VOLUME XXXIII

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

RAN INTO MR. Billy Mac
Jobe, who formerly represented Elk and Eastland Counties in the Texas Legislature, and he practically a citizen of Cisco.
He has bought himself a high down Nimrod way and has moved to the place. His time is pretty well occupied, as he is a small rancher and is employed at the Texas Land Office as a field man for a 20-county area of the veterans land program.
Mr. Jobe is pleased with his new ranching setup and is looking forward to a long stay there.

DROPPED IN AT the A. R.
Westfall residence the other night to see the colored pictures that the Westfall made in just about every country of Europe during two years with the army overseas. The pictures are very good, and Jere's choice of things photographed was excellent. He has many of the historical castles, churches, and other unusual buildings and sights in his collection.

Entered three of his picture slides in a contest conducted among Army personnel in Europe. Two of them won honorable mention and the other won first prize. He gets a lot of pleasure from showing the slides and remembering when the pictures were made.

ONE OF THE Lions has suggested that the club ought to have another Christmas tie contest. Last year, right after Christmas, the club held a contest to see whose Christmas tie was the most colorful. And it was an unusual event with a lot of interest.

We'll turn the matter over to Roy Killingsworth of the news newspaper and let him protect it.

THE HOT DOG is disappearing, according to some information that has just reached us. The reports on the proposition follows: "The hot dog is celebrating its 100th anniversary by appearing at the rate of six a third billion a year."

That's a pretty good disappearance rate, wouldn't you say?

THE TEXAS Legislature is due to convene in Austin on Tuesday, January 13, and they'll have four problems to solve, according to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. These problems are: 1. Taxation; 2. Solution of Texas highway problems; 3.
Legislation pertaining to water conservation; and, 4. Salary increases for teachers.

The auto inspection law is due to be kicked around considerably.
There's a good chance that legislation will be enacted to hold a biennial preferential primary election every four years. It could be a busy session.

THE REPORT on the election of officers by the Industrial Club the other day, The club inadvertently got things a bit mixed up. The report should have said that Mrs. F. J.
Man is the new critic and lamentarian, and Mrs. Bill Gage is the historian.

That is more, the city federal delegates — Mrs. W. V. Gar-shore, Mrs. R. E. Grantham, E. L. Jackson and Mrs. John Harris — were appointed. The report indicated that they were elected.

THE STATE BAR of Texas has a committee on American Citizenship that is always active.
They have dedicated January to the proposition of observing Official Appreciation Month. They explained the matter in a letter to the editor as follows:

Stalin and Hitler were able to tell their pack of lies by consistent repetition of those lies to their people. We should be able to sell the truth the same manner as any other product or ideology."

The letter then suggests that cities and counties ought to observe some time during January as a good public officials.

TESTING!—Bullets from the pistol of Lt. Col. Walter R. Walsh, USMC, ricochet harmlessly or imbed themselves in a "shrapnel jacket" during a test of the body armor in Washington, D. C. The new type of protection, now used by troops in Korea, is made of laminated glass cloth and synthetic resin. It has been more than 90 per cent successful in preventing wounds.

halftime. They picked up the the end of the period were lead-

Pioneer Rancher Laid To Rest In Recent Services

H. T. Huffman of Cisco was among many relatives and friends who attended recent services for Mack Huffman, 88, pioneer ranchman and last of the elder generation of the Huffman family, at Fredericksburg. The aged man was the uncle of the Ciscoan.

H. T. Huffman was accompanied to Fredericksburg by Kenneth Huffman of Plaster City, Calif., Adra Huffman and son, Bobby, of Breckenridge, and Joe H. Dunham of Albuquerque.

The Fredericksburg Standard printed an account of the death of Mack Huffman. The story, in part, follows:

"The retired rancher lived the colorful life of a pioneer cowboy and managed one of the largest ranches in the west. Born Oct.
12, 1863, at Cross Timbers, Mo., he lived there until 1881, when he moved to Burnet County. A year later he went into cow camp over the old Chisolm train to the XIT Ranch in the Panhandle, remaining there until 1898.

"There were 2,500 cattle on that drive and later he helped brand 22,000 cattle, stopping only for snatches of food and sleep.

"Huffman was made foreman of the Middlewater division of XIT in July, 1888, then transferred to the Escarbada division in 1891. That fall, Col. A. G. Boyce moved Huffman to the Spring Lake division to succeed J. F.
Yearwood.

"He helped organize Hartley County, later went to Deaf Smith and then to Lamb County. Eventually the ranch he managed comprised 793,000 acres and covered a large portion of all three counties.

Bank Checks Are Best Receipts A Real Aid In Budget Keeping

1ST. NATL. IN CISCO—Mr. F. D. I. C.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10. — The year just past saw "polio incidence getting worse in about the same proportion that March of Dimes research was getting better," Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said today in a review of "Polio 1952."

"The fight between man and polio has become a bitter tug-of-war which only unparalleled success in the current March of Dimes campaign can decide in favor of mankind," Mr. O'Connor declared, adding:

"While scientists, supported by the March of Dimes, sought a means of preventing polio's cripling after-effects in a mass test of 55,000 youngsters, polio claimed approximately the same number of victims throughout the country — in an outburst as perverse as it was unprecedented."

1952 Crop Value Shows Decline Due To Drought

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—Aggregate value of the principal Texas crops was about 1 percent less this year than last, largely because of a 3 percent smaller total harvested acreage, the Bureau of Agriculture Economics reports. The 1-321 million dollar valuation placed on crop production this year is 14 million below the 1,335 million dollars for 1951.

This lower value stems largely from decreases for cotton, sorghum grain and peanuts, which were only partially offset by increases for small grains, corn, flaxseed, rice hay and other less important crops. Value this year was, however, about a third larger than the 1941-50 average of approximately 1 billion dollars.

Harvested acreage of the principal crops totaled nearly 24.3 million acres which was 787 thousand less than the 25 million acres harvested in 1951. Acreages of cotton sorghum grain and peanuts were curtailed sharply and increases in small grains, especially wheat, only partially offset these reductions. Per-acre yields of most important crops were equal to or above last year, sorghum grain and most seed crops being

Thieves Get $50 In Burglary Job

Local police officers were investigating Saturday the Friday night burglary of a local business firm which netted thieves approximately $50, Police Chief M. L. Perdue reported.

Hit by the burglars in the raid was Reynolds Manufacturing Company in the 100 block of West 8th. It was the second burglary in the past few days, officers reported. Moore Drug Company was entered a few days ago and lost a small amount of change and some cigarettes.

Entry into the Reynolds Manufacturing Company building was accomplished in much the same manner as the drug store was entered. The front doors were pried apart and the lock damaged. The cash was in an unlocked safe at the manufacturing company building. The locked cash drawer in the safe was pried open and the box and its contents taken from the building.

The burglary was discovered by Wesley Latham, company superintendent, when he opened for business a little before 7:30 a. m.
Saturday.

or assistance in connection with their social security accounts are invited to call at that time. The next scheduled visit will be at the same hour on January 29, 1953.

In making this announcement, Ralph T. Fisher, Manager of the Abilene office, called attention to the fact that it is again time for self-employed people to file their social security reports. This report is a part of the income tax return and is due in the office of the Director of Internal Revenue not later than March 15, 1953.

Practically all persons who operate their own businesses as sole owners, or as partners, are included if net earnings are at least $400 for the taxable year. NOT included is income from farm or ranch operations, rentals from personally owned real estate or income from certain professions listed in the law. Social Security tax rate for self-employed persons is 2 1/4% of net earnings up to $3600.00.

Any self-employed persons who needs information as to whether he is included under the social security provisions should get in touch with the nearest office of the Social Security Administration or the nearest Internal Revenue Office. Persons needing social security numbers — and each self-employed person who files a social security return will need one — should get an application blank at the Post Office. These completed applications for original or duplicate numbers can be mailed to the Social Security Administration in Abilene, Texas.

STEEL CAPACITY INCREASED

The steel capacity of the United States went up 8,950,800 tons during 1932 — the largest gain ever made in a year — raising the total annual capacity of this country to 117,347,470 net tons, the highest level ever achieved, according to American Iron and Steel Institute today.

The new annual capacity figure of the world's largest steel industry is an increase of 25,650,910 tons, or about 30 per cent, in the seven postwar years as a result of steel companies' large scale expansion and improvement programs. It is a gain of over 35.9 million tons, or 44 per cent, in 13 years, since the start of 1940. The latter increase is nearly twice the annual capacity of Great Britain and exceeds the estimated total capacity of Russia, second largest steelmaking nation.

The Institute announced that the annual capacity is rising toward an expected figure in excess of 123,000,000 tons of ingots and steel for castings. The steel companies' present programs of expansion and improvement indicate that the capacity will be raised by more than 4 million tons during 1933, more than 1 million tons in 1934 and about 500,000 tons after 1934.

Other producing facilities in the industry have been expanded and improved. Blast furnace capacity went up 5,597,900 tons during the past year and as of January 1, 1933, is rated at 79,380,240 net tons annually. More than 2.8 million tons of blast furnace capacity will be added in 1933 and over 900,000 tons in 1934. Coke oven capacity was increased about 4.1 million tons in 1932 and is now rated at 71,181,190 net tons a year. The annual coke oven capacity will be increased over 2.4 million tons in 1933, over 900,000 tons in 1934 and 200,000 tons later than 1934.

The new annual steel capacity figure effective January 1, 1933, is an increase of 17 million tons since the start of the Korean War in the middle of 1950. The almost 9 million ton increase in steel capacity during 1932 exceeds by almost 4 million tons the best previous yearly increase, made during 1915.

The new weekly capacity figure, on which the weekly operating rate of the industry will be based starting today, is 2,294,459 net tons of ingots and steel for casting, compared with 2,077,040 net tons at the start of 1932.

Clubwomen Will Study National Socialism Trend

Texas clubwomen are being offered opportunity to study national transportation problems and their relationship to the free enterprise system, Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, has announced.

An illustrated booklet entitled "Are We Being Railroaded Into Socialism?" has been mailed to 925 women's club presidents throughout the state, she said.

"I believe every woman in Texas should be interested in national transportation problems and what they mean to each of us," Mrs. Stubbs asserted. "Women are major owners of American industry and the buyers of by far the largest part of its products. They appreciate the benefits of the free enterprise system and should be foremost in any fight to preserve it."

Mrs. Stubbs explained that the author, Mrs. Bessie Q. Mott, author, lecturer and long a leader in women's organizational activities, has presented the "grim prospect" of government ownership for all transportation, as well as other industries, unless federal transportation laws are brought up to date.

The state Federation president announced that a special transportation study program has been prepared for club use and is also being offered to club presidents.

Mrs. Stubbs said the booklet carries a foreword by Charles L. Bergmann of the Investment Bankers Association of America, who describes Mrs. Mott's effort as a "lucid, accurate presentation of problems confronting our various forms of transportation and forcefully indicates the need for change in our national transportation policy. It is recommended to all who are interested in preserving our American way of life."

170; South Dakota was next with 142 and then came Minnesota with 137, Iowa with 133 and Kansas with 91. (The national rate is based on estimated population as of July 1, 1932, the state rates on the 1930 census.)

"Polio was more widespread in 1932," Mr. O'Connor said; "it struck more adults; it was more virulent in its attacks, hitting one out of every four victims in many regions with the dreaded bulbar form of the disease. In Milwaukee, Wis., it killed four of the eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Linnemanstons in a tragedy unequalled in the history of polio."

Polio ran amok among many families in 1932, afflicting three and four children in the same home with unusual frequency. The greatest one-family polio epidemic in medical annals unfolded in Mapleton, Iowa, where 11 of the 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thiel came down with the disease.

Polio came earlier and stayed later in 1932. It descended heavily on Houston in late spring, spread like wildfire throughout Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana, and then bore north in a wide swath to the Great Lakes. The epidemic played its greatest havoc in the vast plains lying between the Rockies and Alleghenies.

"Despite polio's excesses in 1932," Mr. O'Connor said, "it is heartening to know that many are living — and walking — today because of the safeguards developed, maintained and made wondrously available by the organization whose life-blood is vitalized by the magic of the March of Dimes."

"The March of Dimes," Mr. O'Connor said, "was many things to many people in 1932. To thousands it was the breath of life made possible by the 2,175 iron lungs and the 550 chest respirators that were rushed to every region of the land. Some respirators were used as many as 15 times."

"To others, the March of Dimes was no longer a slogan but a desperately needed hot pack machine, or a rocking bed for weaning a patient from an iron lung, or a specially trained polio nurse, or the soothing hands of a physical therapist."

Ninety thousand persons, most of them children, were aided by the March of Dimes last year. Approximately 40,000 of them had been stricken the year before or earlier and still needed care. The rest were the four out of five victims of the 1932 epidemic who needed and received direct March of Dimes aid.

Expenditures for patient care alone in 1932 amounted to $28,000,000 in March of Dimes funds. This was $5,000,000 more than had ever been spent before in one year and resulted in an unprecedented debt of $7,000,000 — the amount for which the 1933 March of Dimes is raised during the current campaign.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS AND NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Delphian Club Has Officer Election

The monthly meeting of the Delphian Club was held Wednesday, January 7, at the clubhouse with Mrs. G. B. Langston and Mrs. Fleming Waters as hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Don Choate, called the meeting to order and Mrs. A. R. Day led the group in reading the club collect. Routine business matters were transacted and officers for the coming year were presented by the nominating committee.

Mrs. Charles Cofer, leader for the day, introduced Mrs. Fleming Waters, the main speaker for the meeting, who presented a program on general welfare of the state and nation — from the eight divisions in the general Welfare Department which are of vital importance to the strength of the nation. The four which would apply to this particular community, besides the veteran's work, are Cancer Research, Mental Hygiene, Polio, and Gerontology, which has to do with the health and well-being of people past the age of retirement from active business.

Mrs. Waters pointed out that every hour a Texan dies of cancer and "we are urged to help support and learn more of the M. D. Anderson Hospital at Houston which is available to all Texans."

The March of Dimes drive which is now under way to help combat polio in the country is of particular interest in the community. The dread disease took a toll of thirteen persons in Eastland County during 1952. More than $28,000,000 was spent for patient care across the nation and the National Foundation supplied more iron lungs and other life-saving equipment during 1952 than in any other three years combined. Eastland County begins its 1952 drive owing $7,200.00 more than was in the treasury last year.

It was also pointed out that except for the March of Dimes drive, Cisco had combined all welfare agencies into one big Community Chest drive which is still $200.00 short of its goal.

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Jack Clacks

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clack were honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening, January 9, held in the educational building of the East Cisco Baptist Church.

Hostesses for the shower were Mesdames Don Rupe, C. R. Hightower, H. H. Harrison, L. B. Lipsey, R. C. Smith, Roy Marcontell, Jess Hagan, Carlton Holder, F. C. Bradley, B. F. Thomas, Enis Qualls, and Miss Mary Wood.

The bride's chosen colors of pink and green were used in the room decorations. The centerpiece on the table was an arrangement of wedding bells on a pink background. Miss Delores Kilgore presided at the bride's book and Miss Mary Wood poured punch.

Cookies, pink and green mints, and lime punch were served to approximately ninety guests.

"A nation is just as strong as its communities so when we fail in the community we are lessening the strength of our nation," she said.

Officers elected for the coming year were: president, Mrs. Fleming Waters; vice president, Mrs. Leo Clinton; second vice president, Mrs. George Davis; recording secretary, Mrs. Roy Killingsworth; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Guy Brogdon; treasurer, Mrs. John Kleiner; parliamentarian, Mrs. Zan Burroughs; time keeper, Mrs. Otha Kean; and reporter, Mrs. Lewis Lee.

Approximately twenty members attended.

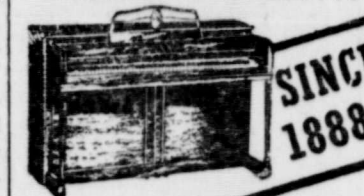

1952 Crop —

Severe drought and extreme summer temperatures curtailed production of most crops in both 1952 and 1951. Production increases were registered for small grains, flaxseed, rice and hay crops. Output of most other field crops was lower than a year ago, especially cotton, sorghum grain and peanuts. Peaches and pears were very short, while pecans were sharply above last year's extremely short crop and somewhat above average. Unit prices were generally higher than a year earlier although wheat, oats, cotton and a few less important crops were lower.

Droughty conditions plagued farmers and ranchers over virtually the entire State for the second consecutive year during 1952.
