Results of Week's Church Attendance Given by Auxiliary

The American Legion and Auxiliary are jointly sponsoring a church attendance project in Foard County, in conjunction with the effort being made by the churches of the town to increase the attendance perceptibly during the month of April. The month has been designated as Go-to-Church month.

The American Legion is dedicated to service to God and country and its child welfare program is for service to the whole child—its physical, mental, emotional and spiritual needs and so it has been resolved that the American Legion National Child Welfare division be instructed to contact the authoritative leaders of all religious faiths to pledge wholehearted co-operation through the Legion posts to the end that more children will be reached with spiritual training.

The Legion and Auxiliary in Foard County are sponsoring an attend-church and Sunday School campaign and are glad to note an increase on last Sunday over the preceding Sunday. The following report is incomplete but as far as possible to ascertain gives the attendance in the various churches.

Crowell Baptist, 201; Crowell Methodist, 197; Crowell First Christian, 60; Crowell Catholic, 65; East Side Church of Christ, 45; West Side Church of Christ, 58; Assembly of God, 99; Freewill Baptist, 39; Foard City Church, 120; Thalia Methodist, 42, Thalia Baptist, 97; Thalia Church of Christ, 85; Margaret Baptist, 25. No report was made from Margaret Methodist or Good Creek Freewill Baptist.

Child Welfare chairman for the Legion is W. B. Tysinger and Child Welfare chairman for the Auxiliary is Mrs. Bob Whitaker.

Baptist Doctrines Will Be Discussed Wednesday Nights

Rev. N. B. Moon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, states that on Wednesday night, April 16, he will begin a general and informal discussion on Baptist Doctrines.

Rev. Moon goes on to say "Since 'Ideas Have Legs' it makes a great deal of difference as to what we believe. You hear the expression so often 'It does not make any difference what you believe.'

"But this is a false conception. It makes all the difference in the world what you believe. The Bible teaches certain things, and these truths must be embraced and practiced if maximum efficiency is to be attained in our spiritual efforts.

"For some eight Wednesday nights, from eight to nine o'clock, the New Testament teaching concerning the church, salvation by grace, eternal security of the believer, baptism, and other vital doctrines will be reviewed.

"Anyone interested in thinking along these lines should plan to be present. All of us who sincerely think and pray in regard to the vital truths set out in the New Testament will naturally be more efficient in our Christian efforts," Rev. Moon concluded.

Go-to-Church Month Continues with Effort for Church Attendance

Warren Everson, pastor of the Assembly of God Church emphasizes the effort for large attendance at church services in Crowell and community through the month of April with further plea for united effort on the part of all to the realization of the cause.

He speaks of the importance of Sunday School and church attendance toward the upbuilding of the spiritual life for both children and parents. He quotes Ps. 122:1, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

He quotes a touching poem which is titled, "As the Twig is Bent," which stresses the importance of taking children to Sunday School and in which a small child turns the case around by pleading with her daddy to take her to Sunday School.

The campaign continues throughout the month and all churches are uniting in the effort and keeping account of the result.

BARNYARD ART . . . Without professional instruction, Mrs. Lowell Murphy of Bethany, Mo., executed this eye-catching landscape painting on the big double doors of the Murphy barn. She has turned down many offers to paint professionally, deciding to continue work on their own farm.

Chaney Gravel Pits Yield Remains of Pre-Historics

In a fertile valley of Foard County bordering on Pease River the Chaney gravel pit is located. Here are a few acres of excavated terrain which may be pointed to as a historic spot. It contains the remains of prehistoric animals which may long antedate the Christian era, according to Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Ray of Vernon, who do considerable historical research in this vicinity.

The following interesting facts were recently released by Mr. and Mrs. Ray:

Beneath a twelve foot layer of top soil a gravel bed extends down another nine feet. Within this gravel repose the fossilized bones of animals known to science to have roamed this area during remote glacial epochs.

From upper Red River and Pease River basins have come bones of the mammoth, elephant, horse, bison and other species known to have long been extinct. A Straight Horn Bison head from the Chaney pit is of interest on account of different geological layers which indicate this specie to be fifteen to twenty thousand years old.

Excavations in other localities of the southwest have produced remains of this type Bison along with quantities of man made spearheads and flint scrapers, indicating man lived long enough in the past to go hunting for this big beast now extinct. Most interesting of these recoveries, where fossil remains and spearheads of man were found together, occured at Folsom, N. M., places in Colorado and Plainview, Texas. The latter recovery is on exhibit at Memorial Museum, Austin, Texas.

The most recent removals from this gravel pit on Pease River consists of a four foot section of an elephant tusk, anl an immense tooth having a grinding surface of three inches in width and eight inches in length. These were pronounced by competent authority to be from a large elephant-like animal long extinct.

Interest is centered in possible recovery of artifacts from this pit which may serve as important links in a cultural period of man about which little is known.

Seven of the former Nine Ranch cowhands present for the barbecue were Charley Fergeson, Henry Fergeson, Jim Bomar of Vernon, Boss Roark, Jim Minnick, Stan Westbrook and Charlie Thompson. The meal was served from an old-time chuck box which made the reunion of the cowmen more realistic.

Uncle Sam Says

This is getting-ready time for my farmer nieces and nephews. Today's plowing and investment in money and labor may or may not pay off in rich crops. There's a big IF in every farm family's life. If the sun shines, if it doesn't rain too much, if we have a drought—if, if, if. However, there's one crop which has no "if" side. It's a crop of Savings Bonds, which grows steadily, rain or shine, wind or calm, year after year until it produces $4 for every $3. My city nieces and nephews can plant this crop, too, by joining and staying on the payroll savings plan or by arrangement with their bank. U. S. Treasury Department

Two Minute Sermon
(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Mantle of Christian Charity: There died recently in our town a man who was looked upon as one of the community's outstanding citizens. He had every quality and attribute that commended him to the respect and the esteem of everyone who knew him. He was one of the town's leading business people and his going was regarded a distinct loss to the community. After his death it came out that in the settlement of his estate there was a chapter in his life that no one in the community except one man, knew about. It involved a mistake that he had made years before in another state for which he had made every effort to redeem himself and atone for in the new life he had made in the western town. Had the matter become known during his lifetime it would no doubt have destroyed his chance to build a new life and the opportunity for the good life he lived. I have thought many times of the man who knew of the past but who never revealed it to any one. In my thinking it was an example of the Golden Rule in action. It is a rebuke to those petty souls who spread cruel and malicious gossip that harms and hurts those, who, having turned from the error of their way, are seeking to build a new and better life.

Georgia produces four times as many commercial nuts as any other state in the Union.

Richmond, Virginia, produces more cigarettes than any other city in the world.

The highest railroad bridge in the world is located in Texas over the Neches River at Point Arthur.

St. Augustine, Florida, founded by the Spaniards in 1565 was America's first city of European origin.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

An equitable distribution of all the 250 buildings remaining at the Dalhart Army Air Field through sealed bid sale to the general public, with no priorities required, has been designed by the Grand Prairie regional office of War Assets Administration. In the sale, which opens April 15 and closes April 25, 48 of the structures will be offered on an individual basis. Of the balance, one group of 48 will be offered on a "lot bid" basis and another 55 in a simlar manner and the remaining 99 as a single lot. It was felt this method would enable all interested buyers throughout the Panhandle area as well as bidders from other areas to participate in accordance with their needs and interests.

A recent mark down of 10 per cent on all used cars and trucks in the Grand Prairie region of War Assets Administration affects 790 vehicles at the Red River Arsenal, Texarkana, which will go on the market in the near future. This will not affect the priority of World War veterans to first preference in buying A-1 condition vehicles on an individual basis. The reduction applies to all used passenger cars, station wagons, buses, motorcycles, schooters, trucks and trailers.

A reduction of 20 per cent on the price of wooden washers for laundries in certain dimensions in a War Assets Administration sale to be held April 17 to 25 has been announced. Twenty-one of these washers are being offered out of Camp Maxey, Paris, Texas.

Fourteen buildings from the Hearne Prisoner of War Camp were recently awarded to the Hearne independent school district to replace two principal structures lost by fire. Seven buildings from the Dalhart Army Air Field were awarded to Boys Ranch near Amarillo in furtherance of the educational program at that institution. These awards were made out of the Grand Prairie regional office of War Assets Administration.

The April monthly Grand Prairie regional set-aside list of surplus property for purchase by veterans includes six items. On the list are two types of electric motors, portable electric drills, one-fourth ton jeep trailers, single needle industrial sewing machines and wrist watches. The regional set-aside list in March only contained one item, the watches. The regional set-aside list is not to be confused with the national list, which is determined in Washington, D. C.

The major portion of the water distribution system at Camp Howze, Gainesville, Texas has been sold by War Assets Administration to five Texas and two Oklahoma cities. The purchasing cities were Vernon, Hutchins, Pampa, Denison and Gainesville, Texas, and Tulsa and Muskogee, Okla. The property consisted of 103,550 linear feet of water pipe, 202 valves, 318 fire hydrants and one 250,000-gallon storage tank.

How to Reduce Cost of Gas.—It is surprising how much you can reduce your gas cost in a year by turning off the gas before, instead of after, removing the utensils. Also do not leave a burner lighted because you expect to use it in the future.

Sing A Song

Sing a song of service,
Of cheap electric power—
Ready at your finger-tip
To lighten every hour!

MOTHER'S in the kitchen, dreaming up a meal. Grandma's in the laundry, busy washing clothes. Dad plugs in his razor, and whisks off his whiskers. Lights shine, the radio plays merrily, and Sister skims the cleaner across the bedroom rug.

This is a house with dozens of servants—dependable, willing electric servants—ready day and night to make work easier and life more comfortable. This is living the modern way—the electric way!

Yet how little it costs! Grandma can spin the dirt from six heaping tubs of wash—for only a penny! A few more pennies get Mother through her meal and Father through his beard, too. Sister can clean that rug and five others like it before her cent's worth of electricity is used up.

Dollar values for penny prices—that's the story behind every electric switch in your home. That's our song of service!

—o—

Did you ever notice that the good Book makes no promises to the rich man, the influential man, the vain and conceited man, the successful man, merely because he is rich, and influential, and conceited, and successful? Its promises are made to the honest man, the upright man, the kind man, the humble man, the charitable man, without reference to whether he is rich or poor.

The United States is the richest country in the world in that there is little poverty here as the people of other nations know it. We have become accustomed to the standard of living of this country and do not realize in what poverty and constant want most of the people of the world live. With the majority of the people of the world our merest necessities would constitute luxury. There is a belief among some thinkers that the next task of civilization is to raise the standards of those people of the world whose standard is too far below ours. They believe that a happier world and a more stable world and a greater world can be built on freedom from want. This is practical Christianity and world democracy. If we should sponsor a program that would permit people living in such want to work out in their own way a better and a happier way of life in which there was a freedom from want, we would solve without arms or armies who it is that will run this world tomorrow.

The indications are that there is going to be a good market for all the food this country can produce during the coming crop season. Countries blasted by the war have not yet gotten into production and are going to have to call on this country for food. There will be a place for every pound of grain and every pound of meat that this nation can produce, in the opinion of experts who have checked world food conditions.

What We Think
(By Frank Dixon)

I think one of the most satisfying things that can happen to a person is to come to a conclusion—a definite conclusion on a matter. It doesn't make a great deal of difference what the matter is, whether it is a personal matter that one has been struggling in his mind to settle, or a matter of larger and more general import. The satisfaction is much the same. To come to a conclusion on any matter seems to give one a settled feeling, a feeling of accomplishment and achievement—a feeling of competency within one's self that is a definite relief from the groping, floundering haze of uncertainty.

While I think one should not proceed too hastily in the matter of decisions it is better to make a few wrong decisions and correct them later than it is to stew in the juice of uncertainty for longer than the importance of the matter justifies. It is better to get it over with and out of the way that the mind may be left clear to cope with the next problem—for there will always be problems.

I have had the experience recently of coming to a decision on a matter that has interested me quite a little, that is the matter of the course that this nation should pursue in world affairs and its own domestic policy. Not that my opinion or decision makes any difference to this country or to a single individual—it doesn't. It is important to me, however, because it gives me a starting point like Greenwich from which to figure my latitude and longitude so to speak both for and against my position. I find it much more satisfactory than being whipped about like a weather vane with each new opinion and suggestion offered by this and that authority. I find that it causes me to analyze more thoroughly these opinions and test their reasonableness before accepting them or rejecting them.

Incidentally and not because it has any bearing on the subject of this discourse I am going to state briefly my decision on the position I think we should take in the world tomorrow. I give it not as an authority or a pattern for anyone else but purely as my own humble opinion.

I believe the United States should continue strong both at home and abroad. We should be just and firm in our demands and have the force to back them up—and should back them up. I believe we are capable of leading the world out of the wilderness of war and distrust to lasting peace, and that we should do it by force if necessary. I don't believe any other nation can or will. They are primarily interested in power and expansion which will defeat the aim of peace. We are not interested in either. We are interested first in world peace.

To that end I would maintain an adequate army and air force and navy. I would push to the fullest scientific and inventive genius. I would share the atomic bomb with no one. Rather I would build bigger and better bombs.

I would be the police force of the world, fair and just, but the strongest police force in the world. I would be the guardian of world peace. The cost I believe would be less than the cost of war and the dividends would be incomparably larger.

Those who make a study of such things tell us that there is no such thing as lower taxes. Taxes are going to continue to increase for the reason that everyone wants better schools and better roads and better service, all of which cost tax money. In localities where it is felt real estate taxes have reached their limit other forms of taxes are going to be devised in the form of licenses, sales taxes and local excise taxes.

GOING DOWN TO THE TEA IN SIPS . . . These solemn-faced gentlemen are the seven members of the U. S. board of tea experts as they are passing judgment on between 500 and 600 different samples of tea which has been submitted by the trade. Future tea grades will be made, the result of these tasting tests. This method of testing had not been conducted during the war years. Members of the testing board are all experts, and will not swallow any of the tea.

Some see in the present situation in which Russia is seeking to expand and occupy the Balkan states and Turkey and Greece, or at least control them, a parallel to the seizure of the Rhineland by Hitler. When Hitler was not opposed he seized more territory and continued to occupy the territory of other nations until his hand was finally called by the war. It is agreed now that if Hitler had been stopped when he first started on his march of expansion there need have been no World War II. Permitting him to proceed unmolested merely postponed the war and put him in a more formidable position. Russia is taking much the same attitude in the matter of expansion. The question is should she be stopped now—or later.

Have you stopped to think that you are a Minute Man, 1947 model, when you invest in United States Savings Bonds? The first shots in defense of your security were fired on April 19, 1775, on Concord bridge in Massachusetts. Today you stand guard over your security not with bullets but with your Savings Bonds which in the years to come will make your home the fortress it should be against financial distress. Equally important to you is the fact that your growing stack of Savings Bonds is available for attainment of personal or family goals such as a new home or education for your children. Every dollar you invest in Savings Bonds is backed by the United States Government. Savings Bonds are safe, sure, profitable—$4 for every $3 invested 10 years hence.

Investigations into the conditions that exist in Germany have brought most investigators to the same conclusion. That is, unless the rest of the world is willing to support and feed the people of Germany they must be permitted to do the things that will enable them to support themselves. This cannot be done by restricting the nation to agriculture. Germany is essentially an industrial nation. Her crowded population and the peculiar skills of her people all contribute to this. We and Russia and England are going to come soon to the realization that unless we permit Germany to return to at least a measure of her industry we are going to have to continue indefinitely to contribute to her support or choose the other alternative, allow the nation to starve.

The feeling is beginning to grow that this country cannot save Europe with loans. The relief load would be too heavy. We must make it possible for the stricken countries, Germany included, to get back on the job of supporting themselves. The nations in question are not by nature relief seekers. Their people are willing to work long hours every day if need be to earn a sustaining livelihood. Unless this is made possible they are going to deteriorate because of lack of food and human needs and because of idleness to which

Campaign Opened for Courtesy and Safety for Texas

Austin, April 8.—The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, cooperating with the Texas Motor Transportation Association and the American Trucking Association, announced the opening today of a "Courtesy and Safety" campaign for Texas highways.

"The mounting toll of deaths, injuries, and property damage in traffic crashes is a matter of grave concern to all," said John Mangrum of Dallas, president of the Texas Junior Chamber.

J. B. Rasbury of Orange, chairman of the organization's Safety Committee, called on every local Junior Chamber to participate. He said:

"I am confident that this campaign involving trucks and buses will not only help to maintain their high standards of operation, but will also encourage better driving on the part of individual motorists."

Management of trucks and buses will be asked to pledge themselves for greater courtesy and safety on the highways, "in the hope that through our efforts the streets and highways of Texas will become a safer place for all Texans to enjoy."

Management agrees in signing the pledge to strive for "the development of a spirit or morale among our personnel that will entitle them to be recognized as 'gentlemen of the highway'."

Drivers promise to "extend our best efforts to drive safely and to render courteous consideration to all other users of the streets and highways at all times," and to "do our best to avoid accidents by practicing defensive driving."

A feature of the campaign is the selection of a "driver of the month" for each city monthly during the campaign. At a dinner in his honor, this driver will receive a citation for outstanding achievement in the promotion of highway courtesy and safety.

Local "drivers of the month" will be nominated for the title of "Texas driver of the month" during the campaign, and winners of the state citation will also be given a dinner.

Cash prizes of $100, $50 and $25 will go to the Junior Chambers of Commerce who get the most pledge signers in proportion to the number of trucks located in their respective counties.

Harold Thomson and Hardy Sanders spent the Easter holidays here in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sanders. The young men attend John Tarleton College in Stephenville.

Why does the sugar shortage continue nearly two years after the close of the war? Here is one reason: B::e:f::o:r:::e:::: the reason: Before the war this country imported a great deal of sugar from the Philippines. The Philippines are now buying sugar the same as we are from the sugar producing countries. They ave not yet restored production which was destroyed by the Japs. A number of other sugar producing areas are in the same situation. Their plantations were destroyed by the war. They are buying sugar instead of exporting sugar as they did before the war. Sugar supplies are going to continue to be short until all the sugar producing countries get back into production.

Record in New Type Planes Is Expected

Engineers Say Operating Cost Will Be Lowered.

DETROIT.—More new types of aircraft will be introduced in 1947 than in any previous year in American air transportation history, it was reported at closing sessions of the annual meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

R. C. Loomis of Trans World Airline said the new planes will include the Lockheed Constellation model 649, designed for commercial use, a new Douglas DC-6, the Boeing Stratocruiser, the Martin models 202 and 303, the Convair 240 and at least two smaller craft.

The spokesman said the use of fuel injection systems will increase safety and result in lower operating costs this year. He predicted, however, that no gas turbine powered aircraft will be used in commercial service in 1947.

Another L.A.E. speaker, Capt. W. C. Latrobe of the navy department's bureau of ships, said navy ships in the future may be operated on fuels from new sources. Tests have demonstrated the possibility of running vessels on gasoline and Diesel fuels made from coal, natural gas and oil shale, he said.

W. F. Joachim of the U. S. naval engineering experiment station, Annapolis, Md., called for a new and higher order of development engineering in the Diesel engine field.

Noise reduction, elimination of vibration, more power and lighter weight are sought by the navy in Diesel engines, he reported.

Infant Mortality Rate Drops in United States

WASHINGTON. — The public health service reported that the infant mortality rate had reached the lowest point in the nation's history and appeared to be still heading downward.

The rate for 1945 was 38.3 deaths under one year old per 1,000 live births, 3.8 per cent lower than the rate for 1944. Provisional figures for the first 10 months of 1946, a health service announcement added, indicated a 3.2 decrease from the same period of 1945.

The maternal mortality rate of 2.1 per 1,000 live births for 1945 also was a new low, showing a reduction of nearly 9 per cent from the rate of 2.3 from the previous year.

The agency said one of the factors in the lowered infant and maternal mortality rates was an increase from 1944 to 1945 in the proportion of babies delivered in hospitals.

The infant mortality rate varied widely among the states from a 1945 low of 28.2 in Rhode Island and Nebraska to a high of 100.8 in New Mexico.

Nazi Loot Aids Living Victims; Teeth, Jewels Provide Funds

FRANKFURT, GERMANY. — Gold teeth and jewelry the Nazis took from people they killed in concentration camps soon will be sold to provide money for relief of the refugees who survived, military government officials disclosed.

The gold, conservatively estimated to be worth several million dollars, was stored by the Nazis in Germany's Reichsbank vaults.

By international agreement among the Allies, it was removed from German assets and allotted to the inter-governmental committee on refugees for relief work.

The committee now is preparing to sell the gold on world markets.

$3,000,000 in Gold Shipped By Plane to Bank in Mexico

NEWARK, N. J. — Wells Fargo, which once delivered gold by stagecoach in the old west, delivered a $3,000,000 gold shipment by air.

A chartered plane with more than three tons of gold ingots aboard landed at Newark airport en route from Toronto to Mexico City. The gold is being transferred from the Bank of Canada to the Bank of Mexico.

The gold was accompanied by a well-armed guard, a modern counterpart of the rifle-carrying stagecoach guard of yore.

Small Fox Terrier Is Safe After Three Days in Cave

WAYNESBORO, PA. — Tiny, a small fox terrier, was safe at home with two bruised paws, a sore nose and a tremendous appetite, the only marks of his being trapped three days in a nearby mountain cave.

The dog was set free after several men, working night and day, dug a tunnel around a huge boulder which imprisoned him.

Surgeon Removes 13 Headless Pins From Leg of School Girl

KIRKSVILLE, MO. — Dr. Paul R. Koogler, surgeon-in-chief at the hospital of Kirksville college of osteopathy and surgery, said he had removed 13 or 14 headless pins imbedded in a leg of Mary Serena Beach, 16-year-old high school junior of Sigourney, Pa.

Miss Beach registered at the hospital with symptoms of rheumatism. X-ray pictures disclosed the pins which the girl could not explain.

Record Supply Of Meat in 1947

150 Pounds for Each Person In U. S. Is Predicted by Commerce Department.

WASHINGTON. — Enough meat may be produced in 1947 to provide each person in the United States with 150 pounds—more than at any time in the last 35 years—according to the department of commerce. This finding is contained in a broad analysis of industrial trends and trade prospects for the year.

Highlights of the analysis, which the department said is "subject to the unsettled conditions of reconversion prevailing in all phases of industry and business," include these findings:

Other Findings.

FOOD SUPPLIES—There should be more butter, fish, fresh fruits and canned fruits and vegetables and juices than last year, and "prospects are that 1947 food supplies will continue at the record 1946 levels."

No changes will be observable in supplies of chicken, turkey, condensed and evaporated milk, cheese, ice cream and dried skim milk. Eggs, fresh vegetables and total milk in all forms may be somewhat more plentiful than in 1946.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES — Blended whisky should be "ample" and brandies, rum and gin, both domestic and imported, "easily obtainable." Scotch will remain scarce.

TOBACCO — Production probably will continue near record levels, and cigarette sales may top 1946 figures "despite some increase in prices."

Demand for furniture is expected to exceed supply during 1947 although the industry expects to reach peak production.

General Products.

Electrical appliances will continue to have a "seller" market into the middle of 1947.

Output and trade in hardware is expected to surpass all previous records, but plumbing and heating items seem likely to continue in short supply.

Printing and publishing industry will be hampered by paper and equipment shortages, despite improvement in output. Advertising revenue "should continue to increase as the sellers' market changes to a buyers' market and manufacturers use all the selling tools they can."

Radio production will reach new high in 1947. At least 250,000 television sets should be on the market.

About 500 million pairs of leather shoes are to be made and consumers are expected to buy about four pairs to the person.

Movies may reach into thousands of small communities as a result of development of "16-mm theaters built in communities where no regular theaters exist."

New Germ Killer Is Proved Superior to Penicillin

CHICAGO. — An extract of beef brains and other organs that has proved to be superior to penicillin in some respects has been used on mice inoculated with certain staphylococcus germs, according to the current issue of the Journal of Bacteriology.

The paper, by Leo G. Mutini and Sister Eva Maria Lynch of the Institutum Divi Thomae of Cincinnati, indicated that the brain extract held mortality to .9 per cent, as against 75 per cent for untreated mice, when used as a preventive. As a cure, it appeared to hold fatalities to zero, while rats treated with penicillin suffered 10 to 80 per cent mortality, according to size of dosage. Healing in the brain tissue group was faster than among the penicillin treated mice.

The new extract is effective either by subcutaneous injection or by mouth, the experimenters report. They now are seeking to determine whether staphylococcus germs will develop resistance to the new medicine.

Missionary's Aid Costs This Man Wallet and $18

LAWRENCE, MASS. — As 74-year-old Israel Ouelette of Methuen walked along the street here, an automobile drew alongside him and a sweet-faced, white-haired woman stepped out.

She identified herself as a missionary and said if he weren't feeling well, perhaps she could help with a blessing.

"Could feel better — a little stiff and lame today," Ouelette acknowledged. Whereupon his benefactress placed her hands on him and performed her little rite which, he later discovered, included lifting his wallet with $18.

Famous Song Writer Put on Three Years' Probation

REDWOOD CITY, CALIF. — Jimmy Campbell, 48-year-old British song writer, was on three years' probation on a charge of passing $90 worth of bad checks at a San Mateo, Calif., hotel.

Campbell, composer of "Show Me the Way to Go Home," "Goodnight, Sweetheart," "Isle of Capri" and other Tin Pan alley best sellers, still faces other charges involving checks totaling $800 in two cities.

Uncle Sam Says

You have heard people say, "why save at a time when prices are going up?" We cannot all be economists; and it is perhaps just as well, for they seem to differ a great deal among themselves about the future. But we all know this: A man who saved a dollar 10 years ago is better off today than the man who didn't; and other things being equal, the man who saves a dollar today will be better off in 1957 than the man who doesn't.

United States Savings Bonds offer you the opportunity to save at a profit. Thus every $3 you lay away now will come back to you in 1957 with an extra dollar in interest. You don't have to be an economist to know a good thing when you see it.

U. S. Treasury Department

It came as a surprise to the world when Russia approved the U. S. trusteeship of 623 Pacific islands taken from the Japs. In view of Russia's disposition to object to all proposals there is a suspicion that either Russia is going to ask for something else such as a slice of China and Japan, or else she feels she will have less concern with the islands under our control than she would have if they were under Japan's control. Of this we may be assured, there is a string tied to it some place.

New York harbor is the busiest sea port in the world.

Veterans News

A sharp upward trend in World War II veteran enrollment in Southwestern colleges and universities for the 1947-48 school year is predicted by both Veterans Administration and school officials.

Veterans studying in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi colleges now number approximately 58,000. Veterans enrolled in higher institutions of learning throughout the nation number about 1,100,000.

The peak of veteran enrollment in colleges and universities is expected during the next school year, according to VA surveys. After that, a gradual decline is predicted.

Laws under which veterans enroll for education specify that the program must be concluded nine years after the formal termination of World War II.

Nearly half the blinded veterans of World War II either are working or in training for employment, a Veterans Administration survey shows.

The survey, made by VA's Vocational Rehabilitation and Education staff, included 1,133 blinded veterans who had been discharged by the Army and Navy up to November 30, 1946.

Twenty-eight per cent were working. Another 20 per cent were in vocational rehabilitation training.

Professional and scientific courses, particularly social work, teaching and law, accounted for the largest number of veterans who were going to school. Agriculture was second.

Nearly half the blinded veterans with full-time jobs were in industrial occupations, chiefly as machine operators and assemblers. Another large group was in business and sales work.

Self-employed blind veterans were found to be engaged in such occupations as general farming, chicken raising, citrus farming, fishing bait business operator, magazine agencies, gift shops, trucking business, mechanics, musicians, clerks and tourist cabin operators.

More than 49,000 veterans of World War II were among the 103,000 patients in Veterans Administration hospitals on February 1, VA reported this week. The remaining 54,000 were veterans of World War I and other wars.

Veterans Administration estimated the World War II veterans population for March 1 at nearly 14,500,000 and the total veteran population at approximately 18,378,000.

Veterans Administration now has 268 full-time chaplains representing 29 churches in its 136 hospitals and homes.

Veterans Administration rating boards rated 345,000 cases for disability compensation or pensions during January, 1947.

Did junior ever ask you whether you ever hit a home run? This is the time of the year when questions like that one will come poppin' at pop. Well, daddy, you can look junior right in the eye and say truthfully: "Yes, son, I did many times," (that is if you are investing in Savings Bonds every payday.) Figure it out yourself. Every Savings Bond represents a four-base hit for junior's future. Even Babe Ruth couldn't hit one over the fence every time he came to bat. Step to the plate, dad, and clout one more Savings Bond into your strong box. Some day junior will stand up and cheer a real home run hitter.

THE KINGDOM ESTABLISHED

LESSON TEXT—I Samuel 9:1, 2; 11 ... 1, 20-27; 24, 25.

... God is the Lo...

A major crisis has come in the history of Israel when we left them in our study of January-March, 1946. They were ready to change their form of government. They no longer wanted God to rule them directly through his representatives, but wanted a king like other nations round about them.

God acceded to their request and instructed his servant Samuel to anoint Saul as king, and they began that period in their history which led to their ultimate captivity and disgrace. We shall study together during the next three months the facts and factors involved in the rise and fall of the nation of Israel.

Our lesson concerns their first king, Saul, the son of Kish, who promised to be a great and good king, but who failed through disobedience.

I. Saul—a Choice Man and God-Chosen King (9:1, 2; 16:1).

To begin well is to be far on the road to success. Here was a man of excellent quality, a choice young man and a goodly" — in fact, there was not among his people one who surpassed him. What a splendid recommendation for the prospective ruler!

His physical appearance was also attractive. That is not as great a factor in success as some think, but it does have a bearing on a man's influence over others.

Most important of all, this man Saul was the one whom not only the people but also the Lord had chosen. The Lord sent Samuel (15:1) to anoint Saul as king, and to give him the key to success as ruler—obedience to the voice of God.

II. Saul—an Omedient and God-Blessed King (11:12, 13).

The attitude of a man toward his enemies is often the test of his character. Bitterness, hatred, revenge, or veiled hostility with a purpose of ultimate destruction —these are the common reactions of men toward them who oppose them.

II. Saul—an Obedient and God-different in his own spirit (as we shall see later), was a man after God's own heart in his early reign, for he was obedient to the Lord.

Some "worthless fellows" despised Saul and refused to recognize him as king. The urge of the flesh to destroy them was aggravated by their own unworthiness. Some wanted to put them to death for their disloyalty to the king, but Saul in true kingly spirit, and recognizing that he reigned by the good grace of the Lord, decreed that there was to be no revenge, but rejoicing.

The story which we touch on so briefly here is one that teaches the eternal truth that the way of blessing and power is the way of obedience to the laws and the will of God.

Saul began well, but before long his pride and self-will began to assert itself and he thus brought to ruin and personal disaster that which had begun with such promise and blessing. There were many such incidents, but we consider only one.

III. Saul — a Disobedient and God-Rejected King (15:22-26, 34, 35).

God had commanded that there must be utter distruction of the Amalekites and their possessions —something like the burning of a disease-infested house—a wiping out of a king and people who were condemned of God. We may not fully understand this act of God, but if we know him we will not doubt that it was in accordance with his infinite wisdom and love.

Saul chose to disobey, later contending that it was done because of the people, that sheep and oxen had been spared for a sacrifice to the Lord. Samuel cut through his hypocrisy and declared that God wants obedience rather than sacrifice. This is a lesson that many who profess to follow the Lord have not learned.

The church or the individual who denies or disregards the teaching of God's Word and attempts to make up for it by sacrifices and ceremonies declares to the world that there has been a departure from true faith in God. Obedience is a virtue all too rare.

Too late! What sad words—and never sadder than when they speak of spiritual failure. Saul talked of repentance and prayer, but the Lord had already rejected him as king.

There comes a time when God's patience with man's disobedience is exhausted, and the door to further service is closed. It is a long, long way to the boundary line of God's patience; but mark it well, there is a boundary line!

Weekly Sermon

By Rev. Will H. Houghton, D. D., President Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Flashlight for the Future

One of the magnificent and important buildings in Washington is the Archives Building, in which the written records of the nation are preserved. Outside the massive entrance are two impressive statues. One is the huge stone figure of a man seated. A scroll is in one hand and a book in the other. Cut on the front of the pedestal are these words, "Study the past." On the other side is a feminine figure with an open book on her lap, and carved on the pedestal are the words, "What is past is prologue."

The Bible sets forth both of these phrases. The Apostle Paul practically said, "Study the past," when he wrote, "Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (I Cor. 10:11), and the entire Bible is saying that the past is only an introduction to a golden and glorious future.

The head of a business corporation recently said, "I have noticed that a good many businessmen ride on the back platform instead of out in front. That means that they see events while they are happening, or after they have happened, but they do not anticipate events and prepare to meet them intelligently." His point of view was that of the businessman trying to discern the influence of events on industry.

The student of the Scriptures is not a back platform rider. The Bible opens to his mind the course and end of the age. He knows where civilization is bound, and more than that, he knows his own destiny.

The psalmist said, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." That means the Bible not merely shows today's walk, but tomorrow's road. It reveals the duty and privileges of the present hour, but it also discloses the winding path of the future. On a country road you do not point your flashlight back to see where you have been, but ahead to see where you are going, and this Word, says the psalmist, is not merely a lamp to the feet, but a light for the path.

Directly related to this Old Testament statement is that of the apostle Peter, who said: "We have also the prophetic word made sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed in your hearts, as unto a lamp that shineth in a dark place till the day dawn and the day star arise. Knowing this first that no phophecy of the Scripture is of its own interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of men; but holy men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit" (II Peter 1:19-21).

VETERANS'

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Can the beneficiary or the family of a veteran make premium payments on his National Service Life Insurance if the veteran doesn't care to do so?

A. Yes, but the insured veteran has the right to change his beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time without consulting with or receiving the approval of anyone. He may also surrender his permanent NSLI policy for cash at any time.

Q. I am drawing retirement pay at present. Can I receive subsistence allowance while going to school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act?

A. You are entitled to draw retirement pay and still receive the full amount of subsistence allowance while in school or training. Retirement pay is not considered income from productive labor and therefore is not to be included by the veteran in his estimate of earnings filed with Veterans Administration.

Q. I obtained a G. I. home loan in June, 1945, and now would like to know if I may obtain a further loan under the amended G. I. Bill?

A. Yes. Evidently your guaranty under the original Servicemen's Readjustment Act was $2,000; therefore under the act as amended in December, 1945, you are eligible for a further guarantee of $2,000 on a real estate loan, or $1,000 on a business or non-real estate loan.

Q. Will my 10 per cent World War II disability of $13.80 be increased in event I marry?

A. No. Your compensation is based on the degree of disability and not on the number of dependents.

Q. I am an ex-WAC with an honorable discharge. I am contemplating marriage to a non-veteran and would like to know if I lose any of my rights under the G. I. Bill?

A. No.

Bridal Shower Given in Honor of Mrs. Martin Jones Friday

A recent bride, Mrs. Martin Jones, formerly Miss Yvonne McLain, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the Adelphian Club house on Friday, April 4, from 5:30 until 6:30. Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Weldon Hammonds, Mrs. Bob Whitaker and Misses Dorothy Pechacek, Rita Callaway and Fay Griffin.

Guests were greeted by Miss Griffin and presented to the receiving line composed of the honoree; Mrs. P. H. McLain, her mother, and Mrs. J. C. Jones of Thalia, mother of the groom.

Presiding at the bride's book, Mrs. Hammonds secured the signatures of the guests and directed them through the doors, decorated with wedding bells to the pretty refreshment table where Miss Callaway poured punch and Miss Pechacek served dainty cookies and multi-colored mints. Favors for the plate carried the wedding bell motif with tiny bells with "Martin-Yvonne" printed on.

The lace-covered table was centered by the punch bowl on a reflector which was banked with vari-colored sweet peas. Other spring flowers were used thriughout the reception rooms.

Mrs. Whitaker displayed the many lovely gifts arranged in the gift room.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

On March 26, Mesdames Mabel Burns and A. E. McLaughlin were hostesses to the members of the Columbian Club at the home of Mrs. McLaughlin. This was the Federation program and Mrs. R. L. Kincaid gave a talk presenting the retiring and incoming officers of District, State and National organizations.

Mrs. Grady Halbert, club president, led a discussion of the most unforgettable characters of the lives of those present and the influence these bore through the years.

The delegate to the District convention recently held in Childress, Mrs. Halbert, gave a vivid account of the work reported at the convention. She stated that the three federated clubs in Crowell each received honorable mention in the summing up of good work in the district.

On April 9th the Columbian Club members enjoyed a delightful meeting in the home of Mrs. Van W. Browning in Truscott. The study was on Natural History and the leader was Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin.

A Naturalist's Mecca, an island in the Caribbean Sea, off the coast of Panama, was described by Miss Elizabeth Elliott. "The Wilderness Belongs to the People" was discussed by Mrs. M. O'Connell. Mrs. B. W. Self told of the peony, king of flowers, and Mrs. Browning brought flowers from the wilderness to the local gardens. It being an ideal spring day and nature so depicted by each of the speakers fit into the atmosphere and made the listeners appreciate more a world of beauty and grandeur.

Delightful refreshments were served to twenty-two members and two guests, Mesdames Seth Woods and E. P. Bomar.

The school lunch program will be suspended before the end of the year. Congress won't vote the funds necessary and not many of the states can afford it.

Crowell Couple Wed in Ceremony at Henrietta

In a quiet marriage, Saturday afternoon, April 5, at 3 o'clock, Miss Doris Jeanne Breedlove became the bride of Joe Mark Magee in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church in Henrietta, with the pastor of the church officiating with the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attractively attired in a powder blue jersey dress with navy accessories. She carried out the old tradition of wearing "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue."

Mrs. Magee, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Breedlove, is a graduate of Crowell High School and also attended Texas State College for Women at Denton.

Mr. Magee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Magee and is a Crowell High School graduate, also. He served in the U. S. Army and after his discharge returned to Texas A. & M. at College Station where he was a student when entering the army. He is now a Junior and has returned to College Station following the Easter vacation. Mrs. Magee will join him at a later date.

Mrs. Rike was attending school at the time of her marriage and Mr. Rike has recently completed two years in the Navy. He is a High School graduate.

Fourth Birthday Celebration Held

Mrs. M. M. Welch entertained a group of little friends of her son, Miles, Monday afternoon at the home in celebration of his fourth birthday.

Games were played by the children, directed by Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Robert Lee, who assisted in entertaining and serving.

The pretty birthday cake, adorned with four candles, was served with ice cream to the following boys and girls: Delton Brown, Bob Borchardt, Carole Fisch, Paul Bax Ekern, Jimmie Gilmore, David Altaras, Don Welch, John Robert Lee, Patricia Prosser, Carolee Oliphant, Bobby Barker, Bennie Joe Scroggins, Max Hays and Thomas Crowell and Miles.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Mrs. W. B. Johnson and Mrs. Jeff Bruce were hostesses for a delightful Easter Tea for Adelphian Club members on April 2 at the Club House.

Mrs. D. D. Denison as leader introduced Mrs. Dick Davis, who favored the group with an accordian solo, "The Rosary."

Mrs. Denison told the beautiful Easter story illustrating it with pictures of each of the events which led up to the crucifixion of the Lord and to his removal from the Cross. She read the poems "I Am the Cross" and "My Easter Wish." She concluded with an Easter story which portrayed the humble and self-sacrificing spirit of one in order to make her contribution to an Easter service.

After adjournment, the hostesses invited the group into the dining room. The Italian linen cut-work covered table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of purple irises and jonquils encircled with a mass of pansies. Tall yellow candles cast a soft glow throughout the room. Easter bunnies, colored eggs, and flower arrangements lent an atmosphere of charm. An attractive and delicious plate carried out the Easter motif with its Easter egg in nest salad, bunny sandwiches, and white cake with Easter lily decoration. Punch was poured by Mrs. Bert Ekern.

The occasion was enjoyed by thirty member and five guests: Mrs. Dick Davis, Mrs. Henry Field, Mrs. Arthur Bell, Mrs. Tommy Johnson of San Antonio, and Mrs. Gilbert C. Walker of Dallas.

Miss Lottie Russell, program leader, talked on "The Budget and Finance" and Mrs. Inez Spencer made a talk on the subject, "Speech-making and a Hat."

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mrs. A. E. Barker entertained her son, Bobby, and several of his friends at the home on Welnesday, April 2, in observance of his fourth birthday.

After an hour of fun, the ycungsters gathered around the dining table where the pretty white birthday cake with its lighted candles formed the centerpiece. The table cover and napkins were of white crepe paper with the birthday motif in each corner in pink.

"Happy Birthday" was sung, after which the candles were blown out and sandwiches, potato chips, cake and cold pop were served and each guest received an Easter Bunny as a favor.

Following the refreshments, guests enjoyed an Easter Egg hunt, the eggs bearing the names of each little boy. Pictures were made of the group.

Before going home, cheerios were served to Denny Todd, Miles Welch, John Robert Lee, Larry Fergeson, Don Welch, Benny Fergeson, Gary Owens and the honoree. Bobby received many nice birthday remembrances.

"Undercurrent" to Appear on Rialto Screen April 13-14

One of the year's most anticipated motion pictures comes to the Rialto screen on Sunday and Monday, April 13 and 14, with the showing of "Undercurrent," co-starring Katherine Hepburn and Robert Taylor for the first time.

The suspenseful romance with a mystery background marks Miss Hepburn's first appearance on the screen since the highly successful "Without Love," and brings Taylor back before the cameras after his three years as a Navy flyer.

The plot of "Undercurrent," based on an original story by Thelma Strabel, revolves about the marital breakup between Hepburn and Taylor when the latter becomes jealous of his mysterious brother, So suspensefully has the plot been created that not until the very finish is the audience able to determine the story's ending.

Directed by Vincente Minnelli and lavishly produced by Pandro S. Berman, the action of the story covers a wide range of luxurious settings in a New England village, Washington, San Francisco, and an estate in Virginia.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church on Monday, April 7th to begin the study "The Christian and the Rrace."

Mrs. Virgil Johnson led the worship with a devotional. She read from Acts 3 and emphasized "Such as I have, give I Thee."

Mrs. Grady Halbert, who is study leader for the society, opened the new mission study with an explanation of the text, "Portrait of a Pilgrim." The author, Buell G. Gallagher, gathers the story of his friend, Dr. Dwight O'Hara, a modern pilgrim who searches for the Christian way in race relations. Dr. O'Hara, having preached on the subject, was challenged by a member of his official board to prove "that we can be Christian in race relations." He accepted the challenge and was granted a leave of three months for travel to make observations in the realm of race relations.

First, he went to Mexico where he found that one-eighth of Mexico live north of the Rio Grande. The Mexican arrives in the land of the free to live as a stranger and an outcast if not a bondsman. The Good Neighbor policy was once the keystone to the arch of hemispheric sodilarity. It is still an important part of any structure of enduring peace. But brotherly affection does not thrive in soil poisoned by racial antipathies. The post-war situation must be different. North Americans cannot afford to leave it unchanged.

Month of April Is Cancer Control Week for Entire Nation

Austin. — By proclamation of President Harry S. Truman, the month of April is Cancer Control Month throughout the nation. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is asking each citizen to consider the danger signals and secure medical advice at the first appearance of any suspicious symptom. There are many causes of cancer; the most common form of which is chronic or prolonged irritation.

One of the questions often asked is whether or not cancer is hereditary in human beings. Tendencies to form cancer may possibly be inherited, however, since the method of inheriting such tendencies is obscure, the presence of cancer in one or both parents should be merely a cause of greater alertness in looking for and recognizing suspicious symptoms on the part of family members. There is no need of a fatalistic attitude. The fact concerning heredity do not justify that.

At the first warning sign recognized, consult your physician. The early symptoms are a sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth, lips; a painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, or tongue; irregular bleeding or discharge from any natural body opening; progressive change in the size or color of a wart, mole or birthmark; persistent indigestion; persistent hoarseness or difficulty in swallowing; and a change in normal bowel habits. See your doctor about any of these signals.

Early recognization of cancer symptoms will lead to early diagnosis and treatment, and in many cases the victim can be entirely cured and live out a normal life span.

6B 4-H CLUB GIRLS MEET

The next meeting will be held on April 24.

The Canadian International Paper Sales Company, Inc., announced recently another increase of $6 a ton in the price of newsprint effective April 1, 1947. The continued advance in the price of newsprint is giving many publishers grave concern.

ONE POUND OF USED FAT FROM EACH U.S.A. FAMILY IS NEEDED EACH MONTH

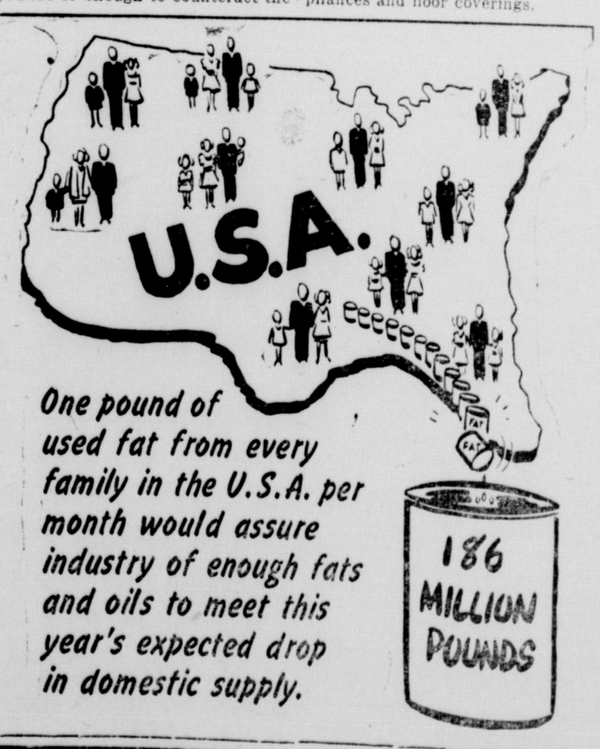

Expect Domestic Fats and Oils Supply To Be About 150,000,000 Pounds Below That of Year Ago

If each family in the United States saves and turns over to meat dealers one pound of used cooking fat per month during the first half of 1947, industry will have resources of industrial oils approximately the same as it had during the first six months of last year.

According to the Department of Agriculture, supplies of fats and oils for industrial use in this country from January to June, 1947, will be about 150 million pounds less than supplies for the corresponding period in 1946. On the basis of 31 million families in the United States, their six month total salvage would amount to 186 million pounds or enough to counteract the expected drop below last year's supply.

The reasons for this anticipated shortage of fats and oils are the depletion of reserve stocks from which to draw (as was done a year ago) and the expected slump in animal slaughter and flaxseed crops. There is only one possible source from which we can hope to alleviate this deficit — from the kitchens of American homes.

Every pound of used fat, converted into industrial oils, will increase the production of such badly needed household articles as soap, paint, textiles, electrical appliances and floor coverings.
