Warrena Parker Artist of Month

The Rockport Art Association Artist of the Month for February is Mrs. Carey E. (Warrena) Parker. Her paintings will be on display in the center section of the Rockport Art Gallery located on Austin Street.

Warrena started painting in 1965 at the Port Aransas Art Colony. She has been interested in art most of her life but until she moved to Port Aransas she was too busy making a home for her husband and three daughters to pursue her interest in painting. Sewing for her daughters and designing their clothes took a big hunk of her time. When the girls grew up and moved away from home they gave her, her first set of oil paints.

Warrena attended Southern Methodist University in Dallas and graduated from the University of Texas in Austin, with a BA degree. When asked if she had taken art in school she smiled and said "No, Ma Ferguson did away with it at Texas." After graduating and moving to Dallas she took a life drawing course that used the SMU football team as models. She has taken painting instruction in oils under Dot Turner and Shelley Johnson of Corpus Christi, a workshop in Victoria with Fredrick Taubes of New York City and a workshop with Bill Brigg of Dallas.

Warrena's art memberships are the Rockport Art Association.

School System Will Incorporate Quarter System for 1974-1975

The Aransas County Independent School District will incorporate the quarter system into the school program for the 1974-1975 school year. The schools will operate on a trimester plan in that the schools will be in session only three quarters of the year.

For a school district to conduct classes the entire year, at least three-fourths of the student population must be in attendance at all times. A school district will receive state funds based on a student's enrollment and attendance for three quarters. Any student attending school the fourth quarter must do so at either his own expense or at the expense of the local taxpayers.

The curriculum at the elementary school level will not be affected by the quarter system. A few minor curriculum changes will be made in the Junior High School. The High School curriculum will be changed to meet requirements as outlined by the Texas Education Agency guidelines and to meet local needs.

Under the present semester system, students are required to complete twenty credits for graduation, whereas under the quarter system the requirement will be sixty quarter units. Every student currently enrolled in High School will have his credits converted to the quarter system program. For example, a freshman student who passed all six courses will receive eighteen quarter units of credit. In most instances, courses that currently receive a full credit will be converted to three quarter units.

The minimum course requirements for graduation under the quarter system as outlined in the Texas Education Agency Quarter System Booklet are as follows: English, nine quarter units; World History or World Geography Studies, three quarter units; American History, three quarter units; American Government, two quarter units; Mathematics, six quarter units; Science, six quarter units; Health Education, two quarter units; Physical Education, five quarter units; and electives, twenty-four quarter units.

All students who will be in High School next year are currently receiving pre-registration materials for the quarter system. Students will take pre-registration materials home so that parents may review the new guidelines. The counselors will meet with each student individually to plan the student's course selection for next year. Students who are currently enrolled in High School will have their current credits converted to the quarter system during the individual conference.

Four new courses will be made available to students next year, provided a sufficient number of students enroll and certified teachers can be employed. The additional courses are as follows: Distributive Education Pre-employment Laboratory for students in grades eleven and twelve; Distributive Education for students in grades eleven and twelve; Vocational Office Education for students in grades eleven and twelve and Advanced Social Problems in Social Studies for twelfth grade students. Also, effective next school year, American History Studies will be taught during the freshman year and World History Studies will be taught as a Junior course.

Rep. Leroy Wisting Seeking Re-election

State Representative Leroy J. Wisting, who now represents San Patricio County, Aransas County, and the western half of Nueces County in the state legislature, announced that he would be a candidate for re-election to his seventh term in the Texas House of Representatives, District 41.

In making his announcement Wisting said, "I first want to thank the people of my District for the confidence each of you have placed in me and the courtesies you have shown my family and me during the past eleven years in this office. Constituents in my District have had a keen interest in good government because so many of you have contacted me in regard to issues that face this area and all of Texas. Seniority, as never before, will be the key to an effective voice for the people of rural, small town, and urban areas alike where redistricting has reduced the number of members from our area and has given more representation to the large metropolitan cities.

"I am now sitting as a Delegate in Austin to the Constitutional Convention. We are attempting to rewrite the Constitution that has been ours for nearly 100 years. I will fight vigorously to retain some of the vital issues that we have had in the Constitution for many years. The next session of the Legislature will be even more important because many issues will have to be rewritten into law if the newly written Constitution is approved by the voters."

"For example, the financing of Texas public schools and the education of our school children in Texas will require land-mark decisions by the legislature. As past Chairman of the School Districts Committee and a member of the Tax and Revenue Committee, I can assure you of my interest in these issues."

Rep. Wisting has served on most of the major committees and interim committees in the House during his tenure. He was a chairman of School Districts and Liaison Officer between the State and other governmental agencies, plus being vice-chairman or member of the following committees: Contingent Expense, Revenue and Taxation, Urban Affairs, Common Carriers, Constitutional Amendments, Redistricting, Reclamation and Conservation, Hospitals and Schools, Live Stock and Cattle Raising, Claims and Accounts, Water Recreation and Safety, Housing of State Artifacts, Reapportionment, and Business and Industry. He is presently Chairman of the Revenue and Tax Interim Committee studying the Method of Enforcement and Collection of Delinquent Taxes, Vice-Chairman on the standing committees on Reapportionment and Rural Development, and on the fifteen member Citizens Conference on State Legislatures (the study and evaluation of the State Government). As a Delegate to the Constitutional Convention he serves on the twenty-one member General Provisions Committee, which is one of the more important committees in the Convention. This committee is beginning to rewrite the provisions that are not specifically spoken to in the Executive, Judiciary, and various other Articles.

Program Announced — for District 16, with includes 10 counties, amounts to $8,500,000.

Statewide the 1975-77 Consolidated Highway Program provides for construction or reconstruction of a total of 2,036.1 miles of rural and urban highway facilities.

Estimated cost of construction is $235,000,000.

The program also includes $15,000,000 for the state's share of right of way costs for US and State-numbered highways across the state. Included were needed projects in both urban and rural areas.

Projects were recommended for inclusion in the statewide program by the 25 Highway Department district offices and by the Houston Urban Project Office in Houston for the areas they serve, in cooperation with local governmental agencies.

The projects are included as a result of local governmental requests to the district engineer, as a result of appearances by delegations of citizens before the Highway Commission and by the local district engineer's knowledge of the needs of the highway network in his area.

Also considered are the condition of existing facilities, existing and projected traffic, safety and planned area development.

Recommendations are reviewed by the Highway Department Administration in Austin and approved by the Highway Commission to insure the continuity of highway designs and to insure the logical and orderly development of statewide highway systems.

Approval of a highway program means project planning can be started on the individual projects in the program.

building should be leased or sold the Corps would relinquish same back to the county. The Court agreed to furnish window panes and paint to repair same and necessary material to fence said area. The Corps to have exclusive right and control of building.

An estimate in the amount of $1,828.90 to repair the Voting Center in Aransas Pass was presented by Hill's Home Maintenance Service. After due consideration it was voted to award repair job to Hill.

Judge Outlines—

county receives none of this revenue which is paid directly to the contractor. Aransas County itself must pay the same fees as the public, he said.

The judge explained that state anti-pollution laws prohibit burning waste material by individuals or agencies of government. Also, the state has set up very strict regulations as to where and how waste material may be buried. Because of the sandy nature of soil in this area it would be necessary to line waste disposal pits with three feet of clay to comply with state regulations, Judge Wendell asserted.

Decrying the practice of some "uncivilized" local residents to dump garbage and other waste material along public roads and on private property, Judge Wendell pointed out that state laws provide fines up to $200 for this practice.

Conversational Spanish Offered

A course in conversational Spanish will be offered at the First Presbyterian Church beginning February 19 at 7 p.m. for anyone in the Rockport area who is interested. The twenty (20) hour course will be taught by Mrs. Eric Henderson. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday nights, February 19 - March 19. Cost for those participating will be 60¢ per person per hour or $12.00 for the complete course.

Those interested are urged to register at the First Presbyterian Church on Thursday, February 14 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

Because of interest last year and requests this year, this local church is offering such a service to both winter tourists and local residents. Climaxing the course completion, the church is offering persons in the area an opportunity to "buy into" a five day trip to Monterrey, Mexico, tentatively scheduled for March 21-25.

Participation in the Spanish course is not prerequisite for making the Monterrey trip, nor will involvement in the Spanish course indicate a person's interest in the trip. However, it is felt that such a trip would be an excellent chance to practice the skill of conversational Spanish.

Any person interested may register for the course and meet Mrs. Henderson at the Presbyterian Church, February 14, between 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

HIGHWAYS FOR NICKELS?

"Fill 'er up with regular."

That's the typical order of an automobile owner as he wheels up to a gasoline pump. His wants, really, are quite simple: Fuel for the hungry horses under the hood, and enough of it to travel 200 miles or so down the road.

If he thought about it, the transaction would seem a bit more complicated: He is actually buying the highway.

And for cash—in advance.

It's such an easy payment plan, though, that he hardly misses the money.

Take a Texas driver: Every time the pump clicks off a gallon, he can count on leaving a nickel for the road. (That's the Texas gasoline tax: 5 cents a gallon, the cheapest in the nation.)

He leaves another 4 cents for federal aid. (That's the federal gasoline tax.)

The nickels add up: Probably $1.80 for a tank of gas. Maybe $50 a year for an average driver. And about $510 million a year for the State Highway Fund.

Pretty good nickel-and-dime business. Add in $153 million from motor vehicle fees, and the total pays for a year's highways—construction, maintenance, administration and policing. It has to be spent that way—if we are to meet Texas' growing transportation needs.

That's the way you build our highways ... when you "fill 'er up with regular."

Here's the Answer

Texas Coast Attracts Eagles, Swans

The Texas coast is a winter home to thousands of birds, usually waterfowl, but it's attractive to other species as well.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife technician Bill Brummel of Corpus Christi, department pilot Don Meek of Rockport and federal biologist A.R. Brazda of Lafayette, La., noted an unusual group of wintering birds during an aerial survey over Kenedy County south of Corpus Christi.

In addition to waterfowl, the crew counted one mature bald eagle, an immature bald eagle, a mature golden eagle, three mature whistling swans and two immature swans.

The five swans were on inland freshwater ponds.

Department non-game biologist John Smith says that the three species of birds are unusual to South Texas and are probably escaping winter weather farther to the north.

Bald eagles are rare no matter where they are found in Texas. The whistling swans are common winter visitors as far south as Oklahoma but seldom make it to Texas, much less almost to Brownsville.

What happens when a cold front and a warm front meet head-on? What are the characteristics of the stationary front produced?

A cold front, running into a warm front with about equal momentum, stagnates and marks time. The warm front also comes to a halt and the result, where the two air masses have met, is a stationary front.

A stationary front almost always produces prolonged rain and cloud and erratic wind currents. Sometimes the rain lasts for many days, until one of the systems breaks through the other or another strong front moves in.

If you're planning to fly in private aircraft, the weather map symbol of a stationary front should be highly discouraging, for landing and navigating in such an area is hazardous and often dangerous.

Stationary fronts occur during the change of seasons. This spell of bad weather was called by oldtimers the "turn of the seasons."

TV COMMENTARY

By John Smiley

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: NBC has paid two million dollars for the TV rights of the film "The Day of the Dolphin." Also of note in the dollars and sense department: Sally Quinn, who has been working with Hughes Rudd on "CBS Morning News," has left the $70,000-a-year position and will join The New York Times.

BOB FUNNY-BONE HOPE just recently has made yet another visit into our living room via TV and welcomed he was, like an old friend. In his career Hope has appeared in 71 feature films, almost 300 television specials (not counting guest appearances), more than 1000 radio shows, half-dozen Broadway shows, and uncountable live appearances.

IN ADDITION, he has been presented more than 1000 awards and citations for humanitarian and professional efforts. He has been awarded 23 honorary degrees from colleges and universities. JAMES COCO, without a show to call his own since "Calucci's Department" went the way certain other real life bureaucratic agencies should go, has backed out of a possible variety series on CBS. Instead he will take the star spot in a comedy pilot written by Paddy Chayefsky for NBC.

CYRANO DE BERGERAC will be aired as an animated cartoon on February 27 for an "ABC Afterschool Special." This classic story should be worth viewing by youngsters and adults, even in its cartoon format. WALTER CRONKITE must be feeling that warm sensation parents know when their youngster succeeds. His daughter, Kathy, recently made her film acting debut in "The Trial of Billy Jack."

Deserved

Benevolent Old Gentleman (rescuing one small boy from two others): "What are you hurting this boy for?" "Because he made so many mistakes in his arithmetic this morning." "But what business was that of yours?" "Why, he let us copy our answers from his."

Trotlines Adversely Affect Redfish

AUSTIN -- Redfish populations in Texas reached a peak in 1968 following the best spawn on record the previous fall but have declined in recent years. Texas Parks and Wildlife Department coast fisheries biologists speculate that the ensuing lower population is not so much a "decline" but that 1967 was just a vintage year for redfish.

However, these 1967 fish should have grown to bull reds of 20 pounds or more but there are few indications of these fish living in the Gulf of Mexico in large numbers.

The lower coast, in particular, has produced few redfish of any size from the surf but there have been unverified reports of large fish caught further offshore.

Large redfish are no more prevalent in the bays. Small reds are abundant but are being harvested quickly, particularly by trotlines.

A study of commercial fishing in the Lower Laguna Madre in April and May 1973 showed that the greatest numbers of redfish harvested by trotline from Ports Mansfield and Isabel were 15 to 16 inches long.

Since redfish are normally at least 28 inches long and usually 32 inches long (3 to 4 years old) before they spawn, it is possible that too few escape to provide substantial sport fishing stock of this size in the Gulf and bays.

In the 1973 study of the Lower Laguna Madre, Parks and Wildlife Department biologists expected an increase in the average size of fish caught corresponding with the rapid growth of redfish.

There was some increase but much less than expected.

At least in the Laguna Madre, there appears to be ample spawn but the fish are harvested within a few months after they reach the legal size of 14 inches.

The abundance of young fish in the trotline catch could definitely indicate overfishing.

Similar information is not available from all Texas bays but considering the limited use of trotlines in other bays, the percentage harvested is probably lower outside the Laguna Madre.

The redfish is of principal importance in commercial landings of bay finfish. In 1972, 1.7 million pounds of redfish were landed at a dockside value of $453,000.

This is relatively small compared with the Texas shrimp fishery, but the finfish industry is hard pressed to meet demands of the marketplace.

Since 1967, imports of fresh fish from Mexico have increased five times to keep pace with Texas demands for finfish.

Letter to the Editor

This is our eighth winter in the Rockport-Fulton area so it is obvious we like it here. First we came with a travel trailer and now for the past four years we have rented a cabin.

We bring our school age daughter with us and find the school system superior. The people are friendly and helpful.

However, we do have one problem. We, like most tourists, come so that we can get out and enjoy the weather. One of the best ways to do this is walking.

Fulton has many streets with beautiful trees, homes and flowers, only we can not walk these streets and enjoy ourselves because of the many dogs.

In the past few winters many of us have been bitten when taking our walks and after reporting the incident these dogs still run loose.

There seems to be no law governing this problem. It seems a shame that dogs have to control our activities. Could it be that these many dogs are such an asset to Fulton?

Pirates Beat Aransas Pass

Rockport came alive in the third quarter after trailing much of the first half to pull off a 62-45 district 15-3A win over Aransas Pass here Jan. 29.

Warren Gerdlene led Rockport with a 26 point output, while Trey Parks had 12 for Aransas Pass.

The victory for Rockport lifted its north zone ledger to 5-2, while Aransas Pass dropped to 1-5.

Rockport took the junior varsity game over Aransas Pass, 61-44 as well as the freshman contest, 58-57.

Insurance Dividends To Be Paid

A record $308.8 million in Veterans Administration insurance dividends will be paid to nearly 3.9 million veterans insured under World Wars I and II government life insurance policies, starting Jan. 2, 1974.

A. A. Hunter, VA Regional Office Director, said increased dividends result chiefly from higher interest earnings in the National Service Life Insurance (World War II NSLI) and United States Government Life Insurance (World War I USGLI).

"Veterans expecting checks need not contact VA concerning dividends since they will be paid automatically on anniversary dates of policies," he stated.

Dividend payments will continue throughout 1974 (on policy anniversary dates) on "participating" NSLI policies with "V"-prefixed policy numbers, and USGLI policies with "K" in front of numbers.

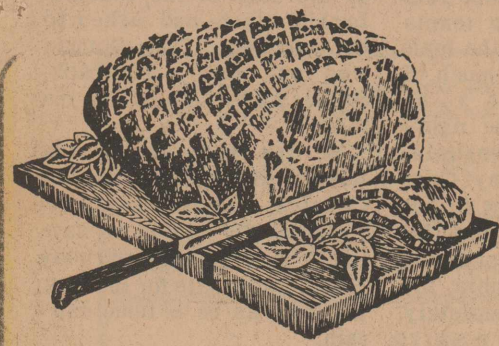

During the coming year, 3.75 million veterans with NSLI policies will receive a total of $282.3 million, averaging $75 per policy. Some 138,000 USGLI policyholders will get $21.5 million in dividends, averaging $156 per policy.

Hunter pointed out also that dividends for 915,000 veterans holding NSLI will be applied to purchase of additional coverage. These veterans previously elected to buy paid up insurance with their dividends as authorized by Public Law 92-188 in December 1971.

Last year, VA declared $297 million in insurance dividends, also a record, which were paid throughout this year to approximately 3.8 million veterans. NSLI policyholders received an average dividend of $72, compared to $142 for USGLI policyholders.

It was explained that dividends vary from a few dollars to several hundred dollars, depending on plan of policy, amount of policy, age of the insured and age of the policy.

At the close of 1973, nearly 4.2 million veterans are carrying $27.3 billion worth of NSLI, while 161,300 veterans are insured for $685.4 million under USGLI.

Poker Face On The Bench?

How neutral does a judge have to be in conducting a trial? That was the issue in The Case of the Smiling Judge. A man had been found guilty of assault, and his attorney appealed to a higher court on the following ground: "Just as one of the defense witnesses was telling his story, the judge broke into a smile. The implication was obvious: he thought the witness was lying. Although the judge told the jury not to be influenced by his smile, the damage had already been done. The jury got the message and brought in a verdict of guilty."

However, the appellate court refused to set aside the verdict. The court said the judge's smile was just too minor an element, in an otherwise fair trial, to make the entire proceedings null and void.

Of course, a trial judge is supposed to be as neutral as possible. Ideally, he should keep a poker face at all times, since his facial expressions may well speak as loudly as words.

But the law also recognizes that judges, being only human, cannot be in total control of their emotions. Thus, another appellate court decided it was "most natural" for a judge to grin when a man named Ananias was sworn in as a witness.

On the other hand, a verdict may indeed be overturned on appeal if the trial judge made his feelings too convincingly clear.

In another case, involving a deadly weapons charge, the judge kept referring to the accused as a "graduate of Sing Sing." Again, the jury's guilty verdict was carried to a higher court on grounds of judicial misbehavior.

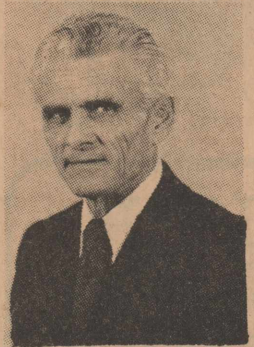

This time, the verdict was thrown out. Criticizing the trial judge for letting his feelings get out-of-hand, the appellate court said:

"The function of the judge is to preserve the rights of both the people and the accused, not to insure victory or defeat for either (side)."

'n things

by

Moles, shrews, armadillos, and many other mammals include insects in their diet, and all of them help man control his insect enemies. Skunks, of which there are several species in the United States, Canada, Central and South America, may be the most important insect eaters in the mammal family. One biologist has said that this is true and others have said that skunks destroy more insects than all the other mammals combined. Whether or not they should be rated so highly is still debatable, but, in any event, the smelly little animals should be placed near the top of the list. Harmful insects that skunks eat include grubs, cutworms, other caterpillars, grasshoppers, potato beetles, and crickets.

From an intensive study in Canada on an eight-acre tract, it was estimated that skunks destroyed 115,000 white grubs in a relatively short time. During an outbreak of the range caterpillar in New Mexico, the food of skunks was found to be made up of 60 to 90 percent of these pests. In New York, skunks were so effective in controlling the hop grub, a serious pest in the hop fields, that the people went to the Legislature and asked for laws to protect the skunks. They were successful too.

When insects are not available, skunks will eat a variety of other foods. They will eat rats and mice, fruits, vegetables, reptiles, amphibians, and almost any other small animal they can catch. It is also true that they will also occasionally eat poultry, their eggs, and the eggs and young of ground-nesting birds. They are not, however, guilty of this as many times as they are accused. In a study involving 1000 skunks whose stomachs were examined, it was found that less than one percent contained remains of poultry. Not a trace of game birds or their eggs was found in another study involving 1700 skunks.

Skunk skins are widely used in the fur industry, but the demand fluctuates considerably. On the average, however, the number of skunk skins processed in the United States is exceeded only by those of muskrats and opossum.

The secretion that the skunk uses to produce the horrible odor they use for protection is deodorized and used in the manufacturing of all things, perfume. When used in the base of the perfume it has the ability to take and retain, for long periods of time, any odor mixed with it.

So you see, though we may avoid the skunk and not want him for a companion, he does have many good points, and is, in reality, a very good friend of man.

Cemetery Association Elects Officers

At the annual meeting on January 28 of the Rockport Cemetery Association, the following officers were elected for 1974: president, Walter Scales; first vice president, James H. Russell; second vice president, Mayor Walter Falk; third vice president, Judge John Wendell; fourth vice president, Paul C. Sorenson; secretary, Miss Evelyn Townsend; treasurer, Mrs. Ettol Eller; legal advisor, Emory Spencer. The president made the following appointments: chaplain, Miss Genevieve Bracht; memorials chairman, Miss Mabel Bracht; membership chairman, Mrs. Gladise Thomson; parliamentarian, Mrs. James Russell; reporter, Mrs. Walter Scales.

Mrs. Gertrude Mills, the outgoing treasurer, was given a standing ovation for thirteen years of loyal and efficient service.

James Russell, after a year of energetic and dedicated service, declined to accept a second term because of the pressure of other duties. He has been loyally supported in his various association activities by Mrs. Russell. Mrs. Russell has done a great deal of work in re-establishing lot boundaries throughout the cemetery.

Among his other duties as president, Walter Scales will be responsible for sale of cemetery lots. Mrs. and Mrs. Scales are members of First Baptist Church. Before his retirement, Mr. Scales served the federal government as a geodetic research engineer.

Memorials and other donations are used to help defray costs of cemetery maintenance. All communications should be directed to the Rockport Cemetery Association, 743 Oak Avenue, Rockport. 78382; telephone 729-5515.

Comment On Sports

TENNIS

By Pete Fritchie

WASHINGTON, D.C.--The year 1974 was a bust year for U.S. Davis Cup tennis and Dennis Ralston, the team captain, must take much of the blame.

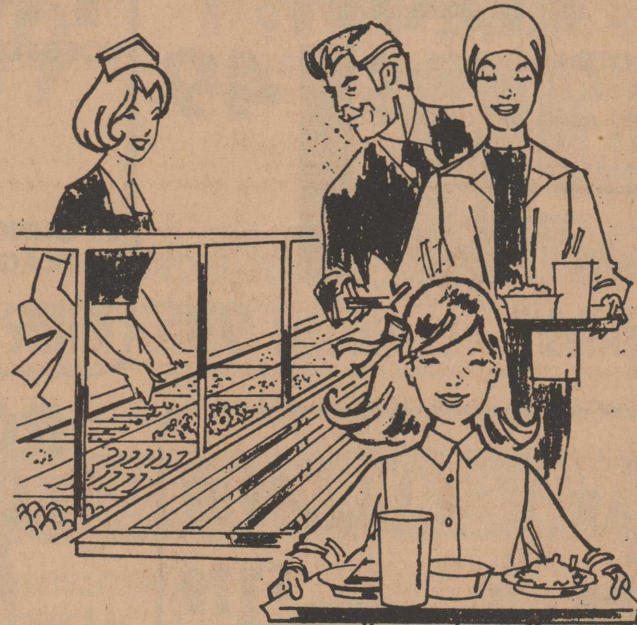

Regardless of the rights or wrongs in his poor relationship with Jimmy Connors, the U.S. ought to put its best team forward. Instead, in the very first match of the year, in Colombia, the U.S. team was completely routed.

That was partly because Stan Smith was not playing. After many years of loyal service, playing when many pros would not, this year

Smith had other commitments at the time of the U.S.-Colombia clash and asked to be excused. Tom Gorman was out with a bad back, further handicapping the team.

So the U.S. squad was without Smith, Gorman and Connors, considered a comer. Ralston was quoted as saying Connors would never play Davis Cup tennis for the U.S. as long as he is team captain.

The obvious lesson, since this country is now out of it for 1974, is to have a new team captain next year, and a full-strength U.S. team.

In Arad, Israel, which is being set up as an asthma-treatment center because of its ideal climate, there is no industrial pollution -- and the growing of plants known to cause allergies is forbidden by law!

University of Pennsylvania researchers have used low electrical current to heal bone breaks that do not respond to normal treatment. Is that what they mean by a hot foot?

Dentists are now using nitrous-oxide and oxygen to relax patients without putting them to sleep. Gas is said to lower awareness of pain, yet the patient can respond to instructions.

State of Arizona, trying to prevent heart disease where it really starts, is working with thousands of families of pre-school children in an education program. Diet and exercise, smoking, and blood pressure problems are emphasized.

Girls Basketball Teams Honored

The RFHS Girls Basketball Varsity and Jr. Varsity were honored with a banquet January 28 at the Ramada Inn. The banquet was sponsored by the girls, their parents and friends.

The girls coaches were introduced, Miss Karen Richter, Varsity, and Miss Susan Hartzell, Jr. Varsity coach.

Miss Hartzell had each girl introduce her parents. She then gave the invocation.

After the dinner, Miss Richter thanked Vickie Moon and Evelyn Hull for the table decoration and the Ramada Inn for their courtesies. She then introduced Mr. and Mrs. Joe Randow, Supt. of Aransas County Independent School District, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marksberry, Assistant Principal of RFHS, as special guests. Miss Richter announced Barbara Lewis as the winner of the Bandit Award, Goal 35 steals; Barbara led with 56, Mary Laird, 43 1/2, Cindy Halgood, 37 1/2, Lucy Rivera, 37, and Marcy Wendell, 36, Barbara was also announced as the winner of the Saver Award for rebounds. The goal was 80; Barbara led with 87 and was the only girl to win this award.

Each senior basketball girl was asked to give a short talk. The girls thanked each of the coaches for their help and encouragement given to them and their four years on both teams. They felt the training that they had received had helped them to grow in character and moral strength. The senior girls are: Mary Laird, Cheryl Vermillion, Marcy Wendell and Lucy Rivera.

Miss Richter called on Supt. of Schools Joe Randow for comments. He complimented the coaches and praised the girls for their accomplishments. He also thanked the parents for their support and encouragement.

The Varsity girls have won three trophies: 3rd in the Woodsboro Tournament, Consolation in the IWA Tournament, and consolation in the Gregory-Portland Tournament. Their seasonal record is 14 wins and 11 losses.

The Jr. Varsity's seasonal record is 13 wins and 5 losses. They were 2nd place winners in the RFHS J.V. Tournament.

The J.V. girls presented Miss Hartzell with a beautiful salad set and the Varsity girls presented Miss Richter with a digital clock radio. Each coach was given a corsage to wear.

Varsity members are: (Forwards) Mary Laird, Cindy Halgood, Charlene McLead and Cheryl Vermillion. (Guards) Sandy Little, Marcy Wendell, Emily Murph, Lucy Rivera, Barbara Lewis, Katy Sanchez, and Melanee Landrum, Captains were Charlene, Marcy and Cheryl.

In the News

STRUGGLING with a massive economic slowdown, Britain's Prime Minister Edward Heath continues his negotiations with England's coal miners to try to get his country on its feet again.

Library News

January was a record month for the Aransas County Public Library. There were 1,760 patrons visiting the library, 183 of that number were registered tourists. A total of 2,602 books and periodicals were circulated.

The library welcomes all winter visitors and invites them to use the services and facilities of the library. Cards are issued for one year to tourists for a $1 fee. The library is located in the Courthouse Square.

The library has four new volunteers: Mrs. Mark Stalker, Mrs. Harold L. Shirley, Mrs. R. L. Murray and Mrs. Fred Stark. The many hours served by the volunteers enables the library to render a better service to the community.

Cub Scout News

Cub Scout Pack #49, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Rockport, met Tuesday, January 29 at the Live Oak Elementary cafeteria.

Call to order was by Cubmaster Gary Olson. Den 3 presented the colors and led the pack in the Pledge of Allegiance and singing "America".

Discussions were held about the need of more adult assistance in the pack and plans toward the Blue and Gold Banquet. The banquet is to be held at the Live Oak Elem. cafeteria, February 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Skits were done by each den that pertained to the January theme, transportation.

Den 1 - San John Brown's Ford.

Den 2 - Rocket Ship to Mars.

Den 3 - Short history of transportation.

Awards were presented to the denners and assistant denners of each den. Those cubs are: Den 1 - Denner Garvon Ratliff, Assistant John Olson.

Den 2 - Denner James Craig-mille, Assistant Michael Hanzelka.

Den 3 - Denner Ricky Hill, Assistant Donald Beard.

Shawn Johnson joined Den 2 as a new cub scout.

Fix-It Tip

Most shelves are for books: An eight-inch shelf will do most of the time, but you may want to stick in a few that are 12 inches deep for oversize volumes. If you do vary the widths, place the wider shelves at the bottom. They look better that way.

Sometimes you can put your shelves on movable supports so that the distance between them can be changed. If the distance is to be fixed, allow at least 10 inches. That will take care of most books. But put in some that allow for 12 inches of height. Remember that you must have room enough for the book plus some finger room.

You can buy in department stores as well as lumber yards shelving already made up in certain widths and lengths. These are smooth, sometimes veneered, finished or ready for finishing. They are thick, handsome and expensive.

B.J. Crowley's HOROSCOPE

Week of February 10, 1974

AQUARIUS—Many intellectuals are born under the sign of Aquarius. They are usually original in their ideas and opinions. Lucky day for the Aquarian is Saturday, lucky number is 1 and best color is blue.

AQUARIUS—Jan. 20 to Feb. 18—Answer correspondence this week you have neglected. Keep activities during this period centered mainly around your home.

PISCES—Feb. 19 to March 20—This is an exceptionally fine week for launching a new project. Success is almost certain. Don't try to carry the full load alone. Get others to help you.

ARIES—March 21 to April 20—An investment in time and money made in the past proves to have been a wise one. Returns are much greater than you had ever anticipated.

TAURUS—April 21 to May 20—Spend time with family members. You can build a closer relationship by showing that you care. Give more thought to giving than getting.

GEMINI—May 21 to June 20—A friend's advice may help you achieve some of your ambitions. Include important business friends and acquaintances in a discussion concerning your plans.

CANCER—June 21 to July 22—Cut down on spending in order to save for that really important something you want. Take care of your health with proper diet and rest.

LEO—July 23 to Aug. 22—Adjust your schedule to better fill your needs. Improved methods will give you additional time for activities you enjoy.

VIRGO—Aug. 23 to Sept. 22—Take care of neglected correspondence this week. Be less aggressive with someone you love. Your demands may be too great.

LIBRA—Sept. 23 to Oct. 22—Spend some quiet evening at home. Read, answer letters or watch television. The rest will be good for you.

SCORPIO—Oct. 23 to Nov. 22—Let your partner or mate make the decisions this week. You must practice letting others have their way part of the time.

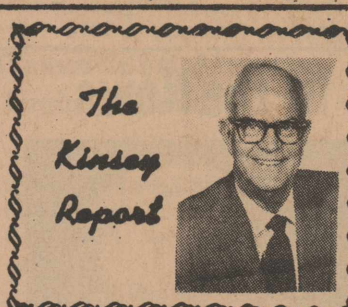

SAGITTARIUS—Nov. 23 to Dec. 21—Carry your part of the responsibility for your family circle. Maintain peace and harmony, especially with elders.

CAPRICORN—Dec. 22 to Jan. 19—Stand up for your rights. Expect your family to emerge by insisting that they carry their share of the responsibility.

Fashion

The wrapped look is back in some blouses and dresses. They usually tie or are fastened at the side. Fabrics for this type garment are soft and drapes easily.

Many of the new clothes for evening are either strapless or have one bare shoulder.

The Kinsay Report

As I have said before, everybody's dog is the funniest and cleverest in the world, and that goes for our dog, too. Our pooch, Shan, a springer spaniel, tries to mooch some food every time we sit down to eat. In the morning, she definitely counts on being fed several pieces of buttered toast, and at lunch and dinner she gets as close as possible to the table -- without sitting in a chair -- in the hope that either my wife or I, or both of us, will hand her something to gulp down.

The other night we had meat loaf, baked potatoes and salad. I ate all my meat loaf, much to the dismay of Shan who kept looking at me with her big, appealing eyes.

So I thought I'd try something. I said to my wife, "I wonder if Shan would like the skin from my baked potato." My wife said, "Of course not," but I decided to find out.

So I wadded up the skin from the baked potato and handed to the dog. At first she acted as though she liked it. She chewed and chewed and chewed, and then she dropped it on the floor.

I looked down and said, "Don't you like it, Shan?" She wagged her tail and carefully put her chin over the remaining potato skin.

She remained in this position, hiding the potato skin as if to give the impression she had eaten it. At least that's what we assume.

Early Bird League

There were two scratch series of 522 bowled last week one by Marvline Wix with a high game of 187 and the other by Ida Armstrong with a high game of 180.

Joyce Arthur was the only bowler to pick up a split, the 5-7.

Weekly standings are: Armstrong Auto Parts 50 1/2-29 1/2; Kelly's Drive Inn 46-34; Ray's Texaco 44-36; Roaten Drug Store 41-39; Kinkades 39-41; Kim's Bar-B-Que 34-46; Slip Real Estate 34-46; Little Bob's 31 1/2-48 1/2.

High individual series: Kelly's Drive Inn 2993; Slip Real Estate 2972; Roaten Drug Store 2906.

High team game: Kelly's Drive Inn 1053; Kim's Bar-B-Que 1052; Slip Real Estate 1045.

High individual series: Joyce Arthur 690; Jeanette Mullinax 674; Marie Mullinax 672.

High individual game: Dorothy Bruton 252; Jeanette Mullinax 251; Mary Dearsan 246.

PUBLIC NOTICES

BECAUSE THE PEOPLE MUST KNOW

(Editor's Note: Public Notice advertising plays a unique role both in American history and in the process by which this country's democracy is preserved. Its one premise is that people must be informed if they are to govern themselves competently. Public Notice advertising first came into being with the Congress of 1792. That body, recognizing its responsibility to the people, required the Postmaster General to advertise for bids for the construction of new post offices. From that inauspicious beginning to the complex publication requirements in federal, state and local laws today, government officials have come more and more to understand their obligations to inform the public through Public Notice advertising. Newspapers over the years have been the vehicle by which these obligations have been fulfilled. They will continue to be as long as the public demands that it be informed frequently and by the best means possible.)

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Bertram S. Brown, M.D. Director National Institute of Mental Health

AIDING INDIANS

Training programs geared to the needs of American Indian communities are getting underway in five schools of social work as a result of new grants totalling nearly $350,000 awarded by the National Institute of Mental Health, of HEW's Health Services and Mental Health Administration. Members of the American Indian communities involved played an important part in the planning and development of each of these innovative programs.

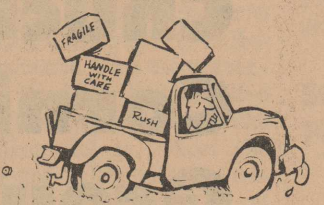

In cooperation with the Phoenix Indian School, Arizona State University at Tempe plans improvement in educating Indians in boarding schools and in training social workers to serve in the Rocky Mountain Southwest region.

Down in Florida, Barry College of Miami Shores aims to develop leadership potential among Seminole Indians and to aid Indians in Southeast Florida.

In Oklahoma, Indians are to be recruited, educated, and supported to become social workers for their people; this training, through the University of Oklahoma, will provide field experience in eastern Oklahoma.

By employing Indian faculty and recruiting Indian and native Alaskan students, the Portland Oregon State University seeks to provide increased educational and career opportunities in the field of social work.

OUR NEW MEAT LABELS
TELL YOU WHAT
YOU NEED TO KNOWOur new meat identification program takes the guesswork out of selecting meat and how to prepare it... helps you be a "smarter" meat shopper and a better cook. Our improved meat label tells you at a glance the type of meat (Beef, Pork, Lamb or Veal),
