

Retires January 1

Reception Honors Mrs. Jennie Holcomb Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, Wellington's city secretary for twenty-six and a half years, is retiring from that office Jan. 1, and in recognition of her work, the people of the town will honor her Sunday, Dec. 2.

A reception, to which the public is invited, will be held Sunday at the community building between the hours of 2:30 and 5 p.m.

The hosts are the city officials and employees.

It is expected that her five children will be here to share the celebration with her: Dr. H. A. Holcomb with Humble Oil and Refining Co., Baytown; Dr. Dysart Holcomb, in the research department with El Paso Natural Gas Company, and former president of Texas Western College, El Paso; Dr. Carter Holcomb, of Wellington; Sam Holcomb, with an aircraft company, Bellflower, Calif.; and Mrs. R. L. Johnson, San Ysidro, Calif.

Mrs. Holcomb denies there is anything unusual about her career, begun July 20, 1936 after her husband's death, and when her children were at what parents now refer to as "the expensive age."

But there could be no expensive age in the middle years of the depression.

"My salary was $50 a month and I was glad to get it," she recalls.

"I was hired one day and told to start work the next. I didn't know if it were for a week or a month or a year. I just knew I was glad to have it," she adds.

Mrs. Holcomb was hired as assistant secretary under Joe Thompson.

"Deskins Wells was mayor," she said in a brief period of thinking back, "and the members of the city council were Dick Wiley, Stanley Larsen, J. S. Dorn, Ernest Scott, and E. N. Lewis."

"There have been only eight mayors in those 26 years," Mrs. Holcomb added. "Deck until 1937; Fred LeDerer from 1937 to 1941; E. F. Lewis from 1941 to 1951; L. B. Bratten, who resigned and Lester Hunter filled out his term. Then J. B. Castleberry was elected, and now Hiram Cudd."

Mrs. Holcomb has seen the city water department grow from between 700 and 800 meters to more than 1500. Tax valuations have more than doubled.

"When I started, everything was done with pen and ink. The water bills were made out by hand. I did address them on the typewriter. Every one of them had to be handled seven times before they were mailed."

"If I worked hard I could post them all in two days," she says.

Now the city has as much modern office machines equipment as is needed for a town this size.

When Joe Thompson resigned as City Secretary in January 1945, Mrs. Holcomb was elevated to that post.

Mrs. Holcomb was born in Collingsworth county. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dysart, who came here in 1888, two years before the county was organized.

Her husband was the late Henry Holcomb, long-time Wellington banker, who died in 1934.

Before her marriage, she had worked briefly, and again after her husband's death and before she was hired by the city. She is active in the First Methodist Church and its Wesleyan Guild. She is a past matron of the Wellington Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, and for about 12 years ("I don't remember just how long!") she has been its secretary.

HONOR FOR CITY SECRETARY

Wellington citizens will honor Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, city secretary, with a reception Sunday, December 2, from 2:30 to 5 p. m. Mrs. Holcomb will retire January 1 after 26½ years service to the City of Wellington.

Letters to Santa Will Be Published Again This Year

Dear Santa Claus!

It's letter writing time again in Collingsworth and The Wellington Leader has a special message for the kiddies.

Letters to Santa Claus will be published again this year in the big special Christmas edition of The Wellington Leader. This is due to come out December 20.

Every child in the county and Wellington trade area is invited to put his or her wishes on paper—or have someone do it for you if you're not old enough to do it yourself—and mail it to

The Wellington Leader
Box 992
Wellington, Texas

Or you can bring it to the office.

Those letters will be carefully copied and mailed on to Santa Claus at the North Pole, where his workshop is located, and from where he sends word that he has toys to fill every Christmas want.

But you are urged to write your letter to Santa NOW!

The annual letters-to-Santa edition of The Wellington Leader are something of a tradition in Collingsworth county—going back more than 30 years.

Many, many of the youngsters who will write their letters this year are the children of boys and girls who wrote letters to Santa Claus and saw them published in this newspaper 15 or 20 or more years ago.

Carter Home After Surgery

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Carter returned home from Temple on Friday, Nov. 23. Mr. Carter was a patient in Scott and White Clinic for 17 days, during which time he underwent major surgery.

Mrs. Carter says he is doing fine and is glad to be home. He may be able to return to his job at Cicero Smith Lumber Co., some time next week.

TOBACCO HARVEST

B. F. Chance prepared to harvest his tobacco crop as freeze warnings went out from the weather bureau. The plant has grown in front of his oil agency headquarters during the summer and fall, although most passers by did not recognize the crop for what it was. Although tobacco has been grown here in the past, this is the first plant reported in a number of years.

Cotton Quota Vote Set for December 11

Polling places where Collingsworth county farmers may cast ballots in the referendum on marketing quotas for the 1963 upland cotton crop were announced by W. C. Harwell, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committee. The referendum will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 11.

The polling places are located as follows: Community A—C&H Pharmacy in Wellington; Community B—Farmers Co-op Gin office in Dodson; Community C—Farmers Co-op Gin office in Wellington; Community D—Tindall Gin office in Quail; Community E—Cecil Brown's store in Samnorwood and Dozier Gin office in Dozier; and Community F—Lutie G'n office in Lutie.

Harwell explained that every effort has been made to inform farmers fully about the allotment-quota program so that the outcome of the referendum may represent the considered opinion of all voters. Farmers eligible to cast ballots are all those who engaged in the production of upland cotton crop in 1962. Approval by at least two-thirds of the growers voting is necessary if the quotas are to go into effect.

Issues to be decided in the December 11 referendum are (1) quotas or no quotas; and (2) the level of price support to be available for the 1963 upland cotton crop.

If the vote is favorable quotas will be in effect for the crop—with penalties on any excess cotton produced on a farm, and price support to growers who comply with their farm allotments will be available at a level of from 65 to 90% of parity.

Wellington's Holiday Season Opens as Decorations Go Up

Christmas decorations go up this week to mark the official opening of the holiday season in the Wellington trade area.

Unofficially, the Christmas rush is already on, according to Wellington merchants, who expect this to be one of the best holiday seasons of recent years. Santa Claus is due momentarily.

Final plans for his arrival were made in a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas committee Tuesday night, Nov. 27.

Santa Claus will arrive in Wellington in his popular stage coach Friday, Dec. 7, at 3 p.m. for his annual visit with the kiddies. "Every effort will be made to make this trip for the smaller children," Morris Sullivan, chairman of the C-C Christmas committee said.

There will be plenty of time for Santa to visit with his young friends.

The town's traditional Christmas star will be lighted, and the lights strung along the streets around the square.

Highlighting this year's decorations are four new Santa Clauses, to be set up at each corner of the square.

Custom made, they stand eight feet high and each shows Santa in a different pose.

City residents are urged to decorate their homes for the holiday season, but there will be no lighting contest as such.

Holiday merchandise came out in local stores a little earlier this year, to give successful competition to the larger towns seeking the local trade.

And buyers are responding, according to the merchants!

There is more buying locally—and people are buying better merchandise to give—more practical gifts, too, a check has revealed.

More luxury merchandise is in the local stores—imported china, silver, designer furniture, appliances, in fact about every item and every major name line that can be offered in this part of the country.

There is less of the so-called "Christmas merchandise," that merchandise that relies heavily on catchy and attractive packaging rather than on content.

"I think people are buying more practical things—household items and clothes," one merchant commented.

"Quality is the thing in almost every line," another remarked.

First Teams, Honorable Mention

Rockets Win Places on All District Grid Teams

Four Skyrockets won places on the all-district football team chosen last week by District 2-A coaches in a meeting in McLean. Announcement of the selections was made by Coach Don Beck.

One of these, Herbie Duncan, was named end on the offensive all-district team.

Three Rockets placed on the defensive team: Glenn Thomas, guard; Gary Holliman, end; and Craig Bergvall, halfback.

Honorable mention went to six others and three were named on first teams. Jennings Wells was named both offensive tackle and defensive tackle; and Thomas was picked as offensive guard.

Raymond Sanders, Holliman, Bergvall and Lynn McLain received honorable mention as offensive backs.

Receiving honorable mention in the defensive line were Joe Rudy, Wells and Charles Floyd. Sanders and Gary White received honorable mention as linebackers.

Coaches of the six district schools made the selections. These were Jack James of Clarendon, Dunny Goode of Lefors, Darrell Davis of McLean, Ned Jolly of Canadian, Ned Lambert of Memphis and Beck. The following were the complete teams selected:

Offensive Team

Ends: Bridges of Memphis, and Woodring of Lefors (tie); and Duncan of Wellington; tackles: Todd of Lefors and Patton of McLean; guards: Ortega of Canadian and McCool of Lefors; center: Coleman of Lefors; backs: Crockett of McLean; Arrington of Lefors; and a tie between Smith of Lefors, Elmore of Clarendon and Sheaf of Canadian; quarterback: McAnear of Clarendon and Anthony McCool of Lefors (tie).

"We had all three of our backs mentioned and it split our votes, and we couldn't get a boy on it," Coach Don Beck said.

Defensive Team

Line: Grisham of Memphis, Todd of Lefors, Thomas of Wellington, Gailey of Memphis, Conyers of Canadian, McBray of Clarendon and Holliman of Wellington;

Linebackers: Patton of McLean, Ortega of Canadian, Elmore of Clarendon and a tie;

McCool of Lefors and Evans of McLean.

Defensive safeties: Bergvall of Wellington; and Arrington and Smith, Lefors (tie).

For Outstanding Work

4-H Awards Program Set Monday Night

The annual 4-H Club Awards Program will be held Monday night, Dec. 3, when approximately 30 boys and girls will be recognized for outstanding work during the year.

The program will be held in the community building, beginning at 7 p.m., Mrs. Kathryn Barjenbruch, home demonstration agent, said.

The list of award recipients will not be announced prior to the meeting, she added.

The awards cover many fields of 4-H Club work, including the various phases of home-making and farm activities.

The Gold Star Award winners, Nancy Alexander of Lutie and Lynval Black of Dodson, were announced earlier, but they will receive this symbol of their outstanding achievement at Awards Night.

In addition to the presentation of awards, there will be an entertainment program presented by the 4-H Clubs of the county.

The public is invited.

To Shamrock Medical Meet

Two Wellington doctors were in Shamrock recently to attend the regular meeting of the Five County Medical Society. They were Dr. D. V. Watkins and Dr. Carter Holcomb.

The theme for this meeting was "Gynecological Procedures and Problems." The speakers were two Oklahoma City brothers, Dr. Joe Fennell and Dr. James Fennell.

Dr. Don Blaketter of Shamrock is president of the Five-County Medical Society.

During Next Week

Rockets Play Quail, Childress, Perryton

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes will meet Quail Quails and Bobwhites in a game there Friday, Nov. 29.

They will return to their home court Tuesday, Dec. 4, when the Rocket A and B teams meet the two Childress Bobcat teams, and the Rockettes play the Perryton Rangerettes.

This will be the first time the Quail and Wellington teams have met this year. Quail, with young teams, has been practicing since classes were resumed following cotton pulling vacation. Competition will be stiffer in the next trio of games.

Childress remains one of the stronger teams in Class 5-AA. Since that school does not have girls basketball, the Rockettes will play the Perryton team, and this game will start at 6 p.m. The boys games will follow.

The Rockettes and Perryton split their games last year, but Childress defeated the Wellington boys at both their meetings.

Annual Income Forms Mailed to Veterans

The Veterans Administration will mail some 11,800 annual income questionnaires with the Nov. 30 pension checks to beneficiaries in the West Texas area, Robert W. Sisson, manager of the VA regional office in Lubbock, said today.

These annual income questionnaires go to veterans and dependents of deceased veterans on the VA's nonservice-connected pension rolls and to parents of deceased veterans who are receiving dependency and indemnity compensation.

The questionnaires are punched cards which must be filled out with the required information and returned to the VA before the usual deadline — Jan. 31 — or payments will be suspended. If after suspension no questionnaire is submitted, the pensioner will be required to pay back all payments received in 1962.

The forms are machine punched. Sisson requests that the cards be handled with care so they can be processed thru tabulating machines when they are returned. They must not be folded, trimmed or mutilated in any manner.

The VA manager emphasized that the cards should be returned promptly to the address in the upper right hand corner. This address should be copied exactly as it appears on the form.

Sisson pointed out that the earlier distribution will permit those with fixed incomes to return the cards at once, while those with earnings or changing incomes may still wait until they get their W-2 forms or other information they need to know in order to answer the questions.

Veterans and dependents receiving pension under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1960 are required to report only their annual income. Persons on the rolls under the pension law that went into effect July 1, 1960, must also fill in a net worth item as required by law. Laws governing nonservice-connected pension payments require that the VA receive this income information every year. Payment of pension depends on the individual's need as determined by the amount of income received annually from sources other than pension, the VA added.

LAND INVENTORY BEING TAKEN

AUSTIN.—State school lands and mineral ownership is being inventoried.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reveals that close examination of over 153,000 separate files is half completed.

He reports that during 1874-1951, school lands were sold under dozens of different statutes.

Sadler estimates that "a mineral estate of 4,000,000 acres was reserved in these transactions."

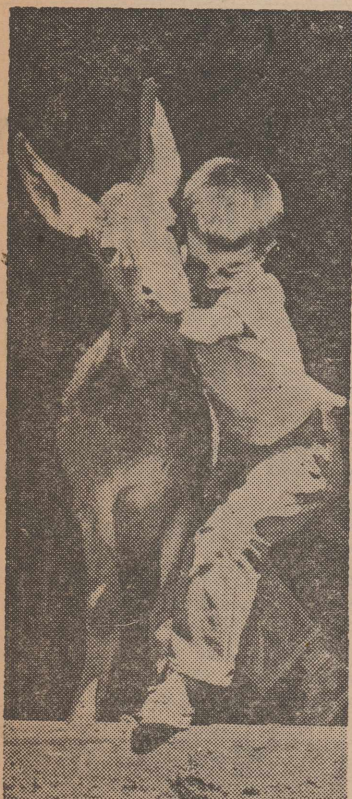

This, with riverbeds, submerged lands, the University domain and the almost 900,000 acres held outright by the state, create the 22,000,000-acre endowment for public education.

HIDES FOR THERAPY

AUSTIN.—The Volunteer Services Council for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools is urging deer hunters to donate hides of killed deer to state patients and students for occupational therapy use.

Council said shipping tags giving specific directions for donating the hides are available from most chambers of commerce.

Council arranges tanning and delivery of the finished leather to the State Hospitals and Special Schools.

PET PROBLEM—It's a stubborn battle fought on both sides when John Johnson, 7, tries to get Tinker out in the sunshine. Tinker, 2 months old, seems unmoved over it.

FED UP—These children got a little fed up on these witches mixing their respective brew at a New York candy factory. Halloween will bring on new appetite however.

Mail Early for Christmas, Bratten Urges

Postmaster L. B. Bratten launched his 1962 "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign today by offering the following helpful suggestions to guide you in planning your Christmas mailings this year.

Bring your Christmas card and gift lists up-to-date immediately, Postmaster Bratten urges. Be sure each address is complete, with full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

He also urges that Christmas cards be sent by first class mail using the new 4¢ Christmas stamps, to secure priority of dispatch and delivery, forwarding without additional charge, and return to you without cost, providing you put your return name and address on the envelopes. Also, Christmas cards sent First Class may be sealed and carry written messages.

The postmaster asks that you separate your Christmas cards into "Local" and "Out of Town" bundles, using the handy labels you can secure at the post office or from your letter carrier.

He suggests that you stock up on the new 4¢ Christmas postage stamps. They will "dress up" your Christmas cards and gift packages.

Schedule your Christmas mailings so that your cards and gift packages going to most distant points are mailed by Dec. 10. Mail Christmas packages for local destinations by Dec. 15, and by all means, be sure to mail your Christmas cards for friends and relatives in this area at least a week before Christmas.

Use Air Mail for Christmas cards and gift parcels for distant points, especially for your last minute mailings.

Adequate Protein a Necessity

"Adequate protein must be available if a successful job of wintering beef cattle is done," says E. E. Grissom, Mississippi State University Extension Animal Husbandman.

To supply these protein needs he recommends feeding a high protein supplement of vegetable origin such as cottonseed meal. According to Grissom, the protein needs are as follows: "mature cows calving in the fall—2 to 2½ lbs. daily; mature cows calving in the spring, 1 to 1½ lbs. daily; yearling heifers and steers, 1 to 1½ lb. daily; heifer calves and steer calves, 1 to 1½ lbs. daily. Cattle on feed will need 1½ to 3 lbs. daily, depending on basic ration, age and quality.

SAVING LIVES

AUSTIN.—Texas' six-year traffic safety program has resulted in 300 lives saved, Gov. Daniel and the Texas Traffic Council so summed up the effort at decreasing the rate of fatalities on streets and highways.

Then they passed the torch to Governor-elect Connally, Attorney General-elect Waggoner Carr and their administration.

How to save lives was the subject of a two-hour conference in Austin.

Connally and Carr were present to accept the challenge.

Wellington Has One

Emergency Conditions Show Packaged Hospital Value

(Editor's Note: The following article concerns "packaged Civil Defense hospitals," such as the one Wellington has. Others in this area are at Canyon, Childress, Knox City, and Wichita Falls. There is a training hospital at Amarillo.)

Texas has 90 "packaged hospitals" on hand, ready for almost instant use following enemy action or a major natural disaster. Most of them are located at least 15 miles from assumed strategic target areas. The hospitals, costing $21,000 apiece, were provided by the federal Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization as part of a nationwide stockpile program. They are administered in Texas by the state Office of Defense and Disaster Relief, with technical cooperation from the Texas State Department of Health.

Outgrowths of the mobile army hospitals developed and tested during the Korean War, they can be completely installed by 40 or 50 people in four or five hours. In one test exercise an installation was made in 70 minutes by experienced personnel.

Local civil defense organizations in designated locations store and otherwise manage the hospitals and equipment. Emergency conditions such as the Cuban crisis are occasions for making sure the hospitals are in a high state of readiness.

Each unit—already crated for instant shipment into stricken areas, is a complete 200-bed affair with facilities for three operating rooms, a pharmacy, x-ray service, clinical laboratory, sterilizing room, central supply room, and electrical power supply.

Each hospital weighs 24,000 pounds and contains 8,000 individual pieces of equipment, including a 1500-gallon water tank and pump for emergency water supplies. There are also complete medical supplies, from surgical caps and gowns to ether and alcohol which are separately packaged and marked to avoid fire hazards.

Local civil defense authorities provide refrigeration for items such as insulin and blood derivatives. Antibiotics and other materials with expiration dates are labeled "deteriorative" to indicate they must be periodically inspected and rotated.

State civil defense and health authorities estimate that emer-

B&PW Initiates "Student of the Month" Program to Honor Girls

The Business and Professional Women's Club this month chose its first "Student of the Month," Mrs. Luther Gribble, chairman of the selection committee, announced.

The selection of the Student of the Month is decided by the faculty and the B&PW committee, composed of Mrs. Gribble, Mrs. Ernest Harwell and Mrs. Guy Owens.

The student is chosen on the basis of personality, aptitude, citizenship, adaptability, and participation in both extra-curricular and scholastic activities.

"I don't know how a girl could do any more than Sylvia does," Mrs. Gribble remarked in announcing the selection.

Coming to Wellington only about five years ago, Sylvia's outstanding work here has been as a Future Homemakers member and in music.

She is fourth vice president of the Texas Association of Future Homemakers of America, and in this capacity is in charge of music and recreation on the state level. Last year she held the same office in Area I.

During the summer, she was in charge of part of the program for the national convention of FHA, held in Salt Lake City, and also directed the recreation for the delegates on the special train en route to the meeting.

She will be in charge of the evening program at the state FHA convention in April.

Sylvia also is secretary of the senior class and a member of the Beta Club which is the high school honor society, and the Future Teachers of America.

Check the Rules Before You Hunt That Bonus Deer

AUSTIN.—Many hunters still do not know how to use the bonus deer tag attached to their regular hunting license this year. Here's the way it works, according to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary for the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

First of all, it can only be used on antlerless or doe deer. It cannot be used on buck deer. Before you can use this bonus tag you must have an antlerless deer permit. The antlerless deer permit can be obtained only from the landowner on whose land you are hunting. You must have this antlerless deer permit before you can kill an antlerless or doe deer.

As soon as you get your antlerless or doe deer the bonus tag must be tied along with the permit to the foreleg of the deer. You can use your other two tags on antlerless deer so long as each has an antlerless deer permit to go with it. The bonus tag is located by itself at the far left of your license. The bonus tag and the antlerless or doe deer permit are two entirely different forms.

Before you kill an antlerless or doe deer, be sure to check with the landowner and get your permit. Remember, you CANNOT use the third, or bonus, deer tag on buck deer. Only the two tags together at the far right of your licenses can be used for bucks. The antlerless or doe permit can ONLY be obtained from the landowner on whose property you intend to hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White of Houston, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stall and Mrs. Grace White.

Robert Clinton Randall, 22, Harmon county, Okla., and Miss Gwendolyn Lemons, 19, Collingsworth county, Nov. 13.

Beginning Drivers Need Licenses Too

What must a Texas teenager do to learn to drive?

Capt. Sanford B. Lee, Drivers' License Service supervisor for this region of the Texas Department of Public Safety, says if you want to learn to drive or need to practice before you take the driving test, you must make application and pass the vision, signs and rules test.

Then a license will be issued to permit the beginner to drive only when there is a licensed driver in the front seat with the driver. If the applicant is at least 16 years of age or has successfully completed the Driver Education 'Behind the Wheel' training, the restriction will be removed from the license when the driver completes his test by passing the driving test.

License Required

Every resident of the state who drives a motor vehicle must have either a valid Texas operator's commercial or chauffeurs license.

Lee says if a youth is under 18 years of age, his application for a license must be signed under oath by someone who is willing to assume the responsibility for any negligence or misconduct on his part while driving.

If the father is living and has custody of a minor, he is required to sign the application, otherwise the application must be signed by the mother or guardian.

If neither father, mother or guardian has custody of the minor, then the application must be signed by the employer or judge in the county in which he lives.

"It is unlawful for any person who has the custody of a minor to permit such minor to operate a motor vehicle without a valid license," Captain Lee said.

If a minor is under 16 years of age, he must meet one of three requirements before being examined for a license.

1. He must present a certificate signed by a certified driver education instructor and the school superintendent or principal showing he has successfully passed an approved driver education course in the public school system.

2. The applicant must present an authorization from the Department of Public Safety showing an emergency necessity for driving.

3. The applicant may apply for a commercial operator's license restricted to motorcycle or motorbike only, not to exceed 5 brake horsepower.

None Under 14

A person under 14 years of age in Texas may not be licensed and must not drive.

Lee stressed that boys and girls driving motor scooters must have a license and obey traffic laws and signals just as a driver of an automobile.

"This same rule applies to motor scooter drivers, that no one under 14 years of age be allowed to drive them," Lee said.

"Motor scooters must also be inspected and licensed annually just as an automobile," he added.

Some parents think it is permissible to let their children drive on dirt roads or county roads while they are learning. "This is not legal because these roads are the same as any other public highway that is open for use of the public and are controlled by Texas statutes," Lee said.

Everyone should know that ignorance is no excuse for disobeying the law, because a person can ask any officer what the correct procedure is on a beginner learning to drive or can obtain a digest of traffic rules or a driver's handbook from any DPS office.

When a person without a license drives the automobile of a friend, if stopped by an officer, the friend can be fined on in court for allowing an unauthorized minor to drive.

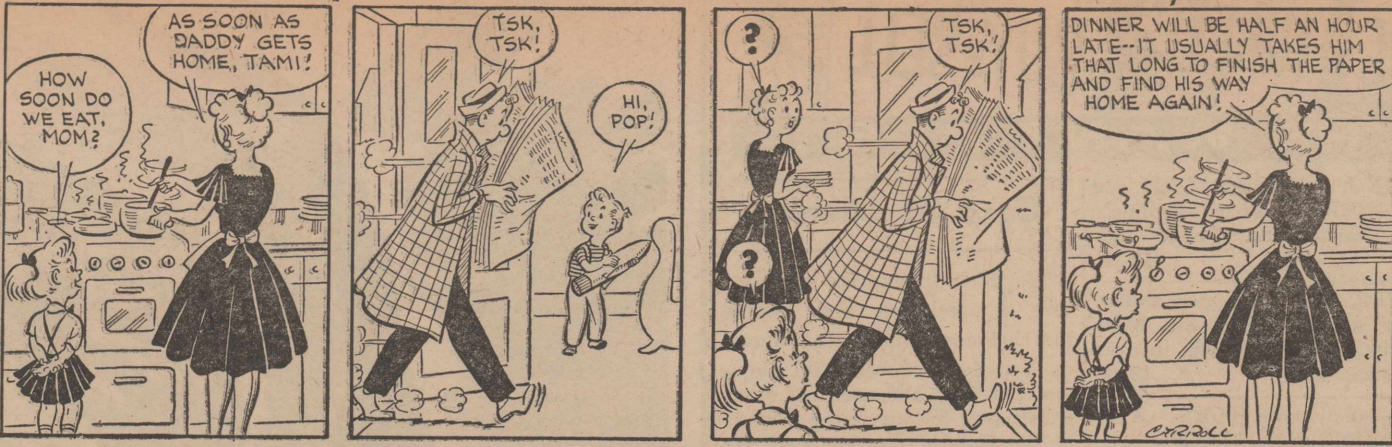

If a parent or guardian permits an unlicensed person to drive, they too can be fined for permitting an unlicensed minor to drive.

Lee advised that both offenses are subject to a $1 to $200 fine.

The Driver's License office in Wellington is located in the courthouse in the Commissioners' Court room, and is open the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. Written examinations begin at 9:00 a.m. and at 1:00 p.m. and are followed by the driving test, Capt. Lee concluded.

Mrs. H. B. Lowrie was in Crosbyton during the week end to visit her daughter-in-law and son, Mr. and Mrs. Athan Lowrie and baby.

BUSES, TRUCKS SCORN SPEED LAWS

AUSTIN.—Texas truck and bus drivers are worse speeders than passenger car drivers. So reports the Texas Highway Department.

Speed recording tests made by the Department shows truckers are the worst offenders, with an average speed violation record of 73.3% exceeding the legal speed limit.

Department's annual speed survey shows busses came next to truckers in speed-limit disregard. Their average was 63.7 miles per hour.

Average speed of passenger cars was 55.4 miles per hour—within the limits of 60 mph during the daytime and 55 mph at night.

WTU Receives National Safe Driving Honor

National honors for outstanding safe driver performance were won by West Texas Utilities Company in the Public Utility Division of the 31st National Fleet Safety Contest conducted by the National Safety Council.

The West Texas Utilities Company fleet, consisting of 322 vehicles, was awarded first place in the Public Utility Division at ceremonies held in conjunction with the 50th National Safety Congress and Exposition.

The award is based on the company's safety performance from July 1961 through June 1962. During this period, the firm's drivers operated 5,289,791 miles and had 1.7 accidents per 1,000,000 miles of operation.

All accidents were counted in the contest except those occurring when a company vehicle was properly parked. Winners were determined after inspection of their records by an auditor appointed by the National Fleet Safety Contest committee.

Doyle Gray, safety engineer for West Texas Utilities, received the award for the employees of West Texas Utilities.

Winners were also honored at a Victory Luncheon sponsored by General Motors Corporation in the La Salle Hotel's Grand Ballroom in Chicago. The principal speaker was K. E. Staley, vice president in charge of the distribution staff, General Motors Corporation. More than 700 safety experts from the nation's motor transportation industry attended the luncheon.

Over 2,500 fleets competed in the contest, operating 305,200 vehicles and traveling over six and a quarter billion miles.

The combined average frequency rate of 13.02 accidents per 1,000,000 miles is an increase of 4% over the previous contest period and is the highest rate since the 1957-1958 contest.

Harold R. Hosea, chairman of the National Fleet Safety contest committee, congratulated the winners and participants for their support of the contest and urged them to take greater strides toward safer fleet operations in the coming year.

Draft Status Under Military Service Cited

AUSTIN. — Since President Kennedy's proclamation of arms quarantine around Cuba, some men who have no legal obligation for draft registration or military service have been asking Texas draft boards about their obligation.

If you were born on or before Aug. 30, 1922, you are not registered with the draft board and you have no legal obligation to register. Furthermore, you have no responsibility to keep the draft board advised of your current address.

If you were born after Aug. 30, 1922, you are legally required to be registered, unless you are not yet 18 years old.

If you are registered and have reached the age of 35, you are no longer liable for military service under present law; but you are still obligated to keep your local board advised of your current address.

Some men are no longer liable at ages 26 and 28. At these ages, where a man is no longer liable for service, he is classified V-A, and the little classification notice he is required to carry in his pocket is so marked.

An increasing number of people are asking draft boards for the meaning of Selective Service Classifications. These follow:

I-A: Available for military service.

I-A-O: Conscientious objector available for non-combatant military service.

I-C: Member of the armed forces, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or Public Health Services.

I-D: Qualified member of the armed forces reserve, or student taking military training, including ROTC and accepted aviation cadet applicants.

I-O: Conscientious objector available for civilian work contributing to maintenance of the national health, safety, or interest.

I-S: Student deferred by law until graduation from high school or attainment of age 20; or until the end of his academic year at a college or university.

I-W: Conscientious objector performing civilian work in the national interest, or who has completed such work.

I-Y: A man qualified for military service only in time of war or emergency.

II-A: Occupational deferment other than agricultural and student.

II-C: Agricultural deferment.

II-S: Student deferment.

III-A: Extreme hardship deferment, or a man with child or children. Any man who prior to Aug. 25, 1953 had a child or children and lived with them in his home, and so advised the board, is eligible for Class III-A. Any man who acquired a child or children on or since Aug. 25, 1953 is not eligible for Class III-A because of them unless military service would result in extreme hardship to them, or certain other dependents.

IV-A: A man with sufficient prior military service, or who is a sole surviving son of a family of which one or more sons or daughters already have died in line of duty in the armed forces.

IV-B: Certain public officials deferred by law.

IV-C: Deferment of certain aliens.

IV-D: Minister of religion or divinity student.

IV-F: Physically or mentally unfit or morally unacceptable.

V-A: Over the age of liability for military service. If a man receives certain deferments resulting in classification in Classes I-D, I-S, I-Y, II-A, II-C, II-S, III-A, IV-B and IV-F before he is 26 years old, his liability for military service will be extended from age 26 to ages 28 or 35, depending upon the deferment received.

Lt. Gov. and Family—Texas, new Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is shown here with his wife Ima and their two children Mickey, 21, and Jan. 17. They will be moving to Austin in January for the 58th Legislature.

Rangers to Use Traditional Badge

AUSTIN.—Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced recently the Texas Rangers are going back to the tradition-steeped Mexican silver badge worn by their predecessors in frontier days.

Garrison said the new official Ranger badge, issued to each of the 62 members of the force, is a replica of the badge which old-time Rangers carved out of Mexican silver pieces when Texas became a state and their duties changed from military to law enforcement.

The best information available indicates that the five-pointed star on the badge symbolizes the "Lone Star" of Texas. The points are supported by an engraved wheel.

When the Department of Public Safety was created in 1935 and the Rangers became a part of it, the badge was replaced with a solid badge of somewhat different shape and design.

Then in 1957, a different badge was adopted for all officers of the Department, including the Rangers. This is a modern version of the old Ranger badge, with a five-pointed star surrounded by a royal blue background.

The history of the Rangers dates back to 1823 when Stephen F. Austin hired a contingent of ten men to "range" over a wide area to protect his colonists from Indians. Since that time the force has been synonymous with the suppression of lawlessness and crime—first the Indians, then the bandits and cattle-rustlers, then the outlaws of the early 20th century, and finally the modern-day criminals.

SALES TAX CURES TEXAS' ILLS?

AUSTIN.—Texas' new sales tax may have cured the state's financial ills.

Similar views on this subject have been expressed by James W. McGrew, director for the Texas Research League, and Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman of the State and Local Tax Policy Committee.

The Parkhouse committee will recommend to the Legislature in January some changes, mainly corrective, in the 1961 sales tax act.

He predicted the committee will recommend more new tax exemptions than it will seek to abolish.

Parkhouse says the net result would be a small increase in revenue under the tax now raising $170,000,000 a year.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A Public Service Feature
by the State Bar of Texas

UNFAIR LAWS

Our Constitution says Congress shall pass NO BILL OF ATTAINDER nor ANY EX POST FACTO law. The fear that our parliament might repeat what the early English parliament did, led our founding fathers to limit the power of Congress.

"In a 'bill of attainder' a legislative body punishes someone without a court trial, most often someone the lawmakers don't like.

After the Civil War, some northern states tried to keep Confederate supporters from suing in their courts. The U.S. Supreme Court said nix: such laws punished without a fair trial.

In later years Congress has tried now and then to penalize persons who have not cooperated with Congressional Investigating Committees, in one case by cutting their salaries and requiring Senate re-confirmation before they got paid. The U.S. Supreme Court held: The law is unconstitutional. Congress could not thus punish a person without a court trial.

Usually a bill of attainder strikes at a few persons by burdening them without fair warning or hearing.

Our legislature may penalize anyone who breaks its laws. If you don't pay your auto registration on time, you have to pay a penalty automatically. Such a penalty does not violate the bill of attainder clause.

Ex post facto laws would make crimes out of acts which when they were done were lawful. In one case a new law took away a court defense which had been allowed. In another case a state law cut the jurors allowed in a criminal trial from 12 to 8. The U.S. Supreme Court said that no such law could apply to past crimes. A person accused might be put to a disadvantage.

The ex post facto clause applies only to legislative acts; not to new court interpretations.

One law changed the punishment for murder from hanging to electrocution. The courts held the law valid. It did not change the punishment.

The procedure for trial, or the rules of evidence may be revised if they do not add punishment or take away a protection.

Trew Aids in Study of East Texas Problems

COLLEGE STATION.—E. M. (Ted) Trew, extension pasture specialist, has been assigned leadership responsibility in coordinating an intensive study of East Texas problems and resources directed toward development of an action program to increase net income of the area. Dr. R. E. Patterson, dean of Agriculture, Texas A&M College, announced recently.

Trew will discuss problems and possible solutions with agricultural and business leaders throughout East Texas, tabulate research data of particular significance to the area, and present the findings to a broadly representative group of citizens, including heads of State and Federal agencies, who will chart the overall course of action.

Dr. Patterson said the ultimate objective of Trew's study is the development in each East Texas county of an income-increasing program involving all individuals and organizations who are in a position to contribute to the county's economic growth.

TEXTBOOKS SELECTED, EXCEPT FOR ECONOMICS

AUSTIN.—State Board of Education voted to accept the State Textbook Committee's recommendations for new texts in 13 public school courses, and approved its recommendation not to select new economics texts at this time.

In compiling a list of some 65 textbooks for selection by local boards, the 15-member committee studied 188 books submitted by 33 publishers, with the assistance of 517 professional advisors and 400 laymen.

Texas Education Agency experts in 10 fields then reviewed their selections and submitted some 400 suggested corrections, which the publishers agreed to make.

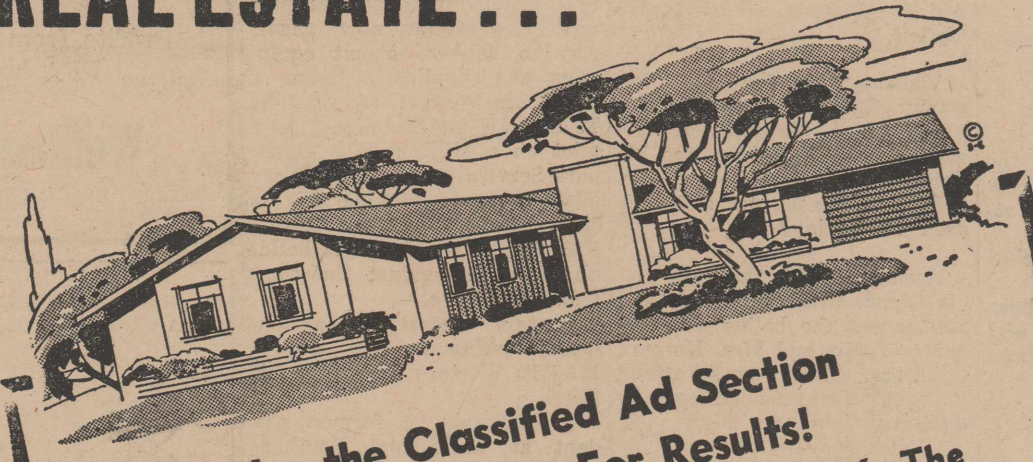

Most of the corrections refer to typographical mistakes and minor factual errors.

State Library agreed to keep a copy of each recommended text so that they will be available to individuals who may want to protest acceptance by local school boards.

Board of Education will also send samples to local boards, according to enrollment: one set for 500 pupils; 16 sets for 10,001 to 50,000 pupils, etc.

Local boards must appoint their selection committees by Dec. 15.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The merchants of Wellington are starting their Christmas merchandising right at the beginning of the season as you can tell by studying the advertisements in this issue. Most of them have been as busy as beavers for the past ten days getting their stores decorated and their Christmas items on display. It is interesting to me to stroll through the stores and see the variety of goodies and pretties. Many housewives have started filling out their Christmas lists. This business of waiting until the week before Christmas before starting gift buying disappeared years ago. The smart shopper is the one who shops early and leisurely.

The drawings start this Saturday and Santa will be in town on Dec. 7. That is the time when all the little children get candy, gum and other tidbits.

You may have thought you were electing a state senator for a four year term on Nov. 6. That remains to be seen. In January the senators will draw to see whether they get a two year term or a four year term. This is required by the state constitution after each 10 year census and redistricting of the legislature.

We have enough crows with us this fall to supply ten counties. I was out at Fresno last week and the crows were there by the thousands. There is talk of organizing a crow shoot, but nothing has been done about it.

Four Texans Are Blinded Every Day

The irreplaceable gift of sight is being lost to one American every 20 minutes. If that figure, estimated by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, holds true for all population segments of the nation, it means that four Texans are blinded each day.

Even as you read this, some man, woman or child is standing on the brink of permanent darkness, about to join the 392,000 other Americans who are already enduring the bleak enormity of blindness.

What causes blindness? There are two major contributing factors: disease and accidents. Neglect exaggerates both of these.

Blindness brought on through neglect really is no worse than that caused by accident or disease. But somehow it seems worse. It's so unnecessary.

If all children were given a thorough eye examination prior to entering school for the first time, and if all visual defects were corrected or placed under treatment at that time, a major step in the prevention of blindness in childhood could be taken. One of every four school children are said to need some form of eye care.

But a single examination is not enough. A child grows very quickly. His eyes, like every other body organ, are constantly changing. Sometimes the change is for the worse.

At least half of all cases of blindness occurring from year to year could be prevented through the use of the sight-saving knowledge at hand. For example, some 300,000 industrial eye injuries occur each year. The mere use of goggles would cut the figure dramatically.

As for disease-caused blindness, modern surgical methods now restore or improve vision in 19 of 20 cases of cataract, the leading cause of blindness in the United States.

When parents or teachers observe a child holding reading matter closer than the normal 14 inches from his face, tilting his head while reading, or constantly blinking, all responsible health and medical authorities agree it should be interpreted as a sign of impending eye trouble.

Other conditions which may indicate eye trouble are crossed eyes, frequent styes and headaches, red-rimmed or en-crustated eyelids, or persistent watering of either eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Russell had their three grandchildren, Sammy, Danny and Muffet Russell, of Dallas visiting in their home several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hutchinson returned last week from Denison, Iowa, where they have spent the past few months. They plan to spend the winter in Wellington.

NEW BUSINESS HOME

The home of Corky's Flower and Gift Shop will be the scene of an open house Sunday, December 2. Mrs. Hubert Bowen, owner, recently moved the business into the combined home and shop which they completed on Highway 83 recently. A Christmas display is seen in the large window.

Sunday Afternoon

Corky's Flower Shop Plans Open House

Open house will be held at Corky's Flower and Gift Shop Sunday, Dec. 2, from 2 to 5 o'clock, in order that the public may see the new home into which the business has moved.

"The public is invited, and we hope all our friends will visit us at that time," Mrs. Hubert Bowen, owner, said.

The new building is next door to the one the business has occupied since it was founded 12 years ago. Its location is on Highway 83.

Both the business and the Bowen home are in the new, two-story structure, finished in buff Mexican brick.

"Many people have asked to see the living section of the house, as well as the shop, and although it is not yet completed, we will be happy to have you visit any part of it," Mrs. Bowen said.

The large front sales room includes refrigerated showcases holding the flowers, and another part of the room is given over to displays of gift items.

The art room is another interesting room of the new building, for her art classes are held evenings. Also there are displays of art materials and picture molding.

Still another room is a combined work room for preparing flowers for delivery, and an office for the owner.

The combined kitchen and family room is downstairs, too, and upstairs are four rooms given over to family use.

Assisting Mrs. Bowen in the flower and gift shop are Mrs. L. A. Gilmore and Mrs. Wayne Cudd. Mrs. James Richardson is in charge of the books.

The Award of Distinction for bringing to the community a farm management and price outlook letter, "Farming for Profit," for the past three years, has been awarded to City State Bank in Wellington.

Farm management and price outlook information included in "Farming for Profit" is designed to increase farm income. The material is presented in a brief, concise letter and aids the farm operator in planning and marketing crops and livestock.

"Farming for Profit" is prepared for the bank by Doane Agricultural Service, Inc., the oldest and largest organization in the United States engaged in farm management, agricultural writing, farm appraising and agricultural research.

PTA Cancels Panel Meeting

A meeting of the Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 4, has been postponed, Mrs. Robo Castleberry, publicity chairman, announced.

This action was taken due to a conflict with basketball games, she said.

The program, a panel discussion, "Are We Rushing Our Children?" will be given some time in February.

The regular December afternoon meeting of the PTA will be held, and the date will be announced later.

More Christmas Toys Needed

More toys are needed in the Rotary Club-FFA project to furnish toys for Wellington's needy children at Christmas.

"We have only a few, a very few, and we'll need many more if we are to have enough for all the children this year, Danny Garcia, vocational ag instructor, said.

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. S. L. Lindsey were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lindsey and son, Rodney Good, and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stafford. Kenneth, Sammy, and Joe Roberts, all of Corpus Christi.

USDA Discovery May Aid Boll Weevil Control

COLLEGE STATION. — Cotton boll weevils will feed on almost anything that has been dipped in a newly discovered extract of the cotton plant. According to the USDA, the substance that makes the cotton squares appetizing to boll weevils was found in a water extract for the first time by two U.S. Department of Agriculture entomologists.

The extract, when applied to cork stoppers, green beans, wood, and other unlikely substances attracted the weevils that normally feed only on cotton squares and bolls. The scientists call the substance an "arrestant" and say that though it will not draw weevils from a long distance, they feed on anything close to them containing the extract.

Tests are now underway to see if the substance can induce the weevils to feed and to lay their eggs on plants other than cotton. If this can be done it may be possible to substantially reduce the boll weevil population, because weevils have rarely been known to survive on any plant except cotton.

Also, chemists are carrying on research to identify the arrestant chemically which might make it possible to produce a synthetic substance or breed cotton which does not contain the substance.

Scientists believe that this discovery could lead to a new method of controlling this insect that annually adds 5 to 7 cents per pound to the cost of producing cotton. The number one pest of cotton, it has caused an estimated $10 billion in damage since it first entered the U.S. in 1892.

TB STILL DANGEROUS

Despite modern scientific progress, TB still takes a life somewhere in this country every 50 minutes. But more than 9 million lives have been saved from tuberculosis since the first Christmas Seal was issued.

If the vote is not favorable, there will be no quotas or penalties applicable to the 1963 upland cotton crop, and price support to cooperators will be at 50% of parity, as directed by law.

Department of Agriculture officials have pointed out that, while the Administration plans to recommend new cotton legislation early in 1963, it is anticipated that such legislation would supplement rather than substantially change the basic program choices in the Dec. 11 referendum.

DECEMBER DRAFT CALL HIGHER

AUSTIN. — The State Selective Service director says Texas December draft quota calls for 235 men.

This is an increase of 82 over November.

Col. Morris Schwartz said the December call is the state's share of a national quota of 6,000 men, all for the Army.

Local boards will send no men for pre-induction physical and mental exams.

Schwartz said the December quota will be filled with men at least 22 years old on Dec. 1, except for volunteers and those legally termed delinquent under the draft law.

WILSON SAYS NO

AUSTIN. — Published reports that Atty. Gen. Will Wilson would run in 1964 for the Railroad Commission, against Commissioner Ben Ramsey, were scotched.

The man who should know — Wilson himself — said he plans to open a law office in Austin. He said he had no future political plans, that he positively will not be a candidate for railroad commissioner.

Thanksgiving guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brewer were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Brewer, and their granddaughter, Miss Wynann Brewer, all of Amarillo.

Miss Sue Wilson and Denzil Lacy Wed in Church Ceremony Friday

Miss Tommie Sue Wilson exchanged wedding vows with Denzil Lacy in a ceremony performed at six o'clock Friday evening, November 23, in the First Methodist Church at Hedley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of the Wilson Ranch, Quail. Her grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Jode J. Wilson, who were among the early ranchers in the southeastern Panhandle.

Mr. and Mrs. Drury C. Lacy of Wellington are the parents of the bridegroom, and he is the grandson of Mrs. R. L. Porter Sr., of Wellington and the late Rev. Mr. Porter.

The Rev. R. L. Porter Jr., of Lubbock, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated, and wedding music was by Don Cox of Hedley, organist, and Mrs. Gene Moore of Clarendon, vocalist.

A screen of jade leaves formed the background for the ceremony. Above and in front of this were rows of lighted white cathedral tapers. Pedestal arrangements of white pom pom chrysanthemums and the satin covered prie dieu completed the altar decorations. Lighted tapers in arrangements of jade leaves were in windows at the sides of the church.

Mr. Wilson gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a formal wedding gown of satin-finished silk taffeta. The moulded bodice, made with a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves, was accented with appliques of Alencon lace above a bouffant bell-shaped floor-length skirt. Back streamers also were applied with the French lace. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a queen's crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Fred D. Barnes of Albuquerque, N.M., sister of the bride, was the master of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. John Bransford Jr., of Shreveport, La., another sister, Miss Jamie Ross of Clarendon and Miss Diane Bounds of Clarendon, cousin of the bride.

They wore identical dresses of red satin, styled with batteau necklines, fitted bodices and peg top skirts. Their matching pillbox hats had short circular veils and they carried bouquets of white fuchsia chrysanthemums on meline hearts.

Don Lacy of Guthrie, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and ushers were Carroll Nummelley and Glen Reeves of Canyon, and Billy Morris of Lubbock.

Lana Kay Lacy and Elizabeth Ann Bransford, nieces of the couple, were the flower girls, and Joe Barnes, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Denzil Lacy

er. Candles were lighted by Tommy Coleman and Jimmy Coleman of Pecos, also nephews of the bride.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lacy, and the bride's attendants.

The bride's table was laid with an appliqued white organza cloth over white satin and appointed with silver and crystal. The bouquets of the bride's attendants formed the centerpiece.

Miss Larita Patterson served the cake and Miss Betty Moseley poured. Guests were registered by Miss Linda Jenkins.

Piano music was provided during the reception by Miss Susan Cox and Don Cox of Hedley.

As the couple left on their wedding trip to points in Oklahoma, the bride wore a beige brocade satin suit, with a mink hat and other accessories of brown. Her corsage was an orchid.

Upon returning the couple will be at home in Wellington. The bride was graduated from Quail high school in 1961 and attended West Texas State College. The bridegroom, a graduate of Wellington high school in 1957, attended Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College and West Texas State College.

Dangerous Instruments

We are writing this with the aim of awakening people who read it to the fact that there are two dangerous instruments in the hands of most citizens of our area.

The first is the automobile, which can kill in a matter of seconds. The other is the firearm, which can also cause sudden death.

Actual experience is a hard school-master and can teach us, but many times people do not live through the experience. Others are not aware of the dangers that are about them in everyday life until it is too late.

We feel qualified to warn the people that these two instruments are dangerous. We have had the experience of driving an automobile for more than 20 years. We have lost control of an automobile and heard the rumble of the steel body as it rolls over at high speed, have seen the cloud of dust settle over it, and by the hand of God been able to walk away from it.

We have had experience with the firearm also, having lived with one for two and one-half years during World War II. We have seen how the firearm, in a matter of seconds, can tear a hole through a person, how the bullet can leave him screaming at the top of his voice with pain and agony or how it can kill a man as the blood gurgles in his throat, taking away the oxygen he needs.

We have strong consideration for both of these instruments and feel all people should have. They are not play-things and should not be used as such.

After 17 years away from a battle-field, we can be fast asleep and the sound of a firearm being discharged will awaken us to a sitting position as it has several times the past few months in the middle of the night.

Last Saturday night as we attempted to sleep we would be awakened by the sound of an open exhaust system and the screaming of tires as they were being burned away on the pavement.

The thought came to us, "Will these people make it through the night without someone being seriously injured or killed?" Sunday morning my question was answered as a young man lay in the hospital critically injured by a bullet being fired into his abdomen.

So I say to adults, young people, teen agers and law-enforcement officers, have a great deal of consideration and respect for these two instruments. Do not use them when angry, when tired, when ill, or as a child would use a plaything for a thrill. They can kill or injure and will continue to do so. You or I could be the next victim.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where it is reported that a little doubt has crept into the minds of some world technicians who believe all disagreements can be settled by peaceful negotiations.

Looked for a while, though, as if violence might go plumb out of style, except in a few little sore spots like the Congo, Goa, Mississippi, etc., and all conflicts would get resolved hereafter by sophistication and foreign aid.

But a non-violent world would be pretty tame, as football would have to be played by negotiation, with the teams meeting in midfield to see which could talk the other into giving up.

I see where the Washington news managers accidentally let it leak out that the President gives all of his $100,000 annual wages to charity.

My computer brain neighbor says in Mr. Kennedy's tax bracket, this amounts to thwarting the Internal Revenue out of $90,476.

Says he feels sorry for the President if the tax wranglers take this loss as hard in proportion as they do when some productive type citizen loopholes them out of $5 or $10.

I see where the master planners have got a hen on, which likely will hatch out a domestic type Peace Corps, to serve under-emerged mankind here in the U. S.

Corpsmen would be recruited from among the unemployed and other surplus citizens, and would go about showing people how to run their business, and mentioning the benefits of voting for Democrats.

My frothbrain neighbor says this program will be real helpful to such natives as are underprivileged because of having over-active pride glands, or a Republican governor.

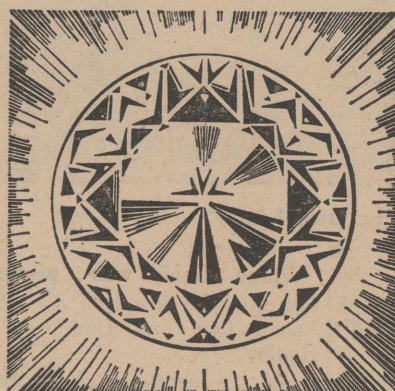

Early sailors used large rocks for anchors.

Guard Steps Up Recruiting, Peeples Says

A stepped-up recruiting campaign has begun for Wellington's unit of the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division, 1st Lt. Rex R. Peeples, commanding officer of Co. E, 142d Inf., said today.

All National Guardsmen here are encouraged to participate in the recruiting endeavor.

The commanding officer noted that "the nation is being asked to program 99,500 men into the six months program by the end of June 1963. The quota for Texas is 5,284 men. Therefore, the recruiting efforts of the Texas National Guard must double its previous best year of fiscal 1962 when 2,590, or about half our goal over the next several months, joined the National Guard program."

He indicated that "joining the Guard gives a young man a wonderful opportunity to fulfill his military obligation to his country. It is possible for men to enter Active Army on a 'buddy' system wherein several persons enlist at the same time and spend their complete six-months tour together."

"The program consists of two months basic training at one of several military installations such as Fort Polk, La., along with other locations, which is followed with eight weeks of advanced individual training and is climaxed with basic unit training," Lt. Peeples added.

He emphasized there are no restrictions in regard to race, religion or creed in becoming a member of the storied T-Patch outfit. A young man is required to pass the AFQT and a physical examination.

Arriving Saturday to visit in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Newt Price and Mrs. O. A. Terry were their sisters and a nephew and his wife: Mrs. Will Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Cummings and daughter of Athens, and Mrs. Kate Browning of Memphis.

Fin-Feather-Fur In Collingsworth

By DANNY GARCIA

Saturday, Dec. 1, marks the opening of another quail season. Of all game seasons, this one is probably the most looked forward to.

Quail season in Collingsworth and most neighboring counties is from December 1 to January 16, both days included.

Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise until one-half hour after sunset.

Limit is 12 birds per day and not more than 36 in possession.

The bird population in our county as a whole seems to be lower than in the past four years. Some landowners say they see about as many coveys, but the number of birds in each covey appears smaller.

Others say that with the tall grass forming good cover, the birds are going to be hard to find.

However, lots of hunters are going to have some enjoyable days.

Be sure to get your hunting license from your county clerk or from some local hardware store. The cost is $3.15 and the license must be in your possession at all times while hunting.

Further information on game laws may be had from the county clerk and you can get your new 1962-63 copy of the game laws there, too.

TOPPER—Trees usually fall on top of cars, but not in Portland, Ore. This car was parked next to the tree; when winds blew it down, up went the unsuspecting auto.

Quail hunters are reminded of the two game preserves in the county: The Quail preserve, west of Wellington, and the Samnorwood game preserve that covers everything north of Salt Fork.

Hunting is with the written permission of the landowner or operator only in these areas.

Catch of the Week

Tom Cunningham of Samnor-

wood caught three nice bass from Baylor Lake at Childress last week, in about two hours' fishing time. One bass weighed over 10 pounds, another around 9 pounds, and the other around 4.

The big lurkers were caught jiggling a Bear Hair (Doll Fly) on the bottom in deep water near the dam.

Tom said he had hung two others that broke his line.

The 10-pounder is a near record for this area and is the second black of this size I have heard of being caught this year. Both came out of Lake Baylor.

After hearing about Tom's catch, I just had to go fishing. I went to Mr. Mitchell's lake at Shamrock and caught one 4½ pound on a black lead bead worm. The fish was caught around 4 p.m. Sunday out of a bed of logs.

Pheasant Season

Pheasant season in 10 counties of the Texas Panhandle will open Dec. 1 and go thru Dec. 7.

The limit is two cocks per day and not more than four in possession.

Sunday, Nov. 25 was the last day of the first half of the Kansas pheasant season. It will reopen in the area west of Highway 281 on Dec. 8 and run thru Dec. 31.

The pheasant population seems to be good this year, according to local hunters who have returned with their limits.

Doc Barjenbruch, Rolan Bryan and Earl Wayne Bryan left for Garden City, Kan., Friday for two days pheasant hunting.

The party had an outstanding kill of 21 birds and outstanding dog work out of Rolan's pointer.

Jimmie and Gladys Kelso and Ernest and Wilie B. Harwell spent Thanksgiving deer hunting at Mason with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fleming. The latter couple are the parents-in-law of the Kelso's daughter, Mary Beth.

Both Wellington men reported getting their deer.

Crow Hunting

Crow hunting is especially good this time of the year. Thousands of crows are flocking into fields and shelterbelts late in the evenings and offer wonderful sport as well as sharpening up the shooting eye for the quail season.

In the past week, visiting relatives from Garland and I have killed over 200 crows.

For best results, use a crow call or try mocking their call. Before you know it, flocks of them will be hovering overhead and make for good shooting.

Use a full choke shotgun, No. 6 birdshot and shoot to kill. Crows do thousands of dollars in damage to farmers' crops each year and are of little good as far as a beneficial standpoint is concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lockhart and Tammy, from Weatherford, Okla., spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Parsons Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lockhart.

Mrs. Lela Haralson of Plainview visited in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haralson, during the holidays.

Miss Joy Hartman of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hartman, during the week end.

Group Here for Mabery Rites

A group of friends and relatives from out of the county were here to attend the funeral services of F. M. Mabery on Nov. 16. These included:

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Helbert and Mr. and Mrs. U. V. Helbert of Hale Center; Mrs. Sally Hudgins of Harrah, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hudgins of Bethany, Okla.;

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Price, Mrs. Mutt Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mabery of Clarendon; William Wood of Lelia Lake; Mr. and Mrs. John Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Seymour of Amherst;

Mr. and Mrs. Les Darrow,

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Darrow and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Martindale of Shamrock; Arthur Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Martindale of McLean;

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood of Wheeler; Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson of Hereford; Carl Wood of Claude; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mabery of Long Beach, Calif.; Joe Mabery of Lakewood, Calif.;

Dee Blasingame and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rogers of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Woodsy and Nancy of Amarillo; and Mrs. William Blasingame of Ingleside; Mrs. J. E. Birch of Sacramento, Calif.

Girls Game Close

Double Header Goes to Shamrock Teams

Wellington Rockets and Rockettes dropped a double header to the Shamrock Irish and Lassies in their opener here Friday night, Nov. 23.

The Wellington Rockettes played Shamrock Lassies and lost 37 to 32. It was a close game all the way.

During the first quarter, the lead changed hands, but when the period ended, Shamrock led 13 to 9. The Rockettes went ahead early in the second and at half the score was 22 to 15 in their favor.

The girls retained that lead through the third quarter when the score was 29-23. It was not until about three minutes before the game ended that Shamrock pulled ahead. The Rockettes had to press for the ball and the Lassies were able to build their lead.

Wellington had two starters out due to illness, and four others fouled out during the game.

Starters were Betty Courtney, Frances Warlick and Beverly Singley, forwards, and Vicki Glenn, Carol Blain and Nancy Gibbs, guards.

Shamrock starters were Burkhalter, Gregg and Massey, forwards; Burdine, Blake and Pepper, guards.

An outstanding defensive game was turned in by Carol Blain, while Jan Glenn, playing her first year on the varsity, made 16 points.

Rockets

The Shamrock Irish defeated the Rockets 42 to 29.

The game was rough, with a lot of fouling by both teams, attributed by the coaches James Stavenhagen of Wellington and Gene Stephenson of Shamrock, to their just coming out of football.

Wellington had a hard time scoring early in the game and the Irish jumped out to a 11-3 lead early in the first.

At the half, the score was 21 to 14 in Shamrock's favor.

Wellington was never able to regain the lead once they lost it, but the boys did pull within six points of Shamrock late in the third, when the score was 30 to 24.

Johnny Ford was the Rockets' leading scorer with 13 points. Craig Bergvall did a good game on defense, and Raymond Sanders was top rebounder for the game.

Ronny Rainey scored 17 points for the Irish for high point honors.

The Irish are credited with a good team—with both Rainey and Alvie Burdine standing 6-3 or 6-4.

Rocket starters were Craig Bergvall, Lynn McLain, Raymond Sanders, Johnny Ford, and Danny Martin.

Irish starters were Burdine, Rainey, Larry Reeves, Jimmy Cook and Ronald Lummus.

"I feel like our boys hustled real well and I think they will develop a good, fast-breaking team. I am more proud of their defense than anything else at this early date in the season," said the coach.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Porter and daughter, Janis, of Albuquerque, N.M., came for Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. R. L. Porter and other relatives, and to attend the wedding of his nephew, Denzil Lacy, and Miss Sue Wilson.

County Has Two Rural Accidents During October

The Highway Patrol investigated two rural accidents in Collingsworth county during the month, according to Sgt. J. W. Wilson, patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for four persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,885.

The rural accident summary for Collingsworth county from January through October 1962 shows a total of 15 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were four persons killed, and eleven persons injured. Estimated property damage amounted to $14,960.

"We are on the threshold of November and December which signals the start of our holiday season and the cold grim 'traffic facts.' During the last five years there has been a total of 11,902 traffic fatalities in Texas. Of this total, 2,354 or 20% were killed during the months of November and December. For the year thus far there has been 1,841 traffic fatalities as compared to 1,766 for the same period of 1961, an increase of 75 or 4%, with deadly November and December yet to come," Sgt. Wilson said.

"These cold grim traffic facts alone are a challenge for every responsible citizen throughout this state to join in an all out effort to stop this needless tragedy this holiday season. This can be done by obeying all traffic laws and being a defensive driver; that is, be prepared for the unpredictable actions of the other driver," stated the veteran patrol supervisor.

Craig Bergvall Chosen Player of the Week

By TOMMY BRYANT
Amarillo Daily News
Sports Writer

The consistent football player usually has thoughts of only one thing—that being the game—when he explodes.

Such a game was played by Craig Bergvall of Wellington against Canadian last week.

So outstanding was Bergvall in the 29-0 victory, he was named Amarillo Daily News Class A Player of the Week.

Throughout the season Bergvall had been a consistent player. He was far above the consistent level Friday night in his last game of high school football.

He carried the ball 12 times for 135 yards and scored one touchdown rushing on a 20-yard scamper. He returned a punt 85 yards for another touchdown and added a two-point conversion run. Then he picked off three Canadian passes and returned two of them so successfully, they set up touchdowns. For good measure, he caught one pass to give the Skyrockets a key first down.

The 5-11, 151-pounds senior has carried the ball 118 times this season for 709 yards. Along with fullback Raymond Sanders, he has been the key to Wellington's comeback season. After winning one game last year, the Skyrockets finished with a 5-5 mark.

When Bergvall hasn't been picking up key yardage this season, Sanders has been. Sanders, a 185-pound senior, gained 573 yards on 109 carries and missed one game entirely due to injuries. Bergvall and Sanders are team captains.

To add to his versatility, Bergvall is a top man as a punter and passer. He has played quarterback on occasion. In the punting department, he has averaged 35 yards per kick.

"Craig doesn't have great speed, but does have fine balance and a great desire to play the game," said Coach Don Beck. "He follows his blockers to perfection on wide plays and goes for that extra inch."

Mrs. J. L. Hays and Miss Larlu Hays were in Wichita Falls for Thanksgiving with two other daughters, Mrs. D. R. Biter and family, and Miss Merle Hays.

Jack Morgan, who is attending Sam Houston State College at Huntsville, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morgan.

"Help Make the Soundest Guess Possible"

Ability and Aptitude Tests Seek to Guide WHS Students

By LOUIS GRAHAM
Wellington High School
Counselor

The freshman class has recently completed the first of a series of tests that will be offered to them during the next four years that they will be attending Wellington high school. This series of tests is sponsored by the Texas Education Agency under the Texas State Testing Program.

The reports from these tests will show each individual student how he scored and the information will be a tool in helping him make many kinds of decisions: What courses should I elect next year? What year after? College or not? Business or technical courses? More science and math? How about languages? What careers should I consider? How can I get ready for the careers which seem reasonable? Do my abilities jibe with my interests? With my opportunities? and more questions could be added to the list.

Some of these decisions will need to be made now or will be faced soon. Others will rise in the years ahead. Some answers will be guesses or estimates, but with use of these test results the individual can make the soundest guess possible.

These test reports will not solve these problems nor make decisions for the student. However they do provide reliable information to help each student find answers to the educational, vocational, and personal questions which he will be faced, with the aid and advice of their parents, teachers, and counselors.

The SRA Test of Educational Ability and the SRA Test of Mental Ability are the first of the series of the Texas Testing Program for high school and are administered to all freshmen during the fall semester. The purpose of this battery of tests is to get a reliable measure of each student's educational progress and educational ability.

The Test of Educational Ability series compares the student's achievements with the expected achievement of his class, other students in Texas, and other students over the nation.

The Test of Mental Ability gives an estimate of the level that the student should be expected to function. Using the two tests together, would indicate if the student is performing at the level that is expected, if he is underachieving, or if he is performing at a level higher than he would normally be expected to function.

During the spring semester of the freshman year the Differential Aptitude Tests are administered. The results of these tests are available for use for the next three years. The aptitude tests are used to make better predictions on a student's capacities to develop in school and to profit in various courses of study or from training required for various jobs or careers.

The test results will help to evaluate relative strengths and weaknesses in a variety of aptitudes which are important to educational progress and career choices. These test scores are considered along with all sorts of other information such as school grades, interest, and family thinking.

Aptitude does not pinpoint what career should be followed or prescribe a career such as physician, but it may answer some more general questions such as: is it reasonable for me to consider medicine as a career? Which would be better for me — mechanic or office worker?

Information from the aptitude test may start a student off on a meaningful study of the various educational programs and occupations that he might want to consider.

The Kuder Professional Vocational Interest Inventory is given during the first few weeks of the sophomore year. There are no right or wrong answers to this inventory because it is an inventory and not a test. The answer is right if it is the way that the person feels at the time that he is taking the inventory.

The profile from this inventory reveals the interest of the student in ten different areas. The results of the interest patterns expressed on the inventory seldom surprises the person that has taken it, but organizes them and brings them into the open so that they may be an instrument to work with.

The profile of the inventory compares interest areas with people that are participating in a given vocation and receiving satisfaction and success in this profession. The results of the inventory are used along with results from achievement, mental ability, and aptitude tests in helping the student to evaluate himself and help him to make reasonable decisions.

The SRA achievement series is repeated again in the spring of the junior year, giving the student an evaluation of his educational development before he enters college, business school, or vocational training.

Personality tests are given only to those students in high school who request them. The results of the personality tests are not retained in the student's cumulative record unless requested by the student. The personality test results of clinical nature are technical and time consuming in interpretation in giving background to the test and the results and interpretation so that misconceptions are not made. Therefore, it is impractical for our school to use those tests for every student.

Every test or inventory that is taken by the student in high school is interpreted and evaluated for the student. These interpretations and evaluations are also available to the parents and guardians of the student.

The test results of one student are not available to another student or another student's parents or other outside parties, unless the student that has taken the test gives the counselor permission to show the test results, and only then will the test results be interpreted to the outside person if the counselor feels that it will help the student in some way.

There are two reasons for this—first, the time involved in interpreting and evaluating the test results and second is professional ethics.

Rudell White Initiated Into Kyodai Club

Rudell White, son of Mrs. Ople White of Quail, was recently initiated into Kyodai, a men's social club at Lubbock Christian College, Lubbock.

Organized in 1957, when the junior college was in its first year of operation, the club participates in inter-campus sports events, competes for the highest cumulative grade averages of the 11 social clubs at LCC, and holds special events such as banquets and picnics.

White, a May graduate of Quail high school, is a freshman Bible major at LCC.

This is the third year that the Wellington Independent Schools have participated in the Texas State Testing Program and the senior class of 1962 is the first graduating class that was available for at least three of these tests in the testing program. Over two-thirds of the class entered college this fall. On a follow up study of these students at the end of the first nine weeks reporting period, it was found that most of the class members were following the educational and vocational plans that they had made in high school and that a very small percentage were failing in the work that they are taking.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cornett of Groom visited her mother, Mrs. J. F. Elliott the first part of this week.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Cagle this week is their grandson, Joe Kyle McCutchen of Amarillo.

Visitors over the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Godbey in Quail were their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Troy Godbey, Jo Helen and Margaret Ann, of Dumas; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rigdon, Doug, Ronnie and Gary, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tipton, Pat and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Godbey of Dallas. One son was unable to attend, J. R. Godbey, stationed with the Air Force at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reeves of Canyon, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keller.

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, November 29, 1962

the class of 1962 ranked above the national norms on the achievement series that was administered to them in the fall of their senior year. The only area that they have ranked lower than the national norm was vocabulary.

This has been a cumulative thing throughout their school careers and is not the fault of the English department but it is an area that should be worked on in every phase of their school work and should be encouraged at home as well. The follow up of the class of 1961 and 1962 shows that this area has been a handicap to them in their college careers.

The results of the achievement and mental ability series given to the freshmen in October should be available about the first of December. The results of the Differential Aptitude Test and the Kuder Preference Inventory are available now and have been or are being interpreted and evaluated to the students.

Any parent who is interested may see the result of these tests for their child and are encouraged to do so, but it will be necessary to make an appointment so that there will not be several waiting for an interview. Many of these test results were interpreted to parents last year, but if they need additional information or have questions they would like to have answered, they are encouraged to have these questions answered.
