Longhorns Blast Swifts

By Monty Upton
Friday night the Hart Longhorns took on the spunky, but punchless Nazareth Swifts and walked away with a 53-0 victory to continue their winning ways.

The first quarter was one of those strange events that sometimes happen in football games. The 'Horns rushed for 116 yards while holding Nazareth to a minus 7 yards but did not score a point. It was a quarter marred by 7 Hart and 2 Nazareth penalties. Hart had its only punt of the night blocked for minus 3 yards. However, the Swifts, Jimmy Huseman dropped back on the next play and threw a pass that was intercepted by Johnny Newsom, on the 50 and returned to the Nazareth 42.

Newsom also had a QB sack in the 1st quarter. Using eight plays, Lester Aven scored from one yard out on the first play of the second quarter behind good blocks of Mike Finch and Cary McLain. Bobby Allenworth's kick after was straight through the uprights.

The rest of the second quarter proved to be almost all defense. Following the kick off, the ball changed hands twice. The Swifts were forced to punt and Eliazar Castillo fielded the ball on the Hart 27, scooted around a Hart wall, and sped his way 73 yards for the TD with 6:02 left. Allensworth's kick was bobbled on a high center and was no good.

On the next series, Hart's Jackson got a key quarterback sack that put Nazareth in a hole. Going to the air, Kenny Brockman, had his pass picked off by Bryan Irons who returned it 30 yards to pay dirt with 4:35 showing. Allensworth again found the range to make the score 20-0.

Before the end of the quarter, a Castillo-to-Aven pitch was lost to the Swifts and Castillo was intercepted but Nazareth was unable to use the breaks to score.

Following intermission, the Swifts kicked off to the Horns, using an on-side kick in an attempt to get the ball but Hart fell on the ball. Evidently unable to move the ball on the series, Castillo lined the Horns up in punt formation. Taking the hike from center, Castillo hesitated and then shot around left end to surprise the Swifts with 57 yards and 6 points. Kick after was off to the side.

Hart had Joe Flores block a Nazareth punt, lost two more fumbles, one by Castillo and the other by Glen Black, and had Newsom intercept his second Swift pass and return it 31 yards before being able to score again.

This time it was the Hustlin' Horns' Donald Robinson that came up with the interception off the arm of Brockman which he hauled across the goal line for a score with 2:45 ticking on the clock. Aven's run was signaled good by the head

Longhorn Coach Wins Top Money

Upsets plagued the teams listed in the football contest with no contestant missing fewer than four games. In addition to upsets, the Minnesota Vikings-Los Angeles Rams 10-10 deadlock handed all contestants one loss.

Robert Mears, HHS coach, proved to be almost "on the money" with his tie-breaker prediction and thus claims the week's top prize money. His 52-0 prediction was off just one point.

Five other contestants missed four games each and Kerry Newsom and Marci Wescott edged Danny Rice, Tracy Rich and Melba Bradley for the winnings.

Kerry was off 13 points with a 40-0 guess on the Longhorns-Swifts encounter. Marci missed by 17 points with a 42-6 prediction. Out of the winnings but still posting the best guesses for the week, Danny missed by 18 points with 35-0; Tracy, 25, 28-0 and Melba, 36, 24-7.

The "Morton-Crosbyton" listed in last week's contest, was credited as a correct point for all contestants since that was not a correct match.

Lonnie Joe Howell and Danny Rice share the season lead with 36 correct guesses for the first three weeks of the season. Contestants with 30 or more points are listed elsewhere.

All contestants are reminded not to give up trying for the season grand prize of $50 which goes to the contestant with the most correct picks at the conclusion of the contest. The contest will continue as long as the Longhorns are in competition.

Remember, too, anyone can be a weekly winner. It costs nothing to enter and it's fun. Select a winner from the games listed in the ads of sponsoring merchants on the contest pages of the Hart Beat. Circle the corresponding number on the entry blank, fill in name and address and deposit with any of those sponsoring merchants.

Careless mistakes cost contestants points. Each week some contestant fails to circle a winner in every game or neglects to predict the tie-breaker score, which is also counted as a game for the week.

INGENUITY IN HOME DECOR

Helpful Tips On Low-Cost Decoration Ideas

DECORATING A CHILD'S ROOM

A STYLISH LOOK FOR CHILDREN can come from allowing a youth to decide on the decorations for his or her own room. A young man may want "Wacky Wicker" wall covering to show off his sporting equipment; a young lady might like "Magic Flower" on the wall to express her growing femininity.

Your children can have rooms they'll like to live in—and you can still have your budget intact—if you keep these suggestions in mind when you decorate.

1. Let your child have a say in selecting the decorating scheme. This helps give children a room that's truly their own, one that lets them express their growing personalities and varied interests. They may even surprise you with their flair for design, and they're far more likely to take pride in their rooms because they've helped with the decorating themselves.

2. Help your child help you to do-it-yourself. You can, for example, set up a set of shelves for displaying collections, plants or school books.

3. Your youngster should be the one to select such things as accessories and wall coverings. You can help him make a happy choice by letting him look at the book of wall coverings created especially for young people. Called Tots 'N Teens, it contains the latest looks in the Fashion line of heavy-duty vinyl wall coverings from the General Tire and Rubber Company. These pre-pasted, washable wall coverings come in a variety of plaids, florals, checks, stripes and spots, as well as patterns depicting athletes in action, vintage aircraft, naval signal flags, graffiti, popular pets, antique autos, butterflies and circus performers—about 40 different patterns in 105 color combinations.

4. Allow the room to express your child's personality. Is he a sports enthusiast? Put up sporting prints and display his fishing pole, catcher's glove, football trophy or bow and arrow. Has she a flair for growing things? Let her room bloom with flowers and plants, live and dried, real and from the realm of the imagination.

These inexpensive ways to decorate can add a touch that no amount of money could achieve.

THROW A GREAT FIESTA FOR A DOLLAR A DINER!

Here's a new way to please the palate and the pocketbook. Throw a great South American feast for a dozen friends for less than a dollar a diner.

The main course is that Argentine specialty matambre, a dish that literally means, "kill hunger." As you might expect with a recipe that comes from Argentina, the main ingredient is beef. Traditionally eaten cold or hot, matambre was a staple food of stagecoach travelers who took along those stuffed beef rolls on their travels across the vast Argentina pampas or grasslands.

You'll love the unusual flavor of matambre as well as its moneysaving feature. Inexpensive flank steak is marinated in a blend of wine vinegar, spices, zesty Contadina tomato paste and consomme for at least eight hours. Then a tasty combination of vegetables including the traditional carrots and spinach leaves are spread over the beef, which is then rolled and tied for baking.

Serve a sauce made from the marinade liquid. Accompany the matambre with hot rolls and baked sweet potatoes, another food that comes to us from South America. To carry out the South-of-the-border theme, choose a flan or caramel custard for dessert. Made with Carnation Instant Nonfat Dry Milk crystals, this custard tastes rich and creamy—pleases everyone from young to old.

Remember, don't wait for a special occasion. Anytime is fiesta time when you can feed a dozen friends for a dollar a diner!

Groceries were shopped in Los Angeles, California on June 9, 1976 for a total cost of $12.59.

MATAMBRE

(Makes 12 servings)

- 2 (1 1/2 pounds each) flank steaks
- 1 1/4 cups (10 1/2-ounce can) consomme
- 2/3 cup (6-ounce can) Contadina Tomato Paste
- 1/4 cup wine vinegar
- 1 crushed large garlic clove
- 2 teaspoons instant minced onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 4 slices bacon
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 4 cups day-old bread cubes
- 2 cups (10-ounce package) cooked, drained frozen peas and carrots
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

- 1/4 pound washed fresh spinach leaves
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 cup water

Pound steaks with rim of saucer to tenderize. Combine consomme, tomato paste, wine vinegar, garlic, instant minced onion, 1 teaspoon salt, thyme and chili powder. Pour about 3/4 cup tomato mixture into 13 x 9 x 2-inch baking dish. Place on steak in dish. Top with 3/4 cup tomato mixture and second steak. Pour on remaining tomato mixture. Cover and refrigerate at least 8 hours to marinate meat. Chop bacon; saute with onion in medium saucepan. Add bread cubes, peas and carrots and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Mix thoroughly. Remove steaks from marinade. Place dish containing marinade to one side for later use. Place spinach leaves over entire surface of each steak. Place bread mixture down center of each steak lengthwise. Fold each steak over and secure with skewers. Tie with string. Place seam side down in baking dish containing marinade. Cover with foil. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 1-1 1/2 hours. Remove strings and skewers from steak rolls. Place steak rolls on serving platter; keep warm. Pour marinade liquid in dish into medium saucepan. Combine flour and water to make paste. Stir into liquid. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and thickens. Slice steaks into 12 servings. Serve with sauce. Makes twelve 4-ounce servings Matambre, and 3 cups sauce.

CARAMEL CUSTARD

(Makes 12 servings)

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 8 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups Carnation Instant Nonfat Dry Milk crystals plus water to equal 3 3/4 cups
- 2 teaspoons vanilla

Melt 1/2 cup sugar in 6-cup mold over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar turns to a golden brown syrup. Tip the mold and turn to coat inside with syrup. Set aside to cool 15-20 minutes. Beat eggs until well blended in large mixer bowl. Add 1 cup sugar and salt. Beat just until blended. Combine instant nonfat milk crystals and water to equal 3 3/4 cups. Blend thoroughly. Add milk and vanilla to egg mixture. Blend. Skim foam from top of mixture. (Foam will brown quicker than custard and appearance will be unattractive.) Pour into caramel-coated mold. Place in pan about 2 1/2-inches deep.

Pour hot water around mold to 1-inch depth. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 50 minutes or until knife inserted in custard comes out clean. Remove from pan. Cool on wire rack. Chill several hours before serving. To unmold, run knife around edge of mold. Dip mold in hot water for a few seconds. Place serving plate on top of mold; invert.

Shake gently until custard slips out of mold. Cut into 12 serving pieces. Each serving will be about 1/2 cup.

Apple Torte For Rosh Hashanah

Beginning September 25 with Rosh Hashanah and ending October 4 with Yom Kippur, the High Holy Days will be celebrated by Jews all over the world. During this ten-day period of profound religious observance Jewish tables are festive and special attention is given to planning the menus.

There are few food restrictions during this season and Jewish cooks will serve desserts at every opportunity—symbolizing the wish for sweetness in the New Year. In days past it was customary to exchange New Year's greetings and gifts of homemade confections and cakes. Today this practice largely has been replaced by cards and flowers but homemade goodies still are considered the most thoughtful gifts.

Honey cakes and desserts are traditional Rosh Hashanah gifts. Cakes frequently are frosted and decorated with the Hebrew legend "L'shana tova tikatevu" or "May you be inscribed for a good year."

Suggested here is a luscious Apple Cream Torte made with Planters Peanut Oil which is favored by Jewish cooks for its light, delicate flavor. Planters Oil is the kosher salad and cooking oil.

APPLE CREAM TORTE

2 cups unsifted flour
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup Planters Peanut Oil
1 egg, beaten
3 tablespoons brandy

6 cups sliced peeled, cored apples
2 eggs
3 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup light cream
Crumb Topping (recipe below)

Combine flour, 1/4 cup sugar, salt, peanut oil, 1 beaten egg and brandy; blend until mixture is crumbly. Press mixture on bottom and half way up sides of a 9-inch spring form pan. Arrange apples in prepared crust. Set aside.

Beat remaining 2 eggs, 3 tablespoons sugar and lemon juice together; set aside. Dissolve cornstarch in light cream, then gradually add to egg mixture. Pour over apples. Sprinkle with Crumb Topping (recipe below). Bake at 375°F. 50 to 55 minutes. Cool completely on a wire rack before removing pan sides. Makes one 9-inch cake.

Crumb Topping: Combine 2/3 cup unsifted flour, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1/3 cup chopped walnuts, 1/4 cup sugar and 1/4 cup Planters Peanut Oil. Stir until mixture is crumbly.

Boys Learning Cooking Skills

A new experience for several boys in Hart High School is turning out to be a fun thing.

A number of boys are enrolled in Homemaking Classes this year under the guidance of Mrs. Martha Mears.

Among those taking the course are Ricky Rowland, Jackie Ethridge, Rodolfo Gonzales Jr., Van Burress and Henry Guzman.

The class meets second class after lunch and are learning to cook. The sophomores have each selected a recipe to share with the Hart Beat readers this week.

Ricky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newlon Rowland, is a member of the student council, Future Farmers of America, J.V. football team and attends the Methodist Church. His hobby is motorcycles.

Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Esquivel Guzman, says his hobby is going to football games.

Rodolfo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodolfo Sr. plays varsity football and is a member of the Catholic Church.

Jackie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ethridge, is a member of Future Farmers of America and is on the varsity football team.

Van, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burress, is a member of the J.V. football team and says he likes motorcycles. He attends the Baptist Church.

Ricky Rowland's recipe

PORK TENDERLOIN ROAST
Allow about a two and a half or three pound tenderloin roast for four people.

Salt and pepper it, then place in an open roasting pan, fat side up.

Cook in a 325 degree oven for about 25 to 30 minutes for each pound of weight. When the fat becomes crisp and browns around the edges, it's ready for the table, noodles and gravy.

Van Burress' recipe

CHIPPED BEEF ON TOAST
Melt 2 T. butter in a large heavy frying pan. Add 2 t. flour and blend until smooth. Stir constantly and let this cook about one minute or so; then pour in a cup and a half sweet milk gradually.

After sauce starts to thicken, continue stirring and let it cook over low heat about five minutes. Stir in chipped beef according to taste and serve over toast.

Henry Guzman's recipe

CHINESE FRIED RICE
1 c uncooked reg rice
salt
4 T salad oil
1 c cubed cooked chicken
1 c cooked small whole shrimp
1 c cooked peas
1/4 c sliced green onion
1/4 c soy sauce
1/4 t pepper
2 eggs, beaten
1 c shredded iceberg lettuce
Cook rice in boiling salted water as label directs; keep hot.

Heat salad oil in a large skillet; add chicken, shrimp, peas and onions; saute quickly 2 min. Lightly stir in rice, soy sauce, 1/2 t. salt and pepper; heat one minute.

Slowly pour in beaten eggs, stirring constantly. Continue cooking just until eggs are set; remove from heat. Stir in lettuce lightly with a fork.

Spoon into serving bowl, pulling several of the shrimp to the top for garnish. Serve with additional soy sauce to drizzle on top if you like. Yield: 6 servings.

Jackie Ethridge's recipe

PORK STEW MILANESE
1/2 lb milk Italian sausage links
1 T oil
2 med onions, sliced
1 1/2 lbs lean pork steaks
2 c water
1/8 t garlic powder
1/8 t black pepper
5 or 6 small carrots, peeled
1 envelope (3/4 oz) brown gravy mix
5 or 6 small cabbage wedges

Cut sausage into 1-inch pieces; brown in oil in medium-size skillet. Add onions and cook until soft but not brown; place in 2-quart casserole. Cut pork into 1-inch cubes. Brown pork in sausage drippings; place in casserole. Pour off fat from skillet. Add water to skillet and heat, scraping brown bits from bottom of pan; pour over meat in casserole. Add garlic, pepper and carrots. Cover and bake in 350 degree oven 1 hour. Stir in contents of envelope of gravy mix; place cabbage wedges on top. Cover and bake 30 min. or longer until meat and vegetables are tender. Yield: 5 to 6 servings.

Rodolfo Gonzales' recipe

CHINESE FRIED SHRIMP

2 lbs large green shrimp
2 eggs
1 c flour
1 t salt
pepper
Fat for deep frying

Start heating fat to 360 degrees. Shell shrimps but leave on tails. Slit down the back, rinse out the black vein under running water and dry shrimp on paper towels. Spread them out flat. Beat the eggs, but not stiff. Mix dry ingredients together on a paper plate or a piece of foil. Dip shrimp, one at a time, in the egg and roll in the flour. Fry a few at a time in the fat. Drain on paper towels. Serve with hot mustard and tomato catsup. The Chinese usually put the sauces on small individual dishes, the mustard on one side of the dish, the catsup on the other.

BAND GETS BANNER

By Laurey Franks

When the band stepped off at Amarillo last Monday, they had an added bonus to catch the attention of Tri-State Parade spectators. Added attraction was the maroon and white banner carried by Kelly King and Steven Brantley. The banner was the work of Mrs. Ben Kennedy of Hart.

The banner is maroon satin backed with felt. The edges sport white fringe. Painted on the front is the lettering spelling the proud name of the HART LONGHORN BAND above the emblem of a Longhorn.

Jerry Jansa, Band Director, reports that two flags, to be used at football games, are also being made by Mrs. Kennedy. These new banners will be a snappy addition to halftime performances planned by the Hart Band.

CAMERA CLUB CLICKS OFF

By Peter P. Shutterbug

The Plainview Camera Club met last Thursday in a regular meeting at the Chamber of Commerce building to elect officers and discuss future plans. Voted in by acclamation were David Howard, president; Jackie Milner, vice president and program chairman; and Mack Hunter as secretary-treasurer.

Yearly dues were paid and a regular meeting time was set. The remainder of the meeting was consumed by slide and print presentations given by members.

Any person interested in joining the club should contact the Plainview Chamber of Commerce for more information. The club invites all people in the surrounding area who are interested in cameras and pictures to join.

Attending from Hart was

Charles Jones, photographer for the 77 Longhorn Annual.

BOYS TRY NEW TRADE

By Laurey Franks

Thursday afternoon, the Home Economics I boys prepared their first meal of the year under the supervision of Home Economics teacher, Martha Mears.

The menu consisted of hamburger patties, corn-on-the-cob, French fries, salad and brown and serve rolls. Mrs. Mears served the "chefs" chocolate pudding.

Mrs. Mears described the meal as satisfactory. Kelly King is quoted as saying, "Blah!" After his episode in the kitchen, Larry Marble decided, "Next time we'll send out for Chinese." Glen Black, however, was very proud of his culinary efforts, he declared the meal "a huge success." Keith Reed barely managed to gasp, "No comment!"

DANCE HELD IN COM-PRESS

Friday night, after the Hart-Nazareth football game, a dance was held for the Hart High School and Junior High School student body.

The dance was held southwest of Hart on the Dimmitt highway in the Hill Compress, generously donated by Bob Hill. The dance started right after the game and ended approximately at 12:30 p.m. Roger and David Otwell of Tulia, formerly known as The Americans, played for the dance.

Planning was initially done by Mrs. Kay Berry and eleven Hart students: Janet Black, Betsy Berry, Lori Barnes, Dianne Davis, Lesa Higgins, Lesa Hawkins, Lana Tucker, Connie Beavers, Sherry Booe, Jacque Ritter and B.J. Brantley.

There was good student attendance and twenty-one adult sponsors were also in attendance.

Football Score Board

The Eighth grade Longhorns lost to Nazareth as they met the Swifts on their field Thursday, Sept. 16. Score was Nazareth 14, Hart 12.

Joe Portillo and Benny McLain were named outstanding defensive players. Outstanding on defense were Mario Hernandez and Isaias Ponce.

Total yards rushing was 187 with no passes.

Portillo scored both touchdowns.

Portillo had 102 yards rushing. Benny McLain ran the opening kick off back 85 yards for a touchdown but it was called back because of a clipping penalty.

The Longhorns fell behind 6-0 at halftime but were able to go ahead 12-6 in the fourth period, before Nazareth scored the final points. The coach commented that the boys played a lot better, especially in the second half.

Coaches Comments

Petersburg tough, tough, tough!

They are extremely quick and aggressive ball club.

They have experienced people returning and they always seem to "get up" to play Hart. They are very successful at it too, they have beat us the last two of three times we played them.

They have a real fine defense and I wouldn't be surprised if this week's game is not a defensive battle.

We're going to have to play real well and rid ourselves of mental errors that have plagued us the last three weeks if we expect to beat them.

This past week it has been a pleasure to visit with nineteen elementary students. These students have either been referred by teachers, their parents, or have asked for a visit themselves. Through home visits, I have met the parents of three children. The school psychologist from PESO was here one morning for some specialized testing. Gene Andrews who coordinates the Adult Basic Education for PESO met with me Thursday filling me in on details of that program. We hope both phases of the Adult Education program will be successful this year.

Freezing decreases onion flavor, increases the flavor of garlic and spices.

The Bible is not a brief for a courtroom; it is a love letter. The Bible is not a series of formal statements about God; it is a personal message from Him to us. The Bible is not a detective story in which man with a cluster of clues tracks down an elusive Creator. No, here God comes down to us.

The Bible stresses that the entire creation still depends on its Creator to keep it going. To put it another way, subtract the world from God and God would still be God. But the world minus God would be nothing.

Longhorns.....

blocks of Robinson, Flores, Jackie Ethridge and Luther Isaguirre 32 yards for the TD. Allensworth's kick was good for his third of the night.

The highlights that followed include a big hit by Kelly King on Nazareth's Huseman forcing him to cough up the ball which Mike Finch fell on. The Horns failed to score again.

The one thing that has made the Hart Longhorns such a strong club over the past few years has been the tremendous team effort. Each week two or three individuals have outstanding games, but it is not always the same individuals. These individuals excell because of the work of the defense, the men in the trenches, the blockers that do their job. This week, Lester Aven had one of those great games with 236 yards rushing on 17 carries for a 13.9 average and 3 touchdowns followed by a 2 point run.

Eliazar Castillo had 93 yards for an average of 6.6 yards in addition to returning a punt 75 yards for a TD, having a 90 yard return called back, and throwing a touchdown pass for 22 yards to Bryan Irons.

On defense, Johnny Newsom had 7 tackles and 2 pass interceptions. Bryan Irons had an interception for a TD as well as 10 tackles and Donald Robinson intercepted one for a touchdown. Cary McLain had another outstanding defensive game with 13 tackles and good pursuit. Glen Black had 11 important tackles and Kelly King caused a fumble that was recovered by Mike Finch.

The Hart Longhorns will be tested this week by a strong Petersburg Buffaloes team at Petersburg.
