By JOE L. BENHAM
NEW BRAUNFELS (AP)—A truck-trailer went out of control on a foggy, rain-slick highway today and smashed into a greyhound bus, killing three persons and injuring at least 10.

"They were scrambling around inside and screaming," said W. A. Kramer, who lives nearby and reached the site shortly after the battering collision.

The hospital said 10 persons were examined for injuries. Five of them hospitalized. All the bus passengers were examined. One of the dead was identified as Daniel Morse, 40, of Hollis, N. Y.

The other two persons killed on a woman, could not be identified at once and state police identification experts came here to help.

The impact knocked the bus on its side.

Kramer and the bus and truck drivers kicked out windows and the windshield to free the trapped passengers.

The truck was en route from Dallas to San Antonio. The truck was en route from San Antonio to Austin.

Kramer estimated 12 to 15 persons came out of the bus.

"Everybody acted pretty calm after we got them out," Kramer said. The passengers remained near the bus until ambulances began arriving about 20 minutes after the crash.

Kramer and motorists who stopped to help were able to remove the body of one man. Bodies of a man and woman were driven in and partially beneath the bus when it was righted.

A light rain was falling and it was "real foggy" at the time. The crash was seven miles south of New Braunfels in pre-dawn darkness at the intersection of U.S. Highway 81 and Farm Road 103. There was no immediate word on how many were aboard the bus.

Charles Brandon, 33, Garland, driver of the Central Freight Lines truck, told officers the truck went out of control as he drove north toward Austin.

He said the truck went across a grassy median strip between the north and south lanes and struck the bus broadside about six seats from the back of the bus.

Officers said the bus driver, Lawrence Clayton, 46, Dallas, pulled the bus onto the shoulder in an apparent attempt to avoid the collision. Clayton was hospitalized with head injuries.

Bodies of two of the victims were not freed from the overturned bus until two hours after the 5:15 a.m. crash.

The Greyhound superintendent in San Antonio, George Gipson, said all passengers who did not appear to be injured were taken to New Braunfels for medical examination.

South Viet Nam Palace Bombed; Diem Uninjured

By TONY ESCODA
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—President Ngo Dinh Diem's palace was bombed today, but the 61-year-old anti-Communist president escaped harm.

The government said the attack was carried out by two air force officers acting on their own.

The planes swept in low just after dawn and attacked the palace with fire bombs, rockets and machine guns. One pilot was captured.

Six hours after the attack this capital resumed its normal outward appearance except for soldiers guarding street corners.

There was no sign of a revolt to add to the difficulties of the South Viet Nam nation already fighting a war with Communist guerrillas.

Naval anti-aircraft guns just outside Saigon shot down one of the two American-made fighter-bombers which blasted the palace. Its pilot, Lt. Pham Quoc was captured.

turned alive. Civic Action Minister Ngo Trong Hieu announced.

The pilot of the second plane was identified by the minister as Nguyen Van Cu, a sublieutenant. His plane, riddled with anti-aircraft fire, was reported to have crashed landed at Phnom Penh airport in neighboring Cambodia.

Cambodian authorities arrested the pilot.

The civic action minister told a news conference the "two rebel officers," stationed at the big military airfield at Bien Hoa, 20 miles northeast of Saigon, staged an "isolated action." He said nothing was known yet as to their motives.

Glenn Has Long, Wet, Happy Day

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a long, wet, happy day on the glory trail for John H. Glenn Jr. and his family—a triumphal day of trumpets and thunderous applause and for a while officials feared the weather might keep away the crowds. They could have saved themselves some worry.

Then the Glenns slipped into their house and put their feet up in front of the fire. They had a lot to talk about, both of the past and the future.

For Monday's celebration in the capital for astronaut Glenn, the first American to orbit the earth, may be only a taste of what is to come.

As one woman among the parade crowd put it, "America has needed a hero, and now we really have one."

A hero's welcome is what the snub-nosed, grinning Marine got. It was a rainy bone-chilling day, and for a while officials feared the weather might keep away the crowds. They could have saved themselves some worry.

About 250,000 persons, by police estimates, lined Pennsylvania Avenue—the route of heroes—as the presidential limousine nosed out of the White House gate with Glenn perched high in back, grinning and waving.

From under the massed, bobbing umbrellas, the cheers came in waves. From 17 bands along the way—their brass horns blurring rain water—came the pulsing straggle of the Marine Corps hymn and other stirring marches.

As the parade swung up the avenue, Glenn, 40, sat alone high on the back seat with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, and the Glenns' children, Lynn, 14, and David, 16, sat on the jump seats.

There was no sign of a revolt to add to the difficulties of the South Viet Nam nation already fighting a war with Communist guerrillas.

Late Winter Blast Spreads Over State

By The Associated Press
Three persons died in a smash-up of a Greyhound bus and a truck on a drizzle-slick highway near New Braunfels Tuesday as severe weather spread over Texas.

Snow up to three inches fell in the Wichita Falls-Vernon area, and freezing rain and sleet glazed much of North Central Texas.

The Weather Bureau said glazing would continue through the Wichita Falls and Abilene area extending over much of the central and north portions of North Central Texas.

The glazing will come from both snow and sleet in that area while snow was expected over the Panhandle and South Plains.

Freezing rain fell about dawn at San Angelo, Abilene, Dallas, Emis and Brownwood. Sleet was reported at that time at Wichita Falls.

The freezing line at dawn extended north of a line from Paris to San Angelo.

Snow fell at Denison along with hail and rain. Wind gusts reached 37 miles an hour there, and light way overpasses iced.

In the New Braunfels crash, Charles Brandon, 33, of Garland, told officers the truck went out of control as he drove north toward Austin. He said the truck went across a grassy median strip between the north and south lanes and struck the bus broadside about six seats from the back of the bus.

Lawrence Clayton, 46, Dallas, the bus driver, pulled the bus onto the shoulder in an attempt to avoid the collision.

Polar Air Drives Into Midcontinent

By The Associated Press
Polar air drove temperatures to record lows in northern sections of the midcontinent today and a new snow storm built up power in the Rockies.

Heavy rains caused flooding in Kentucky and more rain was predicted.

The frigid air stung an area from the northern and central Rockies eastward through the Upper Mississippi Valley.

Powers Lake in northwestern North Dakota had an unofficial low of -44 degrees. Bismarck, N.D., had -26, a record low for the date. Bismarck's previous low of -24 was set in 1951.

Water rationing was ordered at Cadiz in western Kentucky after the Little River flooded the municipal pumping station. Flood waters stood four feet deep in Ky., and telephone lines were out.

More than a dozen state and federal roads were closed in central and eastern Kentucky by water, earth and rock slides.

Much of the freezing rain came from thunderstorms. Halostorms up to a half inch in diameter rained on Wichita Falls rooftops. More hail fell at Bowie.

There also was light snow across the Texas Panhandle, where the mercury plunged to 7 degrees above zero at Dalhart before sunrise.

Freezing rain covered most of Texas north and west of a line linking Paris, Dallas and San Angelo. There was rain or drizzle elsewhere, plus fog at Houston and Palestine on the coast. Temperatures downstate ranged up to a balmy 74 degrees at McAllen in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

Kennedy Makes New Plea For Aged Health Insurance Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent Congress a new and urgent plea for health insurance for the aged, "self-financed" by a $1 billion boost in Social Security taxes.

In a special health message urging lawmakers to bring the miracles of modern medicine within reach of all Americans, Kennedy also proposed:

1. A three-year, nationwide immunization drive to stamp out polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus, with Uncle Sam footing the whole bill for vaccine for every child under 5.
2. Federal loans to help build and equip centers for group practice by doctors and dentists, to stretch the supply of medical skills and improve the quality of care—especially in small towns.
3. New and expanded federal outlays totaling $182 million for mental health, control of pollution, medical research and other programs.

Two new White House bills were due to reach Congress right after the message—the mass vaccination plan and a broadened governmental attack on air and water pollution and radiation hazards.

"We can now save one out of every three victims of cancer," Kennedy told lawmakers who are just now grappling with some of his earlier health proposals.

"But far more needs to be done."

The $182 million hike in appropriation requests includes $35 million for the immunization drive, but not the costs of another program close to Kennedy's heart—an attack on mental retardation in children and adults.

His panel on mental retardation will make its reports by the end of the year, Kennedy said. With it in hand he will offer a program to discover, treat and prevent the many and obscure causes of this affliction of five million Americans.

Specific proposals to further the "group practice" plan will come later this session. Smaller communities will get priority in the loans to encourage general practitioners and specialists to pool their skills and facilities. Nonprofit and cooperative groups also will get preference, but private profit-making ventures will also qualify.

Both children and adults would benefit from the mass vaccination plan, if state and local programs are funded which qualify for federal aid.

Explosion Blamed On Leaking Gas

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP)—Firemen blamed leaking gas for an explosion which wrecked a home and sheathed a workman in flames Monday.

W. F. Plummer, 51, went to a hospital in grave condition from burns over the upper half of his body.

Fire Chief Richard Russell said natural gas accumulated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones, who were moving here from neighboring Dallas, and caused the fiery blast. Russell placed the loss at $15,000.

Spur Effort For Pact

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—A stepup in U.S. efforts to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Dutch-Indonesian dispute over West New Guinea was indicated here today. U.S. Ambassador John Rice heard for Washington, to be followed in two days by Dutch Foreign Minister Joseph Luns.

Luns discussed the West New Guinea issue with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy during the latter's stop here last weekend on his world tour. Dutch sources believe that Kennedy, who conferred with President Sukarno of Indonesia, has ideas about a new approach to the 10-year-old dispute which he will communicate to his brother, the President, after his return to Washington.

The attorney general, now in Paris, will fly to Washington Wednesday and be on hand for Luns' visit.

The United States has urged both sides to try to settle their differences without violence.

Conflicting Views On Bracero Wages

Mc ALLEN (AP)—Asst. Secy. of Labor Jerry Holleman heard farm and labor spokesmen voice conflicting views Monday on how much braceros earn in Texas.

Complaints were voiced that the domestic labor force is inadequate to meet crop growers' and ranchers' needs. One farm spokesman said the government should "get out of farming."

Holleman, former head of the state AFL-CIO, will take more testimony Wednesday at Midland.

Roy Evans of Austin, secretary-treasurer of the Texas AFL-CIO, said the bracero wage rate in the state should be at least 90 cents an hour.

Some Labor Department spokesmen have said the general wage scale of 50 cents an hour for braceros in Texas may affect domestic farm workers adversely unless the braceros draw at least 70 cents an hour.

Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg ordered the McAllen and Midland hearings to determine whether this is true.

"We in the Texas AFL-CIO believe that setting the Texas bracero rate at 70 cents an hour will be a helpful step," Evans testified.

"The last rate that should be set in Texas is 90 cents per hour, which is the national average. The rate should be no less than the national average or the state average if the state average is higher."

H. C. Petry Jr., of Carrizo Springs, chairman of the Highway Commission, said he appeared as counsel for growers in the Winter Garden area.

Sees Hike In Collections

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon says his estimate that government tax collections will increase $10.9 billion next year is "realistic and reasonable" on the basis of past performance.

Testifying at a closed House Appropriations subcommittee hearing Feb. 2, Dillon was asked to justify the estimate. Dillon—whose testimony was made public today—said he expects corporation income taxes to increase $5.2 billion in the year beginning July 1, personal income taxes to increase $3.7 billion, excise taxes to increase $500 million, estate and gift taxes $200 million, and other taxes also to go up in lesser amounts.

The predicted increase in corporation taxes, he said, is based on expectation that profits will go up almost 23 per cent.

Soviets Say Farmers Lag

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda complained today that many Russian farmers still are not prepared for spring planting, only a few weeks away.

The Communist party newspaper implied that one reason was passive resistance in some areas to new farming methods proposed by Premier Khrushchev, scheduled to go into effect this year.

The farmers' lackadaisical preparations for spring field work, nothing new in the Soviet Union, is especially serious this year, Pravda explained, because of the sharp increase ordered in crop acreage.

The Soviet Communist party Central Committee will meet next week to adopt a decision pressing into use farm acreage that previously allowed to stand fallow.

The Central Committee decision is expected to cut short an internal party debate over the grassland farming system, which Khrushchev wants to root out of Soviet agriculture. This is a conservation program of keeping some marginal land in grass.

Foreign farm experts and some Soviet specialists believe Khrushchev's plan for intensive cultivation of annual crops by doing away with the grassland system could prove disastrous for Soviet agriculture.

Midland Explosion Claims Second Victim

MIDLAND (AP)—A second Midland man died Monday night of injuries inflicted by a nitrogen blast.

L. D. Adams, 50, had suffered a skull fracture and burns Sunday night when 50 pounds of the explosive, in jelled form, blew up. Adams was pinned under a blast-bent truck.

Wayland Smith, 26, died in the blast at an oil well servicing firm. Four others were injured.

More Funds Sought For Peace Corps

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the Peace Corps must be expanded to meet a big demand, and he asked Congress for more money to do it.

He called for authorization of $83,750,000 for the corps in the fiscal year starting July 1. Last year he asked for $40 million and got $30 million.

Kennedy had provided for the increase in his budget and Monday he sent Congress the legislation he said Congress should authorize.

The added funds, he said, would permit an increase from 2,400 to 6,700 in Peace Corps volunteers.

Candidate Asks To Withdraw From Race

Frank Wilson, Democratic County Chairman, reported today that R. L. Treat had petitioned him to withdraw his name from the May 5 primary ballot.

Treat had filed for Commissioner, Precinct 2. "Business reasons" were given as the reason for his withdrawal.

Galloway will be associated with the firm since it was purchased by Eiland in 1954. Falls is a partner in the firm but will not be active in its operation. He is principal of Stanfield-Elementary School.

Galloway will act as manager of the agency. Salesmen are Howard Knipe and Joe Hampton; service manager is W. C. (Cliff) Barron; parts man is Bill Sealy; and the bookkeeper is Mrs. Charlene Morris. Mechanics at Galloway-Falls are Buddy Whittenburg and Harold Sexton. Hank Clark will join the firm next week. Tony Peralaz and Vicente Barrientez complete the staff in the wash and lubrication department.

Galloway stated that there would be no change in the policies of the agency. He said that the service department would continue to take care of the needs of the people and would stand behind every job. He also said that they are proud of the good supply of clean late model and older model used cars.

The firm will continue to operate in the same location, just east of the Pal-O-Mar Corral on the East Highway.

Altrurian Club Hears Mr. Johnson

Mr. Gerald Johnson, Work Unit Conservationist, from the Soil Conservation Service, was the speaker for a meeting of the Altrurian Club on Friday afternoon.

After being introduced by Mrs. J. C. Doward and Mrs. W. R. Bell, who were in charge of the program, Mr. Johnson spoke of our natural resources, of which, he said, there are two kinds; renewable and nonrenewable: the renewable being soil, water, forests, wildlife and plants. The nonrenewable oil, gas and minerals.

Dangers to the topsoil are erosion, wind, lack of water or fertilization for productivity.

He stated that land-owners are, in fact, only stewards of the land for fellowmen and future generations, and the duty of each is to till the land wisely, and try to replace what has been taken from it. Nature alone makes only one inch of topsoil in one thousand years. In the future there may be controlled nuclear power and pure water distilled from the salty seas that will improve productivity.

Following Mr. Johnson's talk he showed a movie film in color entitled "The Earth is the Lord's", emphasizing the need for soil conservation, which is an obligation of the present generation.

After viewing the film, members and guests were served refreshments by Mrs. H. G. Towle, hostess for the meeting.

Poll Revamped, But Buckeyes Unaffected

There were some revisions in this week's edition of The Associated Press college basketball rankings, but Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes remained unchallenged as No. 1.

For the eleventh successive week the unbeaten Buckeyes were unanimous choices for the top, collecting the first-place votes on all 47 experts on AP's nationwide panel.

Kansas State advanced one notch, moving into third past Kentucky, and Utah supplanted Oregon State in tenth place. Oregon State was upset by Idaho last Friday night for its third straight loss. Voting was done on the basis of results through last Saturday.

Otherwise, rated teams held their positions. Ohio State is the Big Ten champion. Bowling Green has wrapped up the Mid-American title and all eight of the other ranked squads are contending for major conference championships.

The rankings, based on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 tabulation with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (47)
2. Cincinnati
3. Kansas State
4. Kentucky
5. Mississippi State
6. Bradley
7. Bowling Green
8. Duke
9. Colorado
10. Utah

Flyweight Faustino Coronado of Dallas lost to Bobby Rodrigues of Minneapolis and bantamweight Chico Martinez of El Campo took a trimming from Carol Yeubank of Wichita, Kan.

Tonight heavyweight Tex Paris of Brownwood, light heavyweight Gene Gilliam of Dallas, middleweight Carson Watt of Amarillo and welterweight Manny Perez of Amarillo move into competition.

$72,000 LOOT INVOLVED

Maris, Yankees Come To Terms

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The Skyrocketing New York Yankee payroll, highest in the major leagues, reached unprecedented heights today following the signing of Roger Maris to a $72,000 contract for 1962.

With four players earning $50,000 or better and 10 others receiving $20,000 or more, the Yankee payroll is a record $600,000. The mighty rajah, who hit 61 home runs in '61, for a one-season major league high, received a 96 per cent increase Monday. He was paid $37,500 last year, when he led the American League with 142 runs batted in, 306 total bases and was voted the Most Valuable Player for the second straight time.

The 23-year old left-handed slugger this becomes the fourth highest salaried player in Yankee history. Joe DiMaggio drew $100,000 a season in 1950 and 1951. Babe Ruth was paid $90,000 a year in 1930 and 1931, and Mickey Vernon reportedly is getting $32,000 this season.

"This easily is the largest payroll in the history of the Yankee organization, or that of any other organization for that matter," said Roy Hamey, the Yankees' general manager. "We are happy to pay it. The Yankees enjoyed a good year in 1961—both financially and artistically—and APACHE JUNCTION, Ariz. (AP)—The Houston Colts should have stayed home.

The National League club encountered 23-degree weather for its first full-squad workout here Monday. It was about 30 degrees warmer in Houston.

Pitchers and catchers started work Feb. 16 and have missed three days because of rain. Usually damp Houston has received little rain this month.

the players were responsible. I hope we have an even better year in '62 and we will gladly pay the fellows accordingly."

Whitely Ford, who led the pitchers with a brilliant 25-4 record, was boosted to $50,000, the same salary commanded by Yogi Berra, the veteran catcher turned outfielder. Elston Howard, who enjoyed a spectacular season both at bat and behind the plate, was given a $10,000 raise to $42,000. Moose Skovron, the slugging first baseman, got a small raise to $35,000.

Second baseman Bobby Richardson recently signed for $25,000, pitcher Ralph Terry for $24,000; outfielder Hector Lopez for $23,500; and pitcher Bob Turley for $23,000. The latter, a $30,000 performer last year, accepted a 12 per cent cut.

Others in the $20,000 category include relief ace Luis Arroyo ($22,000), handyman Johnny Blanchard ($21,500), and third baseman Clete Boyer ($20,000).

Maris refused to predict how many home runs he would collect this season.

"I'll take them as they come," he said. "I don't believe in counting my chickens before they are hatched."

AS SFC RACE NEARS ITS USUAL HECTIC CONCLUSION

Raiders, Aggies In Crucial Contest

By The Associated Press
The next to last shots of a blistering Southwest Conference basketball campaign will be fired Tuesday night and the loudest noise may come from Lubbock, where defending champion Texas Tech tries to repel desperate Texas A&M.

The Aggies, who must win to stay in the race, could virtually hand the championship to Southern Methodist if they tumbled Tech's Red Raiders—that is, if SMU doesn't falter against the lowly but upset-minded Baylor Bears at Waco.

With two games to play, Texas Tech and SMU are tied for the lead with 9-3 records. Texas A&M is a game behind at 8-4.

A&M could win or share in the title only if it beat Texas Tech and Southern Methodist loses one or both of its remaining games. SMU still has Arkansas to play next week.

Rice, dimly in the race, plays Texas Christian at Fort Worth while Texas and Arkansas, both eliminated from contention, get together at Fayetteville.

Jan Londermilk, scoring at a 19.9 points a game clip, leads SMU into the Mustangs' final game. He tops the conference with 438 points in 22 games and leads in conference scoring with 248.

Southern Methodist beat Baylor 73-60 when they played in Dallas. But Baylor on its home court, going nowhere and playing solely for the fun of it, presents a different picture.

Raiders at home, although Tech lost two of its three games on that same home court.

Class AA All-State Released

By The Associated Press
Linden-Kildare's John Beasley and Floydada's Rodney Teague

led the way on the Class AA schoolboy basketball all-state team selected by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Both were unanimous choices, getting the maximum 70 points. Dickie Stringfellow of Cooper, James Simmons of Buna and Charles Reynolds of Brady made the other spots on the all-state team.

Teague and Reynolds have landed on two all-state teams in one year. Both were on the football all-state also.

Beasley averaged 23.6 points a game and 20.1 rebounds. He once scored 57 points in a single game. Stringfellow was next in scoring with a 24.7-point average. Reynolds averaged 20, Teague 21.9 and Simmons 15.

Only Simmons will be seen in the state tournament at Austin.

The Snyder (Texas) Daily News, Tues., Feb. 27, 1962 5

Boys' Club Quints Meet Here Tonight

Capping off the Scurry County Boys' Club basketball league play of the season will be an all-star game in the Travis Junior High gym tonight—beginning at 7:30.

Admission will be 35 cents for adults and 45-cents for students. All proceeds will be used to help defray the expense of taking the club's traveling team to the state tournament in Wichita Falls early in March. While there, the Scurry team will be competing against some of the finest young quints of their age in the state.

Tonight's game will match the stars of the six-team league which has been seeing action at the Lamar Junior High gyms.

The roster for one of the all-star teams will be composed of Jerry Boyd, Terry Headstream and Richard Mason (Thin Ten); John Brinner, Jackie Weaver and Roy Starves (Tigers); and Ken Pollard (Guns Tovar), Lloyd Pinkerton and Wayne Anderson (Green Hoops).

Opposing them will be a team made up of Don Malone, Richard Thomas and Dennis Harmon (Globetrotters); James Jones, Bennie Garrett and Ray Nokes (Jets); and Albert Rodriguez, Jimmy Ramage, Richard Garcia and Kenneth Force (Hornets).

The Globetrotters, with a helpful boost from the last-place Jets, topped the league title Saturday by nudging the Hornets 21-19, giving them a final mark of 9-2 as compared to the Green Hoops' 7-3. The Jets upset the Hoops in a 20-17 thriller to keep them from gaining a share of the title.

Other Saturday results saw the Tigers (8-5) dropping the Jets (2-3) by 16-5, the Green Hoops felling the Thin Ten (3-7) by 28-18, and the Tigers nipping the Thin Ten 12-10.

The Hornets ended up tied with the Tigers for third, both emerging with look-alike 5-5 records.

Bud On Hot Seat, Hanged In Effigy

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston Oilers, continued his search for a new football coach today, spurred by chiding from unknown critics.

Adams, who is vacationing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was hanged in effigy Monday night at the American Football League team's office building.

A sign on the paper-stuffed dummy read:

"You may not need a coach but you do need fans. Shape up, Bud. Adams has been criticized by all three Houston newspapers for letting Wally Lemm, the AFL coach of the year, move to the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League."

Lemm reportedly left because Adams refused to delegate authority.

Adams said by telephone Monday night he had not decided who will be the Oilers' coach. He said he might return to Houston Wednesday.

There were reports the job might go to Sammy Baugh, former head coach for the New York Titans who was demoted after he had words with Titans owner Harry Wismer.

Greer's 37 Points Paces Aspermont

Ella Fae Greer of Aspermont went on a 37-point scoring rampage here in Tiget Gym Monday night to almost single-handedly stave off Westbrook's girls and cap a Region VIII tournament playoff spot with a 54-42 victory.

The same scene, only a week previously, had seen Aspermont's boys dropping Westbrook 68-49 for a regional berth. The Hornets also failed down the regional title, and now poised for a shot at the state tournament plum in Austin.

Aspermont's girls will now advance into the Odessa Regional, which is slated for this Saturday. Their first-round opponent there will be Grand Falls, a team they'll meet at 11:15 a.m. Saturday.

Aspermont went into the bi-district tussle as the District 91-B titleholder, and Westbrook as the region's representative of 92-B.

GREY's 37-point top girl in the losing attack with 15 points. Judy Rame added 12 to the cause and Marie Putman 10.

The victory was number 28 for Aspermont for the season. They have lost five. Westbrook ended its campaign with a 32-4 record. Bill Teel is coach of the bi-district champs.

Hunt Testifies In Court Case

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP)—A play-by-play account of the formation of the American Football League was to continue today in U.S. District Court in a trial of the AFL's $10 million antitrust suit against the National Football League.

Lamar Hunt, founder of the AFL, testified more than four hours on the first day of the trial Monday and was on the stand when Chief Judge Rizzell C. Thomson called a recess.

Hunt, owner of the Dallas Texans of the AFL, gave a detailed account of the steps he took to organize the new league after failing to obtain an NFL franchise.

The AFL was formally organized Aug. 22, 1959, Hunt said, just one week before George Halas of the National Football League's expansion committee announced that the NFL would move into Dallas and Houston in 1961.

Houston never joined the NFL, but the Dallas Cowboys were added in 1960—the same year the AFL came into being. Both Dallas teams have operated at a deficit during the two years they have been in existence.

The suit accused the NFL of monopolizing professional football and contends the move to Dallas was made deliberately to help undermine the AFL.

One of the five attorneys for the NFL, Gerhard A. Gesell of Washington, said in his opening statement that action toward possible expansion into Dallas, Houston and Minneapolis was taken "before the American Football League was even a dream."

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas opened spring football practice Monday with 25 lettermen out. Coach Darrell Royal at first said the workouts were off, but the rain stopped and his squad took to the field.

"YOU AND YOUR SMOKED GLASSES!"

Not Only Glenn, But All Of His Kin Are Idols Of Nation

By INEZ ROBB
Col. John H. Glenn's orbital flight has not only made all of his fellow citizens stand just a little taller, but it has produced two side effects that stand out like a sore thumb.
First, everyone is simply delighted with the colonel's lady and with his parents-in-law.
"What lovely people!" one hears on all sides. "What a charming family!" is another favorite exclamation. Then the speaker is apt to add, "And so typically American!" And finally, "And all so religious, too!"
Here, in sophisticated New York where home life is supposed to be at a minimum, and in a city popularly believed to add spectacularly to the nation's divorce statistics, not only Colonel Glenn but his kids and kin are the new idols. (And who cares what happened to Marlon Brando?)
It is one woman's hunch that the Glenn family, plus in-laws, is a reminder and reaffirmation of the eternal verities that we Americans underneath our wisecracks maintain a desire: character, intelligence, simplicity, humor, honesty, level-headedness and a firm faith in God.
The Glenn family is living proof that the old values not only survive but thrive. And, what is even more important for the nation, that such values are still deeply held and revered by Americans as a whole.

It is also obvious that the families of the first two American spacemen, Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. Grissom are in the same pattern—a pattern that many citizens were beginning to believe was honored more in the breach than in the observance today.
"But it is now becoming apparent that in our national moments of truth, the Glenn, the Shepard and the Grissom family patterns are not only models of what we admire most in home life, but are widespread and still firmly fixed in the United States."
The slack-jawed gum-chewers among us may still derive some kind of thrill from reading about the Gabor, the Rita Hayworths and the Lana Turners. But when it comes time to cheer, it's the home life of the Glenns, the Shepards and the Grissoms for whom Americans let loose their buzzsaws.
Is there any citizen who doubts that these families are vastly more typical of the United States than those produced by the Tennessee Williams school of literature?

The second side effect of Colonel Glenn's astounding ride is fully as apparent as the first. Have you noticed how many men on the threshold of middle age, as is the colonel, or deep in that flexible period, have suddenly sprouted crew or butch haircuts, à la Glenn?
Half the men I know seem to have had a hedge clipper run over what hair they have managed to retain. A little swag, a new bounce, seems to go with the crew cut, as if it were a special elixir of youth.
"You'll notice that the government didn't send a boy to do a man's work," said a gentleman of fiftyish, as he ran his hand across the stubble, at a dinner party some 48 hours ago.
"You're damn right!" replied a man of the same vintage whose long-time English trim had given way to the butch treatment. "They're sending grown men to do jobs that take maturity. They've discovered that the split-second reflex isn't the sole prerogative of youth."
"Yes, sir," answered the first man with considerable satisfaction. "I guess the experts have finally learned that the instant reflex under stress requires the maturity and judgment of an adult."
"For the first time in years," added a third, shorn as Samson, "I feel I'm not headed for the scrap heap."
It was at this point that the sudden realization struck me that Colonel Glenn is to the middle-aged man exactly what Marlene Dietrich is to the middle-aged woman—a whiff of oxygen to the crumbling morale.

Glenn's Feat Is Great For Middle-Aged

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—At last the country has what it long needed—a good middle-aged man. Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. fills the bill perfectly.
By orbiting the earth three times last week he did more than merely lift America's scientific prestige in the eyes of the rest of the globe.
He made every middle-aged man in the nation stand half a head taller—and feel like there was a place in the world for him after all.
Yes, sir, Lt. Col. Glenn of the U.S. Marines made middle age downright respectable in a land which for too long has placed too much emphasis on the value of being young.
John Glenn has been dry behind the ears for some time now. He is 40, has acquired a few wrinkles, and shows considerable scalp.
If two weeks ago he had sought a new job, many firms would have automatically rejected him because of his age. Many have a policy against hiring men 40 or over. Such men are regarded as "too old."
Too old? At 40 John Glenn, who still conditions himself by running two miles a day, made the greatest leap into space of any American in history. He gave us all a badly needed lesson—that the judgment and skill which come with maturity are at least as important as the blind self-confidence and raw courage that go with youth.
Traditionally, from Alexander the Great to Rembo, we have tended to expect our heroes in both war and love to be young men. At least those who win renown by individual feats in action. Even Thomas (Stonewall) Jackson, one of the most admired leaders of the Civil War, was dead at 30.
Sgt. Alvin C. York, the most publicized hero of the first World War, was a young man. In the second World War, Audie Murphy had won about every combat medal in the books before he was old enough to vote.
Perhaps because we still think of ourselves as young people, the accent on youth has been almost as pronounced in peace as in war in this country. We have blindly venerated the young at the expense of the middle-aged and the elderly.
Thus parents come to stand in awe of their own children, and many of us begin to think that growing old is the worst of all diseases—if not a positive crime.
We cling desperately, and often ridiculously, to youth as though it were a salvation in itself—and all beyond it darkness. And the rest of the world sensibly laughs at us for this national obsession.
At 40, Glenn did more than prove himself. He opened a new vista of hope to millions of time-faded men and women by showing them that achievement and heroism are not the property of youth but are available at any age.
From now on any teen-ager who doesn't show proper respect to our years and gray hairs is likely to get himself bopped.
For in all us middle-aged there is a hero trying to get out—if he can only find the way.

Junior Editors Quiz on EMOTIONS

QUESTION: What makes you cry when you are hurt?

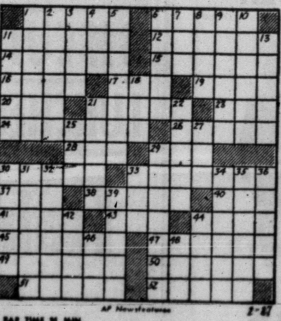

ANSWER: In the animal world, the animals survive by using their instincts. An instinct is something useful animals are born knowing and needn't be taught—such as what to eat and how to avoid danger. The human being has fewer instincts, but all children are born knowing certain useful things. A baby knows how to sneeze, for example. He knows how to yawn, and how to stretch—all without being taught. He also knows how to cry. It is a born response to something that makes him unhappy. If he is hungry or hurt, the newborn baby will cry because hunger and pain make him unhappy. As we grow up we learn to modify these instinctive activities. We don't cry unless we are very hungry. We don't stretch in the middle of class because we are taught it is rude. But when we are hurt, the first thing we do is cry. Falling down or running into something generally comes as a surprise. We forget for a moment what we have been taught, so an instinct—the instinct to cry—takes over.

FOR YOU TO DO: All instincts have a purpose. We yawn because we need more air and yawning helps us get more air. Crying, too, has a purpose. However, it becomes bad for us when it is done too often or too long. Do you cry easily? Can you stop yourself from crying?

Youth Insane At Time Of Slaying

KERMIT (AP)—Mack Herring, 18, was insane last March 22 when he killed a pretty Odessa schoolmate, a district court jury decided Monday night.

The jury of eight men and four women did not rule on his present mental state. As a result, its verdict cleared him of a murder charge in the shotgun death of Elizabeth Jean Williams, 17.

Herring said he yielded to the girl's entreaties and, after she put the weapon to her head, "kissed her goodbye and pulled the trigger." A note in her handwriting said Herring was not to be blamed.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Herring, and defense lawyers Warren Burnett shed tears at the jury's verdict. Jurors received the case late Saturday, took a week-end recess after several hours, and resumed deliberations Monday morning.

"I knew it before they came in," Mrs. Herring said of the verdict. She told a newsman she had been praying.

Both parents put their arms about young Herring's shoulders as they left the courtroom with Burnett.

The defense asked and obtained a sanity hearing as the trial of the youth on a murder charge was due to start Feb. 19.

Shortly before the jury delivered its verdict, Dist. Atty. Dan Sullivan moved for a mistrial. He contended Dist. Judge G. C. Olsen erred in instructing the jury to rule on the sanity of Herring only at the time of the shooting without considering his present mental state.

Judge Olsen denied the state's motion.

Sullivan did not indicate whether the prosecution will appeal.

Foreman Autrey Reid told the court in the afternoon that the jury was deadlocked 10-2 and unable to agree. He did not indicate how the majority stood. Judge Olsen sent the jurors back for further discussion.

Miss Williams, wearing short pajamas and a robe, met Herring near midnight last March 22 after she returned home from another date. The youth told of driving to a pond in the next county and firing the fatal shot in a parked car. Officers found the body in the pond.

Several other classmates testified Miss Williams wanted to end her life.

"I can't tell when I lost reality after she kept asking me to kill her," Herring told the jury. "I did what I thought was right."

Community Center At Knapp Okayed

In a continuation of the regular Commissioners Court meeting yesterday afternoon the court authorized the County Judge to advertise for bids on construction of a community center in the Knapp community.

A delegation had presented a request signed by 100 persons that such a center be built. It is planned that the Knapp community center will be comparable to the one at Dunn. Contract price on the Dunn center was $15,683 when it was built in April of 1959.

The motion to construct the center was passed by a three to one vote, with commissioners Herring, Mebane, and Massingill voting for, and commissioner Dabs voting against.

In other business at yesterday afternoon's meeting the court voted to cancel the dedication for public use of certain roads in the Glenn subdivision. The subdivision

MEETING OF SHS PARENTS SLATED

There will be a meeting for all senior high school parents Thursday at 7 p.m. at the high school study hall.

This meeting will be for the purpose of seeing if there is a need for some kind of parents' organization in the high school. There has not been a High School Parent-Teacher Association this year, and some parents feel a need for a closer liaison between the faculty and interested parents.

The meeting will be dismissed in time for anyone to attend the musical "Carousel."

Witnesses said Yark was shoveling snow from his driveway when he was caught by the rear wheel of the scraper and knocked under the plow.

Marquette has a snow depth of 40 inches.

Irish Republican Army Quits Fight

By COLIN FROST
DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Both sides of the Irish republican war ended today the underground Irish Republican Army's announcement that it had abandoned its terrorist war to unite the island. But Northern Ireland's government, target of the outlawed IRA's attacks, said it will keep its guard up.

The IRA declared its cease in copies of a statement slipped to front offices Monday night.

The 1,600-word statement said the IRA members had called a halt to five years of bombing and shooting attacks and had thrown away their arms.

The IRA admitted it had received support from the Irish people and blamed public apathy on government muzzling of the press. It said the IRA would embark on a campaign to keep Ireland out of involvement in European alliances which it said might lead the country into war.

Charles Haughey, minister of justice of the Irish republic, called the IRA decision good news and said the underground terrorism "was a policy which Irish public opinion had decisively rejected."

In Northern Ireland, which gives its allegiance to the British crown, Minister for Home Affairs Brian Faulkner said the IRA statement "is of course welcome."

The tragedy is that these misguided people who have carried on a futile campaign for five years have taken so long to realize its hopelessness.

He added "until it is seen that the campaign is in fact ended, our own people can be assured that security precautions will be maintained."

The IRA is an underground descendant of the Irish revolutionary forces which won independence from Britain for the southern 26

Glenn, Gagarin Are Invited To Vienna

MEXICO CITY (AP)—John H. Glenn Jr., and Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin have been invited by retired Danish industrialist Aksel-Faber to meet in Vienna as guests of his Faber Foundation.

Faber, 67, who came to Mexico in 1937 and now is a Mexican citizen, said he hoped such a meeting would contribute to understanding among the great powers. The foundation is devoted to contributing to what he called the welfare of the "elite of humanity."

Off-Beat 'Oh Dad' Funny Show

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—A very funny show has come to the Phoenix Theater.

It is called "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad" and was written by Arthur Kopit. A 30-year-old member of the dramatic avant-garde.

Witty staging and fine acting are prime factors in the antic hi-jarity exhibited in Monday night's premiere.

Jerome Robbins, tackling his first straight play assignment after long primacy in the dance director ranks, has caught the precise mood of satiric fantasy demanded by the script's "Alice-in-Wonderland" content.

Crucial portrayals are delivered by Jo Van Fleet, a veteran at emotional intricacy, and Barbara Barra, a saucy recruit from night club revues.

"Oh Dad" actually is another reworking of the pet theme of all of today's young play experimenters. Like Edward Albee, Jack Gelber and Jack Richardson, Kopit is mocking life for being devoid of real meaning.

His slant is dashing and his inventiveness beguiling. A young man—Austin Pendleton—is vaguely trying to wrench free of mom
—Miss Van Fleet—and venture into the world of "lecherous, lies and greed" represented by burnesque Miss Harris.

The whole thing is done with a mad mixture of expressionistic symbols and savage humor. The props include such weird items as a cat-eating fish and a lively corpse. Designers William and Jean Eckart deliver the required items with amusing ingenuity.

Kopit wrote "Oh Dad" in 1959
while still a student at Harvard, where it created quite an Ivy League stir. Last summer it was unsuccessfully tried in England.

Now at the Phoenix it becomes one of the season's most stimulating off-beat exhibits.

Daily Crude Flow Steady

TULSA (AP)—U.S. oil production remained steady last week for the second straight week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Average daily production was 7,451,565 barrels, down 1,101 barrels per day from the previous week.

Oklahoma production dipped 4,500 barrels to 551,500.
Texas production is averaging 2,649,540 barrels per day. Louisiana is averaging 1,313,000 and New Mexico 312,000.

'Twistometer' Made By Toledo Engineer

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A device that measures the torso torque and shake rate of dancers doing the Twist has been developed at the University of Toledo.

The "twistometer" is the brainchild of Dr. Edward T. Kirkpatrick, head of the mechanical engineering department. It was built as a stunt for a university dance.

Kirkpatrick says the device measures both quality and quantity. An enthusiastic but ragged performance causes jagged lines on an oscilloscope. A more experienced and seductive twist produces an even pattern.

Boys rate high in effort, but the girls are more skillful, Kirkpatrick said.

From me to you A DAILY VIEW

Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"... since many boast of worldly things, I too will boast... Five times I have received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. Three times I have been beaten with rods; once I was stoned. Three times I have been shipwrecked..." II Corinthians 11: 18, 24 (read verses 16-31)

Most men boast of their accomplishments and victories.
Paul's boasts sound very peculiar to our ears—lashings, beatings, stonings, shipwreck, and persecutions of many kinds. We would not boast of these.

Paul could boast, however, for he knew that he suffered these persecutions because he was successfully preaching the gospel; and the gospel was the prime interest of his life. Paul was concerned only that the good news that God is interested in men, was made available to all men, no matter what the consequences to his own body and health.

Not many of us are Pauls. We would compromise our faith or conform to society if we felt we would be persecuted or criticized.
Could it be that we are not completely convinced of the truth of the gospel?

TOURIST QUEEN—It came as no surprise to the friends of Goyle Southerland, of Harlingen, when she was chosen Rio Grande Valley Tourist Queen for the year of 1962, from a field of 19 contestants. This the latest of many honors received by this pretty high school miss whose personality is as attractive as she is. (AP Photo)

Cubans Still Think Castro Pressured

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Fidel Castro's reappearance in public after a two-week absence hasn't convinced Cuban exiles here that all is sweetness and light back home.

They still contend Castro is engaged in a critical fight for control of the government, and perhaps for his life.

Some even say Castro already has been ousted from power and is merely being kept around as a figurehead until opportunity arises to dispose of him.

Kennedy, Krush May Exchange Telecasts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union are reported to be arranging for an exchange next month of simultaneous filmed telecasts by President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev.

Informants said Monday the tentative date for the exchange is March 24 or 25. They said each leader would make a 15-minute statement, followed by translation, which would be shown in the other country.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said "there are no present arrangements" for such programs.

Other sources, however, said Salinger reached agreement in principle on such a trade with his Soviet counterpart, Mikhail Kharlamov, when the two met in Paris last month.

Presentation of the American viewpoint behind the Iron Curtain, including statements by U. S. leaders, has been a longtime U. S. objective which has met with limited success so far. Kennedy was interviewed last November by Izvestia editor Alexei I. Adzhubei, Khrushchev's son-in-law. The interview was published in the Soviet government newspaper.

While the Kennedy-Khrushchev exchange was described as a matter between the White House and the Kremlin, it was understood that details have been discussed at the current State Department talks with a Soviet delegation on renewing the U. S.-Soviet cultural exchange agreement for another two years.

The new cultural agreement, at its present stage of negotiation, was said to provide for appearances of high public figures on radio or television either in person or recorded. The Kennedy-Khrushchev exchange would be taped or filmed.

The general cultural exchange accord for 1962-63, like its predecessor, is expected to cover a broad range of visits between the two countries of performers, scientists, specialists, teachers and students, and a swapping of films and exhibitions.

Agreement was reported on upping from 50,000 to 100,000 the number of official magazines each country could circulate in the other. The Soviets now admit 50,000 copies of the U.S. Russian-language monthly American and

FDR Quoted As Seeing Soviet Power

NEW YORK (AP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt is quoted in a biography of Francis Cardinal Spellman as saying in 1943 that Russia would dominate Europe after World War II—and that he hoped Europe would be able to adjust to the situation.

Roosevelt also is quoted as telling the cardinal in a White House meeting that he planned to make an agreement by which China would get the Far East, the United States the Pacific, and Britain and Russia would divide Europe and Africa.

The biography, to be published by Doubleday and Co. Inc., as "The Cardinal Spellman Story," was written by the Rev. Robert J. Gannon, former president of Fordham University. Excerpts appear in this week's issue of Look magazine.

The archbishop's meeting with Roosevelt, Father Gannon wrote, was in September of 1943 after Cardinal Spellman had completed a six-month tour of the fighting fronts.

The biography says Cardinal Spellman kept a memorandum of the meeting, in which he quoted Roosevelt as assuming that Russia would "predominate in Europe as Britain had predominantly colonial interests."

U. S. authorities expressed hope that the State Department negotiations, under way since Jan. 31, would produce an agreement with the Russians this week.

Among items still to be settled is the pay for American artists' performances in the Soviet Union, which U. S. officials say is not commensurate with the amounts received by Russians appearing in the United States.

Parking Regulation Causes Confusion

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—While city officials try to rid streets of record February snow—more than 25 inches so far, motorists are prohibited from parking on odd-numbered sides of streets on odd days—even-numbered sides on even calendar days.

It has resulted in a blizzard of parking tickets and some confusion, topped by a woman's plea to police: "Where should I park?" she asked, "if my license plate ends in an even number?"

Space Flight Stamp Still In Demand

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is still a phenomenal demand for the four-cent stamp commemorating the space flight of John H. Glenn Jr., the Post Office Department reports.

To meet the requests of collectors, the first-day cover issue has been increased from 1 million to 1.6 million.

Two Solons Propose Medal For Astronaut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two proposals to give astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. the Medal of Honor have been introduced in Congress.

One bill, introduced Monday by Rep. Frank Chelf, D-Ky., would authorize presentation of the medal als to all seven astronauts assigned to the Project Mercury man-in-space program.

Chelf's bill also would provide bonuses of two years salary for each of the astronauts and of $5,000 to "each scientist, physicist, mathematician, engineer and technician and other persons materially and actively engaged in" Project Mercury.

The other proposal by Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., would authorize the Medal of Honor for Glenn alone.

The Chicago Cubs, seventh in the National League last season, proved that the champion Cincinnati Reds "could be had." The Cubs beat the Reds 12 times in 22 meetings.
