Texans Deny Racial Bias In Poll Tax

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas officials, opposing a federal suit to wipe out the state's poll tax, told a three-judge federal court today the $1.75 voting requirement does not discriminate against Negroes.

The state's 36-page brief was filed in answer to a 118-page brief and two volumes of supporting material filed early this month.

A hearing in the suit, filed by the attorney general's office under orders from Congress, is scheduled for Dec. 1.

CARR CLAIM

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, in an appendix of supporting material, said 50.2 per cent of the state's eligible Negroes qualified to vote in 1964, compared with 55.9 per cent of eligible whites. But Carr said, if persons with Spanish surnames are deducted from the total for whites, "the percentage of nonwhite qualified to vote would be greater than the percentage of white qualified voters."

The government contends that, because of racial discrimination, Negroes are financially less able than whites to afford the poll tax. The government's brief also alleges that subtle devices are used in some counties to make it inconvenient for Negroes to pay the voting fee.

OTHER STATES

Similar suits also were filed in August in Virginia, Mississippi and Alabama, the only other poll tax states. The 1965 voting rights bill declares a congressional finding that the poll tax is probably unconstitutional and directs the attorney general to test it in the courts.

Carr said the government's economic argument does not hold water.

Carr also said that if the poll tax discriminates against Negroes because their average income is lower than that of whites, then every other tax paid by Negroes also is discriminatory.

Furthermore, the state brief says, Negroes were registered in sufficient numbers to pass the proposed 1963 constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax. Texas voters rejected the amendment by a vote of 243,120 to 316,775.

"Had Negroes been desirous of repeal, they could have easily carried the election," Carr said.

Trial In Russia

Abductor And Child Hunted In 3 States

Pleas Rejected In Convicted Judge Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to step into a Texas case in which a judge was convicted of misconduct.

The high tribunal rejected two appeals by Clem McClelland, former Houston probate judge. It also refused to act on a related appeal by James Martin, who was convicted of bribery of McClelland.

One appeal by McClelland was from his conviction on the charge of accepting a bribe from Martin and others. On this conviction McClelland was sentenced to five years and fined $5,000.

The state had charged the bribe was made to obtain appointment of five persons as administrators in proceedings in McClelland's probate court. In this appeal, McClelland said the prosecuting attorney, prior to indictment of the judge, conducted a televised examination of grand jury witnesses and of McClelland, over the latter's objection.

The second appeal by McClelland was from his conviction on the charge of conversion from an estate. On this conviction he was sentenced to 10 years. McClelland's appeal objected to proceedings by a "court of inquiry" established in Houston by the county district attorney in cooperation with a justice of the peace.

Martin's appeal was from his sentence to four years and $2,500 fine. Martin also objected to the "court of inquiry."

"INFLAMED" AURA

Chief Justice Warren, in a statement issued with the rejection of the three appeals, referred to what he called "the virtually unprecedented step" of institution of the "court of inquiry." He referred to the court of inquiry's public investigation connected in front of the press, radio and television cameras; and spoke of "this inflamed atmosphere."

Warren said, however, that the Texas Legislature has repealed the "court of inquiry" proceeding effective Jan. 1. In the future all witnesses will have greater protection, said the chief justice.

Young Man Grabs Girl, Speeds Away

BASTROP, La. (AP) — Hundreds of officers combed three states today for some trace of a 8-year-old freckle-faced girl and her abductor, described as a man about 20.

Nancy Georgette Keller was kidnaped late Sunday from the yard of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Keller. A playmate, Connie Spear, 7, said a young man drove up, tried to coax Nancy into his car, and when he failed, picked her up bodily, threw her in the car, and sped away.

ROADBLOCKS UP

Morehouse Parish Chief Deputy Sheriff W. H. Freeland said a three-state alert was out in Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas. Roadblocks were up in the north Louisiana area.

No demand for ransom had been received. Officers were checking out mental institutions and known sex deviates.

Lt. Stanley Williams of the city police department said the kidnaping occurred at 5:45 p.m., while the mother was at home. Keller is a dentist. They have other children.

RED SKIRT

Nancy, known as "Peanuts," was described as 4 feet tall, weight 65 pounds, brown eyes, short brown hair slightly curled, slightly freckle-faced. She has a one-inch triangular scar just above the ankle on one leg. She was dressed in a red velvet skirt, straps over the shoulder, a white ruffled blouse, knee-length red socks, a silver beret in her hair. She wore black patent-leather shoes with buckles.

Connie described the man as dressed in a blue suit, blond hair, and about 5 feet 5.

Grice's Books Reported 'Poor'

Howard County Commissioners Court scheduled a conference with Walter Grice, justice of the peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, today after the report on the annual audit of the offices and records of the county for 1964 had been submitted to the court. R. Clyde Hollingsworth, certified public accountant who made the audit, submitted the report to the court.

POOR CONDITION

In his report, Hollingsworth pointed out that the records and procedures pertaining to civil cases in Grice's office "were in such poor condition that it was impossible to determine the officer's accountability with certainty."

The commissioners pointed out that similar criticisms of the office of peace justice, Precinct 1, Place 1, have occurred in audits made by accountants for the past several years.

The report submitted to the board by Hollingsworth today pointed out that "receipts were not prepared for all money received, many court cost deposits could not be traced to the bank, cash was often not deposited until several weeks after it was received, some payments of court costs had no substantiating records, some bank deposit slips were missing and others had no descriptive detail."

SHORTAGE

The auditor added "after extensive analysis, a statement of accountability was prepared as accurately as possible. This indicated a shortage of $226.06 as of Dec. 31, 1964. The officer deposited $200 of his personal funds in the court cost deposit account in May, 1965, but it is not known at this time whether additional shortages have accrued in 1965."

The county commissioners said they wanted to talk to Grice and stress again the need for more accurate and complete bookkeeping records in his office. Edgar Phillips, county auditor, told the court he is currently analyzing the records for 1965.

The audit for 1964, as reported by Hollingsworth, other than for the situation in connection with Grice's office, and a recommendation that a fee be charged in the hot check department of the sheriff's office to cover clerical expenses, indicated the records of all other offices in the county were in good shape. The auditor recommended also that the volume of work the hot check department handles and its growth is creating accounting and auditing difficulties. Certain recommendations in the manner a record of checks might be kept were submitted.

ALSO SHORT

The auditor also reported that the records of Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, Precinct 1, Place 2, were $69.53 short as of Dec. 31, 1964, but added that "his records were complete, accurate and easy to check. The difference was easily and exactly identifiable and, in our opinion, warrants no criticism."

Records and accounts of Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk; Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor - collector; and Fern Cox, district court clerk, were described as "good."

Hollingsworth renewed a suggestion made last year for some system of fixed and effective accounting control over fixed assets or inventories of materials and supplies. The auditor also recommended a complete general ledger be maintained in the county auditor's office with balance sheet accounts as well as receipts and disbursement accounts for each fund.

President Resting Up After Political Trip To Alamo City

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson relaxed at his ranch today following a whirlwind political trip to San Antonio where he waded into a crowd to shake hands, give autographs and kiss children.

The excursion was in behalf of Democratic Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez of Texas.

The President told a shopping center crowd composed primarily of Mexican-Americans they had a right to be proud to have Mexican blood in their veins.

PRAISES YARBROUGH

In addition to lauding Gonzalez as one of his best supporters in the House, Johnson praised Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex.

Yarborough, who was present, has been feuding with Gov. John Connally, a close Johnson ally.

After the speech Johnson walked out into the crowd. Twenty minutes later he left the square and walked behind the buildings where hundreds were gathered behind barriers and in the yards of neighboring homes.

STRIDES BRISKLY

Striding briskly through the gate of one of these, he sat down at a wooden yard table to chat with Sebastian Saldana, 43, a Kelly Air Force Base employe and the father of seven.

Quickly they were joined by Gonzalez, Yarborough, and Cantinflas, the Mexican comic who had spent the previous night at the Johnson ranch and had accompanied the President to San Antonio.

TAKES OFF

Other neighbors got a handshake, a 7-year-old girl a kiss and the Johnson party was off in the presidential helicopter for the ranch.

Today, the President and Mrs Johnson were to attend a memorial service at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Fredericksburg in memory of President John F. Kennedy.

Other activities were expected to include the dispatch of a complimentary message to President Charles de Gaulle of France on his 75th birthday.

WARM RELATIONS?

The President and De Gaulle haven't been getting along too well on some international matters and staff aides regarded this as an opportunity to warm relations somewhat.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers, who flew to the ranch early Sunday after conferences in Washington, reported it hasn't been decided where Johnson will meet Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany at a Dec. 3-4 conference. Moyers said he was flying back to Washington today.

FBI Joins In Search For Kidnaped Youngster

BASTROP, La. (AP) — The FBI joined today in the search for Nancy Keller, 8, apparently kidnaped while playing near her home here late Sunday.

Chief deputy Sheriff W. H Freeland said witnesses reported that a man, about 20, forced the child into his car and drove off. She was playing with another little girl.

Nancy, a brown-eyed brunette, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Keller.

Freeland said a three-state alert was out in Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas, and roadblocks were up in the north Louisiana area.

He said officers were checking out several theories, including the possibility that the abductor might seek ransom.

Burglary Loss Is $700,000

LONDON (AP) — Jewelry worth more than a quarter-million pounds ($700,000) was taken from the strong room of a fashionable West End shop today by a gang that worked its way in with acetylene torches.

A spokesman for Carrington's and Co., on Regent Street, made the estimate and added: "It is probably far in excess of a quarter of a million."

Insurance valuers, whose standard reward for stolen goods is 10 per cent, posted a reward of 30,000 pounds ($84,000).

Nuclear Warheads Said On Bonn Craft

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times has reported that U.S. nuclear warheads have been mounted secretly on planes and missiles of West Germany and other members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

A Washington dispatch in the Sunday Times also said the warheads had been in place for more than six years, although they remain in U.S. custody.

The Defense Department declined comment. It said it is department policy never to discuss the location or operations of nuclear weapons.

The Times story was attributed to "sources close to the atomic energy program."

It said the warheads are controlled by Americans "through a combination of physical and electronic controls" and cannot be used without U.S. approval.

The story also said in part:

Controls had recently been strengthened but at times "American control has existed more in principle than in fact."

The arrangements for mounting the nuclear warheads on allied carriers have been made between the Department of Defense and the countries involved.

The President has been kept informed of the program, but "it is understood that, at times, he and other top policy makers have been largely unaware of the specific arrangements made."

Plot Crushed In Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Armed Forces smashed a small Rightist rebellion early today in the heart of the Dominican Republic without firing a shot.

Commodore Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, Armed Forces secretary, said 47 persons had been arrested. He added that no members of the military were involved.

The small band of conspirators captured a radio station at Tamboril, a small community south of Santiago, the nation's second largest city. The town is about 70 miles north of Santo Domingo.

They held it for about two hours, then gave up without a fight, a government source said. While in the radio station, the rebels played a tape recording proclaiming themselves the "Democratic Revolutionary government."

The broadcast identified the movement's leader as Alcibiades Espinoza, a member of the conservative National Civic Union. It proclaimed him president.

Whether Espinoza actually was involved and was detained could not be determined.

Sea Disaster Link Eyed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A 36-year-old man described as an "adult problem child" with a record of mental illness is under official scrutiny in connection with the fiery sinking of the Yarmouth Castle cruise ship that took 89 lives, the Miami Herald reports.

The disclosure came on the even of a Coast Guard inquiry into the disaster Nov. 13 when the Yarmouth Castle went down 120 miles east of Miami en route to Nassau.

The "adult problem child," a passenger on the ship, was not named by the Herald and the newspaper did not specify who was making the investigation. However, the paper reported that two fires of undetermined origin broke out during the last two years in an enterprise operated by the man's family.

Alleged Abduction Henchman Grilled

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — The third man sought in connection with the kidnaping of Charles Hyde III surrendered here early today.

He is James Edward Evans, a 31-year-old father named as an accomplice in the kidnaping by its admitted mastermind.

Sheriff's officers said Evans turned himself in to Chief Criminal Deputy George Janovich. He was immediately whisked into an interrogation session with officers.

BEEN AWAY

They would not say where Evans had been. They reported however, he had just driven into Tacoma.

Detective Capt. Ernest Keck of the Pierce County sheriff's office disclosed Sunday he had received a telephone call Saturday night, presumably from California. Evans has a brother in Hayward, Calif.

Keck said Evans told him he understood he was wanted and was returning to Tacoma, where he has a wife and several small children.

RELEASED UNHURT

The Hyde boy, a slender, studious 13-year-old, was abducted Wednesday morning as he walked to a school bus stop. He was released unharmed nine hours later after his father, president of a wholesale grocery firm, paid $45,000 ransom.

All but $5,000 of the money was recovered over the weekend.

The big break in the case came early Saturday when Tilford Baker, 34, a lanky Tacoma carpenter, turned himself in at the Pierce County sheriff's office.

THE MASTERMIND

"Baker said he did the planning — he masterminded the thing," said Janovich.

Baker is married and has two children.

He identified Dean Allen Bromley, 20, also of Tacoma, as the driver of the kidnap car and said the ransom money was divided at Evan's home. All three were charged with first-degree kidnaping.

Stock Arrives For Big Hereford Sale

Forty-one Hereford bulls and 14 Hereford cows, to be sold Tuesday at the 22nd annual sale of the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association, are already on hand at the Howard County Fair Grounds. Most of the stock was brought in by the consignors on Saturday.

The sale starts at 1 p.m. Tuesday t the fair barn, with Walter Britten as auctioneer. Preceding the sale will be the annual show at which the champions of the animals on hard will be named by Nathan Allen, Graham. Eight trophies are to be presented.

Jimmy Taylor, secretary - treasurer of the association, said that a number of out-of-state buyers are already in town. He said the quality of the animals offered this year is exceptionally good. Prices are also brisk these days.

"We could have one of the best sales in a long time," he said.

The Howard County Home Demonstration Clubs are to serve lunch at the barn. Food for this event was being prepared today.

The general public is invited to attend all phases of the event.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP- — Striking McDonnell Aircraft Corp. machinists agreed today to go back to work at Cape Kennedy so as not to delay a Dec. 4 space shot, federal officials said. The agreement, however, does not affect the strike of some 17,000 machinists against the company at St. Louis, Mo. (Earlier story on Page 3-A.)

GIVE THE UNITED WAY

Nuclear Arms Movement Reports Stir New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Reports that the Defense Department might be moving nuclear weapons through the city at night has caused some apprehension among officials.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner showed his concern Sunday when he released a report from his Technical Advisory Committee on Radiation.

"Upon several recent occasions," the report said, "the fire department has been requested to escort truck convoys reportedly carrying nuclear weapons through the city at night."

Such shipments could be going to nearby military bases or to piers for shipment overseas.

The report said repeated inquiries to the Department of Defense had been fruitless, "probably because of security reasons."

The committee, headed by Prof. Harold H. Rossi of Columbia University assured Wagner, however, that the city was "adequately protected from excess or unwarranted exposure to radiation and from the risks of peacetime nuclear disaster."

Blasts Jar Homes Of Rights Leaders

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The homes of four Negro civil rights leaders, including the state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, were rocked by explosions early today, but no one was injured.

Chief of Police John S. Hord said the homes of Kelly Alexander, state president of the NAACP, and of his brother, Fred Alexander, were the most seriously damaged.

Blasts also occurred at the home of Dr. Reginald Hawkins, a dentist and militant civil rights leader, and the home of Julius Chambers, a young attorney who had handled many suits in behalf of Negro groups.

Hord, who arrived in the area 30 minutes after the blasts, said that in his opinion "it was a well-organized group.

"KNEW AREA"

"I'll guarantee you it was people who knew what they were doing. Whoever it was knew explosives and they knew the sections and how to get in and get out quickly."

In Raleigh, Gov. Dan Moore offered Charlotte officials the "full resources of our state investigative and law enforcement agencies."

Mayor Stan Brookshire of Charlotte said:

"These bombings are most unfortunate and uncalled for. Our whole city is shocked."

FBI JOINS IN

The Federal Bureau of Investigation joined the investigation of the blasts, which occurred at the four homes on Charlotte's West Side about 2:30 a.m.

Kelly Alexander, long-time state president of the NAACP, said:

"Anytime four blasts happen like this, it's organized. I don't know who organized it, but it was organized force whose efforts it was to kill us."

IN THOUSANDS

Kelly Alexander's two sons, Kelly Jr., 17, and Alfred, 13, were sleeping in a front bedroom of the brick, ranch-style home, when the explosions occurred. The window over their heads was blown out with such force that splinters of glass were imbedded in the paneling of the opposite wall. Drapes were shattered and glass sprinkled in the beds of the two boys.

Kelly Alexander said damages at his home would amount to "at least $2,000." Fred Alexander said "several thousand dollars damages" resulted at his middle class home.

Fred Alexander the first Negro elected to Charlotte's City Council in modern times, said, "We were just lucky . . . they meant to get whatever they could." He and his brother said they had no idea who did it.

Talks Pushed In Aircraft Plant Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators move into their fourth round of talks today in an effort to break a McDonnell Aircraft strike that could delay the Dec. 4 launching of Gemini 7.

A conference presided over by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service broke up after midnight. There was no report on whether any progress had been made.

The 17,000-member International Association of Machinists, AFL-CIO, walked off the job at McDonnell's St. Louis plant Thursday in a contract dispute.

About 200 McDonnell machinists at Cape Kennedy, Fla., went out the next day, although they had voted to accept the company's contract proposals.

The Cape Kennedy crew was preparing for next month's launching of astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell on a 14-day space journey.

McDonnell sent 38 management and technical experts to the Cape to try to keep preparations on schedule.

Thus far, they are succeeding, but the National Aeronautics and Space Administration was making no promise on how long a postponement could be avoided.

The union says its men are underpaid and endure unfair working conditions. McDonnell President David Lewis contends the proposed contract offer of a 9-cent-an-hour increase in each of the next three years is the best offered in the aircraft industry this year.

McDonnell, a major defense contractor, is doing key work in the Gemini and Phantom jet fighter plane programs.

Award $740,000 In Death Laid To Fright

NEW YORK (AP) — A widow has been awarded $740,000 for loss of her husband, who died of a heart attack brought on by fright.

On May 7, 1958, in Whitestone, Queens, a car smashed through the front lawn of Salvatore Capossela, 53, and almost rammed into the house where he and his wife, Catherine, were sitting by a window.

Going outside to talk to the driver, Capossela experienced pains in his arms and chest. Returning to the house, he collapsed and was dead 45 minutes later.

The award to the widow was made over the weekend by State Supreme Court Justice Nicholas M. Pette. The award was retroactive to the date of the man's death, plus interest charges, and based on his earning capacity as a toolmaker.

Capossela had two daughters, Rosa and Catherine, now 24 and 16 years old.

Defendants in the negligence suit were Bruce Kelley, 19 at the time of the accident, and his mother, Mary F. Kelley, owner of the car.

Justice Pette said: "the medical testimony conclusively establishes that the death was due to a heart attack induced by shock and fright."

LeMAY SPEAKS OUT

Limitations On Air Strikes In Viet Again Pointed Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Curtis E. LeMay says there was a checkrein on the way targets in North Viet Nam could be attacked.

LeMay, retired Air Force chief of staff, was asked by The Associated Press whether there have been restraints on U.S. pilots operating against North Viet Nam.

"When I left active duty, there were some restrictions on the number of airplanes that could be used on a mission and also on types of ordinance that could be delivered," LeMay replied.

Asked for comment, the Defense Department said, "We do not discuss tactics followed in carrying out combat air operations over North Viet Nam."

LeMay retired Feb. 1, just prior to the first air strike against North Viet Nam.

He said: "I am not familiar with the activity since I retired."

ORIGIN NOT TOLD

The founder of the Strategic Air Command did not say who imposed the restrictions.

However, since the air attacks started last Feb. 7 a number of senior Air Force and Navy officers have spoken privately — and with irritation — about the limits they said were established by top civilian officials.

Many of these curbs since have been relaxed and much greater leeway is allowed military commanders.

The number of missions to be flown into the North in a given period is subject to approval in Washington.

Military targets in and around Hanoi and its port city of Haiphong are still off limits to U.S. bombers.

REPEATS OTHERS

LeMay's statement put on the record for the first time what other officers have said in less open fashion.

At one stage in the early months of the bombing, one top officer said that, in effect, President Johnson was functioning almost like a squadron commander and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara as an executive officer. This officer said the President and McNamara approved or disapproved specific targets to be hit; that top civilian officials determined the way the targets were to be attacked, the size of the attacking force, and the type of bombs and rockets to be used.

"POLITICAL PURPOSE"

Defenders of this policy have said it was necessary because the bombings have a political as well as a military purpose, that the intent is to limit damage as much as possible to military targets and thus demonstrate to the Communists that the United States does not want to destroy North Viet Nam.

During his 35 years of military service LeMay achieved a reputation as a leader in development of doctrine and practice in air warfare. He has accepted a job with a California electronics firm.

In the exclusive interview, LeMay underscored and elaborated on what he has said previously about the air war against NorthViet Nam.

"What I propose is stepping up the attacks and making it progressively more expensive for the North Vietnamese to continue the war in the South," LeMay said.

"I don't advocate complete devastation of the North (although we have the capability of doing this if necessary). I do not advocate attacking the people; rather, they should be warned away from targets.

VITAL TARGETS

"I do advocate attacking more important targets such as air fields with MIGs on them, power plants, oil storage, industrial targets, ports, etc."

Nixon Snipes At Johnson

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says the disputes on aluminum and copper prices make it appear that President Johnson "has decided to declare war on prosperity."

He accuses the President of "heavy-handed use of presidential power" in the metals affairs.

Nixon made the statements Sunday on the Columbia Broadcasting System "Face the Nation" television program.

Both aluminum and copper producers recently rescinded price increases after the government announced it would release for the market some of its stockpiled surpluses.

Such actions by the President, Nixon said, can have "a devastating effect on the confidence of the business community."

Why more motorists switch to the Tiger when it gets cold.

Many cars that ran just fine all summer get into trouble when ear-muff time rolls around — stalling at stoplights and coughing and chugging halfway into town.

That's when a lot of people switch to the Tiger. Winter-formula Enco Extra gasoline is blended to match the weather conditions in your area — including a special additive to help guard against icing. Result: easier starting, faster warm-up and a lot less worry about stalling.

You'll like the way new Enco Extra behaves on the open road, too. It's the High-energy gasoline with the: (1) cleaning power; (2) firing power; (3) octane power to help preserve the performance of new cars and restore lost power and mileage to many older cars.

Switch to the Tiger and get that nice warm feeling. Happy Motoring!

Site Will Be Kennedy Plaza

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The spot where President John F. Kennedy was assassinated two years ago today is marked, so far, only by flowers and objects left by hundreds of visitors.

Next year, however, the City of Dallas plans to complete two memorials. One will be a 30-foot marker costing $20,000. The other will be a new plaza a block north of the assassination site.

The visitors come from all over America and from many foreign countries.

As the flowers they leave wither, the city has them taken away to be preserved in a cedar-paneled storeroom.

The flower wreaths number in the hundreds now. The stored collection includes many flags, plastic crosses and Bibles.

A large wooden chest contains the notepaper, postcards, and paper sacks on which visitors wrote about the feelings they experienced at the assassination site.

IMAGE LIVES

On the back of a Japanese fan, a Tokyo visitor wrote: "I loved you. I admire you forever. I will not be able to forget you. Your image will not die."

Two Michigan families signed a note that read: "We came a long way from Michigan to pay tribute to our late president Kennedy. May he rest in peace."

On a brown paper sack: "The flowers here will be no more soon, like our late president. But his memory will never be forgotten as long as good, kind men live on this earth."

Within six months, Dallas city park director, L. B. Houston, hopes to unveil the marker memorial, consisting of three bronze panels set in native red granite, and containing a description of the tragedy using words and maps from the Warren Commission report.

PARK FUNDS

The marker will be paid for from park department funds. It will be about 200 feet from the spot where the president was shot. Visitors will be able to glance up at the orange-brick Texas School Book Depository building from which Lee Harvey Oswald fired his rifle.

The plaza north of the assassination site will be known as Kennedy Memorial Plaza. It will contain a modest and dignified memorial in keeping with Mrs. Kennedy's wishes.

County buildings now on the site will be razed. Officials say the plaza should be completed by late 1966.

On the 48th anniversary of Kennedy's birth, May 29, 1965, a John F. Kennedy Living Center for Retarded Children was dedicated in Dallas.

A striking bronze image of an eagle in flight stands in front of the Dallas Trade Mart, where Kennedy was headed when he was shot. The inscription on the memorial is taken from William Blake:

"When thou seest an eagle thou seest a portion of genius. Lift up thy head."

AT HOSPITAL

There is talk of a memorial of some sort in the room at Parkland Hospital where Kennedy was pronounced dead.

They still call it simply "Trauma Room No. 1."

In hospital jargon a trauma room is for emergency treatment of a bodily trauman, or wound.

Parkland is being remodeled. The people who work there think Trauma Room No. 1 should at least be preserved exactly as it is.

"Employes of the hospital have asked that they be allowed to memorialize the room, possibly with a plaque," said Parkland administrator C. J. Price. "It seems to me we should do more than that.

PANEL CHOSEN

"I have no specific plan, but the medical staff has appointed a committee to work with me on this."

Price said the room has been closed twice — once, briefly, after Kennedy died there and again on Nov. 22, 1964, the first anniversary of the assassination.

Oswald, the president's killer, himself died in a trauma room a few feet away in the same emergency ward after he had been shot down by Jack Ruby.

Dear Abby

No Hero's Welcome

DEAR ABBY: I was surprised at your answer to the mother whose son was coming home from Viet Nam. She asked if you thought it was all right to go overboard with "welcome home" signs in her front yard surrounded by flags, and you said, "Why not? And line up a brass band if you can." If the mother goes through with this kind of welcome for her son, he will resent it till his dying day. War is sheer hell, Abby. Especially a jungle war. And any man who has won three medals for bravery, such as this boy has, is bound to be emotionally "shook." Yours is the typical feminine approach. Ask your husband, or son. A homecoming such as this mother has planned would embarrass any veteran who has seen action. A small, quiet homecoming with the family and a few close friends is all any veteran wants. Save the fireworks for the Fourth of July.

KOREAN VETERAN
AT HOME IN CHICAGO

DEAR VETERAN: You speak with authority and I bow to your judgment. But I'd like to hear from some of our boys in Viet Nam who are dreaming of the day they come home. You DESERVE a brass band—but does anyone want one?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Our son was in Viet Nam for one year, and he survived the worst the Far East had to offer. He arrived last week at the Newark Airport and we greeted him with a large 16-foot banner with huge red block letters spelling out "WELCOME HOME, SON!" I thought of the idea when he wrote to tell us he was coming home. My husband went along with the idea and I am glad he did. Everyone who saw that banner seemed happy for us. And no one thought we were "bragging" too much for a boy who had risked his life every day in the cause of humanity. Our son was so thrilled he took a picture of the banner to keep forever. So tell that other proud mother of a Vietnamese hero that if she wants to borrow our banner, we'll be glad to send it to her.

MRS. C. M.
HAMILTON SQUARE, N.J.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A recent letter in your column asked how to reward a son's return from Viet Nam, as this young man had a very impressive record. You suggested the "brass band" treatment. This may not be correct. While he is certainly entitled to it, the main question is, "Would he want it?" As I am a minor Korean "hero," my return to a small town was met with similar fanfare. Needless to say, I was greatly embarrassed and took some good-natured ribbing for many years. I was sorry such a spectacle took place. Other veterans, however, love to bask in the glory that they have earned, but not all of us. I think it is up to the parents to decide whether their son would want such treatment. And they should bear in mind, a "boy" who went to war three years ago is no longer a boy when he returns. He's a pretty big man.

EMBARRASSED HERO

Ike Going To Capital

FT. GORDON, Ga., (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower heads for Washington late today aboard a special train.

The 75-year-old general is recovering from his second heart attack, and doctors report they are pleased with his progress. He has been hospitalized at the Army hospital here since Nov. 9.

An Army ambulance will take Eisenhower to the railroad siding where he will be placed in his special compartment aboard the Army-ordered eight-car train. Another Army ambulance will meet the train about 14 hours later somewhere in the Washington area to move him to the Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Eisenhower's 8 - by 11 - foot compartment in the train's third car has been equipped with a hospital bed and assorted emergency and heart monitoring equipment.

The rest of the car will be occupied by doctors and nurses.

De Gaulle Works On His Birthday

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle plans to spend today, his 75th birthday, at work in Elysee Palace, a spokesman said.

The spokesman added that no celebration is scheduled and that the French president has scheduled the usual number of appointments through the day.

Eternal Flame

An eternal flame glows on the grave site of John F. Kennedy in Arlington National Cemetery. Pine boughs and caps of servicemen ring the flame. This is the second anniversary of the assassination of the former President. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Many Visit JFK Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — Flowers of remembrance rested on President John F. Kennedy's hillside grave today on the second anniversary of his assassination. Across the nation, Americans remembered.

The president's widow was expected to send flowers to his grave, as she did on the first anniversary. Other members of the Kennedy family were expected to kneel at the white picket fence surrounding the grave in Arlington National Cemetery across the Potomac River from the capital.

President Johnson directed Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to lay a presidential wreath on the grave. Johnson was with Kennedy in Dallas when the young chief executive was gunned down by an assassin's bullets.

On the eve of the anniversary, thousands walked up the long pathway to the grave.

FROM TEXAS

A group from El Paso, Tex., brought a wreath.

A girl brought a vase of white chrysanthemums and gave them to a soldier standing guard. He placed them inside the picket fence.

Memorial services were scheduled in several cities today.

The President and Mrs. Johnson were to attend noon services at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fredericksburg, Tex., in a peaceful rural setting about 15 miles from their ranch.

In Dallas, the Rev. Oscar Huber, the priest who gave the last rites to the late president, today offers a dedicatory prayer at the John F. Kennedy Living Center, a home for exceptional youths.

Also in Dallas, various church services were scheduled for today, including a memorial Mass at the Sacred Heart Cathedral.

IN DALLAS

A wreath was to be placed at the assassination site at the west edge of downtown Dallas by the Democratic Clubs of Dallas County.

In Spokane, Wash., Sunday, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., delivered the dedicatory address at the new $1.1-million John F. Kennedy Pavilion at Gonzaga University.

The assassination of his brother, said Sen. Kennedy, forced "a clearer kind of thinking about the kind of people...we want to be" and "far from disrupting our country, kept it strong."

Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe has proclaimed this week as John F. Kennedy Memorial Week.

MEMORIAL MASS

A memorial Mass will be held tonight at St. Francis Xavier Church, Hyannis, where Kennedy attended when he was in Hyannis Port.

In Boston, Richard Cardinal Cushing was to give an invocation and special prayer at noon today at the State House.

The Military District of Washington, in charge of the Kennedy grave site, estimated that by the time the cemetery gates close at dusk today, some 11,600,000 persons will have visited the grave since the assassinated leader was buried there two years ago.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South vulnerable you hold:
♠K 5 ♡A K Q 9 8 5 4 3 ◇6 ♣7 3
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	4♡	4♠
Dble.	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. Your preemptive bid has warned partner that you are not to be relied upon for any defensive strength and he is, therefore, doubling on his own power. The fact that you hold the king of spades should be a pleasant surprise. For you to go on to five hearts would be an unwarranted usurpation of authority.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable and as dealer you hold:
♠A K Q 7 4 2 ♡Q 9 7 ◇7 5 ♣7 5
What do you bid?

A.—One spade. The hand has too much merit for a preemptive bid of three spades. It totals 13 points, 11 in high cards and two for the doubletons.

Q. 3—Neither vulnerable and as South you hold:
♠K 6 2 ♡K 5 3 ◇A 9 7 ♣K 10 9 2
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1♣	Pass	1♠	Pass
1 NT	Pass	2♣	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. There is a temptation to return to two spades on this hand, but it should be curbed. Your hand is such a minimum that there can be no reasonable question of a game.

Q. 4—East-West vulnerable and as South you hold:
♠K Q 7 3 ♡A 6 3 ◇Q 10 5 ♣6 5 3
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South
1♡	2♣	?

What do you bid?

A.—Two hearts. The fact that you are making a free bid will show that you have a good hand. Don't make the mistake of bidding two spades. Such a bid will almost automatically land you in game. If partner rebids three hearts, under compulsion you will surely take him to four without any idea of whether or not he has more than a minimum.

Q. 5—As South vulnerable you hold:
♠Q 10 9 2 ♡A 9 8 ◇A J 6 ♣Q J 5
The bidding has proceeded:

West	North	East	South
1♠	Dble.	Pass	?

What do you bid?

A.—Bid three no trump. With 14 points in high cards, a balanced hand, and spades doubly stopped, there is no question but that you should assume a game contract opposite partner's take-out double.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable and as South you hold:
♠A ♡K Q 10 6 4 ◇A Q J 9 8 6 3
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1◇	Pass	2♣	Pass
2♡	Pass	4♡	Pass
4♠	Pass	6♡	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Our inclination is to bid seven hearts. Certainly the ace of trumps should be found in partner's hand, as he could hardly jump twice in that suit on a jack high holding. The chances of finding a singleton diamond in partner's hand seems excellent. If so, the suit should be established by one or two ruffs.

Q. 7—As South vulnerable you hold:
♠K 9 ♡Q 10 9 5 2 ◇10 4 3 ♣A K Q
The bidding has proceeded:

East	South	West	North
1◇	1♡	Dble.	3♠
Pass	4♠	5◇	Pass
Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—It is true that partner's bid of three spades indicates a hand that is not robust in high cards but merely contains a long suit of good texture. Nevertheless, it is also obvious from the bidding that partner is very short in both hearts and diamonds, which makes your club holding doubly attractive. Surely the penalty that may be inflicted upon the opposition cannot be great. Bid five spades and hope to make it.

Q. 8—As South vulnerable you hold:
♠Q J 7 5 4 ♡A ◇Q 10 7 6 ♣K 9 2
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
1◇	Pass	1♠	Pass
2 NT	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—This hand has all the earmarks of a slam. You have virtually the equal of an opening bid and partner has opened and jumped. The proper call is a temporary bid of three diamonds, awaiting partner's next move. This bid is forcing by common sense. If you were not interested in big things, you would merely proceed to three no trump or, if you had a bad hand, you would pass two no trump.

MANY-SIDED CHURCHMAN

Bishop Viewed As Both Heretic, Blessed Prophet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bishop James A. Pike is a man damned as a heretic, blessed as a prophet. The wiry, chain-smoking Episcopalian plunges on to slash at barriers which he believes lie in man's path to God.

A former Roman Catholic and former agnostic, this intense, many-sided churchman says he is not discouraged by heresy charges or by the fierce and often vicious barbs directed at him by churchmen and laymen alike.

What sort of bishop is this who, within councils of a religious system with a 2,000-year tradition, challenges the doctrine of Virgin birth, discounts the doctrine of the Trinity, and belittles articles of religion in the prayer book of his church?

ASKS, "WHY?"

Pike's own image of himself is as a theological Socrates who, like that philosopher, is always ready to ask of any man or any idea: "Why?" "Why?" "Why?"

Like Socrates, the bishop is a tough man to "turn off." Those around him know him as a charming gentleman of culture and warmth, who can't bear to let a question go by until it is fully, and exhaustively, explained.

Who are his enemies? Pike says they are "Goldwater conservatives" and segregationists, mainly, who oppose his liberal views or longtime efforts in behalf of equal rights for Negroes. In the ranks of his foes he lists fundamentalists who believe in the Bible as literal history.

His diocese — which carries the name Diocese of California — is startlingly small for a forum from which so much uproar emanates. Although he is called "bishop of California," his diocese extends only from Marin County, just across the Golden Gate from San Francisco, south to San Luis Obispo — a 230-mile stretch.

141 CHURCHES

Some 34,000 Episcopalian families — officially reckoned at about 108,000 members — worship in the diocese's 141 churches. There are three other Episcopal dioceses in California — Northern California, San Joaquin and Los Angeles.

Pike, who makes full use of his imposing title, is called bishop of California because his diocese was the first of his faith established in the state.

Pike was born in Oklahoma City, Okla., 52 years ago.

He was elevated to the priesthood and, after six years, in 1952 became dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York.

Pike became bishop of California in 1958 and has been a headline figure ever since.

At a recent meeting of the clergymen under him Pike denounced the "finalization of the temporal, the eternalization of the passing, the absolutization of the tentative, the ultimization of men's thoughts."

CHALLENGES POINT

Turning to the Episcopal Church's Articles of Religion, Pike asked the clergymen, "How can you keep on not being embarrassed at" the presence in the prayer book of Article 18 on "Obtaining Salvation'?"

The article reads: "they are also to be had accursed that presume to say that every man shall be saved by the law or sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that law, and the light of nature. For Holy Scripture doth set out unto us only the name of Jesus Christ, whereby men must be saved."

Cried Pike: "Damnation! Not one of us teaches this at all. We do not believe in the damnation of all the rest of mankind."

Many a broadside is fired at Pike over his statements about the Trinity, the doctrine of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

HELD "OUTDATED"

The Trinity, he said, is "outdated, incomprehensible and nonessential."

Jesus and his apostles, he said, knew nothing of the Trinity, yet, "who would say they were not Christians?"

Of the doctrine of the Virgin birth, Pike said, "I don't see anything special about the birth of Christ. He was a man whose openness was such that in him God broke through totally."

To those who accuse him of heresy on this score he said: "Literal belief in the Nativity narratives . . . is not required to be affirmed in our Church. I don't think the son of God category is a very useful one."

The bishop recently was cleared of the third heresy charge brought against him since 1961. The first was at the Church's general convention in Detroit; the second in St. Louis last year, and the latest at the meeting of the House of Bishops in September.

Graham Says 'America Not God's Pet'

HOUSTON (AP) — "God has no pets," says Evangelist Billy Graham.

"America thinks it is God's pet. That's what Israel of old thought, and judgment came. Judgment will come again."

Graham spoke to 43,691 persons Sunday in the Domed Stadium. He had just returned from the LBJ Ranch, where he spent the night and held a religious service Sunday morning.

The crowd swelled the total attendance for the first three days to 106,286. At Graham's invitation, 1,569 "inquirers" came forward at the end of his sermon, making 3,750 who have taken that step so far in the 10-day crusade.

Graham said the "explosion of sexual energy" is the greatest social problem facing the world.

He criticized those who propound a "new morality." There is no such thing, Graham said.

Prof Protests Oath, Resigns

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Retired Harvard Prof. Howard Humford Jones, a Pulitzer Prize-winning author of books on American literature and culture, has resigned a visiting professorship at the University of Texas in protest against the university's required loyalty oath.

Dr. Norman Hackerman, vice chancellor of the university, said in a telephone interview with the Boston Globe: "Others have said they could not sign the oath because they had belonged to some of the organizations on the list." He said the university regretted Jones' decision, adding Jones is the only teacher it ever hired who would not sign the oath.

Jones said today he and the university had agreed on a salary and course schedule and that he had planned to begin his lectures Feb. 1.

"Then they sprang the oath on me," he said. He called the Texas oath and other similar disclaimer pledges "thoroughly vicious because they assume a person is guilty until he proves himself innocent and have the insane quality of guilty by association."

The University of Texas oath, in effect since 1953, requires signers to state they are not and never have been Communist party members and that they are not and for five years have not been members of any organizations declared subversive by the U.S. attorney general or registered under the Federal Internal Security Act of 1950.

Southern Solon Hits LBJ Claim

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Mississippi congressman criticized President Johnson's charge of injustice to Negroes at the hands of white juries.

Rep. Prentiss Walker, R-Miss., said Sunday the President is extending "the meddling hand of the federal government" into the jury system.

John Nance Garner Notes 97th Birthday

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Former Vice President John Nance Garner celebrated his 97th birthday today with a brand new hat and a wish to be 100.

National and state officials gathered in this small South Texas town to honor the only man who ever served successively as speaker of the U.S. House and presiding officer of the U.S. Senate. Others sent birthday wishes by mail and wire.

Garner made his birthday wishes known late Sunday in an emotional visit with his son, Tully Garner, 67, prominent Uvalde businessman.

"Son, I believe you want me to reach 100 as much as I do," said the elder Garner.

"I want it even more, dad," Tulley said.

GIFTS ARRIVE

The former vice president's birthday presents began arriving as he talked to his son and a few visitors beneath the giant oak trees encircling the modest white house where Garner now lives.

Tully brought a new light tan hat and a billfold. The Uvalde mayor sent a tie. Another old friend brought a pair of warm socks.

Garner had to be reminded to go inside when dusk began to fall.

"These oak trees and me are partners," the bushy-browed Garner told visitors. "I have been sitting under this one old tree seems like maybe 70 years, and I bet it will last another 70 if I can last that long. That's all I've got to do, now, is sit here under these old trees."

"YOU'RE WELCOME"

He reached out a hand and strained his weakening eyes to see each newcomer.

"You are as welcome here as these old oak trees," he said.

Cactus Jack, as he was known during much of his 46 years as a public official, bowed out of politics in 1940 when he caught a train to Texas and never returned to Washington.

He began his political career with election as Uvalde County judge when Grover Cleveland was president. He served two terms in the Texas Legislature and was elected to Congress in 1902.

Texas Gets Cold Front

By The Associated Press

Refreshing surges of cool air spread over the northern half of Texas today and headed southward.

The Weather Bureau said the cold front, which hailed from the Rocky Mountains, should reach South Central and Southeast Texas by tonight.

Fog hung over patches of North Central Texas this morning and in isolated parts of the middle Gulf Coast, including Dallas and Mineral Wells and Childress. Thick fog has bothered the areas for nearly a week, mostly during the mornings.

Houston reported a few showers early today, but elsewhere skies were cloudy in Southeast Texas and clear to partly cloudy over the rest of the state.

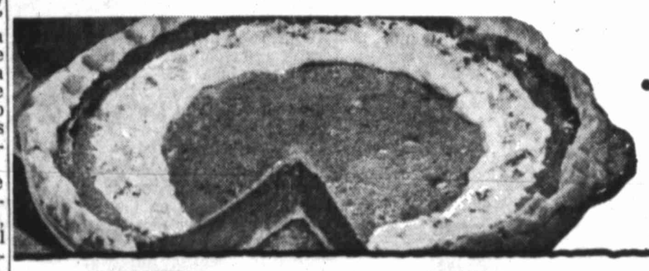

Long range forecasts indicate temperatures will continue to average from 8 to 12 degrees above the normal late-November readings.

This morning's temperatures ranged from 35 degrees at Dalhart to 72 at Palacios and Galveston.

Firemen Subdue Livingston Blaze

LIVINGSTON (AP) — Fire threatened an entire block in downtown Livingston but fire units from eight nearby East Texas towns contained the blaze about 1 a.m. today.

Half of the Cochran Building, a landmark built in 1903, and a cafe, shoe shop and survey company nearby were destroyed.

Gold Dribble Feeds Town

ALLEGHANY, Calif. (AP) — Like the bearded, brawling 49ers themselves, this town's glory days as a gold-rich boom town are long since past.

But Alleghany lingers on — existing on a dribble of gold and fed by dreams of one more big strike.

Gold spawned Alleghany, and gold keeps it alive — 116 years after Hawaiian crewmen jumped ship in San Francisco Bay and began panning for nuggets in the twisting creek that splits the Sierra foothills below Alleghany.

Propped on the side of a 4,500-foot peak in Sierra County — 200 miles northeast of San Francisco and near the town that inspired Bret Harte's "Outcasts of Poker Flat" — Alleghany is the only California town where gold is the basic economy.

GOLD ORE

Twenty of the town's 120 residents draw $2-an-hour wages bringing out gold ore from mines 3,000 feet beneath the earth.

Other townspeople spend days panning on Kanaka Creek, named for the Hawaiians. Still others live on relief checks and surplus food distributed by the county.

There is no other industry. And prospects for the future look bleak.

Officials of the original 16 to 1 Mine, the town's biggest employer with 11 workers, say it costs them $50 to produce one ounce of gold. Under law, they must sell the gold to the federal government — at $35 an ounce.

The company recently sold its gold specimen collection for $24,000. With this money, and by selling timber rights, the original 16 to 1 Mine hopes to keep going until gold prices are hiked.

Townspeople see little chance of that. But their pessimism dissolves when they get to talking about "hitting a strike so big that the company could make money even at $35 an ounce."

The speaker is Maude Clemo, wife of a miner who came to Alleghany in 1937. Clemo still works in the original 16 to 1.

Maude sips beer in Casey's Place, one of the town's two bars, and remembers the 1930s when Alleghany's mines employed 400 workers.

"Back in those days, the big thing was gambling. They'd catch a rattlesnake and put him in a big box to fight a rat. All the people would bet and, believe it or not, the rats would win more often than not."

Down the town's single street, past the Golden Eagle Hotel — a battered wooden structure where bartender Bob Carlson says, "You can get a room if the owner feels like it" — Joe Sbaffi holds glum court at his Alleghany Supply Co., the only store within 20 miles.

"The worst thing about it all," says Sbaffi, "is the way we've lost our young. There's nothing for them to do here. So they just grow up and leave."

Businessmen, Sports Fans Rub Shoulders

NEW YORK (AP) — Sports fans and businessmen will be rubbing shoulders more from now on. And often they'll be able to attend both a sports contest and a business convention or exhibition under the same expansive roof, and maybe even find hotel facilities there, too.

As sport spectaculars become larger and more costly to stage — and more profitable — and as business gatherings cry for more space and convenience, the construction industry has learned to bring the two together. This cuts costs. It assures steadier income. There are fewer days or nights when the structure stands empty.

The move is spreading across the country.

FOR BOTH

Use of big arenas or halls for both sporting events and business conclaves has been going on for many years, of course. But the trend now is to provide even bigger and more diversified quarters, to spot them in more places around the country, and to design them specifically to meet the needs of both sports and business.

The convention business has been growing as fast or faster than sports. Once adequate quarters are no longer able to hold the crowds attracted to hear business leaders read speeches, or to provide space for today's more elaborate shows and exhibitions.

New York is an example of the recent drive to accommodate the convention trade.

LOSES CONVENTIONS

Once Madison Square Garden could house all the top sporting events and many conventions and shows. Then the New York Coliseum was built to take care of business meetings that found hotel exhibition and banqueting facilities too crowded and even Madison Square Garden too small.

Of late, New York has been losing some conventions because other cities offered larger quarters for business gatherings and presidential nominating conventions. Now a $116-million new Madison Square Garden Center is going up over the old Pennsylvania Railroad Station. It is designed to house sporting events and big and small conventions and exhibitions simultaneously. It will have seating capacity for 22,000 in its main arena. It boasts that convention goers can attend a prize fight right next door to the hall where the boss is talking.

TRUCK DOCK

Designers are thinking of the machines as well as the men. Irving Mitchell Felt, chairman and president of Madison Square Garden Center, Inc., says there will be a 21-berth truck dock to speed the loading or unloading of exhibit materials and a ramp to let the trucks go directly to the main arena on the upper level.

There will also be closed-circuit television. The convention-going boss will be able to keep tab on what his junior executives are doing elsewhere in the huge building. Planned is a 48-lane bowling center, and an art museum and library of sports — and, of course, there will be refreshment hideaways.

Soldiers Die In Malaysian Clash

KUCHING, Sarawak, Malaysia (AP) — Three government soldiers were killed and two others were wounded Sunday in a clash with a large band of Indonesian raiders in Malaysia's Borneo state of Sarawak, a military spokesman reported.

Romania Said In Truce Try

VIENNA, Austria, (AP) — Romania's Communist leaders are acting as go-betweens for another Viet Nam peace effort, Austrian diplomats say.

The Austrian sources said Romanian efforts to achieve peace talks began last June after North Viet Nam put out peace feelers through Bucharest.

The diplomats said Romanian Premier Ion Gheorghe Maurer reported the moves to Austrian officials during an official visit to Vienna last week.

The diplomats said Maurer gave this account:

After the overtures from Hanoi, Romanian officials approached U.S. Ambassador William Crawford in Bucharest. The results of these contacts formed a basis for follow-up talks between Romanian Foreign Minister Cornelius Manescu and Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the United Nations in New York last month.

NOT INDICATED

The outcome of these talks was not indicated.

Maurer told Austrian officials Romania is ready to mediate North Viet Nam "whenever there is a chance of bringing the war to an end."

U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and four other senators left Romania Sunday on their way to Saigon after talks with Romanian officials on the Viet Nam war. Mansfield told newsmen he could not reveal the substance of the talks.

There was no reaction from the State Department in Washington to the report of Romanian peace efforts.

"FOUR POINTS"

In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Rusk said in an ABC television interview that North Viet Nam has yet to show interest in any peace talks except on the basis of its "famous four points," which the United States has declared unacceptable.

Rusk was referring to a Hanoi statement last April setting these conditions for peace talks:

1. Withdrawal of all U.S. forces and bases from South Viet Nam;
2. A policy of no alliances for North and South Viet Nam;
3. Acceptance of the Viet Cong's political program for South Viet Nam;
4. Eventual unification of North and South Viet Nam without outside interference.

Rusk declined to elaborate on an earlier State Department comment that peace overtures made by Hanoi last year did not indicate a serious desire to negotiate.

SEND EMISSARY

In the fall of 1964, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant advised Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson that North Viet Nam was willing to send an emissary to Rangoon, Burma, for a secret meeting with a U.S. representative. The United States rejected that bid.

Observers in Washington said the U.S. government believed it was in too weak a position, militarily and diplomatically, to negotiate. It is felt that the U.S. position has improved considerably, and the Mansfield mission to Warsaw, Moscow, Romania, Saigon and other points could be a sign that the United States is actively seeking peace talks.

Meter Discussions Lead Off Agenda

Parking meters will take up two discussion slots at Tuesday night's city commission meeting. On tap are an amendment to the parking meter ordinance, authorizing the removal of meters for 60 days beginning Nov. 26, and a written change in the city's policy of allowing certain officials to be exempt from parking tickets.

Both ideas were previously approved, and there probably will be no changes. The exemptions will remain in effect, except that officials and jurors will have to display cards indicating their exempt status.

Representatives of Downtown Big Spring, Inc., will appear at the 7:30 p.m. session, probably to turn over the deed to the old First National Bank property, which the city has agreed to turn into a parking lot for the public. The bank was torn down under the auspices of Downtown Big Spring, Inc., but the city will pay for turning the ground into a parking area.

An agreement between the city and the school board on the proposed Lakeview School park-campus area will likely be signed at the meeting. The city has agreed to pay about three-fourths of the approximately $20,000 the park-campus improvements will cost.

A large jump in fire and extended coverage insurance premiums on city property will be recommended to commissioners by Roy Anderson, assistant city manager, and Larry Crow, city manager.

They estimate the total cost for a five-year policy at about $24,000; for a three-year policy, $14,800. Recommendations of an insurance engineer for heavier coverage of city hall and the auditorium account for most of the jump—presently the two buildings are covered at $100,000. The engineer recommended $453,000. Six structures should not be covered, Anderson indicated, because they are practically worthless to the city, and would not be replaced should they be destroyed.

They are a structure now occupied by Johnny Johansen, parks manager; another dilapidated park structure; the museum building, which is not used; a 200 thousand gallon elevated storage tank, considered superfluous; a storage area purchased when the city barn was expanded, which has no worthwhile function; and the Section 33 booster station, not used in several years.

Items other than the city hall-auditorium will show at least moderate increases in estimated value, and will add to the recommended increase in policy coverage, Anderson said. The city paid $4,300 in premiums over the past three years in city property businesses.

There will be a proposal to replace a patrol car which was wrecked in an accident last week.

Mayor George Zachariah will be authorized to sign a resolution allowing Carroll Choate to have a water easement at Moss Creek Lake to water his livestock. Choate and the CRMWD agreed some time ago on water purchase, and Choate appeared before commissioners after that and requested the easement.

Other items will be second readings on beer permits at the "Pizza Hut" and the "Jumbo Cafe," both of which were approved on first reading two weeks ago by commissioners.

Turkey Case Ruling Made

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court celebrated Thanksgiving ahead of time today by churning out a 6,000 word opinion in a frozen stuffed turkey case.

The issue: Is it legal for New York state to require, as it does that a frozen turkey carry a label showing separately the weights of the fowl and the filler?

The 6-3 decision: That weighty issue, which involves federal-state relations, must be decided by the Federal Circuit Court in New York. Therefore that court will conduct further proceedings.

The 6,000-word majority opinion, well-stuffed with legal language on the powers of lower courts, was delivered by Justice John M. Harlan.

He said the real issue was whether a special three-judge federal court, a one-judge federal court, or the much larger U.S. Circuit Court, all in New York City, should have decided the question.

He tapped the big circuit court as the one to decide. At the same time he said it was not appropriate for the three-judge federal court to act on the issue.

Harlan said a 1962 decision in another case could not stand any longer. That decision was that a three-judge court properly could rule in cases where a constitutional issue is at stake and also in cases where there is an alleged conflict between federal and state regulations.

Classing Office Gets Largest Receipts So Far

LAMESA — Receipts for the Lamesa Classing office last week were the largest, received for any week this season according to J. N. Brevard, officer-in-charge of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Consumer and Marketing service office.

Samples classed totaled 9,700 bringing the season's total to 32,000 samples classed, this compares with 31,210 samples classed at this same time last year. Five classers are on duty at this time.

White grades were predominate last week with 61 per cent falling in this category. A breakdown of grades this week shows: Middling—42 per cent; Strict Low Middling — 16 per cent; Middling Light Spotted—31 per cent; Strict Low Middling Light Spotted—five per cent.

The predominate staple was 15-16 inch with 52 per cent being called such. A further breakdown shows: 29-32 inch—25 per cent; 31-32 inch—16 per cent; one inch and longer—five per cent.

Micronaire continued good with 86 per cent miking 3.6 to 4.8.

Prices quoted on the Lubbock Spot Market were: Middling—15-16 inch—27.65; Middling Light Spotted—15-16 inch 26.65.

Man Walks Out With Loot

A man walked into the Pastime Domino Club, 205 E. 2nd, Sunday afternoon, punched the bottom on the cash register, picked up $40 in bills and left by the front door, officers said today.

The owner, Raymond Runyan, 100 N. Benton, said he was standing outside the door when he heard the clang of the register bell, and saw the man walk out. He checked, found the money missing, ran down the street and stopped the apparent thief.

He asked for his money back, he told police, but when the man put his hand in a pocket, not to get money, Runyan went back to the club and called officers.

A bit later, police picked up a man in a car leaving a local bar. Runyan identified the man as the one involved in the apparent theft.

No charges had been filed this morning, but should be sometime today.

A 35 millimeter camera was taken from his car while he was in Lamar's Restaurant, 802 IS 20, between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. Friday, Charles J. Engle, 1005 Howell, told officers.

SHOOTING SAFETY URGED

Target shooters and others practicing with rifles in the South Mountain area, were urged today to use care in selecting targets.

During the weekend, Sheriff A. N. Standard said several residents of the Kentwood area reported ricocheting bullets hitting their houses. He asked the cooperation of all shooters to remember the range of their guns and direct their fire away from inhabited areas.

A bullet can be just as dangerous ricocheting as in direct flight, Standard pointed out. As there are many children in the Kentwood area, the sheriff urged shooters to practice every safety measure.

Japan Premier Will Visit Soviet

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan will make a 10-day state visit to the Soviet Union next June, reliable sources said today.

The trip is considered to be a significant step toward improving Soviet-Japanese relations.

The Foreign Ministry declined to confirm Sato's trip, saying only that he had been considering it.

Networks Trying Self-Test Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Two of the major television networks are turning out self-testing programs in which viewers may participate by answering questions and then compare their scores with those chalked up in a survey by the network.

CBS has one Tuesday night — a national citizenship test — and NBC has a test on honesty coming along later.

OWN TEST

This reporter, however, has developed a test that shows whether the viewer is watching the programs that assorted advertising agencies believe he should be watching.

It's easy to score yourself. For instance, a program laced with commercials showing a man shaving, or counting how many times he used one razor blade or winning a gorgeous girl because he switched to a certain brand of hair oil obviously is designed for male viewing.

It's a woman's show when the commercial demonstrates how to give yourself a permanent wave while riding on water skis, or how to get rid of dishpan hands, and gray hair, or how to clean sinks and floors fast, or get a whiter wash.

OLDER FANS

When you encounter a mid-program commercial on the care and maintenance of dental plates or suggested remedies for arthritis or iron-poor blood, it is a strong hint that the prime appeal is to older people.

CBS' "What's My Line?" in a last-minute switch, postponed the appearance of Peggy Cass on its panel Sunday night and substituted Helen Gurley Brown, editor of a women's magazine and author of "Sex and the Single Girl." Mrs. Brown, a newcomer to evening network television, probably is the first of a number of women who will be given on-the-air auditions for the vacant spot on the show's panel.

A multicity Neilsen rating covering last weekend showed "What's My Line?" in the No. 3 spot in the top 10. It was the first program after Dorothy Kilgallen's death.

Mother, Two Children Killed

WYANDOTTE, Mich. (AP)— Mrs. Pauletta Louise Mamo and her two children of Wyandotte were killed in a train-car collision here Saturday.

Services are scheduled for Wednesday.

The children were Angela, 4, and Bryan, 2.

Surviving Mrs. Mamo are her husband, Thomas; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dittman; a brother, Larry Dittman; and three sisters, Mrs. Rosalie Sewell, Mrs. Mattie Uggens and Miss Beverly Dittman.

Kin Will Aid Orphaned 15

MOTT, N.D. (AP)—Relatives are rallying today to the aid of 15 children orphaned when an ambulance crashed into a truck Saturday, killing the parents and driver of the ambulance.

"The kids definitely will be kept together at the farm, said Milford Johnson of Norma, N.D., a brother-in-law of Mrs. James C. Kerzman. "Our aim is to make it easy and simple for them as we can."

Mrs. Kerzman, 43, had given birth to her 15th child early Saturday, and she was being rushed from this southwestern North Dakota town to Bismarck to stop severe hemorrhaging. With her was Kerzman, 44, who farms 15 miles northeast of Mott.

Driving the ambulance was Julius W. Bartels, 45, administrator of Lorenzen Memorial Hospital in Elgin.

The ambulance collided with a truck on Highway 21, a mile west of Heil, authorities reported.

The Kerzmans left 15 children ranging up to an 18-year-old son at Dickinson State College.

Bartels' survivors are his widow and seven children, from 12 to 23.

A. Hohertz' Mother Dies

Mrs. Jenny Patrick Hohertz, mother of Albert Hohertz, died Sunday in Comanche on her 86th birthday.

She had been in failing health for a long time and seriously ill for the past month. Several weeks ago she underwent surgery and visited here for a time before returning to Comanche.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman Hohertz, who died June 15, 1962. Services were to be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Lutheran Church in Priddy where the body was to be interred. The funeral home at Goldthwaite was to be in charge.

Surviving her are three sons, Ewald Hohertz, Priddy, Albert Hohertz, Big Spring, and Martin Hohertz, Dallas; seven grandchildren, including Daryle Hohertz, Big Spring, and 20 great-grandchildren.

Pastor Urges Birth Curb

LOMITA, Calif. (AP) — A Presbyterian minister says Presbyterians should stop having children to help solve the world's over-population problem.

"As Christians," said the Rev. Eldon Durham, 53, father of four, and "as Presbyterians we should cease having children of our own and begin to constitute families by means of adopting the unwanted, the disinherited, the despised and rejected children."

"Sex," said the minister in his sermon Sunday at St. Mark's church, "is for pleasure as well as procreation."

His sermon, said the pastor, brought mixed response from the congregation he has headed for 15 years in this Los Angeles suburb.

Water District Board To Meet

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District will convene at the district headquarters at 10 a.m. Tuesday to hear progress reports on the Robert Lee project. They also will discuss areas of approach to negotiating with Midland for a surface water contract.

This will mark the first time that the board has met in its new directors' room at the headquarters at 1318 E. 3rd.

NO SERMON, HAPPY TIME

The First Presbyterian Church's bulletin has been quoted by Paul Crume in his Big D column of the Dallas News. He repeated from an item boosting a family night affair, to wit: "There will be no sermon. It will be a happy time."

Foster Mother's Slaying From 'Urge,' Boy Says

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 13-year-old adopted Korean boy told police he killed his foster mother after he felt a sudden urge to shoot her. "I planned it for 15 minutes," he said.

The boy, Anthony Carter, is being held by the juvenile court.

Lola Carter, 51, was killed Saturday night by a 22-caliber rifle bullet in the face.

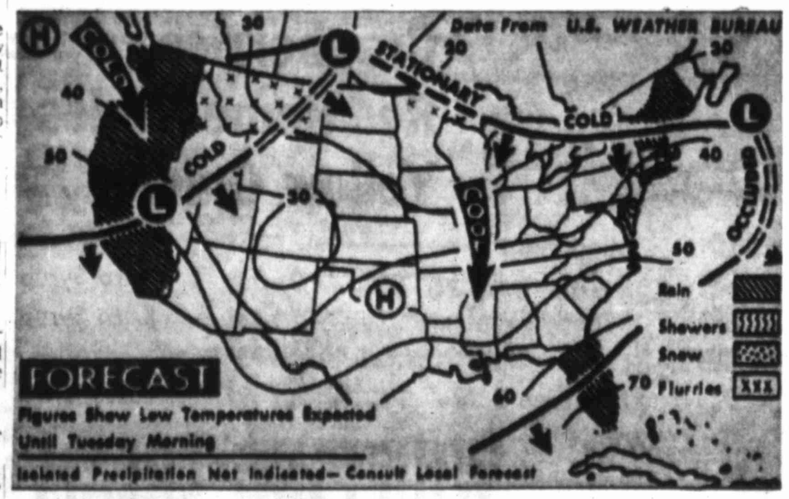

The rifle jammed, and the boy said he got a pellet gun and fired several times at a tenant in the home, Judy Murphy, 22. She was injured in a foot.

The boy told police he shot his mother because "when I would do things she would promise not to tell my father and then she would tell him anyway. She told lies to my father."

An officer asked Anthony if he intended to kill Miss Murphy.

"I wanted to make her shut up, that's all," the boy said.

The father, Al Carter, was at work at the time.

Weather Forecast

Rain is forecast Monday night for New England, the West Coast and Florida with snow flurries likely in the Upper Great Lakes region and in the higher elevations of the Rockies. It will be cold in the Upper Mississippi Valley and Lakes region, cool from the Ohio Valley southward to the Gulf States and in the Pacific Northwest. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

U.S. Offers Guidelines On Women-Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government detailed today some of its ideas about the employment of women. The basic theme: women can't be denied a job solely because they are women.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission set forth seven major guidelines to show employers how it will enforce the ban on sex discrimination which was included in the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Commission interpretations are subject to court challenge, and currently apply only to employers of 100 or more workers.

The employe limit drops to 75 next July 2, to 50 on the same day in 1967 and finally to 25 on July 2, 1968.

STATE LAWS

In general, the commission said its interpretations won't conflict with state laws intended to protect women against exploitation and hazard.

But it said many state laws now are outdated, and legislatures should take a fresh look at them.

The commission said it won't accept such discrimination excuses as men do a better job than women, that women quit their jobs sooner, that co-workers, clients or customers prefer men or that separate facilities would have to be provided for women.

The guidelines include several previously stated. Among them are ones affecting married women and job advertising.

The commission said married females can't be banned unless there is a similar embargo on married males. It did say there might be some exceptions, but made no effort to pinpoint them.

UNLESS ESSENTIAL

With reference to advertising, the commission said no sex preference may be noted unless it is absolutely essential. A woman, it noted, obviously couldn't qualify as an actor.

It suggested that classified ads could be labeled "Jobs of Interest — Male," or "Jobs of Interest — Female." But the ad itself then must state that all comers are welcome.

Other guidelines:

There can be no use of separate promotion or seniority systems based on sex.

Employment agencies share responsibility with employer clients in filling jobs on the basis of ability, not sex.

Standards of equal pay for equal work will be applied to women as well as men.

Pre - employment inquiries may ask for the applicant's sex if the information is for a non-discriminatory purposes.

Quiet Weekend For Officers

It was a relatively quiet weekend for city traffic officers. There were no accidents Saturday, and only three minor ones Sunday.

Involved were the cars of Lena Mae Brown, 404 Benton, and George W. Marshall, Sweetwater, at Fourth and Bell; the cars of Lynn Spraggins Hager, Stanton, and Juan Rubio Chavarria, Ellis Homes Building No. 18, at 1608 Gregg; and the cars of Jose Juan Martinez, 1301 Colby Ave., and Rudolph August Pachall, 1301 Nolan, at Lamesa Drive and North Gregg, officers said. No one was injured.

French Former President Hurt

HYERES, France (AP) —Former French President Vincent Auriol, 81, fractured his right hip Sunday in a fall while strolling around his property.

Auriol, who was the first president of the Fourth Republic, was taken to a hospital in Hyeres, and his condition was reported as serious.

S. Viets Repel Cong Assaults

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese forces beat back two heavy Communist assaults on the central coast today with help from bombarding U.S. Navy ships off shore and air strikes later. U.S. and South Vietnamese officers said at least 300 of about 1,500 attackers were killed.

The attack broke before dawn and the U.S. advisers called for the bombardment from two 7th Fleet destroyers lying offshore. The Navy shells kept the attackers down until the weather cleared later in the day. Then U.S. and South Vietnamese planes and U.S. Marine helicopters attacked with napalm bombs and rockets.

YANKS KILLED

Two U.S. Army advisers were killed in the heaviest assault, by 1,500 Viet Cong on a battalion of 500 rangers near Thach Tru, in Quang Ngai Province 320 miles northeast of Saigon.

"I got the S.O.B.'s that shot them," said Staff Sgt. Henry McNeal of Pittsburgh, Pa., who, with a fourth American adviser, was not hurt.

The Americans were killed at an outpost on a hill about half a mile west of the government fort. A battalion of U.S. Marines was lifted by helicopter onto the hill to reinforce the Vietnamese rangers.

BODIES STREWN

Viet Cong bodies were strewn inside the fort, in the rice paddies in front of it and on the outpost hill.

Attack planes silenced six 81mm Viet Cong mortars that were firing on the hill.

U.S. and South Vietnamese officers on the scene said at least 200 Viet Cong were killed. Associated Press correspondent George Esper said he counted more than 100 bodies.

Officials said government casualties were light, but Esper said their casualties appeared to be moderate. Many of the rangers were killed inside the fort in close-in fighting.

The Viet Cong assaulted the fort six times during an eight-hour period. They were beaten off by small arms, automatic weapons and hand grenades.

1954 BATTLE

Many of the Viet Cong were wearing brown khaki shirts and short black pants. A commemoration button reading "Dien Bien Phu Battalion" was found on one of the bodies. This battalion fought in the decisive battle at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 where the Viet Minh defeated the French.

Government troops also captured nearly 100 enemy weapons, many of them late-model types including recoilless rifles, light machine guns and Chinese-type assault rifles.

About 1,000 Viet Cong hit a Vietnamese regimental and artillery command post 40 miles northwest of Saigon. A few of the attackers penetrated the post's defense perimeter but were thrown back. The Vietnamese claimed they killed 100 of the attackers.

There was no report of government casualties in the action.

LIGHT CASUALTIES

U.S. troops suffered light casualties and U.S. Army helicopters, refueling trucks and buildings were damaged by a 15-minute mortar barrage on the Soc Trang airfield 95 miles southwest of Saigon, a U.S. spokesman said.

The spokesman refused to disclose the extent of damage under a new restriction on press coverage of the war.

There were no reports of new fighting between troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division and North Vietnamese soldiers in the Ia Drang Valley 220 miles north of Saigon.

Fighting in the valley Sunday was termed light to moderate, and the spokesman said the Americans suffered light casualties. Four North Vietnamese were reported killed.

Attack Case Girl Testifies

EL RENO, Okla. (AP)— The girl, 15, victim of an alleged gang rape last summer testified between sobs today that John Shapard and five other Oklahoma City area youths took turns attacking her and forcing her to do unnatural acts.

Her eyes red-rimmed, the slight brunette said, "I fought them off as hard as I could. But it wasn't any use after a while. I just didn't have any more strength."

Shapard, 17, son of a prominent lawyer and political figure, is the first of the youths to face trial.

The all-male jury heard the girl testify the six defendants removed her clothes and repeatedly raped her despite her screams and protests.

She said Shapard "said not to tear my clothes or bruise me because they didn't want any marks left."

She said Shapard was the first to rape her. She testified he attacked her again after the other defendants had done so.

She also testified that four of the youths, including Shapard, forced her to have unnatural relations with them.

The alleged victim was the first witness for the prosecution.

Latin America Reds 'Slipping'

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that communism has receded in Latin America over the past few years.

"I think there is no doubt that it has lost strength in Latin America," Rusk said in an ABC television interview.

Rusk, who last visited South America in 1962, said there are indications Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro now "realizes that his type of activity cannot succeed."

The hemisphere foreign ministers are discussing ways to update the inter-American system to deal with changing political and economic needs. Seven of the 19 foreign-policy leaders have spoken since the two-week meeting began Nov. 17.

Cotillion Club Guests Attend Harvest Ball

Guests at Saturday evening's Cotillion Club Harvest Ball danced to the music of Sammy Baker's orchestra from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. The formal holiday affair was held at Big Spring Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Womack were the social chairmen and were joined in greeting guests by the other host couples, Mr. and Mrs. Rich Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crooker, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Currie, Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McMahon Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor.

The harvest theme was used in decorations throughout the entertaining area. Banking the bandstand were shocks of grain, cotton stalks and colorful gourds forming a background for paper mache turkeys and chickens. Tables were lighted with basket bottles holding green and orange candles and centered with runners of English ivy and pyracantha. The cloths were green, and centerpieces were formed of cotton bolls, wheat and fall foliage.

The hors d'oeuvre table was accented with a tall brass candelabrum arranged with bronze chrysanthemums, sprigs of dried materials and English ivy. A copper tray, trimmed in brass, held Indian corn and various fruits. Placed nearby was a ceramic duck.

Approximately 200 attended.

Mrs. Lois Smith Is Club Hostess

FORSAN (SC) — Mrs. Lois O'Barr Smith was hostess to the Pioneer Sewing Club in her ranch home south of Forsan with 10 attending. Her guests were Mrs. J. D. Leonard of Big Spring and Mrs. A. M. Burns. Mrs. C. V. Wash will be hostess Dec. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Wash were here from Waco to visit their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strom, Glenn and Anne, from Alpine, and Mr. and Mrs. Benny Barnett from Midland were guests of Mrs. H. H. Story.

Mrs. Darrell Flynt has returned from Fort Worth where she visited relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Gilmore has been in McCamey to visit Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffith and Jeff.

Mrs. L. J. Shoults is leading the Bible study every Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at the Forsan Baptist Church. During the study. Mrs. Mary Archer is teaching pre-school Sunbeams. Mrs. Amy Reid is in charge of the nursery.

Forsaners Meet

FORSAN (SC) — The Forsan Baptist Woman's Missionary Union met with Mrs. Jesse Overton in her ranch home west of Forsan with the hostess in charge of the program. The opening prayer was by Mrs. Doyle Whetsel, and the mission study was led by Mrs. Ronnie Gandy. The topic was "Which Way to Brazil?"

The Christmas party will be with Mrs. Overton Dec. 20, and the next regular meeting will be with Mrs. Bow Cowley, Nov. 29 for a week of prayer program. Mrs. L. T. Shoults closed the meeting with prayer.

Casually Yours

By JO BRIGHT

Mrs. Guilford Jones was barely back from Boulder City, Nev., where she visited her father, E. A. Morwitz, before she had something else nice to plan on—the approaching marriage of her son, Guil III . . . Mrs. E. L. Powell has something to look forward to, also. I'm told she only needs about six more red points in bridge play to receive the title of Life Master . . . Noticed Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Chapman in town Saturday. They moved, you know, last August when he became associated with the Wollford State Bank . . . That nice Mrs. Horace Doyal with the British Wives Club who brought us some English newspapers and magazines, was in Arkansas last week to see her husband's family. He'll be going to Viet Nam soon . . . little Harriet Hungerford had a birthday Nov. 15, and one of her gifts was a tea set from her good friend, Mrs. B. B. Badger . . . Did you notice the pictures of Mrs. Betty Priest in the Dallas papers? First I knew that she had left Big Spring and is now decorator consultant for the Furniture Decorators Guild in Dallas. She's a graduate of the New York School of Design . . . The St. Mary's Episcopal Church steak fry at the Rich Anderson ranch sounds like a lot of fun. Bishop George Quarterman of Amarillo was there—and about 200 others—who gathered around the camp fire to sing the good old songs to the accompaniment of a piano on the back of a pick-up truck. The pianists were Dr. Charles Rainwater, Gene Nabors and Capt. Tom McDaniel . . . Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges gave their traditional party, this year at Holiday Inn, which is held annually to celebrate the birthdays of John and Jerry Worthy. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Hermann of Dallas, came in for a few days visit . . .

Ran into Auctioneer Dub Bryant in San Angelo last week where he was handling the sale of antiques. While reminiscing about the days of our youth, I remarked that something I'd forgotten were the china eggs we used to put in the hen's nest, and I'd love to see one. Only took him a few days to deliver one here at the office—but it must be for turkeys. It's huge and hand-painted . . . much fancier than our hens ever had . . . Speaking of old things, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gonzalez bought an old trunk and in it they found a copy of the San Angelo Weekly Standard for Sept. 27, 1918. One of the headlines said that German gas was fast losing its terror for the Allies . . .

When Mrs. O. L. Nabors went to Seattle for that Beauceant convention, she didn't plan to lose 10 pounds but she did. Seems that on the way back, she stopped to visit a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Lester in Grants, N.M. They operate a motel and Mrs. Nabors volunteered to manage it while they took a two week's vacation. The maid showed up the first day but got lost the rest of the time, so Mrs. Nabors swept, scrubbed and made beds every day besides being awakened at all hours of the night by travelers who didn't stop at sundown . . .

Mrs. Delaine Crawford was in Lubbock for a bi-district and in service training for county agents. She said that Robbie Brown, who is in Tech now, is to be in Chicago for the national sewing competition Nov. 29-Dec. 2 . . . speaking of December, Mrs. R. L. Tollett isn't worried about the holiday parties, she's already planning her New Year's menu . . . and the various clubs are heavily booked for the festive season. At the Big Spring Country Club, the Challengers will play for a teenage dance Nov. 27; the ABC dance and dinner is Dec. 3, the club dance will have Jess Gayer for Dec. 4, the Ambassador's Club dance will be Dec. 18, and the New Year's Dance will have the music of Mel Sharp who did a good job at the Policeman's Ball.

It will be busy, also, at Cosden Country Club. The Wednesday Night Dance Club has scheduled its shindig Dec. 4, the Kouple's Dance Klub on Dec. 11, a club dance Dec. 17, the Alpha Chi dance Dec.18 , a children's Christmas party on Dec. 21.

The Versatones from Webb AFB have been playing on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday at the Ramada Inn Lounge, and at the Americana Lounge, they tell me that Chuck Simmons can be heard at the piano nightly with various combos on the weekend. Incidentally, the folks at the Americana were taken by surprise and didn't know, until they opened a Fort Worth paper, that their recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. Winston S.Churchill. He's the grandson of England's former prime minister and is on a lecture tour of the United States . . . It was like a fresh breeze from Colorado having Mrs. Audrey Withycombe and her friend, Mrs. Bob Miller, here for the weekend. The two handsome and charming women were kept on the run being entertained by old friends, and were to leave this morning for the return trip to Colorado Springs.

Call me.

MEETING SET AT CENTER

There will be a meeting of the Howard County Crippled Children and Adults Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the conference room of the new Howard County Rehabilitation Center. Jim Thompson, center director, has important business to discuss and urges all board members to attend.

Rook Club Sets Holiday Dinner

Eight members were present at the Friday afternoon meeting of the Rook Club at the home of Mrs. S. P. Jones, 1206 Sycamore. The next meeting will be Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Miller for a Christmas luncheon.

Forum Group Hears Talk

France and Germany were explored by the Woman's Forum Friday afternoon at a meeting in the home of Mrs. E. B. Compton, 1901 Choctaw, where Mrs. E. P. Driver was cohostess. The program was a continuation of the study, "International Cooperation Year."

The speakers were Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr. and Mrs. D. D. Dyer. Mrs. Thomas reviewed the history of France and told of her tour of the country last year. She described the beauties of Paris and her visit to Nancy, France, where housewives go daily to the market for fresh produce, meat and flowers. She noted that in the eudcational field, boys and girls attend separate institutions, and travel is a mixture of inconvenient confusion and ultra-modern railways. To illustrate her talk, Mrs. Thomas showed pictures taken in France.

Mrs. Dyer's talk concerned Germany. She stressed that the country was comparatively new, being formed in 1871. The people are proud, and many are skilled craftsmen, with some of the most famous artists and musicians in the world being developed in that country. The northern section is flat farm land, while the southern area is rich in minerals and highly industrialized. Mrs. Dyer concluded with the observation that the custom of the Christmas tree and wreaths came from Germany, as well as the favorite carol, "Silent Night, Holy Night."

Mrs. Charles Harwell conducted the business session as Mrs. Clyde Johnston was named secretary, and Mrs. Jack Johnson was placed on the telephone committee. The resignations of Mrs. J. D. Jones and Mrs. John B. Norton were accepted, and new members are Mrs. Paul Kionka and Mrs. Knox Chadd, a former member.

It was announced that $10 would be donated to the Buck-A-Month Club at the Big Spring State Hospital, and Mrs. Johnston, project chairman, asked for magazines for the Westside Recreation Center.

The next meeting will be a Christmas luncheon Dec. 10 at Cosden Country Club when members will exchange gifts.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Judy Brown, bride-elect of Hershall Hanks, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Bowlin, Ackerly.

Serving the refreshments were Mrs. O'Brien Bolin and Mrs. Dudley Coleman. Mrs. Joe Lemon presided at the register, and Mrs. Arlen White, pianist, played selections during the afternoon.

Other cohostess were Mrs. E. G. Cates, Mrs. W. M. Doiser, Mrs. D. L. Rasberry, Mrs. D. J. Coleman, Mrs. Marlin Gibson, Mrs. Edgar Herm, Mrs. Leon Bodine, Mrs. Darrell Smith, Mrs. M. B. Maxwell Jr., Mrs. George Rhea, Mrs. Alfred Herren, Mrs. Raymond Riley, Mrs. Cecil Allred, Mrs. Tommy Horton, Mrs. Belton Hill and Mrs. Travis Russell.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Lester Brown, the honoree's mother; and Mrs. Buster Hanks, her fiance's mother.

The refreshment table was covered with a white net cloth over white taffeta and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums. Other flower arrangements included roses and pink chrysanthemums.

The couple plans a Dec. 23 wedding at the Methodist Church in Ackerly.

Bridal Shower Held Saturday

Mrs. Stephen Lazarus, the former Judy Echols, was honored with a Saturday afternoon bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Jack Taylor, Coahoma.

Cohostesses were Mrs. A. D. Shive, Mrs. W. J. Tinner, Mrs. A. C. Hale, Mrs. D. E. Best, Mrs. Frank Loveless, Mrs. Clovis Phinney Sr., and Mrs. Jack Cauble.

The 60 guests were served refreshments from a table covered with an embroidered cloth and centered with a blue and white floral arrangement.

Bride-Elect Honored At Saturday Gift Shower

Miss Willedee Thomas, bride-elect of Guilford L. Jones III, was the honoree at a miscellaneous gift shower Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. J. O. McCrary, 708 W. 16th. Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Thomas of Pasadena, Tex., and will be married there Jan. 29 in the First Methodist Church.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford L. Jones Jr., 802 Dallas. Mrs. Jones joined Miss Thomas in greeting guests. The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations tied with green ribbon, and members of the house party wore similar corsages.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Mrs. Tommy Jordan, Mrs. R. H. Moore Jr., Mrs. Lucian Jones, Mrs. Jack Cook and Mrs. M. R. Koger.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of white and green were used on the refreshment table which was covered with a floor-length white organdy cloth. Centuring the table was a large green brandy - type container filled with white spider chrysanthemums. Silver services and china appointments were used to serve approximately 40 guests.

Both Miss Thomas and Jones are students at the University of Texas.

A Devotional For The Day

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. (Psalm 103:2)

PRAYER: We would remember Thy goodness, O God, for no day runs its course but the stream of Thy blessing flows on. Forgive us for every sin of discontent and ingratitude, and make us glad in Thy service and radiant with unquenchable joy. For the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Film That Can Help

Today begins the first of six showings in two days of "The Restless Ones," a film produced by the Billy Graham enterprises and dealing primarily with the problem of morality. The film is beamed at and to youth, and it doesn't skirt the issue in sugary platitudes. It also has some sober thoughts for parents, too.

Wherever this film has been shown, it has stirred numbers to decisions and countless others to serious introspection. It cannot but help the community. Scores of adults have and are taking blocks of tickets at $1 each and making them available to our young people. This could be a priceless investment that commends itself to any adult. What would be even better is to take a son or daughter or a young friend to see this production today or Tuesday.

Needs Better Package

House Speaker Ben Barnes has suggested that the constitutional amendment proposal for four-year terms for the governor and other top state executives should be submitted to the people again. It probably will be, and we think it should be. But more care should be taken next time to assure more favorable circumstances and a more popularly acceptable amendment.

Amendment No. 4 on the November ballot failed by 273,586 to 225,215, with about a fourth of the qualified voters going to the polls. That is the nearly exact reversal of the 273,831 to 233,114 vote that gave county officials four-year terms Nov. 2, 1954, a general-election year. If the term amendment for state executives is submitted again, it should be in a general-election year, when a more representative turnout is normal.

Sooner or later it seems likely that Texas will adopt the four-year state terms now approved in 39 of the 50 states. In drafting any such future proposal for Texas, more consideration should be given other states' safeguarding provisions. Some states limit their four-year governors to one term, and others to two (the same as the U.S. Constitution's 22nd Amendment prescribes for the presidency.) However, some states, unlike the federal example, allow a former governor to run for the office again after someone else has held it for at least a term.

Finally, if the four-year term proposal is submitted again in Texas, that should be done under circumstances or with provisions that would not give what many would consider undue advantage to the incumbent at the time of the adoption of the amendment. Any partisan advantage also should be avoided.

Four-year administrations have better opportunity to carry out a coherent state program, and would over the long run give Texas a more effective state government.

David Lawrence

Stockpiling Theory Violated

WASHINGTON — President Johnson doesn't have any legal power to fix copper prices, but he is doing so anyway. He didn't have the power to roll back aluminum prices either, but he accomplished that objective just the same by threatening to dump on the market aluminum from the government's stockpile. Mr. Johnson isn't, moreover, doing anything about controlling the rise in wages, which was, of course, the direct cause of the upward trend in prices.

BOTH THE copper and aluminum industries have recently been coerced into granting big wage increases under threat of costly strikes. There are, of course, valid reasons why prices should be restrained and wage-and-price stability maintained. But the power to do all this is not vested in one man just because he happens to be President of the United States. Constitutionally, Congress alone can impose wage-and-price control.

BUT REP. THOMAS B. CURTIS of Missouri, ranking House Republican on the Joint Economic Committee, and Rep. William B. Widnall of New Jersey, ranking House Republican on the Joint Committee on Defense Production, have just recommended that their two committees undertake an exhaustive investigation as soon as Congress meets. The two congressmen issued a comprehensive statement declaring that the administration's recent activity in relating the stockpile to the price situation "was clearly in violation of the intent of the Defense Production Act of 1951 and raised the crucial issue of the rights of management to make decisions about the use of privately owned resources."

THE STATEMENT points out that the Joint Defense Production Committee in its 1959 annual report declared that "the stockpile should be limited to defense needs, and that it is not the purpose of these programs to regulate prices or to solve economic problems.'

Even as recently as Oct. 4, 1965, the deputy director of the Office of Economic Planning, Franklin B. Dryden, in testifying before the Joint Congressional Committee on Defense Production, restated his agency's position that large disposal of stockpile items should be made "without adversely affecting market conditions."

WHAT PRESIDENT JOHNSON has done is, of course, just the opposite of these declarations. If governmental action is necessary, the feeling is growing that Congress should spell it out in a statute and that arbitrary steps should not be taken which could shake confidence in the whole economic system.

The big mystery here is why the administration has been operating in such a curious way in the last two weeks with respect to both aluminum and copper prices. At first, it was announced that the government would sell in the next year 300,000 tons of aluminum. When the companies went to Washington to urge restraint, they were told that the administration was going ahead anyhow. As soon, however, as the aluminum companies rolled back their prices, the administration reversed its position and cut down the amount of aluminum to be sold to something between 10,000 and 20,000 tons a year, which is what the industry all along has been in favor of doing.

BUT DURING the controversy over aluminum, criticism was voiced that nothing had been done by the administration about the recent rise in copper prices. So Secretary McNamara was selected again by the President to make public announcement of the government's intention to sell 200,000 tons of copper from the national stockpile.

There are, of course, various reasons why prices should be fixed in the midst of a war crisis. While the objective is to prevent inflation, the method being used today by the administration is not likely to accomplish stability, but will produce an uneasy feeling among businessmen and perhaps even disturb international trade by invading the field of prices abroad.

Billy Graham

You state: "All you have to do to become a Christian is to accept Christ." But doesn't Christ impose some responsibility upon us?

T. Y.

Just about everyone wants religion, and I suppose you could say that just about everyone has some kind of religion. But most of us want a religion that doesn't cost too much.

We are "bargain hunters" by nature. Most people want good teeth, but too few will pay the price in time, inconvenience, suffering and money, to get good teeth.

Most women want to be slimmer than they are, but they hunt the "easy" way to lose weight, rather than suffer the tortures of dieting. Everyone wants good health, but how many will give up smoking and drinking, when they are sure it is injurious to their health. To be sure, they want good health, but not bad enough to pay a price for it.

The same is true of religion. We want a faith that doesn't require too much from us. Like the rich young ruler, when Christ says, "Follow Me," we are inclined to go away — back to our miserable little lives of cheap pleasure and purposelessness. You are right, "All one must do to be a Christian is to accept Christ," but the full implication is a pretty big order!

Feeds Felines

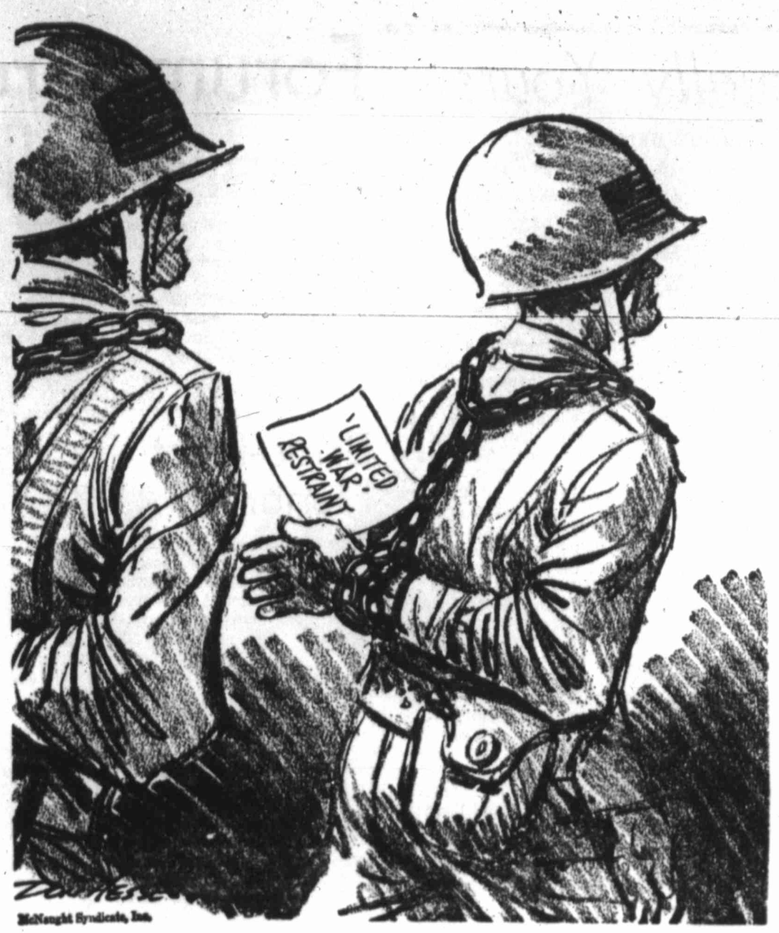

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique (AP)—Every night a line of cats wait for No. 9 bus in the Praca MacMahon here.

Out of the bus, promptly at 7 p.m., steps a little old woman with a large black bag on her arm. The cats hurry towards her, and follow her as she leads them to a public bench nearby. There she divides among them the contents of her bag—fish, scraps of meat, and anything else she can afford.

The old woman is French, and only gives the name Liliane. She says that five years ago she saw a starving cat and gave it food. The next day she returned to the same place with more, and has continued to do so daily.

The cats produced kittens, and Liliane christened them Branquinha and Bonitinha. Neighboring cats came to dinner and steadily her family grew.

JFK A Legendary Shining Figure

WASHINGTON (AP) — In two years President John F. Kennedy has become a legend, if not a myth.

Day by day hundreds of people, sometimes thousands, make a pilgrimage to the Arlington Cemetery grave of this witty, graceful, articulate, almost boyish president who was assassinated at 46 Nov. 22, 1963.

To millions here and abroad he has become a shining figure, perhaps because of his unspoiled enthusiasm a symbol of what they hope for in the future, either for themselves or mankind.

HE MEANT different things to different people and thus in different ways was the image of what they would like to be: intelligent, rich, successful good-looking, or concerned about people.

But now, after two years, it might be asked as it is bound to be asked in the years ahead:

Of all those who revere his memory, how many can say that they have any real recollection of what he did as president to earn this devotion? Perhaps not many, for their emotions are mixed up with memory.

A few episodes of his presidency are easily remembered.

THE FIRST was a disaster, which he honestly acknowledged, when he let Cuban exiles invade their homeland only to perish on the beaches at the Bay of Pigs because the American forces did not back them up.

There was his great triumph when he faced down Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the Cuban missile crisis. The one was the great peak of his three White House years, the other was his great valley.

In between were all the other days of his presidency. All of them had life and spirit but his accomplishments were hardly distinguished enough to rate him among the great presidents or even the near great.

HE WAS no match for President Johnson, for instance, in getting Congress to do his will, although in fairness it must be remembered Johnson has had a far greater percentage of his own Democrats there to work with than Kennedy had.

Congress ignored Kennedy on some of his biggest proposals: a civil rights law, medical care for people 65 and older, federal aid to public elementary schools. Johnson got them.

In foreign affairs, it seems fair to say, the attitude abroad toward this country was better under Kennedy than under Johnson, although here again the magic of his personality was probably more the reason than anything he did.

By getting involved in the Dominican Republic revolt and deeply involved in the Vietnamese war Johnson has antagonized many here and abroad. But in both cases, certainly in Viet Nam, Kennedy would almost surely have done the same.

KENNEDY WAS building up U.S. military forces in Viet Nam, and this country was steadily getting more directly involved by the time Kennedy died, although Viet Nam was crumbling. Finally, to stop it, Johnson did what he is doing now.

Fluid From The Breast — Why?

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Mrs. E. P. D. wrote of a greenish fluid from her breasts. She has had the problem eight months. I have had this same thing for 12 years. You advised her to see a doctor.

I know how worried Mrs. E. P. D. is; I've been worried since my early 30's. Perhaps someone can help. — MRS. G.H.

Breast discharges should be taken seriously, since some of them are a sign of grave trouble. Others are not.

Since you have had yours for 12 years, it must be the benign or innocent type. Please stop being fearful.

What causes such discharges? You doubtless know that there can be a leaking of milk after a woman has stopped nursing a baby. This is whitish.

Later, ordinarily at 40 or so but sometimes earlier, a gray or greenish discharge can appear from the nipple. This seldom leaks out, but can be expressed by gentle pressure. Again, the color may be yellowish, and stain underclothing.

These discharges are of innocent origin. That is to say, they do not represent serious danger. The breast, of course, is composed of many small secreting glands. Some of these may become sealed. They become cysts. Fluid from the cysts can leak out, or be expressed. Then you have the type of discharge you describe.

The flow which should cause instant concern is a dark brown or bloody color. This may (not always will) mean cancer, and must have immediate treatment.

In such cases, a mass or lump usually can be detected. A Pap test of the fluid can be performed to see if malignant cells exist. If a mass is present, it should be removed for microscopic examination — just the mass, not the entire breast, unless it shows malignancy.

For the greenish or yellowish discharges, once examination has disclosed no lump, and a Pap test shows no malignancy, one can feel secure that nothing ominous has developed.

A checkup once or twice a year is a precaution. (It's a good idea anyway.) But there is no cause for alarm.

* * *

Dear Dr. Molner: My daughter is 16 and hasn't begun her periods. I have taken her to the doctor for a physical but he could find nothing wrong. I am concerned. What should I do now? — MRS. C. S.

There is a very considerable difference in the time for equally healthy girls. Under the circumstances my advice is (a) stop being concerned; (b) wait another year. The problem may well have solved itself by that time. While the average age for periods to start is earlier, it is by no means uncommon for some delay as in this case.

Hemorrhoids can be cured If troubled with fissures, fistulas, itching and other rectal problems, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald requesting a copy of the booklet, "The Real Cure for Hemorrhoids," enclosing a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

When You Can't Get Enough Sleep

This and that:

Ever come across anyone who could sleep in the middle of an intersection and thinks sleeping pills are the most useless things ever perfected?

Often, uncontrollable desires to sleep run in entire families. A few years ago, two Mayo clinic physicians were presented with the case of a family possessed of narcolepsy, another word for an overwhelming urge to sleep.

The mother of the clan said she could fall asleep 'any time and any place,' while cooking or talking.

ONE OF THE daughters maintained she had trouble keeping awake in class while in high school. Her classmates had to keep rousing her. The girl said she had to keep active physically to stay awake. When guests came to her home, she walked about the room so she would not become drowsy.

One of the sons often stopped his car to take a nap while driving home from work. He always dozed at family gatherings and in crowds.

Another sister would find her need for sleep so imperious, she would nap lying on the floor or even standing up. A younger girl in the family would often fall asleep on dates.

Narcolepsy is sometimes treated with a drug called ritalin hydrochloride but some of the patients can't stay awake long enough to take it.

* * *

A LOVELY young thing called a service station not long ago and said: "I've just run out of gas. Will it hurt the car if I drive it home with an empty tank?"

That reminds me of the doll who drove into a station and asked the attendant to check her oil. The fellow did just that and informed the girl that the supply appeared to be about a quart low and would she like to bring it up to where it should be.

"No," the woman replied, after some meditation, "just put in a longer stick."

Bob Kennedy Among The Latins

WASHINGTON—Maybe nobody except Sen. Bob Kennedy (D., N. Y.) could stage a 19-day road show in Communist - ridden Latin America without discussing communism. It sounds like putting on "Hamlet" without giving any lines to the Prince of Denmark.

But the basic speech, prepared for Kennedy before he left Washington, nowhere suggests that communism is a fundamental problem among Latins, nowhere warns of Communist subversion, nowhere denounces communism as the enemy of freedom.

MOREOVER, some of the things that Kennedy did say to his audiences in Chili, Peru, Argentina, Brazil and Venezuela are as acceptable to the Communists and their Leftist fellow-travelers as the things he refrained from saying. He called for "social and economic justice for all peoples." He saluted the "rising tide of expectations." He spoke of the need to assuage the "land hunger of the peasants."

That such references to injustice and deprivation would please the Red revolutionaries and irk their opposite numbers in Latin America goes without saying. It also irks those in the U.S.A. who have more responsibility than Bob Kennedy does for holding the lid on Hemisphere affairs.

THE SENATOR'S decision before he left home was not to raise the heated questions of our role in the Dominican Republic and of our general attitude toward intervention in Communist - sparked revolts. But he was prepared to answer questions—and he has done so—by taking positions that are opposite to those of President Johnson and of the foreign affairs spokesmen in Congress.

THERE IS another decision that Kennedy made before he left Washington. He sent two "advance men" to the cities where he would be visiting. Part of their duty was to check with the local police and to take reasonable precautions for the senator's personal safety. Kennedy was warned —and he agreed—to avoid two lairs of Communist terrorists—San Marcos University in Lima and Central University in Caracas.

I mention this matter because it disproves a current theory that Bob's provocative message to the Latins could buy him full immunity from the Communists. Much as the Leftists might like what he's saying, they apparently can't control their own extremists.

AS TO THE purpose of the trip, you can pick your choice of motives. Bob was a world traveler long before he entered elective politics. He pulsates with intellectual curiosity, and he likes to talk with the high and low of all lands. But nearly every move he's made since 1960 has been to out-flank Lyndon Johnson, and this journey among the Latins seems no exception.

It is a dangerous gambit — never more so than the way Kennedy has played it in Latin America. For the senator is agitating the same troublemakers who seized Cuba, tried to seize the Dominican Republic, and would like to seize everything else southward of the Panama Canal.

WASHINGTON — My old friend "Handles" Messiah (professional pallbearer by trade) strode jauntily into my cubicle recently and shied his deerstalker cap at the hat tree.

"You left-handers," he said, crossing one faultlessly shod foot over the other, "brood easily. Like all minorities, you have persuaded yourself that every man's hand is set against you."

"Every right-handed man's is," we replied stubbornly. "Look at violins."

"NONSENSE. Due to some inherent weakness of intellect . . ."

". . . Have a care, sirrah," we interposed. "We port-siders are veritable buzzsaws when aroused."

". . . Weakness of intellect," he continued blandly, "you have permitted yourselves to become outcasts in a right-handed world. You've no one to blame but yourselves."

"There are lots of us. We get organized, say, and we could tip the balance in every election."

"YES, YES," Handles replied impatiently. "But the point is that you won't. You southpaws are hopelessly disorganized people. A study shows that 11.4 per cent of 92,656 public-school pupils studied in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and New Jersey were left-handed. In the hands of a skillful demagogue, a minority of that magnitude could win all manner of concessions from the world of right-handers."

"Left-handed pencil sharpeners?"

"Of course," he replied. "But it's academic. If you people had the stuff to win, you'd have done it long ago."

"I HAVE THE impression you are warming to your subject," I said, sinking back into my chair helplessly. "Pray barge ahead."

"To be sure. Researchers among Stone Age tools and artifacts seem to indicate that left-handedness might have actually been predominant. By the Bronze Age it seems to have been about 50-50. But somewhere along toward the end of that epoch, you sinistrodextrals went into a decline. Probably due to the toolmakers trade having to decide whether to make right - handed tools or left-handed ones."

"AND NOW WE'RE a tiny minority," I contributed. "Culturally deprived. Persecuted, indeed. Everything from doorknobs to tubas designed for the comfort of the right-handed majority. Enough to make us all march someplace."

"Nonsense, me lad. A left-hander who can cut the mustard can rise above his handicap. Babe Ruth, Harry Truman, Charlemagne, to name but a few. But for the most part you left-handers seem content to whine about your lot in life, and blame all your problems on your handicap. Most discouraging.

"ONE AUTHORITY has speculated that left-handedness among humans is on the increase, however. He offered figures purporting to show that left-handedness had increased from around four per cent in the 1930s to around 10 per cent now.

"Maybe," he concluded, bowing stiffly and taking his leave, "some day you'll outnumber us. And then you'll need some other excuse than minority neurosis. Farewell."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, "father" of the nuclear-powered submarine, is usually associated with the word "controversial."

His opinions on education, the P-TA and his fellow military men are hard to overlook, whether you agree with them or not.

The latest in Adm. Rickover's pronouncements are a bit late in reaching the public. They were made last May before the House Appropriations Committee. They have been kept secret ever since.

This, then, is what he had to say:

1) The Pentagon is an overstaffed, administrative jungle, over-populated with military officers never assigned to one place long enough to learn or master their jobs.

2) Military contractors expect to gouge the government.

3) The military would be better off with 10 per cent fewer people.

4) The services should get rid of psychologists.

5) There is no need for "professional" football teams at the service academies.

6) The services say they want "intelligent, imaginative" officers, but put unimaginative officers in charge of cadets.

Since all that happened last May, it's no telling what new fields Adm. Rickover has entered by this time.

Cooking School Tells Ways To Solve Holiday Menus

With holidays falling like a row of dominoes in a high wind, cooks are bound to exhaust menu ideas.

The holiday cooking school, conducted by experts, Mrs. Delaine Crawford, county home demonstration agent, and Mrs. Jack Orr, home economist for Texas Electric Service Company, was started to remedy the vacuum of recipe ideas among busy housewives.

During the five week course, Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Orr, talked of, and demonstrated cooking techniques, in such areas as main dish cooking, desserts, salads, vegetables and table settings.

Their first session dealt with proper ways, whys and hows of preparing the traditional central dish of Thanksgiving — the turkey.

Mrs. Crawford stressed that turkey selection is the most important meal decision the cook would make.

"It is the age of the bird that counts in tenderness," she said, "not the size."

Mrs. Orr said that the turkey dressing is probably the one item that cannot be prepared beforehand.

"Everything else can be fixed weeks ahead and frozen until just before meal time; but the dressing losses much of its flavor if it isn't made just before the turkey is stuffed and put in the oven," she said.

The first course of the cooking school follows, with menu ideas for Thanksgiving day and for those leftovers that appear on the day after.

ROAST WHOLE TURKEY

Start with a ready-to-cook turkey. Salt inside of turkey. Fill body and neck cavities loosely with stuffing. Stuffing swells as it cooks, thus needs room to expand. Fold neck skin toward back and fasten with skewers or a few stitches. For stitching use clean white wrapping cord and large needle. Tuck legs under band of skin at tail or tie down. To do this wrap cord around legs and under tail. This will hold legs close to the body. Fold the wing tips back on the wings. This will help to hold the neck skin in place. Grease skin of turkey with melted or softened fat. Place breast down on rack in shallow pan. Do not add water, and do not cover. Place in preheated oven set at proper temperature indicated on time table. Baste with fat from bottom of pan during baking, and turn from one side of the breast to the other, then breast up. Or cover the top and sides of bird with a loosely woven cloth which has been moistened in fat. Moisten cloth with fat from bottom of pan if cloth dries during cooking.

BREAD STUFFING

1 cup fat
1 cup chopped onion
4 cups chopped celery
9 cups cornbread crumbs
7 cups bread cubes
1 tbsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper
2 tsps. poultry seasoning
1½ to 2 cups broth, milk or water
4 eggs, raw or hard cooked

Use 2 to 4-day old light bread for bread cubes, or dry out bread in the oven. Cut into cubes. Cook onion and celery in fat over low heat until onion is soft but not browned, stirring occasionally. Meanwhile, blend seasonings with bread cubes. Add the onion, celery and fat. Pour liquid and beaten eggs (if used raw) gradually over the surface, stirring lightly. Add more seasonings as desired. Stuffing for a 14-18 pound turkey.

Variations:

1. The proportion of cornbread and light bread may be varied to suit taste. Light bread and biscuit or cornbread and biscuit may be combined.

2. Giblet stuffing: Simmer giblets until tender. Chop and brown in the fat before adding onion and celery.

3. Parsley stuffing: Add ½ cup finely chopped parsley to bread with seasonings.

4. Oyster stuffing: Cook 1 to 2 pints of oysters in the oyster liquid until edges curl. Add to bread with seasonings. Include oyster liquid as part of liquid in stuffing. Chop oysters if they are large.

5. Pecan stuffing: Add 2 cups pecans to bread and seasonings.

GIBLET GRAVY

3 tbsps. pan drippings
3 tbsps. flour
2 cups water, broth or milk
Salt and pepper
Chopped giblets
Sliced hard cooked eggs, if desired

Cover giblets with water and simmer in a covered saucepan until tender. Drain the giblets and chop. Pour the pan drippings into a bowl leaving the brown residue in the roasting pan. Let the fat rise to the top and skim off. The meat juice under the fat should be used as part of the liquid. Place 3 tablespoons of the fat back in the roasting pan. Add flour and blend well. If desired, brown the fat and flour slightly to give additional color and flavor. Add liquid all at once. Cook, stirring constantly until uniformly thickened. Season to taste. Add chopped giblets and sliced hard cooked eggs.

FROZEN TURKEY

Thawing frozen ready-to-cook turkey before cooking saves cooking time. If not thawed first, allow 1½ times as long as usual to cook. There is no better place than the refrigerator for thawing whole birds or parts. For thawing in the refrigerator follow this guide:

Large whole bird — about 2 days
Small bird, half, quarter, half breast — at least overnight
Cut-ups (legs, thighs, drumsticks) — 3 to 9 hours

Large parts or small whole birds may be thawed at room temperature (around 70 degrees) if cooked immediately after thawing. This method takes at least an hour per pound of bird, and so is not advisable for very large birds.

It is sometimes convenient to combine room temperature thawing and thawing at about 40 to 45 degrees. Allow a large turkey to stand in a cool kitchen (around 70 degrees) for a day. Then put it in the refrigerator overnight and roast the next day.

ROASTING HALF TURKEY

Tie tail and leg of half turkey together. Place bird cut side up. Sew loose skin at neck to form a pocket. Fill loosely with stuffing. Rub body cavity with salt and then stuff. Cut heavy paper or aluminum foil and lay over stuffing. Lace across, catching skin on each side. Or mound stuffing on heavy paper or aluminum foil on rack and place bird over stuffing. Rub skin with fat. Roast at 300 degrees in the same manner as for a whole turkey except the half is not turned.

ROASTING TURKEY PARTS

Thighs, drumsticks and other turkey parts may be roasted. This is a practical and economical method for using turkey parts, especially for the small family. Follow same general directions as for roasting a whole turkey.

RECIPES USING COOKED OR LEFT OVER TURKEY

3 tbsps. butter or margarine
4 tbsps. flour
1 cup broth
1 cup milk
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. paprika
⅛ tsp. pepper
1 tsp. finely grated onion
1½ cups diced cooked turkey

Melt fat, add flour and stir over low heat until blended. Add Cook, stirring constantly until uniformly thickened. Then set over hot water. Add the seasonings and turkey and heat thoroughly. Add more seasoning if desired. Serve over biscuit, toast, plain or fried noodles or rice. Serves 6.

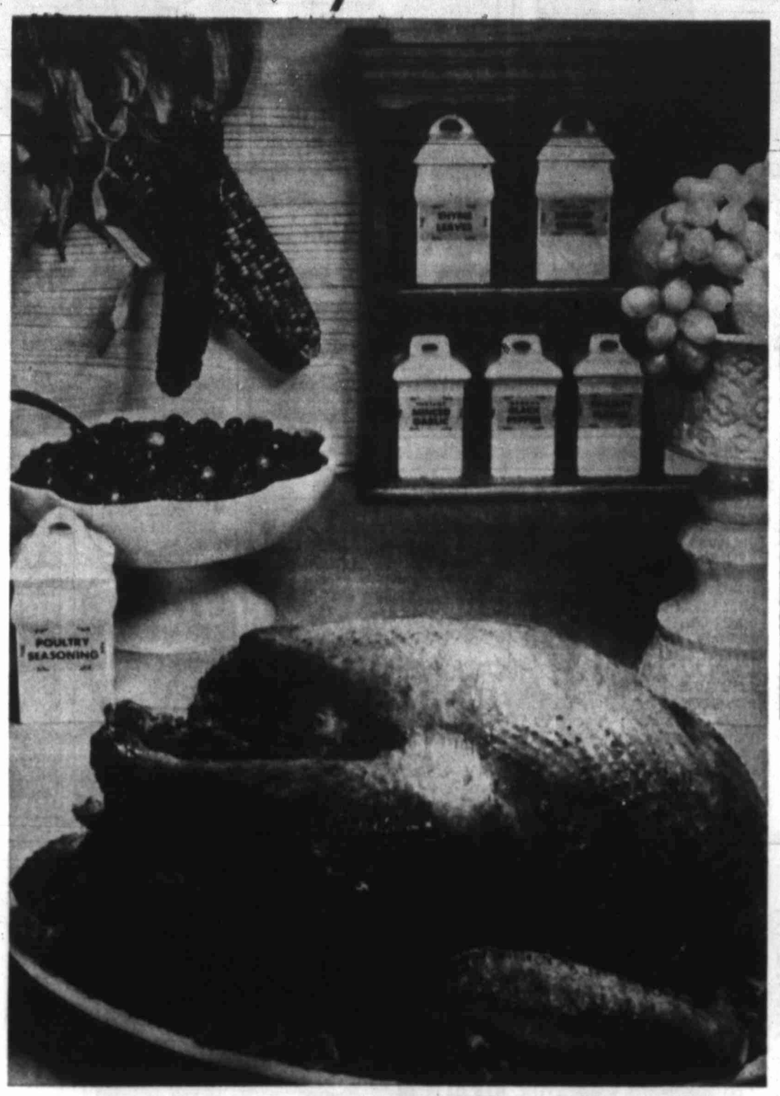

Note: If creamed mixture is thicker than desired, thin with hot milk or water.

Turkey A La King: Cook ¼ cup finely chopped green pepper in the butter or margarine for a few minutes before adding flour. Proceed as for Creamed Turkey. Add 1 chopped pimiento and a small can (4 oz.) well-drained mushrooms with seasonings.

Turkey Terrapin: Prepare Creamed Turkey reducing the turkey meat to 1 cup. Just before serving add 4 chopped hard - cooked eggs and ¼ cup chopped ripe olives.

Creamed Turkey and Pineapple: Prepare Creamed Turkey. Just before serving add ½ cup well - drained canned, shredded pineapple or ½ cup finely diced fresh pineapple and ¼ cup slivered almonds. Top with Parmesan cheese and place in broiler as far as possible from heat. Broil until top is lightly browned.

Turkey Rarebit Style: Prepare Creamed Turkey reducing the turkey meat to 1 cup. Add a well - drained 4 oz. can of mushrooms. Just before serving stir in ½ cup grated Cheddar cheese and chopped pimiento (canned). Serve over toast. For variation top each serving with a slice of pineapple heated in its own juice or sauteed in a small amount of fat.

Surprise Family With New Chestnut Stuffing

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

This Thanksgiving give your turkey epicurean treatment. Stuff the bird with a dressing rich with chestnuts and sausage.

A few cautions about chestnuts. To make sure the nuts are in their best fresh state, choose ones that are large and heavy for their size, with shells that are shiny and free from cracks. Store the chestnuts in a cool airy place until you use them.

RECIPE

Follow the recipe directions carefully for roasting the nuts. High heat is called for because it keeps the chestnuts from drying out. Make absolutely certain that you slit the nuts well, or they are likely to blow up in the oven — and that's a big nuisance.

This recipe for dressing will do beautifully for a nine to 12 pound ready-to-cook turkey. After stuffing our bird we rubbed the entire outside with soft butter and put the turkey on a rack in the roasting pan. Then at the start of the roasting, we placed a sheet of extra-strength aluminum foil (creased down the center to make it into a "tent") loosely over the bird; this method does away with the usual fat-drenched cloth. You can anchor the foil at one end by pressing it down over the end of each drumstick. But do not enclose the bird tightly, or it will steam instead of roast.

BASTE BIRD

From time to time we basted the bird with the good drippings in the bottom of the pan, using one of those wonderfully handy giant tube-type basters. If you like to use a low (325 degrees) temperature, you'll need to roast the bird at least four or five hours. But allow yourself plenty of leeway because sometimes turkeys have a way of needing an extra hour.

CHESTNUT SAUSAGE STUFFING

1½ lbs. chestnuts
3 tbsps. butter or margarine
1½ lbs. link sausage, sliced
¾ cup minced onion
1½ cups hot water
Salt to taste
¼ tsp. pepper
6 cups soft bread cubes

Wash chestnuts; make long slit through shell on both sides. Bake 15 minutes in hot (500 degrees) oven. Remove shells and brown skin; chop coarsely. Melt butter in a large skillet; add sausage and onion and cook until sausage is done through.

Add chestnuts and remaining ingredients; toss together lightly. Makes enough stuffing for a nine to 12 pound turkey.

Turkey Day Bargains Announced

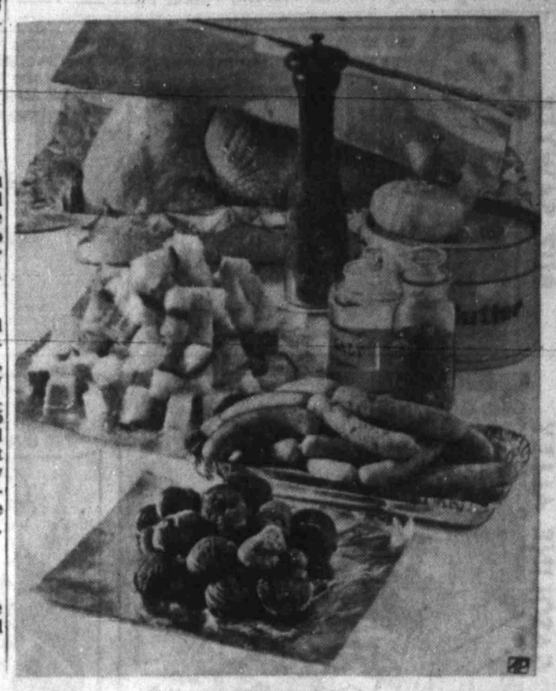

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said this year's typical Thanksgiving dinner will be a bargain.

The cost, it said, will be up only a dime from a year ago, and down 51 cents from two years ago and 75 cents from 15 years ago.

This year's increase in cost, the department said, is smaller in percentage than the year's increase in consumer incomes.

This year's feast for a family of two adults and two pre-teen children is expected to cost $5.08 compared with $4.98 last year, $5.59 ten years ago and $5.83 in 1950.

Turkey prices are about the same as last year, but price rises for some of the trimming will increase the total cost slightly. The department described a typical Thanksgiving dinner as including turkey, prepared dressing, sweet potatoes, peas, celery, olives, cranberry sauce, lettuce, tomatoes, salad dressing, ready-made pumpkin pie, beverage and rolls.

FANCY DRESSING
New mix that saves time

Make Thanksgiving Gourmets Delight

With Thanksgiving right around the corner, homemakers across the country are planning their "festive boards" with the annual fervor.

The long revered turkey's place of honor often is usurped by others of the poultry clan—duck for example. But, whatever your choice of meat on this holiday, the gravy that goes along is most important . . . and now is delightfully easy to prepare. Time honored giblet gravy — the favorite culinary accomplishment of grandmothers and granddaughters — comes in a can.

This Thanksgiving serve a Fruit and Rice Stuffed Duckling with Herbed Gravy. A colorful and flavorful center of attraction on the table . . .

FRUIT AND RICE STUFFED DUCKLING WITH HERBED GIBLET GRAVY

1 duckling (about 5 lbs.)
Salt and pepper
2 cups cooked rice
1 cup chopped celery
6 tbsps. butter or margarine
¼ cup dried apricots, cut up
¼ cup dried prunes, cut up
¾ tsp. marjoram
¼ tsp. salt
¼ cup chopped onion
1 can (10½ ozs.) giblet gravy

Sprinkle duckling with salt and pepper. Mix rice, celery, ¼ cup butter, apricots, prunes, ½ teaspoon marjoram, and salt; stuff into duckling and fasten with toothpicks or skewers. Place duckling, breast side up, in roasting pan. Roast at 325 degrees about 2 hours (25 minutes per pound), basting now and then. Meanwhile, in saucepan, cook onion with ¼ teaspoon marjoram in remaining butter until tender. Add gravy; heat, stirring now and then. Serve with duckling and stuffing. Makes 4 servings.

Experts Advise Cooking Methods

Foods and nutrition specialists for the Texas A&M Extension Service have several good tips on how to safely prepare favorite holiday foods.

You should be particularly careful in your preparation of your stuffing. This holiday treat usually contains bread crumbs, seasonings, chicken broth, fat, perhaps an egg or two, and sometimes chestnuts and meats. Chances of bacterial growth are great, because the small pieces of food are handled often when the stuffing is prepared.

Stuff the turkey just before roasting it and combine the ingredients just before cooking time. If pork is to be added to the stuffing, such as sausage, be sure it is thoroughly cooked.

You should never partially cook a bird ahead of time. If you do, the stuffing will only be warm by the time the bird is ready to be eaten. If the stuffing is not thoroughly cooked, bacterial growth will form.

You must be careful to thoroughly cook all holiday foods. In five hours, there can be enough toxin to cause illness. In seven hours, at room temperature, the possibility of poisoning is even greater.

APPLE upside-down CAKE

2 tablespoons butter
½ cup Imperial Brown Sugar*
½ cup chopped pecans
3 medium apples, pared, sliced
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup (1 stick) butter
⅔ cup Imperial Brown Sugar*
⅓ cup Imperial Granulated Sugar
1 egg
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup buttermilk
Whipped cream

In 9" x 9" x 2" pan, melt 2 tablespoons butter; spread ½ cup Imperial Brown Sugar in bottom of pan. Sprinkle with pecans; arrange apple slices on top; cover with lemon juice and put aside. Cream together ½ cup butter and remaining sugars until fluffy, light. Beat in egg and vanilla thoroughly. Sift together remaining dry ingredients; add alternately with buttermilk. Spread batter over apple slices. Bake at 375°F. for 45 minutes or until done. Place on cooling rack 10 minutes, then turn upside down on plate. Serve warm. Cut into squares and top with whipped cream.

Clay Is Advising Fans, 'Come Early'

By The Associated Press

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Floyd Patterson, who made fistic history several times in his erratic career, gets what has to be his last chance at boxing's most prized crown when he takes on heavyweight champion Cassius Clav tonight.

The onetime boy wonder of the ring, knocked out by Sonny Liston in the first round here 28 months ago, is a 3-1 underdog to the all-conquering 23-year-old Clay at Convention Center in a 15-rounder that very few believe will go more than a few rounds.

Patterson, two-time holder of the title and the youngest ever to win it at 21, will be pitting the dynamite of his leaping left hook against the speed and power of the taller and heavier defender.

The consensus is that if the 30-year-old 6-foot New Yorker doesn't nail the 6-foot-3 Clay early with a jarring hook, he will crumble from the jolting jabs and flashing, two-hand combinations of the Louisville Lip.

Clay, cocky and confident as a Las Vegas night club comic with a 10-year contract, had a couple of parting words to newsmen Sunday:

"Come early," he said.

"If I take him out in one round, people will say it's a fix," said Clay, or Muhammad Ali, as he prefers to be called. "If I give him a hard beating and knock him out in the seventh or eighth round, people gonna say I'm cruel."

The betting is 5-6 and take your pick—even money in man-to-man odds — that the fight won't go more than five rounds.

It will be broadcast by ABC radio and telecast by closed circuit to more than 200 outlets in the United States and Canada. It also will be beamed via Early Bird satellite to early-morning viewers in theaters in the British Isles.

Starting time for the title fight will be about 7:30 p.m. or 10:30 p.m., EST.

Both he and Clay were examined Sunday and declared in excellent physical condition by Dr. Donald Romeo, chief examining physician of the Nevada Athletic Commission.

Patterson's record is 43-4, including 32 knockouts. He has been stopped three times — once by Johansson and twice by Sonny Liston.

Everyone knows about Clay's record of 21 straight, 17 of them by knockouts, since turning pro after his 1960 triumphs in the Olympic Games. The Greatest doesn't let anyone forget.

Clay figured to outweigh his rival by about 11 pounds, 206 to 195.

5-A ALL-STAR

Stanton Lands Two On Team

Stanton landed two men on the offensive all-district team of District 5-A, and one of them was one of two unanimous picks.

Buddy Shanks, the Buffaloes' classy quarterback who made it as a sophomore last year, was a unanimous choice as was Danny Shaver of Seagraves. Phillip Payne, Stanton, was a choice for offensive guard, and he and Shanks were the only juniors.

Milton Edwards, Tahoka, Shaver, Curtis Northcutt, Wink, Dan Cooke, Plains, were two-way choices for the all-district group picked by the coaches.

OFFENSE

DEFENSE

Interior guard—Lenard Menjarez, Wink, senior; tackles—Milton Edwards, Tahoka, and Danny Smith, Plains, seniors; ends—John Warren, Wink, and Harold Swawn, Plains, seniors; interior linebackers, Danny Shaver, Seagraves, Dan Cooke, Plains, and Curtis Northcutt, Wink, all seniors; halfbacks—Jerry Cummings, Seagraves, junior, Gary Tomlinson, Tahoka, senior, and Buddy White, O'Donnell, junior.

Honorable mention — Lamonth Batchelor and Ronnie Creek and Tim Raper, Wink; Harold Bressire, Cliff Thomas and Danny Colburn of Tahoka; Dennis Crutcher, and Alvis Faulkenberry, Plains; Bert Decker, Tommy Carr and Freddy Newman (sophomores) of Stanton; Phil Nash, Dennis McKenzie and James Reasonover, of Seagraves.

Bearkat Tilt Due At Crane

GARDEN CITY—The Garden City Bearkats, champions of District 3-B, will tangle Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Crane with Sierra Blanca, district 4-B champs, in a bi-district eight-man football game.

Garden City had a rugged test against Imperial Friday, took a buffeting, but emerged victorious and in good physical condition.

The task will be to stop Sierra Blanca's passer, Tommy Wells, a 6-3 boy who weighs in at 175 and fires a rifle shot, and speedy Jose Morales. Sierra Blanca had to pull out all stops Friday to edge Fort Hancock 19-18 to gain the bi-district round. Sierra Blanca is 5-3 for the season.

Tikcets for the game are available at the office of Superintendent Roy Thruston for $1 adults and 50 cents students. At the gate in Crane adults will cost $1.25.

Colts' Orr Out, In To Help Win

By The Associated Press

Jimmy Orr has set a National Football League record.

He's the fastest in-out-in patient in NFL history.

The slender flanker back suffered an injured right shoulder in the second period at Baltimore Sunday, and later went to a nearby hospital for X-rays. By the fourth period he was out of the hospital and back in the game — and helped the Colts to their eighth straight victory, 34-24 over the Philadelphia Eagles.

Orr, whose injury proved to be a pulled musle, returned to Memorial Stadium with seven minutes to play and the Colts holding a tenuous 27-24 lead. While the crowd of 60,238 roared, he raced dramatically onto the field and directly to the Colts huddle.

Johnny Unitas and Lenny Moore hooked up on a 47-yard pass on the first play, then on the second Unitas lofted a 22-yarder to Orr in the end zone — and the game was clinched.

By winning, the Colts raised their record to 9-1 and maintained their one-game lead in the Western Division over Green Bay. A ferocious defense fired a 28-point final quarter that enabled the Packers to rout the Minnesota Vikings 38-13.

The Cleveland Browns, with two key interceptions in the closing moments, added to their Eastern lead with a 24-17 decision over the Dallas Cowboys.

New York's surprising Giants tied St. Louis for second place with a 28-15 victory over the Cardinals as defensive back Dick Lynch starred.

Gale Sayers' touchdown run in the third quarter and a tough defense led the Chicago Bears over the Detroit Lions 17-10; Tommy Davis' 23-yard field goal with six seconds to play gave the San Francisco 49ers a 30-27 victory over the Los Angeles Rams, and the Washington Redskins beat Pittsburgh's fumiling Steelers 31-3.

The Packers continued to suffer from offensive sluggishness, but their defense destroyed the Vikings in a last-period uprising. A 47-yard touchdown pass in the opening seconds of the final quarter, Bart Starr to Boyd Dowler, gave Green Bay a 17-13 edge.

Then Ray Nitschke's recovery of Bill Brown's fumble set up a Packer touchdown, Doug Hart scored another on a 20-yard run with another Brown fumble. Herb Adderley intercepted a Minnesota pass, and Lionel Aldridge fell on a Viking fumble that led to the game's final TD.

Lynch set up the first Giant touchdown against St. Louis with a pass interception on Buddy Humphrey, subbing for the injured Charley Johnson, and scored the clincher on a 60-yard run with a fumble ecovey. Earl Morrall passed for three New York touchdowns.

The 49ers made a stirring fourth - quarter comeback against the Rams, with John Brodie's TD passes to Ken Willard and Dave Parks and Davis' two conversions tying it at 27-27.

The Redskins converted two Steeler fumbles and a pass interception into two touchdowns and a field goal. Sonny Jurgensen also threw a 47-yard scoring pass to Angelo Coia, and rookie Richie Harris got the other Washington touchdown with a 57-yard punt return.

Pass Defense Defeats Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Cleveland beat Dallas 24-17 Sunday with Jimmy Brown and Frank Ryan handling the offense but it was the hawk-eyed pass defenders who really got the job done.

That and the decision of quarterback Don Meredith of the Cowboys to pass on first down on the Cleveland one-yard line when Dallas could have tied the game up with a touchdown. And, according to Coach Tom Landry, would have had the momentum to score some more and win.

Trouble was that Vince Costello intercepted the pass in the end zone and that saved the day.

Dallas got the ball on the Cleveland one when there was pass interference by Walter Beach of the Browns in the end zone. There were four minutes left.

The crowd of 76,251—largest ever to see a football game in the Cotton Bowl—thought Meredith would run for the touchdown. Don Perkins, the Dallas fullback, had been having a good day and it seemed quite logical for him to take the ball into the line.

But Meredith threw toward Frank Clarke in the end zone and Costello came up with the ball.

Pass interceptions were the despair of the Cowboys. Bernie Parrish intercepted a Meredith throw to set Cleveland up for the touchdown drive that actually won the game in the third period.

And after Costello's timely interruption of Meredith's train of thought, the Cowboys had still another chance before time ran out to get at least a tie.

Brown fumbled a pass on the Cleveland 40 with 1:40 remaining on the clock and Meredith threw to Bob Hayes on the 23. But the next Meredith pass went into the hands of Ross Fichtner and he ran back up to the Dallas 42. That settled it.

Namath's Jets Chalk Up Records

By MIKE RATHET
By The Associated Press

Joe Namath, the New York Jets $400,000 quarterback, stood in the dressing room peeling the tape off his knee brace as club owner Sonny Werblin leaned over and whispered:

"Joe, I'm ready to re-negotiate."

Namath and Werblin smiled — but no one laughed.

For Namath had just finished his first four-touchdown day ever — in high school, college or pro ball — and continued his rapid development by passing the Jets to a 41-14 victory over the Houston Oilers Sunday.

The triumph, their fourth in a row, moved the Jets into second place in the Eastern Division of the American Football League. But more significant was the fact that Namath had his best day as a pro and led the Jets to these notable achievements:

—Namath himself tied Dick Wood's record for most touchdown passes in a single game.

—Namath, who completed 17 of 26 passes for 221 yards before being relieved at the start of the fourth quarter, engineered an offense that gained a club record 522 yards over-all.

—Matt Snell gained 135 yards in 19 carries and Bill Mathis 126 in 14 tries as the team set a rushing high of 284.

—The Jets have won four in a row for the first time in the team's six-year history.

While Namath was cheered, Babe Parilli was booed, even as he passed for a fourth-quarter touchdown that brought the Patriots a 10-10 tie with Kansas City. In the only other game, Oakland took over second place in the West by downing Denver. The division leaders, Buffalo and San Diego were not scheduled.

Namath hit Don Maynard with touchdown tosses of four and 34-yards, connected with George Sauder on a play covering 20 yards and flipped a six-yarder to Curly Johnson as the Jets built a 34-0 lead. Johnson, the Jets' punting specialist, played tight end after Dee Mackey suffered a broken left collarbone in the second period.

The Raiders took over the runner-up spot with a 6-4-1 mark to San Diego's 6-2-2 by snapping a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Gus Otto ran 68 yards with an interception of a pass by Denver quarterback John McCormick for the tie-breaker, then Dave Grayson put it out of reach by racing 47 yards with another steal.

May Select Vols Opponent

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Bluebonnet Bowl selection committee was scheduled to meet today, but whether or not it would select an opponent for Tennessee in the Dec. 18 classic in Rice Stadium was problematical.

General Chairman Lou Hassell said Sunday night that six teams were still under consideration: Tulsa, Auburn, Syracuse, Duke, TCU and Colorado.

"We are not in so much of a hurry to fill the vacancy now," Hassell said, "because most of the other bowls are filled and we can wait a while and still get a good team."

Local sports writers believed Tulsa had the inside track. Tulsa has the nation's leading passer, Billy Anderson, and top pass receiver, Howard Twilley. Tulsa's record is 7-2.

Last year the Hurricanes defeated Ole Miss in the Bluebonnet Bowl 14-7.

Tennessee's record is 5-1-2. The Vols accepted the bid after whipping Kentucky 19-3 Saturday. They have two more opponents, Vanderbilt and UCLA.

Lobos Enter Semifinals

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Sul Ross State of Texas and Fairmont State of West Virginia have been chosen to complete the four-team field for the NAIA football bowl semifinals.

Sul Ross, unbeaten in 10 games, will meet Linfield of Oregon, 7-1, at Midland, Tex., Saturday evening, Nov. 27.

Fairmont, 8-0, will play St. John's of Minnesota, 9-0, Saturday afternoon in Bloomington, Minn.

The Sul Ross Lobos closed their schedule last Saturday with a 29-23 victory over last year's NAIA co-champion, Sam Houston State.

The Lobos scored 243 points in 10 games to 126 by the opposition.

Fairmont tallied 235 points and yielded 85 to eight opponents.

Spartans May Face UCLA In Post-Season Rose Bowl

By The Associated Press

It isn't often that a winner, a big winner, is in the position of resorting to the old, old lament of the losers, "Wait 'til next year."

Michigan State qualifies.

The Spartans, the No. 1 team in the country, winner of 10 straight and secure in a Rose Bowl berth, now have only to wait until next year to find out if they win the national collegiate football championship.

They took a giant step toward that title — to be determined in an Associated Press poll after the Jan. 1 bowl games — with a rousing 12-3 victory over rugged Notre Dame Saturday, completing a perfect season.

Their Rose Bowl opponent — almost certain to be UCLA — was scheduled to be announced today. UCLA, the No. 7 team in the country, upset sixth-ranked Southern Cal 20-16 Saturday for a 7-1-1 mark that may have clinched the spot.

Washington State, another contender, had its hopes dashed 27-9 by Washington. The selection committee was to meet today. If it selects UCLA, that will make the major bowl line-up look like this:

ROSE BOWL — Michigan State, 10-0, vs. UCLA, 7-1-1.

COTTON BOWL — Arkansas, 10-0, vs. Louisiana State, 7-3.

SUGAR BOWL — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 6-3.

ORANGE BOWL — Nebraska, 9-0, vs. Alabama, 7-1-1.

GATOR BOWL — Georgia Tech, 6-2-1, vs. Texas Tech, 8-2.

Arkansas, the second-ranked team in the country, wrapped up its second straight perfect season and Cotton Bowl berth with a 42-14 romp over Texas Tech, ranked No. 9. Jon Brittenum directed Arkansas scoring drives of 68, 72, 53, 73 and 69 yards that knocked Tech out of a possible Cotton Bowl spot. They settled for the Gator Bowl berth opposite Georgia Tech.

The victory was Arkansas' 22nd straight, longest in the nation. The second longest, 17, was halted at Princeton, N.J., when Dartmouth closed out a 9-0 season and won the Ivy League title by beating Princeton 28-24.

Louisiana State accepted a Cotton Bowl bid after a 62-0 rout of Tulane, while Florida backed into the Sugar Bowl, accepting a previously offered invitation after losing to Miami, Fla., 16-13. They will oppose Missouri, No. 8, which closed out with a 44-20 victory over Kansas.

Alabama, the No. 5 team in the nation, had a day off and took the opportunity to accept a bid to the Orange Bowl.

YMCA Team Looks Good

Led by Linda and Bob Tyldsley who won six first places, seven members of the Big Spring YMCA swim team racked up an impressive 82 points in a two-day meet in El Paso during the weekend.

Gina Swift won third in the 100-yard back stroke (1:25.1); fifth in 100-yd. free style (108.5); fifth in 200-yd. individual medley (3:02.0).

Carrie Bizzell won fourth in the 50-yard free style (30.6).

Linda Tyldsley won first in the 100-yd. backstroke (1:14.8), first in 100 yards fly - open (1:14.9); first in 100-yd. fly-age (1:11.9); first in 200-yd. individual medley (2:42.7); and third in 50-yd. free style (31.2).

Rick Pajot won fifth in 200-yd. breast stroke (2:55.7).

Bill Bortner won fourth in 100-yd. back stroke (1:11.8).

Bob Tyldsley won first in the 200 - yd. individual medley (2:26.9), first in the 100-yd. back stroke (1:06.0); second in 50-yd. free style (25.3); fourth in 100-yd. fly (1:06.0); fourth in 200-yd. breast (2:51.6); and fifth in 100-yd. free (57.3).

Pajot, Bortner, Tyldsley and Chuck Penn placed third and fourth in medley relays Saturday with times of 2:02.2 and 2:03.8. On Sunday they placed second and third in free relays with 1:46.4 and 1:47.4.

Steer Statistical Lead Matches Win-Loss Edge

The Big Spring Steers finished with a 6-4 season, and most of the statistics showed a comparable bulge.

During the season, the Steers rushed and passed for 2,604 yards, compared to 2,007 for the opposition. In fact, the Steers led in every department, including fumbles to the opposition.

Joe Jaure was the leading rusher with 506 yards, but Bobby Griffin had the best average carry with 8.3 in picking up 449 yards. Jaure, who carried 76 times, averaged 6.7. Van Tom Whatley's 35 completions for 525 yards led this division, while Greg Pate, who came on late, had 28 completions for 299. Wayne Nail caught 20 passes for 203 yards to lead this division.

Jaure snared 11. Pate averaged 39.7 yards on 31 punts, a respectable figure in any league.

Foyt Wins Duel In Memorial

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Veteran A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., won a red-hot duel with 1965 United States Auto Club champion Mario Andretti Sunday to capture the 16th annual Bobby Ball Memorial 200 mile auto race.

Andretti led most of the race after winning the pole position with a world record qualifying performance for a one mile closed track. A cracked axle on the 193rd lap forced him to settle for second.

Andretti, of Nazareth, Pa., qualified at 121.41 miles per hour on the Phoenix International Raceway mile oval.

An Avenue Of Escape For Gibson

Coahoma's Johnny Gibson (40) finds running room as his teammates block down field for him. The action occurred in Saturday night's Class A bi-district battle at Andrews, won by Coahoma, 51-14. No. 72, his blocking assignment carried out, is Mike Butler. No. 82 is Howard Gregory. (Photo by Danny Valdes)

Hawks To Open Season Tonight

The curtain goes up on the current edition of the Howard County Jayhawks basketball team at 8 p.m. today in the HCJC gym.

Coach Buddy Travis could hardly have picked a sterner test for his charges, because the visiting Cisco team is nationally ranked. At home Saturday night, Cisco plastered Clarendon College, 82-62.

Travis, who witnessed the game, was impressed, especially by Frank Biggers, Colorado City lad, who hooped 26 points for Cisco. Preston Sherrard had 21 points and Johnny Sellers had 16 points each for Cisco.

Obviously, the Hawks have to slow these three as well as show if they have offensive power themselves.

Season tickets are still on sale at the college business office and are only $5 and $3 for 12 home games. That figures out to only slightly more than 40 cents a game for adults and 30 cents for students.

A special feature of tonight's game will be a half-time gymnastics exhibition, presented by the YMCA, and featuring Pete Bauer, an ex-student star at Wisconsin University on the trampoline.

Goliad Teams To Open Play Today

Goliad Junior High School opens its basketball season at home with a trio of games here this evening against Lamesa.

The seventh graders play at 4:30 p.m., the eighth graders at 5:30 p.m. and the ninth graders at 7 p.m. The second round will come up a week from today at Goliad against Coahoma teams.

Texarkana Leads Pack

By The Associated Press

Texarkana, which stood No. 1 in the state for 10 straight weeks, starts out to show them why Friday night when the Tigers clash with twice-beaten Denison in the headline game of Class AAAA schoolboy football's opening round of the state playoffs.

The Tigers are one of 16 teams moving into the fight for the top prize. They also are just one of three undefeated, untied teams. The others are Wichita Falls Rider and Corsicana.

Rider meets Lubbock Monterey and Corsicana tackles Alice in the first round.

Dumas leads 16 teams into the Class AAA opening round. The Demons are undefeated and untied and play Odessa Ector, a two-time loser.

Brownwood, San Marcos and Donna are other teams with perfect records in the class. Brownwood's opening foe will be Lamesa, which has dropped four games.

San Marcos starts the drive back to the finals, where the Rattlers lost to Palestine last year, in a battle with Austin Lanier, which has a 7-2-1 record.

Donna, the surprise team from the south, tackles Del Rio (9-1).

Classes AA and A will be in their second round.

Iowa Park and Denver City hook up in the feature game of Class AA. It matches two unbeaten, untied teams, each of which showed plenty of muscle last week. Iowa Park tumbled Dalhart 41-24 and Denver City strapped Friona 42-13.

Other Class AA second round games send No. 1 Alpine against Fredericksburg, surprise 19-6 victor over Granbury; Lake Worth vs. Plano, DeKalb vs. Mineola, Cameron vs. Bellville, Port Acres vs. Needville, Edna vs. Hondo and Bishop vs. Edcouch-Elsa.

Class A's second round feature game will match undefeated, untied Coahoma and Sonora at San Angelo Saturday night.

Other Class A pairings send White Deer against Kress, De Leon vs. Keller, Forney vs. Honey Grove, Wills Point vs. Hallsville, Elkhart vs. Rogers, Smithville vs. Tidehaven and Three Rivers, the state favorite, against Woodsboro.

Here's how they line up this week in the four divisions:

Class AAAA (first round)

Ysleta Bel Air at Odessa Permian Saturday 2 p.m.
Lubbock Monterey at Wichita Falls Rider Saturday 2 p.m.
Dallas Hillcrest at Fort Worth Arlington Heights Friday 7:30 p.m.

Tree Shot Saves Cupit

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — Buster Cupit, a veteran pro from Longview Tex., got a little help from a tree Sunday in winning the inaugural $10,000 Alvin Dark Invitational Golf Tournament and $1,500 top prize.

He got off to a good start and quickly went five under par. Then, on the 17th hole, his tee shot seemed certain to go out of bounds. But it hit a tree limb and bounced back into play, enabling him to par the hole.

Cupit finished the round with a five-under-par 67 and a four-day total of 274, two strokes better than runners-up Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La., and Richard Crawford of Rye, N.Y. Their 276s were worth $1,050 each.

Babe Hiskey of Houston, Tex., got the best score of the tourney with a 65 on the final round. That moved him into a tie with Dutch Harrison of Ellisville, Mo., with 277s.

Alvin Dark, namesake of the tourney, got an 84 for a 315 total.

New York Yankee slugger Mickey Mantle, one of several celebrities in the event, had a 94 the final day for a 349 total.

Newcombe Whips Ashe In Finals

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Arthur Ashe of Australia got by Australian Davis Cupper Fred Stolle in his bid to win his second straight tennis singles championship in this country but then there was John Newcombe.

Ashe, who recently became the first American to win the Queensland title, lost to Newcombe, of Australia, 6-8, 7-2, 7-5, 6-1 Sunday in the final of the New South Wales Championship.

Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., also failed in her bid to win the women's singles crown, bowing in the final Sunday to Australia's Margaret Smith 6-2, 6-2.

Henderson Will Face Californians

ATHENS (AP) — Athens celebrates getting its Henderson County Junior College football team in the Junior Rose Bowl with a giant barbecue and signing of a contract to play Fullerton Junior College of California today.

The Cardinals, undefeated and untied in 10 games this season, got the bid Sunday but put off the official observance so the fans in the area might participate.

They will go to California Dec. 7 and will meet Fullerton, a team with a winning streak of 17 straight, in the bowl game at Pasadena Dec. 11.

The last Texas junior college team to play at Pasadena was Tyler in 1960.

Bob Baccarini, coach of the Cardinals, is in his first year as head man.

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two (42) days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 20th day of December, 1965, at or before 10 o'clock A.M. before the Honorable District Court of Howard County, Texas, at the courthouse of said County, in Big Spring, Texas.

Said Plaintiff's Second Amended petition was filed in said Court on the 3rd day of November, 1965, in this Cause No. 15,539 on the docket of said Court and styled WEST TEXAS COMPRESS AND WAREHOUSE COMPANY vs. P. M. HUMBLE et al, Defendants.

Plaintiff is suing in Trespass to Try Title for the title and possession of the following described tract of land:

BEING a part of the East one half of the Southeast Quarter (SE/4) of Section Twenty-six (26), in Block Thirty-three (33), Township 1-North, T&P Ry. Co. Survey, in Howard County, Texas, and described by metes and bounds as follows:

BEGINNING at iron Pipe set in Northwest corner of a certain 30 acre tract, described in deed of conveyance by M. M. Denton and wife, Mabel Denton to A. H. Bugg and L. L. Bugg dated March 1, 1930, and recorded in Deed Records of Howard County, Texas, in Vol. 90, at page 145.

THENCE S. 13 degrees E. 330 feet with west line of said 30 acre tract to point for S. W. corner of this 5 acre tract;

THENCE N. 77 degrees E. 660 feet to point for S. E. corner of this 5 acre tract;

THENCE N. 13 degrees W. 330 feet to point in North line of said 30 acre tract for N.E. corner of this 5 acre tract;

THENCE S. 77 degrees W. 660 feet to the place of beginning, comprising 5 acres of land.

Plaintiff is further alleging that it holds the title and possession of the above described land and premises under and by virtue of the five (5) year statute of limitations of the State of Texas, which it is affirmatively pleading and seeking to recover said land for a period of five (5) consecutive years claiming same under deed duly registered, and paying all taxes thereon as same become due during said period.

Plaintiff further alleges that it holds its title to the above described tract of land under the ten (10) year statute of limitations of the State of Texas, which it is affirmatively pleading and seeking under allegations of peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land for twenty-five (25) years, and under claim of right and good faith, under deeds and instruments purporting to convey and vest title to said lands in Plaintiff, which said deeds and instruments have been duly recorded in the Deed Records of Howard County, Texas.

If this citation is not served within ninety (90) days after the date of this issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

ISSUED and given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, Texas, on this the 4th day of November, A.D. 1965.

Violence Toll Climbs To 25

By The Associated Press

Twenty-five persons died violently in Texas this weekend, 18 of them in traffic accidents and another six from shootings. One man drowned.

The Associated Press tabulation began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued until midnight Sunday.

Two persons were killed Sunday afternoon when two cars met headon at the junction of Farm 1069 and Texas 35 one mile west of Aransas Pass. Dead were Mrs. Mary Anderson, 60, and John Anderson, 59, both of Ingleside.

Leonell Bueno, 24, of Donna, Tex., and Geanardo Castillo of La Blanca, Tex., died early Sunday when their car hit a tree west of Progreso on US 281.

Curtis Bryan, 22, was shot to death, apparently by a robber, while he worked as an attendant at a Houston service station.

CARS SLAM

Three persons were killed early Sunday when two cars slammed together on US 80 seven miles west of Marshall. The victims were identified as Bertie A. Forrest, 52, and Rubie Batton, 53, both of Shreveport, La., and James Ellis Scott, 19, of Alvarado.

Critically hurt in the wreck was Joe Allen Elam, 19, of Jefferson.

Norberto de la Santos, 28, was fatally shot in the back Sunday after an argument at a San Antonio tavern.

Aaron Kent Wilson, 25, was found shot to death Sunday in his Dallas apartment.

NIGHT SPOT

Erbie Mitchell, 23, died Sunday of gunshot wounds suffered early Sunday outside a Dallas night club.

Robert Edward Williams, 50, of Fort Worth and four-year-old Randy Allen of Rio Vista were killed in a car-truck collision Saturday night in Rio Vista. Four other persons were hurt.

Jerry McCreight, 22, of Fort Worth was killed early Sunday in a one-car wreck in Fort Worth.

A Houston youth, Billy Ray Verwold, was killed Saturday night in a two-car crash on US 59 in northern Harris County. Three others were injured.

A deer hunting accident in the Texas hill country took the life of a Houston area man Saturday. Real County Sheriff Olin Wright said a peace justice ruled that Walter Melching, 46, of Deer Park was accidentally shot to death by his 21-year-old son, Dwayne Melching of Pasadena. The shooting happened about 1½ miles north of Leakey, the sheriff said.

POND VICTIM

William Ingram, 35, drowned Saturday in a small fishing pond 15 miles north of Palestine.

Three-year-old Eufemia Escobena fell from a car her mother was driving and died Saturday in San Angelo.

Robert L. Wilson, 18, died at a San Antonio lounge Friday night in a gun battle.

Two cars collided in thick fog south of Bonham Saturday, killing three persons. The drivers, Jerry R. Haineline, 19, and Billy Wayne Wester, 30, and Peggy Kilgore, 17, were killed. They were from Sherman.

Atheist Gets Threat Calls

PHARR (AP)—A Rio Grande Valley Unitarian group canceled a scheduled speech by Mrs. Madalyn Murray O'Hair Sunday after Mrs. O'Hair told of telephoned threats against her life.

Andrew Ostrum of Edinburg, spokesman for the Unitarians, said Mrs. O'Hair was willing to speak despite the threats, but the group did not want to risk the "possibility of disturbance and violence."

Mrs. O'Hair, a self-avowed atheist whose suit in Maryland resulted in a U.S. Supreme Court ruling against required public school prayers, now lives in Austin with her husband and a son by a former marriage.

She and her family checked into the Texan Hotel here Friday night and left Sunday, several hours before she was scheduled to speak.

A spokesman at the hotel said the hotel had received calls warning of a "loss of business" if Mrs. O'Hair spoke.

Gunshot Poses Mystery In Fire Deaths

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—State police were investigating today the shotgun wounding of a farm couple and the cause of a fire that killed seven of their 13 children.

The parents and six older children escaped the flames that destroyed their log house in a remote farm area Saturday night.

State Trooper John Sherosick, a fire marshal heading the investigation, would say only that it was a "mysterious fire."

The father, Paul Bordner, 38, said he did not know the source of the shotgun blast, only "that it was a shotgun." He said he kept several guns in the house.

SAW BLAST

"The woman (his wife) said she saw the blast, but we don't know who fired it," said Bordner. He was treated for pellet wounds in the arm at a hospital and was discharged.

Bordner and his oldest son, Harold, 17, tried in vain to save the victims, who ranged in age from one to 10.

Bordner said the blast aroused him and his wife from their sleep and enabled them to flee to safety along with their six oldest children.

Mrs. Bordner underwent surgery at Sunbury Community Hospital. She was listed in critical condition. Harold also was reported in critical condition with burns suffered while attempting a futile rescue.

The other surviving children also were hospitalized. They are Marlene, 15; Kenneth, 14; Virginia, 12; Kathy, 10, and Shirley, 9. Marlene was listed in poor condition, and all the others were fair.

SEEK CAUSE

State police investigators sought the cause of the fire in the community of Herndon, 15 miles south of this central Pennsylvania borough. They said they also were at a loss to explain the shotgun blast.

By the time firemen arrived, the two-story house was engulfed in flames. The bodies of the dead children were recovered Sunday.

The dead were: Cindy, 10; Jerry, 9; Steven, 6; Roger, 5; Ruby, 3; John, 3, and Erich, 1.

Bordner, employed by a cement-block contractor, said he and his wife were alone in the first-floor bedroom when they heard the shotgun blast. He was hit in the right arm, and his wife was hit in the left arm and stomach.

Dope Case Jolts Town In Scandal

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) — Nine young persons, including Michael J. Smith, a key figure in a teenage drinking scandal that shook this fashionable city a year ago, are free on bond today on narcotics charges.

Smith, 20, and eight friends were arrested Sunday in a predawn police raid on Smith's apartment. Eight were charged with violating the state narcotics act, and freed on bonds of $3,000 to $5,000.

TO PARENTS

The other, a 15-year-old girl, whose name was withheld, was released in custody of her parents and will be referred to juvenile authorities.

Police said a "quantity of a substance believed to be marijuana" was found in the apartment shared by Smith and Jack White, 19.

Thirteen months ago, four socially prominent Darien couples and several other adults were arrested on charges of serving liquor to minors at private parties.

The charges resulted from reported drinking at coming-out parties for two debutantes and the death of an Eastern Air Lines executive's daughter, Nancy Hitchings, 17, in an automobile accident after the parties.

Smith was convicted of negligent homicide in the death of Miss Hitchings. He has an appeal pending.

During Smith's trial, Circuit Judge Rodney S. Eielson ordered the arrests of the adults involved in the parties.

A psychiatrist and his wife Dr. and Mrs. George Hughes, appealed to the State Supreme Court their $500 fines on the charge of serving liquor to minors. The court declined to review their cases.

The others convicted did not appeal. Charges against five of the 13, including two caterers and a bartender, eventually were dropped.

SEARCH WARRANT

Acting Police Chief Hugh McManus declined to say how Sunday's raid took place, except to say that the officers had search warrants, and that the raid was "a planned affair."

Among those arrested was Glenn Carter, 20, of neighboring New Canaan. Carter had testified as a prosecution witness in Smith's trial last year.

Carter said that he and some friends were visiting Smith and White. He said none of the six boys or three girls present had marijuana on his person, as far as he knew.

Besides Smith, White and Carter, others at the apartment were Thomas Alpert, 19, and William Weir, 20, Darien; Allen G. Lanier, 19, New York City; and Marilynn Zodda, 16, and Judy Melfi, 19, Darien, police said.

Police said that because of the 15-year-old girl's presence, the boys also were charged with violating a state law dealing with injury or risk of injury to children.

The youngsters are to appear in Circuit Court Jan. 4.

Bloody Battlefield Displays New Generation's Qualities

PLEIKU, South Viet Nam, (AP) — It was not the elation of victory that stirred the American cavalrymen in the Ia Drang Valley when the fighting subsided. It was elation at being alive.

The battle at Ia Drang is bringing out the best in a new generation of Americans.

There was the lieutenant who wiped out a machine-gun post with grenades, rifle and bayonet even though he had been shot through the mouth.

There was the company commander who led his men for five hours after he had taken two serious wounds himself.

There was the medic, caught in no-man's land, who radioed his platoon leader he would stay and treat five wounded men around him. He was found the next morning, dead beside his dying patients.

The fighting brought out other qualities in some.

One soldier shot every wounded enemy soldier who moved as his decimated unit policed up a battlefield. He had heard that two days earlier three American prisoners had been found bound hand and foot and shot through the head.

He said he was exacting revenge.

There was another reason to shoot the enemy wounded lying scattered among the trees. One blew himself up with a grenade as a squad approached him, nearly taking them with him.

Another tried to pull a pin from a grenade as a medic was taking his pulse, but he lacked the strength to remove it and fell back in a faint. He was shot.

By week's end, after four major actions that brought American bloodletting to a degree never before seen in the Viet Nam war, the consensus was that the green young men of the 1st Cavalry Division had fought as well as — and possibly better than — their older brothers in Korea and their fathers in World War II.

The young cavalrymen were faced with agonizing decisions.

One company was split down the middle by withering Communist fire. As the survivors crawled away to regroup, they had to leave some wounded behind. During the night, enemy troops came near the regrouped troops, and the decision was made to bring in close artillery fire.

The shells crashed among the enemy and the wounded Americans, killing at random.

Statistically, Ia Drang has been a victory for the U.S. forces. But the troops at Ia Drang use the word victory carefully. Fighting on jungle battlefields, defending bitterly for several days and then abandoning them, they are deprived of the satisfactions of occupation.

"I'll say we've won not when I see a thousand dead enemy bodies on the battlefield," one young soldier said. "I'll believe in victory here when they stop shooting at us."

Heavy Rains Fall In East

By The Associated Press

Much of the eastern third of the nation was receiving generous rains today while fog shrouded many Midwestern cities and the water-soaked West Coast once again became the target of rain storms.

The Deep South was pounded Sunday by a combination of hail, strong winds and tornadoes.

LARGE HAIL

The northern Alabama cities of Lacey Springs and Hartsell reported golf-ball size hail. A tornado was spotted near Bridgeport, Ala.

Among Southern cities doused Sunday was Anderson, S.C., which was bathed by an inch and a half of rain during the evening. Chattanooga, Tenn., received nearly an inch during the same period, bringing the 18-hour total there to more than three inches.

Fog across the Midwest this morning restricted visibilities to a few hundred feet or less at such major air centers as Chicago.

WEST MILD

Most of the nation west of the Mississippi was experiencing clear skies and mild temperatures today. The exception was the West Coast.

Rain was expected to last through Tuesday in the Los Angeles area.
