U. N. Assembly Prepares For General Debate

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly quickly organized for its ninth session today and prepared to plunge into its general debate on the world situation.

Secretary of State Dulles formally requested the floor for the opening round tomorrow when he will range over the whole field of international problems.

It was understood, however, he would deal at length with President Eisenhower's proposal for an atomic pool for peaceful purposes.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky has not yet indicated when he will deliver Russia's policy declaration.

The delegates of the 60 member nations spent this morning electing chairmen of the Assembly's seven committees and choosing seven vice presidents. Those elected committee chairmen are:

Political—Francisco Urrutia of Colombia.

Special Political—Thor Thors of Iceland.

Economic—Sir Douglas Copland, Australia.

Social—Jiri Nosek, Czechoslovakia.

Trusteeship—Rafik Asha, Syria.

Budgetary and Administrative—Pote Sarasin, Thailand.

Legal—Francisco Garcia Amador, Cuba.

The seven vice presidents are the heads of the delegations of the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China, Burma and Ecuador.

The committee chairmen and the vice presidents, together with the Assembly president, Dr. Eelco N. Van Kleffens of the Netherlands, make up the Assembly's steering committee.

Yesterday's opening meeting was devoted to the election of Van Kleffens and to debate on the proposed seating of Red China. The Assembly disposed of this issue by deciding to shelve it for the remainder of this year.

New Scurry Well To Test Ellenburger

Union Oil Co. of California has announced plans to drill a 7,600-foot Ellenburger wildcat 16 miles northeast of Snyder in Northeast Scurry County.

The project will be the No. 1 M. L. Simons, located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 138-2-H&TC. That is about one mile west of the Fisher County line, and in the vicinty of several dry holes. Operations are to begin at once.

NEW PROSPECTORS

Childress Drilling Co. of Dallas is to drill the No. 1 W. O. Whiteside as a 5,590-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Southeast Nolan County.

The drillsite is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 66-1A-H&TC, about four miles north of Blackwell. It is also four miles west of the North Blackwell-Ellenburger field.

In Northeast Stonewall County, Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. will drill the No. 1 Clarence Webb as a 6,400-foot Ellenburger wildcat.

Location has been made 467 feet from south and 3,560 feet from east lines of Sterling McGraw survey, abstract 411. It is two and one-half miles south of the Katz field and 15 miles northeast of Aspermont.

SCURRY COMPLETIONS

Taylor Oil & Gas Co. of San Angelo and G. L. Rowsey have reported completion of their No. 3-A Winston Brothers in the Kelley-Snyder Southeast Middle Canyon field of Central Scurry County.

The well made a flowing potential of 162 barrels of oil plus two per cent on a 24-hour gauge. Gravity of the oil was 33.2 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 311-1, with the flow natural through a one-quarter-inch choke.

The hole was drilled to 7,505 feet and five and one-half-inch casing was cemented at 7,437 feet. Production is through perforations at 6,966-976 feet.

The No. 3-A Winston Brothers is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 11, block 1, J. P. Smith survey. It was to have tried for dual completion from the upper Canyon reef and the middle Pennsylvanian reef.

In the North Fluvanna-Strawn area, Woodson Oil Co. of Fort Worth have completed the No. 1 L. M. Jones.

The well flowed 24 hours through a 24-64th-inch choke for a potential of 281.76 barrels of 42-gravity oil with no water. Gas-oil ratio was 624-1, with tubing pressure 175 pounds.

Five and one-half-inch casing is cemented at 7,982 feet and perforated at 7,912-915 feet, 7,918-820

Ike Calls For School Study

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower called today for "widespread and concerted study" of teacher and school shortages "and the loss of needed trained manpower through illiteracy."

The President's call went out to the governors of each of the states and territories.

The President noted that Congress at the last session passed legislation authorizing state and White House conferences "at which representative citizens and educators can study their educational problems at all levels and determine what action should be taken."

The new law allocates $700,000 to the states to meet part of the cost of such meetings.

"With this opportunity to know the facts and understand the problems, I am convinced that the people of the United States will develop programs of effective action," the President wrote.

Expect Senate Session Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A key Senate source said today he expects the Senate to reconvene within the next two weeks to act on a resolution to censure Sen. McCarthy.

This source, unwilling to be identified by name, said he understood certain commitments were made before the Senate recessed last month to take up the censure issue ahead of the Nov. 2 Congressional elections, if a special committee assigned to look into charges against McCarthy turned in its report around Oct. 1 or earlier.

It now seems virtually certain the committee of three Republicans and three Democrats, headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), will complete its report by the end of this week or, at the latest, the first of next week.

The censure resolution, introduced by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt), would condemn McCarthy's conduct as unbecoming a senator and tending to bring the Senate into disrepute.

Smith Is Baffled By Allred Charges

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—State Life Insurance Commissioner Garland Smith says he "is at a loss as to what company" Atty. Renne Allred Jr. may have in mind when he says an insolvent firm is operating in Texas.

Allred, reopening the Texas insurance controversy, said yesterday a company found by a commission examiner to be insolvent 15 months ago is still operating.

Allred, whom the insurance commission is trying to oust as attorney for its liquidator, said also that he delayed twice last summer a fraud suit against a commission employe. Smith and Casualty Commissioner J. Byron Saunders, Allred said, tried to dissuade him from bringing the employe into a suit alleging conspiracy to defraud creditors and stock holders of a firm now in receivership.

The firm Allred named was the Texas Mutual Insurance Co. of Beaumont, now in receivership. The company received wide publicity during the summer's gubernatorial campaign.

Smith said Allred was dealing in personalities and politics in making the charges yesterday, but the commissioner added:

"I did ask him not to sue the employe he refers to, but that has some background."

"We think the employe was acting in good faith and in accordance with the present law regarding real estate appraisals," Smith told The Associated Press, "and we think he did not join in any conspiracy."

All three insurance commissioners, Smith continued, talked to Allred about the grounds on which he wanted to sue. "He didn't convince any of us he had enough evidence to bring a successful suit." Smith said he didn't know what company Allred could be talking about that was operating in an insolvent condition.

"There may be a couple of companies insolvent that are being examined," he said. "But if they are insolvent, we'll go a long ways trying to save the company so the creditors and policyholders won't lose any money."

He said he would like for Allred to lay the name of the company he has in mind before the board. It is always a policy to try to save a company found to be in financial difficulty, he said.

Affairs of the commission were a major issue in the race between Gov. Allan Shivers and his opponent, Ralph Yarborough, during the summer governor's race.

Allred, whom Smith wants to fire, said he had refused to "follow the dictation" of the commission as to who should or should not be sued. He replied to a board charge of not being cooperative by relating instances where he said he thought he had been especially so.

One instance, he said, was his pointing to evidence of what Allred called "grossly overvalued" mortgages involving a company found to be insolvent on June 30, 1953.

"This company is still doing business at the same old stand," Allred wrote the commission.

Although the cases have never come to trial, perjury indictments were returned by a Travis County grand jury last May against Leslie Lowry, Paul Lowry and D. H. O'Fiel of Beaumont. The indictments were in connection with Texas Mutual Insurance Co. affairs.

Trice Service Is Held Today

Funeral services for Alfred Hinds Trice, 84, of 2605 Avenue U, were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the First Methodist Church.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the church. He was assisted by the Rev. M. W. Clark. Burial was to be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mr Trice, a retired cotton gin owner and manager, died at 4 p.m. yesterday at his home. He had been ill several months.

Mr. Trice had lived in Scurry County since August, 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Trice, the former Mary Weideman, had been married in Boyce, Tex at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weideman, on May 3, 1893. They lived at Red Oak before coming to West Texas. Mr. Trice owned a cotton gin just west of the Deep Creek bridge on Twenty-fifth. area, and another in Camp Springs. He had been a member of the Methodist Church 61 years.

Survivors in addition to the wife include four daughters, Mrs. Hattie Simpson, Mrs. T. J. DeShazo and Mrs. M. C. James of Snyder and Mrs. L. F. Head of Lorenzo; two sons, Fred Trice of Snyder and J. T. Trice of Camp Springs; two sisters, Mrs. Ola Coggins of Stanton and Mrs. Annie Greenway of Bartlesville, Okla.; a half sister, Mrs. Julia Wilkerson of Chilicothe, Tex.; two brothers, W. R. Trice of Abilene and Jeff Trice of Colorado City, and a half brother, Elkins, Trice, of Morton, Tex.

Serving as pallbearers will be grandsons, Jeff DeShazo, James Simpson, Fred Simpson, Clydene Head, Marlin James, Douglas James, Robert James, Jerry Wayne Trice and Roy Trice

Army Decree Solves Mixed Zipper Case

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—Winter uniform trousers issued to WACs and nurses in Korea have proved a bit too tight here and there.

So the Army decreed today that they may combine "the most desirable of women's and men's uniforms."

The straight-faced official announcement added:

"A minor problem of zipper location was quickly solved by authorizing girls to move the zippers from the front to the left side, thereby transforming 'boy type' trousers to a more feminine 'girl type.'"

Arrest Of Piccioni's Son In Sex Case Stirs Italy

Court To Hear New Argument On Segregation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court announced today that it will hear further arguments Dec. 6 on how to carry out its decision against racial segregation in public schools.

The arguments could extend several days. There will be an allowance of 10 hours for arguments from South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the District of Columbia—directly involved in the cases which brought the court's antisegregation decision last May 17—and the replies to those arguments.

In addition, the Justice Department also may present one hour of argument, and seven states which were not directly involved in the May decision have notified the court they wish to appear as "friends of the court."

These states, which will file briefs and possibly take part in the oral arguments, are North Carolina, Arkansas, Texas, Florida Maryland, Tennessee and Oklahoma. If attorney generals of these states wish to argue, they will be allowed one hour each.

Harold Willey, clerk, announced the court's action and said the justices had agreed that briefs may be filed by Nov. 15.

Willey said that the week of Dec. 6 was the earliest available date for the arguments. The argument schedules for October and November had previously been filled.

The court opens its fall session Oct. 4.

The court in unanimously outlawing public school segregation last May called for further discussion this fall on how and when integration should take effect.

Two Schools Still Closed

By The Associated Press

Threats of violence kept two Delaware schools closed for the third day Wednesday while officials struggled with the problem of integrating Negro students into white classrooms.

Two Milford, Del., schools were ordered closed until further notice after threats against Negro pupils were received by education board members.

Negroes in Hillsboro, Ohio, planned to file petitions in federal court in Cincinnati Wednesday, requesting that their children be admitted to previously all-white schoolrooms. The Hillsboro action, if taken, would be the first time the issue was placed before a Northern court since the Supreme Court ruling banning school segregation.

In the South, Alabama legislative leaders recommended that their state join three other Southern states that have moved to abolish public schools in order to maintain segregation. A special legislative committee recommended adoption of a constitutional amendment removing all reference to public schools in the state's constitution.

The amendment would open the way for state subsidized private schools. It would give the legislature wide powers in setting up nonstate operated schools and is similar to proposals already given legislative approval in Georgia and Mississippi.

The theory behind the private school plan is that the Supreme Court cannot regulate admission to "private" schools.

Legislative action considered or taken in Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama, would have to go before the voters for approval. South Carolina voters approved the "private" school plan last year.

Verdict On Batchelor May Come By Saturday

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The defense believes the general court-martial of Cpl. Claude Batchelor may reach the decision stage Saturday.

The court-martial participants were idle today after hearing testimony yesterday from Frank "Pappy" Noel, Associated Press photographer who was long a prisoner of the Chinese communists.

Noel, called yesterday by the defense in Batchelor's general court-martial, testified that he and Batchelor were in the same prison camp and made plans together to escape.

Noel told the court that Batchelor, 22-year-old Kermit, Tex., youth, got a map for them and they set the escape date for Aug. 1, 1953.

Batchelor is being tried on charges of collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow POWs.

Commons Gets Blast

LONDON (AP)—A small explosion occurred today in the basement of the House of Commons. The blast, presumably caused by escaping gas, slightly injured two men and two women building employes. No damage was done. Parliament now is in recess.

ONE DOG'S DAY

Flo, dog research hero of 1954, is shown at the luncheon given in her honor at the Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia by the Pennsylvania Society for Advancing Medical Research. Holding the plate of steak tid-bits is Dr. Russell E. Teague, Secretary of Health of Pennsylvania, who presented the award to the canine hero and Charles Williams, a waiter. The annual award, given by the National Society for Medical Research was made to Flo for her nine years of work on research projects in pharmaceutical laboratories.

United Fund Panels To Submit Reports

Provisions proposed in a constitution and by-laws will be presented at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night when persons interested in the organization of a United Fund will meet in the district courtroom.

The meeting was called for the public, especially those who are connected with fund-raising organizations and those interested in helping to organize the United Fund, for consideration of work of two committees.

The committees, appointed several weeks ago at the first public meeting concerning the fund, were on constitution and by-laws and nomination of prospective directors. These committees are rounding up their work now and will have their reports ready by tomorrow night.

The committee on directors has made up a list of 30 nominees. The Rev. Ronald Hubbard, who was appointed at the last public meeting to aid these committees, is now contacting the prospective directors. These persons represent business, rural, women, industry, professional persons, fund agencies, and elected public officials.

Included in the rules proposed by the constitution and by-laws committee is a provision that a United Fund drive, once started each year, will not end until all agencies' quotas are filled or those agencies are satisfied with results. No individual fund organization participating would have a supplementary drive.

Efforts would be made to coincide the local drive with the national drive, which is usually held in October and November. This drive, if held this year, would be to raise money for the 1955 budgets of the various organizations participating.

More than 50 persons attended the last meeting concerning organization of the United Fund. A larger number is expected this time. In discussing tomorrow night's meeting, Mr. Hubbard commented that it should be of special interest to "Those who have said for years that we need a United Fund here." The district courtroom, Mr. Hubbard said, will hold about 250 persons, adding that he hopes the room will be full at the meeting.

Mercury Dips To 56

The mercury plummeted to 56 degrees before dawn today to bring Snyder one of its lowest readings since summer began. A maximum temperature of 86 degrees was recorded yesterday. The temperature had reached only 58 degrees by 7:30 this morning, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said.

Reds Launch Series Of Allegations

By RICHARD EHRMAN

ROME (AP)—Italy's pro-Western government was shaken today by detention of a son of the former foreign minister and of a self-styled marquis in the Wilma Montesi death scandal.

Piero Piccioni, 32-year-old jazz pianist whose father, Attilio Piccioni, resigned Saturday as foreign minister to stand by him in his trouble, was arrested last night on a charge of aggravated manslaughter in the death of the shapely party girl, 21, whose nearly nude body was found on a beach at Ostia, near Rome, 17 months ago.

Ugo Montagna, a millionaire speculator and friend of high government figures, was charged with using his influence to try to hush up the case. Both denied the charges.

A third key figure, Rome's ex-police chief Saverio Polito, 73, was charged with misfeasance in office but was not arrested because of his age. He was ordered to report to court next Saturday to answer the accusations, which include aiding Piero Piccioni in evading arrest.

News of the Piccioni and Montagna arrests swept over Italy like a dark storm. Communist papers devoted up to four full pages on the scandal, which involves lurid allegations of drug and sex orgies attended by prominent Italians, and termed the events proof of rottenness in Premier Mario Scelba's Democratic regime.

Progovernment and independent papers stuck by Scelba. Several said the arrests were evidence of the government's courage.

But trouble was expected. Highly placed informants reported that police chiefs of several of Italy's major cities were called to Rome this morning for antiriot briefings.

"We are not yet in a state of alarm—but in a state of alert," said one high police source. "We don't want trouble."

The same source said no further arrests are expected immediately and that young Piccioni and Montagna may be released from jail on a provisional basis soon. Lawyers for both men have requested this.

Piccioni was arrested at his father's apartment. Montagna read a premature report of his arrest in a paper, went to his lawyer's office and then knocked at the door of the jail to surrender.

Police two weeks ago arrested two guards at Montagna's luxurious Ostia estate where Miss Montesi attended a party shortly before her body was found, clad only in panties embroidered with teddy bears. The wife of one of the guards also was taken into custody. Charges against the three have not been disclosed.

The arrests of Piccioni and Montagna came 12 days after Dr. Raffaele Sepe, an official of Rome's Court of Appeals who has been conducting an official investigation of the case, asked police to pick up their passports.

Sepe also ordered police to pick up the passports of Polito and Prince Maurice of Hesse, a grandson of the late King Victor Emanuel and a member of the German princely house of Hesse. There was no immediate indication of any action against Prince Maurice. He insisted in an interview he had no connection with the case.

Nationals Sink Five Gunboats

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist warplanes today sank five Communist gunboats in the 20th straight day of raids on the Red China coast, the Defense Ministry reported.

It was the biggest bag of gunboats claimed since hostilities broke out in the Amoy-Quemoy area Sept. 3.

The air strike was made at Red shipping concentrations in Chaunchow Bay, 25 miles northeast of Amoy. It was the second straight day of air blows there.

As the Nationalists published their claims, the commander of the U.S. 7th Fleet arrived on Formosa.

U.S. officials said the visit of Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, whose fleet is charged with protecting Formosa from invasion, was routine.

They dismissed as unfounded rumors that Pride flew to Quemoy, Nationalist outpost island off the China coast, shortly after his arrival. They also denied rumors that a fleet of U.S. carriers, cruisers and destroyers had sailed past the Formosa port of Keelung in a show of strength.

Six States Spotted As Battle Ground

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican and Democratic campaign strategists apparently regard six states as crucial battlegrounds in the struggle for control of the Senate in the 84th Congress.

A check of rival Senate campaign committees disclosed today a heavy concentration of effort in Delaware, Illinois and Ohio—where Republicans rate their chances of unseating Democratic senators best—and in Kentucky, New Jersey and Wyoming—where Democratic hopes of gaining Senate seats are highest.

Thirty-six Senate seats are at stake in the elections Nov. 2. Maine voters last week gave Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a Republican, a second six-year term.

The present Senate lineup is 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and Sen. Morse of Oregon, an Independent.

A former Republican who bolted during the 1952 presidential election, Morse has announced he will vote with Democrats in organizing the Senate next January. He voted with the Republicans when the present Senate was organized nearly two years ago.

With the help of Morse, the Democrats could win control of the next Senate by picking up a net gain of one seat.

In addition to the six key states, the Republicans profess optimism about their chances of picking up seats in New Mexico, Iowa, Colorado and Montana while the Democrats voice high hopes of unseating Republ... in Massachusetts, Oregon and Idaho.

The Democratic candidate in Kentucky is Alben W. Barkley who served in the Senate for 22 years, part of the time as majority leader, before he resigned when elected vice-president in 1948. Democratic strategists concede Barkley faces a strong Republican vote-getter in Sen. John Sherman Cooper.

In New Jersey, Democrats are counting on a split in Republican ranks to put over their Senate candidate, Rep. Charles R. Howell. The Republican nominee, former Rep. Clifford P. Case, is opposed by some GOP elements in the state.

Democratic veteran Joseph C. O'Mahoney is trying for a comeback in Wyoming. Defeated two years ago after 19 years in the Senate, O'Mahoney is opposed by Republican Rep. William H. Harrison.

Republicans say they are confident of unseating Democratic Sen. Allen Frear in Delaware. The Republican candidate is Rep. Herbert B. Warburton.

In Illinois, the Republican candidate for the seat now held by Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas is Joseph T. Meek, until his nomination head of the Illinois Federation of Retail Assns.

In Ohio, Republican Rep. George H. Bender is seeking to oust Democratic Sen. Thomas A. Burke, who was appointed to the Senate last year after the death of Sen. Robert A. Taft. They are competing for the right to serve out the last two years of Taft's six-year term.

Benson Calls Wool Growers To Discuss Support Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson today invited 31 representatives of the nation's wool industry to meet with him and his aides tomorrow and Friday to discuss a new price support program for wool.

The program will be set up under recent legislation authorizing the department to use incentive or production payments, rather than loans, to support producer returns for wool.

Benson said that while the new law does not become effective until next April 1, he expects to announce the incentive price level early in October so as to give producers ample time to make plans for next year's production.

It is the goal of the wool program to boost annual production to at least 300 million pounds compared with the recent average of about 230 million pounds.

Officials of the National Wool Growers Assn., headed by Ray Willoughby of San Angelo, Tex., planned to sit down for informal talks with department executives and submit data for use in determination of the incentive payment figure.

The new wool act goes into effect on the 1955 clip. It provides that growers sell their output on the free market. Then, after the close of the season, the average price paid for various grades shall be determined. Individuals shall be paid by the government an amount based on the percentage of the difference between the average prices and the incentive level—which is limited to a maximum 110 per cent of parity.

Parity is a formula used to assure growers a fair return in relation to their costs.

Such information as the cost of labor and materials required in maintaining flocks for wool production, and the prices which farm wools bring laid down at mills in this country, is expected to be reviewed in detail.

Congress in authorizing the new program, which takes the place of the price support loans now in effect, declared wool is a strategic material vital to the national defense and that the domestic industry should be maintained as an insurance against times of war.

Rep. O. Clark Fisher (D-Tex), himself a sheep raiser, is optimistic the new program will get the desired results.

He disagrees with those who have called the incentive plan a mere revision of that advocated by Charles Brannan, Secretary of Agriculture in the Truman administration.

"A major difference," he declared in an interview, "is that the new program will provide incentive payments under a percentage arrangement which will encourage better quality as well as greater quantity of wool in this country."

He said the Brannan plan would have paid the grower an amount equal to the difference between what he received on sale of his wool on the free markets and the incentive payment figure.

The new program going into effect pays the individual grower an amount based on the percentage between the incentive level and the average prices received, he added.

"Illustrating the point," Fisher continued, "assume the incentive payment level is set at 60 cents a pound for (raw) grease wool and the actual market price averaged 50 cents.

"That would make the incentive payment equal to 20 per cent. Thus, a man who had sold his wool at 42 cents would not receive nearly as much incentive payment as the man who had produced high grade wool and sold the same amount at a much higher price."

Expected here from Texas with Willoughby to take part in the talks, said Fisher, are Walter Pfluger of Eden, president of the Texas Sheep and Wool Growers Assn., and Clayton Puckett of Fort Stockton, a past president of the organization.

New Yorkers Give Nod To Harriman

By The Associated Press

New York Democrats today nominated Averell Harriman as their candidate for governor. The former ambassador and foreign aid chief topped Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. on the first convention ballot.

Today also marks the start of a three-day speaking tour by President Eisenhower. He has scheduled four talks for a swing through Montana, Oregon, Washington and California.

Vice President Nixon was barnstorming Minnesota today, urging a GOP victory in the Nov. 2 balloting for control of Congress.

Nixon spoke last night at East Lansing, Mich., and challenged Democrat Adlai Stevenson to make "constructive" suggestions rather than "quips and criticisms" on the Eisenhower administration.

Polling of delegate votes in the heated Harriman-Roosevelt contest in New York City began shortly after midnight. The count was halted soon after Harriman picked up the 510 votes needed to win.

Roosevelt then entered the hall and suggested that "the nomination of my old friend Averell Harriman be made unanimous." He called Harriman a "great leader with a great record."

At that point, Harriman had 541 votes, Roosevelt 217.

Harriman, 62, had the backing of the state's most influential party leaders. A former Republican, he served both the Roosevelt and Truman administrations.

Democrats continue selection of the state ticket today, as New York Republicans open their convention in Syracuse. The GOP is expected to name as Harriman's opponent Sen. Irving M. Ives, the choice of retiring Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Eisenhower huddled at Denver yesterday with GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall, who told him Republicans face a "hard fight" to retain control of Congress but have a "good" chance of succeeding. Presidential aides said this was not likely to cause a change in Eisenhower's campaign plans.

The President speaks informally today at Missoula, Mont.

Nixon's East Lansing talk was billed as a reply to Stevenson's recent criticism of the administration.

"Up to this time," Nixon said, "we have nothing from him but quips and criticisms without one positive constructive suggestion as to what his party would do."

Nixon said "we can only assume" a Democratic Congress would return to the policies of the Truman administration. He added: "Unless Mr. Stevenson tells the American people how he differs from these policies, we shall have to continue to remind the people what these policies were."

Stevenson spoke last night at Bloomington, Ill., his boyhood home, and urged the re-election of Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill).

feet and 7,965-975 feet. Those three sets of perforations were treated with 1,000 gallons of acid. Total depth is 7,982 feet.

The No. 1 Jones is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 666-97-H&TC.

FAILURE TO DEEPEN

Fred Turner, Jr., and Lynn D. Durham, both of Midland, have filed application to re-enter and deepen the No. 1 Luther Bohannon and others in Southeast Terry County. This well, a wildcat about three miles north of Seagraves, was drilled by Turner and abandoned as a failure in 1951. Total depth was 11,090 feet. Turner and Durham are to deepen to 13,000 feet to test the Devonian.

Drillsite is 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 74-DD-John H. Gibson survey.

GARZA OILER

Plymouth Oil Co. has completed its No. 4 H. N. Crisp in the PHD field of Northwest Garza County.

The well was pumped 24 hours for an initial potential of 70.50 barrels of 36.1-gravity oil plus 44 per cent water. Production is through perforations at 3,520-546 feet which had been treated with 500 gallons of acid and fractured with 3,000 gallons of sand oil. Five and one-half-inch casing is cemented at 3,610 feet, which is the plugged-back total depth.

Drillsite is 440 feet from north and east lines of section 1281, BS&F survey.

WESTBROOK WELL

J. L. Cooper No. 1 Georgia Tech, Westbrook field test, has been completed for a 24-hour pumping potential of 11.96 barrels of 27-gravity oil with no water.

Completion was natural from open hole at 3,040 feet, where five and one-half-inch casing is cemented, to 3,148½ feet, total depth.

The No. 1 Georgia Tech is 440 feet from south and east lines of section 43-28-tln-T&P.

DRILLING REPORT

Hanley Co. of Midland No. 1 J. L. Higginbotham, Southeast Borden County wildcat, is drilling in lime and shale below 7,980 feet after a drillstem test from 7,930-964 feet. The tool was open 30 minutes, with a recovery of 100 feet of drilling mud with no shows.

General Crude No. 1 Wolff, Fisher wildcat, is drillstem testing from 4,408-501 feet. Byrd Oil Corp. No. 1 Katie S. Davenport, three and one-half miles northwest of Claytonville, is drilling in lime and shale below 5,242 feet.

In Carlsbad Hospital

Cruz Silemas of Snyder was transferred from Cogdell Memorial Hospital to a Carlsbad, Tex., hospital by a Bell ambulance today.

Actress Rita Moreno, 22, friend of George A. Hormel II, holds a press conference to explain her connection with the arrest of Hormel in Los Angeles on a narcotics charge. Police said they found Miss Moreno asleep in Hormel's home.

Kent Dispute Heads For Another Round In Appellate Court

SWEETWATER — The case of the re-location of the Kent County seat seems headed for a civil appeals court again.

In 32nd District Court last week, Judge A. S. Mauzey had ordered that the records of the county be returned to Clairemont from Jayton. He further ordered that the county commissioners meet within 60 days to designate a new courthouse in Jayton where the records might be stored and commissioners court meetings held.

County Judge John Montgomery and W. R. Rodgers, commissioner from Jayton, had asked that the district court order the three remaining commissioners to meet in Jayton to transact county business. Shortly after Mauzey's order, Montgomery made an appeal to the Eastland court of appeals. Mauzey said this ended action in the district court, but that there could be further action by him if both parties in the suit express a desire for it.

Byrnes Gets Problem Of Reward Distribution

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The Citizens and Southern National Bank of South Carolina yesterday handed Gov. James F. Byrnes a $2,500 problem.

The bank has a standing offer of a $2,500 reward for the capture of bank robbers. Recently two robbers were caught but an estimated 150 persons took up the chase soon after the robbery and captured the pair.

The distribution of the money is now the state's problem.

Lions Club Presents Attendance Awards

Presentation of attendance awards highlighted the Snyder Lions Club's luncheon meeting Tuesday.

Dr. Billy J. Weaver was recognized for six years of perfect attendance, while a three-year pin went to Chuck Wolfe, two-year pins to Cecil Boren and Johnny Eckstadt, and a one-year pin to Burney Dunham.

Four new members were introduced. They were Charles Blakey, Charles Hoosier, Ab Williamson and Gilbert Fields

Man Released On Bond Of $250 Here Tuesday

Talmadge Owen 25, Tyler, has been released on bond of $250 set yesterday when he pleaded innocent to a county court charge of swindling by worthless check. He had already made bond of $500 on another similar charge also pending here.

Wayland Holt, county attorney, said nine checks given to him by merchants here had been redeemed for a total of $85.

New Automobile Sold At Sheriff's Auction

A nearly new automobile was sold here by sheriff's auction yesterday afternoon to the only bidder, plaintiff in a suit in the civil district court of Dallas County.

Allied Finance Co. of Dallas purchased the car for $2,100. From this price, $39.20 was assessed here for sheriff's office fees, leaving $2,060.80 to place in escrow with the district clerk at Dallas. The suit was that of the finance company vs. Eldon Roy Morris of Snyder.

Auctioneer was Bill Love, chief deputy of the sheriff's department here. He said the bid came by letter and that no other bidders appeared at the auction at the courthouse steps. The car was a 1934 Savoy Plymouth club coupe.

No Injuries In Auto Mishap This Morning

No one was injured in a minor traffic accident about 7:50 o'clock this morning at the intersection of Avenue S and McGlaun Street just north of the city limit.

Vehicles involved were a 1950 Chevrolet sedan driven by Joe Ramirez Flores, Jr., 29, Snyder, and a 1951 Ford sedan driven by Mrs. Hood Parker, Jr., 22, route 3.

Howard Gibbons, deputy sheriff who investigated the accident, said he issued traffic violation tickets to both drivers, one charging passing in a prohibited area, the other charging failure to make visible turn signal.

Showers Move Out Into Gulf

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers churned the waters of the Gulf of Mexico Wednesday—the last day of summer—but at dawn drought-seared Texas was getting not a drop of rain.

The Weather Bureau reported clear skies all over the state except along the coast where it was partly cloudy.

Houston, Palacios, Corpus Christi and Brownsville joined in reporting thundershowers and flashing lightning to the south in the Gulf.

There was a little more than a hint of fall in the air, too. Most temperatures were in the 50's, but they ranged from a chilly 51 at Childress to 79 at Corpus Christi. Dalhart reported 52 at dawn and Dallas had a 54.

Thursday weather—for the first day of fall—will be a little warmer, the Weather Bureau said.

Generally the night was the coolest most Texas points had experienced since early June. The lowest reading was at Junction where the mercury dipped to 46.

Lubbock and San Angelo had 51 degrees, Amarillo and Lufkin 53, Mineral Wells and Wichita Falls 54, Fort Worth and Tyler 55, Odessa 56, El Paso 60, Austin 62, San Antonio 63, Del Rio 64 and Galveston 71.

Autumn comes to Texas at 7:56 a.m. Thursday.

Wenniger Service To Be Held In San Angelo

Funeral services are pending in San Angelo for W. C. Wenniger, about 72, a retired Snyder grocer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wenninger had made their home in San Angelo since moving from Snyder about nine years ago. Mr. Wenniger, who had been ill about a week, died at 7 a.m. today in Shannon Hospital.

Cox Funeral Home in San Angelo will direct funeral services. Burial will be in Lawn Haven Cemetery there.

Sweetwater Polio Victim At Gonzales

Kenneth Crowder, son of Mr and Mrs Doyle Crowder of Sweetwater, has been transferred to Gonzales from Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene for treatment of polio.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowder of China Grove and Mr. and Mrs. John Woodard of Snyder. He was treated in the Abilene hospital for six weeks before going to Gonzales.

Optimist Club Donates $100 To New Opti-Mrs. Club

By ANITA HALL

A new club was organized and officers were installed at a joint meeting of the Optimist and Opti-Mrs. Clubs Tuesday night at the Hilander.

The Opti-Mrs. Club has ten members and they will work in conjunction with the Optimist Club in civic affairs.

A representative group of the two clubs from Abilene were guests at the dinner. Mrs. JIMMY PARTIN, president of the Abilene Opti-Mrs. Club, installed the officers of the Snyder club. They were Mrs. L. Z. BRIDGEMAN, president; Mrs. GENE BEST, vice-president; Mrs. SEARCY ORR, secretary; Mrs. WOODROW WORTHINGTON, treasurer.

Other Abilene guests were the Optimist president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. (Curley) HAYS, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. TESSIER, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. CRAWFORD, Mr. and Mrs. LEON STEVENSON, Mr. and Mrs. DELL BYNUM, Mrs. LITT PERRY, Mrs. JASPER ALLBRIGHT and Mr. PARTIN.

The Abilenians reported on the progress of their various projects and offered to assist the Snyder Opti-Mrs. Club at any time.

To make sure that their counterpart got off to a good start, the local Optimists made a donation to their treasury. Optimist president, BILL DAVIS, gave the Opti-Mrs. president, Mrs. BRIDGEMAN, a check for $100.

Other Opti-Mrs. members, in addition to the officers, are Mrs. GLENN RICKETTS, Mrs. ERICH ARNOLD, Mrs. ALBERT SMITH, Mrs. R. D. WHITE, Mrs. BILL DAVIS, and Mrs. JOHNNIE NOBLE.

Snyder Optimist officers are BILL DAVIS, president; L. Z. BRIDGEMAN, vice-president; and JOHNNIE NOBLE, secretary-treasurer.

Other members attending the dinner were F. C. RHOADES and son JEFF, CARL HEROD, GENE BEST, SEARCY ORR, WOODROW WORTHINGTON, GLENN RICKETTS, ERICH ARNOLD, ALBERT SMITH and R. D. WHITE.

ACORN SQUASH

. . . teams well with creamed ham for a luncheon or supper dish

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-6486.

There's something just right about acorn squash for fall meals. It's a vegetable that has gained in popularity during the past years. Economical and substantial, it adds variety because it can be offered so many ways.

BAKED SQUASH

Wash acorn squash; cut in half lengthwise. Remove seeds and halves, cut side down, in a baking pan. Pour in boiling water to ¼-inch depth. For 2 acorn-squash halves use a 9 by 9 by 1¾ inch pan with ½ cup water. Bake in hot oven until tender, 30 minutes or longer. Remove squash from pan. Turn right side up and mash and season pulp; or leave unmashed and fill cavities as desired. Makes 4 servings.

ACORN SQUASH WITH CREAMED HAM

1½ tablespoons butter
1½ tablespoons flour
½ cup chicken broth or bouillon
½ cup milk
1 cup diced cooked ham
Salt and pepper
4 baked acorn-squash halves
Parsley or water cress

Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add chicken broth and milk. Stir constantly until smooth and bubbly; cook and stir several more minutes. Add ham and salt and pepper to taste. Spoon creamed ham into cavities of baked acorn-squash halves. Garnish with parsley or water cress sprigs. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

SUMMER SALE
OF AUTOMATIC GAS FLUE-VENTED HEATING EQUIPMENT!

Last Week

Have Warm Floors with Perimeter Heating
Stops Drafts before they start!

Revolutionary new heating principle puts warm air where 80% of cold air enters your home . . . at outside walls. A blanket of warm air keeps drafts from starting . . . floors stay warm as toast! Floors aren't chilled from below because duct work runs beneath. Of course, perimeter whole house heating is automatic Gas! Furnace fits in closet or space 2 feet wide by 3 feet deep.

Easy, Inexpensive to Install . . .

Ducts run under floors . . . no ripping out walls. Only one return-air register needed . . . little, if any, redecoration. Floor diffusers are small (16 x 4"), fit neatly in floors. Furnace itself fits in closet or space 2 ft. wide and 3 ft. deep. Under-floor, attic models also included in Summer Sale.

Solid Comfort!

With perimeter Gas central heating, temperature differences between floor and ceiling are held below 5 degrees! Warm air circulates gently, keeps floors warm, stops drafts. When you have perimeter heating, you have the system described by the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Association as "incomparably better" than any other type of installation.

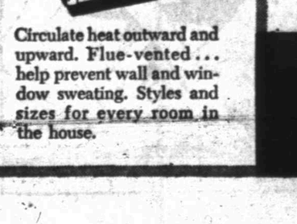

Floor Furnaces

Ward or Empire brands. All models, capacities. Economical . . . set temperature controls for just the heat you need for comfort!

Wall Heaters

Automatic, compact. No floor space needed. Perfect for second stories or homes without clearance for floor furnaces. Economical.

Vented Circulators

Circulate heat outward and upward. Flue-vented . . . help prevent wall and window sweating. Styles and sizes for every room in the house.

New York Healthier And Smoother Team Than Is Cleveland

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants, with a solid defensive performer at each position, will take a smoother-working and healthier infield than Cleveland into the 51st World Series next week.

With Whitey Lockman, Davey Williams, Alvin Dark and Hank Thompson, the newly-crowned National League champions rate the edge over the Indians' quartet of Vic Wertz, Bobby Avila, George Strickland and Al Rosen. Only at shortstop where Strickland is considered a shade the better fielder than Dark does Cleveland shine.

That's defensively. At the bat, the Giants' infielders cannot match the power of Wertz and Rosen or the consistency of Avila, the American League's leading batter.

Whether Rosen physically will be at his peak is questionable. The latest report has Al's fractured finger of mid-June thoroughly healed. But he's now suffering from multiple ills—a charley horse in his right thigh, calcium deposits in his left foot and muscle spasms in his back. He'll be ready for the opener in the Polo Grounds next Wednesday. But how ready?

Strickland, too, may pose a problem for Manager Al Lopez. Only two weeks recovered from a broken jaw, George has batted .095 since his return to the lineup with only 4 hits in 42 at bats.

At first base, there's little to choose between Lockman and Wertz. Both are converted outfielders, but Whitey made the switch in 1951, the Giants' last pennant-winning campaign and Vic shifted in June of this year, shortly after his acquisition from Baltimore. Wertz is more of a home-run threat. Lockman, New York's leadoff hitter, is more consistent.

Avila, with a .336 batting mark to Williams' .225, is the better hitter by far. Davey's strength lies in his ground-covering and pivot-making abilities, no small facor in the Giants' pennant drive. Avila, too, has improved considerably in the field this season.

Dark, with 186 hits and a .295 batting average, presents a hit-and-run threat in the No. 2 spot in New York's hitting order. Strickland is hitting .215 for the year.

Off his most valuable player performance of 1953, Rosen has had a disappointing season. His .300 average sprinkled with 24 home runs and 101 runs batted in is nothing to sneeze at. But last year, he hit .336 with 43 circuit blows and 145 RBI's.

Thompson, the Giants' third base man, is a first-rate glove man. He's come on strong the last month and currently shows 26 homers and 86 runs batted in.

Both clubs have versatile infield reserves.

Houston Tries For Second Win Tonight

ATLANTA (AP)—Houston sends 18-game winner Willard Schmidt to the mound tonight in quest of its second straight victory over Atlanta in the Dixie Series.

The Texas League champions opened the best-of-seven set with a 10-4 victory over the Southern Assn. Titlists last night.

Cracker starter tonight will be Leo Cristante, whose 24-7 record was the best of the season in the Southern. Schmidt's 18-5 mark wasn't the winningest in the Texas League, but was the best percentage-wise among the league's regulars.

Cristante was one of three Atlanta pitchers who didn't see action last night in trying to stem the Houston attack which netted 10 runs on nine hits and 11 walks.

The Buffs started on Glenn Thompson and kept on going against five other Cracker hurlers. Thompson was the loser.

Included in the Houston onslaught were Fred McAlister's three-run homer and Bob Blasingame's triple.

Luis Arroyo pitched seven-hit ball for the Buffs, giving up three runs in the first three innings and then settling down to hold Atlanta to one run in the final six frames. He struck out seven and walked five.

Lou Groza, top place kicker of the Cleveland Browns, had his kicking foot injured in an elevator accident when a boy.

Red Raiders Beating '53

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Tech's Red Raiders, who led the nation in three statistical departments in 1953, are ahead of last year's pace.

No. 1 in scoring with a 38.5 average, Tech scored 41 (to Texas A&M's 9) in its opening game Saturday night.

The nation's leader in extra points last season—44, or four per game—the Red Raiders kicked five against the Aggies.

And, after setting an NCAA record for opponents' fumbles recovered last season (32), the Raiders started 1954 off by falling on five A&M bobbles. If the remainder of Tech's opponents are as generous, that figure could be 50 by the season's close.

Few are daring to assert that Tech will surpass in the most important category of all—the season record of 10-1 but A&M was the only school to defeat the Red Raiders last year.

Rumors On Athletics Are Spreading Again

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The current owners of the Philadelphia Athletics called a series of closed door "let's make up our minds" meetings today amid reports the ball club will be sold within a matter of hours.

Almost everyone but the principals involved seemed ready to concede the A's would be sold to Arnold Johnson of Chicago and the franchise moved to Kansas City, now an American Assn. City. The big question appeared to be "when?"

The Chicago Tribune reported last night it had learned from high authority the A's would be sold to Johnson within 24 hours. Johnson declined to comment on that time element but said his previous offer to buy the ball club still stood.

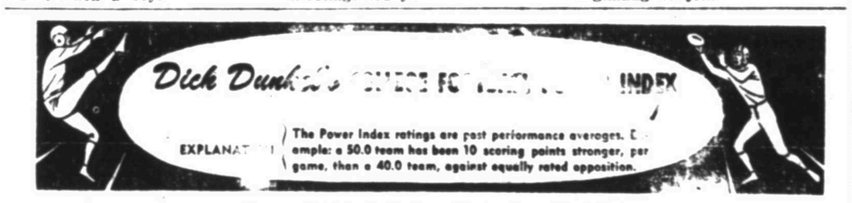

Roy and Earle Mack, who own the controlling stock interest in the A's along with their father, Connie Mack Sr., gave indirect credence to the general belief something was afoot by scheduling a series of meetings today.

The whole deal showed every sign of still being in the talking stage but reaching the limit of that phase. A major league rule forbids the transfer of a franchise except between Oct. 1 and Dec. 1. That gives any interested parties slightly over two months to wind things up.

The Associated Press was told authoritatively last night that sale of the Athletics couldn't possibly be completed in a matter of hours. In the first place, Johnson reportedly has made only a verbal offer for the club—a reported $4,500,000 including Connie Mack Stadium, $2,500,000 without the park. Nothing has been put in writing yet.

The American League would have to approve the sale and any transfer of the franchise to another city. Those little details would require more than a few hours.

However, there was a feeling that at long last things were really beginning to jell.

Texas Loop's Top Hurler Is Quitting

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—John Andre, voted most valuable pitcher in the Texas League this year, has announced that he will quit baseball to go into his family's shoe business at Brockton, Mass.

Andre had been sold to the Chicago Cubs, and was to report next spring. He won 22 games for the Shreveport Sports this season.

He said yesterday that he is "tired of roaming around six or seven months of the year," and said he feels that he has a better opportunity in the shoe business.

He said he plans on going back to Brockton about the first of the year after spending a few months in Mexico.

Texas Is Picked Over Notre Dame In Top Game Of Week

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—The Ol' Swami peers into a slightly foggy crystal ball:

TEXAS 20, NOTRE DAME 14—Either the Longhorns really have it or that terrific build up from down Texas way is the biggest wind since Carol and Edna . . . Coach Ed Price lost only four starters from his Southwest Conference co-champions of 1953 and has excellent replacements for them . . .He will start four seniors, six juniors and one sophomore and his unit already has made an impressive debut with a 20-6 triumph over capable LSU. . .

One weakness may be pass defense and Notre Dame undoubtedly is primed for a passing attack behind Ralph Guglielmi . .Fullback and right half, the latter manned by a sophomore, are highly questionable spots in the Irish backfield, and down the middle may be vulnerable. . . .The Old Irish try certainly will be there to make 26-year-old Terry Brennan's coaching start a success. . . .

MICHIGAN STATE 14, IOWA 13—A Big Ten scorcher with the winner taking a long stride in the title race. . . .The Spartans have too much depth and can keep grinding away with fresh units against a team weak in replacements. . . .Iowa's first string is as good as any in the league and should give MSC a rough time for three quarters. . . .The sore leg of star Halfback LeRoy Bolden is of grave concern for the Spartans. . . .

ILLINOIS 27, PENN STATE 13—J. C. Caroline, Abe Woodson and Mickey Bates pose too much running power. . . .The Nittany Lions are no slouches themselves with Lenny Moore, an explosive game-breaking runner, End Jim Garrity, rated among the East's best pass catchers, and tackle Roosevelt Grier, 6-4, 245-pounder

OHIO STATE 19, INDIANA 8—The Buckeyes are definite title contenders and will be out to prove it in this Big Ten opener . . .But they may find a Tiger in the Hoosiers' sophomore Milt Campbell, Olympic decathlon star . . .

WISCONSIN 21, MARQUETE 7—The Badgers are top-level in the Big Ten with Alan Ameche blasting from fullback and two fine passing-running quarterbacks, Jim Miller and Jim Haluska . .Marquette is well loaded but not enough. . . .Could be closer if Wisconsin is thinking a week ahead to Michigan State. . . .

PURDUE 14, MISSOURI 7—The Boilermakers may be a sleeper . It will take a good team to cage the Tigers of Missouri

MICHIGAN 27, WASHINGTON 7—Quarterback Duncan McDonald and rookie end Ron Kramer give Michigan one of the Big Ten's best passing combos . . .The Wolverines smashed the Huskies 50-0 last year . . .Washington didn't show much in shading Utah 7-6 last week . . .

MINNESOTA 20, NEBRASKA 13—New Coach Murray Warmath introduces a Split-T version of the Gophers this season. . . .It could light the fuse . . .

NORTHWESTERN 21, IOWA STATE 7—An ideal opener for Northwestern which is still experimenting for a smooth offense to match a sturdy defense. . . .

The Detroit Lions in the NFL have a radio announcer on their team. Defensive halfback Jim David was one of the broadcasters of the Colorado A&M baseball games during the 1954 season.

Wallace Moon, St. Louis Cardinals centerfielder, speaks mildly for a Texan. The first time he walked to the plate as a major leaguer he hit a home run. "Best ball I ever hit," he said, then shut up.

Charges Against Majors Are Made By Minor Club Owner

By ROBERT MOORE

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—Frank D. Lawrence, a minor league club owner for many years, today charged the major leagues with invading minor league territory through radio and television broadcasts and identified himself as the key figure behind a multi-million-dollar damage suit to make them pay for it.

At the same time, Lawrence accused Commissioner Ford Frick of being "a commissioner of the New York big league clubs only—not commissioner of baseball."

Lawrence, owner of the Portsmouth Club of the Class B Piedmont League, said he had the support of most of the 83 independent operators in the minor leagues in his plans to file suit against Frick and the 16 major league clubs.

"Many of these minor league clubs already have mailed in their checks to pay the costs of the suit," said Lawrence, a banker who has made "a hobby of baseball for 47 years."

Lawrence said these minor league clubs had been asked to contribute to the costs of the proposed suit.

Lawrence said the big league clubs collect millions of dollars annually through radio and television broadcasts and are "trying to put the minor leagues out of commission."

"The big leagues violate the most sacred agreement in all of baseball," he added. "That's the respect for territorial rights. The big leagues do worse than invade your territory. They send it down by radio and television to the fans—free of charge—and collect vast sums for it.

"Now don't get me wrong. The big leagues should go ahead and get all of the money out of radio and television they can, but we want them to share it with the minor league clubs"

Lawrence said he had no idea how much would be involved in the proposed suit, but he hinted it would run somewhere around 50 million dollars

The veteran club owner said that "during the past five years, 25 leagues in 200 cities have been killed by radio and television."

Lawrence plans to confer with an attorney, identified only as one of America's most famous attorneys, about the suit tomorrow.

"Whether the suit is filed or not will be predicated on the advice of my attorney, who has been making a study of the major-minor agreement," Lawrence said. "If he takes the case, we'll go to court."

Frick said in New York he had not heard of the proposed suit and declined comment. Advised of this, Lawrence said "Frick does know. He's known how I feel for a long time. I've told him I thought he ought to resign. He's a comissioner of the New York big league clubs only—not commissioner of baseball."

Lawrence said he was a member of a nine-man committee set up to study major-minor league relations but Frick had ordered the committee not to discuss radio and television.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

Football fans do not have to drive very far this week to see one of many games to be held over the week end

Local teams have plenty of games coming up, as do area teams. Here's the mileage chart:

THURSDAY

2 miles (from the square)—Snyder Junior high seventh and eighth grade teams in games, hosting Big Spring and starting at 6:30 p.m. Eighth grade has 1-0 record, seventh grade opening season.

37 miles — Snyder Freshman team at Sweetwater, starting at 7:30 p.m., with the local team in its first game.

FRIDAY

2 miles — Snyder Tigers hosting Bowie of El Paso, starting at 8 p.m. Each team has 1-0 record.

11 miles — Hermleigh Cardinals, with 1-1 record, hosting Knox City, 8 p.m.

10 miles — Ira, with 0-1 record, hosting Flower Grove, 7:30 p.m.

17 miles — Hobbs, holding 1-2 record, hosting Aspermont, 8 p.m.

31 miles—Gail (0-1) hosts Imperial, 8 p.m.

SATURDAY

2 miles — Snyder B team, with 0-1 record, hosting Lamesa B, 7:30 p.m.

85 miles — Texas Tech, with 1-0 record, hosting West Texas State College.

All Abilene colleges are playing out of town, McMurry vs. Texas Western at El Paso, Hardin-Simmons vs. New Mexico A&M at Las Cruces, and Abilene Christian vs. Florida State at Tallahassee.

TO SEE SERIES

District Attorney Renal B. Rosson and wife, now on vacation through Tennessee, Virginia and Wasington, D.C., plan to hit New York next Wednesday in time for the World Series.

At the series, they will join Mrs. Rosson's cousin, Dee Fondy, first baseman for the Chicago Cubs of the National League, who will also be there to watch the series between the Indians and Giants.

Fondy, native of Slaton, is rounding up his fourth year in the major leagues. He hasn't lived at Slaton since he was about nine years old. He moved with his family then to San Bernadino, Cal., and got his start in baseball on the West Coast. He played one year for the Fort Worth Cats. Fondy last year finished the season hitting .309 and had 18 home runs to his credit. He had .300 in 1952, ranking twelfth in the National League, and had 10 homers and 66 RBIs.

Kenny Ford, who last week passed Hardin-Simmons to two touchdowns is already being called "Model A" Ford around the H-SU campus. The freshman quarterback completed three of eight passes in the Tulsa game for 57 yards. His older brother, John, you will remember, was "Model T" in his college days.

Waco, Corpus Meet In Final Series Game

WACO (AP)—The down-to-the-wire race for the championship of the Big State League reaches its finish tonight as Waco and Corpus Christi meet here in the final game of the best-of-seven title series.

Southpaw Don Kildoo, a 19-game winner this year for Waco, will face Corpus Christi's Bill Tosheff, a late-season acquisition from Atlanta, Ga., in the season finale.

Both are fine pitchers, but they'll have to be better than that to top the job Waco Manager Jack Paepke did last night in keeping the Pirates in the playoffs.

Paepke, a catcher by trade, moved to the mound and pitched one-hit ball at the Clippers as Waco won 8-0 and forced the series to go a full seven games.

The Pirate boss pitched no-hit ball for seven innings, gave up a pinch-hit single to Luke Luckenbach in the eighth and resumed his hitless ways in the ninth to give the Pirates an easy victory.

It was a do-or-die effort for the Pirates, who had fallen behind three games to two the night before when Corpus Christi won 10-1.

Four victories are necessary for the championship.

Waco got 11 hits off Jim Vitter and Ben Bonine, including a grand-slam homer by Roberto Sanchez in the eighth. The Pirates were already in control, having scored once in each of the fourth and fifth innings and twice in the sixth.

Paepke struck out one and walked four, bearing down in the clutch to leave five Corpus Christi runners stranded.

A victory tonight would be Waco's 113th of the season. The Pirates won 105 over the regular season to finish the year 13 games ahead of second-place Tyler.

Waco then disposed of Austin in the first-round playoff series with four more triumphs to two for the Pioneers.

Corpus Christi wound up in third place in the regular season standings with an 87-60 mark. The Clippers knocked Tyler out in the first-round series, four games to one.

Pioneer Loop In Big Season

By The Associated Press

Pioneer Conference teams are on the way to their biggest season against outside opposition.

They have won six of seven games in nonconference play thus far.

They'll be back at it this week. Tarleton State leads off Thursday night against Paris at Paris.

Friday night Arlington State will play Kilgore at Arlington.

Saturday night Schreiner Institute clashes with Victoria at Victoria, while Ranger meets Cisco at Ranger.

San Angelo, which lost the only game against outside opposition—that to the mighty Tyler Apaches 13-7—will rest this week.

Dial Leads His Team To Win

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP)—Clovis-Pioneer Red Dial stubbed the toes of the Pampa Oilers last night as he pitched a four-hitter to lead Clovis to an 8-0 victory and tie West Texas-New Mexico League best of seven final series at 2-2.

Clovis scored all its runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. The rally in the fourth inning—which saw five pioneers cross the plate—began when centerfielder Pete Trabuco hit a three-run homer. The Pioneers added two triples and a double off loser Jim Lemons before the inning was finished. They scored two more in the fifth and one in the sixth.

Lemons was relieved by rookie John Coddington, who finished the game.

Big Rally Is Set Thursday

Final plans for a big pep rally to mark the opening of the home football games for the Snyder Tigers are now in the making by the Quarterback Club.

The club, meeting last night, set 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon as time for the rally, which will start on the south side of the courthouse square.

The high school band and pep squad, along with students from the school, will be on hand to boost the Snyder team which will meet Bowie of El Paso here Friday night.

Several talks will be scheduled during the rally.

Child's First Step Momentous Event

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)— I mustn't forget to drop into the drug store today.

Have to pick up some bunion pads for the baby. She learned to walk just four days ago, and at the rate she's going now her feet will be worn off clear up to the ankles by the end of the week.

Ever since Tracy Ann, accompanied by three spare diapers, moved into our house at the age of five weeks I have been looking forward to seeing her take her first step.

But she took her own sweet time about it. When she was a year old, she was still what is known as a "creeper" now—in the old days we called 'em crawlers. She did pull herself upright in her play pen. But after yawning, she sat down again.

I began to get worried. Why didn't she walk? Every parent I ran into seemed to have a baby that walked at 10 months, or 11 months or a year. One guy really drove me crazy. Said he'd heard of a case in which a mother and her baby, two weeks after birth, strolled out of the hospital hand-in-hand together, with the tired mother leaning for support on the shoulder of her sturdy infant. Funny fellow!

It was worse when Tracy Ann was 14 months old. Friends began telling of babies they knew — "thoughtful babies"—who hadn't walked until they were two years or older.

I began reading magazine articles to Tracy on the values of walking as an exercise. I brought her home books called "Traping Through Life" and "The Hiker's Manual."

She took the books seriously, digesting them a page at a time. She got so she preferred the books to her pablum. But she didn't even regard them as food for thought. Just food.

"Tracy, stand up—no hands," I pleaded. And Tracy, sitting squarely on her small rump, would giggle and hold up both hands—to show she wasn't holding on to anything. But when she did stand up, she grabbed at the nearest support like a guy going down for the third time. She could climb like a squirrel, but she wouldn't stand up by herself.

For some reason her heartless mother seemed completely unconcerned.

"Why won't you let the baby alone?" said Frances. "She'll be walking when she goes to school."

"I should hope so," I told her. "After all, nobody took me to kindergarten piggy-back. I wheeled there the first day on roller skates."

"Well, bully for you," murmured Frances. "Brave lad."

Miracles come into our lives in commonplace ways. The other day, shortly before Tracey's 15-month birthday, we were visiting friends, Peggy and John McKee.

Peggy put Tracy on her feet, and took away her hands. Tracy stood there a moment thoughtfully, took a hesitant step ... then another ... then another.

"Here, honey," I said, holding out my arms. But Tracy, like a wound up toy, made a mechanical left turn and moved away by herself ... step ... step ... step ... then kerplunk!—down she went. Put back on her feet, she went 25 steps before kerplunking again. But she walked away from all the outstretched arms—she was going it alone! She wanted no more help.

Somehow it was as if I heard a bugle blowing in my heart. I felt like shooting off fireworks, and I wanted to cry, too. Everybody was excited but Tracy. She couldn't understand why everybody made such a sudden fuss over her.

"She knew she could walk whenever she wanted to," said Frances.

Ever since then Tracy has been tramp-tramp-tramping endlessly.

She worries me even more now that she has learned to walk. I get up at night and go in to her crib to see if she's walking in her sleep.

"Take it easy, Tracy," I tell her. "Lie down and rest. If you live to be 75, that means you'll be wearing shoes for nearly 74 years. Sit down now and take the weight off your feet—while you have the chance."

"All men are crazy," says Frances. "They never know what they really want from a girl."

Guess I'd better buy some corn pads, too. Be awful if the neighbors found out I had a 15-month old daughter with corns.

Mendes-France Is Playing For High Stakes In European Deal

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pierre Mendes-France, the French Premier, will have proved himself a superb gambler, playing for the highest stakes, if he gets half of what he wants before agreeing to a re-armed Germany.

At the moment it is not clear whether he is gambling that he can make a deal close to his own terms or is really trying to block any German rearmament at all.

This week he laid down French conditions for letting Germany have guns again. If these conditions are agreed to by the Allies, he said, his countrymen might approve. He didn't say they would.

He gets a chance to play his cards next Tuesday in London at a meeting with Secretary of State Dulles, Britain's Foreign minister Eden, and the representatives of six other Allies, including Germany.

The United States and Britain, convinced Germany must be re-armed fast and made part of the defense against Russia, thought it could be done in a way that would not permit Germany to become a menace to her neighbors again.

This was through a single European army, called the European Defense Comunity (EDC). In the EDC army soldiers of West Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg would have served side by side under a unified command chosen from among their own officers.

None of EDC's members would any longer have had its own national army. All would pool their military power in the new, supranational organization.

The French balked. They didn't want to give up their own army. They were afraid of a rearmed Germany without more safeguards than were provided in the EDC plan.

This summer the French Assembly, after stalling for two years voted to shelve EDC. Mendes-France, who might have fought to save it, didn't.

He may have been gambling that the United States, Britain and the other Allies——desperately anxious to get Germany into the defense picture—would start yielding to French terms for rearming Germany once EDC was killed.

The United States and Britain made their anxiety clear enough. Eden scurried around the continent looking for some plan to put guns in German hands again. Dulles flew to Germany and Britain last week.

Mendes-France also knew that the Allies, anxious as they were to get Germany rearmed, could hardly afford to lose French support. European defense, with Germany in it but without France would have a big hole in it, too.

He may not have been gambling when he let the French Assembly kill EDC without a protest from him. He may have felt that EDC was no good and, if no substitute for it could be found, that was just too bad.

But if he was gambling, it's dangerous business. If Russia should attack before Western defenses are solid, it may be unfortunate for both Germany and France.

This week Mendes-France made a speech, outlining the conditions under which he thinks France may approve getting into an alliance with rearmed Germany:

He wants British participation "to the greatest degree" in any defense organization that includes Germany.

And he wants the members of that organization to set up a council of some kind which will: (A) have power to limit the armaments of all the members and (B) be free to go into the member countries on inspection trips to be sure there's no cheating.

If he remains rigid on those terms and the Allies won't accept them, it would seem clear he doesn't want Germany rearmed. But he may be offering them only as a starting point for bargaining and compromise.

Officers Foil Jail Break Try

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A bold attempt to break out of Cabell County jail was thwarted by police last night in 22 action-packed minutes.

The would-be jail breakers used a heavy steel table leg to pry open an inner cell door on the fifth floor. When Deputy Jailer Lakin Rowsey and a trusty prisoner opened an outer door, they were pounced on and tossed into a cell.

Rowsey's call for help was heard by Jailer William Moses on the ground floor. Moses telephoned for reinforcements, then rushed to the elevator.

When encountered by the armed Moses, the prisoners shut the elevator door and started up again. Moses ordered another trusty to cut off the electric power and the elevator stopped between the first and second floors.

Using controls in the jail office, Moses brought the elevator back to the first floor and the six stepped out under gunpoint. One tried to run but was subdued with a mace.

SACROC Has Injection Plan In Full Swing

Water injection operations of the Scurry Area Canyon Reef Operators Committee got into full swing yesterday

SACROC, which had started Sept 1 with water injection into three wells, got approval of applications from the Railroad Commission and yesterday started injection into 50 more wells.

Hicks Allen, SACROC unit manager, said transfers of allowables have been made on 203 wells in the unit and that those wells have been shutin. Those include the 50 wells in which water injection started yesterday. Allowables were transferred to other wells adjacent to the line of injection wells. The injection line runs through the middle of the SACROC area.

To get the water injection going, SACROC got operations underway at its main water treating plant near the Sun Lemons Lease camp southwest of Snyder and at three water pump stations.

SACROC, which covers 50,000 acres of the Kelley-Snyder field, now has 1,164 producing wells. The area is made up of 318 tracts formerly operated by 78 interests.

Facilities for operation of SACROC's repressuring program were constructed and bought at a cost of about $4½ million.

9 Men Jump From Plane

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—Nine men parachuted from a disabled Air Force C82 cargo plane which crashed and burned in the San Bernardino mountains last night and the Air Force gave conflicting reports on how many had been located.

Maj. John Austry, operations officer at Norton Air Force Base here, said that as of 12:30 a.m. (PDT) today three survivors had been located.

The base identified them as Maj. James M. Wagner, believed to have been the co-pilot; Lt. Alfred M. Gathercoal, passenger, and Capt. C. G. Chapman, medical officer, all from Sioux City, Iowa.

They were found at running Springs, a mountain community between Big Bear and Lake Arrowhead. The plane was from the 521st Air Defense Group, Sioux City. It had refueled here late yesterday, then taken off for Hill AFB, Ogden, Utah

Cause of the crash was undetermined

Man, Child Bride Face Charges In Maryland

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Alvey G. Whitmer, 38-year-old widower with six children and his 14-year-old bride face charges today, she of being a delinquent; he with contributing to her delinquency by marrying her.

Whitmer has six children who range in age from 7 to 15—a year older than his bride, the former Mattie Pearl Herrin.

Deputy Sheriff Leister Isanogle said Whitmer acknowledged marrying the girl in Arlington, Va., last Monday.

Authorities released him on $500 bail but held his bride while they considered her plight.

Passersby Save Man Injured In Factory

LYNN, Mass (AP)—Two passersby were credited with saving the life of John Vangelist, 23, yesterday after both his arms were amputated in a factory cutting machine accident.

Vangelist dashed out of the factory onto a busy thoroughfare and had to be knocked down by John Beaver, 32, of Lynn, and Leo McKenney, 27, of Swampscott, so they could apply tourniquets.

Doctors at Lynn Hospital said their prompt action probably saved Vangelist from bleeding to death.

Tighter Supplies Hit Three Sectors

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Tight supplies are showing up unexpectedly today in three sectors of the economy: metals, textiles — and money.

In each case the shortage is special, regional or temporary. But it has been enough to raise prices or interest costs.

And it is troubling certain businessmen. Some are asking Washington to do something about it.

There was so much copper earlier this year that producers expected the 30-cent-a-pound price to break any day.

Now there is so little to be had that copper futures on the New York Commodity Exchange have gone to their highest level in two years.

And copper users are urging Washington to release some of the metal earmarked for the nation's strategic materials stockpile so that civilian and military production won't be held up by the shortage.

The tight supply came about this way: earlier in the year, when copper seemed too plentiful in relation to demand, producers cut back on the output of mines and smelters. Stocks were held close to the demand level.

Recently, a series of strikes both here and in Chile has shut off much of the world's copper sources. At the same time, demand for copper continued to rise in Europe, which has been experiencing a boom rather than a recession. Copper is so short abroad just now that metal for quick delivery commands premium prices.

American stockpiling also has tightened supplies of lead and zinc enough to raise their prices in recent weeks.

Quicksilver has also been on the short side, with prices going to the highest level in years, and traders unable to explain where all of the mercury is going — unless into the U.S. stockpile.

In textiles the short supply situation is very spotty and is brought about largely by consumer practices. But demand for some items is big enough to lead some mills to raise prices a little.

Buying practices have been the cause of the spot tightness. Textile buyers don't want to take any risks these days so they have been placing only small orders and asking quick delivery.

Tightness in money is even more puzzling just now since the Federal Reserve banks have been keeping the supply easy for the nation as a whole. The tightness shows up mainly in New York and Chicago, while banks elsewhere mostly have excess reserves looking for borrowers.

The New York and Chicago banks have been buying up the U.S. Treasury offerings week by week—and slowly raising the interest costs to the government, as the supply of money tightened. Banks elsewhere haven't been sending their idle money in to take up any of the supply of treasury bills.

Money has grown tight in New York and Chicago and interest rates have firmed there, while outside these cities there's lots of money—in the banks, that is, if not in your pocketbook.

4 TIMELY REASONS WHY

You'll always be glad you bought a Chevrolet now!

1

You'll stay proud of Chevrolet's lasting good looks

Other low-priced cars just don't have the quality look you see in Chevrolet. And if you like Chevrolet's looks now, you'll like its looks always. For there's fine design in those clean and smoothly curved lines (nothing "boxy" about Chevrolet!). And fine design like this always wears well—never really goes out of style.

2

You'll enjoy exclusive features for finer motoring

Chevrolet's the only low-priced car with the finer materials and workmanship of Body by Fisher. It has the highest-compression power of any leading low-priced car, for more fun in the going and more miles out of the fuel. Chevrolet puts your safety first with the biggest brakes and the only full-length box-girder frame in the low-price field. It's the only car in its field with that smoother, softer Unitized Knee-Action ride—and, it's even the only one with Safety Plate Glass in all windows of sedans and coupes!

3

You save when you buy and when you trade

Even so, Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. (That's possible because Chevrolet builds the most, and can build 'em better to sell for less.) And at trade-in time, you'll be ahead again from Chevrolet's traditionally higher resale value!

4

You'll get a special deal right now

Right now, we're in a position to give you the deal of the year on a new Chevrolet. Come in and let us show you how much you'll gain by buying now!

Now's the time to buy!

Get our big deal! Enjoy a new . . .
