floydada on a warrant charging rape, the sheriff's office there informed local officers.

News Briefs

D. R. Young, of Ordway, Colo., father of Mrs. A. C. Blackstone, of Lubbock, fell off a wagon yesterday and broke both of his arms, according to information received here today. He was reported resting well in an Ordway hospital. The accident occurred near his home.

Capt. Vincel Larsen, commanding officer of the Salvation Army here who is being transferred to North Carolina, spoke briefly and a motion picture was shown by the City Recreation department at the luncheon of the American Business club at the Hilton hotel today noon. Dr. Doyce M. Clark was introduced as a new member.

The condition of Walter E. Suddarth, 72, of 2204 Twenty-sixth, who underwent minor surgery at West Texas hospital this morning, was reported as "good" by an attending nurse at the hospital early this afternoon.

The condition of Pat Wiman, jr., 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wiman of 3019 Twenty-ninth, who was admitted to Lubbock Memorial hospital Wednesday afternoon for treatment of a mild case of polio, was described as "definitely not serious" this morning by an attending physician. Young Wiman has suffered no paralysis of limbs or body, it was reported.

lege, the measurement up to 1 p. m. today was .4 inch. At the experiment station east of Lubbock, the measurement was .19 at 1:05 p. m. Slow rain was continuing in Lubbock early this afternoon. The weather station also reported slow rain. Lubbock Hubber officials said this afternoon that tonight's scheduled game with Abilene will be played unless a great deal more rain falls.

At the Central Fire station in Lubbock, the rain gauge indicated between .35 inch and .37 inch had fallen there.

Showers Are Reported

The Santa Fe dispatcher reported about 1 p. m. that Slaton had received slow rainfall since about the same time the Lubbock rainfall started, that Ropesville had received a shower, and Littlefield, Post and Abernathy had received no rain.

Weather reports received at the weather station from Plainview listed no rainfall.

Amarillo reported a "trace," Pampa reported .07 inch and Clarendon reported .05 inch from 6:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

The cool front which passed over the area, reaching the weather station about 8 a. m., had passed over the Rockies after coming from the Pacific Northwest.

More Showers Forecast

More afternoon and evening thundershowers in the area were forecast for today and Saturday.

Coastal residents sweltered today under their hottest weather of the year, the Associated Press reported.

Pampa, in the Panhandle, recorded a low of 67 degrees this morning while Galveston, in the south, had 81 degrees.

Mineral Wells Hottest

Meanwhile, the Associated Press report stated the coastal area prepared for another scorcher. Both Beaumont and Corpus Christi had their highest maximums of the year Thursday—Beaumont with 101 and Corpus Christi with 102. The hottest point in the state, however, was Mineral Wells, with 104.

Other high temperatures included 102 at Abilene, 101 at Pampa and Fort Worth and 100 at Amarillo and San Antonio.

Model Firm Probed By Hollywood Police

HOLLYWOOD, July 30 (INS)—A searching investigation of the operation of a Hollywood advertising model agency was launched today in the wake of the arrest of its owner, Pierre Martell, 21.

Martell, now at liberty under $2000 bond, was jailed last night after a 16-year-old model told police she spent the Fourth of July weekend at Catalina Island with him.

The girl and a second model, 15 years old, are under detention at juvenile hall.

Martell was booked on suspicion of having attacked the 16-year-old, but he denied any involvement with the girl. Police said he declared:

"The girl told me she was 19. I have done nothing to her. Other fellows have taken her to Las Vegas. Don't ask me more."

The model agency owner was nabbed last night during a raid on his studio near the Hollywood high school.

Arresting officers seized the photographs of 1500 girls—many of them posed in the nude, they said—and a card index file containing hundreds of names.

Killer Suspect Gunfire Target

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 30. (AP)—A 24-year-old man charged with murder in the slaying of the wife of a wealthy racing car owner was wounded by a shotgun blast last night a few hours after he was released from jail on $20,000 bond.

Acting Chief Deputy Sheriff Henry Bryant said the man, Pearl Lee Arden, was shot as he sat on the front porch of a home in a residential section.

Bryant said he was told that a car drove up in front of the house and that one of three occupants advanced to the porch and fired a shotgun at Arden.

A physician at General hospital said Arden, wounded in the hips and arms, was in fair condition.

Arden is charged with murder in the slaying July 18 of Mrs. Oscar T. Brabson, jr. District Attorney Hal Clements said Mrs. Brabson, the 29-year-old daughter of a former Knoxville newspaper columnist, died of a blow from a shovel wielded by Arden.

Clements said Brabson, a semi-invalid, had been knocked down in a fight with Arden and that Mrs. Brabson, an attractive brunette, was shielding his head in her arms when she was struck on the head. The fight between Brabson and Arden, the district attorney said, developed during an argument over which owned the speedier car.

Cemetery Creates Trouble For Vet

WELLS, Me., July 30. (AP)—A 250 year old cemetery threatens to be a new battleground for a world war two veteran from New York.

The cemetery, untended for 40 years, is part of a five acre site where William Byrnes is trying to build a tourist camp.

Members of the Abraham Lincoln Relief corps, a women's affiliate of the GAR, protested on the ground Revolutionary heroes and Indian fighters lie there.

Byrnes Makes Agreement

Byrnes agreed to clean up the cemetery and put a hedge around it.

First Selectman Archibald Wormwood said last night he thought that had settled the matter. But, no, the ladies want an iron fence.

With a hedge, Wormwood said, the cemetery still would be legally abandoned. But with a fence it would be "reactivated" and become town property again.

Albert W. Emmons, Kennebunk lawyer and member of an American Legion committee studying the dispute, said he hopes a compromise is possible.

Funeral Rites Set For J. A. Pipkin

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday at the Broadway Church of Christ for J. A. Pipkin, 75, who died at 6:30 p. m. Thursday in West Texas hospital shortly after suffering a heart attack. M. Norvel Young, pastor of the church, has been named to officiate, and interment will be in Tech Memorial Park under direction of Sanders Funeral home.

Pipkin came to Lubbock 26 years ago from Van Zandt county to become chief engineer at Texas Tech college, where he has been employed since the college opened. His home was at 2416 Twentieth.

Survivors include his wife, two sons, Jess M. Pipkin, Fort Worth, and Charley R. Pipkin, Redding, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Ethyl Woolverton, Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. Susie Gardner, Dallas, Mrs. Zora Beck, Carroll, and Mrs. Lulu Howard, Valley Mills, and five grandchildren.

Troop Aid In Strike Urged

(By The Associated Press)

DAYTON, O., July 30.—Mayor Louis Lohrey today asked Gov. Thomas J. Herbert to assign Ohio national guardsmen to the scene of the mass-picketed Univis Lens Co., plant after Police Chief Rudolph Wurstner reported the situation out of hand.

The request for troops came after police apparently had restored order at the plant where several hundred employes for the fifth consecutive day attempted to return to work.

Tear Gas Used

Police broke up street fighting between pickets and non-strikers by exploding tear gas bombs. Heavy police squadrons again forced a path through the picket line and by 7 a. m., CST, the company said 217 employes had entered the plant.

At least three pickets and another man who was not identified were taken to police station. No casualties were reported.

Pickets arrested included Herbert Hirschberg, 36, of Cleveland, who said he was director of organization for the United Electrical Workers (CIO) for Ohio and Kentucky.

Violence broke out again today when some 3,000 persons gathered to form picket lines in defiance of a court order forbidding mass picketing. The skirmishing was short-lived, but the situation remained tense after police broke up the street fighting.

Reinforcements of about a dozen deputy sheriffs were rushed to the scene. Fire department equipment also was called out. It was held in reserve around a corner from the plant, but fire department officers watched the scene from a nearby building. An ambulance also was on hand, but it was not used.

Fist fighting and pushing marked the street fighting.

In Columbus, a spokesman for Gov. Herbert said the governor had the request for troops under advisement, but no decision would be made today.

Conventions

in May, Vaughan, who supported Gov. Dewey for the nomination, was opposed by a faction headed by M. D. Temple, who supported Taft. Two separate conventions resulted with delegates being named to the Corpus Christi convention by both groups.

At Corpus Christi, the Taft forces gained control, only to lose out in the National Republican convention at Philadelphia.

With Dewey nominated, it appears that Dewey men will have control of the state organization, but R. B. Creager, national committeeman and long-time GOP leader from Brownsville, has declared his group will retain control of the committee.

Funeral Pending For Resident Of Idalou

Funeral services still had not been set early this afternoon for H. L. Norris, 75, of Idalou, who died suddenly Thursday afternoon after taking sick in his field and being rushed to West Texas hospital. He was pronounced dead on arrival and was taken to Rix Funeral home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris had lived at Idalou about 11 years. They came to Idalou from Big Spring, where Mr. Norris was a member of the Lee-Norris Immigration company.

Survivors are his wife; one brother, Tom Norris, of Eldorado, Ark.; four sisters, Mrs. C. H. Kinard, Eldorado, Ark., Mrs. Conway, Eldorado, Ark.; Mrs. Helen Wright, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Mary Etta Wilson, also of Phoenix; three sons, H. L. Norris, jr., of Lake Jackson, Tex., W. G. Neither the CCC nor the milling interests is buying actively. The CCC has a glut at Gulf ports, with plenty of wheat there to meet this year's foreign program.

Injunction Granted Against Oil Firms

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—The state today was granted a temporary injunction against 28 oil companies and individual producers to halt alleged salt water pollution of the Guadalupe and San Marcos rivers.

Judge Roy C. Archer, in 126th district court said today's judgment would be effective Aug. 14 when a formal judgment would be entered.

The injunction suit was brought by the state on June 24, alleging that the oil producers have allowed salt water to flow from their wells in the Luling and Salt Flat oil fields into various creeks and drains which empty into the two rivers.

Truman On Potomac Trip Before Speech

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—President Truman cruised leisurely on the Potomac river today aboard the White House yacht.

He rested, read and thought over the speech he will make tomorrow at the dedication of the new Idlewild international airport in New York.

Mr. Truman went aboard the U. S. S. Williamsburg last night with his naval aide, Capt. Robert L. Dennison.

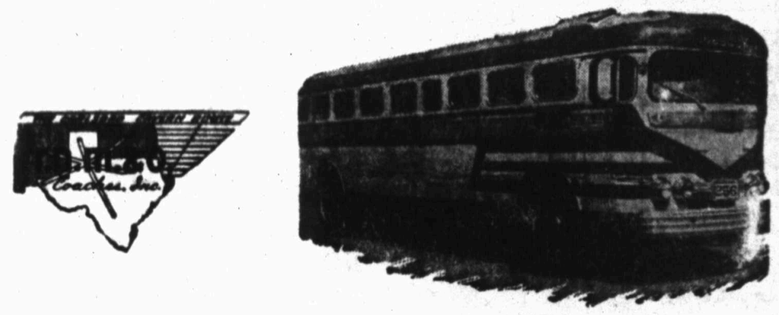

Response To Soviet Food Offer Is Small

BERLIN, July 30. (AP)—A Soviet offer to feed all Berlin drew little response from Germans in western sectors of the blockaded city today and the Russians loosed new attacks on the Anti-Communist city government.

Informants in Moscow, meanwhile, said the chances are good that a big four session to thresh out the Berlin crisis may take place in Paris in September, if prospective talks between envoys of the Western Allies and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov go off satisfactorily.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of County Commissioners, Lea County, New Mexico, at the office of the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners until 11 a.m., Mountain Standard Time, on the 16th day of August, 1948, for the general contract for the construction of the Lea County Community Hospital to be situated at Hobbs, New Mexico, at which time and place proposals will be opened and read. Any bid received after the date and time above-stated will be returned unopened.

On or about July 17, 1948, drawings and specifications for the construction of said Lea County Community Hospital will be available for distribution to general contractors from the office of Truman J. Mathews, A.I.A. Architect, Suite 3, Laughlin Building, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Applications for construction interested in bidding on this work not to exceed three sets of drawings together with a payment $50.00 for the three sets should be filed promptly with the Architect. The building material will be forwarded as soon as available, shipping charges collect. Additional sets of drawings and specifications will be ordered and will be charged for at the cost of reproduction, but all such sets so ordered are and remain the property of the Architect. Single sets of drawings and specifications may be ordered upon payment of $25.00.

After the bidding material is available for distribution, drawings and specifications may be seen and will be on file for the convenience of bidders at the following places, to-wit:

Office of the Architect, Truman J. Mathews A.I.A., Suite 3, Laughlin Building, Santa Fe, New Mexico.
Office of W. L. Periera, A.I.A. Architect, 7421 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, California.
Office of Davis and Foster, Registered Engineers, 1002 Mills Building, El Paso, Texas.
Office of the County Clerk, Lea County, Lovington, New Mexico.
Office of The Dodge Reports, Dallas, Texas.

No bid may be withdrawn after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids for at least 30 days.

The character and amount of security to be furnished by each bidder are stated in the above-mentioned plans and specifications.

Post Future

laundry, planing mill and lumber yard.

It was four years later, in 1912, that Post started construction on the cotton mills that even today rank as Post's largest industry. The Post estate no longer owns the mills. They employ 260 persons in turning out the well-known Garza brand sheets and pillow cases. Figures released to the chamber of commerce indicated that the mill normally consumes around 3,500 bales of cotton annually, producing about 26 miles of wide sheeting weekly.

Many of today's Post residents can remember how the city was built on a "mass production basis." Crews were employed to plant trees, build houses, sidewalks, buildings and the water system. Finally, when the railroad reached Post in 1909, families arrived by the trainload.

Many amusing happenings still live vividly. Dr. Templeton treasures a picture of the town's first barbership, in a tent, with its owner, Ben Williams standing in front of it.

It was to that barbershop that Collie Duran, then a small boy, took a rattlesnake which he had captured in a box-trap. He unloaded it on the floor of the barbershop, and customers flew out of the tent in all directions. Duran still lives in Post.

Post mentioned the "parklets" on the main street as having been landscaped and planted in Bermuda grass. In later years the water system was sold to a utilities company and care of the "parklets" was discontinued.

Recently the city approved a bond issue totaling $600,000 to re-purchase the water system and make improvements, and civic leaders plan eventually to care for the park area as Post once had it.

An example of Post's active, restless search for progress was his rain-making experiment, in which he was 40 years ahead of last year's dry-ice ventures.

Post had observed that heavy rains fall on battlefields, and connected it with heavy use of explosives.

He ordered carloads of dynamite, and built dug-outs along the rim of the Caprock, storing the vast quantities of explosives in "igloos." Some of these are still in existence.

Then, over a period of days, he successively sent up kites along the rim of the Caprock, heavily loaded with dynamite charges which were exploded simultaneously. The experiment was unsuccessful, and at one time he filed a court action against a large powder company, charging that the explosives he had purchased were of inferior quality.

Post died in California in 1914. The Post Estate still maintains an office in Post. It is managed by J. R. Durrett.

Mr. Post established the first Boy Scout troop of the South Plains in Post in 1913. Rex Everett of Post was a charter member and he recalls, "Mr. Post called us together, and as each boy took the Scout oath, he handed him 25 cents." Marshall Mason of Post was the first scoutmaster.

Thus it was fitting that the Post estate contributed 400 acres of land, now known as Camp Post, to the South Plains Boy Scout council. The first camp was held there in 1926.

After looking over sites for a proposed camp in various parts of West Texas, council officials in 1925 received a call from Mason suggesting the old Double U ranch headquarters as a camp site. There followed a conference with S. B. Bardwell, manager of the Double U interests of the Post estate. Bardwell corresponded with the heirs, Mrs. Leila Y. Post Montgomery and Mrs. Marjory Post Hutton.

Later Bardwell called a conference of the scout executives and told them that Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Hutton would be very happy to present the memorial to the scouts. He added:

"There is one thing. In this outline, you have asked for 300 acres, but you have not included a fine canyon here. With it, there would be 400 acres. Is there any objection to including it?" South Plains scout leaders have said that a gift was never more graciously bestowed.

Camp Post now plans many improvements, including a swimming pool.

Two Draw lake, formerly a favored South Plains fishing, swimming and picnicking spot, has been filed up with silt for a number of years. Recently Post leaders have made plans to raise funds to reclaim the lake, either on its existing site or nearby, but the project is still indefinite.

One of Post's most notable civic activities is the annual Post Stampede and Rodeo, which is held in the third week of May every year. To this has been added the Junior Rodeo, in which all performances as well as direction are by youngsters. The Junior Rodeo is set for August 12 and 13 this year.

Garza county's 1948 tax valuation will be $8,377,557, a sharp increase over the 1947 valuation of $6,878,427, said Cal Tipton, deputy tax collector. Approximately 1,250 automobiles and 350 trucks and farm vehicles are registered in the county. Bank deposits total $3,400,000.

Mrs. Fritz Greenfield of the Post office of Southwestern Associated Telephone company said approximately 700 telephones serve the city, with 250 on the waiting list.

Boyd said the city has 876 water meters in service now.

Post is served by a volunteer fire department of 20 members.

Clean blotting paper and a hot iron can be used to remove soiled spots from wallpaper.

New Step In Atomic Energy Attack On Cancer Revealed

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BROOKHAVEN, N. Y., July 30 —A new step in the atomic energy attack on cancer was made public today at the Brookhaven National laboratory of the Atomic Energy commission.

A new point during growth has been discovered where gamma rays and x-rays kill tissue cells. The discovery may answer a puzzle of doctors, who have cured many cancers with these rays, but failed with many more, because for some mysterious reasons many cancers resist the rays.

Funds Aided Work

The Brookhaven work was aided from the American Cancer society and the Donner foundation, Philadelphia. The Work is by Dr. Arnold H. Sparrow and associates, in the Brookhaven biological laboratory, directed by Dr. F. H. Nims.

It was known that in cancer the atomic rays destroy tissue cells during the period when single cells are dividing to form two cells each. This division is how cancers grow. It is also how healthy cells grow, in men, animals and plants.

The atomic studies were made on trillium, the white flower common in spring in northern woods. These plants were given doses of X-rays, about equal to the mildest rays given human beings.

Cell division lasts for several days. In the flowers the destructive effects of the X-rays were not spread over the whole process, but lumped in one brief phase of the division. In that period the rays caused a bomb-like explosion in the thread-shaped bodies, called chromosomes, which govern heredity. The fragments of this short period were 50 to 100 more numerous than at any other time.

This discovery may aid radiologists to look for the Achilles heel in cancer cells. It may enable them to understand why the heel seem to be missing in so many cancers.

It may be also possible to find a chemical compound that will produce this vulnerable heel in more cancers, because the sensitivity appears due to a chemical difference.

If such chemicals can be found, they also may provide new controls for making heredity changes to improve food crops and food animals.

Parents Mistreat 5-Year-Old Child

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30 (U.P.) —At intervals during the last 18 months Sharon Stewart, 5, was imprisoned in a dark closet while her brother and sister played and picnicked at the beach.

Both parents of the children today are under court punishment for child abuse and neglect.

A superior court jury yesterday convicted the father, Robert Stewart, 28, a suspended fireman. He will have a probation hearing before sentencing. His wife, Esther, who had pleaded guilty, is serving two years in jail.

Neighbors and police, who rescued Sharon from the closet June 22, testified she was dressed in filthy tatters and had been punished regularly. There was no evidence, Judy, 3, and Robert, 6, ever had been mistreated. The three children are in a children's home.

Winners In "Splash Day" Events Listed

The first special event to be planned around the wading pools in city park playgrounds was the "Splash Day" event which was held Thursday evening at Pioneer park, with over 60 boys and girls participating.

Mrs. Ola Faye Hendrickson, playground director at Pioneer, was in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Polly Cavendor, director at Wagner park, and Mrs. Marvin Hilburn, jr., Mrs. Dutch Wiginton, and Mrs. Vernon Thompson, Junior Welfare League members, who registered the contestants and served as judges of the events.

Winners in the various events are as follows:

Best "Mermaid" for ages 1 through 4: First place, Leslie Jane Roberts; second, Minyon Jones; and third, Jane Vrooman.

Best "merman" for ages 1 through 4: First, Larry Bass; second, Larry Don King; and third, Larry Williams.

Would-Be Robbers Seized In London

LONDON, July 30. (INS)—London bobbies seized nine gangsters in a fierce battle today when they attempted to steal $8,000,000 worth of gold ingots stored at a London airport.

The gangsters — armed with crowbars and bottles—stood off a squad of 40 policemen for ten minutes before they were subdued.

Some of the detectives were badly wounded. One of the gangsters was hospitalized, the others appeared in police court heavily bandaged.

The would-be robbers drove up to the warehouse in a dilapidated dairy van. Police, who had already been tipped off, closed in on them before they could enter the building.

BOND ISSUE VOTED

MARSHALL, July 30 (AP)—An $800,000 bond issue to complete the Caddo lake water supply and distribution system was voted here yesterday by a majority of more than two-to-one. A zoning proposal was also adopted.

States' Rights Fight Expected At Demo Meets

(By The Associated Press)

Wright Morrow, Texas national Democratic committeeman, says he favors a referendum by Texas voters on the party's national ticket of Truman and Barkley.

In that attitude Morrow differs from Robert W. Calvert, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, and Gov. Beauford Jester.

Calvert and Jester are against such a referendum, which has been suggested for the party's second Democratic primary Aug. 28 by the faction organized as "State's Rights Democrats."

Fight Is Expected

The attitudes of the three men—expressed by Morrow and Calvert in statements yesterday and by Jester earlier in the week—pointed up a fight to be waged in Saturday's county convention and in the party's state convention at Fort Worth Sept 14.

Morrow's statement said he did not hold with the idea a referendum on the question would be "illegal or extra-legal" or "faithless" to the Democratic party.

The question, said Morrow, is "do the Democrats of Texas still desire the electors they named at the (May 25) Brownwood convention to cast their votes for the nominees named by the national Democratic party at its Philadelphia convention or do they prefer them to cast their votes for some person or persons who profess publicly and believe in the principles of the Democratic party as announced in the resolutions of the Brownwood convention."

Jester Declines Aid

Representatives of the State's Rights faction conferred with Jester in Austin earlier this week, asking his aid in obtaining a referendum for the August runoff. Jester declined his aid.

That referendum, as proposed by the State's Rights Democrats would determine whether Texas Democrats want the Truman-Barkley ticket or Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina as candidate for President and Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi for vice president.

Thurmond and Wright were named at a Birmingham, Ala., meeting of southern Democrats, called after Truman was nominated at Philadelphia.

The States Rights Democrats plan to ask the Democratic state committee when it meets in Austin Aug. 9 to order a test vote in the runoff primary.

A Futile Gesture

Calvert said such a referendum would be a "futile gesture." He called the plan one "without legal or moral basis."

The county conventions Saturday name delegates to the state convention. Morrow recalled a 1944 supreme court decision which he

Pledge Of 35 Years Ago Now Fulfilled

YPSILANTI, Mich., July 30. (AP)—A pledge John Atsalas made 35 years ago in his native Greece was fulfilled in death today.

The Ypsilanti restaurant owner was nearly killed when, as a youth, he slipped and fell off a narrow mountain road leading to Panacin Elsna monastery between the Greek towns of Palehorion and Leonidon.

Atsalas recovered from the fall and came to this country a few years later, prospering in his restaurant busines. He died June 24.

His will, filed for probate yesterday, left $5,000 of his $50,000 estate to the monastery for rebuilding of the road so that his countrymen can walk it in safety.

Local Boy Is To Get Badge

Oscar Killian, jr., 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Killian of 2123 Twenty-second, will receive the Eagle Scout badge, scouting's highest award, when the monthly court of honor is reeled off in 99th district courtroom beginning at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Young Killian, who has 26 merit badges to his credit, rose from the rank of Tenderfoot scout to Eagle scout in 18 months, the shortest possible time in which a scout is eligible to achieve that rank, and is one of the youngest Lubbock scouts ever to achieve the Eagle rank. He is a member of Troop 9.

Others To Get Awards

Over 90 other Lubbock scouts will receive recognition Friday night for advancements since the June court of honor. Ralph Brock, advancement chairman, will preside at tomorrow's session.

Other awards to be presented include:

Troop 2, Methodist church, Horp Bible class, W. L. Sasser, scoutmaster. First Class, Jerry Collins. Second Class, Don Wilson. Merit Badges, Jerry Collins, Gardening, safety; Garnet Reeves, automobiling, botany, zoology; Richard Allen, automobiling, botany, zoology, athletics, reptile study; Billy Gordon, pioneering, personal health.

Troop 3, First Baptist church, Sam A. Henry, jr., scoutmaster. First Class, Jimmy Powers, Glen Tucker, Kenneth Thomas, Bill Ingram and John Harvey Austin. Second Class, Bobby Key, Henry Stapleton, Billy Foster and Troy Bob Harber. Merit Badges, Joe Lon Teal, angling, Bruce McCarty, textiles; John Harvey Austin, fingerprinting; Henry Stapleton, home repairs; Kenneth Thomas, fingerprinting; Dean White, first aid, camping, public health; Bill McMillian, jr., first aid, camping, life saving, civics; Joe Boyd, civics, pioneering, foundry, practice, bird study; Wayne Walker, hiking, automobile; Gordon Gibson, painting; Keith White, personal health, camping; Carl Hart, textiles, hiking, forestry, conservation; Buren Malone, cooking.

Troop 5, First Christian church, W. A. Hood, scoutmaster. Second Class, Jimmy Watson, Jerry Stevens, Stewart Hester. Merit Badges, Tommy Stevens, public health, personal health; textiles, fingerprinting; Larry Byrd, textiles, Don Elliott, art; John Norcross, bird study; Bill Wal-

NICE PLACE FOR CRASH—Two Galveston men were much surprised when their light plane ran out of gas over San Antonio. They glided down, sheared off the top of a tree and came to rest among the tombstones in Mission Burial Park. The two men escaped injuries.

Four 4-H Club Livestock Judging Teams Of Northwest Texas Chosen For State Contest

Four livestock judging teams from 4-H clubs in the Panhandle-Plains and Wichita-Vernon areas were chosen Thursday afternoon at the Texas Technological college judging pavilion to represent extension districts 1, 2, and 3 in the state livestock judging contest Aug. 16 at Texas A. and M. college.

Eleven four-man teams entered in the elimination contest: six from district 2, Lubbock; four from district 3, Wichita-Vernon; and one team from District 1, Amarillo. One team each was chosen to represent districts 1 and 2, and two teams were chosen to represent district 3.

Judging System Given

Two classes each of horses, beef cattle, sheep and hogs were arranged in groups of four, and lettered A, B, C, and D. Each member of all teams examined the separate classings and placed each animal in chronological order according to universally accepted score cards, at the same time taking notes and formulating in their minds reasons for placing A over B or B over A, whichever the case demanded. When all contestants had placed the animals in the order they thought correct, they appeared individually before a group of judges, who scored each boy according to the correctness of his placings and his ability to give a convincing set of oral reasons. On this basis the four-man teams were picked as the best qualified to represent the areas in the state contest Aug. 16.

High-Point Men Named

In addition to winning teams, ten high-point men were chosen from the contest; irrespective of teams. They are: Max Pearson, of Ochiltree county, first; Myron McCarter, of Ochiltree county, second; C. W. Perser, of Lubbock county, third; Kenneth Ackers, of Castro county, fourth: Melvin Bradley, of Swisher county, Bob Pohlman, of Wichita county, and Gary Conley, of Ochiltree county, tie for fifth; Jack Harris, Hale county, eighth; Walt Rogers, Lubbock county ninth; and John Bridges, of Castro county, tenth.

Members of the winning team from district 1, all from Ochiltree county, are: Max Pearson, Dickie Hall, Gary Conley, Cecil Regier and Myron McCartor. Hood Wells, assistant county agent of Ochiltree county is their coach.

The team picked from district 2 consists of: C. W. Perser, Wayne Hackney, Robert Gentry, and Walt Rogers, all of Lubbock county. Assistant County Agent of Lubbock county Lee Roy Colgan coached the team.

Two teams were picked from district 3, one which was coached by William C. Pallmeyer, assistant county agent of Hall county, and one from Wichita county, coached by L. C. Herron, assistant county agent in that county. Pall-

Aid Of County Will Be Asked

The city commission unanimously approved at a special meeting Thursday afternoon an appropriation covering half the cost for a camp where itinerant Mexican cotton pickers can rest and make contact with farmers next fall.

A matching appropriation from the county commissioners' court now is needed to insure the project.

Members of a special chamber of commerce committee who presented the matter to the city commission said they plan to make a similar request of the county board at its next meeting. The committeemen were state Rep. Preston Smith, Hop Halsey, W. C. Wood and George Bond, of the chamber of commerce staff.

In addition to approving $3,250 for the project, conditional upon the county commission providing an equal sum, the city commission also agreed to provide the site for the camp. While the definite location has not been chosen, it will be adjacent to areas of the city inhabited largely by Spanish-speaking residents.

Spokesmen for the committee emphasized that the availability of cotton pickers to farmers in Lubbock and adjoining counties may depend in large measure upon the provision of the facility. Several other towns have provided such conveniences.

If Lubbock should fail to do the same, Wood cautioned, it must be expected that many itinerant pickers will avoid this city and go to a place where they will be more comfortable.

Operation Plans Outlined

The place planned here will not be elaborate, city commissioners were told. The estimated cost is approximately $6,500. It will consist primarily of an unwalled concrete building about 200 feet long and 15 feet wide. It will be divided into compartments equipped with hotplates for cooking and running water. Shower baths and sanitary toilets will be convenient. Continuous occupancy by any group or family will be limited to 48 hours. It will be free of charge for them. A nearby park will provide recreational facilities for children.

The project, according to the plan, will be administered by the City-County Welfare association. The building will include a small apartment to be occupied, rent free by a Spanish speaking couple who will be employed as caretakers.

As pointed out by Smith and Halsey, one of the great needs of the thousands of Mexican cotton pickers who visit and trade in Lubbock each autumn has been the lack of a place where they might rest, gossip and deal wth

Israel Forces Demand New Area In Palestine After Victories

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

TEL AVIV, Israel, July 30.—Israel demanded today new territories in Palestine—perhaps including Jerusalem—as a result of Jewis victories over Arab armies.

Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok served notice of the Jewish demands yesterday in an address before the Israeli state council. He said:

"The Arabs are responsible that the boundaries fixed by the United Nations no longer are practical and we must insist on changing them by adding territories and not by diminishing them."

Shertok said Israel plans immediate steps to place Jerusalem under Jewish sovereignty. Israel, he added, has rejected Count Folke Bernadotte's plan to demilitarize the Holy City because it provided for eventual Arab rule.

Indemnities To Be Asked

Earlier, a cabinet source said the Israeli government has told the U. N. mediator that it will discuss the demilitarization plan further if he publicly renounces his original plan to put the city under Arab rule.

Shertok also told the 37-member council taht:

1. Israeli authorities will refuse to permit the return of any of the 300,000 Arab refugees to their Palestinian homes until their status can be considered as part of a minority question, including the status of Jews in Arab states.

2. Israel will demand "heavy indemnities" from the Arabs in peace negotiations for what he called "hundreds of millions of dollars lost by direct war expenses."

He reiterated previous appeals to the Arabs to negotiate directly Jewish-Arab differences as "copartners of equal rights and sovereignty."

U. N. Plan Claimed Invalid

"We are stretching the hands of peace to the Arab peoples," Shertok said, "not as victors but as a people interested in peace although the existence of the Israel state is not dependent any more on peace alone."

The U. N. partition plan, bitterly opposed by the Arab states, divided Palestine into two separate states, one Jewish and one Arab. Jewish authorities accepted the plan.

Shertok said Jewish acceptance of the partition plan provision for internationalization of Jerusalem is now invalid because:

1. "War was waged against Jerusalem by British arms, money and officers."

2. "The Christian world did not protect Jerusalem from destruction."

3. "Most of Jerusalem and its approaches were conquered by Jewish arms."

Further fighting ruptured the current Palestine truce yesterday. The Israeli army reported that "Egyptian attacks assumed the character of a general attack on Israeli positions" in southern Palestine. Spokesman said the Jewish army was taking "appropriate action."

Galveston Man Is Fined On Birthday

GALVESTON, July 30. (AP) — Jack Lundy had a birthday today.

He also had the following charges filed against him in corporation court:

(1) Blocking a sidewalk.

(2) Running through a red light.

(3) Failure to stop at cross streets, three counts.

(4) Speeding and turning corners at more than 10 miles an hour, three counts.

(5) Running his car without lights.

Judge Edward A. Jahn fined the man $148.35.

Said Lundy: "That was an expensive birthday present."

Opposing Arguments Given On Poll Tax Issue In Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 30.—This is an ABC on the poll tax argument.

The argument revolves around negroes, states' rights, the U. S. constitution, and free elections.

Seven Southern states have the tax: Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. And up in New England, New Hampshire requires it too.

In those state would-be voters have to pay a poll tax—ranging from $1 to several dollars—before they can vote.

Bills to outlaw the tax have been passed repeatedly in the House, where there's a limit on debate and Southerners can't talk endlessly to block the will of the majority.

For example: The House passed an anti- poll tax bill in 1942, 1943, 1945 and again in July, 1947.

But those House-pased bills have never been permitted to reach the voting stage in the Senate. There's no limit on debate there. And Southern senators have blocked the bills by filibustering—talking endlessly.

Southerners Don't Want Tax

The Southern states have had a poll tax for years. And for years Southern senators have fought any attempt to abolish it by act of Congress.

Right now 21 Southern Democratic senators, headed by Senator Russell of Georgia, are lined up to filibuster and prevent action on the anti-poll tax bill passed by the House in 1947.

Yet, Senator Russell says only one of the 21 Southern senators really favors having a poll tax at all. Why, then, would they want to prevent Congress from outlawing the tax,

The Southern position goes like this—

States have the right to pass laws governing their own elections. The poll tax is one of those state-approved laws.

Any action by Congress to outlaw the tax approved by the states would be a violation of states' rights guaranteed them under the constitution.

Therefore, an anti-poll tax law passed by Congress would be unconstitutional.

Federal Election Different

In time, the seven Southern states probably will abolish their poll tax laws. But that's up to them.

Further, money obtained from poll tax payments, although not a lot, helps pay for state expenses, like supporting schools.

If Congress can tell the states what to do on poll taxes, then the federal government can order the states around on other things.

All this so far covers the chief Southern arguments against an anti-poll tax law.

Here are some of the arguments of those who want Congress to wipe out the tax instead of waiting to see whether the states will do it in their own good time—

States can set up their own laws regulating city and state elections. But they have no right to charge a poll tax in a federal election when a president, vice president and members of congress are chosen.

Why?

Because members of Congress vote on laws affecting the whole country. So the majority in Congress, where Southerners are in a minority, have a right to wipe out any law interfering with voting in a federal election.

For that reason, an anti-poll tax law would be entirely constitutional since it would apply only to federal elections and not to city or state elections.

Low Income Argued

But does a poll tax interfere in a federal election? Its enemies say it does. They argue:

By comparison with the rest of the country, wages and income in the South are low. For that reason paying even a small poll tax is a hardship on poor whites and the poorly paid negroes. It actually prevents their voting because they can't afford the tax.

They say up to 10,000,000 poor whites and negroes are discouraged and prevented from voting by the tax.

(Southerners protest that this claim is wrong, that the poll tax is low and can be afforded by practically everyone.)

But the enemies of the tax argue that its chief purpose—when all talk of the constitution and states' rights is swept aside—is to keep negroes, who are notoriously poor in the South, from voting.

They say further: getting rid of the poll tax won't suddenly mean a lot of negroes can vote. Getting rid of the tax is just the first step toward letting negroes get closer to voting.

(Some thousands of negroes vote in the South now but they're only a handful compared with all the negroes there.)

Even if the tax were wiped out tomorrow, its enemies say, Southern whites still would block the negroes from voting in large numbers by various means. For example: making them take literacy tests, like interpreting the constitution. These tests would be administered by white men who'd flunk them.

DYNAMITE KILLS TWO

MEREDOSIA, Ill., July 30 (INS)—Two men were killed and three others were injured critically when dynamite in a pickup truck exploded last night on a highway about three miles south of Meredosia. Killed were V. V. Perry, 35, and Russell Owen, 32, tenant farmers on the property of Donald Henderson, near Meredosia.

No Oil, Gas Signs In Andrews Wildcat

Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 Stevenson, wildcat in the Shafter Lake area of North-Central Andrews County, 10 miles north and west of the town of Andrews, and 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 13, block A-36, psl survey, ran a one and one half hour drillstem test in the Devonian at 10,440-490 feet.

Recovery was the 2,970-foot water blanket, and 5,640 feet of sulphur water. There were no signs of oil or gas.

This exploration entered the Devonian at 10,325 feet, with an elevation of 3,154 feet. That zone has not logged any shows of petroleum.

It is low, geologically, to the Devonian producers in the Shafter lake field. The prospector is taking a Schlumberger survey.

The Texas Company, Humble Oil & Refining Company, and Ralph Lowe No. 1 Jenkins, Southwest Gaines County deep prospector, 662 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 4, block A-25, psl survey, was bottomed at 11,705 feet in granite material, and was waiting for orders.

It drilled through the Ellenburger without finding any signs of petroleum. There was a small show of oil in the Devonian, and there is a possibility that a string of casing will be run to allow testing that section. No official information on that possibility was available at the time this report was prepared.

GOP And Demos Talk Big But Don't Mean It, Wallace Says

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says the Democrats and Republicans "talk big" about housing, poll taxes, lynch law and inflation "but they don't mean it."

The Progressive party presidential nominee made the statement last night as he was given radio time on NBC at his request to reply to President Truman's message to Congress on Tuesday.

Wallace said the President sought to "hoodwink millions of Americans" in calling a special session of the "talk big-do little Congress."

"The Republicans talk big about ending the poll tax and lynch law, but they don't mean it," Wallace said in his network addres.

Democrats Talk Big

"The Democrats talk big about ending inflation and building houses. They don't mean it either.

"It is all shadow-boxing. They have not landed a single solid blow. Only the progressive party packs a real wallop."

Wallace said Mr. Truman called the extraordinary session "in the mistaken belief that he could make congress the scrapegoat for his own inadequate and often dangerous leadership."

Wallace said "the fundamental fact for every wage-earner, farmer, housewife and independent businessman to recognize is that the Republicans and Democrats both agree on the basic policies which cause inflation. They agree on the bi-partisan policy of the cold war — on the program for militarizing our economy."

Government Employs Millions

"Today, the government with its war policy directly and indirectly gives employment to more than five million men," Wallace continued. "If those five million Americans were working for peace instead of war, prices would be going down right now.

"But that would mean that both the Republicans and Democrats would have to forego the luxury of using the Red menace as their chief political asset."

Michigan Youths Admit Burglaries

Admissions that they, or some of them, when acting together had committed 13 burglaries and stolen five automobiles here and there between Michigan and Lubbock in the last yea. or so were made to federal authorities here Thursday by two of three Mt. Clemens, Mich., youths.

Bond of $2,500 each was set by Mrs. Olive Fluke, U. S. commissioner for the three: Jim Milton Schultz, Allen Oliver Pringle and George Ray Hayes. Each waived hearing. They said they did not want an attorney and, despite their being told no plea was being asked, volunteered statements they were guilty.

All youths at first said they were 18, but Schultz and Hayes later told Curtis L. Perryman, resident FBI agent to whom signed statements were given, that they were 16, or juveniles.

The youths, arrested here this week by police whe.. sleeping in an out of state automobile, were charged on Perryman's oath with transporting the car, a 1946 light coach, in interstate commerce, from Mt. Clemens to Lubbock, knowing the car was stolen.

Pringle and Hayes said nine of the burglaries were at Mt. Clemens, four between there and Lubbock, including one at Hale Center. They broke into the back of a store there, but said they saw a bed with "something on it, and figured maybe there was a night-watchman there." They didn't take anything.

Two other federal prisoners, under Dyer act charge in Cheyenne, Wyo., will be removed to the federal district of Wyoming for trial, Mrs. Fluke said. They are Reuben Jacob Fair, 18, of Sudan and Farrell Turbeville, 18, of Citra, Fla. They, confessed deserters from the Army, are charged with driving a stolen 1948 light sedan from Cheyenne to Morton.

Schultz, Pringle and Hayes probably will be tried here.

Rites At Ralls For Mrs. Herring, 77

RALLS, July 30. (Special)—Last rites will be read at 4 p. m. today at the Ralls Methodist church for Mrs. Lydia Herring, 77, a resident of Crosby county 18 years. Interment will be in Ralls cemetery, with Marr Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Herring died Thursday afternoon at her home in Fairview community after a weeks illness following a stroke. She had moved to Crosby county from Abilene.

Survivors include two sons, Guy Herring, Ralls, and Roy Herring, Abilene; two daughters, Mrs. A. F. Young, Hawley, and Miss Mattie Herring, Ralls; 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Joe Lindsey, Joe E. McDuff, B. C. Dyess, Allen Mize, Frank Sellers, and Hubert Phillips.

Levelland School Contracts Awarded

LEVELLAND, July 30. (Spl).—At a special meeting of the Levelland school board here Thursday, D. D. Humphries Construction company of Lubbock was awarded the general contract for the construction of the proposed $650,000 high school building here.

The Humphries bid was $448,757, according to an announcement made by O. W. Marcom, superintendent of schools. Seven other contractors also submitted bids for the general contract.

Mechanical contracts also were let at today's meeting. Electrical contract was let to Harmon Electric company of Dallas, and plumbing and heating contracts went to Bell Plumbing company of Lubbock.

C. E. Birdwell, president of the local school board, presided at the opening of the bids.

Wyatt C. Hedrick, Fort Worth architect, did the plans for the proposed structure. Construction is to get underway soon.

W. N. Drury Rites Will Be Conducted

Last rites for W. N. Drury, 31, stepson of Mrs. Inez Drury of Lubbock, were to be read at 2:30 p. m. today at Plains Funeral home chapel, with interment scheduled in Lubbock cemetery. Drury died in a veterans hospital in Phoenix, Ariz., early Sunday morning from acute generalized peritonitis.

He is survived by his wife, and a daughter, Norma Jean Drury, both of Glendale, Ariz.; three brothers, Vernon William Drury of Lubbock, James C. Drury, stationed with the U. S. Navy at Norfolk, Va., and Hershel M. Drury, stationed with the U. S. Army in Florida, 5 half brothers and 2 half sisters.

Graveside Rites For Brown Infant Today

Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church, will read graveside rites at 2 p. m. today at Tech Memorial Park cemetery for Mary M. Brown, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brown of 2811 Twenty-eighth, who died at 8:30 p. m. Thursday in Lubbock Memorial hospital.

The infant is survived by her parents, a sister, Stephany, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Steele, San Angelo.

Rix Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Young Brothers In Court After Beating Fatal To Their Sister

MOORHEAD, Minn., July 30. (AP) — Two boys, aged nine and 11, will face juvenile court here Thursday for the fatal beating of their two-year-old sister.

G. L. Dosland, Clay county attorney, said the boys—each blaming the other—admitted yesterday that they beat their sister, Joyce, with a hoe handle because "she wouldn't stop crying." An autopsy showed she died of severe internal injuries, and Dosland said the boys will be charged with delinquency.

The boys, Joyce and the nine other children of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Halvorson were left alone in their one-room home Tuesday, the night the beating took place. Dosland said the Halvorsons were attending a carnival at the time, and he added that further investigation might lead to filing a charge of neglect against the parents.

Survivor Of Crash Off Macao Tells Of Plot To Seize Plane

MACAO, July 30 (AP)—Police commissioner Luis A. M. Paletti said today the sole survivor of the July 16 flying boat crash off Macao that killed 25 persons confessed he was a member of a pirate band aboard to seize the plane.

Paletti quoted the survivor, Wong Fu, as saying his three pirate companions fired 18 shots into American Pilot Dale Cramer and Co-Pilot K. S. McDuff when they put up a fight shortly after the Catalina took off for Hong Kong.

Friend Makes Visit

Wong said two friends, Chiu Tok, a former Catalina flier from Manila, and Chiu Yat Yeng, visited him and asked if he was interested in "some work."

"I was in such bad financial condition I accepted," Wong was quoted by the police official.

Paletti said Wong described several trips to get the lay of the lang. Peng Tong on the Pearl river, some 35 miles from Macao, was chosen as the spot to force the pilot to land.

Paletti said the four pirates sold their rice fields for $3,000 Macao currency to finance the plot.

They obtained pistols and westernized clothing.

After boarding the plane Wong, Paletti said, took a position near the rear of the plane and the three others went forward near the pilot's compartment.

"Chiu Tok demanded that the pilot turn over the controls," Paletti quoted the statement, and one European tried to interfere."

The three pirates, the statemen: continued, began firing when Co-Pilot McDuff struck at them with an iron bar.

The pilot and co-pilot slumped over the controls and the plane crashed out of control killing all but Wong, who was thrown clear and rescued.

prospective employers. About all they could do has been to loaf or wander around the streets.

The result has been a growing resentment among many of them which might cost Lubbock many thousands of dollars of their business, make pickers unavailable when needed and the creation of a sanitation hazard for the community.

Application Referred

Members of the committee agreed that these objections will be corrected by the camp which will be assured by a matching appropriation from the county commission.

Other business transacted at the meeting was routine.

The commision referred back to the city board of adjustment for reconsideration the application of H. L. Stovall for permission to enlarge his grocery store at Fifteenth and Avenue W. The board refused the application previously. Stovall then asked the city planning commission to change the zoning of that area so as to permit him to expand. The planning group refused that request.

City hall observers saw a possibility of fireworks when, and if, word is delivered to the adjustment board — as City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr., was directed to do—as to how "we (the city commission) feel about the Stovall application." Commissioners E. K. Hufstedler and Clarence Whiteside were outspokenly of the opinion it should be granted.

City Drops From Suit

The city commission also decided not to continue further as a litigant in a suit by Alton J. Ammons and other property owners in South Lubbock to forbid the Fort Worth and Denver railway from laying a switch track along Avenue L from Thirtieth to Thirty-fourth street.

The property owners won the suit in district court. The railroad has appealed to the court of civil appeals at Amarillo. The city appeared as an intervenor in the district court trial at the request of the planning commission, which contended the railroad had no right to lay the switch in the residence-apartment house zone designated for that portion of the city. It is speculative as to how the planning commission may feel about the city dropping out of this court fight.

The commission took under consideration for study an ordinance which would forbid construction of any electrically charged fences.

Parking meters were ordered installed between Thirteenth and Fourteenth street on the east side of Avenue H.

The commission voted an emphatic "no" to the request of the U. S. army engineering corps that the city donate the more than 1,500 acres comprising Lubbock Army Air field to the government.

Opening of bids on six blocks of paving in the vicinity of Thirty-fourth street and Avenue U was postponed until the regular meeting Aug. 12. Bids on 65 blocks of paving are scheduled for opening then. Members of the commission believed it would be to the best interest of the city to open all at the same time.

An inquiry as to extending the city limits about three-quarters of a mile southward between Avenues A and H to Forty-second street brought the suggestion that petitions should be circulated among the residents there. The petitions should set out clearly, members of the commission said, that the commission can make no commitments as to when water, sewage and other utilities can be provided if the area is taken into the city.

Present at the meeting were Mayor W. H. Rodgers and Commissioners W. B. Price, Hufstedler and Whiteside. Commissioner John Spikes was out of the city.

States' Rights

said held the September convention had a right to substitute nominees for electors.

Calvert asserted: "Those who do not wish to vote for Truman and Barkley for President and vice-president of the United States are not without their remedy.

"They can vote the Republican ticket if they wish.

"If they do not wish to vote Republican ticket, they can form a political party of their own.

"After forming their party, they can place the names of Thurmond and Wright on the ballot."

Calvert argued that it would be impractical to try to hold a popularity contest between Truman and Thurmond in the runoff primary. He said many counties already will have ballots printed before the state committee meets Aug. 9.

"Truman and Barkley and no other persons are the nominees of the Democratic party," Calvert said.

He said that those who made the Thurmond-Wright nomination at Birmingham, Ala., had no authority from any Texas Democratic precinct, county or state convention.

Morrow reviewed developments of the May Brownwood convention and its instructions to the national convention delegates, then said:

". . . By these instructions I am bound today, but there remains unanswered in the minds of the Democrats of Texas the question of whether in view of what has happened since the Brownwood convention the Democrats of Texas still feel as they did feel and whether or not they desire to change their instructions to the electors nominated at that convention.

"There can be no doubt but that the platform of the national Democratic convention disavows what the Democrats of Texas have always believed in and their Brownwood resolutions again stated as Democratic principles. There can be no doubt but that this platform espouses practices and principles thoroughly objectionable to a large segment of the Democrats of Texas."

Truce With Russia Believed To Be Most Allies Can Get

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The current international tension was strikingly dramatized in yesterday's session of the British House of Commons when Ernest Bevin—England's barrelchested, two-fisted foreign secretary—took the floor to tell of the new Allied efforts to pave the way for peace.

Bevin spoke to a hushed house. Contrary to his usual catch-as-catch-can delivery of speech, he maneuvered cautiously for words. He was faced with the fact that U. S. Ambassador Bedell Smith had just arrived in Moscow with the plans of the Western Powers for a verbal approach to Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov instead of the usual austere and inflexible written note. Bevin must be careful not to say anything which would jeopardize the Allied move. And he mustn't commit his government too far or disclose too much. He was even cautious in his keynote:

"I have not given up hope . . ."

Bevin made one startling revelation in stating that Britain is considering a halt in the demobilization of its armed forces because of the tension between Russia and the West. He was, I take it, killing two birds with one stone: He was letting the public in on a momentuous secret, and he was tipping the Muscovites that John Bull really means business.

Lest there be any doubt about British solidarity in this crisis, at the conclusion of the Foreign Secretary's statement wartime Prime Minister Winston Churchill took the floor as leader of the Conservative party. He pledged the Socialist government the full support of the powerful party which he heads.

Bevin's cautiousness is also seen in Washington and Paris. The British, French and American ambassadors in Moscow are expected to meet with Molotov in the immediate future. From inspired speculation we may assume that the ambassadors first will make it clear to the Soviet foreign minister that the democracies take the following stand:

They will not get out of Berlin, period. They will not be high-pressured by Russia into negotiating over the problems of Berlin or over any other broader questions, period. Before there can be any negotiations the Soviet must lift its food blockade of Berlin, exclamation point. Meantime the Western Allies are going straight ahead with their plans for forming a German government for their three zones of occupation. The Soviet Union can join in with its zone—or it can stay out.

It has been reported, but not confirmed, that the three Allies are prepared to negotiate other broader European questions with Moscow if and when the German question is ironed out. That would, of course, aim at settling the cold war in Europe.

Concession May Be Made

And what are the prospects? Well, it wouldn't be safe to bet your last ha'penny Molotov won't fling at the ambassadors Russia's great slogan—"Nyet" ("No.") However, it is possible that the Muscovites may decide to make some concessions in Berlin in order to ease a situation which is squeezing them as well as the Western Allies. In any event I believe we can say this safely:

The best that might be got out of the Russians at this juncture would be a truce.

The Bolshevists are not ready for peace. We must not forget, as this column has emphasized so many times, that the Russians are embarked on a do-or-die world revolution to install Communist governments in all countries.

They may make a local truce to further their own interests, but they won't quit trying to Sovietize the world. That's the uncomfortable truth.

Title Suit Is Filed In Court

George W. Reed and others—five sons and daughters of the late George W. Reed, sr.—filed suit here Thursday in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair for trespass to try title to land in Hockley and Lubbock counties and for partitioning of the Hockley county land.

They named as defendant Emma Jones Reed, widow of George W. Reed, sr. She lives in Hockley county.

Claim Undivided Shares

The plaintiffs, of Hale, Bailey and Bexar county, declared in a petition filed by the Lubbock law firm of Vickers and Vickers that Emma Jones Reed i. the third wife of their late father, who died Aug. 9. The first two wives, like the decedent Reed, died intestate. Thus, they pleaded, as surviving children, in each instance they succeeded to the mother's one-half interest in the community estate with George W. Reed, sr.

Reed and his widow were married in 1936, in Hale county. Plaintiffs say he and Emma Jones Reed used commingled moneys and other properties of the first and second communities to invest in land. Plaintiffs had an undivided one-half interest in those moneys and properties at all times, they declared. They also claim they own the undivided one-half interest of their father, which was the homestead of the decedent and the defendant, in which homestead portion of the land owned by the third community the defendant has a life estate superior to the plaintiffs' remaining interest.

Also, they claim, the plaintiffs have an undivided half-interest of the first and second communities in crops grown on 178 acres of Hockley county land affected, and also in personal property of the estate.

They ask that the Hockley county land be partitioned, subject to the life estate, and that the lot here be sold and its proceeds paid into registry of the court for later division.

Hungarian Violinist Will Play In City

Frederic Balazs, Hungarian born concert violinist whose musical ability and personality have won him national acclaim, will be featured tonight at 8:30 p.m. on the Administration building green at Texas Technological college as the sixth performer on the college's summer artist course program.

Balazs, who is director of the Wichita Falls symphony orchestra, has, at the age of 28, attained a perfection of technique which charms audiences and brings forth predictions of greater heights for the young musician. At the age of 16 he was concert master of the Budapest Concert orchestra, and soon after he became 17, he came to the United States, where his many performances have each been a step on the road to fame.

Performances Are Lauded

Of Balazs' rendition of Mendelssohn's Concerto in E Minor, which is included in Friday night's program, The Philadelphia Enquirer said, "The number was played with remarkably clear tone, crystal clearness, and freedom and ease of movement rarely attained by even the greatest of violinists."

Accompanying the young musician on the piano will be Nita Akin, who is with the department of music at Hardin college as professor of organ, and who has appeared in concerts in both America and Europe.

Included in the program at Texas Tech are: Largo—Veracini; Capriccietto — Mendelssohn; Rondeau — Mozart; Chaconne, from Partita in D minor for violin alone—Bach; Concerto in E minor—Mendelssohn; Jota — Defalla; En Bateau—Debussy; Tambourin Chinois — Kreisler; and Brahms-Joachim's Hungarian Dance Number 1.

Admission to the program will be by season artist course tickets for students of Texas Tech, and $1 for townspeople.

"Fairly Good" Dove Season Seen If Nothing Interferes

By Lloyd Larrabee
United Press Staff Writer

White-wing dove hunters were advised today they could look forward to a "fairly good" season—provided several "ifs" don't interfere between now and the opening of shooting.

The population of white wings in the Rio Grande valley is "pretty good," says E. G. Marsh, assistant game restoration director of the Game, Fish and Oyster commission.

There are a lot of birds on the ground nesting, says Marsh, who recently made a swing through the valley, "but it's hard to say what the production willl be."

Barring a number of possible disturbances, hunters can expect that shooting on Sept. 17, 19 and 21 will be as good as last year. Firing will begin at 4 p. m. on those days and end at sunset.

March pointed out that the birds have been subjected to a variety of weather conditions, some of "severe," ranging from a spring drouth to recent floods.

A lot of food plants didn't develop because of the extremely dry spring, Marsh said, but it is yet to be determined what the effect will be on the fall crop.

"If there isn't a big crop of wild wheatseed," Marsh added, "the birds may go south."

Some of the nesting areas in the lower valley also were destroyed and as a result nesting has been delayed in some sections. The nesting season should have been over in some areas, Marsh said, but it is still underway.

The result could be, Marsh said, that white wings would be smaller and poorer and scattered, contrasted to last year when there were concentrations in some areas.

"We feel we'll have a fair proportion of birds," says the Game Commission official. "And it would be better hunting if late season food crops materialize."

Those are the "ifs" that white-wing dove hunters face.

That Girl on Broadway says even though money continues to decline in value, it doesn't seem to be losing any of its popularity.

According to an old saw, a man who argues with a woman is foolish.

Yeah. And one who argues politics with a woman is plumb crazy!

AN "invisible law firm," but one never-the-less represented in every Texas courtroom whenever a judge's gavel bangs, is costing the people of this state untold thousands of dollars in wasted tax money. Furthermore, this "invisible law firm" is responsible for the reluctance with which most citizens view jury service—which means it is responsible for many citizens "ducking" jury service whenever, and however, they can.

Every person who has been around a courtroom knows this "invisible law firm," and all its partners.

It is the firm of Dilly, Dally, Fiddle, Faddle, Stumble & Stall.

At the door of Dilly, Dally, Fiddle, Faddle, Stumble & Stall also may be laid the major share of the blame for the general public's lack of respect for the court.

A great deal of the public's disrespect for the courts is based upon the inefficiency of court operation—and when it comes to contributing to inefficiency, Dilly, Dally, Fiddle, Faddle, Stumble & Stall are in a class by themselves.

They are the original "take it easy; put it off; procrastinate and loaf" boys—especially when their credo can be applied to the advantage of a defendant who is guilty as what Sherman said war is.

WHEN the average man gets a summons to report for jury service, he immediately starts thinking about how he can avoid this very important duty of citizenship.

After summonses are sent out, most presiding judges learn—by mail, phone and personal visit—that ill health is rampantly abroad in the land; that everybody's too busy to do anything but work and breathe, etc., etc., and etc.

When jury panels finally report, judges often pontificate on the subject.

In the best tradition of the courtroom, they all but beat their breasts as they explain the necessity of keeping the courts running—which means the necessity of citizens serving on juries.

Meanwhile, as the judges orate, Dilly, Dally, Fiddle, Faddle, Stumble & Stall are lolling in nearby chairs figuring out ways and means of placing stumbling blocks in the way of orderly process.

Lawyers speak touchingly, too, about the duty of the citizen to serve as a juror when called upon to do so.

But, like the judges, they only talk. They don't try to do anything to make jury service less of a time-killing burden, although the judges' association and the decorous bar association could, if they wished, get something done.

Unless and until the system of running the courts is changed, there always shall be a shortage of citizens willing to serve on juries.

THE main trouble underlying the jury problem is that the courts are run for the convenience of the lawyers, rather than for the convenience of the people who are called—at considerably less financial return—to referee the legal battles.

A jury will be called for 9 a. m.

Along about 9:10, or later, the lawyers stroll in, smoke cigars and cigarets, shake hands with each other; huddle in the corners and otherwise kill time.

Finally, the judge gets tired of the monkey business (albeit not so tired as the members of the jury panel) and tells the lawyers it's time to get started.

Then one lawyer or another will whisper to the judge and everybody soon finds out that the lawyer doesn't want the case called, so must take a half hour or so to write up a motion that he knew darn well he was going to have to write days before.

Meanwhile, the members of the jury panel—most of whom have personal business and troubles demanding their attention—twiddle their thumbs.

What we need in this state is a revision of the present system which will permit lawyers plenty of time to work—or dawdle, as they see fit—yet at the same time not unnecessarily waste time of jurors.

We need a system whereby lawyers shall be told in advance what time court will open—and then if they aren't on hand, fine them, or suspend them from court for a period of time during which they may decide that it's a good idea to get to work on time.

There just isn't any sense in running the courts inefficiently, sloppily and in a manner costly to the people.

The courts are business. They are the people's business. They should be operated in business fashion, not in a way that every other business would go broke under.

ANOTHER thing sadly needed in this county—and, we suspect, in most others—is proper facilities for juries held overnight.

Lubbock county juries held overnight sleep in stifling, crowded quarters right under the courthouse roof. Sanitary facilities are short. Each man gets one towel per day to serve all his needs and in summer, two floor fans serve only to stir the hot air.

Who can expect an individual to happily embrace the duties of the juror under those conditions? Of course, he's going to try to dodge service whenever and however he can.

If Lubbock county can't furnish satisfactory quarters for overnight juries, then it should house the jurors in one of our better hotels.

No matter how hard a judge tries to run his court with efficiency and dispatch—and in fairness, it must be said that Judge G. V. Pardue and Dan Blair do the best they can—the man on the bench is tied, hand and foot, by an archaic system bogged down by tradition and custom.

It's time for a change.

Until there is a change, getting jurors — especially representative citizens to so serve—will continue to get more and more difficult.

A FELLOW we know is going to vote Republican in November. "I'm doing it," he says, "in an apathetic sort of way, figuring I've got nothing to lose and very little—if anything—to gain!"

BY DREW PEARSON: ONE OF WORST SCANDALS IN ARMY APPEARS TO BE HUSHED UP

Dixie Demos Propose Negroes Migrate From South

WASHINTON,—Now that men are being drafted into the army again, this column proposes to focus more attention on brasshatism, which the better-type officers have tried to eliminate of late. However, behind General MacArthur's rigid military censorship in Japan some amazing things have happened—revolving round the probable murder of Lieut. Charles Vetter at Kokura, Japan.

PEARSON

The facts in the case point to one of the worst scandals in the army, so far completely hushed up.

Last year the black marketing of U. S. Army goods by high-up officers of the 24th infantry division was uncovered at Kokura. The provost marshal and the assistant chief of staff, both supposed to enforce the law, were caught selling army supplies.

The man who turned them in was a lieutenant named Vetter a young veteran of the European theatre with a wife and child back home in Indiana. Vetter was to be the star witness for the prosecution.

But while the division's high officers were awaiting court-martial, Vetter was killed—under mysterious circumstances. Going to Moji by jeep with a driver, Vetter parked the jeep to do an errand. The driver, returning later found the jeep stolen and Vetter absent. Later his body was found on the railroad tracks, so badly mashed that doctors could not ascertain whether there had been foul play.

SLAPPED ON WRIST

A subsequent court martial fined the asistant chief of staff, Lieut. Col. Kenwood Ross of Springfield, Mass., $1,000 for selling army rations Maj. Elmer Van Zandt of Philadelphia, the provost marshall, was fined $200. Maj. Edward Hartline of Fostoria, Ohio, ordnance, was fined $1,500, and chief warrant officer John M. Leavitt of Norcross, Ga., was fined $300.

Significantly, the only private involved, Joseph B. Franzino, was the only man to go to jail. He got three years at hard labor plus a dishonorable discharge from the army. Yet the evidence showed that private Franzino was ordered by Major Hartline to transport the blackmarketed goods and money. If the enlisted man had refused he would have been subject to disciplinary action.

During the trial not a word of the strange death of Lieutenant Vetter was mentioned. No attempt was made to prosecute. The inspector general declined to comment, and other high-ranking officers spread word that the Japanese might have killed Vetter. Yet they made no effort to apprehend any Japanese.

These are some of the things the army itself must clean up— or otherwise expect to have cleaned up by Congress—now that draftees are going out to serve their country once again.

MOST important disclosure at the southern senators' closed door caucus was a proposal by Sen. Dick Russell of Georgia to appropriate $3,5000,000,000 to move the negroes out of the South and poor white families into the South.

Russell told his colleagues that for some time he had been concerned about families which felt they had better economic opportunity in other parts of the country, and that if they wanted to move, the government should help them.

Therefore he proposed that the government furnish up to $1,500 per family for transportation and sustenance if they wanted to move. He also proposed a "voluntary racial relocation commission" of three members to study the problem.

Russell said that this idea should apply to the West, North, and East as well as the South.

His only worry about the plan was the "church folks" in the south whom he said, might be opposed to this migration idea if it was rammed down the 'negroes' throats. Therefore Russell stressed the idea of voluntary migration.

Other southern senators at the caucus backed the Russell proposal unanimously.

They also agreed that there would be no bolting to the Dixiecrats, and that if cloture were voted on civil-rights legislation each would speak one hour against it. Most of the meeting was taken up with speculation as to what the Republicans would do.

Truman Still Irked At Tito

President Truman rejected a last-minute suggestion from Democratic advisors that he discuss the tense international situation in his message to Congress. The reason, he said, was because the prospects for peace were brighter than they have been for three months.

"Conditions internationally are better now then they were three months ago," the President told Sen. Alben Barkley, Rep. John McCormack and other Democratic leaders.

He was visibly irritated over a newspaper report that former governor of California, Culbert Olsen, had talked to Marshall Tito and was optimistic about better trade relations between Yugoslavia and the United States.

"There is no foundation to that," snorted the President. The United States, he added sharply, does not intend to baby Marshall Tito just because he has been dropped by the Cominform.

Note—one day after the President's optimistic not on the international situation, the Soviets' started the largest maneuvers since the end of the war in their zone of Germany. A total of 350,000 men plus jet fighters and Stalin tanks maneuvered for the benefit of the U. S. A.

THOUGH now secretary of state, General Marshall still retains a spare office in the Pentagon building where he worked so long as chief of staff. Gen. Lucius Clay used the room as a hideout during his short stay in Washington . . . . Most people don't know it, but General Clay wanted to be an army lawyer after he received his commision, but was turned down by the judge advocate general . . . . Sen. Glen Taylor, third-party candidate for vice president, has been promised a barrage of ripe tomatoes if he tries to campaign in South Carolina. The tomato reception was threatened by H. G. Willingham of Columbia, a delegate to the Republican national convention, who warned Taylor in a telegram to keep out of his state . . . Louis H. Bean, the government's most famous statistician, has a potential best seller in his book, "How To Predict Elections."

The contemporary night set wonders whether Ruditsky is wearing the black cheaters so he won't see that reporter.

Evidently They Don't Believe In Signs

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

MRS. THOMAS E. DEWEY has let it be known that she will travel with her husband during his campaign. But she won't do any speech- making or answer any political questions. She is going to leave the job of going after the highest position in the country up to her husband — giving him only the quiet support of her presence.

MILLETT

That kind of choice doesn't come only to women married to men in public life. It comes to every wife. Every wife is going to be a silent or an active partner in her husband's affairs.

Is she going to get behind her man and push—or is she going to stand quietly at his side?

It is one of those questions to which there is no right answer. It all depends on the individual woman and on her particular man.

HOW TO GET ANSWER

IN order to get her answer, a woman has to know herself and her husband.

She has to know what kind of support he needs most.

If she understands both herself and him, she'll make no mistake. The mistakes are made by women who don't realize it is an individual problem, thinking there is but one right answer.

Evidently Mrs. Dewey knows the right answer in her own case. Her husband has gone far, and the policy she plans to follow during his campaign for the presidency is the one she has always followed. That way appears to work best for them.

ONE ENCOURAGING SIGN

There's one encouraging aspect about the displays of fighting power which are being given these days in, or near the occupied zones of Germany by Russia, Uncle Sam, Britain and perhaps, by the French, too.

Usually when a nation is determined upon war, it makes every effort to conceal its true fighting strength. This was the strategy of the Nazis before 1939. The final revelation of their actual power took the world by flat-footed surprise and almost won the war within weeks.

Right now, the rival nations seem to be doing everything they can to show off all they possess in fighting strength. Appearances, of course, may deceive, but the actions are not those of nations preparing to start a war. They look more like attempts to bluff other nations out of starting one.

NORTHERN VIEW IS PRESENTED

Politicos Accused Of Using Negro Issue To Gain Votes

(EDITORS NOTE: By special permission of the New York Sun, in which the comment below originally was published, The Journal presents a Northern view of the so-called "civil rights" program causing so much furore as contending politicians jockey for votes. Author of the article, George E. Sokolsky, writes the nationally syndicated column, "These Days," for the Sun and other newspapers.)

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
(And from the New York Sun)

By what is euphemistically called "Civil Rights" in this campaign is meant the Negro question. And let us call it that from here on. Since the civil war the Negro question has been a major American problem inadequately discussed and considered except by Southerners who had to live with it and in recent years by the Communists and their fellow-travelers and competing liberals who hope to garner votes out of it.

Under the Constitution and within the sanctions of moral law, the legal equality of Negroes and whites can not be questioned. Historically and traditionally the question is not so simple either in the North or the South. Those Northern Democrats who make such a terrible to-do about racial discrimination in the South are generally liars—they will not live in Negro areas in their cities; they do not entertain Negroes in their homes; they do not hire Negro secretaries or clerks, except political ones which is part of the vote-getting technic; they do not encourage association between their children and Negro children.

In a word, none of them practice in their private lives what they preach for others. It is a simple matter for a resident of Minnesota or Wisconsin to grow powerfully indignant about a problem that does not face him but does face a citizen of Alabama or Mississippi. Minnesota's Negro population, according to the 1940 census, was 9,928; Wisconsin's 12,158; Alabama's 983,290; Mississippi's, 1,074,578.

Historical "Ifs" Out

If the civil war had not ended in the Reconstruction Era, during which Thaddeus Stevens created an unassimilable minority for political advantage, we should perhaps today not be facing this problem as the principal campaign issue of 1948. Perhaps had Abraham Lincoln not been assassinated, the emancipated Negro slave would have been brought into American life without malice, with charity for all.

But that did not happen. Instead the Northern carpet-bagger and his negro associates left in the South a heritage of bitterness which has continued to the present time. Franklin D. Roosevelt tried to solve the problem by exporting Negroes from the South to the North, placing them on relief rolls and forcing them into industrial enterprises, on a quota basis. Thus, in many Northern and Western areas the Negro population increased startlingly.

The Northerners met the problems by segregating negroes into ghettoes. Make no mistake about that: In the North the negro is as segregated as in the South, in spite of the lies Northern politicians tell. Harlem is negro ghetto; the Bedford district of Brooklyn is a negro ghetto; the South Side of Chicago is a negro ghetto. The technic employed in New York is for the whites to clear out as soon ast the negro moves in. If you want to see that process at work you can study it, if you are so inclined, in the East Bronx of New York.

I am not justifying these conditions either on moral or legal grounds; I am only describing conditions as they exist and I am protesting against lies and liars. The politicians who are shrieking civil rights are seeking negro votes in the Northern cities. They are appealing to prejudice and indignation and they are fanning the flames of race antagonisms not because they want to improve the condition of the negro in Mississippi, but because they want the votes of the negro in Harlem and South Chicago.

The anxiety of the Northern Democrats to be recorded as voting for the civil rights plank of the Democratic platform, after a voice vote had passed it, their insistence upon Senator Barkley's announcement of how they voted was for the consumption of the Northern negro voter. They fear that if they do not get that vote, Wallace, who represents Soviet racial concepts, will.

Were that the entire story, it would be a little more than an appeal for the Irish, the Jewish, or the Italian vote. But this negro question is pitched on a high emotional level and can result in riots and death. It requires thoughtful and considerate handling. It re-
