FREE COTTON CLASSING WILL BE AVAILABLE

New Service of Government Grader Will Save Growers of County Thousands of Dollars

Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, reported Wednesday that his plan to obtain free government cotton classification service for Scurry County's 1,500 farmers had been approved by the proper government officials.

County Agent Hyman has been working on the free cotton classification service, under terms of the Smith-Doxey Act, for the past several weeks, and received definite okey Wednesday of the service for the 1942 crop year.

Under the free cotton classification service, all Scurry County farmers will now be eligible for the classification of their cotton by competent government classifiers. Cotton from Scurry County will go to Lubbock this fall for classification.

In order to obtain benefits from the Smith-Doxey Act, county farmers have been divided into four variety groups according to the kind of cotton planted.

Scurry County gins indicated early this week they will cooperate whole-heartedly with County Agent Hyman to give all their customers full benefit of free cotton classification service.

Had Scurry County farmers who placed cotton in government loans during 1941 had the benefit of Smith-Doxey free classification facilities, they would have saved at least $3,000 Hyman states.

Since county farmers will have free cotton classification service available for 1942, those who place cotton in government loans will be saved the usual 15 cents per bale charge for classing.

Dr. Howle showed pictures, some in natural colors and some in black and white, of top performers at the county's sixth annual round-up of June 26 and 27. The pictures were described by Lions as outstanding.

Company G on North Carolina Field Maneuvers

Scurry County's Company G boys of the 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guards, are now in North Carolina on vitally important field maneuvers, The Times learns.

The following dispatch, reproduced from a daily paper, evidently referred to one or more Scurry County boys, for every Company G member is a confirmed chicken eater.

"Three Texas soldiers found that chickens grow fast over here in North Carolina.

"Tired, dusty and hungry, they stopped in a farmyard and asked a colored man where a chicken dinner might be purchased.

"'Ah don't know', he replied, 'all ah got is some three weeks old chicks'.

"'Too bad,' said the soldiers, turning to leave, 'it would be worth a dollar a plate for a good chicken dinner.'

"The colored man halted the soldiers and soon returned with the news that there were two big fryers done to a crisp brown awaiting them on the table. The soldiers enjoyed the meal and then inquired where the chickens had been obtained.

"'The same chickens I done tol' you ah had,' replied the colored man, 'but for three dollars, ah sho' knows how to make 'em grow'."

Extension on Cotton Loans Is Announced

Scurry County cotton producers were advised Tuesday that all 1941 cotton loans have been extended for an indefinite period. Texas A.&M. College, which reports the extension, says the maturity date was previously set for Friday, July 31.

The new plan, under the Commodity Credit Corporation, will continue to carry the loans, permits producers to repay their loans and obtain possession of the pledged cotton, or sell their equity after Friday in much the same manner as previous to the maturity date of the notes.

HUGE FLAG TO BE PLACED ON COURTHOUSE

McLaughlin, Williams and Members of Commissioners Court Give To Fund for Old Glory

Following a policy recently adopted by other West Texas cities, a United States flag, superimposed on a 60-foot flag pole, will soon be waving on the court house lawn, the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, working with county officials, announced Tuesday.

Move for erecting a flag pole and placing a United States flag in plain view for U. S. Air Corps men flying over Snyder, U. S. Army boys on the move and for the benefit of civilians was started late last week by the Chamber of Commerce.

County Judge Sterling Williams and members of the Commissioner's Court will donate funds for installation and erection of the flag.

C. T. McLaughlin, owner of the Diamond M Ranch southwest of Snyder, has agreed to donate the 60 feet of pipe necessary for a regulation flag pole.

Announcement made Wednesday reveals that Gail Smith, courthouse janitor, will raise and lower the flag daily in accordance with flag etiquette.

Chamber of Commerce officials find Snyder and Scurry County are in hearty accord with placing of the U. S. flag on the courthouse lawn, and believe the flag will create a greater spirit of patriotism among county residents.

Announcement concerning the dedicatory program for the flag and ceremony which will be held in connection will be released next week by the Chamber of Commerce.

Present plans call for erection of the pole immediately between the bandstand, northwest corner of the courthouse lawn, and the sidewalk facing the trio of highways which cross the square's north side.

"Plans for the 1942-1943 school year have been completed, and discussed with Ira School faculty members.

"Ira School will operate as usual, in spite of the housing handicap. Announcement and explantion of the program for the new school year will be made through The Times at the proper date."

Snyder Soldier Says Boys on Supply Line

The Times is in receipt of an appreciated letter from Corporal George W. Clark, 736 MP Battalion, Company A, Support of Embackation, Oakland, California, stating he's doing fine but working day and night.

"We're working all the time to get supplies to the troops overseas —and that's a pretty big job," Clark says. "All I can say for our boys is that they're doing a grand job, and we want our Scurry County folks to know that we're right on the supply line for the good old U. S. A."

Torpedo Crew

Scurry County Navy Enlistments shall Equal a Torpedo Crew," a newly adopted slogan for the county reads concerning the August-September drive that is being opened for enlisting men in the U. S. Navy.

The Will Layne American Legion Post is taking an active lead in the 60-day navy enlistment campaign, and urges Times readers to clip the story on navy enlistments appearing in this week's Times.

Will Layne Post Is Working With Navy Enlistment

Snyder's Will Layne American Legion Post No. 181 announced Tuesday through J. D. Pigman, recently elected commander, that it will cooperate fully with the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Big Spring, to enlist enough men in the navy during August and September from this area to equal the crews of two submarine chasers.

Interviewed by a Times reporter, Pigman states that Scurry County, with a population of 11,341 people, is expected to furnish 10 volunteers each of the two months. Slogan for the county drive is: "Scurry County Naval Enlistments Shall Equal a Torpedo Crew."

Chief S. L. Cooke, navy recruiter in charge of the Big Spring office, stated Wednesday that naval recruits would be drawn during August and September from Scurry, Borden, Andrews, Winkler, Ward, Ector, Dawson, Martin, Midland, Howard, Glasscock and Mitchell Counties.

American Legion posts in the above named counties are cooperating with other civic organizations to enlist at least 108 men during the next 60 days.

In the 60-day campaign, Legion officials stress the fact navy enlistment ages are from 17 to 50 years. Unskilled men have opportunity to attend navy trade schools. Qualified skilled men may be enlisted as petty officers, with monthly pay ranging from $78 to $126.

Continued Rainless Weather Worrying Farmers of Region

Continued dry weather the waning days of July has caused numerous crop producers, cotton buyers and ginners to become anxious over prospects for the 1942 crop.

Rain, or lack of it, during the next two weeks, will be a major factor in determining whether or not Scurry County harvests a 30,000 or 35,000 bale crop, observers declare.

Predictions on the probable 1942 cotton production are on the wanting side of the ledger, since lack of late July rainfall has caused considerable anxiety from producer and ginner alike.

With the exception of a few hard hit sections of the county, however, cotton is reported to be fruiting heavily, and remaining in excellent condition. Insect damage is reported light so far, although some dusting in various sectors of the county is said to helping in "set the 1942 crop."

Tax Rate for County Reset at $1.04 Level

Annual budget hearing of the Scurry County Commissioner's Court, held Monday in the commissioner's court room, was marked by setting of the county tax rate for 1942 at $1.04 on the $100 property valuation.

Setting of the county tax rate will maintain the same rate in effect during 1941, County Judge Sterling Williams, who presided over the budget hearing, reports.

Last year and this constitutes the first time since 1925 the county tax rate has been at the low level of $1.04.

The judge and members of the court point out that financial condition of the county is such that the $1.04 rate can be continued another 12 months—despite the fact most other West Texas counties are raising tax rates.

Fresh Rubber!

"Sprigs of Guayule!"

That's the exclamation offered these days by motorists of Snyder and surrounding territory who stop at Magnolia Service Station, one block north of the square, and view the sprigs of the rubber plant gathered from a choice source.

Motorists may find an appreciated answer to their tire shortage problems, especially if attendants can reach up on a tree and pull down a 6:00 x 16 automobile tire—not to mention tubes!

Ceiling Prices of Retailers Must Be Filed by Aug. 10

All retail merchants in Scurry County were reminded Wednesday by Giles W. Bowers, chairman of the Scurry County War Price and Rationing Board, that they must file with the local board by August 10 a list showing cost-of-living articles and their ceiling prices which the merchant has added to his stock since July 1.

Filing of such lists by the 10th of each month is made mandatory by general maximum price regulation No. 1. Many retail merchants still have not filed the initial listing of cost-of-living articles and their ceiling prices, which should have been in the hands of the Scurry County board not later than July 1.

"Failure to file that list is a violation of the general maximum price regulation," Bowers stated, "and we have been advised that the state Office of Price Administration staff is now making a field survey to determine how many merchants have not filed their list." Results of this survey, he said, are to be turned over to OPA compliance and investigation department, for immediate attention.

Any merchant who still has not obtained a copy of the general maximum price regulation, or of Bulletin No. 2—"What Every Retail Merchant Should Know About the General Maximum Price Regulations"—can get copies by applying to the office of the Scurry County War Price and Rationing Board.

Friday Final Day for Transferring Pupils

Snyder and Scurry County school patrons are advised that transfer of scholastics will be brought to a close Friday afternoon, announcement by Pat Bullock, acting county superintendent, reveals.

Those who desire to transfer children from one district to another are urged to call personally by the county superintendent's office and see if their children are eligible to transfer.

July has been the month of scholastic transfers over the state, and must be completed in all counties by Friday night.

July Bond Sales for County Behind Goal

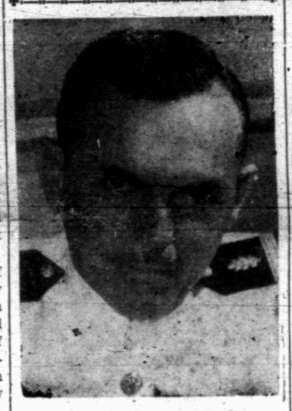

Pat Bullock, county chairman of the U. S. war bond and stamp sales, reported Wednesday noon that war bond and defense stamp sales for July stood at approximately $11,755.

Cheering news for Snyder and Scurry County purchasers of war bonds and stamps is contained in the announcement from Bullock that war bond and stamp sales through June totaled $29,000—$3,000 over the June quota.

July quota, however, in war and bond sales, is far from being reached by the $11,755 total, since Scurry County's quota for the month closing Friday stands at $49,000.

Bright side of the war bond and stamp picture Bullock declares comes into focus when it is considered Snyder and Scurry County people have purchased $245,929 worth of bonds and stamps for 1942 to date—66 per cent of the county's 1942 quota.

Adolf's Relative at Abilene Army Camp

Joseph Nachlinger, prominent farmer of the Hermleigh community, informs The Times this week that several people around Hermleigh have expressed a desire to get passes to Camp Barkeley, Abilene, and visit Louis Kozelsky, who is kin to Adolf Hitler and see what "the Nazi's relatives look like."

Kozelsky's father, Alois Kozolsky, who was a brother of Adolf Hitler's mother, recently died at East Barnard, Texas. The elder Kozelsky, who was 83, predicted four years ago that Hitler would annex France and British territory, and that the "big powers would clip Adolf's wings."

Prior to his death, the elder Kozelsky remembered Hitler in the third grade of a Moravian school as "a bad, bold boy."

Nutrition Study By Housekeeping Aide Revealing

Snyder's Housekeeping Aide Project, Alma M. Byers, supervisor, reported Tuesday, has been doing some outstanding work recently along the line of nutrition.

According to Miss Byers, the 23 Housekeeping Aides have kept a list of foods eaten for two weeks, and the list checked with the Texas Food Standard.

The following things were brought to light: About one-half of the aides had not been eating enough green and yellow vegetables; one serving of other vegetables; one serving of citrus, tomatoes, raw cabbage, strawberries or melon; one serving of fruit. About one-fourth of the aides were lacking in whole grain products and whole wheat bread. Just a few were lacking in one pint of milk daily; one quart of milk for children; three eggs a week (children need one egg daily); one serving of meat, poultry, fish or cheese daily.

The aides now know what their diets are lacking in and are correcting them.

Why not check your food for two weeks and see if you are getting a balanced diet?

The Texas Food Standard was prepared by the Texas State Nutrition Committee and issued by the Extension Service at College Station. It follows:

For a good diet I need daily: One pint to one quart milk, one egg (for children three eggs) per week, one serving meat, poultry, fish or cheese; one serving irish or sweet potatoes; one serving green or yellow vegetable; one other serving of vegetable; one serving citrus, tomatoes, raw cabbage, strawberries or melon; one other fruit serving; one serving of whole grain products; other cereals and breads as desired; butter or margarine with vitamins added; some sweets; six to eight glasses of water.

War bond and stamp purchases by Scurry-Borden highway employees for 1942 to date stand at $3,543.16, the maintenance foreman states.

With highway employees, as others Burns declares, the motto is "war bonds to bayonet the Axis."

Thanks . . .

We wish to thank the mothers and fathers of Scurry County for their splendid cooperation in bringing pictures of boys in the service for our window display. We realize there is no price that can be placed on these pictures. We realize, too, the responsibility we have had in taking care of them. For these reasons we have taken every care possible that they might not get soiled or abused.

As we look at the pictures of these fine young men, we realize more fully what the war is taking from our country. It gives every red-blooded American a stronger determination to put forth every effort and exert every effort to help win this war. We realize, too, that some of these boys will not come back—but their names will live forever in the hearts of the people of Scurry County!

TO THE MOTHERS OF THESE BOYS WE WANT TO SAY THIS—

If your boy is among those missing, remember he died with one thought in mind—and that thought was not of fear, but that those mothers back home might still have the right to raise their children on the same free soil he loved so well.

We are sorry we did not have window space to display all the pictures that were brought in. We feel sure your understand our handicap. However, we plan in the near future to display those we did not have room for. Watch The Times for an advertisement to that effect.

Those of you who have pictures at our store now may call for them next week. We assure you that the best of care is being taken of them.
Let us thank you again for your splendid cooperation.

Sheep Furnish Family Variety Of Conveniences

If you need food, comforts, or a lawn mower, a few sheep on your ranch or farm will help fill the bill. That's the opinion of E. S. Hyman, county agent and Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent. Sheep furnish meat for the table, wool for fluffy, warm comforts, and keep the premises neat, trim and free from weeds.

Lamb adds variety to meals, and is a delicious and valuable food, says Miss Rabel. One animal will furnish about 40 pounds of meat—and you can feast on leg of lamb twice, two shoulder roasts, lamb chops from the rib and loin, and stew or ground meat for patties.

And for your comfort—an average sheep will produce three pounds of clean wool each year—enough to make a good size cover. Since war conditions will make it harder to get wool scoured commercially, you can do it yourself and then card the washed wool into bats for comforts, says Miss Rabel.

Finally, Hyman says sheep help keep your farm pastures neat and free from weeds. This and the fact that they bring in extra cash when sold are ample reasons for every Texas farm and ranch stocking a few of the animals.

If you don't know how to prepare delicious lamb dishes, or need help in washing wool, consult Miss Rabel, county home demonstration agent or write to the Extension Service, College Station, for this information.

Cotton News Says Mills Operating at Above Capacity

Giving Scurry County cotton producers a week-by-week account of the cotton situation, the agricultural marketing administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, declares cotton spindles operated last week at 133.2 per cent capacity—based on an 80-hour week.

"Progress of the cotton crop was favorable," the review declares, "with light to moderate rains reported in several areas. Weevil activity is being held fairly well in check.

"The War Production Board has placed restrictions on the sale and use of certain imported and domestic varieties of extra long staple cotton in the United States. Use of designated verieties is restricted to defense orders, including Egyptian, American-Egyptian (SXP and Pima), Sea Island and Pima—imported from Peru.

"Ginning is reported to be making progress in the lower Rio Grande Valley, with very little insect damage reported. Pickers apparently are plentiful," the report concludes.

Goodwill Scouts In Snyder Boost Mertzon Camp

Treat for Boy Scouts and scouters of the Snyder District will be provided this (Thursday) morning, 10:00 o'clock, in the form of a goodwill visit by a group of Boy Scouts touring the Buffalo Trail Council to "whoop up" interest in the Scout camp that will be held August 10-15 at Mertzon.

The visiting goodwiller Boy Scouts will present a camp fire program this morning on the courthouse lawn, and will answer questions from Scouts and their parents relative to the camp.

Officials of the Buffalo Trail Council state the cost of the Mertzon camp will be $8, including transportation. Friday, August 7, will be the deadline for camp reservations. Name of the summer gathering spot is Camp Louis Farr, and activities will be directed by Jack Hodges, field executive, and Ben W. Newhouse, field executive, and volunteer leaders.

Blackhead Seen As Menace to Turkey Profits

Blackhead is one of the serious problems confronting turkey growers, with poults on one to three or four months old most affected, says E. S. Hyman, county agent of Scurry County. The source of the disease is a one-cell organism, which is taken into the body in the cecal worm egg picked up from contaminated soil or food.

The principal symptoms are drooping and decline feeding, and the death rate soon becomes very high if preventative measures are not adopted. There is no practical treatment available, Hyman says, but regular worming with phenothiazine or tobacco dust has proved beneficial as a preventative.

Phenothiazine powder is given on the basis of one pound to 1,000 birds. It is easily mixed by placing one pound of the drug in 60 pounds of mash and feeding six pounds of the mixture to each 100 birds for two days. Tobacco dust at the rate of two to four per cent easily is given for one to two weeks. If possible, move the birds to clean ground and isolate the sick.

Another disease, trichomoniasis, closely resembles blackhead. It also is caused by a one-cell organism picked up directly from soil, water, litter and feed, and effects all ages. Hyman says he has observed more of it this year than any other disease, and losses have been large. The birds show generalized weakness and droopiness when attacked, along with watery, foamy, whitish diarrhea. Treatment, he adds, is strictly a problem of sanitation. By administering a mixture of two ounces of copper sulphate (bluestone) in one pint vinegar, and moving the birds if possible, good results can be expected. The mixture should be given in quantities of one tablespoonful to each gallon of drinking water in a non-metal container for four or five days.

QUALITY MERCHANDISE

YOU CANNOT WIN Adolf... IF

You do not have to wear a uniform to render important service to your country during this war. It requires 18 men behind the lines, working with all their might at production tasks, to keep one man fighting at the front.

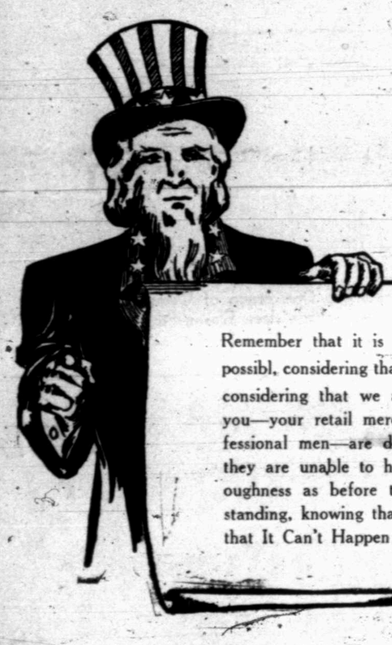

You are needed! Uncle Sam wants every man and every woman in all walks of life to get busy with unabated vigor to produce more . . . to help amass such an overwhelming supply of everything—guns, ships, tanks, planes, ammunition, food clothing, supplies, that Adolf and his crowd will gasp in awe at such colossal achievement.

You can help by putting all that you have into your job, whatever you are doing. You see, if every individual did his job just a little better, produced just a little more, the nation-wide collective total would be so great that it would shatter Adolf's dream of conquering the world and of robbing us of the things that we cherish most—free religious worship, free speech, free thought, free action. We must remain free to continue our way of life unhampered by the brutal whims of a mad man.

You must not fail Uncle Sam in this crisis. You are a more important person now than ever before. Think what would happen if every American, not in the armed forces, assumed that our government would get the job done without his help! Well, there just wouldn't be an Uncle Sam, would there? And this thought is just too terrible to contemplate, isn't it? Resolve not to let him down now, when he needs you most . . . when you have a chance to prove that you are worthy to be called a real American.

Conserve on everything, especially those things essential to our armament program, but do not deny yourself the things that you require to carry on life as normally as possible, considering that we are at war. Be a good American. Buy all of the Defense Bonds and Stamps that you can.

No, Adolf cannot win, if every American does his part.

Remember that it is our patriotic duty to carry on as normally as possibl, considering that we are at war. Remember that those who serve considering that we aree at war. Remember that those who serve you—your retail merchants, your service institutions and your professional men—are doing all that they can. If, in some instances, they are unable to help you with the same completeness and thoroughness as before the war, bear with them with cheerful understanding, knowing that they are doing their level best. Keep in mind that It Can't Happen Here if we all do our part.

Our Duty:

To Fit Them To Fight . . .

Our boys—your sons, your husbands, your brothers, your grandsons—are going to the front to do your fighting for you. You want them fitted to fight, don't you? We cannot do for them what they will do for us. To them we will owe our liberty and all of the fine things that go with living in free America.

The least that we can do is to make certain that they are fully armed, well fed and adequately clothed. It is our duty to bend our efforts and our resources to help supply them in such quantity that they will not want for a single thing. Let's get busy—work harder, buy all of the War Bonds and Stamps that we possibly can buy.

10% OF INCOME IS OUR QUOTA IN WAR BONDS

YOU CANNOT WIN Adolf-- IF

You do not have to wear a uniform to render important service to your country during this war. It requires 18 men behind the lines, working with all their might at production tasks, to keep one man fighting at the front.

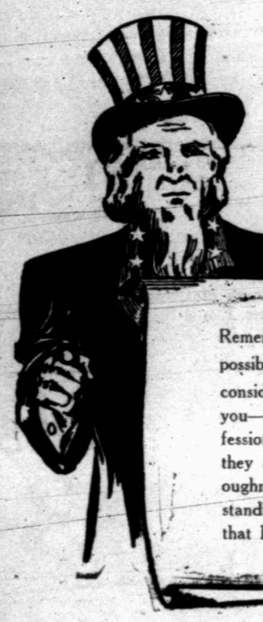

You are needed! Uncle Sam wants every man and every woman in all walks of life to get busy with unabated vigor to produce more . . . to help amass such an overwhelming supply of everything–guns, ships, tanks, planes, ammunition, food clothing, supplies, that Adolf and his crowd will gasp in awe at such colossal achievement.

You can help by putting all that you have into your job, whatever you are doing. You see, if every individual did his job just a little better, produced just a little more, the nation-wide collective total would be so great that it would shatter Adolf's dream of conquering the world and of robbing us of the things that we cherish most–free religious worship, free speech, free thought, free action. We must remain free to continue our way of life unhampered by the brutal whims of a mad man.

You must not fail Uncle Sam in this crisis. You are a more important person now than ever before. Think what would happen if every American, not in the armed forces, assumed that our government would get the job done without his help! Well, there just wouldn't be an Uncle Sam, would there? And this thought is just too terrible to contemplate, isn't it? Resolve not to let him down now, when he needs you most . . . when you have a chance to prove that you are worthy to be called a real American.

Conserve on everything, especially those things essential to our armament program, but do not deny yourself the things that you require to carry on life as normally as possible, considering that we are at war. Be a good American. Buy all of the Defense Bonds and Stamps that you can.

No, Adolf cannot win, if every American does his part.

Remember that it is our patriotic duty to carry on as normally as possibl, considering that we are at war. Remember that those who serve considering that we aree at war. Remember that those who serve you—your retail merchants, your service institutions and your professional men—are doing all that they can. If, in some instances, they are unable to help you with the same completeness and thoroughness as before the war, bear with them with cheerful understanding, knowing that they are doing their level best. Keep in mind that It Can't Happen Here if we all do our part.

Our Duty:

To Fit Them To Fight . . .

Our boys—your sons, your husbands, your brothers, your grandsons—are going to the front to do your fighting for you. You want them fitted to fight don't you? We cannot do for them what they will do for us. To them we will owe our liberty and all of the fine things that go with living in free America.

The least that we can do is to make certain that they are fully armed, well fed and adequately clothed. It is our duty to bend our efforts and our resources to help supply them in such quantity that they will not want for a single thing. Let's get busy—work harder, buy all of the War Bonds and Stamps that we possibly can buy.

Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, being November 3, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the third day of November, 1942, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"For the Constitutional Amendment permitting the accounting officers of this State to draw and pay warrants for salaries to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education."

"Against the Constitutional Amendment permitting the accounting officers of this State to draw and pay warrants for salaries to officers of the United States Army or Navy who are assigned to duties in State Institutions of higher education."

Each voter shall scratch out one of said clauses in the ballots, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State, and the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of printing said proclamation and of holding said election. 9-4c

Hyman Scores a First

County Agent Edward S. Hyman rightfully scored a bulls-eye this week when he obtained, through untiring efforts, free cotton classification service for Scurry County farmers under terms of the Smith-Doxey Act. Had county farmers been privileged to avail themselves of this service during 1941, those who placed cotton in government loans would have saved approximately $3,000.

Scurry County farmers should not only feel grateful to Hyman for his success in securing the free classification service, but should fall in line 100 per cent this mall to have all their cotton classed by government experts. Cotton, in our war-time economy, is assuming a place of increasing importance, and we naturally want to see county farmers get all the extra points coming to them. With continued dry weather, the battle cry now is "hold that cotton field by keeping it plowed!" With even moderate rains during August, the county stands a good chance to harvest an average cotton crop this year.

Buy Bonds Now

Why not strain a point, Mr. and Mrs Scurry County Citizen, to buy those extra war bonds and stamps now? Those bonds and stamps you've been planning to buy, as a sort of extra insurance, may well help in turning the battle tide in America's favor. Let's reach our 1942 bond quota before Thanksgiving. Is that a date with a destiny?

Declining Infant Mortality

According to a statement released this week by Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, the state's infant mortality rate has reached the lowest level in the history of Texas—a sharp and happy contrast to the increasing infant mortality rates in the countries of Europe. Reduction of the rate of infant deaths in the state during the past year has been phenomenal, Cox points out. During the past three years only two states had infant mortality rates exceeding Texas, and figures gathered this year show 10 states with rates in excess of those reported in the Lone Star State.

There really isn't, as the State Health Department stresses, any need for mothers and babies to die, when medical science, with vast pools of medical knowledge at command, can do more for infants and mothers than at any time in history. Now that Texas has achieved its present goal, we hope the State Department of Health continues the battle until our infant mortality rate is the nation's lowest.

Editorial of the Week

SABOTAGE MUST GO

We are a peculiar people in America. We arrest Nazi spies who were landed on our shores to perpetrate their acts of sabotage and eight of them are now on trial for their lives in an army court.

The spies, less than a dozen of them, could have caused great damage, no doubt, but it is not likely that they could have caused as much as a thousand or two thousand workers in our factories who walk out and strike on one pretext or another.

What can we be thinking about when we allow organized groups like these, people who are supposed to be just like the rest of the good Americans, to tie up or seriously hamper war production programs?

If war production is stopped isn't it just as bad for one group to stop it as another?

When the CIO and AFL, through their national organizations, gave solemn promise that there would be no more strikes in war industries, the American people took the leaders' word as their bond. They believed that there would be no more such strikes.

Sabotage should not be tolerated—no matter who the saboteurs!—The San Marcos Record.

Cheering news for war bond and stamp sales boards is contained in a prediction from the U. S. Treasury that sale of both bonds and stamps will pick up sharply after the end of summer. . . . It is believed many people have cut into savings accounts for summer vacations—probably the last vacation many will thoroughly enjoy for the war's duration. . . . Too, the treasury is cooking up a lot of publicity that is expected to up the sale of the vitally necessary war bonds and defense stamps. . . . This war, the most costly in the history of the world, is expected to take additional billions of dollars before the peace is won, we have not yet dreamed about—billions for postwar reconstruction and setting up of international trade channels again.

We're still having to face the fact that ships of Allied nations are being sunk faster by Axis powers than they can be built. . . . The U. S. Maritime Commission, U. S. Navy and other agencies have proposed many remedies for the situation, but cannot hope to break anywhere near even as long as Nazi submarines keep sinking ships on the Gulf Coast and all across the Atlantic. . . . Plans are being revived for sending huge cargo airplanes across the oceans of the world, but this plan—if practical—would involve expenditure of billions of dollars.

Scurry County politics, despite the heat of several primary races, were kept on an above-board, above-criticism level, for which The Times wants to say: People who campaign for office in Scurry County are among the best in the world!

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

"America's farmers are giving their answers to Hitler by producing in greater abundance than ever before," B. F. Vance, chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture War Board, said this week in commenting on the recent USDA crop report. . . . "Here in Texas," the war board official continued, "we've talked a lot about what our farmers are doing in agricultural production. . . . I think the crop report affords ample evidence that Texas farmers aren't the only ones who are getting the food production job done in a big way. . . . Texas farmers have contributed their share towards getting these production records, especially in rice and peanuts—two of the principal crops farmers of the state have been asked to increase."

While administration leaders in Washington admitted this week the Russian situation is gravely serious, Roosevelt attaches are not particularly "in the dumps" over a long-range outlook of the war. . . . It's freely admitted that the Nazis are taking Rostov and Stalingrad, occupying the Krasnodar oil fields and otherwise causing Russia darker hours than have been conceived to this day, but the long, bitter winter may alter the course of battle for the hard pressed Soviets. . . . Too, a Jap stab in Russia's back may alter the whole course of the war, since such a move would make the need of a second front in Europe mandatory now.

As predicted in this column several weeks ago, expected rationing of 15 or more commodities will be announced before too long by the Office of Price Administration. . . . One will hear very little about the matter, since OPA is carefully guarding the list of items to prevent a heavy run by consumers before rationing machinery is set up. . . . Leon Henderson, as chief of the OPA, seems to be getting his way with Congress on price ceilings and subsidies—since the average layman blames Congress—rather than Henderson—when something goes wrong with our economic setup.

☆

So much has been said in song and verse about the poor alimony payers, it's comforting to know that this class of people will get a deserved break during the next six months. . . . Since a U. S. Treasury survey shows that income taxes, plus alimony, exceeds 100 per cent of income in hundreds of instances a new plan will be tried to collect taxes from the persons who receive alimony payments. . . . The new tax bill, in fact, bears out this new trend in taxing alimony payments, and will give Americans several things to think about they previously haven't considered. . . . With such a bill on the statute books, those grand, time-tested ties of marriage may not be so bad after all.

☆

The War Production Board is genuinely worried about means of keeping intact our present distribution system. . . . With an increasing number of retailers and wholesalers forced out of business because of lack of goods, WPB officials see a critical postwar period ahead—a problem that could prove complicated in trying to distribute vast amounts of consumer articles. . . . Retailers and wholesalers being forced out of business are entering other lines of work that will prove permanent in numerous instances, and getting the boys "back in line" after the war may prove a major headache.

☆

The nation's junk and scrap heaps are arousing considerable worry among United States citizens in all parts of the nation, who are demanding to know why metals so accumulated are not being moved to war plant smelters. . . . Plea is made by the War Production Board that lack of transportation is causing delayed shipments of junk and scrap, but this argument is thin when one considers that junk iron could be moved easily enough if a high priority rating were given purchasers of scrap. . . . Before the war is over, all available junk and scrap will go into the melting pots, but at present WPB officials are waiting to ascertain just what plants will need the scrap worst.

Despite appeals of a few senators for a tax policy for the duration, taxes for the federal government will be kept on a year to year basis. . . . By January, another tax bill will be coming up for consideration and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau will renew demands for joint mandatory returns on incomes for married couples, higher estate taxes and taxes from new sources which may prove quite jarring to the accepted American way of life. . . . Congress, conscious of the fact, taxes can become topheavy in a short while, is trying to figure out some means of easing the tax load after the war is over. . . . In other words, we will not try to pay off our public debt any time soon, congressmen predict, but will provide some way of stretching repayments over a long period of years.

☆

Discount rumors that a nation-wide meat shortage is just around the corner. . . . It is admitted by packers that pork will be short until fall, but at the moment supplies of beef and beef products are ample to care for this country's needs and lend-lease needs until the situation becomes many shades grayer. . . . Some talk is going the rounds, again, of "meatless days—" such as occurred in 1917—but a statement this week from the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicates no serious meat shortages will occur before early 1943—if then.

War Bonds to Be Sold in Area by Sweetwater PCA

J. C. Ezell, Snyder manager of the Sweetwatter Production Credit Association office, announced Tuesday that the production credit organization has been authorized by the U. S. Treasury to issue Series "E" war bonds.

Under the new arrangement, just approved by the association's board of directors, war bonds will be sold in the central office at Sweetwater and in the field offices located at Snyder, Colorado City, and Lamesa. The association, serving 1,285 farmers and ranchers in Nolan, Fisher, Scurry, Borden and Dawson counties has sold war stamps to members and other farmers in this vicinity during several [illegible] months.

"Because many farmers in this part of the State," reports Berry, secretary-treasurer, "have inquired about buying war bonds through our association, the board of directors has agreed to make this service available. Our members and their neighbors are realizing greater incomes as they increase production of needed farm items. With this excess income, they are purchasing war stamps and bonds — actually helping themselves by building up their own financial security for the future."

Through monthly reports to the Federal Reserve Bank, each county will receive credit on its quota for bonds bought through the association by members who reside in the county, regardless of the town where the bonds are issued, Ezell concluded.

Loan Group Keep Interest Rates Down

Farmers and ranchmen of this area served by the Snyder National Farm Loan Association will save approximately $57,270 during the next two years through continued low interest rates on Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans, Hugh Boren, secretary-treasurer of the association, reports.

The saving, Boren explains, results from legislation recently passed by Congress, which continues through June 30, 1944, the three and one-half per cent interest rate on long-term Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans.

Snyder's NFLA has approximately $2,000,000 in loans outstanding, serving some 750 farmers and ranchers in this trade territory, Boren concluded.

W. Rhea Injured During Fire Run Early This Week

Snyder's volunteer fire department answered a call Tuesday afternoon, 1:40 o'clock, to the Gulf Service Station, one block north of the square on Avenue S, when a car became ignited. Damage was listed as slight.

Unhappy aftermath to the fire call resulted when the car driven by Melvin Newton, city fire marshal and a volunteer fireman, struck a pedestrian, Will Rhea, 72, of Dermott, just east of Snyder National Bank, as Newton was going to the fire.

Eyewitnesses said Rhea apparently ignored the fire siren on a truck [illegible] passed, and ignored the horn on Newton's car when he stepped out into Avenue S, 20 or 30 feet north of the pedestrian crossing zone.

Newton slid his tires to avoid hitting Rhea and, aided by volunteers, rendered aid until a Maples ambulance arrived and took Rhea to a local hospital. The Dermott citizen, who sustained a broken right hip and broken right shoulder bone, was said Wednesday to be resting well.

Dunn Methodists Announce 10-Day Revival Services

Call to worship for the people of Dunn and surrounding communities was issued this week by Dunn community leaders, who announce the community's 10-day Methodist revival begins Friday evening, 9:15 o'clock, at the Dunn tabernacle.

Rev. Donovan R. Davidson of White Deer, well known Bible scholar and evangelist, will conduct the Dunn revival, and urges the people of Southern Scurry County to attend all services possible. Announcements concerning services and other features of the meeting will be made at the opening service. The meeting will continue through Sunday, August 9.

Mrs. John Keller has just returned from Dallas and Fort Worth, where she has been doing fall buying for The Hollywood Shop. Mrs. Keller states that many lovely and new lines have been created, and that ample supply of clothing will be available despite war-time regulations.

First Baptist Church Starts Revival 12th

Rev. Vernon F. Shaw, pastor of Snyder's First Baptist Church, directs the attention of church goers in this area to the regular summer revival meeting of the First Baptist Church, which begins Wednesday, August 12.

Rev. Shaw will do the preaching for the summer revival, and Rev. Clyde Hamilton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Vernon, will direct song services. Additional announcement concerning the revival will be released next week.

Through monthly reports to the Federal Reserve Bank, each county will receive credit on its quota for bonds bought through the association by members who reside in the county, regardless of the town where the bonds are issued, Ezell concluded.

Loan Group Keeping Interest Rates Down

Farmers and ranchmen of this area served by the Snyder National Farm Loan Association will save approximately $57,270 during the ne two years through continued low interest rates on Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans, Hugh Boren, secretary-treasurer of the association, reports.

The saving, Boren explains, results from legislation recently passed Congress, which continues through June 30, 1944, the three and one-half per cent interest rate on long-term Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans.

Snyder's NFLA has approximately $2,000,000 in loans outstanding, serving some 750 farmers and ranchers in this trade territory, Boren concluded.

W. Rhea Injured During Fire Run Early This Week

Snyder's volunteer fire department answered a call Tuesday afternoon, 1:40 o'clock, to the Gulf Service Station, one block north of the square on Avenue S, when a car became ignited. Damage was listed as slight.

Unhappy aftermath to the fire call resulted when the car driven by Melvin Newton, city fire marshal and a volunteer fireman, struck a pedestrian, Will Rhea, 72, of Dermott, just east of Snyder National Bank, as Newton was going to the fire.

Eyewitnesses said Rhea apparently ignored the fire siren on a truck that had just passed, and ignored the horn on Newton's car when he stepped out into Avenue S, 20 or 30 feet north of the pedestrian crossing one

N slid his tires to avoid Rhea and, aided by volun- s, rendered aid until a Maples ambulance arrived and took Rhea to a local hospital. The Dermott citizen, who sustained a broken right hip and broken right shoulder bone, was said Wednesday to be resting well.

Dunn Methodists Announce 10-Day Revival Services

Call to worship for the people of Dunn and surrounding communities was issued this week by Dunn community leaders, who announce the community's 10-day Methodist revival begins Friday evening, 9:15 o'clock, at the Dunn tabernacle.

Hyman Scores a First

County Agent Edward S. Hyman rightfully scored a bulls-eye this week when he obtained, through untiring efforts, free cotton classification service for Scurry County farmers under terms of the Smith-Doxey Act. Had county farmers been privileged to avail themselves of this service during 1941, those who placed cotton in government loans would have saved approximately $3,000.

Scurry County farmers should not only feel grateful to Hyman for his success in securing the free classification service, but should fall in line 100 per cent this mall to have all their cotton classed by government experts. Cotton, in our war-time economy, is assuming a place of increasing importance, and we naturally want to see county farmers get all the extra points coming to them. With continued dry weather, the battle cry now is "hold that cotton field by keeping it plowed!" With even moderate rains during August, the county stands a good chance to harvest an average cotton crop this year.

Buy Bonds Now

Why not strain a point, Mr. and Mrs Scurry County Citizen, to buy those extra war bonds and stamps now? Those bonds and stamps you've been planning to buy, as a sort of extra insurance, may well help in turning the battle tide in America's favor. Let's reach our 1942 bond quota before Thanksgiving. Is that a date with a destiny?

Declining Infant Mortality

According to a statement released this week by Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, the state's infant mortality rate has reached the lowest level in the history of Texas—a sharp and happy contrast to the increasing infant mortality rates in the countries of Europe. Reduction of the rate of infant deaths in the state during the past year has been phenomenal, Cox points out. During the past three years only two states had infant mortality rates exceeding Texas, and figures gathered this year show 10 states with rates in excess of those reported in the Lone Star State.

There really isn't, as the State Health Department stresses, any need for mothers and babies to die, when medical science, with vast pools of medical knowledge at command, can do more for infants and mothers than at any time in history. Now that Texas has achieved its present goal, we hope the State Department of Health continues the battle until our infant mortality rate is the nation's lowest.

SABOTAGE MUST GO

We are a peculiar people in America. We arrest Nazi spies who were landed on our shores to perpetrate their acts of sabotage and eight of them are now on trial for their lives in an army court.

The spies, less than a dozen of them, could have caused great damage, no doubt, but it is not likely that they could have caused as much as a thousand or two thousand workers in our factories who walk out and strike on one pretext or another.

What can we be thinking about when we allow organized groups like these, people who are supposed to be just like the rest of the good Americans, to tie up or seriously hamper war production programs?

If war production is stopped isn't it just as bad for one group to stop it as another?

When the CIO and AFL, through their national organizations, gave solemn promise that there would be no more strikes in war industries, the American people took the leaders' word as their bond. They believed that there would be no more such strikes.

Sabotage should not be tolerated—no matter who the saboteurs!—The San Marcos Record.

Cheering news for war bond and stamp sales boards is contained in a prediction from the U. S. Treasury that sale of both bonds and stamps will pick up sharply after the end of summer. . . . It is believed many people have cut into savings accounts for summer vacations—probably the last vacation many will thoroughly enjoy for the war's duration. . . . Too, the treasury is cooking up a lot of publicity that is expected to up the sale of the vitally necessary war bonds and defense stamps. . . . This war, the most costly in the history of the world, is expected to take additional billions of dollars before the peace is won, we have not yet dreamed about—billions for postwar reconstruction and setting up of international trade channels again.

We're still having to face the fact that ships of Allied nations are being sunk faster by Axis powers than they can be built. . . . The U. S. Maritime Commission, U. S. Navy and other agencies have proposed many remedies for the situation, but cannot hope to break anywhere near even as long as Nazi submarines keep sinking ships on the Gulf Coast and all across the Atlantic. . . . Plans are being revived for sending huge cargo airplanes across the oceans of the world, but this plan—if practical—would involve expenditure of billions of dollars.

Scurry County politics, despite the heat of several primary races, were kept on an above-board, above-criticism level, for which The Times wants to say: People who campaign for office in Scurry County are among the best in the world!

Current Comment

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

"America's farmers are giving their answers to Hitler by producing in greater abundance than ever before," B. P. Vance, chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture War Board, said this week in commenting on the recent USDA crop report. . . . "Here in Texas," the war board official continued, "we've talked a lot about what our farmers are doing in agricultural production. . . . I think the crop report affords ample evidence that Texas farmers aren't the only ones who are getting the food production job done in a big way. . . . Texas farmers have contributed their share towards getting these production records, especially in rice and peanuts—two of the principal crops farmers of the state have been asked to increase."

While administration leaders in Washington admitted this week the Russian situation is gravely serious, Roosevelt attaches are not particularly "in the dumps" over a long-range outlook of the war. . . . It's freely admitted that the Nazis are taking Rostov and Stalingrad, occupying the Krasnodar oil fields and otherwise causing Russia darker hours than have been conceived to this day, but the long, bitter winter may alter the course of battle for the hard pressed Soviets. . . . Too, a Jap stab in Russia's back may alter the whole course of the war, since such a move would make the need of a second front in Europe mandatory now.

As predicted in this column several weeks ago, expected rationing of 15 or more commodities will be announced before too long by the Office of Price Administration. . . . One will hear very little about the matter, since OPA is carefully guarding the list of items to prevent a heavy run by consumers before rationing machinery is set up. . . . Leon Henderson, as chief of the OPA, seems to be getting his way with Congress on price ceilings and subsidies—since the average layman blames Congress—rather than Henderson—when something goes wrong with our economic setup.

☆

So much has been said in song and verse about the poor alimony payers, it's comforting to know that this class of people will get a deserved break during the next six months. . . . Since a U. S. Treasury survey shows that income taxes, plus alimony, exceeds 100 per cent of income in hundreds of instances a new plan will be tried to collect taxes from the persons who receive alimony payments. . . . The new tax bill, in fact, bears out this new trend in taxing alimony payments, and will give Americans several things to think about they previously haven't considered. . . . With such a bill on the statute books, those grand, time-tested ties of marriage may not be so bad after all.

☆

The War Production Board is genuinely worried about means of keeping intact our present distribution system. . . . With an increasing number of retailers and wholesalers forced out of business because of lack of goods, WPB officials see a critical postwar period ahead—a problem that could prove complicated in trying to distribute vast amounts of consumer articles. . . . Retailers and wholesalers being forced out of business are entering other lines of work that will prove permanent in numerous instances, and getting the boys "back in line" after the war may prove a major headache.

☆

The nation's junk and scrap heaps are arousing considerable worry among United States citizens in all parts of the nation, who are demanding to know why metals so accumulated are not being moved to war plant smelters. . . . Plea is made by the War Production Board that lack of transportation is causing delayed shipments of junk and scrap, but this argument is thin when one considers that junk iron could be moved easily enough if a high priority rating were given purchasers of scrap. . . . Before the war is over, all available junk and scrap will go into the melting pots, but at present WPB officials are waiting to ascertain just what plants will need the scrap worst.

Despite appeals of a few senators for a tax policy for the duration, taxes for the federal government will be kept on a year to year basis. . . . By January, another tax bill will be coming up for consideration and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau will renew demands for joint mandatory returns on incomes for married couples, higher estate taxes and taxes from new sources which may prove quite jarring to the accepted American way of life. . . . Congress, conscious of the fact, taxes can become topheavy in a short while, is trying to figure out some means of easing the tax load after the war is over. . . . In other words, we will not try to pay off our public debt any time soon, congressmen predict, but will provide some way of stretching repayments over a long period of years.

☆

Discount rumors that a nation-wide meat shortage is just around the corner. . . . It is admitted by packers that pork will be short until fall, but at the moment supplies of beef and beef products are ample to care for this country's needs and lend-lease needs until the situation becomes many shades grayer. . . . Some talk is going the rounds, again, of "meatless days—" such as occurred in 1917—but a statement this week from the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicates no serious meat shortages will occur before early 1943—if then.

War Bonds to Be Sold in Area by Sweetwater PCA

J. C. Ezell, Snyder manager of the Sweetwatter Production Credit Association office, announced Tuesday that the production credit organization has been authorized by the U. S. Treasury to issue Series "E" war bonds.

Under the new arrangement, just approved by the association's board of directors, war bonds will be sold in the central office at Sweetwater and in the field offices located at Snyder, Colorado City, and Lamesa. The association, serving 1,285 farmers and ranchers in Nolan, Fisher, Scurry, Borden and Dawson counties has sold war stamps to members and other farmers in this vicinity during the past nine months.

"Because many farmers in this part of the State," reports Berry, secretary-treasurer, "have inquired about buying war bonds through our association, the board of directors has agreed to make this service available. Our members and their neighbors are realizing greater incomes as they increase production of needed farm items. With this excess income, they are purchasing war stamps and bonds — actually helping themselves by building up their own financial security for the future."

Through monthly reports to the Federal Reserve Bank, each county will receive credit on its quota for bonds bought through the association by members who reside in the county, regardless of the town where the bonds are issued, Ezell concluded.

Loan Group Keeping Interest Rates Down

Farmers and ranchmen of this area served by the Snyder National Farm Loan Association will save approximately $57,270 during the next two years through continued low interest rates on Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans, Hugh Boren, secretary-treasurer of the association, reports.

The saving, Boren explains, results from legislation recently passed by Congress, which continues through June 30, 1944, the three and one-half per cent interest rate on long-term Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans.

Snyder's NFLA has approximately $2,000,000 in loans outstanding, serving some 750 farmers and ranchers in this trade territory, Boren concluded.

Hyman Scores a First

County Agent Edward S. Hyman rightfully scored a bulls-eye this week when he obtained, through untiring efforts, free cotton classification service for Scurry County farmers under terms of the Smith-Doxey Act. Had county farmers been privileged to avail themselves of this service during 1941, those who placed cotton in government loans would have saved approximately $3,000.

Scurry County farmers should not only feel grateful to Hyman for his success in securing the free classification service, but should fall in line 100 per cent this mall to have all their cotton classed by government experts. Cotton, in our war-time economy, is assuming a place of increasing importance, and we naturally want to see county farmers get all the extra points coming to them. With continued dry weather, the battle cry now is "hold that cotton field by keeping it plowed!" With even moderate rains during August, the county stands a good chance to harvest an average cotton crop this year.

Buy Bonds Now

Why not strain a point, Mr. and Mrs Scurry County Citizen, to buy those extra war bonds and stamps now? Those bonds and stamps you've been planning to buy, as a sort of extra insurance, may well help in turning the battle tide in America's favor. Let's reach our 1942 bond quota before Thanksgiving. Is that a date with a destiny?

Declining Infant Mortality

According to a statement released this week by Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, the state's infant mortality rate has reached the lowest level in the history of Texas—a sharp and happy contrast to the increasing infant mortality rates in the countries of Europe. Reduction of the rate of infant deaths in the state during the past year has been phenomenal, Cox points out. During the past three years only two states had infant mortality rates exceeding Texas, and figures gathered this year show 10 states with rates in excess of those reported in the Lone Star State.

There really isn't, as the State Health Department stresses, any need for mothers and babies to die, when medical science, with vast pools of medical knowledge at command, can do more for infants and mothers than at any time in history. Now that Texas has achieved its present goal, we hope the State Department of Health continues the battle until our infant mortality rate is the nation's lowest.

Editorial of the Week

SABOTAGE MUST GO

We are a peculiar people in America. We arrest Nazi spies who were landed on our shores to perpetrate their acts of sabotage and eight of them are now on trial for their lives in an army court. . .

The spies, less than a dozen of them, could have caused great damage, no doubt, but it is not likely that they could have caused as much as a thousand or two thousand workers in our factories who walk out and strike on one pretext or another.

What can we be thinking about when we allow organized groups like these, people who are supposed to be just like the rest of the good Americans, to tie up or seriously hamper war production programs?

If war production is stopped isn't it just as bad for one group to stop it as another?

When the CIO and AFL, through their national organizations, gave solemn promise that there would be no more strikes in war industries, the American people took the leaders' word as their bond. They believed that there would be no more such strikes.

Sabotage should not be tolerated—no matter who the saboteurs!—The San Marcos Record.

Cheering news for war bond and stamp sales boards is contained in a prediction from the U. S. Treasury that sale of both bonds and stamps will pick up sharply after the end of summer. . . . It is believed many people have cut into savings accounts for summer vacations—probably the last vacation many will thoroughly enjoy for the war's duration. . . . Too, the treasury is cooking up a lot of publicity that is expected to up the sale of the vitally necessary war bonds and defense stamps. . . . This war, the most costly in the history of the world, is expected to take additional billions of dollars before the peace is won, we have not yet dreamed about—billions for postwar reconstruction and setting up of international trade channels again.

We're still having to face the fact that ships of Allied nations are being sunk faster by Axis powers than they can be built. . . . The U. S. Maritime Commission, U. S. Navy and other agencies have proposed many remedies for the situation, but cannot hope to break anywhere near even as long as Nazi submarines keep sinking ships on the Gulf Coast and all across the Atlantic. . . . Plans are being revived for sending huge cargo airplanes across the oceans of the world, but this plan—if practical—would involve expenditure of billions of dollars.

Scurry County politics, despite the heat of several primary races, were kept on an above-board, above-criticism level, for which The Times wants to say: People who campaign for office in Scurry County are among the best in the world!

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

"America's farmers are giving their answers to Hitler by producing in greater abundance than ever before," B. F. Vance, chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture War Board, said this week in commenting on the recent USDA crop report. . . . "Here in Texas," the war board official continued, "we've talked a lot about what our farmers are doing in agricultural production. . . . I think the crop report affords ample evidence that Texas farmers aren't the only ones who are getting the food production job done in a big way. . . . Texas farmers have contributed their share towards getting these production records, especially in rice and peanuts—two of the principal crops farmers of the state have been asked to increase."

While administration leaders in Washington admitted this week the Russian situation is gravely serious, Roosevelt attaches are not particularly "in the dumps" over a long-range outlook of the war. . . . It's freely admitted that the Nazis are taking Rostov and Stalingrad, occupying the Krasnodar oil fields and otherwise causing Russia darker hours than have been conceived to this day, but the long, bitter winter may alter the course of battle for the hard pressed Soviets. . . . Too, a Jap stab in Russia's back may alter the whole course of the war, since such a move would make the need of a second front in Europe mandatory now.

As predicted in this column several weeks ago, expected rationing of 15 or more commodities will be announced before too long by the Office of Price Administration. . . . One will hear very little about the matter, since OPA is carefully guarding the list of items to prevent a heavy run by consumers before rationing machinery is set up. . . . Leon Henderson, as chief of the OPA, seems to be getting his way with Congress on price ceilings and subsidies—since the average layman blames Congress—rather than Henderson—when something goes wrong with our economic setup.

☆

So much has been said in song and verse about the poor alimony payers, it's comforting to know that this class of people will get a deserved break during the next six months. . . . Since a U. S. Treasury survey shows that income taxes, plus alimony, exceeds 100 per cent of income in hundreds of instances a new plan will be tried to collect taxes from the persons who receive alimony payments. . . . The new tax bill, in fact, bears out this new trend in taxing alimony payments, and will give Americans several things to think about they previously haven't considered. . . . With such a bill on the statute books, those grand, time-tested ties of marriage may not be so bad after all.

☆

The War Production Board is genuinely worried about means of keeping intact our present distribution system. . . . With an increasing number of retailers and wholesalers forced out of business because of lack of goods, WPB officials see a critical postwar period ahead—a problem that could prove complicated in trying to distribute vast amounts of consumer articles. . . . Retailers and wholesalers being forced out of business are entering other lines of work that will prove permanent in numerous instances, and getting the boys "back in line" after the war may prove a major headache.

☆

The nation's junk and scrap heaps are arousing considerable worry among United States citizens in all parts of the nation, who are demanding to know why metals so accumulated are not being moved to war plant smelters. . . . Plea is made by the War Production Board that lack of transportation is causing delayed shipments of junk and scrap, but this argument is thin when one considers that junk iron could be moved easily enough if a high priority rating were given purchasers of scrap. . . . Before the war is over, all available junk and scrap will go into the melting pots, but at present WPB officials are waiting to ascertain just what plants will need the scrap worst.

☆

Despite appeals of a few senators for a tax policy for the duration, taxes for the federal government will be kept on a year to year basis. . . . By January, another tax bill will be coming up for consideration and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau will renew demands for joint mandatory returns on incomes for married couples, higher estate taxes and taxes from new sources which may prove quite jarring to the accepted American way of life. . . . Congress, conscious of the fact, taxes can become topheavy in a short while, is trying to figure out some means of easing the tax load after the war is over. . . . In other words, we will not try to pay off our public debt any time soon, congressmen predict, but will provide some way of stretching repayments over a long period of years.

☆

Discount rumors that a nation-wide meat shortage is just around the corner. . . . It is admitted by packers that pork will be short until fall, but at the moment supplies of beef and beef products are ample to care for this country's needs and lend-lease needs until the situation becomes many shades grayer. . . . Some talk is going the rounds, again, of "meatless days—" such as occurred in 1917—but a statement this week from the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicates no serious meat shortages will occur before early 1943—if then.

War Bonds to Be Sold in Area by Sweetwater PCA

J. C. Ezell, Snyder manager of the Sweetwatter Production Credit Association office, announced Tuesday that the production credit organization has been authorized by the U. S. Treasury to issue Series "E" war bonds.

Under the new arrangement, just approved by the association's board of directors, war bonds will be sold in the central office at Sweetwater and in the field offices located at Snyder, Colgrado City, and Lamesa. The association, serving 1,285 farmers and ranchers in Nolan, Fisher, Scurry, Borden and Dawson counties has sold war stamps to members and other farmers in this vicinity during the past nine months.

"Because many farmers in this part of the State," reports Berry, secretary-treasurer, "have inquired about buying war bonds through our association, the board of directors has agreed to make this service available. Our members and their neighbors are realizing greater incomes as they increase production of needed farm items. With this excess income, they are purchasing war stamps and bonds — actually helping themselves by building up their own financial security for the future."

Through monthly reports to the Federal Reserve Bank, each county will receive credit on its quota for bonds bought through the association by members who reside in the county, regardless of the town where the bonds are issued, Ezell concluded.

Loan Group Keeping Interest Rates Down

Farmers and ranchmen of this area served by the Snyder National Farm Loan Association will save approximately $57,270 during the next two years through continued low interest rates on Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans, Hugh Boren, secretary-treasurer of the association, reports.

The saving, Boren explains, results from legislation recently passed Congress, which continues through June 30, 1944, the three and one-half per cent interest rate on long-term Federal Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans.

Snyder's NFLA has approximately $2,000,000 in loans outstanding, serving some 750 farmers and ranchers in this trade territory, Boren concluded.

W. Rhea Injured During Fire Run Early This Week

Snyder's volunteer fire department, answered a call Tuesday afternoon, 1:40 o'clock, to the Gulf Service Station, one block north of the square on Avenue S, when a car became ignited. Damage was listed as slight.

Unhappy aftermath to the fire call resulted when the car driven by Melvin Newton, city fire marshal and a volunteer fireman, struck a pedestrian, Will Rhea, 72, of Dermott, just east of Snyder National Bank, as Newton was going to the fire.

Eyewitnesses said Rhea apparently ignored the fire siren on a truck that had just passed, and ignored the horn on Newton's car when he stepped out into Avenue S, 20 or 30 feet north of the pedestrian crossing one

N slid his tires to avoid Rhea and, aided by volun- rendered aid until a Maples ambulance arrived and took Rhea to a local hospital. The Dermott citizen, who sustained a broken right hip and broken right shoulder bone, was said Wednesday to be resting well.

Dunn Methodists Announce 10-Day Revival Services

Call to worship for the people of Dunn and surrounding communities was issued this week by Dunn community leaders, who announce the community's 10-day Methodist revival begins Friday evening, 9:15 o'clock, at the Dunn tabernacle.

Rev. Donovan R. Davidson of White Deer, well known Bible scholar and evangelist, will conduct the Dunn revival, and urges the people of Southern Scurry County to attend all services possible. Announcements concerning services and other features of the meeting will be made at the opening service. The meeting will continue through Sunday, August 9.

Mrs. John Keller has just returned from Dallas and Fort Worth, where she has been doing fall marketing for The Hollywood Shop. Mrs. Keller states that many lovely and new lines have been created, and that ample supply of clothing will be available despite wartime regulations.

First Baptist Church Starts Revival 12th

Rev. Vernon F. Shaw, pastor of Snyder's First Baptist Church, directs the attention of church goers in this area to the regular summer revival meeting of the First Baptist Church, which begins Wednesday, August 12.

Rev. Shaw will do the preaching for the summer revival, and Rev. Clyde Hamilton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Vernon, will direct song services. Additional announcement concerning the revival will be released next week.
